More Than 400 Trotters and Pacers Participating—Pari-Mutuel Racing For 20 Nights Under Lights

Real Maxey, owned by Carlton Goslin, of Harrington, and driven by W. Cotter, won the Harrington Journal Trot, the $1000-feature race, Wednesday night.

The meet, ushering in Eastern harness racing, is being conducted on what is now one of the East's fastest tracks since it was rebuilt by J. C. Coates, of Goshen, N. Y., winter before last.

Numerous new horses are on the grounds and may be expected to stage some surprises.

Tonight (Thurs., April 27) the feature race will be the Harrington Lumber & Supply Pace, with a narrow field (as this is being written) of Royal Sue, Mighty Boy, Symbol Louis, High Norman, and Boy Key.

Royal Sue, owned by M. J. Duer & Son, of Exmore, Va., paced to her mark of 2:09 here last spring against such outstanding campaigners as Nora Abbe, Greentree Jr., Myrtle Chief and Doctor Allen.

Other feature races are: Friday, Warren T. Moore Memorial Trot Saturday, B. I. Shaw Memorial Pace; Monday, J. Morris Harrington Trot; Tuesday, Reese Theatre Pace; Wednesday, Ernest Raughley Memorial Trot, and Thursday, Peoples Service Station Pace.

Incidentally, we are glad to see our old friend, Doc White, back at the tracks. If you hear someone shout (near the grandstand) "See the doctor," it may be Doc.

Railroad News

When are the diesels coming? That seems to be the $64 question. Maybe the pending strike threat of Firemen west of Harrisburg will help answer the question.

Had that strike, scheduled for last Wednesday materialized there would be no need for either steam or diesel power on the Delmarva Division today as practically all the freight we handle originates west and northwest of Harrisburg.

Such a strike would affect all industries within a very short time and have as disastrous after effects on railroad operation as the coal strike had on the coal industry.

Railroads and the public were forced to find substitutes for coal and now there is not sufficient demand for it to provide steady employment for the miners.

American ingenuity is the "pinch-hitter" in the railroad game and always comes through when the going gets rough.

An illustration of this will be seen in the weed-killing spray train coming to the Delmarva Division next week, starting at Cape Charles and working north at 25 miles each day, spraying the right-of-way with a mixture of 4 parts water and 1 part atricide.

This equipment replaces the costly weed burning train which required the assistance of track gangs and in some cases local fire companies to extinguish fires started by excessive heat and flame.

Another chemical development that might be of interest is the hot-journal-detector, a gadget about three inches long and one inch thick, fits into the journal box and arranged to "blow-off" when the temperature of the box reaches a certain degree. This little bomb lets go a stream of loud smelling white smoke for at least ten minutes, that will be seen or smelled by the engine or train crews, tower men, trackmen or anyone along the tracks that might signal the train to stop before burning off a journal.

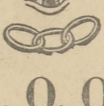

A year ago, we boasted that we were living in a mechanical age. Now we can say we have passed on to the miracle age where things happen fast and there is no room on the wagon for the guy who is dragging his feet.

It is unfortunate that we cannot support a shuttle train between Wilmington and Harrington during the races. This was tried out a couple of years ago without success and there is nothing we can do about it.

There has however been an increase in ticket sales and express shipments of sulkies and training equipment, and the surroundings have taken on a derby atmosphere. All needed is a little warmer weather. Many of our railroad associates from Philadelphia to Salisbury have indicated their intentions to get to Harrington during the races.

Freight business has increased during the past two weeks with an influx of farming machinery and planting gear, requiring an extra turn-around crew operating Monday, Wednesday and Friday. This week it also operated Tuesday, and is manned by Engine Crew F. J. Wilson and E. D. Lore. Train crew is Conductor George Toppin and brakeman John Porter and J. L. Wix.

Chosen Friends Lodge No. 35

I. O. O. F.

District Deputy Grandmaster Edward Cooper and staff of Camden Lodge installed the officers of Chosen Friends Lodge of Harrington, Thursday, April 20.

H. Klulley and William Fisher of the staff gave very interesting talks on Odd Fellowship.

After the installation refreshments were served by the refreshment committee.

Approximately 700 Democrats from all parts of the state filled the Tuckian Room of Fournier Memorial Hall Saturday night for a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner, officially billed as the opening of the 1950 campaign.

Secretary of State Harris B. McDowell, Jr., state chairman of the party and chairman of arrangements for the dinner, spoke of the accomplishments of the administration of Gov. Elbert N. Carvel in its first 15 months in office and declared that the party was "strong, united and militant," and "eager to finish the job" begun at the last session of the Legislature.

Gov. Elbert N. Carvel sketched the highlights of the program enacted into law by his administration with the cooperation of a bi-partisan legislature. Pointing out that the 20 per cent of the party's program not yet enacted included such political matters as changes in the state election laws, he asked his audience to "join with the administration by sending to Dover a Democratic General Assembly for 1951."

Discussing the administration program, the Governor stressed its accomplishments in education, increased salaries for teachers, uniform operational support of schools, the $20,000,000 state school building program, scholarships for students of education a short course in agriculture, and agricultural research support; the veterans bonus, repeal of the state's (Continued on page 8)

Hiram Short Sprays Wheat To Control Weeds

Hiram Short of the Kitts Hummock Road near Dover has sprayed his wheat with an amine form of 2, 4-D in an effort to control weeds. According to William E. Tarbell, county agricultural agent, Short has been very successful in controlling wild kale, turnips, and other weeds in this manner during the past few years.

He plans to follow this first spray on other fields of wheat with an application of the ester form of 2, 4-D in another week or ten days. It is applied at the rate of one pint to the acre.

Tarbell points out that many Kent County farmers have used this chemical successfully to control weeds in corn, and that some have even used it with soybeans as a pre-emergence spray. In the beans, it must be sprayed on the ground before the sprouts come up through the soil. Full details of pre-emergence spraying should be obtained before it is used.

As a special precaution, however, he warns that in all spraying with 2, 4-D, farmers should be careful to use different spray equipment than that used for insect and disease control. Left-over portions of 2, 4-D in spray tanks can cause serious damage to many crops.

County Farmer Tests Weed Killer

A chemical weed killer has been applied to two acres of pasture on the Charles Ewing farm, two miles south of Smyrna, in an experiment to control wild onion. According to County Agent William E. Tarbell, the ester form of 2, 4-D was put on at the rate of 1-1/3 quarts per acre.

Ewing's pasture consists of bluegrass, orchard grass, and some native clover. There is a heavy infestation of wild onion. Tarbell points out that 2, 4-D is not recommended for pastures with red clover, alsike clover, and ladino clover, since those legumes may be injured by the chemical.

The weed control test was applied by Prof. Claude E. Phillips and William Mitchell of the University of Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station. They don't expect to see any actual results for at least three weeks. It takes that long for the spray to show its effects on wild onions.

Tarbell warns that in all spraying with 2, 4-D, farmers should be careful to use different spray equipment than that used for insect and disease control. Left-over portions of 2, 4-D in spray tanks can cause serious damage to many crops.

Dairy Breeds Calf Party

A Dairy Breeds Calf Party will be held at the Kent-Sussex Fairgrounds, here Sat., May 13, at 10:30 a. m. The purpose of this party is to make available outstanding registered dairy heifers for boys and girls enrolled in 4-H or FFA work. All calves will be assembled at the fairground, where each boy or girl making application for a calf will draw a registered heifer from the group.

Any boy or girl who is a member of 4-H or FFA and interested in purchasing his first registered calf should secure an application blank from his county 4-H Agent or vocational agriculture instructor.

This party is co-sponsored by the Delaware Holstein Association and the Delaware Guernsey Breeders' Association. Calf selection committees of each breed association will select calves according to the requests received.

Effect of Heavy Loads On Pavement To Be Studied

Of interest to members of the Delaware Motor Truck Association is the announcement that a large-scale test of concrete pavement under concentrated truck-traffic using single axle loading of 18,000 and 22,400 pounds per axle and corresponding tandem axle loadings of 32,000 and 44,800 pounds is to be started next month in nearby Maryland. The relative effects of different axle loads will be tested on parallel lanes of the concrete test road. The trucks will operate at an average frequency of one truck per minute on a 24-hour day, 7-day per week schedule.

This project has been arranged cooperatively by the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Wisconsin, and the Bureau of Public Roads. The project is to be administered and conducted by the Highway Research Board. Mr. A. Taragin has been loaned to the Bureau of Public Roads, to act as Project Engineer.

A 1.1 mile section of U. S. Route 301 in Southern Maryland has been set aside by the State Roads Commission of Maryland for these tests. Traffic ordinarily carried by this road will use an alternate parallel road during the test period. This road consists of two 12-ft. lanes of mesh reinforced concrete pavement laid on a good granular subgrade. The road was paved in 1941 and has withstood normal traffic and seasonal weather changes for 9 years with very little damage.

Plant Soybeans Early

For maximum yields of soybeans, farmers should plant sometime between May 10 and June 10. Yield tests conducted at the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station near Georgetown, have shown the yield is greatly reduced when planted after June 10.

Varieties recommended for oil production are Wabash, Potoka, or Lincoln. Black Wilson is recommended for all purposes except oil production. Farmers desiring to use soybeans for soil building purposes or hay should plant by July 1 for best results.

BREAD CAST UPON THE WATERS DOES COME BACK BUTTERED ON BOTH SIDES

Monday evening was a rainy evening, but despite this fact, something like 250 people from all parts of Delaware gathered at the DuPont Hotel to pay tribute to Joe Martin, grand gentleman and courageous editor and publisher, who has just completed sixty years of service with the Sunday Star, most of the time as editor, owner and publisher.

What thoughts must have been Joe's as he sat there and listened to glowing tribute after glowing tribute paid him because of his honesty, courage, ability—and simplicity. We shall never know his thoughts, and we doubt that Joe himself will ever be able to express them.

"One up on Homer," he may have thought, "for seven cities claimed him when dead—but here they are paying tribute to me while I still am able to kick around."

John Ruskin wanted people to call him "John"—not "Mister." Calvin Coolidge liked for people to address him as "Cal" and Thomas Jefferson insisted that people call him Tom. When the people call you by your first name, nine times out of ten it is a term of affection. Service clubs recognize this, as they ask members to address other members by their first names.

Until Monday evening we'd never heard anyone call Joe Martin anything but Joe. Then some man called him Mr. Martin—but the fellow was wearing evening clothes, and the insult can be discounted.

I don't need a preacher's letter
Tellin' me a man's all right
Or a banker's introduction—
I can tell a doggone sight
More about how he's been livin'
Down here in this vale of tears
Just a list'nin' to him talkin'
To the folks he's known for years;
Yes, a man's a durned good feller
If the Pilgrims here below
Who have walked life's road beside him
Call him Jim, or Bill—or Joe!

CHEMISTRY CAN'T EXTERMINATE ALL THE FLIES

Saturday evening we attended the $25.00-per-plate Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner in Wilmington. It was an avowed Democratic Party dinner because the dinner itself was not worth more than $22.00, the other $3.00 going into the campaign coffers.

And yet, at this Democratic dinner, the speaker of the evening, Senator Chapman of Kentucky, mentioned the Republican party only once. He was there to pay tributes to Jefferson and Jackson.

The following Monday evening we, in the company of many others, people of various religious and political beliefs, gathered at the DuPont Hotel to pay tribute to a beloved citizen of our state, Joe Martin, of the Sunday Star.

The meeting followed this trend during its early stages and finished in the same manner—but in between the flies began to creep into the ointment.

The first fly to preen its wings was Alexander R. Abrahams, who doubles in brass as Republican Treasurer of the City of Wilmington and sports editor of the Sunday Star. Alex had done a creditable job as toastmaster up to this point, but here the sports editor forgot his sportsmanship and spirit of fair play when he introduced Ex-Dan Hastings as the first man to raise his voice against the New Deal.

Ex-Dan spread his wings and buzzed that he remembered way back yonder when Four Roses could be bought for one dollar per quart or fifty-five cents per pint. Let it here be stated that we do not question Ex-Dan's memory on this point or pint. Any man has a knowledge of certain things.

Then Dan lit into the cost of government and rapped the present administration in the state and the nation. He sneered at Roosevelt and Truman and jeered at Carvel. He droned on for about thirty minutes till his wings became weary. Many people left the room at the end of his tirade.

We have attended many affairs in the DuPont Hotel, but at practically all of them the politicians get in their work. At press associations, at service clubs—where no one is supposed to discuss politics or religion—speakers get up and shout about free enterprise, the cost of government, and glow with enthusiasm over the matchless perfection and faultless lives of the trusts and monopolies. We've heard so many talks in that hotel on free enterprise (a misnomer) that we're willing to pay market price for our enterprise all the rest of our lives if they will switch to another subject.

We may be wrong in our conjectures, but it is our sincere belief that if a memorial or even a funeral service is ever held in the DuPont Hotel, it will wind up as a political convention.

To The Correspondents

The Brownsville letter is back with us, Mrs. Ray Cox, our former correspondent, is doing a good job.
Well, let us try it again, "Church of the Brethren" is the correct spelling of the church at Farmington. IT IS NOT spelled "BrethEren."

Just when we had given up the Hughes Crossroads letter and were asking for a new correspondent, Mrs. William Carpenter, our correspondent, comes in with a welcome letter. We like this letter because it helps maintain a string of correspondents cross country from Harrington to Hartly.

Last week we had in letters from 23 correspondents out of 25. We believe that is a record for us. Pub-lease, pub-lease, ladies. We want to receive your letters Monday, since our paper is published Wednesday. Three letters came in Wednesday morning. We got them in but had to cut others short.

Temporary Compounds
Some words not ordinarily compounded are joined when used in certain constructions. Not the following cases:
Two or more combined into one adjective preceding a noun should be hyphenated, as "never-to-be-forgotten event, up-to-date styles, 4-year-old boy, 6-3 score." Do not hyphenate such combinations when they follow the noun, as "an event never to be forgotten, a man well known in the city, a boy 4 years old." Note the following exceptions to this rule:
Do not compound an adverb ending in "ly" and a participle, even when combined as a modifying element, as "freshly painted house."
Do not compound proper names consisting of more than one word, even when used as modifying element, as "Old English lettering, Civil War days."
"Lineup, holdup, walkout, kick-off, tryout, strike-out," are correctly compounded when used as nouns. Otherwise separate into verb and adverb, as "line up, strike out," etc. Thus: "The lineup will not be known until the teams line up."
Incidentally, the writer gets as much out of these little capsule lessons as the readers. He finds that he has to brush up continuously on spelling and grammar.
Oh, yes. If you write in long-hand, please print the names.
Also try to keep articles on one side of the paper.

Felton School News

Honors for writing the school's Alma Mater go to Ann Moore and Roberta Stewart. Both girls submitted lyrics for an alma mater and the entries were judged equally good by the committee. After going over the verses several times, the judges voted to use one verse from each girl's entry. The tune for the lyrics is that of the Russian National Hymn. Alma Mater glorious, To thee we raise our song; Thy sons and daughters Are valient, true and strong. Green and White we honor thee; Oh, lead us on today. Hail Felton High School Lead onward to life's fray.

Lift we our voices now Sounding they praise; To thee our noble school Our tribute clearly rings The song we raise. Touching the sky; Hail Alma Mater dear Hail Felton High.

With the adoption of these words and the music, for the first time in the sixty-one years of Felton's school history the students and alumni can proudly claim to have an alma mater to sing.

Wednesday members of the high school chorus took part in the program at the Avon Club State Guests Luncheon and music services will commence at 8 o'clock, beginning May 1.

Monday Evening: The Loyal Worker's Bible Class Meeting.
Tuesday Evening: The Women's Society of Christian Service.
Thursday Evening: The Youth and Senior Chorus rehearsal.

All children who are scheduled to enter the first grade at Felton next September will be examined by Dr. Velasius at the school between 9:30 and 11:00 a. m. Monday. Smallpox vaccination and diphtheria serum inoculation will be provided at that time free of charge.

Since children must be examined prior to entering school, parents are urged to take advantage of this opportunity and avoid difficulties and complications next September. Please bring the child's birth certificate, so that he can be officially registered.

The regular meeting of the P.T. A. will be held in the school on Thursday, May 4, and the evening program will be "Music and Art, Felton School on Parade." On the 11th of May the P.T. A. plans to hold an auction sale in the school auditorium.

The date set for the voting for the referendum will be May 6, at the school between 1 p. m. and 3 p. m. The school needs the vote of the public in order that there can be the funds raised for expansion and progress.

Two members of the Senior Class, Virginia Steele and Lewis Harrington, who have been accepted for entrance to the University of Delaware in September, will attend classes and orientation meetings at the college Wednesday, May 10.

Students who are to enroll from all over the state have been invited.

More Corn... Less Cob With Southern States Hybrids Take a look at that big healthy ear on the left. The one with the deep, golden kernels and the small but well-filled cob. It's a typical Southern States Hybrid ear. And it means more corn for you to feed. And more corn for you to sell. You see the difference for yourself - shell out a Southern States Hybrid ear and an ordinary hybrid ear to compare. You'll get more shelled corn from the Southern States Hybrid. Remember, a few dozen of these extra kernels per ear makes a whole of a difference in your total yield. So ask for Southern States Hybrids... the hybrids that grow more corn on less cob. Double guaranteed, they're your assurance of bigger yields. S. S. Hybrids (flat kernels, yellow) $9.40 Bu. Peck Bros. Farm Supply Phone 654 Harrington, Del.

Feather-bedding scheme of Firemen's Union to put an additional fireman on diesel locomotives has been CONSIDERED TWICE! REJECTED TWICE! Now the Firemen's leaders seek to paralyze railroad transportation to compel the railroads to employ a wholly unnecessary additional fireman to ride on diesel locomotives. This scheme is plain FEATHER-BEDDING! The Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good... The Safety and on-time performance of diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably good... Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road diesels. The proposal must be rejected. The real reason behind these demands is that the union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding." The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful make-work demands. We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk to you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh His Punch is His Signature Was on the train up to Central City the other day and when the conductor came around, I asked him why their ticket punches make such odd-shaped holes in the ticket. "Every conductor in the country has a different design for his punch," he tells me. "Some even show up a fellow's preferences. Now take mine. The hole it makes looks like a beer goblet." Sure enough! Then he went on to say that the punch is just like the conductor's signature. Makes it easy to trace tickets... to check up if something happens. Red Star Has New Schedule

Daylight saving time and the change in the operation of the ferries from Cape Charles to Kiptopeke, Va. has necessitated a number of changes in the bus schedules of the Red Star Motor Coach Company.

Schedule changes in those states having daylight saving time will be effective Sunday, while the Virginia Ferry Corporation will be made on Monday.

All printed schedules will be given in Eastern Standard Time and those people living in areas affected by Daylight Saving Time have only to add one hour to the printed schedule in order to determine the correct departure or arrival time.

Because of the unavoidable one day conflict in schedule changes, all persons using Red Star buses Sun., April 30, are requested to check the local ticket agent for correct departure times. New pocket schedules are expected to be available over the weekend and riders may secure them from their local agents or by writing direct to the company in Salisbury.

The Virginia Ferry Corporation, which for years has been operating between Cape Charles and Little Creek, Va., is scheduled to shift its new terminal at Kiptopeke Beach, at the extreme end of the Delmarva Peninsula, Monday. Running time of the ferries will be greatly shortened by the change and additional ferry trips will be available to the public.

The Friendly Homemakers plan an open house Tuesday at home of Mrs. Ernest Kohler, Chestnut Grove area, 2 p. m. They plan to exhibit their project work on that day and invite young homemakers in the Dover area.

WHEELER RADIO STORE NEWS

You would hardly believe it is Spring unless you look at your calendar or the budding of the trees. That alone means most of you will soon be busy housecleaning and that calls for many different things.

Now to start it off right and to save you plenty of work, drop around and see the new tank or upright Westinghouse cleaner we have on special sale for a few days. These are not old or used cleaners, but in the factory cartons and we have only received them this week.

Then again don't forget our Philco furniture polish. Oh, yes, there is that Philco refrigerator polish that will keep in glistening white and keep away that yellow tint.

Of course when house cleaning there is in the majority of our minds the walls. Well that is easily solved by just a little effort on our part. Come into the store and make your selection from our enormous stock of wall paper. In our kitchen designs alone we have several thousand rolls. In fact only this week we have received a shipment of more thousands of rolls and that means a better selection than ever.

We have fifteen different patterns for ceiling alone, think of it 15. When you buy paper from us, we try to help you select the best for that room or rooms you love the best, (your home.)

Of course I can keep talking along this line a long time, but we have so many things especially for the kitchen that will make it look so nice that I feel like telling everybody about it.

For instance, a refrigerator with a freezer all the way across the top at only $189.50. Is there any wonder people are buying them? Yes, we sell quite a few refrigerators and what I want to do is sell you one so that your kitchen too will look like it should.

Now let's talk about ranges. I am very much enthused over them especially to you who still use that old oil or gas range that has been in service many years.

Have you heard or read about the new Westinghouse Rancho electric range? Well it is a beauty and it really does one's eyes good to look it over with chromium legs and even a place to tuck away the kitchen stool. Come in and see it and while in the store look at the full size glistening white gas range with automatic oven control by Robinshaw. No better and to think the price is less than a hundred dollars, $99.50. We install them with either bottled or metered gas. Come on why wait? Now that you have promised yourself that gas range, fulfill your promise and you will be better satisfied all around.

You know that you have a space about 2 foot square in your kitchen that can be filled with the most useful thing you can get and that is a washer.

We have Maytag and Westinghouse, the very best names in washers, either automatic or conventional type. No! prices are not high, and to think the automatics are guaranteed for 5 years. Is there any reason that people want the automatic. Come in and see for yourself the advantage of owning one and no waiting as we have them in stock.

I have talked enough about business and now I believe Spring fever has got me. As you know I have a park which is called Wheeler's Park.

Take advantage of this and see how you can enjoy a day of relaxation. I have added more to the park since last season and will tell you more about it later.

May flowers are now in bloom in many places, come out and see them, as they do not last long. Playground equipment will not be installed until the last week of May because the children are still going to school. May I ask again can supervision be arranged?

Marvels

"And the Spring arose on the garden fair,
And the Spirit of Love fell everywhere;
And each flower and herb on Earth's dark breast
Rose from the dreams of its wintry nest."
These lines from Shelly describe these days so perfectly that I could not refrain from quoting. Now, after we have had a few warm, sunny days and the showers have come, "Spring is bursting out all over."

Everywhere the air is alive with activities of bird life. Robins are busy building and the brown thrashers are looking over their old hime-sites and considering the possibilities. Their songs from early morning till night are a constant pleasure. The chimney swifts arrived over the weekend. Wrens and orioles are due to arrive next week. For years they have arrived on consecutive days.

What a dreary place this world would be without the birds!
The showers came when badly needed. After the very dry weather last year and rains so light all winter, with no snowfall, the earth is very dry. There seems to be no reserve left. Contributing a great deal to this condition in this community is the fact that McColey's pond is still dry. The building of the bridge and dam is progressing very slowly with little hope of filling the pond before autumn. Unless we have a heavier rainfall than we have had our crops are again going to suffer from drought. Farmers will be able to start the plows again after being forced to discontinue plowing on account of dry weather. Every little shower helps.
