HAPPY NEW YEAR!

To You and Yours

AT THIS TIME we affirm our faith in the future of our community, county, state and nation.

Particularly, we are optimistic over the prospects for the growth of Harrington. Projects completed within the past two years, current and contemplated ones, make the outlook particularly promising.

Especially pleasing is the fact that the citizens of the city, and surrounding area, have made many projects possible.

For example, it was the citizens of Harrington Special School District who voted for the $552,000 elementary school, completed last year, and the $206,000 fieldhouse under construction.

It is a Harringtonian, Horace E. Quillen, who is building Harrington's first shopping center, to be completed in the spring.

The citizens will vote Fri., Jan. 7, on a 200,000 gallon overhead water tower. The measure will pass, we believe.

Soon to be under construction, after the present stand is razed, is a grandstand at Kent & Sussex Fairgrounds which will cost $259,000.

Within two years, Harrington is also scheduled to have an armory.

The dual highway has been extended from Canterbury to Harrington. Without doubt, it will be extended to Greenwood within two years.

SAM SHORT — "CITIZEN OF THE YEARS"

From time to time in years gone by, some organization and this newspaper, has named a "Citizen of the Year."

We believe this title would be appropriate in referring to Samuel A. Short, Jr., but we believe "Citizen of the Years" would be more appropriate in his case.

We know of no Harringtonian who has worked harder in the interests of the city than this modest merchant of Center Street.

Let us retrogress a few years. When we had a police school, as part of the defunct civil defense program, Sam was one of the few who attended it regularly. One could depend on Sam to assist in everything of benefit to the community.

As a member of Chosen Friends Lodge, Sam turned in lodge news regularly. When the Rev. Robert E. VanCleaf, pastor of Asbury Methodist Church, remarked he thought the community should have a city directory, we passed the idea along to Sam.

For the past two years we have had an annual directory, sponsored by the lodge. A committee sells advertising for the project and, guess who is in the charge—Sam.

For several years Sam was president of the Harrington Better Business Association. He took a prominent part in its attempt to secure industries for Harrington. Every year he is also a hard worker on its Christmas program.

Probably Sam's greatest achievement is his success as supervisor of the Ground Observer Corps. We have the most outstanding spotters post south of Wilmington. This is largely due to Sam who not only fills a shift, but substitutes when someone else is unable to make it.

Sometime ago, the local post received a certificate of merit from Gov. Boggs. Harrington had the only post outside of Wilmington to receive such an award.

WE NEED A WATER TOWER

On Friday, January 7, the citizens of the community will participate in a special election to provide a sorely needed water tower. The measure should pass on its merits, and we believe it will pass.

The old standpipe, currently in use, has been in use around a half-century and has long been an anachronism. It no longer provides enough pressure for current needs, let alone those of a community whose prospects for expansion look bright.

The overhead tank will hold 200,000 gallons, with the low capacity line being 100 feet above the foundations. Such a tank will be more than enough for current needs, and will allow for additional wants when the community expands. Furthermore, this type of tank will provide water for some time in case the power goes off, as it did when Hurricane Hazel hit the community in October. It will provide this water by gravity.

YOUR DUTY is to vote X "Yes" for the water tower, January 7.

FAITH IN A STORM

The winds are weird and fierce of late
And seem to howl a ghostly tale
Of how the waves and tempest thrash
Upon the shores and in anger crash
The night is dark the clouds hang low
Only dancing shadows from candle's glow
Light the way to the tiny beds
And to God's little angels fevered heads.
Many the ships who have lost their course
And the captains pray to a mightier source
For mercy and guidance to find the way
For the tempest to cease and dawn of day.
In bible times the storms did rage
Folk had faith and to God they prayed
He answered prayer and brought them peace
Calmed their fears and bade the tempest cease.
He hasn't changed from those old days
He still can help to find our ways
The sick he healed and can do still
If we have faith and is his will.
Dear God you know the way gets rough
It seems the chores are mighty tough
But help us see the brightest side
Give us courage our fears to hide.
Those service men we pray to bless
These ailing babies and all the rest
And if it not to much to ask
Give us knowledge to do our task.
And help us lord to understand
The why and how of each command
And those who are weary give them rest
Help us not to criticize the one knowing best.
Tonight upon or'r all this earth thy vigil tend
In Jesus name we ask it all, Amen.

New Pen

A pen writes with ink whenever you fill it with water. It contains a tablet of ink concentrate, and each filling with water dissolves only enough of the tablet to provide a proper ink supply. Result: You never run out of ink, wherever you are. The concentrate is said to last about 18 months and can then be replaced.

BLACK BEAR ©1954 National Wildlife Federation

Nature thrill writers have at times tried to pep up their stories by claiming that their particularly villainous bear character was a cinnamon bear and not a black bear. They might with equal justice claim that a white pigeon had qualities superior to those of a blue pigeon. Cinnamon bears are simply color phases of the black bear. As David Newell aptly put it in his children's rhyme,—

"And black bear cubs, are brown, sometimes, A thing we can't explain in rhyme; But anyway it's really true That brown bears are just black bears too."

Of course this does not apply to the Alaskan brown bear which is another species but it does apply to the cinnamon bear.

Black bears are most successful animals. They have managed to maintain their existence across the continent in spite of man. They were originally found in most of North America except in eastern California, eastern Oregon, eastern Washington, Nevada and western Utah. There are 10 subspecies recognized but the differences are minor except to zoologists. All are found in wooded areas and often more commonly near centers of human population.

A black bear is about 6 feet long and 3 feet high at the shoulder. The snout is long and usually lighter colored. There is usually a white throat patch. The tail is short. Bears walk flat-footed. Normally a black bear may show front foot tracks measuring 3 by 4 inches with 5 claw marks and hind foot tracks measuring 4 by 7 inches also with 5 claw marks. In contrast to this a grizzly bear may make hind foot tracks measuring 5 to 12 inches. Black bears weigh up to 300 pounds; grizzlies to more than three times as much.

Black bears mate for the season only, usually in June. The 1 to 4 young are born 7 months later usually when the mother is in hibernation. The cubs weigh about 1 1/2 pound each, are blind and practically helpless. They remain with the mother at least until fall. The mother commonly bears young every other year and may live to be about 25 years old.

The food of black bears is varied and includes almost any animal matter, living or dead. Vegetables and fruits are also popular in season and an individual may range over and area 30 miles across in maintaining its existence.

Normally black bears will not molest human beings but a wounded bear or a mother defending her young, or a starved bear seeking food, may be dangerously aggressive. They are not to be trusted and park visitors who attempt to feed them do so at their own risk. These bears are clowns and their caves or dens in zoos are invariably popular. Bear meat is edible, particularly if the animal has fed on fruits and berries. The fur has a durability 85 per cent that of the standard otter.

The National Wildlife Federation encourages a better understanding of bears for the good of man and of the bears.

Clean Pantry Is First Step in War On Insects That Thrive in Cereals

Don't be disappointed if you're not familiar with the flour beetle, saw-toothed grain beetle, rice weevil and Mediterranean flour moth. These insects will do you no good.

But if you are bothered by insects in cereal foods, this article may help you. To begin with, the above insects are destructive mainly in the larva stage.

The larva of the flour beetle is about one-fourth inch long of yellow color. It has been found in wheat, barley, oats, rye, corn, and rice flours; breakfast foods, and grains ground or rolled in various forms.

The saw-toothed grain beetle is one of the most common beetles occurring in ground grain products. The larva resembles the flour beetle but is smaller in size.

Mediterranean flour moths in the larva stage are about one-half inch long. They are usually found in silken tubes that are spun in flour. During early life, larva spin silken tubes in which they are confined. When they are fully grown they leave the flour for places where they can spin their cocoons. In crawling about, an enormous amount of silk is spun, which mats together the flour and meal.

Rice weevils are different from the rest in that the larva feed only on hard products. They need food at least the size of a wheat Kernel in which to burrow during their development. If a flour or meal becomes moist and caked, rice weevil will then thrive successfully.

These cereal attacking insects are controlled by a three step procedure. First, clean the pantry with lye water, being sure to reach the cracks and crevices. Next, spray area with a good DDT spray. The final and best safeguard is to keep all such cereal products in tight containers.

If an infestation has occurred, heat the cereal product to a temperature of 120 F. for two hours. This will kill all larva and they can be sifted out.

HOME IMPROVEMENT HINTS

QUESTION: How can I keep my subfloor timbers from decaying?

ANSWER: Roll roofing or other effective moisture barrier, laid on the soil beneath a basement building, has proved to be a cheap, effective, and practical means of reducing crawl-space dampness, which frequently leads to decay of subfloor timbers.

QUESTION Should sink-type garbage disposal units be installed in suburban and farm homes equipped with septic tanks?

ANSWER: Only if the septic tank has sufficient capacity to handle the extra load. If a garbage disposal unit is attached to a system, the capacity should be about one-half more than is needed normally.

Immediately after polishing a brass or metal door knocker, wax it to keep it looking brighter longer. Better still, brush on a coat of clear lacquer.

Veterans News And Answers To Questions

Q—I am the widow of a World War I veteran, receiving death pension payments. I recently received the proceeds of a fire insurance policy, to cover damage of a fire to my house. Does the fire insurance money count as income, for VA pension purposes?

A—No. Proceeds of a fire insurance policy are not considered in computing your yearly income for VA pension purposes.

Q—Can a veteran who lives in one State obtain a GI loan for the purchase of property in another State?

A—Yes, it is possible. However, you may find that lenders generally confine their lending operations to certain areas.

Q—I have a term National Service Life Insurance policy. Premiums were placed under waiver when I returned to active duty. I understand that the waiver will continue for 120 day after my separation from service. May I cut short that 120-day period? I would like to pick up my term policy and then convert it to a permanent plan of insurance, taking advantage of a lower premium rate because of my birth date.

A—Yes. You may resume your term policy at anytime after your separation, without waiting for the 120-day period to expire. Of course, once you resume payments you may convert to a permanent plan.

Q—How would my entitlement be used up, in case I decide to take flight training under the Korean GI Bill?

A—Your entitlement would be used up at the rate of one day for each 1.25 paid to you as your GI training allowance.

Old Golf Balls To remove old paint from golf balls, dip the balls for a few minutes in a warm solution of lye, made by combining about a fifth of a can of lye with a quart of water. Add the lye to the water and use a glass or iron container—not an aluminum or tin one. Stir occasionally with a wooden stick. Follow the paint removal by rinsing, scrubbing and drying. It's wise to wear rubber gloves during this process. Refinish your balls with two or three coats of exterior enamel.

'I SPEAK FOR DEMOCRACY' WINNER URGES HOME RELIGIOUS TRAINING TO CURB JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

(This speech won 3rd place in the "Voice of Democracy" contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce which was held in Milford on November 30.)

I SPEAK FOR DEMOCRACY

As I begin, I would like to quote a statement made by J. Edgar Hoover in the "Senior Scholastic." "The nation will soon be confronted with a crime wave of greater over-all proportions than anything known." This statement deals with juvenile delinquency. How can we disregard juvenile delinquency, and at the same time, build a stronger democracy? There are three points which I feel are outstanding.

1. Religious Teachings

Religious teachings should begin at home and continue in the church. The parents should go with their children to church to show their interest in them. Then the hearts of the children will be filled with love and kindness for people and their country.

2. Be A Pal To Your Children

This causes the children to love and have confidence in their parents, so that they will obey them and do the right things in life.

3. Social Activities

Parents should help their children to take part in all activities in the local communities in order to acquaint them with the people around them and to show others how to build a stronger democracy.

Democracy is a part of the individual. These characteristics develop in you as you grow older. You may not understand that you are helping to build a strong democracy, but in your surrounding something happens everyday to help strengthen it. A child learns from his teachings in school how the nation first started and how it was improved. The boys and girls in the United States have had some experience with their government. They have heard the president of the United States speak on the radio and the television. They have seen policemen directing traffic at busy corners. They have heard or read about judges, juries, trials, and have seen people stand in line at the polls to vote on election day.

People have freedom to speak whenever they choose, and people are free to listen. Today clubs and, especially, the Student Council can settle problems. They speak for democracy. Everyone of you should have considerable understanding of these conditions, because someday there is always a chance of your putting these experiences to use. You have to put something into it, to get something out of it. I believe no matter what you do in the world, everyone can accomplish much to improve our democracy.

Democracy must have enthusiastic men and women, devoting their thoughts and energies to the betterment of mankind. It is a hard task. It requires hours, days, and years, almost a lifetime of devoted unselfishness. We should be granted an opportunity to show our appreciation and devotion to this, and also be thankful to the people who have worked hard and long for the country. We can do this by telling other people and setting an example for them. We should like the satisfaction of helping our fellowmen and women to make the world a better place in which to live. I am sure you, as the People of the United States of America, will want to share the pleasure of giving service to humanity with others who have not yet experienced the same as you. This way people will be filled with enthusiasm, with goodwill, with brotherhood, and with service to our country. If we do this, we shall all continue to belong to the most desirable in the world.

I fully believe everyone is capable of having voice in democracy. I know if everyone who wrote a script or an essay would spread the news to other people that soon everyone would show how important it is to speak for democracy.

1955 Seen As Good Year to Farm On Contour and Get Better Yields

Contour farming paid big dividends in the dry 1954 growing season, because this farming method conserved the limited amount of rain and made it available to crops.

And it looks like 1955 will be another good year to farm on the contour, according to Fred L. Bull, University of Maryland Extension soil conservationist.

He points out that 1954 rainfall over most of the State was 10 to 15 inches below normal, and that "it is unlikely we will have sufficient rain and snow this winter to make up for the shortage that now exists."

"Unless we get an exceptional amount of snow and rain this winter, farmers will go into another spring season with two strikes already against them. It looks like conserving the rain that falls on the land during the 1955 growing season may be one of the principal factors in determining crop production."

Bull says recent tests in Iowa show why crops planted on the contour yield higher than crops planted in the straight-row, up-and-down-hill method. The annual runoff of water on contoured fields was only about one inch annually, compared to three inches on conventional fields. Soil loss was in about the same ratio—three times as much as was lost as a result of straight-row farming as compared to contour farming.

"We must keep in mind, of course," the conservationist adds, "that contour cropping does not give the best results under all conditions. On exceptionally long or steep slopes, and on some soil types, contour strip cropping may be necessary."

Farmers Still May Qualify for 1954 Loans on Crops

Farmers who wish to put their 1954 corn crop under a Commodity Credit Corporation loan still have plenty of time to get their corn and their storage in condition to qualify, according to Paul W. Mitchell, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee in Delaware.

May 31, 1955, has been set as the final date when 1954 corn may be put under loan, though this date could be set up a little if weather condition next spring endanger the grain, Mitchell explains. Applications for loans should be submitted to the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in Delaware.

To qualify for a loan, corn must grade No. 3 or better, or No. 4 Ear corn placed under price-support loan may have a moisture content of not more than 20.5 per cent if placed under loans through February 1955.

The maximum moisture content permitted decreases to 19 per cent during March; to 17.5 per cent during April; and 15.5 per cent during May. Any 1954 shelled corn may have a moisture content of not more than 13.5 per cent, whether stored on the farm or in a commercial grain warehouse. Corn grading weevily is not eligible for a loan.

Structures in which corn is stored on the farm must afford safe storage for the grain. Before a loan is granted, the county ASC office inspects the storage as well as the corn, with particular attention to the roof, ventilation, protection of grain from rodents and birds, location, and general condition of the bin or crib.

Plans for building satisfactory storage structures; recommended drying and ventilating equipment; and best methods for controlling grain pests are available from county agents or the Mailing Room, Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, Newark.

Advices Heating Of Concrete for Pouring in Winter

Concrete can be poured in cold weather on Kent County farms provided certain precautions are followed to insure high quality construction, says County Agent George K. Vapaa.

If temperatures are below 40 degrees Fahrenheit, the sand, gravel and water should be heated before mixing—but in no case heated hotter than can be tolerated by the human hand. The concrete should be poured immediately after mixing, before it cools off. Avoid pouring on frozen earth.

As soon as the concrete is poured it should be protected against loss of heat. Covers of canvas, straw or hay are often used for this purpose. Manure, salt, sugar or other chemicals should not be placed immediately on new concrete.

Protection should be continuous for 4 or 5 days at a temperature of 50 degrees or higher.

Calcium chloride may be added to the mix to speed up the setting but it should not be relied on to prevent freezing of concrete. When used it should be added to the mixing water at the rate of not more than two pounds per bag of cement. This chemical has little effect on the strength of the concrete.

High-early strength cement may also be used instead of ordinary Portland Cement. High early concrete requires only a fourth of the time to set as needed by regular concrete.

Fast Way Found To Ripen Stored Tomatoes

Marketing research by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with State and private institutions, is leading to the development of many new techniques for cutting costs in marketing farm products and maintaining their quality better.

An example of this, described by Andrew A. Duncan, University of Maryland Extension Horticulturist, is a new method to speed the ripening of tomatoes by exposing them to low concentrations of ethylene gas.

Briefly, the method consists of gassing tomatoes with 1 part ethylene to 5000 parts air daily, for 4 to 5 days in closed storage with temperatures held at 68 to 70 degrees Fahrenheit. To prevent carbon dioxide accumulation, the storage room is ventilated a few minutes before the daily applications of gas.

Fifty percent of green tomatoes so treated ripen enough for packaging in 4 to 5 days, as compared with 6 to 7 days required for the same amount of ripening without use of ethylene gas. The new method should be of considerable importance to packagers of tomatoes during periods of active markets or when ripening-room space is limited, says Duncan.

Treated tomatoes color evenly to the center and are equal or superior in flavor, color, and texture to similar fruit ripened by normal methods. Banana ripening rooms equipped for ethylene may be used to ripen tomatoes.

The home of Harold Palmer was awarded second place.

In the contest for homes out of Felton, that of Charles Rebar took first, with that of Harold Voshell, Jr., getting second money.

Poynter's Motel was declared the best-decorated business place by the judges, Mrs. Erwin Richter, William D. Hammond, and Raymond Dill, all of Canterbury.

BROILER PRICES JUMP IN HOLIDAY SEASON

The holiday season brought a sharp upswing in broiler prices on the Delmarva peninsula.

Ever since last Thursday the market has ranged from 19 1/2 cents to as high as 25 cents per pound. The average has been in the 21-22 cents bracket.

January Egg Supplies High But Prices to be Down

Egg production in January, 1955, will be at a record high for the month, according to University of Maryland marketing specialists.

This is good news for housewives. It means the popular and versatile food will be available at bargain prices.

These unusually attractive egg bargains are no surprise to people who were familiar with trends in the poultry industry during 1954. For example, Dr. Harold Smith, poultry marketing specialist in the University of Maryland department of agricultural economics, says it has been apparent for several months that 1955 would start this way.

"In 1954," he explains, "average egg prices failed to follow the seasonal pattern of increasing from spring to fall. Instead, prices to farmers gradually slumped downward. These prices, of course, reflected record-breaking numbers of layers on the Nation's farms and high production per bird."

"And now, egg supplies are increasing seasonally. This trend started in September and will continue until March or April. In general egg supplies are expected to remain high—and prices low—for several months."

Although high production gives consumers a break, pricewise, it creates marketing difficulties for the poultry industry. As a solution to this difficulty, the industry has developed an aggressive effort to move more eggs into use as food.

The effort is a promotion campaign labeled "January Egg Month," Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has taken a special interest in this campaign, and urges consumers to give it their full support.

Roughage Controls Amount of Protein Cattle Require

What kind and how much protein do my cows need? This question is one that crops up wherever dairymen meet. George K. Vapaa, Kent County agent says it all depends.

It depends both on the quality and amount of roughage you have available. For example, if you have all the luxuriant pasture cows will eat, a 10 per cent crude protein grain feed is high enough. This is true, Vapaa points out, because rapidly growing pasture plants contain large amounts of protein.

If your winter roughage is made up of some quality legume hay and silage or all excellent hay, and you feed all your cows will eat, then about 12-14 per cent crude protein grain is sufficient.

On the other hand, says Mr. Vapaa, if you are one of the many farmers who don't have all the hay, or hay and silage combination your cows will eat (or what you do have is of poor quality), then the protein content of the grain ration will have to be higher. Usually a 16 per cent crude protein feed is enough unless the roughage is "very" poor, or the amount of good roughage is "very" limited. It is usually better to increase to the amount of grain fed than to boost the protein content above 16 per cent.

Cows do not usually need different kinds of protein feed in their diets; but when extremely poor quality roughage is fed, it is possible that a variety of proteins in the grain ration may be beneficial.

"The cheapest source of protein is in roughage," says the county agent. "Always plan to have an adequate supply of high quality roughage on hand to feed."

Federal funds for agricultural research this year have been increased about 10 million dollars over last year's funds. Of this, 5.7 million was added to Federal-grant funds to states and Territories.

Culbreth Marsh Drainage Talks Set For January 4

Landowners in the Culbreth Marsh drainage area west of Hazzletville are to meet at 7:30 p. m., on Tuesday, January 4th, at Thomas' Chapel for the purpose of discussing their drainage ditch program, according to an announcement by Isaac Thomas, Soil Conservation Supervisor, from that area.

The group will consider its total watershed drainage problem in an effort to arrive at a long range program of land improvement. E. H. Talbert, State Drainage Engineer, Robert Moyer, Work Unit SCS Conservationist, and George Vapaa, County Agent, will be on hand to offer suggestion regarding the best methods of moving along with the job. Most of the main ditch has been dug but requires some cleaning, but many of the prongs or laterals need to be improved.

The Culbreth Marsh Ditch Company is one of the few which still retains and operates under its old original charter. It seems likely that the group may want to consider reorganizing under the "new" Uniform Drainage Law of 1951 which offers some clear advantages not usually stated in early charters.

Letters announcing the meeting have gone out to the landowners who make up the watershed area.

Expert Advises Early Buying of Red Clover Seed

Farmers needing red clover seed for spring seeding should buy their supply early, suggests Claude E. Phillips, head of the agronomy department at the University of Delaware. The current supply of red clover seed is about 25 per cent below that of last year and 20 per cent below the 1943-52 average.

Red clover seed production in 1954 was the smallest in twelve years and the carry over of seed held by dealers and the Commodity Credit Corporation is 20 per cent less than a year ago.

Many of the states that produce clover seed were hit by the drought and many farmers that normally save the second cutting of clover for seed were forced to cut the crop for hay or use it as pasture.

Alfalfa seed is much more plentiful with the 1954 crop being the second largest on record. Also, there is a large carry over of alfalfa seed in dealer's warehouses and government storages. The price of alfalfa for 1955 seedlings should not be much different from that of last year.

2 MILFORD HOMES SWEPT BY FIRE

Approximately $600 damage was done to the A. B. Peet house at Milford Monday when fire broke out in a chimney.

The fire was observed burning between the floors near the chimney about 2 a. m. and firemen had considerable difficulty in getting to the flames.

This was formerly the property of the late A. Brainard Peet, once prominent in Republican state affairs and in the State Grange.

The home of the Rev. David Shockley, Slaughter Neck, was damaged Monday noon by fire. The damage occurred in a second story bedroom. Fireman estimate the damage at several hundred dollars.

Review of the Year - - 1954 Harness Racing

In a year when other major sports were concerned with dwindling interest and diminishing revenues, harness racing registered gains, although small one, both in attendance and handle at the pari-mutuel tracks and continued to evoke high interest at State and County fairs throughout the nation.

More horses raced for more money than ever before and more people were actively engaged in the sport while the states which permit pari-mutuel wagering reaped almost a 25 per cent increase in revenue over the previous record-breaking high of 1953.

In 1954, a total of 13,997 horses raced for purses totalling $18,961,265.17 and attendance has been set at 19,052,786 based on the 10,052,786 who attended pari-mutuel tracks and a conservative estimate of 9,000,000 who watched the trotters and pacers at the vast majority of the nation's 497 racing ovals—the county and state fair tracks.

Wagering soared to a record $44,845,200 and the states' share amounted to $31,767,467.56. All 1954 figures are all-time records for the sport.

The assault on world records also continued on the tracks themselves where a total of 35 all-time marks were either bettered or equaled while 34 horses trotted or paced 63 miles in two-minutes or under, only seven less than 1953's all-time high.

Red Sails, an aged pacer, and Parker Byrd, a 3-year-old pacing phenomenon, shared a 1.58 mark, fastest time of the year. Red Sails did it in a race while Parker Byrd's effort came in a time trial with both marks coming at Lexington, Ky. Poplar Dell, a 5-year-old pacer, was the leader in two-minute miles with six.

Stenographer, a 3-year-old trotting filly, sent her list of world records soaring to 11 with six more record-smashing efforts during the year to go with the five set as a 2-year-old. The nation's harness racing writers climaxed her brilliant season by voting her "Horse of the Year."

Most startling world record performance was turned in by Scott Frost, the first 2-year-old in history to trot in 2:00 in a race, one and three-fifths second under the previous mark and equalling the time trial standard for 2-year-olds set by Titan Hanover in 1944. Joe O'Brien drove Scott Frost to his amazing record at Lexington while Del Miller piloted Stenographer to her exploits.

Newport Dream, the 2-year-old sensation of 1953, won only one event in 1954 but that was the "big one"—the Hambletonian. The Newport Stock Farm colt forgot his leg ailments long enough to nab the Goshen classic in two straight heats with the $106,830 purse making the Hambletonian the second richest in harness racing history.

Stenographer's victory in the Horse of the Year balloting was the closest contest since the USTA inaugurated the poll in 1947. Of the 97 turf writers participating, 22 voted Stenographer on top while 23 cast ballots for Scott Frost. However, heavy support for the filly for second, third and fourth places gave her 464 points with the votes tabulated on a 10-7-5-3-1 basis, while Scott Frost wound up with 423.

For the second straight year, Billy Houghton dominated the driver standings, both in money and dashes won. His earnings, $415,577.75, and his 153 dash victories both were all-time records.

A general upsurge was noted in the yearling sales market with sales at both Lexington and Harrisburg leading the upward trend as more and more new owners yielded to the lure of harness racing.

Louisiana joined the list of 12 states where pari-mutuel wagering is conducted. The others are California, Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York and Ohio. Florida dropped out in 1954. Increases in wagering were noted in California, Delaware, Illinois and New Jersey while the others were down slightly. Attendance figures followed the same pattern.

THE HORSES

Stenographer, the 3-year-old trotting filly which was voted "Horse of the Year," is owned by Max C. Hempt, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., and was purchased at the 1952 Harrisburg, Pa., Standardbred Sales for $2,500. To date, Stenographer has won $123,741.32 in two seasons of campaigning. The daughter of Bill Gallon received 464 of a possible 970 points in the turf writers' balloting while Scott Frost, owned by S. A. Camp of Shafter, Calif., collected 423 for second place.

Adios Boy, 3-year-old pacer owned by J. S. Turner of Nassawadox, Va., was a strong third with 280 points while 4-year-old trotting star Kimberly Kid, property of Allwood Stable, Far Hills, N. J., was fourth with 261. Fifth in the voting and also over the 200 mark was Red Sails, 6-year-old pacer owned by H. T. King of Lynn, Ind. Completing the top ten were Katit Key (137), Philip Scott (114), Adios Harry (104), Pronto Don, (99) and Phantom Lady (85).

TWO-YEAR-OLDS

While Scott Frost overshadowed his rivals in the speed department and received 86 votes to three for his nearest rival in the "2-year-old trotter of the year" voting, the west coast comet didn't come into his own until late in the season and ranked only third in the money-won department. Leopold Hanover was second in the voting with three while Butch Hanover and Childs Hanover each polled two votes.

Galophone was top money winner with $34,793.01 for owner William T. Maybury of Dexter, Maine, while close behind came Childs Hanover, owned by K. D. Owen of Houston, with a bankroll of $34,739.56. Scott Frost was third with $33,733.12.

Scott Frost's world record 2.00 mile for 2-year-old trotters came in a race at Lexington, Ky., on Oct. 5th. Making the feat more spectacular was the fact it was Scott Frost's second mile of the afternoon having previously won the first heat of the Cimarron Ranch purse in 2:04 2-5. The colt by Hoot Mon-Nora, currently rates the winter-book favorite for the 1955 Hambletonian.

TWO-YEAR-OLD PACERS

The voting for "2-year-old pacer of the year" was wide-open with 16 gaining first-place votes from the writers and Quick Chief was trained by Billy Houghton and made his mark in the East where he won nine races including the $18,975 Yonkers Futurity Preview and the $13,195 Bloomsburg Fair Stake. His 2.03 equalled the year's half-mile record set last in 1953 by Adios Boy.

Newport Stock Farm's Meadow Ace received 18 1-2 votes for second place and Adora and American Way tied for third with 11 votes each. Peter Pan Stable's Libby's Boy, an eight-time winner, led the money-earning list with $35,266.47 with the colt's best victory coming in the $13,8846 Hoosier Futurity.

There is no question that Stenographer was top filly of this division and the writers voted her the "3-year-old trotter of the year" with 65 votes to runner-up Harlan's 18 with nine going to third-place Newport Dream, the Hambletonian winner.

However, Stenographer's victories were scored chiefly against fillies and Harlan, owned by C. M. Provost, of Pittsburgh, gained strong backing in the year when he romped off with the $64,440 Kentucky Futurity, second richest race for trotters. Newport Dream, sensational as a 2-year-old, was slowed down by leg ailments but picked the right spot to register his only victory of the season—the Hambletonian in two straight heats for the winner's share of the $106,830 purse.

Del Miller, Stenographer's trainer, also drove Harlan while Cameron piloted Newport Dream.

THREE-YEAR-OLD PACERS

Adios Boy, with 41 votes, was voted "3-year-old pacer of the year," with Adios Harry, owned by J. Howard Lyons, of Harrington, Del., second with 27 ballots and Walnut Hall Farm's sensational filly, Phantom Lady, third with 19.

Adios Boy was particularly effective in the big Eastern stakes and wound up top money-winner in his class with $49,642.43. Adios Harry nabbed the $69,332 Little Brown Jug and also posted the fastest race mark of the year for his class—1:58 3-5 at Goshen, N. Y. Phantom Lady was almost unbeatable in filly events and finished with 16 victories in 20 starts in addition to setting the filly record for a half-mile track, 2:01 2-5, and equalling the mile track mark of 1:58 3-5.

Howard Camden was trainer-driver for Adios Boy while Morris McDonald piloted Adios Harry and Frank Erwin handled Phantom Lady.

Aged Trotters

Kimberly Kid, winner of 16 out of 23 starts and money finishes in five others, polled 47 votes for top honors in this division with Pat Tuccio's Katie Key ranked second on 19 votes. Pronto Don, the sport's all-time money winning champion, was third with nine votes.

Kimberly Kid, winner of 16 out Bower, scored most of his triumphs in Grand Circuit competition while Katie Key cleaned up on Eastern raceways to top the money-winning list with $84,867.50.

This division was studded with outstanding horses. Some of the other standouts were Lord Steward, Jamie, Scotch Victor and Pronto Don, all of whom scored notable victories.

AGED PACERS

Red Sails captured "aged pacer of the year" honors in handy fashion with 50 votes to 25 for runnerup Phillip Scott but a deep bow must go to the trainer, Gene Sears, who transformed the hard-to-handle 6-year-old into a consistent speedster which won 12 races in 23 starts, set the fastest time of the year and also topped the money-winning list for his division. The sport suffered a great loss when Red Sails died in December.

Red Sails was owned by H. T. King of Lynn, Ind., while Gray brothers and Reed brothers owned Phillip Scott, which was "photoed" for the money-won title. Poplar Dell and Tassel Hanover tied for third with six votes each.

Special honors go to Pronto Don, the 9-year-old trotting gelding owned by Hayes Fair Acres of DuQuoin, Ill. Pronto Don won $25,355 during the season to set a new all-time money-winning record of $323,113.96, eclipsing the previous mark of $318, 792.56 held by the pacer Good Time.

TWO-MINUTE MILES

The second highest total of two-minutes miles in the history of the sport was chalked up in 1954 with a total of 63 miles in 2:00 or less. Seven trotters and 27 pacers turned the trick, also the second highest total. Only 1953 when 48 horses trotted or paced 70 individual miles in 2:00 or less surpassed the total of this season.

Speediest time of the year—1:58 was posted by Red Sails in a race and Parker Byrd, a 3-year-old, in a time trial, both at Lexington. Most consistent speedster, however, was Poplar Dell, the 5-year-old Volomite pacer owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Larkin of Chicago. Poplar Dell turned in six efforts under two minutes during the year.

Second in the list was Phantom Lady, great 3-year-old filly owned by Walnut Hall Farm. Phantom Lady had five 2:00 or better trips while Times Square, Kimberly Kid and Meadow Pace each turned the trick four times.

Jamie, Bonny Brook Dean and Tassel Hanover each had three "magic miles" while Stenographer, Freeman Hanover, Meadow Gene, Parker Byrd and Red Sails were credited with two.

Those with one "two-minute" mile were Harlan, Scotch Victor, Scott Frost, Taylor Ridge, Adios Harry, Aralac, Brave Scott, Gosling, Guinea Gold, Jug Chief, Maynard Hanover, Meadow Gold, My Scotch Belle, Prince Adios and Thomas B. Scott.

Lexington's famed "red mile" again led the list of tracks where these fast performances were clocked but received a stern challenge from Vernon Downs. Lexington had 19 two-minute miles while Vernon produced 17. Hollywood Park followed with eight, Du Quoin, Ill., had seven and Springfield, Ill., had six. Goshen's mile track followed with four and Indianapolis and Sedalia, Mo., each one.

WORLD RECORDS

A total of 35 records were either broken or equalled during the season with Stenographer, the 3-year-old trotting queen, leading the assault on the record book with six new marks on both mile and half-mile ovals, proving her worth in both races and time trials.

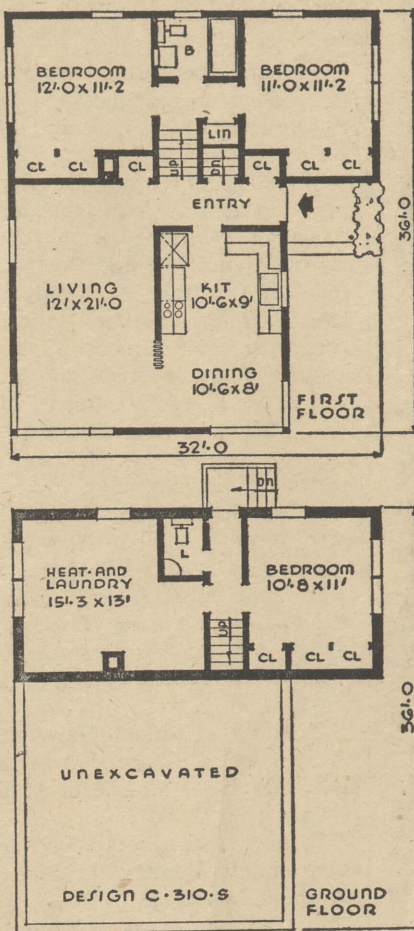

Phantom Lady, who dominated 3-year-old filly pacing ranks as thoroughly as did Stenographer in the trotting division, was next with four marks while Scott Frost, the record-breaking 2-year-old trotter, and Darn Safe, speedy 3-year-old trotting gelding, each carved out three records.

Those with two were Maximilian, Royal Mist, Quick Chief and Adora. Entering the record books once were Scotch Victor, Katie Key, Pronto Don, Adios Harry, Ensign Lad, Meadow Gold, Gardner Hanover, Sturdy Frisky, Gay Harmony, Adios Boy and Hill-sota.

Here's 3-Level House

DESIGN C-310-S. This three level plan can face the street either way, depending on the width of the lot. There are three good-sized bedrooms, two on the upper level, with the bath, and one on the lower level which also has a lavatory, and furnace room.

The main floor level contains a large living room and a combination kitchen-dinette which can open into the living room. This level has wood floor construction over a crawl space.

Exterior finish includes both vertical and wide siding, gable roof over the living room, and a flat roof over the bedroom wing. Closets are plentiful on all three levels. Floor area is 980 sq. ft. with cubbage 18,900 cu. ft.

with a new high yearling average being achieved on the basis of reports from the three major venues, Delaware, O., Lexington, Ky., and Harrisburg, Pa.

WINNERS OF $100,000

Thirteen horses joined the honor list of those who have won $100,000 during their racing career and raising to 23 the number have passed this mark. Pronto Don, of course, heads the parade with an all-time record $323,113.96.

Four trotters and nine pacers joined this elite class during the season. The trotters were Katie Key, Stenographer, Newport Dream and Scotch Victor. The sidewheelers were Thomas B. Scott, Hillsota, Red Sails, Guinea Gold, Prince Adios, Chuck Volo, Philip Scott, Wilmington's Star and Keystone.

A total of 40 yearlings brought $10,000 or more. This compared with 29 in the same class a year ago.

The top yearling purchaser was Leonard J. Buck's Allwood Stable of Far Hill, N. J. which paid $141,000 for 8 head. Buck's Stable of Far Hill, N. J., which colt The Intruder, out of Walnut Farm was also the top price of the season which reflects a healthy trend for the over-all market since the lusty averages that were achieved did not develop on the strength of a handful of colts that sold for record-shattering amounts.

Indeed the number of yearlings selling for $15,000 or more was only 14, an increase of but three over a year ago. The upswing was all in the medium and modest brackets which is an encouraging sign.

THE DRIVERS

For the second year in a row, William R. (Billy) Houghton, 31-year-old Massapequa, N. Y., reinsman, is the nation's leading harness horse driver in both money and race winning categories, establishing records in both departments.

Houghton won 153 dashes and earned $415,577.75 surpassing his own money-making mark set in 1953 and 129 wins registered by Levi Harner in 1950.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Laura M. Moore of Lewes, three children, Fay, Sue, and Walter, Jr., all of Lewes, and Mary, a married daughter by a former marriage, living in Paulsboro, N. J. He also leaves one brother, Uhlant T. Davidson of Overbrook.

He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Guenveur, on Capital Trail near Marshallton.

Two Die in Auto Accidents

Two men, injured in auto accidents last week, died of their injuries Wednesday.

The victims were Ralph W. Frischkorn, 45, of Bishop's Corner, near Hartly, and William J. Murphy 79, president of the Caroline County Bank at Goldsboro.

Frischkorn, who operated two gasoline stations at Bishop's Corner, suffered a fractured skull when his car veered off the Pearson's Corner-Hartley road, three miles east of Hartly, and struck a pole Sunday night. He was first taken to Kent General Hospital, Dover, and then transferred to Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, for an emergency operation, where he died.

Mr. Murphy suffered head injuries when his car collided with an auto operated by Mrs. Mary Birch, 37, of Berlin, Md., at the intersection of Route 113 and Airport Road in Milford, on Dec. 22.

Mrs. Birch, who suffered a fractured nose, is still confined to the Milford Memorial Hospital with her six-year-old daughter, Frieda, who also received head injuries.

Mr. Murphy had been president of the Caroline County Bank 16 years and a director for 32 years previously. He also operated a large hardware and implement business and owned farms in Caroline County.

Frischkorn, a son of the late Dr. Robert and Ollie Frischkorn, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rachel Frischkorn; a son, Robert Frischkorn, of Dover; a brother, Paul Frischkorn, of Detroit, and a sister, Mrs. Ethelyn Keighler, of Philadelphia.

Vandals Scatter Glass on Milford Streets

Vandals ran wild in Milford Tuesday night, then vanished while police crushed glass-littered streets in search of them. Milk bottles provided the culprits with most of their ammunition. They scattered streets throughout the south side of town with the containers' broken remains.

They propped them under automobile wheels, so the bottle would shatter when the vehicle was moved.

But they did their worst damage at the home of Dr. William Marshall on Northwest Front Street. They smashed a large, ornate piece of glass in the front door. Dr. Marshall said it was glass put in when the house was built. The home is one of Milford's oldest.

"DEEP IN MY HEART" AT REESE DEC. 31 - JAN. 1-2-3-4

According to the management of the Reese Theater, everything is in readiness for the opening of "Deep In My Heart" MGM's greatest Musical Love Story, at the early shows only (6:45-9 p. m.) on Dec. 31 and continues Sat. - Sun. - Mon. & Tue, Jan. 1-2-3-4.

Critics are raving-with Radio City Music Hall, the largest theatre in the world, unable to handle the crowds. "Deep In My Heart" is breaking records everywhere, and, for that reason, the engagement of the great hit was extended to five days.

At midnight an entirely different show is scheduled. The 30th annual New Year's Stage & Screen Jamboree unfolds in 1955. It's a big time for all. Tickets are now on sale with only capacity of the theatre being sold. The screen attraction for the midnight show only is "The Bob Mathias Story" with Ward Bond, Bob Mathias, and Melba Mathias.
