

NOREEN BLUNT, FELTON, WINS BEAUTY CONTEST IN SENIOR CLASS

Joan Noreen Blunt, of Felton, was judged Miss Harrington Thursday night, May 12, at the Rotary Club's 11th annual beauty contest. The event, a preliminary to the 13th annual Chickens Festival Beauty Pageant, to be held at Selbyville June 17-18, had an excellent attendance.

The contest, held in the field house at Harrington School, was attended by 643 persons, about 120 more than had attended any previous year, said the Rev. Richard Gibson, Rotary president, general chairman, and master of ceremonies.

In the senior contest, Iris Lee Warrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Warrington, Sr., was second, and Joann Dora Cornish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cornish, was third.

In the junior beauty contest, Lynn Ann Leonard, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Leonard, was first; Toni McCready, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCready, was second, and Linda Newnom, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Newnom, was third.

H.H.S. Repeats As Henlopen Track King

by Keith S. Burgess

Coach Dick Jeffers' Lions repeated as champions in the second annual Henlopen Conference Track and Field Championships held here Friday afternoon.

Several hundred persons watched as 11 new records were set in the 14 events. This points to the increasing caliber of downstate scholastic performers.

Don James, Delmar's one-man gang, set new Henlopen meet highs in the discus, javelin and shot. The all-state football start has a chance for a state title in the latter two.

Harrington was an easy winner in the team competition although winning but four events to Millsboro's five. The Lions prevailed by entering 13 of the 14 events on the program and scoring in each.

Millsboro set new records in the mile relay, the 440 yard run and the 880 yard relay.

For H.H.S. Walt Lekites leaped 19 ft. 3 in. in the broad jump, Dwight Hackett ran the 880 in 2:14.4 and Harry Knotts took the mile in 4:46.3 for new records.

Rhodes of Rehoboth upped the pole vault best to 10 ft. while Hobebe of Milton cleared 5 ft. 9 in. in the high jump for new standards. Hobebe was perhaps the most surprising contestant of the day. At 200 pounds he is very heavy for a high jumper not to mention the fact that he has been jumping for only a few weeks.

George Pfeiffer was the leading H.H.S. scorer as he amassed 12 points with seconds in the 880, high jump and broad jump. George high jumped 5 ft. 8 inches which is two inches higher than any local performance since track was revived four years ago. If anyone has any clippings on other data on H.H.S. track performances of the twenties or early thirties this writer would appreciate an opportunity to compare the past with the present.

The Lions' other victory was scored in the 440 yard relay as Winkler, Lekites, Masten and Temple were clocked in 48.8. Final team scores were H.H.S., 65; Millsboro, 44; Milton, 20; Greenwood and Rehoboth, 17 each; Delmar, 15; John M. Clay. (Continued on Back Page)

TO ASSUME NEW POST—The Rev. Richard Gibson, pastor of Asbury Methodist Church, who will assume a pastorate at Ocean City, Md. Parsons Studio

Pastor Gives Farewell Sermon

"The past four years have been 'The Best Years of Our Lives'" were the words of the Rev. Richard S. Gibson in what was considered his farewell sermon to the congregation of Asbury Methodist Church last Sunday morning. The Rev. Gibson expects to be transferred to another church by the present session of Peninsula Annual Conference in Grace Methodist Church, Wilmington.

Mr. Gibson came to Asbury Church from Trinity Methodist Church in Frederica in May 1956 upon graduation from The School of Theology of Temple University, Philadelphia. Before that he had attended West Virginia Wesleyan College and Salisbury State Teachers College.

Mr. Gibson recalled how in his first sermon as pastor of Asbury Church he had said, "You let me be myself and you be yourself and I think we will get along fine. I can say that you have permitted me to be that. I have tried to be human and approachable, and these I think are essential to being a minister regardless of where it is." This he said had made these "The Best Years of Our Lives."

"The love and the patience of the congregation plus their attentiveness have helped me find myself," he said. "You have not always agreed with what I had to say, but you have listened and let me be God's Prophet." He said that in no comparable period had his ministry been so fruitful as here.

On arriving in Harrington the Rev. Gibson said he saw three immediate jobs to be done. The first one was to get the remainder of the debt paid off on the educational building. This was accomplished on Palm Sunday, March 30, 1958. On that day the church as a congregation was exactly 100 years old. That day the mortgages were burned and the educational building was dedicated. Assisting in the service were the Rev. Robert E. Van Cleaf, former pastor and the Rev. Roy L. Tawes, Superintendent of Dover District. The second job was to do something about the poor attendance at the worship service. One morning as he looked at the ten rows of empty pews between himself and the nearest worshippers he said, "I wonder how many games Robin Roberts would win this season if he had to stand on second base and pitch to the batters?" He said that was about the handicap he faced and urged that he would not be satisfied until he saw all the pews full. It seemed like an impossible task, but soon the attendance began to increase until a three years average attendance had risen 60%.

The third job he saw that needed attention was the finances of the church. He said that the average member was giving less a year than the average person who went to the races bet in one night. "We ought to at least bet as much on the 'Kingdom of God' in a year as they bet on the horses in one night." Since that time the annual budget has gone up approximately 75% and each year there has been a balance on hand at the end of the year.

The Rev. Gibson did not confine his interest in the church to his own particular church. He saw the need for more cooperation among the existing churches. In the spring of 1957 at a meeting held in the chapel of Asbury Church attended by ministers from the other protestant churches it was decided to sponsor a "Community Good Friday" service. Out of that meeting came not only a Good Friday Service, (Continued on back page)

Shaw Defeats Hatfield For School Board; Record Vote

Mrs. Jarvis Hurd Heads Auxiliary

Officers for 1960-61 were elected at the monthly meeting of the Callaway-Kemp-Raughley - Tee Auxiliary Unit No. 7 on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jarvis Hurd was elected to head the unit for the coming year. Other officers who will serve are: Vice president, Mrs. William A. Smith; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Rudolph Trepasso; treasurer, Mrs. Dale Roth; historian, Mrs. Norman Brown; chaplain, Mrs. Al Crisson; and sergeant at arms, Mrs. Don Dell. Installation of the officers will be held in a joint dinner meeting with the post officers on Sat., June 4, at 6:30 in the Post Home. The state commander and state president are expected to be present to make the installations.

The regular order of business was conducted at the Tuesday evening meeting. Mrs. Dale Roth presided.

Mrs. Crisson, Child Welfare chairman, reported that she had sent a total of 120 pounds of used clothing to the Christian Children's Foundation. She also told the unit that additional checks in the amounts of $5.23 and $15.13 had been received from the General Baking Company for the Easter Seal Campaign. This made a total of $100 that the unit had collected for the Delaware Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The representatives to Girls' State this year were announced by Mrs. Frank O'Neal Jr. They are, from Harrington, Mary Anne Fair and Beatrice Collins, and from Greenwood, Deborah Cannon and Gladys Whitmore.

The junior members of the unit will hold a dance at the Post Home on Saturday evening, May 21, at 7 o'clock. Each member is asked to invite a guest and to bring refreshment for herself and her partner.

Mrs. Roth reported that the committees from the unit and the post had completed their selection for the "Man of the Year" award. Those serving on the committee were Mrs. Leonard A. Taylor, Mrs. William Smith, Harold Melvin and Benjamin Hughes. The award will be presented at the installation of officers banquet on June 4.

Contributions of $5 each were made to the Multiple Sclerosis campaign, Crusade for Freedom, and the Glen Matthews Fund.

Mrs. Roth reported that Delaware is first in membership in the Eastern Division and second in the nation. This is a decided honor for the state and will bring a monetary prize as well as recognition at the National Convention.

Election of officers for the junior members was held recently also. The new officers for 1960-61 will be: President, Miss Sylvia Jane Outten; secretary, Miss Jeanne Lee Anderson; treasurer, Miss Bonnie Matthews; chaplain, Miss Susan Brown; Sgt.-at-arms, Miss Debbie Schepp; and Sunshine chairman, Miss Karen Minner. Their next meeting will be Saturday afternoon, May 21, at the home of Miss Nancy Callaway at 1 o'clock.

Poppo Days will be on Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28, the weekend before Memorial Day, as usual. Mrs. William Jester is serving as Poppy chairman this year. She has asked that all members assist in this most worthwhile of programs. The junior membership will also be asked to help sell the little red flowers of remembrance on the two days. Anyone who will help is asked to call Mrs. Jester this week.

In one of two contested Kent County School Board elections Saturday, an unprecedented vote, for a similar election was chalked up here, with William W. Shaw defeating Luther P. Hatfield, Board president.

Shaw received 620 votes; Hatfield, 280, with 28 votes disqualified. The total of 900 votes was, in the opinion of observers, the highest ever seen here in a School Board election.

The new member, a former president of the Chamber of Commerce and the Harrington High School Alumni Association, will take office in July. Holdover members of the board, all of which serve four years, are Mrs. Musetta Cox, Roland Hitchens, and Keith S. Burgess.

The local contest, as well as the other Kent County contest, at Caesar Rodney, was deemed, by some at least, as involving two controversial school superintendents. It was felt by some that the voting results endorsed the superintendents.

At Harrington, the School Board had sought the retirement of Supt. Jacob C. Messner and the Board has been receiving applications for the post.

James R. Bennett, president of the Caesar Rodney School Board and supporter of Dr. William B. Simpson, C-R superintendent, edged out his opponent, G. Wallace Caulk by a close 443-to-414 vote.

There were no contests at Frederica, for Benjamin Matlack, incumbent, and at Felton, for incumbent, Virgil M. Jarrell.

In Sussex County, at Greenwood, Earl M. Keel tallied 132 votes, against 53 for Roy Judy Jr. Keel replaces Norman E. Hamstead.

Knotts, C. Hackett Set Records in Milford Track Meet

by Keith S. Burgess

The Harrington High School track team, which is winning acclaim as one of the most successful squads in the state on a per capita basis, added two more records to its extensive collection last week at the 12-team Milford Invitational Meet.

Harry Knotts, as a sophomore last year, was lower Delaware's top scholastic miler and ranked on a par with Burgess Blevins of Washington High, Princess Anne, Md., and John Murphy of South Dorchester, Md., for peninsula honors. This year Harry spotted these same two rivals an advantage by skipping the mile in several meets and running the 440 instead. In spite of this he nosed his fellow distance ace for the peninsula crown by getting a first and a second in the Milford and Seaford Invitational while Blevins and Murphy each had a first and a third. How can three men each have a first place in only two races?

At Milford Knotts and Murphy ran a race dead heat in the championship mile run. The time of 4:40.7 cut 12 full seconds off the old record held by Murphy. Blevins in third place and John Hollis of Seaford in fourth place also were well under the old standard. This quartet all have been entered in 3-mile distance races in the summer and all but Blevins have had cross-country experience in the fall. This extra competition undoubtedly has a great deal to do with the fine results turned in by these lads. The writer believes the Milford mile was the best ever turned in on a downstate track by high school competitors.

Clarence Hackett, as a freshman is eligible for junior high competition, so Coach Dick Jeffers entered him in that section of the meet with gratifying results. Clarence came from behind (Continued on back page)

Planned Parenthood Issue Tabled by Episcopal Body

A resolution concerning the position of the Episcopal Diocese of Delaware on planned parenthood was tabled Thurs., May 12, at the diocese's 17th annual convention after several delegates expressed concern at signaling out this one facet of the extensive Lambeth Convention report.

The resolution would have provided that the text of resolutions 112-119 passed at the meeting of bishops of the Anglican Communion in Lambeth, England, in 1958 be "adopted as the position of this convention on this subject."

The "subject," as explained in the first part of the resolution, was "the Church's understanding of Marriage and the place of the family in Contemporary Society." The resolution was referred to as being on "planned parenthood," however.

Another section of the resolution, which had been drafted by a committee appointed by the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware, provided for publishing the texts of the eight Lambeth resolutions in a "paid advertisement in one of the Wilmington papers . . . As presenting a statement of the bishops on marriage as part of the consideration of The Family in Contemporary Society."

The Rev. John W. Haynes, rector of Calvary Church, Hillcrest, commented that "this is the only social issue we have considered at this convention" among all the possible social questions.

He thought it would be better if the diocese's position on planned parenthood were listed along with the diocese's stand on several other social topics.

Other Matters Mentioned

The Rev. McMrae Worth, assistant, St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, mentioned that the section of the Lambeth Report on "The Family in Contemporary Society" touched on several family matters in addition to family planning.

Although the planned parenthood resolution was perhaps the most controversial topic to come up at the convention, it was only one item of business on an agenda which included the bishop's annual address, election of various diocesan officers, and handling of other convention business.

Slightly more than 10 delegates, lay and clergy, voted during the elections. About 300 persons — delegates, members of Episcopal Church women, and guests—attended a luncheon in Harrington High School Field House. Thursday ended the two-day convention.

In his address Bishop Mosley said that Christians will not be cowed into silence on social issues merely because their political opinions are more liberal than those of their detractors.

Should Express Opinions

"Christians do have something to say about social, political, and economical conditions and we are bound by conscience to say it," he declared.

Harness Bill Goes to Boggs

The once controversial bill to allow Kent and Sussex Counties to deal harness racing dates to New Castle County Tuesday slid through the Senate with only token resistance, and the House followed by approving the bill with its Senate amendment.

The bill (HB-540 with SA 1) provides 40 days of racing in each county, but provides that a county if it wishes may transfer some or all of its dates to another county. This was done at the behest of stockholders in Brandywine Raceway.

Kent Census Total: 65,320

The population of Kent County has more than doubled in the past 30 years, and more than 80 per cent of the increase occurred in the past decade.

This was disclosed as Harry P. Corson, district census supervisor last week, made preliminary figures of the 1960 census available to the Levy Court commissioners of Kent County.

The 1960 count for Kent County is 65,320 or 72 per cent more than the 1950 figure of 37,870. Fifty years ago, in 1910, the Kent County population was 32,721. It dropped to 31,841 by 1930.

Mr. Corson said the 65,320 figure is substantially correct. (Continued on back page)

I went to the fair
There wasn't anyone there
But a sorry sad hound Weighing more than many a pound.

The Little Tree
I am a little tree
I have a little twig

This is what I see
But I'm not very big.

Charter boats operating from Lewes and Indian River Inlet during the past weekend reported excellent catches of tautog and ling; 60 tautog, 130 ling and 20 sea bass were reported from the Lewes area. Nearly the entire fleet was out from Lewes on Saturday and all boats reported successful fishing. In the Indian River area only charter boats—the Fish Hawk, Palymate, Betty A, Ace, Timm II, Protheon, Doris Ann and Mary Emily—were out and all reported fine catches of ling. In interviews with the captains both at Indian River and at Lewes it was learned that sea bass should be biting within a week or so.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—When I come out of service next month I will be eligible as a Korea veteran for a GI home loan. Will I lose this eligibility if I sign up for re-enlistment?

A—No. You would not lose eligibility for a GI home loan by re-enlisting. However, you would be bound by the February 1, 1955, deadline for such a loan, like any Korea veteran.

Q—If I should add the total disability income rider to my World War II GI insurance policy, and become disabled, would the amount my beneficiaries would receive from the policy in case of my death be reduced in any way?

A—No. Disability payments made under the rider in no way decrease payments to beneficiaries of your GI insurance policy.

Q—Is a "peacetime" veteran with a disability rated 50 percent entitled to more compensation for dependents?

A—Yes. Peacetime veterans rated 50 percent or more disabled may be entitled to additional compensation for a wife, minor children, or dependent parents.

Q—I was in a prison camp during World War II. I have a dental condition traceable to my service, but for which I do not receive compensation from VA. Is there a deadline in my case for applying for VA outpatient treatment?

A—No. As a former prisoner of Fluke or Halibut?

Two fine food fish which are taken in abundance in Delaware waters are the summer and winter flounder. Many anglers are familiar with the two types of fish, however, there are others who do not realize the difference in both structure and name. Summer flounder are commonly known as fluke, winter flounder is the halibut.

Fluke or Halibut?

The fluke is generally a much larger fish than the halibut; it can reach a size of three feet in length and weight of 10 to 25 pounds. Other than its size the fluke has these distinguishing features: a large mouth containing strong and sharp teeth, eyes and color on the left side of the body, and a lateral line which is noticeably arched near the head. Little is known of the spawning habits of the fluke, but it is believed to spawn in deep waters during the winter. In the summer this fish likes the sandy bottom of more shallow waters. It can usually be found there feeding on fish, squid, shrimp or small crabs, and is available for hook and line fishing.

Commercial Fishing

Delaware Bay commercial net fishermen are expecting a large run of trout within a few weeks. These choice fish are caught in a variety of gill nets and haul seines. The mesh size of the net used is determined not only by law but also by the size of the fish desired. Many fishermen are using a larger mesh in order to catch marketable fish and at the same time allow the smaller ones to escape. To date the catches of trout have been small but the fish have been large, one weighing nine pounds was caught by John Swolensky off Slaughter Beach. These large trout are commonly called tide runners and they are seldom taken in great numbers. Trout ranging from two to six pounds have been reported caught from the Lewes breakwater to Port Mahon, however, the established netters feel that the water is still too cold for large schools.

Treat Sheep for Ticks

Sheep ticks migrate from ewes to lambs in spring, and lambs cannot grow normally when infested with ticks.

George Vapaa, Kent County agricultural agent, says the entire flock, including lambs, should be treated with any of the following: Co-Ral, DDT, dieldrin, lindane, Ronnel (Korlan) or rotenone are all effective for sheep tick and lice control. Use only local veterinarian, he says.

Red Cross To Hold One-Day Area Conference at Rehoboth

The Delaware Chapter, American Red Cross, will hold a one-day Branch Area Conference on Tues., May 31, at the Belhaven Hotel in Rehoboth Beach.

Volunteers in the 11 branch areas outside of Wilmington in New Castle, Kent, and Sussex Counties, which constitute the state-wide network of the Red Cross organization, will attend.

Mrs. John M. Brentlinger, Sr., chapter vice-chairman for the office of volunteers, will preside.

"The principal purpose of the conference is to gain inspiration and learn new ways of providing revitalized Red Cross service to communities throughout Delaware," Mrs. Brentlinger said.

"The agenda will deal with administration, programming, volunteer work, fund raising, public information and individual service programs.

"The persons attending this conference will be volunteers eagerly searching for new methods and approaches to spur them on to greater Red Cross achievements," Mrs. Brentlinger stated.

Workshops on administration, disaster preparedness and planning for the future will be held.

Branch area chairmen, vice chairmen, treasurers, secretaries, fund chairmen and public information chairmen will attend the session on administration. After the first hour, special sessions will be held for treasurers and public information chairmen.

The workshop on disaster will be devoted to all phases of Red Cross likely to be involved in giving services in time of disaster.

The third workshop devoted to the theme, "Planning for the Future," will feature subjects for those interested in the Junior Red Cross, and those working with young men and young women of college level, and other young people in the community.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. with registration. A brief opening meeting is scheduled at 3 and the workshop period will start at 3:30. A dinner will be held at 6:45 p.m.

Mrs. Ethel J. Myers, executive director of the state chapter, who is planning the program for the event, said the workshops "should be of tremendous value" to the branch areas in carrying on the humanitarian program of the Red Cross in their respective communities.

Service directors who will conduct the workshops are: Mrs. Harrison N. Church, home service; Mrs. George I. Sylvester Sr., production and supply; Mrs. Edith R. Kendall, nursing services; Miss Eleanor E. Gallagher, accounting; Miss Lois - Karen Clark, junior red cross; Alexander W. Rand, first aid and water safety; and Sylvan Silver, public information.

23 Farmers Seek Wool Payments

With the deadline now past to apply for payments in the national wool program for the 1959 marketing year, a total of 23 county growers have applied according to Lister V. Hall Jr., office manager of the Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office. The deadline for applications was May 2.

Applications received throughout the country will now be used in computing the rate of payment, after which payments will be made to growers through their ASC offices. Payments are expected to be made some time after July 1.

Under the wool program, payments are made at the percentage rate necessary to bring the national average farm price of wool up to 62 cents a pound, which is the announced incentive level. That percentage is applied to each grower's marketings to calculate his payment. On unshorn lambs, payment is made at a rate based on the wool rate. For 1958, the payment rate was 70.3 percent for shorn wool and $1.02 per hundredweight on unshorn lambs.

The purpose of the percentage method of payment, Mr. Hall points out, is to encourage wool growers to do the best possible job of marketing their clip. Payments under the wool program are made as an incentive to growers to bring about an increase in national wool production.

were unable to give his own history.

The cards were designed by the Society's Committee on Medical Service, which feels that they are an improvement on similar cards now available. One - half of the wallet - size, three - fold card is devoted to identification, emergency notification data, and the name and location of the bearer's own doctor. This is important because the family doctor, if located immediately, is the best source of medical information about a patient. This side also carries, in a prominent spot, places for listing known existing diseases, allergies and sensitivities.

This is potentially essential information in cases of penicillin allergy or chronic bleeding, to use obvious examples. The reverse side of the card carries a medical history. A record of surgery heads the card, to alert the attending physician to missing or impaired organs. Recent illnesses, some of which could drastically effect treatment, are listed directly below the surgical record. Space is also devoted to an immunization record, with special attention to tetanus and typhoid, which often follows disasters affecting water supplies. Medications being taken by the patient are listed, together with condensed diabetic data. Several lines are left for information that may have bearing on the individual's condition. The card closes with space for a health insurance entry.

Interesting is the omission of the blood type, a standard feature for years of all health information devices, from elaborate family-type records to the simple GI "dog-tag". The local physicians' committee feels that risks of transfusing the wrong blood type are increased by reliance on these entries, and prefers to encourage the brief cross-matching test when practical, or, in genuine emergencies, the use of plasma, in which type is not important.

The Health Information Cards are available to member-physicians of the Medical Society of Delaware, and can be obtained without charge by their patients.

The strawberry supply is increasing as near by areas begin shipping. Eastern shore, Virginia, and the Carolinas are sending good ripe berries to local market. With supplies from California also we should see a marked increase in the quantity of berries available this weekend.

St. Bernadette's Church Notes

Mass Sunday morning will begin at 9:30. Confessions will be heard before Mass. All classes for both High School and grade school children have been dismissed until September.

Forty Hours Devotion will be held at St. John's on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This devotion consists of the solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for 40 hours more or less, being the time our Lord lay in the tomb, continuous adoration being maintained by relays of watchers. The usual practice is to arrange that the exercise is taken up from church to church so that the exposition is so far as possible continuous in the diocese.

The services will begin with the 11 o'clock High Mass on Sunday morning, followed with a procession. On Sunday evening at 7:45 the Rosary will be recited, a sermon delivered and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Mass on Monday morning will be at 6:30, a Low Mass, and at 8:30 a High Mass. The evening services will begin at 7:45 and be the same as Sunday evening. On Tuesday morning, Low Mass will be at 6:30 and High Mass at 8:30. In the evening, services will begin at 7:45, after which will take place a procession with the Host in closing of this solemn devotion.

Delivering the sermons the three evenings will be the Rev. Joseph P. Kenny, O.S.F.S., a member of the faculty of Salesianum High School, Wilmington.

Thursday we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord into heaven. This feast is celebrated on the fortieth day after Easter. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass at St. John's will be said at 7:30 in the morning and also 7:30 in the evening. Mass at St. Bernadette's will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

A most memorable day was held Sunday at St. John's when the Most Reverend Michael W. Hyle, Bishop of Wilmington, administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to nearly 100 children and adults. Master of ceremonies was the Rev. Henri I. Foltz, Diocesan Director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, who resides at St. Patrick's parish in Wilmington.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

For the first time in the history of this mission, a member of St. Stephen's has been elected to fill a diocesan office. At the 175th annual convention held May 11 and 12 at St. Stephen's Ernest E. Killen was elected one of the three new lay members of the Executive Council of the Diocese of Delaware.

Others who were chosen to be members of this governing body are the Rev. Pinckney M. Corsa, St. Anne's, Middletown; the Rev. John W. Haymes, Calvary, Hillcrest; the Rev. Samuel W. Wyson, St. Paul's, Camden; George L. Frick, St. Barnabas, Marshallton; Benjamin Vinton Jr., St. James, Newport.

The Bishop of the Diocese is president of the Executive Council and presides at its meetings. Its duties include the "unification, development, and prosecution of the missionary work, church extension, religious education, and christian social service of the diocese and such matters as may be committed to it by the convention."

The Rev. Donald F. Gowe, vicar of the Chapel of St. Edward the Martyr, New York City, was principal speaker at the annual meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Delaware, May 12, at St. Stephen's Church.

The Rev. Mr. Gowe gave a dynamic account of the church's ministry to the Puerto Ricans who live in the area called "Spanish Harlem."

His forceful appeal to all church people was "to go out and witness," he filled with concern for needy brothers, not filled with anxiety over a narrow little or bit of selfish activity. "It is our business," he said, "to bring these people to the Lord and to show the individual that we are helping him for Christ's sake."

Two vital questions we should ask are "What is my parish doing to show God's love in the community?" and "What am I, myself doing to show God's love for all His children?" The Rev. Mr. Gowe stated that it is so easy to give money to stifle one's conscience, while it is real concern for others that is necessary today.

He gave typical descriptions of the poor housing, economic difficulties and vicious circle the Puerto Rican finds himself confronted with in the large city, where no one seems to care about his dilemma. Often there are no jobs available, there is discrimination, no place to live, and crime seems the only recourse.

The speaker also described the help proffered by the church to the very young, to the teenagers, and to the adults in this squalid section of New York City and made an appeal for more concern on the part of christians everywhere through prayer and gifts and service.

The Rev. Mr. Gowe ended his talk with a repetition of the Lord's Prayer in Spanish.

Formerly a medical doctor, the speaker served for many years on the staff of St. Luke's Hospital in Puerto Rico.

An offering of $218 was made by the women assembled and presented to Mr. Gowe for furthering his work through the Chapel of St. Edward the Martyr.

For the first time in the history of the Diocese of Delaware an annual convention was held at a mission—St. Stephen's, Harrington—instead of a parish. The new church, which was occupied last October, was dedicated by the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware, at 5:30 p.m. on the first day of the convention.

Miss Anne Perry, Miss Carol Ann McNally, Robert Eastman and Bill Thompson attended a Kent County Convocation meeting of young people at Christ Church, Milford, Sun., May 15.

The congregation of St. Stephen's extends its love and sympathy to Mrs. Thomas Clendenning on the death of her father, Cloyd Barto, of Eddystone, Pa., May 12. Mr. and Mrs. Clendenning left the convention Thursday shortly after the service of Holy Communion, to drive to Eddystone. The funeral was held Monday.

On Sun., May 22, at 11 o'clock St. Stephen's service for Rogation Sunday will be held at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winkler on the Harrington-Frederica Road. If the weather is not favorable, the service will be held in the church.

On this Rogation Sunday the vicar will ask God's blessing on the farm, the animals, implements, etc., and beseech Him to increase the fruits of the earth for man's use.

The congregation will enjoy barbecued chicken and a picnic dinner after the morning service.

Wheat Disposal Deadline, May 31, 1960

Chairman R. Harry Wilson of the Kent Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, today reminded wheat growers that the deadline for disposing of excess wheat is May 31. That is the date by which the grower who wishes to comply with his 1960 wheat allotment must dispose of any excess acreage.

The grower who brings his acreage for harvest down to this allotment, Mr. Wilson said, may market all his wheat without penalty, is eligible for wheat price support and Conservation Reserve payments and gets credit for acreage diverted from wheat in computing future allotments.

Farmers who have any questions about excess wheat disposal are urged to get in touch with the Kent County ASC office for further information. The telephone number is REdfield 4-3078.

You can produce 25 tons of green feed per acre with the following silage system according to George Vapaa, Kent County agricultural agent:

Plant silage corn now, in May, fertilize and plant crimson clover with either oats or barley. Harvest this for silage about the first week in May. Then you are ready to start over again with corn.

It's a 25-ton-per-acre system, Mr. Vapaa says.

WHICH BUSINESS IS BETTER FOR YOUR COMMUNITY?

Company A

This manufacturing company has earned an average of 10.7% on capital since the war.

In 6 years following the war, assets grew by 135%, half in inventories, half in plant.

Three-fourths of this money came from retained earnings and depreciation. Investors cheerfully furnished the rest.

In the next 6 years, although selling was harder, the company was financially strong enough to risk and innovate.

Assets went up one-third.

The market price of its stock climbed.

Consumers got more products.

More jobs were provided. Employes today 80% more workers than in 1945. Turnover is low.

Has won loyal customers on quality and product as well as price.

Company B

This manufacturing company has earned an average of 2.5% on capital since the war.

Profits so poor had to borrow money to finance expansion.

Assets grew by only 38% and most of it was inventories.

By 1951 nearly half its capital was debt.

During the next 6 years profits were low.

Modernization expense had to be cut.

It could not afford to replace obsolete plant.

Assets went down by one-third.

Stock dropped back to half the 1945 price level.

Jobs were cut in half. Plants were closed.

Buildings and equipment became an economic waste.

Company still trying to sell by cutting prices, still making profits too low to get it out of the rut.

These two true-life stories are not unique. No matter what business you examine, good profits go hand in hand with good service, more and better jobs, company growth and modern cost-cutting equipment.

This is as true of the telephone business as it is of any other.

FAREWELL SERMON

but the Harrington Ministerial Association with the Rev. Gibson as its first president. Since then the Good Friday Service has been held every year. A Community Vacation School has been held every year. Two years a community wide Evangelistic Mission has been conducted. Last year the services on six Sunday nights saw over 2000 people attend these services.

The Rev. Gibson has also been interested in the relationship of Asbury and Trinity Churches. He has been an advocate for a United Methodist Church for Harrington. One Methodist could do much more than two in presenting a united witness to the community, he feels. "Once you admit the need for more than one you admit the need for three, four—any number. If a man has more than one wife that is bigamy. Just two makes it so. If he has three or four it is still bigamy." He says, "It is like a husband and wife refusing to live together, but insisting on living in their own separate homes. They bear the same family name, but what kind of a marriage is that?" he asks.

Some of the other church activities the Rev. Gibson has participated in are: secretary of Conference Committee on Courtships and Resolutions; treasurer of Dover District Ministerial Association; director of the Sub-District MYF of this area; counselor and dean of Junior and Intermediate Weeks and teacher in Girl's School of Missions at Camp Pe-Co-Meth. Last summer he and Mrs. Gibson attended the National Conference of Methodist Youth at Purdue University.

Mrs. Gibson has also been active in the life of the church. She has been organist and choir director for three choirs, secretary of Missionary Education, and is Music Director for the Peninsula Conference W.S.C.S. School of Missions at Wesley Jr. College, Dover. She has studied organ under E. A. Barrell Jr., organist at Wesley Church, Dover. In addition to this she has taught 16 private piano students and taught half time as music teacher in the first four grades of the Harrington Public School.

The Rev. Gibson has also been active in community and civic affairs. He saw boys shooting bows and arrows at wooden walls and numerous other objects. So he organized an Archery Club and took the boys on many deer and rabbit hunts. They never killed any deer or rabbits, but one day he was lucky enough to see a quail on the ground and killed it. The boys seeing the quail with the arrow thrust through it, were so enthusiastic that they reported it had been shot in full flight through the air.

His main civic interest has been expressed through the Harrington Rotary Club. Having been a Rotarian before, he found it a natural. During the past year he has been president of the club and was general chairman and master of ceremonies at the recent Miss Harrington Beauty Contest of the Miss Delmarva Beauty Pageant to be held at the Delmarva Chicken Festival in Selbyville.

The Ever Ready Class of Asbury Church School held its annual covered dish supper in the class room of Collins Hall of the church Monday night, which is the last meeting of the class until Sept. 19. The chairman for the occasion were Miss Helen Peterson, Mrs. Roy Porter and Mrs. P. C. Harrington, and 32 members came bringing their dishes to make a varied and delicious menu. Following the meal, Mrs. Clarence Jarrell, president, presided at the business session and a brief program was presented by the committee in charge. The main feature of which was a group of vocal duets by Mrs. Hugh Vincent of Farmington and Miss Della Ryan, a member of the class. Also the class song, "You Can Smile" adopted many years ago was sung by the class with Mrs. Elmer Smith, accompanist.

After the program the biennial election of officers took place with the following result: President, Mrs. Fred B. Greenly; vice president, Mrs. Joseph A. Masten; recording secretary, Mrs. Elmer A. Smith; ass't. recording secretary, Mrs. Clarence Jarrell; attendance secretary, Mrs. Howard Cooper; ass't. attendance secretary, Mrs. Amos Minner; treasurer, Miss Helen Peterson; ass't. treasurer, Mrs. P. C. Harrington; chairman of Sunshine work, Mrs. Samuel Raughley; custodian of the flower chart, Mrs. Oscar Gillette.

The class voted to hold its 23rd annual Flower Show on Wed., Sept. 14, and other features, ice cream, antiques, novelties, ice cream and cake will be added. Chairmen for those departments volunteered to serve. There will be more and detailed announcement regarding that as the time approaches.

Century Club Notes

Next week the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs will be celebrating its second annual Federation Week. The dates will be from May 22 to 28.

Each day of the week will be dedicated to some portion of the club's activities. American Home Day is on Sunday, Community Affairs Day on Monday, Conservation Day on Tuesday, Education Day on Wednesday, International Affairs Day on Thursday, Public Affairs or Legislation Day on Friday and Fine Arts Day on Saturday. Each day will be observed in the state by a corresponding activity.

The members of the Harrington New Century Club will participate in the weeks celebration by attending the Church of the Nazarene on Sunday morning, May 22, for the 11 o'clock service. Mrs. Lorraine Ottinger, pastor of the church, who is also a member of the club, has issued the invitation to all members to attend. The group will assemble at 10:45 in front of the club house and proceed to the church together. The date again is Sun., May 22.

The Harrington club was formed in 1909 and federated in the same year. Mrs. Charles E. Brinser served as the first of 31 women who have held the important office of president. Last year when the club celebrated its 50th year, Mrs. William W. Shaw was instrumental in planning the Anniversary Tea which marked the occasion. Next year Mrs. Charles Peck Jr. will be serving as president to begin the second 50 year period of service to the community and state.

Of interest to some of the citizens of Harrington may be the following club song which was written by Lulu Holmes Potter:

Not for ourselves alone we stand But for the common good, Of all who need a helping hand, A friendly brotherhood. We love the things that God has made, And in them beauty see. A flower, a book, a little child A stream, a sheltering tree.

We love our little Diamond State, Our own home town as well, And on Del-Mar-Va's peaceful shores, We all are proud to dwell. But when the Federation calls, Each club to do its best, You'll find our local club right there To serve with all the rest.

Not bound by class or creed we serve, In every way we can, The interests of our town and state And of our fellow man. Oh, God of Wisdom, Love and Might, Keep our Club ever true, To Thee, to home and native land, Our own Red, White and Blue.

Lulu Holmes Potter Though these words were written about 1930, they seem very appropriate for the observance of the present day Federation Week.

MILFORD MEET (Continued from page one) in the homestretch and caught the Seaford pacesetter to win going away. His time of 2:12.6 is not only an H.S.S. junior record but also beats the senior high standard of 2:12.9 set by Knotts two weeks ago. Temple vaulted 9 ft. 9 in. in his sweat suit to equal the H.S.S. best leap in the pole vault done two years ago by Don Garey. Jim finished out of the money as the winner cleared 11 ft.

Wait Lekites was favored in the broad jump as his 19 ft. 9 in. leap last week topped all of his Milford Invitational rivals' best efforts of the year a gimpy gam prevented him from jumping and the tender tibia also hampered him in the 880 yard relay race in which the locals were third.

Barry Fry was second in the junior high broad jump with 17 feet and third in the high jump. Barry was prevented from competing in the 220 yard dash by an officiating error.

HARNES BILL (Continued from page one) Senator Reynolds du Pont (R-Greenville), the minority leader, who said he had a petition with the signatures of 1,501 residents of New Castle County who opposed the additional gambling the additional days would make possible. He was joined in opposition by Senator Jacob A. Correll (R-Newark).

The House of Representatives waited for Senate action on the bill, and acted on it as soon as it was brought over from the other chamber. The House, which had previously okayed the bill, passed it again with the Senate amendment, which assures suitable dates to the Harrington track. The vote was 21 yeas, one nay (Manning), one not voting (Carman) and 12 absent.
