Democrats Put Fiscal Crisis Blame On Boggs

The Delaware Federation of Democratic Clubs passed only one resolution at its convention here Saturday and that was a unanimous statement placing the blame for the state's fiscal crisis upon Gov. J. Caleb Bogg's failure to "take prompt action."

The entire resolution read: "Be it resolved . . . that the failure of Gov. Boggs to promptly take action when learning of the financial crisis of the State of Delaware in the fall of 1957 and also the failure of Governor Boggs to carry out his duty to keep the people of the State of Delaware and the members of the General Assembly properly informed of the financial status of the State of Delaware is hereby condemned."

An expected floor fight over a resolution permitting the convention to endorse candidates never materialized and the resolution was not even presented.

The only other action occurred when the Young Democratic Club at the University of Delaware asked to have a separate director of its own and that it not be affiliated with any of the five subdivisions of the state organization which include northern and southern New Castle County, Kent County, Sussex County and the City of Wilmington. The students' request was granted and the constitution amended to give them a director. Ken Hastings of Laurel was chosen.

Samuel Albert was elected president of the organization succeeding State Insurance Commissioner Harry Smith who presided. Other officers named were John Bellere, Russell Whitby, Frederick Klair, Mrs. Dorothy Moore and Hayward Hearn, all vice presidents and Mrs. Louise Love, treasurer. Mrs. Frances Powell was appointed secretary.

Directors named included Mrs. Louise Rowan, Lew McNatty, Jr., Hastings, Mrs. Barbara McGrew, Bradford Holiday, Clay Weaver, Purnel Jones, Bernard Loftman, Joseph Bradshaw, M. C. Vaughn and Raymond Townsend.

Nearly 400 attended the afternoon convention at the Dover Field House and the dinner meeting in the high school cafeteria at which Mrs. Richard Neuberg, wife of the Senator from Oregon, was the speaker.

Also speaking at the afternoon session were Mayor Eugene Lamont of Wilmington who nominated Albert, National Committee member William Potter, National Committeewoman Belle Everett and State Chairman Garret E. Lyons.

Other dignitaries at the meeting included former Gov. Elbert N. Carvel who is expected to be the Democratic candidate for Senator this fall, former Rep. Harris B. McDowell, Jr., who is expected to again run for Congress, New Castle County Pleas Judge Robert H. Wahl; Vernon B. Derrickson, Kent County Chairman; L. LeRoy Smith, Sussex chairman and numerous members of the General Assembly including Curtis Steen, the Senator from Delaware and Harry Mayhew, speaker of the House.

Congressman James Wright of Texas was speaker at the concluding evening session.

Milford Ekes Out 60-59 Win Over Harrington Track Team

Harrington High's first full-fledged track team threw a scare into a strong Milford unit before bowing by the narrowest of margins Wednesday afternoon on the Milford oval. Millsboro was a distant third. Milford won over Wicomico High of Salisbury easily last week.

The local lads were hampered by two occurrences that might have reversed the final score. First, Dave Coady, who was second in the discus at Seaford last week, had to leave before he could compete in this event at Milford. Second, Coach Jeffers held out two fast men, from the mile relay, intending to use them on the 880 relay. After Milford won the mile relay, it was discovered that the 880 relay was listed through error and would not be raced.

Schiff and Wilson were double winners for Harrington. Schiff won the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes. Wilson took the shot put and broad jump. Bob was high scorer for the local team with 14 points. Dwight Hackett turned in another excellent showing with a win in the mile and a second in the 880 after a short rest. Dave Welch showed well in winning the high jump as did Don Garey in tying for first in the pole vault. Bob Garey, formerly a quarter-miler, switched to the mile and did well. Other improving performers, Manship and John Taylor.

Jim Temple, out for the first time, made a good showing in the pole vault. Edgar Wheeler, Becker, and Leonard Hurd, new junior high runners, showed a lot of speed in their first outings. George Pfeiffer, Walter Winkler, Lee Messick, Dave Martin and Dennis "Buck" Bradley, all dented the scoring column in the junior high events.

An interesting facet of the H. H. S. athletic program is the fact that with the inauguration of track and football, Dave Welch, Bob Wilson, and Don Garey will be the first four letter men in Harrington High history.

The results:

Senior High
100 yd. dash—1st, Schiff, 4th Wilson, 11.4; 220 yd. dash—1st, Schiff, 4th, Wilson, 24.4; 440 yd. dash—2nd, Coady 3rd, Bonniwell, 56.8; 880 yd. dash—Hackett, 4th, Pfeiffer, 2.22; mile—1st, Hackett, 4th, B. Garey, 5.15; broad jump, 1st, Wilson; 4th, Schiff, 18ft., 5 1-4 in; high jump—1st, Welch, tie-for-second, Manship-Taylor, 5 ft., 2 in.; pole vault, tie-for-first, D. Garey, 9 ft., 9 in.; shot put—1st, Wilson, 3rd, Coady; discus—2nd, Hollison; javelin—4th, Wilson.

Junior High
50 yd. dash—3rd, Winkler; 100 yd. dash—2nd, Messick, 4th, Winkler; 220 yd. dash—2nd, Winkler, 3rd, Becker; 660 yd. dash—4th, Bradley; high jump—1st, Lekites, 2nd, Pfeiffer; broad jump—2nd, Pfeiffer, 3rd, Lekites; shot put—2nd, Martin; 4th, Lekites.

The next meet is with Denton here, on April 23rd.

Micro Midget News

The boys got off to a flying start, some cars also were flying. Mr. Clark has his trained to run on its rear wheels. Seems as though he has been seeing too many rockets being launched and the only way to go is straight up.

I guess we should apologize for the parking lot but we didn't order all this rain just to lay the dust. However, this week, if the weather stays clear, we would like you all to try a ringside seat.

The boys have been busy every night this week with more dirt, clay, fence and drainage.

Last week was just a sample of what the boys have been doing all year. Some still have to iron out a few wrinkles; others are putting in a few.

The results are as follows: 1st. race—Foster, Mills, Schiff; 2nd. race—Lane, Legates, Porter; 3rd. race—Mills, Vincent, Billings; 4th race—Lofland, Brown; 5th race—Foster, Lane, Legates, Mills.

Bob Foster is the "Super Jet," from the Dover Air Base. Hoping to see you all at ring-side for bigger and better times. 1:30 Sunday; all FREE.

Harrington High Opens Season With Win

The Harrington High School baseball team took up where they left off last year by coming from behind, after trailing 5-1, with a thrilling storybook finish in the last half of the seventh inning, defeating Greenwood High by a score of 6-5.

The locals had handed Greenwood five unearned runs in a bad fifth inning, but there was nothing tainted about the winning run which won the game. Jim Schiff led off with a triple. Snooky Collins and Bob Wilson walked. John Taylor laid down a perfect squeeze bunt on which Schiff easily scored from third and the ball game was over.

Snooky Collins went the route and was the winner, while Davis went the whole way for Greenwood. Lack of practice, due to the poor weather conditions was apparent in the play of both teams.

The next home game is Tuesday with Bridgeville.

Three persons were injured in a two-car crash on U.S. Route 13 at the intersection of County Route 360 just south of Camden, Wyoming late Monday afternoon.

The injured are Rachael M. Hiltz, 51, of Briar Park, Camden, who suffered a laceration of the scalp, and Julia DiBonaventura, 34, of near Felton, who suffered lacerations of the head and right arm.

Both women were taken to the Dover Air Base Hospital for treatment. They were taken in the Dover ambulance.

Robert H. Quillen, 65, of Harrington, suffered lacerations of the arms and legs in the crash but told police he would go to his doctor in Harrington for treatment.

According to state police, a car, driven by Mrs. Hiltz, going west on Route 360, pulled into the path of the car operated by Quillen, which was going south on Route 13. Both cars were badly damaged, police reported.

John Schlagel, 48, of Harrington, escaped serious injuries when his automobile ran off County Route 314 near Bridgeville and overturned in a field. He suffered minor lacerations.

State police reported Schlagel was traveling south on 314 and failed to miss a curve. His car was demolished, police said.

Democratic Club Did Not Favor Endorsing Candidates

The Ninth District Democratic Club, which held a covered dish supper at the Legion Home Thursday night, April 10, does not favor the endorsing, by the Federation of Democratic Clubs, of candidates.

The club instructed its delegates, to the federation's convention at Dover last Saturday, to vote against a proposed change in the federation's by-laws which would permit the state group to endorse candidates.

Jehu Camper, a former state senator, explained: "It would break up the club."

Ninth district delegates to the convention will be Harry Hanson, Hyland Webb, Cathryn Simpson, Jehu Camper, and Leon Donovan, with the last named two replacing Mrs. James Wilson, who is sick, and Merritt Camper, who had to decline because of the pressure of work.

Jehu Camper and Donovan secured their appointments because they were alternates. Other alternates are Jack Closser, Harry Porter and John Minner.

Some 140 persons attended the supper and the meeting which followed.

Mrs. Mary Greenly announced a convention of the National Democratic Women's Club in Washington, D. C., April 21-23, inclusive. She added that a bus would take 41 Kent County women to Washington Monday for a dinner, on a first-come, first-served basis. Tickets can be secured from Mrs. Blanche Cahall and Mrs. Greenly. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will address the dinner.

Mrs. Allen Frear, wife of the United States senator, is president of the national group.

Franklin Hendricks, president of the Ninth District Democratic Club, announced the Jefferson-Jackson Day banquet would be held in Wilmington May 8. Tickets can be secured from Norris Graham or Ralph Hanson.

After the supper, Bob Collins auctioned off several cakes and some foodstuffs.

Guests included Louis Carpenter, president, and Ed Kirby and Jimmy Kingsmill, of the Tenth District Democratic Club, and Joe Strachar, president, and Representative Elmer Betts, past president of the Sixth District Democratic Club.

Mrs. James Wilson was chairman of the supper, assisted by Mrs. George Cain, and Lawrence Price was in charge of the entertainment furnished by Jimmy Emberlain and his band.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Legion Home Friday evening, May 9.

GIANT C-133 CARGO PLANE FALLS IN SWAMP

The bodies of all four airmen killed in the crash of a giant Air Force C-133 Sunday in Ellendale State Forest have been recovered, authorities at Dover Air Force Base announced Tuesday.

Air Force spokesmen said three bodies were recovered late yesterday, hours after the first was found. All four were in the forward section of the aircraft and badly charred by the fuel-fed fire after the crash.

"Frankly, we aren't optimistic about pinpointing the cause of the wreck," said a spokesman at the Dover base, which the huge cargo-transport plane had left only 10 minutes before falling into the dense woods.

He said investigating crews have recovered three of the plane's four propellers, which buried themselves deep in the soft earth. The fourth is still being sought.

Investigators returned to the remote scene east of U. S. Route 113 by helicopter this morning. They include Air Force officials and representatives of the manufacturer, Douglas Aircraft Corporation.

The Air Force says "witnesses" differ as to whether the plane was on fire before it hit the ground.

Killed in the wreck were Capt. Raymond B. Bern, 37, of Long Beach, Calif., the pilot; First Lt. Herbert T. Palish, 25, of St. Louis, Mo., the co-pilot; Tech. Sgt. Edward L. McKinley, 33, of Meridan, Miss., and Tech. Sgt. Marvin A. Aust, 29, of Hays, Kan., both engineers.

The Air Force said Captain Bern is survived by his wife, Eloise, and two daughters, Nancy, 9, and Vickie, 4. Lieutenant Palish is survived by his wife, Hilda; Sergeant McKinley by his wife, Connie, and daughter, Faye Carroll, 10, and Sergeant Aust by his wife, Betty Lou, daughter, Deborah Jo, 8, and son Mark, seven months.

New Menu Idea: Meat-Rice Casserole

Looking for new menu ideas that are easy and inexpensive? Here's a recipe recommended by Miss Marjorie J. Wormeck, extension nutritionist at the University of Delaware. It's a meat-rice casserole.

She suggests the recipe because rice combines well with all meat—and extends left-overs in delicious ways.

To conserve vitamins and minerals when cooking rice, do not wash it before or after cooking, the nutritionist advises. Cook in twice as much water as the volume of rice, using one teaspoon salt to one cup rice. Boil, covered tightly, 14 minutes.

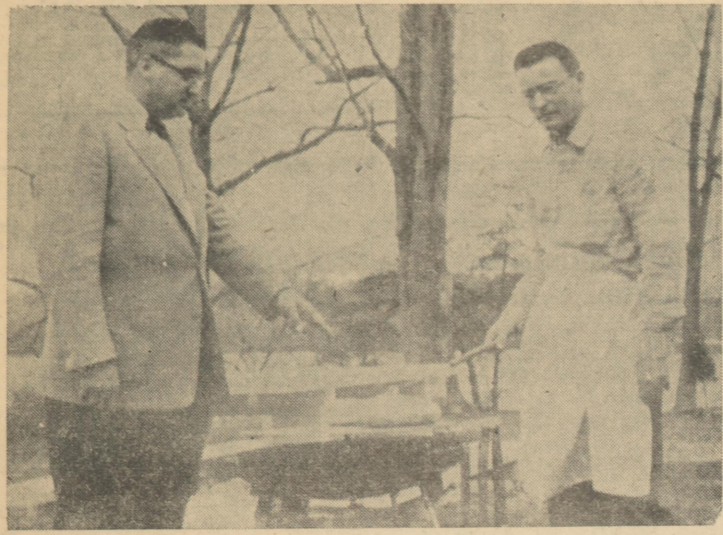

Ingredients for a sausage-rice casserole: 3 cups cooked rice (one cup before cooking); 1 lb. sausage links, browned and drained; 1 onion, minced; 10 oz. can tomato soup; 2 tablespoons grated cheese.

Alternate layers of rice and sausage in a greased casserole.

Boggs Proclaims May 4 Thru May 10 Home Demonstration Week

Gov. J. Caleb Boggs this week proclaimed the period May 4 through May 10 as "Home Demonstration Week" so that Delawareans might honor those enrolled in the Home Demonstration program, which, as the chief executive pointed out, "contributes so much to the character building of our youth and to the strengthening of our communities." Governor Boggs also pointed out that more than 2500 members of home demonstration clubs in Delaware, under the leadership of more than 1100 volunteer local leaders and the professional home economics extension staff of the University of Delaware, participate in what he termed "this significant educational work." The proclamation follows: WHEREAS, the family is the foundation of the community and the nation; and wholesome family living is reflected in the community in the form of well-informed citizens and leaders; and WHEREAS, it is in the family that the child first learns responsibility—toward himself; toward family members; and toward others; and it is the mother—the homemaker, who influences the character of family members; and WHEREAS, it is the purpose of home demonstration work to provide scientific and cultural knowledge for homemakers, with programs based on research, and designed to help families plan and manage their resources; and WHEREAS, more than 2500 members of home demonstration clubs in Delaware, under the leadership of more than 1100 volunteer local leaders and the professional home economics extension staff of the University of Delaware, participate in this significant educational work; now THEREFORE, I, J. Caleb Boggs, Governor of the State of Delaware, do proclaim the week of May 4 through May 10, 1958, as HOME DEMONSTRATION WEEK in Delaware for the purpose of paying tribute to our homemakers who are enrolled in this program which contributes so much to the character building of our youth and to the strengthening of our communities.

Frear Says Congress Should Meet Problem Of Tax Cut Squarely

United States Senator J. Allen Frear said today that Congress should meet the question of a tax cut squarely and take a definite and positive stand on whether or not a reduction in Federal levies should be approved. Said Mr. Frear in his weekly statement, "As Congress returns to Washington from the Easter recess, discussions of legislation to reduce Federal taxes are again being aired all over Capitol Hill. It is evident that the members of the Senate and House have found that their constituents at home—concerned over unemployment—feel that the question of a tax cut should now receive active and prompt consideration." Mr. Frear reviewed the background of recent proposals to reduce taxes and pointed out that leading members of Congress and the Executive Branch had been waiting for signs that the recession was waning. At the present time the Senator explained, "There are some signs that economic activity is picking up with the advent of better weather and the start of seasonal activities in some forms of business. Nevertheless, many business people and individuals believe that the stimulus to the economy engendered by a cut in taxes would be the biggest single boost toward economic recovery." Mr. Frear said that a tax cutting bill if proposed could cover not only personal income but excise levies and corporate taxes as well. In this connection he stressed the necessity of the need to relieve taxes on small business. Surveys indicate that a wide area in southwest Papua may support a large meat industry, Port Moresby learns.

Sulky Slants

By MRS. DAVE (PAT) SMITH

I couldn't hardly believe when I read about Warren Holmes being killed. When Dave and I left for Florida, Warren came over to bid us goodbye...

About the only one here at Seminole are Dave and Mr. Huber, Sr., and by the time this goes to press we will be on our way to Hamburg. Such a long ride up there when you have been over every road, back and forth...

Now that the big race is over down here in the quaint little town of Sebring, Fla., it is beginning to get back to normal. When I was down to the newspaper office the other day, a native told me: "I've seen every Cracker family I've known down here all my life down in Sebring."

Wasn't that some write-up about the multi-millionaire that wrapped a leftover pancake in a napkin, dropped a few cubes of sugar into his pocket and walked out of a coffee shop. A stranger would probably pass it off as some kind of an old man with funny ideas.

Commercial Firms From A Dozen States Expected As Exhibitors at Industry

Upwards of 50 exhibitors from more than a dozen states are expected to show their wares at booths in the Big Tent which will house the giant Poultry Industry Show at the 11th Annual Delmarva Chicken Festival in Denton, June 26-28, it was reported by Ed Covell of Denton, industry show chairman.

He said that letters already received from commercial firms who placed exhibits in the industry show at last year's festival indicated that expansion of the broiler industry on the Delmarva Peninsula this spring has heightened interest in the possibilities of exhibiting at Denton this year. Theme of the industry show at this year's Festival will be "Keep Delmarva Growing Through Better Broiler Management." There will be educational as well as commercial exhibits.

Covell said that all booths, backdrops and decorations at the show this year will be new. White has been selected as the dominant color theme for the show.

Detailed information for exhibitors in the show can be obtained through chairman Covell by mail at Festival headquarters in Denton. Deadline for those wanting to reserve booth space is May 20.

Radio Play Concert In Milford

For the first time in the ten years that the Catholic Youth organization has been conducting its annual radio play contest the scene of the contest was shifted from Wilmington to Milford. This year the contest was held in St. John's Parish Hall Sunday afternoon, April 13. Seven of the parishes throughout the Diocese were represented. Four came from the Wilmington area and three from the lower portion of the state.

First place was awarded to St. John's of Milford for their presentation of "The Third Devil." This was a script prepared by the "Hour of St. Francis" dramatic program. It featured Charles Crumb as Satan talking to some of his devils and admonishing them to send plenty of souls down the freeway to Hell. The second place award was shared by St. Bernadette's of Harrington and St. Peter's Cathedral in Wilmington. "Michael Has Company for Coffee" was the title of the "Hour of St. Francis" scrip dramatized by St. Bernadette's and featured Tony Perrone as Michael, the shoemaker who showered kindness on guests to his shop and thereby served Christ whose voice reminded him that "as long as you did it to one of these my least brethren, you did it to me." Both Charles Crumb and Tony Perrone received special commendation from the judges for the way they handled their assignments. St. Peter's presented an original script written by George Lapetina and James Gilmore directed the St. John's players. Messers James Coady and William Kohel directed St. Bernadette's group. The trophies will be awarded in Wilmington on awards night held each year soon after the first of June.

Keep Milk Clean, Cold, Covered and Dark
Milk needs the right handling so it won't lose quality—in cleanliness, flavor and food value. Containers should be cleaned, milk kept cold, covered and dark. It's a good practice to take each new bottle or carton of milk to the sink, rinse unopened under cold running water, and dry with a clean cloth. Then promptly put the milk in the refrigerator. Stored near the freezing unit, milk can be expected to keep good quality and flavor for three or four days, perhaps longer. When milk in clear-glass containers stands in a sunny window or unprotected doorstep, it loses riboflavin (a B-Vitamin)—and may develop a "sunlight" off-flavor in as short a time as half an hour. If milk is delivered in clear-glass bottles and can't be refrigerated promptly, it pays to have an insulated receiving box for it. Keep milk out of the refrigerator only long enough to pour out for use. And don't mix new milk with old except for immediate use.

Fabric Facts to Remember When Buying Sport Shirts
Warm weather is sport shirt time, and if you're going to buy new shirts for your husband, it will pay to keep several "fabric facts" in mind. These facts will help you in selecting sport shirts to be worn for different needs and on various occasions. Cotton is comfortable and absorbs moisture. It gets mussy when worn, unless it has been given a special finish or has been made up into a type of fabric that doesn't wrinkle, like a mesh or knit. Crease-resistant finishes are commonly found on cotton sport shirts. Rayon is comfortable but is weak when wet and frays along raw edges. It musses easily and often shrinks or stretches unless it has been given a special finish. Finishes are commonly found on rayon sport shirts. Dacron and nylon hold a press without musing but do not absorb moisture. They are more comfortable when blended with cotton or rayon or made into a porous weave or knit. If a tag says the fabric will not shrink more than two per cent—the shirt should not shrink out of fit. In knits, a label may tell that the fabric has been given a finish to prevent shrinking or stretching. Some stores suggest buying one size larger in cotton knits if a drier will be used. Vat dyes are high quality dyes used on cottons and rayons.

Annual FFA Judging Contest April 23 At Univ. of Delaware
Future Farmers of America members enrolled in vocational agriculture at state high schools will participate in judging contests April 23 at the University of Delaware. According to a joint announcement by Lyle W. Mowlds, state director of vocational agriculture and state FFA advisor, and Paul M. Hodgson, state supervisor in charge of teacher training, agricultural education, FFA members at the annual event will judge dairy cattle, milk, poultry, meat cuts, land, vegetables, tractor driving, and livestock. One FFA member from each of four state areas—New Castle County, Kent County, and eastern and western Sussex County—will enter a public speaking contest. An FFA chapter from each of the four state areas will take part in a parliamentary procedure contest. The announcement said the contests represent a major final activity of the year's vocational agriculture teaching, giving the young men an opportunity to demonstrate what they have learned. Awards for winners will be presented at the state FFA business meeting and annual banquet May 7. The place will be announced. Winning chapters will be invited to take part in regional judging contests at Springfield, Mass.; Kansas City, Mo.; Waterloo, Ia.; and Richmond, Va. All judging except some livestock judging will take place from 9:30 a. m. to 3:15 p. m. at the university farm and at Agricultural Hall on Route 896, south of Newark. Beef cattle will be judged at Ferris School for Boys. University staff members arranging contests are: Dr. T. A. Baker, dairy; Dr. W. J. Mellen, poultry; Prof. C. E. Phillips, seed and hay; R. F. Stevens, vegetable; Prof. W. E. Larsen, tractor driving, and Prof. A. E. Tomhave, livestock. Wilmer F. Aist, Soil Conservation Service, Newark, is arranging the land judging contest. Overall cooperation is being given by Charles D. Passmore, university farm manager. University agricultural students will assist with judging and will serve as guides and hosts to contestants. A buffet luncheon will be served by the University of Delaware Agricultural Club. Samples of milk for judging will be supplied by Abbots Dairies, Inc., Philadelphia. Company representatives will be on hand to demonstrate milk judging. Meat carcasses for judging will be supplied by Swift and Co., Wilmington, and retail cuts for judging by American Stores Company, Inc., Newark. State FFA President Raymond McCabe, Selbyville, will preside at a group session that morning in Agricultural Hall auditorium. School of Agriculture Dean George M. Worrlow will welcome the group to the campus. Prospective college students will be offered an opportunity to confer with faculty members and to see facilities.

Harrington High Set For Baseball Season
Harrington High's baseball team is hoping for a winning season and hope to match last year's fine record of seven wins out of ten games plus a tie game with Millsboro. Snooky Collins will again be Coach McDonald's number one pitcher with help expected from Dave Welch, Jim Schiff, and Jack Porter. The opening game with Bridgeville, scheduled for last Friday, was rescheduled at Bridgeville, April 18. This left the opener, scheduled for the 15th, at home, with Greenwood. The team's outfield is still unsettled having many promising candidates. They are: Ralph Poore, Oscar Melvin, Don Garey, Dave Welch, Ron Collison, Bill Manship, and Jim Collins. Jack Porter may be shifted to the outfield or can also play the infield if needed. The infield will have John Taylor at 1st, Ken Outten at 2nd, Jim Schiff at short, and Jim Temple at 3rd. Bob Wilson has been converted into a catcher after playing the outfield the past three years. Bob has looked good behind the plate, and Jack Porter or Jim Collins are ready for catching duty also. The baseball fans of Harrington can come out and see a game almost every Tuesday and Friday, varsity of jayvee, at the local high school field. Coach J. Norman Cotter has a squad of some 25 boys in grades 7, 8, and 9. He has only one 10th grader in his squad. The jayvee team is host to the Milford jayvee on Friday, the 18th. The complete schedule:

THE RAILROADS NEED HELP—NOW

Our railroads are the backbone of our transportation system. They are in serious financial trouble, and they have told their story in a lengthy series of hearings in Washington. Their plea for assistance is well documented, so that nobody questions the need, or that much of the trouble stems from governmental sources which regulate and tax the railroad companies and in various ways subsidize their competitors.

This is a time for action unless the national government is satisfied to delay and linger until some of the roads which are less able to stand much more of the financial strain go into receivership. Such a day would be a black one for our economy.

What can we in Delaware do about it? We can, and should, tell Senators Williams and Frear and Congressman Haskell that we think they should not only support, but press for legislative remedial action. We would like to see this session of Congress pass the following legislation:

SENATE BILL 2906, providing for a Federal Railway Equipment Agency Plan, or any other workable plan to provide shippers with additional railroad equipment.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVE BILL 7125, pending before the Ways and Means Committee, providing for repeal of transportation excise taxes now contained in Sub-Section C of Chapter 33, Internal Revenue Code of 1954. This relief is extremely necessary to stimulate use of regulated transportation.

HOUSE BILL 8381, known as the Mills Bill, already passed by the House, with specific reference to the tax proposal for 30 per cent depreciation reserve.

We believe that the Post Office Department should pay proper costs for the movement of mail, and make an adjustment of its compensation to the Eastern Railroads which have been petitioning for two years for their honestly-earned money. Could we wait two years for our pay?

These funds would go immediately into the economy as a recession check, and to our mind the Post Office funds would be far better used this way than in the erection of new post office buildings, in some instances not warranted at all except to make work.

NO MAGIC FORMULA

When does advertising cost too much? No business can find a ready answer to this question. But often a very large advertising expenditure proves to be inexpensive in terms of results.

For instance, last spring a Chicago department store spent $10,000 for newspaper space to promote a one-day sale. Yet, at the close of business, total sales for the day exceeded $2 million. So judged in terms of results the large advertising investment was small indeed.

At times an advertiser may find it profitable to spend a great deal to reach only a handful of potential customers. A Southern community spent $12,000 in national newspapers in an effort to attract a new industry to town. Only one "sale" was made.

Expensive advertising? No, because the single prospect located a multi-million dollar electrical appliance plant in the community. Each payday the advertising investment is more than recovered.

The best way for a merchant to make certain that his advertising budget is large enough for optimum development of his business is through trial and error. A fair trial will prove to some merchants that, relative to profits, more advertising may mean less expensive advertising.

Describe Jap Beetle Grub Control How do I control Japanese beetle grubs in my lawn?

This is the question several homeowners have been asking the department of entomology at the University of Delaware.

If a spring treatment is needed, apply toward the last of April. Our observations last year indicated that most heavy lawn infestations were in new housing developments.

"Water the lawn thoroughly after treatment to hasten penetration of the poison into the soil. If you wish to use a spray, apply either one-half pint of 45 percent chlordane emulsion concentrate or 10 ounces of 40 percent wettable powder to 1000 square feet of lawn. Mix the chemical in enough water to wet the area.

"Other insecticides such as dieldrin, aldrin and heptachlor can be used if available. Follow instructions on the package as to dosage and methods of application.

"All these materials are poisons. Keep small children and pets off treated lawns until after a rain or a thorough watering."

gus continues to come in and prices aren't quite so high.

All grades of beef remain about the same in price as they did last week, however, look for specials on steaks, ground beef and short ribs. Some stores will feature rib roast for 69 cents a lb. while others will feature lamb. Look for some good buys on veal also, since spring is veal time.

Harrington School Notes

More than 12 students at the Harrington High School plan to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, Mr. J. C. Messner, superintendent announced today. The test will be administered at the high school at 9 a.m., Tuesday, Apr. 29.

An estimated $5 million in Merit Scholarships and other awards are at stake in the national competition, now beginning its fourth year. Some $12 million in Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the first three years of the program.

Merit Scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, which conducts the competition.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests is a three hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

A group of 10,000 students—composed of the highest scorers in each state—will advance to the semi-finals when the results are reported to all participating schools next fall. Semi-finalists will then take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become finalists in the program and will indicate their choice of college and course of study. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship and extracurricular achievements will follow, and the winners be announced in the Spring of 1959.

The test results will be available at the beginning of the senior year, in time for use by seniors and their class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high school to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test, in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

Dr. John M. Stalaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, recently cautioned that there are many reasons why test results cannot be used to evaluate school performance. The distribution of the population throughout the state, the size of the school, the natives intelligence of its top students, the percentage of students taking the nature of the community where the school is located, the purpose of the school, and many other factors having nothing to do with the total effectiveness of the school can influence its number of finalists.

The test results will however, enable students as individuals, to compare their scores with other students across the nation. The test has been constructed by Science Research Associates of Chicago and will also be scored and reported by the testing agency.

Each merit scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner, and is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend in past years has been $650 per year. The minimum award in the 1958-59 program will be $100 a year and a maximum will be $1500 a year.

The names of all program finalists will be sent to colleges and universities and other scholarship organizations throughout the country. In this way many non-winning finalists are helped in winning scholarships awarded directly by colleges and other organizations.

About 1000 Merit Scholars, winners of the 1957-58 competition, will be named May 1, 1958. They are winners in the third Merit Program which began last October.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation directs the annual competition. It was founded in 1955, on grants of $20 million by the Ford Foundation and $500 thousand by the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Healthy Chicks Influence Egg Profits
Health is especially important for newly hatched chicks to be raised as replacement layers, according to George Vapaa, county agricultural agent, since replacements have great influence on egg profits.

This was the main point made today by the agent when asked to mention the most important items in starting chicks out right.

First, he recommended having the brooder house cleaned, repaired and new litter put in at least one week before chicks arrive. When the chicks do arrive, don't put them in a cold house. Operate the brooder stove at least 24 hours before the chicks are put in the house, so you can be sure the equipment is operating properly and the house is warm.

Check thermostats and replace with new ones where needed. (One check can be made by putting each instrument under a hot water faucet to see if the thermostat mechanism expands quickly.) Also check temperature near the hover with a thermometer. Have it 90 to 95 degrees at the edge of the hover when the chicks arrive. And watch the chicks to see if they are comfortable.

Place a check guard 15 to 18 inches high around each stove, leaving three feet of space between the guard and hover. Final recommendation was to set one gallon glass jars full of water in a circle around the edge of the hover. Use at least one jar for each 100 chicks. Chicks can die or suffer from dehydration due to lack of water.
