

Legionnaires Win Eight In Row, Defeating League-Leading Rehoboth

Local Boys Win, 66-55, At Rehoboth; We Play Smyrna Here Tonight

The Harrington Legionnaires basketball team won its eighth consecutive game Monday night, walloping the league-leading Rehoboth quintet on the seaside court, 66-55.

The victory put the local boys in a temporary tie for the lead, with Rehoboth, with each team having won ten games and lost three. The tie was soon broken, however, with Rehoboth defeating Felton at Felton Wednesday night, when Harrington was idle.

Jack Dill and Clay Downes shared 47 points in pacing Harrington. Cecil Travis had 15 for the losers.

Harrington will play Smyrna here tonight at the high school. With Harry Fisher bucketing 22 points, Felton rang up its fifth win Monday night, defeating Milford, 53-26, at Milford.

Smyrna tabbed its eighth decision Monday night, whipping Dover, 70-25.

In the All-Delaware Girl's League, Milton defeated Rehoboth, 44-41, Georgetown topped Dover, 44-42, and Milford downed Felton, 42-24.

As this was written, the score of the Rehoboth-Felton game Wednesday night was in doubt. Eugene Anderson, who attended the game, said the score was 61-49, while Bill Minner, who also attended, said he thought it was 58-49.

We play Dover away next Thursday and Lewes away next Friday.

Hoof Beats

Yonkers Raceway, new addition to the Metropolitan New York harness racing scene, will distribute $249,000 in purse money to horsemen during its 21-night spring meeting, April 27-May 20.

Approximately $1,500,000 has been spent in renovating the former Empire City running establishment since its purchase by the Algam Corp. last year.

Plans for the 1950 season at Yonkers call for $1,000 purse minimums; and a pair of $25,000 features, the Yonkers Derby Aug. 17, for pacers, and The Gotham Oct. 12, for trotters—both to be raced at a mile and a half.

Railroad News

by Cliff Miller

We though business was pretty bad for us the past two months but someone has said "nothing can be so bad, but what, it might be worse," so now it's getting tough.

Today is the last day for trains No. 455 south at 12:20 p. m. and No. 454 north at 4:46 p. m. until business gets better.

We still feel that better times are "just around the corner" and we will have more business than we can take care of as soon as the coal miners (not John Lewis) get their differences straightened out so they can work five instead of three days a week.

So let's be happy like little Iodine who locked the bathroom door and threw the key away and laughed and laughed and laughed. She knew her daddy was going to have a beer party.

(Correction on last week's date) The oyster party will be on Feb. 25 in the Armory at Salisbury. Don't let anything interfere with this date as we all want to be there. Chairman Mike Quinn is busy on arrangements for some elaborate entertainment. Watch for further details.

Mrs. T. M. Goodfellow, superintendent of the Women's Aid, Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, announced that their new Aid Room in the P. R. R. Office Building, Cape Charles, Va., will be the scene of their general meeting to be held at 2:30 p. m., Thursday. Mrs. Robert W. Windsor and ladies from the train service department will be hostesses. A cordial invitation is being extended to wives and daughters of railroad employees.

A fine program of entertainment has been arranged, featuring a minstrel show, George Washington birthday refreshments and a door prize.

March of Dimes Closes Tomorrow

The last opportunity to contribute to the March of Dimes will be Saturday. The actual sum received up to noon Tuesday was $878.62 considerably short of the quota of $1000 for Harrington, Farmington and vicinity. Last year $1296.95 was collected in this territory. In the present drive individual contributors exceeded last year but our shortage is due to less response from commercial and industrial sources. Our increase during the present week was in part due to a fine job accomplished by Mrs. Harry Stout, assisted by Mrs. Ellis Myer, in getting practically a one hundred per cent contribution from the persons connected with the race horse contingent at the Kent & Sussex Fair Grounds and the collections taken at the Reese Theatre on Saturday and Sunday evenings.

There is still time to get your name on the honor roll of this great and necessary cause. The following additional persons have contributed and the final list will be shown in next week's issue of The Harrington Journal: Myna N. Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. H. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Denney, Mr. and Mrs. C. Perry, Harrington New Century Club, Milton R. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kellen, Mrs. Helen Cordray, Farmington Home Demonstration Club, Harrington & Raughley, Gus Raughley, Mrs. Edith Ryan, Mr. Ernest Homewood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rook, Fair Grounds Collections, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ramsdell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Nimrod Minner, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Parsons, Business & Professional Women's Club of Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peck, Mr. Henry S. Griffith, Browns Laby, Inc., Mrs. W. B. Layton Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tee, Reese Theatre, Mr. Leonard A. Taylor, Harrington High School, Dr. Robert H. Smith.

Rebekah Lodge Receives Instructions Mrs. Evelyn Porter, Grand Noble, presided at the meeting of the Rebekah Lodge held in Odd Fellows Hall Friday evening.

Mrs. Margaret Sharpless, in instructions to the members. Mrs. Frances Penny, a new member, was taken in the lodge.

The covered dish chicken and dumpling supper to be held March 3 was discussed.

Homemade cake and coffee were served after the business session.

Marshall's Intruders Prefer Ham

Hungry thieves broke in the back window of Marshall's Restaurant and had quite a party out in the kitchen, Sunday night. They were especially fond of ham. They were missing Monday morning.

It is believed they were routed early Monday morning by the bread man. They left before taking the money from the juke box after having broken the glass and opened the door. Money in the cash register was intact.

HOUSTON FIRE COMPANY

The regular monthly meeting of the Houston Volunteer Fire Co. was held Monday evening. There was a large number present. It was decided to hold another card party on Friday evening, Feb. 17. Both cards and bingo will be played and wonderful prizes offered to winners.

Two applications were received for membership.

It is likely that the Blue Hen Ramblers will give another performance here some time in March.

"STRENGTHEN LIBERTY"

John Parks Reviews Boy Scout History

By John G. Parks

Foreword: This slight history of our local troop has been gotten up in less than 24 hours' time and has not been taken from any written records. It had to be gotten from the memory of those who participated and I assure you that it is very hazy in spots. Should the name of any person be unwittingly omitted, please be kind enough to forgive and help correct. It is inaccurate in places and we admit it. But it is the combined memory of many. When an automobile accident occurs, no two witnesses agree as to the circumstances. The same can be said for this report.

It seems from reports, that a Rev. Berry, pastor of the Nazarene church, started the first Scout Troop in Harrington. Later this troop became inactive. In 1926, Jake Messner organized Troop No. 76, the troop that is now active. Events are now hazy in his mind but he says that the American Legion, with Earl Sylvester leading, helped to quite an extent at about this time, or a little after.

After this, Joe Laws became scoutmaster, and seemed to be quite active. In 1931 Charles G. Murray was scoutmaster and had the able assistance of Leonard Horleman. Next came Frank Withey. After Frank, the Rev. Parker took over with the help of Tharp Harrington. From all reports, Joe Laws must have come back in as scoutmaster for a short time. He had as an assistant, George Vapaa.

In about 1936 or 1937 it was decided that the Scouts needed a cabin and finally a spot was picked at McColey's Pond on the land of "Soppy" Callaway. Prime constructionists of this building were O. T. Roberts, A. B. Parsons, Joe Laws, Tharp Harrington, Arthur Krouse, Willis Clifton, Fred Greenly, Sr., Clarence Kemp and Clarence Shockley. Murphy & Hayes Company donated the lumber. It was well-built and has served up to the present for Scout hikes and weekends.

Back in 1939, Melvin Brobst became scoutmaster and a very good one he was. The boys progressed and were wrapped up in it. After Melvin went into the armed services, we had a succession of scoutmasters. The Rev. Tom Jones was the first. Then Steve Ungnanz until he was transferred by the railroad. John Parks took over in order to keep the troop together until a new leader could be found.

Funeral Held For Mrs. M. Gerardi

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Boyer Funeral Home for Mrs. Myrtle Legates Gerardi, 33, who died Wednesday night, Feb. 1, at Milford Memorial Hospital from injuries suffered in an automobile accident in which another woman was killed the previous Friday near Burrsville.

The Rev. Frier Baker, pastor of Pilgrim Holiness Church, officiated. Interment was in Hollywood Cemetery.

Mrs. Gerardi is survived by her husband, Lewis Gerardi, injured in the same accident; three children; her father, Charles Legates, Harrington; two brothers, Charles Legates Jr., and Oscar Legates, both of Harrington, and two sisters, Mrs. Agnes Sallo and Mrs. Edith Dunn, of Milford.

The accident occurred when a truck, driven by Robert E. Link, of Miami, Fla., ran into the rear of a station wagon in which Mrs. Gerardi was riding.

Chosen Friends Lodge No. 35

I. O. O. F.

Deputy Grand Master Edward Cooper, of Amity Lodge, Camden, and District Deputy Grand Instructor W. W. Hess visited Chosen Friends Lodge Thurs., Feb. 2, and instructed the lodge members in the unwritten words of the ritual. This was very instructing and something every lodge member needs to become a good lodge brother.

They will visit the following lodges. Anyone wishing to visit these places will do themselves a world of good in receiving this valuable instruction. The lodges are: Felton Lodge, Mon., Feb. 20; Camden Lodge, Wed., March 1; Crystal Fount Lodge, Milford, Mon., March 6, and Dover Lodge, Thurs., Feb. 16.

Our lodge members have replaced the oldtime wall lights with fluorescent lights and the hall has put on a different appearance.

The dartball team motored to Laurel Friday evening and got licked. This makes four defeats to five wins. It looks as though our chances of winning the trophy are very slim now.

At this writing, the lodge and its members mourn the loss of one of its best and most valuable members, Mr. Alfred Sharpe. It is with honor and brotherly love that this lodge and its members extend their most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. Sharpe in their bereavement and loss of this member whose heart and soul was dedicated to the work of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and who lived and died an Odd Fellow.

March of Dimes Ends Tomorrow At Felton

The March of Dimes campaign for Felton, according to Mrs. Walter Moore, chairman of the drive. Mrs. Moore added that contributions are still needed to reach the quota.

The Felton fund was augmented by $25, proceeds of a basketball game Jan. 23, between Felton High School and Felton town boys, and the high school girls and the V. F. W. girls. The high school teams lost both games.

The games were arranged by John J. Corkery, teacher of physical education and social sciences. Referees were Lewis J. Roushey, science teacher at Caesar Rodney, and Mr. O'Neal, of Smyrna.

The church's junior choir collected $70 in a door-to-door campaign for the March of Dimes.

Andrewville Club Hears Decorator

Arthur Hanby, interior decorator at Feinberg's Furniture Store, Wilmington, was guest speaker at the Andrewville Home Demonstration Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Dean, Harrington last week. Mrs. Dean, president, presided.

Mrs. Violet N. Goodwill, home demonstration agent for Kent County introduced Mr. Hanby whose topic was on "Living Rooms." Mr. Hanby stressed that small rooms should be carpeted from wall to wall, home decorations have fashions as well as do clothing, and that small rooms can be decorated attractively, but need care. The keynote is simplicity. He supplemented his talk with three films on color in decorating, arrangement of rooms, and selection of rugs.

"Desserts with a Dairy Accent" will be discussed at the March 2 meeting of the club to be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Griffith, Andrewville.

Demonstration Club Hears About Blue Cross

The Victory Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Baynard Smith, with Miss Myrtle Anderson, president, presiding.

After the business session, ice cream and homemade cake were served by the hostess.

Kent County Rent Decontrol to be Aired At Dover Friday

Council Appoints City Clerk-City Manager

Grace Wanda Quillen was appointed city clerk and city manager Monday night at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council. Her salary will be $40 per week.

Other business of the Council included: The appointment of Arnold Gilstad and A. B. Parsons as auditors, with liberty to hire their own help; the appointment of Fire Chief C. D. Mills as fire marshal; the authorization to buy four heaters and a thermostat for the pumping station at the standpipe.

The heaters and the thermostat, it was said, would save money by activating a throw-off switch which would prevent overflowing of the standpipe.

Action was deferred on a proposal to install a 6-inch water main on West Street from Milby Street to Commerce Street. The distance would be 910 feet. The move was made pending the awarding of a contract by the State to improve West Street.

The Council moved to give delinquent taxpayers a reasonable notice before taking legal steps to collect the funds.

He was a past Noble Grand of Chosen Friends Lodge I. O. O. F., of Harrington, a member of Kirkwood Encampment, Milford, and a Past Master of Harrington Grange No. 55.

Funeral services were held at the Boyer Funeral Home, Harrington Thursday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Joseph S. Kinks, rector of St. Stephens Episcopal Church, Harrington. Interment was in Hollywood Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma Mack Sharpe, and a daughter, Mrs. Edward C. Brown; five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren, all of Harrington; three sisters, Mrs. Louis H. Mack, Harrington; Mrs. Eugene Vincent, Mich.; Mrs. George E. Lemmon, Bridgeville; three brothers, Wm. Sharpe, Milford, Mich.; Albert Sharpe, Doe Lake, Ontario, Canada, and Jesse Sharpe, Milford, Mich.

Special Note About "Willie"

Due to the terrific acclaim given "When Willie Comes Marching Home," with Dan Dailey, originally scheduled for showing at the Reese Theatre, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 16 and 17, this smash comedy hit will play three days instead of two—Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, Feb. 19, 20, and 21.

Everyone is urged to see "When Willie Comes Marching Home," as the world needs more laughter, and this picture has an abundance.

The new hit, "East Side, West Side," with Barbara Stanwyck, Ava Gardner, and Van Heflin, will play at this popular theatre, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 16 and 17.

Loyal Workers Meet At Home of Mrs. Cahall

The Loyal Workers Bible Class of Trinity Methodist Church met Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Blanche Cahall. She was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Belle Sylvester, Mrs. Blanche Williams, Mrs. Harley Waller, and Mrs. Elwood Grunwell.

Mrs. William Swain, president, was in charge of the devotionals and business.

The class gave a substantial check toward the remodeling fund of the church.

During the social hour, games were played and delicious refreshments served to the large number in attendance.

A public hearing on the question of rent decontrol in Kent County will be held in the social hall of the Dover Public School by the Delaware Rent Advisory Board at 8 p. m. today. The meeting will be open to the public and all persons will be given the opportunity to express their opinions on whether or not rent decontrol should be applied to this county, which is represented on the rent board by former Mayor J. O. Willis of Dover and Louis A. Drexler of Camden.

The testimony heard at the meeting will be reviewed later and decision reached as to whether rents should be taken from control in this county.

Realtors in Favor

The Board of Kent County Realtors has already gone on record as recommending rent decontrol and will be represented at the hearing.

A drive to extend rent control beyond June 30 "is under way despite reports from decontrolled cities that average rent increases have been moderate, that rental units have become more plentiful, and that skyrocketing rents, mass evictions, and other civil commotion predicted by control advocates have not developed," the realtors maintain.

"Rent controls," the group's statement sets forth, "is unfair because it discriminates against a minority group—the rental property owners—by holding their income to pre-war levels while that of every other citizen is free to rise with the trend of the times."

It contends that rent control prevents improvement and modernization of many present rental units because owners cannot afford the high cost of materials and labor while their income is suppressed, and that all small businessmen, professional people, and all citizens will benefit in the long run by decontrol.

Home Club Samples Dairy Desserts

Mrs. Howard Cooper and Mrs. Phil Harrington were leaders at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Harrington Home Demonstration Club held over the First National Bank.

Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Harrington attended cooking school accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Cain and Mrs. Jehu Camper at the Grange Hall in Camden Jan. 31. Miss M. Gertrude Holloway instructed the ladies on milk desserts. They, in turn, demonstrated dairy desserts to the home demonstration group. Mrs. Cooper made a custard with date trimming; Mrs. Camper, a Spanish Cream; Mrs. Cain, bread pudding, and Mrs. Harrington made pineapple sherbert. These desserts were sampled by the group. It was pointed out that the average adult, as well as child, does not get an adequate amount of milk. An adult should have at least a quart a day, and a child, one and a half quarts.

After the business meeting, the Southern States Advisory Committee and members of the Harrington Home Demonstration Club met at Peck Bros. Farm Supply Store where Charles Peck Jr. explained and demonstrated electrical appliances.

Canterbury Club Hears Hanby

The Canterbury Home Demonstration Club met at the Lodge Hall Friday evening. Mrs. Kathryn McGinnis, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president.

Mrs. Violet N. Goodwill, home demonstration agent for Kent County, was present and introduced the guest speaker, Arthur Hanby, of Feinberg's Store, in Wilmington. Mr. Hanby, an interior decorator at Feinberg's, spoke on the living room—how to use color in decorating, floor covering, wall paper, drapes, arrangement and period of furniture. He also showed films on redecorating a living room.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Nap and Spence in Dover, were guests of the club.

Mrs. Russell Torbert will entertain the club March 3, with Mrs. Dorsay Torbert and Mrs. Lynn Torbert as cohostesses. The topic for the month will be "Desserts with a Dairy Accent."

Wallace Harper Pet Producer For Three Decades

Wallace Harper has the distinction of being one of the two remaining milk producers who shipped to the Pet Milk Company plant when it was opened July 5, 1920. He has been shipping milk steadily for almost 30 years, with the exception of short periods when his cows went dry.

When interviewed, Harper began to reminisce about the early modes of transportation when his milk was first hauled in a Dearborn for a year, and then in a Ford touring car for two years.

"At first you didn't even need a milk house or stable to ship milk, just so you had a bucket and a cow," he added. He believes that the present regulations, however, are all for the good of the dairy industry in helping produce good quality milk. This is shown by the fact that he probably hasn't had over a dozen cans of sour milk returned in almost 30 years, and his sediment record is equally as good.

His first venture into the dairy business was with five mixed grade cows. His son, William, has helped him through the years in the farming operation. The Harpers gradually built up their herd until they were milking 10 cows last year with a high production of 340 pounds of milk daily. Recently William has taken eight of the cows, and is now farming for himself.

Harper speaks highly of the Pet Milk Company's purebred sire program, and has purchased several bulls this way. His present herd shows evidence of the introduction of these sires in offspring of the original herd. "Year in and year out dairying pays more than anything else," he asserts, "and I hope to re-establish my herd to the number of cows I had last year."

Milford Lions Club To Present Minstrel Show

There is plenty of fun and laughter in store for those who see the Milford Lions Club first annual minstrel show to be presented on the stage of the New Milford Theatre, Wed. and Thurs., Feb. 22-23. It's the first home talent minstrel show to be offered in Milford in at least ten years.

The Lions Minstrel Show will be just like the annual shows of the "good old days." The cast will include the interlocutor, Harwood Jamison, and eight end men, Jacob Rose, Howard Furniss, William Slee, Wilber Hammond, Henry Saunders, Jr., Joseph McPaul, Walter Muncey, and William Gillespie. There will be a chorus of approximately 35 local people. Rehearsals have been under way for several weeks under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn West of Millsboro, who has directed many minstrel shows in this area in recent years.

The Lions Minstrel show will be presented once each evening at 8 p. m. Tickets are now being sold by all members of the club and are also on sale at the New Milford Theatre box office. Approximately 50 per cent of the seats will be reserved at $1, with the balance unreserved at 76c. Children's admission will be 35c. All prices include the federal tax.

The profit from the minstrel show will go to the Lions Club general fund which is used to help the many organizations and causes that it sponsors throughout the year.

WHEELER RADIO STORE NEWS

Yes Television is the topic of the day. To keep up with the trend of the times, let us install one for you and see how wonderful they are. Sometimes maybe they don't do as well as you would like, still you must remember it rains some times when you want the sun to shine. But honestly they are great and will keep your family home with a complete night of entertainment.

You owe it to yourself and your family to have a television set that they are all talking about. Of course PHILCO is the name and the factory is running at break-neck speed to catch up with the ever increasing demand.

Just call us on telephone 541 and we will take care of the complete installation. We always have a selection of sets to choose from.

I have shopped around and have found nothing to compare with the new 9 foot PHILCO refrigerator with the large freezer built across the top and at a ridiculous low price of $269.50. What have you in a trade-in? Come in and let's get acquainted. If a 9 is too large, then think of a seven with freezer across the top at only 187.50, less money than a six foot was last year and also a chance to use that trade-in.

Bear in mind that these refrigerators are guaranteed for 5 years and the two makes we sell are PHILCO and WESTINGHOUSE. Where can you find any two better makes, think it over and we will do business. They are beginning to move faster than I expected on account of the warm winter and a little later on maybe your selection will not be quite as good. See them now and nothing to pay until some time in March.

Yes we would like to serve you gas and not only serve you gas but be of service to you when you need some adjustment on your stove or water heater.

We serve either bottled or metered gas and would be pleased to hook up that range or what ever you have even if you purchased elsewhere. We are installing ranges right along and our prices are lower than you would expect a good quality range to be.

Are you going or expecting to get a gas hot water heater? If so, let us take care of it for you. We will take care of the piping, heater and the complete job.

Looking at the flowers in bloom and the bushes flowering is, I would say, a sign that spring is very near. That as usual means a general house cleaning. I mean general as you cannot sweep the floors and change your drapes and stop at that. More than ever your walls will be exposed with the bright days ahead.

This of course calls for some changes or color schemes and let me say here we have some beautiful colors in our wall papers. Not for just one room but for every room in the house even to the den. Come in, see for yourself, we have plenty.

How about that old washer that is standing on its last leg? They say they are like people, not worth much when they get old but you will be surprised what you can get for it on an exchange. We have several wanting used washers, why not trade yours in now? Either MAYTAG or WESTINGHOUSE, automatic or wringer type.

When you want your money's worth, call Wheeler's Radio Store, phone 541, Harrington, Delaware. TALK PEACE NOT WAR.

Felton School News

The Felton P. T. A. observed its second birthday in the high school auditorium Thurs., Feb. 2. The guest speaker for the evening was S. Morston Fox, president of the Delaware Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mr. Fox's topic was "The Citizen Child."

The highlights of Mr. Fox's speech are as follows. All of us are interested in the welfare of our children. The administrative theme of the National Parent-Teachers' Association is "The Citizen Child and his Destiny in a Free World." The point is to prepare our children to be useful to themselves and to their neighbors. Our theme today is very similar to the theme of Dr. Bertram Fowler on "Education in Preparation for Citizenship." There is a lesson in this: We are treading roads that have been well-trodden. Our teachers and educators have been working on this theme in preparing our children for useful citizenship for a long time. That does not mean we are working on a stale purpose. We are learning a lot, at least we have had the opportunity to learn a lot. We have a time-proven purpose to keep in mind. I would choose to hang the thought of the citizen-child as a sort of guiding star to fix our gaze upon.

P. T. A. has a number of different media to guide each of us toward that goal. One of our difficulties, though is that we lack continuity. Very often our new set of officers have only attended meetings once or twice and are not too well-informed as to what should be the guiding principles. The P. T. A. does a number of things to try to give that information to all people. National publications are sent to the local organizations each year. The manual is the basic publication. It is very important to know what you are driving for. The objectives which we are striving for are written on back of the membership card. They are: 1. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community. 2. To raise the standards of home life. 3. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth. 4.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school that parents and teachers may co-operate intelligently in the training of the child. 5. To develop between educators and the general public such united effort as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

Delaware did a good job in getting through several major items of legislature. Mr. Fox told of several communities throughout the country that overcame bad school situations. A workable plan to follow: Think first, then gather facts and finally do things to bring about changes. The N. E. A., A. A. U. W., and womens clubs working together did the job.

Modern Matches
Rats and mice will not chew the heads of modern matches even when starving. When W. A. Fairbairn created the present-day non-poisonous formula 40 years ago, it was learned that the ingredients were abhorrent to rodents. Prior to that time many fires resulted from the linking of rodents for old-fashioned phosphorus matches.

Historical Sketches of Harrington and Near-By Communities

MISPILLION HUNDRED

The largest of the hundreds of Kent County, as well as the largest of the original hundreds, is Mispillion hundred. As originally constituted, it comprised all the territory now included in its present area, as well as the area of Milford hundred, and extended from Delaware Bay to the Maryland line, and from the boundary line of the original Murderkill hundred to the northern line of Sussex County. On Jan. 23, 1830, by Act of Assembly, the hundred was divided in such a manner that all the territory lying west of the road leading from the South Murderkill hundred southern boundary to Williamsville, once used and occupied by the Philadelphia, Dover and Norfolk Steamboat and Transportation Company, should be known as Mispillion hundred, and all territory east of the said road should be known as Milford hundred.

Mispillion hundred, as now constituted, therefore, is bounded on the north by South Murderkill, on the east by the road to Williamsville, on the south by Sussex County, and on the west by the State of Maryland. Mispillion, because of its vast forests of oak and pine, was early designated in all land grants as "the forest of Mispillion." Most of these grand forests have disappeared before the axes of the early settlers, and vanished into lumber before the sawmills of the settlements. Vast tracts of Mispillion are under a state of rich cultivation, and in many parts where once grand oaks and pines covered the land, peach orchards and other fruit trees yield abundant harvest.

Murderkill and Mispillion creeks, and their branches, afford facilities for irrigation, and Marshy Hope Ditch and its many tributaries water the hundred bountifully. In the western part of the hundred, Ingram's Branch of the Choptank river opened up a rich iron-ore region, which was early exhausted, but which, until 1836, kept furnaces in Milford and Baltimore well supplied with ore. Two railroads furnish transportation facilities for the products of the hundred, the main line of the Delaware railroad passing through the eastern part of the hundred, and the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia making the western central portion of the hundred its northern terminus.

Most of the early settlements in the hundred were made in the northeastern part, on tracts now in Milford hundred. In most instances these were on patents granted by Lord Baltimore, who claimed the greater part of the present hundred. Luke Watson, of Lewes, received the first grant of land within the present hundred. The tract was called "Hunting Quarter" and was 1500 acres in area, but 500 of which were in the present Mispillion territory. "Fairfield," a 1000-acre tract on the south side of Brown's branch was the next taken up, and was warranted to William D. Durrell and William Clark, Nov. 1, 1684. John Townsend received a warrant for a tract of 500 acres on the south side of the main branch of Murderkill creek, Dec. 3, 1693.

Hickman

Dover Boy Enlists In Regular Army
Oliver Clendaniel, 18, of Dover, has been enlisted in the regular army with choice of assignment in the infantry. He was enlisted by the Dover Army and Air Force recruiting station at 109½ Lockerman St. for three years. At present he is undergoing the course of basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J.
Oliver was very active in the sports of the Dover YMCA.
While there are numerous assignments and branches of services open to young men today, Oliver chose the infantry. He stated that while he wanted to improve his education, he also wanted the excitement of the modern infantry soldier.
He had four brothers in the service during the recent war.
George E. Kimmey, 19, of Dewey Beach, has enlisted in the regular army unassigned, for three years. He is stationed at Ft. Dix.

"When Knighthood Was In 'Flour'"

Ike Parks this week brought in this picture of the Harrington Milling Company in 1922. The mill, now owned by John Parks, was owned by Murphy & Hayes. Frank Langrell is seen leaning on the fender of the Packard. Morris Ketchline is between the auto and the White truck. On the front fenders of the truck are: left, Len Cordray; right, George Swain, who still works for the mill. On the radiator is a child of Arlie Thomas who is standing on the left running-board. Ed Harriett is on the right running-board. On top of the cab is the late Isaac W. Parks, who gave the picture to his son, Ike. Driving the delivery wagon is the late George Johnson. Those still living are Ed Harriett, George Swain, Arlie Thomas and child, and Len Cordray. The mill, built by Ezekiel Fleming, is now owned by John Parks.

This tract was called "John's Purchase" and was resurveyed to Hugh Durborrow, Aug. 19, 1737. A tract of 200 acres on the south side of Murderkill creek was warranted Oct. 30, 1817, to James Thistlewood. The tract was known as Salisbury Plains, and upon it a mill was built by Thistlewood.
In August, 1735, John Randolph Bundelin received 200 acres by warrant on the south side of Marshy Hope, adjoining Cowland. Bundelin held many tracts in this and Murderkill hundred and sold some of his land to Peter Gallaway whose descendants, now called Callaway, are still in possession of some of the original "Mispillion Forest" grant. "Coon's Den," "Wolfpit Ridge," "Turkey Point," "Merritt's Adventure," "Mill's Purchase," "McKimmey's Outlet," "Boyer's Adventure," and "Rejected Bundle" were tracts of land warranted to early settlers in Mispillion Forest, 1700 and 1776, and were important tracts, in that some portion of the original grant has descended to members of the family of the original settlers.
In the center of the hundred was the only town in the hundred for many years. It was called "Vincent's Causeway," from an old man named Joshua Vincent, who settled there in 1780, opened a store, and built a boardwalk along the front of his property. Shortly prior to 1814 the name was changed to Vernon, for in that year, on Thursday of each week, two justices of the peace would hold court in Vernon, and the village assumed considerable importance by the large attendance of lawyers and suitors from Dover and Georgetown who were interested in the business before the justices. In 1830 a store was built a short distance out of Vernon by Reuben Anderson, and the place was named Greenville. Political rivalry kept the postoffice alternating between this point and Vernon until 1864, at which time Greenville ceased to exist. The entire vote of the original hundred of Mispillion was cast at Vernon until the division of the hundred was made in 1830. With the growth of Harrington, Vernon rapidly lost its importance and influence, and today is nothing more than a corner store.

Farrington is located on a tract of land granted to William Fleming, who came to Mispillion hundred from Scotland in 1739. The grant included some 400 acres, and the town site is on the extreme eastern portion of the tract. The town practically arose from a railroad station built on the Delaware railroad at that place and called "Flatiron." This was erected in 1855. Three years later a post-office was established, and the village, which had come with the completion of the railroad, was named Farrington. The town at one time had several industries, including two canning factories, an evaporator, a sawmill and a lumber yard. It has no industries now.

Harrington, formerly called Clark's Corner, grew from a corner store to a fair-sized town within practically 30 years. Benjamin Clark patented the land on which the town is located in 1760. This land lay on the eastern and western sides of the present town, and that of Benjamin Harrington on the north and south of it. Clark erected a hotel in 1810, and the place took the name of Clark's Corner. In 1856, with the building of the Delaware railroad, the town began to boom. Matthew J. Clark laid out a number of lots, in a town site, and by 1860 a good-sized village was in evidence. In 1862 the name was changed from Clark's Corner to Harrington by the Legislature, in honor of Samuel M. Harrington, then Chancellor of the State. Byle's map of Kent County, in 1859, however, calls it Harrington. Seven years later Harrington was incorporated.

With the growth of the town industrially came a large material growth; many well-to-do farmers in the hundred erected handsome homes in Harrington and contributed to its substantial prosperity. When the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia railroad, formerly the Junction & Breakwater railroad, made the town its northern terminus, an added impetus was given to it. The large sawmill, grist-mill, and spoke factory of Ezekiel Fleming, the canning and evaporating works of James C. Reed, the basket factory of William H. and Omer J. Franklin, and the Harrington Chemical Works, conducted by S. S. Harrington, constituted industries employing several hundred hands and representing the investment of many thousands of dollars in capital in this pretty town.

Delaware Poultry Commission Continuing Promotional Activities

"Let's Eat Delaware Chicken" is the title of a full-color leaflet just released by the Delaware State Poultry Commission as a means of increasing consumption of Delaware chickens, thereby helping Delaware growers receive higher prices for broilers.

A half-million copies of the leaflet are to be given out during February, announces J. Frank Gordy, secretary of the Commission. It will be distributed through stores, radio, news releases and commercial firms.

The publication emphasizes the versatility of Delaware chicken, pointing out it can be used for frying, broiling or roasting. Featured are the three top prize winning recipes from the 1950 Delaware Chicken Festival. The leaflet also gives six brief "Tips for Homemakers about Chickens," emphasizing the nutritive value of Delaware chicken.

The Delaware Poultry Commission has also renewed its radio advertising program for another three-week period, beginning Feb. 1. The first radio promotion got under way in conjunction with retail store sales of chicken early in January and was followed by a tremendous increase in consumption of chicken. The volume of birds marketed from Delaware increased from only one and a half million for the week ending December 24 to over three million for the week ending January 21. The radio promotion consists of spot announcements on New York stations, preceding or incorporated in major network shows.

TEX BENEKE COMING TO NEW MILFORD IN PERSON SUNDAY

To the growing list of "big name" stage shows to appear at the New Milford Theatre, Milford, the name of Tex Beneke and his famous orchestra can now be added.

Tex and his "music in the Miller mood" band will appear in person at the New Milford Sunday.

Before the war there was no question that Glenn Miller's orchestra was the unchallenged leader in the popular music business. Today, Tex Beneke's orchestra, the band which Miller had intended to bring back before he was lost in action, has recaptured the No. 1 record-breaking position held by the pre-war band. Theatre records, ballroom records, and first place awards in popularity polls have fallen like wooden soldiers before the Beneke band's horns. And most of all, Tex Beneke has been a whirlwind record-breaker in the business of record making... phonograph records, that is. Such discs as "Kalamazoo," "Chattanooga Choo-choo," and "Anniversary Song" have sold millions of copies. Tex and his band have appeared in several feature movies and short subjects.

Camden-Wyoming-Dover DPIA To Meet Thurs.

Poultry housing and equipment will be the subject of a panel discussion at the monthly meeting of the Camden-Wyoming Local of the Delaware Poultry Improvement Association Thursday at 8:00 p. m. at Caesar Rodney High School.

Assistant Kent County Agricultural agent, John L. Crothers, Jr., Dover, points out that Fred Haas, St. Georges; Dave Greene, Dover, and William Richardson, Lebanon, have been contacted to take part in the panel. William A. Calvert, Jr., extension agricultural engineer, University of Delaware, will discuss housing and equipment with the panel.

Refreshments will be served by the DPIA Local.

Tex Beneke and his orchestra will appear four times Sunday at about 2:00 - 4:00 - 8:15 and 10:15. The screen feature is "Follow Me Quietly" starring William Lundigan. To avoid standing in line for tickets the management suggests that patrons secure them in advance at the theatre box office.

Mid-Delaware League To Hold Meeting Monday

If any club fails to reappear this season there will be an opening for some other team. CROP Campaign Nearing Close

As the CROP food collection campaign enters its final week, canvassers throughout Maryland are doubling their efforts to complete the statewide farm-to-farm canvass for food contributions.
Jointly sponsored by Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service and Lutheran World Relief, the Christian Rural Overseas Program has been collecting commodities in this area for shipment to the starving people of Europe, Asia and the Middle East.
The theory behind the program is that more friends can be made by shipping foods to hungry people than through any other means. The CROP foods are being distributed through already established church organizations in many countries.
Several carloads of grain and milk have already been given by Maryland farmers, and it is expected that by Wednesday, when the program officially closes, a large friendship train will have been

Who said Stromboli was barren and unproductive?

The government now has some 50,000,000 bushels of surplus spuds for which it paid an average of $1.25 in its price support program. "Santa Claus" also has surpluses of eggs, butter, and milk. If he has to support prices now, what will he do if a depression hits us?

When corn was 15c per bushel; when top hogs brought $2.05 per cwt., at the St. Louis market it was fitting and just that prices be supported. But not now. The taxpayer must pay two prices: taxes to the government so he can pay more for farm products at the stores.

A sound agricultural economy is essential to the nation's welfare. So is a free press, but we do not see "Uncle" guaranteeing us a fair price for our advertising. In fact, the government is responsible for a substantial amount of UNFAIR COMPETITION in the commercial printing field, and has been for many years.

A release is a purported news report issued for publication in newspapers. We fill our waste-basket with them every morning because the disseminators thereof consider what they want published, and not what we want published.

It seems that many of the writers of such drivel had rather waste hundreds of dollars sending out such trash, rather than spend a little bit for advertising.

We use some releases, particularly these pertinent to local and state affairs. Most of these appear to have been written by the stenographer, the janitor or even the office boy, judging from the amount of editing they require. A few years on a good daily newspaper or in a school of journalism would be enlightening to most of the writers. Of the releases we publish, NOT ONE appears to have been written by persons having this training.

Many releases come from "persons in high places" and from societies with grandiloquent titles. These societies and associations do not fool us—usually we search for the "gimmick" and find it. They write what they want, and not what we want.

'OPERATION EQUIPMENT'

"We need four respirators immediately . . . We must have ten hot pack machines right away . . . Rush four aspirators for our bulbar polio cases."

Urgent requests like these—and hundreds more—issued daily from hospitals throughout the country, as infantile paralysis last year took its blackest toll in the nation's history.

"Every plea was promptly met by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis," Mr. Earl Sylvester, Kent County March of Dimes Director, said today in urging the public to contribute generously as the local March of Dimes campaign entered its third week.

"Equipment plays a tremendously vital part in fighting a polio epidemic," Mr. Sylvester said. "But it is tremendously expensive too. More than a million and a half dollars worth of equipment was dispatched to all parts of the country last summer during the record epidemics. Now we will have to hold a tremendously successful March of Dimes in order to continue work of this sort."

The National Foundation, he said, maintains six centrally-located equipment pools in Boston, Columbus, Atlanta, Denver, San Antonio, and Portland, Ore. These are kept on a 24-hour alert to service emergency requests for polio equipment from Maine to California and from Washington to Florida.

He pointed out that procurement and dispatching of polio equipment is co-ordinated through a control room in New York where up-to-the-minute movement and location of every piece of equipment is pinpointed on huge maps.

Melvin Algier is including the raising of Hereford hogs in his swine operations. He has a registered sow and registered boar of the red and white hogs, a comparatively new breed and one relatively scarce in Delaware. The sow has saved nine December pigs from a litter of 11. Meat Leftovers

A good way to use those last precious bits of meat leftovers is to combine them with macaroni in a smooth cream sauce or canned mushroom soup. Top the casserole dish with margarine bread crumbs and bake in a moderate oven about 30 minutes.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

See where a bank in Denver is putting in left-handed checkbooks. They figure their southpaw depositors deserve just as much consideration as the right handers.

Time was when it was believed that left-handed people had no right to exist at all. If a youngster showed signs of using his left hand, his parents were supposed to break him of the habit—to force him to use his right.

But today most doctors will tell you that changing a child's natural left-handed tendency usually causes more harm than good.

Stammering and other nervous disorders often get their start that way with children.

From where I sit, if a man wants to use his left hand—that's his business. It's not such a good idea to make anyone do things our way, just because we think it's right. Personally, I think a mellow glass of beer is the finest beverage on earth. If you happen to prefer a Coke—why, go to it! Only leave me the same freedom of choice, won't you?

Subsequently, he emerged as successful bidder on Idyl Hanover, a young miss by the famed trotting stallion, Spencer Scott, out of Isabel Hanover, she a daughter of the trotter Dixon Axworthy.
