Railroad News

Since railroading and horse racing are two of Harrington's leading industries it has always been felt they should be closer together. However, last Saturday evening with the largest crowd of the season on hand and the weather ideal, the fans, officials and the entire racing association would have been better satisfied if the railroad had been somewhere in Korea. The Rehoboth turn around had spotted a car of fertilizer from Southern Fisheries on the DM&V, directly opposite the grandstand.

The wind was right and the fish were ripe.

The odor familiar to horse racing was "gone with the wind" and supplanting it was a smell that only natives of Lewes could withstand.

But the horses didn't mind it. Neither did anyone who bet on Excel Call in the fourth race. (Paid $113.90-$21.00-$7.50)

The placing of the car was an oversight and necessary steps have been taken to prevent it happening again during the races.

Mose, trying to sell a horse to Sambo.

Sambo: "That horse is blind."

Mose: "No he's not. He's a good race horse."

Sambo: "Let me see him run."

Mose slaps the old nag on the rump, hits him a kick in the ribs and the horse runs up an alley, jumps into a garage, head-on and falls down.

Sambo: "See I told you that hoss is blind."

Mose: "No he's not. He just don't give a damn."

A certain conductor, seen buzzing around under the grandstand with a pencil and a handful of papers bigger than the waybills for HF-1, whispered, "Bertha Rosecroft" in our ear and buzzed on. Bertha didn't fall down but might as well have. Another conductor told me he had paid for one of those barns built at the track and if he didn't start doing better soon, would have to go live in it.

So we railroaders do contribute something to the success of the racing industry and will greatly appreciate any use that the racing men make of transportation. Lets take every advantage of selling it.

The world's best salesman was the man who sold a milking machine to a farmer with only one cow. Then he took the cow as down payment.

Some years ago a certain hotel in Louisville adopted the custom of naming a room for each winner of the Kentucky Derby. There is a Zev room, a Gallant Fox room, a Whirlaway room, etc. But after the 1946 Derby they dropped the custom. The winner that year was Assult.

Let us not forget next Sunday (Sept. 24) is Delmarva Day at Shibe Park. The pennant winning Phillies and the Brooklyn Dodgers will lock horns at 1:30 p. m. The special train will stop at Harrington at 11 a. m. (D.S.T.) All air conditioned, with dining car service each way. Will leave North Philadelphia 45 minutes after the game.

Fireman on HF-1: "My girlfriend is a twin."

Engineer: "How did you tell the apart?"

Fireman: "Her brother is built different."

And so it goes. You just have to know railroad men to appreciate them. A colored gal once said: "They are the most sociable men in the world, they holler and whistle at you whether they know you or not."

Belina Hanover won the J. Wirt Willis Memorial Trot Saturday night before one of the largest crowds in the history of the meet. George M. Ellis' bay mare, who holds the trotting record of 2:05.2 here, placed in the first heat and won the second. Excell Call won the first heat to pay $113.90, 21.00, and 7.50.

Shamrock Vic, piloted by Tom Lewis, won the Bruno P. C. Gratian Memorial Pace Saturday night in 2:06.3, paying $16.30 to win. The chestnut horse is owned by Irwin E. Steel, Ocean View.

The John A. Vickers Trophy race will be one of two to be held Saturday night.

Delaware Rural Women and Girls to Make U. N. Flags

United Nations' flags will be flying over most communities in Delaware, on and after United Nations' Day, October 24.

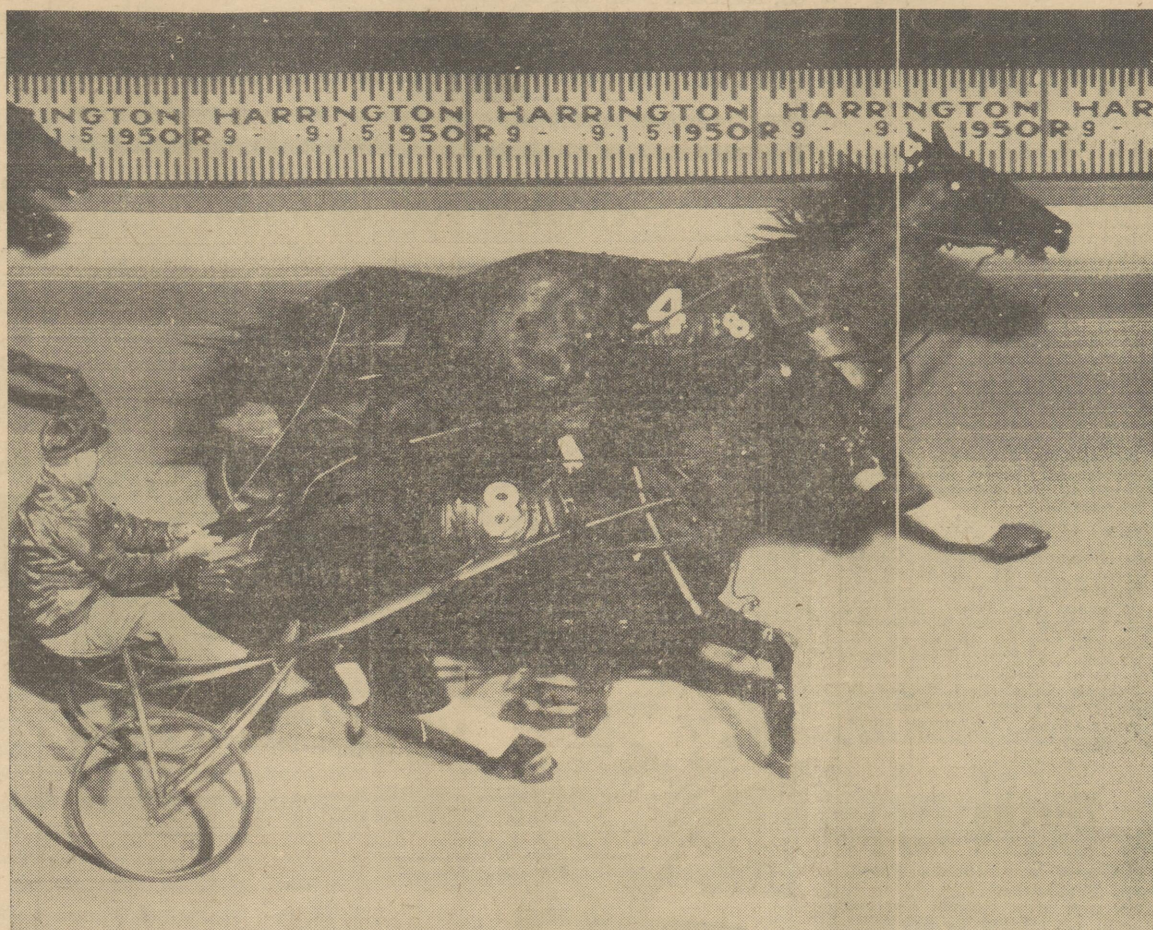

These flags are to be made in a modern "Betsy Ross" campaign. They will be made and displayed by the hundreds of rural girls and homemakers who belong to the state's 4-H Clubs and Home Demonstration clubs. One hundred and three other farm and civic organizations are behind this flag making project.

The program of making and flying the flags is now being launched by the Delaware State Extension Service. It was officially opened in Washington last week when two 4-H girls presented the first homemade U. N. flag to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and President Truman. One of the girls, Charlotte Ingram, 15, is from Ellendale.

George R. Worrlow, director of extension, said that the purpose of the project is "to lead to a better and more unified understanding by local groups of the United Nations, as an instrument through which free people may express a determination for world wide peace."

The modern Betsy Rosses will make the flags in blue with a white globe surrounded by laurel branches in the center. They will buy the material, sew the design, and prepare the flags to be flown in public places as part of their club work, says Miss Ruth E. Pearce, extension clothing specialist in charge of the campaign in Delaware. She feels that another purpose of the program is "to make the average American familiar with the United Nations' flag

Silver Meteor "Wins" Race Without His Driver

Silver Meteor "won" the ninth race, a classified pace, without his driver, following an accident Friday night at the Kent & Sussex Raceway. Just past the grandstand, at the start of the mile dash, the three-year-old filly, Evening Breeze, broke and went down in a collision. In the melee, W. Clark, driver of Silver Meteor, was thrown off the sulky. The roan gelding, however, the property of T. Sordan Pippin, of Centreville, Md., continued to take part in the race, anxious, no doubt, to make up for his poor showing this season, he having earned but one win and one place.

Ambulance to Be Delivered Soon

The Harrington Fire Company has purchased a Buick ambulance through the Kent County Motor Company of Dover, and the Flexible Body Company, of Loudonville, O.

This ambulance is the same one that was on display by the fire company at the Kent and Sussex Fair in July. This new piece of equipment will be delivered in two or three weeks and plan to be in service around Oct. 10 or maybe sooner. This is a Roadmaster Buick with a dynaflow transmission. The ambulance is built so as to carry two patients, as well as one. It has all the most up-to-date equipment that can be put on an ambulance. One item that is a new feature on ambulances is an electric cot warmer and battery charger. The cot, or stretcher, is kept warm at all times by electricity and is thermostat controlled. The battery is automatically charged after each trip. It also has many more added features.

The fire company is still $2000 short of having enough money to pay for this ambulance. They must buy a building to keep this equipment in; must have sheets and first aid supplies and other necessities before the ambulance will be ready for use.

To date, the Ambulance Fund Committee has received only $1653 from the letters that were mailed out in April. They have made the rest from stock car races on Labor Day and the television set that was won by Harry (Bootie) Morris.

If you haven't donated toward this new ambulance, please do so now so the fire company can get this equipment in operation as soon as possible.

The most recent donors are: The Berry Funeral Home, Felton; W. E. Jacobs, Wm. P. Cluley, W. Lyman Jacobs, W. H. Wright, Herbert C. Denney, Jennie L. Morris, Fount Billings, David Bradley, Thomas Bradley, Hyland Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perrone, George Enslin, Benj. K. Rash, Felton; W. L. Cain, Norman Smith Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dearmen, Hazel Tribbitt, W. G. Blake.

Attendance Off At Ocean Downs

The Ocean Downs Racing Association, which recently completed its second harness racing meeting, fell off from last year 11% in the total amount wagered and the attendance was off 12%, General Manager Dick Case reported.

"The drop in mutuel play and attendance was below the average drop at other tracks running at the same time," Case said. General business conditions and the higher costs of living plus the war situation combined to cut into track incomes nationally. The poor chicken market during the winter and the low income from truck farming on the Eastern Shore this season was another reason given for the decreases at Ocean Downs.

It was also pointed out that the State Fair at Timonium dropped off 24% in attendance and the wagering was off 11.5%. Bel Air's race meeting showed a greater loss than at Ocean Downs, Case said.

Despite the lowered revenue, the Ocean Downs purse distribution was $3,050 more than in 1949, with $101,050 going to the horsemen this season.

Generally speaking, the class of horses was better than last year (Continued on page 8)

United States Senator J. Allen Frear announced Wednesday that arrangements have been completed to hold a business clinic for Delaware industrial and business representatives, interested in obtaining government contracts.

Mr. Frear disclosed that under a program set up by the Senate Small Business Committee, a group of qualified representatives from various government agencies has been made available to supply information and to answer questions from companies desiring to obtain government work. Senator Frear said the clinics, which so far have been held in a number of states, have proved successful. "I feel," Mr. Frear declared, "that businessmen throughout Delaware should have the opportunity of obtaining the most up-to-date and complete information on government procurement policies. Naturally, I am anxious that Delaware concerns participate to the fullest possible extent in all government purchasing programs."

The meeting will take place next Thursday at the DuPont Country Club, Wilmington, beginning with a luncheon at 12:15 p.m. Senator Frear said that through the Chamber of Commerce in Wilmington invitations are being sent out to three-thousand industry and business representatives in the state. In addition, a special invitation from Delaware's congressional delegation, Senator John J. Williams, Representative J. Caleb Boggs and Senator Frear is being mailed with the one from the Chamber of Commerce.

Commenting on the desirability of such a meeting, Senator Frear said, "A number of Delaware businessmen have contacted me since the outbreak of hostilities in Korea to obtain information about government contracts. Although I have endeavored to put these individuals in contact with the proper government agencies, I feel that a presentation of the over-all problem of procurement to Delaware industrial and business representatives will prove helpful to them. It should be the means of putting them on the right track in the matter of knowing where to go for information about defense contracts."

Senator Frear expressed the hope that the proposed small business clinic would meet with the approval of the state's industrial and business representatives.

Some persons were certainly giving the "crows" a bombardment Sunday morning. A large 8-wheel truck, hauling 600 baskets of tomatoes between Downingtown, Pa. and Greensboro, Md., was badly wrecked as its brakes failed in rounding the sharp curve at the entrance to Maryland at about 5:30 p. m. Friday evening. Both the driver, W. S. Chudleigh, and his companion, Wm. Davis of West Chester, Pa., escaped certain death by jumping from the truck just before it crashed into an embankment along the railroad tracks. The north-bound freight train was signaled by station master, Amos Wyatt, and delayed for an hour until the truck could be removed from off the tracks where it became wedged, due to the impact. Although plenty of brakes squealed daily while rounding this sharp curve, this has been the first serious accident here for several years, and only the alertness of the riders saved it from being a fatal one. The weight of the thousands of tomatoes piled high on the truck smashed the cab forward and downward so that it rested on the top of the motor, completely shattering and destroying the windshield. Had the riders not jumped, they would have met instant death.

Guests at the Robert Carmen home during the week were Mrs. Wm. Furrer, Mrs. Fred Furrer, Dolores and Flo, all of Lindenhurst, N. Y.

Funeral services for Mr. Bert Rutherford Kaler, the highly respected mayor of Marydel, were held from the Rawling Funeral Home Friday, Sept. 15, with burial in the Greensboro Cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. C. H. Atkins, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Church of Marydel. Mr. Kaler was born in Philadelphia Feb. 6, 1880, the son of James L. and Anna McClousky Kaler. His parents, one sister, and two brothers all preceded him in death. In 1905 he was married to a native Marydelean, Miss Bertha Price, who survives him, as do their two sons, Price W. W. Kaler and James L. Kaler, both of Washington, D. C. He moved to Marydel shortly after his marriage and has lived here the greater part of the past 46 years, holding the office of mayor since 1933. Looking for a Money Saver? Better Buy Buick! YOU CAN SEE here how smart it is—don't have to be told that it's the most quickly identified car on the road today. You probably know that the engine under that broad bonnet is a Fireball straight-eight valve-in-head engine and a lively stepper in any company. You can check the abundance of its room by the simple expedient of taking the family and trying out its spaciousness at the nearest Buick dealer's—and a very few minutes on the open road will satisfy you that all-coil springing, low-pressure tires and Buick's torque-tube drive really do produce a ride that is matchless for its soft comfort. BUT RIGHT NOW, it may be that the money angle is the thing uppermost in your mind, and on that we'd like to make two points: All our records go to show that this is the most economical Buick ever built. It is easy on gas, on oil, on tires, on upkeep. And if you choose it with Dynaflo Drive,* it immediately eliminates all chance of friction-clutch repair and replacement—not to mention greatly reducing rear-axle and transmission maintenance. Best of all, your initial outlay is a highly favorable one—what-ever Buick you buy. For these brawny straight-eights—built rugged and solid for durable service—are priced at a level that makes them a standout buy in any price class. Yes, better buy a Buick. Your dealer will be glad to demonstrate, glad to work out all the arithmetic of a deal. See him right away and get an order signed. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models. YOUR KEY TO GREATER VALUE

Name-calling and vituperation have been going on for months among the candidates for political office and it looks like they will use up all the invectives in existence before the November election. What they should realize is that name-calling never changes votes. The most effective political speech we've ever heard was delivered before the Democratic Booster Club of Kent County at the Reese Theatre here in February, 1932. Former Governor Charles Hillman Brough of Arkansas was the speaker. Standing room was at a premium and it was estimated that approximately two thousand people were turned away. Speaking for more than an hour, the great word-painter never said one word against any Republican. At the conclusion of his address, the crowd surged to the platform to congratulate him. Democrats and Republicans alike paid him tribute. The wife of a prominent Dover dentist said: "Governor Brough, I've always voted the Republican ticket, but I'm for your man this election." Dr. W. T. Chipman, one of the stalwarts of the Republican party, voiced the sentiment of most of the crowd, "By— (heck)," said Doc, "that man is an AMERICAN."

DOCTORS DISCOVER THAT IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

The doctors of the United States are going to raise a fund far in advance of a million bucks to use in advertising and lobbying against socialized medicine. And this from men who always claimed advertising, as applied to their profession, "unethical."

We do not believe in any doctor advertising himself as a cure-all, but we do believe the carrying of a professional card in a newspaper is not unethical. We had evidence that nothing but stinginess was back of this policy some twenty years ago when the Kent County Medical Association met and drew up a list of the prices it would charge for certain types of cases. This list was sent to the papers of Kent County for FREE publication. We printed the list of cases, but omitted the prices charged. We published it in the following manner:

"Price for night call in town, $.....; price for day call in town, $.....; price for night call outside town, $.....; price for day call outside town, $.....; confinement case, $.....; operation, appendix, $.....; consultation with other physicians, $.....; amputations, $....."

We have neither the time nor space to publish the lengthy list sent us. At the bottom of the list we added this paragraph: "Since the doctors consider it unethical to carry paid advertising matter, we consider it unethical to publish the prices they sent us. When it comes to ethics we're right there 'with bells on.'"

Most of the stuff you read under a Washington headline—we use the word "stuff" with full knowledge of the meaning of the word—about statements made by members of congress, is not delivered in congress. It is merely grist turned out by a secretarial staff or press agents, but it gives readers back home a heck of a kick to believe that their representatives are about the whole show in that august body down on the Potomac.

E. PAUL BURKHOLDER

Delaware lost one of its most valuable citizens when E. Paul Burkholder died as the result of a heart condition this week.

For years active in the educational affairs of the state, he was untiring in his efforts to improve conditions in his chosen field.

A speaker of exceptional merit, he "donated" his services, as well as paying his own expenses, on hundreds of occasions before various organizations of the state. In friendly badinage and banter he "locked horns" with him at dozens of banquets over the years. He was quick on his feet, quick in his brain and was in the gentle art of "needling" a foeman worthy of any man's steel.

Outstanding though his work was as an educator, he reached his greatest heights as a Rotarian. A District Governor of Rotary many years ago, he organized a Rotary Club at Georgetown, and, sponsored by the Georgetown club, organized the Harrington Rotary Club in 1929. The first novelty of a new toy over and enthusiasm on the wane, the Harrington club contemplated surrendering its charter in Rotary International, but Paul came down again and urged the Rotarians to reconsider. Today, as the result of that visit, Harrington has one of the best small-town Rotary Clubs in the nation.

Development of State Lands

Pittman Robertson project 10-D, or Development of State Lands, concerns itself with the application of research principles in the field. It embraces therefore, as do all development projects, the practical aspects of game management. In Delaware, a three-fold policy is being undertaken by the federal aid branch: (1) land acquisition; (2) research; and (3) development.

Land acquisition, as is inferred in the title, seeks to purchase certain sites which the commission feels would favorably lend themselves to management procedures, thereby justifying the expenditures involved. This is one method of insuring the sportsman areas on which to hunt and to train his dogs.

Research involves the determination of sound practices which the game manager employs in his attempt to assure a constant, if fluctuating, supply of game.

It is the employment of these predetermined research practices that constitute the development project. Two such development projects are at present underway in this state; Project 5-D, which concerns itself with farm game, or development on private lands, and 10-D, with which our discussion is concerned.

Actually, the title "Development of State Lands" is a misnomer, since it implies state ownership of these areas. However, of the areas worked on to date, and these include (1) lands adjacent to the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal, and (2) Assawoman site, both are administered by some federal agency. The canal area is under administration of the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army; while (2) is administered by the Soil Conservation Service, Department of Agriculture. Moreover, on (2) the Commission possesses a long-term lease, and on (1) a license was procured from the Corps of Engineers. Since no conflict exists in the policies of all agencies concerned, long-term management and hunting privileges are anticipated. In addition to the above, the acquisition of new lands by the state to augment the existing areas is possible, thereby making available to the gunner a wider selection of public shooting grounds.

Work completed to date has, of course, been determined by the species to be benefited. On the canal lands these were rabbits, pheasants, and quail, the job consisting primarily in plowing food strips adjacent to suitable coverts. The strips were sown to soybeans, which although adequate, were annuals and posed the problem of returning annually to reseed the area. Therefore, all areas will be sown to perennials such as lespedeza sericea and bicolor at a rate commensurate with the supply until food supply and nesting coverts are deemed sufficient.

Because of its extensive marsh area, the Assawoman tract is primarily managed to benefit waterfowl, although several fields have been bulldozed off on its upland areas and seeded to perennial grasses and clovers in an effort to enhance their attractiveness for the omnipresent cottontail. On the marsh management side of the ledger, approval has been received and construction is expected to begin shortly on the construction of one of two small experimental dikes planned for the area. The purpose of these structures will be to impound waters in the inner marshes, thereby stabilizing the water levels and decreasing salinity by excluding salt water. This will in turn make the area more receptive to the entry of plants which come under the heading of "good duck foods." Since the marsh areas at present consist principally of the saline vegetative types, such food plants are noticeably absent.

Harness racing has another budding young reinsman. He is 20-year-old Lawrence Fox, Jr., son of an Albany taxi driver. The youngster, who drove and won his first race at a major track on opening night of Saratoga Raceway's fall meeting, wants to make a career of the sport. He prepared for his Spa debut by driving at recent fairs in Rhinebeck, Chatham and Altamont. His lone horse, at present, is the seven-year-old trotter, Beaumont Hanover, owned by his father, Lawrence Fox, Sr.

Albany's 18-year-old owner-driver, Pete Russo, will be able to train his stable at home this winter. His father, Charles, has purchased a 200-acre tract out Western Avenue and will build a half-mile jog track on the premises. The land also will serve as a home for the Russo broodmares. Hollywood's latest harness racing production, "County Fair," is beginning to hit theatres in the Saratoga environs. A full-length picture starring Rory Calhoun and Florence Bates and featuring Saratoga's Raceway's famous Roy Shudd as a race-caller, it was shown at the Congress Theatre in Saratoga Springs Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 19-21. All scenes involving the standardbreds were filmed at North Bridge Farms, one of southern California's noted stock ranches.

TROTS AND DASHES: Cecil Champion, top driver at Saratoga's 1949 fall trots, lost no time in asserting his designs on the 1950 crown. He won his first start of the current meet with the veteran trotter, Crusano . . . Champion,

Houston

Church news for Sun, Sept. 25 which will be promotion and Rally Day.

Sunday School will start at 10 a. m. and last till 10:30. After the scholars have received their promotion certificates they will enter the main auditorium where the hour of worship and Rally Day exercises will be combined and will start at 10:30. So please come out everybody, for we feel sure these services will be most interesting.

The Sunday morning services were well attended but not quite up to par as there were 99 present in Sunday School and the offering was $120, which will be applied to the new annex. The sermon was fine, the music was also much enjoyed. The quartette chose as their offering the beautiful old number, "Have Thine Own Way Lord," and the Sapp sisters sang "Jesus Wonderful Lord." It seems the attendance is too small for the hour of worship, more should be present. If we make the church a people's church then the people will come out and support it, and we know that our church is always open to anyone who wishes to come regardless of whether they be Methodist, Baptist or Presbyterian, all are welcome.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Emma Lindale, better known to some as "Aunt Em," had the misfortune to fall from the top step of her porch and was hurt quite badly. A cloud of sadness hovered over the town the past week when word was received that Pfc. Howard "Buster" Morgan, 18, had been killed in action in Korea. He was a graduate of the Ellendale School and was one of our young boys whom everyone liked—courteous, well-mannered, with a wonderful personality. Buster also was an obedient son to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Morgan, who are now deceased.

He leaves to mourn his passing his grandmother, Mrs. Ella Calhoun, of Lincoln; Mrs. Morgan, of Ellendale; two sisters, Marietta and Roselle Morgan, all of whom have the sympathy of the Ellendale community—the community where Howard is remembered as a "good" boy.

WHEELER RADIO STORE NEWS

Have you noticed the many TV aerials that have appeared at homes right in your neighborhood? Well of course I don't have to tell you that those people have something that is really hard to describe. I'll put it this way, they have something that you don't have and that is a television set. This simply means the utmost in matter of entertainment and the latest happenings. In fact anything worth while is not only heard but seen and the old saying goes what you see you can believe.

I took a list of the several makes of Television right here in our own community and did you know that Philco leads them all two to one. And why not when Philco is the only TV that has the true focus beam. Are you thinking of getting a TV? If so don't figure on just coming in and say deliver me such and such a model as this cannot be done. In fact I have quite a few models sold right now and am unable to get them for a little time, so if you want a TV get your own in for a Philco. Oh boy, how those nights will really whisk away especially when you see Gorgeous George and Don Eagle at their best in wrestling. How they can take it, I don't know.

This of course is usually the season for radios when we are like all other creatures prepare for the winter. Well we can hibernate in the house and still the outside world will come to us when just for a few dollars you can own a radio and sit back and listen and enjoy yourself while the fellow on the other end is working hard to entertain you. Come in now, we have a few small radios in fact just received a shipment of FM radios which mean reception without noise other than that you wish to hear.

Yes we are taking orders now for refrigerators of your choice. Philco or Westinghouse. I must say that our sales of refrigerators has well gone over my expectation and today the sales are still good along these lines. Why? Simply because they are considered one of the finest refrigerators made and they sell as soon as they come off the assembly line. Place your order now even if you don't want it until next spring. Still you know by this time that a refrigerator is a necessity in the winter or cool months as the hot ones.

How about that oil space heater? Is it working satisfactorily, if not or if you need one, why not drop around and see what we have along that line. I am expecting a shipment of those Washington-Froggies which you have or your neighbor has and did you know that they stay sold. Why not, when they do what you want and that is heat your home. And are they good looking, just take a damp rag to wipe them off and they shine.

Let's stop talking business and talk a little about relaxation but before I do that don't forget you promised that room a new face. We have plenty of those faces and they are always ready to smile at you even the flowers look lovelier than ever as the workmanship on our new wall paper is better than ever.

Sunday, September 24th will be the last day this year that our park will be open. Did you notice I said ours, well it is there for you and I to enjoy and the attendance this season has been wonderful. Many have spent several hours of enjoyment there. I am glad to see all of you enjoy it and that is my pay.

Do we want a swimming pool there? Think this over and let me have your views. This cost of course to be born by the community and then an attendant will be in charge at all times. Wheeler's Radio Store, Phone 541. Talk Peace Not War, We are rolling along. Adv.

Letters From Servicemen

(to Roland Melvin Jr.)

29 August 1950

Dear Brother, Sis and All: I hope this letter finds you all feeling fine. I haven't heard from you for awhile. Well, Junior, I think I'm going at last. I'm nervous and everything, but I'm not actually too much afraid. I want to go with my buddies that I ran around with are all there. I got a letter from both of them. One from New York and the other, from Pennsylvania. We'll have a time when we hit the states. We've had some times here. If I have to leave I'll send all my personal things home. I'll let you know if and when I leave. Probably fly. I'm not too set on flying but its quicker anyway. I hope with all my heart and pray that you won't get called back. One of us is enough. You saw your share and I pray that you don't have to get in this. The quicker we get this over the better. You probably get more news about it in the States than we do over here. It's no different in Tokyo as far as the war goes than it is in the States. Don't let nobody kid you. I'm tired of sitting around here and besides I can't see my buddies there and me not. We're all the same, but as soon as this is all over I'm coming home and, don't forget, we're going into business. Let Mom understand I may get some place where I can't write so you know how it is. I can take care of myself. I'll let you know when I go in and come out. Well kids can't think of much to say. Hey, the boy of yours is quite somebody, standing there in that picture just like he wanted to tell me something. I'll show him a good time when I get home. Well kids so long now and write often. You know what mail means. May the Lord be with you.

Yours brother and Best Buddy, Alvin Pfc. Morton A. Melvin

Ten Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Minner, Mrs. Chipman Minner and Herman Degnate were among the excursioners who went to the New York World's Fair Sunday. The community was saddened by the death of A. D. McCabe who was killed while crossing the railroad near Harrington. Lucille Andrews, youngest daughter of Sam Adrews and Tom Bradley, of Harrington, were married Sunday evening, Aug. 7, in the M. E. parsonage in Harrington by the Rev. Green. They were given an old-fashioned serenade Tuesday evening with the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends. The third annual flower show sponsored by the Ever Ready Class of Asbury Methodist Church was held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings with Mrs. William Camper winning eight blue ribbons in the women's department and the Rev. Robert E. Green taking three awards in the men's group. Mary Ellen Thomas and Donald McKnatt had the best exhibits in the children's department.

OCEAN DOWNS

and the racing keener. Six new track records were written into the books, three of them Maryland state records and on another occasion Berty York won in 2:06 3/5, just one fifth of a second slower than the world record for 2-year-old pacing fillies on a half-mile track.

Norman S. Lynch's Shamrock Joe from Frankford, paced around the double-O course in 2:04, knocking off two and three-fifths seconds from the old record. Leo Hanover, the stellar Salisbury trotter, set the track and state record for trotters over the mile route at 2:04 1/5. Jean Bauer's Job Stuart from Freehold, N. J., holds the new 1/16 mile mark for trotters at 2:15 2/5.

Franklin Hastings' Blue Steel, pride of Berlin, set the 1 1/4 miles pacing mark at 2:11 4/5 which is also a state record. J. M. Davis' Bermuda covered the 6 1/2 furlong distance in 1:40 1/5 for another state standard for pacers. Corita Hanover set a new mark of 1:45 1/5 for trotters for 6 1/2 furlongs.

The average win price was $11.40 and favorites won 39% of the time; the latter figure is right on the general average at other trotting tracks and the win price somewhat above the average at other tracks.

Post position No. 1 and No. 3 yielded the most winners out of the 160 races. By post positions the following winners were recorded:

No. 1, 39; No. 2, 23; No. 3, 27; No. 4, 18; No. 5, 15; No. 6, 22; No. 7, 14, and No. 8, 2. The low number of winners from the No. 8 post is partly accounted for by the fact that there were only 79 races with eight or more starters.

Case pointed out that post positions No. 1 and 5 produced more winners than No. 1 at the recent Yonkers, N. Y. meeting.

Olin Davis with a driving percentage of .514 topped the sulky sitters, followed by Joe Hylan with .444, Tom Lewis with .427 and tied at .382 were Johnny Amato and Jim Britt.

Joe Hylan, with one of the larger stables, won the most races—13 out of 43 starts. Salisbury Billy Hudson went to the post 46 times—more than any other starter—and was in the money 26 times and brought home six winners.

Ocean Downs' one world record and one which received national publicity on the news wires occurred when all eight horses finished in the exact order of their post positions, an oddity that is believed never before to have happened and may never occur again!
