William W. Shaw was elected president of the Harrington High School Alumni Association at the annual reunion Saturday night, at a dinner in the cafeteria of the high school.

Other officers elected were as follows: Vice president, Luther Hatfield; recording secretary, Lucy Jerread; corresponding secretary, Lela Taylor, and treasurer, Robert Taylor.

Approximately 500 persons, including alumni, guests, and members of this year's graduating class attended the second annual reunion, which was followed by a dance in the field house.

The dinner opened with an invocation by J. C. Messner, superintendent of schools since 1926, followed by group singing led by Randall Knox. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Larry Simpson sang several solos and, with Kenneth Aiken, sang some duets.

Among the guests introduced was Louis C. Robinson, of Chestertown, Md., who was principal here in 1909. He added he was celebrating the 50th anniversary of his graduation from Washington College.

Wilbur Jump, of Houston, principal here from 1910 to 1915, said he started here in the old wooden building, now Hall's Apartments and moved to the brick building, at the corner of Center and Dorman Streets, when it was constructed in 1912. He added that much credit for the edifice must be given the late Mr. and Mrs. John Sheldrake. Mr. Sheldrake was a state senator at the time and played a part in the legislation securing the building.

Classes were then introduced with Mrs. Sally Hammond Spencer '88, of Camden, representing the oldest class, followed by William W. Sharp '89.

The cafeteria was tastefully decorated, with wall panels showing pupils in costumes of the periods from 1900 to 1958.

Outgoing officers were as follows: Toastmaster Herman C. Brown '42, president; Luther Hatfield '42, vice president; Mrs. W. C. Burgess '36, recording secretary; Mrs. Jeanette Legates '44, corresponding secretary; Keith S. Burgess '40, historian, and Donald L. Kent '44, treasurer.

The alumni who had banquet reservations will be identified next week, with two pictures left out because of space problems.

Micro Midget News

And a good day was had by all! All except a few drivers, their luck didn't hold so well. One of the good drivers set out the races Sunday and he really enjoyed himself. So take it from me, when a driver can sit in the stand and watch a race and enjoy it, they must be good.

You can tell the boys are going big time, by the way they change drivers in pit stops. The reason for this is the points, you can't win points unless you run, so when one driver sleeps, why "Pat Fry" runs to win for the team.

Talk of big time racing, for May 30, "Memorial Day," we are lining up some extra good races, with trophies to the winners and runner ups in the feature race.

This is news to the drivers, and will be until the race is over Memorial Day at the Blue Hen Raceway. Races will be as usual this Sunday.

One of the new members and car took the checkered flag in the feature race. The car and driver may be new, but the mechanic is old. I hear it's Ed Henry of Denton, one of the stock car boys going little car.

Here is the run down on last Sundays races.

1st Race—1 Clarence Billings in car 3B; 2, H. Brown in car 9; 3, Carlson in car 12.

2nd Race—1 S. Clark in car 97; 2, P. Legates in car 7; 3, J. Gray in car 1.

3rd Race—1, H. Porter in car 8; 2, J. Lane in car 49; 3, J. Gray in car 1.

4th Race—1, H. Brown in car 9; 2, H. Porter in car 8; 3, C. Billings in car 3B.

5th Race—1, P. Legates in Car 7; 2, Carlson in Car 12; 3, T. Brown in car 101.

6th Race—"Feature Race"—1, Carlson in car 12; 2, C. Billings in car 3B; 3, J. Lane in car 49; 4, Mills in car 30.

Hope to see everyone out to the races Sunday, and less dust. The boys are all suppose to work on this problem this week. Let's hope they do a good job.

Formation of Sewer, Water Authority To Be Decided at June Referendum

The Winnah!

A referendum for the formation of a sewer and water authority will be held here Tues., June 18, from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m., daylight saving time. All taxpayers will be eligible to vote. The election will be determined by a simple majority.

The City Council passed the resolution Wednesday night, following a citizens meeting at the Firehouse, after discussing the formation of the authority and voting unanimously for the referendum.

At the start of the meeting, the citizens voted for Mayor Dr. Hewitt Smith as presiding officer, with City Clerk Kathryn Simpson as secretary. Attorney Jack P. White, of Dover, represented the city solicitor, Herman C. Brown.

White read a synopsis of the history and bill authorizing the formation of the sewer and water authority. He said it was authorized by the Legislature in 1953 and that it was in effect at Fenwick Island.

The act creates a separate corporation which must be approved by the Secretary of State. The SWA operates independently of the City and will be operated by a commission of five citizens, which can include Council members.

The life of the SWA is 50 years. It can borrow money, White explained, with no limitation, but must have security. It can not borrow on the faith of the City.

All expenses of the authority, including salaries, will be paid by the authority. It can adopt by-laws, make amendments, have its own seal, sue and be sued, and can acquire land, the attorney pointed out.

It can issue revenue bonds, fix rates, enter into contracts, and can charge a tapping fee, but cannot compete with a company having similar functions. It can receive federal aid.

Near the start of the meeting, Earl Sylvester, former mayor and former senator, said, "If this is the best thing, I am for it." He added common good must be considered and hinted that Harrington Manor, which does not have a sewer, could be a health problem jeopardizing the children particularly.

Sylvester thought Harrington Manor was the only place for widespread residential expansion. He believed the future of the City should be considered and thought every organization should support sections of the City needing sewer.

Councilman Allen Rutledge of the Second Ward thought the SWA was the businesslike way and named places in the community needing sewer and water. He added the SWA would operate as a utility. The authority can issue revenue bonds without a referendum, as the City must do.

Rutledge concluded by saying he felt that the formation of an SWA was better than a proposed amendment to the City Charter, which would compel owners of abutting property to pay for sewer installation, which has bogged down in the Legislature.

Mayor Smith said municipal bonds are tax exempt.

The public is given an opportunity each year at this time to help in the great work of the American Legion, as well as the opportunity to pay tribute to all who died in the service at our country, by wearing a Poppy on Poppy Day.

IT CAN BE DONE

Most of the progress of the ages was made by those who said, "It can be done," and then proceeded to exert themselves. We are a great believer in the ability of the individual.

We believe, for example, that industry can be induced to locate in Harrington despite the wry remarks of those who question, "What have we to offer?"

We retort, "What are YOU doing to help the situation?" An individual can do a lot, but he can get more work done if he is an integral part of a co-operative effort in which most of the community is taking part.

It can be done.
 We recall an article by Charles F. Kettering, that grand old man of General Motors, in The Saturday Evening Post, of May 17.

Discussing his invention of the self-starter for auto motors, he writes, "Eventually we did produce an electric starter, a modification of which became production equipment on the 1912 Cadillac.

"This outraged the electrical-equipment engineers. They looked at their formulas and said it was impossible, that we would need batteries and an electric motor larger than the engine itself and wires five times as heavy as we used."

It formerly took one to two weeks to paint a car. Now it takes an hour, despite the contentions of the can't-do-it boys.

Before ethyl gas was perfected for widespread use, General Motors had to perfect a method of extracting huge quantities of bromine from the ocean. The chemists said it was impractical so GM now extracts 120 millions pounds of bromine from the sea annually.

The Wright Brothers had been flying a plane two years before the patent office told them the thing was impossible.

GM laboratories perfected Freon gas despite the warning from chemists it ought to stay free of fluorine compound.

It perfected a new lubricant from a substance which was supposed to have no viscosity whatever.

It can be done.

The Senior Choir's anthem is "Breathe on Me, Breath of God," by Gillette; the prelude on the organ by Mr. Brobst, "Chansonette" by Clarke and Postlude "Thine is the Greatness" by Nordman.

Democratic Club Wants Speaker

A prominent speaker will be secured for a covered-dish supper, to be held Fri., June 27, it was decided Friday evening at a meeting of the Ninth District Democratic Club at the American Legion Home.

Jack Holloway, Ernest Killen, Norris Graham, and Charlie Hopkins were named to a committee to secure the speaker, while Mrs. James Wilson was named supper chairman with the authority to name the remainder of her committee.

A letter from the State Federation of Democratic Clubs inquired into the feasibility of holding a clam bake, picnic, or ox roast and the club favored the last-named event.

to obligate themselves to raise $750,000, for an expansion program at Wesley Junior College in Dover, an average of about $3750 per charge. It cost them about $36,000 last year for operating expenses, and an average of $180 per charge. There were 187 full-time students, of whom 72 were Methodists from the Peninsula Conference area.

In his talk to the incoming members of the Conference, Bishop Oxnam pointed out that a preacher should be seen, as well as heard on Sundays; that once a pastor is appointed to a new charge he should stay away from his old one completely and let the new pastor take over, and that a pastor should not yield to the new fad which demands that he try to be a psychiatrist, because competent psychiatrists warn of the danger-mental counseling takes years of specialized study and supervised practice before a doctor can be entrusted with the minds of people. On the other hand, he warned people about trying to tell a pastor how to preach or run his business; the pastor is a professional man, and one would not tell a physician how to treat a problem in disease or health.

The O.U.R. class elected officers for the coming year: president, Charles Lare; vice-president, Mrs. Arnold Rothermel; secretary, Mrs. Musetta Cox; treasurer, John Minner. The June meeting is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shockley.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I'm a veteran with a service connected disability. Can I just go to my own doctor for treatment and have him send the bill to VA?

A—No. He first must obtain VA approval, before he may treat your service-connected condition at Government expense.

Q—I'm starting school this fall under the Korean GI Bill. Will I get a training allowance check from the VA the day I begin, or will I have to wait longer?

A—Because of requirements in the law, it will take about two months for your first VA check to reach you. So be sure you have money enough with you to last you that long. But you will receive a VA allowance to cover every month of your GI training.

Q—I understand the new GI loan deadline for World War II veterans is July 25, 1960. Does that mean I can wait until then before I ask a lender for a GI loan?

A—No. The lender must have agreed to make you the loan, and must have requested VA's approval, before the deadline date.

Q—I'm taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. Is there a ceiling on what I can earn and still receive VA allowance?

A—Yes. There is a $310-a-month ceiling. When your combined training allowance and earnings exceed that amount, VA will reduce your allowance accordingly.

Chicken Recipes Bring Honors to Maryland Farm Wife

If you are looking for new and better ways to cook chicken, Mrs. Ross E. Smith of Our Ladies Manor Farm between Monkton and Jarrettsville, Md., can supply the answers. For eight years running, Mrs. Smith has competed against the nation's best home chicken cooks in the National Chicken Cooking Contest at the annual Delmarva Chicken Festival on the Eastern Shore. In two of these years she has captured one of the major prizes. And for this year's competition at Denton, Md., June 26-28 she has already perfected a secret new chicken recipe which she thinks is her best yet.

This champion farm cook has the happy faculty of being able to teach her cooking skills to others. Since 1949, Mrs. Smith or her eight daughters or daughters-in-law have carried off no fewer than eight major prizes from the Delmarva Festival's National Chicken Cooking Contest—Seven kitchen ranges and one sewing machine. In addition, they have won nine of the lesser prizes by finishing somewhere among the top twenty-five contestants.

Mrs. Smith, who loves to cook, is never happier than when she is in the kitchen trying new recipes or preparing old favorites. Her recipes are far from being complicated or fancied up, but Mrs. Smith insists that the ingredients and preparation must be exacting. Chicken must always be cooked thoroughly and seasoned properly, she emphasizes.

Newly published collection of the eight top prize-winning chicken recipes from this family of champion of cooks is now available, without charge, by writing to Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc., R.F.D. No. 2, Box 35-A, Georgetown, Delaware. From this attractively illustrated booklet, entitled "Mrs. Ross Smith's Famous Delmarva Chicken Recipes," comes the following superb way to fry chicken, the recipe which won Mrs. Smith one of the top prizes in the first chicken cooking contest held in 1949:

HARFORD FRIED CHICKEN

1 cup evaporated milk, 1/8 teaspoon thyme, 1 ready-to-cook Delmarva Chicken, 2 1/2 to 3 pounds, cut up, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup flour, 1/2 cup shortening or butter. Scald evaporated milk with thyme; cool. Place chicken in evaporated milk for 10 to 15 minutes; remove and dip lightly in the seasoned flour. Fry very slowly in hot fat until golden brown; then cover and let steam over very low heat for 20 minutes, or until tender. Remove cover and crisp for 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS... MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!

New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title is standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s

Pound for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3"! This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!

This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8 with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.

These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.

Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torsion-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension systems.

So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

We have a small number of pamphlets of poems of the above title, written by the late J. Harvey Burgess, late owner of The Harrington Journal and self-styled "splitter of infinitives, mixer of metaphors, demon of the double negative, sorcerer of solecisms, perpetrator of the world's poorest poetry."

We presume he was also a dangler of participles. There have been several requests for this booklet, priced at 25c, but we were unable to comply with them. Fortunately, however, we uncovered a limited supply of this valuable booklet recently while looking the effects of the estate.

We also have a number of pamphlets, "Hosses, Hosses, Hosses" written by Mr. Burgess, and depicting Harrington's harness-racing life. The price is 25c.

When the above-named pamphlets have been sold there will be no reprints.

Wheat Deadline Coming, May 31

Any Delaware farmer who has more wheat than his acreage allotment allows, or more than 15 acres, whichever is larger, should dispose of the excess acreage by May 31 according to a statement made by George C. Simpson, chairman of the Delaware Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee Thursday.

If the excess acreage is not disposed of by May 31 the farmer will not be eligible for wheat price supports or soil bank payments Simpson said.

Farmers should not put off the job because weather, illness or other circumstances might interfere at the last minute.

Notices have been sent to all growers who have excess wheat acreage. Questions should be directed to the county ASC office for further information and advice.

Food is a Good Buy

The dollar and cents price of food has gone up but the time it takes to earn the food money has gone down, according to W. T. McAllister extension marketing specialist at the University of Delaware.

In 1940 it took the average wage earner 13.2 hours to earn enough money to buy a basket of groceries. In 1956 it took the average wage earner 9.4 hours to earn enough money to buy that same basket of groceries. Back in 1929 it took 21 hours to earn that grocery basket.

Of course, the average wage earner today is eating more and better food than in the past. One of the things the food buyer today is paying for is processing and services, such as ready mix flour and ready to bake pies, TV-dinners and the like.

The actual proportion of the income spent for food in recent years has been between 25 and 29 per cent. For the same amount and type of food the consumer was getting in 1935-39, it would take less than 20 per cent of his income.

McAllister says that what this all means is simply that the food buyer today is getting a good deal. Retail food prices have gone up, but not as rapidly as income. This is partly because of increased efficiency on the part of farmers. They are producing an abundance of food which has held farm prices down.

Some of the reasons the consumer blames his budget trouble to food is because he is eating meat and other more expensive food more often than he used to, and because he is spending his income on other things which he didn't have before such as TV sets, automatic washers and two automobiles.

Food is the most often bought item on the bill so it catches a lot of the blame for a tight budget simply because it is so handy.

Meetings to Discuss 1958 Soil Bank Starts May 27

Farmers participating in the 1958 soil bank should remain within the permitted acres of their base crops, advises Joseph Ennis, chairman of the Kent County ASC committee.

Two meetings will be held to discuss this and other questions. One is scheduled for the county ASC office in Dover Tuesday, May 27th, starting at 8 p.m. The second meeting will be conducted for folks in the lower end of the county at the Taylor Messick store in Harrington Wednesday, also at 8 p.m.

Soil bank land cannot be used for hay, grazing or crop production, since the purpose of the program is to reduce crop surpluses by retiring land from production. A second purpose is to conserve resources for the future, in which case a farmer can get cost sharing help to build up or retain fertility with erosion-resisting cover crops, says Mr. Ennis.

The two meetings will provide a chance to iron out any misunderstandings regarding restrictions, violations or benefits from participation in the soil bank program.

Sidedressing of Potatoes Needed

Potatoes need 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to produce the best yields, says George Va-paa, Kent County agricultural agent. The heavy rains during the past month have no doubt washed out some of the nitrogen applied at planting time. It will pay to side-dress with extra nitrogen when the plants are 6 to 10 in. tall.

How much? - This will depend on how much fertilizer was applied at planting.

If 2000 lbs. of 5-10-10, sidedress with 70 lbs. Nitrogen

If 2500 lbs. of 5-10-10, sidedress with 50 lbs. nitrogen.

If 3000 lbs. of 5-10-10, sidedress with 25 lbs. nitrogen.

Figure out how much nitrogen was put on the ground at planting and add enough more to make up to 175 lbs. nitrogen. Ammonium nitrate has 33.5% Nitrogen or 33 1/2 lbs. of nitrogen per 100 lbs. of ammonium nitrate. Many other good forms of nitrogen including the liquid may be used, concludes the agent.

KENT COUNTY Home Demonstration Agent 20th Annual Homemakers' Short Course Coming

Four Home Demonstration members from Kent County have registered for Homemakers Short Course. They are: Mrs. Ada Smith, Mrs. Bessie Urian, Smyrna; Mrs. Pearl Schettler and Mrs. Elizabeth Morris, Clayton.

The 20th annual homemakers short course to be held June 16 to 19 at the University of Delaware will follow the theme: "Woman's World in 1958."

Classes and entertainment will alternate throughout the four-day schedule which will end with the awarding of short course certificates to long-time short course attendants.

The 20th birthday party of the homemakers' short course will be the big event of the program with an evening's entertainment.

Delaware's Mother of the year, Mrs. George Ehinger, Dover school teacher, will speak on "Your World at Home" during Wednesday's morning program. Fitting in with this will be Mrs. Allan Colburn's talk on "Your world in the Community." Mrs. Colburn is the president of the Delaware Citizens Conference on social work.

Another leading speaker will be Mrs. Florence LaGanke Harris, home economics editor of the Cleveland Press. Her topic will be "Gracious Living has a Place in Today's World."

An off campus highlight will be a trip to Wilmington, June 17, to see the play "Auntie Mame" at the Brandywine Music Circus.

Hay Day at U. of D. Research Farm

Kent County farmers have been invited to attend a special Hay Day at the University of Delaware's hay research farm near Middletown May 27, according to county agricultural agent George Vapaa.

Highlight of the day will be reports on experimental work being done by school of agriculture research workers on hay mixtures, irrigation of hay land, fertilization, drying and other practices. Demonstrations will be given of hay drying, crushing, crimping, testing moisture, and storage, using plastic film. Visitors will see details of pole barn construction and will observe the operation of a tractor-mounted mechanical hay lift.

The program will start at 9:30 a.m. Lunch will be available on the grounds. In case of rain, the program will be held the following day, May 28.

To get to the hay research farm the agent suggests taking route 71 west from Middletown toward Warwick. Turn off on the first blacktop road on the right. Go about 2 1/2 miles. The research farm is on the west side of the road. Signs will be posted to mark the way.

Mr. Vapaa listed several reasons why farmers in the area should be interested in attending the Hay Day. Among these were the techniques of hay handling with the latest designs of machines, the methods of using irrigation to the best advantage, and a chance to compare the variety of hay mixtures now recommended for Delaware.

It is Time for Roguing Certified Seed Fields

If you are growing small grains for certified seed production, rogue plants should be removed before the field inspector comes to check your fields says county agricultural agent, George Vapaa.

Inspections will begin in Delaware about the last week in May depending on the season.

Off-type plants such as rye in wheat fields or oats in barley fields should be removed now to save last minute rushing to meet certification requirements.

Time and cost does not allow the inspector to rogue fields. The main reason for inspection is to check for mixture in variety, mixture with other crops and troublesome or noxious weeds.

Even when crops are not to be certified for seed production, roguing out bad weeds such as thistle, diseased plants or any undesirable characteristics noted in crop plants often pays. Small infestations may be best controlled in this way before they have a chance to spread over a whole field.

An aircraft in rain-making experiments caused a cloudburst in Queensland, Australia, that made a river rise 17 feet in two hours, Sydney learns.

Roses to be Featured at U. of D. Spring Flower Show

Rose fanciers will have a chance to feast their eyes on an outstanding collection of popular varieties as well as some of the newer roses at the Spring Flower show on the University of Delaware campus June 7-8.

Among the roses to be shown are specimens in hybrid tea, floribunda, and climbers and rambler classes. Roses also will be featured in arrangements and in special classes for professional gardeners.

Roses are being featured at this year's show according to Robert F. Stevens, extension horticulturist with the U. of D. school of agriculture. Mr. Stevens believes that the show offers an unusual opportunity for the amateur and particularly for the person who has not tried his hand at growing roses to see outstanding blooms.

Growers who plan to exhibit in the show are urged to follow the American Rose Society's color classification in entering competitive classes. Silver bowls centerpieces and cups will be awarded winners.

More than 40 different groups are co-operating in this year's spring flowers show, according to Mr. Stevens. These include garden clubs, professional gardeners, commercial nurserymen and florists, youth groups and others.

The show is sponsored by the Delaware Garden Committee and University of Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

Air passenger rates between Northern Ireland and points in England are to be boosted this summer. Ireland fears the effects on tourist travel.

Electronic Records To Be Studied

Kent County farmers can learn how electronically computed records will help them to make more money from their dairy enterprise. George Vapaa, the county agent, is holding an open meeting at the agricultural building of the Harrington School Monday, starting at 8 p.m.

Several dairymen have already received reports on their herds from the processing center at Cornell University in Ithaca, N. Y., and will have them at the meeting.

One application of these records is a summary of all 305-day lactations coming to local dairymen each month. These are used for providing the efficiency of bulls as well as a basis of comparing individual cow performances. The highest fifteen animals of those reported follows:

Delaware Park Racing Season Lengthened

Thoroughbred horse racing at Delaware Park returns Thursday (May 29) for the longest meeting in the track's history—51 days through July 26—with horsemen slated to share in approximately $2,000,000 in stakes, purses and awards.

The newly-lengthened season starts off with three stakes events in as many days. The $10,000 Wilmington Handicap again tops the initial program in Thursday; the equally endowed Polly Drummond features the Friday Memorial Day card, and the $20,000 Brandywine Turf Handicap is the first Saturday's piece de resistance.

As in recent years, the meeting will be highlighted by the quarter-million-dollar Distaff Big Three on the final three Saturdays—the $50,000 Oaks, $40,000 New Castle and the world's richest race for fillies and mares, the Delaware Handicap, which last season grossed a record $164,625. Among nominations already made for these rich stakes are America's champion female racers of 1957—Pucker Up, Idun and Bayou.

In accordance with the longer dates, three new stakes were added this year to boost the total of major feature races to 18. Jumping events begin June 9 and, excepting Saturdays, carry through June 27. Steeplechases and hurdles are included.

Delaware Park again faces severe competition, particularly from New Jersey tracks. There will be confliction from Garden State Park (and also Bel Air in Maryland) the first three days. Then follow the only seven non-competitive days before Monmouth Park opens June 10 and continues through and beyond the Stanton track's July 26 finale. However, Delaware's longer meeting assures the state of more revenue, the public of continued high class racing and horsemen the advantage of filling a gap which existed before.

Opening day will again be "Fraternal Civic Day" with races honoring the Nur Shrine Temple, Knights of Columbus, New Castle County Volunteer Firemen's Association, and the Wilmington Junior C. of C. Miss Delaware of 1958 is slated to join in winner's circle ceremonies to include trophy presentations by various dignitaries. Adding to the Memorial Day atmosphere Friday will be entertainment by the Delaware National Guard's band, drill team and color guard.

First race post time is 2 p.m., EDT, with eight races every day except Sundays.

37th Annual 4-H Short Course Opens June 25

The 37th annual 4-H Short Course will swing into action June 25 with a four day program aimed at training older Delaware 4-H Club members for leadership, according to Wayne Bath, acting state 4-H leader.

A new feature of this year's program will be a parent's day on Friday, June 27. Parents and the public are invited to attend the three contests and the other events and classes.

The state finals will be held Friday for public speaking, at 9 a.m., the dress revue and the talent contest will be held Friday evening. Winners will be selected immediately after the contests. Highlights of Wednesday's activities will be a picnic in the early evening following registration.

The entertainment high-spot for Thursday will be a trip to the Brandywine Music Circus to see "Auntie Mame."

Members between 14 and 20 and local adult leaders have been sent a folder explaining the highlights of the annual event along with an enrollment form. If you are in this group and have not received your invitation folder, contact your local 4-leader.

Special classes will be held for club reporters, junior leaders, adult leaders and university 4-H members. Subjects will cover song leading, demonstrations, art, visual aids, swimming, dancing, modeling and club recreation.

June 16 is the final date for enrollment cards to be in if you wish to attend.

The program is intended to produce an exchange of ideas and a better 4-H Club program in Delaware through the combination of training and good times.

proaching, the usual rise in polio cases may threaten those who do not bother to take advantage of the Salk vaccine. Immediate action will be necessary to be come polio protected before the full force of summer arrives.

To eliminate polio as the dreaded, epidemic disease that it has been, volunteer physicians, nurses and hostesses continue to urge the public to visit the free public clinics, or to obtain 3 shots of Salk vaccine from their family doctors.

The public polio clinics, sponsored by the Medical Society of Delaware, the State Board of Health, and the Delaware Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, will operate almost until the end of June. Although one shot of Salk vaccine will raise the body's immunity, doctors point out that it is much less effective than two shots, received thirty days apart. Lasting protection, for more than the short, one summer, term, requires three shots. Body immunity will drop greatly within six months to a year after the first two.

And time for those second and third shots before summer is almost up.

The following clinics are scheduled for this area:

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

When crochet comes into the conversation, most people think of first of chair sets and doilies, or ambitious projects such as tablecloths and bedspreads. Some might guess that most crochet is still worked in the old favorite traditional patterns; others probably have their eye on all the original ideas being carried out these days in the new, modern crochet.

EVERYBODY'S PET
 Meanwhile, have you noticed the "dark horse" that's crept into the very center of the crochet scene, stealing the votes of young and old alike? It's the crocheted animal—quick and easy to make, and a happy challenge to the imagination. Children love these hardy, cuddly little playmates. And they've become at least as popular with the school set and even parents, too. Color's a tonic for the disposition. When your home is fully furnished, sometimes it's difficult to find a way to add a refreshing dash of something new. Handmade animal toys are a perfect answer, because they add such a bright and decorative—and personal touch.

A CHEERY PAIR

Choose the dachshund or the horse—or make them both! They're a happy pair to live up a dresser or a pillow. The trotter is bright red with a sunny mane, languid blue felt eyes, and white felt legs and ears. His waddling friend sports vivid scraps of green and purple felt over his spice colored coat. His winsome eyes and little red tongue will endear him to the youngsters. Both easy crochet designs call for new, thick, fast-working cottons. ## Open House at Indian River Power Station

The doors were wide open this weekend for people to visit the new Indian River Power Station between Millsboro and Dagsboro, when Delaware Power and Light Company staged a 2-day Open House.

Saturday morning a formal ceremony took place at which George M. Nelson, vice president of the company, presided. Among the guests he introduced were Harvey H. Plank, president of Delaware Power & Light Co. Senator J. G. Townsend Jr., representing Governor Boggs, and William Almy, vice president of United Engineers & Constructors, Inc. His company had the contract for the plant construction.

Mr. Almy presented the company with a flag on behalf of United Engineers & Constructors, Inc. and the guests were privileged to watch Senator Townsend raise it.

Mr. Plank told the gathering that Delaware Power & Light Company is grateful for the opportunity and privilege of serving the people on the Delmarva Peninsula. He said, "We are also mindful of our responsibility to the people to see to it that our planning and engineering are sound and that our operating practices and procedures are modern and economical."

"Our faith in the growth and development of this Peninsula, we believe, is evidenced by the building of this new power station. It is another step in helping to make the Delmarva Peninsula a better place in which to live, to work and to play."

The first giant turbogenerator now in service provides 85,000 kilowatts . . . a second unit of the same size is presently under construction and will be in service late during 1958.

Groups of visitors toured the new station with plant personnel and had an opportunity to observe the highly complicated machinery involved in the production of electricity. They saw the boiler, 15 stories high, where water is changed to steam at 1000 degrees and 1800 pounds pressure to the square inch.

They saw the coal conveyor belt which can move 325 tons of coal every hour from the stockpile on the ground-140 feet up in the air to the top of the bunker.

They saw pumps which circulate 75,000 gallons of water a minute through the condenser to cool steam and change it back to water. All of this water is returned to the river in as good as pumped.

They saw big grinders which crush coal, fine as talcum powder. Last, but not least, they saw the massive electric generator, the heart of the plant, from which flow 85,000 kilowatts.

C.K.R.T. To Hold Memorial Day Exercises May 30

Memorial Day exercises, under the auspices of Callaway-Kemp-Raughley-Tee Post No. 7, American Legion, will be held at Hollywood Cemetery, one mile east of Harrington, at 10 a.m. Fri., May 30. The speaker will be the Rev. John R. Symonds, Chaplain of C.K.R.T. Post No. 7, and Rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, and a veteran of World War II.

Harrington Special School District Band, other pupils of the school, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and members of the Legion Post and Auxiliary will participate in the program. The committee consists of Earl Sylvester, Ted Layton, Frank O'Neal and Benjamin W. Emory.

This Memorial Day will have a deeper significance, perhaps, as the Nation pauses to honor the war dead and to place in National Shrine the bodies of two Unknown Servicemen who passed into infinity - One in World War II and the other in the Korean conflict. From temporary oblivion abroad they are being brought to their home-land as symbols of the tragic sacrifices of war, to lie in honored glory with a comrade of World War I at the base of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington.

All citizens are urged to display the American Flag on Memorial Day, to be flown at half-mast until 12 o'clock noon, and full mast for the remainder of the day, and thus honor the memory of all deceased veterans.

The annual Sunday Memorial service which will be held in Trinity Methodist Church, Harrington, at 11 a.m., Sunday will be a union meeting with Asbury Methodist Church. Members of Callaway-Kemp-Raughley-Tee Post No. 7, American Legion and the Auxiliary Unit will attend in a body. All citizens are urged to be present and are invited to be guests of the Legion and Auxiliary at a Coffee Hour to be held at the Legion Home at the close of the church service.

Delaware Food Market Report

Economists and businessmen forecast some decline in food prices in the next few months. With heavy supplies of fresh vegetables arriving daily on local markets, lower prices are being seen on such vegetables as asparagus, cucumbers, greens, green peppers, and fresh corn. Quality for the most part is excellent for all of these vegetables. Fresh tomatoes are beginning to arrive in larger supply and the flavor is greatly improved, however, prices are still up. Loose tomatoes may appear, though, on the bargain counter during weekend sale. Cartons are selling all during the week around 35 cents each.

Look for weekend specials on meats. Many customers have been staying away from the high priced meats and its being felt so special sales on roasts, steaks and chops will coax the customer to buy. As a whole there has been no appreciable change in most meat prices. Veal, which is in season should be declining in price, instead it is going up on most cuts. Pork is up too, lamb prices are about the same, but look for some specials on this meat during the weekend.

Many more strawberries are arriving at the fruit counter. North Carolina and Virginia are shipping in good quality berries, which, when added to those already being sent in from California and Georgia, make the present supplies much larger. Prices should show signs of dropping this weekend.

Lemons help make the fruit picture brighter - they continue cheap. Bananas have gone up a penny or so in the last two weeks, however, they will be on sale again this week - look for them as low as 11 cents a pound.

Grade A large eggs are definitely the best buy at the egg counter. Prices are down on all sizes, but the biggest decline is on the large-size egg. Butter shows signs of a little decline - its selling a penny cheaper in most places this week.

Memorial Day Services

The annual Memorial Services will be held at St. Johnstown Methodist Church, one mile east of Greenwood, Sunday, May 25, 1958, at 2:30 p.m.

The Rev. Walter H. Stone, Pastor of Mt. Olivet Methodist Church of Seaford, will bring the message of the afternoon. Assisting in the service will be the Pastor of St. Johnstown Church, the Rev. Frank O. Baynard, and Ministers of Churches of neighboring towns.

The soloist of the afternoon will be Eddie Burton of Cannons. Members of the Greenwood Memorial Post No. 7478, and the Ladies Auxiliary of Post No. 7478, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be guests at the services, and will conduct their ceremonies at the graveside of a deceased serviceman, in the adjoining cemetery at the conclusion of the church services.

Scholarship Bill Accepted By House Committee

U. S. Congressman Harry G. Haskell Jr., announced that his student loan program, which would provide college loans up to $1000 a year for any qualified student, has been accepted by the House Education Subcommittee and is now included in the National Defense Education Act of 1958. The bill will be brought up for House action shortly.

Congressman Haskell, who has been working for this program since he first proposed it last January said, "This loan program will in time make it financially possible for every boy and girl to have a college education, if they can meet the academic requirements of the college or university they wish to attend, and if they are willing to assume the obligation of paying back the loan."

"This is a loan program, not a free education," Haskell pointed out. "Under this legislation, boys and girls would be able to borrow money at low interest rates from the institution to which they apply, and this loan would be repaid by the student in ten annual installments beginning a year after graduation. The students will be able to pay for their own education."

Haskell said he was delighted that the House Education group had accepted the program because, "it will mean a great deal to parents in Delaware and all across the country who want their children to have a college education but are unable to afford the full cost."

Emphasizing that this loan program would be handled by the institutions themselves, Haskell said, "This federal loan program would be much broader than any loan funds that now exist at colleges and universities. The provisions attached to present loan operations have severely limited the use of existing funds. At some point in the future, this new loan program would become a revolving fund where little or no additional federal money would be required."

"The interest rate on the loans would be two per cent while the student is in college and four per cent after graduation when he or she will have increased earning power," Haskell went on. "This is the fourth major piece of legislation which the Delaware Congressman has helped develop in the House of Representatives during his first term in office. Two of Mr. Haskell's bills have already been passed, and a third one will be brought to the floor for a vote shortly."

Haskell said he has been working constantly with the Eisenhower Administration to get a sound bill drawn and to secure approval of the program.

"This is an important step forward in meeting our educational problems," he concluded.

Look what you've been missing if you haven't driven a 58 FORD
 You just can't appreciate all the wonderful things that have been done to make driving more fun . . . until you've checked out in a shiny 58 Ford!

The fun begins with the simple act of getting into the car. Only "yesterday" it was stoop down or knock off your hat. Now that has been changed. There's room for you and your hat inside the 58 Ford.

Even before you start the engine, notice how much more you can see. Full-Circle visibility lets you see where you're going . . . see what's coming . . . see to park!

Now touch the starter. Observe how smoothly your engine idles. That's because each Ford engine is built with painstaking care. Each V-8 is electronically balanced while operating under its own power. No other car in Ford's field goes to such lengths to bring you an engine that will operate smoothly . . . dependably . . . efficiently. (If your pick is a thirty Six, you can't buy a more powerful, more modern 6-cylinder passenger-car engine than Ford's 145-horsepower Mileage Maker Six.)

Ease down now on the throttle and you'll take off with all the dash and verve of a Thunderbird! For after all, the 58 Ford offers you the Thunderbird's own transmission and engine! Team Ford's Cruise-O-Matic Drive with a Thunderbird-powered V-8 engine, and save up to 15¢ on gasoline. It's like getting back 15¢ on every gas dollar!

Next hunt up the roughest roads you can find. Notice how bumps lose their bounce with Ford's softer-riding suspension system. Notice how Ford's exclusive Automatic Ride Control combines Angle-Poised Ball-Joint front suspension with long, tailored-to-weight rear springs so that you ride level . . . corner level . . . enjoy a "big car feel."

And Ford gives you more—much more in the way of riding comfort. Ford seats are wide—sofa-wide. You sit in a relaxed, natural position with Ford's Automatic Posture Control.

Always a leader in safety, Ford again has pioneered new features to protect you. New Safety-Twin taillights, for example, keep you safer because they give better warning to cars behind you. And only Ford offers you famous Lifeguard Design—the whole family of safety features designed to protect you should an accident occur.

Then there are the hidden values that are yours when you choose Ford. The car is put together with fine-car precision. The finish is durable enamel—baked enamel that helps Fords keep that new-car shine. On the inside, too, Ford cars give you more insulation than any other cars in Ford's field.

Why not discover all you've been missing if you haven't driven a 58 Ford? See your Ford Dealer and find out firsthand all the wonderful things that have happened to Fords. And remember: a comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices shows that Ford is lowest priced of the "low-price three" in 17 out of 19 comparable models!

So why not make tomorrow your day to drive a Ford? The keys are waiting for you at your Ford Dealer's. See him and discover all the fun a Ford can bring.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

At the 11 a.m. Morning Prayer service last Sunday, the Rev. John R. Symonds, Jr., installed the new officers of the Woman's Auxiliary who are to serve for the next year. Mrs. Robert Creadick will serve as president, Mrs. Archie C. Ford as vice president; Mrs. George Thompson, secretary, and Mrs. William F. Smith as treasurer. Those elected and installed to serve as departmental chairmen were: Mrs. Robert McNally, Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Clarence M. Reed, Church Periodicals; Mrs. Melvin Brobst, United Thank Offering; Mrs. William Hearn, Supply; Mrs. Herbert L. Chamberlain, Education; Mrs. Lillian Rice to be in charge of Devotions, and Mrs. Granville J. Hill as directress of the Altar Guild.

Mr. Symonds' sermon considered the great service of the women of the church, their precious gifts of their own substance given freely in love for their God and His church, and the great debt that the church owes to its women workers.

In the afternoon, six members of our youth group traveled to St. Paul's Church, Camden, to take part in a meeting of the Kent County Convocation of Young People. Ronnie Lee Correll of St. Stephen's is the president of the Convocation. Accompanying Ronnie were: Viva Reed, Bill Thompson, Bill McColley, Lois Keim, and Ann Perry.

It was a pleasure to have Mrs. Arthur G. Williams at the console of the organ for the evening service. Mrs. Williams, a native of Wales, and a lively supporter of her country's singing tradition, has been our lead soprano for the past year and a half.

Several members of the parish are on the sick list and the prayers of their many friends and fellow churchmen are asked. Walter W. Winkler underwent a back operation at the Delaware Hospital Monday; Mrs. Arthur G. Williams, was operated on in the Memorial Hospital, Wilmington, Thursday, and Robert McNally will enter the Kent General Hospital Sunday for an operation scheduled for Monday morning.

It is our prayer that a full and speedy recovery may be theirs. The Women of St. Stephen's, under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Perry, will hold a rummage sale in Gaines Alley tomorrow and Saturday. All proceeds will be reserved for the purchase of new gowns for the Junior Choir.

The 173rd annual Diocesan Convention held last week at Christ's Church, Christiana Hundred, proved to be a very interesting and red banner day for both the Diocese and St. Stephen's Church, Harrington. The Rev. John R. Symonds, Jr., vicar was elected to the Cathedral Chapter. This is an incorporated body charged with the operation and jurisdiction of the Cathedral Church of St. John, Wilmington. One of the most important items to be considered during his three year term will be the expansion of the Cathedral to accommodate an additional 500 persons.

The largest budget in the history of the Diocese was unanimously approved and included an item of several thousand dollars which will be used to establish a branch of the National Episcopal Services to Youth to serve Kent and Sussex Counties. The service will employ a full time psychiatric-social worker, who, it is expected will have his or her headquarters at St. Stephen's new church and will reside in Harrington.

Another item of great importance to St. Stephen's Church and this community was the acceptance by the convention of our invitation to hold the 1959 convention here in Harrington. This is a tremendous undertaking and will be the first time the convention has been held in our area. Archie C. Ford will serve as general chairman of the convention preparations and will be assisted by the entire congregation.

Ushers for last Sunday were Messrs. Clarence Reed and James C. Hoffman. Acolytes serving were Robert Quillen, Bill McColley, Ronnie Porter, Wayne Porter, Bill Thompson, Frank Welch, John Porter, and Roy Porter.

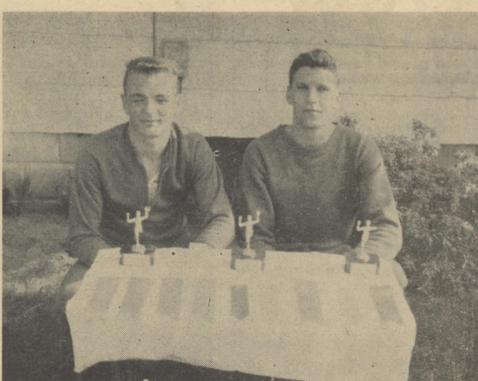

Our Vicar has a busy schedule before him, for in addition to his duties here and his preaching and healing services in Seaford, he will deliver the address at the Memorial Day Service held in Hollywood Cemetery, give the Chapel Hour talks over the radio, and represent the Diocese of Delaware at a conference on the problems of youth to be held in Greenwich, Conn.

H.H.S. Tracksters Set Records in Two Big Meets

By Keith S. Burgess

The Harrington High track team spearheaded by the unbeaten twosome of miler Dwight Hackett and dashman Jimmy Schiff continued its fine progress with record performances in the Milford Invitational and the Dover Relay Carnival.

At Milford, 12 schools with 250 athletes competed. The locals finished fourth with 31 points, just 2 1/2 points from third place.

Seaford, Milford, and Caesar Rodney, all schools with approximately 10 years experience finished in that order. Harrington, in its first full year, is starting to cause them some concern. In the junior high division H.H.S. nosed out Wicomico High of Salisbury for second place by defeating them in an exciting 880 relay race.

Jimmy Schiff tied the record in the 100 yd. dash by negotiating the soft track in 10.2. Bob Wilson scored for Harrington by placing fifth. Schiff was clocked in 23 seconds flat in a time trial for the 220 yd. dash even though he was eased up at the finish. This is the fastest or second fastest time in the state this year. Jim won the final in 23.4.

Dwight Hackett won the mile with ease in 4:57 just 2/10 of a second off the meet record. The surprise here was the strong showing of an unheralded H.H.S. freshman, 14 year-old Harry Knotts. Told by Coach Dick Jeffers to stick close to his teammate Hackett, the pint-sized runner with the big heart did just that. Knotts just missed by a few feet winning over experienced milers, Don Hill of Milford and George "Dutch" Bell of Seaford, who was second in the state championships last year. It was only Harry's second try at the distance.

Don Garey continued his good work as a pole vaulter tying for third place.

Joe Kliment led the qualifiers in the early afternoon in the broad jump with a leap of 18 ft. 8 1/2 inches, a new Harrington High Record. This was the second best jump in Kent and Sussex Counties this season. This mark was surpassed twice in the finals so Joe had to be content with third place.

The mile relay was probably the most thrilling for Harrington fans. The local quartet was picked to finish fourth. Dave Coady finished his leg of the race in second place behind favored Seaford. John Taylor and Bill Bonniwell ran well but when anchor man Don Garey took the baton he was 20 or 30 yards behind second place Caesar Rodney. Gaining with every stride he finally caught his man and with his courageous run gave the home team second place.

The highlight of the Harrington Junior High team's showing was the victory in record time of the 880 relay team. The quartet composed of Bob Winkler, Leonard Hurd, Edgar Wheeler and George Pfeiffer, smashed the old record as they defeated a speedy quartet from Wicomico High.

At Dover The Dover Relay Carnival the home team was weakened by the absence of several key members so were able to make a good showing in only one event, but this one was worth the trip. With a relay foursome made up of one senior and three lower classmen H.H.S. won the medley relay and in so doing slashed almost three full seconds off the old record winning in 8 minutes and 35.7 seconds. George Pfeiffer, one of several promising freshmen, on the Harrington team, led off with the half mile portion of the seven-team race. George was in fourth place when he handed the baton to Dave Coady who ran a fast quarter mile and moved up to third place. Jimmy Schiff then ran the 220 portion and caught another man leaving Dwight Hackett, the anchor man who was to run the mile in second place. Hackett was 30 yards behind the Dover High miler but made this up in the first lap and in the next three laps opened up a huge lead to make H.H.S. an easy winner. Dwight was timed in 4:45 for the mile which is all the more remarkable since the track was rough and he wasn't pressed. The winning quartet was given four medals by the Dover Relay Carnival officials as mementoes of its feat. The final appearance of the high school season will be Saturday afternoon at the state championships at the University of Delaware track. Jimmy Schiff and Dwight Hackett, unbeaten in the dashes and the mile, respectively, this year have a chance to be state champions in their specialties. George Pfeiffer has one of the leading times in the junior high 880 yd. run and may score in that event. The local junior high 880 relay team may surprise too if it can equal or better its time in the Milford Invitational.
