Legislature Organized Tuesday; Adjourns Until Monday

Senator John E. Reilly, Sr., of Wilmington was elected president pro tempore of the Senate and Rep. Sherman W. Tribbitt of Odessa was elected speaker of the House of Representatives as the 121st General Assembly opened its session Tuesday.

The state's lawmakers spent their first day in Dover taking their oaths of office, selecting attaches, and adopting routine resolutions as part of the process of starting the new session of the Legislature.

Reilly and Tribbitt had both been designated earlier for election to the posts of leadership in the two branches of the Legislature by fellow members of the Democratic majorities. Reilly was majority leader at the last session; Tribbitt was speaker.

In being returned to that post, Tribbitt said: "May the good Lord guide us, on both sides of the aisle, to a worthwhile, productive session for this our great little state."

Reilly, who was sworn in by Acting President Senator Harry E. Mayhew, of Milford, attempted to set the tone for a cooperative session in a short talk to the 16 senators present.

"You have bestowed on me a great honor, but I can only carry it out with your cooperation. I don't intend to use any harsh or rash methods; I only ask cooperation, and will give you that in return," Reilly said.

After organizing, the House and Senate adjourned, late in the afternoon, until Monday at 1 p. m. They scheduled a joint session at 2 p. m. to hear a message from Gov. David P. Buckson.

About 55 spectators, including former members of the House and Senate and people who expect to become attaches, witnessed the opening of the House of Representatives.

Rep. Russell D. F. Dineen of Wilmington was elected temporary speaker, and Rep. Clarence E. Truitt of Dagsboro was named temporary clerk. Oaths of office as members of the House and as temporary officers were administered by Harry McSherry, deputy prothonotary of Kent County, after their certificates of election were read.

Then the temporary speaker administered the oaths of office to the other House members, taking them in batches by county. One member was absent—Rep. Paul E. Shockley, who was busy with his duties as Wilmington's city clerk.

Tribbitt was unanimously elected speaker on a voice vote and was escorted to the chair by Rep. Norman Eskridge, the majority leader, and Rep. William T. Best, minority leader.

The House made its first appropriation Tuesday, when it adopted a resolution to provide $500 for postage stamps. It also adopted temporary rules and then suspended them twice to take immediate action on two routine concurrent resolutions—on adjournment and the joint session.

The Senate opened its session at 12:19 p. m. with a brief prayer delivered by the Rev. F. D. Milbury of Milford.

Senator Mayhew then was selected acting president and Joshua Twilley named temporary secretary to conduct business until permanent officers were sworn in.

The seven new or reelected senators then were sworn in by Mayhew en masse, with Senator Margaret R. Manning (R-Marshtalton) the first to sign her oath.

On motion of Senator Curtis W. Steen (D-Dagsboro), Reilly was nominated president pro tempore and elected by a vote of 15 for, one absent, and one not voted.

Felton Fire Co. Installs Officers

William J. Paskey, Jr. was re-elected president of the Felton Fire Company and took office Wednesday night in the fire hall. Other officers installed were as follows:

Vice president, J. Edward Moore; secretary, Roland Neeman; treasurer, Norman Jackson; fire recorder, William A. Robinson; chief, Wilbur Sherwood, Jr.

Three directors were named as follows: William Myers, Charles Bostick, Jr., and J. B. Simpson; Freddy Casper, E. B. Worthington, Jr. and Paul Woikoski Jr. were named fire police.

Chief Sherwood is in the Milford Memorial Hospital recuperating from a heart attack. The fire company meets the first Wednesday in the month.

ing—himself.

The absent senator, Walton H. Simpson of Camden, came in seconds later and was marked present.

The Senate also passed its first appropriation bill of the session when it voted the routine $500 for postage stamps. In addition, the Senate authorized the standard $25 in stationery supplies for each member and officials of the Senate.

After passage of a resolution naming 37 attaches, the jobholders were sworn in by Reilly in "lots" of 10 or more. The last group to be sworn in consisted of 100 per cent female secretaries, and after administering the oath Reilly quipped, "Thanks, come again. Often."

In preparing for future work sessions, the Senate adopted 12 customary resolutions and concurred in the two House concurrent resolutions, all unanimously and by voice vote.

Both houses adjourned until next Monday.

THREE CONTESTS APPEAR FOR DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE POSTS

There appears to be three contests for Democratic committee posts in the Ninth Representative District, but the outlook may be changed since the deadline on filing is tomorrow.

The elections for committee posts will be held Sat., Jan. 21. In the First Election District of the Ninth Representative District, George S. Graham, city manager, who has been acting committeeman since the death in August of Charles Hopkins, has filed. Also filing for the post is William A. Minner, of Harrington, active in affairs of the American Legion.

Mrs. Kathryn Simpson, incumbent committeewoman, has filed and will be opposed by Mrs. Eva Raughley.

In the Second Election District of the Ninth, the incumbent, Walter Paskey Jr., has filed and will be opposed by Maurice Adams. Mrs. James Wilson, incumbent, has filed for re-election as committeewoman and had no opposition as of Thursday morning.

In the Second Election District of the Sixth Representative District, which takes in part of Harrington, incumbents Edgar Kates and Lucille A. Robinson had filed.

Collison and Smith Join The Air Force

Bruce Smith and Ronald Collison, 1959 graduates of Harrington High School have joined the Air Force. They left Thursday for Fort Holabird, Baltimore. From there they will take a commercial air flight from Friendship Airport to Lackland AFB in San Antonio, Texas, where they will take the first five weeks of their basic training.

Smith will go to a radar and electronic service school at Kessler Field, Biloxi, Miss., for a 36 week course. He qualified for this course by taking an aptitude test in Texas in order to determine which service school he will attend.

Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Smith, 106 Fleming Street.

Collison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Collison, R. F. D. 2, Harrington.

State Allotted $3,701,521 In Federal Road Funds

A federal grant of $3,701,521 for primary, secondary and urban highways in Delaware was authorized Wednesday.

The amount neither delighted nor disappointed the Delaware State Highway Department.

"It is just about what we expected," Assistant Chief Engineer Ernest Davidson of the department said.

"Population growth is an important factor in determining the grant. The Delaware census went up some in the 1960 count but not enough to influence the road grant very much," he added.

The funds are earmarked for Delaware but cannot be used until the First State Legislature authorizes a matching appropriation on a 50-50 basis, Mr. Davidson explained.

Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller Wednesday parceled out to the states $231,250,000 in federal aid for building primary, secondary and urban highways in the 12 months starting next July 1.

The amount is in addition to the $693,750,000 apportioned to the states for these programs July 26. The extra amount was withheld at that time pending completion of the 1960 census. Population is one of the elements

5 KENT OFFICES CHANGE HANDS

Five Kent County offices changed hands Tuesday. In all cases, Democrats succeeded Democrats.

The only political change resulting from the last election was in the three-district Levy Court in which the Republicans gained a seat.

All the new officials took their oaths of office before President Judge Charles L. Terry, Jr., of the Superior Court before entering upon their duties.

The swearing-in ceremony was held in the Superior Court room in the Kent County Court House before a large audience of relatives, friends, and associates of the incoming officeholders.

Joining in taking their oaths of office with the court office holders were Mrs. Belle Everett, state treasurer; Ernest E. Killen, state auditor; Andrew C. O'Neal, deputy state treasurer, and Jonathan Hopkins, deputy auditor. Mrs. Everett and Mr. Killen, Democrats were reelected at the last election.

The new Kent County office holders, elected on a county-wide basis, are Frank R. Hayes, Dover, prothonotary; William T. James, Dover, sheriff; Raymond Welch Sr., near Harrington, comptroller; H. Clifford Clark, Kenton, register of wills, and William C. Torbert, Dover, coronor.

Prothonotary Hayes succeeds William J. Paskey, Felton; Sheriff James succeeds J. Wesley Walls, Sr., Maryland, for whom he was deputy sheriff; Comptroller Welch succeeds Harry S. Hanson; Register of Wills Clark succeeds Clarence E. Dixon, and Coroner Torbert replaces Roland P. Trader.

The holdover county officeholders, all Democrats, are: Roy J. Honey, Dover, recorder of deeds; Walter A. Handsberry, Smyrna, clerk of the peace; Grafon R. Heather, Hartly, register in Chancery and clerk of the Orphans Court, and Thomas C. Robbins, near Harrington, county treasurer and receiver of taxes.

The Levy Court commissioners sworn into office are: Fred B. Carey, Sr., Dover, Republican, first district; Walter J. Paskey, Harrington, Democrat, second district, and Charles W. Bostick, Felton, Democrat, third district.

Mr. Carey succeeds John G. Tarburton, Democrat; Mr. Paskey succeeds J. Noble Carroll, Felton, Democrat, who was president of the old court, and Mr. Bostick succeeds himself.

William P. Richardson has retired as manager of the Richardson & Robbins Co. at Dover, and will be replaced on January 1 by Chester C. Benson, a Delaware resident who has had long experience in the meat packing industry.

H.H.S. Five Downs Alumni 42-38

Coach Jim Hawpe's Harrington High basketball Lions overcame a rocky beginning when they rallied in the second quarter to go ahead of an experienced Alumni five by four points and then held that margin to the finish.

The Lions held the grads to one point in that second quarter. Bob Gillette played an improved game and led the varsity scorers with nine points followed by Leonard Masten, Walt Lekites and Bill Porter with eight each. George Pfeiffer again was the leader in the playmaking department while Lekites and Porter rebounded well. Porter was considered to be the Lion's outstanding performer in the victorious effort.

Bill Manship headed the Alumni scoring and also annexed game honors with 12 points. Sam Minner, one of the Lion's better shots, is out with an injury that will cause him to miss another game or two.

Richardson Retires, Benson Appointed R & R Manager

William P. Richardson has retired as manager of the Richardson & Robbins Co. at Dover, and will be replaced on January 1 by Chester C. Benson, a Delaware resident who has had long experience in the meat packing industry.

Announcement of the change was made by George C. Seybolt, president of the Wm. Underwood Co., which purchased the R&R company in October, 1959. Mr. Seybolt stated: "Bill Richardson has served R&R and his state and community well as a life-long resident. For 40 years he was associated with R&R, the fourth generation of his family to do so since the firm was founded by Alden B. Richardson in 1855. We regret he has elected to retire, and wish him well in the years to come."

Mr. W. W. Richardson will continue to serve R&R as a consultant, and E. W. (Ted) Richardson now is a principal engineer on the staff of Wm. Underwood Co. He moved from Dover to a residence at Framingham, Mass., last September.

Mr. Benson had been plant manager at the Libby, McNeill & Libby plant at Houston, and previously had served as plant superintendent and plant engineer at the same location over the past 14 years. He had been named assistant plant manager at the R&R plant last September and has moved to Dover. A native of Modena, Pa., Benson attended the A. I. duPont High School in Wilmington, and graduated from the University of Delaware in 1940. He was active in civic affairs in Houston, serving as president of the Official Board of the Houston Methodist Church, and with the Houston Volunteer Fire Co. and in 4-H Club activities.

William P. Richardson is a director of the Bank of Delaware, has served two terms as highway commissioner for the state, and has been on the vestry of Christ Church of Dover for more than 25 years.

Kent Levy Court Elects, Names Appointees

Levy Court in Kent County elected officers in organization meetings Tuesday.

In Dover the new Kent County Levy Court elected Charles W. Bostick, Third Levy Court District, as president.

Mr. Bostick succeeds J. Noble Carroll, who represented the Second Levy Court District in the outgoing court as president. Both men are of the Felton area.

The court also reappointed Max Terry, Dover, as its attorney and reappointed Emory N. Lynch, near Milford, as county civil defense director.

In addition to Mr. Bostick, members of the court are Fred B. Carey, Sr., Dover, first district, and Walter J. Paskey, second district.

Mr. Carey, who succeeds John G. Tarburton, near Dover, a Democrat, is the only Republican member of the three-member court. While the members of the 1959-1961 court were all Democrats, the Republicans had one member in the 1957-1958 court and he, J. Ward Hurley, was from the same district represented by Mr. Carey.

Mr. Carroll was not a candidate for renomination from his district at the Democratic primaries last year. Mr. Paskey was nominated in his place by his party and was elected in the November election. Mr. Bostick was reelected from his district and Mr. Tarburton, seeking re-election, was defeated by Mr. Carey. Mr. Tarburton, however, is contesting the election count in the State Supreme Court.

The court also approved the personnel on the payrolls of the different count offices. Among them are: Charles C. King, Smyrna, named by the Superior Court judges as permanent deputy prothonotary, and Mrs. Gladys Thompson, Pearson's Corner, named by Chancellor Collins J. Seitz as permanent deputy register in Chancery and Clerk of the Orphans Court, both appointments becoming effective Tuesday.

The positions held by Mr. King and Mrs. Thompson were created by the last General Assembly.

The outgoing Levy Court first held its final session Tuesday and adjourned sine die. The new court then organized with Clerk of the Peace Walter A. Handsberry, who by virtue of his office is clerk of the Levy Court, presiding temporarily.

The payrolls approved by the court included: Mrs. Elizabeth Hayes, reappointed as regular deputy prothonotary by her husband, Frank R. Hayes, the new prothonotary; Mrs. H. Clifford Clark, deputy register of wills under her husband, H. Clifford Clark; Mrs. Madeline Bennett, clerk in the office of Comptroller Raymond Welch, Sr., and John Raughley, deputy sheriff. Mrs. Hayes was deputy under William J. Paskey, outgoing prothonotary.

400 Women To Sharpen Their Ability As Drivers

More than 400 club women throughout Delaware will sharpen their driving ability in the first statewide driver training program of its kind ever to be attempted.

The women are members of the 21 Business and Professional Women's Clubs throughout the state. The clubs have adopted a resolution calling on all members who drive to take a course in the Smith System of No-Accident driving, and the members are fully behind the program, their officers report.

The Smith System is a training course developed by Harold L. Smith, director of the Institute of Driver Training. The system is fully endorsed by the Delaware Safety Council, and is used by many industrial firms. Two members of the Safety Council staff, and individuals in several local companies, have been trained as instructors in the Smith System, which is designed to make good drivers even better.

Local instructors will train teachers in each of the 21 clubs and they in turn will give the two-hour courses to their fellow members. The instructors include Austin C. Chidester, Jr., of the Delaware Safety Council, Edward Gillen and Robert Carter of the Diamond State Telephone Company.

They will start the last end of this month. Instruction to the teachers will determine if they would

Mayor and Three Councilmen To Be Elected Tuesday; Citizens' Meeting Tonight

A contest for a council post appears probable for the municipal election here Tuesday, with a possible contest in the race for mayor.

However, nothing is certain as the candidates will not be nominated until the annual Citizens' Meeting in the Firehouse at 7:30 p. m. today.

In the contest for the council post, petitions have been filed for Harold Fry, of Harrington Manor, and Luther Hatfield, former president of the Board of Education, for the post in the Second Ward. Alan Rutledge is the outgoing councilman from this ward.

In the Fourth Ward, Robert Stauffer has filed as councilman to replace outgoing Councilman Clarence Collins.

The successful candidate in the above-named wards will serve the usual term, three years.

In the Sixth Ward, Clarence Black has filed to serve the year remaining in the unexpired term of Councilman Charles Hopkins who died in August. Black served at the post the remainder of 1960, having been appointed by the City Council.

Petitions by candidates for councilmen may also be presented at tonight's citizens' meeting.

Nominations for mayor will be made from the floor tonight. Mayor Charles L. Peck Sr., has announced his intentions of running for re-election to the two-year office. He has had lengthy experience as a councilman.

A move is on to draft E. B. Rash, president of Peoples Bank and former mayor, to run for mayor. A petition, or appeal, to him to run for the post is being circulated.

The election Tuesday will be from noon to 7 p. m.

The city government will be reorganized the following evening.

Fluid Milk Price To Hold In 1961, Inter-State Says

The new Class I or bottled milk price schedule which became effective Jan. 1, for dairy farmers supplying the Philadelphia and Wilmington milk markets should keep prices at virtually the same level as the past three-year average in the two markets, O. H. Hoffman Jr., general manager of the Inter-State Milk Producers' Cooperative, said in a statement interpreting the marketing orders which were issued by the dairy division, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The announced price for Class I milk will be $5.95 per hundredweight, or twelve cents per quart, for Philadelphia, and $5.44 per hundredweight, or 11 and three quarters cents per quart, for Wilmington during January, February, and March, 1961, with normal seasonal variations in the following months. While these prices represent a ten-cent increase over those in the first quarter of 1960, the spokesman pointed out that farmers actually receive a blend price, usually lower, based on the percentage of their milk used as Class I and as Class II, or manufacturing milk.

Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission prices, which currently are higher than the prices set by Federal Order 61 for Pennsylvania markets, should continue to remain so, and the price of milk to consumers should not be affected by the new schedule.

The Cooperative said it had prevailed upon the dairy division, after a year's study, to work out other helpful technical changes in the Class I price formulas in the two markets, but that these changes—the first since the formula became effective in April, 1951—would not affect the present value of milk.

In addition, the U.S.D.A. added another feature to the new Class I formulas which puts a direct ceiling over Philadelphia and Wilmington Class I prices to be established by the Midwestern condenser manufacturing milk prices. However, the Inter-State general manager said, since the recommended prices of $5.59 for Philadelphia and $5.44 for Wilmington are currently 28 cents below this ceiling, no price variance is expected from this change.

The Philadelphia and Wilmington markets are supplied by shippers in Delaware; southern New Jersey; southern and central Pennsylvania and Columbia and Montour counties; the Eastern Shore and parts of northwestern Maryland; and sections of eastern West Virginia and northern Virginia.

The meeting will be held in the Day Care Center room at St. John's Methodist Church, Mrs. Almira S. Derrickson, Seaford, and Mrs. John C. Jankus, Bethany Beach, program co-chairman, have arranged for Doctor Charles P. Jubenville to speak on Day Care Center.

Doctor Jubenville, Supervisor of Daytime Care Center for severely retarded persons in Delaware, has spent nearly 23 years in the field of education and training of exceptional children, with major emphasis in the field of mental retardation. He earned three degrees (B.S., M. Ed. and Ed. D.) at Rutgers University and, prior to coming to Delaware, he had held such positions as Director of Education and training of the New Jersey State Village for Epileptics and Assistant Superintendent of the North Jersey Training School, an 1100 bed institution for the care and training of retarded females of all ages.

He and his wife, Virginia, reside at Georgetown, and have two children, Charles, Jr., presently living in California, and

MESSICK, DRAPER TO SHARE ATTORNEY'S POST IN HOUSE

James Messick and William Draper, Dover, attorneys, will share a position as attorney for the House of Representatives.

This dual answer to the question of who would be the House attorney from Kent County was worked out Tuesday afternoon by Kent Democratic leaders.

A number of Kent Democratic attorneys have been angling for a variety of appointive posts and this has delayed the selection of Kent's nominee for House attorney.

At the last session, Maurice A. Hartnett III and William G. Bush III, shared one House attorney job. Mr. Hartnett, who was on hand Tuesday to help out at the opening session of the House, has been recommended by Kent County Democratic leaders for appointment by Governor Elbert N. Carvel as director of the Legislative Reference Bureau. Mr. Bush is the leading candidate for appointment by the future governor as judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Kent County.

The Kent Democrats selected Fred Lord, Jr., of Dover as chief clerk of the House. They also selected Joshua M. Twilley, a Dover attorney, for a second term as secretary of the Senate.

Two of the major House attaché jobs assigned to Wilmington also have been filled. Francis X. Shoemaker will be the chief reading clerk and the Rev. Arthur R. James will be chaplain.

Mr. Shoemaker served as chief reading clerk in the House at the 119th General Assembly, and as assistant chief clerk at the 120th.

Other House attaches are to be named on Monday.

Mr. Messick, one of the two Dover attorneys named for the House job, is a former deputy attorney general for Kent County. Mr. Draper is a member of the firm of Terry & Draper.

Five New Members Added to Kent Jury

Five new members of the Kent County Grand Jury, to replace members who terms have ended, have been impaneled by Jury Commissioners Earle N. Faulkner and Louis J. Parker, Jr.

They are June Sayer, Smyrna, First Representative District; Jacob Crossley, Clayton, Third district; Jack Scheller, Dover, Fifth district; Charles Angstadt, Camden, Seventh district, and Frank Melvin, Harrington, Ninth district.

The holdover members, who began their service six months ago and have six months to serve are: Mrs. Jo Ann Andrews, Dover, Second Representative District; Ellwood Long, Hartly, Fourth district; Mrs. Florence E. Fleming, Harrington, Sixth district; Nelson M. Hammond, Felton, Eighth district, and Harvey J. Marvel, Houston, Tenth district.

School Teachers to Attend Chemistry-Physics Institute

Grants are available for high school teachers of physical science from all over the United States to attend a seven week Chemistry-Physics Teacher Institute at The American University, Washington, D. C., from June 26 to August 11, 1961.

Made possible by a grant from the National Science Foundation, the program will be a unique combination of classroom and laboratory work at The American University and first hand work experience in local laboratories, including the National Bureau of Standards, National Institutes of Health, and Harris Research Laboratories.

Weekly stipends of $75.00 for seven weeks are available to 50 teachers plus dependency allowances of $15.00 per dependent per week up to four dependents. Travel allowance of 4 cents a mile up to $80.00 will also be included. Last date for application is February 15, 1961, with stipend awards to be announced in March.

The institute offers six graduate credits. Studies will be oriented around the following:

Chicken Festival Site Committee To Meet With C. of C. Tuesday

Representatives of the Site Committee of the Delmarva Chicken Festival will attend the regular luncheon meeting of the Harrington Chamber of Commerce Tuesday noon at The Wonder R. There will be a discussion on the possibility of holding the festival in Harrington like to have this affair here. Any questions on the arrangements will be answered by these representatives of the poultry industry.

The Chamber of Commerce believes that the facilities of the Fair Association can be obtained and that the festival would afford good publicity for Harrington.

Organizations are asked to have their representatives attend the meeting. The public is invited.

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

No matter how much closet space I have, there never seems to be quite enough room to store everything away when the seasons change. That's one of the main reasons why, in recent years especially, I've been concentrating on making articles that will carry over graciously from one season to the next.

SERVING IN SAFETY

My hot plate mats, for example, serve a multitude of purposes. During the colder months they protect the surfaces of my living room furniture. When there's an extra-special program on TV at mealtime, and I serve right around the set, it's so comforting to feel there's nothing to worry about. Or, after a meeting or an evening of bridge, I can serve as many piping hot foods as I like, knowing that my beautiful coffee table will be just as lovely the next time guests come to visit. I always enjoy a mixed hot and cold buffet. But, I must admit that if not for my mats, I'd be hesitant about bringing hot foods into the living room. In early Spring on to late Fall most of my cooking is barbecue. And my guests just love it. We have such grand times that I even rush into Spring a little before the calendar. My hot plate mats are marvelous helps for keeping hot serving plates from toppling over or sliding across the picnic table. They're so lively to see, and they lend a personal note of familiarity to my entertaining throughout the year. My family and guests always look forward to seeing these handy crocheted and woven pieces.

FOR SAVING TIME

I'm certainly glad my hot plate mats work quickly and stand up so well, because they never have a rest. I think you'll enjoy them too. All you do is crochet a simple perfectly plain background in knit-cro-stitch. Then, with a weaving needle you weave 3 colors of rug yarn right through to make the pattern, and use felt for your lining. I like the variety of doing 2 different kinds of work—crochet and weaving—especially when I know that the weaving stitch saves so much time. To receive free instructions, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Dept. of this newspaper and ask for HOT PLATE MAT, Leaflet No. S-961.

HOEY TO HEAD SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE AGAIN

Senator Walter J. Hoey will again be chairman of the State Senate's Finance Committee, Senator John E. Reilly, Sr., who will be president pro tempore, announced Thurs., Dec. 29, at the caucus of Democratic senators. Senator Reilly plans to appoint four Democrats and one Republican to each of the Senate committees. This is the same division used at the last session of the General Assembly, where the Senate had 11 Democrats and six Republicans as it will again at the new session to start Tuesday. In the House of Representatives, where the size of the Republican minority has increased, the committees will contain three Democrats and two Republicans, Speaker Sherman W. Tribbitt announced earlier.

The 10 members of the Joint Finance Committee, most active and most powerful of the General Assembly's committees, elect their chairman, but they traditionally choose the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. The joint committee is composed of the five members of that Senate committee, plus the five members of the House Appropriations Committee. This time it will contain seven Democrats and three Republicans. The Joint Finance Committee is one of the few committees of the General Assembly that actually meets. The committee holds hearings on the governor's budget and prepares a budget appropriation bill which is frequently different from the Governor's bill—especially when the Governor is of a different political party from the majority in the legislature.

Senator Hoey served as chairman of the Joint Finance Committee at the last session of the General Assembly, and also at the one before. Some of the other important committee assignments also involve reappointments. Senator Reilly will again head the Labor Committee and Senator Calvin R. McCullough, of Holloway Terrace, will again be chairman of the Education Committee.

Other committee chairmanships in the Senate:
Accounts—Senator Leon E. Donovan of Harrington.
Agriculture—Senator Earl M. Tull, Seaford.
Banking and Insurance—Senator B. Walter Johnson, Bear.
Claims—Senator Allen J. Cook of Kenton.
Corporation (municipal)—Senator Henry T. Price, Smyrna.
Corporations (private)—Senator Reilly.
Education—Senator Calvin R. McCullough, Holloway Terrace.
Elections—Senator Jesse Watson, Townsend.
Executive—Senator McCullough.
Judiciary—Senator Harry E. Mayhew, Milford.
Labor—Senator Reilly.
Passed Bills—Senator McCullough.
Printing—Senator Hoey.
Public Health—Senator Curtis W. Steen, Dagsboro.
Public Lands—Senator Steen.
Revised Statutes—Senator Watson.
Rules—Senator Cook.
Temperance—Senator Price.

The caucus Thursday at Dover was attended by 10 of the 11 Democrats—all but Senator McCullough.

"Delaware Trees" Edition Available

The State Forestry Department announced, Thurs., Dec. 29, the release for distribution of copies of the second edition of "Delaware Trees" recently received from the printer.

The first edition of this 260 page buckram bound, hard cover, book was published by the Department in 1939. Each copy of this edition was numbered on the inside back cover which appears to have established these copies as a collector's item and in a measure tended to defeat the educational and guide reference objectives of the publication as set forth in its title—"A Guide to the Identification of the Native Tree Species."

To avoid this, copies of the new edition will not be numbered. The new edition, except for a few minor corrections and amendments is essentially a duplication of the first edition. W. S. Taber, State Forester, is the author and copyright owner, having written the text, made all the drawings reproduced as line etching and taken most of the photographs used for halftone reproductions in the book.

The "Guide of Popular Floras of the United States" distributed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture as Bibliographical Bulletin No. 23, June 1954, p. 27, says of "Delaware Trees"—"This is one of the most complete and best illustrated of the State tree books."

In as much as the funds for the publication of this second edition were allotted by the 120th General Assembly, the Department's distribution policy has been amended to eliminate the mailing fee remittance required in distributing the first edition. Retained elements of the original distribution policy are: (a) one copy only to (b) bona fide residents of Delaware, (c) acknowledgement of receipt of copy by card filed with the State Forestry Department by the addressee.

Surplus Foods Help Feed School Children

During the 1960 fiscal year, more than $70 million worth of surplus commodities acquired by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, under price-support and surplus-removal programs, went to feed children in schools throughout the country. The surplus commodities are available to nonparticipating schools as well as to schools taking part in the National School Lunch Program. According to U.S.D.A. reports, the surplus foods distributed to the schools included butter, cheese, nonfat dry milk, honey, flour, cornmeal, peanut butter, rice, dried whole eggs, and sweet potatoes. Most of the food served under the National School Lunch Program—approximately 80 percent—was purchased locally by the public and nonprofit private schools participating in the program.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

Fri., Jan. 6, the Feast of the Epiphany, which terminates the Christmas season of 12 days, there will be three services of Holy Communion, scheduled for 6:30 a.m., 10 a.m., and 5:15 p.m. It is hoped that every member of the congregation will find it possible to attend one of these services.

The Episcopal Young Churchmen of Harrington will be hosts to the Kent County Episcopal Youth Convocation Sun., Jan. 6, 4:30 p.m., at St. Stephen's. Young people from Christ Church, Milford; St. Peter's, Smyrna; St. Paul's, Camden, and Christ Church, Dover will meet in Harrington at this time.

A session is being planned to include supper, a recreation hour, a business meeting, a program, and a devotional service conducted by the youth themselves, in the church at the conclusion of the activities.

The following members were appointed on a recreation committee: Dennis Bradley, Robert Greer, Miss Connie Biddle, Miss Sue Perry.

The ticket committee is composed of Miss Betty Jean Fowler and Robert Greer.

Officers of the local group are Miss Carol Ann McNally, president, and Miss Connie Biddle, treasurer.

Flowers on the altar Jan. 1 were given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Katherine Rutsche by Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Raughley, Jr.

Acolytes who served at the Christmas Eve Candlelight Service and Christmas Day were Gail McReynolds, Franklin Fowler, Charles McNally, Roy Porter, Gary Porter, Frank Welch, Walter Rogers, Robert Greer, Tim Strohl, William Thompson. Messrs. Thomas Clendening, Walter Winkler, Granville Hill, Clyde Perry were ushers on Jan. 1.

The following church school pupils were recently awarded bronze pins for excellent attendance: David French, Cindy De Vries, Walter Rogers, Gail McReynolds, Margaret French, James Eastman, Frank Welch, Christopher Jones. Robert Eastman was awarded the silver pin for excellent attendance.

Poinsettias decorating the church for Christmas were given to the glory of God by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Strohl, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Killen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Creadick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clendening, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Subashi, and the Rev. John R. Symonds Jr. Others were given by Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Welch in memory of Frank and Margaret Bland; Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Chipman, in memory of Ola Kelly; Mrs. R. E. Baynard in memory of Robert E. Baynard; G. Organists for the Christmas services were Mrs. Walter W. Winkler and Miss Anne Perry.

Out-of-town guests who recently registered at St. Stephen's were Marian Baker, Denton; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stafford, Denton; Viola Timmons, Salisbury; Sandralynn Short, Clayton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Knorr, Bloomsburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Irwin, Adelaide, Australia.

Delaware Food Market Report

It's back to normal after two big holiday weekends, with prices advancing on many foods. The effect of cold weather in Florida is still showing up in the rising prices on fresh vegetables. Lettuce is up 4 cents a head. Quality needs to be checked carefully since there are many heads that are very light in weight for size, and a lot of leaf damage has been seen. Egg plant has jumped back to 15 cents a pound; so has the price of sweet potatoes gone back up to the pre-holiday price. Cauliflower and broccoli are both higher in price. The only vegetable which is the exception is tomatoes. Carton tomatoes dropped as much as 8 cents in many stores this weekend.

Florida citrus fruit is becoming more plentiful and in some instances the quality is better. Prices, however, are a bit higher than normal for this time of year. On the average, oranges are selling at 49 cents a dozen; tangerines, 39 cents a dozen, and grapefruit about 11 cents each. Lemons are also up in price, selling for 60 cents a dozen this week. Many of the oranges remain small to middle size and a large percent seem to contain many seeds. Flavor still has much room for improvement. This can also be said for many of the grapefruit on the market.

Egg prices are on the rise again. Grade A large eggs have advanced 2 cents on the dozen. Grade A medium size eggs are also up 2 cent a dozen. The price spread between these two sizes is about 10 cents which once again makes Grade A medium size eggs the best buy this week. When buying eggs, be sure to select those that are stored in refrigerated units, since room temperatures soon lower the quality of eggs.

Thrifty shoppers will find fresh pork one of the better buys this week—fresh loin and fresh ham are two cuts to check. There is plenty of bacon and sausage, with reasonable prices. Leg-of-lamb is also on sale with prices starting at 59 cents a pound. Check these beef items also as some stores are featuring one or more of them: chuck and rib roasts and some steaks.

The outlook for food in the New Year, 1961, is as follows: Supplies will be a little larger, but these will be equalized by the increase of population. Consumer demand for food is expected to remain strong. Much of the income of consumers is expected to remain at a high level. With food supplies and demand little different from last year, retail food prices this year are expected to average close to those of 1960.

Assistant Dean of Arts and Science Named at University of Delaware

Dr. Ray E. Keeseey, associate professor of dramatic arts and speech at the University of Delaware, has been named assistant dean of arts and science.

Dr. Keeseey, who has been acting as a special assistant to Dean G. Bruce Dearing for the past year, will continue to teach courses in speech, but will devote an increasing amount of his time to administrative duties in the university's largest school.

A graduate of Ohio University, Dr. Keeseey received his master's degree there and completed work on his Ph.D. degree at Ohio State University in 1950. While at Ohio State he served as an assistant in the department of speech, but his work on his doctorate was interrupted by three years of service as assistant communications officer on the staff of the commander of aircraft, Seventh Fleet.

During his teaching career, Dr. Keeseey has taught at Dover, Ohio, High School and at the University of New Hampshire, Whitman College and Dartmouth. He joined the faculty of the University of Delaware as an associate professor in 1951. During the summers of 1953 and 1954, he was an adjunct professor at Franklin and Marshall College and in the summer of 1957 he attended the National Training Laboratory in Group Development at Bethel, Me.

Dr. Keeseey has been responsible for establishing an intramural debating program among residence halls and fraternities on the University of Delaware campus and, under his direction, the university's debating team participates in intercollegiate competition.

Dr. Keeseey has published articles in "Speech Monographs," the "Delaware School Journal," the "Quarterly Journal of Speech" and "Today's Speech" as well as book reviews in a number of publications. He is a member of the Speech Association of America; the American Speech and Hearing Association; Tau Kappa Alpha national honorary forensics group; past president of the Delaware Speech and Hearing Association; and a member of the executive committee of the Speech Association of the Eastern States.

With his wife and two children, Dr. Keeseey lives at 117 E. Park Place, Newark.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I sold my GI home and got a release from liability from the VA for any future payments. Am I now eligible for another GI loan?

A—You may or may not be. Release from liability does not automatically restore eligibility for another loan. It is restored only under certain conditions, such as selling your home because of health reasons, moving to another area for a better job, etc.

Q—Under the old death compensation program, the widow of a deceased peacetime veteran received less than the widow of a wartime veteran. Is this true under the Survivors Benefits Act?

A—No. The Survivors Benefits Act provides for equal payments for widows of both war and peacetime veterans.

Q—I haven't received my insurance premium notice envelopes from the VA. What should I do about the payments?

A—By all means, keep sending the premiums into the same VA office when they become due, just as you have in the past. Be sure to include your full name, address, and your insurance number. You'll find that on your policy. It will help to identify your payment.

Q—I am the widow of a recently deceased World War II veteran. He never used his entitlement for a GI loan. Am I eligible for this benefit?

A—Only those unmarried widows of World War II and Korean veterans who died in service or, following service, died as a result of a service-connected disability are eligible for GI home benefits.

Sulky Slants

By MRS. DAVE (PAT) SMITH

Welcome to 1961. Suppose everyone is feeling up to par by now as the Journal goes to press. As the old saying goes, a little fun doesn't hurt anyone, for sure everyone I talked to had a gay old time waiting for the holiday to go out and the new one to come in.

After all isn't the horse business just a little on the sporty side? So I think all our crowd really enjoyed New Years Eve. Oh, my gosh, was it quiet around the track last Sunday. Nothing was stirring, not even a mouse. I wouldn't dare say how I spent the evening or should I. But I really had a nice time. Away up in New York.

Last week I forgot to mention being over to Mr. and Mrs. James Pollards home in Federalsburg, Md. Little Jimmy Pollard received so many nice gifts. One he really didn't ask for was a two wheeled bicycle. But as usual, he wanted a space helmet and tommy gun. These modern youngsters now-a-days. Course, his little sister, Brenda, was almost a Christmas present, so she was just a wee bit too small to enter into the Christmas wishing for a couple years.

Lucy Quinn's sister, Dot, gave little Jimmy his bike (her grandson).

Now speaking of Dot Safford, how about the Christmas card addressed to "Betty Crocker"? Course our readers will wonder why. Well, Dot is the one who bakes all those good biscuits out to our track restaurant. Which she doesn't have to do. But Dot, what would we do without you? All the boys thank you I know. We all know Lizzie "Lucy's" cook wouldn't fool with them. So keep the good deed up Dot. And Paul we know you aren't of any help on this deal. And Gertie don't hide them please.

Now Lucy your meals are really good but the hot biscuits really add the finishing touch and oh boy the fried chicken is really something.

Poor me, I go in and order one thing by the time I stand and read the menu I want something else. Lucy will say, all right Pat let's make up our mind. But honestly everything looks good. But I get it changed just the same. (What if she wouldn't?) Met Genie Anderson in the restaurant as usual we talked horses. I just can't get used to Genie not calling the races. Course he has a good position with the Kirby and Holloway transportation for our horses and we all like Genie, as he is just one of us.

Here is some information he gave me on what's coming in out to the track.

Mr. Kirby sent two horses over to Mr. Stockley's stable.

Olin Davis still bringing in horses. Olin, you really have a large stable. And by the way, wasn't there a Christmas package sent this way. To Quick Lady, c/o Olin Davis? Ruth tells me she receives quite a lot of mail addressed that way. Isn't it rather cute at that?

Tic Wilcutt also had four head added to his already large string of horses.

Ellis Myer had two more sent to him this week making him 12 head now.

Stopped over to the Manges trailer to see how they spent their holidays. Dorothy and Dell Manges tell me they were at Northville, Mich., to look the track over. Was piled high with snow, but the boys were going on as usual with their jogging.

From there they spent some time with Dots parents in How, Ind.

Went on over to Del Manges stable to look at his horses. Del and Kenny McNut were clipping a horse, so out of clear sky, she really gave Del a nasty kick on his leg.

For a few minutes I think Del was a little on the sick side. So big hearted me, I asked if I could do anything.

I really got a cute answer. Kenny said Pat, I think VO, 3 Feathers or bunch of Four Roses will stop all the pain. Now don't get this all wrong, aren't these all good old soft drinks? Oh well, it was all in fun at Del's expense. You really did get a bad gash Del. Bet you come up lame.

But we can't pull your shoes off at this time of year and turn you out. Or shall we Kenny?

Ed Alexandria from Townsend shipped in eight head for training.

Manny Robinson has 20 head now in his stable.

Mr. Lamb laughed and said, Pat, I have only three but that's three too many.

Ivan Yoder in his string has 25 or 30 head. Guess I can't count any more.

Will go over to Mr. Stockley's stable and give you the exact amount in his stable next week. Mr. Clark has sent his mare in for training to Stockley.

Had nice chat with Mr. Harrington from Felton. Gee, Dave always liked him so. Mr. Harrington told me he just sent his filly to Mr. Vineyard.

Johnny Amato spent the holidays up in Maine, but is back on the job again. Ruth and her mother seemed to be real happy over their Christmas.

Elwood Long, who is across from me with his horses has nine head in training. Gosh, he is so nice if I want to go away. Will look after my horses for me. That's what I call a real friend.

You ask Bobby Hobbs how he came out over the holidays, he will just grin and say, guess all right Pat. Sane and sober.

Don Sanders, who was with Del MFanges stable has now joined the Kelly Stable with the expectation in time to be a second trainer.

Joe Adamo has 15 head he is training. And I hear he has two typical New York boys working for him. (Now just what do they mean?) "I ask you, Joe."

Jake Rudnick from Dover was sitting and chatting with the horsemen in the track restaurant. Also Dr. Reese from Washington, D. C., talking horses and breeding farms.

Harry and Irene Adams were having lunch at Lucys restaurant. Irene has been on the sick list for a few days and still a little on the weak side from a heart attack.

Lelia, what were you doing dashing all around New Years Day? For me I had a warning ticket for failure to give right of way. So I'll really have to be good.

Say, Mr. Callaway, I see you have moved from what I used to call the "Last Mile." Have been over to see you but office seemed to be closed. Don't get me wrong, I hope, only for friendly visit. Not for any tickets.

Couldn't pass up Austin Turcotte's blacksmith shop. For Austin and I are alike when it comes to pets. That's standard shop talk, not horses. I asked Austin what the heck the names were of those things if they weren't deer. Well, their names were Guonoco's, whatever that is. You will have to look that up in a dictionary.

By the time this is printed Austin said he expected to have highland cattle and water buffalo. That's our blacksmith. You'll never know what next out to his farm.

Thanks, Mrs. Gilstad for the book. They always come in handy.

Guess I was in luck again, had my New Year's dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stubbs. Like Mary Porter's and Romona Hubbard, there was everything you could think of on the table. I should begin to take on some weight I've lost since Dave died.

Stopped over to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith and had a long chat about this and that. Mrs. Griffith has started to write our horse news for The Harness Horse again this winter. Oh, boy that's a job. I had that two years.

Was over to Madeline Dyers and without a doubt she had the most beautiful gifts and all useful. Mostly wearing apparel. Dot she is glad the holiday season is at an end.

And so all good things must come to an end. See you next week.

Sewer Debt

There has been an erroneous statement being circulated that there is a debt remaining on the Harrington Manor Sewer. As my term as councilman comes to a close, I want to set the record straight as there is no debt on Harrington Manor Sewer and anyone who wishes can call their councilman to check this.

This sewer was planned, installed and completely paid for in the past three years with no additional taxes placed upon the residents of Harrington. I am very proud to work with some people to accomplish this improvement in town. On the other hand some people or persons who everyone know definitely opposed this project, now want to lay claim that they were the ones who promoted this project and that it would not get paid for without their assistance.

Delaware Field Crops Income

Increases Over 1 Million in 1960

Although market prices, in many instances, sagged, 1960 was nevertheless a good one for field crops in Delaware, advises the Delaware State Development Department.

Basing its findings on recently released 1960 crop summaries compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the state information agency points out that the value of Delaware field crops and tree fruits, produced during 1960, totaled $35,624,000, an increase of $1,345,000 over that of the previous year.

Of this $35,624,000 total, $587,000 came from fruit and nuts; $6,551,000 was derived from commercial growing of vegetables; and $28,486,000 came from field crop production.

According to the Agriculture Department's end-of-year summaries, the 1960 corn crop had value of $11,681,000 compared with $10,818,000 for 1959. This was despite the fact that the average price per bushel dropped from $1.26 to $1.20 in 1960.

The 1960 Delaware wheat crop was worth $1,279,000, almost the same as the $1,276,000 of 1959. Average price received, however, dropped from $1.72 per bushel to $1.65.

The 1960 barley crop was worth $612,000, as compared to $511,000 for 1959; the rye crop was worth $361,000, a substantial gain from the previous year's $279,000; and the 1960 Delaware oats crop had value of $197,000, compared with $168,000 for 1959.

Although the average price dropped from $2.08 per bushel to $2.05 during 1960, soybeans continued to forge forward as one of the state's major field crops notes the Development Department. The 1960 soybean crop was valued at $9,299,000, a big jump from a 1959 value of $6,937,000.

A big drop occurred in the value of potatoes raised in Delaware this past year, the 1960 yield being valued at only $3,146,000, against $5,568,000 for 1959. This decrease in value reflected, in large measure, a drop in average price from $2.32 a bushel to only $1.43 per bushel.

That Delaware's field crops brought in more cash this year than last is due to the sizeable increase in the value of the soybean harvest and an increase in the corn harvest, which more than made up for the big drop in potato yields and sales concludes the Development Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop Sr. were Wednesday dinner guests of their children, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bishops Jr., and son, of Dover. The dinner was in honor of the mother's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Fassel and family, Slaughter Beach were Friday evening visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Boone Sr. and daughter, Fay, Saturday, their children, Mr. and Mrs. George Lane and family, of Harrington, visited them and Sunday their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone and family, Clayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boone and family, Dover.

Misses Virginia Lee and Susan Glanden, Wilmington, spent part of this week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Coverdale. Their mother, Mrs. William Glanden, visited with her parents, the Coverdales, Monday, and took her daughters home. Another visitor was the Rev. E. Rhoads, of Milford, Monday.

The Rev. E. Rhoads and James Coverdale, visited with patients at the Simpson Nursing Home near Frederica. They sang for them at the request of the patients Sunday afternoon.

Of Local Interest

Mrs. Blanche Cahall and sister, Mrs. Bess Booser, entertained friends at an open house Thursday evening.

Mrs. Booser returns to Florida this week where she will be employed by an accounting firm as a federal income tax consultant at West Palm Beach until April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Bell and family of Hyattsville, Md., spent New Year's Day with Mr. Bell's mother and Mrs. Blanche Cahall.

Greenwood

Well, the trees are untrimmed, the presents unwrapped and we have picked the last of the fruit cake out of our teeth, so now greet the New Year. Ann Christopher called to say that she got a new Impala for Christmas and that her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Collier got a new Hammond electric organ. I believe Mrs. Lester Hatfield has a new electric organ also.

Our good wishes for a speedy recovery go to Mrs. William Coulter who suffered a bad fall just following Christmas and is now a patient in Milford Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Chaffinch visited Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Melvin in Bridgeville on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Montgomery of Federalsburg visited Mrs. Montgomery's sister, Ann Christopher, last Sunday to say goodbye before going to Florida for the rest of the winter. They will be driving down in their new Olds.

Wayne Collison and Edgar Wroten have returned home after finishing their six-months' course with the National Guards in Ft. Knox, Ky.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Workman were on Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Harold West, of Seaford; Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Adams; and on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walston of Trinity neighborhood.

Mrs. Lester Workman enjoyed a call from her son, Ralph Harmon, who is a senior at Southern Methodist University. He did not get home for Christmas because he traveled to Joplin, Mo., to be best man for his college roommate at his holiday wedding. Ralph expects to get home either at mid-term or at Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Davis entertained at a turkey dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis and son, Dickie, Miss Charlotte Miller of Seaford, Mrs. Joe Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and children of Federalsburg; Mr. and Mrs. William Newman and children of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Shockley and children of Milford; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and son of Milton.

Receives Invitation To Inauguration

Mrs. Blanche Cahall, president of the Kent County Democratic Women's Club, has received an invitation to attend the inauguration ceremonies of President-elect Kennedy.

V.F.W. Takes Lead in Bowling

With one more night in the first half left V.F.W. takes over 1st place as they batter Fisher Appliances 4-0. This was a must win for V.F.W. with the top musters being West, 581 and Gannon, 541.

The remaining night in the schedule favors V.F.W. as they play Stone's Hotel while Fisher must play Dick's Atlantic.

Purnells Insurance and Dicks Atlantic battle for 3rd place with Purnells sewing it up as they take 3-1. W. Johnson, 594; Boutwell, 572; Fido, 562, and Calhoun 560, score big for Purnells. Big bombers for Dick's, R. Emory, 556; Rocco, 550. Purnell's is still a possible 1st half winner if it gets big half from Stone's and Dick's this week.

Aptt Oil remains tied for 5th even though they are slaughtered by Cooties. This was a fine team effort by Cooties as every man on the team bowled over his average. The Cooties bowled 301 pins over average making this their best night ever. Johnson gives Cooties a dose of their own medicine with a 547 for Apts.

Libby VP's continue to evade cellar as they take 3-1 from Hamilton Fund. Jarrell's 217 game helps Hamilton Fund take 2nd game. Both teams are in position to advance this week.

Victor Lynn rolls over Economy Auto 3-1. Economy still feeling the effects of the Christmas rush continue to drop in the standings.

Libby Pies drop Stone's Hotel 3-1 as Stones miss their chance to move to 7th place. Pies hold 11th place by that slim 1/2 game margin. Snyder scores 213 game for Pies.

200 Games—W. Johnson, 234, Purnells; J. West, 224-211, V.F.W.; N. Jarrell, 217, Hamilton Fund; D. Calhoun, 213, Purnells; R. Snyder, 213, Libby Pies; L. Gannon, 212, V.F.W.; G. Campbell, 212, V.F.W.; Fido Farrow, 204, Purnells; D. L. Boutwell, 203, 200, Purnells; R. Smith, 203, Dicks Atlantic; C. Emory, 202, Dicks Atlantic; J. Gilmore, 202, Cooties.

Baptist Church News

57 Clark Street, H. R. Garland is pastor. Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m. with Howard Sutcliffe, supt. The past Sunday service was well attended. This Sunday was set aside as Soul-Commitment Day. Jan. 2 through 6 will be observed by most Baptist Churches as Bible study week. At this time they will make a study of First Corinthians. This is just one of the many study courses offered by Baptist churches during each year.

All Baptist churches affiliated with the Baptist Convention of Maryland, will assemble in the Seventh Baptist Church of Baltimore, for an evangelistic conference, Jan. 2 and 3.

The pastor's subjects for the next Lord's Day will be at the morning service "Stewardship", at the evening service, "The Five Crowns."

The work on our recently purchased church building is progressing in a wonderful way, and we hope to hold our services there by the middle of February.

Things in which we as Baptists agree with others: Baptist have many things in common with other religious bodies. With the Jews we believe in one God, the Creator of all things. Many of the doctrines of the Catholic Church are acceptable to Baptists. With them we believe in one God in three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit; in the incarnation, atoning death, and glorious resurrection of Christ; in the inspiration of the Scriptures, and life in the world to come.

But of course it is with other evangelical denominations that we have most in common. And we rejoice in the fact that the things in which we agree with them are more numerous and more important than the things in which we differ. We join with them in holding to the following doctrines; the inspiration of the Scriptures; the necessity of the new birth, which includes repentance and faith; salvation by grace and not by works; the deity, substitutionary death, resurrection, ascension, and the second coming of Jesus Christ; the resurrection of the dead, and a final judgment, with eternal blessedness for the redeemed, and eternal death for the wicked.

A Baptist Church is a Bible Church. Anyone not now attending church is hereby extended an invitation to worship with us. If you are looking for a gospel home church, maybe we can help you.

BSA to Sponsor Canoeing Jaunt

For the fourth consecutive year, the Del-Mar-Va Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, will sponsor canoeing expeditions from June 18 to July 5, to be held near Canada and 22 miles northeast of Ely, Minn., and 3 miles south of the Canadian border. The expeditions will carry crews deep into Canadian territory.

Overall Council Chairman for this year's four proposed expeditions will be Ernest W. Thorn, of the Atlas Powder Company of Wilmington. According to Thorn, these expeditions are among the most rugged experiences ever to be sponsored by the Del-Mar-Va Council as part of the high adventure programs for Senior Scouts and Explorers.

Adult advisors heading up the council's four expeditions are: Mark W. Fawcett, Wilmington; William Mullin, New Castle; Roy McCullough, Explorer advisor of Milford, and George K. Gerlach, Scout leader of Cambridge, Md.

Initial planning meetings to acquaint Senior Scouts, Explorers and leaders making up this year's expeditions will be held tomorrow at Seaford at the Mt. Olivet Methodist Church, from 2 to 4 p. m.

Harrington School Notes

The Coady family and a few of their friends attended the Philadelphia Mimmers' Parade last Monday, Jan. 2. They enjoyed the parade tremendously from beginning to end.

Contrary to arm chair viewers' opinions, standing for hours in the cold was well worth it. The true colors of an event like this cannot be fully appreciated on television.

Mr. Kramedas' twelfth grade class had a Christmas party Dec. 23. The twelfth grade class danced, had cokes, potato chips and buns.

Christmas was evidently enjoyed by the students of Harrington High School. Most of them came back to school wearing new clothes and bringing things they had received for Christmas.

The Girls Varsity Basketball Team lost their first scrimmage of the year to Caesar Rodney on Dec. 30, by a close score of 17-14.

The students in Mrs. Graden's homeroom had a Christmas party Dec. 23. Soft drinks, potato chips, cupcakes, and cookies were the refreshments.

Friday, Dec. 23, Mr. Rutledge's room had a party. They played records and also danced. They for refreshments they had cokes, buns and potato chips and cookies.

Thursday before Christmas we had a program for our mothers. The following mothers came to see our program and be with us for our Christmas party:

Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. Thomas Peck, Mrs. Layton Betts, Mrs. Franklin Swain, Mrs. Joseph Konesey, Mrs. Arlie Webb, Mrs. Charles Greenhaugh, Mrs. Charles Morris, Mrs. Clifford Knight, Mrs. Nyle Callaway.

Mrs. Smith When we had our Christmas party Calvin Bonniwell came in. He had been gone so long that we all missed him.

Mrs. Marvel We are all happy to be back to school after a lovely Christmas holiday. In Show and Tell Period we showed our presents which we brought or wore and told about some of the other presents.

Mrs. Donovan—Grade 5 Cynthia Kohel, Tillie Kukulka, Ina Faye Willey, Dennis Harcum, Clay Jester, David Murphy, Billy Newnom, James Simpler, Shirley Smith, Franklin Tucker.

Mrs. Charles Peck Jr., president, has called an executive committee meeting on Monday morning, Jan. 9 at 10 o'clock at her home on Raughley Hill Road. All member are urged to attend.

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

"Just a housewife" — how often have we heard women describe themselves in this apologetic fashion. And how misleading their description is! For certainly there is no role more challenging and many-faceted than that of the homemaker with so many opportunities in her daily routine to be truly creative.

woman loves. The talented lady who knits and crochets can make many, many such accessories for her home and, best of all, she can fashion them easily and economically. They'll be elegant evidence of her deep concern for home and family.

Plan Varied Program for Women At U. D. Farm and Home Week Feb. 7-9

Homemakers attending the University of Delaware's annual Farm and Home Week, Feb. 7, 8 and 9, will find a varied program with the accent on gracious living.

Fashions, decorating, planning and serving attractive meals, and home gardening are just a few of the many topics included in the "home" part of this year's Farm and Home Week.

Appealing to the increasing number of women who have taken up fishing as a hobby, as well as those who prefer to have their husbands do the actual catching, is an opening-day topic, "Cooking Your Catch." Robert Finley of the Fish and Wildlife Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, will discuss and demonstrate various ways to prepare and cook fish on Tuesday morning, Feb. 7.

"Decorating Your Home" is another first-day topic to be presented by Miss Virginia Pegrum, director of the Home Furnishings Industry Committee, Chicago. Miss Pegrum will discuss methods of identifying period furniture, style trends, details to look for in buying furniture, and furniture arrangement.

"Investing Your Money" is the title of a Tuesday evening panel discussion, featuring three area businessmen. G. U. Ford of Laird Bissell and Meeds, Wilmington, will discuss investment in stocks. R. Douglas Layton, district manager of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, Wilmington, will discuss insurance as a personal investment, and H. Gibbons Young of Young and Williams, Newark, will discuss investments in real estate. Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the university's department of agricultural economics, will serve as moderator.

Home gardening takes the spotlight on Wed., Feb. 8, with topics ranging from annuals to orchids. Wednesday afternoon's speakers will include Leslie Mathewson and Joseph Derrick, both of the National Association of Gardeners, speaking on begonias and gesneriads, respectively. Professor Robert F. Stevens of the university's department of horticulture will discuss plant propagation through cuttings.

Wednesday evening's speakers will include B. Edward Arndt, Delaware Orchid Society, "How to Grow Orchids"; B. H. Kirk of the DuPont Company, "Plastic Films for Home Greenhouses"; Dr. Lewis P. Kelsey, U. D. department of entomology, "Wage a War on Bugs"; and Dr. Charles W. Dunham, U. D. department of horticulture, "All-American Annuals."

Thursday highlights for the female audience include "Fashion Begins with a Plan", a morning program offering wardrobe planning tips, and "Set a Pretty Table—Serve a Pretty Meal," a discussion-demonstration of eye-appealing foods and table settings for different occasions. The fashion program will feature live models from home demonstration groups and the foods program will be presented by Mrs. Anne W. Holberton and Miss Janet L. Coblentz, both of the U. D. home economics extension staff.

Homemakers also will find interesting the two general sessions planned for Tuesday and Thursday, Feb. 7 and 9, at 11:30 a. m. On Tuesday, Frank Tueton of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will present "Research on Parade," visualizing the results of research and featuring improved foods, fabrics and flowers.

The Thursday general session will feature Charles H. Rutledge of the textile fibers department, DuPont Company, in an entertaining discussion and demonstration, contrasting old-time and modern homemaking methods, and featuring fabrics made with man-made fibers.

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

Take a short cut to fashion and make your next needlework project a bulky knit sweater. For there's no easier way to achieve a fashion look than with a beautiful bulky, so perfect to wear with sportswear of any kind. Yet no garment could be simpler to knit thanks to wonderful fast-working yarn. The stunning jacket we're featuring today, for example, can be made in no time by even the inexperienced needleworker.

LONG ON STYLE

This is a simple pattern stitch jacket designed along flattering longer lines. Knit this casual cardigan in two colors, using the darker shade for ribbing around the edges. Comfortable shawl collar and set-in sleeves contribute to the garment's custom look but you'll be surprised to discover how economical even such a stylish sweater can be when you make it yourself. A versatile addition to your wardrobe, this jacket can be teamed with skirts, slacks or Bermuda shorts with equal success. And because the design is so easy, you'll discover this needlecraft project requires very little concentration. In fact you can work on this jacket while watching television, chatting with friends.

GLAMOROUS GIFT

Wear this jacket once and I predict you'll be swamped with requests for duplicates from friends and relatives. So why not anticipate the demand and begin now to knit at least one more sweater to give as a gift. For free directions, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this newspaper. Ask for KNITTED JACKET, Leaflet No. B-124.

U. D. Develops New High-Quality, High-Protein Soybean, Resistant to Destructive Root-Knot Nematode

A new high-quality, high-protein soybean, resistant to a troublesome species of root-knot nematode, has been developed by scientists in the University of Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station.

Bethel, the new variety, was developed by Dr. H. W. Crittenden, of the University's department of plant pathology. Dr. Crittenden made thousands of individual plant selections, searching for strains resistant to the root-knot nematode, Meloidogyne incognita acrita. This tiny organism is found in large numbers in certain soils of Delaware and attacks many crops and is particularly damaging to potatoes, tomatoes, lima beans, cantaloupes, cucumbers, and other valuable horticultural crops.

Dr. Crittenden demonstrated that by planting a nematode resistant crop such as soybeans in infested soils, farmers can literally "starve" the nematodes. After one or two years of "starvation", the nematode population is so depleted that farmers can safely plant horticultural crops. In the meantime, the soybeans can provide cash income from the land.

All common soybean varieties are host to the nematodes, although the organisms apparently do not affect the yield. The challenge to Dr. Crittenden therefore was to find a resistant variety with characteristics that would make it profitable to grow.

Bethel not only meets the criterion of resistance to Meloidogyne incognita acrita, but is a bean of excellent appearance and quality and high in protein, making it a potentially valuable crop for the export market.

The bean is an erect, branching variety, averaging 44 inches in height, with medium-sized yellow seeds and a yellow hilum or seed scar. It averages 41.8 per cent protein and 21 per cent oil on a dry basis. Yields in 1958 and 1959 Delaware tests averaged 43.8 bushels per acre. It matures 4 to 6 days earlier than the Dorman and Hill varieties currently grown by many farmers, but 6 to 10 days later than Wabash and Clark. It is resistant to "pod and stem light disease" and the soybean disease known as "frog-eye."

Agronomists are the University say that, taking everything into consideration—yield, quality, appearance, disease resistance, maturity and ease of harvesting—Bethel is better than any variety currently being grown in any quantity by Delaware farmers.

Seed supplies of the new bean are available for commercial planting and farmers interested in obtaining seed should contact one of the University's county agricultural agents.

Announcement of the development of Bethel was made simultaneously by the University and by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Washington. The USDA announcement also lists Kent as another new variety that shows promise for Delaware growers. Although it is not resistant to the root-knot nematode, Kent is resistant to downy mildew, frog-eye leafspot and lodging. It is a high-oil content bean with very high yield and good quality. It, too, is considered by University agronomists to be generally superior to the common varieties now being grown by Delaware farmers.

Following Dr. Crittenden's selection of the experimental variety, UD-321, later named Bethel after Bethel, Del., where the experimental work was done on the farm of Harley Hastings, the beans were tested and approved by 10 different state agricultural experiment stations and the USDA, as a part of the procedure established for evaluating new crop varieties.

Houston

Sunday School at 10 a.m. Robert H. Yerkes Sr., general superintendent presiding; Alvin O. Brown, supt., of the Junior Department; Carl Prentice, of Missions, and Mrs. William Scott, supt. of the cradle roll.

During the fall and winter the Sunday School attendance has held up very well despite the adverse weather we had for several weeks, and we do hope that in the coming months this good record can be maintained.

The third Sunday offering on the Building Fund in December was $335.90.

The Worship Service begins at 11 a.m. with the organ prelude, Mrs. Agnes T. Webb at the organ assisted by John Clark at the piano.

Call to worship by the pastor, the Rev. Ray W. Kirwan, who will deliver the sermon. The Senior and Junior Choirs will furnish extra selections.

The following have been chosen as ushers for the month of January. Russell Hayes, Clinton Marvel, George Marvel, Charles Pearson, and chief usher, Charles Hayes.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:45 p.m.

The Lord's Acre Project, which our church undertook last summer, netted $126 which was equally divided between the church budget and the Building Fund.

The Adult Fellowship will hold its first meeting of the New Year Saturday, Jan. 7, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Doris Clifton, Mrs. Edith Purcell and Mrs. Phyllis Minner, will serve as hostesses.

The Dover District Preaching Mission will be held in the Centenary Methodist Church, Laurel, from Sun., Jan. 1st through Sun., Jan. 8, beginning at 7:30 p.m. each evening. The speaker will be Dr. Roy L. Tawes, the district superintendent. Special singing will be provided by the choirs of the churches in Dover District. It is hoped that special effort will be put forth to attend as many of these services as possible.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold the first meeting of the New Year on Thursday evening, Jan. 12, at 8 p.m. Hostesses for the occasion include Mrs. Alvin Brown, Mrs. Charles Gooding, and Mrs. Ray Kirwan.

Trinity Methodist Church Notes

Nineteen sixty has just joined the parade of past years. We have all had our disappointments and our successes. But we should all be thankful for our share of good health, good will, and sincere friendships.

Looking back over the year, I am deeply grateful to you who have shown your loyalty to Trinity Church. In your support of our building program you have shown that you recognize the importance of keeping spiritual values alive, and of advancing the Kingdom here on earth, and of staying in tune with the Highest. There is a great deal of speculation and uncertainty about what the new year has in store for us.

It is not possible to "look into the crystal ball" and come up with the answers to the many perplexing problems facing all of us—facing our church—but we do know that Trinity Church must meet many challenges in the months ahead.

How fine it would be if everyone in our Church would make the resolution to put God and the Church first in everything next year. Our lives would go forward in new achievements.

I believe that we will all continue to support our church in its on-going program in nineteen sixty-one.

May this New Year, which is just starting, bring you and yours the best of everything. This Sunday repledge your loyalty and love toward Trinity Church. Be with us in the services of the day, and continue with us every Sunday of the New Year.
Sunday, Jan. 8th, 1961.

9:45, Sunday School. William Jester, general superintendent. Virginia Shultie, Primary superintendent.

Classes for all ages, everyone welcome.

The total amount of the special Christmas offering of the Church School to the church was $455. We are appreciative for this fine effort on the part of our church school. The attendance has been up for the past month and we hope all of our Sunday School members will keep up the good work and help to make this New Year a record year in attendance.

11 o'clock, worship service.

The Senior and Junior Choirs will offer special music. The flowers and greeters for the service will be by the Loyal Workers

Bible Class. The Rev. Benjamin will preach on the subject, "Who Are We?"

6:30 p.m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet with Mrs. Redden in the chapel room.

There will be no evening vesper service due to the Dover-District preaching being held at Centenary Church, Laurel. The Rev. Dr. Roy L. Tawes, superintendent, will be preaching the last message of the mission. Special music will be offered by a guest choir. Dave Curtis of Wilmington is the song leader for the mission. All of our people are urged to attend the service at 7:30.

The O.U.R. Class will meet with the Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin at the parsonage on Tuesday evening will be by the Loyal Workers

Asbury Methodist Church News

Church School 10:00 o'clock, Howard S. Wagner, superintendent. Classes for all ages that provide opportunities for Biblical study and Christian fellowship. If you have not been attending lately, now would be a good time to begin, since we are beginning a new series of study in the Church School for this quarter, entitled "The Significance of The Work of Christ." Our lesson for this Sunday is, "Jesus Brings Joy."

The Morning Worship Service 11:00 o'clock, conducted by the pastor. The sermon theme is: "A Prescription for Life." Special anthems will be rendered by the Crusader Choir, directed by Mrs. William Kramedas and the Cathedral Choir. A nursery will be provided.

The Evening Worship Service 7:30 o'clock. A quiet period set aside at the close of the Sabbath for prayer, meditation and fellowship. The pastor's message will be: "Wise Men Seek Jesus." The Chancel Choir, conducted by Melvin Brobst, will sing the anthem, "Lonesome Valley," by Wilson.

The Official Board will meet Sunday evening immediately following the Evening Worship Service. All members are urged to be present since this will be our last Board meeting before the Fourth Quarterly Conference, which is to be held January the 31st at 7:30 p. m.

The Pathfinders Class will meet this Sunday afternoon at 2:00 in their classroom to make final plans for the Antique Show that is to be held April 12-13.

The Altar Flowers this week will be presented to the glory of God by Mr. and Mrs. Howell Hitchens and Mrs. Byron McKnatt.

The Friendly Greeters this week will be Mrs. Robert Jarrell and Mrs. Martin Jarrell. All choirs will rehearse this Thursday.

On January 20-21, Asbury will be host to approximately 100 boys and girls that will attend a Christian Vocations Clinic, to be held here in Harrington. This is a project sponsored by the Peninsula Conference. We will need homes for these youth to stay in for one night. If you can spare the room, please contact either Mrs. Norman Hopkins or Mrs. James Moore.

The ladies of the Asbury Woman's Society of Christian Service have planned a roast beef supper to be held in the Collins Auditorium, Sat., Feb. 4, beginning at 4 p. m.

The Family Night Service this month to be held Sunday evening, Jan. 29, will feature Dr. Gene Adrian, a former Roman Catholic priest, as the speaker.

'Delaware Sunday' Rites Staged at Valley Forge

Faith as expressed at Valley Forge by Washington and his tottered men is the hope of this nation's future guarantees of freedom, Delaware's deputy attorney general said there Sunday.

For the second consecutive year, Clement C. Wood was appointed the State's official representative as Delaware Sunday observed in George Washington Memorial Chapel.

The State is honored annually on the first Sunday of January because of its historic position of having initially ratified the Federal Constitution.

Making pilgrimages were officers and members of Delaware Chapters, Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution; Mothers of World War II and many individuals.

Music was provided by the choir of Trinity Episcopal Church of Wilmington, with William F. Nagle as organist and choir master. The Rev. Percy Fox is pastor.

In his address, Mr. Wood paid high tribute to the Delaware Blues, the battalion which fought so gallantly all through the revolution, and praised Capt. Allen McLane whom Wood said, "was in every sense a distinguished American and Delaware soldier."

Originally a well-equipped and proud outfit, Mr. Wood pointed out that after four years in the North and three years in the South, the Blues marched with broken shoes or completely shoeless; through mud and sand and summer's heat and winter's cold; sleeping in the open or in tents on freezing grounds, and continuing this effort years on end with out pay.

"Above all," Mr. Wood said,

Boggs' Nominee For National Guard Job Faces Opposition

Maj. Raymond S. Holland has been nominated for appointment March 1 as U. S. property and disbursing officer for Delaware, to succeed Brig-Gen. John B. Grier, who will retire.

The nomination was made by former Gov. J. Caleb Boggs shortly before he resigned to become U. S. Senator. Whether Major Holland is appointed, however, will depend upon Gov.-elect Elbert N. Carvel, who will become governor on Jan. 17. The property and disbursing officers serves at the pleasure of the governor, and three Democrats are said to be interested in the appointment. All three are National Guard officers with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. They are:

Lt. Col. Clifford E. Hall of Selbyville, commander of the Fifth Battalion, 198th Artillery; assistant director of the 1960 Delaware election campaign; president of the Federation of Democratic Clubs, and former state auditor.

Lt. Col. D. Preston Lee, assistant adjutant general; former state director of civil defense.

Lt. Col. George I. Sylvester, Jr., former administrative assistant to Carvel during his first term as Governor, and former secretary of the Public Service Commission.

Major Holland is a present assistant to General Grier.

The position is a federal one, but the officer serves under the adjutant of Delaware. He is responsible for the federal equipment used by the Delaware National Guard—consisting of aircraft, radar sets, guns, trucks and other material valued at more than $50,000,000. He also disburses about $5,000,000 a year. The officer heads a staff of about 30 persons, with offices at the New Castle County Airport.

The individual appointed goes on active duty in his Army rank for a lieutenant colonel that means an annual salary of about $10,000, depending on years of service. Another important feature, to officers who have put in years of active duty, is the retirement credit that accrues. All three of the officers mentioned have some years of service to their credit.

General Grier has served in the post since 1940—when he was appointed by former Gov. Richard C. McMullen—except for the time he was on other duty during World War II. He has served under five Governors—McMullen, Walter W. Bacon, Carvel, Boggs and the present Gov. David P. Buckson.

General Grier was scheduled to retire, under federal regulations, about two years ago. At the request of Brig. Gen. Joseph J. Scannell, the adjutant general, former Governor Boggs asked for an extension. Now he is scheduled to retire at the end of next month.

The general is famous as a sharpshooter. He won the U. S. trapshooting championship in 1937 and served on the Olympic rifle team in 1924.

It is understood that Boggs sent in a nomination because it is cus-

Auto Still Doesn't Fit Between Those Two Trees

About two years ago, Edward S. Hobbs of Harrington fell asleep at the wheel and his car ran off Delaware Route 16 about two miles west of Ellendale.

His 1955 red and white Mercury sedan jammed between two trees and was demolished. The 26-year-old farmer escaped without injury, was charged with reckless driving and was fined $13.50. Trooper Forrest Purdy made the arrest.

At 4:30 a. m. Sunday Hobbs fell asleep at the wheel and his car ran off Delaware Route 16. He was driving another red and white 1955 Mercury sedan.

The car jammed between the same two trees and was demolished. Again Hobbs escaped injury and was charged with reckless driving.

The investigating officer this time? Trooper Forrest Purdy.

the general meeting of the Wilmington Branch of the American Association of University Women at First Unitarian Church, Sharpley. The subject of the panel discussion was:

"Education Beyond the High Schools."

He suggested more selective testing of students, increasing facilities by adding different types of courses, and establishing more junior colleges and making more efficient use of existing facilities.

To help the anti-litter campaign, Brighton, England, has set up litter bins disguised as quaint figures and displaying a notice "I Eat Litter."

As soon as the teachers are trained they will begin to give the course to the members of their club. It will take about six weeks to train the teachers.

George Grotz, field representative of the National Safety Council, said the program is the first of its kind ever organized. He predicted it will produce excellent results in building up the driving ability of those who participate.

Mr. Chidester said the system helps motorists to "train their eyes for expert driving," by recognizing certain distractions and learning where and when to look and what to see in driving situations.

He said the training program being provided to the women's clubs is available to any interested organization through the Delaware Safety Council.

The participation of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs was initiated by Mrs. Rosella Humes, state president; Mrs. Elizabeth Clugston state health and safety chairman; Miss Doris Watson, editor of The First Star Woman; and Miss Rosemary Riley, state public relations chairman.
