

Gala Weekend Planned For Homecoming

Saturday, October 29, has been designated as Homecoming Day for Harrington High.

Our varsity squad meets with John M. Clayton's football team on the local gridiron in what promises to be a very exciting game. J.M.C. is starting with just one win this year and is out to cage the Lions.

Enthusiasm and spirit on the part of the students will honor the boys on the team at the pep rally on Friday night, 8:30. The cheerleaders and band will be present to lead the crowd.

Prior to the game a parade will be held in honor of the occasion. The homecoming queen, Miss Kathy Holloway, and her court, Suzi Collins and Delores Brown, will reign over the parade with floats, cars, costumes, and the band all making it very colorful.

At halftime, George Pfeiffer, one of our star contenders, will crown the queen and her court will honor her in the ceremonies. The band will entertain the remainder of the half.

The parade will start at one o'clock with the Senior Band leading. The route is as follows:

Starting at the school we will parade the length of Dorman Street, down Commerce Street, on to Weiner Avenue, and returning via Center Street.

Noted Fashion Designer Kin of Tony Perrone

Anthony De Luca, famed Italian fashion designer, recently represented Italy at the International Ladies Fashion Convention held at Dallas, Tex. The delegates were greeted in a typically American way, with music by a hillbilly band, a barn dance and a weiner roast. Senior De Luca was most impressed by this cordial reception as this was his first trip to the United States and his initial introduction to this type of entertainment. He was one of twelve chosen from 4000 to attend this affair and display his fashions. Senior De Luca does not speak English so brought with him an interpreter plus six Italian models to model his creations.

After the convention, he made a trip to New York of which his comment was "a most majestic city." While there he stayed at the Plaza Hotel where he was visited by his cousin, Anthony Perrone Sr., of Harrington. It was a most joyous reunion for the two Antonios, separated since Perrone left Italy 28 years ago. They had attended college together in Naples.

Anthony Perrone spent several days in New York with his cousin, recalling the days and times in Italy and recapping on time spent since then.

Senior De Luca has returned to Rome but plans another trip to the U. S. in February at which time he also plans to visit his relatives in Harrington.

H.H.S. Harriers Best N. Caroline, Federalsburg, in Test of Unbeatens

By Keith S. Burgess
Coach Harold McDonald's Harrington High cross-country team now stand alone as the one remaining undefeated squad in this area after winning from North Carolina of Denton, Md. and Federalsburg, Md. North Carolina had a 4-0 record before the meet and with a veteran squad was considered to be the only lower peninsula team with a chance against the host lions.

Harrington was weakened by the absence of last year's number 2 runner Robert "Buddy" Bonniwell. It is hoped that he will be able to participate in the state championship meet at Rockford Park, Wilmington on Nov. 2. With him the locals have an excellent chance to become the first Harrington team in 35 years to win a state title. Without him chances are slim.

Monday's meet was held on a cold, blustery day in less than ideal conditions. However, Coach McDonald recognized the threat posed by North Carolina and had his squad in the right frame of mind to do their best. 11 of the 15 Lions competing turned in their best times of the season on the rugged 2.4 mile Killen's Pond course. Eight of these eleven personal season standards were also best career standards for the Lion lads involved.

Harry "The Hare" Knotts also remained undefeated in five starts as he led the pack home in 12:21 just two seconds off his course record. Harry is a strong threat for state individual honors Nov. 2.

C. of C. Plans For Christmas Program

The Retail Merchants Committee of the Harrington Chamber of Commerce met Friday to formulate plans for the annual Christmas promotion. It was decided to contact all business establishments in the area on the possibility of a plan to distribute free prizes again this year.

The plan calls for the distribution of many gift certificates to be redeemed in our local stores. Also to give a TV set as the third and last drawing. It is also planned to distribute a four-page circular in the trading area.

The possibility of building a Santa Claus house is also being considered.

Tight Squeeze On The Green

A tractor-trailer tried a tight squeeze on a corner of The Green Tuesday in Dover.

Result—two slightly damaged cars and the truck driver arrested for not using due care.

Dover police said the truck, driven by Edward McKamey, near Felton, hit two parked cars as it rounded the turn at the south-east corner of The Green. The tractor section hit the car owned by Jonathan W. Hopkins, Harrington, and the trailer a car owned by Gladys E. Thompson, Hartly. Damage to the cars was minor.

Dover Woman Hurt in Wreck

Edith M. Bullard, 62, of Dover, received cuts of the left leg and contusions of the chest and arm in an auto accident near Harrington Tuesday night.

Troopers at Bridgeville said cars driven by John Louie, 60, of Easton, Md., and Mrs. Bullard, collided. Damage to both cars was about $300.

Troopers said Mrs. Bullard stopped at a stop sign on Route 306, then pulled out on Route 14 in front of Louie's car. Mrs. Bullard was taken to the Milford Memorial Hospital in the Harrington ambulance. She was treated, and released.

Delaware schools have competed in cross-country on the local course in the past three years. Dwight Hackett ran 12:59 against Greenwood to join Knotts and Murphy of South Dorchester, Md., as the only harriers to break 13 minutes here. In Monday's test Clarence Hackett joined the club with a sparkling 12:43 just nosing out his brother who was clocked in 12:44.

North Carolina scared the Lions by finishing 4, 5, 6, 7. Federalsburg's Hvoslef, a likeable exchange student from Norway, was eighth. George Pfeiffer and Dennis "Buck" Bradley saved the day for the Lions by finishing ninth and twelfth. Both these lads are now close to their own personal best times. They will have a great deal to do with the Lions state title hopes.

Allen Wix, slowly recovering from a football foot injury, was 13th in the big field of 40 starters, while Jeff Adams in 17th place was the seventh and last Lion to figure in the final score of H.H.S. 27, North Carolina 32, Federalsburg 77.

Charles Taylor who came out for cross-country Wednesday, now ranks with Frank Cain as the best of the Junior high prospects. Taylor was the next Lion to finish and in very good time, considering his youth and inexperience.

Cain, Tom Millspaw, Lester Minner, Dennis Rogers, and Roy Porter all set new personal records in the race. Bob Matthews and Jim Ralph also did well.

TO OUR READERS

For months past it has been apparent that the price of The Harrington Journal must be increased to aid in meeting the added costs of publication. The only question with us has been "How low can we hold the increase?"

Beginning November 14, 1960, the yearly "paid in advance" price of the Harrington Journal will be $3 per year. Copies sent out of the state will be $3.50 per year rate. Single copies will sell for 7 cents each.

All subscribers who desire to renew their subscriptions between now and November 14, may do so for the present price $2.50 per year. During the period from now until November 14, we will also accept three year (new or renewal) subscriptions, paid in advance for $6.00. After November 14, three-year renewals will be $7.50.

We urge you to take advantage of the present price between now and November 14.

This action on our part is taken with the greatest reluctance—and only after the great jump in the price of newsprint, postage and other publication costs have made it necessary. Most of the Delaware weekly newspapers have already raised their subscription rates. They, too, were compelled by increased production costs to take this step.

Rollins Proposes School Construction Procedures

John Rollins, Republican candidate for Governor, proposed this week that school construction procedures in Delaware be modified to insure full value for our money. "We now appropriate," he said, "a fixed sum for a school and then draw up plans on which contractors bid to build the structure. Such a plan invites unnecessary expenditure. Instead, we should survey the district's needs for classroom space, design the school to satisfy these needs, and then authorize the expenditure on the basis of firm bids. This is the way business handles construction projects, and it works successfully. We should use this technique for school construction to save Delaware money for other worthy uses."

Mr. Rollins said that such a program would require intelligent planning for the future. He said that when elected Governor, he will make use of a recently-completed major study by leading educators in the United States. He said he will work with Delaware educators and laymen throughout the state to develop a legislative program that will meet Delaware's educational needs.

Mr. Rollins noted that "Our country is dedicated to the free education of all—equal opportunity for the children in the rural areas, and for the rich and poor alike in our large cities. The complete education of all is the one sure way to upgrade our entire state. With the whole-hearted support of every citizen, Delaware schools can be the best! I call on Delawareans to recognize their obligation to educate good citizens who will be equal to the moral and the intellectual challenges of our times."

The Garlands, which include two children at home, Karen and Billy, are making their home at 102 Commerce St., here.

Sunday School starts at 10 o'clock with classes for all ages. Our lesson this Sunday will be "Our Response To God." Some of the things that will be discussed are the difference between being "religious" and being a Christian and, also, how a Christian demonstrates the reality of his faith.

Our pastor used as his first sermon with us, "Religion or Christ." Special music was by Mrs. Howard Sutcliffe who sang "Near To The Heart Of God."

A welcoming reception was given Rev. and Mrs. Garland at their home last Thursday evening.

Prayer services will be held at the parsonage Thursday evening at 7:30.

CORRECTION

In the article on the candidacy of Ernest E. Killen, of Harrington, for state auditor, published in this newspaper last week, a portion of a speech by U. S. Senator Kennedy was accidentally inserted.

The Journal regrets the error and publishes again that portion of the Killen article impaired, as follows:

"On the day of the referendum (referring to one on a bond issue for the erection of a water tower when Killen was mayor) there were very few dissenting votes. Again no tax increases for Harrington. The bonds are being paid by the increased revenue the water system is earning."

Final plans have been made for the free Harrington Hallo-wen street dance to be held in front of the Post Office, Monday.

The program, headed by Dennis Hazzard, disc dockey, includes prizes to be awarded to the winners of the dance contests and for the best costumes.

This event, sponsored by the Harrington Jaycees, should prove good entertainment for all, say Jaycees officials.

Harrington Gate, Play Off 7 Per Cent

Kent and Sussex Raceway ended its 30-night harness meeting Tuesday night, the 15th in its history with attendance and handle taking a seven per cent dip from last year.

T. Brinton Holloway, general manager of the track, attributed economic conditions and the fact that Laurel Raceway in nearby Maryland ran concurrent with Harrington for 24 nights as the reason for the drop.

Overall attendance was 86,883, with the handle reaching $2,811,889. Average gate was 2,894, the average handle $93,728.

The biggest single attendance night of the meeting was on Saturday, Sept. 24, when 5,012 wagered $131,074.

Pat Hubbard was leading driver, with Vernon Cowger, second.

Virginia Starts 17-Mile Bay Crossing

Construction of a 17-mile bridge-tunnel link across the lower Chesapeake Bay represents "a tremendous leap ahead" for Virginia, State Highway Commissioner H. H. Harris said Wednesday.

"We are all looking forward with much anticipation to the day when we can cross this bay on wheels," he said in remarks prepared for a ceremonial start of construction of the crossing between Chesapeake Beach, near Norfolk, and Kiptopeke, on Virginia's Eastern Shore.

Harris spoke on the deck of the bay ferry Pocahontas about two miles from the mainland as a pile driver on a barge anchored nearby drove into the bay the first of some 3,000 piles that will support the crossing.

The pile, of pre-stressed concrete, is 120 feet long and 54 inches in diameter.

Aboard the Pocahontas for the "ground breaking" ceremony were several hundred persons including members of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission and state, city, and county officials from both sides of the bay.

Completion of the bridge-tunnel is scheduled for October 1963. The project was financed by a $200,000,000 revenue bond issue.

Since September, crews have been drilling for soil samples from the bay bottom where four artificial islands will rise to anchor the approaches to tunnels to be built beneath Thimble shoal and Baltimore Channels.

Harris said it is a tribute to the determination of the bridge-tunnel commission and all concerned that the project already is 9 per cent under contract.

Frederica School Has Automatic Fire Detection

A fire hasn't got a chance at Frederica School.

A new, automatic fire detection system has the school buggered around the clock.

Not only does the $1,985 system keep a 24-hour vigil against fire—it spies on itself.

Ben Markowitz, owner of the Delmarva Fire Detection Service, Felton, the installers, explained that each small bubble thermostat has dual wiring, and a buzzer alarm at the main control panel which sounds in the school and at the firehouse in case anything goes awry mechanically.

The fire signal is transmitted at once to the Frederica Firehouse, sounding the siren there if temperature rises 15 degrees a minute in any part of the school, or a temperature of 136 degrees is detected by any thermostat.

When firemen arrive, the system keeps working at its job of pinpointing the trouble, by indicating its location.

If power should fail at the school, the detection system, manufactured by Central Station Equipment, N. Y., has its own auxiliary power system of 12 volt batteries which will operate the equipment for several weeks.

Sol Markowitz, principal, and Zora Tatman, Frederica fire chief, are both proud of their new fire safety system, the only one of its kind in a Delaware school.

Christmas Tree Shipments Inspected For Gypsy Moth

A marked buildup and spread of gypsy moth populations in many areas of northeastern United States this season greatly increases the hazard of spreading this destructive pest through the shipment of Christmas trees and holiday greens, the U. S. Department of Agriculture warned today.

The public, and dealers in Christmas trees and holiday greens, are reminded that such products must be inspected and certified before they can be shipped or carried from any regulated area under the quarantine.

Areas under regulation include all of Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts, most of New Hampshire and Vermont, and parts of Maine and New York. Buff-colored egg masses of the moth deposited on evergreens intended for movement out of these areas could start new destructive colonies of the pest. Caterpillars of the gypsy moth feed on the leaves of many common forest and shade trees.

Surveys conducted this summer and fall indicate a substantial increase in infestations of the moth in sections of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, and New York. For this reason, the number of shipments of Christmas trees and greenery requiring piece-by-piece inspection is apt to be greater than in previous years. Shippers are urged to obtain certificates at loading points where inspections can be made with a minimum of delay. Detailed information on quarantine regulations and scheduled certification at loading sites can be obtained from State and Federal plant pest inspectors in the quarantined areas. These inspectors may be located through post offices, agents of common carriers, county foresters, county agents, or telephone directories.

H.H.S. Men Scare N. Dorchester But Bow, 24-14

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Bill Smith's Harrington High football squad threatened to break into the win column at Shiloh, Md., Saturday afternoon at the expense of a big and numerous North Dorchester eleven. The Lions had but 14 men in uniform while the Eagles had more than 3 full teams. Lions present were Jeff Adams, Paul Fallon, Barry Fry, Ken Hoffman, Terry Johnson, Leonard Masten, Ron Melvin, George Pfeiffer, Tim Strohl, Tom Jones, Bob Gillette, Bill Sollars, Gary Porter and Dick Cole. The first 11 men named played the entire game without appreciable relief since Harrington was still in the ball game until the last few minutes. If the locals had the services of a half dozen more players, who were in uniform earlier in the year, the result of the game might have been different.

The Lions shocked the Eagles early by taking the kickoff and marching up the field to score. Masten gained 20 yards on a reverse, followed by a Pfeiffer gain on a pitchout. The locals were slowed by an offside penalty before Pfeiffer passed to Masten for 20 yards. Masten then took the ball on a reverse around left end, cut sharply to avoid two or three tacklers and scored. Pfeiffer then plunged for the extra point and a 7-0 lead.

In the second quarter the locals stopped one N. D. drive on the 29 and another was halted on the 20 when Paul Fallon alertly intercepted a handoff.

On the first play in the second half an Eagle back took the kickoff and raced 80 yards to paydirt. The try for the extra point failed and Harrington still led 7-6.

The Lions threatened again when Pfeiffer passed to Masten and Fallon made the key block that put the track sprinter temporarily in the clear. Masten went 40 yards and was finally brought down by the safety man. Pfeiffer passed over the goal line for an apparent T. D. but the pass was dropped ending the threat.

The victors marched down the field and scored on a pass to lead 12-7. Later the Eagles tallied again after a pass interception with a T. D. pass.

Trailing 18-7 Harrington came to life again as Pfeiffer weaved for a 30-yard run and score to bring the count to 18-13. The same player again plunged for the extra point and an 18-14 tally.

The superior manpower of North Dorchester prevailed over the bone-weary home forces and the Eagles again scored for a final of 24-14.

Pfeiffer again was the stand-out for H. H. S. as he made 18 tackles. We cannot recall a single player who has accounted for so high a total. Jeff Adams was next with 6. Pfeiffer led in rushing with 73 yards in 9 carries for a very fine 8 yard average and completed 2 passes to Masten for 85 yards. Masten also looked good as a ball carrier. The Lions put up a gallant fight but had to yield only because of the numerical superiority of the victors.

Saturday, October 29th is "Homecoming Day" at Harrington High. A strong John M. Clayton team will furnish the opposition. Our superintendent, Mr. Albert Adams, was head of John M. Clayton last year and will watch this contest with mixed emotions.

Phone Switching Installed At Milford

Installation of additional dial switching equipment in Diamond State Telephone Company's Garden central office serving Milford and vicinity has just been completed.

The new equipment, installed at a cost of $18,000 increases the operating capacity of the office to serve 300 more customers, Frederick A. Wooten, the company's Dover plant wire chief, said today.

The telephone company is spending an additional $35,000 this year for the construction of outside plant facilities, such as cable lines, in the area served by the Garden central office, Wooten said.

Present plans call for the expenditure of $85,000 more in 1961 for the construction of outside plant facilities in the same area, he stated.

"This type of expansion is required to keep pace with the demand for service in Milford," Wooten added. "At the present time the Garden office is serving more than 4,700 telephones, compared with 3,600 in 1955 and 2,800 in 1950."

SHOP AND SWAP IN THE WANT ADS

Century Club Notes

Mrs. James Fair was chairman of the program entitled "Communications" at the bi-monthly meeting of the Harrington New Century Club Tuesday. Following a short talk on the development of communications from smoke signals to the echo balloon, Mrs. Fair showed a series of telephones both old and new. A beautiful film "The Delaware Story" was viewed by the group. This was a pictorial review of three centuries of history in the little state of Delaware, the Diamond State. It told of the growth of the state historically, economically and spiritually with the color film catching the true character of the many well known landmarks of Delaware, both past and present. Archie Feagan, was thanked for allowing the committee the use of the school projector and screen for running the film. A social hour followed.

Those on Mrs. Fair's committee were: Mrs. Daniel McSweeney, Miss Evva Warrington, Mrs. Everett Warrington, Mrs. Fred S. Bailey, Mrs. Edsel Broce and Mrs. E. W. White.

A short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Charles Peck Jr. was held before the program. Mrs. Shirley Callaway, home economist for the Delaware Power and Light Company, and Mrs. Eleanor Barber, home economist for the Maytag Corporation were present to discuss plans for the washer demonstration and fashion show to be presented by Cahall's Gas Company Tuesday evening, Nov. 17. Free tickets to this event which is sponsored by the Century Club can be obtained from any member of the club. Door prizes will be given away.

Mrs. Vincent Lobo, Jr., was elected to membership at an executive meeting, Mrs. Lobo, Mrs. Wallace Hanson, Mrs. Leroy Strohl and Mrs. Frances Strohl, all new members, attended the meeting and were presented to the group by the president.

Anyone who wishes to attend this important meeting is asked to call Mrs. Downing or Mrs. W. W. Sharp if they need transportation. Those who wish to make reservations for luncheon will call Mrs. Downing, also. The luncheon will be $1.25.

Because of the interest in this meeting and the probable large attendance from the Asbury Society, there will be no regular meeting of the society in November.

Don't forget the date—November 1 for the Dover District fall meeting in Seaford.

Hurry With Cover Crops

Get your winter cover crop or grain crop in as soon as you can get the soybeans and corn harvested, George Vapaa, county agent, says.

Every day lost in planting means less chance of a stand getting through the winter. The Hessian fly-free date is past for all Delaware so there's no reason to delay plantings of winter wheat or rye.

Some farmers plant rye into November, provided the early winter is mild, but any planting after this week is risky, he said.

The crop won't stand up against wind and water erosion or come through the winter with strength enough to make good forage or grain in the spring unless it can get an early start.

For late plantings of wheat, use at least two bushels an acre and 300-400 pounds of 6-18-18 fertilizer, if you plan on harvesting it for grain. This will help your wheat get started and prevent winter killing later in the winter, Mr. Vapaa said.

Veterans News QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I have a total disability income rider on my GI insurance policy which would pay me $5 a month for every $1000 of my coverage. I understand the amount which can be paid for total disability has now been increased. Please give me some details.

A—Recent legislation increased to $10-a-month-per-$1000 of insurance the amounts which may be paid disabled veterans whose policies carry a total disability income rider. The added cost for this added protection is small. Any VA office will tell you how much the additional premium would be in your case.

Q—I'm going to need an operation for a nonservice-connected condition and expect to be admitted to a VA hospital soon. Meanwhile, there must be X-ray and other examinations before my operation. Can they be taken care of before I go into the hospital, in order to shorten my hospital stay?

A—They can now, by a law which has just been passed. Nonservice-connected cases, formerly ineligible for this benefit, may now be given necessary clinical examinations before they enter a VA hospital, as well as clinical care after it is no longer necessary for them to occupy a hospital bed.

Q—I was in training in June, 1960, taking vocational rehabilitation for a World War Two service-connected disability, when the deadline for completing my training was extended, by law. I am very grateful for this, and wonder if the new law affects other World War Two veterans who may never have started training.

A—Yes. The new law also gave World War Two veterans, whose service-connected disability was so severe as to keep them from rehabilitation within the time period previously available to them, the right to enter on or complete training any time up to July 25, 1965.

Q—Are guide dogs provided without charge by VA for eligible blinded veterans?

A—Yes, they are. Blind veterans entitled to compensation for a service-connected disability can get a dog guide and all necessary training, through VA. VA also pays any necessary medical expense connected with the dog's care.

Trick or Treat For UNICEF

The 1960 UNICEF celebration in Harrington will be held on Friday evening, beginning at 6:30 p.m. from the Harrington New Century Club. All children in the community are invited to attend. As in the past the women of the W.S.C.S. of Asbury and Trinity Methodist Churches have been on the planning committee and have arranged the event. However, all churches are being asked to participate, by sending their children to assist in the door to door canvass for funds that will be made. Last year children from St. Stephen's Episcopal, Baptist Holiness and Church of the Nazarene were all represented as well as the sponsoring churches.

UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, is the largest international organization concerned exclusively with children and their mothers. The gifts of coins gathered in Harrington will help provide milk and medicine for millions of UNICEF children around the globe.

After collecting the money the children will return to the Century Club for refreshments and to see cartoons.

An innovation this year in the plans has been assistance given by the third grades of the Harrington School. Under the direction of Mrs. Leland Milspaw, Mrs. James O'Neal and Miss Oda Baker, their teachers, the children have been making posters and decorating small containers to be used to collect the money.

Mrs. Charles Rapp and Mrs. Ellwood Gruwell, the co-chairmen have been assisted with the planning by Mrs. Frank O'Neal Jr. Other serving on the committees are: Registrations: Miss Oda Baker, Mrs. Harry John Dill, Jr., Mrs. Don Dell, Mrs. Guy Winebrenner, Mrs. Howard Wagner, and Mrs. Austin Turcotte; tags, Miss Bonnie Satterfield, Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Mrs. Marvin Richardson and Mrs. Fulton Downing; drivers, Mrs. Randall Knox, Jr., and Mrs. W. W. Sharp; transportation, Mrs. Charles Peck and Mrs. Clyde Tucker; refreshments, Mrs. Harry Adkins, Mrs. Gruwell, Mrs. Francis Winkler, Mrs. Horace Johnson; clean-up, Mrs. O'Neal, Mrs. Harold McDonald, Mrs. Melvin Wyatt and Mrs. William Minner; publicity, Mrs. Rapp and Mrs. Minner; cartoons, Robert Winkler and Archie Feagan; cashiers, Mrs. William Knox, Mrs. William Coeyman, Millard Cooper and Mrs. Mark Willey; grouping, Mrs. Norman Hopkins, Harold Welch, the Rev. Olin Shockley and the Rev. Nelson Benjamin. Mrs. Hopkins will also serve as mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

Citizens of the town will be asked to donate to the children who will have identifying badges or tags and containers that show the money is to be used for UNICEF. Please leave your porch lights on so that they will know you are willing to share with the less fortunate children of the world.

Fertilizer Is Best Investment

"Don't skimp on fertilizer use," says George Vapaa, county agent with the University of Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. "Soil fertility represents one of the best investments a farmer can make today."

"Farmers who try to save money by buying less fertilizer can cut income faster than they cut out-of-pocket costs," he says. "Most farmers will find that one of the best ways to meet the present price-cost squeeze is to expand the use of fertilizer on their farms—at the right place and time and in the right amounts."

Use of fertilizer does not automatically guarantee higher net returns, however. Test your soils first to determine the needs of each field. For example, use of high phosphate fertilizer on land already high in phosphate is as bad as under-fertilization. However, the same land may need potash or nitrogen and adding these elements will boost yields. "Test, don't guess!" Mr. Vapaa said.

Call the Extension Office at REdfield 6-1448 for detailed information on soil testing.

The Agricultural Extension Service soil testing laboratory in Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, will test the samples without charge he said.

Test Your Soil

If you wonder what kind of soil you have, how much plant food is in your soil and how acid it is, now is the time to find out.

Things in the soil testing laboratory at the University of Delaware, school of agriculture, slow down at this time of year, so you can send samples in and get a report back in a matter of a couple of weeks, according to Extension Service agronomist, William H. Mitchell.

If you are a farmer you can take your report and plan on how much lime and fertilizer you will need during the coming year. Then you can take advantage of price discounts for buying early. It will also save you time which will be important when spring planting time rolls around.

If you are a home gardener the same things hold true, Mitchell said. By planning your lime and fertilizer program now, you can work out a schedule that will very likely contribute to your getting things done on time.

"Planning makes more good lawns that too-much-too-late of all the other things", Mitchell said. "So plan ahead."

Answers On Migratory Birds

Each fall when Nature dons brilliant colors and the first hint of frost puts a crispness in northern air, American sportsmen start their annual excursions afield to hunt ducks, geese, doves, woodchuck, snipe, and other migratory birds en route to southern wintering grounds.

As thoughts turn to plans for the hunt, questions annually arise in the minds of sportsmen about the regulations which govern migratory bird hunting and the interpretation of various sections of these rules.

The following are the most common questions asked of U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service personnel on this subject.

Migratory game birds referred to in this article are ducks, geese, brant, rails, gallinules, sora, coots, snipe, woodchuck, mourning and white-winged doves, and band-tailed pigeons.

Question 1: Must everyone who hunts ducks and geese possess a duck stamp?

Answer: The only exception is a person under 16 years of age who is permitted to hunt legally by State law.

Question 2: Do you have to have a duck stamp to hunt other migratory birds besides ducks and geese?

Answer: No. You only need a stamp to hunt ducks, geese, and brant. A stamp is not required for hunting woodchuck, snipe, rails, gallinules, coots, the coots referred to are members of the rail family, not the scoters or sea ducks, which are sometimes called coots) mourning and white-winged doves, and band-tailed pigeons.

Question 3: What is baiting, and what is a baited area?

Answer: Baiting, which is illegal, is the placing or scattering of shelled, shucked or unshucked corn, wheat or other grain, salt, or other feed so as to lure or attract migratory game birds to, on, or over an area where hunters attempt to take them.

Question 4: When is one guilty of a baiting violation?

Answer: When you take, or attempt to take, migratory game birds attracted to your gunning position by the presence of corn, grain, or other feed scattered or placed so as to attract those birds.

Question 5: What constitutes a baiting field for dove, duck or goose hunting?

Answer: It is a field where grains have been placed, distributed, or scattered, where salt is scattered or placed, or where standing corn or grains have been manipulated by cutting or knocking down so as to lure and attract migratory birds to the hunter.

Question 6: Why is it necessary to prohibit baiting?

Answer: Baiting is one of several highly efficient ways of increasing the kill of migratory birds. When there were comparatively few hunters and birds were plentiful, the practice was not considered detrimental.

marsh and then hunt there? Answer: It is permissible for you to release lawfully acquired and possessed ducks and geese in your marsh. You may then hunt there provided the released birds are completely beyond your control—that is, you have discontinued feeding long enough before the season that the birds are no longer attracted by the feed you had been putting out for them, as specified in the answer to the previous question—and the birds can and do fly as freely as ducks and geese raised in the wild.

Kaplovsky to Address D.A.R.

Dr. A. Joel Kaplovsky, director of the Water Pollution Commission, State of Delaware, will address the fall meeting of The Delaware State Society Daughters of the American Revolution which will be held in Milford on Saturday, Nov. 12, in the Avenue Methodist Church.

An authority on Sanitary Engineering, Dr. Kaplovsky was the recipient of the A. S. Bedell Award for his outstanding personal service in the sewage and industrial wastes field.

Question 3: What is baiting, and what is a baited area? Answer: Baiting, which is illegal, is the placing or scattering of shelled, shucked or unshucked corn, wheat or other grain, salt, or other feed so as to lure or attract migratory game birds to, on, or over an area where hunters attempt to take them.

Question 4: When is one guilty of a baiting violation? Answer: When you take, or attempt to take, migratory game birds attracted to your gunning position by the presence of corn, grain, or other feed scattered or placed so as to attract those birds.

Question 5: What constitutes a baiting field for dove, duck or goose hunting? Answer: It is a field where grains have been placed, distributed, or scattered, where salt is scattered or placed, or where standing corn or grains have been manipulated by cutting or knocking down so as to lure and attract migratory birds to the hunter.

Question 6: Why is it necessary to prohibit baiting? Answer: Baiting is one of several highly efficient ways of increasing the kill of migratory birds.

Question 7: How many days before the season opens must we stop feeding ducks in our marsh if we are to legally shoot there? Answer: This question cannot be answered categorically by a specific number of days.

Question 8: Is it lawful for me to release ducks and geese in my

Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the department of agricultural economics at the University of Delaware and Dr. Robert K. Hirzel, department of sociology, University of Maryland, are co-authors of the bulletin.

The publication deals with population trends dating back to 1790 and gives details about population growth up to 1960.

Dr. McDaniel said the bulletin should be of value to legislators and those interested in rural and urban changes because comparisons are made between rural and urban areas concerning factors such as age distribution, dependency ratios and trends in population growth.

A sample of the facts in the bulletin are these: Delaware's population in 1790 was 59,096. Sussex County had 20,488 people then and has about 73,000 now. Kent County had 18,920 in 1790 and now has more than 65,000, while New Castle county has grown from 19,688 to more than 300,000 in the 170-year interval.

The Delaware population increase has occurred mostly in New Castle County, but outside Wilmington. Wilmington has dropped from a high of 112,504 in 1940 to about 95,000 people today.

Based on 1950 population data, for each employed person in the state there are .57 people who are either 15 years of age or younger, or 65 years old or older.

This reflects the fact that rural people are carrying a proportionately heavier burden of dependents than are urban people. Children constitute a large segment of the rural support burden and up on reaching employable age many leave the farm community to go to the urban areas.

These are just a few of the population characteristics discussed in the bulletin.

The bulletin is available at the bulletin office, Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, Newark, or from the County Extension Agent's office. Ask for bulletin No. 331 or "The People of Delaware."

1533 Farms In Kent County The 1959 Census of Agriculture, conducted in Kent County last fall, counted 1,533 farms, according to a preliminary report just issued by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

The average age of farm operators in the county was 50.5 years. There were 259 farm operators 65 or more years of age.

Of the 1,533 farms in the county, 1,050 were commercial farms. Detailed statistics on crops, livestock, equipment, etc., are presented in the preliminary report, with comparable statistics for 1954. Veterans Day Observance Will Be Sun., Nov. 13

The statewide Veterans Day observance staged annually at Memorial Plaza, Delaware Memorial Bridge, will this year be held on Sunday, Nov. 13, according to announcement made by chairman David S. Hugg.

In announcing the date for the 1960 observance, Mr. Hugg advised that the Governor's Committee for Observance of Veterans Day has already held several well-attended meetings with the result that considerable progress has been made in the planning for the traditional exercises at the Bridge Plaza.

Completion of planning for the statewide observance will be accomplished at the next meeting of the committee at the office of Miles L. Frederick, 10110 Washington Street, Wilmington, Sunday, Oct. 30, according to Mr. Hugg.

Present planning calls for the Bridge Plaza ceremonies to follow pretty much the pattern of previous years with processional consisting of color guards, platform guests and organizational representatives; opening ceremonies including the National Anthem, Pledge of Allegiance and invocation; greetings by the Governors of the States of Delaware and New Jersey or their representatives; introduction of guests; presentation of floral tributes; Salute to the Deceased; a Veterans Day address; and benediction.

Other activities being currently planned by the State Committee are a dinner at the Lord De La Warr Hotel following the Bridge Plaza exercises and distribution of appropriate gift items on Nov. 11 and 12 to all hospitalized veterans.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS

MANNER OF VOTING

When a voter presents himself for the purpose of voting, the election officer shall ascertain whether his name is upon the register of voters, and if his name appears thereon and is not challenged or a challenge be decided in his favor, one of the election officers to be stationed at the entrance of the voting machine shall announce the name of the voter and permit him to pass through the entrance to the booth of the voting machine for the purpose of casting his vote. Each judge shall then stamp or write the word "VOTED" in the column opposite the name of the voter in the Books of Registered Voters in his possession. No voter shall remain in the voting machine booth longer than three minutes, unless for good and sufficient reason he be granted a longer period of time by the election officers in charge. When the voter has cast his vote the voter shall at once leave the room. If he refuses to leave after a reasonable period he shall be removed by the election officers. No voter after having entered and emerged from the voting machine booth shall be permitted to re-enter the same on any pretext whatever. Only one voter at a time shall be permitted to enter the voting machine booth. Added 49 Del. Laws, Ch. 18, § 1. eff. Mar. 20, 1953.

INSTRUCTING VOTERS ON ELECTION DAY

Any voter requesting instruction shall be given such instruction by an election officer with reference to the sample ballots posted in the polling place.

In case any voter, after entering the voting machine booth, shall ask for further instructions concerning the manner of voting, two election officers of opposite political parties shall give such instructions to him; but no person assisting a voter shall in any manner seek to influence his vote. After giving instructions and before such voter shall have registered his vote, the persons assisting him shall retire and such voter shall then register his vote in secret. Added 49 Del. Laws, Ch. 18 § 1, eff. Mar. 20, 1953.

DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCE OF VOTER

In all questions of residence arising under the provisions of Article V of the Constitution of this State, if any person, having resided within this State, actually removes to another place out of this State, with an intention of remaining there for an indefinite time, as a place of present domicile, he shall lose his qualifications of residence within this State, notwithstanding he may entertain a floating intention to return at some future period. The same principle shall be applied to removals from one place to another within this State.

ASSISTANCE TO BLIND OR PHYSICALLY DISABLED VOTERS

Any person who shall be physically unable to operate the voting machine by reason of defective eyesight, or the loss of the use of one or both hands, or inability to walk with safety without assistance, as manifestly renders him or her unable to operate the voting machine, or to reach the polling place alone with safety, shall be permitted to bring with him or her into the election room and booth any elector or two electors, if the nature of the disability manifestly requires more than one, such as a total disability to walk to the polling district for the purpose of rendering the necessary assistance to vote. No voter shall receive any other assistance in voting than that permitted by this section.

NUMBER OF PERSONS PERMITTED IN BOOTH AND VOTING ROOM; CONVERSATION IN ELECTION ROOM

Not more than one person shall be permitted to occupy any voting booth at one time. No person shall remain in or occupy a voting booth longer than may be necessary to prepare his ballot and in no event longer than three minutes. No more than one person for each booth in the room, other than the election officers, shall be permitted to enter or be in the election room at any one time, except as in this chapter provided. No voter or person offering to vote shall hold any conversation or communicate with any other person than an election officer while in the election room, except as in this chapter provided.

No election officer, challenger or any other person within the polling place, during the election or counting of ballots, shall electioneer or engage in any political discussion.

CHALLENGERS; APPOINTMENT AND POWERS

Each of the political parties, acting through their respective county committees, may appoint and credit some suitable person as a challenger to stand without the door or entrance of the room in which the election is to be held, and by the side of the passage. If any political party fails to appoint a challenger, the Inspector and Judges shall make such appointment. The challengers shall be changed and their places filled in like manner during the day. The challengers shall be protected in the discharge of their duty by the election officers. The challengers, chosen for any general or special election, shall be peace officers of this State and shall have the same powers for preserving the peace as election officers have.

PERSONS PERMITTED TO STAND WITHIN 30 FEET OF ENTRANCE

One challenger designated by each political party shall be entitled to stand at the side of the passage and near the entrance to the room. No other person shall remain within 30 feet of the entrance except as provided in this chapter.

REMOVAL OR DESTRUCTION OF ELECTION SUPPLIES OR EQUIPMENT OR VOTING MACHINE

Whoever, during the general election—(1) removes or destroys any of the supplies or other conveniences placed in the booths or delivered to the voter for the purpose of enabling him to prepare his ballot; or (2) removes, tears down or defaces the cards printed for the instruction of the voters; or (3) destroys or removes any booth, railing or other conveniences provided for such election; or (4) tampers with, disarranges, defaces or impairs in any manner the use of or destroys any voting machine or the ballots on the face of a voting machine, shall be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year.
