Entries Close Thursday For Lions Talent Show; Mayor Killen to Emcee

Mayor Ernest Killen, past president of the Lions Club, will be master of ceremonies for the Lions Talent show March 13, to be held at Harrington High School. Melvin Brobst will be at the piano although contestants may bring their own accompanists if they desire.

Contestants who have not already entered are urged to get their entry blanks in promptly. Entries close Thursday. Entry blanks appear in ad in this paper.

Eight contestants from the Harrington High School were among the early entries. Included in them was young Jimmy Stayton, who made a big hit in last year's minstrel with his dead-pan antics. We understand Jim is now playing a guitar as he sings. The popular song team of the Misses Trotta and Gerardi was entered early.

An evening of song, dance and comedy is assured. Tickets are available from any member of the Lions Club at 50c each.

Madame Malecot Gives Highlights Of Travel Around the World At Friendship Dinner

Japan is one of the cleanest countries in the world; Siam is the most beautiful and colorful country in Asia; Rio de Janeiro is the most beautiful city in the western hemisphere, Madame Berthe Malecot, educator and traveler, told a Friendship Dinner gathering here Thursday night, Feb. 19, at the Firehouse.

The dinner, sponsored annually by a civic group, was sponsored this year by the Business & Professional Women's Club. The club president, Mrs. Cora M. Bailey, presided. Mrs. William Humes was toastmistress. The invocation was given by the Rev. Milton Elliott, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church. John Bunnell, of Felton, played the dinner music led in group singing, and sang "At Dawning" and "Gianina Mia." Miss Dorothy Bennett, of Milford, sang "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "One Kiss."

Eugene Anderson, commander of the Callaway-Kemp-Raughley-Tee Post of the American Legion, led in the salute to the flag, while Mayor Ernest Killen extended greetings from the city. Each person was given a potted plant. Dinner was served by the auxiliary of the Harrington Fire Company.

Mrs. Humes introduced Mrs. Fulton Downing, president of the Harrington Century Club; Elwood Gruwell, president of the Rotary Club; Charles Peck, Jr., president of the Lions Club, and Mrs. Madeline Dunn, state president of the women's business clubs.

The dinner commemorated National Brotherhood Week and International Federation Week.

Madame Malecot, a native of France and an American citizen, told of a world trip she started in 1949. Hawaii, she said, was the most beautiful country of all. From Hawaii she went to the Philippines, Japan, Hong Kong, Siam, Singapore, and India. She obtained her own bookings for travel and oftentimes went on freight boats.

She went to Iran, Iraq, Palestine, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, and saw all of Africa except the southern tip. She visited all of Europe except the Scandinavian countries.

Spain, the educator, a teacher of French and Spanish said, returned the most for American dollars. Expenses, including travel, there were only $2 per day.

From Europe, the traveler went to South America where she visited Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina (where the best steaks cost only 37c), Bolivia, Peru, and Central America. She visited Inca, Mayan, and Aztec ruins.

Everywhere, Madame Malecot commented, she found people were curious about America and that they admired and respected our country.

County Fire Companies To Use Emergency Radio

Miss Delmarva Contest Listed

Radio operation for the 17 fire companies in Kent County went into effect at 1 p. m. Sunday. According to the announcement by Lt. Samuel N. Stant, of the state police, who directed the radio work at Dover, each company has receiving and sending radio sets on one or more trucks.

The base station is located in the Dover fire house, while the fire houses at Smyrna and Milford also have receiving and sending stations as well as radio equipment on their fire trucks.

The wave length for the new radio system is the same as that used by the Dover firemen who have had a radio system for their department in operation for some years. The call letters for the base station at Dover have been changed to KGC 524.

To Attend Conference

Lieutenant Stant held a conference Sunday at the Robbins Hose Company at Dover which was attended by 70 firemen, representing each company in the county. They are the men who have been receiving instruction in operation of the radio.

Lieutenant Stant explained the care that must be exercised in handling radio calls.

For those companies that have the system attached to their trucks, with no station in their houses, Lieutenant Stant suggested that they tell the Dover station each time they go out on a call and that if additional help would be needed they could notify the station.

The 250-watt county station at Dover will be on a 24-hour basis every day.

Illustrates Call

In the conference, Lieutenant Stant used one of the Dover fire trucks to show how the calls are to be made.

For more than a year, under the direction of the Kent County Volunteer Firemen's Association, firemen from small areas have been receiving instructions on using fire fighting equipment in the larger towns while fire schools have been in operation for many of the companies in the county.

Soon State-Wide

Lieutenant Stant announced that while the network now in operation in Kent County is one of the few such systems in service in the United States, the network would be state-wide within the near future.

He explained that the base station for New Castle and Sussex Counties have been delayed awaiting supplies but that it was expected to be completed within the next two years in New Castle and for Sussex County within a month.

Fair's Prizes Start Dispute

A 20-minute hearing with the directors of the Kent and Sussex Fair Association started Monday's schedule of the Joint Finance Committee of the General Assembly.

The directors are asking for an increase of $5000 a year in the amount appropriated by the state for premiums and prizes at the Harrington Fair.

George Simpson, chairman of the legislative committee for the directors, explained that they want to increase the prize money so as to attract the best possible exhibits in several divisions. For each of the past four years the state has made $10,000 available for this purpose.

Under questioning from Senator Ernest B. Benger (R-Westover Hills) chairman of the committee, T. Brinton Holloway, general manager of the fair, disclosed that the actual sum spent on prizes last summer was $10,501.06.

Senator Benger suggested that perhaps too many prizes were being offered. He said the diversification of awards seemed to be too great to him.

Mr. Simpson referred, for example, to the $2 prize for a lemon cake. Senator Benger said that if this practice were carried out after a while the fair would be offering prizes for lemon cakes with one kind of frosting and lemon cakes with another kind of filling.

"You break down your prizes to such details that you give many more prizes than are warranted," the senator said.

Also representing the association were State Senator Jehu E. Camper (D-Harrington); former State Insurance Commissioner William J. Swain and William Shaw.

MRS. CALLAWAY GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Nyle Callaway, Sr., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Steward, last Wednesday. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Weaver and daughters, Sandra and June, of Greensboro, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Nyle Callaway, Jr., and children, Nyleen, Denise, Debra and Nyle III; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donovan, Joyce, Bobby and Terry, of Houston; Gail Callaway, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steward and son, Joseph, and Missen Passwaters.

This occasion was also in celebration of the birthdays of Nyle Callaway, Jr.; Denise and Debra, Sandra Weaver and Aileen Steward.

Some Self-Employed Persons Do Not Understand Social Security Rights - Milbour

Some self-employed people still do not fully understand their rights and obligations under social security, Myron Milbour, manager of the Wilmington social security office declared today.

Because of misunderstanding, Mr. Milbour said, many returns are being filed by persons in the excluded group of self-employed people. Certain specified professions such as doctors, lawyers, dentists, architects, and professional engineers are not covered by old-age and survivors insurance. "On the other hand," the local manager said, "returns are not being filed by some who are required to do so."

Mr. Milbour explained that some people do not know the amount of self-employment income that should be reported for social security purposes. What actually counts towards old-age and survivors insurance are the NET earnings (gross income less allowable business deduction) from a covered trade or business. The NET earnings must be at least $400 during the taxable year and no more than $3600 for the year can be credited to a social security account.

In case of a partnership, each partner will include in his NET earnings his distributive share of the ordinary net income or loss

Gov. J. Caleb Boggs is calling a conference on tuberculosis control for Sat., March 7, at 9 a. m., in the Social Hall of Dover High School to discuss a proposed state-wide mass chest X-ray survey for everyone in the state 15 years of age or over.

The Delaware Medical Society, Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society, Wilmington City Board of Health, State Board of Health and the Welfare Council of Delaware have taken the initial leadership in order to get preliminary plans underway. However, the success of such an intensified X-ray program in Delaware will depend on the endorsement and participation of all organized groups and interested individuals. The governor urges all those interested in the problem of tuberculosis in Delaware to attend the conference.

This type state-wide mass chest X-ray survey for tuberculosis control will be supported by the U. S. Public Health Service through the loan of physicians, technicians and consultant personnel in nursing, medical social work, and health education. In addition, the U. S. Public Health Service will provide 18 mobile chest X-ray units for use anywhere in the state during the period of the actual program.

The chief objective of a state-wide mass chest X-ray survey is to find all unknown cases of tuberculosis. Other chest abnormalities including tumors, lung cancer, and cardio-vascular conditions can be shown by X-ray. The information obtained will serve as a valuable guide for further developing our tuberculosis control program.

It has been found that the best single method of finding early tuberculosis is through X-ray. Tuberculosis is a communicable disease and is spread to others by people who actually have it. Tuberculosis itself is not inherited. Like many other chronic diseases a person may have tuberculosis and not know it because in its early stages the disease gives no specific warning symptoms.

Tuberculosis can be cured. The earlier the disease is found the easier it is to cure, hence the importance of finding our unknown cases. It is also important to understand that tuberculosis affects people in all walks of life.

The state-wide mass chest X-ray survey calls for leadership and participation by the people of Delaware. An organization will be needed to conduct the program. There will be the need for adequate headquarters space for carrying on the operations of the survey.

STEPHANIE CLUTE STATE CHERRY PIE WINNER

Stephanie Clute, of the Wyoming Wildcats 4-H Club, took part in the National Cherry Pie Baking Contest at Chicago last week. Stephanie, winner of the State Cherry Pie Baking Contest held at the University of Delaware during Farm and Home Week, was accompanied by her 4-H Club leader, Mrs. Virginia Metz of Wyoming.

Both state and national contests were judged on method of pie preparation, quality of final product, and personality and poise of the contestant. Boys as well as girls, who were state winners, and their chaperones, received an all-expense trip to the national contest, sponsored by the National Red Cherry Institute, Chicago. All 48 states participated in the contest this year.

In addition, the Pure Oil Company provides gold-filled medals of honor for county winners in each participating county, a set of silverware for the top-ranking 4-H girl, and a 17-jewel wrist watch for the outstanding boy in each of 26 states.

More than 12,000 4-H Club members took part in the 1952 program, 1271 of whom received merit medals for their proficiency in public speaking.

The State Club office in Delaware has approved 4-H member participation in this educational program, conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

A free booklet, "How to Make a Convincing Speech," is provided by the awards donor, and may be obtained by 4-H Club leaders and members from the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, 59 East Van Buren Street, Chicago 5, Ill. It contains valuable tips on platform presence, how to interest an audience, good delivery, how to open—and of equal importance—how to end a speech.

KENT HOME DOINGS By Charlotte L. Swanson Kent County Home Demonstration Agent

SAGE, PARSLEY, CHIVES

Yes, you know those familiar herbs, don't you? Have you ever used tarragon, thyme, marjoram, rosemary, summer savory, or basil?

Thirty-two Kent County Home Demonstration members learned how to use herbs and grow them, too, on February 16. These women will teach the members of their club in March or April, how to use herbs, too. Every one of them agreed that the dishes which Miss Gertrude Holloway, Nutrition Specialist, made that day were wonderful—worth trying at home and giving others. That touch of flavor from herbs will pep up lots of foods!

Some of the dishes which were prepared and tasted were carrots, vegetables, lamb pie, salad, and omelette. Someone has said that there is really no such thing as an herb recipe—instead herbs are added to the millions of recipes now in existence. Perhaps you'll like to use your imagination and a few pinches of herbs in your favorite recipes!

These are the women who attended the meeting and will tell you more about herbs at your meeting: Mrs. Frank S. McKee, Oak Grove Club; Mrs. William H. Richter, Oak Grove; Mrs. George Meyer, Oak Grove Club; Mrs. A. T. Slaughter, Laws Club; Mrs. Hary Rumer, Friendly Homemakers; Mrs. William Rowe, Friendly Homemakers; Mrs. Ruth Blechman, Hartly; Mrs. Helen Somers, Hartly; Mrs. E. MARKETING TIPS GIVEN BY LIVESTOCK BUYER

The payoff for livestock producers comes on market day. That's when they reap profits of good management and production technique. K. A. Clark, manager of Wm. Schleidtberg - T. J. Kurdie Company Livestock Station, Queenstown, Md., suggests the following marketing tips for livestock producers.

1. Know what the market wants
2. Know what you have and what it is worth.
3. Know when and where to market to get the most money.
4. Keep animals off feed and water for 12 hours in summer-time before loading.
5. Have good loading chutes.
6. Have clean well-bedded roadworthy trucks.
7. Do not overload.
8. Load and go early in the morning.
9. Drive slowly.
10. Deal with good, sound, reliable firms.
11. Be shrewd, be thorough, be progressive.

Clark, who spoke at Thursday morning's Beef and Swine session of Farm and Home Week, has been associated with the livestock industry all of his life. He received his M. S. degree in Animal Husbandry and Veterinary Science from Iowa State College. Formerly a faculty member of the University of Maryland's Animal Husbandry Department, Clark now owns and operates livestock farms on the Eastern Shore.

GOOD HYBRID SEED CORN MAY BE SCARCE IN SPRING

Good hybrid seed corn will likely be in short supply at corn planting time, warns a University of Maryland seed specialist. J. L. Newcomer, adviser to farmers to "buy early" in an Extension Service radio broadcast this week. The Midwest, which supplies a large part of the hybrid seed corn planted in this section, experienced bad weather last year, resulting in a below-standard corn crop, likely to have poor germination.

"Read the seed tag before you buy," Newcomer recommended. "Germination should be 90 per cent or better. It has been proven that seed germinating under 90 per cent often was weak in the germinators. Under cold, wet field conditions, the germination will usually be even less."

Southern-grown full season corn will have a larger proportion of round kernels than usual, because of hot dry growing weather. If germination is good, there is nothing wrong with buying round seed corn. "Round kernels are the best buy on the market," the extension specialist said. "If you use the right plate in your corn planter, rounds will plant just as accurately as flat kernels."

About 200 acres of hybrid seed corn was produced in Maryland in 1952, under seed certification program of which Newcomer supervises.

BEST POTATO VARIETIES FOR PLANTING

Potato varieties best suited for planting under Eastern Shore conditions are listed by the University of Maryland plant pathologists. Writing in the current issue of the Vegetable Growers Newsletter, J. G. Kantzes and Dr. L. O. Weaver give the following recommendations for the Eastern Shore:

Irish Cobbler continues to be the most popular early maturing variety on the lower Eastern Shore, where potatoes are an important commercial crop. Field trials conducted by Dr. R. A. Jehle, state plant pathologist, now retired, resulted in a swing toward Katahdin because this variety usually yields better and produces a more attractive smooth tuber. Katahdin will never completely replace Irish Cobbler, say the plant pathologists, because Cobbler matures 10 to 14 days earlier.

Dr. Jehle also reported promising yields with the white varieties Pawnee and White Cloud and the red skinned varieties La Soda, Waseca and Progress.

Marygold, a variety developed by the University of Maryland, had become popular in some sections of the state, especially as a garden crop.

Kennebec, a late blight-resistant variety has given promising yields. In light soils it matures the same as Katahdin, but in heavy soils it matures later.

The best varieties to plant for a late crop on the Eastern Shore are Sabago, a white variety, and Pontiac, a red variety. Satisfactory results have been obtained with Kennebec, Katahdin and Marygold, Kantzes and Dr. Weaver report.

HOME GARDENERS INVITED TO SHORT COURSE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

Home gardeners at their annual Short Course, March 3, will have a chance to hear and talk with gardening experts. Sam Gwinn, assistant short course director, University of Delaware, announced that speakers from Pennsylvania State College, Rutgers University, University of Massachusetts, and the University of Delaware will discuss various aspects of improving the home grounds.

The morning session, starting at 10, will include choice, planting and care of trees and shrubs for the home grounds insect control; and disease control. The afternoon session will be devoted to similar talks on annual and perennial flowering plants.

An evening session, which will be more convenient for working home gardeners to attend, says Gwinn, is being held for the first time. Building and maintaining lawns, and landscaping the home grounds will be discussed at the evening meeting.

"Everyone is welcome. There is no tuition charge or registration fee," says Gwinn. Morning and afternoon sessions will be held in room 246-248 Agricultural Hall on the University of Delaware Farm south of Newark. The evening session will be held in Wolf Hall auditorium on the University Campus. For additional information, write or call Farm Short Course Office, Agricultural Hall, Newark, Del.

Up to 2 Doz. More Eggs from Birds with Large Body Capacity

According to experiments of the famous Beacon Poultry Research Farm (published in the official journal "Poultry Science"), birds with large body capacity, well sprung ribs, big crops, big gizzards and big intestines produce as high as two dozen eggs more per bird per year than birds with smaller bodies grown on all-mash feed. The Beacon 70/30 Feeding Plan helps you produce birds capable of maintaining high egg production. This plan uses the maximum amount of scratch grain with a minimum amount of high powered Beacon "18" Growing Mash. Fed from the 12th week until birds are housed, it makes great savings.

VEGETABLE OUTLOOK VARIED THIS YEAR

Vegetable outlook for 1953 varies considerably, according to University of Maryland agricultural economists. One thing all vegetables will have in common is production as high or as higher than last year. A general profit squeeze can be expected, the economists say.

Demand will be good because of full employment and high income. The supply side of the picture offers considerable variety, however.

Here is how the University's agricultural economists size up the situation:

Irish potatoes—Signs are last year's high prices will encourage a large increase in acreage and production, resulting in a drop in prices, if weather holds good.

Sweet potatoes—Outlook is good, since production has been low and prices good for the last several years. Experienced growers with proper facilities for sweet potato production could gain by a slight increase in acreage.

Tomatoes—Prospects for tomatoes for processing are not as good as last year because of larger stocks. A small drop in prices of tomatoes for fresh market is expected because of predicted higher late spring and early summer production.

Sweet Corn—Prospects are not bright, since canned stocks are 51 per cent higher than at the same time last year. Indications are that early season production will be higher this year, resulting in a drop in price for corn sold on the fresh market.

Snap beans—Processor demand is expected to be good because the present supply of canned snap beans is 34 per cent lower than last year. It is likely that both acreage and prices will increase. Prices were low for fresh market snap beans last year, and farmers are expected to curtail production somewhat. Prices should be the same or slightly higher, unless acreage is increased.

Green peas—Processors' stocks are down 14 per cent so a small increase in acreage and price would seem likely.

The agricultural economists advise farmers to check with local canners before planting to find out how much they can handle.

TRAFFIC LAWS ARE ON YOUR SIDE

"Traffic laws are on YOUR side. Whose side are YOU on?"

This question was put to the citizens of Delaware this week by F. J. Jamison, Assistant Manager of the Delaware Safety Council.

Mr. Jamison, speaking in behalf of the Know and Obey Traffic Laws program which is being conducted by the Council and the National Safety Council during February, branded as suicidal the current disregard of traffic laws so prevalent throughout the country. He said that in almost all traffic accidents one or more traffic laws are violated by motorists or pedestrians or both.

Mr. Jamison said it is estimated that if every driver and pedestrian observed traffic laws and regulations and safe walking and driving rules, the annual traffic toll would be reduced 85 to 90 per cent. This, he pointed out, places the burden of responsibility for his own safety squarely upon everyone who travels our streets and highways.

The driver, Mr. Jamison said, gambles his life and the lives of other motorists and pedestrians each time he is guilty of one of the following unsafe acts:

Exceeds a safe speed,

Fails to give a car on the right the right of way at intersection.

Fails to give pedestrians already in cross walk the right of way.

Does not come to a full stop at stop sign.

Ignores a red light or a school zone slow sign.

The pedestrian, he said, is just as foolhardy when he darts out from behind parked cars or crosses between intersections.

Elliott Outstanding In 4-H Club Public Speaking

David Elliott

Recognition for outstanding performance in the 4-H Public Speaking program went to David Elliott, 20, of Laurel. A convincing manner and a timely topic well developed and presented, were what it took. Dave received a 17-jewel watch, provided by the Pure Oil Company as a state award in the program. David has an outstanding record in 4-H Club participation. He has given 38 demonstrations and been in 35 judging contests. After special training in Public Speaking at 4-H Camp and elsewhere, he delivered a prize-winning speech on swine production. Swine, he says, excel all other farm animals in converting feed into edible meat. The project may be adapted to fit various conditions and represents a small investment, though he finds that the purchase of good quality stock pays. He gives advice on means of sanitation, feeding, care of animals, health, and on marketing. David has been a junior leader for four years.

of good party-line telephone service

It's the path of simple consideration. Remember the three Rs of party-line courtesy—be Reasonable about how long you talk; Release the line for emergencies when asked; Replace the receiver gently when you find the line in use.

If you are always courteous on the telephone, you're sure to find your party-line neighbors the same. Happy result: better telephone service for everyone concerned!

Sulky Slants

By Mrs. Dave (Pat) Smith

You can leave it to me to change my mind. Just when Dave thought "Anna Day" was set to go down to Trappe, Md., I decided I wanted her sent to the Bowers Farm. So now she is at this beautiful place of theirs. I hope to have a nice little Donald Trux by this time next year. You see my Roustabout was by this wonderful sire. I told Dave when we left the Bohemia Point Farm, that Anna Day was sure at a resort home. Anyone that hasn't ever been up there it would be hard to picture it as it really is, in all its beauty. At the time we were there the sun was just beginning to set over the bay and what a sight. This large home extends quite a ways out in the bay, and sets there alone except for the white barns and white fences. To me it would be an artist's dream. It's at least 3 miles off main highway. So we left feeling Anna Day was in clover. Oh yes the paddock where 6 yearlings were turned out was another sight to behold. These yearlings bucking and playing running down to the water front certainly was something. All of them the picture of health. If anyone just out for a nice drive you couldn't go wrong on a trip to the Bohemia Point Farm. What a place!

Then on our way back we just wandered around over in Maryland around the Sassafras River and there you really do see some wonderful sights. Certainly was a trip worth going to see. We even spotted red birds and a robin and several bluebirds.

Charlotte Stout has returned home from Albany, N. Y. Had a chat with Charlotte and she told me if everything goes along ok Mr. Stout will be down here in another couple of weeks.

Helen of the Wonder Bar is very ill in Philadelphia hospital. Was operated on for gall bladder trouble. I stopped in at the Wonder Bar but had no direct word on her condition as yet. Helen's sister and Fount were going up to see her today but not in time for it going to press how she is. Sarah and Hazel tell me that "Judy" her dog really misses her.

See that Benny Moore has started his new station out on Highway 13. Bet that will be a pretty thing when its finished.

Eleanor who works at the Peoples Bank has been out with a very bad cold. Hurry and get well we miss you.

Asked Genie Anderson what he was doing out in the little house that says Harrington Gun Club? Well you might know I would get a good answer from Genie. Here it is. Oh I'm just out keeping tab on how fast the horses work.

You know there is something good about every thing. Take the fall meet here you know there will be some very good horses that will race here being as late as the races are this year.

Warren Holmes is very much impressed with a three-year filly, "Pearly Prospect" by "My Birthday." Warren tells me that she can really trot. She certainly is taking her lessons like an old horse. Any way Warren is very proud of her.

And Rose how does it happen you get the new cart to train to? Seems to me that Roland would have that. You must done some fast talking. But you and "Tracer Bullet" seem to go together. And I think Roland is proud of you any way helping him to train. But you will end driving a race before summer is over.

Here is an item that was sent me from Milford, from Mrs. Coverdale. On Feb. 14, 1953 the stork visited the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Lindale Coverdale, this time bringing a sorrell filly, dam Lady Prince, (by Cardinal Prince). Isn't that a cute name.

Jimmy Sivers had his mother and father visiting him over the weekend from Albany, N. Y. They seemed to think the weather was so much better down here. Told me they had snow up there when they left.

Frankie Plummer has received his papers to report to the army. Sure hate to see you go Frankie. On my way back from Dover this week I picked up a sailor boy and he happened to be Les Scopper who had just come back from Cuba. Was on his way home to visit his wife who is expecting. At the time I didn't know that I was picking up a Harrington boy. Something I wouldn't do only in the day time and close to home.

Think we will make a flying trip to Buffalo this week end.

Hope we don't get caught in a snow storm.

At this writing you wouldn't dare go in the same pen with old Jake. The meanest goose this side of heaven. Ok with me though. But strangers he is like a dog.

Mrs. William Hitchens reviewed the book, "My Antonia," by Willa Cather. Both of these books were from the approved list of the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. J. A. Jester gave a report on the Bookmobile, which is in Felton the first and third Wednesday afternoons of each month. School Notes

Student Council Meeting

A Student Council meeting was held on February 5 in the Milford High School. The meeting was called to order by President Frank Shane. The minutes were read and approved.

The council discussed the Valentine Dance which was held on Feb. 14, Friday night.

The schools are going to exchange newspapers and also year books and see that they are put in a place where everyone can see them. The next meeting will be held at Felton High School.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

F. H. A.

The F. H. A. Club at the last meeting discussed how to receive their Junior Degree Pins. The pins have an emblem on them with a key. Mrs. Goodwill read to the girls the steps that have to be taken in order to earn this pin. The information on the cost and how much each member is to pay and how much the F. H. A. treasury will pay will be acquired from Mrs. Goodwill. The members of the F. H. A. Club have been working hard and as a result have acquired valuable information which they will use every day.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America elected officers for the second half-semester under the supervision of Frederic E. Myer, the agriculture instructor. The following were elected by a majority vote:

President, Elwood Brown. Vice-President, Billy Bowdle. Secretary, Charles Baker. Treasurer, Preston Beauchamp. Reporter, Raymond Welch.

The boys have watched two projects by which to raise capital for the club. Several boys are selling potatoes while others are raising pure bred Berkshire hogs to sell. Everyone seems to be interested and willing to cooperate to make the project a success.

Harry Carlisle, Jr., returned to Goldie-Beacom College Monday evening after a three-day holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlisle, Sr.

Mrs. Maude Reynolds and Mrs. Gordon Maris visited Mrs. Corrine Timmons at the Peninsula General Hospital, Salisbury, Sunday afternoon.

The Library Club

The Library Club under the leadership of Mrs. Cahall has elected club officers for the new term. They are as follows:

President, Eleanor Baker. Secretary, Ann Katlaba. Geneva Brown was put in charge of keeping the school scrapbook.

Joyce Meredith was put in charge of the bulletin board displays which are prepared by the club.

Miss Paskey's Assembly

Miss Loretta Paskey's home room gave a play Friday, Feb. 13, as their assembly program. The play was "N for Nuisance" by Helen Louise Miller. The characters are as follows:

Saralee Gibson, a high school artist. Louise Baker.

Billy, her younger brother. Gary Harrington.

Mrs. Gibson, Phyllis Sherwood. Blair Kelley, a university junior, Charles Baker.

Celia Baylor, an unprofessional model. Gladys Mae Hill.

Mr. Henderson, an art instructor. Allen Hickman.

The setting is in Saralee's studio where Billy is posed as a model. Rivalry of Saralee and Celia over Blair Kelley becomes bitter when both desire his invitation to the Junior Prom. Celia attempts to make away with a painting which Saralee had entered in an art contest. Billy tries to prevent the act, and in the struggle the painting is torn beyond repair. At first it is supposed that Billy had done it to take revenge on his sister for spilling paint on his high school letter. When Billy is exonerated, everyone is happy again, and Saralee is picked by Blair as his date for the Prom.

Our community was saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Ada Fleming Dandy, wife of J. H. Dandy, last Friday. She had been in poor health for some time, but after returning from a stay of two weeks at the Easton Hospital last December, she convalesced and her friends were hopeful that she would be joining us at church and in our W. S. C. S. meetings, which she so loved. In spite of affliction, she had a very optimistic spirit, always meeting friends with a smile. Mr. and Mrs. Dandy moved to our community from Carroll County twenty-five years ago and since that time she had been one of us. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. J. Turkington at the Moore Funeral Home, Denton, Sunday at 12:30, with interment at Berrett Cemetery, near Sykesville. Besides her husband, she is survived by three sisters and four brothers, all living on the Western Shore.

Mrs. Mary Liddle of Milford was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Clara Stagord.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Towers were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Morgan, Mrs. Wilson Shockley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Morgan and Shirley, Mrs. Mimos Jester, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Fountain and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stafford and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright, Denton, on Monday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Henry were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Scott Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fountain visited Ralph H. Wooters last Thursday evening.

Mrs. L. H. Thomas and Bernard were last Saturday afternoon guests of Mrs. James C. Hardesty and Carlton, rural Harrington. Bernard returned to Washington College Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clendaniel and Mrs. Idaline Stranahan, Middletown, Del., recently visited their mother, Mrs. C. V. Clarke.

Ellen and Kenneth Butler visited Janet and Bobby Pippin Friday and enjoyed it.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hopkins Thomas and family, Easton, last Sunday evening.

Mrs. B. B. Allen was a Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. W. G. Holbrook and mother, Mrs. Frances Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Butler, Shirley Faye and Jackie, of Tuckahoe Neck, were last Saturday guests of Mrs. Lewis Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conway of Ellicott City called on Mr. Dandy. Will Fleming, Sykesville, and sister, Miss Goldie Fleming, Westminster, were guests.

Ellen Butler spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Lewis Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stafford, of Goldsboro, were last Thursday evening guests of Mrs. Clara Stafford.

ing up a new statute containing proper authorization. Unquestionably," the Senator declared, "this would be a long drawn out procedure, and could conceivably occur at a time when speed is of the essence."

"To eliminate such a possibility," Mr. Frear said, "I believe it far wiser to consider the passage of standby legislation now, so that the President will be able to proceed promptly in the event a greater emergency arises."

In conclusion, Senator Frear added: "The phrase 'too little and too late' was a tragically familiar one during World War II. In these days of possible sudden and devastating attack, it is imperative that our Governmental machinery be ready to move within hours or even minutes. Stand-by authority for emergency economic and military mobilization, prudently exercised by the Executive Branch, would thus, at an hour of need, be of unlimited assistance in protecting the national welfare."

In the second half of the first round next week, Ridgely of the Central Shore League will meet St. Hedwig's of Wilmington CYO League; National Guard of the Wilmington Semi-Pro League faces Dover (ESL), and Laurel (ESL) goes against Sudlersville (CSL). These games will complete the first round, except for the March 7 duel between Claymont and Rocco's of Wilmington. By winning Saturday night, DuPont-Newport earned the right to meet defending tourney champion, New Castle County Air Base, in the quarter-finals, while Harrington will meet the Dover National Guard winner, and Hercules will face the Laurel-Sudlersville winner in the same brackets.
