The 1954 National Chicken Cooking Contest swung into a faster tempo this week with the rules being set up and applications blanks in the mail to the first J. Lord, $2500, farm of 51 A. applicants to enter.

The 1954 National Chicken Cooking Contest will be held in lison the Georgetown High School Cafeteria and will be divided into two divisions — the Junior Cooking Contest which is set up on a national basis this year and which contest are from 10 to 18. (The contestant must not have reached his or her birthday by June 22); The Senior Division, open to ages 18 and over, both men and women, which will be held June 23, beginning at 9 a. m., DST.

The contest is open to all persons of either sex living in the United States, its territories and possessions, except professional cooks, chefs or caterers. First place winners in previous National Chicken Cooking Contests will not be eligible to enter. Contestants are required to furnish his or her own transportation to the event and be responsible for any expenses incident to participating in the contest.

The contestant will be furnished with one or two Delmarva chickens, fully dressed, including giblets and will be cut up, left whole or halved according to the recipe contest committee will furnish e- Fire Company lectric or gas stoves, with each Also to those who desire such, there will be furnished deepfryfats, including lard, margarine, ilton Street. butter, and various vegetable shortenings and all-purpose flour, ing ingredients, along with cooking pan, skillet, roasting pan, knife, fork, spoon and other necessary small equipment. One of Delaware's most popular flowering trees, the dogwood, i often a victim of two diseases hat can spoil its beauty. The two diseases are spot anthracnose and Septoria leafspot.

Symptoms of both diseases and control measures are described in a new publication of the Agricultural Experiment Station at the University of Delaware. The publication is entitled "Some Common Diseases of Flowering Dogwood in Delaware," by Dr than half time, the VA told me I Robert S. Cox, formerly research will receive an allowance equal to professor in plant pathology and now with the University of Spot anthracnose attacks flower buds and may cause them to shed before reaching the peak of bloom. Septoria leafspot, appearing around the middle of June, veterans and non-veterans — are shows up as spots on the leaves.

The circular describes several spray materials for control if both diseases. Captan and Manzate appear to be the best. Puratized Agricultural Spray and Bordeaux mixture gave good control in studies by Dr. Cox, but caused some foliage injury.

Free copies of the circular are available from the Mailing Room Agricultural Hall, Newark. Del Copies are also from county agricultural agents in Newark, Dover, and Georgetown.

do more work per day . . . more work per dollar!

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability let you save time where it counts.

You save time on deliveries. With new truck Hydra-Matic transmission, you save time at every delivery stop. And you can forget about clutching and shifting for good! It's optional at extra cost on ½-, ¾- and 1-ton Chevrolet trucks. You save extra trips. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pick-up bodies are deeper, new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower for easier loading. You save with lower upkeep, too. Extra chassis strength saves you money on maintenance. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models . . . bigger clutches in lightand heavy-duty models . . . stronger frames in all models.

You save on operating costs. New power saves you money every mile! The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost). deliver increased operating economy. And your savings start the day you buy. Wiggle Nose Wiggle Nose is our bunny And he is very funny Even tho' he's not so old He has his lettuce in a red bowl.

It's The Brain That Counts Tuesday, April 6, the junior and senior high school were shown a film, "It's the Brain That Counts." The film showed the disastrous effects of the use of alcohol.

8 Grade Miss Morris On Friday ,April 9, Miss Morris' eighth graders gave their assembly program which featured songs and pictures of France. Joseph begun by everyone singing 'Allouette", a French-Canadian song. Lillian White read the Scripture. Next, James Sheehan and Tony Perrone played a Rose." Mr. Cotter showed the pictures which he took on his trip to France last summer. Adriana Potter and Faye Spicer sang a song entitled "I Love Paris". The assembly was ended by the eighth section singing, in French "La Marseillaise," the French National Anthem.

Hidden Treasures

Last Tuesday the high school students saw a most interesting movie called "Hidden Treasurers" which was produced by the Hercules Powder Company Experimental Station of Wilmington.

It showed that treasures can be discovered in a flake of snow or a drop of water, by the use of the microscope. Conversely, it disclosed the immensity of this world and worlds beyond our own, as seen through powerful telescopes.
