

BEAUTY PAGEANT NEXT WEEK SEES CROWDED FIELD OF ENTRIES

The Harrington Beauty Pageant will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Harrington High School Field House.

There will be a junior division and a senior division.

The junior division, or the Little Miss Harrington contest, will include girls who are three years of age and up to school age. They must have resided in the Harrington area for at least six months prior to this contest. The contestants will appear in party dresses. The judging will be based in beauty, personality, poise and charm.

The sixteen contestants for the Little Miss Harrington title are Debra Kay Beauchamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Beauchamp; Jo Anne Calloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Calloway; Gail Harris, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Harris; Sandra Jo Holloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holloway; Sandra Lee Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Irwin; Bonnie Mary Kukulka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kukulka; Toni Lynn McCready, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCready; Karen Elaine Minner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Minner; Jean Louise Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Price; Patricia Jane Phillippi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Phillippi; Deborah Lynn Schapp, daughter of Mrs. Doris L. Schapp; Cindie Lee Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman T. Smith; Connie Sue Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Voss Jr.; Debra Jean Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Voss Jr.; Michele Lynn Wilcutts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilcutts; Karen Ann Yoder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee Yoder.

The entries in the senior division will be competing for the title of Miss Harrington and the right to represent this city in the beauty pageant at the Delmarva Chicken Festival at Denton.

The contestants in this group are Janice Vernal Basham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanchfield; Bonnie Blu Betts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Betts; Maureen Boyer, daughter of Mrs. Marie Boyer; Lois Graden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plummer; Sharon Sue Lowe, daughter of Major and Mrs. Wilborn Lowe; Mary Ann Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons; Evelyn Joyce Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Walters; Judy Mary Weinberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weinberg; and Sylvia Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Willis.

An interesting program has been arranged to include the Harrington High School dance band, the Teen 'A' quartet, tap dancing, the Beep-Bop Boys and a chorale ensemble.

Tickets are available at the office of the Harrington Journal, Dot's Restaurant, Clendening's Drug Store or from any member of the local Rotary Club. Tickets may also be purchased at the door on the evening of the pageant.

11th Annual Delmarva Chicken Festival

With the number of applicants received to date for the Junior Division of the National Chicken Cooking Contest predominately from 4-H Club members, it appears that this phase of the contest may well be turned into a 4-H Club Achievement Day parade event.

Mrs. K. Thomas Everngam, chairman for this year's contest, which will be held as part of the Delmarva Chicken Festival at Denton, on June 26, 27, and 28, verified this statement recently in reporting that 4-H Club boosters have been done an outstanding job in urging their members to participate in this event.

Applications galore from individuals and 4-H Club members throughout the Delmarva Peninsula and neighboring states have kept committee members busy on a full time basis processing the applications and answering requests for information about the contest. Because of the tremendous response to this contest, anyone desiring to enter the contest who has not already submitted an application is requested to do so at once as the final deadline for the receipt of applications is but a short time away. The deadline for entries is May 15.

The contest is open to both boys and girls from 10 to 18 years of age who will be competing for an impressive array of prizes.

Winners will be crowned at an elaborate ceremony by a nationally known figure from the entertainment world.

Recently, John Howard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Ryan, of Salisbury, submitted his application to become the first boy entrant for the 1958 contest. Cooking is a family talent in the Ryan household and John will be accompanied by his mother who will compete in the Senior Division of the contest.

4 Harringtonians Find Missing Boat

Four Harringtonians found the Mary, a 15-foot boat rented at Lewes April 27 by three Pennsylvanians who wanted to fish in the Delaware Bay, in the bay Sunday a mile and a half off the Mispillion jetty.

The men, Ernest M. Smith, Marvin Smith, Ira Hoffman, and Roy Reinbold, were trying out Ernest M. Smith's new boat when they came upon the overturned boat Sunday afternoon. The 12-horsepower motor was still attached.

The Pennsylvanians, Mr. and Mrs. George Grosser, of Bechtelsville, near Pottstown, and Willard Kuser, of New Berlinville, are still missing.

The boat was found in the same general area where a lard can full of sandwiches and a buoyant cushion were found earlier. A gas can, identified as part of the Mary's equipment, was found near Brown Shoals, north of the outer breakwater at Lewes.

The Coast Guard took charge of the boat after the finders notified the Lewes station.

P. T. A. To Sponsor Play at School

The Beat and his Beauty will be at the Harrington High School auditorium at 2:30. The E52 players of the University of Delaware will take part in their 11th year at presenting fairy tales.

The play is an original adaptation by a faculty member and two university students: Thomas B. Pegg, who is also the director, Suzanne Kozak and Ed Myers.

The play is being sponsored by the Parent-Teachers' Association.

Golden Wedding

On Sunday, May 18, the children of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Lyons will entertain with open house in honor of their parents' Golden Wedding anniversary at their home from 2 to 5 p. m. Relatives and friends are cordially invited.

ASBURY AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Mothers Auxiliary of the church of Asbury Methodist Church will meet at the residence of Mrs. Clarence Jarrell at 8 p. m., Tuesday.

School Election Saturday Finds But One Candidate

Keith S. Burgess will be unopposed in the election Saturday for a single vacancy on the Board of Education. He will fill the post to be vacated by Paul Newman, board president, and will serve four years.

Other unopposed candidates include: William C. Eliason, Felton; Charles Fletcher Bryan, Magnolia; Lister V. Hall, Jr., Frederica; Francis G. Simpson, Houghton; and Lester Scott, Viola.

There are no candidates for election at Farmington. In such cases, the holdover members elect the member to the vacancy.

Simon Bullock Hurt In Lawnmower Accident

Simon Bullock suffered an injured right foot, involving the amputation of two toes, early Thursday evening, May 1, in an accident with a power lawnmower.

The machine was on an incline with Bullock in front of it with the mistaken supposition that the device was out of gear.

He is in Milford Hospital.

For running down and killing a Scottish visitor to Ireland, Belfast bus driver James McIlroy, 44 got 18 months in jail and was banned from driving for 20 years.

WILLIAMS RESIGNS FROM STATE WELFARE BOARD IN PROTEST AGAINST WELFARE EXPENSES

Fred M. Williams of Hartly, a member of the Kent County Levy Court, has resigned from the State Board of Welfare in protest against welfare expenses.

As Mr. Williams announced his resignation in Dover, there were two other developments in the welfare situation:

1. Edgar Hare, Jr., director of the State Department of Public Welfare, invited any Levy Court member or any other citizen to name any person receiving public assistance in Delaware who is not eligible for that aid.

2. The Levy Courts of the three counties, their attorneys and other officials, and members of the General Assembly will meet at Dover Friday at 8 p. m. for bi-partisan study of possible legislation to ease the burden of welfare costs on the three counties.

Mr. Williams was appointed to the board more than a year ago. Since that time the board has held 13 meetings, of which he has attended four. Last December the board directed its chairman to contact two frequently absent members and suggest they either attend meetings or resign. Mr. Williams was one of those. (The other was Michael A. Poppitt of Wilmington.) But Mr. Williams did not resign because of that, according to the letter he sent Gov. J. Caleb Boggs on May 2.

Letter of Resignation
In the letter he said: "As a member of the Kent County Levy Court, I cannot fulfill my obligations to the taxpayers of Kent County and at the same time go along with the increased spending program of the State Department of Public Welfare. I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the Board of Public Welfare from Kent County."

Mr. Hare's invitation was issued after the Monday night meeting of representatives of the Levy Courts of the three counties was reported to have discussed evidence of many undeserving persons receiving welfare assistance.

"The Department of Public Welfare," he said, "is extremely interested in locating any cases that may exist of undeserving persons receiving public assistance. We have a collections and claims unit which works full time on recovering money from persons who received, through fraud or error, public assistance to which they were not eligible. However, the amount of such fraud and error is not great. If we are missing anyone, we certainly want to know about it, and I hope all good citizens will consider it a public duty to report to any of our offices any actual facts of ineligible persons receiving any form of public assistance from the Department of Public Welfare."

Mr. Hare added that definitions of "undeserving" are likely to vary, and that the eligibility requirements actually in use are those set up by laws and by the State Board of Welfare.

Commenting further on the report of the joint Levy Court meeting on welfare costs, Mr. Hare declared that it is not the Department of Public Welfare that is making demands on the county treasuries, but the needs of residents of the counties, which must be met under the state's laws.

Hare to Reply

He said he will reply directly to the Levy Courts in a lengthy letter he is currently preparing. The Friday night meeting on welfare costs was agreed upon Wednesday in conversations by Emory N. Lynch, president of the Kent Levy Court, with the presidents of the other two Levy Courts.

The meeting will be a follow-up of the one held at Dover Monday night by the members of the Kent County with members of the Kent Legislative Delegation at which the welfare problem and its serious effect on county finances were discussed in all their aspects.

In Wilmington, Joseph F. Dayton, president of the New Castle County Levy Court, said he and the other two members will confer with the Kent and Sussex Levy Courts Friday.

"We're going down there and ask them to join us in supporting legislation that will place the cost of all relief at the state level where it can be better controlled." (Continued on back page)

Micro Midget News

Sunday was one of those days just made for racing, as the wheels went whirling around the track. Wheels were not the only things that went around. Champ Clark (ex-camp, that is!) lost the fan blade from his air conditioned super Mustang. It soared high in the air like a whirley bird.

Then Tom Brown did his tricks of the day driving car No. 9, spinning around twice on every turn. We should have advertised it as an added attraction.

We had the largest crowd of the season at the Blue Hen Speedway and also the most and fastest cars, sixteen and all running. I have it from most drivers and mechanics that they will beat Fosters No. 00 this week, learning new tricks all the time. We'll just have to wait and see.

Joe Gray did the boys a good turn, when he cleaned out the only mud hole near the turn in the first heat.

One interesting note of this racing business most people never think of, is who knows where or how the cars are to be lined up after a pile up. This job goes to two people, who every week volunteers their help, Clyde and Mary Tucker. They watch every car, but seldom see a race, as they check every car as it crosses the finish line. Its a big job and we "Thank You."

Also the women volunteer their services in the lunch stand. All money taken in is spent to better the track and also we are trying to put in a few seats for the spectators. No car owner or driver receives any money for their appearance. In fact every driver, car owner, mechanic or club member allowed in the pits are required to pay one dollar which goes in a hospital fund, which is our only protection while we put on a show for you.

This past Sunday the weather was so nice the boys added two extra races after the feature. The results of the first five races are as follows:

1st race—1st. John Porter in car 7; 2nd. Joe Gray in car 1; 3rd. Harry Porter in car 8; 4th. Paul Legates in car 191.

2nd race—1st. Bob Foster in car 00; 2nd. Joe Lane in car 49; 3rd. S. Clark in car 97; 4th C. Billings in car 3B.

3rd race—1st. Harry Porter in car 8; 2nd. W. Schiff in car 3S; 3rd. Cain in car 101; 4th Paul Legates 191.

4th Race—1st. Bob Foster in car 00; 2nd. Joe Lane in car 49; 3rd. Joe Gray in car 1; 4th Harry Porter in car 8; 5th. W. Schiff, in car 3S.

5th Race—1st. C. Billings in car 3B; 2nd. Paul Legates in car 191; 3rd. Marvel in car 12.

We will be looking for you Sunday at 1:30 if the weather man doesn't let us down.

This Battery Is Charged

Pitcher Snooky Collins and Catcher Bob Wilson, of the Harrington High School baseball team, have played a prominent part in the success of the team this season.

The Harrington High Track team, taking part in the first dual meet of the season, defeated Millsboro High 62 1/2 to 16 1/2 on the local field Monday afternoon.

Due to the facts that Delmar canceled out and Millsboro has a small squad the meet was somewhat curtailed. Since the visitors have no pole vaulter, miler, or mile relay team, these events were not held.

All marks are track records, as this was the first meet ever held on the track here since its construction some three or four years ago.

The home team was led by the all-around excellence of Bob Wilson, who totaled 21 points with three firsts, and two seconds, in five events. Jim Schiff, undefeated this year, one his 14th straight race, taking both dashes in good time for a wet track. Coady, Hackett and John Taylor, who tied for first in the broad jump, were other first place finishers for Harrington.

For those who have never seen a track and field meet, the next appearance of the local thin-calds will be a most interesting one. This will be the Mildort Invitational, a meet in which more than 15 high schools will take part. Hackett and Schiff of Harrington will be favored in the mile and the dashes respectively, having won those events in a Seafood Invitational recently. The date of the Mildort competition is Wednesday, May 14th. Qualifying heats will be from 3:30 to 5:15 with the finals from 7 to 9 p. m.

Harrington Track Team will have a dual meet Monday with Laurel here.

Saturday night, May 17, the team will run in the Dover relays.

H. H. S. Trackmen Win Over Millsboro Millsboro, 5-0

Harrington High School continued its winning ways by backing Jim Schiff with fine support and timely hitting before a large May Day crowd. It was the fourth straight win and the fifth of the season against only one loss. At this writing, the team is tied with Laurel for first place out of the 22 high school teams in Kent and Sussex Counties. Hits by Collins and Porter, a fielders choice, and a sacrifice bunt on which two runs scored on some alert base running by Wilson, sewed up the game in the second inning. Doubles by Porter and Wilson added another run in the fourth. Collins batted in the final run with an infield out in the sixth. Schiff struck out 7 in posting his second victory.

Asbury W.S.C.S. Notes

The W.S.C.S. of Asbury Methodist Church met Tuesday evening, with a very beautiful and impressive service. The program was opened with the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. The Society added fourteen new members during the year. The new members were welcomed into the society by Mrs. Mark Willey. The pledge of the W.S.C.S. was repeated in unison and the group sang "Bless Be The Tie That Binds" and Mrs. Willey pinned a corsage of gold and blue on all the new members.

There will be a cafeteria supper May 21, at Asbury Church beginning at 4:30. Tickets may be purchased from the members of the Society. Adults $1.25 and children 75c.

The zone meeting will be held May 23rd at the Calvary Methodist Church at Milford starting at 7:45.

Mrs. H. J. Dill was leader of the program entitled "The March of Mission Dollars." The program was opened with the hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be." Mrs. Dill read the scripture and then presented a one-act play with three scenes. The cast were: Mrs. Guy Winebrenner, Mrs. Floyd Nasser, and Mrs. William Minner.

The Pledge of the circles was made towards the budget of the Asbury Women's Society.

The society sang "Take My Life and Let It Be" and Mrs. Dill gave the benediction.

BID ACCEPTED ON EXTENSION OF SEWER AND WATER MAINS ON PORTIONS OF FIVE STREETS

Sewer Main Will Be Installed at $2.10 Per Foot; Citizens Meeting to Discuss Formation of Sewer and Water Authority on Wednesday, May 21

The City Council, at its regular May meeting Monday night accepted the bid of W. B. Mitten & Sons, Dover, for installation of sewer and water mains, with incidentals, on five streets.

Bid was $6904. Other bids were as follows: Joseph Richardson, Harrington, $7233.55, and C. C. Burris Jr., Inc., Middletown, $7590.50. The Mitten & Sons bid on installation of sewer main was $2.10 per foot.

The advertisement for bids called for 4-inch water main on Harrington Avenue from Center Street to Simmons Street; water and sewer mains on Ward and Thorpe Streets, and sewer on West and Mill Streets.

It was discovered, however, that Ward Street had a sewer and that Thorpe Street did not have sufficient grade for a sewer. The omission of these items is expected to reduce the total cost considerably. Water, however, will be put on Thorpe Street, with 250 feet of 4-inch main replacing a smaller one on Ward Street from Mill Street to Thorpe Street.

Work is expected to begin within ten days.

As usual, the Council had a busy session. It tabled the request of a petition to tile a ditch on the west side of a backlot street, or alley, as some prefer to call it, along the railroad track from Liberty Street to the Harrington Ice Company. The petitioners claimed the street prevented drainage.

Tri-State Concrete, Inc., of Seaford, was authorized to install a 15-inch tile on West Mispillion Street from the Pierre S. du Pont School to West Street.

In other business, the Council acted as follows:

Voted to repair a catch basin near the property of Earl Thomas on Clark Street.

Instructed City Manager Norris C. Adams to inspect a ditch in the rear of a residence at Delaware Ave., after the owner, Everett Harrington, had told the Council that the banks of the watercourse were eroding after the stream had been cleaned out by the City.

Vetted a suggestion of the Delaware Power & Light Company that the name of the City be painted on the municipal water tower and illuminated.

Instructed the city manager to send a letter to Jesse Trotta, saying it would make every effort but in reply to a request that a water main in Harrington Manor be extended to a residence Drottta planned to build on Shaw Avenue.

Accepted an award from the Ground Observers Corps of Delaware. The certificate was to have been presented at Dover April 19 but no city official was present to accept it. Samuel A. Short Jr., supervisor of the local ground observers corps, made the presentation Monday night.

Voted to get an estimate from the Delaware Power & Light Company on installing three streetlights on the southbound lane of U.S. 13, south from Simpson Ford to the city limits.

Voted to pay $3250 each to The Peoples Bank and The First National Bank, thus making the final payments on a loan incurred in March, 1954, for improvements on sewer and water mains.

Voted to hold a citizens meeting, Wed., May 21, at 7:30 p. m., in the Firehouse, to discuss the formation of a sewer and water authority. This authority, said City Solicitor H. C. Brown, "has about the same powers as a corporation." It could be formed by a referendum.

The authority would be composed of five citizens. It could issue revenue bonds without a referendum. Members would serve five years, with one being named each year. It was said that Bethany Beach has a similar authority. This group would have complete control of the use of sewer and water mains in the community.

Voted to pay $345, or half of the amount requested by the fire company for the purchase of 300 feet of 1 1/2-inch hose and 200 feet of 2 1/2-inch hose.

Voted to pay $659 for driveway, apron, and sidewalk on a lot at the corner of Mechanic and Dorman Streets which the fire company recently bought. (Continued on back page)

Rain Halts Opening Of Softball League

Heavy rains and cool weather prevented the opening of the Harrington Softball League this past week when the Harrington A.C. and Lodge No. 534 of the Moose, scheduled to play Monday night, were forced to postpone its game until today, Friday.

Delaware Power & Light was also scheduled to play Felton V. F. D. Tuesday night. This game too was postponed but no definite date has been set.

Results of other scheduled games this week will be published in next week's issue of this paper.

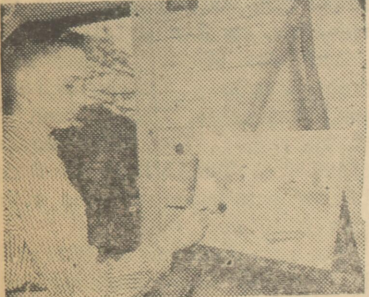

Next week's schedule which runs Monday thru Thursday, calls for the following games in order given: Delaware P & L vs American Legion; Moose vs Felton V. F. D.; Bond Bread vs Harrington A. C., and National Guard vs Delaware P. & L.

Tokyo has scheduled an "International Dam Skill Interchange Promotion Exhibition."

Art Exhibit Receives First Entries

Mrs. William Otto

David Lewis

Mrs. William Otto of Denton, Md., is the first artist to enter her work in the Delmarva Chicken Festival's Art Exhibit to be held in Denton on June 26, 27, and 28. Mrs. Otto is here shown putting the finishing touches on her entry, an oil painting of a red rooster.

Also shown working on his picture of a farm scene is David Lewis, of Denton, who is the first to enter the children's division of the exhibit.

Both Mrs. Otto and David are students of Mrs. Nance Hall Asher, Chairman of the Art Exhibit. Great enthusiasm is evidenced in Mrs. Asher's class, and in other art classes on the shore, by the number of painting of chickens and related subjects now in various stages of completion. Wide spread interest is shown by the number of inquiries received from professionals and amateurs from New York to Virginia.

It has been previously suggested that the subject matter of the entries be related to the chicken industry, but industries are encouraged in other subjects as well and will be judged on quality. The exhibit is open to all artists, professionals, amateurs and children.

Felton School News

The Felton School District will elect a successor to J. Marion McGinnis, as a member of the Felton Board of School Trustees, at the annual election to be held this Saturday, May 10. There will be no contest since the sole applicant who has filed is William C. Eliason.

Mr. McGinnis was elected in 1954 and has been very active in promoting the welfare and the progress of the schools. His background of practical knowledge was particularly useful in the planning and construction of the 1957 school building program, recently completed.

Mr. Eliason is a farmer, living near Laws Church, and was graduated from Felton High School in 1944 as valedictorian of his class.

MENU

- Monday—Vienna Sausage, baked beans, milk, pears, bread and butter.
- Tuesday—Chicken pie, tossed salad, milk, apple sauce.
- Wednesday—Combination sandwich, potato salad, milk, apple rice crisp.
- Thursday—Spaghetti with meat sauce, cole slaw, milk, fruit or pie bread and butter.
- Friday—Tuna fish patty, buttered peas, milk, fruit cup, corn meal muffins and butter.

Plans for the second annual evening of Fellowship were announced by Mrs. John Walls, vice president, at the Tuesday night monthly meeting of Trinity Church Woman's Society of Christian Service. A covered dish supper for all members will begin at 6:30 in the annex, followed by a short business meeting.

Pursuant to a discussion on circles, it was decided that the leaders would keep the same members for another period. Circle leaders are Mrs. William Swain, Mrs. Arnold Gilstad, Mrs. Harry Adkins, Mrs. Evelyn McKenzie, Mrs. Daniel Hitchens, Mrs. Harry Boyer, Mrs. Elwood Gruwell, Mrs. Earl Sylvester and Mrs. Willard Wright.

The Society voted to present a gift on Mother's Day to the mother with the most children in attendance at morning services.

Mrs. Frank O'Neal Jr., president, spoke of the summer school. In addition to her father, she lege in July, and reminded the members of the Society's willingness to pay the board and tuition of an interested member.

Announcements were read by Mrs. William Shaw, secretary, of the 18th Annual Meeting of the Peninsula Conference to be held in Salisbury, May 22, and the Zone 2 District Meeting at Calvary Methodist Church in Milford May 23.

The May pledge program was planned by the program committee. Participants were Mrs. Chester Wilcox, Mrs. Walls, Mrs. Gilstad, Mrs. C. Tharp Harrington, Mrs. Wilbur Jacobs, and Mrs. O'Neal. Mrs. Wright and her circle provided refreshments.

MISS EDNA M. DULIN

Miss Edna Marie Dulin, 46, daughter of Walter E. and the late Laura E. Dulin, died Monday in Milford Memorial Hospital.

In addition to her father, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Anna Walls and Miss Laura Dulin, both of Milford.

Funeral services were held yesterday at 1 p.m. in the Berry Funeral Home, Milford. The Rev. Robert E. Green, pastor of Avenue Methodist Church, officiated. Interment was in the Methodist Cemetery at Odessa.

points for the 8th grade and Jim Porter was top man for the 7th grade with 7 points.

Mr. Jeffers operated the meet and was aided by Bill Smith and members of the Varsity Track team. Mrs. Tillie Kukulka furnished the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place ribbons which added greatly to the afternoons enjoyment.

Cub Scout News

The Cub Scouts of Pack 76 journeyed to Dover this week on a tour of the new state police station. Trooper First Class Frank Melvin the guide for Dens 1, 5, 6 and Webos did an interesting display on the care and use of the pump gun, rifle and machine gun. The cubs had their first taste of tear gas during a demonstration.

The cubs walked into a jail cell, some having their first glimpse of the life of a law violator. The desk and radio room held their interest very much as questions were asked concerning message sending and receiving.

This proved to be a very interesting tour to scouts and the den mother as well. Trooper Melvin we want to thank you as this is an experience the Cub Scouts will not forget. It is nice to know our children have this protection.

The May Committee meeting will be held Friday 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Taylor. The May Pack meeting will be a cook-out at the fairgrounds the 25th, Sunday afternoon.

Felton Avon Club Notes

The Avon Club of Felton held their president's luncheon at the Dinner Bell Inn, Dover, last Wednesday. The president, Mrs. Richard Hardy, welcomed the guests and club members. The invocation was given by Mrs. Helen Harrington, chairman of religion of the Avon Club.

Mrs. Hardy introduced the visiting state officers, Mrs. William R. Money, state president of Delaware Federation of Women's Clubs, who gave a brief but inspiring message; Mrs. Clinton Brown, vice-president of New Castle County; Mrs. R. C. Moore, Sussex County vice-president and Mrs. Howard Henry, Kent County vice-president. Mrs. Hardy also introduced the 25 club presidents from the three counties, who were present. Mrs. Bess Hargadine, an honorary member of the Avon Club was presented.

Mrs. John Godwin, fine arts chairman introduced Doris W. Atkinson, chairman of Women's program of the Middle Atlantic District of the American Petroleum Institute who entertained the guests with "The Magic Suit Case." Music for the program were vocal solos by Mrs. Earl Field, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Martha Laughlin.

The club season closed Wednesday with election and installation of officers followed by a tea.

Sulky Slants

By MRS. DAVE (PAT) SMITH

Now that we have got settled here at the race track, and getting a little rested from a hectic long trip from Florida, I'm glad that part is all over.

The Cantons arrived last Sunday, and have their trailer next to ours. Really good neighbors. This year we have an ideal place for ours. Just a little away from the barn, and I'm getting a little bit on the lazy side when it comes to walking.

The trainers are really sitting into the horses up here, have a very good track man, that takes care of Batavia Downs also. Their putting on loads of stone dust, like they use up at the Foxboro track. If it rains you don't have to race in mud just sloppy. Dave says that at least you can see where you are going.

There is so much going on fixing this and that I wonder if they will make it by May 7. Still haven't put up the canvas around the track. And that is a big job. You should see some of the horses when that starts. Some go one way and some another.

Already here are at least 85 trailers. And Mr. Beihler says there are more to come. But the grounds are spacious, and plenty of trees, so there doesn't seem like there are that many.

The stables that are here look so fresh after the painting they get before they leave winter quarters. This is the only time I can remember that we didn't do the same thing. Seems that things get so scratched up that I wanted this year. Now it's been cold and I don't know whether it will get done. Oh Well, it could be lots worse. But it really has been cold the last few days.

All you hear up here is how many people are out of work. Everyone is wondering if it will have any effect on the betting business. Now I for one, don't think so. Why? Because on rainy nights you see none, but the betting is good. Now down in Florida you didn't hear all this about no work. Florida right now is booming, with all the defense work. The only thing that looks odd to me is the large Ford has moved from the Buffalo water front and that don't look too good. Around the big steel mills you don't see too many cars. Only a skeleton of a crew. But we took a trip to the falls and even up there no one was looking around. Even at this time of the year, tourists are always buzzing around. I expect we only knew the inside of a lot of homes many are wondering just what the outcome will bring.

Flower Arrangers Invited to Short Course

All people interested in flower arranging have been invited to attend a short course at the University of Delaware.

According to a joint announcement by Miss Katharine Jones, New Castle County home demonstration agent, and Robert F. Stevens, extension horticulturist with the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, the session will begin at 1:30 p.m. on May 14 in Agricultural Hall auditorium, Newark. The program will feature three experts in various phases of flower arrangement.

Mrs. Richard K. Delaune, Newark, will speak on Japanese flower arrangement at 1:30. She has studied in Sendai, Japan, at the Ikenobo School of Flower Arrangement, and holds four class certificates and a teacher's certificate.

Following at 2:10 will be Mrs. Roland P. Trask, Claymont, with a discussion of design in flower arrangement. Mrs. Trask is an accredited judge with the National Federation of Garden Clubs. She has studied at many flower arrangement schools throughout the eastern United States, including the Buffalo Art Museum.

Color in flower arrangement will be the topic at 2:50 of Mrs. John Cookman Boyd, Baltimore. Mrs. Boyd is chairman of the Maryland Judges Committee and State Flower Show chairman from the Maryland Federated Garden Clubs. She also is a past-president of the Maryland garden organization and former editor of the organization's magazine.

Judges Named to Choose Soil Conservation Winner

A judging committee has been selected to determine Delaware-New Jersey winners in the 1957-58 annual national soil and conservation awards program, sponsored by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. for 10 years.

Judges from Delaware are Richard S. Snyder, Newark, state conservationist, and Prof. Leo J. Cotnoir, University of Delaware agronomist. Dr. Linwood L. Lee, New Jersey deputy state conservationist, New Brunswick, and Prof. Wallace Mitchell, Rutgers University, will serve as judges from New Jersey. Dr. Lee is chairman of the judging committee.

Outstanding soil conservation district in the two-state area will be named for the year ending April 30, and will receive a bronze plaque for permanent possession. The district also will name one member of its board of supervisors and its outstanding farmer-Co-operator for grand award trips.

The two men selected will be guests of the program's sponsor on an all-expense vacation trip next winter to The Wigwam guest ranch and Goodyear Farms, Litchfield Park, Ariz.

Scoresheets of New Jersey districts should be sent to Dr. Lee at 103 Baynard St., New Brunswick, N. J. Delaware scoresheets should be sent to Prof. Cotnoir at the University of Delaware, Newark. Scoresheets entered by competing districts should be postmarked not later than May 15.

Winners of grand awards in national competition will be announced from Akron, Ohio, during July. The current program is the fifth on a national basis. The sixth national program began May 1 and will end April 30, 1959, with similar awards offered.

Caesar Rodney School Notes

Harold W. Parker, Moore's Lake, Dover was elected president of the Caesar Rodney Parent-Teachers Association for the 1958-59 school year at the recent closing meeting of the present year. Mr. Parker has served on the Executive Board of the P.T.A. for two years as chairman of publicity. He succeeds C. H. Callaway of Magnolia.

Chaplain Allan Harkness installed the new officers which in addition to Mr. Parker are: vice president, William B. Mitten, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. Ruth K. Sanderson; treasurer, Mrs. Mary W. Weik.

During the business meeting the following financial transactions recommended by the Executive Committee were approved; 1. the transfer of $200 from the inactive organ savings fund to the general fund, 2. expenditures of funds as follows: a. $200 scholarship for teacher education; b. $25 summer music camp scholarship; c. $150 for publication of "Grafik", school picture magazine; d. $300 playground equipment; e. $100 purchase of books for new elementary library; f. $25 equipment for teachers room; g. $25 first grade visiting day expense for lunch; h. $25 prom breakfast.

The program consisted of a display of art and industrial arts work from the entire school. Earl R. Schedit, high school art instructor and program chairman for the P.T.A. outlined the objectives in the various areas and introduced the following participating teachers:

Miss Dorothy E. Warren, primary grades, art and music; Miss Charlotte Wolhelter, elementary school art; J. Edward Morris, vocational electric shop, industrial arts and farm shop; Miller J. Gibe, industrial arts and carpentry; W. Frank Wolfe, vocational auto mechanics and far mshop.

Following the program refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the second grade mothers, Mrs. William B. Mitten, chairman.

A second grade doll show directed by Mrs. Virginia Dewey and Miss Maria Day was held in the new band room and attracted a large group of visitors. President Callaway expressed his appreciation for the work of the various committee chairmen and reported a final total of 953 members.

W.S.C.S. Notes

The Dover District Woman's Society of Christian Service has completed plans, in conjunction with the program committee, for the spring zone meetings, and for officers training. "Let Thy Light Shine" will be the theme for each of the six meetings. Mrs. Granville Tyndall, president of the district, will have recently returned from the Fifth Assembly, being held in St. Louis and will bring the highlights of that meeting.

Members are requested to bring the "Call to Service" book that was given out at the zone meetings last year. Roll call of each society will be taken and there will be new report books, guides, handbooks, circle leaflets, and much free literature available at the meeting for the work of another year.

Any special project achieved by any society will be of interest as it is shared with those present. The meetings are scheduled to take place at 7:45 p.m. and to be concluded at 9:45 p.m. They are as follows: May 13-Zone 4 at Dagsboro Bethel; May 15, Zone 3 at Middletown; May 19, Zone 3 at Little Creek; May 20, Zone 6 at Rehoboth; May 23, Zone 2, Calvary, Milford; May 29, Zone 1 at St. John's in Seaford. A social hour will follow each meeting.

Armed Forces Notes

Pvt. Franklin Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morris, Wyoming, recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training under the Reserve Force Act program at Fort Knox, Ky. Morris, 19, is a 1957 graduate of Caesar Rodney High School, Camden, and was employed by Acme Market, Dover, in civilian life.

Nurses should keep their romantic attitude toward their profession, said D. E. Coyle, surgeon of the Masserene Hospital, at Antrim, Northern Ireland.

Delaware Churches, Rural People to Observe Rural Life Sunday, Soil Stewardship Week

Delaware churches and rural people are prepared to observe Rural Life Sunday—the fifth Sunday after Easter—and Soil Stewardship Week from May 11 to 18, as part of a national observance first designated by President Eisenhower in 1955 to “help our citizens learn more about the true relation of land and water to their material and spiritual welfare.”

Taking an active part in the observance each year are state soil conservation districts, local farm organizations, and 4-H Clubs. Rural church members especially are expected to hear sermons regarding the spiritual values of rural life.

Both observances are sponsored by a number of religious, agricultural and other organizations, including the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., National Catholic Rural Life Conference, and the National Lutheran Council. The principal agricultural sponsor of Soil Stewardship Week is the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

In a statement today Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson said, “The rural community has traditionally been considered a repository of values and attitudes which make for a desirable society. We in the department sincerely welcome the help such observances give in interpreting and enriching rural life.

“Rural life is changing, instead of a single, homogeneous structure almost completely employed in agriculture, it has become a complex heterogeneous structure with great diversity of occupation. In this setting we must not lose sight of inherent values in the country community.

“Setting aside a specific time helps bring an awareness to both rural and urban people of the stewardship implications in the use of land and the conservation of natural resources, the development of opportunities for people—particularly our young people—in agriculture and in rural areas so they can work toward the goals to which they aspire, and gives recognition to the place of the rural family in our total society.”

Young people with a yen for competing in the Spring Flower Show Jun 7 and 8 at the University of Delaware were urged by Mrs. John Reese, IV, Newark, to file entry forms soon.

Mrs. Reese, chairman of the show's junior division, said ribbons will be awarded for the three best entries in each class. Prizes for first, second and third also will be awarded. Sweepstakes prizes will be awarded to the person receiving the most points in each group in the youth division. One group will be those under 12 years of age, the second group exhibitors from 12 to 18 years old.

Mrs. Reese listed 16 arrangements and horticultural classes for young people. Included in arrangement classes are a composition using any form of plant material in a kitchen utensil, an arrangement in a container made by the exhibitor, one of wild plant material in a tin can that can be painted, five flowers in a favorite container, a composition of fruit and/or vegetables in an edible container, one suggesting a favorite hobby, foliage with an animal or bird figure instead of flowers, and a corsage of any plant material with or without ribbon.

Horticultural specimens entered may be garden flowers from the exhibitor's yard, a plant started and grown by the exhibitor, a dish garden planted by the exhibitor, a terrarium planted by the exhibitor, a house plant in the exhibitor's care for at least three months, a collection of three different vegetables, a collection of five fresh field flowers or weeds, and five strawberries in a basket.

The Junior division chairman said entry forms and schedules will be sent on application to Spring Flower Show, Box 150, University of Delaware School of Agriculture, Newark. Completed entry forms must be sent from exhibitors by Thursday, June 5 to Mrs. Horace E. Hood, 238 Bassett Ave., Leedom Estates, New Castle.

Social Security News

The balance on hand in the Old-age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund from which social security benefits are paid still stands close to the 1957 record level of 23 billion dollars, according to Myron Milbouer, district manager of the Wilmington social security office.

Mr. Milbouer declared: “The social security system is self-supporting, financed by the social security tax contributions made

Board of Health Clinics

Third shot polio clinics are continuing in the area, as Delawareans fortify themselves against the coming polio season. Permanent polio protection requires the full series of 3 Salk shots. The clinics are being held to insure that Delawareans having won the battle for a safe, effective vaccine, do not lose the battle against polio itself. They are sponsored by the Medical Society of Delaware, the Delaware Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and the State Board of Health, with vaccine purchased with State funds. Especially designed for adults, they stress the fact that over half of Delaware's polio victims in recent years have been over 15 years of age. Local health authorities say that every person under 45 years of age should obtain the polio vaccine either from his family doctor or through the free public clinics.

Clinics scheduled this this area are:

Saturday, May 10, 9 - 11 a.m., Kent County Health Unit, 414 S. State Street, Dover.

Wednesday, May 14, 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. Clayton School, Clayton.

by workers, employers and self-employed persons.” He added that the payments into the social security trust fund combined with the interest earned by the trust fund assure the financial soundness of the system, leaving no doubt as to its solvency and full capability of making benefit payments to the present 11 million beneficiaries and the millions more to be added in the future. Mr. Milbouer said that actuarial studies show that the Trust Fund will continue to grow well beyond the year 2000.

Farmers Cautioned on Care of Acreage Reserve Land

Farmers who have put land in the Soil Bank's 1,58 Acreage Reserve should remember to control noxious weeds and otherwise take care of the “reserved” acreage, Joseph W. Ennis, Chairman, Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded growers today.

Under the Acreage Reserve agreement, the chairman explained, the producer agrees to take such steps as may be required by the County ASC Committee to present the acreage reserve from spreading noxious weeds. The only weed designated as noxious in Delaware in Canada thistle.

Mr. Ennis added that the farmer must also be careful about meeting such other program requirements as preventing wind or water erosion on Acreage Reserve land. Failure to meet any of these provisions could mean loss of payment the farmer would otherwise have earned for putting his land in the Acreage Reserve.

There is no reimbursement under the Acreage Reserve agreement for practices such as controlling noxious weeds or preventing erosion on designated land, Chairman Ennis pointed out, and payments for carrying out conservation reserve program are not available for land designated under the Acreage Reserve program.

However, farmers may be able to obtain Agricultural Conservation program cost-share assistance in carrying out certain conservation practices on Acreage Reserve land. Information about that possibility of receiving ACP assistance on Acreage Reserve land may also be obtained at the Kent County ASC office, 313 S. Governors Ave., Dover, Delaware.

Kent County Wheat Acreage Allotment Announced

The Kent County share of the 55 million acre national wheat allotment for 1959 will be 15,884 acres, Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee Chairman, Joseph W. Ennis, announced today. This compares with a 1958 wheat allotment of 15,522 acres.

Since the Delaware share of the national allotment exceeds 25,000 acres, the State has been designated as a commercial wheat state for 1959. This means that local eligible wheat growers will vote June 20 on whether to use the marketing quotas for next year's crop. The referendum will also be a factor in determining the level of price supports on 1959 crop wheat. A farmer will be informed of the wheat acreage allotment for his farm in advance of the referendum, Mr. Ennis declared. The individual farm allotment, he explained, depends on past acreage of wheat, tillable acres, crop rotation practices, type of soil and topography.

Australia has imported 15 Shetland ponies for breeding purposes, Sydney learns.

Soil Stewardship Week

The growing observance of National Soil Stewardship Week by both individuals and groups indicates not only man's feeling of kinship to the soil but also society's growing recognition of its dependence on soil and water resources, says Isaac Thomas, president of the Delaware Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

National Soil Stewardship week will be observed May 11 through 18. The event is sponsored by the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, national church organizations, together with their affiliated local groups supervisors.

Throughout the ages the sun, the soil and the rain have held an honored place in man's beliefs. His dependence on the soil for his very life gives man's use of this life-supporting resource a deep spiritual significance. It is appropriate that the clergy and the churches join with farmers and soil conservation districts in emphasizing to all of us the importance of each doing a good job of stewardship.

God provided the productive soil and the rain and the sun to care for our material needs. As stewards or husbandmen of the soil we honor God and preserve His earliest creation. We also hold in our hands our own welfare and that of the coming generations.

In this modern world we have solved the mystery of the atom. We are probing the mysteries of outer space. While we still probe some of the mysteries of soil and of plant growth, we have learned how to use soil wisely and keep it productive without waste. We have made great strides toward stabilizing, conserving, and using soil and water resources for the common good. But we have much further to go.

Do we as a nation have the intelligence and stamina to continue that progress in management of basic resources? Will we continue the development of the science—and art—of using land according to its capabilities and treating it according to its needs at the same time we further develop the other important sciences.

I believe we will, concludes Mr. Thomas.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—My father died as a result of injuries received in service and I plan to go to school under the War Orphans Education Act. Will I be allowed to change my course if the one I've picked isn't working out right?

A—Yes. As long as your parent or guardian agrees, and the VA determines that the new program is suited to your abilities and aptitudes, you may change your course.

Q—I'm selling our GI home because I have to move with my family to another city. The new purchaser wants to take over my GI loan. What can I do so I won't be liable for the unpaid balance in case he defaults?

A—If the new purchaser is willing to take over the balance of your loan, and is acceptable to both the lender and VA, it's possible to get relief from liability, which puts you in the clear. Apply at your VA Regional Office.

Q—I'm a Korea veteran, getting compensation for a service-connected disability. Lately I'm finding it's harder and harder for me to get work with my disability. Can I get VA assistance in helping me learn some other job?

A—You can. If you need training to help you overcome your handicap, you may be eligible for as much as 48 months of vocational rehabilitation training in which to learn new skills.

Q—I've had a windfall of a little money. Will the VA accept payment of several of my GI insurance premiums in advance

A—Yes. You may pay premiums annually, semi-annually or quarterly if you wish and there are distinct advantages in making advance payments where possible. Your VA office will explain these advantages to you.

Spring and summer months bring fresh inspiration to the needlework enthusiast. There are so many gay and useful articles which can be easily made and which will brighten up the home and the wardrobe. So now is a good time to get out the knitting needles, crochet hooks, and other tools of the hobby and see how many exciting things you can create at very little expense.

THE CHOICE IS YOURS

Whether your favorite is knitting, crochet, embroidery, or sewing, there is a tremendous variety of patterns from which to choose. Indeed, the needlework field is versatility itself, and many women are experts in several phases of the craft. They know its money-saving value, its relaxation benefits, and the joy of creating beautiful pieces. They also know what wonderful and welcome gifts hand-created articles make, the heirloom quality of the beautifully worked piece, and the smart individuality possible in planning and making items for the wardrobe. All of this helps explain why needlework is a timeless favorite among hobbies.

FAVORITE STYLE

Today's pattern, shown above, still another form of handiwork, weaving. No need to know how to knit to make this attractive stole. All you have to do is weave your yarn, with a long tapestry hook, through a rayon scrim background. It's easy, quick and fun, and the result is a stole which will span the seasons with charm. The completed stole measures 24 x 72 inches including the deep fringe.

Andrewville HDC News

The Andrewville Club was organized in 1930, under the leadership of Miss Louise Whitcomb. Since its origin, regular monthly meetings have been held with an average attendance of 17-18 members.

Early projects of the club were soap making, canning, sewing and cheese making. In later years however, the trend has been toward food preparation, home management, selection and care of the family clothes and the worthy use of leisure time.

Special effort has been made annually to observe National Home Demonstration Week. August brings the picnic, November, Achievement Day and December, the Christmas Party.

Contributions are made regularly to the Polio, Heart and Cancer Funds, also to the American Red Cross and the Delaware Hospital for the Mentally Retarded, Stockley.

The club observed its 28th anniversary at the home of Mrs. Frank Taylor Thursday, May 1. Mrs. Ruth Adams, Kent County Agent, was a special guest.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

A large representation from St. Stephen's attended the Church School Mite Box Presentation Program at the Cathedral Church of St. John, Wilmington, last Sunday. A busload of choir members church school representatives, and interested adults left the Parish House on Fleming Street at 2 p.m. Twenty-four vested choir members from St. Stephen's marched and sang in the long procession. Miss Viva Reed and William McColey went forward and made the mite box presentation for their church school. Billy Carter carried the banner.

Over 350 young people, representing the 38 parishes and missions of the Episcopal Diocese of Delaware, took part in the 1958 Lenten missionary offering service.

The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware, spoke to the children and their parents. The service was conducted by the Very Rev. Lloyd E. Gressle, dean of the Cathedral, assisted by the Rev. Edward John Dyer.

The program included a playlet depicting the work and needs of the Episcopal Church in the missionary district of Salina, Kan. Canon Brewster Beach described the work of the church in the missionary district of Japan. These two areas have been designated as recipients of this year's Lenten offering.

After the service the visitors, as guests of the cathedral, were served light refreshments.

The attendance was so great at this program, many of the adults could not get inside the Cathedral to hear the service or see the procession. Although an announcement was made Sunday morning that no evening prayer service would be held at St. Stephen's Sunday night, a change was made in these plans, because many who went to Wilmington did not have an opportunity to participate in the service. Therefore, an evening prayer was conducted by the vicar for the busload of adults and young people, when they returned to St. Stephen's.

Mrs. Robert McNally made a handsome new silk banner for St. Stephen's and it was used, for the first time, in the procession at the Cathedral. The colors are red and gold and white with the cloak of martyr and the words "St. Stephen's, Harrington" applied on the silk.

Last Sunday the United Thank Offering was held at the 11 o'clock Holy Communion service. Ladies who wished to contribute to this missionary project placed their blue boxes on the large elm basin at the rear of the church. After the usual Sunday offering was taken, Mrs. Robert McNally, president of St. Stephen's Auxiliary, brought the United Thank offering to the chancel steps. It was presented at the altar with the singing of the offertory "All things come unto Thee, O Lord."

Twice a year the women of the church make this extra sacrificial giving in addition to the regular support that they make to the parish and church each Sunday. The total amount for the year 1957-58 will be presented in Greenville at the convention.

It was a pleasure for St. Stephen's to have members of the 4-H Club of Harrington attend the morning service and take part in the worship. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin, 4-H Club leaders, accompanied the group.

Mrs. James F. Coady, Mrs. Robert H. Creedick, and Miss Anne Perry were coffee-hour hostesses Sunday.

At the spring meeting of the church club of Delaware, May 22, Basil Rathbone, well-known actor on stage and screen will be the guest speaker. Any prospective members who may wish to attend the dinner May 22, are asked to notify George A. Thompson, a member of the local vestry.

Dates to remember are May 11, Young Churchmen's Sunday; May 17, Acolytes' trip to Philadelphia; May 18, installation of Women's Auxiliary officers for 1958-59; May 23 and 24, senior high weekend at Rehoboth and rummage sale in Gaines Alley for the benefit of the Junior Choir.

Many members of St. Stephen's anticipate with great enthusiasm the coming of the diocesan convention at Christ Church, Greenville, May 13 and 14. A booklet of reports submitted in advance to the clerical and lay delegates of the 173rd annual convention has been mailed to church members throughout Delaware.

May 13 the convention opens at 3 p.m. with registration and hospitality at Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, Educational Building. The first session will begin at 4 p.m. in the assembly room. In the evening the convention banquet will be held at the Gold Ballroom, Hotel DuPont, Wilmington.

Wednesday, May 14, 9:30 a.m., there will be a corporate communion for all delegates and visitors. The second session will follow the service. After luncheon, the third and final session will be held.

Archie C. Ford will be the official delegate from St. Stephen's. Robert L. Nelson will be alternate.

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary held each year in conjunction with the convention will be Wednesday, May 14. The day's program will begin with Holy Communion at 9:30. At this service the United Thank Offering will be presented to and dedicated by Bishop J. Brooke Mosley. The Rev. Paul A. Kellogg of Dover will give a report on his recent visit to the missionary district of Puerto Rico.

After a coffee break the meeting will convene with Mrs. Kellogg presiding. Chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. Cyrus Day, of Newark, will present the slate for election of five officers and four delegates to the triennial meeting of the national auxiliary at Miami Beach next fall. On the nominating committee, serving with Mrs. Day, are Mrs. J. Edward Tikioob, of Rehoboth, Mrs. John R. Goehring, of Seaford, and Mrs. Robert McNally of Harrington.

The morning speaker will be the Rt. Rev. Arnold M. Lewis, Bishop of the missionary district of Sabina, Kan.

Luncheon will be served to the delegates, guests of Christ Church, at the Du Pont Country Club.

The second session will begin at 2:30 p.m. After a short business period, the newly elected officers of the diocesan auxiliary will be installed by Bishop Mosley. The meeting will adjourn at 3:30 p.m.

Twelve or more ladies from St. Stephen's plan to attend the convention and represent their mission at this important church affair. Mrs. Archie C. Ford will make the United Thank Offering presentation.

Ushers last Sunday were Messrs. Archie Feagan and Archie Ford.

Events and services this week and next are as follows: Thursday, 8 p.m., Senior Choir rehearsal; Saturday, Young Churchmen's Convention, Dover Delaware; Sunday, May 11, Young Churchmen's Sunday, 8 a.m., Holy Communion; 9:30 a.m., Church School; 11 a.m. morning worship; Monday 7 p.m., Junior Choir rehearsal; Tuesday, 10 a.m. Holy Communion and Holy Union; 7 p.m., Acolytes meeting; Wednesday, 8 p.m., Healing Service at Seaford.

Trinity Methodist Church Notes

Each Friday evening from 6:30 to 7:30, our Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at the church for worship, lesson and refreshments and recreation. All young people of 12, 13, and 14 years of age are welcome, as well as those of 15. You will find a well-planned and interesting program here, conducted by Mrs. Charles R. Cox and Mrs. Jack Redden for you. Please be there promptly at 6:30, so that we can be over by 7:30 in case you want to attend a school function.

Sunday School at 10 a.m. The morning worship from 11 to 12 is devoted to Mother's Day. The pastor's subject is "The Cherisher." There is special music for Mother's Day; the anthem is in two parts, "Break Forth, O Beautiful Light" by J. S. Bach, and "A Mother's Day Prayer" by Thompson; Alfred Mann sings a bass solo; "Bless This House" the Junior Choir also sings, and the organ prelude "Song of Devotion" by Rasley and postlude "Jubilant March" by Sheppard bracket the offerings.

In the evening, the worship program is in charge of the Men's Fellowship Class. Evening services start at 8 p.m.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship, senior division (16 and up) meets at 6:30 (back to 6:30 again) for worship, and lesson led by Frances Wilcox.

The regular meeting of the O.U.R. Class, Bailey Minner president, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Cox, off the Whiteleysburg Road.

Delaware Food Market Report

Locally, prices are coming down on fresh vegetables and, to a smaller extent on meat. The quality and supplies show quite a recovery from recent conditions - as a whole the over-all picture is brighter than it has been in some time.

Fresh green beans are definitely on the best buy list. Florida has a larger crop this year with the peak of volume being reached in early May, so look for good to excellent buys on this vegetable during the next two weeks. Be sure you watch the quality since nothing is a true bargain if it is of poor quality. Select those beans that are bright green in color, clean and crisp.

Fresh asparagus has dropped a few pennies again this week and are selling as low as 16 cents a pound in many stores. Cucumbers are down again in price, averaging 12 cents each, and supplies will be increasing rapidly from now on. In some stores you can find good quality peppers as low as 10 cents each. White and yellow squash deserve a place on your shopping list, also - this is another crop in big supply with prices as low as 13 cents a pound in many stores.

Other good buys are spinach, lettuce, carrots, and old white potatoes, spring onions and radishes.

There are more strawberries on the market this week. The Louisiana crop was late this year, but it now is supplying local markets with enough good quality berries at reasonable prices - 25 to 20 cents a pint. Pineapples are at the peak of their season. There are many small sizes on the market at low prices. The big pineapples will be special sale items this week and, selling around 19 cents each, the small ones will be even less.

Fryers remain the best buy on the meat market. However, good buys will be found on special during the weekend. These meat specials include such items as name-brand hams, steaks, beef roasts, frankfurters and some sausage. Spring lamb will be a few pennies cheaper since it also is the season. Nevertheless, it will still take a lot of looking to really stretch your meat dollar.

A firm in Peru has bought a complete $1,125,000 American sugar mill to move there.

Persia, just starting with TV, expects to have 500,000 set owners by 1963, Tehran says.

Order your Limestone now for even spreading by our modern spreaders.

W.S.C.S. prayer meeting on Monday at 10 a.m., in the Church annex. This is led by Mrs. John Walls for the W.S.C.S.

Doilies have always been favorite items with crocheters and the reasons for this are many. They are very decorative, crisp-looking, and because they may be made in a variety of designs and sizes are readily adaptable for use on any table. They may be white or colorful, plain or ruffled, and never go out of fashion. Whether you crochet them for use in your own home or for a gift, you will enjoy making doilies—always popular and always useful.

PRETTY AND PRACTICAL

Many doily patterns are quite simple, thus being ideal projects for the beginner at crochet work. Crochet itself has gained considerable recognition in recent years for practical purposes having nothing to do with the finished article itself. For all of us it is a hobby that is not only creative but also stimulating and relaxing. Nor is its popularity confined to any one age group or to either sex. Its therapeutic value is well known and it is a comparatively inexpensive hobby. Invalids, convalescents, and many of the handicapped derive great enjoyment and benefit from doing handwork of this type.

IRISH CROCHET

As far back as 1743 Irish crochet was winning handwork prizes, and connoisseurs of today still consider it one of the loveliest designs of the crochet family. By crocheting over a chain stitch, a rich, raised work effect is produced. The lovely centerpiece shown above is fashioned around the popular pinwheel motif with fine rosettes circling the center. Depending upon the size thread used, the finished doily will measure 15, 18 or 20 inches in diameter. If you would like a copy of the directions for making this ROSE OF ERIN centerpiece, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope of

"THE FOLKS THAT I HAVE KNOWED"

We have a small number of pamphlets of poems of the above title, written by the late J. Harvey Burgess, late owner of the Harrington Journal and self-styled "splitter of infinitives, mixer of metaphors, demon of the double negative, sorcerer of solecisms, perpetrator of the world's poorest poetry."

We presume he was also a dangler of participles. There have been several requests for this booklet, priced at 25c, but we were unable to comply with them. Fortunately, however, we uncovered a limited supply of this valuable booklet recently while looking the effects of the estate.

We also have a number of pamphlets, "Hosses, Hosses, Hosses" written by Mr. Burgess, and depicting Harrington's harness-racing life. The price is 25c.

When the above-named pamphlets have been sold there will be no reprints.

Please don't put campaign posters on electric poles

We know you don't want to be responsible for injuring a man. Posters make climbing the pole a hazard. The nails that remain after the poster is torn off are an even bigger hazard. They can prevent a man's iron spurs from digging in and cause him to slip and fall.

Nails in the poles are bad enough in the daytime, but give a thought to a dark, stormy night when emergency repairs send a man up a pole. The wind is lashing him, the rain beating him and thunder crashing around. You certainly don't want to add a hazard with posters or nails.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE, we earnestly ask that no one use electric utility poles for posting signs and notices.

Letter to the Editor

I read in the columns of your paper that Keith S. Burgess is running for the vacancy on the Board of Education in the school election Saturday, May 10, 1958.

I personally think the town of Harrington has picked a wonderful man to fill this vacancy. I have seen Keith to grow what he is today and will say no one on his mail route has to look out the door and wonder if the mailman will ever get there, especially if they are expecting an important letter. You can always hear Keith coming down the street singing.

I feel sure that the rest of Harrington agrees with me that Keith will fill the vacancy to the best of his ability.

Voted to install fireplug on Smith Avenue at Dixon Street. Fire Chief Doug Mills is making a survey of the City's fire-plugs.

Voted to ask the city attorney to investigate procedures for condemning a residence in Franklin Street after Chief Mills, who is also the City fire marshal, recommended it. Mills said the building was beyond repair; had its chimney boarded up, and had unsafe wiring and flooring. He added the property was entailed to three persons, one of whom had not been heard from in 25 years.

Clark Gable's "TEACHER'S PET" at Reese May 11-12-13-14; "SNOWWHITE & 7 DWARFS" May 15-16-17

Once in a great while "top productions" follow one after the other; all governed by what is termed a release date. It is only once in a "blue moon" that three super attractions are confined to a period of nine days. Such is the case with the listing of the Reese Theatre program in this newspaper; three all-star programs the entire family will want to see.

Tommy Sands is the star of "Sing Boy Sing," the sensational Fox hit abounding in solid entertainment, scheduled for this Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10, with Vera Ralston and George McCready in "Gun Fire at Indian Gap" holding down the second spot, with a big Happy Cartoon Carnival as an extra added attraction.

Opening Sunday for four days, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, May 11-12-13-14, is the hit all the newspapers and critics are raving about. Never before has Clark Gable ever appeared in such an exciting role as in "Teacher's Pet" with Doris Day. Here is one you must see because your neighbors will remind you to see it.

"Who hasn't heard about Snow-white and the Seven Dwarfs—a classic of long standing, which plays the Reese Theatre, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 15-16-17. As an added hit for the western fan, Lola Albright, and a great cast appears in "Seven Guns to Mesa" plus "Future Baseball Stars." A better all-family program could not be offered. Producer Control Prices prevail; Children under 12, 25c; Col. Balc. 50c; Orchestra 75c for this show only.

Williams

trolled," said Mr. Dayton. The president and his New Castle County colleagues, Russell W. Carter and G. Lester Cleaver, have been disturbed for months about the rising costs of general assistance. "It is just about impossible to ask for tight controls on this welfare and relief when there are two or three sources of appropriation," said Mr. Dayton.

General assistance, which could cost the county close to $1,000,000 in fiscal 1959, if the recession doesn't end, has plagued the New Castle County Levy Court for years. Walter J. Norbert, the court's budget officer, has figured out that if the approximately $900,000 sought for next year is granted this will amount to 19.5 per cent of the estimated budget.

Open-end Accounts Assistance, relief, etc., are open-end accounts. The Legislature has said that the counties shall pay half the bill. If 10,000 people went on relief, suddenly and legitimately in New Castle County, the expenditure could spend the budget.

Mr. Dayton commented yesterday that "if this keep up all the tax money will go for relief." Under the circumstances the Levy Court is just about reduced to an administrative agency. The law says the counties shall pay. If the counties are short at the end of the fiscal year they have to catch up by increasing the tax rate for the next year. The only out for the counties is that the Legislature also sets the maximum tax rate for them.

At Georgetown last night Clarence Lingo, president of the Sussex County Levy Court, confirmed that he and his colleagues will attend Friday night's meeting. They are John C. Mitchell, Ocean View, and Levi S. Wallington, Seaford. Accompanying them will be the county attorney, H. Edward Maul.

Mr. Emory said today that is desired to have all members of the General Assembly from the three counties, or at least as many as can find it possible to attend, at the meeting Friday night.

Mr. Lynch also commented that he was pleased with the deep interest exhibited by the members of the Kent legislative delegation Monday night and their disposition to assist in solving county problems regardless of politics.

The court president added that he feels certain that some good will eventually come of the efforts being made to clear the air surrounding the financial burden placed on the counties by welfare expenditures.

He pointed out that Kent County had to borrow $90,000 last year and has borrowed $110,000 so far this year, the majority of it to meet the obligations placed on it by Welfare costs.

Another point he brought up was that the records furnished the Levy Court by the Welfare Department do not show the reasons why a person is on the welfare rolls—only his, hers, or their names, addresses, and the amounts due them.

He reiterated that the purpose of the court's study is not to deprive deserving families of welfare assistance but to rid the rolls of chiselers, those who prefer to draw relief money rather than work, those who come into the state and work a few months and live on welfare the remainder of the year, and the other classes of spongers.

While a clearing of the welfare lists of such groups would, it is felt, go a long way toward helping the situation, it is contended that the increasing amount required of Kent County is more that the county can bear without going broke. There must be some limit placed on what amounts should be required of the county by the welfare department so that the county will "know where it and its taxpayers stand," it is argued.

The estimates of the Welfare Department for Kent County for the coming year are: aid to dependent children, total of $228,200 payable by the county and state, each, $38,800, and through federal funds, $156,600; general assistance, total of $251,400, the county and state sharing the responsibility on a fifty-fifty basis.

The lactation summary illustrates a principle that as a cow moves into her third or fourth lactation, her records usually improve. A second point to remember is that the longer a cow can profitably stay in the herd, the less a farmer needs to write off as cow investment cost per year. Usually it takes about two years of production to recover the initial cost of raising the animal to milking age.

ments is another point of good management. Jeanne was out of a grade cow in the family herd. Her sire was a registered Holstein bull from the neighboring Harry Neese herd of Wyoming. This latter herd is now managed by Woodrow Haas.

May Mart A Success

The May Mart Day of 1958 held Friday at the Harrington School was indeed a wonderful success. There were games, prizes, refreshments, and entertainment for all. The May Mart proceeds totaled over $400 which will be used in the future for school equipment.

The committees and plans for May Mart Day were begun in March; it is evident that much time and effort has been spent to make this a joyous day. Many thanks for the co-operation of the P.T.A., teachers, parents, children, newspapers, radio stations, chairmen, and their committees, for making this a successful event.

Congratulations to Mrs. O'Neal's room for winning the patron contest.

Jeanne — A Real Milker

"The older gals in the dairy herd are the ones that yap off best" says Bill Webb, young son of M. T. Webb and Sons living west of Dover, near Mud Mill. He was speaking of one of his eight year old dairy cows, Jeanne, a grade Holstein who milked out 103 pounds of milk on her last DHIA test day.

Jeanne started her sixth lactation March 1, in time for the county changeover to the new electronic processing record keeping system. She weighed 1400 pounds at freshening but soon lost much of it. Mr. Webb feels that aptimum pasture conditions this spring helped considerably in producing this 103 pounds of milk.

Her complete DHIA lactations follow:

Table with 4 columns: Days, Milk, Lbs., Fat.
1st - 406 days 11888 362
2nd - 376 days 15807 579
3rd - 308 days 14462 460
4th - 321 days 17191 519
5th - 309 days 16939 550

The estimates of the Welfare Department for Kent County for the coming year are: aid to dependent children, total of $228,200 payable by the county and state, each, $38,800, and through federal funds, $156,600; general assistance, total of $251,400, the county and state sharing the responsibility on a fifty-fifty basis.

Highway Department Experimenting With New System For Intersection Traffic

The initial effort in this direction has been placed at the intersection of State Street, the Governor's Avenue Boulevard and Walker Road Intersection, at the Northern limits of Dover.

The area between the traffic routes at this intersection have been painted green, representative of an earth divider between traffic lanes and traffic lanes are clearly marked at the intersection.

The painted area has been reflectorized so that it will show plainly at night. It is visible for quite a distance in the daytime.

William Carrow, Traffic Engineers for the State Highway Department, who directed this innovation, states that the results will be closely watched and if the system proves successful, it will be placed at a number of similar highway intersections throughout the State.

Mr. Carrow said that the type of paint used for this intersection is known as a "Traffic Green" and the material for the reflector was added to the paint as it was being placed in the intersection.

Highway Department Experimenting With New System For Intersection Traffic
The work of patching and reconstruction of highways that were damaged by the heavy snow storms during the recent winter months, got underway in every section of the State this week.

Alfred W. Joseph, Maintenance Engineer of the State Highway Department, announces that he has completed arrangements with a number of contractors to put crews to work in many sections.

Contractors will have several crews doing this work at the same time, according to Mr. Joseph, who indicated that the work will be speeded as rapidly as possible.

In New Castle County the services of the following contractors have been procured for this work, Wilson Contracting Co., New Castle; Henry C. Eastburn & Son, Newark; George and Lynch, Inc. Wilmington; John Julian Construction Co., Elsmere; Gregg & Ferrara, Wilmington; and Pacciolo Paving and Construction Co. Wilmington.

In Kent County the contractors who will do the work are Burger Construction Corporation and Edgel Construction Co., Inc. both of Dover. Delmarva Asphalt Company, Seaford, will do the work in Sussex County.

The contractors working in Kent and Sussex Counties will have several crews doing this work in various sections of the county.
