

Walter Simpson Wins Annual Kent County Trapshooting Trophy

Has Perfect Score on 50 Targets; Albert Simpson, Second; Shoot Followed by Banquet in Evening

Walter Simpson Jr., of Harrington, won the trophy in the third annual Kent County championship shoot here Wednesday afternoon with a perfect score on 50 targets. His brother, Albert Simpson, was second with 49x50. Gayle Smith was third with 48x50. The shoot was followed by a banquet in the evening at the Firehouse.

Scores were excellent, notwithstanding the foggy day. Guests from Wilmington and Maryland also chatted up "dandy" scores, though the visitors were not eligible to participate in the county championship.

Seventy-three persons took part in the shoot. Thirty-six persons formed a gold team, with a score of 1550, with a like number forming a blue team, with a score of 1611. T. Brinton Holloway's score was divided evenly between the teams. Gayle B. Smith was captain of the gold team, while Randall Hill captured the blue team.

Brinton Holloway was toastmaster at the following banquet. At the speakers table were the Rev. J. Harry Wright, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Richards, Jacob Williams, Brinton Holloway, Martin Grier, Randall Hill, Dewitt Tatman, T. C. Marshall Jr., of Yorklyn; Clarence Walker, of Wilmington, and Jack Holloway.

The Rev. Wright delivered the invocation. After the banquet, the toastmaster told the guests the shoot was the first registered one at the Harrington Gun Club, the hosts.

After the serving, Toastmaster Holloway introduced the following who made short talks: Martin Grier, president of the Harrington Gun Club; Scorekeeper Henry Winchester, of Wilmington, who has been shooting here since 1913 and who told of his matches with L. R. Beauchamp and E. S. Richards, both former state champions; Clarence Walker, of Wilmington, who has also been coming here since 1913; Norman Wright, Wilmington; F. L. Perschke, president of the Wilmington Trapshooting Association; T. C. Marshall Sr., and T. C. Marshall Jr., of Yorklyn; E. C. Richards, Dewitt Tatman, secretary of the Harrington Gun Club, Jacob Williams, president of the Kent & Sussex Fair and the Kent & Sussex Racing Association. Izzy Kell, of Wilmington, presented the trophy to Simpson on behalf of the Delaware State Trapshooting Association. Kell also announced that the New Castle County championship shoot would be held at Yorklyn Mon., April 30, with the Sussex County championship shoot at Selbyville Sat., May 21. He added that the state championship, W. T. A., would be held June 11-12, and that the shoot would comprise a 200 single 16 yard, a 100 handicap, and 50 pair doubles events.

Randall Hill president of the Harrington Gun Club last year, Gayle Smith, Jack Holloway, Charles Mason Sr., Charles Mitchell, of Remington Arms Company, were also introduced.

The guests devoted a moment of silent prayer to deceased members of the local gun club. Included were: Caleb Morris, Ferris Walters, George Stewart, L. P. Johnson, Jack Masten, Elijah White, and Ezekiel Ellingsworth whose widow attended the banquet.

Jack Holloway was in charge of the entertainment, which included several sport films shown by Harry Maag, of Dover.

The 50-target scores at the shoot, including those of participants from out of the county, were: W. Simpson, 50; D. E. Clendenning, 50; E. J. McGovern, 49; Dr. R. T. Swain, 49; A. Simpson, 49; W. R. Ewing, 49; N. A. Walls, 49; G. D. Baldwin, 49; G. B. Smith, 48; J. Rigg, 48; C. Oberholzer, 48; N. A. Wright, 48; H. Winchester, 48; J. A. Ward, 48; K. Mathewson, 48; H. H. Prettyman, 47; R. H. Stafford, 47; B. F. Crouch, 47; H. M. Anderson, 47; A. M. Martin, 47; I. Kell, 47; N. E. Wilcutts, 47; C. D. Clough, 47; R. Hill, 47; W. M. Grace, 47; E. J. Gore, 47; H. C. Clark, 47; J. R. Morgan, 46; R. Dawson, 46; P. Watkins, 46; D. T. Tatman, 46; P. W. Burke, 46; J. H. McGovern, 46; G. B. Ward, r., 46; J. F. Coleman, 45; S. E. Veasey, 45; J. (Continued on back page)

Farm Tillage Demonstration Wednesday

Plans Being Completed This Week for Affair At Harrington High School

Final plans for a farm tillage machinery demonstration at the Harrington School are being completed this week. The program is scheduled for Wednesday, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. at the farm next to the school. All interested persons are cordially invited to observe the new machines at work in the field. If the weather is bad the demonstrations will be postponed a week to Wednesday, April 27th.

Some of the equipment to be shown will be as follows:

1. The Kent County Soil Conservation Service will have a heavy grader to show how drainage ditches are formed, and how lands are cleared of brush.

2. John Andrews of Greenwood will show a number of models of Massey-Harris tractors and plows. He will also have on hand a Goble disc tiller which is designed to tear up brush and old hedge rows.

3. R. H. Stafford of Burrsville will have several pieces of International equipment on hand—various sizes and designs to fit different conditions.

4. Taylor's Hardware of Harrington will show John Deere equipment. Eddie Taylor says he has a disc tiller which should arouse a lot of attention for preparing ground quickly.

5. Wharton's Ford Agency of Milford will show the Ford line of equipment with the help of their distributors Gash-Stull Company of Chester, Pa. The Ford line is built around the tractor unit, and special equipment is provided for every farm job. Most of it is hydraulically operated so as to simplify working conditions. They expect to have three tractors on hand with 7 or 8 pieces of equipment. Opportunity will be provided to have those interested to operate the units in the afternoon.

6. Webb's Garage of Milford will show the new Ferguson tractor and related equipment.

7. Warrington Service Center of Harrington will exhibit some of the new Oliver line.

There may be one or two other makes of machinery shown although plans are not conclusive as of this date.

It should be emphasized that these demonstrations are arranged as an educational program to show by actual practice what these new machines will do. A real effort is being made to present actual farm conditions and to show good farm practices.

4-H, Homemaker's Short Course Dates Set at University

The annual Short Courses for 4-H members and homemakers will be held this June at the University of Delaware, it was disclosed today by Miss Jean Lee, state 4-H specialist, and Miss Gertrude Holloway, state home demonstration leader.

June 12 to 15 are the dates for the 4-H Short Courses, which will take place for the 28th year. Approximately 200 4-H Club members are expected during the three days of agricultural and home economics classes, discussions of community and world affairs, tours and recreation.

As the boys and girls pack up to go home on June 15, their mothers will be arriving for their three days of the Homemaker's Short Course, June 15 to 18. The program for the women will include daily reports on current world events, sessions on homemaking topics, a trip to Longwood Gardens, recreation and entertainment. More than 140 women attended last year's Short Course, and a similar number are anticipated this year. Program details will be completed and announced in the near future.

Mangrove Bark
Mangrove bark is important for tannin. The wood, which is hard, heavy, strong and durable, is used for lumber and for ship keels.

Green Valley Exhibit

Memorial Race Here to Honor Green Valley

Famous Pacer and Trotter Died Here and is Buried in Infield at Fairgrounds

The annual spring meet of the Kent & Sussex Racing Association opening at Harrington, Del., Wednesday, night, April 27, for 20 nights of pari-mutuel racing, will include at least eight memorial races for $1000 purses.

One such race will be the Green Valley Memorial Race in honor of the famed pacer and trotter, Green Valley, who died at Harrington June 8, last year, and was buried in the infield of the track.

Green Valley was bred by Bert Seden and was foaled in Indiana in 1931. The chestnut colt was named after "the green valleys" of Indiana.

He was the son of Single G, one of the nation's greatest racers, whose record was 1:58.5 made at the age of 13 years. The dam was Mary Todd, no record.

Green Valley was sold as a colt to Pearl Hungerford, Shelbyville, Ind., for only $210. Harry S. Stout, popular horseman at the local track, raced Green Valley for Mr. Hungerford. Under his tutelage, the chestnut paced a half-mile in 2:00 in 1939 when he was eight years old.

The race was a 2:10 pace, purse $1000. The outcome was: Single Stine, bm by Single G 1 3 8 1; Green Valley, chg by Single G 2 5 1 2; Hi Pat, brh by Pat Harvester, 5 1 3 3; Five other horses also started. Time: 2:00:4, 2:00:1/2, 2:01:4, 2:06.

Green Valley broke a leg in 1940 and was out of competition four years. Mr. Stout purchased the chestnut gelding in 1944 for $1000. He was staked in 13 events that year, started in 11 and won 8. In 1945 he paced in 2:07. He started trotting in 1946. In 13 starts he was never out of money. In 1947, at 16 years, he trotted to his record of 2:10.1.

Mr. Stout has been training at the Harrington track since 1921. Mr. and Mrs. Stout have wintered here six years. Mrs. Stout has a 6-year-old mare, a trotter, Joy Frisco. Mr. Stout has a black trotting mare, green, he recently purchased. He is also training Glendale Berry, a two-year-old pacer, for Ward Miller of Eastville, Va.

Knotts - Workman Engagement Noted

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Knotts announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabel Elaine to Mr. Harold Workman of Harrington, Del.

Miss Knotts is a graduate of Harrington Special School District and is employed by the Delaware Electric Cooperative, Inc. Mr. Workman, at present, is a senior at Harrington Special School District and plans to enter the field of radio and television upon graduation. He is a member of the National Guard. No wedding date has been set.

Uruguay's Economy

The economy of Uruguay is based on cattle and sheep raising. This country supplies 15 to 18 per cent of the world's exports in these fields.

Hoof Beats

Chester Bishop of Gorham, Maine moved out with five head including the good pacer Mose Hanover-2:05 and the old reliable trotter Briar Song. He is going back to campaign his stable through the Maine Circuit.

Elmer Shockley of Dover, has two head in the Eddie Myer Stable. These are Jose Dale McElwyn and Spento.

Warren Holmes added two new members to his string. These are both owned by Charles Hignutt of Seaford and are Topsy Scott and Lovely Miss.

There was plenty of activity over the week-end as the materials arrived for the new Steel Hub Rail and the officials lost no time in getting this installed. They also sanded the race track which is the finishing touch before the boys turn up for the word on April 27th. All indications are that Harrington will be one of the fastest half-mile ovals in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith moved their yearling son of Billy Direct out of Helena to the farm of Stanley Dancer in New Jersey where he will be pastured for the summer to grow and develop preparatory to being put in training in the fall. He is the last own brother to Direct Express and is named Express Direct.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cobb, who have been visiting relatives in Norway, Me. have returned to watch their son, Arthur B. Cobb, Jr., put their two-horse stable of Dynamite Hal and Fitzroy through their routine workouts.

C. P. Chappell, who wintered at Eastman, Ga. has arrived with ten head and Chappy says all are ready to race.

Charles Krier moved his eleven head to Roosevelt Raceway the past week where he plans to put the stake candidate through their fast workouts in anticipation of opening night which is May 6th.

Delaware Boy, a four-year-old in the stable of Mr. Saunders who recently underwent a very serious operation performed by Dr. Locke of Magnolia, is reported to be making satisfactory progress. Unfortunately this will keep him out of further training this season.

Conrad Ahl, Edward Kross and Willma Carl were week-end visitors at the track. Kross and Ahl have several head in the stable of Harry Craig and motored here from Albany, New York.

"Red" Scott, of Montgomery, N. Y., was here Tuesday and Saturday of last week. "Red" has a number of horse vans. He said last week that Earl Thomas would operate a couple of his vans from (Continued on inside page)

George Simon Ohm

German physicist George Simon Ohm (1789-1854) formulated in 1827 the law of electrical resistance that underlies all modern electrical theory and measurement. Science scoffed at him for 15 years. Recognition brought him out of long retirement and into overwork that hastened his death.

Skeleton Found By Fisherman

An attempt to identify parts of a human skeleton, including a skull, found 200 feet up the Simons Creek near Leipsic, Friday, will be made by state troopers at Dover and the FBI.

William Postles of Dover, who was fishing along the stream, discovered the skull and some body bones of a man. It is believed the man had been dead at least a year.

The skull and bones were taken to the station at Dover. The FBI will probably be requested to take measurements of the bone and skull to determine the age and probable build of the victim.

Athey Paces Chestertown Five to Decisive Win In Final Playoffs

Chestertown made a clean sweep in the Mar-Del Basketball League by defeating Denton, 55-41, Friday night at Chestertown in the deciding game of their three-game championship finals playoffs.

The win gave the Vets both the pennant and the playoff crown. Chestertown left little doubt as to the eventual outcome by taking the lead in the first period 13 to 7 and then staying in front to lead 23-16 at the half.

The Bobcats threatened in the third period but Ed Athey collected 11 of his 19 points to put the Vets back in front.

Athey was high for the winning five, while Ben Sheffield and Ben Prosen had 18 and 10 for the Bobcats.

Bill Mullineaux played a fine defensive game for the Vets, tying up Denton's scoring punch, Gran Diffe, and allowing him only one point.

Poppy Day Flowers Arrive From Hospital

"The poppies are here!" This is the word which flashed through the ranks of C. K. R. T. Post No. 7 Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary today, when a shipment of memorial poppies to be worn here on Poppy Day, May 28, arrived from Veterans Hospital, where they were made by disabled war veterans.

Members of the Auxiliary's Poppy Committee, headed by Mrs. Frances Penny, chairman, and including all Auxiliary members, will be assembled at the Legion Home. The box of poppies will be opened and the work of counting and arranging begun, to make them ready for the volunteer workers who will distribute them throughout the city on Poppy Day.

The poppies, made of crepe paper with wire stems, are exact replicas of the wild poppies which grew "between the crosses row on row" in the battle cemeteries in France and Belgium during World War I, Mrs. Penny explained.

"They were nature's floral tribute to those who died," she said, "and as soon as The American Legion and Auxiliary were organized after the war, we made them our memorial flower. When more young Americans gave their lives in Europe's poppy-studded fields in World War II, the poppy became their memorial flower, too, and it now signifies remembrance for America's war dead, no matter in what part of the world they gave their lives."

The poppies received here are the work of disabled veterans in the veterans hospital, where poppy making is directed by the ladies in the Department of the Auxiliary. The veterans not only earn badly needed money by making the little red flowers, but the employment is considered valuable as occupational therapy.

Judging of the poster contest was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frances Penny, Poppy Chairman. The judges were Major Earl Sylvester, Gooden Callaway, Commander, of C. K. R. T. Post No. 7 Mrs. Brinton Holloway, President of C. K. R. T. Post No. 7, Auxiliary and Mrs. Penny.

1st Prize of $5.00 was awarded to Henry Hill, 7th Grade.

2nd Prize of $3.00 to Melvin Smith, 8th Grade.

3rd Prize of $2.00 to Lucille Johnson, 6th Grade. All of Harrington Colored School.

These posters will be on display at a later date in the Cupid Ice Cream Store.

B. P. W. C. OFFICERS HOLD INSTALLATION

The Charter Dinner of the Harrington Business Professional Women's Club will be held Thursday, April 21, at 7:00 P. M. at the Firehouse.

The installation of officers will be held after the dinner.

Highway Chairman

J. Gordon Smith

Highway Board Elects Gordon Smith Chairman

He Succeeds Frank duPont Who Had Held Post 22 Years Formerly Lived in Harrington

Members of the State Highway Commission last week elected J. Gordon Smith, former Harringtonian now residing in Dover, as chairman, succeeding Frank V. duPont, who resigned from that post but remained a member of the commission. Mr. duPont's term expires May 1. Mr. Smith will serve as chairman until that date, when the commission will be reorganized.

The term of Robert N. Downs of near Wilmington also expires on May 1.

Mr. duPont, who had been chairman for 22 of the 27 years he had served on the commission explained his action in a letter to Gov. Elbert N. Carvel, in which he said:

"This action on my part is necessary in order that there may be no interruption in the chairmanship of the commission because of the embarrassment that such a vacancy would cause the department. There are numerous duties including the signing of vouchers, contracts, payrolls, etc., that are necessary for the functioning of the department. Immediately after my resignation as chairman, the members will elect my successor. This selection will, naturally, be made from those members whose term does not expire on May 1, 1949, to preclude any interruptions in the office of chairmanship."

The meeting of the commission was held at State Highway Police Headquarters on the DuPont Boulevard below Wilmington. Following the meeting, members of the commission went on a tour of inspection of the Delaware River Memorial Bridge, under construction at Pigeon Point. The tour started at the Marine Terminal where one of the huge caissons for the bridge foundations is being readied.

Mr. Smith has been vice-chairman of the Highway Commission 10 years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith, of Harrington, and was educated in Harrington schools. His father, a Democrat, is a former sheriff of Kent county.

The new chairman operates the Kent County Motor Company at Dover and Milford, and is also interested in an automobile agency in Wilmington.

He has taken a prominent part in the activities of the Kent & Sussex Fair Association and the Kent & Sussex Racing Association since their inception and is vice-president of both organizations. He is an owner of outstanding harness horses, among them being Emalou Hanover who, Mr. Smith said Monday, would race here during the coming meet.

Ex-Senator Tunnell To Address Democrats

Former United States Senator James M. Tunnell of Georgetown, will be the main speaker at the meeting of the Kent and Sussex Democratic Club to be held on Thursday night, April 21 in Pochontas Lodge Hall, East Second Street, Milford, it has been announced by Eldridge Y. Prettyman, President of the new organization. This club was organized at their first meeting in March and has already added more than one hundred members to its rolls.

Completion of the organization will be carried out at the forthcoming meeting when Former Mayor Edward C. Evans, Edward T. Warren, President of the club, W. Edward Walls and William Burke, who compose the constitution committee will submit the final draft of the Constitution and By-Laws.

Legislature Recesses Too Long, Says Carvel

Governor Terms Practice As "Most Unfortunate" When There is So Much Business Needing Attention

Governor Elbert N. Carvel terms as "most unfortunate", the practice of the present session of the Legislature in taking long recesses when there is so much business awaiting their attention on the Legislative calendars.

The Governor was referring to the recess taken by the session from Thursday of last week until Monday and then again from Monday until Thursday of this week.

"It will be the middle of April," the Governor stated, "before the members are in session again and if they were to resume their work at once upon their return they would hardly have time enough to act on some pending legislation without causing inconvenience and difficulty in some of the normal operation of the State government."

In this connection it was pointed out that during the month of April most of the school teachers make their decisions concerning the next school year and in many instances contracts are tendered to teachers by the various school boards during this month.

"With no action thus far on the budget, provisions for any increased revenue or adjustments to the teacher's salary schedule law, it would seem that it would be difficult for both the teachers and the school boards to contract for the next school year when they do not know what funds will be available for them", commented the Governor.

Concerning his recommendations to the General Assembly concerning revenue and expenditures, the Governor believes that the public generally is thoroughly acquainted with these matters, the reason for them and the improvements to be derived from them with the result that he had no more comment at this time concerning them.

Doris Masten To Wed B. R. Danna Saturday

In Asbury Methodist Church, Harrington, at 2:00 P. M., April 16, Miss Doris Josephine Masten, daughter of Mrs. Joseph A. Masten and the late Mr. Masten, Harrington, will become the bride of Mr. Benjamin Richard Danna, son of Mrs. Grace Danna and the late Mr. Danna of Woburn, Mass. The Rev. J. Harry Wright will officiate.

Mr. Ray Masten, of Edge Moor Gardens will give his sister in marriage. Mrs. Fred Marvel, Jr., of Milford, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Ray Masten, sister-in-law of Edge Moor Gardens, and Miss Angeline Kelly of Sundersville, Md. Little Miss Donna Fay Marvel, niece of the bride, of Milford, will be flower girl.

Mr. James Danna of Woburn, Mass., will be the best man. Ushers will be Mr. Fred Marvel, Jr. of Milford, and Mr. Harry Clark of Farnhurst, Del.

Mr. Melvin Brobst will play the wedding music. Vocal solos will be given by Mrs. Howell Hitchens. A reception will follow at the home of the bride.

After a wedding trip North, the couple will reside at Central Ave., and duPont Boulevard, Fernhook, Farnhurst, Del.

Chosen Friends Lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F.

District Deputy Grand Master Robert Garton and staff from Amity Lodge Camden, Del. installed into office of Chosen Friends Lodge I. O. O. F. No. 35 last Thursday evening.

The following members: Joseph B. Calloway, Noble Grand; W. R. Wechtenhiser, Recording Secretary; Roland Melvin, Jr., whose time is to serve in the office of Vice Grand was not present and will be installed at a later date by one of the Lodges own members.

Noble Grand Joseph Calloway appointed as his cabinet to serve under him until his term of office expires the following:

George Tatman, Warden; William Willis, Conductor; Alfred Sharp, Chaplain; Harry Rawling, L. S. to N. G.; George W. Swain, R. S. to N. G.; W. A. Swain, L. S. S.; W. A. Wheeler, R. S. S.; Thomas Bradley, R. S. to V. G.; Herbert Vongorres, L. S. to V. G.; L. W. Roe, Inside Guardian; Leon Porter, Outside Guardian.

Some very good talks were given by the D. D. G. M. and his staff on the merits of running the Lodge and making the members better Odd Fellows.

The Lodge has just recently installed in the front of the Hall on the upper story a Hugo Globe to be lighted in the Lodge in session, and are going to install at the entrance of the stairway of the hall another light to let any members, wanting to visit the Lodge while in session, know where the entrance is. This will read Lodge Hall Entrance I. O. O. F. and will probably be used by the other Lodges while in session.

THE HOME TOWN REPORTER IN WASHINGTON

WALTER SHEAD, WNU Correspondent

Postal Rates Boost

THERE IS EVERY indication that this congress will boost postal rates. The increase will not be the figure which the post office department has asked, and because of the influence of big publishers in the magazine field, it is likely that some small newspapers may stand the brunt of the increase unless they take measures early to build a back-fire with their congressmen.

There is no question but that the post office department should be granted an increase in rates in most every class of mail unless the taxpayers declare they are willing to continue paying into the kitty for a postal subsidy.

It seems to this reporter however, that some of the big subsidies the department is now paying, specifically to the airplane industry, should be investigated by the congress. The cost of carrying mail on the railroads and the competition of the express monopoly, all should have a thorough airing before the smaller users of the mail service are penalized by a 50 to 100 per cent boost in the postal rates.

Correct Prediction

A reporter is even presumptuous to attempt to predict what may happen in this new coalition congress, but despite this, we predicted approval by the Senate of Mr. James Boyd, who has been serving for a year without pay as director of the U. S. bureau of mines. Approval would come, for one reason: that John L. Lewis did the one thing that united the senate — he called his mine workers out on strike in opposition to the Boyd appointment on the slim theory that Boyd had never worked in a mine. Fact is that John J. Forbes, a 35-year veteran of the bureau and a veteran miner, is chief of the division of mine inspection and safety. Also all 400 mine inspectors in the bureau have had at least five years experience in the bureau. Lewis' objection to Boyd, was poppycock. Mr. Boyd is an administrator and a scientist from the University of Colorado and the health and safety division of the bureau is only a small part of his job which includes research in metals, economics, statistics, metallurgy, explosives and fuels.

How big is your business? If you are doing under a half million gross annually you will not be affected by the proposed minimum wage increase to 75 cents. As this is written that's the situation of the minimum wage bill as voted out by the house committee.

Lucas Ineffective

Two figures have come out of the filibuster which shot to pieces the President's program in this 80th congress. One is handsome Sen. Scott Lucas of Illinois, who failed miserably as a leader of the administration forces. It takes a rough and tumble fighter the likes of Vice-President Alben Barkley to stand down there on the floor and do battle. Senator Lucas, it struck this reporter, was averse to getting his hair mussed and was more intent on keeping his better profile turned toward the cameras.

The other figure was that of Sen. Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana, who reached the highlight of his senatorial career when he proved that he could stand on his feet without changing shoes, talk, without help, longer than his former boss, the late Huey Long, of Louisiana. Senator Ellender was speaker of the Louisiana house of representatives when the late "King Fish" called the dance and every politician in Louisiana danced to his tune. And ironically, Huey Long's son, the 30-year old junior senator from Louisiana, sat and witnessed the Ellender talkathon. Said Sen. Raymond E. Baldwin of Connecticut, one of my favorite Republicans: "The previous congress has been called a do-nothing congress. But if the 80th congress had a housing problem to deal with it was because a Democratic controlled 79th congress, 78th congress, 76th congress, 74th congress and 74th congress failed to deal with it." If the Connecticut senator had had second sight he would have included the 81st congress.

Two Disagreed

Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida and Estes Kefauver of Tennessee were the only two southerners who didn't go along with the 23 Democrats and the 23 Republicans who joined hands to wreck the Truman campaign program. Said Senator Pepper: "I know that in my part of the country the first thing a man does, if he gets rich, is to buy himself a double-breasted suit, and the next thing is that he wishes he were a Republican."

Rep. Wright Patman of Texas says: "The real socialists in this country are not the little fellows having nothing but a loud voice to disseminate their views on soap boxes on street corners or in public parks; but whether they realize it or not, the real socialists that is, the ones who are doing the things that will bring our country to socialism quicker than anything else are the big business executives of the nation, who are trying to get all of the units of an industry in one package so they can own it."

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Price Reductions Clip Inflation: Rent Control Law Gives Authority To State Governors, Legislatures

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

PRICE DROP: Hits Inflation

American consumers were asking themselves: What does it mean? Why were prices being slashed, the dollar stretching a little further? Was it simply that inflation was being clipped, or was it true, as some have said, that the country is in the midst of a mild recession?

THOSE QUESTIONS were well-founded. For, in the latest economic development, prices of automobiles, accessories, radios, refrigerators and ranges had been reduced.

Continued reductions in such basic commodities as lead, zinc, copper and steel indicated there might be further cuts in manufactured goods in the wind.

One automobile manufacturer announced cuts ranging from $198 to $333 in the price of his cars. The mid-season catalogue of the nation's biggest mail-order house announced "many price reductions in all lines." Even ice cream was down—off three cents a quart in Philadelphia.

Radios showed the biggest drop. One nationally-known manufacturer announced price cuts of 20 to 50 per cent on nine home model sets. Auto batteries were lower in cost. A refrigerator manufacturer knocked off $20 from some of its models. Steel was down and scrap metal was at the lowest price in almost two years.

WHATEVER ELSE entered into the picture, it was conceded that buyer resistance was one of the main items in the price reductions. The consumer had become more conscious of prices. There had been more hand-to-mouth buying. There was a tendency to "wait and see" whether prices would come down a bit.

Businessmen and industrialists agreed that the "bloom is off the boom" — that a healthy readjustment is underway.

SPEED PILOT: A New Record?

Joe De Bona, by his own admission was a "scared boy."

And he had every reason to be. He had taken off from Burbank, Calif., in actor Jimmy Stewart's nine-year old plane—a souped-up P-51—at 9:20:50 one morning, and exactly five hours later he was zooming into the airstrip at New York's La Guardia Field.

THE PLANE had a cracked cockpit canopy, dangerously low oil pressure, no oxygen, and gasoline for only seven more minutes of flying when De Bona whistled into the airport at 600 miles per hour. "I'll never try a record flight again," he said. "This was too nerve wracking."

Fred H. Wilkerson, official timer of the National Aeronautical association, said the NAA would have to decide whether De Bona set a new cross-country record. He said the plane carried no barograph, a locked instrument which shows elapsed time, and that the gasoline tanks were not sealed.

THE OFFICIAL coast-to-coast record for a single reciprocating plane such as De Bona flew is six hours, seven minutes and five seconds, set by Paul Mantz on February 28, 1947, in a flight averaging 401.076 miles per hour.

DEFENSE CHIEF: Has Big Job

Louis Johnson of West Virginia had taken on one of the biggest jobs in the world, and had added to the magnitude of the task when he declared the armed services of the United States would be "united as one."

WELL, JOHNSON, in taking over as secretary of defense, was the man whose job it would be to unify the armed services, but his predecessor, James V. Forrestal, retiring to private life as a banker, hadn't been able to do it.

The fact was that jealousy between the services made it practically impossible to implement a congressional act uniting the army, navy and air corps. However, it was said Johnson would come closer to it than anyone else probably could. It was reported he was ready to adopt a "tough" policy to brass hats in all the services and that if unification were possible, he'd bring it about.

FORRESTAL: Medal From Harry

James V. Forrestal, retiring secretary of defense, received a surprise when he called at the White House to say goodbye to President Harry S. Truman. Mr. Truman pinned the Distinguished Service Medal on Forrestal's coat.

The citation read that Forrestal had "materially advanced the security of the nation." Forrestal said it was "beyond me" how he merited it.

Fair Enough

A San Diego income tax payer gave vent to an urge which at some time or other must have tempted us all.

To the collector of U.S. internal revenue, she sent in a return on a napkin.

She wrote on it: My total earnings last year were $620. Withholding tax was $1.10. If I owe you anything, holler; if you owe me anything, forget it. "Goldie—San Diego."

New Senator

One of the nation's foremost educators, Dr. Frank P. Graham, has been appointed U.S. senator from North Carolina to succeed the late Sen. J. Melville Broughton. Dr. Graham was president of the University of North Carolina.

RENT BILL: Buck Was Passed

The rent control question was red hot. Congress knew it. The people knew it. But something had to be done before controls expired March 31. Congress had to do something. It did. It passed the bill.

A rent control bill was drafted by the 81st congress, but it laid in the laps of state governors and legislatures the real power and responsibility for rent controls.

EVERYTHING congress wrote into the present bill can be nullified by a governor or a legislature, if they see fit.

The bill continues rent controls for 15 months, or to June 30, 1950. It sets up a "home rule" process for decontrol of states, cities, or other local areas. Legislatures could remove controls throughout a state, or in parts of a state. A city government, or ruling body of other communities, could pass a resolution calling for de-control and, if the state governor approved it, then the federal government would be forced to abolish controls in that community.

The bill requires the housing expediter to fix rents so as to insure landlords a "fair net operating income . . . as far as practicable." However, it restores old OPA powers for the rent expediter to control evictions. This, some congressmen said, would prevent any mass evictions by landlords.

UNDER THE MEASURE, the housing expediter is authorized to set a landlord for three times the amount of any charge made against a tenant above the legal rent ceiling. Under old law, the tenant had that power, but seldom used it.

The new act does not authorize further 15 per cent "voluntary" increases in rents, and recontrols any dwellings decontrolled under such voluntary leases, at the rent figure contained in such leases. Veterans' priority for first chance to rent or buy a new property are continued in the bill.

STOCK MARKET: Curbs Are Relaxed

The federal reserve board had taken an action that should make the "ribbon clerks" very happy. "Ribbon clerks" is a name applied by stock market operators to amateurs who seek to engage in the fascinating business of trying to make several bucks grow where only one grew originally.

THE FEDERAL reserve board ruling was that the down payment on purchase of stocks would be reduced from 75 per cent to 50 per cent.

The board had been pressured for several months by the New York stock exchange, its president, Emil Schramm, and securities dealers generally. They had complained that the previous restrictions had thrown markets into the doldrums and that trading had remained at an unusually low level for months.

THIS WAS CONSIDERED as strong indication the board believed inflation had ceased to dominate the economic situation. Earlier, the board had relaxed restrictions on installment-buying credit, giving a longer term for settlements on purchases of automobiles, furniture, refrigerators, washing machines.

UNREST: Extant All Over Psychologists and psychiatrists might easily read into the incident a manifestation of the general unrest which is plaguing mankind just now. At any rate, because a Calcutta soccer team defeated a team from a nearby village, a mob of angry villagers attacked and stoned the train the next time it came through the community.

Eleven persons, including two women, were injured.

Open Season

In Kentucky, a wife may swear out legally a search warrant against her husband, according to an opinion given by Assistant Attorney General Squire N. Williams. Whether this extends to hubby's pockets was not mentioned in the ruling.

Williams declared, in an opinion given Harry R. Burke, a Prestonsburg attorney, that he knew of no state statute preventing women taking such actions.

IRISH: "War No More"

In a land famous for the shillelagh and general willingness to back opinion with action, Irish children were reported putting away war toys.

According to Eire shopkeepers, youngsters now show a marked preference for boxes of building blocks, miniature farm sets, and motor sets. There are those in Eire, surely who will see a saving grace in the tots still wanting bricks.

TRUMAN: Still Adamant

President Harry Truman was nothing if not stubborn. Rebuffed by the senate armed services committee on his appointment of Mon C. Wallgren to head up the national security resources board, Mr. Truman has served notice the fight is not over.

DESPITE THE FACT that senate policy and tradition seldom has taken such a matter to the floor after committee disapproval, it was understood that Mr. Truman was planning to have the issue taken from the committee and fought out on the floor of the senate. Such procedure has been followed, but only rarely, as senate history shows.

The committee, in declining to approve the Wallgren appointment, stated its position was taken only because of its conviction that Mr. Wallgren was not fitted, either by experience or ability, to hold down the vital key post in the national defense setup.

Truman associates said that if other means fail, they expect the President to urge Millard Tydings, Maryland Democrat, chairman of the committee blackballing Wallgren, to take the lead in a fight to relieve the committee of consideration of the nomination.

SEN. WARREN G. MAGNUSON, (D., Wash.) said he thought there was a possibility that some members of the committee majority might be persuaded to let the nomination go before the senate, although with an unfavorable report. The committee voted 7 to 6 to reject Wallgren's appointment.

President Truman's fight for his old fishing crony and senatorial colleague was not expected to begin immediately. Instead, the President was said to be planning to let the matter rest for awhile so he can see what may be done toward out-manuevering some of Wallgren's opponents.

Polio "Fowled" Up?

Shown here, a virologist harvests virus of new-castle disease from embryonated chickens. Science thinks that there is a "bare possibility" that an anti-polio vaccine may be developed from the virus of new-castle disease — an ailment which affects young fowls and usually is fatal to them.

CONFERENCE: That's All, Folks

The Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace had ended without any specifically untoward incidents, barring a lot of booping and a borrowing by rightist elements of the leftist techniques of picketing and heckling.

A DELEGATION of seven Communists representing Russia had attended, among them the great composer Dmitri Shostakovich. Many had argued the Reds should have been denied attendance, despite Shostakovich's presence among them. But calmer heads prevailed, and the Russians came.

But, it appeared, they weren't ready to go home when the parley was over. In fact, the 18 foreign delegates were all set to make a nation-wide speaking tour and then return home, "as soon as possible," as they put it.

HOWEVER, U.S. Attorney General Tom Clark notified immigration officials in New York to see to it that the delegates, Russians and all, leave the United States as soon as they could make arrangements.

The seven Russian delegates were notified that their visas did not allow them to tour the nation; but the state department indicated it would consider any application for an extension of their visas.

THE SPONSORS of the "peace conference" said they did not know what the Russian delegates planned to do, but a spokesman said it was expected all four eastern European nations' delegates would depart shortly.

UNREST: Extant All Over

Psychologists and psychiatrists might easily read into the incident a manifestation of the general unrest which is plaguing mankind just now. At any rate, because a Calcutta soccer team defeated a team from a nearby village, a mob of angry villagers attacked and stoned the train the next time it came through the community.

Eleven persons, including two women, were injured.

More Pay for Jurors

The senate judiciary committee of congress has decided it's time witnesses and jurors in federal court cases get better pay.

Members approved a bill that would raise fees of witnesses from $2 to $4 a day and their subsistence allowance from $4 to $5. Another would boost the per diem of jurors from $5 to $7 a day and their subsistence allowance from $2 to $4 a day.

Myriad Skills Used By Manufacturers In Building Cars

DETROIT—It takes blacksmiths, woodcarvers, physicists, locomotive engineers—in fact, more than 2,600 kinds of workers—to build modern motor vehicles, reports the February issue of Automobile Facts, monthly publication of the Automobile Manufacturers association.

Sharply increased employment and a wider variety of job means that opportunities for promotion are greater today than a year ago in the industry's history, the publication says.

The million persons currently working in the plants and offices of U. S. motor vehicle, body and parts manufacturing companies represent an increase of about 50 per cent over 1947 and 100 per cent over 1929.

As companies build new plants and expand employment, more jobs open up in all pay levels, AMA pointed out.

"They need new foremen, more plant and departmental supervisors, more research specialists, more people in the higher-paid skilled trades."

It also means expansion of such activities as medical, safety and employee-training programs—and more top jobs in such work.

"And all sorts of records must be kept on a much larger scale than when the company operations were smaller—so more employees and executives are needed in plant offices."

Of the 2,600 job classifications, approximately 10 per cent are on the final assembly line, which is made up of a vast variety of assembly operations.

Veteran Would Swap Medals For Apartment For Family

PITTSFIELD, Mass.—A 30-year-old air force veteran offered today to swap 20 war decorations which he earned on 65 combat missions for an apartment for himself, wife and two children.

John W. Rose, a repairman, ran a classified advertisement in The Berkshire Eagle, offering 13 air medals, six battle stars and a victory medal for either a furnished or unfurnished apartment.

He said that he and his wife had never had a home of their own since their marriage. They are living with his parents.

Chinchilla Ranch Proves To Be Profitable Hobby

SALT LAKE CITY.—Would you like a hobby that's a lot of fun, requires a moderate investment, little upkeep cost and it nearly self-perpetuating?

Then start a chinchilla "ranch" in your basement, garage or tool shed, says M. J. O'Donnell, who practices what he preaches.

For $1,000 the cost of one pair of the little South American rodents, you can be in business. For another $5 a year for upkeep you can stay there, O'Donnell says.

He ought to know. He has about 100 of the gold-pelted little fur bearers housed in coop-like sheds of simple construction at his "luxury fur farm" on the outskirts of Salt Lake City.

"They cost no more to raise than ordinary rabbits," O'Donnell says. "You don't need a ranch. A small pen in the basement will do. Add a few carrots, some hay and a pan of water and you are in business."

He says the animals are exceptionally clean, require little space, no extra heat and each pair can be counted on to replace itself at least once a year. Sometimes as many as three litters a year are produced.

R. F. Gorman, secretary-manager of the National Chinchilla Breeders' association, which has headquarters here for its 2,000 members, confirms O'Donnell's report on ease of raising the little animals.

"In comparison with rabbits, foxes, minks or even cattle or sheep, chinchillas are a heck of a lot easier to keep. The casualty rate is less than many other animals, and they need no special care."

Judge Holds Wives Have Right to Paint Homes

CLEVELAND, OHIO.—Judge Samuel H. Silbert denied a husband's request that his wife be restrained from further interior decoration at their Warrensville home.

The judge acted after hearing a domestic relations bureau investigator say: "The two rooms she redecorated are the best looking rooms in the house."

Peter T. Kuniogon, 35, an electrical engineer, went to court two weeks ago with a complaint about the decorating work of his wife, Betty, also 35.

The husband complained that his wife painted to annoy him. She said she'd been after him to do the job for several years and the house had become too drab for her to bear.

Shoe-Designers Present "Strip-Tease" Footwear

NEW YORK.—Shoe designers plan a footwear "strip-tease" for the next three seasons.

From spring through fall, women of high style can wear soles, heels, a strap or two across the instep and toenail polish.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Ferguson Jittery

G. O. P. Sen. Homer Ferguson must be getting jittery over his election probe back in Michigan. At any rate something has thrown Homer's balance wheel out of gear.

The other day, the Michigan senator, supposed to be a great prosecutor and investigator, let it be known to the press that two years ago he had informed Attorney General Tom Clark about Judith Coplon, the justice department analyst recently caught handing government documents to a Russian diplomat in New York. The implication was that Clark had sat on his hands for two years while Miss Coplon got away with justice department secrets.

When Attorney General Clark heard of the Ferguson statement, he was, to say the least, flabbergasted, and sent word to the senator that he would give him 15 minutes to take back his statement.

Ferguson was quick to reply. He sat down and wrote Clark a humble longhand note taking back what he had said. The senator's excuse was that he had been misquoted. He never had said he gave information about Judith Coplon to Clark, nor did he state that he had demanded a probe of the matter, Ferguson wrote the attorney general.

Next day the attorney general happened to be up on Capitol Hill calling on the chairman of the senate judiciary committee, Pat McCarran of Nevada.

"Here's a letter that might interest you," remarked Senator McCarran, handing him a typewritten letter on the stationery of Senator Ferguson.

In the letter, Ferguson said exactly what the newspapers quoted him as saying the night before, and which he had denied to Clark. Two years ago, wrote the Michigan senator, he had given the information about Judith Coplon to Clark, and now he demanded an investigation. Furthermore, he put all this in black and white.

The attorney general read the letter with amusement. "Well, here's a letter he wrote me," he remarked, pulling out the handwritten note in which Ferguson said he had been misquoted.

McCarran read the note, then observed:

"I thought there was something funny about Ferguson's phoning me last night. He wanted to know if I had received this letter. Then he said: 'Well, don't give it out. It's confidential.'"

Silver Lobby Loves China

In a secret report to the senate foreign relations committee last week, Secretary of State Acheson bluntly announced that the Communists are complete masters of China and it would be folly to send more U.S. arms to the defeated Nationalists.

Acheson revealed that nine-tenths of the equipment already furnished by the United States has been surrendered to the Communists in the past eight months. Today the Communists have the military power to march wherever they please in China—including south China where the Nationalists are still holding out, Acheson reported.

Meanwhile, the Nationalists are negotiating frantically for a coalition government. Whether the United States will do business with the new government, Acheson said, will depend on the Communists' attitude.

The secretary of state was called before the foreign relations committee to answer a petition, signed by 50 senators, demanding aid for the Nationalists. Significantly, the petition was sponsored by Sen. Pat McCarran of Nevada, the silver lobbyist, whose plan is to bolster the Nationalist economy—with silver.

Lobbying for Peace

Senate G.O.P. leader, Arthur Vandenberg, backed colleague Owen Brewster of Maine in a corner, glanced furtively for eavesdroppers and whispered:

"You'd better lay off that ECA fund to the Dutch that you've been raising such a fuss about. I just learned there's a lobbyist mixed up in this."

Vandenberg probably referred to young Randolph Feltus, a registered lobbyist on capital hill, who has been fighting ECA aid to the Netherlands on the ground that the money will be used to finance Dutch armed imperialism in Indonesia.

"Listen, Arthur," grinned Brewster, "have you ever heard of legislation on any subject in congress, of major or minor importance, that doesn't have a lobbyist for or against it?"

Feltus and many others have been talking to senators on the ground that a breakdown of the U. N. regarding Indonesia means a serious undermining of the peace machinery of the world.

Maltreating Nazis

Senator Tydings of Maryland has been trying to side-step a senate investigation of army brutality in Germany.

What some senators want to investigate is evidence that the army used strong-arm men to torture confessions out of the Malmédy war criminals. Some prisoners, it is contended, had their teeth knocked out. Others were taken before mock courts which condemned them to die. Then, after they were convinced there was no hope, they confessed.

Despite their novel dress, the Evzones are rated among the best fighting men in all the world, and their strange costumes never elicit any "kidding."

OSCAR'S TAKING FEWER ASPIRINS THESE DAYS . . . Pact Is Likened to Alcoholics 'Anomnibus' . . . BUT HE'S KEEPING HIS UNIFORM IN MOTHBALLS

By H. I. PHILLIPS

PURKEY ON ATLANTIC PACT

Ex-PFC Oscar Purkey, veteran of the last war, feels better after reading the Atlantic pact, but he still thinks it's smart to keep mothballs in his uniform and not swear off canned eggs for life at this point.

"If the world was in its right mind, in fair health and not so jumpy, this Atlantic pact would be okay," he writes, "but you got to remember that it is in the same shape as Alcoholics Anomnibus holding a street-corner huddle when a liquor truck turns turtle in full view.

"At first I think this Atlantic pact is not serious on account of it is not accompanied by no news that six blocks along First avenue, New York, is to be torn down to make way for a headquarters," his letter continues, "but I find it is on the level and the matter of an official address will be looked up later.

any enemy starts playing rough. Personally, when the shooting starts I'd feel nervous if my side were just to confer on the matter. In the next global war, the sneak-puncher is going to have a awful head-start on the boys who go into a conference first. But I guess our side will find a way to perfect the jet-propelled huddle so that there will be only a few seconds of elapsed time between the attack and the answer.

"The western nations in this Pact may seem a little too gentlemanly for comfort in a global crisis, but it looks to me like this time they are with Stonewall Webster or Kayo Henry or whoever it was that said we have got to hang together or wire the newsreels men to photograph us all hanging separately. Anyhow, the news about this Atlantic pact has done me some good. I ain't taking so many aspirin."

Grace Noll Crowell

THE prayer I long had prayed God heard,
Yet answered not a word.

My heart had not been schooled to wait
An answer that came late.

I could not understand! Dismayed,
I clutched His robes and prayed.

And then, strength spent, I kept quite still—
At last I learned His will.

Through strangely silent nights and days
I somehow learned His ways.

I did not hear His voice, yet He,
I know, has answered me.

HAL WALLIS, Anatole Litvak and Rouben Mamoulian will judge the motion picture synopses submitted for the National Five Arts $100,000 award; Norman Corwin, Arch Oboler and Erik Bar-nouch will pick the best radio scripts. Plays, popular songs and short stories will be judged by equally prominent authorities.

HAL WALLIS

Each sub-contest carries prizes of $2,000, $1,000 and $500, plus up to $70,000 in fellowships as well as professional productions of the winners. For details write to National Five Arts Award, 715 Fifth Ave., New York City. All entries should be sent to that address. Here's a wonderful chance for unknowns!

Anatole Litvak is known for many successful directorial jobs; "Sorry, Wrong Number" and "The Snake Pit" are two recent ones. Wallis has signed Joan Fontaine for "September," to be filmed in Italy in August for Paramount.

Pat Knight thinks maybe it is an omen forecasting her future stardom — during filming of Columbia's "Shockproof" she found a letter in her uniform's pocket, addressed to Joan Crawford, who wore the uniform in "A Woman's Face."

A Moroccan mitchou, something new in New York parties, launched George Raft's "Outpost in Morocco". Shot against magnificent, authentic backgrounds, it is a story of the French Foreign Legion, with plenty of action. The men in the supporting cast, headed by Akim Tamiroff and John Litel, are excellent. Marie Windsor must have been cast only for her looks.

Joanne Dru became an actress because she was too shy to make friends and took dramatic lessons to overcome her shyness. Howard Hawks saw her at a dramatic school, hired her for "Red River".

The Fiction Corner BLUEBEARD'S BET

By Lilliace M. Mitchell

"THEY'RE all curious," insisted Arthur Jordan. "There never lived a woman who wasn't 99-44/100 per cent curiosity. I could quote you a dozen bits of poetry proving the fact—" "For goodness' sake, don't!" urged Clem Tate. "I'll take your word for it. Honestly. But Elsie isn't that way. I'm telling you." "You're the kind that would never be happy with your wife asking you this and looking over mall and rooting about in your desk when you're out of the house. I know you."

3-Minute Fiction

"Don't speak of Elsie Lyons as 'rooting', if you please," Clem Tate said coldly. "I'll tell you what. I'll keep the office door and give her the key — since you mention Bluebeard — and then you and I will go out. I'll keep the key of the corridor door, however, and we'll come in again and sit here. I'll tell her not to use that key at all. See? Then if she is as curious as you say, she'll come bounding in a la Made-moiselle Bluebeard or whatever her name was and we'll be sitting right inside here."

"O.K. with me," said Arthur Jordan. "She'll be in here and don't you forget I told you so. I'd as soon have a hamster girl and one who wasn't so careless anyhow. She's decorative but she'd forget her head if it weren't for the curls there."

Now Elsie Lyons was pretty. She knew that fact as well as anyone else. Fluffy golden hair framed a heart-shaped face with a pointed chin below a widow's peak of hair at the upper edge. Her great grey eyes turned to pansy-color at times. But looks and business efficiency do not always go hand in hand unfortunately and Elsie ran about ninety-nine and forty-four one-hundredths per cent efficiency.

"I am locking the door to the private office, Miss Lyons," said Clem Tate distinctly. "I want no one to go in there. No one. Is that clear, Miss Lyons. Here is the key. Certainly, Mr. Tate," she said demurely, placing the key in her desk drawer.

The two young men walked resolutely into the outer corridor and the outside door swung too gently behind them.

"Well, Bluebeard, how about it?" asked Jordan when he put the key into the door to the private office.

As the door swung open they both looked in eagerly. They heard the telephone in the outer office. Silently they sat down and Jordan gave his partner a poke in the ribs when Clem Tate looked too triumphant as the moments passed.

AT THE END of a half hour Clem Tate rose to his feet. Jordan followed him and they made their way silently into the outer corridor again.

door and then entered the suite of offices. He hurried through to the door of the private office and tried the knob.

"Oh—" he said, "Miss Lyons, I forgot that this door is locked. Let me have the key, will you, please?" "I'm sorry, Mr. Tate. But I simply can't think what I did with that key. There was a telephone call the moment you left and I looked for the key so that I could — could — lay the message on your desk."

"But I said not to go in." She laughed gently. Dimples peeped in and out charmingly. She bent again and then with a sigh she murmured: "Oh! Here it is! I'm so careless!"

Kent 4-H Clubs Participating In Safety Contest

Kent County 4-H Clubs are participating in the Safety Contest sponsored by the Delaware Safety Council. Each club has appointed a Safety Chairman, who reads the monthly safety letter to the club group. The job-of-the-month is read to the members and at the following meeting of the club the chairman checks to see if the members have inspected rack is in good condition, the ladders rungs are sound, or a place form. If any repairs are made or new parts built to replace the old ones a note is made on the monthly safety report sent into the 4-H Club Agent.
Each club reports will be judged at the end of the contest dates, February 1, 1949 to October 31, 1949 on the following three points:
1. Percentage of club members participating in the program.
2. A total number of hazards removed by the club.
3. A written story by the safety chairman telling of initiative and interest shown by the group as a whole in getting safety information across to parents and others in the community through talks, exhibits, demonstrations, etc.
The Safety Council is offering the following awards for the safety contest among 4-H members:
1. A certificate to every 4-H Club fulfilling contest requirements.
2. A framed certificate for the best 4-H safety program carried on in the county.
3. State awards of $25, $15, and $10 for the three best 4-H safety programs carried on in the state.
The following 4-H safety chairmen in Kent County are:
Canterbury Sunny Smile 4-H Club, Kenneth Riteher; Farmington Busy Bees 4-H Club, Louise Gray; Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club, Martha Gruwell; Houston Cardinal 4-H Club, Lydia Williams; Kenton Klubbers 4-H Club, Jane Conley; Milford Millwood 4-H Club, Jack Davis; Felton Paradise 4-H Club, Clare Pittard; Smyrna Bocking Bronco 4-H Club, Roger Hudson; Westville 4-H Club, Betty Webb; Wildcat 4-H Club, George Simpson; Vernon Honey Bee 4-H Club, Billy Bowdler; Oak Grove Blue Hens 4-H Club, Shirley Ann Everett.

FHA GIRLS GIVE ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The girls of the Future Homemakers of America club, sponsored by Miss Romayne King, held an initiation of new members ceremony on the stage. Miss Sara Mae Messick recited the creed of the FHA and introduced those who were taking part in the program. As part of the program, the school band played "Bolero". Members of the Asbury Church Choir sang the "Holy City". The last part of the program was devoted to popular songs sung by the students with Eddie Wilkerson announcing over the microphone.

MR. MESSNER GIVES TALK

On Monday, April 11, the members of Miss Loretta Paskey's Junior and Senior history classes heard Mr. Messner tell about his recent trip to Lake Success where he heard discussions being carried on at United Nations headquarters.

YOUNG ARTISTS MAKE PUPPETS OF ALL NATIONS

Under Miss Helen Tyrill's supervision, members of the art classes have been making puppets of various nationalities representing all walks of life. These clever little men and women can move their limbs with remarkable facility and their mobility and versatility puts mere mortals to shame. Gay colors predominate in their costumes which are, of course, hand made. We feel sure that the students who created these little people have enjoyed the discovery of the secret of a puppet's life.

Other students in the art classes have been doing finger painting with pretty shades of blue or green paint, using this decoration in the production of notebook covers. Block prints have been used in making unique and colorful designed paper for box covers.

In the elementary grades, the children have been weaving rugs to simulate those of the Hopi Indians about whom they have been studying or they have been making reproductions of animals made of paper wadding and string with painted exteriors. In short, the art department seems a beehive of happy activity.

Tomorrow Contest in Delaware, says J. Frank Gordy, chairman of the youth committee for the contest.

Any resident of the State who will not reach his 21st birthday before January 1, 1950, is eligible to enter, according to Gordy, who specifies that entry blanks must be mailed to him, at Box 150, Newark, Delaware, not later than May 15, 1949.

The contestant must enter at least 50 chicks, but more may be raised in the same flock. The 50 birds must be wing banded at the beginning of the contest. All chicks must be hatched between Tuesday, June 28 and Tuesday, July 5, and all chicks in a single entry must be the same age. Each contestant is permitted to make only one entry.

Ten cash awards have been designed for the top winners. In addition, a trophy will be given to the first place winner.

The awards for the Junior Division will be presented at the time the State-wide Chicken-of-Tomorrow Contest is held, during the week of September 26. This is the first year of a three-year program in Delaware as in many other states, to develop a bird with still more meat—bigger drumsticks and extra white meat.

Details of the junior contest are available from members of the junior division committee: W. Lyle Mowlds; George M. Bringhurst, Dover; John Herholdt, Dover; Miss Jean Lee, Newark, and Mr. Gordy.

DOG AND PONY CIRCUS FEATURED ON MILFORD VAUDEVILLE BILL

A grand pre-Easter treat is in store for patrons of Schine's New Milford Theatre on Friday and Saturday when Janet's Dog and Pony Circus will headline the new five act vaudeville variety bill. Janet's Dog and Pony Circus is composed of two of the world's smallest ponies, six clever dogs and a comical monkey. Young and old alike will be amused and delighted at the antics of these trained animals. It is one of the finest acts of this kind in vaudeville.

Other acts on the bill include Al Castle and Helene with their thrilling bicycle act; Val Eddy, wizard of the zylphone; Jordan and Parvis, musical comedy song and dance stars; and Randy Crane, a Master of Ceremonies with a hilarious comedy routine.

This new vaudeville bill will open with a special matinee on Friday with a stage show at 3:40. Evening performances of the stage show on Friday will be at 7:25 and 10 P. M., and on Saturday at 4:00; 6:45 and 9:45.

The screen attraction on Friday and Saturday will be the spectacular Cinecolor adventure hit, "Unknown Island" with Virginia Grey and Phillip Reid.

Little Courtesies

help so much!

On party-line telephones, too... little courtesies help to give an "extra" value! Party-line neighbors who take the lead in courtesy find their favors returned. They enjoy better service. So does everyone else on the line.

There's nothing difficult about party-line courtesy. When you keep calls reasonably brief, you're being courteous. You're a good party-line neighbor, too, when you space calls so that others may use the line in the intervals... and when you hang up gently on finding the line in use.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

There'll Always Be a "Gawker"

"Harry the Hermit," as he's called, came into town last week and, as usual, caused quite a stir. He looks like a cross between Santa Claus and Daniel Boone.

We had a friendly glass of beer together and I asks him, "Don't you ever get annoyed at the way some people laugh and stare as you go by?" "Shucks no," Harry says. "Only while they're laughin' at me, I'm feelin' a mite sorry for them. Imagine—folks so ungrateful they can't see I'm really just the same as they are underneath."

From where I sit, Harry's a lot more "civilized" than the people who make fun of him. He's contented, lives the way he believes is right without harming anyone—and what's more, he's tolerant of others whose tastes in living are different from his.

Maybe we all don't look the same, or act the same, or eat or drink the same, but in a free country, why should we?

Faith Resurrected

On a certain day many centuries ago, a group of mourners met together outside of a cave, expecting sadness—only to find the inspiration for a new faith dramatically born in the hearts of men. That day of His resurrection, Christ's followers humbly called Easter.

Rejoicing, they dedicated their lives to the propagation of his true faith.

Each successive Easter sees a resurrection of faith in the hearts of all men as they pause briefly, then beat on against the current towards a more perfect brotherly love and humanity.

WITH DYNAFLOW DRIVE
THE BUY-IN-BIG CARS

It happens every year, sure as spring comes. There dawns a day, warm and inviting and fragrant with freshness, when the winter cares are shed like a cloak—and you're suddenly younger than your years. Lucky the man who has this handsome carriage as his answer to that moment. He'll pull a knob on the dash of his ROADMASTER—and the top will swing back. He'll touch the treadle—and 150 valve-in-head horsepower will leap into life, eager as a setter, scenting the start of the chase. He'll move a lever—and smoothly, with whirling oil transmitting his engine's power, move off through tangles of traffic into the open countryside without even thinking about clutch-pedals and gearshifting or the like. He's free to have fun—free to drink in spring's glories—free to dawdle or to dash as whim decides—and he knows his level-riding ROADMASTER will instantly, silkily answer his every bidding. Kingpin—that's what he is! Kingpin—that you are when you've prepared yourself with the gorgeous ROADMASTER Convertible, so eye-catching in its beauty, so completely unmatched in its ability to thrill! You say you haven't got a ROADMASTER Convertible! With factory production mounting, that's not so difficult to correct—and it's probably less costly than you think. Just see us—soon—and you'll waste no time getting a firm order in!

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Strange, of Philadelphia, Pa., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vincent Sr., Harrington, a few days of last week. On Thursday evening, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Strange called on Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Morris. Mrs. Earl Griffith had as a guest part of last week her sister, Anna, of Florida. Mrs. George Vincent, Harrington, who has been a patient at the Milford Memorial Hospital, is now at the home of her son, Louder. We hope that good health soon returns to you, Mrs. Vincent. Mrs. Frank Vincent, Jr. of Harrington, and Mrs. Jesse Strange, Philadelphia, called on Mrs. Harry Lee Silbheisen and family Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Morris visited the Charles W. Collison family Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Morris called at the Collison home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Butler motored, along with friends, to Washington, D. C., to view the cherry blossoms, Sunday. Easter services are being held in Bethel Church Sunday afternoon, April 17, at 2:00. We hope you will attend.

Magnolia

The W. S. C. S. was entertained for the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Edna Davis and Mrs. Kathlyn Knight, assisted as hostesses by Mrs. Ethel Collins, on Wednesday evening. The meeting was conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. Margaret Farrow, due to the president, Mrs. Ruth Davis, being absent. The group was all pleased that early in their meeting a phone call was received from Mrs. Davis telling them that she was being discharged from the Jefferson Hospital the following day to convalesce at the home of her sister in Philadelphia. Election of officers was held, with Mrs. Ethel Collins being elected president; Mrs. Lillian McIlvaine, vice-president; Frances Hart, secretary; Myra McIlvaine, treasurer; Mrs. C. M. Elderidge, spiritual life chairman; Mrs. Blanche Richards, missionary education chairman; Ruth Davis, corresponding secretary; Anna Orvis, Christian social relations chairman. In place of their regular meeting in May, they will hold a birthday party, with the public being invited. More details will be announced later. Glancey Spayd, until a few months ago a resident of Magnolia, left two weeks ago to become a patient at the Veterans' Hospital, in Butler, Pa., where he will undergo treatment for tuberculosis. Since this is quite a distance from his family and friends, we feel that Mr. Spayd would appreciate a card or a note of encouragement from friends "back home."

Church news for Easter Sunday, April 17. Sunday school at 10:00 A. M., H. K. Moore superintendent, with Edwin Prettyman assistant. Preaching at 11:00 A. M. by the pastor, Rev. W. Stanley Grant.

During this hour, if there are any who wish to become members of the church, they will have an opportunity to do so.

At 7:30 P. M. an Easter program will be given.

On Good Friday evening there will be a meeting, fitting the occasion at which the Holy Sacrament will be administered. This being Holy Week, come out and get in the spirit and enjoy these services.

Afternoon will be held at Millwood Church school at 1:30 followed by preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Grant at 2:30 P. M.

Those taking part in the Easter entertainment are asked to meet with Mrs. Biggs at the church on Saturday afternoon at 3:00 P. M.

There was a large number present at both church school and divine worship, on Palm Sunday, 110 in Sunday school, Rev. Grant read for the morning lesson, 19th Chapter and from the 29th through 40th verses of Luke and he chose his text from 18th Chapter and a part of 31st verse of Luke. "Behold We Go Up to Jerusalem" from which he delivered a wonderful sermon.

The special music by the choir was very timely and much enjoyed by the congregation.

On Saturday afternoon, April 16, at 2 o'clock an Arbor Day program will be put on by the inmates of Delaware Colony, this year being a day before Easter. They will give an Easter drama.

Any persons not having attended the exercises at the Colony should do so, because they are wonderful and those in charge should be greatly commended for this wonderful work they are doing.

SPORTLIGHT Large Plans for Pete Reiser

By GRANTLAND RICE

A YEAR AGO a hustling second baseman by the name of Eddie Stanky asked the Brooklyn management for an increased stipend or paycheck. Brother Rickey promptly handed him to the Braves and thereby helped move the same Braves into first place.

Stanky did more than his share in shipping Al Dark, a fast, intelligent, natural ballplayer into pennant form before Eddie was hurt. The Braves left the Stankless Dodgers far in the rut.

There is now a chance that Branch Rickey is pulling a repeater. He is on his way to being Billy Southworth's "cousin." Some time back, Rickey sold another Dodger star, Pete Reiser, to the same Braves. Reiser is jubilant. So is Southworth.

"I don't think I ever felt better," Reiser told me the other day. "My legs are fine again—and so is my arm. I'm running into no more walls. I'm up to full weight—180 pounds." It might be noted that Reiser was only 30 years of age on St. Patrick's day, sharing this date with Bobby Jones.

Reiser is in his prime. I saw him play third in a recent spring training game and make four double runs to first, even rocking the stalwart first baseman, Earl Torgerson. Pete was burning the ball across.

"I have big plans for Reiser," Southworth told me. "I mean if his arm is O.K. I'm not worried about his legs or health. He is not only a fine ballplayer, but a great hitter and a natural competitor. He can help us more than you might think. Pete has known more than his share of raw luck. The tide is about due to turn the other way. If it does, the Braves will look even better than I think they are—and I'm not selling them short."

"Watch that Torgerson at first. He might be the best first baseman in either league this season. Sain and Spahn are my stand-bys, but Vern Rickford has improved sharply and Bill Voiselle will be quite a help. Stanky is again in top condition. His cracked ankle is O.K. I have a fine-looking young catcher in Paul Burris.

"My club is much better than it was last year. It has to be.

4-H Clubber Takes Fox-Trapping Crown

New York State Rates Raymond Premru Best

The title of New York's fox-trapping champion for 1948 is held by Raymond Premru, of Gorham in Ontario county.

The youthful 4-H club member led the list of 800 trappers from 32 counties with a total catch of 50 during the year. Second honors went to Gene Gage, of RFD 1, Canandaigua, who trapped 42. Tied for third with 34 foxes apiece were Russell Kilian, of Cowlesville, and William Smith, Jr., of Ancramdale.

FIRST AID to the AILING HOUSE

by Roger C. Whitman

QUESTION: My mother's two-family brick house is 36 years old. The tenant on the second floor complained that the front room was filled with smoke. The chimney from the furnace goes through this room. My mother put out the furnace fire in order to clear up the smoke. Later, when a new fire was started, she noticed smoke seeping through the brick on the outside of the building. Do you consider this dangerous?

ANSWER: It may be a serious fire hazard. Your mother should engage the services of a competent mason as soon as possible. Evidently the mortar in the brick-work of the chimney has disintegrated to a point where it is now a fire hazard.

"BRAN-ANA" MUFFINS

Quick-easy recipe for combining the moist goodness of bananas with nutritious Kellogg's All-Bran. Delicious!

1/4 cup shortening 1 cup mashed, fully-ripe bananas
1/4 cup sugar 1 cup sifted flour
1 egg 2 teaspoons
1 cup Kellogg's All-Bran 1/2 teaspoon soda
1/4 cup milk 1/2 teaspoon salt

- Blend shortening and sugar until creamy; add egg and beat well.
- Add All-Bran and milk; let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Stir in bananas.
- Sift flour with baking powder, soda and salt; add to first mixture stirring only until combined.
- Pill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in preheated moderately hot oven (400° F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

New Crop Blower

A new farm machine that saves the farmer time and labor by automatically blowing forage wherever he wants it has been placed on the market by the New Holland Machine company.

This new crop blower can swallow up to 20 tons of hay per hour and blow it anywhere the farmer wants to store it. Or, if the farmer is filling his silo, the blower handles up to 25 tons of chopped corn an hour.

Weighing 1,350 pounds, the blower has a 12-foot hopper for receiving crops from the field. A patented leveling device keeps the forage flowing evenly into a large throat which feeds a 42-inch flywheel.

Whirling at speeds up to 1,200 r.p.m., this huge "fan" blows crops through an eight-inch pipe wherever the farmer wants to "aim" it.

BLACK LEAF 40

Kills aphids and similar sucking insects. Permits full development of healthy foliage and top-quality fruits and vegetables.

Kills by contact and by tables. Leaves no harmful residue.

Can be used with other sprays beneficial to crops.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Give Your Rooms Personality By Making Mantels Decorative

By Eritta Haley

JUST AS A WOMAN completes her costume effectively with a dramatic hat, so should a room be punctuated with at least one feature which draws the eye and creates a favorable impression.

If you are the lucky owner of a mantel or fireplace in your living room, then strive to make this the exclamation point for the room.

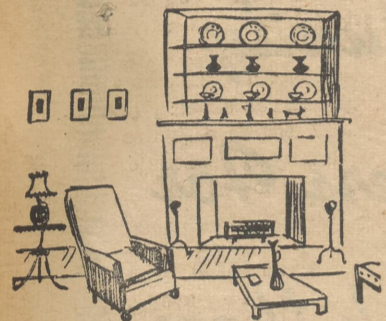

One of the most common faults in decorating a place which amateurs make is the lack of effect. They're afraid to do something just a bit startling which would serve to give a room interest and personality.

The thing to do, then, is to be daring and willing to try out several ideas which might do the trick. Study the room from different angles; consider the light; take notice of the furnishings; and, above all, try to reflect your interests and hobbies in decorating.

Use Imagination Instead of Stereotypes

If many of us think of a mantel as a shelf with a mirror with two pots of ivy carefully placed on either side of it, then it's no wonder. Such has been the traditional and over-used decorative effect employed for mantels from coast to coast.

Such stereotypes are no longer considered good taste or fine design.

Make the most of a mantel...

sign. Mantels are now seen as something which guests will exclaim about and which the homemaker can look at several times a day and purr with contentment.

Are you interested in old prints or reproductions of the paintings? Perhaps you have clipped out sets of attractive pictures which may be framed. All these reflect your taste and interest, and are natural to use in the room.

With appropriate furnishings.

Have the prints matted against a color that picks up the most dominant tone used in the room. Hang them above the mantel in three rows of four pictures each, or in another suitable arrangement. How pleasing this will look! Think, too, of the conversations it can create while you entertain. You'll be well pleased over what the imagination can do.

Let Personality Guide You

Is your husband interested in world affairs? That means he undoubtedly gathers friends about him who have the same interest.

What could be more effective under these circumstances than having a large world map placed on the wall over the mantel? Have it simply framed and skip

Be Smart!

Newest role assumed by the star of the new season, soft silk scarves, is that of gilet or blouse front. The gossamer-textured scarves are pulled through a close-fitting neckline with ends worn in a side-bow effect or as a jabot frill underneath the chin. This is as effective in contrasting dark colors or sombre colors, the latter very new, as in a print.

Newest print whimsy is the petal-edge scarf, which is effective indeed when huge tropical flowers are used.

Shorties for Spring

Shorties are the favorite length in gloves for springwear. Points and perforations on the cuff give a pert look to those American-made glove shorties. They're finger-free designed for comfort, too.

other decorations at that particular point. Then the men may gather around the mantel where you've arranged comfortable chairs and discuss their hobby with map conveniently at hand.

Do you yourself like collecting quaint antique pieces? An old oval gilt mirror can be painted in modern colors, if that is the type of room you have, then placed on the mantel. If you can find old crystal candle brackets to go on either side of the mirror, the effect is complete.

Mantel Cupboards Ideal If You Collect

Do you collect interesting pieces of china, rare glass, pottery or knick-knacks? These would be very attractive in a mantel cupboard which can easily be built or hung on the wall.

Many of the new homes may even have a built-in set of shelves above the mantel, and this offers an ideal place for showing your hobby.

If you have a lot of small items which you like to show, it isn't too hard to build a what-not over the mantel. Small items may be given the proper background by building or buying a mirror-backed shelf. This may have glass doors, too.

A French provincial room or one in Early American can use a period what-not over the mantel. Porcelain figurines, assorted bottles, colorful pottery or miniature copper or brass pieces are set off to good advantage on it.

Here's How to Use Too-Small Mirrors

In rooms in which you want to create an illusion of size, a mirror is quite acceptable over the mantel. But what happens when your particular mirror is too small for the space? This problem is easily solved by placing attractive prints, framed simply, on either side of the mirror. Two prints hung one above the other, can look very handsome indeed.

Just in case you are dissatisfied with the mirror arrangement, you might look for a clock in whatever period the room is furnished. Place this in the center and flank with candlesticks.

For the modern room with a low fireplace and no mantel, have a soft mantel light throwing concealed illumination on a large-sized, severely framed picture.

Mantels May Be Added Easily to Rooms

Just in case you want a mantel and have none, don't despair. Good stock mantels may be purchased. To keep down the expense, put it up yourself or hire someone while the season is slack.

Bookcases and cupboards may be fitted on either side of the mantel, if you want to make this particular wall the focal point of the room. In this case, keep the mantel decoration very simple as you will be using figures, plants and books on the shelves.

Tongue and groove boards may be placed above and around a mantel with excellent effects if you are dissatisfied with the wall as it is. If the ceiling is poor, this is good treatment, particularly with a flat cornice and exposed rafters.

What about the brick mantel that is so ugly as to be an eyesore? This, too, can be covered with tongue and groove boards, especially when the mantel is too high. Use simple moulding around the fireplace and for the shelf.

Narrow shelves above the mantels which are paneled are best decorated with pottery that is simple in feeling. Use large green leaves as the plants in them, as they are more simple.

Avoid a cluttered effect by keeping the decorative pieces to two or three.

Fashion Flashes

We saw many strapless dresses last year, but nothing as compared with what we are going to see as soon as the weather becomes warmer. These dresses are wonderfully youthful affairs with bodices that are boned for a corset-like moulding.

Scarves, stoles and capes, however, need not be of the same material as the dress. Many of the new print dresses are paired with lightweight wool scarves in a solid color. This is a good idea if you want to do some remodeling of your wardrobe.

Many fabrics star in the new handbags. Tweeds will go into handbags that are paired with suits, while leather is used for trimming many of the fabric bags.

KATHLEEN NORRIS The Easter Miracle

Bell Syndicate—WNU Features By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"I COULD actually have seen the miracle, in the days of Christ's life on earth, of course I'd believe!"

So many people—bewildered, anxious, troubled in these dark days—say that, that it seems worth while to point out to them in this time of Easter, a real living, inexpressible, undeniable miracle.

Well, then, there lived a young carpenter 2,000 years ago, who talked strange talk of God's being his father. God, the avenging, cruel, mysterious ruler of the old religions, just as a father, understanding and wise and loving! This was so extraordinary an idea that it is no wonder that this young man, Jesus, was regarded with dark suspicion.

He never wrote a line, never had any position or money, never gained an influential friend, and He presently died the death of a common criminal. All this happened in a little oriental town more obscure than the nearest cross-roads village to you. No railway to his town, no telephone, radio, movie news. Nothing. Nothing, one would think, to prevent this political criminal from sinking into the obscurity that has swallowed up such young radicals from the beginning of time.

Radical in His Ideas

For radical He was. He said children were way ahead of the rest of us in the secret of eternal life; He said the humblest among us would one day stand first; He said anyone who needed your kindness was your neighbor. He said things about feeding the hungry, clothing the naked that were quite new to oriental philosophy.

And He went further; He went against all human precedent and custom. He said, "Forgive your enemies." Why should you? He

Use Easter Eggs for Place Cards (See Recipes Below)

Easter Plans

ONE OF THE TRADITIONAL highlights of Easter will probably be the coloring of Easter eggs. Though some adults think that coloring eggs is strictly child's play and should be left to youngsters, a large percentage of grownups doesn't agree. As a matter of fact, many people welcome Easter as a time when their artistic skill can be brought into full swing.

You may make the eggs as elaborate or as simple as you like. Perhaps a few brightly colored eggs in a gay basket as a setting for the Easter breakfast table are all you'll want. On the other hand, you may want to try out your skill at making faces or pencilling names on colored eggs.

With certified Easter egg colors that come with a handy writer, you'll be able to create eggs as simple or professional as you like. Eggs will be effective and appropriate place cards at the Easter dinner.

Two appropriate creations certain to appeal are the pert bunny and a coy little chick. Stiff white cardboard is used for the base and for the stand-up collars that hold the eggs.

Use yellow dye for the chicken. Rest the egg on a collar with a pink bow tied under the upper eyelashes and attach a paper beak at the right place. Stand a feather up the back, and you'll have a chicken everyone will love!

The rabbit is prettiest when dyed light blue or pink. Use little white reinforcements (the kind the youngsters get for notebook paper) for the eyes and mouth. Bits of white string tucked under the "mouth" make whiskers and long, tapering pieces of crepe paper make the ears. Turn the collar down in front to make a pointed collar and the bunny is complete.

EASTER DINNER might be built around lamb with appropriate sauce and spring vegetables.

Have leg of lamb and boned and rolled by the butcher. Wipe with a damp cloth. Mix together the following: one-third cup fat or salad oil, one minced clove of garlic, two teaspoons marjoram, three-fourths teaspoon powdered mustard, one teaspoon salt and one-half teaspoon paprika. Rub the mixture over the meat before roasting.

For boned, rolled leg of lamb, set the oven slow (325°) and roast, without water or other liquid, 45 minutes to the pound if the meat weighs between four and five pounds. For a heavier leg of lamb, roast 42 minutes per pound at the same temperature.

HAVE YOU EVER tried sweet potatoes with lamb? They're a delicious combination. Here are two recipes from which you may take your choice.

LYNN SAYS: Here's What to Do With Easter Eggs

Eggs decorated for Easter may be used in many different ways to add nourishment as well as interest to meals. They should be hard-cooked before decorating, of course!

Mix the whites of four hard-cooked eggs with two cups of white sauce and pour this over toast. Press the yolks through a sieve to decorate the tops of the creamed whites.

To one cup of white sauce, add 6 hard-cooked eggs, diced, season with curry powder and serve over a bed of hot cooked rice or on toast points.

Hard-cooked eggs may, naturally, be used for deviled eggs to go with a luncheon or supper salad, or to accompany sandwiches in the lunch box on the following day.

Green vegetables take on color and interest when they're garnished with sliced hard-cooked eggs. They're especially good on a mound of spinach, broccoli, asparagus or cooked greens.

LYNN CHAMBERS' EASTER MENU

- *Roast Leg of Lamb
- *Sweet Potato Puffs
- New Peas in Cream
- *Carrot-Asparagus Salad
- *Sally Lunn Muffins
- Current Jelly Beverage
- Strawberry Ice Cream
- *Peach Refrigerator Pudding
- *Recipe given

- 1 tablespoon butter
- Cream to moisten
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- Crushed cornflakes

- 1 egg
- Water

Boil potatoes in boiling water until tender. Peel, rice and mash them. Season with butter, salt, nutmeg and cream enough to make them moist. Roll into small balls. Dip in egg which has been slightly beaten with water. Coat with cornflakes. Bake in a greased pan in a moderate

(350°) oven until browned, 15 to 20 minutes, or, fry in hot, deep fat. (Fat should be hot enough to brown a cube of bread in one minute.)

*Carrot-Asparagus Salad

Cut scraped, cleaned carrots in fine strips and plunge into ice water. Chill thoroughly. Drain and dry between towels. Arrange in a circle on crisp lettuce leaves. Place chilled, cooked or canned asparagus tips in the center and serve with well chilled, seasoned French dressing.

TENDER MUFFINS served with jelly make a delicious accompaniment to the dinner:

- *Sally Lunn Muffins (Makes 1 dozen medium)
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Cream butter and sugar until very smooth. Add egg and beat well. Sift flour with baking powder and salt and add alternately with milk to first mixture. The batter should be quite thin. Grease medium sized muffin pans and pour in mixture to fill them two-thirds full. Bake in a moderately hot (375°) oven 15 to 20 minutes.

*Peach Refrigerator Pudding (Serves 8)

- 1/2 pound butter
- 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- 4 eggs
- 3 cups sliced peaches
- 24 lady fingers
- 1 pint whipping cream

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Line an oblong pan with lady fingers on sides and bottom. Fold in peaches with creamed butter-sugar and egg mixture. Place one-half of mixture in lady finger lined pan. Add a layer of lady fingers, then remaining mixture. Top with lady fingers. Place in refrigerator for 24 hours. Unmold and garnish with whipped cream.

If using fresh peaches, sprinkle them with lemon juice and sugar.

Ever tried eggs au gratin? Devil hard-cooked eggs, then place in a casserole, cover with grated cheese and white sauce. Top with buttered crumbs and bake until golden.

Mix the yolks of hard-cooked eggs with finely chopped ham, then re-fill the whites. Serve on lettuce leaves and pass mayonnaise.

Hard-cooked eggs may be ground or chopped, then mixed with drained sweet pickle relish, mayonnaise, Thousand Island dressing, mustard and salt to taste. Pack the mixture into small cups and chill.

Add grated cheese to white sauce, in the proportion of one-half pound of cheese to four cups of sauce. To this add eight hard-cooked eggs sliced, one-half pound sauteed mushrooms and one can of tomato soup. Heat and serve on toast or patty shells.

Sliced, hard-cooked eggs combine with any fish casserole and make it colorful. They extend the fish, too! Chopped hard-cooked eggs may be mixed with mayonnaise and chill sauce for a delicious salad or meat dressing.

Livestock—Solution To Three 'Problems'

Increased production of livestock will solve the bug-a-boo of surplus grain, aid soil conservation, and create efficiencies which will make possible the profitable sale of more meat and animal products at prices more people can afford to pay.

Moreover, the need for soil conservation is just another argument in favor of more emphasis on animal agriculture, according to H. E. Babcock, one of America's top agricultural leaders.

Grass crops hold and build up the soil, and animal manure adds valuable humus while acting as fertilizer; for example, the rich black soil of Iowa is the result of centuries of grass and grazing buffalo.

Railroad News

Good Friday is usually good fishing and if the present good weather continues, good golfing, gardening and good horse racing will soon be in season.

The town is already taking on a Derby Day atmosphere with an influx of express and freight shipments of sulkies, trunks and other racing gear. Strangers clad in checkered clothing coming in on No. 455 every day are quick to notice improvements in the station surroundings, and find Howard Williams better equipped to handle their many needs this year.

All extra men on the board are enjoying a good week with an extra Harrington turn-around two days this week and the ballast cleaning train on the north end of the division.

This outfit known as the Speno train moved into Harrington from Clayton last Monday and will be operating back and forth on both tracks between Dover and Seaford for the next two weeks, cleaning dirt and cinders from the ballast roadbed.

Extra crews handling the train this week are Engineer Pete Wilson, Fireman H. W. King, Conductor Sam Truitt, Brakeman Leon Wix, John Porter and Flagman Allen Klapp. These jobs were advertised yesterday.

It is hoped that some of the ladies who gave Harrington such good representation at the recent Aid luncheon at Delmar can take in the spring luncheon at Norfolk on the 27th of the month. Notice sent out to all Departments reads as follows:

"The Women's Aid, Delmarva Division, extends a most cordial invitation to the wives and daughters of employes for their spring luncheon and General Meeting to be held at 12:00 Noon, Wednesday, April 27th, in Bell's Seafood Restaurant, 117 E. City Hall Avenue, Norfolk, Va. Mrs. W. L. Williams and ladies from the Norfolk area will officiate as hostesses.

"Arrangements are being made for an interesting program, details of which will be announced at a later date. A door prize will be awarded.

"Tickets to this affair will cost $1.25 each, and they are being distributed to various key points on the division where they may be secured from department heads or local Women Aid representatives.

"We are looking forward to a full attendance from all points on the division, and everyone is asked to secure tickets early, as it will be necessary for all reservations to be made through Mrs. W. L. Williams, care Boat Master, Norfolk Yard, Cape Charles, Va., not later than April 25th. Mrs. W. F. Cobb, 209 Tazwell Ave., Cape Charles, Va., and Mrs. M. M. Quinn, Delmar, Del., will handle all reservations from their respective districts.

"Don't forget the time and date: 12:00 Noon, Wednesday, April 27, in Bell's Seafood Restaurant, 117 E. City Hall Avenue, Norfolk, Va."

Master Carpenter Wade Mitchell was called to Mansfield, Ohio, last evening by the death of his father.

Hi-Grade Dairy Gains Under Top-Notch Policies of F. S. Bailey, Civic Leader

CORRECTION

In our "Who's Who in The Business World" columns of March 25th, we mentioned Hi-Grade Dairy having a percentage satisfactory rating of 19.1 percent. This is an error on our part and should read 92.1 percent. We exceedingly regret this error.

HARRINGTON JOURNAL

Sanitary aspects prevail at the Hi-Grade Dairy, Clark Street, Harrington, a firm which has upheld the rightful methods of modern and model sanitary procedure ever since 1935. It has marked an appreciable progress with each successive year of reliable operation.

Fred S. Bailey, prominent for his civic-spirited activities, directs a capable staff of seven workers who keep service moving at ideal efficiencies. Three trucks are operated for prompt and proper deliveries throughout Harrington and vicinity. Nutritious and delicious dairy products distributed include pasteurized, homogenized, and chocolate milk, whipping and coffee cream.

Last year Hi-Grade Dairy received a 92.1 percentage satisfactory rating from the Delaware State Board of Health, the highest rating in the state outside of Wilmington. Local producers deserving credit for making this attainment possible include J. B. Lister, George Simpson, Edward Taylor, George Sapp, Clayton Tucker, Harry Legates, P. C. Harrington, Clayton Layton and W. R. Shockley.

A former State Senator and House Representative for two successive terms, Mr. Bailey holds esteem for his loyal public service. President of the Democratic Committee since 1932, he holds popular membership in the American Legion, Masons, Odd Fellows, and is a former secretary of the Kent and Sussex County Milk Dealers Association. He is also a director of the Kent and Sussex County Fair and Racing Association and is affiliated with the P. R. R.

INSURANCE COMPANY 50 YEARS OLD

The Home Life Insurance Company of America will complete a half-century of service to its policy holders on April 17. The company was founded in Wilmington in 1899 and until 1907 issued insurance only on the lives of residents of its home state. In the latter year the company extended its business operations to the state of Pennsylvania and the executive offices were transferred to Philadelphia.

Since 1940, assets have doubled and stood at $36,515,483 at the end of 1948. Payments to policy holders and their beneficiaries during 1948 amounted to $2,321,250 and total $44,357,445 since organization. Insurance in force as of December, 1948, amounted to $223,579,250.
