

H. H. S. TRACKMEN DROP MEETS TO EASTON AND MILFORD

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Dick Jeffers' Harrington High track team was beaten by Easton, Md. High 59 1/2-40 1/2 on the local field Monday afternoon.

Dwight Hackett and Bob Bonniwell, were not feeling up to par and were able to run in only one race each instead of three. At full strength H.H.S. would be a prohibitive favorite over the Marylanders.

Easton has a well-balanced squad and is particularly strong in the field events. They were 1-2-3 in both the shotput and the broad jump and won the pole vault.

Bill Manship probably set a school record in the high jump when he cleared 5ft 5 in. tying for first with two Easton leapers. Jimmy Schiff won the 100 yd. dash in 10.5 and then took the 220 in 25.7 eased up.

Don Garey set a track record for the 440 yd. run coming from behind to win in 58.7. He still has a cast on his right arm, broken while pole vaulting.

Harry Knotts, like Schiff and Garey still unbeaten this year, won the mile easily in 5:06.

Bob Winkler, Schiff, Garey and John Taylor won the 880 relay, an event not usually run in Delaware. Taylor showed he is capable of a fast 220 in this race. Taylor also set a record for the home grounds in the discus with 119 ft. Phil Holson was second.

Dwight Hackett was second in the 880. Geo. Pfeiffer made a strong finishing spurt to capture third place.

Clarence Hackett, an eighth grader who runs in junior high competition when any is available moved up to the varsity to take his brother, Dwight's, place in the mile. Although running more than three-eighths of a mile for the first time, he threw a scar into the second Easton mile and may very well be a distance mainstay for H.H.S. in the future.

Other point scorers for Harrington were Winkler, third in the 220 and Bruce Smith and Billy Carter tied for third in the pole vault.

At Milford
Harrington finished second to Milford in a meet that also included Laurel and Millsboro Wednesday afternoon. The locals defeated Milford handily just one week ago but this time were without the services of Jimmy Schiff, who hasn't been beaten in the 100 or 220 downstate since 1957. Two or three other performers fell well below previous efforts or H.H.S. would have still triumphed.

Harry Knotts set a new school record in the mile winning eased up in 5:53.7. This is very good time this early in the season.

John Taylor led the locals in scoring by taking third in the 100 yd. dash, second in the high jump and first in the discus.

K. P. Outten was a surprise victor in the javelin; setting a new school record with a toss of 139 ft. and 2 inches.

Don Garey finally met defeat in the 440 losing to Milford's Kenton, who is a threat in the state championship event. Garey, who was second, will be even better later when the cast is removed from his arm.

Geo. Pfeiffer scored for the home team with points in the 220, broad jump and high jump. Walter Lekites was second in the broad jump. Bill Manship took third in the high jump. Geo. Balderson was a second place finisher in the shotput with Phil Holson third. Bruce Smith and Billy Carter continued to score in the pole vault winning second and fourth places, respectively.

The mile relay team of Bob Bonniwell, Don Garey, Harry Knotts and Dwight Hackett won the mile relay in 3:57.6. Fry, Gillette, Porter and Carter won the junior high 880 relay.

The Harrington team now owns four new school records thus far for 1959 in the twelve events contested. Six more standards were set by members of this year's squad in previous years.

At full strength the locals stack-up at least on a par with anything downstate. It is hoped that in their next outing with Cambridge here Tuesday afternoon that the entire squad will be present. If this is the case, watch out for H.H.S.

A bullock en route to slaughter broke away and darted up 18 stairs to the County Council offices in Tyrone, Northern Ireland. Miss Rhona Lynch opened the office door, saw the animal and closed it again. A driver came and got it.

Bennie Bengough To Appear At Sports Banquet

A famous baseball personality in the person of Bennie Bengough Philadelphia Phillies public relations executive, has been added to the list of speakers for the all-sports banquet May 4th at Harrington High School.

The Alumni Association of Harrington High is honoring all H.H.S. athletes for the current year. By securing Mr. Bengough the association now has a double-barrelled attraction to offer, hitherto arranged for Charley Eckman, big-time basketball referee and coach, to speak.

Mr. Bengough was a catcher on the same baseball team with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. This team is said by many to be the greatest baseball team of all time. For the past few years he has been a coach for the Phillies. Recently it was decided to put him in the public relations department because of his speaking ability.

Tickets are priced at $1.75 each and may be purchased at Cahall and Shaw, Clendening's Pharmacy, or from Bob Smith, Ted Layton, Dick Jeffers, Tom Peck, Albert Price and Keith Burgess.

Hospital Fair To Feature Art Exhibit

The Milford Memorial Hospital Fair, May 9, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary will once again feature an art exhibit.

All artists throughout the peninsula who wish to exhibit and sell their paintings at the fair, please contact Mrs. Eugene Nelson, 6 N. E. 6th Street, Milford, phone GA 2-8530 or Mrs. Louis Pack, N. Walnut Street, GA 2-5050 for further information.

This will be an outdoor art exhibit. Step ladders will be substituted for clotheslines and 20 percent of each sale will be contributed to the hospital. Awards will be given for the most popular painting and for the artist who totals the largest sum of money from the sale of his paintings.

This exhibit will be Milford's contribution to the annual "Delaware Festival of Arts". It will be listed in the Delaware Festival of Arts Bulletin and will be widely publicized throughout the State. It will draw hundreds of people from all over the state. So—to all artists, start those paints flying and fill those canvases so that you too can exhibit your paintings at the fair.

Harrington New Century Club Changes Its Meeting Dates

The last regular meeting of the Harrington New Century Club for the fiscal year 1958-59 was held Tuesday, April 14th, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. William W. Shaw, president, conducted the meeting. A letter from the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society was read, which stated that the chest x-ray unit would be in Harrington Thurs., April 23 and Fri., April 24.

Donations were made to the Cancer Crusade and to the music camp.

The chairman of trustees, Mrs. Fulton J. Downing, gave a yearly report, which reviewed the many repairs and improvements made on the club house in the past year. She also expressed the appreciation of the club for the work of Terry Johnson, who has acted as caretaker.

The report of Mrs. Harry L. Boyer, chairman of maintenance, was read by Mrs. Theodore H. Harrington.

Mrs. Charles L. Peck, Jr., gave the report of the Ways and Means Committee.

Mrs. Peck took the chair while Mrs. William W. Shaw, president, gave her annual report.

The Harrington New Century Club was very gratified to receive from the Teen-Timers Club a post and sign installed on the front lawn, identifying the Century Club. This was given by the Teen-Timers in appreciation for the use of the building and the interest of the members.

Mrs. Oscar T. Roberts, Harrington director on the State Board, and also State chairman of the By-Laws Division, reported the resolutions of the board, which were approved by the Harrington New Century Club.

Mrs. Roberts also gave an account of the March 19th Board meeting. Dues were sent to the General Federation of Women's Club for 3343 Delaware members. Delaware now has 39 clubs, with the New Castle Club being reinstated.

Delaware is also one of the states reporting a hundred percent participation in the Community Achievement Contest, sponsored by the Sears Foundation.

The "Forcaster", which is the organ of the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs, will be published on or about May 1, 1959, and will contain the State Convention News. This publication is underwritten by the Delaware Power and Light Company.

Mrs. William Cann, vice-president for New Castle County, has arranged for a series of Women's Clubs broadcasts over Radio Station WDEL at 9:30 a.m. May 4, May 11, and May 18.

Mrs. William J. Storey, State Federation president, has stated that May 17 to May 23 will be Federation Week in Delaware, and members are asked to attend church as a group Sun., May 17, which is designated at Federation Sunday.

Mrs. Fred S. Bailey, Mrs. Theodore H. Harrington, Mrs. J. C. Messner, Mrs. Allen B. Parsons and Mrs. Ernest Raughley were elected as directors-at-large on the executive committee of the Harrington New Century Club.

Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. Oscar T. Roberts, Mrs. Luster H. Rogers,

Family Night To Be Held Tomorrow Night

Saturday evening at the Harrington School will prove to be an enjoyable time for all who attend. All teachers, parents and children are urged to be present to partake in the events planned for them for the evening.

Tickets are 35 cents a person or $1 a family, regardless of the size of the family. Tickets may be purchased beforehand or at the door.

Family night will begin at 7 p.m. with a talent contest. After the final judging, refreshments will be on sale and various games in the classrooms will follow. Games will be classified according to age groups. Peg boards, puzzles, coloring pictures for the younger children; Parcheesi, Monopoly, checkers, etc., for the older children.

Round and square dancing will take place in the cafeteria.

We need the co-operation of everyone to make this a sure success that the P.T.A. has been striving for to be.

Sincere thanks to all who have shown interest and supported this project till now. Increase the relationship between home and school and attend this affair.

Drives Car Into Ditch, Jailed On Four MV Charges

A Harrington motorist drove his car into a ditch at the dead end of a Dover street, early Tuesday and as a result found himself facing four charges that gave him a total of 40 days in jail.

State police report that a car operated by William J. Lorenz, 24, of Harrington, was going south on Martin Street, at 12:45 a.m., when the operator failed to observe that it was a dead end street and drove his car into a ditch.

Lorenz then left the scene but about five hours later turned up at the State Police troop seeking his car and was placed under arrest.

Taken before Magistrate Ralph Knotts, Sr., Lorenz was fined $10 plus costs, for operating an unregistered motor vehicle, fined $20 and costs for operating at an unsafe speed, fined $10 and costs for failing to report an accident, and find $10 and costs for leaving the scene of an accident.

In default of payment of the fines and costs, Lorenz was sent to jail for 40 days.

Harrington School Notes

Senior Personality
MARLENE J. HOFFMAN

Marlene, better known to her classmates and friends as "Mamie", was born in Corry, Pa., Dec. 25, 1941. She attended Penn. Public Schools from 1 through 11 grades and Harrington School for her senior year.

During her short period at Harrington, Marlene has acquired quite an attractive personality. She is very interested in her full commercial course that she is very active in. At present she is a member of the student's commercial club in which she is secretary.

Marlene is a member of the Senior Harrington High Band. Also she sings in the alto section of both the Chancel and Cathedral Choirs of Asbury Church.

Mamie was a dancer in the senior's all cast play for 1959 and plans to be a part of a play to be presented this spring.

Acting as treasurer of her class, Marlene keeps very neat books.

Her pet peeve is writing letters across the great waters. She dislikes taking vitamin pills.

Upon graduation, Marlene plans to make secretarial work her career while she is also a good wife for a certain soldier.

State Chorus

This Thursday and Friday, at the new Brandywine High School on Faulk Road, Wilmington, the all-Delaware High School Chorus under the direction of Mr. T. Arthur Jones from West Chester State Teacher's College, West Chester, Pa., will rehearse for two days and give a spectacular concert Friday night in the school auditorium beginning at 8 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

This chorus is expected to be the finest all-state chorus Delaware has ever had, and the concert is being looked forward to with great expectations.

Harrington High School is fortunate in having five of its young people representing the school in this chorus—Bonnie L. Dickerson and Kaye Moore, sopranos; Dwight Hackett, tenor; Bill Manship and Kenneth Hoffman, basses.

Mrs. Grant—Grande 1
All of us are reading in "The New Round About". We have one more reader to finish before school closes.

Sharon Myer's house burned last Monday while she was in school. We were very sorry. She is living with an aunt and still comes to school here.

Chris Duryea went to Chester, Pa., over the weekend to visit his grandmother.

Mr. Donovan—Grade 5
We got a letter from Pine City, Minn. A student from the school was asking about our school, town, and state. We are writing back and going to ask about their town, school, and state.

Grade 3—Mrs. O'Neal
Wednesday was Larry Manges last day with us. He goes with his family to Batavia.

We have three reading groups, and each group has started a new reader.

Mrs. Tatman—Grade 4
We are getting ready for our assembly program. It will be on Thursday morning, April 23, at 9 o'clock. We hope many of our parents can come. All the pupils are taking part in the program.

Fri., April 17, the fourth grades are going to the Dover Museum. We will leave school at 8:30 a.m. and return at noon. Some of our parents are going with us. We are looking forward to this trip because we will see many things we have studied about in the classroom.

Next month, we plan to go to the Philadelphia Zoo.

Peggy O'Neal was absent Monday and Tuesday of illness.

Grade 6—Mrs. Mann
We are happy to have Mrs. Mann back with us and hope she is feeling better. We enjoyed having Mrs. Tharp as our substitute teacher.

Several girls and boys from our room took part in the grade and junior high school band concert Thursday night.

James Reese, from St. Petersburg, Fla., is a new boy in our room.

Temperance Is The Best Way of Life

Spiritually, temperance must be foremost in a Christian life. To be the best example of Christ, one must abstain from alcohol, tobacco and narcotics. Most important of all, our bodies are the Temples of God, and it is our responsibility to keep them pure and holy. Acceptable unto God.

Intellectually, we must use our minds to the ability God gave us. To keep our minds receptive and alert, we must guard ourselves against the destructive power of alcohol, tobacco and narcotics. To do this temperance is a vital necessity in our lives.

Physically, we must not partake of anything that is harmful and destroys the health of our bodies. Alcohol destroys one's equilibrium and dulls one's mind to the extent that he is not aware of the actions of his physical body. Also it constricts blood vessels, increases heart beat and lowers body temperature. God made us the way he wanted us, and we must practice temperance to keep our bodies as God has made them.

Socially, drinking is thought of by some as an essential part of the American way of life, a necessary thing for gracious living, and a part of our priceless heritage. But we know as Christian youths, we can be accepted into the social realm without the use of alcoholic beverages in any form or fashion. Many teenagers have the wrong idea about having to drink to be a successful and popular person. We know that in order to be shining examples of Christ we must keep ourselves free from such false ideas. In Proverbs 22:1 it says, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." We are proud of our heritage and want to live up to our name as a Christian nation by the practice of total abstinence.

We must pattern our lives after this scripture: "Whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."—Philippians 4:8.

Pat Hackett, Harrington Y.T.C. We welcome all young people to join with us.

Highway Department engineers have not undertaken, at this time, to make any estimates of the possible cost for the repairing of this damage, but it is expected to be large.

Because of the existing conditions, roads in some areas were limited to loads of five tons or less, and these restrictions still remain in effect on some of the roads until such time as the proper repairs can be made.

A survey has been made of all of the damaged highways and roads and a department spokesman said that the repairs will be made as rapidly as the maintenance crews can do the work.

Highway Department Engineers indicated that at this time they could not see the need for any contract work in repairing the highways and roads this year, similar to that of a year ago, because the surface breakage is not as great, and can be handled by maintenance repairs.

Torbert-Davidson
Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Torbert of Felton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Lyn, to Pfc. John Charles Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude P. Davidson, of 3293 North Van Buren Street, Wilmington.

Miss Torbert graduated from Felton High School and received her Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Delaware. She is employed as a second grade teacher at Caesar Rodney School at Camden.

Pfc. Davidson graduated from the Peddie School, Hightstown, N. J., and received his Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Delaware. He is past president of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. Pft. Davidson is serving with the Third United States Army Medical Laboratory at Fort McPherson in Atlanta, Ga.

An August wedding is planned.

Venezuelan oil output, early in 1959 reached 2,969,000 barrels a day, well above 1958.

Trucks Collide

Trucks of Otis Lincoln Smith, 54, and Robert E. Allen Wilson, 19, both of near Harrington, both going west on Route 14, the Harrington-Milford Road, 1.7 miles west of Harrington were damaged in a rear-end collision Monday.

Arrested on a charge of driving too fast under prevailing conditions Wilson was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate L. Gooden Callaway.

FREE COMPETITION MEANS CHEAPER PRINTING COSTS FOR THE STATE

If House Bill 229 is passed it will mean higher printing costs for the State, not to mention a stifling of the free enterprise system we vaunt so bravely in this democracy. In gist, the act, introduced in the Delaware House Friday, stipulates that all printing paid for in whole, or in part, by the State, be done in union shops or in shops paying prevailing wages specified by the Allied Printing Trades Council.

Since practically all closed shops are in the Wilmington area, this means the remainder of the plants in the State would have to pay wages dictated by their spokesman, the Allied Printing Trades Council.

Some of the shops in Kent and Sussex Counties do considerable state printing. For the most part, this work is for jobs costing $500, or more. The law calls for the advertisement for bids for such work, and everyone has a chance at it.

Passage of the proposed bill, which has nothing fair about it, means the State would pay more for its printing, thus increasing its present onerous debt. In the meanwhile, shops which have not found it economically feasible to become unionized, would still have the privilege of paying taxes.

Obviously, if the union shops were bidding lowest on ALL State printing, it would not be promoting House Bill 229.

These downstate shops are usually connected with a newspaper, which is bound to suffer if the notorious HB 229 passes.

We do not believe it will. Conversely, "eternal vigilance is the price of safety," and one cannot take too much for granted as to what the Legislature will do. Sometimes, a bill slips thru when the solons are snoozing.

The May procession and first communion are scheduled for May 31.

We were pleased to have with us last Sunday, the Rev. Kenney, O.S.F.S., of Wilmington.

There will be a card party Saturday evening at St. John's parish hall. It will last from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. Proceeds from this affair will be used to reduce the debt of the church.

The members of St. Bernadette's are busy making plans for the bake to be held Saturday, April 25. This affair will benefit the building fund for the hall. All parishioners will be contacted and asked to support it.

The second collection this Sunday will be a special collection for the Negro and Indian Mission. In a letter from the Most Rev. Edmond J. Fitz Maurice, Bishop of Wilmington, we are asked to contribute generously to this worthy cause.

Sunday is the Third Sunday after Easter. All those who resolve to live up to their Christian principles will meet with opposition and persecution. But our life on earth is only "a little while," and our "sorrow shall be turned into joy."

Soil Bank Contracts Effective April 15

Chairman R. Harry Wilson of the Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee at Dover, today reminded farmers who have signed or expect to sign 1959 contracts in the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank that those contracts take effect April 15 in most cases.

Where a conservation practice is started on the designated land before April 15, Mr. Wilson said, the contract takes effect when the conservation use begins. After a contract goes into effect, the farmer is obligated not to use his Soil Bank tract for grazing livestock and not to harvest a crop from it.

Social Security Notes

Ministers occupy a unique position under the social security law in that they are the only individuals who may choose whether they desire coverage under the old-age, survivors, and disability insurance program. This applies to ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers performing services in the exercise of their ministry, including Christian Science practitioners, and members of religious orders who have not taken a vow of poverty.

While coverage under this program is optional for them, a minister must make a choice not later than the due date of his tax return for the second year after 1954 in which he had net earnings of $400 or more (some part of which was derived from the exercise of his ministry) or April 15, 1959, whichever is later. After the latest of these dates, coverage for this type of earnings is not available under the social security program.

If the minister desires coverage, he files a simple certificate with Internal Revenue Service on IRS Form 2031 (Waiver Certificate for Use by Ministers, Certain Members of Religious Orders and Christian Science Practitioners Electing Coverage under Title II of the Social Security Act). He then reports his net earnings to Internal Revenue on a regular income tax return as a self-employed individual, although his earnings from the ministry may be derived as a regular salary.

A minister's gross income is derived from all remuneration received in the exercise of his ministry, including salary, fees, and donations for officiating at weddings, funerals, and christenings. For taxable years ending on or after Dec. 31, 1957, the rental value of a home furnished as part of his compensation, rental allowances used to rent or provide a home, and the value of meals and lodging furnished by the employer must be included as income. Expenses incurred in the exercise of the ministry, such as automobile, travel, vestments, stationery and photographic help, must be deducted from gross earnings. The remaining net is reported to Internal Revenue in the same manner as profit from a business is reported by a self-employed individual. The minister pays the entire social security tax. Social security coverage does not affect the amount of income tax.

A booklet, "Social Security for Clergymen," which explains the benefits possible by social security coverage for the minister and his family, may be obtained free of charge at any Social Security Administration district office. The Waiver Certificate (IRS Form 2031) may also be obtained from your social security office or from the Internal Revenue Service.

Dependent aged parents of a deceased son or daughter may now receive social security payments even though the deceased was survived by a widow, widower, or child. Mr. Sullivan, district manager of the Dover Social Security Office indicated that these additional benefits are possible as the result of recent social security amendments.

Dependent mothers and dependent fathers in this group should immediately get in touch with their social security office, Mr. Sullivan said today.

Before a dependent mother at age 62 or dependent father at age 65 can receive benefits they must file proof of dependency with their social security office. Generally this proof must be filed within two years after August 1958, when the law was amended, or within two years after the death of the son or daughter whichever is later.

Mr. Sullivan said that he or his office staff will be glad to discuss this or any provision of the law at the social security office located at 230 W. Lookerman St., Dover, between the hours of 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday, through Friday. You may also telephone REdfield 6-1426.

Fish & Game News

Trout Season Open
Trout fishermen had a chance for larger fish when the season opened last Sat., April 11. Brook, brown and rainbow trout, all over 9 inches was stocked. The initial stocking, under the direction of Warden William Wideman, took place last Thursday in White Clay, Pike and Mill Creeks, north of Newark and in one of the rearing ponds at Moores Lake, two miles south of Dover.

Fishing hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset, with a daily creel limit of four trout. Every one fishing trout stocked waters is required to purchase a trout stamp costing $2.10. The proceeds from trout stamps are earmarked entirely for trout purchases.

Only artificial bait will be permitted at Moores Lake. Trout stamps may be purchased at the Game and Fish Commission offices by anglers in the Dover area. Licensing agents in the Newark and Wilmington areas will sell trout stamps.

The Commission advises all anglers fishing the trout stocked streams north of Newark to be on their best manners as all fishing waters are on private lands and are made available to the public through the courtesy of the landowners.

Game Hearings on Tues., April 28

A full house is anticipated at the annual fish and game hearings to be held at 8 p.m. in Capital Grange Hall, Dover April 28. Rodney M. Layton, president of the Game and Fish Commission will preside over what has developed into a popular sportsman's forum.

The General Assembly six years ago empowered the Board of Game and Fish Commissioners to set seasons and limits on upland game and freshwater fishes. Such regulations enable the Commission to manage the wildlife resources of the state for the greatest benefit to both fish and game and those persons who enjoy hunting and fishing.

Waterfowl and other migratory game regulations will also be discussed to guide the Commission in its recommendations to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service who in turn draws regulations for these species.

"TOM THUMB" at Reese April 17 & 18

According to the management of the Reese Theatre, the biggest all-family regular admission show ever is scheduled for this Friday and Saturday, April 17 and 18. The much lauded Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer family treat hit, "Tom Thumb", is being offered to Delaware and Maryland families plus the requested "The Littlest Hobo" with Buddy Hart. Always catering to the family trade, the Reese Theatre claims this one eclipse all other shows of this type, and almost demands that Mother, Dad, and all the little ones be present on one of the two days, the management further states that this is a double burst of enjoyment.

When such stars as Sofia Loren and Anthony Quinn appear together, one can expect the ultimate in entertainment. Such is the case in the new Paramount production, "The Black Orchid", listed for showing at Movie Center, Sun, Mon., and Tues., April 19-20-21. One can always find a great entertainment at the Reese Theatre on these days.

1959 Planting Intentions Report

Delaware farmers intend to plant 165,000 acres of corn in 1959—23 percent more than last year, according to the Delaware office of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation.

The intended 162,000 acres of soybeans is down three percent from the record level set last year. These two crops now account for about three-fourths of the total acreage of field crops in Delaware.

For the other crops, farmers will have 29,000 acres of wheat, 2,000 acres less than a year earlier; oats, 8,000 acres—down 1,000 acres; barley, 20,000 acres—unchanged from 1958; hay, 50,000 acres—down 3,000 acres. February intentions for early summer potatoes indicated 9500 acres for 1959—1,500 acres less than the 1958 crop.

On the national level, 1959 crop plantings may be the smallest in records dating back to 1917, except for the low levels of 1957 and 1958. That is the picture as shown in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's annual report of farmer's spring planting intentions, according to the ASC announcement.

Prospective plantings of the 16 crops for which growers' market planting intentions are summarized total a little over one percent more than plantings in 1958. The Department reports that corn acreage may exceed last year's by more than nine million acres for the largest planted acreage since 1949. However, intentions for planting oats, soybeans, and grain sorghums, and cutting tame hay show substantial reductions from last year. Total feed grain acreage may be nearly five percent above 1958, while food grain acreage seems likely to be about three percent more than last year.

Kent & Sussex Fair Plans Made

Still tops, that's the fame of the fast growing Kent & Sussex County fair to be held July 27 through August 1. This year's edition will rank as one of the greatest agricultural and industrial exhibits ever assembled. There will be hundreds of exhibits, farm, fruit and produce displays that will interest all ages.

This year's featured "name" performers will top all previous years. Despite continued rising prices for top name talent in the entertainment field, J. Gordon Smith, fair president, is bringing fair patrons bigger and better presentations at no increase in grandstand or admission prices. No where will you get as big a bargain for your entertainment dollar.

Highlights of the week will be entertainment by Red Foley, The Chordettes and Frankie Avalon. An outstanding program of great entertainers.

There will be a full program of harness racing Monday through Thursday on one of the fastest half-mile tracks in the country. The Tournament of Thrills will be presented Friday afternoon and Automobile races Saturday afternoon.

The popular "Prell's Broadway Shows" will provide fun and diversion for pleasure seekers on the midway.

Water is Cheap Chick Food

Water is one of the cheapest chick feeds, county agent George Vapaa says. Water should be available at all times. You should provide at least two 1-gallon fountains for each 100 chicks. When automatic fountains are used you need one 3-foot fountain for each 250 chicks. Locate the fountains so birds will not have to go more than 10 feet for water, he says.

Kent Home Doings

What's the Story on Installment Buying?

When you find it necessary to use credit, where is the best place to get it?

You have several choices and you should look around for the best deal, according to Florence Y. Smith, home demonstration agent in Kent County.

Although it is often easier to get credit directly from the retailer, it is often much more expensive.

Quite often the retailer's installment plan has a high interest rate as compared to the price you would pay for credit from some other source.

Often the buyer looks at the size of the payments and the total finance costs and thinks he is getting a good deal. Actually, on a short-time loan, a small finance charge blows up to a very large interest rate when you get out a pencil and paper.

For example: a $10 carrying charge on a $60 purchase, paid in 16 weeks, equals an interest rate of more than 100 percent.

School Board Election Bill Defeated 8-7

A controversial measure (HB-79) which would make all school boards of the state elective bodies, with the exception of Wilmington, was defeated in the Senate Friday by a single vote. The vote was eight votes for, seven against and two absent. Thus, it failed by one vote to get the necessary majority.

The Senate also got into the current fight between the trustees of the Wilmington firemen's pension fund and city Council with the introduction by Senators Jesse Watson (D-Townsend) and Wilmer Williams (R-Roselle) of SB 101 which would set the minimum fund level at $400,000.

The pension fund bill, which has the outspoken support of Senator John Reilly (D-Wilmington) was assigned to the judiciary committee which Senator Reilly heads.

The defeat of the school board measure came after much oratory had been delivered on both sides stressing the political implications of both the elected and appointed board, and a few slams were made at the alleged "intrenched power of the executive boards of the state's PTA units," many of whom oppose the legislation. The bill was passed in the House Feb. 9.

The defeat was not permanent, however, as it was restored to the calendar at the request of Senator Reilly who changed his vote from yes to no after the defeat, as did Senators Watson (D-Townsend) and McCullough (D-Holloway Terrace). Supporters of the bill expressed assurance that the measure would pass when it comes up again. They based their hopes on the fact that absent Senator Curt Steen (D-Dagsboro) was believed to favor the measure. This would give them the necessary vote.

Those Supporting Bill
In addition to Reilly, McCullough, and Watson, those senators voting for the bill were: Hickman (D-Frankford), Hoey (D-Milford), Mayhew (D-Milford), Tull (D-Seaford), and Cook (D-Kenton). Those against were: Senators Correll (R-Newark), Du Pont (R-Greenville), Nechay (D-Willow Grove), Price (D-Smyrna), Spicer (D-Georgetown), Simpson (R-Camden), and Williams (R-Roselle). In addition to Senator Steen, Senator Snowden (R-Wilmington) was absent.

Argument centered around the question of whether the school districts had the right to make the choice. Senators du Pont, Nechay and Price argued strongly that such was the right of any district and that a vote for the bill was forcing on a great many people a decision that they did not necessarily want. Senators Correll and Williams said that in their districts sentiment was strongly against the bill.

Commenting on these arguments, Senator McCullough said, that he had great doubts as to whether the sentiments expressed by voters in his opponents' districts truly represented the wishes of the people. "Quite often all we get is the opinion of the entrenched executive bodies of the PTA's. These people don't represent the rank and file PTA members a large part of the time," McCullough said. "Their letters were probably adopted at one of those tea party sessions in a member's home and then sent down to us. If those letters you talk of were passed at a regular monthly meeting of the PTA I agree to their sincerity, but I'm doubtful that they were."

700 Sign Petition
He added that he had a petition of 27 pages signed by over 700 residents of the Newark and Christiana school districts which called for passage of the bill. Senator Reilly and Watson backed up McCullough, contending an elective board was the "democratic" way and that if people were afraid of too much politics in the elective school board system, they were jumping at shadows. "Besides," Reilly said, "it was politics back in 1931 when the Republicans made all the boards appointive. The people's wishes weren't considered then, but now we're getting the Republicans asking us to consider their wishes."

The firemen's pension fund bill, which was not discussed at the session, would require Mayor and Council to appropriate enough money each year to the pension fund not covered by the income during any particular year. At the same time it would delete from the present law that part which sets a minimum level of possible to lower the payments to the fund at $50,000, makes it to eligible firemen should obligate Council to see that the level did not fall below the $400,000 figure. Senator Reilly, an avowed champion of the firemen, indicated that he expected passage of the measure.

(The question of the firemen's pension fund level is now being debated in the Court of Chancery. The fund's trustees have called upon the court to issue a judicial declaration of their rights in the operation of the fund.)

The controversy has arisen over the Wilmington City Council's continuing refusal since last July to appropriate any more money to the fund until it is depleted to the statutory reserve limit of $50,000.

The fund's trustees on the other hand claim that Council should appropriate enough money each year to guarantee a level equal to the 1954 level of $428,679.66.)

Auto Finance Bill
In the other business at Friday's session Senator Mayhew introduced a bill which would provide for state control of automobile sales financing companies. Under terms of the bill (SB-102), which was co-sponsored by Senators Hoey and Price all automobile financiers, with the exception of state banks and trust companies, would have to file for a license to do business. A license would be $100 plus $25 for each branch office. The state bank commissioner would handle the licenses.

At the same time he would also be responsible, under terms of the bill, to see that specific regulations spelled out in the measure were carried out. These would set definite procedures of the contractual obligation for the dealers and would set financing charge limits for all sales based on the year of the car sold. Charges for financing would range from $7 per $100 per year for a new model car (one sold in the same year it is made) to $15 per $100 for a car sold more than four years after it was made.

Senator Mayhew said that the bill was designed to eliminate many of the "fly-by-night" dealers in automobiles who did their own financing and jockeyed with sale prices, carrying charges and financing rates to the disadvantage of a great many citizens.

Scholarship Bill
Senator McCullough introduced a bill which would appropriate funds to continue the "Delaware Right to Education Law," which was passed by the 119th General Assembly. The law made scholarships available to students at the University of Delaware. Under terms of the bill, $57,000 would be appropriated from the general fund for the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1959 and July 1, 1960.

The Senators also passed HB 196 by 14-1 with two absent. The bill authorizes funds to keep the state government going to the end of the fiscal year. The measure authorizes the appropriation of $528,600 to the State Treasury for pension and social security obligations for state employees, and funds to operate the offices of the State Tax Department and the State Treasurer's office.

Before voting on the bill there was some question raised by the senators about whether passage was pointless or not due to the fact that Governor Boggs has said he will not sign any appropriation measures until there is action on the budget. He did make the exception in the case of emergency measures to keep state agencies in business. But an amendment to change the wording of the bill to read "emergency measure" was defeated in the House.

The session was not without a little partisan politics. A measure introduced by Senator Simpson (R-Camden) authorizing the appointment of John B. Collins as an assistant clerk to the minority leaders was defeated after the Democrats got over their surprise at the resolution. The vote was eight in favor for the appointment, seven against, and two absent.

Speaking for the majority party Senator Reilly said "that if the minority party needs more help we'd be only too glad to help them out, but this resolution come as a complete surprise to all of us, and we doubt the seriousness of it."

By a vote of 11-2 (Senators Simpson and Spicer) and four absent, the Senators passed SB 56 which would make it possible for the Director of Safety Responsibility to hire more than three assistants. Senator Cook, sponsor of the bill, indicated that the office just could not handle the work load with the present staff. There was no debate on the question.

Senator Watson introduced Senate Substitute No. 1 for SB 78, which would provide that employees of the State of Delaware be eligible for unemployment compensation and providing a method whereby political subdivisions of the state could elect coverage for their employees.

Students Attend Fourth Annual Library Meeting

Ten students and Mrs. Cahall attended the fourth annual meeting of the Library Aides of Delaware, Saturday. The meeting was held at Ursuline Academy.

The Library Aides of Delaware is an organization of students of the senior and junior high schools of Delaware, public, private and parochial. It was organized at the John Bassett Moore High School, in Smyrna, April 14, 1956. At the second meeting held at Dover High School, the motto, "Tomorrow's Librarians United For Service", was adopted. At this time the name of the organization was chosen: Library Aides of Delaware, or LAD. All library clubs were asked to submit a name and the choice was made by popular vote. The winning name was submitted by Harrington High School's Library Club.

The third meeting was held in the John Bassett Moore High School, and at this time the constitution was adopted. The purpose of this organization is to sponsor a greater interest among students in the use of books and library service, to stimulate reading interests, to improve the library service of the school, and to encourage and interest the students in librarianship as a career.

Saturday, registration took place at 9:30 and the business meeting was held at 10 o'clock. At 10:30, there were various programs which lasted for 25 minutes and were repeated twice.

Mrs. Thomas W. Howie, librarian at Greenville Elementary School, discussed "The Collectors Corner". Mrs. John F. Mullins, executive board of the Dickens Fellowship, Philadelphia Branch, discussed "Dickens for Teenagers". Mr. David Taylor of J. B. Lippincott Company, and author of "Farewell Valley Forge", and "Lights Across the Delaware", had as his topic, "Introducing the Author". Miss Josephine Betz, librarian of Faulk Road Elementary School, and Mrs. John Riggle, duPont Technical Library, spoke on "Librarianship as a Career". Mrs. Thomas J. Sheridan, Teenage columnist, told of "Magazine Columns for the Teenager."

"The Student Librarian" was presented by Miss Dorothy Johnson, P. S. duPont H. S., Miss Peggy Drake, Conrad H. S., and Miss Ellen Irwin, William Penn

Ashes in the Rug, No Harm to Bug

Ever since rugs have been put on the floors, the man of the house has been dumping tobacco ashes on them and alighting that the ashes "keep the bugs out of the rugs".

Miss Patricia Middleton, extension specialist in home management at the University of Delaware, says this alibi has been shot full of holes and the careless smoker will have to hape up and find an ash tray or another excuse.

Miss Middleton reports that Mr. Bernard Roth, president of the National Institute of Rug Cleaning, said recently that tobacco ashes do not protect floor coverings from insect damage.

In fact, they are "just another form of dirt and should be cleaned up at once," Roth said.

Miss Middleton speculated that this information will probably have little effect on habitual ash spreaders.

Delaware Food Market Report

As Passover nears, shipments of fresh water fish used in preparing the traditional Gefilte fish has been increasing. Carp is in fairly good supply, while yellow pike and white fish are in fair supply. Prices have been unchanged for the most part on fresh water fish during recent weeks, but they may go up as demands increase just prior to Passover.

"Chicken for every pot" will be the slogan again this week as prices keep this meat the thriftiest buy in sight. During weekend sales prices will range from 29 cents to 39 cents a pound for good quality broiler-fryers. Stewing hens are also a good buy in many stores. These chickens offer an opportunity to vary the menu by having chicken-dumplings, hot chicken salad and—for the warmer days—cold chicken salad.

The general trend in meat prices is up this week. Fresh pork has advanced a bit (1 to 2 cents a pound), lamb is up and veal remains scarce. Beef output is steady at a level near that of last year. This definitely points to specials featured during weekend sales as the best opportunity to buy meat at more reasonable prices. Bacon, sausage, frankfurters, beef steaks and beef roasts are all cheaper for the weekend.

Celery and lettuce are the vegetables of the week, both are in large supply, quality and prices are excellent. Serve celery creamed separately or with onions or carrots; add celery to stews and soups and, of course, this vegetable adds extra zest to salads, poultry stuffing and to sandwich spreads. Lettuce speaks for itself, since it's a must for all salads, perfect for sandwich fillers and unsurpassed as garnish with many meats, poultry, fish, etc.

Shipments of cabbage, beets, carrots, corn, cucumbers and asparagus are increasing—all are cheaper this week. Snap beans are up again and so are carton tomatoes. Avocados remain a good buy this weekend, ranging from 2 for 25 cents to 20 cents each.

Eggs are an excellent buy, prices are low—48 cents a dozen average for Grade A large eggs. Remember eggs make an ideal main dish for any meal and do much to help stretch the food dollar.

3rd STRAIGHT YEAR! PLYMOUTH V-8 WINS ITS CLASS IN MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN! OTHERS TALK ECONOMY—PLYMOUTH DELIVERS IT!

Other cars have talked economy this year. But a Plymouth V-8 has just proved it can give better gas mileage than Ford or Chevrolet V-8s. Plymouth did it by winning its class for the 3rd straight year in America's recognized competitive test for economy. Plymouth's score: 21.15 miles per gallon.

- HERE ARE MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN FACTS: HERE ARE WHAT THESE FACTS MEAN TO YOU:
- A Plymouth V-8 has just won its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run for the third year in a row. Ford and Chevrolet both finished behind Plymouth.
 - Plymouth scored 21.15 miles per gallon.
 - Winning Plymouth was a Belvedere 2-door hardtop, equipped with standard Fury V-800 engine and automatic transmission.
 - Run was sanctioned by United States Auto Club.
 - As a Plymouth owner, you can expect economical operation in everyday driving.
 - As a Plymouth owner, you're driving the car that gave better gas mileage than Ford or Chevrolet in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.
 - As a Plymouth owner, you can also expect top performance (Plymouth's winning V-8 is the biggest standard engine in its class).

Plymouth's low prices, low upkeep, high resale value and proven gas economy make it the year's best economy buy in its class. And Plymouth delivers the Big Difference in style, ride, performance, features and comfort, too! A "Two-Mile Try-Out" will prove it, so take yours today!

DEFENSE WEAPON

Your telephone neighbors are making key contributions to our Nation's defense

Many telephone skills are important to defense... and since Bell combines in one organization research, development, design, manufacture and operation, it can do things no other group could be expected to do.

Start with the telephone itself... the vast communications link which is vital to defense because it binds together every community in our land... with many different voice routes connecting major cities and with alternate routes bypassing critical target areas in Delaware and throughout the country.

Then turn to the products of telephone research which are constantly being used by Diamond State engineers to improve your telephone service... and you find them playing major roles in major defense projects.

Like the construction of the DEW Line, for example... the continent-wide chain of radar stations in the Arctic wilderness, some of them where no man had ever before set foot, designed to provide distant early warning of air attack...

Like the development and manufacture of the several Nike missile systems, including one that can electronically track down and destroy hostile aircraft and another that holds promise as a defense against ballistic missiles...

Like the discovery and application of the transistor, which is essential to accurate missile guidance and also helps relay information from man-made satellites...

And like a wide array of other defense tasks, large and small, some so secret only a few people know of them.

Every day, in many different places and many different ways, telephone people of many skills are strengthening our Nation's defense...

To protect your world.

Annual Assembly Session Measure Given Final Okay

Action was completed Friday on the constitutional amendment specifying that the General Assembly shall meet annually, with not longer than 30 legislative days in even years and 90 legislative days in odd years.

The House of Representatives made it law by passing a bill, passed earlier by the Senate, agreeing to the constitutional amendment proposal passed by both houses at the last session of the General Assembly. The Governor's signature is not required.

Thirty-nine representatives voted for the measure, SB-2, one was opposed (Rep. Paul F. Livingston, Wilmington Democrat) and three were absent. (Reps. Cannon, English and Shockley).

At present the Constitution provides that the General Assembly is to meet biennially. In recent years the General Assembly has actually been meeting each year for indefinite periods.

The new constitutional amendment requires it to meet on the first Tuesday in January, in odd years, starting in 1961, for 90 legislative days. In even years, starting in 1962, the Legislature is to meet on the first Tuesday in February, for 30 legislative days.

Short Session

The short session in even years is to be devoted to bills having to do with budgetary, revenue and financial matters, and acute emergency or "legislation in the general public welfare."

The General Assembly may be convened at other times by the Governor, for sessions no longer than 30 days.

In the discussion preceding passage of the bill, Livingston said the proposal would "work a hardship on the General Assembly" by restricting the number of days it could meet. Others pointed out that legislative days do not have to be consecutive calendar days, and one can stretch over several calendar days, if necessary, with recesses.

Also passed Friday, on its second try was HB-137, which would make it illegal for a child under 16 to have a firearm or air rifle except under the direct supervision of an adult.

The bill failed passage Thursday, Friday Rep. F. Earl McGinness (D-Forest Brook Glen), its sponsor, offered an amendment limiting it to New Castle County. It went through, after being amended, with only one dissenting vote — from Rep. Carlton Clifton (D-Milford). There were 31 yeas, three absent.

The bill would make it illegal to sell or give a child any firearm or air rifle of B B shot. A violator could be fined any amount a court determines. Parents or guardians of a child possessing firearms or air rifles would be held financially liable for any property damage or physical injury resulting from violation.

The House gave unanimous passage to SB-9, the bill to remove from the State Tax Department the burden of having to send out receipts for income tax payments, except when they are made in cash or when a receipt is specifically requested.

Rules Suspended

Rules were suspended Friday to get immediate action on HJR-7, which appoints directors on the part of the state for the Farmers Bank. The state is one major stockholder in the bank, owning about 57 per cent of its stock.

Only two directors would be changed by the resolution. Senator John E. Reilly, Sr. (D-Wilmington) would succeed Mayor Eugene Lamont, a former state senator, on the board for the branch at Wilmington. Senator Harry E. Mayhew (D-Milford) would succeed Dr. Henry V. P. Wilson of Dover on the board for the principal office at Dover.

Members who would be reappointed under the resolution are: Vernon B. Derrickson, and Walter L. Wheatley at Dover; Aaron Finger and Charles F. Krug at the Wilmington branch; and Charles D. Murphy, Jr., John G. Dodd at the Georgetown branch.

HJR-7 went through with 30 yeas, three absent, and two not voting (Republicans Bartleson and Manning).

Among the four new bills handed up Friday is one that would require all printing paid for in whole or in part by the state be done in union shops or in shops paying prevailing wages specified by the Allied Printing Trades Council.

The measure, HB-229, introduced by Rep. Joseph S. Altina (D-Wilmington) appears to be intended also to rule out the possible use of prison labor for state printing. It would exempt state-owned or state-aided printing shops from the union and prevailing wage provisions of the proposed law, but would forbid them to "perform printing other than the needs and requirements of these institutions."

Other New Bills

HB-227: To amend the law on vital statistics with a new section Townsend Jr., and William A. B. on fatal deaths. By McGinness.

HB-228: To change the law on appointment of commissioners of housing authorities by having the resident judge no longer make appointments and by having three commissioners appointed by the Governor and the other three by the mayor of the community. By Rep. Dineen.

HB-230: To make the penalty for a first violation of the game, and fish laws not less than $25 nor more than $50, and for succeeding offenses not less than $50 and costs. By Rep. Eskridge.

Other Resolutions Adopted

HR-42: Appropriating $44.60 for telephone service.

HR-43: Appropriating $500 for postage stamps for the official business of the House.

HR-44: Appropriating $1,210.50 to pay the Harrington Journal for printing the House Calendar up to and including March 27.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I'm a Korea veteran with a GI term insurance policy with the letters "RS" before the policy number. I understand I may now exchange it for another term policy less in premium payments. Will you please explain this?

A—Since you have an "RS" Korean GI term policy, you have the right to exchange it for another new type term policy with premiums costing two-thirds less. However, it is not renewable after you pass your fiftieth birthday, and must be converted to one of VA's permanent plans before then, if you wish insurance protection.

Q—I am taking courses under the GI Bill which lead to a standard college degree. I understand there is a new requirement about reporting classroom absences. Does this affect me?

A—No. Since your courses lead to a college degree you are exempt from reporting monthly absences from class. Students not headed for a college degree or some professional goal must, however, now report classroom absences, using the special Certification of Training form for that purpose.

Q—I'm changing my job and am going to sell my home bought with a GI loan. Must the loan be paid off in full before I can sell?

A—Not necessarily. The buyer may assume your GI loan as well as all liability, if he is willing, if your payments are up to date, and if VA determines the new buyers is a satisfactory credit risk.

Q—I have a dental condition connected to injuries in service but for which I am not entitled to receive compensation. Is there any deadline in my case for applying for outpatient dental treatment?

A—No. Veterans with service-connected noncompensable dental conditions or disabilities may apply at any time and receive as many treatments as are needed.

Illinois Speaker To Speak at $100-A-Plate Dinner May 6

One of America's most celebrated ministers, Dr. Carl S. Winters of Oak Park, Ill., will be the guest speaker at the annual $100-a-plate Delmarva Dinner Wednesday, May 6th, in the Wilcomico High School at Salisbury, which climaxes this year's fund drive for the Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc.

DPI president, C. Ed McCauley of Seaford, in announcing Dr. Winters' acceptance of the invitation said that it had been arranged by Lloyd Geil of the Poultry and Egg National Board in Chicago and that the services of Dr. Winters has been provided through the courtesy of the General Motors Corporation for whom he serves as a consultant.

Born on an Indiana farm, Dr. Winters made his first public speech at the age of 11 when he won first prize in a farm bureau contest with a talk on Duroc hogs. He became minister of a country church at 18 and since then has had a varied and distinguished career not only in the ministry but also in the fields of crime prevention and rehabilitation of young people charged as juvenile delinquents. At present, he is minister of one of America's most widely known churches, the First Baptist Church of Oak Park, Illinois.

Dr. Winters has traveled all over the world as a minister studying youth and delinquency problems and is noted as an after dinner speaker who combines a sparkling wit and humor with a basic message of Christian philosophy and morals. Each year, besides his ministerial duties, he is called on to deliver from 30 to 35 addresses at high school and college commencements, and also to general audiences totaling more than 250,000 people.

DPI president McCauley said that this organization was fortunate to secure the services of a speaker of the calibre of Dr. Winters. He added that he felt his acceptance was a tribute to the respect that many outside groups, both agricultural and non-agricultural, have for Delmarva's voluntary program of raising funds to tell the story of the Delmarva poultry industry to the world without calling on the government for price supports or other subsidies.

Plow Borers Under by May 1

Delaware's old corn fields should be plowed before May 1 to put stubble and stalks underground. Corn borers in this debris will thus be buried and will not cause damage to new crops according to Dr. Dale F. Bray, chairman of the department of entomology at the University of Delaware.

Dr. Bray says you can control borers by plowing cleanly, or burning all corn stalks in fields, feed lots, and other locations before May 1.

The entomologist said corn borers winter in old corn stalks left in fields. Destruction in this stage is much easier and less expensive than spraying to control in May and June.

Whitby Honored by Rotary Club

Russell W. Whitby was honored in the April bulletin of the Camden - Wyoming Rotary Club by being featured in the club's "Who's Who in our Club" with a biographical sketch which is as follows:

Russell V. Whitby, known to his friends as "Russ" was born in nearby Woodside, Nov. 23, 1900, being the son of William W. Whitby and Jennie Laramore Whitby.

After attending the local public schools and getting established in business "Russ" on the hand of Miss Mary Helen Shulties, daughter of Charley and Nora Dawson Shulties, were married. They have one son, John W. Whitby, who is associated with his father in business, plus two grandchildren living in nearby Dover.

Russell Whitby has been engaged in automobile salesmanship and management for 36 years, in Dover. He has been with a Dover automobile agency for 23 years, serving in the capacity of general manager for that company. In 1951 he was awarded an all-expense paid trip to Detroit, Michigan, as an award for outstanding performance in salesmanship and management, being chosen as one from fifteen eligible agencies selected from the states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and West Virginia.

Also, in the year 1955, he was presented with a prize award for Championship Sales Management performance.

"Russ," always interested in community welfare, has been the Camden chairman for the "Heart Fund Drive" for the years of 1957, 1958, and 1959. Other community projects to which he has given leadership are: Boy Scouts, Wesley College, and the Kent General Hospital.

He has been a Rotarian since its first year, serving as sergeant-at-arms, director, vice-president, and president. Rotary holds a top place in his heart always.

Politically, "Russ" is a Democrat. He has been vice-president of the Delaware Federation of Democrat Clubs since 1956, and a past president of the Seventh District Democratic Club.

In 1948, Russell was publicly mentioned in a Dover newspaper for recognition as "The Man of the Year" for the Camden-Wyoming area on the basis of being a good neighbor, a good citizen, friendly, and possessing a character of high quality.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Dover and is now serving in the capacity of Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Farmers Urged to Plant Sudan Grass

Delaware farmers are urged to plant Sudan grass as supplemental summer pasture by extension agronomist William H. Mitchell, University of Delaware.

Reasons for planting the grass, planting dates, fertilizer recommendations, variety, seeding rate, weed control, and grazing times are available in a Delaware Agricultural Extension Service fact sheet compiled by Professor Mitchell.

Mitchell says Sudan grass is high-yielding, fast-growing and relished by livestock. One acre of Sudan costs about $10 per cow per season and will carry three cows. Planting dates are May 10-15 in southern Delaware, and May 20-25 in northern areas. A later planting about the middle of June will help spread the grazing period.

Piper is the best variety and 30 pounds of seed per acre should be planted about one-half inch deep.

He suggests grazing cows when Sudan is knee-high. If you have more grass than you need for grazing, use the extra grass for silage. He warns against grazing during severe droughts and frost periods.

The fact sheet will be sent on request at any county agricultural extension office or department of agronomy, University of Delaware, Newark. Ask for fact sheet, "Improve Summer Pasture with Sudan Grass," AAE (C-2).

Sheep Shearing School Saturday

A sheep shearing school, organized by the University of Delaware Extension Service and the Delaware Sheep and Wool Producers' Association, will be held Saturday, April 18 at 9 a.m. on the Earl Rambo Farm, near Houston, according to John Shropshire, Extension livestock specialist.

Need for the school developed when wool buyers complained of the quality of fleeces coming out of Delaware, Shropshire said.

Sheep shearing, tagging and crutching will be demonstrated and participants will be expected to shear a sheep. Those planning to attend should bring work clothes, a pair of cotton gloves and their lunch.

The Rambo farm is located midway between routes 13 and 113 on the south side of the Milford-Williamsville Road. It is just east of the Houston-Williamsville Road intersection.

Due to the high rate of interest a second session will be held for the northern half of the state. It will be held at the Ed Foster Farm near Newark, April 25 at 9 a.m.

Andrew Keith Webb

Andrew Keith Webb, 51, a retired farmer and Kent County Bingo inspector, died suddenly Saturday in Kent General Hospital, following a heart attack.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy; two sons, James L., at home and Donald K. Webb with the U. S. Navy in California; two brothers, M. T. Webb, and John W. Webb, both of Goldsboro and two grandchildren.

He was a member of the Delaware Farm Bureau and the Ruritan Club of Wyoming.

Services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Berry Funeral Home, Felton. The Rev. Charlie Atkins, retired Methodist clergyman, officiated. Interment was in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Camden.

Farmers Urged to Look Ahead on Grain Storage

A farmer who plans to store grain under loan on his farm this summer or fall should be looking ahead to the need he may have for additional storage capacity when his 1959 crops are harvested, Chairman R. Harry Wilson, of the Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said today at Dover.

The situation indicates that more storage facilities will be needed to handle the 1959 harvest. Additional profits earned by storing grain and placing it under loan may be sufficient to cover a substantial part of the cost of the new facilities, Mr. Wilson pointed out.

In addition, he said, favorable financing may be obtained under the farm storage facility loan program which will be available in 1959. Such loans may be obtained by farmers through the county ASC office at Dover for as much as 80 per cent of the cost of the needed facilities. The loans draw 4 per cent interest and are repayable in four annual installments.

Mr. Wilson emphasized that more farm grain storage eases the pressure on commercial and on government-owned storage facilities. He also points out that much of the surplus grain will eventually be consumed by livestock on farms in feeding areas.

The following commodities will be eligible for loan this year provided they are farm-stored in adequate structures and meet the quality requirements: wheat, barley, oats, rye, soybeans and corn.

Please contact the Kent ASC County office in Dover for further details.

Trinity Methodist Church News

Sunday School begins at 10. Morning worship is at 11, when the choir anthem will be "Turn Ye to the Lord" by Grieg. The pastor's sermon is "What Are You to Jesus?" There will be an evening service at 7:30.

The Intermediate MYF meets at 6 in the Church annex. Mrs. Redden is leader. They are entertaining the Asbury Intermediate MYF this Sunday, in Trinity Church.

The regular W.S.C.S. morning prayer meeting, in the annex of the Church, is led by Mrs. John Walls.

The choir rehearse Thursday evening, the Senior at 8 and the Junior at 6:45.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffers are welcoming the congregation at the church door next Sunday morning.

The Sunday following (Apr. 26), being the last Sunday of this fiscal year, is the time when pledges will be offered for signing for the coming year, by which the church budget will be supported. After the morning service, there will be a congregational meeting (in which all church members 18 and over can vote) for the purpose of electing three trustees for a three-year term, to succeed three terms now expiring; and after that, a Quarterly Conference session to approve the action of the congregation.

The high-school young people of Trinity, and their friends, will meet Tuesday, Apr. 21, at the home of Mrs. John Walls. The meeting will begin with a spaghetti supper.

Put Squeeze on Wild Onion and Garlic in Lawn

A good hard, friendly hand shake will rid your lawn of unsightly wild onion and garlic plants, according to county agent George Vapaa.

A waxy protective coating on the leaves of garlic and onion makes these plants more resistant than most weeds to treatment with chemical weed killers but by giving them special individual treatment, the job can be done.

Here's the method suggested by USDA specialists. Mix a 5-per cent solution of 2, 4-D in water (about five ounces of an ester formulation of 2, 4-D to approximately a gallon of water). Then place a rubber glove over your hand to protect it from the chemical and pull an absorbent cotton glove over the rubber glove.

Apply the solution to the garlic or onion plants by dipping your beloved hand into the mixture, then firming your hand around the tops of the unwelcome pest. Press hard enough to break through some of the waxy coating on the leaves of the plant. This will permit the chemical to penetrate into the plant's system, move down into the bulbs, and kill the entire plant.

Spot treatment of this sort makes it possible to use a stronger solution of 2, 4-D than would be safe for a general lawn treatment, Vapaa said.

Divide Your Perennials Now

Now, while the new shoots are just coming up, is an ideal time to divide many of your perennial flowers according to Dr. Charles Dunham, horticulturist with the University of Delaware.

Some of the rampant growers like chrysanthemums, pyrethrums, asters and similar perennials, need to be divided frequently for best results.

Chrysanthemums should be divided every year to maintain a good, vigorous growth or they become too crowded and blooms are small. Dig up the whole clump and separate into pieces. It is not necessary that they be separated into extremely small pieces but divided only enough to invigorate the clump.

Cuttings may also be taken of hardy chrysanthemums a little later if you wish to increase the supply of plants, Dr. Dunham said.

It is probably best to root them in clean sand. Keep shaded the first week or two and water whenever necessary.

Nearly all plants can be increased by division. If more plants of phlox, shast daisy, gailardia, pinks, veronica, or day lilies are needed, divide up your established clumps.

Three common perennials which should not be divided now are peony, oriental poppy, and iris.

In general the early flowering perennials are best divided after flowering while middle to late season blooming ones are best divided now, he said.

Prompt Filing of Wool Applications Being Urged

Chairman R. Harry Wilson of the Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, Dover, today urged wool growers who marketed their clip between April 1, 1958 and March 31, 1959 to be prompt in filing applications for payment under the national wool program. The deadline for applications is April 30, and the payment rate will be announced as soon as possible after that date.

Growers can speed the payment program by prompt filing of applications, the chairman pointed out. He explained that information contained in the applications is needed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in computing the average wool price received by growers during the 1958 marketing year. That price must be calculated before the rate of payment to growers can be determined.

Under the wool program, payments are made to growers as an incentive to increase wool production. The payment rate is the percentage necessary to bring the national average price received by growers for wool up to 62 cents a pound. The percentage method of payment encourages a good job of marketing, since the grower who receives the highest price for his wool also receives the largest payment.

Edward F. Sullivan Tells Of Recent Changes in Social Security Act

One of the recent changes in the Social Security Act now makes possible monthly checks for dependents of a person between 50 and 65 who is receiving disability insurance benefits, according to Edward F. Sullivan, social security district manager at Dover.

If the disabled person has a child under 18, a disabled child over 18 whose disability began before age 18, or a wife over 62, an application for social security benefits should be filed. If a child qualified for benefits, the mother also may qualify, regardless of her age, if the child is in her care.

If the disabled person is a woman who has a husband over 65 who was dependent on her for support, he also may be eligible for payments.

Sullivan suggests that persons who may be affected by these changes get in touch with his office immediately.

Feed — Egg Ratio

How much feed does it take to produce a dozen of eggs? County agent George Vapaa says a flock averaging 160 eggs per hen per year has a yearly production of 44 per cent. A fair annual feed requirement per hen for Leghorns at this rate of production is about 80 pounds. This yields a feed conversion of six pounds of feed per dozen eggs.

A flock hitting 69 percent for a year will lay 250 eggs per bird, and Leghorns will consume about 93 pounds of feed. This rate of production will give a conversion of about 4.5 pounds of feed per dozen eggs.

In figuring the feed conversion for layers, a full laying period of 10 or 12 months should be considered, Vapaa says.

Sullivan suggests that persons who may be affected by these changes get in touch with his office immediately.
