H.H.S. Harriers Are Fourth In 12-Team State Meet

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Harold McDonald's strong Harrington High Cross-country team finished fourth among 12 teams in the State High School championship meet held Wednesday afternoon at Rockford Park in Wilmington. The locals were the only downstate representatives. H.H.S. was the smallest school entered. Last year the Lions were fourth in a field of 8 teams.

Harry Knotts, the proud possessor of a goodly collection of trophies, added another to his collection as he finished fourth in a huge field of 84 runners. Harry's time for the tough 2.3 mile course was a sparkling 11 minutes and 26 seconds. Buddy Bonniwell ran a good race as expected but the real pleasant surprise of the local unit were the performances of freshman Clarence Hackett and George Pfeiffer. Hackett was only 1 second behind Bonniwell, who was 18th. Pfeiffer was 25th and Dennis "Buck" Bradley also did much better than last year as he finished 44th.

Defending champion, Howard, successfully defended its title, followed by Mt. Pleasant and De La Warr. The other 11 teams are familiar with the course as all their meets and many of their practice sessions are held at Rockford Park. Harrington may be a title threat next year as the entire local squad is composed of juniors, sophomores and freshmen. Many of the other schools will suffer heavy losses by graduation.

Wednesday afternoon the Lion harriers will host seven or more schools at the Harrington Rotary Invitational meet to be held at the Killen's Pond course at 3:45. In addition to Millsboro, Milton, Greenwood and Harrington, four Maryland schools will compete. These are Centreville, North Caroline, Easton and South Dorchester. Some late entries may be received. Trophies will be given to team and individual winners. These are donated by the local Rotary Club and may be seen in Cahall and Shaw's display window.

If Coach McDonald's lads are up to the form of their Wilmington outing they will be hard to beat.

UNICEF Goblins Collect $156.05

The citizens of Harrington are proud of the efforts of the UNICEF goblins to share their Halloween with the children of other lands. A total of $156.05 in pennies nickels and dimes has already been sent to UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund to be converted by that agency into life-saving medicines and health-giving milk and vitamins. This money will go a long way toward improving the health and welfare of some of the world's 600 million underprivileged children.

The coordinating committee, headed by members of Asbury and Trinity Methodist Churches, expressed their appreciation to everyone responsible for the big success of the UNICEF Halloween for 1959.

The more than 117 children participating in the program represented the following churches: Asbury, Trinity, St. Stephen's, Baptist, Holiness, Nazarene, Metropolitan, and St. Paul's.

Miss Rae Smith Sigma Mu Sigma Representative

Miss Rae Smith, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Smith, 102 Commerce Street, Harrington, was elected inter-club council representative for Sigma Mu Sigma, social club and secretary-treasurer of Cap and Gown, women's honor society, Hiram College.

Rae is a senior majoring in English and a 1956 graduate of Harrington High School.

Girl Scout News

Miss Betty Gamber, representative of the Peninsula Girl Scout Council, Inc., Salisbury, was the principal speaker of the Neighborhood Association meeting held in the Girl Scout building last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. William Hurd, Neighborhood chairman, emphasized the need of additional leader training for this year's program.

Leaders and troops are being organized under the guidance of Mrs. Norman Hopkins.

Ecuador will ask bids on a port improvement project for Esmeraldas.

H.H.S. Rallies In Tie With John M. Clayton

Coach Bill Smith's thinly manned Harrington High football forces roared back from a 0-13 deficit to deadlock John M. Clayton High 19-19 on the home field Saturday afternoon. Three H. H. S. starters were on the sidelines and in some instances players had to be used who had just joined the squad. In spite of this, the Lions, led by the passing and running of Jim Temple, and the blocking, tackling and running of Ron Collison, were equal to the occasion.

Temple had one of his better days as he scored two touchdowns, passed to Leonard Masten for another and ran over an extra point. Collison, with his line-smashing, blocking and many ferocious tackles, wound up with the dirtiest uniform on the field as an indication of how wholeheartedly he plays the pigskin sport.

The visiting Bears scored early in the game on a 65 yard drive with passes, laterals and end sweeps, eating up most of the yardage. This type of offense has been hardest for the Lions to defend against in their three year football tenure. Later J. M. C. blocked an attempted punt on the Harrington 10-yard line to threaten again. On a running play, center Jim McDonald snatched the ball from the grasp of an enemy back. H.H.S. recovered the resultant loose ball to halt the threat.

At the start of the second quarter, another blocked kick by the visitors rolled back to the 1-yard line where a Bear picked it up and fell across the wide stripe for a 12-0 lead. The extra point was kicked for a 13-0 score, and little time left in the first half.

After an exchange of fumbles, Temple circled left end, and, meeting some of the opposition there, he veered back to the center of the field and barely won the race to the goal from four defenders. The play covered 72 yards with Collison and Masten furnishing the key blocks.

Almost immediately John M. Clayton made the mistake of passing from deep in their own territory despite the seven point lead. Temple, who has very quick reflexes, intercepted and ran 30 yards to make the half-time count 13-12.

In the third quarter the locals appeared ready to take charge as Collison hit the middle for 15 yards and again for 7 yards. Temple went for 10 yards. After an exchange of penalties, the ball rested on the visitors 15-yard line. Leonard Masten then gathered in a pass, eluded two tacklers and scored in a duplicate of his previous T. D. against Lord Baltimore. Temple went through center for the extra point. With Harrington in the van 19-13, the locals finally ran out of momentum.

John M. Clayton scored around end from 26 yards out to make the final tally 19-19.

In the fourth quarter Collison made the type of play made famous by Gene "Big Daddy" Lipscomb, of the Baltimore Colts. On the quarterback option play, the J.M.C. signal caller had the choice of keeping the ball or lateraling it off to the halfback running alongside. The burly Harrington bully boy to guard against a wrong guess on his part seized both men in a bear hug and brought them down.

Masten intercepted a pass to end one of the last bids by the Bears. The tie gives the home team a record of 2-3-1 thus far.

George Balderson, 180-pound defensive and offensive stalwart, returns to the lineup next week after a bout with pneumonia.

Selbyville's winless Rebels, playing their first season of football, will be met at Harrington. The Sussex Counties have tallied but one touchdown all season and should bring the H. H. S. record to 3-3-1 before the season's finale, with powerful Rehoboth. In Henlopen Conference play the local Lions are 1-1-1.

Mrs. J. Fred Welch

Mrs. Minnie G. Welch, 82, a resident of Burrsville most of her life, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Machin, Baltimore.

Mrs. Welch, widow of Jacob Fred Welch, moved to Baltimore several years ago. Other survivors are two sons, Glen R. and Mace F. Welch, both of Baltimore.

Services were held yesterday afternoon in the J. Millard Cooper Funeral Home. Interment was in Hollywood Cemetery.

SHE FLOURISHES STILL AFTER HALF A CENTURY HAS PASSED

Mrs. Isabella Diack Horton, mother of Movie Star Edward Everett Horton, who was honored by her son in Encino, Calif., on her hundredth birthday, on Oct. 27. An invitation was received here by Mrs. Marion L. Brown, a cousin of the cinema star. Mrs. Horton also has two other sons and a daughter. She was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and spent her early days in Baltimore. Mrs. Brown is the former Roxanna Horton.

Houston Church To Celebrate 60th Anniversary

The sixtieth anniversary and homecoming services will be held in the Houston Methodist Church, Sunday, Nov. 8, beginning with a home-coming fellowship breakfast at the Libby, McNeill & Libby cafeteria, from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. served by the Methodist Men.

The morning worship service, beginning at 11 a.m. will feature special singing by the Junior, Chancel and Senior Choirs of the church. Dr. Roy L. Tawes, district superintendent of the Dover Peninsula Conference will be the speaker.

The evening service, beginning with a song service, led by Robert H. Yerkes, Sr., at 7:30 will feature special singing by the choir of the Bethel Methodist Church, Dagsboro. Dr. John A. Trader, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church, Dover, will be the speaker. Following the evening service open house will be held in the Fellowship Hall, with refreshments provided by the W.S.C.S. and the O.U.R. Sunday School Class. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Felton Avon Club Notes

The November 11th meeting of the Avon Club is an open meeting for the residents of Felton.

Dr. Maynard Mires of the State Board of Health, and Hr. Howell, sanitation engineer, will give a report on the sewage survey made in Felton last summer.

Dr. Mires attended the National Health Council meeting in Atlantic City in October and the council has become very interested in Felton's desire for a town sewage system. Dr. Mires' report was so convincing the council may give a substantial gift toward the project. In fact Felton and a town in North Carolina have been selected for further study in determining this gift.

The Avon Club is very proud of this interest which was motivated by Miss Martha Godwin, health chairman, and her committee: Mrs. Lott Ludlow, Mrs. Charles Bostick Sr., Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Mrs. Larry Legates.

FELTON WSCS TO SEE PICTURES OF ALASKA AT NOVEMBER MEETING

At the WSCS meeting of the Felton Methodist Church Mon., Nov. 9, at 2 p.m., Mrs. Harmon Money will be a guest and show pictures of her recent trip to Alaska. The program is in charge of Miss Nellie Hughes, program leader of the day.

Mrs. Mary Keller is the Worship leader for the afternoon. The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Leland Price, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Herman Woikoski, Mrs. Adelia Hughes, Mrs. Bertha Jarrell, Mrs. Mary Keller and Miss Nellie Hughes.

Britain's 5th nuclear power plant is building.

Del. Flower Show Scheduled For June 4 and 5

The Delaware Flower Show, scheduled for June 4 and 5 at the University of Delaware Agricultural Hall, will feature a unique educational program for youth groups in Delaware. This pioneering project, which is being financed by the Sears Roebuck Foundation, was described at a meeting of the flower show committee by Mrs. L. P. Kelsey, chairman of the junior division of the show.

Youth groups, such as Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and 4-H Clubs all over Delaware, recently received invitations from Mrs. Kelsey to compete in the 1960 Flower Show. Four categories are available: collection of seeds; models of a picnic area as it is sometimes left and as it should be left; collection of growing things; and illustrations depicting birds and flowers seen during each month of the year. Any group exhibiting in one of these categories will receive $2.00 to help defray expenses. Cash prizes will be given for winning entries.

Mrs. Kelsey has already received applications from some eager groups, and all others wishing to exhibit should apply, before Dec. 15, to Mrs. L. P. Kelsey, 105 Dallas Ave., Newark. They will receive further details and educational material to help them prepare their entries and to use in their group programs.

Mrs. Kelsey also announced that there will be an opportunity for juniors, up to 18 years of age, to enter the show as individuals. There will be awards for horticultural exhibits and the flower arrangements. This year, for the first time, on Saturday, June 4, there will be flower judging, flower arrangement and plant identification contests with prizes for juniors only.

The Delaware Flower Show is one of the first standard shows to include such an extensive program for juniors. Announcement of the plans is being made very early in the hope that the boys and girls will have adequate time to prepare for the show and to obtain the full benefit from the program.

The show is sponsored each year by the Delaware Federation of Garden Clubs and the University of Delaware. Mrs. Edward Bloom of Wilmington is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Alexander Ulin, also of Wilmington, as vice-chairman. Mrs. I. L. Haag, president of the Delaware Federation of Garden Clubs and members of the Agriculture Department at the university are among the advisors to the flower show committee.

There wasn't any races again this past Sunday (track too wet), but I am sure that the boys are going to go to work this week and get the track in shape for Sunday. These boys are really getting anxious as some of them would rather race than eat any day.

Clarence Billings is ready with his Micro No. 3B. Jimbo Cain has his Micro No. 101 in tip top shape, we hope. Also, I believe our president, Bob Murray, will be ready to race this Sunday with his Micro No. 11.

Come on out and see Micro Midget racing. Free admission! Free parking! Seats for everyone. Racing 2 p. m. Sundays.

Deer Season To Be Nov. 13 & 14

Conditions throughout the state point to a deer hunting season comparable to last year's when 423 deer were killed by gunners.

The public hunting lands along the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, the Petersburg Wildlife Area, 11 miles south of Dover, and the Assawoman Wildlife Area in southeastern Sussex County along with all state forest lands in the state will furnish good deer hunting for sportsmen looking for public lands on which to hunt.

Hunters are reminded that they must bring their deer to a checking station within 12 hours after it is killed. It is permissible and proper to field dress (gut) the deer as soon as it is shot. The checking stations are located at the old State Police weighing station at State Road and the Dover, Georgetown and Bridgeville State Police stations. Legal hunting hours are from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset and shotguns, 20 gauge or larger, the only legal weapons.

Legal ammunition consists of buckshot, pumpkinball or rifled slug. It is illegal to possess any shot smaller than buckshot while hunting deer. Hunters are reminded that it is unlawful to make use of a dog in the pursuit of deer.

Although there have been some close calls it is a tribute to Delaware's deer hunters that there have been no shooting accidents during any of the open seasons to date. This is a record of which we all should be proud and which we all should strive to maintain. Look before you shoot!

Asbury M.Y.F. Notes

Membership service was held Sunday evening in the Collins Building. Eleven were received into Intermediate M.Y.F. by 12 former members. This was a Candlelight service.

Recreation was provided by Sarah Moore, Lois Larimore and Donny Draper. The game "Keep Talking" was enjoyed by everyone.

A thank you note from Deaconess Genevieve Poppe, for cookies we baked, was received.

We discussed our skating party. A committee was appointed to complete details. The group voted to sell refreshments for the W.S.C.S. auction to be held in the church yard Sat. Nov. 7.

New committees were appointed for the month of November as follows: Room arrangements, Lois Larimore, Dawn Hopkins and Nancy Blades; recreation, Sharon Walls, Alice Hearn, Wayne Carson and Marshall Hatfield; refreshments, Jimmy Ralph, Lee Graef, Marilyn Jarrell and Marilyn Walls.

We are happy to report that our intermediate group now numbers 25. New members may join us any Sunday evening at 6 p. m. Sunday's program topic is "What is Recreation." The program will be presented by Marilyn Walls, Emilee Adams, Donald Draper, Carolyn Porter, Kathy Hopkins and Gene Graham.

There wasn't any races again this past Sunday (track too wet), but I am sure that the boys are going to go to work this week and get the track in shape for Sunday. These boys are really getting anxious as some of them would rather race than eat any day.

Clarence Billings is ready with his Micro No. 3B. Jimbo Cain has his Micro No. 101 in tip top shape, we hope. Also, I believe our president, Bob Murray, will be ready to race this Sunday with his Micro No. 11.

2 Injured in 3-Car Crash at Felton

Two persons were slightly injured in a three-car collision Saturday evening at Felton when one car ran a red light.

Gertrude Lambert, 20, RD Felton, suffered lacerations of the head and was taken in the ambulance of the Harrington Fire Company to Milford Memorial Hospital.

After the ambulance had departed, Franklin B. Robinson, 27, of Wyoming, decided he needed treatment and was taken to Nanticoke Hospital, Seaford, in the car of the State Police of Bridgeville Station and treated for laceration of the knee.

The accident took place when a car, driven by William T. Richards, 20, of Dover Air Force Base, who was traveling west on Delaware Route 12, ran a red light at U. S. 13. As he reached the southbound lane he was struck by a car driven by Evans Dillard, 35, also of Dover Air Force Base. In the collision, a car driven by Edward R. Rash, 22, Felton, was struck. The Rash car was on U. S. 12, heading east, waiting for the light to change.

Gertrude Lambert was a passenger in the Richards car and Robinson was in the Dillard car. Richards, Dillard, and Rash were not hurt but their cars were considerably damaged.

Richards was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate Elmer Poynter, of Felton, on a charge of failing to stop for a stoplight.

Canteen Club Notes

Monday evening's canteen meeting was held at the home of Bonnie Satterfield, Jr. secretary Joanne Murphy is home from the hospital, but was unable to attend the meeting. She has returned to school this week. Kenny Hoffman was unable to attend the meeting as he received a neck injury at football practice.

About 70 attended the "Old Clothes Dance" last Saturday night. That was not as many as we had hoped for, however, there were several new faces. The Club House was decorated for Halloween and everyone had a good time.

The officers voted to lower the admission price for the rest of the winter. Many of the boys and girls have stated they could attend more frequent, if this were done. New posters have been distributed with the price on them.

This Saturday night's dance is called a "Homecoming Dance." A door prize will be awarded. The door prize last week, given by the Canteen, was won by Phyllis Vincent. Hot dogs and cokes will be on sale. Mr. and Mrs. McCollie will be chaperones.

The meeting was adjourned to meet next Monday night at the home of Junior Vice President Gene Graham on Calvin Street.

L. O. O. M. News

Last Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1, an enrollment ceremony was performed at the Harrington Moose Lodge No. 534 at 2 p.m.

Enrolled into the Loyal Order of Moose were the following candidates: Daniel Fox of Key West, Fla.; Louis T. Collins, of Greensboro, Md.; Stanley Robinson, of Denton; Roy Peterman of Greenwood; John J. Lopez and Joseph D. Bruce, both of Dover.

The enrollment ceremony was performed by the Harrington Moose Lodge Degree Staff. After the enrollment ceremony refreshments were served buffet style.

Sunday afternoon Nov. 8 there will be a meeting of the Seventh District Moose Association held at Harrington Moose Lodge No. 534 at 2 p.m.

Instruction Course, For Coast Guard Postponed

Milford-Harrington Flotilla No. 16, of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, announces that, because of demand, the public instruction course, originally scheduled for this fall, has been postponed until the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

The January date, for starting instruction, will be announced in newspapers and on the radio.

For the third time in three weeks burglars visited Harrington business when they took a number of firearms from Taylor Hardware early Wednesday morning.

Some 10 shotguns and several rifles, totaling approximately $800 in value, were taken. Some gloves, used by the robbers, were stolen from the store but no other merchandise has turned up missing.

The offenders, however, loaded up a box with knives but abandoned it inside the store. Tire tracks, in the rear of the store, indicated a car was used to transport the stolen merchandise.

Some guns remained on the gun rack, which was in the front of the store. J. Edward Taylor, proprietor, said the thieves took only the best guns.

Entrance was secured thru a hitherto unused door to a rear office.

The store was checked around 2 a.m. by Harrington police on a routine call.

The store is undergoing remodeling.

Last week Harrington Hardware was entered and a shotgun stolen while, the previous week, Peck Brothers Farm Supply was entered and between $150 and $200 taken.

Asbury W.S.C.S. Notes

A playlet entitled "The Guilty One" provided the main part of the program at the Woman's Society of Christian Service meeting at Asbury Methodist Church on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Charles Rapp was the leader for the program "The Role of the UN in World Affairs." Taking parts in the play were Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mrs. Harry John Dill, Jr., Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs. William A. Minner. Mrs. Floyd Nasser gave the devotions in the absence of Spiritual Life Secretary Mrs. Fred B. Greenly, who was ill.

Mrs. Fulton Downing, president, presided at the business meeting which followed. She reported on the open house held recently at the Riddle Memorial Deaconess Home and the Mary Todd Gambrill Neighborhood House in Wilmington. Members of the Intermediate MYF under the direction of Mrs. Norman Hopkins made cookies for the open house.

Gifts to be sent to the above homes were asked for, to be brought to the next meeting. Toys, games, clothing, cosmetics, jewelry for almost any age boy or girl from three to 16 will be most welcome. The gifts are not to be wrapped, but the giver may include wrappings and ribbon if she desires.

The society voted to accept the invitation of the Felton W.S.C.S. to attend a meeting in the Felton church at 2 o'clock on Mon., Nov. 9. Any member who wishes to attend may call Mrs. Downing concerning transportation.

Mrs. Charles Rapp, chairman of the UNICEF program for Asbury Church reported that 117 children had taken part in the collecting and that $156.05 had been given by the town of Harrington. She expressed her sincere thanks to everyone who helped in any way.

Mrs. William W. Sharp, a member of the committee that is working on the project to renovate the church lounge, announced that the auction sale will be held on Saturday afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock on the Liberty Street side of the church. Any person who has articles that they will donate to be sold may contact Mrs. Sharp or Mrs. Downing, if they need help in transporting it to the sale. Members of the intermediate MYF will be present also to sell refreshments during the afternoon. A large crowd is anticipated since there will be several articles of antique furniture for sale.

Mrs. Downing announced a Zone 2 meeting to be held in Houston Methodist Church at 7:30 Nov. 19. The society voted to accept the invitation of Mrs. Earl Sylvester to join with members of Trinity W.S.C.S. in a study course entitled "The Church's Mission in Town and Country." Any member desiring to take the course in January is urged to call Mrs. Gibson or Mrs. Downing.

Members of the Ruth Circle with Mrs. Clarence Jarrell, leader, served refreshments after the meeting was adjourned.

Hollow Belly Cows Are Underfed

Most cows suffer from "hollow belly." They just don't get enough to eat. On the other hand, some cows are overfed. This may be true particularly during the dry period when a lot of grain is fed to get cows in heavy flesh.

Putting a lot of fat on the dairy cow before calving may be very expensive, W. R. Hesselstine, extension dairy specialist, University of Delaware says. Here's why:

A cow is most efficient when she is eating just what she needs each day. The energy in that feed then goes directly into milk, growth, and body maintenance. If you feed more than she needs, the cow will convert feed energy into fat and store it as body fat. There is a loss of energy when feed is converted to body fat.

And body fat doesn't just lie there; it's always being used and replaced by other fat. This turnover of fat takes energy, too, and energy costs money, Hesselstine said.

Then after calving, the cow must convert these body reserves into milk. Of course this conversion also takes energy.

So by the time those few extra bags of grain, fed two or three months ago, are ready to be put into milk, only one of them may be actually used for that purpose. Dairymen, and some research men, suggest that cows with too much fat are more likely to have ketosis following calving.

All these things add up to the fact that too much money spent for grain prior to calving may be money down the drain. But how can we get high production without all this condition at calving time?

There are a couple of ways to do this, the specialist said.

A cow—even in early lactation—can't milk on air and water. The energy must come from somewhere. Cows in good flesh must be brought up to full grain feeding more quickly after calving. A lot of dairymen have brought cows up to full feeding within ten days to two weeks after calving with no detrimental effects.

Higher levels of grain feeding for milkers is a must under this feeding program. To make the best use of the feed dollar, don't spend it until the cows need it. And she needs it most in these first months after calving. She will then convert this energy directly into milk.

An economical plan is to feed cows all the roughages they'll eat all the time. A month before drying off time, note the condition of the cow, looking ahead to the next lactation.

If she's real thin and still milking well, she'll need more grain. A couple of extra pounds a day should do the job. She may need four to five pounds a day the next month. The amount to feed the last six weeks is a matter of judgment.

A cow even in fair condition three months before calving may need little or no grain until three weeks before calving. Four or five pounds a day should be enough.

Three hundred pounds of grain fed during early lactation may do just as much work as 500 pounds two or three months before calving, Hesselstine said.

"Bet you can't think of a better way to save $8 per cow this year!"

Now You Can Roast the Round

Have you ever had the urge to put a "bargain" top round into the oven but ended up stewing it because the experts say you shouldn't "dry cook" a cheap cut? Now you can roast your round without any feelings of guilt.

Food scientists have rated the economical cuts just as tender and flavorful when broiled or roasted as when braised, reports Mrs. Anne Holberton, specialist in consumer education and marketing, Agricultural Extension Service, University of Delaware.

The same beef study, conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, revealed that the best meat for broiling or roasting has the least amount of white connective tissue streaked through the lean, but that some fat (which is creamy in color) is desirable for tenderness.

Low to moderate cooking temperatures of 300 to 350 degrees F., recommended for all meat, are especially important for the less tender cuts when they are being cooked by dry heat.

The degree to which meat is cooked has more influence on juiciness than the amount of fat in the meat, Mrs. Holberton says. According to the studies, a roast cooked to an internal temperature of 160 degrees is juicier than if cooked at a higher temperature.

62-Cent Wool Incentive Price To Continue

The incentive price of shorn wool in the national wool program will continue next year at 62 cents a pound, the same as for the first five years of the program, according to Delaware Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee chairman William N. Hopkins. The price is for the 1960 marketing year, which begins next April 1.

Payments to growers will be figured in the same manner as this year, Mr. Hopkins said. Each producer will receive a shorn wool payment which is equal to a percentage of his return from wool sales. The percentage will be the amount necessary to raise the national average price received by all producers for shorn wool up to 62 cents a pound.

The purpose of that method of payment is to encourage growers to do the best possible job of marketing, since the grower who receives most for his wool will also receive the highest payment under the program.

In addition to the payment for shorn wool, payments will be made to each producer who sells lambs that have never been shorn. This payment will be at a rate per hundredweight of live animals which is comparable with the incentive payment per pound of shorn wool.

For the 1958 marketing year, the payment rate for shorn wool was 70.3 per cent, of $70.30 for every $100 received from the sale of shorn wool. The payment rate on unshorn lambs was $1.02 per hundredweight of live lambs marketed.

The wool program is conducted under the National Wool Act as a means of bringing the country's wool production up to 300 million pounds a year. The incentive price is set at a level designed to encourage this goal based on cost conditions affecting sheep production.

Yearly production of shorn wool is moving toward the program's 300-million-pound goal. Estimated 1959 production is 252 million pounds, the highest since 1946, and compares to 234 million pounds in 1955, the first year of the wool payment program.

ASC Community Election Boards Are Named

Appointment of community election boards to conduct the annual election of farmers who will direct the local farm program next year was announced by Lister V. Hall, Jr., Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee office manager at Dover.

This is the first step in the election procedure through which farmers select a chairman, vice chairman, regular member and two alternates in each community. The community elections will be held between Nov. 20 and Dec. 1 by mail.

The selection of the community election boards announced today was made by the Kent ASC election board composed of George K. Vapaa, Kent County Extension Service; Roland E. Garrison, president of Kent County Farm Bureau; Fred Richards, Farmers Home Administration; Harold McGrath, master of Kent County Pomona Grange and Fred T. Mott, Work Unity Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service.

The chairman of each community committee elected will be the community delegate to the county convention that will elect the county committee for the coming year. The Community and County ASC Committees elected by the farmers in each community administer the Federal Government's price support, wool incentive, soil bank, acreage allotment—marketing quota and cost-sharing conservation programs at the local level. Committeemen are elected for one year terms beginning January 1.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—My town has a hospital school for nurses. Could I go to this school and receive training under the War Orphans program? I am eligible as a war orphan.

A—Yes. You would be able to attend the hospital school, as long as it is approved for War Orphans training. The War Orphans Education program is not just a college program. It provides opportunities for training in a wide variety of schools below the college level.

Q—When the new pension act becomes effective next July, I understand widows of World War II and the Korean War may establish pension eligibility, without being required to show their husbands died of a service-connected disability. What will be needed?

A—They need only establish that the veterans was in active service 90 days or more and was discharged under other than dishonorable conditions. This is the same requirement which applies for widows of World War I veterans.

Q—Is a veteran entitled to a GI loan while he is receiving other benefits, such as an educational allowance benefit.

A—Yes. Provided he qualifies for the loan. The fact that he is receiving the one benefit would not keep him from getting the other.

Q—I am thinking of converting my Korean War term insurance to a permanent endowment plan. Could I arrange that the proceeds be paid to me in monthly installments, after the policy is paid up?

A—Yes. You may choose either a lump-sum payment, or payments over a specified period, ranging from three to 20 years.

Woman Hit-Run Motorist Fined

Mrs. Rita Heitz, Felton, pled guilty Saturday night before Alderman C. R. Dempsey, Dover, to two charges involving a hit-run offense in Dover the previous Monday night. She was fined a total of $50 and costs.

She was also arrested by state police about an hour after the hit-run incident on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. She will appear before the Court of Common Pleas on Nov. 18 on that charge. The arrest took place one mile north of Felton on U. S. Route 13.

Alderman Dempsey fined Mrs. Heitz $30 and costs for failure to remain at the scene of an accident and $20 and cost for failure to control the speed of her vehicle so as to avoid a collision.

Arthur Sanders, 442 North State Street, reported to Dover police at 10:15 p.m. Monday that he had returned home to find his automobile, which was parked in front of his house, damaged by a hit-run motorist. Damage was estimated at $200.

Police determined the accident had taken place about an hour earlier. At the scene they found a piece of moulding, apparently from the car which had struck the Sanders' automobile.

When Dover police contacted state police with information on the accident and a description of the piece of moulding from the wanted car they learned that Mrs. Heitz had been arrested on the drunken driving count at 9:45 p.m., a half-hour before the accident had been reported to the city police and a half hour after the estimated time of the mishap.

City police then placed two charges against the woman when the condition of her car appeared to implicate it as the one involved in the hit-run accident on State Street.

Prepare for Winter Tractor Driving

"Now is the time to 'winterize' your tractor and again review the hazards facing the winter tractor driver," advises Guy W. Gienger, extension specialist of the Agricultural Engineering Department of the University of Maryland.

The National Safety Council reminds farmers that although statistically speaking the winter months do not account for the majority of tractor accidents, much care must be taken to insure the fact that you are not a victim of a tractor accident this winter.

Use clutch and brake carefully clean ice and snow off pedals and soles of boots. Be sure foot is set firmly on pedal.

Clean the platforms—ice and snow should be cleared from platforms, steps axles and other points used for footing when mounting the tractor.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church News

At the first convocation of the Delaware Council of Churches, held at People's Church, Dover, Oct. 25, 7:30 p.m., the Rev. John R. Symonds Jr. of St. Stephen's Harrington, was one of the 21 persons elected to the new executive board. Mr. Symonds will serve for a term of three years along with these others: the Rev. H. T. Bessellieu, A.M.E., Milford; the Rev. Robert W. Duke, United Churches of Christ, Dover; Richard King, Episcopal, Greenville; Dr. Howard Row, Lutheran, Dover; John Rogers, Methodist, Peninsula Conference, Milford; Robert Tunnell, Presbyterian, Georgetown. Fourteen other clergymen, bishops, and lay readers will serve periods of one or two years. The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware, will serve as a member for one year.

The main address was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Arthur R. McKinstry, Episcopal, Bishop of Delaware (retired). Bishop McKinstry called the organization of a council of churches in Delaware "an event of historic significance," one that could have "far-reaching implications of a practical and spiritual nature."

Members of the council include the Delaware Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; the Delaware Baptist State Convention; the Middle Atlantic Conference of Congregational Christian Churches; the Delaware District of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania and adjacent states; the Delaware Conference of the Methodist Church; the Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church; the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Delaware; the New Castle Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

The Delaware Council, United Church Women, and the Council of Churches, Wilmington and New Castle County are affiliated with the group.

The Women of St. Stephen's met in the lounge of the new educational building, Raughley-Hill Road, Tues., Oct. 20 at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Richard Comegys of St. Peter's, of Smyrna, Kent County Diocesan vice-president. She spoke to the Harrington branch on the subject of drawing up by-laws and gave some helpful suggestions based on experiences of other groups in the diocese.

Mrs. Comegys recommended the practice of tithing and of awareness by the local units that they have responsibilities outside their own small area.

Mrs. Comegys also told some interesting facts about the plane used by Bishop Gordon of Alaska, purchased by means of the United Thank offering gifts of the women of the church. The plane is appropriately named "The Blue Box".

Ushers for the 22nd Sunday after Trinity were Messrs. Robert Creadick, Earl McColey, Clarence Reed, and Walter Winkler.

Sun., Nov. 1, All Saint's Day, was also the occasion of the fall ingathering of the United Thank Offering by the women of the church. Prayers were said for the women's organization and for this great missionary effort.

All the ladies who wished to take part in the semi-annual giving, beyond their regular pledging, placed their blue boxes on the large alms basin. In the Episcopal churches throughout Delaware the United Thank Offering was presented on the same day, All Saint's Day.

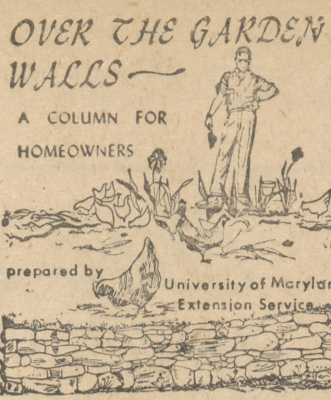

Flowers on the altar last Sunday were given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. John Yocum by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Yocum of Felton.

Many names of relatives who "having fought the good fight and kept the faith, now rest in the Lord" were submitted to the vicar during the week preceding All Saint's Day. Sunday these names were remembered in prayer at all services.

Robert Nelson conducted the service of evening prayer, 7 p.m., Oct. 25. It was necessary for a lay reader to substitute for the vicar, who attended an organizational meeting and dedication service of the Council of Churches of the State of Delaware.

The Rev. John R. Symonds, Jr. was at Williamsburg, Va., four days last week attending the Synod meeting of the Province of Washington. The Provincial synod is composed of 13 dioceses around Washington, D. C., and this important body meets in the years when the general convention does not. Mr. Symonds was elected delegate from the Diocese of Delaware at the annual convention held last spring at St. Andrew's, Wilmington.

How's your memory? Long or short?

Short or long, chances are pretty good that you can recall the long line-up of lawnmowers at the repairman's last spring. If you were unlucky enough to get caught like this, you might even have had to buy a new mower because you couldn't get your old one repaired quickly enough.

Well, if you can call up memories like this, you should be ripe for properly winterizing your mower, or garden tractor or cultivator. It isn't hard. It doesn't take long. And it pays—pays in cash saved, but most of all in being able to use your equipment when you want to.

Winterizing Know-How
You don't need to be a master mechanic to properly put away your gasoline powered tools for winter.

Here are some of the things you need to do:

Clean up. Scrape off dirt, accumulated grass, and rust. Brush off the engine, and if there is junk you can't get off with a brush, take it down to the corner gas station and try to blow it off with the air hose. If it needs paint, either paint it right now, before you forget it, or make a note to do it during the winter. If you need repair parts, order and replace them now!

If it's a 2-cycle engine—one that uses gas and oil mixed together—drain all fuel from the tank, carburetor and gas lines. Get every drop, because fuel can gum up and clog your carburetor during winter.

If it's a 4-cycle engine—one that uses oil in the crankcase—start the engine to warm the oil. Then drain the crankcase. Replace oil, and run the engine to circulate the new oil. Then drain all the gasoline, like we told you for a 2-cycle engine.

Remove the spark plug and put about 2 tablespoons of light motor oil in the cylinder. Before you replace the spark plug, turn the engine over by hand to coat the cylinder walls and valves with oil. Clean and check the spark plug gap before you replace it. Be sure to use the right kind of wrench to remove the spark plug so you don't break the porcelain.

Clean the air filter by washing it in gasoline, and replace the oil in it.

Store your motorized equipment in a dry place. If it has inflated tires on it, block it up to take the weight off the tires. Keep oil, grease, and rust preventive off the tire. Cover them if possible to keep them clean and out of the sunlight, which will cause tires to deteriorate.

If there are grease or oil points on your equipment, give them a good lubrication before putting the cover on for the winter.

If you have your operator's manual, check it to be sure you haven't forgotten anything. If you've done all this carefully, you should be able to fuel up next spring and start her right up! And you can feel sorry for the poor guys who are lined up at the repairman's, trying to get going for the season!

Lamb and 4-H's Show and Auction

Nov. 7, Saturday, at the Harrington Fairgrounds 17 4-H's from Kent County will participate in a Lamb Show and Auction. These 4-H's have been raising two lambs each since August. Along with the fun they have been learning about the feeding and care of sheep.

Mary Gramp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gramp has named her lambs Lambiepie and Lambiekin. Recently the members learned how to prepare their lambs for the fitting and showmanship classes. John Shropshire, extension livestock specialist demonstrated before thirty members and parents. Preparing for the show consists of washing, currying, brushing and clipping.

Each member is busy spending their after school hours fitting their lambs.

The Saturday showing and fitting will begin at 1 p.m. and the auction at 3 p.m. This would be a good opportunity to fill your home freezer.

Participating from the Houston area are: Bonnie Scott, Ken Marvel, Gretchel Marvel, Brenda Hood, Tom Anstine, Karen Brown, Merry Carol Hollis, Harry Morris, Susan Benson, Linda Stayton, Louis Starkey, Don Starkey, Buddy Allen, Billy Lyons and Bill Simpson.

Peninsula Hort. Society Meeting

The 73rd annual Peninsula Horticultural Society meeting will be held Dec. 8-9 in the Elk's Hall, Salisbury, Md. This year reminds county agricultural agent George K. Vapaa.

He said this year's meeting of the Delmarva Peninsula's fruit and vegetable growers, will feature reports from specialists on the latest research developments concerned with production and marketing of these crops.

Anyone interested in horticulture is invited to attend, Mr. Vapaa said. The meeting will begin at 9:30 and end at 3:30 each day, he said.

Kent Home Doings

When Junior spills ice cream all over your best living room rug—don't punish Junior, and don't punish the rug either. Just remove Junior and the stain right away.

The success of stain removing depends on which remover you choose and how you put it on, home demonstration agent Florence Y. Smith says. An eye dropper curbs that often disastrous "pour it on" instinct—just a few drops will do. Sponge from the outer edge of the spot toward the center with a white, unstarred cloth, leave for about 15 minutes, and then blot.

The National Institute of Dry Cleaners recommends two home formulas for removing stains on rugs.

Formula 1: One teaspoon of neutral soapless detergent mixed with one cup of lukewarm water. Use this for fruits and fruit juice stain, ice cream and milk, desserts, alcohol, coffee, tea, and soft drinks.

Formula 2: One teaspoon of white vinegar and three teaspoons of lukewarm water. This one is a followup if any stain remains after the first—as in the case of egg and gelatin spots. For butter and other fats, use dry cleaning fluid.

Remember, Mrs. Smith warns, too much formula soaked into the rug and backing may result in brown stains, and too much dry cleaning fluid may deteriorate the latex backing of many rugs.

Except when dry cleaning fluid is used, moisture will be left in the rug. Dry the rug by absorbing the moisture into several thicknesses of paper towel, tissue, or clothing held in place with flat weights.

Never experiment on stains with other than recommended methods or you and Junior will be permanently reminded of wayward ice cream cones.

Dr. Larrick to Speak at U. of D. Conference

Dr. Nancy Larrick, well known author of books on children's reading, will be the featured speaker at the 10th annual reading conference for Parents, Sat., Nov. 7, at the University of Delaware.

A former classroom teacher, college instructor and workshop director, Dr. Larrick is the author of the recent successful book, "A Parent's Guide to Children's Reading." She also has written See for Yourself, Rockets into Space, Color ABC and a public affairs pamphlet, Your Child and His Reading.

A graduate of Goucher College, Dr. Larrick holds her M.A. Degree from Columbia University and an Ed. D. degree from N.Y.U. She has served as editor of Young America Readers and The Reading Teacher and was education director for Random House children's books from 1952-1958.

The conference will convene at 9:30 a.m. in Wolf Hall auditorium with Dr. Larrick as the principal speaker. Panels will follow devoted to elementary, junior high and senior high levels with parents, teachers and university personnel participating.

Miss Larrick also will speak at the luncheon session on the topic, "Growing Up with Books."

Dr. Russell G. Stauffer, director of the university's reading study center, is responsible for conference arrangements. Luncheon reservations may be made by calling the Reading-Study Center at the university.

Transplanting Your Peonies

Peony plants can be successfully transplanted until about the middle of November. This is a good time to divide or transplant old, established peony plantings which have been flowering unsatisfactorily, George K. Vapaa, county agricultural agent says.

Divide large clumps of roots into sections, so there are at least three eyes or buds on each clump of roots in the new division. These should provide flowering plants for the following season.

Set the roots or toes so the eyes or buds are two inches below the soil surface. Well-rooted manure and a handful of a complete fertilizer mixed thoroughly with the soil before planting, will give the plants a boost.

Large vigorous-growing types should be spaced about four feet apart, Mr. Vapaa said.

Maryland IFYE Visits Chile

An ambassador of good will, Arnita Dell has arrived in Chile to live with farm families until April 17, according to W. Sherard Wilson, state 4-H club agent.

Under the IFYE—International Youth Exchange—there are 90 young persons being sent from U. S. to live temporarily in other countries. Miss Dell is part of a 31 member delegation going out this fall to Middle East, Far East, South America, Australia and New Zealand. All delegates received a weeks training for their assignments at the National 4-H Center, Chevy Chase, Md. Other IFYE delegates will leave the U. S. in the spring.

Miss Dell will live for a month in five different farm homes. She becomes an adopted member of the family, shares farm and home responsibilities and contributes to community life about her. Meantime, she will absorb customs, traditions, and ways of living from her host families.

Sharing experiences with others upon her return will broaden the effectiveness of the IFYE program. She will be available for programs and discussions before organized groups.

Miss Dell is under the sponsorship of farm and civic groups, business organizations and individuals who have contributed to the financial support of the program. She was selected as an IFYE upon the recommendation of the Maryland Extension Agents and approval by the National Club Foundation committee.

An outstanding 4-H member from Carroll County, Miss Dell attended the National 4-H Conference in 1957. She is assistant home demonstration agent in Caroline County.

The International Farm Youth Exchange program is a two-way exchange. Since 1948, Maryland has sent 13 young people to other countries, and in turn, 29 young people from other countries have lived with 71 Maryland farm families.

SOIL-CEMENT

You get more strength per dollar with soil-cement than with any other low-cost paving. Most of the materials are free. The main ingredient is native soil—or any old broken-up blacktop or gravel. Mix portland cement and water with this, roll, and top with a bituminous coating. It will outlast any other low-cost pavement.

In communities all over the nation, soil cement is the answer for low-cost, low-upkeep roads and streets. It can save tax money in your locality, too. Write for informative booklet, "Soil-Cement Pavement." No charge.

(Although this is addressed to Chevrolet owners, we'd be glad to have you read it, no matter what make you now own or plan to buy. It might well be as interesting and significant to you as to the Chevrolet owner.)

The first and the latest—the 1912 and the 1960 Chevrolet. The progress represented here is the result of continuing efforts to make your new Chevrolet always more beautiful, more useful and more valuable in every respect.

You belong to the largest family of owners in the automotive world. We hope you're proud of that. It must give you great satisfaction to know that your judgment in choosing Chevrolet has been confirmed by so many other people.

We know that we can hold your preference and your loyalty only by meeting our responsibilities to you fully and completely from the day you buy your Chevrolet to the day you trade it in. And so we'd like to talk with you about our responsibilities as we see them, and what we are doing to meet them.

Our first responsibility, we think, is clear: To design and build products that satisfy your needs and your wants to the highest possible degree. To that end, we have done these things for 1960:

Made the 1960 Chevrolet more economical, roomier, more quiet and comfortable, easier to handle and maneuver. Introduced the compact and revolutionary Corvair. Produced a new line of Chevrolet trucks with unprecedented advances in efficiency, cargo handling, driver comfort and ability to get a job done.

But it isn't enough to design and build the kinds of products you want. They must be built right. Solidly. Carefully.

Let us assure you of this: Chevrolet's fine reputation as a solid, well-built, dependable product is being safeguarded by more checks and inspections and tests, than ever before.

Along with your Chevrolet dealer, we want you to have available the finest and most complete service facilities. That is why we: Conduct training schools for Chevrolet dealer mechanics. Study and recommend improved service equipment and techniques. Maintain the industry's most complete parts warehouse system.

Finally, neither Chevrolet nor your Chevrolet dealer has any intention of forgetting you after you buy. To help keep you happy with your Chevrolet, we have established a department new to us, and so far as we know, new to the automobile industry. This is the Chevrolet Department of Owner Relations, whose only job is the coordination of Chevrolet and Chevrolet dealer activities so that you enjoy almost satisfaction during your entire period of ownership. Through this department, and through all the other extraordinary steps we are taking, Chevrolet and your Chevrolet dealer hope to keep you a happy member of the Chevrolet owner family.

Friday we had our Halloween party. We gave a little play for our parents who came. It was called "Wispy." The part of Wispy was played by Sally Pitlick. Brenda Neeman played the part of Scary, Judy Burgess was Frightful; Marianne Clarke was Haunty; Ricky Jester was Bobby; Marilyn Cox was Betty; Wayne Melvin was Tommy; Donna Dean was Alice, and Josephine Cubbage was Susan. It was the story of a ghost who couldn't scare anyone.
The parents and friends who came were: Mrs. John Pitlick, Mrs. Gary Smith, Mrs. Milton Clendaniel, Mrs. Claude Neeman, Mrs. John Abbott Sr., Mrs. John Abbott Jr., Mrs. Robert Stauffer, Mrs. Alice Dill, Mrs. Winston Burgess, Mrs. Roland Melvin, Mrs. Clarence Barlow, Mrs. Warren Draper, Mrs. Virgie Coates, Mrs. Elwood Jester, Mrs. Ray Cox and Mrs. Thomas Clarke.
The parents brought refreshments. We said our Halloween poems, and scared everyone in our spooky costumes.
Mrs. Mann—Grade 6
Last week we had a Halloween party. We played games, such as dunking for apples and chewing gum game.
We had cider, ginger snaps, candy corn, caramels, and apples for refreshments.
The following prizes were given for costumes:
1. The most original, Donald Wells, who was TV set.
2. The prettiest, Becky Goodhand, who was a bride.
3. The funniest, Jimmie Lyons, who was a tramp.
4. The best one representing a character, Jimmie Crisson, who was a skin diver.
We made up Halloween poems for Friday. We picked out a few that we thought were very good. Delores Griffin's and Kitty Lou Burgess' poems were selected. This is Delores Griffin's poem:
Halloween
On the broomsticks witches ride,
With goblins by their side,
On the fence cats will meow,
That's the night the ghost will prow!
They will rise from their tomb,
And put you on the witches' broom,
The witches will carry you away,
And that is where you will stay,
Until next Halloween Day.
This is Kitty Lou Burgess' poem:
Halloween Night
The night is dark and scary,
Everyone's hair seems to be hairy,
Because tonight is Halloween Night
Until it is Midnight!
Too, we wish to congratulate Kitty Lou for winning first prize on her Fire Prevention Essay.
Mrs. Fure—Grade 6
Our class had a Halloween party Friday afternoon. After we were masked we visited the other sixth grades. Each of us had made our own costumes, and they were very interesting.
We played several games. The winners were given prizes.
Several mothers visited us and we were glad to have them. We then had refreshments.

The homeroom agreed to pass up a Halloween party and donate several dollars to UNICEF via Linda Sue Richardson, one of the fund's collectors in town.
Homeroom 7 will also sponsor a civil defense program during the junior high school assembly Nov. 13. The program will consist of a movie and a talk by Emory Lynch, Kent County Director of Civil Defense, Dover.
Time 9:50 a.m. The parents of junior high pupils are welcome to attend.
SENIOR PERSONALITY
Bonnie Sharon Chew
Bonnie Sharon Chew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Chew, was born April 9, 1942 in Camden, N. J.
Before moving to Harrington in 1950 she lived in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Texas. In 1957 Bonnie moved to Arizona but returned to Delaware the next year.

Bonnie has played J. V. basketball and hockey and was secretary of the Varsity Club in the 11th grade.
In the ninth grade she was a member of the Press Club, in the 11th grade she was president of the Junior Class and is a Student Council representative this year.
She is taking the Commercial Course and her favorite subject is shorthand.
Mrs. Tatman—Grade 4
We had a very nice Halloween party in our room Friday afternoon. We played games and had refreshments of cider, cookies, doughnuts and candy. Mrs. Tatman gave each one of us a large Halloween sucker. Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Motter, and Mrs. Yoder were at school to help with the party. We all had a nice time and we thank these mothers for the party.
Gary Minner was ill Friday. We were sorry he had to miss the party.
Sharon Motter celebrated her ninth birthday Friday.
Billy Newnom visited in Charlottesvile, Va., recently. He was at Luray Caverns, the home of Thomas Jefferson, Mount Vernon, and other places of interest. We enjoyed hearing him tell about it.

Bible Presbyterian Church Notes

Services of the Bible Presbyterian Church meeting in the New Century Club on Church Avenue in Milford, were well attended with visitors last Sunday. Among those who are becoming regular visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Thistlewood of Harrington. It is a joy to see these fine people take their stand for the Lord Jesus Christ. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley of Milford, and Mrs. Bradley's brother, Daniel Freeman of Rehoboth Blvd., Milford. We also welcomed Mrs. William H. Potter of Cedar Beach Road and Mrs. Argo of Milford.

Interest in the scripture memory program is picking up somewhat. Marilyn, Frank and David Mood were joined by Joyce Ann Ransom and Lillian Say in receiving their awards for the month of October. We hope others will join them in learning the scripture for November.

Rev. Mood, pastor of the church, has announced an important message on the world crisis of today entitled, "No Man Layeth It to Heart." A fine group attended the evening service last week with several visitors. Mrs. Nelson Abbott and daughter Kathleen, of Ellendale, and Harold Stauffer of Milford were welcomed to the service. Rev. Mood is continuing the popular bible study in the Book of Romans.

An important meeting for the youth of the Milford area, which includes Harrington, has been announced for Saturday evening, November 14. The meeting will be held in the Milford New Century Club and will be a social activity and devotional service. The Rev. Robert Dunzweiler, popular young people's speaker and theologian of Faith Theological Seminary will be the guests speaker and will bring with him special musical talent from the seminary student body. All young people are invited. Called for November 14

A meeting designed for the youth of the Milford area to fill a great gap in the lives of the youth of today has been announced by the Bible Presbyterian Church of Milford. The

IN MEMORIAM IN MEMORIAM In memory of my dear husband, Willard S. Jester, who passed away five years ago, Nov. 10, 1954. His life is a beautiful memory. His absence our silent grief. He is at rest in God's beautiful Garden. In sunshine of perfect peace. God gave us the strength to face it. And courage to bear the blow; But what it meant to lose him, No one will ever know. Our hearts still ache with sadness. Our eyes shed many tears; God only knows how we miss him. As it dawns another year. Missed by wife, Georgia, children and grandchildren. 11, exp. 11-6

Hobbs Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maloney, Charlie, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Trice, Jr., and Mrs. Lewis Butler, were recent Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Reed, rural Bridgeville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis and family last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Butler spent three days in the Monumental City. Master Wayne, spent that time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Butler.

Mrs. Wesley Stafford and Sharon, spent last Thursday with her mother, Mrs. May Wright, of Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Lord spent last week with their daughter, Mrs. Paul Maloney, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Merricken, of Florida, have been visiting relatives and friends in the county. Last Sunday, they visited his brother, Manning Merricken and attended church service and Sunday School here. They enjoyed being in the church which he attended in his boyhood and young manhood days, and meeting friends he remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hopkins Thomas and family of Easton.

Little Sharon Stafford spent a recent Sunday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scott.

Mrs. Marvin Butler and Mrs. Kenneth Butler were recent luncheon guests of Mrs. Lewis Butler.

Mrs. Louise Sharp and Ricky were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Towers and boys.

first of a series of monthly meetings is scheduled for November 14 at 7:30 p. m. with Rev. Robert Dunzweiler, popular youth speaker and theologian of Faith Theological Seminary in Philadelphia as the guest speaker.

In announcing the meetings, Rev. Mood said, "There is a great need for recreation for our young people that is not being met. They have only the movies which are not helping them or the dance which does not build them up. They wander idly on the streets and finally put some of the things they see in the movies to practice and find themselves in trouble. We want to give them something better."

The meeting although not connected in any way with "Youth for Christ," will be on the same basis. It is hoped that as interest grows in these meetings, that real recreational facilities can be set up to provide an outlet for the surging needs of young people. Parents of Milford and friends interested in youth who want to have a part in these services should contact Rev. Frank R. Mood, 809 S. E. Front Street, Milford, phone GA. 2-5044.

There is no charge for these meetings although a free will offering will be taken to help with the expense of bringing to Milford popular young people's speaker's and the best in talent.

Greenwood

There will be a covered dish supper and bazaar at Todds Community building Route 16, between Greenwood and Hickman, Sat., Nov. 14, at 6 o'clock. Price: donation toward heater for the building.

Mrs. Roy Baker spent the weekend in Sharon Hill, Pa., as the guest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Hitzelberger. Her brother is a member of the Delaware County Garden Club and she attended with them the chrysanthemum show. Mr. Hitzelberger won fourteen first prizes, nine second prizes and three third prizes for his "mums". The best in the show was the yellow spider chrysanthemum, "Kimi". He won a silver bowl, silver tray, rosebushes, bulbs, etc.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker and family of Farmington, Roy Baker and daughters, Eva and Jean, motored to Sharon Hill to join their mother and the rest of the family.

Dickie Davis, who is attending Lee College to prepare himself for the ministry, surprised his parents over the weekend with a visit home. Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Davis, dinner guests were Clifton Robinson, Gene, Jack and J. D. Miller of Seaford.

Sunday callers at the Davis home were Charlotte, Joyce and Joe Miller. Early Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Davis drove Dickie to Alexandria, Va., where he joined other college students for the ride back to return to his studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Hurst of Wilmington were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hatfield and Ellen enjoyed an after-church lunch with Mrs. Byron Wise and Lora, going on to have dessert with Mrs. Horace Maloney and Horace Jr. Later they called on Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sasser, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Davis, attended the MYF meeting and finished up the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hawk.

In spite of astonishing opposition, the Greenwood Lions Club were able to put on a very successful Halloween party for the children of Greenwood and Farmington. Special thanks go to the Greenwood School and its principal, Mr. W. I. Tawes, who so graciously invited the group to use the paved road back of the farm building for an outdoor dance and furnished the lighting, also to the V.F.W. who offered the use of their hall if the evening was stormy and whose members helped in many ways and to the Greenwood Band whose members with their able director, Eugene Bowne, so loyally co-operated with true home town spirit. $60 in prizes were awarded for costumes, free cider, doughnut, apples and candy were there for the taking and all the latest teenage music furnished by Clobes of Georgetown.

We are proud of our Greenwood young people. Several of the auxiliary policemen made mention to the members of the Lions Club that they had never seen a more charming, well-behaved group of youngsters. Not one off-key thing marred the evening.

Mrs. S. S. Wroten was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Mai at the Seaford Inn Sunday evening.

Weekend guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. George Pittman and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones were Mrs. Ernestine Fischer of Wodlyn, Pa. and Miss Alice Grider, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Beck of Chester, Pa. Those who attended the M.Y.F. meeting and saw Mrs. Fischer's beautiful slides of the Holy Land really enjoyed a treat.

Our community was deeply saddened last week by the death of one of its former lads, young Jack Jester, son of Mr. Robert Jester and Mrs. Maurice Rounds. Our sympathy goes out to the family, who for several years, were a part of our town.

The committee for the Fire Prevention Essay Contest is proud to announce the following winners: Greenwood High School 1st place, Brenda Drummond; 2nd place, Helen Faux; 3rd place, Wanda Breeding. Greenwood School No. 222: 1st place, Alice Williamson; 2nd place, Floyd Fisher; 3rd place, Maurice Hughes.

The firemen will hold its regular monthly meeting Fri., Nov. 6, at 8 p.m.

The ladies auxiliary to the Greenwood Memorial Post No. 7478 held its regular monthly meeting last Wednesday in the Post Home. The members would like to thank those that helped to make our bake a success. Cards were presented to the auxiliary for one new member. Reports were filled out to be sent to the department and district chairmen. It was announced that a meeting of District No. 4 would be held in Ellendale Wed., Nov. 19. All members wishing to attend please contact Mrs. Georgia Peterman, President, FI 9-4607. 1960 dues are due. June Bostick and Elaine Jones attended the Department of Delaware meeting in Selbyville Oct. 12.

The ladies auxiliary to the Greenwood Volunteer Fire Company held its regular monthly meeting last Friday. Two new members were present with three more new members being voted on. Four auxiliary members attended the Delmarva executive meeting in Fruitland, Md. last Sunday.

1960 dues are due. Mrs. Margaret Hastings, Delaware State Firemen's auxiliary president, of Blades, installed the new officers. They are: president, Mrs. Margaret Johnson; vice president, Dorothy Jones; secretary, Elaine Jones; assistant secretary, Geneva Spence; treasurer, Esther Hynson; assistant treasurer, Marie Dickerson. Mrs. Mabel Farrow was the marshal for installing of the officers. The outgoing officer were then presented with lovely gifts. Mrs. Anna Atkinson, also of Blades, accompanied Mrs. Hastings to our meeting.

Check Sheep For Worms

Fall or early winter is the best time to examine sheep for stomach worms.

Worm infestations are due to adult parasites living over the winter in sheep rather than in the larvae form in pastures.

George K. Vapaa, county agricultural agent, says infested sheep will not thrive during the winter.

Stomach worms are most common in midsummer and early fall. Danger of infestation increases as pastures get short. The sheep pick up worm larvae on the ground as they graze.

Practice rotation and don't overstock pastures. It is also advisable to have your veterinarian examine feeder lambs when you buy them.

Signs of infestation are similar to those of many other conditions. Microscopic inspection and information on the history of the flock helps a veterinarian diagnose the trouble.

Phenothiazine is the most effective drug for controlling the common stomach worm. It's a good idea to keep a mixture of phenothiazine and salt before the sheep throughout the year.

A common mixture is nine pounds of salt to each pound of the drug. But don't expect treatment with phenothiazine to take the place of good management and sanitation, Mr. Vapaa warned.

Veterans Day Proclamation

Attendance of Delawareans and "our good friends from the neighboring State of New Jersey" at the annual Veterans Day exercises at Delaware Memorial Bridge Plaza this Sunday afternoon was urged by Gov. J. Caleb Boggis this week in proclaiming Nov. 11 as "Veteran's Day."

Governor Boggis also urged schools, churches and civic organizations to stage observances to "point up the invaluable services of those who wore their country's uniforms." These veterans, according to the chief executive, "as citizens, keep up the good fight for a strong and free United States of America."

In his proclamation, Governor Boggis traced the development of the Nov. 11 observance, pointing out that, as "Armistice Day", it initially commemorated the ending of World War I and provided a means of "paying tribute to the heroes of that tragic struggle." Later, according to the gubernatorial proclamation, the name of the holiday was changed to "Veterans Day" in order to "expand the significance of that commemoration and in order that a grateful nation might pay appropriate homage to the veterans of all its wars who have contributed so much to the preservation of this Nation."

Gov. Boggis, himself a veteran of World War II combat service, also praised the members of veterans organizations as "leaders in proclaiming the American Way of Life."

The proclamation follows: WHEREAS, it is most fitting and proper for Americans everywhere to commemorate Nov. 11, the anniversary of the ending of World War I, by paying tribute to the heroes of that tragic struggle and by rededicating ourselves to the causes of peace; and

WHEREAS, in the intervening years the United States has been involved in two other great military conflicts, which have added millions of veterans living and dead to the honor rolls of this nation; and

WHEREAS, the Congress passed a concurrent resolution on June 4, 1926, calling for the observance of Nov. 11 with appropriate ceremonies, and later provided in an Act approved May 13, 1938, that the eleventh of November should be a legal holiday and should be known as Armistice Day; and

WHEREAS, in order to expand the significance of that commemoration and in order that a grateful nation might pay appropriate homage to the veterans of all its wars who have contributed so much to the preservation of this nation, the Congress, by an Act approved, June 1, 1954, changed the name of the holiday to Veterans Day; and

WHEREAS, we should also give our heartfelt thanks to those veterans who, banded together in various associations, are leaders in proclaiming the American Way of Life and who continue to work for peace in the world; now

THEREFORE, I, J. Caleb Boggis, Governor of the State of Delaware, do hereby set aside and proclaim Nov. 11, 1959, as

VETERANS DAY IN DELAWARE

On this day let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air, and on foreign shores, to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us reconsecrate ourselves to the task of promoting an enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain.

I urge that schools, churches and civic associations hold proper ceremonies and observances which will point up the invaluable services of those who wore their country's uniforms, and who, today, as citizens, keep up the good fight for a strong and free United States of America.

FURTHER, I also urge the attendance of Delawareans and our good friends from the neighboring State of New Jersey at the special exercises to be held at the Delaware Memorial Bridge Plaza the afternoon of Sunday, Nov. 8.

Cool Weather Cuts Encephalomyelitis

Cool weather and the resulting reduction in mosquito numbers should end the equine encephalomyelitis for the time being.

The Department of Poultry and Animal Health of the State Board of Agriculture reports that a total of seven cases have been reported with horses in Delaware.

With the excellent vaccine available for immunizing horses, all horse owners should vaccinate their horses next spring well in advance of the mosquito season, Dr. W. R. Teeter, state veterinarian said.

There is no vaccine that can be used for human protection against sleeping sickness.

Yugoslavia's Parliament, in Belgrade, ordered the nationalization of all privately-owned houses above a strictly limited size.

Hickman

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fisher and Mrs. Jimmy Trice of Wilmington spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trice and Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Cavender.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert of Wilmington spent the weekend with her father, Charlie Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson of Milford spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parker and Monday evening visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scott and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ewing of Cannons Crossing spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Noble.

Mrs. Wade Isner is spending a week in Baltimore as guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith.

Olin Melvin is confined to his home with a heart condition. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parker entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott and Wesley Brown of near Denton and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter and Joyce.

We welcome back to our community, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edward Porter and Wayne who had been living in Hobbs for the past 18 months.

Mrs. Manila Dukes of Federalsburg visited her mother, Mrs. Margaret Breeding last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Nagel, Sue and Dale and Gerald Banning of Federalsburg were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Noble.

Mrs. Leslie Spence and Mrs. Annie Kelley of Burrsville spent last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Breeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter and Joyce attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Dukes Jr. of Preston recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parker attended the funeral service of Mrs. Jennie Scot in Wilmington Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Breeding and Jerry were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Coady.

Engineer to Be Visiting Scholar At Univ. of Del.

Professor Philip Langdon Alger, who holds a joint professorship in the electrical engineering departments of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Syracuse University, will be a visiting scholar at the University of Delaware, Wed., Nov. 11.

During his visit Mr. Alger will discuss the topic, "Modern Philosophy of Energy Conversion Instruction in an Electrical Engineering Curriculum" with senior and graduate students and also will present a talk on "Modern Educational Methods in Western Europe" at a general meeting with interested students and faculty members. He also will have individual conferences with faculty and students and attend a special luncheon in his honor.

Mr. Alger is an engineer whose work has had a profound effect on the motorization of American industry and on the extension of the use of electric motor drives everywhere. His many contributions to the development of induction motors are well known to engineers the world over.

His major contributions to the analysis of rotating electric machines have been in the critical areas of reactance calculation, the understanding and prediction of losses and the reduction of magnetic noise. The contributions which he has made in these fields have had major impact on the evolution of rotating machines by bringing about reduction in size, the development of new applications, and improved performance.

Significant among his contributions is his development of methods of predicting electric motor performance which led directly to the broad use of electric drives for battleships, to smaller and less costly general purpose motors, to broader application of induction motors made possible by lower starting currents and to larger unit rated turbine generators through use of improved double windings. Mr. Alger's development of split winding and part-winding starting schemes for induction motors have made possible lower cost drives, particularly for air conditioning and commercial refrigeration. The two-thirds winding starting connection, which he developed, provides a desirable combination of starting current and starting torque with a minimum of noise and vibration and makes possible the use of standard motors, and with low cost control. As engineer, holder of over one dozen patents, educator, and stimulating leader, he has given unreservedly of his time and effort for the advancement of others.

As a leader in civic affairs he has championed the causes of better government and good schools. Through his personal leadership as chairman of the Charter League of Schenectady he established the City Manager form of government for his home community.

Understanding Is The Goal of Farm-City Week

Interest in Maryland's first annual Farm-City Week is already running high, reports Prof. A. B. Hamilton, University of Maryland College of Agriculture, who is secretary of the Farm-City Week committee. Eleven groups of women have signed up for tours of a spice plant and sugar refinery in Baltimore during Farm-City Week, Nov. 20 to Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26).

Arrangements for tours of other industries can be made for interested groups of approximately 25 persons during the week by contacting Prof. Hamilton of the Agricultural Economics Department, University of Maryland, College Park, Md. Groups of city folks will be able to arrange visits to farms, during the week, dedicated to better understanding between rural and urban communities.

To further the purpose of the week—better understanding of the interdependence of the two groups—the University of Maryland Extension Service has issued an attractive, green and white, illustrated folder pointing up significant economic facts of farm and agriculture business activities. Copies of the publication are available upon request from leaders of interested groups, Prof. Hamilton said.

During Farm-City Week, people from business, industry, labor, agriculture and homemaking will work as a team, both on the state and local levels, to provide a variety of activities designed to promote an interchange of appreciation of the contributions made by farmers and city dwellers to the well being of each other, he said.

Among these activities will be exchanges between rural and urban ministers for a Sunday service. Several urban ministers have agreed to go to rural churches and rural ministers are to take over the services in the city churches.

During the week, many farm leaders will be guest speakers of civic clubs to explain facets of country living. Included in this group of speakers will be a large number of 4-H and FFA young people to explain the work of their organizations. City leaders will also appear before farm groups. Since achieving better understanding between farm and city folks is a year-round obligation, the 4-H Clubs of Baltimore County chose mid-October to take some of their animal projects and exhibits to a large shopping center where they were displayed for the education and enjoyment of shoppers and city children.

"It is hoped," points out Dr. Paul E. Nystrom, director of extension service, University of Maryland, "that observance of Farm-City Week will provide the basis for a better understanding of, and appreciation for, the American way of life by people of all occupations. And through better understanding will come the realization by farmers and urban people that they are not self-sufficient; that interdependence between them is essential." Dr. Nystrom is the regional chairman of Farm-City Week for Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Holstein Breeders Meet Tomorrow

The Kent County Holstein Friesian Club will meet Friday, Nov. 6, starting at 8 p.m., says Joseph P. Moore, the president. It will be held at Fruitland Grange Hall, at Camden.

These meetings are open to all who may have an interest in black and white cattle, regardless of whether their animals are purebreds or grades. A special invitation is extended to Vo-Ag students and 4-H club members.

Mrs. Jack Krause, the breed fieldman, will discuss "Looking Ahead with Holsteins in 1960." Dr. W. R. Hesselstine, extension dairyman, will discuss "The meaning and usefulness of Pedigrees along with the need for careful selection in herd improvement," after which there will be an opportunity to discuss the Delaware Holstein program for 1960. Refreshments will be served.

Serving on the planning committee with Mr. Moore are Robert Mason Jr. of Harrington and Barton Torbert of Wyoming.

Dairy Technology Conference to Be On Nov. 12

The 15th annual Dairy Technology Conference at the University of Maryland has been set for Thurs., Nov. 12, according to Dr. W. S. Arbuckle, University of Maryland dairy technologist. Approximately 200 milk and dairy plant personnel, fieldmen, sanitarians and industry representatives are expected to attend the conference.

Registration for the event will start at 9 a.m. in the Student Union Building Auditorium on the campus.

Dr. Albin O. Kuhn, executive vice president of the University, will open the conference with an address of welcome on, "The University of Maryland Serves."

A quality milk program acceptable to producers; quality standards for dairy products; improving the keeping quality of dairy products; federal milk orders and new milk orders; milk procurement with farm milk tanks; cottage cheese cultures; automation; improved plant management; and current research findings are some of the topics to be discussed by outstanding speakers, Dr. Arbuckle said.

The conference will be concluded by an evening meeting of the Dairy Technology Society of Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Delaware Food Market Report

November is a month of thanksgiving for abundant harvests. It is also a month of thanksgiving for the truly wonderful advances in food distribution. Today, every day is harvest day, and store displays are loaded with an abundance of a wide variety of foods the year around.

November is the traditional turkey-time, too—and supplies of turkeys are plentiful now and will continue to be so to take care of the Thanksgiving rush. There are and will be turkeys of all sizes to meet the need of every consumer.

Another feature food from the U.S.D.A. Plentiful Foods list is pork. Supplies of this meat continue to be about 10% larger than last fall. Check your local market for outstanding buys on pork.

Fresh cranberries, as well as the three popular canned items, jellied cranberry sauce, whole cranberry sauce and cranberry cocktail are all in plentiful supply this month. The gay coloring of the berries makes them a natural item for all holiday and everyday menus. Serve the chilled juice as a pleasantly satisfying introduction to the meal. Whole cranberry sauce is perfect as is, or accented gently with cinnamon and cloves. Jellied cranberry sauce is appealing served in round slices or cut into gay holiday silhouettes—the jellied sauce is becoming more and more popular as an ingredient in cooked dishes, too. Fresh whole cranberries are perfect for your roast turkey and pork entrees, when fashioned with a relish by grinding with whole fresh oranges and nuts, and adding just enough sweetening to enhance the flavor of the berries.

More November plentifuls are apples, potatoes, onions, sweet potatoes, rice, lard and broiler-fryers. For holiday baking the supply of almonds and filberts are abundant.

As far as the foods in good supply this weekend go, look for good buys on greens—particularly spinach and kale. Other winter-type vegetables in fair to good supply are crisp, white turnips, brussel sprouts, cauliflower, broccoli and rutabagas.

Meat specials for the weekend include steaks and a good many pork items; lamb and veal also are featured. No change at all came during the week on veal and chicken prices, but these two meats may be featured at some stores.

Apples, oranges, grapefruit and coconuts are the best buys at the fruit counter this weekend.

Sixth Grader Wins Fire Prevention Essay Contest

Kitty Lou Burgess, grade six, won first prize in the annual Fire Prevention Essay Contest sponsored by the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company. Nancy Callaway, a seventh grader, won second prize and Billy L. Dill, grade six, won third prize. Grades 6, 7, and 8 of Harrington School participated. Kitty Lou will participate in the county contest. The prize winning essay follows:

FIRE PREVENTION by Kitty Lou Burgess

Fire Prevention is an important part of work for every fire department. They want you to clean out cellars and attics of paper, rubbish, repair all unsafe heaters, and electric systems.

Forest fires are started by careless people who drop or leave things in forests such as lighted matches, cigarettes, campfires, sparks from trains, the lightning, electric wires, and the sun. About three and a half-million acres of forests were destroyed last year! Remember what Smokey the Bear says: "Remember, only you can prevent forest fires."

You should never put matches in a low place because little children may get them and set the house on fire, or burn themselves badly. You should store them in metal containers and put them in a high place.

Never use damaged extension cords because they may cause a fire. Always check electrical wires and systems.

Growups should never smoke in bed because they might fall asleep setting the bedclothes afire.

When you're ironing, never leave the iron on the clothes or on the ironing board. When ironing, rest the iron on a fire-proof stand. When you stop ironing, or must leave the iron for a short time, unplug the iron.

Whenever you are raking leaves, and plan to burn them in one pile, have a wide circle around them or burn them in a place where sparks can not get to things that may burn. Do not start a fire outside on a windy day. If you have a chimney and it has a crack in it, get it fixed immediately. If you use a fireplace, keep a screen over it always as the sparks may set the rug, furniture, or draperies afire. The firemen want us all to help prevent fires. Remember, only you can prevent fires by being careful.

Taylor Belcher, U. S. Consul-general in Nicosia, said he believed America would consider favorably a request from the future Government of the Cyprus Republic for financial aid.

The old car that Oscar Van Zyl traded in at Colesburg, South Africa, crashed into the new truck he had bought and in which he was taking his family home. Both cars were damaged.

WIN THIS NEW FORD Falcon

CONTEST CLOSING
NOVEMBER 21

YOU MAY BE THE LUCKY WINNER IF YOU
REGISTER NOW AT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD FORD DEALER'S

(SEE LISTING BELOW)

Come in and win the most talked-about new car in the world, the New-size Ford—the Falcon.

Outside, it's of the nimble easy-to-handle new size. But inside, it seats six big people with ease and carries all their luggage. It parks and stops on a dime, scoots through traffic, rides smooth as silk, corners beautifully. And the all-new 90-hp Falcon Six engine has the peppiest performance on the pike, for its size.

But the big news about the Falcon is the way it saves! You'll get up to 30 miles per gallon on regular gas . . . go 4,000 miles between oil changes . . . never have to pay a body-tightening bill . . . and spend less on replacement parts, insurance and tires. It's the easiest car in the world to own.

Come down to register at your Ford Dealer's and see why we're so proud of this car. It will also be on display in the Ford exhibition area at the Philadelphia Auto Show, Trade and Convention Center, 34th St. below Spruce, Philadelphia. The dates: November 14 through November 21, (closed Sunday, November 15).

HERE ARE THE SIMPLE RULES:

1. To be eligible to win this new Tudor Ford Falcon Sedan, all you have to do is visit your neighborhood Ford Dealer's before November 21. (This contest void in New Jersey.)
2. Fill in and sign an entry form which your Dealer will supply on request. Then drop the stub into the box you'll find on the Dealer's showroom floor.
3. Everyone 21 years of age or older is eligible to participate—except Ford Dealer's employees and their families—Ford Motor Company personnel and their families—and the members of the Ford Dealer's and Ford Motor Company's advertising agencies and their families. In the event of questioned eligibility, the decision of the judges will be final.
