It's time to take in the washing when one of these babies comes along—maybe it had better be taken in before it comes along. Anyway, the ranks of steam locomotives on the division are being decimated with the arrival of the Diesels.

Federal Funds Available To Cover Cost of Radio Network For Firemen

The State Civil Defense Fire Communications Radio Network received a shot in the arm today when the Director of communications, Lt. Samuel H. P. Stant, of the State Police, announced that federal funds had been made available by the federal Civil Defense Administration to cover the cost of such radio network. Also Lt. Stant said that only the operation of such equipment, to be provided by the state, would be the responsibility of the volunteer fire fighters. Previously, maintenance of such equipment would also fall on the individual companies.

The cost, to be borne by the federal government for the purchase and installation of equipment, is $20,053. The counties will receive basic units to provide communications between one central point and each volunteer fire company in that county. The Delaware Civil Defense Organization will purchase three 250-watt FM transmitters. These are fixed station and will operate much as a commercial radio station. At each central station will be an FM receiver. Approved also by the FCDA is the purchase of 54 transmitter and receiver mobile units. These are the same type units used by police cars. Once such a network is in operation, it can prove invaluable in cases of extreme emergency other than civil defense work.

For the individual counties to participate in this program, it is necessary for 75 per cent of the volunteer fire companies in each county to agree to the conditions set up by the state civil defense. At this date, New Castle and Kent Counties are ready to participate. The first canvass in Sussex County fell far short of the required 75 per cent participation by the volunteer fire companies. In the near future, a canvass will be made in Sussex County to determine the percentage of companies desiring to become part of the statewide fire communications radio network.

A Turn For the Better

Railroad transportation on the Delmarva Division took a turn for the better recently when Diesel-electric locomotives were installed for regular runs. This is passenger train No. 454, which arrives at 5:46 p. m. from Cape Charles. The train is pulled by two units, or two locomotives, with operation controlled by the front unit. This is the same train which was involved in an accident at Bridgeville Thursday afternoon, June 26, with the rear locomotive, pictured here, being incapacitated. Those in the picture are (left to right) are as follows: Holding the rail, Cliff Miller, supervisor of telegraph and signals; man in white cap on first locomotive, P. E. Rittenhouse, special duty, of Huntington, Pa., on the Middle Division; man with straw hat, Mike Quinn, road foreman of engines; A. E. Hantwerker, fireman; man in white shirt, Lucky Gamble, General Electric specialist; on the ground, Al Haverty, traveling engineer.

Flaming Gasoline Covers Diesel Locomotive When It Hits Bridgeville Truck

Passenger train No. 454, due here at 5:46 p. m. from Cape Charles, Va., was delayed two hours Thursday afternoon when it ran into a tractor-trailer, loaded with potatoes, at Bell Crossing, on the northern edge of Bridgeville.

In the collision, the tractor-trailer was demolished and several thousand dollars worth of damage done to the front unit of two Diesel locomotives pulling the train, engineer of which was Billy Jones, of Wilmington, but formerly of Harrington.

There were no fatalities but Al Haverty, traveling engineer on the train, was treated by a Delmar physician for an arm which was burned when the Diesel was covered with flaming gasoline from the truck's tanks.

The driver of the truck, Wilson Blake, Negro, 22, of Bridgeville, escaped from the truck before the collision. Blake, who said the brakes of the tractor, belonging to Lester Newton, also of Bridgeville, failed to hold.

He was arraigned before Magistrate O. T. Warrington, of Bridgeville, and fined $50 and costs on charge of failing to stop for a railroad warning signal.

With the impact, the train dented the trailer, loaded with potatoes, across an adjoining track and carried the tractor some 1600 feet.

Blazing gasoline from the truck's tanks showered the lead Diesel and set the railroad ties afire. The train back up and Bridgeville Fire Company, railroad officials said, did a wonderful job in putting out the fires.

Three baggage cars were set off at Bridgeville and the damaged Diesel were set off at Bridgeville, with the lightened train continuing its run with the second Diesel. The damaged locomotive went through here late Friday night on its way to the repair shop.

Paskey Tells of Trip and New Home in California

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paskey III enjoyed their trip to their new home in California, and are quite enthused with "the promised land," according to a letter received by C. H. Burgess last week. In part, the missile said: "The trip out was one we'll always remember and cherish the memories. The country all the way was beautiful. We especially loved Texas. We spent two nights and part of three days crossing it. We had our worst mountains in Arizona. We had a lovely breeze while crossing the desert. The desert was in bloom for us, too. It was lovely in most spots. Parts of it were bare, but the bare mountains were beautifully shaped. "California has all been beautiful. The beautiful flowers you see on the postcards don't really do it justice. To us, its more beautiful than Florida." "We've enjoyed seeing the Pacific Ocean. It really is more peaceful than the Atlantic, although they say the undercurrent for swimming is stronger. It seems to have more salt, too." "We are about 10 miles from Aunt Emma (Metzger - formerly Emma Blades), or 45 minutes on bus. We're all very happy here. All three of us are working." "Walter is working at the Douglas Aircraft plant. Thursday, he had the opportunity of getting near Mr. Truman's private plane. It is here at Douglas for a checkup. One of his (Walter's) bosses also took him through several large four-motored Pan-American planes. He likes his work very much." The Paskeys address is: 1930 Stewart St., Santa Monica, Calif.

FEDERAL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR COLLEGE

Congress was asked last week by Oscar R. Ewing, federal security administrator, to provide scholarships of up to $800 a year to help 50,000 to 60,000 high-school students get to college.

Ewing announced he was sending a student aid bill to Congress with authorization of President Truman, which would also provide that students could borrow up to $600 a year, or a total of $2400, from educational institutions, with the government insuring up to 80 per cent of the unpaid balance of such loans.

The program is designed, Ewing stated, "to provide educational opportunity for those barred from attending our college by economic roadblocks.

"The bill proposes scholarship aid to the 'neediest of the ablest' among our high school students."

He said the President's Commission on Higher Education has reported that for every student who attends college, another gifted student who could qualify fails to attend because he or she cannot afford the costs.

As submitted by Ewing, the legislation would require that at least 60 per cent of the available scholarship funds be granted to students engaging in fields of study related to national defense or to defense-supporting activities.

For our money, this piece of legislation should be passed by Congress when it meets early next year. Education is the first line of defense. Furthermore, it must go hard on needy students, who would like to go to college, to find themselves in Korea while their more affluent brothers are worrying about whether they will get a bid from the Betas, the Deaks, the Sigma Nus, or other collegiate fraternities.

A SALES TALK ON HARRINGTON

We were giving a sales talk on Harrington to a prospective printer from Hamilton, N. Y., this week and sold ourself.

When the prospect mentioned he didn't like cold weather, we replied that we had roses in December and that we had little use for sleds or ice skates. He said he disliked hills and pointed to our favorable terrain.

On a tour of the town we mentioned these favorable factors: a new school building underway; a nice, clean town; an unusually nice theatre for a town this size; the home of two pari-mutuel harness meets a year, America's largest small-town fair, and the largest winter training center for harness horses in the East; the site of three garment plants the distribution point for three bread companies.

We pointed out our nice Postoffice and mentioned we were on the mainline of the railroad and that it was being Dieselized. We commented on our two highways and added that, with the Delaware Memorial Bridge and the completion of construction of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge next month, the Peninsula should boom. We pointed to our proximity to Delaware Bay, the Atlantic Ocean, and the large cities of the East. We showed the prospect a number of new homes, completed or under construction, the Legion and Moose homes.

When the prospect's wife mentioned that she liked harness racing, we said she would have no trouble becoming adjusted to the community, as horse talk was its language.

"THE RAMBLING ROSE"

By Samuel A. Short Jr.

The rambling Rose on the Garden wall, With colors of red and White, Are for us to enjoy one and all, By seeing their beauty both day and night.

Their scent of perfume flowing from each bud, employ, Is but a moment of earthly Brings hope and faith from each bulb Giving to the world their worldly Joy.

Their clinging vines reaching towards the sky, In mornings sunlight coming from above, With sweet scented nectar for the bees on high Brings food for thought of Heavenly love.

Each rose so pure with sweetness rare, Is sprinkled each evening with silvery dew, Is admired by ones that find them there, On the Garden wall waiting for their daily dew.

Inside the Bookmobile

by a Bookworm

What do you think? I forgot last bookmobile date. I really didn't actually forget it, but I got busy, and before I thought of the bookmobile it had left town. At least this date was cooler than the last one.

Today there seemed to be a steady stream of customers - lots of high school girls. I took out "Circus Doctor," by Henderson and Taplinger. This is a story of a doctor with Ringling Brothers and Barnum J. Bailey Circus. Also took out "Beyond the Windy Place," by Maud Oakes. This is a story of life in the Guatemalan Highlands, of a woman ethnologist who went to Todos Santos in search of a tribe of Mayan Indians who still practice the religious customs of their ancestors. The third book is "My Turkish Adventure," by Pamela Burr, a teacher at the American Girls' College in Istanbul.

The first book I'll report on is "Immortal Pirate," the life of Sir Francis Drake, by Marguerite Eyer Wilbur. This is the story of the great sea-captain, Francis Drake, who broke the power of Spain and launched England on her imperial destiny. Of how he poured vast booty in gold and silver bullion and emeralds and pearls and rubies beyond price into Queen Elizabeth's lap.

With three ships no bigger than tug-boats, Drake made his way through the Straits of Magellan, sailed up the West coast of the Americas and landed not far from where San Francisco now is and claimed the whole country for the virgin Queen. He was the first Englishman to circumnavigate the globe.

"Out of This World," by Lowell Thomas Jr., son of the world-famous commentator, Lowell Thomas, takes us on the dangerous journey he and his father made from India over the towering Himalayas and into an amazing real-life Shangri-La, the forbidden Land of Tibet. The Thomases were the seventh and eighth American citizens to be granted this rare privilege, and the pictures the author took of what they saw in this mountain kingdom give an unequalled record of the life in Tibet.

"Strange Lands and Friendly People," is written by Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas. In the summers of 1949-1950 Mr. Douglas traveled and lived among the tribesmen of Persia, the peasants of Syria and Lebanon, and the leaders and plain people of Israel. He also visited Iraq, Jordan, Greece, Cyprus and the new India. Justice Douglas shows us the countries and people to the south of the Soviet empire. He shows how Western democracy is losing by default of Soviet propaganda.

Next bookmobile date is July 15.

Rat races have been frequent at the Center Street crossing and if they do not stop, someone will get killed. Persons caught in going around the crossing gates will be apprehended and charges pressed to the limit, a railroad official told Huck Sunday.

Search is now on for drivers of two cars which went around the gates Sunday noon, just avoiding an altercation with the Delmarva Express. Early Sunday morning another slap-happy driver went around the Center Street gates in front of passenger train No. 468, causing the engineer to put on his brakes. This train is due here from Cape Charles at 4 a. m. If one of these Diesels hits one of these reckless "so-called" drivers, they will be lucky to find all the pieces. A railroad official said these "drivers" had been taken before the alderman before, but the violators had been let off with a warning. He said it would be different from now on.

We need a traffic light at Commerce and Clark Streets. A lighted marker, indicating the turn on Delaware 14, would also be useful.

Four songs, written by Samuel A. Short Jr., are on recordings on the juke box at Irene's Restaurant. They are: "Cotton Tail Rag" and "The Farmer and His Mules," with "Lazy" Bill Huggins doing the vocals and the Sanford Hertz Trio furnishing the accompaniment; and "Six White Orchids" and "The Delmarva Polka," sung by Huggins and accompanied by himself on the guitar. Operating under the name of Blue Hen Record Company, Sam has also had recorded "Sleigh Bell Serenade" and "Brass Band Polka." Larry Marlin and his Musicians furnish the music.

New Jet Fuel?

One of the least-known uses of boron compounds and minerals is in connection with jet aircraft engines. Boron powders have been studied by the national advisory committee for aeronautics as possible non-liquid jet fuel for several years. And boron is, of course, eyewash, being the basic element in boric acid.

Sunday July 6th

Viola at Wyoming
Frederica at Ellendale
Farmington at Hickman
Harrington at Felton

Wyoming's unbeaten reign in the Mar-Del Circuit continued over the past week-end as they tripped Felton 7 to 1 to drop the losers into 4th place as Frederica climbed into 3rd as they won a free scoring game from Farmington 13 to 10. Harrington kept within easy striking distance of the leaders as they rallied in the 8th inning to nip Viola 6 to 5. Ellendale broke into the win column as they tripped Hickman 9 to 0 behind the steady pitching of Tommy Wells.

This week the Mar-Del nines have a busy program with a full slate on July 4th as well as next Sunday. By the time the results of these games are written in the record book the standings may be further shuffled. On Friday Farmington will be at Wyoming for a mid-morning contest starting at 10:30 A. M. In the afternoon two neighboring rivals will hook up as Viola meets Felton on the latter's diamond for the first time this season. Harrington will make its first visit to Ellendale while Frederica will be the opposition at Hickman.

Next Sunday the second half drive will get underway as Viola repays a Wyoming visit at the CR diamond while Frederica invades Ellendale. Farmington will trek to Hickman while Harrington and Felton will hook up for the second time this season. Great possibilities are offered in any one of the games as all the teams have been playing mid-season ball.

Deadline for signing new players was reached at mid-night on Monday Evening. Harrington signed the veteran Harry Barrett in hopes of bolstering their pitching staff while Frederica's new catcher, Ralph Dickerson, ex-Milton Highlet, will strengthen their chances. Bill Brown replaced Sonny Tucker on the Farmington roster while Billy Messick was cut loose by Hickman and Junior Messick signed. Farmington suffered a hard blow in the loss of Bobby Messick, regular catcher, who is now in the Armed Forces. Several other chances are expected but had not been received by the League at the time of this writing.

Aub Berry hurled 8 hit ball as well as pacing his team at the plate to give Wyoming a 7 to 1 win over Felton on Sunday. Berry lined out three singles while chalking up his 3rd win against no losses. Harold Rothermel went the route for Felton and pitched good ball in defeat and led his team at the plate with a double and single. Two double plays by both teams featured in the fielding. Reds Minner had a triple for Wyoming as well as a single. Drex Cox helped with two singles. Tom Minner and Lou Palmatary had two singles for Felton. Harrington came from behind 4 to 3 to put over 3 runs in the 8th to nose out Viola in a well played game 6 to 5. Freddie Frear hurled good ball for Viola until he loaded the bases in the 8th. Bill Biddle came in and after tying the score Harrington squeezed across two runs to give them a margin that led to their win. Viola threatened in the 9th with 1 run. Charley Riley went the distance for Harrington for his 2nd win against no losses. Dickie Brown had two singles and Jim Cabbage a double for the 2nd place nine while Bob Snyder had a double and single, Ted Sylvester a double, Marvin Kersey, and Nick Rodriguez two singles apiece to spark Viola's 9 hit attack.

Frederica laced out 17 hits against five Farmington pitchers to win a free scoring 13 to 10 victory to go into 3rd place. Buck Thompson was charged with the loss as he worked the 6th after Farmington had deadlocked the score at 10-10 with a 9 run outburst in the 6th. Ray Dennis finished up. Jim Postles started up for Frederica and gave up 1 run during his 5 inning sty. Roy Kemp came on in the 6th but loaded the bases and gave way in favor of Buddy Kimmel who gained credit for the win. Al Gottorf blasted out five hits for the winners including a double while Bob Gibson had a double and two singles, Ralph Dickerson a home-run and a single and George Manlove a double and single. Ray Dennis hit for the circuit along with a single for Farmington with Ray Vincent lining out a triple and a single.

Ellendale sparked by the pitching and hitting of Tommy Wells, Milford Highlet, broke into the win column impressively as they topped Hickman 9 to 0. Wells hurled 5 hit ball and came through with a double and single while Wilson Jones, Dave Greenly, and Dave Burton each had two singles as the Ellendale attack displayed its biggest punch of the season. Manager Jake Cannon topped his team with two singles. Hickman's Earl Quillen went the route. Dale Palmer, who hurled a two hitter for the Hickman nine, last Sunday was missing from the line-up due to be on duty with the Maryland National Guard for the next two weeks.

Milford AA Nine Card Busy Schedule

Getting away to a fast start during the past week with two straight wins the newly organized Milford A A nine have a busy schedule for the next three weeks prior to the State Tournament that starts at the Milford Park on July 25th.

On Tuesday evening New Castle Air Base "Minutemen" tossers will be the attraction at the Milford Park starting at 8:30 P. M. On Thursday evening Trappe, Md., Eastern Shore League nine, will be the visitors. Other games booked at the Milford Park are Henderson, Eastern Shore League, July 8th, New Castle Air Base again on July 17th. Milford tossers will make their debut in the State Tournament on July 25th.

Manager "Lyn" Taylor's new Milford combine is playing only mid-week games as most of his line-up has been selected from the various League is heavily represented with other players from the Bi-State, Central Shore, Eastern Shore Circuits. They opened the season with an impressive 13-2 win over Greensboro, Eastern Shore entry, as Virgil Emory sparked with a fine mound performance. On Thursday evening the Lewes Seahawks proved tough customers until the late innings when Milford jumped out in front to win 9 to 5. Charley Blades, Joe Moeltner and Buddy Kimmel split the mound work with the two home-run clouts by Calvin Lane, University of North Carolina infielder, being the big blows at the plate. Sonny Collings drove one out of the Park for Lewes while Dave Truitt, a left hander hurled good ball until he ran into difficulty in the late innings. A brilliant running catch by Joe Lank, former University of Delaware athlete, halted a Lewes rally in the 9th.

Milford has lots of depth and Manager Taylor substituted freely in the first two games in an effort to get a better line on his talent. Emory, Blades, Kimmel and Moeltner shape up as a strong mound corp with the latter also a dependable man behind the plate. Graham Dill and Ralph Dickerson, two Milton lads, look impressive in the catching department. Rick Collin at 1st, Ted Michaels, 2nd, Calvin Lane, short and Bob Lane at the hot corner provide a strong inner defense with a good utility man in Billy Morris, Harrington product. Johnny Williams, ex Wesley College tosser, Joe Lank, Harry Davis, Teddy Evans, Bob Gibson, and Kirk Gallagher, are a strong defensive aggregation in the outfield. Lank will be lost in the near future as he reports to Fort Bliss as a regular Army officer. Gallagher, former F & M athlete, is expected to take over his berth in center.

Farm Front News

Here is what too close, and too deep cultivation can do to tomato plants — rob them of a quarter of their roots. At eight weeks after transplanting, tomato roots extend three or more feet out from the plant, very close to the surface. (In the diagram each block indicates a square foot). Cultivating deeper than one or one and a half inches, and closer than a foot and a half cuts down on the tomato plant's intake of water and plant nutrients. This in turn reduces yields, especially in hot, dry weather.

Tomatoes.

General Conditions: Tomatoes have made rapid progress during the last two weeks. Growth has been excellent and rain arrived just in time. Many rows will be completely filled by the time you receive this notice.

Sidedressing: A tomato plant needs most of the nutrients to grow a big crop after July 1. A late sidedressing is necessary to provide plenty of nutrients when the plants need it. A sidedressing of 300 to 600 lbs. of 5-10-10 applied as late as possible will keep the plant growing longer. Put this late application down the middle of the row to avoid breaking roots.

Hornworms: Hornworms started hatching out the week of June 16 and will reach their peak in early July. Spray with DDD (Rhothane) 25% at one quart per 100 gallons or use a 5% dust June 25 to July 4. This spray or dust may be combined with Dithane or Parzate.

It's easy to kill hornworms when they are small. Do it now.

Disease Control: Start spraying or dusting with a fungicide about July. Use Dithane, Parzate, Marzate or a fixed copper. Spray or dust every 10 days until the end of the season.

Cultivation: Adjust cultivator carefully. Shallow cultivator is necessary from now on. Don't cut off roots and cut yields by deep cultivation close to the plant.

Saving Eggs

Eggs with clean shells keep best. Wipe off soiled spots with a damp cloth, but don't wash eggs until just before you use them. When eggs are first laid, the shells have a film known as the "bloom" which seals the pores and helps keep out bacteria and odors. Washing removes this protective film.

Banks Urged To Qualify For Crop Loans

Banks and lending institutions are urged to take part in price support loan programs of the Commodity Credit Corporation. Ernest S. Mattiford, state chairman, Production and Marketing Administration, said that banks can enter into lending agency agreements with the Corporation and make loans to farmers on farm-stored crops, and crops in approved warehouses.

The using of existing agencies in the loan program is in accordance with the policy of the CCC charter, that "to the maximum extent possible" the Corporation shall utilize the usual and customary channels of trade and commerce.

The loan program authorized by Congress, is to help farmers over periods marketing, transportation and storage difficulties which often occur at harvest time. At the same time, the loans enable the growers to keep ownership of their products for later marketing or use.

Individual bankers or associations may obtain full information from the PMA State Office, Courtney and Academy Streets, Newark; or from any of the county PMA offices located in Newark, Dover, and Georgetown. Loan programs for Northeast include wheat, corn, oats, rye, crops that have been announced barley, soybeans, honey, dry beans, wool, and certain hay and pasture seeds. Loans are also available to build need storage space and to buy grain buying equipment, said Mattiford.

Time In The Home Is Precious

"Time is just as precious in the home as it is in the factory and the field," says Miss Louise R. Whitcomb. Miss Whitcomb, home management specialist of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, gives her suggestions for analyzing housework and streamlining it.

1. Eliminate unnecessary work such as ironing sheets, drying dishes, making rolled cookies (dropped cookies are good, too).
2. Keep everything stored in the area where it is first used. In industry this is called "pre-positioning", homemakers call it "keeping things handy."
3. Use the best tool for the job. Have good house hold tools and learn to use them the right ways.
4. Sit down to work. It makes ironing easier, also helps in washing dishes, canning, and freezing.
5. Use both hands to work, especially for jobs such as dusting and washing paint.
6. Last, but not least, encourage family co-operation. Put a sponge and cleaning powder in the bathroom so everyone can help keep it clean. Let the family be responsible for keeping magazines and papers in order in a convenient spot. Provide storage for toys, school books, outdoor wraps, and hobbies.

State Has Defense Network Against Biological Warfare

An important part of our national Civilian Defense is the network against possible biological warfare. Biological warfare, if it comes, is very apt to center on our agriculture, so the Civilian Defense Administration has asked the U. S. Department of Agriculture to be responsible for a protection system.

The USDA has done this by appointing state agencies as detection and reporting centers. These agencies are on the alert for insects, and plant and animal disease developments. In Delaware the men responsible are: Dr. John W. Heuberger, head of University Delaware plant pathology department; the University's entomology department under Dr. L. A. Stearns; and Dr. Harry McDaniel, Jr., state veterinarian.

But the key link, says these officials, is alert farmers and producers. If a disease or insect should be successfully introduced or spread, authorities must depend on farmers to report anything unusual in their crops or herds.

Farmers are urged to report any different or unusual plant disease or insect pest to their county agents immediately. Samples of the diseased plant or an insect specimen should be taken, to the county agent, but to no one else unless the farmer is instructed to do so. Carrying or shipping increases the possibility of spreading.

Bulletin Points Up Need For Herd Sire Improvement

"Seventy-nine per cent of the dairymen surveyed in New Castle county indicated that their herd sire ran with the herd most of the year."

This fact, and others on the use and cost of herd sires, shows up in a new bulletin from the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station. In 1949-50 Dr. Samuel A. Dum of the department of agricultural economics surveyed a cross section of New Castle county dairymen. His results are published in ESB 294, "Dairy Practices, Costs, and Returns in New Castle County, Del."

The survey showed that only 46 per cent of the dairymen had the services of registered bulls. That means that over half of the dairymen in New Castle county are using herd sires that have no pedigree to indicate whether they could improve the herd.

Only 15 per cent of the dairymen kept bulls away from the milking herd at all times except for breeding. Only one-third of the dairymen kept breeding date records. Twenty-two per cent of the farmers let the herd sire run with heifers under one year of age.

Costs figures on keeping bulls show that in herds of 25 or fewer, it is cheaper to use artificial breeding than to keep a sire. In herds over 25, costs are equal.

Information from the bulletin can be had by writing to the Bulletin Mailing Room, Wolf Hall, University of Delaware, Newark.

Red Star Shows Newest Bus Here

Red Star Coaches, which became part of the Trailways Bus System Tuesday, exhibited one of its new 41-passenger diesel buses here Wed., June 25 so bus patrons could get a first-hand look at the type buses which have gone into thru service between Norfolk and New-York over the Red Star lines. This coach is provided with the latest type air conditioning equipment with a separate air conditioning motor in a special mid-ship compartment. The main driving engine is in the rear of the coach separated from the passenger compartment with a soundproof wall to make it one of the quietest coaches on the American highways. The new buses in service between Norfolk and New York were manufactured by the General Motors Corporation, coach division, and according to Trailways spokesmen cost over $30,000 each.

Red Star Coaches began thru bus service between Norfolk and New York April 27, which has resulted in travel time by express bus between these two cities being cut to as low as 10-1/4 hours. The quickest trip between these points is one routed over U. S. Route 13 to Wilmington, and from there over the Delaware Memorial Bridge and New Jersey Turnpike to New York. There are 3 thru trips daily between Norfolk and New York with one additional departure making connections for New York at the Philadelphia terminal.

Another recently added travel convenience, especially to residents of Virginia's Eastern shore points, is a new thru bus service from Eastern Shore Points to Richmond, Va.

This is the first time Eastern Shore residents have been able to reach their state capital without changes en route. The Richmond thru bus, after arrival at the Norfolk Terminal on Plume Street, continues to Richmond through Portsmouth, Suffolk and Petersburg.

On December 20 of last year officials of Red Star Coaches and Eastern Shore Transit agreed to merge these properties into Carolina Trailways. The Interstate Commerce Commission has approved this merger to become effective July 1.

Carolina Trailways officials explain that plans are underway to add new through routes to serve the Delmarva area, and to eventually replace the current Red Star buses with a new diesel-powered air conditioned fleet.

Accompanying the exhibition coach here are: Trailways traveling passenger agents, James W. Geddes, of Salisbury, Md., and Ed W. Croft of Norfolk; and John D. Minter, of the J. Walter Thompson Company, the Trailways Advertising Agency, of Raleigh, N. C.

Harrington is the crossroads of the Trailways Red Star Division, since the New York-Norfolk route intersects New York with the Rehoboth Beach-Washington line.

Hoof Beats

The battle lines have been drawn in harness racing's two and 3-year-old trotting and pacing divisions and lively fights give promise of developing in major stakes scheduled from here on out.

The 3-year olds, with the $90,000 Hambletonian for trotters and the $65,000 Little Brown Jug for pacers as the highlight goals, have come up with an early stick-out on the one hand and a wide open contest on the other.

Among the trotters, Walter T. Candler's Duke of Lullwater scored his second straight 1952 win by knocking off the $11,650 Old Wesbury in 2:05 1/5.

It was the 16th win in 18 starts over a year period for the Duke, winter book Hambletonian favorite.

The Duke' margin of victory, however, was but a scant three quarters of a length over Hit Song, the Harry Pownall-driven colt that was the only one to beat Duke of Lullwater last year. The two will collide in another Hambletonian preview at Goshen's Historic Track July 2nd.

Among the 3-year-old trotting fillies, Lu Peck and Dinner Date look the best off victories scored in the two divisions of the $14,250 Old Country for fillies at Roosevelt Raceway. Lu Peck won in 2:07 2/5, Dinner Date in 2:10 4/5.

In the 3-year-old pacing section that leads to the Jug, Thunderclap and Meadow Rice have shared honors to date. Meadow Rice won two non-stake contests earlier but Thunderclap, from Toledo, O., conquered the Louisville colt in the $9555 Village Farm Stake that was timed in a sizzling 2:03 2/5. The $8990 Abbedale for fillies was won by South Pacific in 2:07 1/5.

Outstanding 2-year-old off the record to date is Gay Acres Stable's Lively Lady from Wooster, Ohio. Lively Lady first won the $9000 Old Country for fillies of her age and gait and then came back and whipped the colts in the $11,800 Old Westbury.

Chief Claire, a colt, and Lonway, a filly, split honors in two stakes for 2-year-old sidewheelers. Chief Claire won the $12,263 Village Farm while Lonway knocked off the $10,766 Abbedale.

A 3-year-old trotting filly named Jen Hanover bettered a world's harness racing record last week but it's one that won't get in the books.

Placed on the steward's list by Roosevelt Raceway judges, the Dean Hanover-Brenda Hanover filly was asked to show a satisfactory workout in order to be reinstated.

Walter Welch, driving the filly for owner Dave Resnick of Washington, Pa., responded with a mile 2:04 2/5, two fifths of a second faster than the world standard for age, gait and sex over a minor oval.

Jen Hanover thus must be reckoned as a strong candidate for the $90,000 Hambletonian Stake to be raced at Goshen N. Y., Aug. 6.

Two harness horses have changed hands for reported five figure prices in recent days.

Worthy Coburn, 2-year-old trotting son of Worthy Boy, was sold for $25,000 by Joe Prucell of Nichols, N. Y. to The Saunders Mills Stable of Toledo, O.

The other sale was that of the veteran two-minute pacer Widover Cyrus who changed hands for a reported $20,000. The new owner of the latter horse is Dr. R. M. Boyd of Galion, O.

Harness racing fans are eagerly looking forward to the first meeting between the veteran Pronto Don and undefeated Ford Hanover, a newcomer to the free for all trotting ranks.

Since the two aren't staked against each other, the meeting probably will take place in the $25,000 American Trotting Championship, an Invitational affair, scheduled for Roosevelt Raceway July 24.

Pronto Don, who has lost but once this year and that on a disqualification, apparently stands head and shoulders over the present fast class trotting crop. But the Hayes Fair Acres star may have his mettle tested by Ford Hanover.

Unraced at two, Ford Hanover won 11 straight and was undefeated last year at three. He has won three straight this season and in his last two starts has lowered the track record at Laurel Raceway, Laurel, Md., first to 2:04 and then last Friday to 2:03 1/5. He's handled by Johnny Simpson for owner Bill Strang of Brooklyn.

Leather Too Precious

In ancient Rome, you didn't have to look above the ankles of a passerby to tell whether he was a plebeian or a patrician. Fine leather was so precious that the wearing of high shoes was restricted by law to the latter, while the poor had to wear primitive sandals or walk barefoot.

Clammy Joke

A tired-looking man walked into a restaurant, handed the waiter two vitamin pills, and asked him to dissolve them in a bowl of clam chowder. After a long interval he asked the waiter why he hadn't been served yet. "You'll get your soup, sir," said the waiter, "as soon as we get the clams to lie down."

Rich Coloring

A richly colored, effective living room has walls painted in deep cocoa brown, with the ceiling coated a soft beige that echoes the hue of the blond furniture. The floor covering is in a lighter tone of brown than the walls.

Embroidery Trick
To embroider initials or small designs on napkins, baste the stamped corners of four napkins together, edge to edge, and center the designs in an embroidery hoop. You can work all four corners this way, without changing hoop until you're ready to work the next four napkins.

Supply of Pennies
The supply of pennies has fluctuated wildly through the years. Among factors affecting demand are sales taxes and parking meters, inflationary pressures and price controls which may bring about sudden mass changes in fractional costs.

WHEELER RADIO STORE NEWS

Last week the sun got us it really was hot but this week I am going to remind you of the moon.

When the moon is out shining bright what do you do? Well you can answer that question and to really make it romantic a portable radio that you can almost put in a woman's hand bag is just the thing to bring you all that you dream about.

Come in while they are in stock and see the portable that you have always wanted. Of course it couldn't be anything but a Philco.

I don't know whether your grocer can get cheese enough or not. I mean that old cheese that tastes like cheese and not putty.

You know since Philco has put the dairy bar in refrigerators that many sales of Philco refrigerators are being made.

Each time one is sold a big fat chunk of cheese is bought because now you can keep that cheese and keep it locked up because the nice as well as men know a good thing when they smell it.

Thank you to Philco for a wonderful refrigerator to save not only your cheese but anything you want to put in it even our bad dispositions.

When you open up a Philco refrigerator in the morning you find your milk, meats or what ever you have in a condition that starts you and your family off with a bang.

I have tried to tell you the advantage of having a freezer and many of you have gotten one recently but did you get one that you are proud to present to your neighbors for viewing?

You know eyes are not deceiving and the looks as well as quality is installed in all Philco freezers.

They are made for the Class of people who like to save a dollar and don't want to chase out to the store everytime the hour hand gets around to where the house wife grabs her dress or rompers or bathing suit or what ever she has handy only to find the store full of people.

This is a real cause for that loss of temper. Now just let that old man of yours know that you are living in the 20th century and Philco has got to the point where they are going to let you know you are living in 1952 not 1900.

When you want a freezer just Phone Wheelers 541 Harrington and believe you me your troubles running to store will be over and your food will be safe not sour. Philco saves the taste and now act in haste. Have you ever heard of an air conditioner? Of course you have but did you ever stop to realize how nice and comfortable it would make your home.

Yes of course they cost more than an ordinary fan but a fan is really nothing compared to an air conditioner why? Because a fan will really give you the aches and pains if you let it blow directly on you. An air conditioner and I mean Philco air conditioner as they are made to cool your room or whole house if desired without blowing that air from place to place but taking the hot air out and leaving the cool nice sleeping air. Ask Wheelers at Phone 541, Harrington for one of these air conditioners and say put her in I'll pay later, but remember say Philco as that name is known for quality the world over.

This I know is 1952 but Philco is always ahead of the game and as I said before Philco brings them out of their holes and how?

Televisions are one of the most if not the best of anything that you can get for entertainment and learning. Philco is now out with 1953 models and if you are going to get a television and are waiting for new models, stop, look and listen and you will save many days of living as a contented man or woman will live much longer.

Any of the articles I mentioned can be bought on a small down payment and a long time for the balance.

Wheeler's Television Center Phone 541 Harrington Talk Peace Not War. Words are ordinary and many but acts are few but go far.
