

Irate Taxpayers Beseige City Council When Delinquents Are Served With Summons

If the gathering of irate citizens at the January meeting of the City Council Monday night is a criterion, there will be a large attendance at the annual Citizens Meeting tonight in the Firehouse. The citizens appeared Monday night in protest to several hundred delinquent tax accounts which had been turned over last week to Alderman L. Gooden Callaway for collection, and the summons and court costs resulting therefrom.

In the small, crowded, city hall there was much tobacco smoke and a whole lot more smoke from the complaining citizens, but little was accomplished, Mayor Ernest Killen advised the gathering to attend the annual Citizens Meeting tonight to voice its complaints. At this time, Maxon L. Terry, city attorney will be present.

The rumpus Monday night had its insigation last week when nearly 400 delinquent tax accounts were turned over to Alderman Callaway for collection. Constable Clarence Dyer then began serving summons and the fire-works started.

The City Charter
The City charter says that taxes April 1, must be collected by the city manager in six months or he will have to reimburse the City. It further states that the taxes must be paid by Dec. 31.

With delinquent taxes due amounting to about $6600, as Mayor Killen told the gathering, more than 70 accounts on property had more than 300 on per capita taxes were turned over to the aldermen.

Some of the citizens protested the court costs. Where a man and wife had not paid their per capita, or road, taxes of $4.20 per person the total amount came to $256.

She thought the per capita tax for man and wife should be on one bill, but the Council expressed doubts of the legality of this maneuver. In fact, they recite instances of where a man would pay his taxes and tell the reciter that his wife would pay her own.

In the meanwhile, Mayor Killen did the city attorney had called the alderman about staying the issuance of the remaining summons for a few days.

Iniquities Get Larger
"Every year it (the amount of delinquent taxes) got larger. It came time when something had to be done," said Councilman Charis Peck, Sr. He added that he remembered when the unpaid taxes at the end of the year amounted to more than $1000.

Everyone talked at once, causing Mayor Killen to suggest that the gathering appoint a spokesman or two to present its case at tonight's meeting, which begins at 7:30 o'clock.

One man suggested that the expenditures of the City be published so the taxpayer could see how his money was being spent. City Clerk Kathryn Simpson replied that the annual financial report would be published in The Harrington Journal this week.

Another spokesman said the delinquent tax list should be published as a reminder, as it was formerly done.

Still another said it wasn't what he wanted (serving of summons) to how.

Nominations For Candidates
At tonight's meeting nominations were made for candidates for councilmen from the First and Third Wds. The City's financial report will be reviewed and Mayor Killen will tell what is in prospect for '56.

In other business in the lively meeting, City Manager Norris Adams said the new water tower is being led and that it was scheduled to be emptied Thursday to get rid of paint fragments, etc. He said would then be filled again and he wanted to get the water to the mains Sunday.

The City will be turned off from the pump Sunday. The City will be without water for several days while the new, 200,000-gal overhead tower is being prepared to let water in the mains.

A sidewalk of the meeting concerned a recently repaired, in the main Hanley and Clark Streets. Silt has been repaired, some of the street residents say they are getting pressure. Other residents said that the ditches on Liberty Street are low in water now since they no longer receive the leakage way of the storm

Citizens Meeting Tonight To Nominate Candidates For Election Tuesday

Candidates will be nominated tonight at the Annual Citizens Meeting for the municipal election Tuesday. Two councilmen will be elected, with both incumbents running again.

The Citizens Meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m., at the Firehouse. The election Tuesday will also be at the Firehouse and from 12 noon until 4 p. m.

Councilman Walter Messick, of the First Ward, told The Journal Wednesday night he would run again, and Councilman Charles Jerreard, of the Third Ward will be up for re-election. The terms are for three years.

While rumors have been heard of the intentions of other persons to run, nothing official will be known until tonight's meeting.

To be eligible to vote, a citizen must not be delinquent in the payment of City taxes.

A controversy over the payment of delinquent taxes has caused payment to be held temporarily in abeyance by Alderman L. Gooden Callaway. It is believed, however, the cases will be heard in time enough to permit those paying up to vote in Tuesday's elections.

HARRINGTON FIRE CO. BUYS NEW AMBULANCE

The Harrington Fire Company at its regular meeting approved purchase of a 1956 Cadillac Ambulance built by Superior Body Co., of Ohio.

The ambulance they now have is 5 years old and has made over 450 trips in the 5 years. It will cost $6900 difference for this new vehicle. To date, there has been $2767.00 given on a fund drive started last October.

If you have not done so, please give to this fund drive now as the fire company does need more money with which to pay for their new ambulance.

Give now—give generously. Remember, not one driver or attendant receives any compensation for driving this ambulance. They do it all on their own time.

How much would it cost to pay for all this protection?

STATE PRES., SEATS LEWES OFFICERS

Mrs. Angie Graham, President of the Delaware Volunteer Firemen's Ladies' Auxiliary Association visited the Lewes Auxiliary on Tuesday evening and installed the following officers: President, Mrs. Zora Warren; Vic-pres., Mrs. Kitty Morgan; secretary, Mrs. Mary Brittingham; assistant-secretary, Mrs. Hazel Fielder; treasurer, Mrs. Grace Barringer; assistant secretary, Miss Cornelia Hurdle; chaplain, Mrs. Ann Cerney.

Sewer Map

The city clerk read a letter from Myers-Richardson Associates, Inc., Newark, N. J., regarding the cost of drawing a map of the sewer system. The last map was drawn in 1935 and extensions were not put on it from time to time. Cost of the new map was estimated at about $750. The City liked the idea of the map, since it would show where sewers could be extended, but decided to discuss it further.

A survey of water users was then discussed. In appears in the offering. It was revealed that, at times, some citizens had not been paying water rentals because they were not on the books. At one time, 70 nonpayers were discovered at one time, and at another, 30. After candidates are named tonight, at the Citizens Meeting the election will be held Tuesday.

The following night there will be a reorganization meeting when all persons desiring a position with the City must file a written application. This rule will apply to those presently employed by the City, as well as to anyone not presently employed by the City.

Mayor Killen added that at tonight's meeting a decision might be made on the site for a $160,000 armory here.

Felton Awards Christmas Decoration Prizes

GREENWOOD NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry, of Bethlehem, Md., were Monday evening callers at the Lester Workmans.

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 25, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Porter and Nancy had dinner with Miss Grace Porter. Mrs. Edna Hayes and Dickie, and "Pop-Pop" Porter came in from the Swartzentruber Rest Home for the day and enjoyed it very much. He went back again around five o'clock, just in time for their serving fruit-cake and ice-cream.

On Monday, Dec. 26, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Porter had Mrs. Lena Taylor at dinner and afterwards enjoyed catching up on details of her family's life and theirs. Philip Taylor lives in Georgetown as you know and they have a five-week-old baby girl named Lisa and also a 19 months-old JoAnne. Betty reports that they never run out of talk but just stopped about ten so their guests could go home. Betty says that she has been married 37 years and Mrs. Taylor 42 and that Lena was so kind to her when she came here in 1918. Both of their maiden names was Wright. Mrs. Taylor's mother is coming in a week or so to stay with her for the two winter months. She is 93 and keen and active. Betty ends her news item with the remark that "Lena is one nice person," and how well we know that who have been privileged to have her teach our children.

On Friday evening the Porters enjoyed having Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Whitmore and Lee, Gladys and Dewey in for an evening of fellowship. They listened to selections on the player-piano and had fun manufacturing their own ice-cream sundaes from the materials provided by the hostess.

Mrs. Florence Conoway, of this town, and Frank Fowler, of Georgetown were Friday callers at the Byron Willeys. Alvin Willeyley of Newark was home for the weekend and on Sunday the Willeys' guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and family of Rehoboth.

Mrs. Harry Fisher and children motored to Federalsburg to visit her sister, Mrs. Francis Jacobs after church on Sunday and then on to visit another sister, Mrs. Linwood Trice, in Harmony.

Please note: There will be a meeting of the Greenwood High School Board on Tuesday, Jan. 10 at 8 o'clock, in the Greenwood school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schlabach, Allan and Jay, from Owens Station were Tuesday evening callers at the Emmett Whitmores.

The Jacob Hatfields enjoyed having Julia and Allison Davis drop in for coffee on Friday evening. "Dickie" Davis, who is a patient in Milford Hospital, is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Uhler were among the many couples who entertained during the holiday week. They gave a dinner and Canasta party on Wednesday evening. Their guests coming in at 6:30. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ocheltree, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sadowski, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Graham and Mrs. Nell Lyons.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Mart Uhler and Mrs. John Elliott were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elliott in Milford and Mr. and Mrs. Brinkley Elliott of Milford.

A few folk in our community were happy to receive a letter written from the Rectory in Artesian South Dakota, giving us news of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Palmer, who were a former parsonage family here in Greenwood. Both the Carl Porters and the Jacob Hatfields received one, and we thought it was so interesting it would be nice to share it.

Fire Company's Annual Report

Property loss in 1955, in fires the alarms of which were answered by the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company, was $21,640, it was revealed Monday evening at a meeting of the organization.

The company answered 60 alarms in 1955, 18 of which were in the City, with 42 rural. Men in service totaled 1061, with an average of 18 men attending each fire. Hours in service were 53, and miles traveled were 734.

The fire company ambulance made 91 trips in 1955. There were 187 men in service. Hours in service were 143, and man hours were 286. Miles traveled were 3276.

Annett Grocery Broken Into

The grocery store and gasoline station of John Annett of Staytonville, six miles southeast of Harrington on the Kent-Sussex County line, was broken into Monday night. The thief found only a few cents in the cash register but drove off in the Annett's automobile, parked outside.

The automobile was found wrecked and abandoned in a ditch off the highway near Parksley, Va., near Fisher's Corner, later.

John Henry Johnson, employed by Annett on his farm who disappeared Monday night, is being sought by police. He lived at workers' quarters on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tibbett and Mrs. James Colison visited Mr. and Mrs. Arley Bradley on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Morgan and family visited Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan over the weekend.

Cars Collide On Center Street

A taxi and a pleasure car collided on Center Street, near Harrington Ave., Wednesday morning, doing extensive damage to both but keeping injuries at a minimum.

The taxi, driven by Isaac Morris, had discharged a passenger and, police said, was making a U-turn when it collided with a car driven by George B. Thompson, of Fork Landing.

A passenger in the car, Mary Evelyn Harrington, step-daughter of Thompson, was taken to Milford Memorial Hospital for emergency treatment and released.

Damage to the taxi was estimated at $700, and to the Thompson car, $300.

Morris was fined $10 and costs by Alderman L. Gooden Callaway on a charge of reckless driving.

Harrington School News

by Elvia Rae Smith, Sports Ed.

Harrington's basketball team travelled down to Selbyville on Tuesday for a boys' game and a girls' game. Harrington girls defeated Selbyville 49-30 in a particularly fast and heated game. High scorers on the girls' team were Hopkins with 16 points, Shaw, 14, and Wix, 12.

Harrington boys lost to Selbyville 54-43. High scorers for the boys were Dennis with 20, Nutter, 9, and Darby, 7.

The next game is tonight at Harrington with Smyrna, boys' game only.

We would like to see more students out at the home games. We realize that at away games it is sometimes impossible to acquire transportation, but at home games there is hardly any excuse for a laxness in attendance from our own high school students. So let's have a large turnout tonight at our first home game and really let those Smyrna Eagles know that the Harrington crowd is solidly behind their boys.

Grade 1 - Mrs. Hopkins

We were all happy to get back to school after our holiday. Santa Claus was very good to us. Several girls and boys brought some toys to show our group.

Now we are working hard on our reading, numbers, printing, and sounds.

Norman Truitt is not back with us yet because he went to Florida for the holidays. He will have many things to tell us when he returns. Judy Burgess went to Florida last summer, so she and Norman will probably have much to talk over together.

Grade 2 - Mrs. West

We had a nice vacation. We got many nice toys. The ones we liked best were dolls, the bikes, Davy Crockett sets, watches, Break the Bank, Annie Oakley, policeman's suit, shoe shine kit, jackets, magic set, trucks, tinkler toys, and a pogo stick.

Many of us went ice skating. Some of us went on trips. Some had company. Our New Year's Resolution is to work hard in school. Happy New Year!

by Kathy Hopkins

Grade 3 - Mrs. O'Neal

We all had a very nice Christmas vacation. We received many presents and brought some of them to school to show our classmates. Everyone is glad to be back in school.

Grade 6 - Mrs. Mann

We had our Christmas party on Wednesday, December 22, before we left for our Christmas vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Mann gave each of us an orange and a candy bar.

We drew pictures Tuesday about our social studies.

Each one in the class told about his most important Christmas gift.

Grade 7 - Mrs. Dolby

We are sorry that Mr. Kish is ill. Everyone hopes he will have a speedy recovery.

In social studies the class is finishing the study of Australia. We are about to take up "The East Indies-Jewel of the Orient."

Chess Club

In the keen competition for first place in the Chess Club, James Sheehan forged ahead by defeating James Schiff. Meanwhile, Ronnie Swain moved up to third place by winning from one of the fairer members club, Joan Welch.

Very shortly a tournament for the club championship will begin.

The year of 1956 will be an extremely busy period for the State Highway Department, according to a review of the Department's plans by Walter B. McKendrick, Jr., Chief Engineer, of the Department.

In addition to the projects now under construction, Mr. McKendrick stated that contracts will be awarded in the near future for many other projects, most of which will be completed during the coming year.

Mr. McKendrick also stated, the Department plans to award contracts for a number of projects during the remaining winter and early spring months.

The major projects, on which construction is being carried over into 1956, are the Walnut Street Crossing in Wilmington, for which several more projects remain to be placed under contract, the completion of U. S. Route 13 as a dual highway, through the construction of the two remaining sections from north of Harrington to south of Greenwood, and the improvement of that portion of Route 41 in the vicinity of the Emily P. Bissell Sanatorium.

Bids have already been received and contracts may be awarded early in the new year for the improvement of the highway leading from Five Points to Lewes, the resurfacing of US 13 through Smyrna, the resurfacing of two portions of Route 14, from Houston to Harrington, and from Vernon to the Maryland Line, and the construction of sidewalks around Legislative Building in Dover.

Some of the projects which will be placed under contract during the remaining winter and early spring months, Mr. McKendrick pointed out, are the widening and resurfacing of some portions of the Philadelphia Pike, the reconstruction of Bellevue Road from the Philadelphia Pike to Governor Printz Boulevard, reconstruction of Maryland Avenue from Boxwood Road to Silview, widening and resurfacing of the highway from Greenwood to Milton, Commerce Street, Smyrna, Stein Highway, Seaford and New Castle Avenue south of Wilmington.

In addition, the Department will also place their initial program of dirt road improvements in operation during this period.

Mr. McKendrick also stated the department has four buildings on their construction program for the coming year. One is a new State Police Department building to be erected at Dover, the second and third are additions to the Motor Vehicle Testing Lanes at Dover and Georgetown, and the fourth a new Maintenance Garage and Division Office in New Castle County.

The Highway Department, according to Mr. McKendrick, will have highway construction and improvement activities in progress in every section of the State during the year 1956.

Have you been wanting to know how to make your own draperies? Are you interested in recipes that help cut down the food bill? In the Home Demonstration office, we have bulletins on these as well as many other subjects related to homemaking. Here are a few:

Draperies - This bulletin discusses and tells how to make different kinds of draperies. It was written by Miss Ruth E. Pearce, formerly Clothing Specialist with the Delaware Extension Service.

Decorative Stitchery - This is a mimeographed bulletin which gives instructions for doing a number of hand embroidery stitches. Sorry—no illustrations, but the written instructions are excellent.

Cooperating with the Teen-Age - Some Home Demonstration Clubs missed teen-age problems last spring.

Money-Saving Main Dishes - Recipes included were developed and tested by the United States Department of Agriculture. Although this bulletin is not new, the recipes are still good for those of you who are interested in stretching your food dollar.

Do You Get Enough Milk? This short bulletin discusses the reasons you need milk and gives suggestions for including it in the family's diet.

To get one of all of these bulletins, send a card or letter to: Home Demonstration Agent, Post Office Building, Dover, Del. Sulky Slants

By MRS. DAVE (PAT) SMITH

At last every thing is getting back to normal out here at the track. And now all you hear is, gosh we have to start to get the horses ready for the opening at Westbury.

About the fastest colt to date is one that Jimmy Workman has. Several timed him at a fast gate. For the time I'll let some one say what. But it's really something.

Del Manges, starting to go ahead with his stable of six. You know he has the good horse Algiers Loyd for the Bennet's out of Buffalo, N. Y. By the way Del has four of the cutest little boys, there's one about 4 years old who will call over and ask if Peppie can come out and play. That's my Peck pup which is called Dr. Pepper. You would think he was calling for another child to play.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowers spent the holidays out to their stock farm. Which is a beautiful place out toward Milford on Rt. 36. We passed there the other day and Donald Traux, the sire of the all time winning "Pronto Don". Donald is just as spry as if he were in his second childhood. What a horse.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schegle had their Christmas dinner for Ruth's two sisters and their family New Year's Day. Just an old family custom.

You ask Mr. Vineyard, how he came out over Christmas and New

Years, and here is the answer you will get. Couldn't be better and could be worse. Paul is really busy with his young stock.

Don't think that Mr. Griffith don't pass by my trailer with some good looking colts. And Mr. Griff trains them his self. Course he has his son to help him.

Mr. Martin who was ill last year about this time certainly looks the picture of health this year.

And why is it poor Harry Adams, always is the fall guy when it comes to getting his car tore up? Harry your day is coming.

Reese Harrington out visiting the track. But why don't you stop around sometime. Mrs. Book Harrington out cleaning her yard, I expect she is getting all set for the flower garden this spring. I just wonder how many ever stop by her place to see all the flowers. More colorful than your Christmas lights.

Then there's Mr. Williams at the railroad station who was so proud of the way they had fixed our station here in town. It is really neat and clean now. You know a little hint here and there will cover a multitude of sins. Oh yes, Mr. Williams told me I hadn't seen any thing yet till I see his flower garden. And don't think I'm going to forget this spring. I'll be out there.

Mr. E. B. Rash very busy at the People's filling station but never to busy to stop and chat. Mr. Paskey hurrying around but always a cherry hello. And Jimmy we miss you painting our carts and sulky's. Gosh you couldn't be beat.

And while I'm on the handing out bouquets. I want to thank Jack Pitlick for being so nice about coming out to help me to get the darn old car started. Seems I always flood it, and always in a place where I should not be parked. I sure owe a lot to him for during the busy Christmas rush he wouldn't except a thing. And I know he was so busy as his garage. Oh! Yes! Mr. Bakota who has the filling station Benny Moore used to have also came to my rescue when I was at the station getting the time for Dave to go up to Buffalo. I sure appreciated it about that time as my mind was in a whirl.

Was rather nice in the Acme store the other day, (since Carrington put the picture of Volo an I, in the Journal), to have one of the readers stop me and say: You don't know me but I'm Mrs. Oliver and my daughter thought I was a young girl writing the Sulky Slants. Well thanks for the compliment. Glad you read this little get together chatter every week.

Dave and I want to thank each and every one that were so nice during his time of sorrow. If ever you need friends you do then. And they certainly were grand to me while he was gone. So maybe our year will be a little happier this coming 1956.

Cheswold to Instal Air Raid Siren

A 110-decibel air raid siren will be installed soon at Cheswold making that community the second in either Kent or Sussex counties to connect with the state's automatic attack warning system.

With the consent of the town fathers, Cheswold's Mayor John Bamberger has applied for $850 in federal Civil Defense funds which will be matched with an equal amount of town money to pay for the siren and installation. "We hope that Cheswold's action will set an example to other communities in Kent and Sussex," said D. Preston Lee, state Civil Defense director in announcing that Cheswold's application for federal help is virtually certain of approval.

He emphasized once again that Kent and Sussex would be virtually without warning in the event of an enemy attack. At present, Smyrna is the only community in either county with a siren, he said, but it is inoperative.

Cheswold's siren will be radio controlled from the state's key warning point in Dover. Warning of an air attack would come from the U. S. Air Defense Command directly to Dover, where at the push of a button all the sirens in the state's warning system would be touched off simultaneously.

This system, the first radio-controlled warning network in the nation, was set up some years ago. To take advantage of it, Mr. Lee explained, each community must arrange for purchase and installation of its own system. Half of the cost will be covered by federal Civil Defense funds if application is made through Delaware's State Department of Civil Defense.

At present, siren coverage is complete only in New Castle County. In arranging for their siren, Cheswold officials worked closely with Harry A. Helm, Kent County Civil Defense Director, who said he hopes "Cheswold's example will encourage the extension of siren coverage throughout the county."

Cheswold's siren will provide adequate warning to the community and immediate vicinity. Technical help on where to locate the siren and the strength needed for best effect will be available from an engineering survey carried out sometime ago by the State Department of Civil Defense.

This survey drew up recommendations for siren strength, location and costs for every community in Kent and Sussex counties. The results were passed on to community officials to encourage them to join the state's warning system.

Bryant Bowles Disappears

Bryant Bowles and his family have vacated the house that was rented for them in Houston and quietly dropped out of sight.

Bowles, founder and president of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, is said to be in California. Informants either do not know or will not say exactly where.

There are conflicting reports about his future plans. Some say he will go to work and make his home on the West Coast. Others predict he will return to Delaware next month.

Meanwhile, the NAAWP is without an office, which was in the living room of the six-room Houston dwelling where he made his home. And it has not yet filed an annual report for 1955. This document, listing officers and directors, must be submitted to the secretary of state's office by the end of the month.

Bowles' disappearance is being interpreted by many Sussex Counties as a sign that the NAAWP is floundering for lack of support. "The general feeling here," said one informant, "is that he's lost his following. He never had what he was credited with in the first place. We seem to have killed him off by ignoring him."

Still for Segregation The lack of interest in Bowles and his future plans doesn't mean that people in the lower part of the state have changed their thinking about integration, it was pointed out. But it does mean that they have found other leadership of a less spectacular and, it is thought, more effective nature.

According to reports from several sources, Bowles headed west about seven weeks ago. About the middle of last month his wife and children vacated the Houston residence.

Mrs. Robb Dukes of Greensboro Md., the Bowles' landlady said the house is now for sale, and that it won't be reoccupied by Bowles and his family, should they return to Delaware, "unless they buy it."

Rent Paid For December Bowles' rent has been paid by She said her husband had made arrangements with some other NAAWP leaders, whom she would not identify, to have it removed.

Some reports had it that Bowles was seeking employment with a manufacturer in California. It could not be learned whether the NAAWP with checks generally signed by his wife, who is secretary-treasurer of the association, she said. The last check covered rent through the end of December and, when she last heard, the house was vacant with the exception of some NAAWP office equipment in the living room. His wife has joined him there or not.

He told reporters last fall that he has been doing some selling and working on some inventions that he hopes to market.

Came to State in '54 Bowles came to Delaware in the fall of 1954 when a controversy broke out about the admission of Negro students to Milford High (Continued on Page 8)

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
Agricultural Extension Service,
University of Delaware

GET MORE FOOD FOR YOUR MONEY during the coming year by using the new Fruit and Vegetable Buying Guide issued by the Department of Agriculture. This 46 page handbook offers hundreds of tips on determining quality, judging ripeness, selecting the best variety and on buying produce to the best advantage when it is in season. Single copies of this guide may be obtained free of charge. Send your request on a post card addressed to me, Anne Holberton, Box 150, Newark, Del.

FRUIT AND VEGETABLE departments of local stores will offer several items at thrifty prices, but the number of "good buys" is declining as bad winter weather sets in over many parts of the nation. Rome and McIntosh apples are the varieties lowest in price. Romses are excellent for baking and good for sauce and the "Macs" are best suited for dessert purposes and for freezing. Florida oranges, tangerines, avocados and bananas also are reasonably priced. White potatoes are still the bargain vegetable in spite of small price increases recently. Other vegetables that are favorably priced this week include spinach, turnips, sweet potatoes, parsnips, onions, peppers, endive and eggplant. In some stores there are fairly good buys on celery, cauliflower and mushrooms.

EGGS have advanced as much as 10c a dozen for top quality large whites on the wholesale market during the past two weeks. Retail outlets have reflected the price rises quickly, and all grades and sizes of eggs are substantially higher. In spite of the high cost of the large size, however, it is a better value than the medium size, except where it is priced 8c or more per dozen above the mediums. This comparison is based on current price levels and on the net weight of eggs received per dollar.

MEAT PRICES are advancing on certain cuts because the strong demand since the holidays has broadened to include many things other than turkey and ham. Fryer chickens have moved up only 1c to 2c and continue to be a good choice. Pork loins also remain economical even though they have advanced slightly from the depressed prices of last week. There are very favorable prices in most stores on Boston butts, picnics, ground beef, frankfurters, sausage, lamb and veal shoulder cuts and liver.

(Due to constantly changing market conditions, the above information should not be published after Jan. 7, 1956.)

REESE THEATRE RELEASE.....

And a big holiday time was had by all, so is the consensus of opinion of hundreds of Delaware and Maryland theatre fans who enjoyed the Reese Theatre offerings during the past week.

The management advises thru their weekly program that there will be no let-down in entertainment in the days to come.

Beginning a great week of super hits, great care has been expended in moulding an unusual all family weekend show for this Friday and Saturday, Jan. 6 and 7. Randolph Scott is the star of Columbia's new Technicolor hit "A Lawless Street," with Peggy Castle in the featured role of "2 Gun Lady," the second half of this highly entertaining bill.

There is a big time for all as Martin and Lewis grace the Movie Center screen in Paramount's new "Artists and Models" in Vista-Vision and Technicolor, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 8-9-10. Dean and Jerry outdo themselves in what might be termed "this beautiful laugh riot."

A great treat is in store for fans on Wed. and Thur., Jan. 11 and 12, as two of MGM's encore hits will play together on the same bill. The first is Clark Gable in "Honky Tonk" followed by Robert Taylor in "Billy the Kid." A glance at the Reese

Theatre program to be found in this newspaper will give you a general idea of the good things to come.

Asbury Methodist Church Notes

Rev. R. E. VanCleaf, Pastor

"Confidence in God" is the title of the lesson which will be studied in the classes of the Church School on Sunday morning. Session will begin with short devotional period, beginning at 10:00 o'clock. This lesson is a study of part of the twelfth chapter of St. Luke, including some of the more familiar teachings of Jesus. Join us in the regular study of God's word for man. Building Fund Sunday will be observed. $300.00 will enable us to pay off another note in full.

Veterans News

Q - It was near the end of my grace period before I could pay my last GI insurance premium to VA. But I forgot to sign my check. By the time another check reaches VA, my grace period will have expired. Am I out of luck? Has my insurance lapsed?

A - No. So long as you have sufficient funds in your bank to cover the check, VA will not consider your policy to have lapsed. Instead, VA will notify you of your error, and will give you 31 days from the date of notification to send in another check, paying all premiums through the current month.

Q - A couple of years ago I bought a house with a GI loan. The County has notified me that it is condemning my property because it wants to build a highway across my land. Will I be able to have my GI loan rights restored so that I can buy another home somewhere else?

A - Under the law, a veteran's GI loan rights may be restored if his property has been taken by a local Government agency for public use. However, VA must be relieved from liability on the old guaranty.

Q - How can I compute the amount of schooling I can get under the Korean GI bill? I entered service in 1953 and I was just discharged.

A - Multiple your length of active service by one and one-half. That will be your entitlement, except that it may not exceed 36 months of training.

Q - I am a disabled veteran in training under Public Law 16. Recently I have been bothered by a non-service connected ailment. Could I receive outpatient treatment from the VA for this condition?

A - Yes, provided you need the outpatient medical treatment in order to prevent an interruption to your Public Law 16 training.

Bolivia will extend its Cochabamba-Santa Cruz railroad to Aiquile's farm area.

This new Buick SPECIAL 2-Door 6-Passenger Sedan delivers locally for less than some models of the well-known smaller cars. Come in and check!

If you think you can't afford a big-bodied, big-powered, big-muscled Buick like the one shown here—we'd like to set the matter straight.

If you can afford any new car, you can afford this strapping and stunning Buick SPECIAL Sedan—and no kidding.

For this Buick is tagged within a few dollars of the well-known smaller cars—and actually costs less than some models of those very same cars. The price we show here proves it.

So maybe you can understand why Buick—for two years running now—has outsold every other car in the land, except two of those well-known smaller cars.

But low price is just part of the picture.

Big reason for Buick's soaring sales sweep is that folks are finding here a lot more automobile for the money—more style boldness, more power thrill, more ride stability and more solid structure than the same dollars buy elsewhere.

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Any state and local taxes, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. A wide variety of extra-cost equipment and accessories available at your option.

Just ask yourself: wouldn't you rather go traveling with the lift and life and pace and poise of a stunning new Buick—when it's all yours at just about the price of a smaller car?

If your answer is yes, then the time is now—right now.

Drop in on us this very week—tomorrow would be fine—and we'll seat you at the wheel of the biggest and most beautiful bundle of high-powered Buick ever offered in America's low-price field.

DOVER SPECIAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT a Special Election will be held on January 14th, 1956, in Dover Special School District in Kent County, in the State of Delaware, in accordance with resolutions adopted by the Board of Education of said School District in order to permit the voters of said school district to vote for against the following issues of bonds:

1. Bonds of the aggregate principal amount of $252,000 to finance the cost of constructing for the use of public schools in the Dover Special School District an auditorium capable of seating 1,000 persons and including a choral room, music practice rooms, dramatic art rooms, rooms for storage and scenery, storerooms, and a heating plant adequate to heat such auditorium and the District's present field house.

2. Bonds of the aggregate principal amount of $18,000 to finance the erection of an addition to the Roe Site School containing a cafeteria-social kitchen with folding partitions, furniture and equipment, and an additional boiler and an addition containing a girls' locker room with folding partitions, and the remodeling of the District's present field house, and an addition to the Roe Site School containing a gymnasium, restrooms and one special classroom, and the enlargement of the kitchen of the Dover Community School, and the addition thereto of a storage room and walk-in refrigerator.

At said special election the voters of said School District may vote for or against the levy of school purposes which shall include all current expenses which include (1) supplementing the state salary schedule for school personnel (2) providing funds for the employment of additional needed school personnel not provided for by the state (3) providing funds for administrative control, instructional services, maintenance and repairs, fixed charges, auxiliary agencies, and capital outlay of an estimated value of real estate in said School District, as determined by the State Board of Education, and the addition thereto of a storage room and walk-in refrigerator.

The polls for said election will open at 1 o'clock P. M. and will remain open until 8 o'clock P. M., Eastern Standard Time. A polling place will be opened at each of the following schools in the School District:

- (1) Dover Community School
- (2) Booker T. Washington School
- (3) Elementary School on South State Street

The bonds are to be issued to finance a part of the cost of a school construction program which it is estimated will cost $1,095,000, of which $438,000 is to be paid by the State Board of Education of the State of Delaware, acting pursuant to Chapter 529 of Volume 50 of the Delaware Code. The State Board of Education has determined such school construction program to be necessary in and for the School District.

Every citizen, male or female, residing in said School District who would be entitled at the time of the holding of said Special School Election to register and vote at a general election if such general election were to be held at the time of said Special School Election, shall be deemed to be a qualified voter and entitled to vote at said Special School Election, regardless of whether he or she is a registered voter at the time of said election.

At said election voters will be provided with ballots suitable to permit the voters to vote for or against each of said two bond issues, and to vote for or against the levy of said additional tax.

By order of the Board of Education of Dover Special School District, Dated, December 14th, 1955.

Social Security Information
by Myron Milbourn, District Manager of the Wilmington Social Security District Office

In my last article I called attention to the responsibility under the social security law which must be met before the end of January by every farm operator who paid as much as $100 cash wages to any one agricultural employe in 1955. Today, I shall describe the form he must use to report the wages and remit the social security tax.

For this purpose use Form 943 "Employer's Tax and Information Return for Agricultural Employees." Insofar as possible, the District Director of Internal Revenue mailed this form to agricultural employers in the area serviced by his district office. If you are also required to report cash wages paid to your agricultural employes in 1955 and did not receive a form or have lost one you received, ask the District Director of Internal Revenue for a copy.

There are three important entries you should make on this form. Sign and date it, and give your title—that is, owner, president, partner, member, etc. of the agricultural enterprise.

Second, be sure to enter each of your employes' social security account numbers correctly, also his full name and the total of taxable cash wages paid to him during the year. It is best to copy the number and his name directly from his social security card. This is important in order that the employee's taxable cash wages can be credited to the right social security account. In case it is impossible to obtain his social security number, write "Unknown" and enclose a sheet of paper showing the employee's name and address. Third, enter the amount of the total taxable cash wages you paid during 1955 to all of your farm employes, counting only the employees to whom you paid $100 or more in cash wages. Multiply the total of these cash wages by 4 per cent and enter this amount. If you have been required to make one or more deposit amounts of social security taxes with the Internal Revenue Service during the year subtract those amounts from the total tax, attach depositary receipts, Form 450, and enter the amount of the balance of tax due and remit the social security tax.

One thing more. To help the Government keep records, every employer who is required to report wages for employes and pay the social security tax should secure an identification number. Do not confuse this number with the number on your own social security card which you will use to report your net earnings for your own and your family's old-age and survivors insurance protection. If you do not now have an employer's identification number, get Form SS-4 from the District Director of Internal Revenue or your social security district office. Fill it in promptly and send it to the District Director of Internal Revenue.

This should be done before January 1 if possible in order that you may receive your identification number in time to enter it on your return.

SELF-EMPLOYED FARMERS MUST PAY SOCIAL SECURITY TAX

This year will be the first time that self-employed farmers are required to pay a social security tax, which will be filed and paid along with the federal income tax.

According to Wesley Webb, assistant County Agricultural Agent, a meeting has been arranged to help county farmers set themselves straight on some of the new and lesser known details in our income tax laws.

Among other points to be explained at this meeting will be the proper way to figure the new social security tax and the benefits farmers will derive from social security.

University of Delaware Agricultural Economists, William E. McDaniel and W. T. McAllister, as well as representatives of the state and federal income tax and social security offices will be present to help answer farmers' questions during the question and answer session that is provided in the program.

The Farmers Income Tax Short Course will be held January 11, in the Capital Grange Hall, at Dover, beginning at 8:00 p. m. All farmers are invited and there is no charge of any kind for advice.

A new publication entitled "Farmers' Tax Guide" has been released by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service. Though the booklet does not discuss all the fine points of the income tax law, it covers many of the worrisome questions that farmers face when filling out farm income tax reports. Webb says you may obtain copies of this bulletin by contacting your county agricultural office at the Post Office Building in Dover.

NEW FARM CORN ALLOTMENTS AVAILABLE

Any producer who intends to plant corn in 1956 on a farm where no corn was planted during the years 1953, 1954, or 1955 must apply for a corn acreage allotment if he wants price support on his farm in 1956. Jos. Ennis, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

Marketing quotas do not apply to corn, the Chairman explained. However, under the acreage allotment program, the production of corn in 1956 on a farm which has no corn acreage allotment would make all the corn produced on such farm ineligible for price support in 1956.

Application forms for a corn acreage allotment are available at the County ASC office. February 1st is the last day such applications may be filed.

MEETING IN PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES

Practice in handling organization meetings will be provided for those attending the annual leaders' training meeting of the Kent County Agricultural Extension Service. The program is to start at 7:30 p. m., on Monday, Jan. 9, in the library of the Caesar Rodney High School. The program will end soon after 9 o'clock.

One of the big problems for many organizations is how to handle parliamentary procedures.

This meeting will provide a practical session for those who would like to learn to do better. Each person attending will receive a manual entitled, "Mister Chairman", which can be used as a reference after the meeting. The program will take care of most of the common problems which might be expected at meetings, particularly those in agricultural extension organizations. Though designed primarily for home demonstration clubs, 4-H clubs and agricultural leaders, George Vapa, the County Agricultural Agent points out that anyone is welcome to attend.

There Will Be a City Election Tuesday

There will be a Citizens Meeting this evening at the Firehouse when candidates will be nominated for councilmen from the First and Third Wards.

For those who have complaints against the City government, and what governmental body doesn't receive them, this will be the time to make your protest. City Attorney Max Terry will be on hand to answer questions regarding the issuance last week, and this week, to delinquent taxpayers. This will be interesting, to say the least, judging from the crowd which attended the January meeting of the City Council Monday.

The City financial report for the fiscal year, ending Sept. 30, 1955, will be read, and Mayor Ernest Killen will tell of contemplated improvements for the current year.

There are usually no more than 30 persons attending the annual Citizens Meeting at which the candidates are nominated to run the City. These nominations are made in the form of petitions, signed by not less than ten citizens, nor more than 25.

The City election will be held next Tuesday.

Vice-Presidency in Spotlight

Early in his recently-published memoirs, former President Truman discusses a serious problem he had to face when suddenly elevated to the White House. The war was still raging and innumerable matters of the first importance had to be dealt with. Yet, it seems, Mr. Truman as Vice-President had not been among President Roosevelt's inner circle. Vital information had not been confided to Mr. Truman. He did not, for example, even know about the successful effort of the Manhattan Project in creating the atomic bomb.

Other Vice-Presidents who succeeded to the Presidency have been in a comparable position. Mr. Truman presents a strong case for giving all future Vice-Presidents duties and responsibilities commensurate with the title, so that they may be as fully prepared as possible should destiny call them to the biggest and most difficult job in the world.

It is now clear that President Eisenhower did just about this, so far as the present legal structure of the government permits. He has always emphasized the importance of the team and opposed surrounding any one man with the aura of indispensability. Vice-President Nixon was never a figurehead. He has been very close to the President from the beginning, has sat in on the Cabinet and Security Council meetings, has been kept thoroughly up to date on everything that has gone on, has been sent on extremely delicate missions, and has been one of the hardest working men in the government.

There will be renewed effort to fill the existing legal vacuum that surrounds a President disabled.

A great many people feel that steps must be taken to clarify the legal picture—even as they feel that steps must be taken to relieve Presidents of some of the incredible burden of work they now carry.

School Law Awakes Public

Recent meetings on the school reorganization law accomplished a lot of good through the furore the stirred up in Whitman county's smaller communities:

People who couldn't be moved to take an interest in education by a thousand PTA's or a hundred "Education Weeks" suddenly found themselves in the midst of a battle to save their own community's schools—and enjoying every minute of it.

People who hadn't taken much interest in their schools suddenly acquired a community and school pride—something which is sadly lacking most of the time in many small communities.

Still other patrons took an objective look at their schools, large and small, found some things "wanting," other things "par" or above.

These benefits will not be permanent; they will result in a bettering of the county's smaller schools for the time being, but unless they are again threatened at some future date, the patrons of most of these districts may slip back into their old lethargy in six months or a year, and lose their intense interest in schools.

Such is America—but fortunate are we that there always seems to be just barely enough people retaining interest to keep democracy alive.

Delaware Bankers Big Help To Farmers, Says Economist

Dr. William E. McDaniel, University of Delaware agricultural economist, today congratulated Delaware bankers for the interest they have taken in the agriculture of the state. He reported that they were way ahead of private bankers in other states in making farm mortgage money available to farmers to finance the heavy credit needs of modern agriculture.

70 of 1956, McDaniel said, Delaware farmers held approximately 12-million-dollar debt held by banks. The per centage of state's mortgage for the whole U.S. banks in from less than 5% in some western states to between 40 and 45% in some of the New England states.

Of the 33 commercial banks in Delaware, only three do not hold loans to farmers, McDaniel said. Furthermore, 23 of the 33 also make non-real estate loans to farmers for such credit needs as farm operating expenses.

McDaniel pointed out that credit needs of farmers and their dependence on sound credit advice have increased greatly in recent years with the tendency towards larger, more highly mechanized and more specialized farms. Farm costs are high now, he said, and profit margins growing ever narrower. The average capital investment on a modern dairy farm is nearly $13,000 per man, he said. Just six years ago it was only $9700 and before World War II it amounted to only $3700.

FARM SOCIAL SECURITY

"Which of us has to pay the new Social Security tax this year?"

That's the question quite a few farmers have been asking county agricultural agents of the Delaware Extension Service recently, according to Dr. Wm. McDaniel, University of Delaware farm economist.

"The answer," says McDaniel, "is that every farmer who made more than $400 net income on his farm last year has to pay Social Security tax. He does, that is, provided he didn't make as much as $5200 in wages from off-the-farm work."

"If you made $4200 or more from off farm work, then your Social Security tax is all paid for by the deductions from your pay envelope," says McDaniel. "Otherwise, you have to pay a Social Security tax along with your federal income tax if you netted $400 or more from your farm."

Questions like these will be taken up at the Farmers Income Short Course to be held by the College of Agriculture next week at four locations in the state, McDaniel notes. Tax experts from both the federal and state governments will be there to lecture on tax problems and answer farmers' questions.

All meetings start at 8 o'clock each evening. The first one is scheduled at the Georgetown High School on Monday, January 9. Next night, at the same time, there will be a meeting in the Middletown High School. On January 11, the Capitol Grange Hall in Dover will be the meeting place. Last meeting around the state is scheduled at the Harmony Grange Hall on Thursday, January 12.

Dr. George M. Worrlow, Dean of the College of Agriculture, urges farmers to attend the short course meeting nearest their homes. He says that an hour of each meeting has been set aside particularly to answer farmers' questions on allowable deductions they can make.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Persons past 65 who have sufficient coverage to be eligible for old-age insurance benefits, but have not filed application for benefits because they are still working, were reminded today by Myron Milbouter, manager of the social security office at 813 West Street, Wilmington, that if their earnings in 1955 are sufficiently low they may receive full or partial benefits for the year.

"We are inclined to believe," Milbouter said, "that there are people who could receive benefits for 1955 who have so far not taken advantage of their rights, because of misunderstanding or confusion as to the new retirement test in the law."

"In brief, an individual who was past 65 years of age the entire year of 1955, and who had sufficient covered employment or self-employment to be eligible for benefits can receive benefits for the entire year 1955 if his total earnings for the year do not exceed $1200. He can receive partial benefits if his total earnings do not exceed $2080, even though he works throughout the entire year."

In the case of a self-employed person, the net profit from the trade or business is what is considered "earnings."

According to the local manager, January 1956 is the latest time at which a person can file an application which could make him entitled to benefits for the full year of 1955.

VERY! VERY! LARGE CONTEST

When many people go to buy a used car they take their Dad or "Uncle Henry" (who used to be a mechanic) or a copy of some popular magazine that tells them how to buy a used car! Well, sometimes Dad can help and other times he and Mom disagree and you end up making your own choice. As to "Uncle Henry," he can be a big help but then cars have changed considerably in the last ten years and besides being mechanically perfect you want a style setter. As to the magazine article this author has a closet full of golf books that tell you how and still can't break 100. So we decided to have a "CONTEST," and pick out the cars we know and see everyday and let you know how they rate in our opinion.

Good Luck and bring your Dad and "Uncle Henry" anyway. They might like to look them over.

School. The NAAWP, chartered here the previous winter, organized an anti-integration campaign that included mass meetings and demonstrations at the school.

When a new school board removed the Negroes and a court attempt at gaining their readmission failed, Bowles claimed victory and settled down in Houston.

Details on the finances and membership of the NAAWP have never been disclosed. The annual report filed with the secretary of state last year lists Bowles as president; Joseph Danes of Hartly, vice president, and E. Lois Wollfert of Houston (Bowles' wife) as secretary-treasurer.

Two Motorists Are Fined For Race on Dual

Two motorists had large fines imposed on them as a result of a fast race they staged along the dual highway Saturday gth.

Birtrue L. Bowers, of Magnolia and George W. Loper, of near Viola, started what was an apparent race along the dual highway and State Police observed their action as they were traveling along the Dover by-pass.

The police gave chase, with their speedometers clicking off at 90 miles per hour, but it was not until they reached the Woodside intersection that they were able to halt the men.

While the police were talking to Bowers, Loper, who had his Bowers was taken before Magistrate George K. Shockley on charges of excessive speed and reckless driving. The magistrate imposed a fine of $50 and costs on each charge, and in default of payment sent Bowers to jail for 30 days.

On Sunday evening Loper appeared at the police station and surrendered since he realized that the police had his name and address and were looking for him. He was charged with speeding, reckless driving, and leaving the scene after being halted by police.

Magistrate Shockley imposed a fine of $50 and costs on the speeding charge, and since it was Loper's second offense for reckless driving, a fine of $75 and cost was imposed on the charge of leaving the scene after being halted by police, making a total of $150 in fines, plus costs, which Loper paid.

County Dirt Roads To Be Improved

The State Highway Department is preparing to proceed with the first dirt road improvement program provided for through legislation approved the present session of the Legislature. Several contracts are being advertised for bids this week.

Walter B. McKendrick, Chief Engineer of the Department, stated that the projects placed on this program were selected in accordance with the requirements of the legislation, which directed that the dirt roads having the largest traffic count be improved first.

This Legislation provided that $10,000,000 be used for improvement of existing dirt roads with $1,000,000 to be expended each year for ten years. Authorization for a bond issue to provide the funds was contained in the legislation.

Mr. McKendrick explained that it was the desire of the Department to have the projects on this initial program all under contract before the early summer month so that most of the work could be completed during the summer and early fall of this year.

According to Mr. McKendrick, this first dirt road improvement program provides for the treatment of 68 miles of roadway with 43.44 miles being in Sussex County, 21.85 miles in Kent County, and the remaining 2.72 miles in New Castle County.

The variance of the mileage of dirt roads to be improved in the three counties was explained by Mr. McKendrick as being based on the existing total mileage of dirt roads in each of the counties.

The roads to be improved in Kent County have been grouped into three project with one project providing for the improvement of these roads, from Blackiston's Crossroads to Delaney's Corner, from Route 300, west of Kenton, to Davis Corner, along the highway from Pearson's Corner to Hartly, from the northern edge of Camden to Caesar Rodney Avenue in Wyoming, from the improved road along the railroad, north of Felton, to Route 12, west of Felton.

The second Kent County project includes the improvement of the following roads, from the New Castle county line to the Clayton Ice Plant, north of Clayton, from the west of Clayton to Route 300, from Seven Hickories, along the Cheswood to Kenton highway, to Dinah's Corner, and from the Dover to Pearson's Corner highway to Casson's Corner.

Included in the third Kent County project are two dirt roads leading around Felton, from Postles Corner to Pickering Beach, from Masten's Corner to Route 12, from Little Heaven to the Bowers Beach highway, and from the Frederica to Harrington highway to McCauley's Pond.

The mileage of the roads to be improved in Sussex County have been grouped into four projects with the first project including the following roads, road 589, leading west from Route 13, north of Greenwood; from the southern edge of Bridgeville, along the railroad, to Cannon; from the western edge of Seaford to Cannon's Ferry; from Route 13; from a point along Route 13, east of Laurel, to Sandy Fork; from Route 24, at the Maryland line, to Columbia; road 507 leading from the Maryland line, across Route 76, and south to the Maryland line.

The second Sussex project includes the following roads, from Staytonville to road 224, near the state forest preserve; south of Milford to road 207 with a spur along road 206 to Lincoln; road 215 from road 212 towards Route 14; from Route 14 to road 36, near Jefferson's Crossroads; a road at the east edge of Milton; road 213 south from Elendale; road 327 west from Route 133 and road 519, north of Georgetown.

Several roads in the vicinity of Lewes are listed in the third Sussex project, including a road leading from south of Five Points to Murray's Corner and a road leading south and east from near Murray's Corner into Lewes, also road 277, leading from Route 24 into Angola Neck and road 279 leading from road 277 to Route 24.

The fourth Sussex project consists of a group of roads in the southern and eastern portion of the county as follows: two sections of road 318, one leading south from Morris Mill and the other leading north from Millsboro; road 82, located west of Millsboro; road 334A, leading south from Millsboro to Route 113; from Laurel Ditch toward Frankford; road 349, leading from White Neck to Millville and road 366, leading from Millville towards Miller's Corner.

Mr. McKendrick explained that surveys are completed for the roads to be improved on this program and plans are being prepared to cover the work. Where widening of the existing roadway is necessary, the needed right of way is being procured. Adequate drainage facilities are being provided.

The Chief Engineer pointed out that in some instances relocation is being provided in order to reduce sharp curves to provide better driving conditions. The roads to be improved will be reshaped and graded, and have a bituminous surface, twenty feet in width.

Mr. McKendrick stated that the second year's program will soon be presented to the Department for approval and surveys will get underway very shortly thereafter. The target date for starting actual construction on the second year's program will be in the fall of this year.

City Water Will Be Turned Off Temporarily Sunday at 8 A. M.
