

CREDIT BUREAU STILL EXCITES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce, at its March meeting in The First National Bank Building, exhibited continued interest in the formation of a credit bureau by authorizing a committee to investigate the subject further.

William W. Shaw, chairman of the Credit Committee, said that L. Gooden Callaway, of Harrington, had stated he was going ahead with the formation of a credit bureau. The Chamber was told of a Dover agency that had accounts in this area, and of James Watts, of Milford, who had also evinced interest in forming an agency.

The Chamber again authorized the placement of an advertisement in the annual catalog of the Kent & Sussex Fair Association.

The Sign Committee, headed by Cliff Miller, reported that two signs, to be placed on U.S. 13 to identify the community, had been constructed and were ready to be painted. These signs will be sponsored by the Chamber, the Rotary Club and the Lions.

President Charles Peck, Jr., broached several subjects which will be brought up again later. He thought the Chamber should be represented by a float at the Delmarva Chicken Festival at Laurel. "They sent a float here when we had the festival, and we ought to send one there," he explained.

Continuing, the president believed the community should have a clean-up and fix-up week in the spring. "We can start with paint, and maybe soap and water on the main street," he pointed out.

The president also thought the community merchants should have a trade day.

H.H.S. Band To Give Concert Fri., March 22

The Harrington High School Band, under the direction of Melvin L. Brobst, will give its annual spring concert next Friday evening, March 22, in the school auditorium beginning at 8 p.m.

As has been the custom in former years, all the bands in the school will have a part in the program. This year three bands have been organized—one in the elementary school, one in the junior high school, and the other in the senior high school.

The grade school band will be heard in two numbers, "There's Music in the Air" by George Root, and the German Folk Song, "The German Waltz."

The Junior High School Band will also play two numbers, "Medley," and "The Firecracker March," both by Fred Weber.

As an added attraction, there will be two modern numbers offered by the dance band that made such a hit at the recent private dance sponsored by the senior band and the Band Booster Club, held at the Century Club.

The main portion of the program will be given by the senior band, which will play such numbers as Morton Gould's "Pavanne," "Park Avenue Fantasy," by Malneck and Signorilli that was featured by Joe Basille and his band at the fair last season, as well as three novelties, to include "Goofin'" by Del Baroni, "In a Clock Store" by Charles J. Orth and arranged by Benn Vitto, and "The Happy Carousel" by Packer, as well as several standard marches.

Playing his first solo with the band will be C. Edward Wilcox, a member of the Senior class, presenting the trombone solo, "Song For Trombone" by John J. Morrissey.

This hour-long program proves to be one of the most interesting and varied of the long list of popular concerts provided by the Harrington School, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Frear Endorses W.J.C. Project

U.S. Senator J. Allen Frear, Jr., today endorsed the program for capital improvements to Wesley Junior College, Dover, anticipated through a development fund campaign now getting underway. Senator Frear is president of the Friends of Wesley Junior College, one of the organizations sponsoring the effort.

"I firmly believe the Wesley Junior College is playing a vital role in American education today. With the success of this campaign, Wesley can continue to be a bulwark in meeting the so-called tidal wave of students which is about to hit our colleges and universities," Senator Frear said.

"Wesley is situated in Delaware's capital. Within a 175-mile radius live thirty million Americans. Wesley Junior College is ideally located to serve those people in coming years.

"I am convinced that the junior college is one of the key answers to this tidal wave of college age students. As the only junior college on the Delmarva peninsula, Wesley is indispensable."

The $500 development fund is sponsored jointly by the Wesley Junior College Alumni Association, Inc., and the Friends of Wesley Junior College, a group of Delmarva citizens having no direct connection with the college, but interested in its welfare. The program calls for construction of a $265,000 women's dormitory, capital improvement to the men's dormitories, renovation of "Old Main" to provide modern classrooms, laboratories and office facilities, and other changes to alleviate crowded conditions at the college.

Plans for the campaign are well underway, according to Dr. William B. Simpson, general chairman.

Railroad News

Less Rogers, conductor on the Harrington shifter for the past several years retired last week and shoved off yesterday for Miami, Fla., with his wife in their new Dodge. They expect to be gone for the entire month and intend to stop at Ft. Lauderdale to see Ted Angus, retired master carpenter.

While we all called him Less, some of us never knew his real name as Luster. But, nevertheless, he was the most active and serious-minded railroad conductor we have ever seen at retirement age and is very much missed by all of us. We still look forward to seeing him around and know he can not stay away from the railroad except when the horses are running.

Horses are one of Less' hobbies and we doubt whether he will stop very long at Fort Lauderdale.

Other data on Mr. Rogers is as follows: He lives at 60 Clark St., retired Feb. 28, 1957. Born in Georgetown. Started with railroad in 1916 and moved here in 1926. His hobby is harness racing.

His wife, the former Elizabeth Fowler, of Georgetown, contributed largely to railroad interests locally, by providing comfortable rooms on short notice for new personnel until permanent quarters were available. Many of these former supervisors, who have moved on to higher responsibilities, are extending well wishes to Less and Elizabeth for retirement.

Mrs. Miller's method of preparing venison is as follows: Place meat in a brine 24 hours, seasoned with six lemons, six onions, a quart of vinegar, and two tablespoonsful of baking soda. Kent Home Doings

By CHARLOTTE L. SWANSON KENT COUNTY Home Demonstration Agent

Draperies can do a lot for your windows-and for your room. The subject of window treatments was discussed at Kent County Home Demonstration Club meetings in January and February.

As a result of these discussions, a project school on making draperies is being held this month.

The first class was held Thursday, March 7, with Miss Lois Korslund as teacher. She discussed the fabrics available and demonstrated two methods for making draperies.

Those who attended came with measurements of their own windows. At the Class each person figured the amount of fabric she would need for the type of drapery she is making.

The following homemakers are participating in this project school:

Mrs. Thelma Hanson, Mrs. Doris Fry, Mrs. Anna Lee Taylor, Mrs. Joan Winkler, Mrs. Edna Outten, Mrs. Cathyll Bowdle, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. Zita Hatfield, all of Harrington; Mrs. Earl Coleman, Mrs. William MacClary, both of Leipsic; Mrs. Dorothy Hall, Mrs. Jean Kenton, Mrs. Lucy Davis, all of Milford; Miss Helen Comstock, Mrs. Irene Raughley, both of Dover; Mrs. Irene Wolleyhan, Kenton.

Mrs. Heatherly Dutton of Avondale, Pa., nationally recognized as a lecturer on preparing floral arrangements, headlines the Home Gardeners' Short Course at the Capital Grange Hall in Dover Thursday afternoon, March 21. She will not only prepare some arrangements herself, but will also evaluate arrangements made by several local people.

Social Security Notes

Planning for partial retirement calls for a clear understanding of earnings restrictions on receipt of Federal old-age insurance benefits, Myron Milbouer, manager of the Wilmington social security office said.

Many older workers do not understand, he explained, that in order to decide how many benefit checks may be payable in the year in which a claim is filed all earnings in the full year are counted.

For every $80 or fraction of $80 over $1200 earned in the year of filing a claim, one month's benefits is withheld. A person who earns $1282 in the year of filing, for example, stands to lose two months benefits he otherwise might have been entitled to receive. This is so whether the amounts were earned before or after the month of filing. The restriction on the amount of earnings applies to all years during any part of which he was under 72 and entitled to social security benefits.

Milbouer stated that persons planning partial retirement should also be aware of the exceptions to the general rule. Regardless of total earnings in the year, no beneficiary will lose a benefit for any month in which he doesn't earn more than $80 in employment and doesn't render substantial services in business or profession in which he is self-employed. After he becomes 72 he will lose no benefits, no matter how much he earns. Total earnings for the full year, however are taken into account in deciding whether a person may receive benefits for all months before he attains age 72.

A free pamphlet entitled "How Earnings Affect Social Security Benefit Payments" is available on request from the Wilmington social security office at 504 W. 10th Street.

West Berlin policemen on traffic duty at night now wear a ring of small lamps around their waist.

The leaders meeting opened with a recreational period after which the evening program was held. Wayne Bath, acting state 4-H leader, presented and discussed the extension philosophy as it applies to 4-H club work. The objectives of club work and its organization was also presented. Enrollments of club members who reached the age of 10 years or older by January 1st must be complete by May 1. An important change in the county program was announced. This being that all record books must be completed and turned into the 4-H office by September 16. This is to allow more time for the records to be submitted to the State Office. During the evening the leaders, representing eleven of the seventeen 4-H clubs had a coffee break during which they looked over recreational materials available to them. Those present at this meeting were: Mrs. Arthur Armstrong, Chesdel Clubbers and four members; Wilma Armstrong, Marie Baker, Caroline Woodruff, and Joyce Warren; Pat Caulk and Mrs. Marie Mitchell, Wildcats; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Grampp, Oak Grove Blue Hens; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, Milford Millwood; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hufnal, Chestnut Grove; Harry Cloud, Mrs. Joseph Bothell, Mrs. Ellis Brown, Clayton Clodhoppers; Mrs. Martha Benson and Mrs. Stella Counselman, Houston Cardinals; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiebel, White Oaks; Mrs. Susie Knotts, Kenton Klubbers; Mrs. Ethel Robinson, Blue Ribbon; and Francis Thomas, Westville.

TWIN BEEF CALVES WANTED FOR USRA RESEARCH

Scientists with the US Department of Agriculture are on the market for pairs of identical twin beef calves, according to George Vapaa, Kent County agricultural agent. The animals must be less than five months old and available within 200 miles of Washington, D.C. They can be heifers, steers, or bulls, but only purebred or grade animals of good beef type are acceptable. The calves are needed for experimental work on beef cattle nutrition at USDA's Agricultural Research Center at Beltsville, Md. The department will buy the calves on an offer-and-acceptance basis, depending on their suitability and the price asked by the owner. During the past seven years, researchers at Beltsville have used 43 pairs of identical twin calves to obtain new information on beef cattle nutrition. The researchers are seeking additional sets of twins for further studies to begin this spring. Anyone knowing of identical twin beef calves near Washington should write to the Animal Husbandry Research Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Beltsville, Md.

Coloring Evergreens Probably Okay Later

If your evergreens are turning brown or yellow now, they'll probably be okay later on, says Dr. John W. Heuberger, extension plant pathologist at the University of Delaware. This is the so-called winter injury of evergreens caused by the plants losing more water through their leaves than the roots can absorb from the frozen ground. Dr. Heuberger points out that this is particularly true when warm, drying winds are blowing and the ground is frozen. The condition will likely brown narrow-leaved pines, spruces, and firs. Rhododendron, laurel, and holly leaf tips and margins might turn yellow or scorch. Generally the condition does not seriously injure well-cared for trees. When the flush of new growth begins this spring, the browned needles or the yellowed or scorched leaves will fall to the ground, and the trees will regain their natural beauty. If this doesn't happen, the extension plant pathologist says something else must be wrong with the trees—possibly lack of fertilizer, mouse injury, mechanical injury, plant disease, or insects. He cautions against fertilizing trees until you're sure that the soil is low in fertility. Over-fertilizing might increase the injury.

Biscuits are easier to cut, and there will be less waste if the dough is sliced into squares with a sharp knife—instead of cutting with a round cutter.

LITTLE CHANGE EXPECTED IN DELAWARE FARM PROFITS

Delaware farmers this year can probably look forward to little change in profits from 1956 levels. Here is the picture as reported by Willard T. McAllister, extension marketing specialist in farm management at the University of Delaware. Poultry—Delaware produced more broilers in 1956 than ever before. In spite of this large supply being a low 20-per cent pound price, a modest increase in broiler production can be expected in 1957. Prices will not average much above those of 1956. To make a satisfactory income, most growers will need to enlarge their growing facilities so labor is fully employed—or add to family income from other farm enterprises or off-farm work.

Eggs—Egg prices from now on through spring and early summer are likely to be below those received in 1956, so the poultryman must explore ways of reducing costs and raising the average price received for eggs.

Such things as increased feed efficiency, improved rate of lay, using labor to best advantage, and holding down mortality will help to reduce costs. High quality eggs sold in markets that pay a premium for quality is one way of raising the price received for eggs. Selling more at retail is another possibility.

Turkeys—More turkey than last year are expected to be raised, with profit margins quite small. There will probably be fewer Beltsville whites and more heavy white breeds grown. Year round production of early maturing varieties and marketing at lighter weights is becoming the practice.

Dairy—Not much change in the net return from dairying is the outlook for 1957. A very small increase in the price of milk is possible, but higher production costs are likely to offset larger returns from these prices. The decline in the use of butter apparently has been stopped, bringing a slight increase in consumption.

Swine—Attractive pork prices this winter and spring will likely result in an increase in fall farrowings and a substantial increase in swine by 1958. Delaware's 1956 pig crop consists of 8,500 sows and a current pig crop of about 55,000. This is about 10 per cent below average.

Farmers have reported that they intend to raise about 16 per cent fewer pigs than in 1956. The chances for reasonably good returns from swine are well above average, although farmers should weigh long-time profit opportunities from hogs against profits from other enterprises before investing in swine.

Vegetables—Supplies of both available for distribution into mid-1957 are substantially larger than the supplies of a year earlier. Processing costs were up in 1956, but—with the larger supplies—it seems unlikely that packers will be able to pass along the increased costs. Many will probably be caught in a cost price squeeze.

This, along with the larger stock carry-over, will probably result in a reduction of acreage contracted for processing in 1957. In spite of increased packers' costs, as well as some increase in distribution costs, retail prices of processed vegetables into mid-1957 are expected to average a little lower than a year earlier.

4-H Club Notes

4-H PROJECT TRAINING DAY

Kent County 4-H'ers will gather Saturday at Caesar Rodney from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for their annual project training day. Training meetings will be held in the fields of dairy, clothing and gardening for all 4-H'ers, leaders and interested parents. Delmar Yong, specialist, will work with the members on their record books, as well as to bring them valuable information in this field. Assisting him with the group will be Mrs. Martha Benson, local leader. In the clothing project field, Miss Lois Korslund, clothing specialist, will work with the 4-H'ers on better sewing methods and ways that their projects can be improved for exhibits. Assisting her will be Mrs. Joseph Bothell, clothing project leader, for the Clayton Clodhoppers. Roebert Stevens, horticulturalist, will work with the garden members on planning, growing, and caring for their 4-H gardens this year. Chris Grampp, local leader of the Oak Grove Blue Hens and Fred Wiebel, local leader of the White Oaks club will assist.

Trend Toward Production of Grade A Milk

There is a trend toward handling more Grade A milk by dairy manufacturing cooperatives.

George Vapaa, Kent County agricultural agent, reports this was indicated in a survey carried out by the Farmer Cooperative Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

One of the main reasons for the shift to Grade A among producers is increasing demand for Grade A milk and its collection over wider supply areas. Another reason is the adoption of bulk handling by more and more producers, making it easier for them to meet Grade A standards, the survey report stated.

In addition, many dairy cooperatives are encouraging their members to meet the standards required of Grade A producers. Some predict that Grade A milk will be required by all markets within the foreseeable future. Then, even milk used in manufactured dairy products would be Grade A.

Meeting Grade A standards has advantages for producers that might be overlooked in considering a change, the agent said. One dairy cooperative reported that its farmer members sometimes make more money when prices paid for Grade A and Grade B milk are the same.

A study conducted by this cooperative several years ago showed that producers who converted from Grade B to Grade A had an increase in production averaging 11 percent per cow.

FARM AND HOME FILLERS

Delaware farmers should plow under before May 1 remains of last year's corn crop. This will cut down on what could be more than $500,000 damage by borers this year.

The deadline for Delaware farmers wanting to sign up in the Greener Pastures program is March 31. Interested farmers should contact the county extension office.

Anyone wishing to enter a exhibit in the spring flower show at the University of Delaware June 1 and 2 should write to Dr. C. W. Dunham, Box 150, University of Delaware, Newark.

SPRINGTIME IS SIGN-UP TIME FOR FARMERS

Springtime is sign-up time for farmers in several improvement programs sponsored by the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service together with organized farm groups. The Delaware Crop Improvement Association helps in promoting greener pastures, the soybean yield, and the corn yield programs. The Delaware Poultry Improvement Association encourages participation in laying flock and broiler flock management.

All of these activities involve scheduled farm visits by specialists from the University of Delaware and the agricultural agent. The basic purpose of all programs is to achieve maximum cash returns to the farmer consistent with his available resources. All the programs are helpful to the university specialists in developing recommendations for good management.

As the farmer sees his costs moving up and profits getting smaller, it becomes more important that he do everything possible to do the most efficient job. The extension service can help him by providing the latest information that would seem to fit his farm. A telephone call to Dover 2621, or a visit to the county agent at the Dover post-office building, will start the ball rolling.

Sulky Slants

By MRS. DAVE (PAT) SMITH

After so long a time will try to tell a little that's going on down here. As for Seminole Race Track, there isn't much to tell. There are only 180 horses here now, and two of the big stables are leaving soon.

Some are leaving for Chicago and others for Yonkers. One stable pulled out for Lexington, Ky., this past week and the report was they headed into the worst snow storm in the history of Lexington.

I also hear that you have had some very bad weather around Harrington. Wayne Burris that comes from Bridgeville calls up his mother each weekend and that is how I keep up with the weather.

However, Wayne tells me that the horses are going along pretty good, that Billy Myers says he will be ready for Yonkers. You can't beat that. We don't expect to leave till last of April. We always run into bad weather in Hamburg every year.

Was up to Spring Garden Ranch last Sunday and what a turn out they had. You would have thought it was a regular race meet. Everyone was having a time.

I want more to get out of the trailer as I have been ill with a cold nearly all winter. Too much fog and dampness for me. But now I am back to work again. For how long I don't know.

The day it rained we took a trip to Silver Springs. That seems to be the hang out for this part of the country. Snake King, Ross Allen, has sure added several interesting things to the place this year. For instance, you can ride over to see all the old time cars from 1902 up to the present day ones. Then there is a car made to look like you were riding in a reindeer sled, that takes you to another part of Silver Springs for the animals. Course, there is the glass bottom boats that are a must. You would think you were at the falls, as you stroll down the enclosed board walk. Every kind of store you can think of.

I hear that Rainbow Springs has it all over Silver Springs, which is only a couple of miles from there. And more to see. So my next trip will be there. Now for the race track crowd of all things is the wrestling matches every Thursday night. Even Dave makes them. Not me, I still watch TV. The programs here are terrible that's for sure.

Mr. Holloway, what happened, you didn't make this track when you came down to Florida? It is a beautiful place. We would have loved for you to have stopped in. We miss all the crowd up there and there is lots of talk of Harrington. So I say hello to everyone. I wish I were there.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I am planning to take a four-year night course in law under the Korean GI Bill. Will VA consider this as full-time training in paying me my monthly GI allowance?

A—No. An accredited four-year night law course may not be considered as more than three quarters time training, for purposes of computing your GI allowance.

Q—Is it possible for a veteran to name the beneficiaries of his GI insurance policy in his last will and testament, rather than by providing VA with a list of beneficiaries?

A—Yes. Beneficiaries may be designated by a duly probated last will and testament. But you cannot change beneficiaries in this manner. A change must be placed on record with VA.

Q—If a veteran wants to appeal a VA decision involving some benefit, is there any time limit for filing his appeal?

A—Yes. A veteran must file his appeal within one year from the date of the VA decision of his case.

Q—I have been drawing monthly compensation payments from VA, based on the service-connected death of my husband, a World War I veteran. It I get a job to supplement my income, will my compensation payments be stopped?

A—No. Death compensation payments, based on the service-connected death of a veteran, are not affected by your income. The income "ceilings" apply only to death pensions for the non-service-connected death of a veteran.

Trinity Methodist Church Notes

Trinity men will share in the Lenten subdistrict communion and breakfast at Asbury Church next Sunday morning at 7. The district superintendent, Dr. Oler Bartley, will be present to administer the sacrament.

Following Sunday School at 9:45, morning worship begins at 11. The senior and junior choirs will each render a selection, and the pastor's subject is to be "Ye Are The Salt of the Earth." The Methodist Youth fellowship at 6:30 p.m. has Mrs. Harry Darby for sponsor; leader for tonight is Orwin Gruwell; and the pastor gives another in his series preparing young people for church membership. The evening service at 7:30 begins with a popular song service, and the pastor's topic is "Old Sin and New Life," another in a series of membership preparation for adults.

Flowers for March 17 are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw.

The W.S.C.S. weekly prayer group meets under the leadership of Mrs. John Walls in the church Monday at 10:30 a.m.

Thursday evening, regular choir rehearsals with junior at 6:45, vesper 7:15, and senior at 8 o'clock.

Last Sunday we were happy to welcome the Eastern Star to our morning worship. There were about 40 of this group present.

Our pastor's class for juniors thinking about Church membership began last Thursday and will continue for several Thursdays to come, at 3:45.

Seven couples, mostly man and wife, have been doing visitation evangelism for Trinity for the past two weeks. They have each had a list of seven prospects. These prospects are people whom we hope to interest in the church.

Our Lenten evangelism, begun with this visitation, will continue next week with preaching and picture evangelism. Asbury and Trinity unite for this occasion in a schedule as follows: March 17, Sunday evening, services in each church as usual; Monday, the pastor of Trinity, Rev. C. E. Wilcox, preaches at a combined program in Asbury, "No Substitutes Please"; Tuesday evening 8 p.m., both churches meet at Trinity to view a sound motion picture, "The Power of God" (this is a one-hour film; Wednesday, both churches are at Trinity again to hear the pastor of Asbury, Rev. Richard Gibson, preach on "Up to Jerusalem"; and the series concludes at Asbury Thursday with the famous movie, "The King of Kings," a Cecil B. DeMille production showing the last days of Christ—a two-hour picture.

There will be no evening service at Trinity Sunday, Mar. 24, because of the Milford area meetings which begin that night at Calvary Methodist, Milford, and continuing through March 29. All Milford area churches will be at these meetings beginning March 24.

CORN BORER CONTROL CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY

All-out war has been declared on Delaware corn borers.

Dr. Louis T. Stearns, head of the department of entomology at the University of Delaware, and Donald MacCreary, research entomologist there, are organizing a promotional campaign designed to cut down on what could be more than $500,000 damage by borers in state corn fields this year.

Last year the borer ate it way into more corn than during any year back to 1936, two years after the insect was first found in Delaware. Dr. Stearns said the borer damaged $849,194 worth of corn last year, taking a bite of about $174 out of the average farm income from Delaware's corn.

Through the years, farmers in Sussex county have contributed most to the support of the corn pest—52 percent of the bill. Kent county farmers have paid 29 percent of the borer loss, and New Castle county farmers 19 percent.

An effort involving every community in the state is the only way to cut down on borer damage, Dr. Stearns and MacCreary believe. All farmers growing corn must plow under old stalks by May 1, burying all corn refuse as deep as possible. The entomologists point out that the borers winter in the corn stalks, plow to moths, and fly from one field to the next in the spring—unless all of their winter homes are plowed into the ground.

In the effort to cut down on borer damage this year, the entomologists hope to receive the cooperation of county agricultural agents, 4-H Club members, newspapers, and radio and TV stations. Suggestions on controlling the corn borer will be sent out by the entomologists in Late News, a weekly summary of insect and plant disease recommendations.

Posters placed throughout the state and special mailings to farmers will be used to urge control of the pest by plowing before May 1.

Plastic bags make good containers for storing purses and gloves.

A film, "Hungary in Flames," has been made in Wiesbaden, Germany, for Hungarian relief.

How come the new Ford rides so smooth and solid?

It's the new inner Ford that gives you a big-car ride at low Ford prices

Folks just naturally love Ford's lower, sleeker silhouette. And they love Ford's new Thunderbird V-8's and Mileage Maker Six. But the thing that really got 'em buzzing is Ford's new ride. In the new kind of Ford, vital riding features team up to give you the smoothest going in the whole world. For example:

More weight and length

Head for the roughest road in the new kind of Ford. Notice how the biggest bumps lose their "bump"! One reason is that this biggest, longest, heaviest Ford has the extra "beef" to give a smooth, road-hugging ride.

Better balance

One of Ford's nicest back-road habits is to make believe the rough spots aren't there. Proper weight distribution and precise balancing let Ford iron out bumps far better than many of the higher-priced cars.

New automatic variable-rate rear springs

Going from a highway to a byway in a Ford, is like going from satin to silk. New design allows Ford's rear springs to "soften" or "stiffen" depending on road conditions. You get a smooth ride all the way!

New swept-back Ball-Joint front suspension

Ford's new, stronger front suspension is designed to soak up the shock of rough roads. The new swept-back design lets wheels "roll" with the bump and absorb it going away... for far smoother, steadier sailing.

New lower-pressure tires

Even Ford's tires are new for a better ride! Although they require less air pressure, they hold about 17% more air for cushioning the car. This means a softer ride—without sacrifice of Ford's good handling characteristics.

More comfortable seating

There's no sag when you sit in a Ford... even on long trips. Comfort-contoured seats, rigidly anchored, have advanced springing for greater comfort and longer life.

More body insulation

Ford has more body insulation—protection against weather, dust, and noise—than any car in the low-price field. You ride through city traffic in library-like quiet.

No metal-to-metal chassis and body contact

Only Ford in its field uses 20 Cushion Quiet rubber body mounts... more than any other low-priced car. It adds up to a smoother, quieter riding car.

Butter barbecue—fish often needs added flavor for taste appeal, and butter barbecue sauce does the trick. It's an excellent basis for many flavor combinations, it's quick and easy to prepare. Cooked, fish fillets require careful handling, because they break apart easily. Use a large, broad spatula for cooking and serving this food.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church

March 10, the first Sunday in Lent, Holy Communion was held at 9:15 a.m. with the Rev. Joseph S. Hinks of Milford as celebrant. Church School followed at 10 a.m. It was an important day for our boys and girls. Mite Boxes were distributed for use during the season of Lent to each Church School member. At Easter, the offerings in the boxes will be presented at the altar as the gift of our children for the missionary work of the church, at home and abroad. It was suggested by the teachers that, as each coin is placed in the box, the short prayer printed on it be repeated. The first Sunday in Lent was also an outstanding date for our church school, because at the service of morning prayer, the pupils gave a graphic presentation of the island of Haiti, its people and their living conditions. To this part of the world, the Mite box offering for 1957 will be sent. On a large easel, a map of the island with surrounding ocean and lands was assembled and labeled by one of the youngest members of the church school, John Winkler, who is in the Beginners Department. Members of the junior department presented pertinent facts concerning the agriculture of Haiti and placed pictures of the principal crops, drawn by church school members, on the map. The juniors taking part in this phase of the program were Cheryl Smith, Frank Welch, Ronny Porter, Ronny Wooters, Billy McCotley, who substituted for one absentee. Members of the primary class: Wayne Porter, Beverly Jenkins, Charles McNally, and Gail Keim presented interesting facts about the history of Haiti and added to the map statistical figures on the population and language spoken. Intermediate pupils: Carol Ann McNally, Viva Reed, and Bill Thompson, concluded the presentation by discussing the history of the Episcopal Church in Haiti. The first section of the morning prayer service was conducted by Lay leaders in the absence of our vicar. The second part consisted of the presentation by our church school under the direction of Robert E. Baynard, Jr. superintendent. Appropriate children's hymns and prayers were included. The service ended with the hymn for peace, "O God of love, O King of peace" sung by all kneeling. The recessional was "O Fairest Lord Jesus."

St. Stephen's Supper Club met at the parish house Sunday at 5 p.m. The guest speaker was the Rev. Victor Kusik of St. Mary's Church, Bridgeville. Mr. Kusik enjoyed refreshments with the young people and was present for the short business meeting. Mr. Symonds arrived from a speaking engagement at the University of Delaware in time to be with the group and to hear Mr. Kusik's talk on the Apostle's Creed. There was rapt attention as these young men and women followed the speakers clear cut illustrations and explanations of each phrase following the "I Believe."

He emphasized the point that it is not so important to answer the question "Do you or do you not believe in God?" but, "What kind of God do you believe in?" Of course, the truly satisfying answer, he explained, is found in the life of Jesus Christ. A brief history of the Creed, in its 1800 years of existence, followed the explanation of its meaning. Then there was a lively period of discussion when the young people were invited by Mr. Kusik to ask any question they wished. Those who participated in the Supper Club session were Ronnie Correll, Janet Cluley, Allen Hopkins, Ralph Wooters, Rosalie Wix, Bobby Greer, Bill Coady, Allen Draper, David Andrews, Mary Ann Lyons. The Pancake Supper on Shrove Tuesday was a success. The men of the church donned aprons and assembled cooking equipment, decorated the tables and when the time came, managed to turn out delicious hot cakes, sausage, and coffee to all comers. The donation of a large gas griddle to our kitchen equipment made this supper possible. There will be no parish dinners during Lent, and the Woman's Auxiliary will forego their usual social hour after their Lenten business meetings.

Services for this week include Holy communion, Wednesday, 9 a.m. with the Rev. Victor Kusik as celebrant; Monday, adult inquirer's class, 7:45 p.m.; Wednesday, Lenten service at St. Phillips, Laurel, with the Rev. John R. Symonds, Jr., as celebrant; Thursday, choir rehearsal one hour earlier, 7 p.m., because of the Woman's Auxiliary, 8:15 p.m.; Friday, Confirmation class, 4 p.m.

Hickman

Visitors of Mrs. Margaret Breeding Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wix and granddaughter of Harrington; Eddie Evans of Hobbs, Mrs. Manila Dukes and Fred Coulbourn of Federalsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Adams of Harrington were dinner guests of Mrs. Salie Wroten Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Nagel and son, Dale, were supper guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Noble Saturday. They all spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Andrews and Eva O'Day. Other visitors were Mrs. Billy Gray and children, Larry, Steve, and Gail, and Mrs. Frank Brown, and son, Dale.
