

Kent and Sussex Veterans Eligible For Housing Loans

Congressman Harris B. McDowell, Jr., (D-Del) was informed today by the Veterans Administration administrator, Sumner G. Whittier, that in reply to his request of last November, Kent and Sussex Counties, Delaware have been declared eligible for VA direct loans for housing construction.

Congressman McDowell had made this request after meeting with representatives of Kent and Sussex County veterans organizations and Leon Fields, manager of the Wilmington VA office on Nov. 26, 1958. Present at this meeting besides the Congressman and Mr. Fields, were Charles Jackson, state commander, American Legion; Edward T. Tingle, past commander, VFW; Herbert Willis, service officer, VFW; Edward Norris, service officer, disabled veterans; Kenneth H. Eden, loan guaranty officer; J. Paul Green, chief attorney for the VA; Fred M. Fiore, assistant to the manager, and Thomas B. Egan, service officer, American Legion.

Congressman McDowell in commenting on the announcement by the VA Administration said "I am indeed glad that the Veterans Administration in Washington has agreed to the pleas of the veterans of Kent and Sussex Counties and the home building contractors to make available the direct loan program which is so badly needed in the two lower counties of the state. My only regret is that the new action to move the Veterans Loan Guaranty Division from Wilmington to Philadelphia makes it necessary for this program to now be placed in the Baltimore office."

The Congressman said that he had been informed that this action was necessary because there was no direct loan function in the Philadelphia office. Had the service not been removed from Wilmington, Kent and Sussex County veterans would not have been further inconvenienced by having to go to Baltimore. "While I am pleased that this new service is being made available in Kent and Sussex Counties, it further emphasizes my argument that the full staff is needed in the future in Wilmington to adequately service Delaware veterans," the Congressman said.

Foul Halts H.H.S. Dover Relays Title Try

By Keith S. Burgess

The powerful Harrington High track team of Coach Dick Jeffers, which is carving out a noteworthy record despite many adversities, suffered another blow at the Dover Relays Saturday night.

Striving for the overall championship the locals were leading with victories in the first two races on the seven race program, when they were disqualified in the third event. This knocked them out of the running not only for the top place but for second as well. The final score was Wm. Henry 25 1/2, Sealford 22, Harrington 18, Dover 17 1/2, Caesar Rodney 16, and Centreville, Md. 6.

The Lions have finisher ahead of all the large schools on the peninsula having track except Sealford this year. Saturday night's foul did the H.H.S. combine out of a victory over the Sussex Countians. Harrington scored in every event except the ill-fated one.

Coach Jeffers' strategy in the opening race the 440 yard relay called for Jim Schiff, who has the fastest times ever recorded for a lower Delaware schoolboy, to utilize his experience off the starting blocks and get the other three runners enough of a lead to inspire them to hold it to the finish. This is exactly what happened as Bob Winkler, John Taylor and Don Garey all ran very well to win in 47 seconds flat in a race that Wm. Henry has always regarded as it's personal property.

In the second race the local two mile relay of sophomores, Hackett, Pfeiffer, Bonniwell, and Knotts, broke the tape in 9 minutes five and four-tenths seconds. In this race Knotts running anchor for H.H.S. took the baton with a small lead. With 150 yards to go two runners cut in too sharply on Harry causing him to break stride, fall back into third place and lose several yards. (The vigilant officials who later picked up Harrington's minor violation must have had their collective heads turned on this one.) "Hairbreaths Harry" then lived up to his name by going to the outside passing the two offenders and holding off a closing rush by the sensational 6 ft. 2 1/2 inch Dover freshman star, Godwin. Godwin, winner of the Seaford Invitational half mile, came from way back, taking giant steps and neglecting to say "May I?" Four runners were extremely close in a near photo finish.

Next, in the 880 yard relay H.H.S. was the favorite because of their handy 440 victory. Schiff coming into the home stretch was detected in lane five instead of lane six. This infraction gained very little ground for the locals and had practically nothing to do with the ultimate finish. The harness race procedure of being shoved back one notch would not have been so disastrous. But to be disqualified clear out of the race was a fatal stroke to the Lions.

The Harringtonians were defending champions and record holders in the medley relay next on the program. In this event each successive runner runs a different distance (80, 440, 220 and mile). It is unusual to hold this race so close to the other long distance test, the two mile relay. Hackett and Knotts were (Continued on back page)

with Barb Payne

Several of my scripts have been based on my opinions of high school activities. This week I am going to write my ideas of what our junior-high school students expect from this great life.

Probably without any exceptions, boys and girls of junior-high school want to enjoy life. They want to play games—to enjoy parties—to take hikes—and of course, learn lessons! To be prepared for such a schedule, good health is a necessity.

In order to be prepared for high school life, a good basic training is needed before hand. Such a training in public schools, churches, in social activities, and in your own home. There is a fuller life awaiting those who complete their education!

I would say that joy and satisfaction are the main "wants" of young teenagers. Good health—good manners—and a helping attitude toward others prepares you for a complete living. For those who have not yet begun—following the ten rules of life would be a good start!

Mrs. Don Concilio, president of the Kent County Club, has started work on a unique "Mother and Daughter" membership contest sponsored by the National Federation. All sections of the school will be open for inspection. There will also be a display of class pictures and mementoes in the hallway of the Elementary School.

Reservations for dinner and dance must be in by tomorrow.

H.H.S. Track Team Competes in Milford Meet

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Dick Jeffers entered only a skeleton squad in the Milford Invitational as the senior class is on its annual New York trip.

Harry Knotts carried most of the local hopes on his shoulders as he had defeated everyone in the mile race earlier this year at the Seaford Invitational. The track was a quagmire from the rain which fell throughout the evening. Knotts ran the first quarter in 61 second which proved to be too fast for the prevailing conditions. Murphy of South Dorchester, Md., was the winner with Blevans of Washington High, Pincess Anne, Md., second and the hitherto undefeated H.H.S. runner a close third.

Bruce Smith scored the other Harrington victory points, taking third in the pole vault.

In the junior high meet Bob Winkler scored most of the Lion points with third in the 100 yd. dash and fourth in the 50.

Bill Porter was fifth in the shot put. Walter Lekites and Bill Thompson were among the qualifiers in the broad jump events.

The final home meet of the year will be held next Wednesday afternoon with Smyrna, Caesar Rodney and possibly Milford furnishing the opposition. The locals expect to fare much better since they should be at full strength again.

Harrington High Nine Defeats Delmar 9-8

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Harold McDonald's Harrington High baseball team rallied in the fifth and seventh innings for eight runs to eke out a 9-8 non-league victory over Delmar. The triumph was the sixth in eight starts for the locals.

Ken "Snooky" Collins survived two home runs by the visitors and four errors by his teammates to chalk up his fifth win in six tries. He struck out twelve and was reached for nine hits.

Davis on the mound for Delmar also whiffed a dozen but gave up thirteen hits including five in the last inning.

Jim Schiff, who had a triple and a single in the early innings beat out an infield roller to start the winning rally. Ron Collison, Jim Collins, John Taylor and Jim Temple all hit safely to put the game on ice with Temple filling the hero's role as he lined a solid smash into center field for a double to drive in the tying and winning runs.

A THEATER HELPS BUSINESS

A number of communities have taken the theaters, and the newspapers for granted. As in the case of many things, they are missed only when they have departed.

Then, loud are the lamentations of the public, more than willing to close the barn door after the horse has been stolen.

Several theaters have closed their doors on the Peninsula. Their loss has been felt to an extent that, in some communities, civic groups have reopened the cinemas.

The firemen reactivated the movies at St. Michaels, Md., and at Selbyville, the theater was reopened recently by the businessmen. At Hurlock, Md., the Hurlock Theatre, closed several years, reopened because of the co-operation of the merchants and the North Dorchester Chamber of Commerce.

We have often thought how lifeless the business section of Harrington would be, at night, without the Reese Theater. Its bright lights are an advertisement to traffic on Delaware 14 that life still exists and that the community possesses more than ordinary substance.

The theater brings people into the community and, consequently, a few wide-awake merchants see fit to light their show windows for economical advertising.

There are also probably a dozen business places which profits directly by the theater's being open Saturday and Sunday afternoons and every night in the week. The cinema is an excellent advertising medium for the community.

the 31st of May.
 There will be a rehearsal for the Senior Choir Thursday evening at 8:30 at the church. New Members are welcome.

A rehearsal for the Junior Choir will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

At the High Mass last Sunday, the Senior Choir sang the Mass of St. Lawrence at the Offertory, they sang "Ave Maria." "Veni Jesu" was the Communion hymn. As the recessional, they sang "O God of Loveliness."

On Oblate from Wilmington will be here Sunday for Mass and Confessions.

Sunday we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, the birthday of the Catholic Church.

Some time after Jesus had ascended into heaven, His disciples and apostles were gathered in the upper room, where Jesus had eaten with them the Last Supper. Suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty wind, and it shook the whole house where they were assembled. Tongues of fire appeared to all those in the room and sat upon every one of them, and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost. And they began to speak in different languages, according as the Holy Ghost gave them to speak. In accordance with the command of our blessed Savior, the apostles now went forth into the whole world to preach the Gospel. They ordained priests to assist them in their ministry; the consecrated bishops who would be their successors and carry on the work of the church after their death. Thus it was that the Church of Christ began its mission here upon earth. Like the mustard seed of which our Saviour spoke, it grew from small beginnings until it became the great institution which today continues to spread throughout the world, preaching the Gospel to every creature.

Micro-Midget News

The Blue Hen Micro Midget Club wants to apologize for the fast switch made last week from Sunday afternoon to Saturday night. To all our faithful spectators who were disappointed Sunday, we are sorry. We hope it will be more convenient Saturday nights for everyone. The beach weather is just around the corner, so you can see the Micro Midget races Saturday night and go to the beach Sunday.

The time is 8 p.m. We had a very cool night to start with, so its not a bad idea to bring a blanket. The boys that voted for the fast change, realize now they should of had their ducks lined up more in advance.

Did you ever go visiting and were unwelcome? Some of the boys know all about this. They took their cars and went to a neighboring track Sunday and were refused the use of the track. Where did the good old sportsmanship go? Maybe they thought their visitors would give them too much competition.

Back to the Blue Hen Speedway. Walt Messick brought out his new car No. 14 and its a beauty. Light blue, white and a touch of red. This makes him two cars in all, running at the Speedway. Poody Argo was out in his car No. 77, last year is was No. 99, maybe the sevens will be lucky for him this year. We also had a visitor who raced with us last year. He is Buddy Spearing in his car No. 111. Walls was also back in car No. 50. Gene Jarrell had his car out again, Car No. 2.

Walter Schiff's rough luck is still with him. In the 2nd Race (15 laps) the 13th lap his car No. 22 broke an axle, so this put him out of racing the rest of the evening. He's all fixed up and ready to go this Saturday night again. His luck just has to make a turn for the better.

Clarence Gray also had axle trouble in the 1st Race in the evening races too. Clarence fourth lap which put him out of Billing's luck was changed in the 2nd Race in the 6th lap. I hear it was a valve. Maybe he'll be ready by Saturday night again too. Spanky Vincent's motor tore up also. It just wasn't the best night for a few of the boys with all the break downs we still had seven cars to start in the Feature awhile if there would be any left Race. They were wondering for for the feature.

Now for the results of the races of Saturday night, May 9.

1st Race—(Micro Midgets)—15 laps—1-Buddy Spearing in car No. 111; 2-Poody Argo in car No. 77.

2nd Race (Micro Midget)—15 laps—1-Spanky Vincent in car No. 71; 2-Bugs Bunny Fox in car No. 7; 3-Jack Sapp in Walt Messick's car No. 14.

3rd Race (1/4 Midgets)—Boys 1-Bobby Walls in car No. 11; 2-Billy Dill in car No. 1.

4th Race (Micro Midget)—Consolation—15 laps 1-Jack Sapp in car No. 14; 2-Smily Fry in car No. 101; 3-Chuck Peters in car No. 30.

5th Race—(Micro Midget) Feature—25 laps—1-Bugs Bunny Fox in John Porter's car No. 7; 2-Jack Sapp in Walt Messick's car No. 14; 3-Smily Fry in Jim Cain's car No. 101; 4-Poody Argo in his car No. 77.

The feature race was run in 6 minutes and 50 second. If you want to see how soon this time will be broken come out every Saturday night at 8 p.m. and see which car and driver will do just that. For those who have never seen these cars go, you just don't know what you are missing. The Blue Hen Speedway is 1 mile south of the Harrington red light. See you all Saturday night. Bring a pillow.

Del. Federation Week May 17-23

The week of May 17-23, by proclamation of Gov. J. Caleb Boggs, has been named Delaware Federation Week. An innovation this year, the idea has been stressed by the state president, Mrs. William J. Storey, as a means of stimulating greater interest among Delaware club women in their local, state and general federation heritage. Also it will serve to provoke additional interest in clubwork on the part of prospective members, to inform the general public of the contribution the club, the State Federation and General Federation have made to community living through the years and are making currently, and finally to earn good will for the clubs locally and state-wide.

Each day of the week will be designated by a special name to spotlight a topic that has been a part of the club program during the past year. Some of the clubs in various parts of the state will participate in projects in their community that will signify work that has been done during the year. Many clubs will have open house to show their club buildings to people in their communities who may not even know of its existence.

The days that will be observed are: Sun., May 17, American Home Day; Mon., May 18, Community Affairs Day; Tues., May 19, Conservation Day; Wed., May 20, Education Day; Thurs., May 21, International Affairs Day; Fri., May 22, Foreign Students Day, and Sat., May 23, Fine Arts Day.

Harrington New Century Club will observe Federation Week by attending the Sunday morning services of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church May 17 at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. William W. Shaw, president of the local club has asked that all members attend.

"Shaggy Dog" at Reese May 14-19

All roads, by-roads, lead to Movie Center. It's one grand big time for the entire family. Undoubtedly, it's the biggest all-family parade in history as Walt Disney's "Shaggy Dog" opens at the Reese Theatre this Thurs., May 14 and continues to and including May 19, for six glorious days. It's Walt Disney's funnies dog-gone adventure and your happiest. See the Reese Theatre special weekly program in this newspaper for further information.

When you speak of big productions, "Imitation of Life" is taking the country by storm. Universal-International says, "We agree with the critics, this is the biggest we have ever made."

Imagine Lana Turner, John Gavin, Sandra Dee, Dan O'Herlihy, and Robert Alda—all in a great story by Fannie Hurst, and you have "Imitation of Life", coming to the Reese Theatre for a seven-day engagement beginning Thurs., May 21. You're going to meet your neighbors going or coming to Movie Center.

Lightning Strikes Once, That's Enough!

Lightning causes nearly a third of all farm fires and kills about 500 people each year, George Vapaa, Kent county agricultural agent reports.

Another 1300 people are injured each year by lightning too. About 90 percent of this toll occurs in rural areas, he said. Mr. Vapaa suggests that you follow the advise of University of Delaware agricultural engineers and install an approved, complete lightning protection system.

Be sure your system has an Underwriter's laboratory label. You increase your chances of being struck by lightning if you ces, under lone trees, or our in the open or high places. A few of the best bets are in protected buildings, thick timber, an automobile, or in a low spot such as a ditch.

If you are in the house, he says to stay away from screen doors, fireplaces, open windows and metal objects.

Only Beautyrest has separate springs to fit the curve of your back. And because it has buoyant firmness, Beautyrest will not rob you of comfort and sleep—as do so many so-called posture mattresses.

So if you're out to save money, it pays to insist on longer-lasting Beautyrest. In the long run, the best actually costs the least. Important to know with many so-called "bargain buys" on the market today.

The more deep sleep you get, the more refreshed you are in the morning. That's why, when you buy Beautyrest—you're assured of maximum healthful rest.

FACT 5

ONLY BEAUTYREST GIVES SINGLE-BED COMFORT IN A DOUBLE BED BECAUSE ONLY BEAUTYREST HAS SEPARATE SPRINGS FOR EACH SLEEPER! Beautyrest's springs are separate and independent. Press down on one Beautyrest spring and others are not affected. No rolling together. The heaviest husband cannot disturb his wife's rest.

FACT 6

THE PRESIDENT OF SHERATON HOTELS SAYS: "With 49 of America's leading hotels, we pride ourselves on hospitality and comfort. Beautyrest is the only mattress we now buy". And Beautyrest is the only mattress that has passed the minimum performance standards of the American Hotel Association.

FACT 7

BEAUTYREST PROTECTS YOU, THE SHOPPER. As stated by Grant Simmons, Jr., President of Simmons Company: "Beautyrest is never offered with an artificial, inflated list price. Others do this continually. The advertised price is slashed down to the actual price of the mattress as a 'come-on'. Beautyrest always means what it says—and it gives you $79.50 value for $79.50!"

Horticultural classes for adult amateurs include hybrid tea roses, grandifloras, floribundas, climbers, miniatures and other roses, perennials, biennials, annuals, plants, vegetables and cut specimens of shrubs and flowering trees.

The junior division includes classes for two age groups—children under 12, and youth from 12 to 18. Horticultural classes include specimens of garden flowers, fresh field flowers or weeds, collection of dried and mounted tree leaves, collection of dried and mounted weeds, plant started and grown by exhibitor, dish garden or terrarium planted by exhibitor, and houseplant under the care of the exhibitor for at least three months.

Arrangement classes for juniors include an arrangement in a toy, an arrangement illustrating a popular song, one in a container made by the exhibitor, one in a favorite pitcher or vase and one in the form of a right angle. Other classes are a miniature arrangement using a cigar box as a shadow box and background, a fresh flower corsage and a table arrangement commemorating Flag Day.

Featured in the arrangement classes for adults are an arrangement of fresh plant material using a favorite accessory, a composition suggesting a book, play or reading, an arrangement using foliage only, a period design of fresh plant material, an arrangement suggesting reverence, an arrangement inspired by the Orient, a composition stressing rhythm, one using fresh flowers and any material from the sea, a corsage suitable for a dance on the terrace and a setting, limited to garden clubs or community club garden groups, for breakfast for two on the patio.

Ribbons will be awarded for the three best arrangements in each adult class. A challenge trophy will be awarded to the group winning the class 'breakfast for two on the patio'. A sweepstakes trophy will be awarded to the top winner in the arrangement classes. In adult amateur horticultural classes, ribbons will be given the three top winners in each class. A sweepstakes trophy will be awarded for the highest number of points in rose exhibits and also in other horticultural exhibits.

Prizes for professional gardeners in horticultural classes will be ribbons for the first three winners in each class and a challenge trophy for the gardener receiving the most points.

In the junior classes, ribbons will be awarded for the three best entries in each class. Prizes for the first, second and third also will be given. Sweepstakes prizes will be awarded to the youth receiving the most points in each age group.

Sweepstakes awards in adult classes are provided by Longwood Gardens. Prizes in the junior division and all ribbons are awarded by the Sears Roebuck Foundation.

Show officials emphasize that the adult arrangement classes are limited and that entries should be made immediately. The adult horticultural classes are unlimited as are the junior classes with the exception of the arrangement commemorating Flag Day. Entries in this class are limited to organized youth groups—girl scouts, boy scouts, 4-H, FFA, FHA members, etc.

Schedules of show classes, entry forms and additional information about the show may be obtained by writing to: Delaware Flower Show, Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, Newark.

Delaware Park Keeping Pace With Electronic Age

Delaware Park has kept pace with the electronics age in the operational procedure of the picturesque Stanton racing grounds and beginning with the race season opener Fri., May 29, speed again will be the keynote. Two major innovations this year in a rapid mutuels payoff teletype system and a time-saving photo-finish projection will eliminate unnecessary delays between races and enable patrons to get an early start home.

The mutuels payoff teletype system, first of its type at a major race course, will result in a two minute time saving in the cashing of winning tickets. Robert F. Stigler, communications consultant for the Diamond State Telephone Co., completed a detailed study last year of the clubhouse and grandstand mutuels divisions and recommended the closed circuit teletype system as the most expedient method.

The system originates in the calculating room, "brain center" of the mutuels department, where a transmitter teletype will relay payoff prices simultaneously to 13 teletype receiver stations which in turn will disseminate the payoff prices to the appropriate cashiers.

The transmitter teletype is a one-man operation and uses the typewritten word and figure in large gothic typeface. This method reduces the margin of error. Heretofore several persons telephoned payoff prices to the various mutuel units resulting in a time loss and also multiplying the human element and risk of misunderstanding the spoken word.

Senior Scouts from the Peninsula Council and the Wilmington Area Girl Scout Council, will gather at Camp Todd, near Denton, Md., this weekend for a training session preparatory to this summer's National Senior Girl Scout Roundup in Colorado.

Girls who will attend the roundup will practice pitching camp in a 900 sq. foot area allotted each group of eight girls. In this area they will pitch four tents, and an outdoor kitchen. Free Polio Shots Available to Dover Residents Saturday

Free polio shots will be available to residents of the Dover area this Sat., May 16, at the Kent County Health Unit, 414 S. State St., in Dover. The clinic, sponsored by the Medical Society of Delaware, the Board of Health, and the Delaware Chapters of the National Foundation, will be open from 9-12 a.m. for first, second, third or fourth shots.

Paralytic polio cases are definitely on the rise among the non-vaccinated population. The U. S. Public Health Service reports that this year's cases are 83 per cent ahead of last year's. At the same time, the effectiveness of the Salk vaccine, originally estimated at upward of 80 per cent has been re-calculated on the basis of more experience to 85 per cent to 90 per cent.

The 85 to 90 per cent effectiveness of the vaccine is calculated on a full course of three shots. Less than three shots will give substantially less protection and a fourth shot, particularly recommended for the most susceptible groups—small children and teenagers, expectant mothers and young parents—will undoubtedly give even better results when enough evidence can be collected. The fourth shot has only recently been recognized as useful.

Recent experiments by Dr. Jonas Salk at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine indicate that a fourth shot of polio vaccine tends to compensate for poor response in people who have received three shots. Dr. Salk's subjects were 462 individuals selected because of low antibody production from three shots of the anti-polio serum. The researchers found that in the majority of cases, a fourth shot brought the patient's immunity to the disease to the 85 and 90 per cent level.

The advent of summer and warm weather ordinarily brings a rise in the paralytic polio rate. One shot of Salk vaccine now and another in two to four weeks should provide temporary protection for the summer. Another shot in the fall will be necessary to give permanent protection. All Delawareans are urged to get polio shots immediately, either from the public clinics or from their family doctors.

Jr. Hi Band in Festival at C. R.

Next Wednesday evening, May 20, at Caesar Rodney High School the Junior High School Band of the Harrington Special School District will attend a Junior Band Festival sponsored by the music teachers of Kent County. The event begins promptly at 7:30 p.m.

The local band is composed of members from the 7th and 8th grades and is the largest band ever produced from these two grades in this district, numbering 42 players. It is a fully complemented organization and they will play four numbers: Manhattan Beach March, by Sousa; Our Director March, a Mexican number entitled "La Spagnola", and a suite by Fisher, entitled "Creole". Soloist in the last number is Teddy Johnson.

Mr. Brobst, director, invites any interested person to attend this concert which is open free to the public, and is hoped that many parents will be among the audience.

Letter to the Editor

Last Sunday afternoon there occurred in Harrington a musical event that marks a first in the musical history of our community—an organ recital. The very term "organ recital" may make many a person, musical or not, wince at a drawn-out, dreary, monotonously boring afternoon or evening, and can cause one to think of many excuses for not attending. Until attendance is attempted, one cannot realize its many pleasures.

Mrs. Gertrude Gibson, organist for Asbury Methodist Church, wife of its pastor, and organist for only the past three years made last Sunday's musical experience a delightful one. For one hour and twenty minutes she pleased a rather large audience for such a recital's first attempt, and proved again that one cannot know what proves a fine thing until it is tried.

The delightful interpretation of Bach's "Sheep May Safely Graze" and the brilliance of Nevin's "Toccata in D Minor" proved a mastery of the king of instruments that very few of us in Harrington realized that Mrs. Gibson possessed. Those of us who heard her hope that she will again make such a recital possible next spring, and that Mr. Barrell, organist of Wesley Methodist Church, Dover, who is Mrs. Gibson's teacher, will again be with us for another one of these occasions.

892 Persons Attend Bible Teaching Course in Wilm.

After a full 3-day weekend of instruction in Bible-teaching methods, members of the Milford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses have returned home from a circuit assembly in Wilmington determined to assist others by what they learned.

The local delegation, headed by Bernal Dean, presiding minister, was among 892 persons attending the conference which serves as a six-month milestone of progress for the group. Dean said it was revealed that the ranks of Jehovah's Witnesses have increased 26 per cent on the Delmarva Peninsula during the past year. Heavily contributing to this growth is the fact that one out of every two Jehovah's Witnesses now regularly conducts a weekly Bible study with newly interested persons.

Of greatest interest to the Milford group was the principal speech "A Paradise Earth Through God's Kingdom," by David J. Thomas, district minister. Rather than progressing toward a paradise earth, Thomas contended that "the nations with their hatreds and nationalisms are rushing madly on to Armageddon's destruction." After that, he maintained, a complete renovation of the earth will follow because "Jehovah God will teach men how to live in perfect peace and to plant a wonderful paradise."

Dean reported that those who accompanied him took copious notes on techniques of conducting Bible studies demonstrated by ministers specially skilled in this field. They plan to apply these in their personal Christian ministry.

There were 19 persons baptized Saturday by complete water immersion to symbolize their unreserved dedication to do the will of Jehovah God.

Concentrated Milk Passes Taste Test

A cheap and easily transported form of concentrated milk successfully passed taste tests at the University of Illinois farm and home festival last month, reports Mrs. Marjorie W. Whittaker foods and nutrition specialist at the University of Delaware.

She said only half of the people tasting the milk at the U. of I. festival could tell the difference between concentrated and regular milk.

It is made by removing two-thirds of the water from grade A whole milk. It is packaged in one-third-quart cartons and reconstituted by the consumer. It will keep in the refrigerator for up to 14 days, she said.

Milk surplus areas can ship the concentrated form into milk importing areas where the price will be several cents cheaper per quart than fresh milk.

Trade barriers are keeping the concentrated form off the market in some areas, but it is expected to take its place on the supermarket shelves before too long.

Another new product called "Sterile concentrated" milk is also being tested and has been kept for five months at room temperature in tests at Illinois.

Mrs. Whittaker says the concentrated milk is popular in the areas where it is available and promises to become popular with the public.

Garden Vines Repay Trouble

There is a place for annual vines in nearly every garden, according to Robert Stevens, extension horticulturist with the University of Delaware.

Annual vines can be used to shade the porch, cover a fence or screen out undesirable objects. They grow rapidly and many produce a profusion of flowers.

There are annual vines for every use; corase kinds, dainty types and colorful kinds. All the common types of annual vines are easy to grow, too. Plant now in good garden soil and you will be surprised how fast they grow, Stevens said.

Some of the most common annual vines are:

Bolloovine (Love-in-a-Puff)—small white flowers, grows 8 to 10 feet.

Cup-and-Saucer Vine (Cobaea) rapidly growing, grows to 30 feet long, bell-shaped flower, pink to purple.

Hyacinth-Bean (Dalichos) — Twining climber, abundant flowers of snow white, purple seed pods — suitable for a screen.

Scarlet Runner Bean—Pea-like flowers of brilliant scarlet.

Nasturtium—Many different varieties which produce different color flowers; grows to 15 feet long—often attacked by plant lice (aphids).

Clockvine (Thunbergia) attractive flowers of different colors; grows to 6 feet long and especially adapted for porch boxes and hanging baskets.

These and many other annual vines are easily grown. Cover that ugly fence, chicken house, or shed with an attractive annual vine, Stevens suggested.

If you want something a little different, he suggested using annual gourds such as balsam pear hop vine or mock cucumber.

Delaware Food Market Report

The season is here to look for canned food specials. Why? From now on, fresh vegetables will become plentiful and canners will be packing the new crops. Last year's canned vegetables will be offered at lower prices to make way for this year's supply. You may see canned vegetables and fruits offered under "off-brand" labels, also. What is the reason for this? Well, say a tomato processor contracts for his year's supply, he packs what the buyer wants—the number of cases and the grade. At the end of the packing season he may have quite a number of tomatoes left. He will probably put an "off brand" label on these and sell them at a lower-than-regular price, since profit is most often counted on canned tomatoes ordered under the customer's particular label. These "off-brand" labeled tomatoes may be the same high quality as others that are packed, but cost less. Best way to decide about buying these canned foods wearing labels you do not know is to buy one can and try it. Then if you like what's inside, buy more on your next trip to the store.

More fresh vegetables are reaching our local markets. This weekend look for good buys on asparagus, sweet corn, lettuce and other leafy greens, cabbage, new and old white potatoes and celery.

The fruit picture is improving. The out-look for the weeks ahead is more strawberries and cantaloupes than last year. You won't see as great an abundance of watermelon as you did last year. This week supplies of cantaloupes, watermelon, honey dew melons and Persian melons have increased, however, prices are high enough to make these fruits luxury items for most of us.

Eggs remain an outstanding buy as do broiler-fryers. Plan many of your menus around these two abundant foods.

Look for specials at the meat counter again this weekend to help stretch the food dollar. Pork is still in season and weekend prices make this meat a good buy especially such cuts as loin roasts and smoked cuts, including bacon. With warm weather here, demands for steaks and chops increase and prices will be higher (fewer weekend specials also) while cuts of beef requiring longer cooking will become lower in price, making them a good buy.

Eggs and Heat

What with warm weather coming up egg producers need to be particularly conscious of maintaining egg quality, according to Ralph Barwick, extension poultryman with the University of Delaware.

He offers a few tips to help keep eggs at top quality:

Provide plenty of clean nesting space, about one nest for every five hens;

Keep the nests filled with clean dry litter such as wood shavings or sawdust;

Collect the eggs at least three times a day or more often during hot weather;

Cool the eggs as soon as you collect them to about 50 to 55 degrees with a humidity about 75 to 80 per cent;

Pack the cleaned eggs in cool containers after the eggs have been cooled for six to eight hours;

Keep the egg room free of any material that can give the eggs an off-flavor or odor;

Market your eggs at least once a week, it really should be done twice a week, during hot weather.

"Plan ahead for the production of high quality summer eggs," Barwick said.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I know World War II veterans have a GI loan deadline coming up on July 25, 1960. Must a veteran's GI loan arrangements be all completed by then?

A—No. That deadline is for making application for a GI loan. If World War II veterans apply by July 25, 1960, they have another full year in which to complete loan arrangements.

Q—According to a GI insurance dividend statement just received, I have a substantial dividend credit with the VA. Will I still continue to receive premium-due notices, or will premiums be taken out of my accrued dividends?

A—You will continue to receive premium-due notices, as before. Dividend credits are used by VA only to prevent lapse of a policy. Premium notices are not suspended where there are dividend credits.

Q—A woman veterans neighbor of ours has just died, leaving a husband who is quite helpless. Isn't there some recent law which says a helpless widower of a woman veteran may receive VA benefits based on the death of his wife? And if so, what are the law's main provisions?

A—You are correct. There is a new law. And it states that the unmarried widower of a woman veteran may receive VA death benefits if he is incapable of self-maintenance and, at the time of his wife's death, was permanently incapable of self-support because of physical or mental disability.

Q—I am the beneficiary of my veteran-husband's GI insurance policy. He owed a few bills at his death, which I intend to pay. Meanwhile, do these creditors have any right to seize the GI insurance policy to get their money right away?

A—No. Proceeds of a GI insurance policy are exempted by law in your case from any claims of creditors. The proceeds may not be seized or attached to pay your husband's debts.

Chevy pickup pulls through "bottomless" pastures to keep stock fed!

At the Hall Bros. Dairy Farm, Montgomery, Ala., they say this 4-wheel drive Chevy will go anywhere to keep stock fed—even through hub-deep muck that makes it a fight all the way. And yet after a full year of it—no mechanical trouble of any kind!

That Chevy pickup may not win any beauty awards (till it's cleaned up). But it's sure walking off with the top prize for dependability. And that's standard Chevrolet procedure. Put a Chevy truck to work and it keeps on working until you say quit. Not before. We aren't claiming that every Chevrolet truck is turning out to be a miracle-worker and averaging 100,000 miles before a valve job. (Even though some are going 150,000!) You're sure to find, however, that you can't buy more truck dependability at any price. And that's borne out by the fact that more truck owners put their faith, and their payloads, in Chevrolets than in any other make. Take your load and schedule figures to your Chevrolet dealer. He'll specify the best way to handle both and save in the bargain.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck! CHEVROLET

Now's the time—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for a real truck buy!

Flowers on the altar Rogation Sunday were given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mrs. Beatrice Toon by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Yokum.

Members of the women of St. Stephen's who are interested in going to the diocesan convention at St. Andrew's, Wilmington, on Wed., May 20, may contact the president of the group for transportation arrangements.

The Kent County Convocation of Young People met Sun., May 3, at St. Paul's Church, Camden. Miss Harriet Bailey, University of Delaware, spoke on summer work projects for youth and showed colored slides to illustrate the many possibilities open to young people during vacation months.

Those from St. Stephen's who attended the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Earl McColley, Mrs. Robert McNally, Miss Carol McNally, Billy Carter, Roy Porter, Billy McColley, Gary Porter, Bill Thompson.

The following officers were elected: Miss Barbara Ann Hill, Milford, president; Miss Judy Fritz, Camden, vice-president, and treasurer; Miss Bonnie Leit-zell, secretary.

The seniors were initiated out by other members of the group. The next meeting will be at Christ Church, Milford in October.

Flowers on the altar the Sunday after Ascension were given to the glory of God and in loving memory of William T. Keith by Mrs. John R. Symonds of Wilmington.

On Youth Sunday, May 10, a number of young men of the church had prominent parts in the 11 o'clock service. Besides helping as ushers, crucifer, torch bearers, and acolyte, three young men assisted the vicar in reading the "Order for Daily Morning Prayer." William Thompson read the opening sentences, the confession, and the Lord's Prayer, and Psalm; William McColley read the Old Testament and New Testament lessons; and Philip Holson completed the service with collects, prayers, and general Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Walter Winkler and Mrs. Robert Nelson attended a meeting of Christian Social Relations representatives at St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, Monday.

Dr. C. J. Prickett, superintendent of the Welfare Home at Smyrna, made a talk on the requirements for a successful home for the aged. He spoke of the constant change in the needs. A great increase in the number of bed ridden patients has been noted and the average age is now much greater.

Dr. Prickett outlined health, rehabilitation, religious, and social programs for such an institution. He also indicated that proper diet was most essential; that a service of meditation and group discussions were most beneficial. He said that it was highly important for the inmates to have an occasional outing.

The ladies asked questions revolving around the problem of making "Ingliside", the Diocesan Home for the aged in Wilmington, most effective and most helpful for those living there.

May 3, members of the diocesan Department of Missions visited St. Stephen's, Harrington. They attended 11 o'clock service and talked with members of the congregation at coffee hour, in the Parish House. Then a tour of the new St. Stephen's was made, and afterward a luncheon was served the visitors by a committee of the Women of St. Stephen's.

The group of visitors met informally with the vestry and other members of the congregation to discuss the progress and needs of the mission. Mr. S. Thomas Pippin of Wilmington presided.

The following were among the guests who made this visitation: Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Wilmington and Baltimore; Mrs. Herbert J. Baylis of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. William T. Jones and Bill Tom Jones of Milton; Mr. and Mrs. Adna Mumford, Selbyville; Mr. Silvio H. Lopez, Wilmington; Mr. Harlan Fisher, Middletown; Mr. J. Harry Nickle, Delaware City; Dr. John B. Baker, Milford; Mrs. Margaret Hebbden, Lutherville, Md.

Mrs. James F. Coady was chairman of the luncheon committee. The June issue of the "Ladies Home Journal" will feature an article on the daily life of an Episcopal clergyman and his family. It is a part of the "How American Lives" series.

Approximately 30 young people and adults from St. Stephen's attended the annual presentation service of the Church School Missionary Offering, May 10, 4 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of St. John, Wilmington. The service was under the auspices of the Department of Christian Education.

St. Stephen's Junior Choir, with 30 other choirs from churches throughout Delaware, marched in the long procession and sang the opening hymns "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "Rise Crowned With Light."

The talk was by the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware.

Miss Barbara Schanding marched forward to place the mite box offering from St. Stephen's in the large box set up for contributions of individual church schools.

The May meeting of the Men of St. Stephen's will be held Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m. beginning with a dinner. The recently prepared full color sound film, "In Such a Time" will be shown at 7:30 p.m. This film is the story of a young man answering God's call to the ministry and of his life in the Seminary. The "shooting" of this film took place at the vicar's Seminary in Virginia.

Scours Controlled by Feeding Dairy Calves Aureomycin

Feedy aureomycin to dairy calves reduced incidence of scours (diarrhea) according to livestock scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, reports county agricultural agent George Vapaa.

In experiments by USDA's Agricultural Research Service at Beltsville, Md., test calves were fed aureomycin as part of their diet for 90 days after birth. A smaller percentage of the antibiotic-fed calves developed scours than the control animals which received no aureomycin, he said.

Differences between the two groups were consistent throughout the trials. Three of the calves not receiving aureomycin died of diarrhea during the trials.

Aureomycin-fed calves gained an average of 19 pounds more than the control group during the 90-day period. When the antibiotic was removed from their diet, however, these calves gained less rapidly than the others. However, at 6 to 12 months of age there was no significant weight difference between the aureomycin-fed calves and the controls, Vapaa said.

Measurement of the feed intake shows that aureomycin stimulates appetite, growth and increases feed efficiency. After aureomycin-feeding is stopped, rate of gain decreases and appetite returns to normal.

Research also has demonstrated that these advantages diminish as the calves grow older. Adding aureomycin to the diet to increase the growth rate is seldom profitable after the calves reach two months of age.

Combination Rose Treatment Recommended

Gardeners looking for a "general-purpose" rose spray or dust should make sure the chemicals in the mix will control mites, insects and fungus diseases.

That's the latest word from county agricultural agent George Vapaa. He says the general-purpose sprays or dusts usually contain captan, maneb, ferbam, zineb, karathane, and sulfur, or various combinations of these ingredients. They are for control of fungus diseases such as black-spot and powdery mildew.

Karathane and sulfur will control the powdery mildew but not the blackspot. Insecticides most likely to be found in rose dusts and sprays are DDT, lindane, and malathion. Mites can be controlled with aramite or kelthane which are not carried in most rose sprays or dusts.

Dusts and sprays are both effective, Mr. Vapaa says. With either type it is necessary to repeat treatments every week to 10 days throughout the growing season to maintain control. Rain washes chemicals off leaves and encourages fungus growth and spread, so weekly treatment is wise in wet weather.

The best way to be sure you're getting the right chemical combination is to read the label on the container, the agent advises. If there isn't at least one chemical for each type of rose pest, separate chemicals can be mixed in the right proportions at home.
