

Chicken Festival Here Favored
By Chamber of Commerce

The Chamber of Commerce, at its October meeting Tuesday noon at The Wonder R, declared it would like to have the 1959 Chicken Festival in Harrington. The declaration was made in answer to a letter from John R. Hargreaves, president of Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc., inquiring if the community would be interested in promoting the festival.

Hargreaves wrote: "Although the Sit Committee for the 1959 Delmarva Chicken Festival has not yet been named, it is our desire to select the host community much earlier than in previous years."

T. Brinton Holloway, secretary and general manager of the Kent & Sussex Fair, on whose grounds the festival has been held, said the industry had a standing invitation to use its facilities for the festival.

Mental Health Association of Delaware has films on social problems which may be shown by civic groups this month and next month. The information was turned over to J. C. Messner, chairman of the Community Betterment Committee.

Messner also gave survey forms to the Chamber members on medical facilities in the community. Thomas Clendening, vice president, presided in the absence of W. W. Shaw, president.

Clayton Breeding Takes Stand In Murder Trial

Clayton E. Breeding, 27, took the stand yesterday, as his murder trial entered its fourth day. Breeding is charged with the brutal slaying of Mrs. Ruth Ellen Cannon, 19, near her Burtsville Md., home last June 28.

Counsel for the defendant also announced that Dr. Jacob Morganstern, a Spring Grove psychiatrist, and Capt. George E. Davidson, chief of the Maryland State Police detective bureau, testified.

In the closing hours of Wednesday's session, the three presiding judges heard from Breeding's wife, his uncle and two other witnesses.

A motion by the defense lawyer for a directed verdict of acquittal was heard at 3 p.m. Wednesday after more than two score of witnesses had testified. Smith argued that the state had not proven where the crime took place; that the case was based only on conjecture from the state's testimony and that the testimony of Morris S. Clark, a Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, regarding strands of hair taken from Breeding's car and identified as that of the victim, were not conclusive as evidence.

Smith also questioned the value of the fingerprints and testimony of Michael Kratz, identification expert of the Maryland State Police.

Shortly after 4 p.m. the judges returned to the bench and promptly overruled the defense motion. It was then that the defendant's wife and uncle took the stand.

Smith said he would like to place Captain Davidson on the stand in order to clarify what he called contradictory testimony of Inspector Kratz from a letter which the inspector had sent him in July.

The state scored its most important point in its chain of circumstantial evidence Wednesday, when the police inspector testified that a partial thumb print he lifted from a ventilating window in Breeding's car was identified as that of Mrs. Cannon's. Wednesday morning's session was taken up by testimony of seven Delaware State troopers headed by Captain Willard Thompson of the Bridgeville barracks, where the car was kept from June 30 until it was turned over to the Maryland State Police. As on the preceding days of the trial the courtroom was well filled with witnesses and spectators.

Firemen to Canvass House-to-House

The Harrington Volunteer Fire Company will hold a house-to-house solicitation Monday and Tuesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m., Burton Satterfield, fund drive chairman, said this week. The drive will be part of the company's annual campaign.

Micro-Midget News Greensboro

Despite of windy weather Sunday was another successful day at the Choptank Raceway at Greensboro.

The first heat race with 5 cars entered was won by car No. 3B driven by Billings of Harrington with car No. 101 driven by Pat Fry also of Harrington, who was in close pursuit of Billings from the second lap to the finish.

The second heat race with 5 cars of the highest points entered was a race for the fans to watch. Car No. 49 driven by Paul Legates of Harrington took the lead on the first lap and was hard pressed by car No. 9 driven by Brown and car No. 7 driven by J. Porter. This was a very close race all the way to be won by car No. 49 driven by P. Legates.

The third heat race of the day which was a surprise to all of the fans was won by the dark horse car No. 181 driven by Arthur Dean of Greensboro.

The consolation race got off to a bad start by having to be re-started three different times due to pile ups before the first lap was completed. Finally after getting off to a start car No. 9 driven by Brown of Harrington took the lead and kept it until the checkered flag was waved.

The feature race, the big one of the afternoon, with nine cars entered was a fast race until the 9th lap when car No. 111 driven by Buddy Spiering of Greensboro spun out in the 10th lap and not to be out done by car No. 19 driven by Bill Tribbet also of Greensboro when he also spun out.

Then things went fine until the 23rd lap when car No. 101 driven by Pat Fry of Harrington spun out across the track and so did car No. 9. The race was then run under the caution flag and then restarted to be won by car No. 49 driven by P. Legates.

The next race "Powder Puffs" (lady drivers) sure is a thrill for the fans to see. The four powder puffs entered were in poll position: Mrs. Elsie Marvel in car No. 12; Mrs. Joe Lane in car No. 49, outside tier; Mrs. Doris Lane in car No. 72, inside poll position No. 2; Mrs. Betty Shulties in car No. 181, outside tier 4th position. Woe to the flag man after three tries the race was off to a fast start with car No. 12 taking the lead all the way until the 14th lap, car No. 72 driven by Doris Lane moved up on Car No. 12 to make a thrilling finish but not enough to take the checkered flag. This was another great day for car No. 12 (dozen) carrying the checkered flag only in the powder puff race.

Races will be held every Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. weather permitting. Grandstands have been completed for the fans comfort. Plenty of hot coffee, hot dogs, and an afternoon of thrills. Powder Puffs will be held next week.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Kent & Sussex Scottish Rite Club was held in Harrington, Friday, Oct. 10, in the high school cafeteria, preceded by a chicken dinner.

Retiring president, Dallas A. Dennis, of Georgetown, called upon Arthur R. Hudson, chairman of the nominating committee, composed of the past presidents of the club, who presented the following slate, which met with no opposition: President, Samuel M. Williams, Harrington; vice president, Elias H. Tingle, Frankford; secretary and treasurer, George T. Macklin, Sr., Milford (Incumbent); Directors—3 yr. term expiring in 1961—William E. Matthews Jr., Smyrna; Hershel W. Billings, Milford; Ernest B. Lashley, Dover—3 yr. term expiring in 1960—Martin Sterling Smith, Laurel; Warren A. Wheatley, Georgetown; Charles S. Calhoon, Georgetown—3 yr. term expiring in 1959—Urah W. Long, Selbyville; Alton J. Littleton, Laurel; John H. Walls, Harrington.

The speaker of the evening was William N. Cann, printer and publisher of Wilmington, a world traveler over the last 30 years, who showed colored films recently taken by himself in Russia, and gave a very interesting and informative talk in connection with the pictures. Also U. S. Senator J. Allen Frear Jr., and William H. Cantwell, active member of the Scottish-Rite for Delaware gave short talks.

Mr. Williams announced the annual ladies night will be held as usual in Georgetown, at the High School Auditorium Sat., Nov. 22. Admission by membership card.

Mr. Dennis, who retired after serving the club as president for two years now automatically becomes a member of the Past Presidents Advisory Committee, which includes Arthur R. Hudson of Selbyville; J. Henry McDonnell, Dover; W. Harrison Phillips, Laurel, and James B. Killington, Dover.

Book Fair At Harrington School Nov. 5-6

Plans are being made for the fifth annual Book Fair of the Harrington Special School district. It will be held in the school auditorium Nov. 5 and 6 from 2-9 p.m. Several hundred books will be displayed and will be for sale.

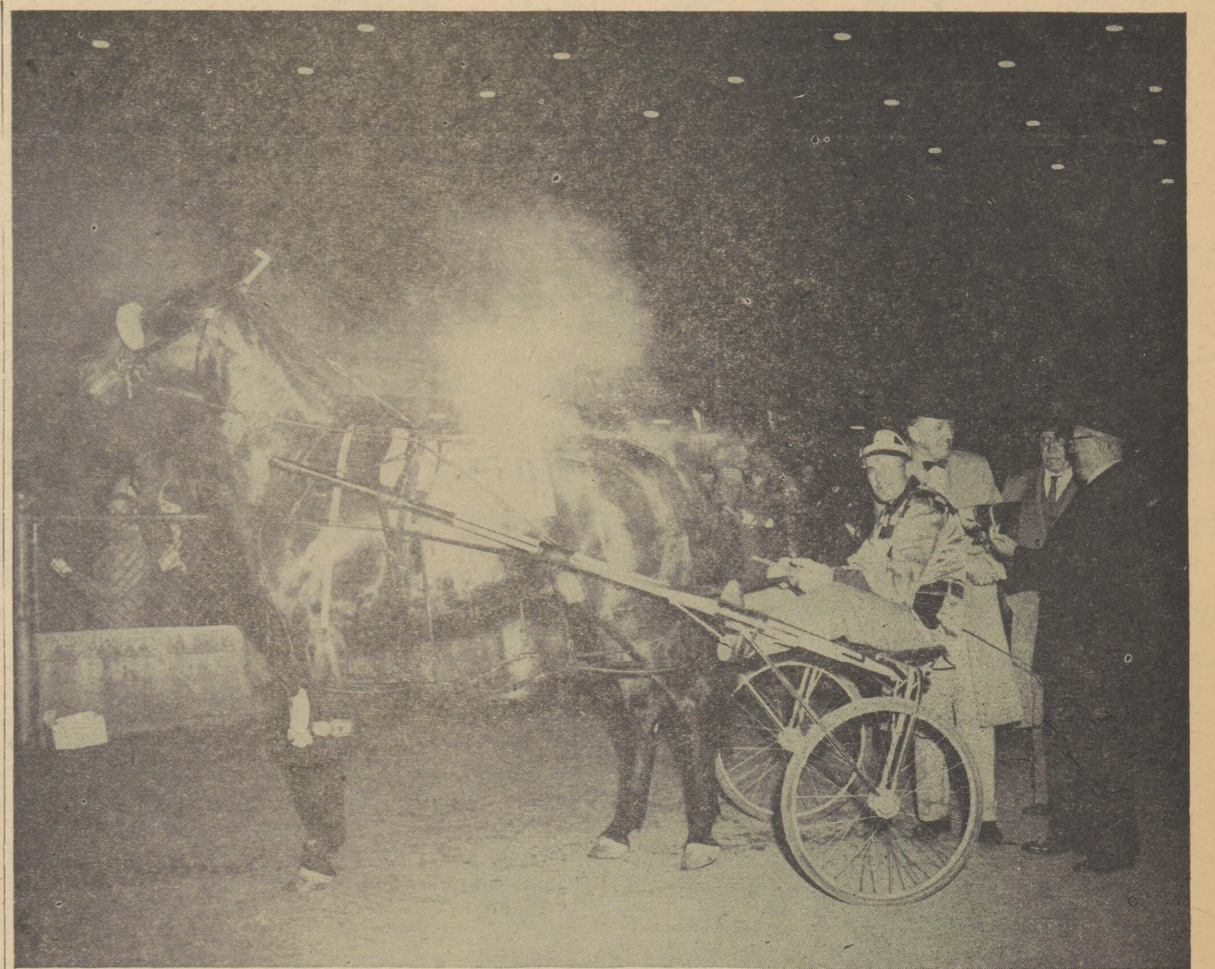

The purposes of the fair are to lead to a greater use of school and public libraries; better selection of library books; wiser and more frequent book buying; more families reading together; interesting teenagers, especially, in new leisure time hobbies; opening the eyes of many children to the fun of reading something besides comic books.

Children's book fairs have been held for a number of years in larger cities. Twenty-nine co-operating organizations compose the Children's Book Council which serves as a co-ordinating agency on a national scale. Among the co-operations are the American Library Association, Boy Scouts of America, 4-H Clubs, General Federation of Women's Clubs, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., National Conference of Christians and Jews, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, National Council of Teacher of English, National Education Association and U. S. Office of Health, Education and Welfare.

The cochairmen of the local fair will be J. C. Messner, superintendent of schools and Mrs. Mary S. Cahall, librarian. There will be posters depicting the different types of books for sale. These were made in the art department under the direction of Mrs. Peggy Malek. In addition to books, there will be fine reproductions of famous paintings for sale at one dollar each. These paintings were made possible through the directors of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in an endeavor to spread the appreciation of art. Mrs. Malek will be present to aid patrons who wish to select these prints.

A student's hobby show will be held at the same time. Any student in the Harrington Special School District may exhibit in the show. Mrs. Virginia Coady and Leon Donovan will be co-chairman for the hobby show.

Classes will be scheduled to visit the book fair and hobby show. The public is invited to attend between the hours of 2 and 9 p.m. Nov. 5 and 6.

Harrington Sets Mutuel Records

A record single night mutuel handle of $146,380 and a record total of $1,996,654 for the 20-night meet brought the Kent and Sussex Racing Association's most successful harness season to a close Friday night at Harrington Raceway.

"Both attendance and mutuel play were ahead of any previous year," said association president J. Gordon Smith.

"The attendance approximately 60,000 counted admissions, was an increase of about eight per cent, and the nightly mutuel handle averaging $99,832 was a 10 per cent increase," Smith said.

Previous high meet handle was set in 1956 when $1,962,427 was wagered. The handle for the meet just closed bettered last year's total of $1,816,336 by $180,318 and the previous total record by $34,227.

The former single night record handle was set on the first Saturday of this meeting, Sept. 20, when $139,487 was wagered. Friday night's "getaway" crowd of 3,570 bettered the old mark by $6,893.

Ellis Myer was leading driver, with 94 starts, 14 wins, 14 seconds, and 15 thirds for a total of 127 points. Runruper was Tom Lewis, with 81 starts, 14 wins, 11 seconds, 9 thirds, for a total of 112 points.

Myer received a Jerald sulky, valued at $350, and Lewis, a set of $100 harness, from Rudnick Livestock Sales Company, of Dover.

One hundred and eight drivers took part in the meet.

In addition to the records in handle mentioned previously, a record for handle in the daily doubles was established Sat., Sept. 27, at $15,046, according to T. Brinton Holloway, secretary and general manager of the Kent & Sussex Racing Association.

Mr. Holloway attributes the success of the meet to favorable weather and the high caliber of the racing.

CARVEL SAYS STATE FISCAL CRISIS CAUSED BY BOGGS

H.H.S. Loses In Football To Millsboro, 26-6

By Keith S. Burgess

The Harrington High School football team was defeated by Millsboro High, 26-6 Saturday afternoon here.

Millsboro received the opening kickoff and got an immediate break in the form of a short kick. More yardage was gained on a tuck play in which the center hiked the ball off on a tangent instead of the normal straight-back swap. Soon the visitors scored the first of their three line-plunge touchdowns and were on their way to their first victory in two decisions.

In the next sequence of plays Porter and Garey gained yardage but H.H.S. eventually had to punt. Millsboro was held and then got off a poor kick. Harrington started to roll on short passes from Schiff to Manship but the Sussex Counties intercepted a toss and raced all the way to the 9 yard line before Porter made a last-ditch tackle.

M.H.S. shortly scored through the line to make the score 13-0 having made one point after touchdown in two tries.

The locals aided by fine defensive play by Outten, Ken Collins and Don Garey stopped another Millsboro threat. Schiff completed two more passes to John Taylor and Manship but the visitors intercepted and ran for a third tally. The extra point was scored on a pass to make the score 20-0 at halftime.

Millsboro kicked off to open the second half and then recovered the ball after it touched a Harrington player. Jim Temple made two good tackles at this point, but with the aid of halfhearted tackling by some of the rest of the home team, the visitors marched down the field and scored through the line to bring the tally to 26-0.

Harrington finally got moving on a scoring drive to avert a shut-out. Jim Schiff swept the ends and Jack Porter cracked the line to the 7 from which point Porter drove over for the touchdown. The final score was Millsboro 26 and Harrington 6.

As usual the same names dominated the statistics for the locals. Schiff, with his outside running, had 79 yards in 6 carries for an average of 13. Don Garey had 34 yards in five tries, and Jack Porter had 38 yards and one touchdown in 7 tries.

Schiff had an excellent .500 passing average as he completed 4 passes to Manship and one to John Taylor in 10 tries. However two were intercepted which led directly to Millsboro scores.

On defense Porter led with 9 tackles; Garey had 7 and Collins, "Snooky" Collins and Jim Temple had 6. In one sequence of six straight plays the tackles were all made by either Porter or Temple. These five players seem to possess the true football instinct which is lacking in the team as a whole. This instinct in short means a selfish for body (Continued on back page)

Gov. J. Caleb Boggs is squarely responsible for the retroactive provision of the state income tax law, former Gov. Elbert N. Carvel declared Monday night at a rally of the Ninth District Democratic Club at the Legion Home. Mr. Carvel said the Governor is also responsible for the state's fiscal situation. He hit both the state and national Republican administrations on their money problem.

The speaker declared that the Governor has the responsibility for keeping himself and the people advised on the state's financial affairs and to see that those affairs are in order at all times. He said that when he was governor he "never waited until six months too late to find out the state was $27,000,000 short."

There never should have been a need for any retroactive tax, Mr. Carvel said. The Democrats repealed that provision after realizing the injustice of it. "The Republicans voted unanimously to keep the retroactive feature. The Governor vetoed the repealer and he must accept full responsibility for the retroactive tax Delawareans had to pay on last year's taxes."

Cites National Deficit
Turning to the national administration, Mr. Carvel said the President predicted in January a half billion surplus for fiscal 1959. Now only 10 months late the secretary of the treasury has reported the deficit for the year is expected to be over $12,000,000,000. "This is fiscal irresponsibility," he declared.

Mr. Carvel said that in President Truman's first six years there was an overall surplus of $3,600,000,000 in spite of the Korean conflict, but in six years of the Eisenhower administration the expected cumulative deficit will be $19,000,000,000.

Harris B. McDowell, Jr., the Democratic candidate for Congress, said the Republicans like to talk about the free enterprise system, but that the system is being endangered under the Republican national administration by business failures brought on by the recession. He declared that there were 90,000 business failures last year, and that if this trend continues there will be no free enterprise because business activity will be concentrated in the hands of the large corporations.

Other speakers at the Harrington meeting included Michael A. Poppiti, running for attorney general; Ernest E. Killen, candidate for auditor; Mrs. Belle Everett, candidate for treasurer; and Harry S. Smith, running for reelection as insurance commissioner. Local candidates were introduced.

Killen, Smith, and Poppiti told of the duties of the offices to which they were aspiring.

The first-named, a local grain broker and feed dealer said the state auditor handles the expenditure of all state money and keeps it in line with appropriations.

He mentioned that, since 1952, the cost of state government had more than doubled, being 64 million dollars this year, as compared (Continued on back page) grass hay removes 50 to 80 lbs. of phosphate and 120 to 189 lbs. of potash per acre, he says. If this fertility is not replaced, there may be very little left in the soil for next year's crops. The plants will go into the winter hungry and many will die from starvation. Thus, next year's hay yield will be reduced. If the sod is plowed under for corn, the corn yield will be poor.

To prevent future crop failures, Mr. Vapaa suggests checking the soil bank account by having soil tested. Apply promptly for the amount and kind of fertilizer needed by calling him at Dover 6-1448.

Rhinitis Is Bad News for Young Pigs

Rhinitis is a costly problem to the hog producer says George Vapaa, county agricultural agent. Pigs infested with atrophic rhinitis may need several more months of feeding to bring them to market weight than normal healthy hogs, he says. And the disease may cause some to die and become a total loss.

The cause of rhinitis is still unknown but enough is known about the disease to help in controlling it.

It is apparently spread by older pigs that have recovered from the disease. Often these hogs have dishes-in or curved snouts. Using the following methods will reduce the chances of rhinitis in your hogs, Mr. Vapaa says.

1. Isolate sows at farrowing time.
2. Keep any known infected pigs away from baby pigs.
3. Destroy runts. Slaughter the whole herd if most of the animals are infected. Then disinfect the buildings and equipment and start fresh on clean ground.
4. When adding new animals, be sure they are disease-free and from rhinitis-free farms.

CHANGES IN YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY
By: Edward F. Sullivan
Manager of the Dover, Delaware Social Security District Office

Ever since the enactment of the original social security law, marriage or remarriage has often been a reason for ending social security benefits payments to dependents or survivors of insured workers. In many cases, it is still a cause for the termination of some of the restrictions.

Under this change, a dependent's social security benefit payments will not stop if he or she marries another person who is also receiving social security payments as a dependent. For example, if a woman receiving widow's benefits marries a man who is receiving benefits as a dependent widower or a dependent parent, her benefits and those of her new husband will continue. Formerly both would have had their benefits stopped.

Marriage to a person who is not receiving social security benefits will still end the benefit rights (present and future) of a dependent-beneficiary. But another change in the law will help dependent-beneficiaries who marry persons who are now or who may soon be getting old-age insurance or disability insurance benefits. Until now, such a marriage would have ended the dependent's benefits and he or she would have had to wait at least 3 years to get benefits as the dependent of the new spouse. The 1958 amendments to the law remove the 3 year waiting period. Now the dependent (this would generally be a woman receiving benefits as a widow or as a dependent parent) could immediately qualify for wife's benefits based on her new husband's social security account. Of course, a woman is not able to draw wife's benefits until her husband is receiving his benefits.

In the first article of this series, I touched briefly on the increased benefit amount provided by the 1958 amendments to the social security law. In my next article, I shall discuss social security benefits in more detail.

Trinity Methodist Church Notes

Sun., Oct. 19, is Laymen's Day in the Methodist Church. Two men are to give talks in Trinity on this day at the morning worship service at 11: William Jester and Randall Knox talk on "Seek Ye First," and Randall Knox will conduct the entire service. Ellwood Gruwell is to read the scripture, Matthew 6:24-33; Bailey Minner leads in the unison prayer, and Manlove Bradley in the extempore prayer. Mr. Jeffers leads the responsive reading. The anthem is "Christ is Knockin at My Heart" by Otis. The altar flowers are donated by Mrs. Georgia Jacobs.

The Loyal Workers Class of Trinity will hold a rummage sale in the Downing Building, next to the Harrington Lumber and Supply Company office, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 17 and 18 all day.

The Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church holds an "Urban Life Seminar" in St. Paul's Methodist Church in Wilmington, next Monday, Oct. 20, from 9:30 to 5. There will be addresses and discussions, led by the District Superintendents, on "Urban Church Programs"—"Inner City-Suburban Church Strategy and Ethics"—"Urban Church Inter-Agency Cooperation."

Thursday is choir rehearsal day. Juniors at 8:45, Intermediates at 7 and Seniors at 8. Friday evening is Intermediate MYF time, 7-8. Mrs. Redden and Mrs. Cox are in charge. All youths ages 12-15 are invited. The same evening, teachers may attend a "Coaching Conference" for accreditation, which begins Friday and continues Saturday and Sunday evenings, at Seaford, Mt. Olivet and St. John's Church. The only cost is transportation; meals and lodging will be furnished.

The annual "Week of Prayer and Self-Denial" is to be observed Oct. 25-31 by the Woman's Societies of Trinity and Asbury churches. Mrs. Nasser and Mrs. Wilcox are in charge of arrangements.

Complete segregation has been introduced into the East London South Africa, post office. The main hall now serves only Europeans and a non-European section has been opened elsewhere in the building.

Grub Control in Your Lawn

There are at least three common beetles that cause serious lawn injury in Delaware, according to county agricultural agent, George Vapaa.

The three are the Japanese, May and Asiatic garden beetles. The damage is done where you cannot quickly detect it until it is too late—under the ground. The beetles eat the roots, and when heavy infestations occur, the sod is completely separated from the soil.

Mr. Vapaa says right now is a good time to treat your lawn for beetles. The new beetle generation is now developing in areas that have had beetle populations before.

Fall applications of insecticides will be washed into the soil by rains and will control the beetle problem for from three to five years.

Some of the insecticides which will do the job for you are aldrin, chlordane, DDT, dieldrin and heptachlor.

For application instructions, follow directions on the container, he concludes.

1958 Golden 50th Birthday of DCIA

This year's Delaware Crop Improvement Association program at the Capital Grange Hall in Dover, Nov. 17-18 will mark the organization's 50th birthday, according to president James Dickenson, Townsend.

The program will include presentation of awards to state and county winners of the soybean and corn yield contests at the banquet Tuesday night; crops judging contest by 4-H'ers; crop exhibits for hay, soybeans and corn; a Monday banquet in honor of Farm-City Week, and a daytime crops and soils short course Tuesday.

The Delaware Crop Improvement Association has helped raise the standards of crops in Delaware since its beginning in 1908. Mr. Dickenson said the organization has worked with the Agricultural Extension Service for better seed, soil conservation, better cropping practices and in general, has been an important factor in improving the production and income of Delaware farmers.

Replace What You Took

Most farms have been drawing heavily upon the fertility in the soil this year because of the heavy rains, says county agent George Vapaa. Hay yields of 4 to 5 tons per acre of legume-

Smith One of Best Commissioners in State Says Lyons

Harry S. Smith of Georgetown, who seeks re-election as State Insurance Commissioner on the Democratic ticket has been hailed as one of the best commissioners in the history of the state of Delaware.

Nor is this merely "campaign talk" according to Garrett E. Lyons, Democratic state chairman, who says it is imperative that a man of Mr. Smith's ability be kept on the job.

"Not only has Harry Smith done an outstanding job as insurance commissioner," Mr. Lyons declared, "but he has had non-partisan and bi-partisan support all along because of the great progress he has made for the insurance people."

Mr. Lyons cited at least two incidents where such support has been forthcoming. The New Castle Board of the State Association of Insurance Agents recently adopted the following resolution: "Whereas, we have found the Honorable Harry S. Smith, Insurance Commissioner of the State of Delaware to be an able, fair, and conscientious administrator of the insurance laws of our state; be it therefore resolved that we endorse the nomination and re-election of Commissioner Smith for another term of office."

The second reference comes from the minutes of the March 18, 1958 meeting of the Delaware Association of Insurance Agents, dated at Dover. The minutes read "Mr. Pratt introduced the following resolution which was duly passed by the Association—Whereas we have found the Hon. Harry S. Smith, Insurance Commissioner of the State of Delaware to be an able, fair and conscientious administrator of the insurance laws of our state, be it therefore resolved that the Delaware Association of Insurance Agents endorse the nomination of Commissioner Smith for another term of office."

Mr. Lyons said that these words speak for themselves. "When such approval comes unsolicited we cannot ignore the fact that we must have a good man on our ticket; I am sure the people of Delaware will back the State Insurance Agents and keep Mr. Smith on the job for another term," Mr. Lyons concluded.

Cold Eggs Hold Flavor Longer

If you take eggs from your refrigerator and leave them out in the kitchen long enough to warm up to room temperature, they begin losing their good flavor, says Mrs. Marjorie Whittaker, nutrition specialist at the University of Delaware. To prevent this flavor loss, U. S. Department of Agriculture researchers advise that eggs should not be exposed to room temperature any more than necessary. Bring eggs from store to home refrigerator as quickly as possible. Put them in the part of the refrigerator where they will keep coldest without freezing. At mealtimes, take out the eggs you need and leave the rest in the refrigerator.

In laboratory experiments, Mrs. Whittaker says newly-laid eggs refrigerated for 13 weeks and then soft-cooked had as good flavor as Grade-A eggs. Eggs refrigerated for 15 weeks in the tests still gave Grade-A flavor to baked custards and angelfood

Farm Real Estate Values Continues Climb to New High

The market value of farm land and buildings in Delaware rose eight percent during the year ending July 1, 1958, according to W. T. McAllister, agricultural economist with the University of Delaware. This compares with a nationwide rise in farm values averaging five percent during the same period.

In general the market value of farm real estate (land and buildings) continues to climb to new high levels, according to a report by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on current developments in the farm real estate market. Values in 45 states reached the highest point on record during the year ended on July 1.

The rise of five percent in farm real estate values across the nation is only a little less than rises in several preceding years. Southeastern and Northern Plains States experienced the sharpest advances, while smaller than average increases occurred in the Corn Belt and Great Lake areas.

Active farmers are the most important buyers of farmland, purchasing about three-fifths of all farms and farm tracts sold. And enlargement of existing farms continues, as in other recent years, to be an important motive for purchase. This alone accounted for 40 percent of all farm transfers last year. Most strongly affected by this demand for bigger farms is the western two-thirds of the country, notably the spring and winter wheat areas. Demand for land for non-farm uses is felt more in the East.

The report also discusses the effect of roads on farm land values, McAllister said. Farm real estate reporters estimate that sales prices for properties on dirt roads would range from 3 to 11 percent higher, depending on the area, if they were located on gravel or hard-surface roads.

In these special egg-flavor tests eggs were stored under carefully controlled conditions. Most homemakers, of course, don't want to keep eggs this long. However the nutrition specialist said, tests show that prompt, continuous refrigeration is necessary to hold the fresh flavor of eggs.

Last Visits to Pea Patch Island This Weekend

Regularly scheduled weekend transportation to and from Pea Patch Island, site of historic Fort Delaware, will be discontinued the current calendar year after this Sunday, Oct. 19, cautions the Delaware State Development Department, in urging everyone to avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting the old fortress.

After a lapse of two years, scheduled boat trips to Pea Patch Island were resumed Sept. 20 and hundreds have since visited the island and fort.

Through arrangement with the State Parks Commission, round trip transportation is being provided by Captain Walter Wisowaty of Delaware City at nominal charges of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under fourteen. A 35-foot motor launch, having ship-to-shore radio and meeting all U. S. Coast Guard safety requirements, is being used for the trip to the island, leaving the dock at foot of Clinton Street, in Delaware City, at 45-minute intervals between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Saturday and Sundays.

Recent completion of a new 450-foot pier on Pea Patch Island made possible resumption of a regular boat schedule. Now, even at low tide, boats can safely approach the new pier advises the Development Department.

In 1955, before shifting silt and mud made docking impossible except at high tide, the old fortress had 6,000 visitors during five open weekends.

The approach of the centennial year of the Civil War, which Fort Delaware played a prominent though somewhat unpleasant role, is expected to stimulate interest in the fort and attract thousands of visitors to Pea Patch Island.

In recent months, considerable repair of damaged areas has been accomplished and the grounds have been cleared of weeds and debris. Much additional improvement is planned before the fort is opened for what will be its first full season next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Nimrod Minner will celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary at their home, 236 Delaware Avenue, Harrington, Tues., Oct. 21. They are life-long residents of this city and both were born in the immediate vicinity. Mr. Minner was born March 16, 1862 and his wife, Annie Sylvester Minner, was born October 19, 1870. Mr. Minner is a retired employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and served his entire service in Harrington as baggage man. They have one daughter, Mrs. George Melson, of Delmar, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Infant Dies

Joseph Robert Valdesere, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Valdesere, Ward Street, died on arrival at the Milford Memorial Hospital Friday. Sussex County Coroner Volly Gray said cause of death was pneumonia.

Services were held from the J. Millard Cooper Funeral Home, Monday afternoon. Interment was in St. Johnstown Cemetery, Greenwood.

In addition to his parents, a sister, Linda Elaine, survives; also his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Valdesere, Wyoming and his maternal grandfather, Irving Williamson, Harrington.

ing to register for the course may do so by calling the school office at Bedford 2661 or by coming to the first class meeting.

John J. Ryan, commercial instructor, will teach the class.

U. of D. Prepares For Homecoming

Preparations are being made for the annual Homecoming Day on the campus of the University of Delaware which has been scheduled for Sat., Oct. 25.

Main attractions for returning alumni will be the Delaware vs. Connecticut football game at 2 p.m. and the many new campus facilities which have been opened this year.

The Student Center and four new dormitories will be dedicated in a simple ceremony in the Student Center lounge shortly before luncheon.

Another feature of the day will be the annual homecoming parade staged by fraternities and residence halls. Colorful floats representing the living units will be displayed at the Stadium after the parade at 12:15 p.m.

Alumni will meet after the football game at the Newark Country Club for the annual Goal Post party. A homecoming dance has been scheduled from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. at the Student Center.

Homecoming programs have been mailed to all alumni and Raymond B. Duncan, faculty manager of athletics, reports that the advanced sale of football tickets is heavy. A capacity crowd of 7200 is expected.

Half-time ceremonies at the game will be devoted to the crowning of the homecoming queen, selected by the undergraduate body in balloting conducted by the student newspaper. Early nominees for the coveted crown are Miss Katherine V. Gordy, Media, Pa., Miss Katharine Hammond, Bridgeville, and Miss Martha Gail Partridge, Orelan, Pa.

1958 Yearbook of Agriculture Out

"The future appears to hold for us an increasing population, increasing wants on the part of individuals, unknown advances in the techniques of production, and new and competing uses for many of our land resources."

This is a statement from this year's Yearbook of Agriculture, entitled "Land."

Land has served us well in the past, it is pointed out. It was virtually the only resource available to our ancestors at the end of the Revolutionary War. Proceeds from the sale of land were used to provide funds to launch the fledgling nation. More important sales of agricultural products provided capital for the rapid industrialization of our economy. Sales of land financed some of our communications—canals, railroads, and the National Pike. Through the land grant college system, public lands have helped in educating the young. And in a larger but immeasurable sense, abundant land may have been responsible for much of our political and economic freedom.

The basic question of land use remains, and the welfare of generations to come will depend upon how well they succeed in getting each acre of land into its most economic use.

It is a book for city people as well as farmers and government officials. Several chapters deal with the growth of cities and their worries as to transportation, trade, planning, zoning and the future.

No specific program is offered, but it discusses our growing use of farmland and forests for non-agricultural purposes, which is of concern to every thinking American.

This Yearbook also has two special picture sections. One shows land use from the landing of the colonists to the present. The other shows the use of air-photos in determining the extent of changes in land use. Many charts, maps and tables are included.

Low water levels led to cuts of 75 per cent in the Madras, India, electricity supply.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

October 19, at Christ Church Parish House, Milford, the first of this year's youth group county convocations will be held for all Episcopal boys and girls in grades 8-12. The meeting will take place Sunday, 4:30-7 p.m. There will be a varied program, including a fifteen minute film on "Parents are People". Supper will be served.

High spots at the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, now being held at Miami, Fla., include the rejection of a move to apply the name of "archbishop" to the church's presiding bishop. The group decided that ancient title was a bit too regal and high-sounding for American Episcopalians.

Some churchmen, it seems, are also annoyed by social frills accompanying the church meetings. A move was initiated at the convention to eliminate some of the customary pomp and ceremony.

The Very Rev. Lloyd E. Gressie, dean of the Cathedral Church of St. John in Wilmington, sponsored a resolution that is not in favor of the church's holding its conventions in resort areas noted for expensive recreation and fancy living. Dean Gressie stated that it appears money is being diverted from church purposes for our luxury; the serious business of the church becomes suspect in the eyes of the world. The last convention in 1955, was in Hawaii. The resolution asked that the next convention three years hence be held in a more appropriate austere environment such as that afforded by a college or university.

The official reception line was also under attack. The Rev. William H. Cole of Syracuse, N. Y., asked that the practice be abolished. The one Monday night, Oct. 6, lasted three hours and thousands of church members filed in to shake the hand of the presiding bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill. About 15,000 visitors and delegates are attending this national triennial convention.

In this diocese, it will be of interest to know that the Rev. William C. Munds, rector of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, was appointed chairman of the committee on expenses at the general convention. He will serve a three-year term. Delaware is represented in four other convention bodies: Houston Wilson, Georgetown, program and budget committee; James T. McKinstry, nominating committee for convention treasurer; the Very Rev. Lloyd E. Gressie, Christian Education Committee, and the Rev. Paul A. Kellogg, Dover admissions of new diocese committee.

The first regular meeting of St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary for 1958-59 will be held Tuesday, Oct. 21, 8 p.m., at the Parish House. Mrs. Robert Creadick, president for the coming session, will preside.

Sept. 29, ground was broken for the new St. Stephen's Church, Harrington, at the site near Route 13, Delaware Avenue, and Raleigh Hill Road. Prayers were offered and God's blessing on the workmen and their labors was asked by the Rev. John R. Symonds, Jr., vicar of St. Stephen's.

Labor Day Bishop Mosley and his family returned from a busy summer in Europe including attendance at the Lambeth Conference in London and a meeting of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches in Denmark. At the Lambeth Conference the Bishop joined more than 300 Anglican bishops in sounding a call for the abolition of nuclear bombs and weapons, strong support for the work of the United Nations, an affirmation of the right for free association of the races, and a belief in the responsibility of family planning for Christian parents. The group reaffirmed that "was as a method of settling international disputes is incompatible with the teaching and example of our Lord Jesus Christ and nothing less than abolition of war itself should be the goal of the nations, their leaders, and their citizens."

A correspondent of the Eastbourne Herald Chronicle, Sussex, England reported "From the huge industrial city of Wilmington, over 3000 miles away in the U.S.A. the Bishop of Delaware, the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, came to Wilmington, Sussex Sunday afternoon (July 13), where, with a large crowd of parishioners gathered under the lofty centuries-old trees, bending and whistling in the half gale, he joined in a simple summer festival service." Another paper reported: "The Bishop of Delaware felt very much at home in the Sussex village of Wilmington. Although his Wilmington is an industrial city in the county of Newcastle, the county town is Dover, and the adjoining counties are Kent and Sussex. He told the Wilmington and Folkington children sitting around him: "Our nearby towns are Seaford and Lewes. So you see, it's just like home here!"

Flowers on the altar were given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of F. Budd and Catherine Shurter by Willabelle S. and George C. Symonds.

After the creed, at the 11 o'clock service, Sunday, Oct. 5, a new Chalice and Paten were dedicated in loving memory of Mary Lucho, mother of Helen McNally. The chalice and paten of sterling silver, are gold-lined.

The members of the church are sorry to know that Arthur Williams is now a patient at Delaware Hospital, Wilmington. Prayers of the congregation are being said for Mr. Williams, and many kind thoughts are with him during his serious illness.

The first fall meeting of the Harrington area Ministerial Association was held at Houston Methodist Church, Monday, Oct. 12, 10 a.m. The session began with a service of Holy Communion celebrated by the Rev. Richard Gibson and the Rev. Ray Kirwan.

Asbury Methodist Notes

Instructions to Voters

MANNER OF VOTING

When a voter presents himself for the purpose of voting, the election officer shall ascertain whether his name is upon the register of voters, and if his name appears thereon and is not challenged or a challenge is decided in his favor, one of the election officers to be stationed at the entrance of the voting machine shall announce the name of the voter and permit him to pass through the entrance to the booth of the voting machine for the purpose of casting his vote. Each judge shall then stamp or write the word "VOTED" in the column opposite the name of the voter in the Books of Registered Voters in his possession. No voter shall remain in the voting machine booth longer than three minutes, unless for good and sufficient reason he be granted a longer period of time by the election officers in charge. When the voter has cast his vote the voter shall at once leave the room. If he refuses to leave after a reasonable period he shall be removed by the election officers. No voter after having entered and emerged from the voting machine booth shall be permitted to re-enter the same on any pretext whatever. Only one voter at a time shall be permitted to enter the voting machine booth. Added 49 Del. Laws, Ch. 18, § 1. eff. Mar. 20, 1953.

INSTRUCTING VOTERS ON ELECTION DAY

Any voter requesting instruction shall be given such instruction by an election officer with reference to the sample ballots posted in the polling place.

In case any voter, after entering the voting machine booth, shall ask for further instructions concerning the manner of voting, two election officers of opposite political parties shall give such instructions to him; but no person assisting a voter shall in any manner seek to influence his vote. After giving instructions and before such voter shall have registered his vote, the persons assisting him shall retire and such voter shall then register his vote in secret. Added 49 Del. Laws, Ch. 18 § 1. eff. Mar. 20, 1953.

DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCE OF VOTER

In all questions of residence arising under the provisions of Article V of the Constitution of this state, if any person, having resided within this State, actually removes to another place out of this State, with an intention of remaining there for an indefinite time, as a place of present domicile, he shall lose his qualifications of residence within this State, notwithstanding he may entertain a floating intention to return at some future period. The same principle shall be applied to removals from one place to another within this State.

ASSISTANCE TO BLIND OR PHYSICALLY DISABLED VOTERS

Any person who shall be physically unable to operate the voting machine by reason of defective eyesight, or the loss of the use of one or both hands, or inability to walk with safety without assistance, as manifestly renders him or her unable to operate the voting machine, or to reach the polling place alone with safety, shall be permitted to bring with him or her into the election room and both any elector or two electors, if the nature of the disability manifestly requires more than one, such as a total disability to walk to the polling district for the purpose of rendering the necessary assistance to vote. No voter shall receive any other assistance in voting than that permitted by this section.

NUMBER OF PERSONS PERMITTED IN BOOTH AND VOTING ROOM; CONVERSATION IN ELECTION ROOM

Not more than one person shall be permitted to occupy any voting booth at one time. No person shall remain in or occupy a voting booth longer than may be necessary to prepare his ballot and in no event longer than three minutes. No more than one person for each booth in the room, other than the election officers, shall be permitted to enter or be in the election room at any one time, except as in this chapter provided. No voter or person offering to vote shall hold any conversation or communicate with any other person than an election officer while in the election room, except as in this chapter provided.

No election officer, challenger or any other person within the polling place, during the election or counting of ballots, shall electioneer or engage in any political discussion.

CHALLENGERS: APPOINTMENT AND POWERS

Each of the political parties, acting through their respective county committees, may appoint and accredit some suitable person as a challenger to stand without the door or entrance of the room in which the election is to be held, and by the side of the passage. If any political party fails to appoint a challenger, the Inspector and Judges shall make such appointment. The challengers may be changed and their places filled in like manner during the day. The challengers shall be protected in the discharge of their duty by the election officers. The challengers, chosen for any general or special election, shall be peace officers of this State and shall have the same powers for preserving the peace as election officers have.

PERSONS PERMITTED TO STAND WITHIN 30 FEET OF ENTRANCE

One challenger designated by each political party shall be entitled to stand at the side of the passage and near the entrance to the room. No other person shall remain within 30 feet of the entrance except as provided in this chapter.

REMOVAL OR DESTRUCTION OF ELECTION SUPPLIES OR EQUIPMENT OR VOTING MACHINE

Whoever, during the general election—(1) removes or destroys any of the supplies or other conveniences placed in the booths or delivered to the voter for the purpose of enabling him to prepare his ballot; or (2) removes, tears down or defaces the cards printed for the instruction of the voters; or (3) destroys or removes any booth, railing or other conveniences provided for such election; or (4) tampers with, disarranges, defaces or impairs in any manner the use of or destroys any voting machine or the ballots on the face of a voting machine, shall be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year.

INDUCING ELECTION OFFICERS TO VIOLATE ELECTION LAWS

Whoever induces or attempts to induce any election officers to violate any of the provisions of this title, whether or not such election officers violate or attempt to violate any of such provisions, shall be imprisoned not more than 5 years.

Delaware Food Market Report

There's no reason to wait. Have an apple now—or better yet have two or more! It's apple harvest time, and more than eleven million bushels of apples are in the process of filling our markets.

The apple industry is busy keeping up with our fast moving age and an evidence of this is the disappearance of the old apple barrel which is being replaced by the corrugated tray packs. This type of packing gives each individual apple a comfortable nest and protection from bruising. This is only one of the many things being done to make sure you and I will receive only the best.

Varieties have changed a lot too. The best of the old favorites are being combined to make a better apple and because of this, the new sports are taking over. For instance the newer red sports such as Rome Beauty, Red Staymans' Red Delicious and York Imperials have pushed old favorites like Black Twig and Wine-saps into the background. Just another sign of changing times.

Some varieties are best for eating raw, some for pie, some for baking and so on. Do you know which apple will "fill the bill"?

For baking: Rome Beauty, Jonathan (their season is about over) Grimes Golden, York Imperial.

For pie: Stayman Winesap, Rome Beauty, Golden Delicious, Jonathan, York Imperials.

For applesauce: Golden Delicious, Stayman Winesap, York Imperial, Grimes Golden.

For salads: Golden delicious should top the list since they do not turn brown as quickly as most apples after they have been peeled. Other apples good for salads, also, are Red Delicious, Stayman Winesap, Grimes Golden.

For eating: Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Stayman Winesap, Grimes Golden Jonathan.

These names are just a few of the apples that are on the market, however, they are the one most popular on our local markets.

Eggs continue their astonishing price decline. Grade A large eggs dropped 2 to 4c a dozen. However, the small egg is still the best buy in most stores.

Meat prices are steady or a little lower though the best buys are found among the weekend specials. Look for good buys on lamb, turkey, broilers and fryers, and fresh pork.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
 Q—I am eligible for War Orphans Education. I've just been discharged from the Army, although I am still under 21. If I take War Orphans schooling, will by VA allowance come directly to me, or must it be sent to my guardian, since I am under age?
 A—VA would send the allowances directly to you, since it has ruled that in your status as veteran you may receive payments personally, even though you are under age.
 Q—My state recently gave me a bonus and I am drawing pension from the VA. Do I have to count the bonus money as income when I fill out VA's income questionnaire the first of next year?
 A—You do not have to report state war bonuses as income in determining 1958 income for VA pension purposes.
 Q—I have a Korean GI term insurance policy, with the letters "RS" before the policy number. These policies may soon be cancelled and replaced by a new law vested to permanent insurance. How soon can I make the change-over? How much of the new-type permanent insurance will I be allowed to carry?
 A—The law permitting holders of Korean "RS" term policies to convert to permanent insurance became effective January 1, 1959. The maximum amount of permanent insurance you may obtain under the new law is limited by the face amount of your present policy.
 Q—I need a copy of my discharge in order to get a Certificate of Eligibility with which to get a GI home loan, but my discharge is lost. Where can I get a replacement?
 A—Write to the Personnel Records Center of the Armed Forces, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo. Give your service number and your branch of service. There is no charge for this replacement.

W.S.C.S. Notes

County Man Named Supervisor of Local Farm Census Test

Appointment of Henry G. Sherer of Dover as supervisor of a 1959 Census of Agriculture test which will be conducted in Kent County during the week of Nov. 10, was announced today by the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.
 The local test is one of 17 which will be made simultaneously throughout the country next month to try out procedures and questionnaires being considered for use in the nation-wide census of agriculture next year.
 About 500 county farms will be visited in the test which will be governed by the confidential features of regular census taking. All information about individuals or their farming activities furnished to the Census Bureau must be kept in strict confidence under federal law and cannot be used for purposes of investigation, regulation, or taxation.
 Supervisor Sherer reported to a Census Bureau training center at Philadelphia Oct. 13 to receive a week's instruction in his duties. Upon returning home, he will begin preparations for the test census. His first activity will be to check out boundary lines of maps which are used to guide census takers on their rounds. Then he will recruit, test, and select 15 county residents who will act as census takers during the test. The census takers will be trained during the week of November 10 by the supervisor who will be responsible for obtaining a training site. The census takers will start visiting local farmers Mon., Nov. 10.

AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL for beautiful proportions by the Comité Français de l'Elegance at the Brussels World's Fair

Styled, powered and priced for today's driving! There never was a Ford like this before! Its classic new design was awarded the Gold Medal of the Comité Français de l'Elegance at the Brussels World's Fair! With new Thunderbird flavor in each lively line and tastefully new interiors, these 59 Fords are beautifully proportioned for elegant driving.
 Power, performance and economy are served up in new proportions, too. All standard Ford engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gasoline at regular prices. You save up to 5 cents on each gallon! There's a new aluminum muffler that normally will last twice as long as conventional mufflers used on other cars... full-flow oil filtration that lets you change oil at 4000 miles instead of the 1000 often recommended... new Tyrex cord tires for greater economy and safety... a brilliant new Diamond Lustre Baked Enamel Finish that's so durable you won't have to wax it ever... and two new economy power-transmission teams that will bring you savings automatically. That's why we say, for '59, Ford is truly a masterpiece of underpricing!

NEW economy team Number One! Get all the high performance of a completely new Fordomatic Drive teamed with a Six or Thunderbird V-8—at a price that puts automatic driving within everyone's car budget. It's a simplified Fordomatic with nearly 1/3 fewer parts.
 NEW economy team Number Two! Take Ford's versatile new Cruise-O-Matic Drive, add the responsiveness of Thunderbird Special V-8 power and you have the last word in automatic driving plus the "built-in" overdrive savings of an economy-geared axle.

Altogether NEW in everything you can see, feel or touch!

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

Let us assume that the "Bond Issue" has passed and that the money is available. What do we go from here?

The old building which we have recently named the High School Annex was built in 1912. One of our neighboring towns has a similar building. The plan for both were drawn by the same person. One may say that it is done their a number of years ago. It now houses a second hand furniture store and upholstery shop. Should we re-tenant our building? That, we do so have discussed a number of times.

The New High School apparently will have sixteen classrooms plus the special rooms such as shops, laboratories, music and choral rooms, etc. The High School Annex, which we have been asked to abandon now and supply classrooms, a guidance office and a mimeograph room. The basement is used for an auditorial, book and fourteen classes and repairs. Should we abandon the Annex building we would be only two rooms to the good. There is both the first and the second in the abandoned Annex. The two rooms would be immediately utilized to house a second grade room and another special class or a remedial reading and adjustment class as we had last year. This plan does not solve our problem for the future.

Should we move the High School, that is grading nine, ten, and twelve to the new site. We are studying the conditions as possibly nine by next year or assuming that the building is not completed for two or three years, there is a possibility of three additional sections or eleven sections.

This proposition is built on the assumption that we use one class section each year as the pupils move up through the high school. We now have three sections in grades seven and three in grade eight. There is a possibility that there will be three ninth grade sections next year. If we give one section a year after we selected eleven from sixteen, we have five sections or five years to go until the new plant would be filled.

Now let us come back to our present plan. Eight sections are moving out. We need immediate room for another First Grade and for two Special Classes which meet in the basement. As stated before we should have an additional Special Class for the temperamentally maladjusted so that they too could move to normal growth. This adds up to four rooms and gives us four rooms to go.

The question has been asked as to the Agriculture and Manual Arts Building. We have the aluminum covering for the storage but while this is useful, it is inconvenient to work. The present shops in the Agriculture Building would need themselves as a building to store the school car, truck, tractor and moving equipment and could be used as the repair shop by the janitorial staff. Some suggestion it to use as a kindergarten. Our facilities we are asking for are practical and necessary. The value of an auditorium have also been considered. We are not at all sure that we will have enough money to cover this item but including the same in the planning. It is a project of this type we ask for more alternate ideas hoping for favorable prices and the ability to use a worthwhile job.

If you are interested and are studying the project many angles that adjust themselves as we go along. When you buy a suit, it is ready-made and has a definite price. When you build there are many variables in the cost of materials and the labor market. This determines how much money you will buy. We are sure that you will agree that this building program is not a long range project. It does not look far into the future. Our Elementary Building which was started in 1951 (date of referendum) consisting of fourteen rooms now over flows into the High School Annex and has utilized rooms there for a number of years. The Annex houses three sixth grades, one Fifth Grade and two Special Classes or a total of six non-regular groups.

Whose children are they? Whose responsibility are they? Will they give time to study the facts and help solve our problem?

We hope to come out and vote at the Bond Issue Election, November 6, 10 p. m. in either precinct No. 1 Democrat Center Street Building, in Precinct No. 2 the Building on Millip Street.

pared with 31 million dollars in 1952.

"Things are going in the wrong direction for you and me, the little men," he commented. "Small business has been hurt by this administration, in Dover and in Washington. Wheat is down 15c per bushel in six years; corn, 50c per bushel, and soybeans down 76c per bushel. These reductions particularly affect us because most of us are farmers."

Killen said the cause of the decline was the lowering of the per capita payments on farm products which was 90 per cent under Truman and about 76 per cent now.

Mrs. T. Brinton Holloway, Ninth District committee-woman, was hostess, and Franklin Hendricks, president of the club, presided.

Mrs. Laura Belle Wilson was head of the committee for a covered-dish supper preceding the speaking.

Early in the meeting Mrs. Holloway introduced candidates on the Kent County ticket, as follows: Herman Trader, for coroner; Roy Honey, for recorder of deeds; J. Noble Carroll, for levy court commissioner; George Cain, for representative; Walter Handberry, for clerk of the peace; Wesley Walls, for sheriff.

contact both blocking and tackling. However, this shortcoming is apparent in most new teams. It often takes several years to play winning football. Lewes and Rehoboth used to schedule Harrington in soccer in the "thirties." When football replaced soccer the road was rocky at first but now both schools are consistently tough. It could happen here.

JV's Lose to Georgetown, 7-6

The Junior Varsity team sparked by the passing combination of Ken Hoffman to Bruce Smith and the running of Pfeiffer and Balderson scored first to lead Georgetown 6-0. The visitors rallied late and won the game with the aid of a point-after-touchdown. Smith, Pfeiffer and Balderson also paced H.H.S. on defense.

Girl Scout News

Our newest Brownie Troop held its first meeting Monday afternoon. Thirteen girls were present. They learned of the American and troop flags and the part they play in each meeting. They repeated their Brownie Promise and learned its meaning. Then they played games. Next week they will read the Brownie will read them the Brownie story.

Brownie Troop 120 met with intermediate Troop 157 Monday and accompanied by leaders, Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Walls and Scouts Dawn Hopkins, troop 131 and Sarah Moore, troop 21, visited Hi-Grade Dairy. There, Mr. Hughes took us through the plant. They were amazed to find a machine that opened the cartons and when they were filled, to close them. Mr. Wechtenhiser showed them how the machine washed the bottles. They also examined the refrigerated trucks. Mr. Hughes treated them to a pencil and chocolate milk. They then hiked back to the Scout building. They are planning a train ride this month. Troops 134 and 183 elected the following officers Tuesday: chairman, Nancy Taylor; scribe, Donna Faye Callaway; treasurer, Patty Jopp; color bearers: Brenda Hurd and Judy Burgess; color guards, Susan Taylor and Marianne Clarke. "Mama" sound boxes for dolls, in plastic, are offered by a firm in Bordeaux, France. Mexico's cost-of-living index recently hit an all-time high.

Felton Girl Became Bride Saturday In Methodist Church Ceremony

The marriage of Jean Marilyn Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Reed, Felton Heights, to William Blake Wothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wothers, Greensboro, Md., took place at the Felton Methodist Church last Saturday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Leonard Richenderfer performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Larry Renner, pastor of the Felton Church. The church was decorated with palms, flowers and candelabra. Mrs. Ina Hughes was organist and Miss Sonja Riddle was soloist. The maid of honor was Miss Shirley Hurd of Viola. Bridesmaids were: Miss Emily Robb, Greensboro, Md.; Miss Carole Wright, Felton; and Miss Janice Wothers, Greensboro, Md., junior bridesmaid. Miss Marsha Kemp, Felton, was flower girl. The best man was Ralph Wothers, Greensboro, Md. Ushers were Dorsey and Dale Hammond of Felton. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta. The lace torso bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves which came to a point over the wrists. The full skirt was gathered at the hips with a straight front panel of lace and a back panel of lace tiers. The lace was repeated in appliques on the sides of the skirt. The bride's fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a half hat covered with sequins and pearls. She carried a white orchid and pom pons on a white Bible. The maid of honor wore a princess style gown of blue lace over taffeta and matching feathered hat with shoulder length veil. She carried a nosegay of blue chrysanthemums. The bride's mother wore a beige sheath dress with brown accessories and a white rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue dress and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow pom pons. After the wedding a reception was held in the Felton firehall. The couple went to Florida on their wedding trip. They will make their home in Felton, where the bridegroom is engaged in truck farming.

he was born Eugenio Pacelli, March 2, 1876; he was ordained a priest on April 2, 1889; created a cardinal, Dec. 16, 1929; elected to the papacy on March 2, 1939; and died on October 9. Besides being called his Holiness, Pope Pius XII, he was also known as the pope of peace, the bishop of Rome and the vicar of Jesus Christ; the successor of St. Peter who had been appointed by Christ as the prince of the Apostles; the supreme pontiff of the universal church; the patriarch of the West; the primate of Italy; the archbishop and metropolitan of the Roman province; and the sovereign of Vatican City. On the reverse side of the card is a special prayer which reads: "O God, who by Thy ineffable providence didst will that Thy servant Pius be numbered among the high priests; grant, we beseech Thee, that he who on earth was the vicar of Thy only-begotten Son may be eternally joined to the company of Thy saints, the soul of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, Thy servant, whom Thou has called away from the toil and strife of this world. Through Our Lord, Jesus Christ Who liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen. Eternal rest grant unto him. O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen."

Now that the mortal remains of the 261st pope have been laid to rest, the attention of Catholics turns to the election of the next successor to St. Peter. While only two Americans will take part in the actual selection of the next pope, all the Catholics in this area have been asked to join in prayers during the time the cardinals are considering the choice they will make in the forthcoming conclave. Ordinarily 13 of the present 55 cardinals have ever taken part in a previous election. From now until the election of the new pope, a special prayer will be inserted in each mass offered in this diocese. The prayer reads: "We most humbly entreat Thee, O Lord, that Thy boundless goodness may grant as bishop to the most holy Roman Church one who shall ever be both pleasing to Thee, and by his loving zeal in our regard, and by his beneficial rule, deeply revered by Thy people to the glory of Thy name. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ Who liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen."

St. Bernadette's Mourns For Pope Pius XII

Even though Harrington is far from Vatican City, events taking place there have effects here. As a sign of mourning for Pope Pius XII, black drapes have been placed at the entrance to St. Bernadette's Church. At mass Sunday prayers for the happy repose of his soul was recited by the congregation. At that time also the faithful were invited by the Rev. Father John A. Corrigan to assist at the requiem high mass to be sung in St. John's Church in Milford, Monday, the day when the Pope would be buried in Vatican City. This Sunday memorial cards of his holiness will be distributed to all the parishioners. These cards show a picture of the late pope and indicate the fact that
