H.H.S. Passers Trip Bridgeville And Greenwood

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Jim Hawpe's Harrington High School basketball Lions posted their second win in three starts at Bridgeville Friday night. The locals led most of the way and had a fairly easy time of it, winning by a score of 61-41.

The victors led by four points at halftime. Pfeiffer, Gillette and Porter were in danger of fouling out so Coach Hawpe had them ride the bench for most of the third period. During their absence the Mustangs rallied to tie the score but Walt Lekites made a three-point play to put Harrington in the lead for good. The Lions led by eight points with four minutes left to play. They took advantage of the absence of four Bridgeville players via the foul route and outscored the home team 11-0 to win going away.

Councilmen whose terms did not expire this year were: Raymond Dean, of the Third Ward; Thomas Brown, First Ward; and William A. Smith, Fifth Ward.

Tuesday's election was termed one of the largest in the community's history with more than 650 voters going to the polls.

INCOMING CITY COUNCIL REHIRS ALL CITY EMPLOYEES

The organization meeting of the incoming City Council Wednesday night saw practically no excitement. All the City help was rehired.

Mayor Charles L. Peck Sr., successful in the Tuesday election for a second term, swore in the new councilmen, namely: Luther P. Hatfield, from the Second Ward; Howell Hitchens, of the Fourth Ward; and Clarence Black, Sixth Ward. Black, however, had been serving the remainder of 1960 as councilman after Charles Hopkins died in August. He will serve the two years remaining in Hopkins' term but Hatfield and Hitchens will serve the usual three years.

The Council reappointed George S. Graham as City manager, at the same salary, $3500 per year, by a vote of 5 to 1 on a secret ballot.

Mrs. Kathryn Simpson was rehired as City clerk, at her previous salary of $65 per week, with Mrs. Townsend Masten appointed for part-time work in the City office.

The entire police force was reappointed, with Chief of Police Ernest Kohland at $75 per week, and Patrolmen Donald Black and David Peterson at $65 per week. Mayor Peck named Luther P. Hatfield, City Manager Graham, and Ernest Dean to the Police Commission, with the last-named two being incumbents.

The Mayor also appointed Tom Brown, Bill Smith, and Howell Hitchens to the Street Commission.

Under state formula, for a school of this size, the size of the multipurpose room is 40'x60'. Original plans had one slightly larger.

These preliminary plans must now be approved by the State Board at its meeting this month, after which final plans will be submitted by the architects.

Derrickson Likely To Keep Democratic Post

The deadline for filing for posts on the Kent County Democratic Committee passed quietly Saturday with only a relative handful of contests listed.

All indications are that the committee is one that will firmly support Vernon B. Derrickson if he should choose to continue as county chairman.

The election of committeemen and women is to be held January 21 and the chairman will be chosen in February.

Three contests will highlight the election.

In the fourth district John Pearson and Irving Garton will attempt to unseat William Edward Robb and Fred M. Williams and Evelyn Webb and Jeannette Darling will oppose Nellie Craig and Abbie Melton.

In the first of the ninth, the "Frontiers," an organization of Democrats attempting to unseat "regulars" have entered a slate comprised of William A. Minner and Mrs. Eva Raughley. They will back the "regular" candidates, Mrs. Kathryn Simpson and George S. Graham.

Other contests include: 2nd of 1st—Walter Handsberry and Arthur Dickerson, Ruth M. Haas and Edna M. David; 3rd of the 5th — Joseph Slights and Thomas J. ### CITIZENS' MEETING SEES SHIFT IN CANDIDACIES FOR CITY POSTS

While petitions had been filed for candidacies to fill City Council posts, at City Hall, there were some last-minute changes at the annual Citizens' Meeting Friday night at the Firehouse.

After attempts to draft by petition E. B. Rash, former mayor, to run for mayor, Alan Rutledge, outgoing councilman from the Second Ward, was nominated from the floor Friday evening. He opposed unsuccessfully, Mayor Charles L. Peck Sr., who ran for re-election Tuesday.

There were two contests for councilmen. In the Second Ward, Luther P. Hatfield successfully opposed Harold Fry, Tuesday, and in the Fourth Ward Kenneth Aiken lost to Howell Hitchens, Robert Stauffer, a file, dropped out at the last moment.

Delmar Is Shop For Rail Trucks

Delmar has been selected as a center for rail express automotive maintenance facilities. It should figure in the operations of a national railroad piggy-back trailer interchange pool to be formed shortly. The pool will constitute the first operation of REA Leasing Corporation, a wholly owned equipment leasing subsidiary. Membership in the trailer pool will be open to all railroads in the United States through a membership agreement.

Delmar, a former railroad center, has been listed as one of 111 locations for major automotive shop maintenance work.

Chairman Rodney said the festival was striving to have a cooking champion and alternate from every state in the nation and that it hoped the chief prize would again be a trip to Europe. The winner of the 1960 festival is in Europe.

The outcome of a symposium, conducted by Rodney, with assistance of other committee members, was as follows:

Local committees handle all the work. Expenses within the budget are born by the Delmarva Poultry Industry. At Selbyville last year this came to $14,000. There will be no cost to the community unless it wishes something outside the budget. The town will also be expected to decorate.

The Site Committee said it hoped to select its site by the end of the week.

After the House had adjourned, the Senate passed a concurrent resolution re-electing Clifford E. Hall of Selbyville as accountant for the Joint Finance Committee and appointing Melba Ann Webb as secretary to the committee. The resolution requires House approval.

The Senate also sent its multilith operator, Lee Everett, to the House payroll and named Ronald Darling in his place under an agreement which provides that each branch count one in its attaché list and payroll.

First Senate Bill Seeks Raises For Nine State Officials

State Senator Calvin R. McCullough (D-Holloway Terrace) has introduced in the Senate a bill to boost the salaries of nine state officials.

Senator McCullough's bill, the second one introduced in the current session, would raise the annual salary of the secretary of state and the state tax commissioner from $8,000 to $10,000 effective Jan. 3 of this year.

It also would raise the salaries of the state treasurer and state auditor from $6,000 to $8,000 and that of their deputies from $5,000 to $7,000; give the Budget Commissioner's accountant a raise of $500 to $8,000; raise the insurance commissioner's pay from $6,000 to $8,000 but repeal his $2,000 a year expense account, and hike the deputy insurance commissioner's salary from $5,000 to $7,000 a year.

"It's about time we started paying our state officers enough to make the jobs attractive to candidates," McCullough said. "How can we expect anyone qualified to take these jobs at the rate they now have?"

Asked if he had discussed his measure with the Democratic leadership, McCullough smiled: "Everyone's for it, but first we have to see if we have any money."

Only two bills were introduced during Monday's session—and both of them called for spending.

FAIR CONSIDERS NAME CHANGE; NEW PROGRAM BEING PLANNED

It appears highly probable that the name of the Kent & Sussex County Fair, Inc., will be changed to "State Fair of Delaware," it was revealed Monday evening at the annual stockholders meeting of the group at Harrington High School.

The reasons advanced for the suggested change are numerous but the gist of the thing is that a state fair would receive more national recognition than would a county fair. Exhibitors of farm machinery, for example, pay more attention to state fairs when it comes to hiring space. Breeding associations also pay more attention to state fairs.

Before a change in the name is made, however, the matter must be considered by the Board of Directors and a special meeting of the stockholders. The directors will meet tonight to elect officers and members of the Executive Committee.

There will be numerous changes in the setup of the fair this year, all of which were approved by the stockholders. The plans are as follows:

To open Saturday evening, July 22, with a grandstand show; also a similar show Sunday afternoon, and one Sunday evening after church hours. The Fair Board plans a high-type family entertainment for the Sunday performances.

To hold Children's Days Tuesday and Friday when all children will be admitted free to the grounds but will have to pay a slight charge to the grandstand where there will be special attractions for them.

The Entertainment Committee, of which A. B. Parsons is chairman, will attend a meeting of the Central Fair Circuit in Reading, Pa., Wednesday and Thursday to select a carnival, a thrill show, fireworks, and auto racing for the week-long program.

Horse Racing
The only harness racing will be held Wednesday when stake races will be run for an approximate total purse of $40,000. It is felt this innovation should bring in the top colts and drivers in nation for the one day.

The races will be Stake No. 8, with a 2-year-old trot and a 2-year-old pace, and Stake No. 7, with a 3-year-old trot and 3-year-old pace.

New directors named at the Monday night meeting were L. Gooden Callaway and William Parker, both of Harrington; Louis Edgell, of Dover; and George Worlow, dean of the School of Agriculture of the University of Delaware, of Newark.

They replace Elwood Chipman, of Laurel, who resigned, and three deceased directors, Jack Holloway, Charles Hopkins, both of Harrington, and Sen. John Butler, of Middletown.

The Monday night meeting took place in the school auditorium after a dinner in the cafeteria. An excellent stage show followed the meeting.

Harrington Heads First National

Loren B. Harrington was re-elected president of The First National Bank of Harrington Wednesday at an organization meeting. He will serve for 1961. Other officers re-elected were as follows:

Vice president, Frank Tharp; cashier and trust officer, Theodore H. Harrington, and assistant cashiers, John Leonard Horleman and C. Tharp Harrington. All other personnel was retained.

At the annual stockholders meeting Tuesday afternoon, 10 directors were elected for the ensuing year, as follows: Loren B. Harrington, William W. Shaw, Frank Tharp, George W. Cain, R. Harry Quillen, Dr. Robert H. Smith, Amos Minner, Arnold Gilstad, William W. Sharp, and Theodore H. Harrington.

The Jan. 24th meeting will be on the topic "Fine Arts" with Mrs. Nasser as chairman. Members of her committee who are planning a most interesting afternoon are Mrs. Robert Creadick, Mr. W. W. Sharp, Mrs. Howard Sipple, Mrs. Walter Winkler, Mrs. Thomas Clarke and Miss Elva Reese. The Century Club Chorus, after an absence of over a year, will sing during the program.

Mrs. Oscar Nemesh, director of the Chorus, has called a rehearsal for Friday afternoon, Jan. 13 at 1 p.m. Any members of the group who can be present at that time are urged to attend.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

JANITORS PUT OUT BLAZE IN 1912 SCHOOL BUILDING

A nearly disastrous fire was averted at Harrington School when Steve Kliment and Frank Melvin, school custodians, smelled smoke in the old building at approximately 9:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Upon investigating, they found fire, which presumably started in a wastebasket, had eaten through it, severely charred the floor, and was beginning to creep up the wall.

Quick action on the part of the janitors put out the flames after which Chief Douglas Mills of the Harrington Fire Company was called to make certain the fire was extinguished.

School authorities are investigating the cause of such a fire inasmuch as the trash baskets had been emptied after 3 p. m., and the accumulation of waste matter between the time of the trash disposal and the dismissal of school was very little.

A serious fire in this building would be disastrous to the school district since under the present crowded conditions, there are 11 classrooms in use every period of the day in this 1912 building. The building had a fire some years ago.

Red Cross Sets Goal For Fund Drive

A goal of $310,085 has been set for the 1961 Red Cross fund drive in Delaware opening March 1, it was announced Tuesday by Lamont du Pont, Jr., chairman of the state chapter.

The quota this year is $13,180 higher than last year's target of $296,905 and will provide for $167,340 or 61.80 per cent to remain in Delaware to defray costs of the Red Cross program. The remaining $142,745 or 48.20 per cent will be allotted for National Red Cross needs.

The funds last year were divided between $153,786, or 51.80 per cent for state, and $143,119, or 48.20 per cent, for national.

John N. McDowell, a member of the Chapter's board of directors, is serving as campaign chairman.

"The cost of providing Red Cross service to Delawareans has increased just as the cost of living has gone up," Mr. duPont said. "The contributions go to continue all Red Cross services and to expand the program so that more people may be served in this state."

"The Red Cross campaign theme for 1961 is 'Good Things Happen When You Help,'" Mr. du Pont declared.

"Whenever and wherever there is human suffering caused by disaster or disease, Red Cross is the great humanitarian organization that can and does move in and help. It is a symbol of courage, hope, compassion and generosity."

He said that the Red Cross here in Delaware has an important job to do day in and day out to help members of the armed services, veterans and their families; to provide training in first aid, water safety, small craft safety and home nursing without charge; to furnish disaster relief, and to prepare children through Junior Red Cross and its youth activities to become the nation's responsible leaders of tomorrow.

Mr. du Pont explained that the program of disaster relief carried on by the Red Cross includes food, clothing and maintenance; repair and rebuilding of homes and other buildings; replacing household furnishings; payment of doctor and hospital bills, and supplies, equipment and tools needed by workers to earn a living.

Mr. du Pont offered the following breakdown of the local chapter expenses, with figures representing the percentage of the whole:

For service to armed forces and veterans, which includes financial aid, counseling service, emergency aid and subsistence loans to those in the armed forces to veterans and their families through the Home Service division, $51,943, or 28 per cent.

For disaster services—preparedness and relief, which includes preparations to meet the demands of any disaster—fire, flood and hurricane—with food, clothing, shelter and medical care, and being ready to meet the needs of any family left without resources because of fire, storm, flood, explosion, etc., $5,565 or 3 per cent.

For health education, providing instruction in home care of the sick and injured, first aid training, particularly for police and firemen, water safety, nurse enrollment for emergencies, first aid stations on the highways, and at public events, $29,682 or 16 per cent.

For youth activities of nearly 100,000 young people from Delaware in our schools and colleges, and to further the participation of young people in the Red Cross and community service, $9,276, or 5 per cent.

For public relations, including public information, membership enrollment and campaign costs $12,986, or 7 per cent.

For services to Delaware communities—Motor Service, providing transportation of needy patients to hospitals and clinics; Canteen, food service for all Red Cross projects; Gray Ladies/Gray Men, giving cheer, comfort and assistance to hospital patients; staff aides, the volunteer office workers; production, sewing, assembly of hospital garments and other production items for institutions; Nurse's Aides, volunteer nurse assistants in hospitals, $25,972, or 14 per cent.

For branch administration, $14,841, or 8 per cent; for administration, $12,985, or 7 per cent; for operating expenses, $20,406, or 11 per cent, and for contingency, $1,855, or 1 per cent.

Building Permits Kent County

Robert E. Bergham, frame dwelling at Clayton, $10,200.

Samuel K. Martin, Bowers, frame ranch house near Little Heaven, $11,000.

Harrington School Notes

Feb. 1-3 at 3 p.m. the teachers of this area will receive a short course in the teaching of cursive handwriting. A unique feature of this course is that it will be offered through the facilities of Channel 16.

The Delmarva TV Project, composed of the schools of Accomack County, Virginia; Caroline, Somerset, Wicomico, and Worcester Counties, Maryland; Seaford Special School District, Harrington Georgetown, Hurlock, and the Campus Elementary School, State Teachers College, Salisbury, have secured the services of Mrs. Drucilla Worthington, a consultant in the teaching of handwriting.

Mrs. Worthington will give a half hour demonstration and lecture each day. These lectures will emphasize the latest trends in the teaching of handwriting in grades 2, 3, and 4. She has been a college teacher, a critic teacher, a supervisor and is currently employed as a consultant by the Zaner-Bloser Company, a publisher of school textbooks.

Dr. Kenneth C. Madden, president of the Delmarva TV Project feels that this may be a convenient method of bringing the latest trends to the attention of teachers.

U.S. Cooking Champ Gets Big European Welcome

Shown here as she disembarked from the plane at Zurich, Switzerland the other day on the European tour she won as U.S. Chicken Cooking Champion is Mrs. Elizabeth Goetz of Lakewood, N. J. Under the auspices of the Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc., and the European office of the Institute of American Poultry Industries, Mrs. Goetz has spent part of her tour making a series of press conferences and television appearances in several countries to help promote greater use of U.S. poultry in western Europe.

Mrs. Goetz and her husband, Eugene, who accompanied her on the tour, both speak German fluently and are at present visiting Mr. Goetz's parents at Stuttgart, Germany. She won the European trip for two last June at Selbyville, Delaware at the Delmarva Chicken Festival when she defeated 108 other finalists from 24 states in the National Chicken Baking Contest. Long noted as a fine cook in New Jersey farm circles, Mrs. Goetz and her husband operate a hatchery and poultry breeding farm near Lakewood.

The Goetz will return to the states later this month.

Trinity Methodist Church Notes

What does a man work for? For and above the desires of our work-a-day world, we are striving for something. It eludes definition. It has never been pictured on a chart. No microscope has ever revealed it. What is it? It is a deep longing to climb to a higher plan of living, to tune ourselves in with eternal values.

Some folks in feeling this need go to the wrong sources to find it. There are people who hope to find the answer in thrills, but these have a way of becoming flat, dull, and uninteresting. Others feel that by increasing their possessions they can find the answer, but they too are often miserable.

Peace and contentment are things that we really cannot work to attain.

After all our strivings cease, we cry out, "O God, my soul thirsteth for Thee." There is nothing else that can satisfy. God is the only true satisfaction for the soul. He gives up peace and contentment, a peace, "that passeth all understanding."

Religion is not just a creed, a belief. It is a transforming power. As Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Come to church Sunday and in worship find the peace and strength for your life.

Sunday, Jan. 15, 9:45—Church School. William Jester, general superintendent. Virginia Shultie Primary superintendent. Classes for all ages, everyone welcome.

7:30 p.m. Evening Vesper Service.

Special music by the Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Mackert. The Rev. Benjamin will bring the message.

The Peninsula Conference Young Peoples Christian Vocational Conference will be held at Asbury Church next weekend, Jan. 20 and 21.

Our Fourth Quarterly Conference will be held Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service, Zone No. 2 of the Dover District will meet on Tues., Feb. 14 at Trinity Church. Miss Sarah Quillen, field worker in the areas of organization, promotion, and inspiration, will lead a panel consisting of representatives from the local societies, the district president, and secretary of promotion.

Gov. Buckson Proclaims January March of Dimes Month

Citing the annual nationwide campaign of the National Foundation as "a vigorous program to prevent crippling diseases with major emphasis against birth defects, arthritis and polio," Gov. David P. Buckson said this urged all Delawareans to not only observe January as "New March of Dimes Month" but to "give their services and support" to the month-long fund-raising drive.

Delaware's "New March of Dimes" campaign, now underway, includes, in addition to a direct mail appeal, such special fund-raising events as a Mothers' March and Mile of Dimes, The Honorable Elbert N. Carvel, who, on January 17, will succeed Mr. Buckson as the state's chief executive, is again serving as state chairman for this annual campaign.

Governor Buckson's proclamation of "New March of Dimes Month" follows: WHEREAS, The National Foundation has maintained a vigorous program to prevent crippling diseases with major emphasis against birth defects, arthritis and polio; and

WHEREAS, more than a quarter of a million infants are born each year with serious birth defects; and

WHEREAS, arthritis is one of the leading causes of disability in the United States; and

WHEREAS, polio in 1960 continued to be a major health problem in the United States with millions of Americans still unprotected by Salk vaccine against this virulent crippling disease; and

WHEREAS, thousands of children are especially the defenseless victims of these vicious crippling diseases; and

WHEREAS, The National Foundation's expanded program, developed through years of experience as a voluntary health organization, provides real hope in the fight toward eventual elimination of these disabilities; now

Therefore, I, David P. Buckson, as Governor of the State of Delaware, do proclaim January, 1961, as

NEW MARCH OF DIMES MONTH and urge all citizens to give their services and support to this campaign to prevent crippling diseases.

State Library to Re-Open At New Site

Late this month, the State Library, presently closed, will re-open for "business" at its new location in the former Pennsylvania Railroad passenger station at the west end of Dover's main business artery, Lookerman Street. During the interim, the thousands of volumes and other equipment of the State Library Commission are being moved from the Old State House on Dover Green to the State Library's "new home".

According to Mrs. Virginia E. K. Messick, state librarian, the Bookmobiles, which service the needs of people in the rural areas, will, however, continue to operate on regular schedule.

The "new" State Library Building was built in 1910, replacing an earlier station built on the same site in 1860. Facing out on Lookerman Street, which terminates in a shrub-filled circle before its main entrance, the two-story brick building with large white wooden columns extending to the second story, presents an imposing appearance.

From 1910 to the end of World War II, the building was a beehive of activity with trains arriving or departing on regular schedule around the clock. In more recent years, as automobiles and buses replaced railroads as the principal means of transportation to Delaware communities and nearby areas, passenger service has been reduced to just one northbound and one southbound train daily.

Title to the former railroad station was transferred to the State of Delaware in late December, 1959, after the Pennsylvania Railroad and the State of Delaware completed exchange of the building for 5200 shares of Delaware Railroad Company capital stock. This stock, which was non-dividend bearing, was initially acquired by the state in the 1850's at a time when, with state assistance, rail lines were being extended from Wilmington south through Dover to the Maryland line at present day Delmar.

Since transfer of the former station to the state a little over a year ago, the railroad has used the facilities of its nearby freight station for passenger service.

Reese Theatre Notes

It is not unusual to find two top hits featured on a single bill at the Reese, and more than ever theatre fans are realizing Movie Center's double value attractions.

A glance at this week's program to be found in this newspaper, lists several double-value all-family shows, such as: James Darren, Shelley Winters, Burl Ives in the new colorama hit, "Let No Man Write My Epitaph", and Curt Jurgens in "I Aim At the Stars," both listed for showing this Friday and Saturday, Jan. 13 and 14.

Another double-value, two of the greatest horror and suspense shows of the season is listed for this Sunday and Monday, Jan. 15 and 16. Vincent Price is the star of Edgar Allen Poe's, "The House of Usher" plus the sensational "Circus of Horrors."

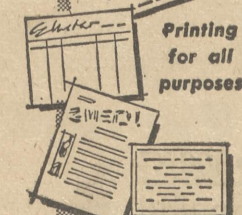

It is suggested that weak hearts stay away, the theatre not being responsible for what might happen. No one is allowed to leave the theatre until the end and one might be more calm if they came with an escort. It is understood no admissions will be refunded.

Delaware Food Market Report

Pork comes to the top of your shopping list again this week as prices continue to be very reasonable on most cuts. Loin chops prove the exception, averaging 95 cents a pound. In a 220 lb. hog there are only about 10 lbs. of center cut pork chops; that is one reason why they are always much higher in price than other pork cuts. However, prices do drop considerably when these chops are on special sales, but this weekend is not one of those times.

All fresh pork cuts are tender; often only the thickness of a knife separates the most desired cuts from the lower priced ones. Many cuts are available in both smoked and fresh forms. Check the following: picnics, fresh hams, loin roasts, sausage and bacon.

Pork scores high nutritionally. It is especially rich in thiamine, the B vitamins important to growth. One serving of this meat will provide 70% of daily recommended allowances of thiamine.

Broilers are definitely the key item at the poultry counter, and prices are very low. Try this versatile bird with a new flavor. Before broiling, try rubbing the entire bird with lemon juice, it's delicious.

Strong winds, cold weather and ice continue to slow down fishing activity; but supplies of both fresh and frozen fish are adequate on our local markets. When shopping this weekend, look for fillets of haddock, cod and flounder; whiting, halibut, and fish sticks. There is a wide variety of shell fish available too, which includes shrimp, oysters, lobster, sea scallops and crab meat.

As last week, cabbage leads the "best buy" among vegetables. All types are on hand—red, Chinese and Danish—some from storage and some from new crops coming in from California and Florida. Prices will continue to average between 5 and 7 cents a pound. Other vegetables to check this weekend are: broccoli, leafy greens (such as spinach, collards, kale and mustard), yellow onions, Eastern potatoes, parsnips and turnips. Salad bowl vegetables in good supply are: celery, escarole, radishes and carrots.

Citrus fruits improved in price, size and flavor this week. However, there's still room for improvement. When selecting any citrus fruit, whether orange, grapefruit, tangerine or lemon, be sure to choose those that are heavy for their size. Apples, mainly McIntosh and Cortland, are still plentiful and good buys can be found in a few stores on Western Red Delicious.

250,000 Persons Expected At Sportsmen's Show

The advantages and pleasures of vacationing in Delaware will be made known to an estimated 250,000 persons expected to attend the sixth annual Pennsylvania Recreation and Sportsmen's Show, at the Farm Show Building, Harrisburg, Feb. 6 through 11, advises the State Development Department.

Delaware's exhibit, now being prepared by the department, will feature color and black and white photographs of the state's recreational facilities, including its beaches, inland waters, parks and camping areas. Also displayed will be photographs of Delaware's many other interesting places, its museums and historic spots. Literature, locating and describing the state's many attractions for sportsmen and tourists, will be distributed.

Delaware participation in the Harrisburg show is to be part of the current statewide promotion campaign built around the slogan, "See the First State—First."

Letter to the Editor

Letters to the Editor:
Dear Sir:
The January 6 edition of your weekly paper contains several errors concerning our entertaining the Century Club Tuesday, Jan. 10. We wish to request that these errors be corrected.

Primarily, we are Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 120 and not No. 102 as stated in the Journal. We are very proud of our troop and have worked diligently to uphold the ideals of scouting in our activities. We are embarrassed by the neglect of Troop No. 157 in this same article. Without 157's help, it would have been impossible to present this program to the Century Club. We gratefully acknowledge the co-operation of Troop No. 157 and its leader, Mrs. Don Dell, on this project.

In conclusion, we want to publicly announce that we are available and anxious to serve the community, its churches, and its civic organizations in any manner requested. Last year we were fortunate in being able to help our sponsor, the Harrington New Century Club, by setting up tables for their card party. This is but a single incident; however, we are anxious to repeat this performance and participate in any projects offered to us. We may be reached by contacting our leader, Mrs. Jesse Jones; or assistant leader, Mrs. Henry Schandling; our troop committee, Mrs. Clyde Perry, Mrs. Everett Harrington, Mrs. Thomas Peck, Mrs. Milton Hubbard, Mrs. William Kohel, and Mrs. Charles Peck Jr., or any of our number—Sharon Swain, president; Judy Melvin, vice president; Candace Peck, secretary; Diane Harrington, treasurer; Susan Greenhaugh, Sue Perry, Pat Hubbard, Linda Rogers, Cindy Kohel, Marilyn Walls, and Sharon Walls.

Social Security Notes

Social security benefits may now be paid to survivors of workers who died before Jan. 1, 1940, if the worker had at least a year and a half of social security work when he died, says Edward F. Sullivan, District Manager of the Social Security Administration.

Under the new law, if a worker had social security credit for at least a year and a half, benefits may now be payable to his widow (and dependent mother) if age 62 or older, to his dependent father at age 65, and to his disabled children if they became disabled before they reached age 18. This is true even if the family had collected the "lump sum" at the time the family breadwinner died.

For further information regarding this new provision, Sullivan said get in touch with your social security office at 230 W. Lookerman Street in Dover.

Veterans News

Q—The VA has been deducting my monthly insurance premium payments from my disability compensation payments. Recently, my compensation has been reduced and will not cover the insurance payments. Will the VA continue to take my compensation and let me mail them the balance due on the insurance premiums?
A—No. Since your compensation will no longer cover your insurance premiums, you will have to pay the total insurance premium direct. The VA will now send you your compensation payments.

Q—As a widow of a World War II veteran, I am receiving death pension for myself and two children. I realize that, if I remarry, I am no longer eligible but would the children still be eligible?
A—The children will be eligible in their own right until age 18, or, if in school, until age 21, unless they marry earlier.

Q—I did not file a claim for disability compensation when discharged from World War I because I felt my service-connected disability was insignificant and it was not bothering me. Now it does bother me, but I have been told there is a one-year-from-discharge deadline for filing a claim. Is this true?
A—There is no deadline for filing a claim for disability compensation. If you file within a year following discharge, your payments will be made retroactive to the date of your discharge. If you file after a year, your payments are effective from the date you file.

Q—My son, a disabled Korean Conflict veteran, has recently reached the stage where he needs constant aid and attention and we have decided he should return home to live with us. I understand he is eligible for additional disability payments because of his present condition. If I take care of him, will he be eligible for these payments, or must we employ someone to care for him?
A—It is not necessary that he employ an outsider to care for him. Any capable member of his family may provide these services.

A—It is not necessary that he employ an outsider to care for him. Any capable member of his family may provide these services.

Q—My son, a disabled Korean Conflict veteran, has recently reached the stage where he needs constant aid and attention and we have decided he should return home to live with us. I understand he is eligible for additional disability payments because of his present condition. If I take care of him, will he be eligible for these payments, or must we employ someone to care for him?

week in Philadelphia with her mother, Mrs. Helen Russell. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Mr. and Mrs. James Blades in the death of Mrs. Blades' mother, Mrs. Grace Hendricks, of Harrington, who was buried last Sunday.

Johnnie Cahall, who has been in Milford Memorial Hospital, is now recuperating at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mansfield and children of New Castle were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlisle on Sunday.

Joseph Hughes, of the U.S. Army, has returned to his base in the Mid-West after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ocheltree and daughter, Nancy, of Carcroft, Wilmington, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Torbert.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jester spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. James Steward and family, near Delmar.

Bob Dill, who is Herman Brown's trainer, has his horses going and seems to be so excited about his stock. Says he really has a good stable to start the new year off.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hubbard spent last weekend in Elizabeth City, N. C.

Mr. Vineyard, a little bird tells me you have just about the best stable ever. Well as long as I've known you, you have always rather been on top.

Bobby Hobbs jogging age horses every day. Says his colts seem to be doing all he asks of them. Will take me sometime to get around to all the new comers out to the track.

As for my little fellow, he is well named "Demon." But this cold weather really gives him pep. I spend lots of time fooling around with him. No wonder he is spoiled. I get a lot of needling asking when I'm going to harness him up.

Took a trip to Ocean Downs. Still not too many stables moved in as yet. Ocean City, itself, is like a ghost town. But still I always get a thrill when I ride along the beach.

And will I be glad when the Taffey Shop opens in Rehoboth Beach. I really go for that salt water taffey.

So many of the old timers that used to train there, and many are gone now, would ride all the way down there for the taffey candy.

We would often run into Garland Arnsby who now has a beautiful horse farm up in Canton, N. Y. At that time he trained in Ocean City.

Stopped in the Bridle Bit for coffee. Mrs. Kates as usual is a lot of fun. Place is generally pretty well filled with the horsemen. You certainly can have a ball with Mary Porter there. Mickey where have you been?

Was over to Sam Short's store chatting about his records and to see if he had any new songs on the way. Sure was glad to see Betty, his cashier.

Oh yes, Del Manges was out at the track and on the road to recovery from the kick he received couple weeks ago. Del says guess I'll live, Pat. Now maybe those soft drinks did help Del. Kenny did you mix them?

Lucy, Dot and Bertie are busy as can be at the track restaurant. But not too busy to be so nice to everyone that goes in.

Ge, Mr. Holloway, you really fly by on your way to the track. You are really a busy man. Just like Gene Anderson, here one minute and to the other end of earth the next.

And Lelia, are all those cars around your house company?

Stopped by Mrs. Henry Clukey's, she tells me by the time this goes to press Freddie Parks stable will move in with 14 head of horses from the Seymour Stable from DeKalb Junction, N. Y. Marcel Dostie from Montreal, Canada, has 10 head in training at Mr. Clukey's new barn. I sure get a kick out of his boys that take care of his horses. They speak french and I can only understand half they say. But a swell bunch of boys.

Have you ever tried tying knots while listening to instrumental sounds? We have. Ever cared for coleus and begonias with the anticipation and protectiveness of a mother hen? Some of us have even taken our flowers visiting with us! With such enthusiasm, it is only natural for us to want more from scouting and we have doubled the length of our meetings from one to two hours each Monday. To accommodate this extra time our Court of Honor has planned many interesting and active programs for us during the program year. At this time several of these projects have been completed. We have entertained the Kindergarten at a Thanksgiving party that the children are still talking about. Mrs. Jones' Girl Scouts are great in their eyes; and we understand that the children want to know when we are going to return. At the party we prizes to the winners. We made organized several games and gave the gingerbread that we served. Diane Harrington with Candace Peck's assistance told a very touching original story about the sort of Chaunticleer with a beard and a gobble. We have entertained the Century Club with our prize winning play from last year's P.T.A. Talent Contest. We were assisted in this program by Troop 157. Immediately following this completed project, we shall begin work on the radio and television badge under the guidance of Borden Smith at WKSB in Milford. Culminating activities on this project will be radio programs on Thinking Day, an International Scout holiday in February and during Girl Scout Week in March.

Speaking of badges we have something unique in this area. We have a badge board. The board meets once a month and we present ourselves to the board to show and to discuss the requirements we have completed on the badges we are working on. But we must first submit the badge and requirement number to our leader or assistant leader before the going before the board. The board members are Mrs. Thomas Peck, Mrs. Franklin Swain, Mrs. Olin Davis, Dr. Vincent Lobo, Mrs. Schandling, and Mrs. Jones. Some of us have already received one badge and are working on several others in addition to our Second Class rank which we have nearly finished. Diane Harrington received the first badge—Mammal. Sharon Swain is the nearest to completing the Second Class rank.

All this work and no play? Well, this is our birthday month and that should call for some kind of celebration, don't you think? After registration that's exactly what we shall have. Our troop committee this year is: Mrs. Thomas Peck, Mrs. Everett Harrington, Mrs. Milton Hubbard, Mrs. Clyde Perry, and Mrs. Charles Peck Jr. who is president of our sponsor, the Century Club.

We want to thank the Cub Scout den mothers and fathers who have remodeled the Scout building; both Cub and Girl Scouts are using the building this year. Our troop is furnishing the curtains, a rug, and some new paint on the chairs toward this project's completion. The rug and curtains were given to us by Mrs. Richard Hayes. We shall have to clean both and the range donated by the Cub Scout organization.

We are proud of our troop; we hope you will be proud of us, too. With women outnumbering men three to one, the Girl Scout of today may well be the president of tomorrow. And we leave you with that thought, but you shall hear from us again.

Sulky Slants

There's lot of activity going on at the track now. About all the colts are broken and going the right way of the race track. It won't be many more days till the age horses will be going plenty of miles.

Girl Scout News

If you are a parent whose daughter has attended three Scout meetings in a single week, then you may assume that she is a member of Troop 120. She is the member of a vigorously active troop of freshmen Intermediate Scouts experiencing the initial thrill and adventure of Girl Scouting. Since the first meeting Sept. 21, we have been in perpetual motion flitting from one activity to another, sampling a variety of the experiences offered by Scouting.

From the very first day of Investiture, our scouting lives have been a round of bustle and enthusiasm. Diane Harrington and Susan Greenhaugh were our first to wear those wonderful shiny green uniforms with their daffodil yellow ties and the perky robin red-breast staring out from the badge sash. Oh, we had seen Girl Scouts in uniform before and they were terrifically impressive, but Diane and Susan were our "very own." Our "very own" girls in uniform and they looked just a little bit extra special. We sometimes believed that these two had grown a little taller, as did Sharon Swain several weeks later. It was wonderful just looking at them. Now we nearly all have our uniforms and we all look wonderful!

But to keep us in bounds through all this excitement and to guide us through the adventurous waters ahead we elected a very special crew. Sharon Swain is our captain with Judy Melvin as her able first mate. To remind us of events past and present and future we have again chosen Candace Peck to keep the log. And our own replica of Fort Knox—the supply officer—is Diane Harrington. Our gal boat-swain with the strong lungs is Sue Perry. Our signal corps is Judy Melvin, Cindy Kohel, Susan Greenhaugh and Pat Hubbard. The officers with our leaders compose the Court of Honor which sets the policy and discusses troop business in detail. It is the responsibility of this group to determine which activities should be presented to the troop for consideration. There is no excuse for absence at the Court of Honor meetings.

Our regular troop meetings have carried us far from the troop building in Gaines Alley to many places. We have visited Mrs. Temple, Dr. Lobo, and Dr. Smith. Mrs. Jack Parker, a priate nurse, was kind enough to visit and instruct us in some basic first aid. We would like to thank these ladies and gentlemen for their kindness extended us.

U. of D. Research Foundation Meeting

More than 470 research problems are under investigation at the University of Delaware and more than sixty per cent of the faculty participate in organized, sponsored or contract research. Dr. John A. Perkins, president of the university, told members of the University of Delaware Research Foundation Saturday.

Speaking before about 140 members and guests who attended the annual luncheon meeting in Kent Dining Hall, Dr. Perkins disclosed that the university is spending about one-fifth of its income, $1,680,000, in support of research. These funds come from 54 different sources, including the state and federal government, private foundations, individuals, endowment, and business and industry.

Of the support of the Foundation, Dr. Perkins said, "The University of Delaware Research Foundation, limited by its charter to supporting research in the physical and natural sciences, is now supporting research in 11 of our departments. What cannot possibly be revealed is how strategically the U.D.R.F. funds, in the amount of $70,053, have been filtered into the university's departments and manpower resources to give research support where and when it is vitally needed to strengthen our present, but more important, our long range efforts."

Dr. Perkins added that since its inception, the Foundation has supported 51 projects, 32 research fellows, eight summer faculty fellowships and one travel grant.

Brief talks on research in progress were presented by Dr. Donald L. Dean, chairman of the department of civil engineering; Dr. Charles E. Birchenall, professor of metallurgy; and Dr. W. Lawrence Gulick, assistant professor of psychology.

Dr. Dean discussed "Structural Lattices," Professor Birchenall's topic was "Iron Diffusion and the Growth of Ferrous Sulfide," and Professor Gulick considered "The Ear as a Biological Trigger."

According to Dr. Dean, "Design and research work with shells and shell-like structures is a phase of structural mechanics which currently attracts more public interest than any other activity in the field."

He asserted that, "We are still in the heart of this research watermelon," and noted that the discovery of appropriate mathematical formulae will help in the design inspiration and quantitative analysis of future structural lattices. Dr. Dean has a three-year grant from the National Science Foundation to support his project.

Dr. Birchenall disclosed that one of the graduate students under his direction will work on experimental techniques during his investigation of the low temperature diffusivity of iron in ferrous sulfide. He expressed the belief that such studies would lead to means of making alloys resistant to oxidation in reactive atmospheres at high temperatures.

Significant research in the physiology laboratory of the university's psychology department was described by Professor Gulick, who said that the action of the ear is becoming increasingly clear as a result of experiments being conducted there.

Dr. Gulick has found that the ear functions as an excellent transducer, that is, a device which can change one form of energy into another. Working on the basis that this change is from an acoustic to an electrical form, some interesting findings have been made.

"The ear changes energy from one form to another and accomplishes this change with great fidelity," Dr. Gulick said. "The new form of energy then stimulates the nerve. As sound becomes more intense so does the electrical response of the ear. The direct result is to increase in a predictable manner the number of impulses sent to the brain."

Present officers of the Foundation are Samuel Lenher, president; Samuel G. Baker, vice president; Dr. Carl J. Rees, secretary; Dr. C. Lator Burdick, assistant secretary; and Harry G. Haskell Jr., treasurer.

Baird C. Brittingham is chairman of the research committee, George T. Weymouth heads the membership committee, and Dr. Robert W. Cairns is chairman of the research committee.

Foundation trustees are Messrs. Baker, Brittingham, Burdick, Cairns, Lenher, Weymouth and Dr. George E. Holbrook.

...the only car in its field beautifully built to go...

miles between lubrications

30,000 is the most famous number of the year. It's every '61 Ford owner's license to save. How can Ford do it? Conventional chassis lubrication fittings have been replaced with metal plugs that help protect each lubrication point against abrasive mud, dirt and dust. And then, for only about $4 and about 20 minutes your Ford is ready for another 30,000! This is just one of the many ways the '61 Ford is built to take care of itself. Your Ford Dealer can show you more.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers...trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves—automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminumized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish and it continues to glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Only FORD is beautifully built to take care of itself

V.F.W. Wins First Half in H.M.H. Bowling League

V.F.W. wins first half in H.M.H. Bowling League as they take 4-0 from Stone's Hotel. Campbell's 560 leads victory. Fisher Appl. with hopes of regaining top spot on the last night finish in second place as they drop Economy Auto to 8th place. As a result of their 3-1 win, J. Johnson showing the way with 546 including a 244 game.

Victor Lynn finishes first half in 7th place, the highest they have been all season as they take 2-2 from Purnells Ins. Delfonso leading the trackers with 548. A fine showing on Delfonso's part as he carries only a 139 average. Purnells was unable to finish higher than third but did the next best thing, that being to set a new league single game high. This is the highest ever bowled in the Milford Bowling Lanes: Wm. Johnson, 214; Don. Calhoun, 200; Eido Farrow, 182; D. L. Boutwell, 212; Ralph Gray, 264—1072.

Just how long this game remains on top, whether a week or year, it is quite a thrill to bowl in a game such as this.

Dicks Atlantic, with L. Davidson, 578; R. Emory, 567; C. E. Emory, 558, showing the way, smashed Cooties 4-0. Hamilton Fund, one of the leading contenders, for first place, in the 2nd half tuned up with a convincing win over Libby Pies 4-0. Pies edging out the Cooties for 11th place. N. Jarrell regaining form leads Hamilton with 551. One of last years better teams Libby V.P.S. may have decided its more fun to be on top as they take 3-1 from Apt Oil.

Next week starts the second half so let's all try a little harder because it is more fun to be on top and more profitable.

Baptist Church News

Baptist Church, H. R. Garland, pastor. Sunday School starts at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages. The lesson in the adult class this week will be "You Must Be Born Again," taken from John 3. This will be taught by William Pritchett. Some of the things that will be discussed are the two births; the human and the spiritual; also what change being born again will make in a person. We invited anyone to come and join in these discussions.

Our Bible study on the Book of I Corinthians, was held last week, Monday through Friday evenings. There were 18 enrolled for the course, and we were happy to have three visitors.

Last Lord's Day our pastor spoke on "Stewardship." He brought out the way God intended his churches to be financed, that is by tithes and offerings. The tithe belongs to the Lord, and our offerings are what we give over and above the tithe.

Last week we had an article in our church notes concerning the things in which, we as Baptists, agree with other religious bodies. This week and for the next few to follow, we would like to include some things wherein we differ from other religious bodies.

First, there are four systems of church government.

Democracy—Government by the people in their collective capacity. Republican—Government by representatives chosen by the people. Oligarchy—Government by the few, either chosen or self-perpetuated, after the manner of a close corporation. Autocracy—The supreme governing power vested in one, from whom all inferior officials derive their authority.

Baptists believe that the New Testament form of church government is democratic and is binding for all time. Each church is a self-governing body. Members are received and dismissed, and all matters of policy are decided by vote of the congregation, each member having an equal right in voting. This democracy must be carefully guarded. We believe that churches must earnestly resist any and all efforts at encroachment on our independence. Individual congregations must guard against the tendency to vest a few with authority. Thus, we are a "Democracy."

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

G. Robert Quillen of St. Stephen's has been designated one of the diocesan "Keymen," a group of dedicated laymen who cooperate closely with the clergy in developing a program of men's work suited to each local situation. The area chairman of the Kent County is C. A. Zimmerman, Christ Church, Dover.

Jan. 21, at 6:30 p.m., there will be a covered dish supper at the parish house for the congregation of St. Stephen's and their friends. The supper will be followed by a "Night of Fun," in which all the church organizations will contribute their share of hilarious foolishness. All those who come are requested to bring their own place settings, so the ladies will have fewer kitchen duties.

Flowers on the altar the first Sunday after Epiphany were given to the glory of God by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Strohl.

The young people of St. Stephen's were hosts to the Kent County Convocation on Sun., Jan. 8. On the Saturday before this meeting, St. Stephen's young churchmen met at the parish house to make preparations for the event. After peeling potatoes, dicing onions, slicing carrots, etc., the kitchen committee, with a minimum of adult supervision, cooked the supper to be served Sunday and make all but last minute preparations for their guests.

A business meeting of the youth groups from Camden, Milford, Smyrna, and Harrington opened Sunday's session. Ideas on how to get new members how to make money were exchanged. Plans and date for the St. Andrew's Conference were announced.

For the program, a movie called "Rock n' Roll" was shown, narrated by the Rev. Alvin Kershaw. It revealed the history and nature of this most popular and controversial modern music.

After supper and recreation the Harrington group conducted a service of Evening Prayer. The Junior Choir sang "Evensong," including the Lord's Prayer and the Creed.

In "We Three Kings of Orient Are," John Yocum and Roy Porter sang duet parts, also Charles McNally and Eddie Yocum.

Miss June Thompson read the first lesson and Miss Connie Bidle, the second lesson. Dennis Bradley read the prayers and Robert Eastman, the psalm.

The next convocation meeting will be held at Milford on the second Sunday in February.

The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware, was chairman of the 1960 Rhodes Scholarship Selection Committee for the State of Delaware.

The Women of St. Stephen's will hold their next monthly meeting Tues., Jan. 17, 8 p.m. at the parish house.

The 176th annual convention of the Diocese of Delaware will convene at St. Thomas' Church, Newark, Tuesday, Jan. 24 and Wed., Jan. 25.

Registration will be Tuesday, Jan. 24, at 1 p.m. The banquet will be at 7 p.m., Oglethorn Junior High School. Dr. Charles W. Ranson, director of the Theological Education Fund of the International Missionary Council, and president-designate of the Methodist Church in Ireland, will be the speaker.

The luncheon on Wednesday will be at 1:30 p.m., Kent Hall, University of Delaware.

Acolytes who served at Church School and Morning Prayer last Sunday were John Winkler, Charles McNally, Franklin Fowler, Gary Porter, Dennis Bradley, Roy Porter.

Mrs. Frank J. Elton and Miss Lois Keim served cookies and coffee, in the parish house, following the Sunday morning service.

Ushers on Jan. 8 were Messrs. Thomas Clendenning, Granville Hill, Earl McColley, and Walter Winkler.

Ever-Ready Class Notes

TAX TIME

By W. T. McAllister
Farm Management Specialist
Agriculture Extension Service
University of Delaware

When I was a boy back on the farm, the barn door right beside the hay chute was my Dad's favorite place for important figures and records. He always felt it had certain advantages over a piece of paper—it wasn't so likely to blow away or get lost. Besides, in bad weather he could do his figuring and watch it rain, too.

Of course, Dad, in his day, didn't worry much about income tax. That was something for the Wall Street tycoons and Dad was only a country boy. But it's different today. Almost everyone has to pay some income tax or at least file a tax return. Let's admit that most of the financial records kept on the farm today are kept for the purpose of tax filing.

Farming since Dad's day has changed from "a way of life" to a highly complex and competitive business venture. Modern farming has a multitude of cash expenses and receipts and large capital investments with their high depreciation costs. The chances are that the farmer who still attempts to keep his records "on the barn door" or "in his head" is paying more tax than necessary.

It's not hard to keep track of the big receipts such as the milk checks, the sale of wheat, and the bouncing check you got for Old Bessie the cow. But, how about the great quantity of small expenses—many of them paid in cash—such as bolts, nails, lumber, window glass, repair parts, twine, etc.? If you don't put them down in some permanent record book as they occur, you are going to forget about many of them.

Even though most farm records are kept for income tax filing purposes, these same records can be of value to the farmer for other purposes, too. A good, carefully kept record will provide a historical picture of the performance of the farm. It points out the enterprises on your farm that are making money for you. Also, good records will indicate the weaknesses in your farm business. Records furnish you with a basis for comparing your crop and livestock yields with various feeding or fertilizer treatments, with different breeds or varieties, with other farmers in your community, and most important of all, with the progress you are making in improving the productivity of your farm.

If properly kept and properly used, farm records show you the progress you have made, the strong points you want to emphasize in your farm, the weak points to be improved, and serve as a basis for developing a long-time farm plan designed to yield the largest possible family income.

When your tax filing jobs are finished, don't file your record book away somewhere, never to be seen again. Instead, go over the book carefully, analyze each enterprise, study your labor and machinery costs, compare your yields with other good farmers, and decide, now, what changes you are going to make in your farming program in 1961.

Get the New Year off to a good start—get a good farm record book, keep it, and use it in 1961.

Folder On "First State" Now Available

As part of an accelerated statewide effort to stimulate tourist travel into Delaware during 1961, the State Development Department is currently distributing a two-fold, six-panel folder that lists many of the outstanding events for "The First State" during the first five months of the current year.

While the new edition of the "Delaware Calendar of Events" covers only the period Jan. 1 through May 31, it lists 185 events indicating that Delawareans and visitors to the state may exercise considerable range of choice in making selection of activities.

According to David S. Hugg, who compiled and edited the material appearing in the new "Delaware Calendar of Events," excellent co-operation was received from the various Delaware organizations that sponsor events that are general interest to state residents and visitors.

Information for a second 1961 edition, covering the period June 1 through Dec. 31, 1961, is now being compiled by Mr. Hugg. All Delaware organizations are invited to submit information concerning events occurring during this period.

Literature on Delaware and its many attractions is prepared and distributed by the Development Department, which serves as the information and promotion agency of the state government. Copies of the new edition of the "Delaware Calendar of Events" and other informational literature may be obtained by writing the Development Department at 45 The Green, Dover, Delaware.

Harrington 2-6-6-3
Bridgeville 5-9-7-12-33

At Greenwood on Tuesday night the Lions met an unusual hybrid defense, a combination of zone and man-to-man systems. This gave the Lions some anxious moments before Sam Minner loosened the Foresters up with a couple shots from outside. Minner scored Harrington's first seven points before Coach Hawpe removed him from the game so as not to risk reinjuring a still weak arm.

The locals outscored Greenwood in every quarter as the Harrington mentor cleared his bench in order to give his reserves a chance to see action. The winner boasted a whopping 22-9 margin in field goals. The Foresters have held all previous opposition to less than 40 points.

Jeff Adams led Harrington in the scoring column with 14 points followed by Walt Lekites with 9 and Bill Porter, Minner and George Pfeiffer with 7 each. Teamwork is the key to the fine showing H.H.S. has made thus far with three victories in the first four games and a 2-0 Henlopen Conference record.

Felton will play here Friday night and will bring a 5-0 record with them. Harrington handled both Bridgeville and Greenwood with much more ease than did the Green Devils. However, it is traditional in games between these two rivals for an underdog to play a much better game than expected.

Coach Nancy Fleetwood's Harrington High girl's team provided a real surprise when they upset a favored Greenwood team 32-21.

Janie Phillips and Phyllis Vincent racked up 15 and 11 points respectively to more than match the Forester total. Barbara Lewis, Darlene Hutchins and Jeanie Thomas, a trio of defensive aces, held Greenwood's high scoring Judy Astfalk to one lonely point.

help members of the armed services, veterans and their families; to provide training in first aid, water safety, small craft safety and home nursing without charge; to furnish disaster relief, and to prepare children through Junior Red Cross and its youth activities to become the nation's responsible leaders of tomorrow.

Mrs. Myers reported that Branch Areas 3 and 9 have completed their organizational plans for the forthcoming drive. She stated that Branch Areas 7 and 8 have nearly completed their organizations for the March solicitations.

The quota this year will provide for $167,340 or 61.80 percent to remain in Delaware to defray costs of the Red Cross program, and the remaining $142,745 or 48.20 per cent will be allotted for National Red Cross needs.

Magnolia

Mrs. Lucille Myers returned home Monday from Coopers-town, N. Y., where she had been to attend the funeral of her brother.

Several members of the Magnolia MYF, accompanied by their director, Mrs. Margaret Paul, attended the district meeting of the MYF at Wesley Church in Dover, Monday evening.

The MYF has taken on as one of its projects the furnishing of a shuffle board kit for the Fellowship Hall, and at a meeting of the Methodist Men on Wednesday evening, they voted to also supply a shuffle board and two sets of ping pong. This will be a beginning for the recreation supplies but we have to strive to equip our kitchen with the supplies needed there. Let us keep this in mind for it is possible that we will all soon have an opportunity to help with this project.

Mrs. Hazel Roe, with Mrs. Frances Motley of Dover, and Miss Ruth Ann Johnson of near town, all teachers of Caesar Rodney School, entertained the Caesar Rodney Faculty Bridge Club at the home of Mrs. Roe

Monday evening.

Ben Hart was discharged from the Kent General Hospital on Monday after undergoing surgery there the past week.

At the meeting of the Magnolia Fire Company Friday night the following officers were elected for the year 1961: President, James Sharp; vice president, Harry Reed; secretary, Laurence Jarrell; treasurer, Donald Knight; fire recorder, Herbert Semans; fire chief, Fletcher Bryan; chief engineer, Kenneth Glenden; custodian of supplies, Elwood Knight; custodian of building, William Orvis; directors: James Sharp, James McIlvaine, Herbert Semans, Hubert Dill, Isaac Orvis, Fletcher Bryan and Elwood Knight.

Mrs. Clyde Luton and Mrs. Marshall Hart complimented Mrs. Jack Walton, the former Miss Mary Papan, at a stork shower at the home of the latter on Tuesday evening.

JET-SMOOTH TRAVEL DOWN TO EARTH

HERE'S WHAT GIVES CHEVY ITS JET-SMOOTH RIDE—
Full Coil suspension—Chevy's one of the few cars with a coil spring at every wheel. Precision-balanced wheels—For smoother rolling with less vibration. Sound-hushing insulation—Sheet metal is carefully insulated against drumming and vibration. 51 built-in "shock absorbers"—Cushion the chassis against shock and shake. Live rubber body mountings—Extra-large butyl rubber cushions that further isolate the ride from the road.

This is the Impala Sport Coupe—just one of 20 Jet-smooth Chevies! Better just circle your dealer's block the first time you try a Jet-smooth '61 Chevy. Get anywhere near an open highway and he's liable never to see you again.

What we mean, Chevy's ride whets your yen to travel. Wins you over with its delightful coil-spring smoothness, its hushed comfort and light steering. You find yourself feeling sorry for people who buy higher priced cars, thinking they have to pay premium prices for a luxury ride.

That may have been true at one time, but not any more. Chevrolet's ride, its roadability, just doesn't take second place to anybody's. Drive one soon and see.
