Lets give credit where credit is due!!! For instance, the Harrington girls varsity basketball team.

Just how many articles have you read this year pertaining to the girls sports curricular at Harrington School? I would say five at the most.

No, their games aren't played at everyone's convenience. Over 90% of their games are played immediately after school hours. And speaking of close games—let me give you a few statistics; out of 13 games the varsity team lost seven by as narrow as margin as one point and not greater than 11 points. They won six games—defeating Laurel, Caesar Rodney, Felton, Alumni, and twice with Milford.

The girls are due a great deal of credit for playing their best to the end—whether defeated or won.

In thirteen games Bonnie Satterfield, co-captain of the team, scored 238 points. I don't know exactly how much everyone knows about basketball, but 238 points is a darn good score. Bonnie average 18 points a game with a spectacular finish against Laurel with a record breaking 30 points.

Pat Jack, also an outstanding player, scored 159 points for the season and Emily Brown, 69.

Among the guards who need considerable praise are Jerry Reed, Betty Hendricks, Phil Vincent, and Barb Lewis.

I'd say that the whole team needs a big pat on the back. So if you see one of these players remember to congratulate them—not only for winning by score but also by sportsmanship.

Micro-Midget News

In the past few months a lot of changes have taken place in the Blue Hen Micro-Midget Racing Club. The club has drawn up a complete new set of rules. One of the big changes is that the fastest cars start in the rear of all races. George N. Reed, who for the past four years has served as a NASCAR official in Delaware and New Jersey was named appointed race director. Mr. Reed, who has had a lot of experience in stock car racing should be a great help to our club.

The bank along the back stretch of the track has been removed. The pits are being moved out of the infield. The track itself is to be resurfaced and the turns made longer. All work on the track is being done under the supervision of John Porter, who is the track manager.

Anyone wishing to join our club may do so by contacting Howard Hill, Buddy Minner or Jarvis Hurd. We hope that by making these improvements that we will be able to give you faster and better racing and draw more people to our track.

It has been reported that Clarence Billings and Pat Fry have just about completed their new cars and will be slipping off to try them out any day now. Spanky Vincent and Bob Murray are also building new cars.

Most of Monday's session was bogged down in a rules squabble, stemming from interpretation of the new rules adopted.

Introduced Monday SB-45—Senators Mayhew and Walton H. Simpson (D-Camden), an act authorizing the Caesar Rodney Special School District to refund $36 to Walter and Lydia E. Cooper for school taxes erroneously collected in 1956-57.

SB-46—Senator Mayhew, authorizing the Kent County Levy Court to refund $65 to the Coopers for property taxes erroneously collected in 1956-57, and to refund to Mary M. Tyler $24.68 for county taxes collected in duplicate from her from 1953 to 1955.

SB-47 — Senator Wilmer F. Williams (R-Roselle), a constitutional amendment authorizing the General Assembly to provide for the continuity of state government in the event of disaster caused by enemy attack.

Senate Adopts GOP Resolution On Tax Study

The Senate Monday passed a Republican sponsored resolution calling for appointment of a joint non-partisan committee to investigate tax revenues.

It also received a labor-backed bill which would exempt any worker or employe making $100 a week or less from having wages attached.

This was about the only major action as the Senate devoted another day to fiddle-faddle, coming up with two new reasons for inactivity:

1. Dissension over interpretation of the new rules.

2. A prolonged meeting between Sussex County senators and Col. John F. Ferguson, superintendent of state police, on an undisclosed topic, reportedly having to do with a disciplinary matter.

The tax-study group was proposed in a resolution (SCR-12), introduced by Senators James H. Snowden, Wilmington, the minority leader, and Reynolds du Pont, of Greenville, and passed with only one dissenting vote.

It provides for appointment of a 10-member committee. Five would be appointed by the president pro tem of the Senate, including a Republican and a Democratic senator, and one layman from each county, to include a representative of business, labor, and agriculture.

The other five would be appointed by the speaker of the House, and would parallel the Senate appointments, substituting representatives for senators, and providing for appointment of a small business representative.

The resolution would appropriate $25,000 for the committee, and would empower it to hire consultants and lawyers for a study of tax laws, mandatory appropriations and the general fiscal condition of the state. It calls for a complete report not later than next Jan. 1.

Earlier, Snowden had stricken from the calendar SCR-11 which he introduced last Thursday, and which fell before a party line vote before being restored to the calendar. Snowden noted that the bill contained several errors.

The only negative vote was cast by Senator Harry E. Mayhew (D-Milford), who said he felt the bill should be referred to a committee for study and report before being called up for passage.

Senate Bill 48, introduced by Senator John E. Reilly, Sr. (D-Wilmington), the majority leader, would amend the code, changing the section providing for the attachment of wages in case of debt.

It would in effect release an employee making less than $100 a week from the embarrassment of having any percentage of his wages attached for debts incurred, or for taxes owing to the state.

Senator Snowden also put in an amendment to the Republican-sponsored bill to create a State Department of Labor, striking the section which provides for appropriations of $15,000 a year for the coming biennium.

With a couple of minor exceptions the bill (SB-6) is identical to the House Bill 50 which Senator Allen J. Cook (D-Kenton), the president pro tem, assigned last Thursday to the Finance Committee, precipitating a Democratic split. Upstate Democrats fear that this is a move to bottle the bill up in a committee dominated by Kent and Sussex Senators, and Senator Reilly has threatened to bring the Republican bill out of his committee and put it to a vote.

Some 200 persons heard Dr. Park W. Huntington, enumerate the requirements of brotherhood Monday night at the 12th annual Friendship Dinner, in the cafeteria of Harrington High School.

The dinner, sponsored this year by the Harrington New Century Club, was originated in 1947 by Mrs. Earl Sylvester. Mrs. Sylvester, at the close of the dinner, was presented an emblem of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mr. Huntington, past state commander of the American Legion and past chaplain of the national Legion, cited clear thinking and sincere love of one's fellow man as some of the ways of achieving brotherhood. He interspersed, liberally, his speech with many amusing anecdotes and was given a standing ovation at the close of his excellent talk.

He interspersed, liberally, his speech with many amusing anecdotes and was given a standing ovation at the close of his excellent talk.

The invocation was given by J. C. Messner, superintendent of Harrington Schools, and the welcome was given by Mrs. William W. Shaw, president of the sponsoring organization. Mrs. Shaw also told of the background of the dinner and presented the guests at the speaker's table.

Entertainment consisted of two vocal solos by Mrs. William Simpson and four vocal selections by a quartet of Dwight Hackett, Phillip Holson, Bill Manship, and Kenneth Hoffman. The musical selections received much applause.

Both organizations are concerned, the officials said, about complaints of motorists passing stopped school buses. The two officials have interviewed number of persons—usually mothers of school children—who have made the complaints after seeing automobiles passing stopped school buses with the warning "arm" outstretched.

Captain Daney and Mr. Jamison called attention to the state's motor vehicle law, Section 4143, paragraph (a) which says: "The operator of a motor vehicle upon any highway or public street in this State, upon meeting or overtaking any school bus stopped upon the public highway or street for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school child, if the "arm" of such bus is extended, shall stop and shall not pass the school bus until the "arm" shall have been retracted against the side of the bus."

Paraphrase (b) of the same section specifies that this requirement does not apply to motor vehicles on the opposite lane of a dual highway from a school bus.

But the law definitely applies to motor vehicles meeting a stopped school bus headed in the opposite direction on a highway which is not dual. Most of the complaints have involved that situation.

The officials pointed out that extra vigilance is required on the part of drivers moving in the direction opposite from the way the school bus is headed to note that it is stopped and has its "arm" out. The driver is likely to be more on the lookout for a moving object than a stopped vehicle. Also, if the stopped vehicle is not in his way, and is headed in the other direction, he may not give it the attention necessary to take in the fact that the "arm" is outstretched and he must stop.

Pre-Easter Service To Be Held At Asbury Church

In the current Union Services Sunday nights in Harrington Pastor George Vandeman has been secured for this Sunday, March 1, Mr. Vandeman is director and speaker for the current TV Bible documentary "It Is Written." The services will be held in the Asbury Methodist church starting at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Vandeman's timely subject will be "Fallout Over Calvary—Fallout, radiation, chilling burning fear—and a safe place." A surprising story of nuclear daring.

Mr. Vandeman is well known to the Sunday morning television audience on Channel 3 for his scholarly work on the weekly "It Is Written" program. In this connection he has recently distinguished himself by his visits in the area of the Sea Dead Scrolls. It has been his privilege to capture the spirit of the Esne community for film presentation in the TV documentary "Hidden Treasure" and "Digging Up The Book". The sponsoring organization is the local Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

The Harrington Area Ministerial Association is very happy to sponsor the degree of interdenominational fellowship evidenced in the six consecutive union meetings. Everyone in the area is invited regardless of his church affiliation. The services Sunday, will include music talent from the W. C. Moffett Academy in Maryland and Washington Missionary College in Washington, D. C.

BASKETBALL

Last Tuesday night the local girls avenged an earlier defeat by beating John M. Clayton 43-40 on the 30 point effort of Evelyn Walters. Josephine McCloskey also chipped in 13 points to aid the winning effort. Barbara Postals also added a great amount of support to the two forwards. The guards played their usual good defensive game and held the opponents as the time wound away. The victory came to a hustling group of basketeers.

Bridgeville defeated the local girls by 2 points on Friday. Evelyn Walters and Josephine McCloskey led the home forces offensively as they have all year in one of the season's best games. Bridgeville sporting an 11-game winning streak almost had its bubble broken by the hustling lasses from Felton. A few more minutes on the clock could have spelled the difference but it was an excellent effort any way.

The Felton Jayvee boys played an excellent game with John M. Clayton and won 61-44. The high scorers were Jerry Mack with 14, Bobby Edwards, 14; Earl Walters, 11; Richard Hurd, 10; Bobby Donaway, 8, and Wayne Walters with 4.

The Varsity boys played a good game although John M. Clayton did beat them 46-44. The high scorers were: Richard McCloskey, 12; Billy Stubbs, 11; and Billy Rentz with 10.

Bridgeville beat Felton 46-39 last Friday night but all in all it was a good game. The high scorers were: Billy Rentz with 11, and Billy Stubbs with 10.

The piano, the gift of Dr. and Mrs. Hewitt Smith, has been tuned, completely re-felted and repaired, and has had a temperature control tube installed. It is in excellent condition. The kindergarten and primary church school classes find the piano invaluable in their regular Sunday sessions. The choir uses the piano for regular weekly choir practice and for short practice periods preceding the services. All those interested in helping to pay the repair bill on the piano are asked to take their contributions to the bake on Saturday morning, 9:30 a.m., or later, Feb. 28, or to patronize the bake on that day.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Stephen's parish was held Wednesday, Feb. 25, at the Century Club.

The Women of St. Stephen's met Tuesday, Feb. 17, 8 p.m., at the Parish House. Mrs. Robert Creadick presided.

Guests were Miss Dorothy M. Miller, member of the Maryland Division of Women's Work, and the Rev. Joseph E. James, rector of Christ Church, Denton. Miss Miller gave a talk on her experiences as a delegate to the 59th triennial convention of the church held at Miami, Fla., last October.

She gave her impressions of the opening service, when 12,000 persons gathered at Miami Beach Exhibition Hall for this occasion. At this service the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, D. D., Presiding Bishop, presented his final address, a part of the service in which bishops, priests, and other dignitaries at home and abroad, took part. Miss Miller described the many tributes of love extended Bishop Sherrill in this occasion of his retirement.

The speaker explained both the legislative and educational function of the triennial proceedings. The theme of the meeting was "One Family in Christ."

A part of the business considered was the changing patterns of women's work, the ministry of the laity, change in the name of the national organization, ways and means to improve the triennial.

At this February meeting, the local group voted to change the name of the church organization from St. Stephen's Auxiliary to the Women of St. Stephen's. On a national level, the change has already been made from Auxiliary to General Division of Women's Work.

The Men of St. Stephen's met Thurs., Feb. 19, at the Parish House. Mr. Robert Creadick presided. The men voted to change their meeting time from the third Thursday to the third Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be March 18. A number of fund-raising projects were considered.

The February issue of "Now" magazine, publication of the Episcopal Church in Delaware, contains a review of the book, "The Ministry of Healing" by John Ellis Large. The review is written by the Reverend John R. Symonds, Jr., vicar of St. Stephen's, Harrington.

There will be a meeting of the Kent County Youth Group at Christ Church, Parish House, Milford, 4:30-7 p.m.; Sun., Mar. 1. Exchange students of Milford will be guests of the group. The Rev. Canon Brewster Y. Beach, director of the Department of Christian Education, will also be a guest.

Supper will be served. All boys and girls from the eighth grade through high school are invited to attend.

Bill to Bar Appointments By State Judges Offered

State judges would make no appointments of public officials outside the courts under a constitutional amendment proposed Monday by eight Democrat representatives.

At present, the resident judges of the Superior Court appoint two of the six members of the housing authorities of Dover and Wilmington, and the members of the Delaware Commission for the Blind. In addition, the resident judge for New Castle County names the members of appointive school boards, including the Wilmington Board of Education, most of the members of the Wilmington Board of Park Commissioners, and the associate judge of the Municipal Court.

Rep. Russell D. F. Dineen, (D-Wilm.) who introduced the proposal (HB-138) said the object is to separate the judicial and executive branches of the state government.

The amendment would read: "No appointment to a public office under this state or any political subdivision thereof shall be made by the state judges, or any of them, except to such offices as are directly concerned with the administration of justice in the courts." The wording apparently would leave the naming of the Municipal Court's associate judge to the resident judge, but a separate bill is expected to shift that responsibility.

A similar proposal was passed by both branches of the General Assembly four years ago but failed of passage at the last session. Joining Monday in the move to get a new first leg on the constitutional amendment, which must be passed by two consecutive sessions to become effective, were these eight Democrats: Mr. Dineen; Reps. Joseph S. Latina, Paul F. Livingston, and Paul E. Shockley, all of Wilmington; Rep. F. Earl McGinness, Forest Brook Glen; Rep. R. C. Davidson, St. Georges; Rep. James R. Quigley, Hare's Corner, and Rep. Chested Gove, Townsend.

The House also received a "Sneaky Pete" bill, similar to the one introduced earlier in the Senate. After the Senate bill was amended, it became a revenue measure, and proposals of that sort must originate in the House. Mr. Gove put it there Monday with HB-136, which would boost the tax on wine from 35 cents a gallon to $1.15. Of the proceeds, $50,000 would be allocated to the Governor Bacon Health Center for use in rehabilitation of habitual drinkers, and the balance if any would go to the general fund.

According to a reference book on state taxes, the various states have taxes on wine ranging from one cent a gallon in California, a wine-producing state, to $1.40 a gallon in Florida and $2 a gallon in Georgia. The two high figures are for wine of over 14 and less than 21 per cent alcoholic content, while the one cent tax is on wine of 14 percent or less alcoholic content. California's tax on the stronger wine is two cents a gallon. Among neighboring states, Maryland's tax is 20 cents on either variety. New Jersey's is 10 cents on either variety, and Pennsylvania charges 10 per cent of the sale gets revenue through its mark-up in the state stores.

The Governor was the target when the House received from Mr. McGinness a resolution directing its revenue and taxation committee to study sources of revenue for the state government. It would provide $10,000 for expenses. The resolution noted that the "Governor, in presenting what he has termed a balances budget for the next two fiscal years has achieved this balance only by recommending that many of the state agencies—be given substantially less for their operation than they consider a necessary minimum, and by shifting certain state costs back to the counties..." It also noted that the Governor made no provision in his budget for municipal street aid, or for paying off the predicted deficit. "There has been no leadership in the executive department of the state government in solving the financial problems that must be solved before there will be any 'new day for Delaware,'" the resolution said in an allusion to a phrase used by the Governor in his budget message.

Mr. McGinness moved that action on his resolution (HR-25) be deferred after the Senate resolution on the same subject arrived in the House. He said he wants members to compare the two.

The House passed two bills Monday. One of these, SB-16, revises the charter of the Artisans' Savings Bank to permit it to open branches and staff them. The other, HB-87, would shift the time for striking names from the registration rolls. The Departments of Elections would strike names from the registration rolls. The Departments of Elections would strike names in years other than general election years, striking those who have not voted for two consecutive general elections. Both passed unanimously.

Meat in the Modern Manner
"Low heat saves the meat". That was just one of the interesting statements heard during the Farm and Home Week program at the University of Delaware, according to county home demonstration agent, Florence Y. Smith.

Ronald Davis of the National Livestock and Meat Board, Chicago, who made the above statement, gave a demonstration and talk on selection, care and cooking of meat.

Mrs. Smith, passing on some of Davis' information, said the meat specialist strongly recommends use of a roast thermometer to prevent overcooking.

Some other points were: "Use as low heat as possible—roast at 300 degrees for all meat except pork. Fresh pork should be at 350 degrees."

On frozen meat, Davis said that as far as flavor is concerned, meat can be cooked frozen, at refrigerator temperature or at room temperature.

When roasting or broiling meat, Davis said the meat should always be placed on a rack to keep it out of the drippings and a cover should not be used, particularly on tender cuts.

With the less tender cuts such as chuck, pot roast and round steak, a cover should be used during cooking.

Discussing every homemaker's problems of picking out quality cuts of meat, Davis said an easy way to tell top quality as far as flavor is concerned is to look for marbling—an "intermingling of fat with the lean." However, he pointed out that the higher priced cuts, through better tasting are not any more nutritious than the less expensive cuts.

The age of the animal can be estimated by the redness of the bone, Davis told the homemakers. The more red showing in the bone, the younger the animal.

Mrs. Smith said there was one other thing mentioned that might be of interest. Steaks and chops should not be seasoned until after they have been browned. Salt draws juices from the meat and this increases shrinkage. The meat will not be as tender because of this loss of moisture.

Gov. Boggs Proclaims

Feb. 28—March 7 As National 4-H Club Week

In proclaiming the period Feb. 28 to March 7 as National 4-H Club Week in Delaware, Gov. J. Caleb Boggs this week expressed congratulations to the more than 2000 boys and girls engaged in 4-H club work in the state and urged Delawareans to join in paying tribute to the rural youth enrolled in what he termed "this important and patriotic endeavor."

In his proclamation, the chief executive pointed out that "in this changing world of agricultural concepts and practices, 4-H club members will continue to constitute an important group capable and willing to show the way to improved practices and methods."

The proclamation follows: WHEREAS, there are more than 2000 boys and girls enrolled in the 4-H Club movement in the State of Delaware; and WHEREAS, the 4-H organization has for its purpose the demonstration of improved methods of agriculture and home economics and the instillation of the principles of better citizenship in the lives of our young people; and

WHEREAS, in this changing world of agricultural concepts and practices, 4-H Club members will continue to constitute an important group, capable and willing to show the way to improved practices and methods; now

THEREFORE, I, J. Caleb Boggs, Governor of the State of Delaware, do hereby proclaim the period Feb. 28 to March 7, 1959, as for the purpose of paying tribute to our rural youth who are enrolled in this important and patriotic endeavor.

Further, on behalf of all our citizens, I'd like to extend congratulations to 4-H Club members upon their accomplishments of past years and best wishes for attainment of the greater goals they have set for themselves—on their farms, in their homes and in their communities.

Joseph E. Wyatt Honored On Retirement

Joseph E. Wyatt, a messenger for Railway Express Agency operating on the Dover-Oxford route, has been presented with a Certificate of Service upon his retirement in recognition of 33 years of faithful service with the

4-H'ers to Observe National Club Week Feb. 28

National 4-H Club Week will be observed from Feb. 28 to March 7 by Delaware 4-H Club members and leaders according to Sam Gwinn, State 4-H Club leader. Special emphasis this year will be placed upon salutes to 4-H alumni for their accomplishments in various professions and other occupations where they have exemplified the high ideals of 4-H.

Special events during the week will be highlighted by a visit to Governor Boggs, a former 4-H member, by 12 4-H members and leaders according to Sam Gwinn, State 4-H Club leader. Those who have been selected to visit the Governor are: Mrs. Mildred Williams, Cannon; Robert Lord, Greenwood; Nina Wright, Delmar; Anna White, Milton; Robert Lee Jones, Millsboro; Martha Jean Townsend, Harrington; Mrs. Irwin Steele, Marshallton; Barbara Gregg, Hockessin; David Moore, Bear; Francis Thomas, Maryland; Joan Dempsey, Dover, and Fred Wiebel, Hartly.

Another event during the week will be a state wide banquet for 4-H leaders, and their husbands or wives, sponsored by the Delaware Bankers Association. The Bankers Association in the state is a strong supporter of club work and wishes to express their appreciation to 4-H leaders during National Club Week for their services as leaders of youth.

In addition to these events the State 4-H Order of Link, which is an organization composed of outstanding 4-H Alumni, will hold a state wide meeting in Dover Feb. 28 in observance of National Club Week. The University of Delaware 4-H Club is also sponsoring a state wide square dance at the Capital Grange Hall on the same night for older club members throughout the state.

All counties are participating in a window display contest for the purpose of explaining 4-H club work to the general public and to encourage other young people to enroll in the program.

Club membership is open to any boy or girl between the ages of 10 to 21. The main requirement for membership is a willingness to learn by actually doing some useful 4-H project. The real purpose of 4-H work is summarized by President Eisenhower in his recent letter to the 4-H Clubs of America when he said:

"It is a pleasure to send greetings to the members and leaders of the 4-H clubs as they join in the annual observance of 4-H Club Week. The four-fold emphasis of this fine organization—head, heart, hands and health—reflects a broad effect toward general fitness and well-rounded development. I am sure that the training and experience which are received in 4-H activity help develop maturity of judgment, good citizenship, and those qualities of leadership that are needed and valued in every walk of life. Best wishes for another year of stimulating, enjoyable work in the 4-H clubs of America." (Signed) Dwight D. Eisenhower

Bank Mergers And Farming

What impact does the merger of banks have on Delaware's agriculture and what does it mean to an individual farmer?

That's the question that a group of Delaware bankers will try to answer at Delaware Bankers Agricultural Clinic, March 5, in Agricultural Hall, at the University of Delaware.

Dr. William McDaniel, chairman of the department of agriculture economics, said the clinic is sponsored by the Delaware Bankers Association and the School of Agriculture.

The program, called "The Impact of Bank Mergers on Delaware's Agriculture", will begin after lunch with talks by Mr. Edwin P. Neilan, president, Bank of Delaware, and Robert Williams, director, Sussex Trust Company, Laurel. The talks will begin at 1:45 in the auditorium and anyone interested in the topic is welcome, McDaniel said.

Following the talks, a panel will try to answer questions from the floor.

March is being celebrated as National Egg Month, according to Mrs. Marjorie Whittaker, extension nutrition specialist at the University of Delaware, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture is giving its full support. Because of egg abundance, the Department is conducting a special plentiful foods program on them throughout the month.

Economists estimate there will be two to four per cent more eggs this March than in the same month a year ago.

The increased supply will have two points of interest to consumers: Eggs will come in all sizes (but this is the season when large ones usually sell at prices most favorable to consumers), and they'll be of high quality.

The big supply is timely, Mrs. Whittaker pointed out, because the Lenten season runs through March, with Easter this year coming on Sunday, March 29. This is a time when the egg's versatility makes it an especially convenient food for the homemaker. In fact, eggs add value and appeal to any meal—meatless or not—and March is a good time to prove it. The abundance of eggs means you can economically use them, often and generously.

Remember to take the seasonal festivities into account the nutritionist said, buy plenty of eggs for dyeing, rolling and all the other activities traditionally associated with Easter.

Airman Killed As Car Crashes In Police Chase

A Dover Air Force Base airman died Sunday morning in the base hospital of injuries received the night before when the stolen car he was driving at speeds up to 100 miles an hour ran off the road and turned over several times near Felton.

Dead is: Jerald Rudolph Schoenfeld, 19, of Portland, Ore., attached to the 1607th Air Terminal Squadron at the base.

The 8th Fatality of the Year The airman's death was the eighth of the year so far, compared to six at the corresponding time a year ago. The state's sixth traffic victim of 1958 also died on Washington's birthday.

According to state police at Dover, Schoenfeld was the driver of a car stolen near Harrington a short time before. Another airman was with him.

The car, traveling north on Route 13, "rocketed" through Felton and a state trooper started in pursuit immediately. He had barely got under way, however, when the car, driven by the airman, went out of control, first running off the road to the right, then swerving sharply across the road to the grass plot that divides the dual highway. It turned over several times before it finally came to a rest.

The time, the trooper noted, was 9:27 p.m.

Schoenfeld and his companion were both thrown out of the car as it tumbled crazily along the grass strip. They were both taken to the base hospital, where Schoenfeld died at 8:40 a.m. Sunday.

The second airman is John Edward Hagen, 23, of Columbus, O., a member of the same outfit as Schoenfeld. He is reportedly in good condition at the hospital for two broken ankles and a broken thigh.

The car, a total wreck, was owned by Preston Hobbs of Felton. It was stolen while it was parked outside the Chicken Basket, a restaurant on Route 13, just north of Harrington.

Mrs. Charlie Bradley

Mrs. Eliza Ann Bradley, 86, wife of the late Charlie Bradley, died Sunday at her home, at Felton.

Survivors include three sons, Clarence O. and Ralph E., both of Felton and Herman O. Bradley, Mountain Side, N. J., and three grandchildren.

Services were held yesterday afternoon from the Berry Funeral Home with the Rev. Lawson Jump, of Denton, formerly of Felton, officiating. Interment was in Hollywood Cemetery, Harrington.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Q—I have just entered school under the Korean GI Bill. How long is the usual waiting period before receipt of my first GI allowance check?

A—Normally, about two months. Under the law, you may not be paid until after a month of classroom work is completed, and the law allows VA 20 additional days to process your certificate of attendance and to mail your check.

Q—Is there any deadline for filing a claim for VA disability compensation?

A—There is no deadline. A veteran may apply at any time. However, if an eligible veteran applies within a year from the date of his release from service, compensation may be back-dated to the day following his release from service. A veteran applying after he has been out of service a year may be paid only from the date his application was filed.

Q—I understand there is a new ruling whereby a disabled veteran may now get a head start toward rehabilitation by beginning vocational training while still a patient in a VA hospital. Will you explain this, please?

A—The new ruling permits training for veterans who are far enough along in their hospital treatment to be able to leave the hospital part of the day to attend school. Formerly, veterans generally had to be out of the hospital before they could start rehabilitation training.

Q—I'm a Korea veteran, holding GI term insurance. Is it true that I now can convert my term insurance to a permanent plan?

A—Yes. Korea veterans holding term insurance with the letters "RS" before the policy number now may convert to one of six permanent VA plans.

Solo Music Festival To Be Held At U. of D. April 4

A solo music festival for students high school age and younger will be held at the University of Delaware in Newark, Sat., April 4, beginning with registration in Mitchell Hall at 9 a.m., jointly sponsored by the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs and the music department of the University of Delaware.

Mrs. Elwood F. Melson Jr., of Claymont, the state chairman of music for the Women's Clubs, urges all music teachers, public, private and parochial, as well as teachers in their own music studios to enroll their students in this festival immediately. Because of her wide background of musical experience, Mrs. Melson was chosen to represent the Federation in co-operation with Professor Anthony Loudis, chairman of the University Music Department. Mrs. Melson has studied voice for many years with Nevill Landor of New York City and in addition she studied both voice and piano at Juillard School of Music. An accomplished choir director, having directed at Calvary Methodist, New Castle Methodist, St. Paul's Methodist, and more recently at Claymont Methodist Churches. Mrs. Melson has also shown an equal interest in the lighter side of music, being a member of the Brandywinners, and more recently a member of the Chansonettes, a girl's trio which has been singing locally for some time. At present she is a member of the chorus of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, which under the direction of Eugene Ormandy, is preparing for its spring concert season.

Students of medium or advanced ability, not exceeding high school age, in the categories of voice, piano, and instruments, will perform for qualified consultants. A student may enter more than one category if they wish, provided the proper registration fee accompanies each entry. The teacher will receive by mail a paragraph noting the good points of the performance. A concert will be held in Mitchell Hall that evening at 8:15. The program will consist of the most outstanding performers of the day in each of the three fields. A Certificate of Award will be given to the most outstanding performers by the University of Delaware. For entry blanks write: Music Festival, University Extension, University of Delaware, Newark. Music teachers will want to obtain a list of requirements and the time allotted for performance from the University Extension office.

The purpose of this festival is to bring about a closer understanding and relationship between the school music supervisor and the private teacher; to give encouragement through school activity to all students who are seriously studying piano, voice and instruments; to inspire greater effort and artistic achievements through the stimulus of performing for an expert in that field; to offer parents, music supervisors, private teachers and students a means of judging the standards, progress and ability of each participant in relation to students approximately their own age. The University Extension Office accepts applications until early March, provided capacity permits.

Effective Date on Conservation Reserve Contracts

New conservation reserve contracts now being signed by farmers in Kent County will in general become effective on April 15, 1959, according to R. Harry Wilson, chairman of the Kent Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee at Dover.

All conservation reserve contracts require that the land included be devoted to grass, trees, or a water or wildlife conservation practice. If the conservation practice to be used on the designated land is performed before April 15, the contract becomes effective at the time the practice is completed. This means that 1958 crops on land put in the conservation reserve this fall can be harvested before the contract goes into effect. In addition, the land put in the reserve for the first time this fall may be grazed until the contract goes into effect, the farmer agrees not to graze the land or harvest a crop from it. He also agrees to refrain from harvesting Christmas trees and ornaments from conservation reserve land on which forest trees have been planted.

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
Agricultural Extension Service, University of Delaware

One of the nicest things about this time of year is that signs of spring can be seen all over the store. Pots of chives are selling for 29c each in many places. Sassafras bark is making its appearance also. Remember the tea that is brewed from Sassafras—it's a beloved tea of oldtimers and a favorite spring tonic. More rhubarb and fresh strawberries, as well as peaches, nectarines can be found here and there—all are wearing luxury price tags—all but rhubarb.

Meanwhile fish is continuing to be featured with king mackerel, butterfish, bluefish, porgies, perch, and trout in good supply. Oysters are more plentiful, however prices are not low—standards are averaging 99 cents a pint; selects about $1.15 a pint. For the people interested in catering to slim figures; oysters eaten raw, roasted, steamed or pickled, certainly fill the bill in many ways since they are rich in food value. It's the other ingredients you add to oysters that make them rich in calories. If you prefer to cook oysters, the old rule of thumb is a good one to always remember: "Oysters are done when the edges ruffle!" Too much heat and too much cooking will toughen them.

Fresh pork continues plentiful. An increase over last year of about 20 percent is expected in March, the American Meat Institute reports. Price lower than last year should accompany this rise. Look for specials this week on hams (whole, butt, shank portions or halves).

Large size grade A eggs remain the best buy on the price-per pound basis—only 2-3 cents higher than medium eggs. Eggs have helped for some time to keep food costs from going any higher, since they are so versatile and can be substituted for meat in many meals.

Salad greens remain a good buy, all except lettuce which took a surprising jump in price last week. Loose tomatoes remain steady in price, however, carton tomatoes are cheap, selling as low as 15c a carton during weekend sales. Big bunches of green Pascal celery are a very good buy at 16 to 18 cents each. Cabbage and new potatoes are also vegetables to check when shopping this weekend since both are down in price and high in quality.

Are Your Cows "Pigs"?

Maybe you didn't know it but your cow can make a "pig" of herself at the dinner table.

Almost everyone deplors the sight of a poor, underfed cow with ribs sticking out like a coat-rack. But the overfed cow may be just as hard on the owner's pocketbook.

George Vapaa, county agricultural agent, says that cows should be fed according to their milk production—not according to their appetites. This is the first step in any profitable dairy program.

As he explains it, one cow's feeding needs may vary considerably from another's. If the dairyman feeds all his cows alike, he's apt to either overfeed or underfeed some of them. How can you determine the correct amount of feed for dairy cows? The only really accurate way is to consult dairy records; Mr. Vapaa has information about the three recordkeeping systems—Standard DHIA, Owner-Sampler and Weight-a-Day-a-Month.

An Alabama county offers convincing evidence of the value of recordkeeping. Weight-a-Day-a-Month records on Grade A and manufacturing milk herds showed that practically every dairyman in Limestone County was giving his cows too much feed for the amount of milk he was getting in return. In fact, the records showed that some dairymen were reinvesting as much as 96 per cent of their total milk checks in feed. Feed costs should run only about half the cost of producing milk. By feeding according to production, as shown by the records, these dairymen were able to cut their feed costs and increase their milk profits, he said.

In addition to offering an accurate means of determining the amount of feed your cows need, dairy records point out unprofitable cows that should be culled and give valuable assistance in selecting high-producing cows to be bred for herd replacements.

Management Makes The Difference

Making money with hogs, or any other livestock, depends almost entirely upon management and the ratio between the cost paid for feed and the price received for livestock at market time, says County Agent, George Vapaa.

Four of the most important management factors in swine production he says, are: 1. Feed conversion. Feed required may vary from a low of 350 pounds to a high of 500 pounds of grain and protein to produce 100 pounds of hogs.

2. Pigs weaned per litter is the second important factor. Some farms wean and raise 8 or more pigs per litter. Other farms wean and raise only 5 or less per litter.

3. Death loss after weaning should be held down to 15 percent or less of the total weight produced.

4. Marketing procedure. Market when hogs have reached their best weight and before they become so heavy that their gains are no longer efficient. Pigs require a dry, draft-free farrowing stall or pen. Mr. Vapaa says dampness provides a grand place for disease germs to exist, and also lowers the resistance of young pigs. He suggests tightening up farrowing facilities and getting the pigs off the old dirt floor if you want to save more spring pigs. And, he adds, keep farrowing pens or stalls clean and dry.

Argentina now has only one TV station, in Buenos Aires, but five others are planned—three in Buenos Aires, one in Mar de Plata and one in Mendoza.

Odd Facts

All but two Indian States now have Family Planning (birth control) Boards, New Delhi reports. Tunisia expects an all-time high olive oil yield of 120,000 tons in 1958-1959. Greece will have a $3,000,000 oil refinery at Piraeus, near Athens, by 1960.

Youthful Pair Win in 4-H Dairy Foods

Award winning demonstrators in the 4-H Dairy Foods Demonstration program were Joanne Hastings, 15, of Bridgeville, and Kay Slacum, 16, of Federalsburg, Md., both representing Sussex County. Carnation Company presented each girl with a beautiful, engraved, 19-jewel wrist watch.

Miss Hastings and Miss Slacum are members of the Dublin Hill Yellow-Jackets. Both have been in 4-H Club work for six years. They have teamed up for the last two years to win state fair honors. Their winning 1958 demonstration was "Ice Cream and Ways to Use It."

Miss Hastings also has completed freezing, clothing, cooking and home improvement projects. She has won local and county blue ribbons in several of these, and is a three-time winner in baking judging at the county fair.

Miss Slacum has been enrolled in cooking, sewing, canning, room improvement and home beautification projects. She has twice been county home beautification winner, and also won a blue award in the favorite foods contest.

The 4-H programs are under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Chevy panel steps lively in Florida...runs day and night, delivers 19.3 miles per gallon!
This '59 Chevy panel is on the go, morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 587 miles a day... runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Farber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!
Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevies of all sizes are turning-to on the most challenging jobs in America. The way they're made, with tough-built truck components, they make the hardest hauls look easy!
If you have a job that puts a truck on its mettle, see your Chevrolet dealer!

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

Today's free needlework pattern is one I'm sure any woman will be happy to carry in her purse—a handy crocheted cosmetic case, just the right size to hold lipstick, powder, eye shadow and any other make-up you want within easy reach.

CONVENIENT TO USE...
Flat and compact because it's all fabric, the case is designed to crush easily into a corner of your bag. Even if you carry a small clutch purse, this compact plastic-lined carry-all will protect it inside from cosmetic stains, and keep your make-up neatly assembled at your fingertips for that quick touch-up job. I know I needn't tell you how much fun and searching a little case can save you in one of those popular big bulky "overnighter" bags—and think how it can streamline the process of changing purses to go with different outfits and occasions!

... PRACTICAL TO MAKE

I'm especially suggesting that you make up a few of these little kits yourself, because it's so much fun to choose your own colors from among the wide selection available in thick, quick new metallic and non-metallic crocheted cottons. The pattern couldn't be easier: Two shades worked out from the center in alternating rounds of single and double crochet stitches. Add a border of shells, fold in half, line and fasten with a 7" neck opening zipper—and you've whipped up a cute accessory for yourself or a welcome and thoughtful gift. To receive free instructions, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this newspaper and ask for COSMETIC CASE, P. C. 1012.

Brigitte Bardot Hit at Reese March 1-2-3

It's a blast of entertainment", so says the management of the Reese Theatre after submitting the program to be found in this newspaper.

If one should judge by the number of requests for Walt Disney's "Tonka" received by the management, there will be a continuous pleasure trail of Delaware and Maryland fans to Movie Center this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 26-27-28.

In an effort to present one of the biggest all family shows ever, several extra added attractions complete this bill, including a Walt Disney Cartoon Circus plus George Nader and Joanne Moore in "Appointment With a Shadow", full length mystery action hit in Cinemascope. Any of these days is a big day for the family.

Sensational it is. One expects such with Brigitte Bardot as the star, and one will not be disappointed after seeing this curvy nymph in "The Girl In the Bikini" listed for showing at the Reese Theatre, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, March 1-2-3, along with Kathy Marlowe, the blond bombshell in "The Girl With An Itch". As this is pure adult fare, no children allowed under 16, unless with parents.

Trinity Methodist Church Notes

Saturday evening, Feb. 28 at 6:30, there will be a covered dish supper sponsored by the O.U.R. Class. We would like to make that a church night, for all church members and friends and for young and old—the whole family. There will be entertainment also. Please bring a covered dish, and a donation.

For the first of March, next Sunday, we have Sunday School at 10 with classes for all. For the morning worship at 11, the pastor speaks on Jesus' first post-resurrection appearance, that to Mary Magdalene in the garden. The anthem is "God is Love" by Shelley; organ prelude, "Day Most Holy." The Junior Choir also sings. The altar flowers are being supplied by Mrs. Ellwood Gruwell and Mrs. C. Tharp Harrington.

Sunday evening the Intermediate MYF, for young people 11-14, meets at the church under leadership of Mrs. Jack Redden, assisted by Mrs. Randall Knox Jr. and Frances Wilcox. 6 p.m.

Our regular Sunday evening services for Lent are being held at various Harrington churches. For this Sunday evening, the Seventh Day Adventist Church is in charge, Elder David Miller, pastor. They have secured for speaker, Elder George Vandeman, whose TV program is seen on Channel 3 each Sunday morning. We will meet at Asbury Methodist Church.

The Monday morning prayer group, sponsored by the W.S.C.S., is led by Mrs. John Walls at 10 in the Church annex.

Monday evening the Loyal Workers meet for their monthly business session at 7:30. Mrs. Orrie Hobbs is president.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 the Woman's Society of Christian Service holds its regular meeting of the month in the Church annex. Mrs. F. C. O'Neal is president.

The Junior Choir rehearses Thursday at 6:45, and the Senior Choir at 8.

Twenty-two men from Trinity attended the Lenten communion and breakfast served by the men of Avenue Church in Milford. At this breakfast our District Superintendent, Rev. Roy Tawes, was suddenly taken ill and ordered to rest for a few days at his home in Dover.

Last Sunday afternoon the pastor baptized Nancy Christine Hurd and Mary Austa Hurd, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Hurd, at the church altar. Baptism—one of our church's two sacraments—is the first official step in the Christian life.

Films of Del. All-Star High School Football Game Available

Motion pictures of the 1958 Delaware All-Star High School Football Game, the third in the annual series, now are available for showing, free of charge.

The film, which runs 22 minutes, reflects the Blue vs Gold clash at Delaware Stadium in color and sound. This is the game in which the Blue won, 27 to 0, before a capacity crowd of 7400. Again played for the benefit of the Delaware Foundation For Retarded Children, the '58 renewal netted a record $25,000 for the cause.

Movies of last August's game are considered to be the best yet, and they include slow-motion shots for the first time. There also is footage devoted to other retarded children's projects in Delaware.

Organizations interested in obtaining the football film need only write to Delaware All-Star Football Game, P.O.
