

Hurricane Donna Does Considerable Damage Here

The frogs are having a field day in this area, their cacophonous croaking evidence of subsiding water left here Monday morning by Hurricane Donna.

Trees fell, a barn shifted on its foundation, tree limbs littered the streets, streets and lots were flooded, windows leaked, windows were broken, signs fell, cornfields experienced severe lodging, telephone and power service were interrupted.

The hurricane was preceded by a heavy rain Sunday night. The hurricane came early Monday morning, slackened in mid-morning, picked up tempo in late morning and died in the early afternoon.

Some businesses were closed, school children had a vacation as the schools were closed all day.

An awning was damaged and a window broken at the home of Tommy Derrickson on Weiner Avenue. In the same block, a tree fell across the street.

A window in the beauty shop of Frances Temple, on Commerce Street, was broken by a swinging sign, which eventually fell in the street.

Streets were flooded. Water was over the curb, in the downtown area. Portions of Liberty and West Streets were flooded enough to prevent traffic. Adjoining lots had water a foot deep. Cellars were flooded. T.V. antennae were blown down and damaged.

Parts of Dorman Street were flooded as was a large portion of the ground of Harrington schools.

Corn was bent over. Some farmers figure it will take a cornpicker twice as long to harvest the crop as it does normally.

A tree across Delaware 14, between Houston and Milford, caused traffic to be rerouted Monday morning.

The barn of Noble Carroll, Sandtown, shifted on its foundation of cement blocks.

90 PERSONS REGISTER IN THE 9TH

Ninety persons in the Ninth Representative District became eligible to vote when they registered at the designated places Saturday.

In the Sixth Representative District, which comprises part of Harrington, 54 persons registered.

In Kent County 1152 persons registered.

The breakdown, in the First Election District of the Ninth Representative District, called for 33 Democrats, 7 Republicans, and 8 declines. The Second of the Ninth the tally was 14 Democrats, 9 Republicans, 9 declines.

In the First of the Sixth, the tally was 18 Democrats, 4 Republicans, no declines, and in the Second of the Sixth, the tally was 17 Republicans, 6 Democrats, and 9 declines.

In the county, Democratic registrations were 455; Republicans, 299, and declines, 298.

The Kent Board of Elections also pointed out that the volume of transfers, by people who have changed from one election district to another since the past election, was heavier than usual. Nearly 200 changes were processed by the registration boards.

Saturday brought the number to Kent County citizens eligible to vote in November to a total of 25,505. Of this number, there are 11,890 registered as Democrats, 7,706 as Republicans and 5,909 as "Independents."

The final registration day, before the general election in November, is set for Saturday, Oct. 15th.

A spokesman for the Election Board said the number registering is more than before the 1958 election—but this was to be expected in a presidential election year.

No change in party registration will be allowed until after the first of the year.

PRR STRIKE SETTLED; DONNA DAMAGES LINE

A strike against the Pennsylvania Railroad, which began Thurs., Sept. 1, was settled after 12 days and the line began to get back to normal Monday in time to repair damage to the system which Hurricane Donna did on the peninsula.

The strike was instigated by 20,000 nonoperating employees, throughout the Pennsylvania System, belonging to the Transport Workers Union and the System Federation.

Major issues were job classification and the railroad's contracting with outside companies for repairs and replacements. Locally, 40 to 50 employees, who used Harrington as headquarters, were affected. Supervisory employees were not affected.

District Engineer LeRoy Strohl said some men were called back to work Monday morning to patrol track and pole lines, an act particularly required by the hurricane which hit here the same day.

All employees were ordered back Tuesday, with the first trains running on the morning of the same day.

Strohl said Wednesday that by Friday he expected that all track would be in service. Service on the Oxford, Centerville, and Chestertown branches were curtailed by washouts, he said, and added there was a washout on the Denton track between Queen Anne and Queenstown.

The engineer estimated the hurricane dropped 150 trees across the tracks, some cutting communication lines. He also said there was some damage to structures and pole lines. He estimated the total hurricane damage between $40,000 and $50,000.

Lion Footballers Badly Need Reserves

Coach Bill Smith reports that H. H. S. can field a respectable first eleven this year but lack of reserves is a real problem. Only three at present have enough size or experience to be of much help. Several lads with experience are still in school but apparently have decided to give up the pigskin pastime. Among these are Walt Lekites, Jim Carter, Bill Parker and Bill Porter.

At the ends are Ken Hoffman, Buddy Bonniwell and Leonard Masten. Hoffman is tops defensively while the other two are trackmen with enough speed to go all the way with a pass. Dave Martin and Ron Melvin are 210 pounders who will handle the tackle spots. The guard and center positions will be filled by Tom Jones, Tim Strohl, Terry Johnson and Dick Cole. Jones is the most experienced of this quartet. Strohl was third string variety at a high school in Ft. Wayne, Ind., and at 165 lbs. should do well here as the competition will be easier at the Hen-cole level. Johnson at 165 and Cole at 170 are both plenty large enough to give a good account of themselves, also.

In the backfield David Hitchens will call the plays at quarterback while burly George Balderston at fullback is starting his fourth year of football and is a terror on offense and defense.

George Pfeiffer and Jeff Adams are the starting halfbacks. Pfeiffer last year won varsity letters in five sports. In previous years no one was able to win more than four monograms. Both (Continued on Page 8)

H.G. FARROW SR., GOP CANDIDATE FOR ASSEMBLY

Harry G. Farrow Sr., lifelong resident of Harrington, where he resides on West Street, is the Republican candidate for state representative from the Sixth Representative District.

He attended Harrington schools, was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad 41 years, and is a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Mr. Farrow has been active in politics many years. He was minority judge at the polls in the Sixth District from 1925 until 1933, an alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention in 1956, and an honorary deputy sheriff under Sheriff William Simpson in 1948.

He is a social member of Callaway-Kemp-Raughey-Tea Post No. 7, American Legion, and has traveled extensively, having visited every state in the Union, and having also visited Canada and Mexico.

Other Business

The police put in 532 hours, made 27 arrests, and gave eight reprimands. Total fines received were $217 but not necessarily for August alone.

A raise of $5 per week was given to Patrolman David Earl Peterson, on the force since March 18, making his salary $55 per week.

After Frank O'Neal, commander of the Callaway-Kemp-Raughey-Tea Post No. 7, American Legion, Herman Ryan, and Benjamin Hughes had put in a plea for city water for the post's new swimming pool. The Council agreed to notify the Legion it viewed the project favorably but that it had to check on costs of installing 4-inch main and water. A fireplug was also to be installed on U. S. 13 in the area.

Complaints have been received about five houses on West Milby Street which have not hooked to the sewer. All have received letters twice from the City asking for the hookup. The city manager was asked to send a final notice.

The Council agreed to pay $368.75 to George Dallas Slater for fire damage to his timber adjoining the city dump northwest of town.

Councilman Alan Rutledge read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Charles Hopkins, widow of Charles Hopkins, councilman of the Sixth Ward.

Petitions were received asking the appointments of Clarence Black, and Edward Hutson, and a letter was received from Jack Appt, asking to fill the vacancy. Appt held the post until he moved to Houston but he has moved back into town. Filling the post was tabled to give time to consider the qualifications of the candidates.

The successful candidate would serve until the city elections in January when a candidate will be elected to serve the two years remaining in Hopkins' term.

The Council agreed to hold the monthly meeting the second Monday. It had been moved to Thursday to permit Hopkins, who worked nights, to attend.

It was said that a portion of Dixon Street, from Liberty Street to the North, had never been deeded by Jehu Camper to the City. The Council agreed to ask the city solicitor, Herman C. Brown, for a written report.

The Council received a low bid of $240 from the State Fire Equipment Company, of Dover, for a siren and public address speaker for the police car.

The Council received a bid on cleaning the water tower and decided to seek other bids.

On a motion by Clarence Collins, seconded by Alan Rutledge, the following action was passed:

Other street work was tabled until early spring, with the city manager being instructed to employ licensed engineer to survey all streets from which there are petitions for curbs. However, there is a possibility of repairs on some streets in the near future. These include blacktopping West Mispillion Street from the West Street to the city line, South Street, Dixon Street (from Clark Street to Liberty), Thomas Alley, with some patching on Harrington Avenue when water lines went in. The city manager was instructed to get a bid from the Roach Company for patching on the Dixon Street project.

Final plans are rapidly progressing for the 40th annual Delaware Volunteer Firemen's Convention parade to be held in Bridgeville, Saturday, at 4:30 p.m.

According to George F. Hardesty, Jr., parade chairman, more than 3000 persons are entered in the parade to date from a five state area. Included in this number are 20 high school bands, two firemen's musical units, and three drum and bugle corps. Early entries show almost 1300 firemen will be marching in the parade along with 300 of their ladies auxiliaries. They will be followed by nearly 100 pieces of fire apparatus. In addition to these, Hardesty said he expects several late entries to arrive on the day of the parade. The parade is expected to take two hours to pass the judges and reviewing stands, which will be located on Market Street directly in front of the Union Methodist Church.

Williams, Boggs Request Funds For Poultry Research Laboratory

U. S. Senator John J. Williams (R-Del.) and Governor J. Caleb Boggs have called on the Department of Agriculture to request funds next year for the construction of a poultry research laboratory at Georgetown, to serve the Delmarva poultry industry.

In discussing the project with the Department of Agriculture, both Senator Williams and Gov. Boggs pointed out that the University of Delaware now operates an extension division at Georgetown and that the addition of the poultry research laboratory would be a logical expansion of that work.

"The University of Delaware has some of the best trained research men on the Delmarva Peninsula to head up such a research program," Senator Williams and Gov. Boggs said.

"In addition, it has indicated its desire to co-operate in the establishment of this new Government poultry disease research laboratory and no doubt would gladly make available to the Federal government whatever part if these facilities that were needed to establish this research center."

Both Senator Williams and Gov. Boggs expressed surprise and disappointment at an Associated Press report published in the Salisbury, Md., Times of Aug. 26, that Senator J. Allen Frear Jr., had joined with Maryland

Congressman Thomas F. Johnson in urging the poultry laboratory be set up near Salisbury, and operated in conjunction with the University of Maryland.

Pointing out that the University of Delaware is the only university on the peninsula and that it already operates research facilities at its Georgetown sub-station, Senator Williams and Governor Boggs said:

"We respect the facilities of the University of Maryland, which is presently operating a research division in conjunction with the Beltsville, Md., laboratory, but it would be a complete waste of money to establish entirely new and separate facilities on the Eastern Shore when we already have a small research center being operated by the University of Delaware in the center of the broiler industry."

"This is not just a matter of state pride as to which state gets the facilities. The facilities are needed to serve the whole Delmarva Peninsula, and the University of Delaware, which is adequately equipped, is the only university located on the Delmarva Peninsula. Furthermore, the poultry research facilities and the work which they have already been doing to assist the poultrymen are widely recognized and respected by poultrymen throughout the entire country."

"The announcement in the Salisbury Times of August 26, stating that Senator Frear was working with Congressman Johnson of Maryland in sponsoring legislation to have the center located in Maryland is particularly disturbing, since it was our understanding that the Congressional delegation on the entire peninsula, particularly those representing our own state of Delaware, were supporting the efforts being made to get this research laboratory and to have it established and operated at Georgetown, in conjunction with the existing facilities owned by the University of Delaware," they said.

Southern States Members Hear J. L. Pryor

The future of farming as a business is tied tightly to the growth of this country. As a result, farm markets will grow rather than shrink.

This fact was brought out by J. L. Pryor, Southern States Co-operative representative, at the Peck Brothers, Farm Supply Co. area annual membership meeting at Harrington on Wed., Sept. 7.

By 1975, according to Mr. Pryor, USDA reports that this country will have 230,000,000 people who will need 35% more poultry, 63% more red meats, 38% more milk, 31% more eggs and 57% more fruits and vegetables.

As a result, Mr. Pryor pointed out, Southern States Co-operative must "concern itself more and more in the years ahead to increasing farmers' bargaining power through helping them control more of the phases of agribusiness."

In order to do this, Mr. Pryor said, the co-operative must "keep up-to-date with respect to facilities, financing, member relations and utilization."

A step in this direction was the recent reorganization program that Southern States Co-operative put into effect on July 1. Under this system the five-state operating territory of the organization was divided into 10 regions. Each region has its own regional headquarters and staff headed by a regional manager.

The old system had 40 operation districts with a district manager in charge of each.

"Stockholder members have an obligation, too, to make their co-operative more effective, Mr. Pryor continued. This is largely dependent upon how completely they use the services of the organization and whether they do so on a constant and voluntary basis.

In conclusion he added that "it is only through an organization like Southern States Co-operative—which farmers own and control—that they have the opportunity to have a voice in determining and improving their own economic status."

Elected to the local Southern States Board were Merritt Camper and Elmer Betts.

Elected to the local Southern States Farm Home Advisory Committee were Mrs. Ellwood Gruwell and Mrs. Jefferson Larimore.

There was also the election of a delegate and 1st and 2nd alternates to a District Election Meeting to be held in Richmond, Va. in late fall.

Joshua Lister, of Harrington, was named as delegate while Merritt Camper of Harrington was named first alternate.

Other highlights of the meeting included George K. Vappa, Kent County Agent, showed slides and talked of vegetable growing in Florida. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Harrington Short

Mrs. Annie J. Short, 90, formerly of the Dover area, died Thursday night, Sept. 8, at her home, Cedar Grove Farm, near Felton.

She was the widow of Harrington Peter Short, who died in 1949. Mrs. Short was a member of Wesley Methodist Church, Dover. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Dorothy Short, and two sons, Hiram W. and Frederick K., all living at Cedar Grove Farm, and a sister, Mrs. Effie Reynolds, Harbeson.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Trader Funeral Home, Dover, with the Rev. Dr. John A. Trader, pastor of Wesley Church, officiating.

Turf Garden Demonstrates Lawn Grasses

The grass is coming up in fine style at the turf garden in the old Hotel Richardson property in Dover says George Vappa, the Kent County agricultural agent.

Most noticeable at the present time is the 20% ryegrass in the number three mixture in the plots. This is the lawn for the impatient homeowner who must get some results within a week of planting. This is the only good reason for including ryegrass in a lawn. The blue grass and red fescue also included will come along and take hold before the ryegrass is gone, he said.

A plot of the seedlings is available from the county agents' office on the second floor of the Dover postoffice and may be obtained by phoning REdfield 6-1448. The plots are numbered by stakes along Lookerman Street and include these mixtures:

- 1. Kentucky Bluegrass 20%, Kentucky 31 Fescue 80%; 2. Kentucky 31 Fescue; 3. Kentucky Bluegrass 50%, Red Fescue 25%, Red Top 5%, Ryegrass 20%; 4. Merion Bluegrass 50%, Pennlawn Fescue 25%, Colonial Bentgrass, 25%; 5. Kentucky Bluegrass 75%, Pennlawn Fescue 25%; 6. Kentucky Bluegrass 35%, Pennlawn Fescue 65%; 7. Kentucky Bluegrass 50%, Pennlawn Fescue 45%, Red Top 5%; 8. Red Fescue (Pennlawn); 9. Colonial Bentgrass; 10. Merion Bluegrass; 11. Red Fescue 65% Bluegrass 20%, Colonial Bentgrass 10% Red Top 5%.

The number five mixture is especially recommended for sunny lawns in Kent county. The number six mixture which contains more red fescue is better adapted to shady conditions, Mr. Vappa added. The number one mixture is best for playgrounds and athletic fields.

Records Should Be Kept On Lamb Sales

Sheep producers who market unshorn lambs this fall should maintain full records on their sales in order to make proper application for payment next spring under the wool incentive program, Kent Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee chairman R. Harry Wilson pointed out today.

Failure to keep full records in the past has created difficulties for producers in obtaining their unshorn lamb payments under the program, the chairman stated. The sales records for lambs sold must include the name of the buyer, his signature, and the number and liveweight of lambs sold, plus the description "unshorn."

Lamb feeders who buy lambs should also keep accurate records of all their purchases of unshorn lambs, including dates of purchases and the number and live-weight when purchased. Adequate records must be maintained by producers in order for them to certify to the accuracy of the information contained in payment applications has presented problems in administering the wool program.

Lamb payments are made only on lambs that have never been shorn to encourage the customary practice of selling lambs with the wool on. Lamb payments are made to producers who have owned lambs 30 days or more. The payments are based on the wool incentive payment. The amount paid to each producer is based on the weight gain of lambs during the period of his ownership. Full information is necessary so that each producer can be given his proper share of the payment on a lot of lambs.

Records should be kept in a safe place at home or they may be filed at the county ASC office for safekeeping. While the final date for making applications under the wool program for the 1960 marketing year is not until April 30, 1961, applications may be submitted any time between now and then.

Conservation Reserve Payments to Be Made After October 1st

The annual payments due Kent County farmers who have Conservation Reserve contracts will be made beginning Oct. 1, according to R. Harry Wilson, chairman of the Kent Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. Mr. Wilson made the announcement in response to numerous questions about the time when payments would be made.

Since the growing season is generally over by Oct. 1st and compliance with the Conservation Reserve contracts has been checked, annual payments are made after that date. Checking farms is necessary because the contracts call for keeping the designated cropland out of production during the life of the contract. Designated land may not be grazed or a crop harvested from it.

Kent County farmers have 106 Conservation Reserve contracts in force covering 6,557.1 acres of cropland. The contracts are a rental agreement with the government to keep this land out of market production in order to reduce crop surpluses and to preserve soil fertility.

Cafe Intellectual, A Coffee Lover's Delight

University extension division at the University of Delaware has come up with another first for the fall term—a course for coffee-loving intellectuals.

The experiment, entitled "Cafe Intellectual," for lack of better name, will enable students, faculty and friends of the university to gather weekly to converse informally on the serious topics, personalities and books of the day. A member of the faculty, versed in the week's topics, will lead the discussions.

The group will gather in Brown Residence Hall lounge at 8 p.m. on Sunday nights, Oct. 2, 9, 16, and 23. A pot full of coffee will be available as well as tea (for dead-beats). There will be no time limit on the discussions.

Strictly a "come as you wish" proposition, there is no registration, fee or tickets. Two conversations will be carried on at once at either end of the lounge, so persons may choose the topic in which they are most interested.

Since most of the topics deal with books and their authors, some from other lands, several foreign language and history experts have been invited to lead discussions.

The semester's program: Oct. 2—Thomas Mann, "The Magic Mountain," Dr. Max Kirch, assistant professor of modern languages, leader; Scott Fitzgerald, "The Great Gatsby," Dr. Charles H. Bohner, assistant professor of English, leader.

Oct. 9—C. P. Snow, "Strangers and Brothers," Dr. Robert F. Jackson, professor of mathematics, leader; Boris Pasternak, "Dr. Zhivago," Miss Irene Nagurski, instructor of modern languages, leader.

Oct. 16—Albert Camus, "The Stranger," Dr. Frederic St. Aubyn, assistant professor of modern languages, leader; Friedrich Duerrenmatt, "The Deadly Game," Dr. George H. Henry, professor of education, leader.

Oct. 23 — The Contemporary Portuguese Novel, Dr. Kimberley S. Roberts, chairman of the department of modern languages, leader; William Faulkner, "The Sound and the Fury," Dr. Edward H. Rosenberry, assistant professor of English, leader.

Felton School News

Felton Enrollment Soars

For the eleventh consecutive year enrollment in the Felton schools climbed to a new high, with a total of 642 pupils in attendance. Of this number 328 pupils are in the elementary grades and 314 in the junior-senior high school. This number is expected to increase slightly as late entrants arrive.

Most of the growth took place in grades seven, eight, and nine. These grades showed an average increase of twenty per cent over last year. The resulting crowded conditions at the junior high school level has made it necessary to seek an additional teacher and to plan for another section of the seventh grade as soon as a teacher is available.

High School Teachers Needed

The Felton Board of School Trustees is now attempting to secure a teacher qualified to teach English and mathematics, also a teacher for high school mathematics. The latter position is temporarily filled by Mrs. Charlotte B. Harrington until a permanent teacher is employed.

Other newcomers to the faculty include Mrs. Anna V. McDole, grade one; Mrs. Betty Rodriguez, grade two; Jack Grimm, junior high school social studies; Mrs. Frances Grimm, grade six; Mrs. Mary Hohorst, home economics; Miss Cleo Withrow, home economics; and Mrs. Louise Ludlow, librarian.

Mrs. Helen W. Evans has transferred from the sixth grade to the business education department of the high school. Mrs. Lillie Kirkendall has succeeded Mrs. Anna M. Short in the school cafeteria.

Board Plans Improvements

The Felton Board of School Trustees is now planning an improvement and development program for the land purchased last year for athletic field and playground purchases. Large tile will be placed in the open ditch which now bisects the school grounds and the low areas will be filled as necessary to permit proper grading and leveling. These improvements are necessary to provide adequate grounds for the elementary school playground and the high school physical education classes and sports program.

Tax Refunds Unclaimed

A report from the U. S. Treasury Department reveals some taxpayers whose federal income tax refund checks for 1959 are still unclaimed.

These taxpayers, in this area, are as follows: Harrington—W. and E. F. B. Davis, Pauline Travis, and Mary E. Workman; Hous-ton—Charles H. Myer; Milford—Inez Butler; Rehoboth—Davis Robinson Jr., and James J. Rogers; Ellendale—Ginger Walker.

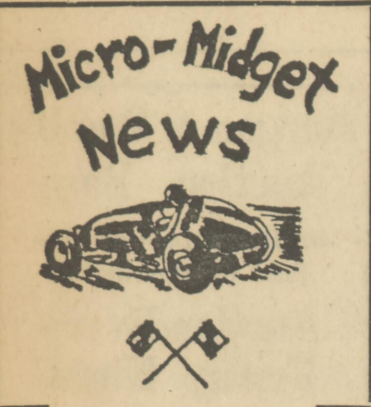

Claimants are requested to write to Internal Revenue Service, Post Office Building, Wilmington, Del., signed with signature used on the income tax return and containing the social security number and present address.

SPEEDY SERVICE The BEST in FOODS

1/4 Midget Division

The 1/4 midget division of the Blue Hen Speedway can certainly be pointed to with pride. This sport is not something that happens for today, or not to be forgotten as your enthusiasm wanes, for its lessons and techniques are carried on into adulthood.

True driver education does not stop with the exit from the highway vehicle but continues into everyday living with each other and this privilege is our duty to perform in our attitudes to all. We feel humble around young people who practice these actions, which we adults often times forget.

The 25-lap 1/4 Midget feature race was won by Billy Dill driving car 1. Jackie Warrington piloting car 33 second. Bobby Walls broke an axle and Buddy Mathews had motor trouble, better luck this week.

Delaware Food Market Report

In this land of plenty, many of us start the day hungry, yet we do nothing about it. We "skip or skimp" the first meal of the day. If you are a "skimper", it's sure to show up. Studies reveal that students are less challenged by school. Learning is slower and grades are lower.

Since September is "Better Breakfast Month" here is a breakfast formula to help guide you or to act as a check sheet. Fruit is an excellent food to begin any day. It's easy to supply since it's plentiful and available at low prices.

It takes longer to prepare but can be done with a little planning. For meat why not hamburger, or perhaps steak, pork chops, sausage and of course, bacon. All of these are more reasonable this week.

For the other meals of the day where fresh vegetables are important be sure to check the vegetable counter for the following good buys: broccoli, 29 cents a bunch; cauliflower, good quality, large heads 29 cents each; carrots, 2 bunches for 19 cents; lettuce, tomatoes, peppers, sweet corn, and green beans are also good buys.

Joe Adams of Harrington won a feature pace recently at Freehold Raceway with his Mr. Brewer in 2:07.

Lewis Welch of Harrington, who has been driving in Montreal, Canada, has returned home for the Kent and Sussex Raceway meet starting tonight (Thursday) and has three horses in the first night.

Saturday night's racing at Brandywine featured some good outings by peninsula reinsmen.

Allen Myer won the fourth race with Vanguard Hanover and also came home in the lead in the first, a Class C. Trot, but his mount Asta Chief, was disqualified and placed second.

Billy Myer brought home the long shot Paleface Hanover in the featured 4-year-old HTA trot. Paleface paid $24.50, $9.50 and $5.40 and was clocked in 2:02.1.

Another brother act also scored. Tom Crank had a winner Nita Joe in the second and Vernon Crank cashed in with Afton Trooper in the sixth.

Monday night Allen Myer brought a nice, fat one in when Mis Direct Fingo paid $70.50, $21.30 and $8.50. The mile was trotted in 2:07.

At this writing it appears that Vernon Crank has clinched the gold watch given to Brandywine's leading driver. Allen Myer in second place has only a narrow lead over the world's dash champ Bud Gilmour for the second gold watch.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I'm a Korea veteran and since my discharge, I have been operating a small business of my own. I am eligible, under the law, for a GI loan. Can I use my GI loan to help me expand my business?

A—Yes. Under the law, you may use a GI business loan either for the purpose of undertaking or expanding a legitimate business venture. You must, of course, find a lender who will make you the loan under GI terms.

Q—This fall, I expect to be taking a night course in law under the Korean GI Bill. I will be starting a full four-year course, and at an accredited school, but will only be attending at night. For purposes of my VA training allowance will this be considered full-time or part time training?

A—Your night school training will be measured as not more than three-quarters time training. It may not be considered as training full-time.

Q—A young man of my acquaintance, the child of a World War Two friend, now deceased, is eligible for schooling under the War Orphans Education Act. He would, however, need some special program of education because of a disability. Does the law make provision for that type of training?

A—Yes. The law includes special restorative training to help eligible young men and women overcome the effects of disabilities.

Q—We've just had a baby born in our family. I still want my wife to remain as beneficiary on my GI insurance policy, but I'd like to put down my son's name as beneficiary also in case of my wife's death. Can I do that?

A—Yes. Get a change of beneficiary form at any VA office. Fill it out, adding your son's name after your wife's as contingent beneficiary. Send the completed form to the VA district office where you pay your premiums.

Fishing Lines

Trolling in Delaware Bay

As a rule trolling for bluefish is an Ocean sport, but recently many schools of blues have been sighted in the Delaware Bay. These bluefish are considered snappers although some will weigh approximately one or one and one-half pounds. The most productive area of the Bay has been in the vicinity of Fourteen Foot Light House, where the conditions are ideal for blues. This section is alive with small bait minnows which the blues find attractive; these waters range from 15 to 60 feet and are excellent habitat for them.

Small bluefish are also plentiful in Indian River and Bay, many small boats have been making fine catches. Bucktails seem to be very successful in attracting strikes in this area.

Speckled Trout

Many fishermen are familiar with the grey trout or weakfish which is common in our ocean and bays, however, few anglers are aware that the speckled trout, a species found mostly in southern waters from Florida to Virginia, sometimes enter Delaware waters. These fish find their ways into inlets such as that at Indian River and provide anglers with a great deal of excellent sport fishing along the rocks and jetty where they feed and hide.

Casting of lures is the most successful way in attracting the attention of these excellent food and game fish. Mirror lures of different colors, weights and sizes are usually good, although spoons, and other types of feathered lures also take fish. These trout generally enter our waters in late August and remain here until late in October.

Excellent Bonito Fishing

Bonito have been taken in quite large numbers from our Ocean waters. Possibly the largest trolling catch of the season was taken aboard Charles H. Brown's The Virginia B. The catch of 634 bonito, one bluefish and one dolphin was made by Dr. Goodwin's fishing party of four.

This will be the last issue of "Fishing Lines" this season. The Board of Game and Fish Commissioners and the employees who worked on the survey have been very happy to supply the sportsmen with the information they received in the field. We will look forward to the continuation of this letter next year. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank all of those people—boat captains, livery operators and sportsmen—for their splendid co-operation in our Sports Fishery Survey.

Skilled in service... and in safety

The Diamond State Telephone Company. Image of a telephone lineman working on a pole. Text: This telephone lineman is one of The Diamond State Telephone Company men and women who devote their careers to bringing you good telephone service. Like all telephone people, he has been trained to live and work safely. He is, for example, a member of the 100,000 Mile Club... men who have driven company vehicles regularly for 10 years or more without an accident. He is also a qualified Red Cross first aid instructor, teaching in his spare time. But safety is only one of his community activities. He works with local charity drives. He is active in PTA and in his home town youth projects. In short, he is typical of your neighbors in the telephone company. They have chosen careers in a field essential to everyone's welfare. It is natural, then, that they should feel a special sense of community responsibility. If your club or group would like us to present an interesting and worthwhile safety demonstration, call your local telephone Business Office.

Sick—W. Outten, chairman; C. Greenhaugh.

Highlight of the first meeting was a very encouraging yet though provoking talk by Mr. A. Adams, Supt. Harrington Special School District, who expressed his gratitude for selection to serve as superintendent here, citing the reputation Harrington Schools has enjoyed in graduating and sending on to institutions of higher education young men and women of high ideals and educational standards. Mr. Adams was quick to add that such qualities as these in students can only be instilled by competent teachers who are not overburdened by an excessive number of students per classroom. He said heretofore the situation has been slowly approaching the saturation point, but with the new school year just begun enrollment already exceeds that of last year by more than 100 pupils; and has created an immediate need for more classrooms and additional primary grade and mathematics-science teachers. The community, if it is to grow and prosper with new well educated young adults, as it has come to expect from its school in the past, must either make the necessary expansion of the future an immediate project, or take dynamic steps to press for the long needed Vocational-Central High School involving consolidation of the Harrington-Felton-Frederica Special School Districts.

FOOTBALL

he and Adams are on the small side but have speed and savvy.

At present the locals are planning an eight game schedule. Seven of them are Henlopen Conference tilts. Middletown is the lone independent foe. In the writer's opinion Delmar, Rehoboth, Bridgeville and Millsboro will be the toughest enemies in that order.

The task of coaches Bill Smith and Jim Hawpe will be eased considerably if four or five more brawny lads suddenly become suffused with school spirit and show up for practice.

The Schedule

Sat., Sept. 24 2 p.m., at Bridgeville; Sat., Oct. 1, 2 p.m., here, Lord Baltimore; Fri., Oct. 7, 2 p.m., at Millsboro; Sat., Oct. 15, 2 p.m., here, Middletown; Sat., Oct. 29, 2 p.m. here, John M. Gov. Proclaims Sight-Saving Month

By proclamation of Governor J. Caleb Boggs September is being observed as "Sight-Saving Month".

In a proclamation issued at Dover this week, the state's chief executive pointed out that "good eyesight is one of the most wonderful gifts a benevolent Providence has bestowed upon mankind" and urged Delawareans to "learn and follow the habits of good eye care."

The proclamation follows: WHEREAS, good eyesight is one of the most wonderful gifts a benevolent Providence has bestowed upon mankind; and

WHEREAS, our eyes enable us to see and know and understand each other and the world in which we live; and

WHEREAS, at least one-half of blindness, foe of human vision, can be prevented and thus need not occur; and

WHEREAS, as citizens we owe it to ourselves and those we love to guard our eyesight as we would guard a precious treasure; now,

THEREFORE, I, J. Caleb Boggs, Governor of the State of Delaware, in co-operation with the Delaware Commission for the Blind, do hereby designate September, 1960, as SIGHT-SAVING MONTH and call upon the citizens of the State of Delaware to learn and follow the habits of good eye care, to prevent future blindness for themselves and for their children, and to make it possible for all to enjoy the full benefits of one of their most priceless possessions—their eyes.

Library Associates Open Membership Drive For 1960-61

Opening of the 1960-61 membership campaign of the University of Delaware Library Associates was announced Thursday by Mrs. Philip J. Kimball, chairman of the membership committee.

During the last two years, the Associates, a group of more than 200 persons interested in furthering the progress of the university library, have been responsible for the addition of 6,727 volumes of books, 677 reels of microfilm, and significant personal gifts to the library's collections.

President John A. Perkins, director of Libraries John M. Dawson and many faculty members have praised the Associates for their efforts in improving the facilities and resources available to students, especially in the humanities.

Last March members of the Library Associates were invited to attend a luncheon meeting on the campus to hear the noted biographer, Catherine Drinker Bowen. So successful was this event that plans for a similar program are being made for this year. A distinguished literary figure, not yet selected, will be engaged as principal speaker.

Persons interested in joining the Associates are invited to write to Membership chairman, Library Associates, University of Delaware, Newark, for detailed information.

Officers of the Associates are Frederick G. Singer, president; Henry B. duPont, first vice president; Mrs. Philip J. Kimball, second vice president; Clarence A. Southerland, third vice president; Josiah M. Scott, treasurer; Mrs. Caesar A. Grasselli, II, secretary, and Dr. Bruce Dearing, assistant secretary.

and won trophies in three out of four outings. As a freshman in the state title run he finished in a highly creditable eighteenth position in a race with 60 starters.

The versatile George Pfeiffer is a picture-runner with a beautiful stride. In the 1958 state meet he was 45th in a field of 65. However, in 1959 he moved up all the way to 25th.

Many of the harriers, who finisher ahead of the locals, have since graduated. If the Lions work hard their first five runners could finish in the first fifteen at Rockford Park.

A state title would be quite a feather in the cap of Coach McDonald since cross-country is still in it's infancy in lower Delaware and no other downstate school makes the trip to the state meet.

Other candidates include Dennis Bradley, a two-time letter-winner and 85 pound Allen Wix, who works hard and may surprise.

Out for the first time were Tim Strohl, Tom Millsapaw, Jeff Adams, Frank Cain, Barry Fry, Pat Coady, Erwin Rogers and Dick Collins.

Pfeiffer, Bonniwell, Strohl, Adams, Fry, Wix and Collins also are on the football squad.

Miller Named Delegate On Citizenship

Dr. George R. Miller, Jr., State Superintendent of Schools has been designated by Gov. J. Caleb Boggs as Delaware's representative at the fifteenth annual Conference on National Citizenship which will be held in the Statler Hilton Hotel, Washington, Sept. 16-20.

This will be the ninth year in which Dr. Miller has represented Delaware at this conference.

Dr. Miller, as Governor Boggs' personal representative, will take part in an impressive wreath-laying ceremony at the Washington Monument the morning of September 17. This ceremony, participated in by representative of each of the thirteen original states, highlights the nationwide observance of "Citizenship Day", which annually commemorates the anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States in Philadelphia, Sept. 17, 1787. (Delaware received its title of "First State" by becoming the first to ratify this Constitution on Dec. 7, 1787.)

In a recently issued proclamation Governor Boggs proclaimed Sat., Sept. 17, as "Citizenship Day" and the period, Sept. 17 through 23, as "Constitution Week," and urged Delaware educational, religious, patriotic and civic groups to mark the occasions with appropriate ceremonies and programs.

the budget to be submitted to the Permanent Budget Commission for the 1961-62 school year, and authorized the president of the board to sign same when the final forms are finished.

It was reported that the maple tree on the elementary side will be removed without charge by the State Highway Department in October.

Albert Adams, superintendent, reported that Dr. George R. Miller, state superintendent of the Department of Public Instruction, had ruled that any transfer from Farmington School District must be approved by the majority of the Board of Trustees of the Greenwood School inasmuch as the State Board of Education has ruled that Farmington is in the attendance area of the Greenwood School. Also any petition for consolidation by the Farmington residents should go to the State Board of Education rather than the local board.

The fourth Wednesday in the month was selected as the regular board meeting date with the meeting commencing at 7 o'clock.

First Offense Speeders Will Lose Licenses

The State Highway Department is having signs placed along the highways, particularly at the entrances to this state, announcing that speeders will lose their driving privilege for 30 days on first offense.

While the Driver Improvement Bureau of the Motor Vehicle Department has been handing out suspensions for excessive speeding, a recent action of the Commissioners of the State Highway Department provides a mandatory suspension of 30 days for the offense when the speed exceeds the posted limit by 20 miles.

The resolution governing the matter, as adopted by the Highway Department, sets forth that the safe operation of motor vehicles along the highways is a prime consideration of the Department and that stringent measures are required to ensure such safe operation of motor vehicles.

The resolution also contains the following: "Under the provisions of section 2733, Title 21, of the Delaware Code, the Department may suspend the license of any person without hearing and without receiving a record of conviction of such person of crime whenever the Department has reason to believe that such person has committed a serious violation of the motor vehicle laws of this state and excessive speed on the highways of this state is considered a serious violation of the motor vehicle laws of this state. "The State Highway Department does endorse and reaffirm the existing policy under which licenses of persons convicted of operating motor vehicles at speeds of, or in excess of, 20 miles per hour above posted limits shall be suspended immediately for a minimum of thirty (30) consecutive days.

"The Chief Engineer of the State Highway Department, in co-operation with the Motor Vehicle Commissioner and the Superintendent of State Police, is directed to place upon the highways of this state such signs as may be determined to be appropriate and necessary to inform the traveling public of this policy."

Broiler Condemnations Topic at Laurel Meeting Sept. 21

A major problem of Delmarva broilermen is condemnation of broilers. As a result, Dr. Morris S. Cover, chairman of the department of animal and poultry science at the University of Delaware, will open the semi-annual Delmarva Regional Poultry Meeting with the topic "What is the Answer to Condemnations?"

The meeting, to be held Sept. 21, 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., will also feature Dr. Harry Love, head of the agricultural economics department at Virginia Polytechnic Institute with a discussion on "Broiler Growers-Progress and Opportunity."

Ray Lloyd, associate extension poultryman with the University of Delaware, announced the details of the program.

He said Otis Esham, feed dealer from Willards, Md., would report on his recent trip through several broiler producing areas including Maine, Georgia and Arkansas.

The afternoon program will open with research reports from Dr. William Krauss and Frank D'Armi, poultry research associates, and Howard Hoyt, agricultural engineer, all of the University of Delaware; James Nicholson, extension poultryman, University of Maryland; and Dr. A. T. Ringrose, associate poultry husbandman, V.P.I.

Following the reports, a panel discussion will take up the problem of what can be done about condemnations. Poultry inspectors, poultry pathologists, processors, growers and servicemen will take part in the panel.
