Identification of Voters Urged by Past Governor

Former Governor Elbert N Carvel urged the identification of electors for registration and voting at a covered dish luncheon of the Kent County Democratic Women's Club Tuesday evening at the Felton Firehouse.

The popular Sussex Countian said, "Let us have identification for voting and registration." He suggested the voter sign his or her name on registering and voting and pointed out this practice was pursued in New York and in parts of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Carvel opened his speech with the prediction of a Democratic victory in 1954, "a prelude to victory in 1956." Commenting on the number of public officials present, he mentioned the sacrifices they had made to serve nation, county and state.

This information is based upon a recent study by the Delaware State Board of Health of the first 2000 children who were born in Delaware in 1952.

The Maternal and Child Health Division of the State Board of Health has been regularly sending a letter concerning immunization with enclosed immunization certificates to the parents of all new-borns. This was first started in April, 1951.

Early in 1953, check-forms were sent to all parents involved in the study, requesting them to check whether heir child had been immunized and the type of immunization given. Presenting a vivid word picture, Mr. Burgess told about this boy, born in a hut, who began life under the most inauspicious circumstances and about whom it was prophesied, "he will never come to much," became the exemplier of the brotherhood of man.

Lincoln was eager for learning. He had less than a year of formal education, but by stndying and reading in his spare time, he taught himself. His achievements all came from his own efforts. The things he wanted to know were found in books. In helping him to interpret these things, Mentor Graham, a schoolteacher; Judge Bowling Green, and Jack Kelso, a trapper, who introduced Lincoln to the classics while they fished along a quite wilderness stream, were the three most influential.

"He is one of the seven great men of all time," said H. G. Wells, and Tolstoy spoke of Lincoln as a miniature Christ.

Through the school halls were heard many favorable comments m Mr. Burgess' talk.

New style... New power... New economy... and yet

That's why people are calling the new 1954 Chevrolet the outstanding motor car value of this new year!

Men and women everywhere are deciding that Chevrolet for 1954 gives more for the money than any other car in its price range. Here are the reasons why ...

New style-more beauty of line, contour and color-with stunning new Bodies by Fisher and luxurious new modern-mode interiors. New power-more pickup, more passing ability, more smoothness and quietness of operation with either of Chevrolet's two advanced 1954 engines—the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide (available on all models at extra cost) or the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 115" engine! New economy-yes, even stronger gasoline savings-because both of these great high-compression engines are designed, engineered and built to wring more power from every charge of fuel. Moreover, these new Chevrolets remain the lowest-priced line in their field, again this year.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Myron Milbouer, manager of the Delaware social security office, at 813 West Street, Wilmington, reminds the self-employed that their report of 1953 earnings for social security purposes is due with their income tax return. In most cases, this means that March 15, 1954, is the deadline for this report. The self-employed report their earnings only once a year instead of every three months as is the case of an employee. "The importance of correct returns cannot be overemphasized." he said, "because they will determine the amount payable by social security at some later date."

Milbouer said that there is a special form for this report. It merely kept the records. In is Schedule C-a and may be obtained at any Internal Revenue Office. He pointed out that the following are the most common errors that have been made in the past, and have endangered the correctiveness of individual records that are kept by the Government:

1. The omission of the social security number. The number is most important. With the vast duplication of correct amount without the aid of of the account number.

2. In accurate or incomplete description of the business. "Self-employed" or "owner" is not sufficient to determine whether or not the income reported is covered by the law. There are certain categories of the self-employed, such as certais professions, that are not covered by social security. You must also actually own or con-covered by social security. 3. Reporting the gross income rather than the net income. The social security tax is payable only on the set in-Allowable deductions such as rent, depreciation, other taxes, etc., are not to be reported for social security pur-Rentals from real es-bonds if received from invest- Hobbs ments only are not reportable. However, if income from these sources are received in the course of your business as a real estate dealer or a dealer in securities, they should be reported as earned income.

4. Reporting income from a husband and wife partnership should show only the income Mrs. Nettie Long, visited with from the person actually having Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Henry Monthe income. Of course, if each of the parties worked in the business and both had incomes, then separate Schedule Ca's should be prepared showing the individual incomes.

Townsend Boy State Winner In Poultry

Robert Reed, 15, of Townsend, has been selected as state winner in the 1953 Poultry Achievement program. His trip award to the 4-H Congress was provided by Ford Tractor Division, Ford Motor Co.

His record shows that he raised 2,800 birds in 1953, his third year in a poultry project. At approximately 10 weeks, his chicks are sold to the highest bidder. His profits are set aside for an educational fund. Robert's father, Charles H. Reed, raises and ships more than 60,000 chickens a year.

Despite the hours of effort devoted to the poultry program, Robert found time to complete projects in yard improvement, gardening and dairying. He is vice president of County Line 4-H club. Robert's father operates a 180 acre farm.

"We believe that the future of America is safe in the hands of youngsters like these."

I noticed the last few days how grass and many farms are beginning to show that the earth is getting ready to unfold the beauties and the good things it produces. Of course, that simply means again spring is just about to grab us and when it does, lo and behold, we all get excited trying to get things in shape for many undertakings. It would be useless in I told you I was coming up to wanpaper. Or course I am and It is something we all use soon er or later. Now is the timenot later. I think I told you last year about this time that the painters and papernangers have almost been in hibernauon, but just as soon as April rolls in, out they go for many destinations. If you are wise, get them now and no need to wait for paper or satin finish paint, as we have it and plenty, plenty of it.

We are still selling our ceiling at seventeen and half cents single roll and border for 2 cents yard. Match this price if you can anywhere. All right-then come to Wheeler's and get your wallpaper

It will be a little harder for you owners who have renters to keep good families for your tenants unless you keep your properties comfortable looking

This can be done at very little expense, as the tenant should have some consideration for the rents they are now paying. A home kept in good livable condition is a good investment. Paper a home with the paper we have and your tenants will be proud to pay you the rent with

If you own your home, you should still be more inclined to make it beautiful.

Our gas business is growing gradually and with it comes the thought of what I said about 5 years ago-an oil stove would be hard to find in any home, and sure enough again I was right. As there are a few still cooking with oil, may I suggest stopping in Wheeler's and ask about the wonderful buys we have in gas ranges, both apartment and full size.

We, of course, furnish you gas, either by tanks or bottles, as some call them, or we will! put on a meter and you pay only what you use.
