

STATE URGED TO HIKE BOAT LICENSE FEE

Delaware's boat license fee should be raised from $2 to $3, the Shell Fisheries Commission recommended Tuesday.

The recommendation was brought to the Joint Finance Committee of the General Assembly by Nathaniel W. Taylor, Jr., executive secretary. Committee members seemed to be in agreement with the proposal, which would make the income from licenses sufficient to cover the cost of administration of the state's boat safety law.

There are about 12,000 motor boats — most outboards — licensed in Delaware. The proposed fee would bring in $36,000. Taylor's budget calls for $34,250 for the boat safety phase of the commission's work. Dealers licenses should be $5, the commission thought. Members of the committee thought $10 would be the right figure.

A bill will be introduced soon to propose changes in fees and also to outlaw certain unsafe practices. Reckless operation, overloading, and failure to carry sufficient life jackets would be specified as violations of the law. Taylor said he was told, at a national safety conference that Delaware's law is the best in the country.

Taylor said a deal should be used beside the boat number to show the annual license fee has been paid. A new deal, in a new color, would be issued each year.

The boat safety staff received 126 emergency calls last summer, and saved two lives. Taylor spoke of his own satisfaction in rescuing a man, resuscitating him, and seeing him walk off with his children.

The boat wardens are trained in first aid, and carry first aid and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation equipment in their boats and trucks.

The Shell Fisheries Commission asked for a total of $79,000 for the next fiscal year, including $10,000 to go to the University of Delaware for research.

The Department of Civil Defense asked for a boost in funds from the $40,859 available this year to $50,900. The extra money would be used mainly for additional personnel. They would be used to keep the state's survival plan up-to-date, to educate the public on civil defense, and otherwise to carry out the department's responsibilities.

Capt. Robert N. Downes, director of civil defense, said the public has shifted to a more realistic viewpoint of civil defense in the past 18 months. In answer to a question he said there is no mass shelter in the state, and that he has no information on individual family shelters that may exist.

The third agency interviewed Tuesday was the Forestry Department. W. S. Taber, state forester asked for funds to grant $400 raises to employees.

He again asked for funds—$14,400—for improvements to the lodge, barn and shop at Redden Forest. He also requested $6,000 to purchase land in New Castle County, and $20,000 to build a house at Blackbird Forest so that a caretaker can live there to curb vandalism.

Mr. Taber pictured the state as being urbanized in 15 years, and declared that planning is needed throughout the eastern United States to preserve open acres.

American Legion Activities, CKRT Post No. 7

This article should enlighten those citizens that have no knowledge of the legion's basketball program. This program was started by the athletic committee two years ago. James O'Neal was chairman at that time, and he was ably assisted by Ted Layton, Bill Minner, Frankie O'Neal, Jack Swain and Bob Jester. In every article written on past history, someone gets left out. To those whom I have no record, congratulations for a job well done.

The average turn out for these teams is 70 boys, from ages 10 to 13. Competition is very lively between the boys and the maneuvering of the coaches is a sight to behold. Bill Minner's team won the first championship, and Frankie O'Neal cornered last year's laurels. As of this date, the race for this year is wide open. Bob Jester's team is to be reckoned with. These kids are getting pretty good, and the effort put out by them is going to reflect in the Junior Varsity and Varsity teams in the near future.

The public is invited to see these boys practice on Saturday. The Harrington School Board donated the gym, and a lot of the equipment. These teams may also be seen occasionally just prior to a regular scheduled high school game.

Leak Damages
Sherwin Property
Much water damage was revealed Wednesday when a pipe break was discovered in a building on Commerce Street used by George Sherwin Inc., as a warehouse. The company manufactures shirts.

While the damage is extensive, the amount has not been determined. Thawing of a frozen water line, which had burst, was attributed as the cause of the leak.

Several other business places in and near Harrington were flooded when water ran off the piled up snow and ice into the establishments. Among those affected were the Bond Bread Company, Peoples Restaurant, and the Harrington Motor Company.

EASY CARVING
A pork loin roast may be carved more easily if the backbone is separated from the ribs. This can be done at the market by sawing across the ribs close to the backbone. Then the backbone will become loosened during roasting.

BREAKFAST IDEA
Line muffin pans with bacon which has been cooked until transparent. Break an egg into each pan. Season with salt and pepper and bake in slow oven (300° F.) for 15 minutes.

World Day of Prayer Observes 75th Anniversary

Services for World Day of Prayer will be held 7:30 Friday evening, Feb. 17, at Trinity Methodist Church. Members from all churches in this area are taking part.

The observance bridges all superficial difference of race, creed and denomination, and emphasizes the oneness of purpose of the Christian Mission. Though differences in theological thought and practice often erect a barrier to sharing in the unity of fellowship, all people of Christian faith can pray together.

It was in 1887 that one consecrated woman in the United States first dreamed of a Day of Prayer for missions. The vision grew and now the day is being observed by women around the world. On Feb. 17, throughout the 24 hours of the day, from daybreak on Tonga Island to dusk on St. Lawrence Island near the Arctic Circle, people will assemble—knowing that they are not alone in their aspirations and desires.

Participants in the service at Trinity are: Mrs. Richard Hardy, Baptist Church; Mrs. Roy Judy Sr., Church of the Brethren; Mrs. Lester Hatfield, Farmington Methodist; Mrs. John Walls and Mrs. Earl Sylvester, Trinity; Mrs. Paul Hughes, Felton Methodist; Mrs. Earl Nelson and Mrs. Abner Hickman, Asbury; Mrs. Robert McNally and Mrs. George Thompson, St. Stephen's Episcopal; Miss Sharon Goodhand and Miss Carol Ann Moore, Pilgrim Holiness; Mrs. Titus Schlabach, Mennonite Church, and Mrs. Robert Yerkes, Houston Methodist.

A solo will be sung by Mrs. John Yoder, Mennonite Church, and the Rev. Lorraine Ottinger from Church of the Nazarene will offer the benediction. Ushers for the evening are Mrs. Harold McDonald, Mrs. Edgar Layton, Mrs. Ellwood Gruwel and Mrs. Randall Knox, Jr.

Dismissal Set For Tax Debtors

State employes have been told by State Tax Commissioner Alex R. Abrahams to pay their state taxes "or be dismissed."

The commissioner also said that delinquents cannot pay taxes due at the State Tax Department office after their cases have been turned over to magistrates.

"Several persons whose delinquent tax accounts have been turned over to the magistrates for collection have come to the department cashier to pay the taxes due," Commissioner Abrahams noted.

"They should have seen the cashier when they received the bills or letters for months and years of taxes due, and not have waited until they were sued," he said.

Mr. Abrahams explained that while public employes owing state income taxes are being checked and lists prepared for the magistrates, their places of employment are not noted on the delinquent lists.

City employes with delinquent taxes accounts, are being handled the same way as any other persons owing state taxes, Abrahams said.

On a partial list of Kent County delinquents Commissioner Abrahams said he found seven names of state employes. They were notified to pay the taxes due or face dismissal. "They will not be sued as the state law takes care of them if they do not pay."

Mr. Abrahams said another Kent County list is being prepared, as well as a list of Sussex County delinquents.

Peck's term will expire June 30, 1963. The normal term runs four years. Unexpired terms are filled by the Board of Elections, but the 4-year appointments are filled by the Governor.

The Rev. Shockey plans special meetings with pastors of Protestant churches in the district.

Levy Court Ok's Fund For Food

The Kent County Levy Court decided Tuesday to respond to the request of Gov. Elbert N. Carvel and provide funds for the temporary operation of the distribution of surplus food for the needy.

The Levy Court made $500 available on a trial basis, which it is understood will be followed during the remainder of this month.

Whether the plan will be continued in the future will be decided by the Levy Court after the results of the proposed temporary operations are known.

Mr. Taylor, of Taylor Marine, Rehoboth Highway, Milford, has a number of sports and adventure films for booking at no cost. He advises booking at least a month in advance, and he will even show the films on his own projector.

The films are 16 mm, with sound, and in color. Most run 22 to 27 minutes.

Taylor Marine also announces the affiliation of James L. Reedy, of Masten's Corner, who has completed a course in outboard engine service and repair in Waukegan, Ill.

Both Democratic and Republican support has been lined up for the measure — more than enough to pass it. Under the proposal, the new commission would be composed of three members of each political party and the seventh member—the controlling vote—would be appointed as chairman by the governor for no fixed term.

The proposal is designed to give the governor tighter control over the commission through the authority to fire the chairman—an authority he now apparently does not have.

The reorganization is part of a four-pronged "deal" to get Republican support for a highway bond issue and several other concessions.

The package deal, worked out last month, provides for:

1. The resignation of Chief Engineer Richard A. Haber.
2. Implementation by the State Highway Department of 19 cleanup regulations.
3. Resignation of the entire highway commission.
4. Reorganization of the commission along the lines outlined above.

In return for this, the Republicans agreed:

1. To support a highway bond bill to get the state's road program back into operation.
2. To keep quiet when Haber resigns and allow him to "save face."
3. Not to insist that the new regulation prohibiting dual job-holding in the department be retroactive. This had the effect of saving the Department jobs of State Senators Allen J. Cook (D-Kenton) and Calvin McCullough (D-Wilmington).
4. To allow the new commission to attempt to clean up the department without partisan criticism.

So far, Haber has quit, effective April 1, and the commission has adopted the regulations designed to meet criticism by Atty.-Gen. Januar D. Bove, Jr., in his continuing probe of the department.

In return the Republicans in the House and Senate have kept their silence.

Road Board May Be Reduced

The present 12 - member State Highway Commission is on the way out and scheduled to be replaced by a new streamlined commission under tight control of Gov. Elbert N. Carvel, it was learned Wednesday.

Members of the General Assembly, with the blessing of Carvel, are drafting legislation to create a seven-member commission with the chairman serving "at the pleasure of the governor."

Both Democratic and Republican support has been lined up for the measure — more than enough to pass it. Under the proposal, the new commission would be composed of three members of each political party and the seventh member—the controlling vote—would be appointed as chairman by the governor for no fixed term.

Gross Income Determines Social Security

"If you had gross income from your farm of $600 or more, you can get social security credits even if you had a loss in 1960", Mr. Sullivan, district manager of the Dover social security office said today. This means farmers can build up social security protection for themselves and their families.

Farm self-employed tax returns are due by Feb. 15th for those farmers whose tax year starts on January 1st. However, farm operators who file an estimate of their tax and pay that amount by Jan. 15th have until April 15th to file their returns and pay any balance due. Keeping accurate and complete records of all income and expenses is just good business all the time, but it is particularly important when it is time to file income tax returns. Maintaining good records now and filing tax returns on time means quicker processing of your claim when you become eligible for benefits or, in the event of your death, when your survivors apply for benefits. The amount of your benefit depends on the earnings you report. The tax on 1960 earnings is 4½% of your net earnings up to $4,800.

If you are going to apply for social security benefits this year, Mr. Sullivan suggests you have an extra copy of your 1960 Federal Income Tax Return and Schedule F, made up for social security and bring it with you so you can get credit for all your earnings under social security.

All tax returns are filed with Internal Revenue Service. More detailed information may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Office or the social security office at 230 West Lockerman St., Dover, Del.

Caesar Rodney Plans Referendum

Recently at a meeting of the Board of Education of the Caesar Rodney Special School District, plans were made to hold a referendum Sat., April 8. On this date the voters of the district will ballot on two proposals: first, a second elementary building which the district will need in September 1963; and second, a proposal which will increase the amount of money the district is permitted to raise for current expenses by $25,000. Presently the district raises only $10,000 a year for current expenses which was authorized by a referendum in 1947.

Both these questions are brought to the attention of the voters through the unanimous action of the Board of Education and the recommendations of the administrative staff of the school district in order to meet the problems brought about by growth.

Last week, after reviewing the projection enrollments and need for the building, the State Board of Education issued the certificate of necessity required before further plans could be made.

It is expected that the proposed school will be filled almost to capacity when completed even if only the most probable further growth occurs as predicted by the Educational Service Bureau of Temple University. In May 1960, the bureau completed a survey regarding future needs of the district.

Since 1947, the purchasing power of the dollar has been continuously declining and the number of students in the district has increased three-fold. This, along with the loss of some federal aid, necessitates the request for additional current expense money.

It is proposed that the cost of the two programs be met by an increase in both real estate and capitation taxes. Presently the tax rate is 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation on real estate and $7 capitation. The school building construction would add 20 cents to the real estate tax and $3 to the capitation tax and the additional current expense money would add 10c to the real estate tax and $2 to the capitation tax, bringing the total tax rate to 65 cents per $100 assessed valuation and $12 capitation.

A public meeting is planned in the school auditorium Tues., March 14, when questions relative to the referendum will be discussed and answered.

Local Cub Pack Eligible For Award

Mayor Charles L. Peck Sr., has joined 18 other mayors in the Mid-Del Scouting district in signing a proclamation designating Feb. 7 through 13 as Boy Scout Week.

The Mid-Del district covers from Middletown south to the Kent and Sussex County line.

Highlighting the National observance in Harrington is the fact that Cub Pack No. 76, sponsored by the Harrington Lions Club, is eligible to receive the President Eisenhower streamer or unit award.

This award is presented to those five troops in the entire district who had over 50 per cent of their boys receive the special personal 50th Anniversary Achievement Award. The achievement award was set up for Scouting's golden jubilee year, 1960, and is a permanent patch given to boys who earned certain strict scouting merits.

E. A. Spencer, Mid-Del district chairman, announced early this week that the national theme "Strengthen America—Character Counts" applies equally to the 1532 scouts who are active members of units within the district.

These boys, with their 450 volunteer leaders, will be involved in many events during the observance, including special meetings with civic and social institutions which sponsor their Scouting units.

Fire Company to Buy New Siren

The Harrington Volunteer Fire Company will purchase a new 3-phase 10-horsepower siren, it was decided at its February meeting Monday evening. It will replace the present one.

The fire company has been informed by the Superior Body Company a 1961 Cadillac ambulance will be delivered between March 1 and 15.

Richard A. Haber told the State Highway Commission members Wednesday he resigned only because Republicans demanded it before they would permit further road construction.

At a meeting in Dover, Mr. Haber presented his formal statement to the commissioners. He announced his resignation last week.

The Haber statement in full follows: "I have transmitted a letter of resignation to the chairman and you are aware of its contents."

"First and foremost I should like to make it plain that this resignation has no connection with the attorney general's interim report and that, contrary to headlines and radio reports, I am not seeking or asking "exoneration." No exoneration has been necessary and any possible need for it was removed when you reinstated me in this position on Jan. 25.

"If any further proof is needed, I quote the attorney general's statement of Jan. 18 which has never appeared in the Wilmington papers:

"The interim report on the attorney general's investigation of the State Highway Department was neither meant to be nor in any way was a personal attack on Chief Engineer Richard A. Haber and you may quote me on that."

"Dick Haber was not charged with any crime in the report and no steps have been taken to so charge him."

"This resignation is based solely on the fact that the Republican minority in the 121st General Assembly served notice that they would not consider making available to this department necessary construction funds unless certain conditions were met, one of which, perhaps the major one, being that I could no longer occupy the office of chief engineer of the State Highway Department."

"When a man accepts this job, he also accepts its responsibilities and one of the major responsibilities is the welfare of the men in the department who are dependent upon him. I feel that the members of my own political party would take a stand which would stymie any move to make available construction funds for the department, and in order to remove that possibility, I cannot, in all conscience, take the position of "dog in the manger" and jeopardize the jobs of some 450 men of this department as well as the continuation of the highway program with its attendant services to our citizens and the work which can be made available through the contractors and builders in the highway industry.

"I have tendered this resignation with regret, but without bitterness. I felt that I have come from the 'East Side' in Wilmington to a point where I have built this position into the most important appointive job in the State of Delaware. Otherwise, I would not be, for the first time in legislative history, the pawn on which the passage of legislation depends."

"Over two terms totaling seven and a half years in office, the department has moved ahead consistently to a position of national prominence and acceptance despite internal inertia and external opposition.

"I regret being in a position of having to leave the basic groundwork to meet challenge of the immediate future for someone else to use. But if it serves to fulfill the plan which (Continued on Page 8)

Sixth Grades Have New Schedule

The sixth grades of Harrington Elementary School have started to change classes as their upper classmen do. Mr. Smith is teaching science and math. Mrs. Smith has charge of teaching English and spelling, while history and reading are being taught by Mrs. Mann.

The theory behind this change is that teachers will be teaching the subjects they enjoy most and are best suited for, and the students will be having classes on the same plan as junior high.

Commercial Club News

Senior stenography students participated in the National Office Management Spelling Program. Two tests of 100 words each were given. Three students scored 100% in both tests. They were: Beatrice Collins, Audrey Lord, and Mary Ann Messick. Kathy Holloway and Pat Hackett made 100 in test No. 2. The three double winners will receive the NOMA Spelling Proficiency Certificate. Legion Chief Backs Anti-Red Film

Delaware's American Legion commander, L. Gooden Callaway, Harrington, took a firm stand recently in opposition to those who have criticized State Police purchase of the anti-Communist film, "Operation Abolition."

A two-page defense of the film came from the Legion's top state officer on the heels of publication of comments against the film by the Rev. Dr. Ellsworth E. Jackson, pastor of First and Central Presbyterian Church, Eleventh and Market Streets, a prominent figure in the New Castle Presbytery.

In his defense of the film, Commander Callaway said:

"The EXECUTIVE committee, Department of Delaware, the American Legion, recognizing the immediate and future threat of external and internal communism, to the security of our nation and to all free peoples of the world, also recognize the need for accurate and complete dissemination of information concerning this threat.

"This film, which presents the facts as given by people who were present at the time of the San Francisco hearings of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, is in our opinion, more valuable than the statements of those objectors who protest a hearing or viewing of the facts.

Commander Callaway said the policy of the Legion "has been and will continue to be, one supporting the showing of the film, 'Operation Abolition,' as a means of permitting the matter included in the film, 'like all similar matters' to have a 'true viewing and hearing.'

HE POINTS OUT that statements by J. Edgar Hoover, the Mayor of San Francisco and the seven clergymen "who were present during the hearings in San Francisco, must be given greater weight than those of Communist Party members who are on record in opposition to its showing, because it clearly shows them in their activities against law and order."

The statement contains a defense of the House Un-American Activities Committee which says: "We recognize that the House Un-American Activities Committee, like any other committee or court of law, is not infallible and that it may on occasion commit an error in judgment and we further recognize that any bonafide American citizen, dedicated to the furtherance of truth and justice and the preservation of the principles upon which our nation was founded, has the right and indeed the duty, to voice his opinion within the framework of law and order."

Mr. Callaway added:

"To view the activities of the pro-Communist and the Communist led Anti-American groups as seen in 'Operation Abolition' is to view a mass of hate mongering anti-American people thwarting law and order, in an effort to serve, not this nation and the cause of freedom, but their own personal and Communist interests."

Commander Callaway says the American Legion, Department of Delaware, "joins all other groups and organizations who support the activities of those groups, agencies and organizations that are presenting this film in order that the American people may thus be informed and may arrive at a mature decision as to the truth in this matter and similar matters.

Concluding his stand on Legion policy in regard to "Operation Abolition," Commander Callaway says:

"We will continue in our efforts to have this controversy discussed on merits and facts as we understand them rather than defer to any program of suppression by any group or person."

Carvel to Urge Bond Bill

Gov. Elbert N. Carvel plans to deliver a message to the General Assembly next week, urging enactment of a highway bond bill.

The General Assembly is scheduled to reconvene Monday and a $14,000,000 bond bill, being prepared by the Highway Department, is to be ready for submission to the members then.

The Governor is said to believe that highway construction should be resumed to give the economy a boost and avoid losing millions in federal aid money available to Delaware, and because the state needs the roads.

Republican members of the legislature are understood to be ready to cooperate in enacting a highway bond measure. They blocked such action last year because of dissatisfaction with the Highway Department's accounting of how it had spent the money realized from the previous bond issue.

The attitude of the Republicans has changed because of the reforms already made by the department in adopting recommendations of its six-member committee which looked into the report on an investigation of the department filed by Atty. Gen. Januar D. Bove, Jr. Also, Republican leaders are counting on Governor Carvel to make good on his pledge to reorganize the department.

With the reforms already made plus the reorganization promised by the Governor, the Republicans are said to feel that their objections have been met and that they have no further reason to hold up passage of a bond bill.

The new bill will be similar to last year's bill in the amounts — $10,000,000 for general highway construction, and the rest for dirt roads, beach erosion and other roads.

The bill will implement a December resolution of the Highway Department and will have "slightly different projects" from those which last year's money was unsuccessfully sought, according to William J. Miller, deputy chief engineer.

Meanwhile, it was reported recently that the Governor's Committee to Improve the Highway Department will not be able to meet its February 15 target date for a report.

The committee is expected to get its report in a week later, however. The group headed by William Duffy, Jr., is waiting for the complete report of Price, Waterhouse and Company, the accounting firm working with the attorney general.

Potential Markets For Broilers

County Agent George Vapaa reports that during the first 9 months of 1960, exports of processed poultry meat ran about 25 per cent above 1959 to the six European Common Market Countries—Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxemburg and the Netherlands.

Mr. Vapaa says, according to a foreign agricultural service report, the prospective market in these countries is even more important to the U. S. poultry industry. Among the 166 million people in these six countries, per capita consumption of poultry meat products in the year ending June 30, 1959, amounted to only 8.4 pounds, compared with about 34 pounds in this country.

Twenty Percent More Turkeys

If turkey growers carry out their present intentions, they will produce 99 million turkeys this year compared to 82.3 million in 1960, an increase of 20 percent, according to Kent County Agricultural Agent George Vapaa.

He said a report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture Crop Reporting Board says the North Atlantic region is expected to increase production by 11 per cent.

Cafe Intellectual Scheduled for a Second Term

The success during the fall of the informal discussion meetings, Cafe Intellectual, has prompted the University of Delaware extension division to continue the program during the spring with new topics for consideration.

Groups will meet in Warner Hall Hilarium on the Newark campus on four Sunday nights, beginning Feb. 26, at 8 p.m. There is no fee, no reservation and no ticket for the series. Coffee and tea will be available.

Dr. Edward C. Higbee, professor of sociology, anthropology and geography, will lead the opening discussion of his new book, "The Squeeze: Cities Without Space," just published by William Morrow and Company.

Dr. Robert Huff, assistant professor of English, will raise some significant questions which go beyond poetry in the March 5 session, "Lyric Poetry in a Conformist Society."

March 12, Dr. Ralph Purcell, chairman of political science, will bring up points of interest from "Goals for Americans," usually referred to as the Wriston Report, for the week's discussion of national goals in the 1960's.

Dr. Ralph Exline, assistant research professor of the Center for Research on Social Behavior at the university, will go into and beyond Vance Packard's book, "The Status Seekers," in the final meeting on March 19.

On each of the four evenings, the designated leader will begin with a few minutes exposition on the announced topic, then invite free discussion. Where a book is referred to, participants are urged to read the book before the session in order to get the most from the conversations about the ideas of the author.

Whittling the Pounds Away

Gals interested in whittling off a few extra pounds should attend a series of six classes on "Controlling Your Weight" to be held in Dover beginning Feb. 13.

Low-calorie foods, exercises, low-calorie menus which include your family's favorite foods, and crash diets will be discussed by Miss Janet Coblenz, extension nutrition specialist with the University of Delaware.

Miss Coblenz also will discuss eating habits that will enable you to lose weight and, once off your diet, help you to keep the lost pounds from returning.

Gals attending the one-hour meetings will learn to figure the calorie content of various foods and menus and to adjust their total calorie intake so they may lose excess weight without impairing their health.

Records of progress made during the weight control sessions will be kept to help keep the dieters on their toes.

The meetings will be held at the State Board of Health Building in Dover beginning Feb. 13 at 9:30 a.m. To enroll or obtain additional information, contact the University's home demonstration agent in Kent County, Mrs. Florence Smith at the Dover Post Office Building, or call RE-Field 6-1448.

State Library to Re-open at New Location

In mid-February, the State Library, presently closed, will reopen for "business" at its new location in the former Pennsylvania Railroad passenger station at the west end of Dover's main business artery, Lockerman Street, according to Mrs. Virginia F. K. Messick, State librarian.

Weather permitting, approximately 50,000 volumes and other equipment of the State Library Commission will have been moved from the basement of the Old State House—former "home" of the Commission—to the remodeled and refurbished former railroad station prior to Feb. 13, the tentative date for the reopening of the library.

While "over-the-counter" operation has been suspended while books and other equipment are being moved, two bookmobiles, which service the needs of people living in rural areas of Kent and Sussex Counties, have continued to operate on regular schedule. The servicing of the needs of some twenty small schools not having libraries of their own has likewise been interrupted during the moving period.

The State of Delaware acquired title to the former railroad station in late December 1959 in an exchange for 5200 shares of Delaware Railroad Company capital stock. This stock, which was non-dividend bearing was initially acquired by the state in the 1850's at a time when, with state assistance, rail lines were being extended from Wilmington south through Dover to the Maryland line at present day Delmar.

The building was subsequently assigned to the Library Commission for use as much needed quarters for the State Library previously crammed into several small rooms in the basement of the Old State House. Work on refurbishing and remodeling the former railroad station began last July and is now nearing completion.

The "new" State Library Building was built in 1910, replacing an earlier station built on the same site in 1860. Facing out on Lockerman Street, which terminates in a circle before its main entrance, the two-story brick building with large white wooden columns extending to the second story presents an imposing appearance.

From 1910 until shortly after World War II, the building was a beehive of activity with trains arriving or departing on regular schedule around the clock. In more recent years, however, passenger service has been reduced to just one north-bound and one south-bound train daily.

Since transfer of the former station to the state a little over a year ago, the railroad has used the facilities of its nearby freight station for passenger service.

Caleb W. Johnson

Caleb W. Johnson, 84, Magnolia councilman and husband of Edna M. Johnson, died at his home in Magnolia Wednesday evening, Feb. 1.

Funeral services were held from the Berry Funeral Home, Felton Sunday afternoon at 1:30.

The Rev. Thomas Burge of Magnolia Methodist Church and Dr. Thomas Mulligan of Georgetown officiated.

Interment was in Barratt's Chapel Cemetery.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Horace Johnson, Magnolia and George C. Johnson of Wyoming.

Mr. Johnson was a retired merchant of Magnolia Church, former superintendent of the Sunday School and trustee of the church. LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ATTACKED BY MOB

The life of a law enforcement officer is one fraught with daily risks, and his acts of everyday bravery—for which he is often poorly compensated—are accepted as routine by much of the public here.

In line with this, it is most discouraging to read of officers who, while trying to carry out their sworn duty of upholding the law, have been set upon by groups and mobs and severely injured or mauled.

For example, in a midwestern State, two police officers attempting to make an arrest were surrounded and assaulted by a dangerous mob. While the officers were being beaten, not one citizen could or would muster the courage to assist them or even to call for additional help so the men could be properly defended. In this instance, the officers were able to battle their way to their car and radio for assistance. The tragic consequences which might have erupted otherwise are terribly apparent.

Such utter contempt for the law and its enforcers is shocking and intolerable.

Mob action is as unpredictable and vicious as a tornado. It has the potential of unleashing concerted fury which can be animal-like in its intensity.

As a newspaper in the area of the attack so cogently pointed out, "It is a basic obligation of both morality and citizenship for all law-abiding citizens to come to the aid of the police in the discharge of their duties." I could not more heartily agree with this statement and would encourage all editorial writers to continue to vigilantly fulfill their duty of condemning and shaming all who would participate in such disgraceful demonstrations.

Some judges are making examples of irresponsible hoodlums who assault police officers, and rightly so. In other instances, courts are meting out stern justice to contemptuous, insolent individuals who defy the law by refusing to aid embattled police officers where the law so provides.

Making examples of such persons will instill respect for the law enforcement officer in a certain class of so-called "citizen" who has shown disrespect in the past.

If unrestrained attacks on law enforcement officers and unrestrained mob action are countenanced by good citizens, then no member of the community is safe for no one knows when he may be the next victim of mob violence.

Trinity W.S.C.S. Notes

The February meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Trinity Methodist Church was held Tuesday evening. Devotions were led by Mrs. John Walls, and Mrs. Randall Knox, Jr. presented the program "What is the Word."

Mrs. Arnold Gilstad, member of the executive committee of Dover District, stressed the importance of encouraging more women to become members of the Society. She listed dates of important events in the offing.

A comprehensive report of the recent banquet served to the Lions and Rotary Clubs was made by Mrs. Earl Sylvester, chairman. She gave special recognition to all who helped with and contributed to the success of this affair.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at 7:30 an itineration meeting with Miss Sarah Quillen, field worker of the Woman's Division, will be held in Trinity Church. All Methodist women of the area are urged to attend. Refreshments will be furnished by ladies of the host society.

Mrs. Ernest Raughley, treasurer, asked all circle leaders to see that pledges for 1960-61 are turned in by the first of April. Cherry pie and coffee were served by members of Lydia Circle, with Mrs. Harry Boyer and Mrs. Sam Williams as co-chairmen.

Reese Theatre Notes

The answer to the 'family prayer' is the coming of Gene Stratton Porter's tremendous hit "Freckles" to Movie Center this Friday and Saturday, Feb. 10 and 11, along with Willard Parker and Joyce Meadows in "Walk Tall", all in color and cinema-scope. This is probably one of the greatest all-family treats this theatre has yet presented. A gala cartoon circus completes this enjoyable presentation.

With critics raving—with newspaper and magazines lauding the new Universal hit, "The Grass is Greener" with Cary Grant, Deborah Kerr, Robert Mitchum and Jean Simmons, theatre fans are assured a rare treat when they attend the Reese Theatre this Sunday and Monday, Feb. 12 and 13.

To miss "The Grass is Greener" is to miss one of the four-star hits of the year.

Jerry Lewis in "Cinderella", Elizabeth Taylor in "Butterfield 8," and Walt Disney's "Swiss Family Robinson," are coming to Movie Center.

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

The basic dress is a standard item—a must for every clothes-conscious woman. But its value actually depends upon the kind of accessories she wears with it. A tatted collar—a knitted dickey—a crocheted cloche—an embroidered overskirt—All can be made by nimble fingers that know the arts of needlework. And all of these high-style possibilities available at low-cost point up one fact: it is a woman's imaginative use of her own talents that sets the level of her wardrobe.

BEAUTIFUL BELT

Today's design is a unique piece of high-style that will add dimension to any basic dress: a crocheted belt that works into a slimming, rounded center. There is a fake buckle in the middle front, but the real fastening is at the back. It will be fun to crochet this accessory. And if you don't already know how to crochet—learn on this design. For it's simple to make, requiring only the basic single, double and chain stitches. It has to be lined, of course. We used a fabric called Bondex (R) that served as a good, strong backing.

WEAR IT ANYWHERE

Make several of these belts in a variety of colors so that you can change the look of many dresses. You'll find that it goes as well with a full skirted dress as it does with a sheath. And you can wear it almost anywhere! Directions are given for 24-inch waist. Changes for 26-inch and 28-inch waist are in parentheses. Trinity Methodist Church News

For over three thousand years God has been asking mankind to keep His day holy—to set aside one day in seven for worship.

The world at large has rejected His plea. The world was convinced it could build a better kingdom than God could. We know how completely it has failed.

Our nation was founded by church-going men. (Washington would not let even company keep him from church). With faith larger than faults, our church-going ancestors wrested freedom from tyranny, turned a wilderness into a nation. Are we doing as much? Are we serious in wanting to hold what they won? Do we really want to safeguard civilization? What religion did once, it can do again.

We can make nice sounding excuses; but let us not fool ourselves longer. We either reject or accept God's weekly call to worship. There is no half way.

Why not try God's way? God cannot be wrong. Why not give His way a good trial? Resolve to be in God's house on Sunday, God willing, and God giving us the strength to be there?

If you have no church home we wish you would come and worship with us at Trinity this week!

Sunday, Feb. 12—The worship services form Trinity will be broadcast from Milford the month of February.

9:45 Sunday School—William Jester, general superintendent; Virginia Shultie, Primary superintendent. Classes for all age groups. Everyone welcome.

11 o'clock worship—Broadcast. The music will be by the Junior and Senior Choirs.

The greeters will be Mrs. Ernest Raughley and Mrs. Earl Sylvester. The flowers will be placed on our altar tables to the glory of God by Mrs. Earl Sylvester.

The M.Y.F. will meet Sunday evening at 6:30 in the chapel room. The Rev. Benjamin will lead the group.

The Vesper Service will be held at 7:30 in the church sanctuary. The music will be by the Intermediate Choir under the direction of Mrs. Benjamin.

The O.U.R. Class will meet with Mr. and Mrs. John Minner Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, for their regular monthly business and social meeting.

Zone No. 2 of the Dover District Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at Trinity Church Tuesday evening, 7:30, Feb. 14. The devotions will be led by the Women of Asbury Church. The program will be led by Miss Sarah Quillen, field worker of the Woman's Division. Miss Quillen will act as moderator for a panel of district officers.

The choirs will practice at their regular time on Thursday evening.

The World Day of Prayer observance will be held at Trinity Church Friday evening, Feb. 17 at 7:30. Participation in the service will be by all of our neighboring churches. Everyone is invited to come out and participate in this united effort. (Come and pray for world peace.)

At our Fourth Quarterly Conference of Feb. 1, our superintendent, the Rev. Dr. Roy L. Tawes heard reports from the four major commissions of the church and from the trustees, Woman's Society of Christian Service and organized classes. Our Woman's Society prepared a covered dish supper for the conference that was attended by 32 of our official church family. New trustees were elected for a two year term to fill out terms vacated by Mr. Albert Thistlewood's resignation

Asbury W.S.C.S. Notes

The monthly meeting of the Asbury Church Woman's Society of Christian Service was held in the Collins Building Tuesday evening, Feb. 7, at 7:30. Mrs. Fulton Downing, president, conducted the business meeting.

Following the usual order of business, Mrs. Downing announced that the World Day of Prayer will be held this year in Trinity Church on Friday, Feb. 17. This will be the 75th anniversary of this special day sponsored all over the world by the United Church Women.

Tuesday, Feb. 14, there will be a Zone 2 meeting also held in Trinity Church, Harrington. Mrs. Jonathan S. Willis, of Milford, Zone Leader will be in charge and several secretaries of the Asbury society will participate. This is the itineration meeting of the field worker and will introduce Miss Sarah Quillen of Gate City, Va., a field worker for the Wesleyan Service Guild. All members are invited to attend. The time is 7:15.

The annual district meeting will be held this year in Avenue Methodist Church in Milford at 10 a.m. on March 14. Mrs. Adam Minnigh of Franklin, Pa., secretary of youth work for the north-eastern jurisdiction will be the speaker. Reservations for the luncheon at $1.25 each should be made with Mrs. Theodore Harrington. This is the most important meeting of the year and Mrs. Downing is most anxious for a large number of the Asbury Society to attend.

The program for the evening concerned the care of retired workers and was planned by Mrs. William W. Sharp. She spoke of the beauty of old age and the golden years for the many women who have given so generously and devotedly during their lives to the work of the Lord. Mrs. Joseph Richardson, Mrs. Willard Schreck, Mrs. Albert Price, Mrs. Ruth Ryan and Mrs. Gary Home-wood presented a short skit outlining the retirement of these loyal workers.

Mrs. Fred Greenly Sr., led the devotions. Members of the Dorcas Circle with Mrs. Guy Winebrenner, leader, were hostesses.

The next meeting will be on March 7 with Mrs. Harry John Dill, Jr. presenting the topic "What Is The Word". A white elephant sale will also be held and members are asked to bring

VA to Speed Insurance Dividend To Veterans

In response to instructions by the President, the Veterans Administration said it is taking immediate steps to speed payments of more than a quarter billion dollars in Insurance Dividends to veterans.

A total of $258,500,000 will be distributed to some 4,800,000 World War II veterans holding National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) and to about 260,000 World War I veterans who have US Government Life Insurance (USGLI) policies. Of the total $240,000,000 will be paid on NSLI policies and $18,500,000 on USGLI policies.

The Veterans Administration said the Agency would use every resource in an all-out effort to place as many of the dividend checks as possible in the mails before the end of winter.

Since many veterans hold more than one policy although the aggregate may not exceed $10,000 of insurance in force—dividends will be paid on nearly 5,560,000 separate policies.

Setting June 30, 1961 as an outside limit for having all the policy dividends paid, Veterans Administration officials said even this date would cut the payment timetable prevailing in other years by exactly one-half. They expressed the hope, however, that concentrated effort would result in total payment well in advance of the June 30 date. Normally, yearly dividends are paid over a full 12-month period.

The Veterans Administration explained that dividends such as will be paid on World War I and World War II policies are primarily a refund to the veteran policy holders of part of their premium payments. The refunds are made possible principally because the death rate among GI policyholders continues to be lower than the rate upon which the premiums were established by law.

Veterans who currently have in force either term or permanent plan participating NSLI and USGLI policies will receive dividends.

The agency emphasized that veterans could aid in the speed-up of payments by not making advance individual inquiries about dividends. The answering of inquiries, it is explained, would divert personnel from processing the dividends, and thus create a delay in payments.

Leon Fields, Manager of the Wilmington Regional Office estimated that more than 15,000 veterans in Delaware will share in the 1961 dividend payments. Their share will be approximately $800,000.

The Associational Soul Winning Clinic will be held Mon., Feb. 27 with the First Baptist Church of Delmar.

Baptists believe that SIN is the most irksome fact of human experience—it is everywhere and has all reasons for its own. It is no respecter of persons; it haunts the hovel and invades the palace. Its mark is upon the ignorant and upon the learned; it is linked with physical beauty and with physical ugliness; it smites the child and afflicts the aged. It is the discord which spoils the music of human happiness; to it all heartaches and tears, all distress and despair, all foreboding and terror can be traced. Strong men wrestle with it as gladiators in the colosseum wrestled with lions. Gentle women fight it day and by night. Loving and careful parents, watching over their children, give God no rest as they plead that those they love may be delivered from sin. The Baptist Church teaches that Christ is the answer to the sin problem, both for time and for eternity. If you are now attending church, we invite you to come worship with us.

Seventy-fifth anniversary — World Day of Prayer — will be held in the Trinity Methodist Church, Feb. 17. Time: 7:30 p.m. Theme "Forward Through the Ages."

Of interest to weight-watchers is the fact that pork, as it is produced and eaten today, contains fewer calories and a higher percentage of protein than previously thought. Newer type hogs and closer trimmings of fat by meat packers and retailers account for the change.

ROAD BUILDER DEFENDS OVER-RUNS ON STATE WORK

Delaware highway contractors, a spokesman contends, are being judged unfairly because the term "over-run" used in connection with the current highway department investigation is misunderstood.

"Misuse, misunderstanding and misinterpretation of such terms as over-runs, contract additions and extra work are reflecting unfavorably on Delaware highway contractors and doing them a serious injustice," A. Nelson Sills, executive secretary of the Highway Constructors of Delaware, said in a news release.

He was referring to specific points made by Atty. Gen. Januar D. Bove, Jr., in his "interim report" on an investigation of the State Highway Department.

Mr. Sills' statement was designed to clarify the meaning in the public mind of the terms "over-run," "contract addition," and "extra work."

Mr. Bove has charged that the practices covered by these terms can be and occasionally have been used to cloak illegal activity and to pad contractors' profits. The practices are currently under close scrutiny from the Legislature and the State Highway Commission.

"Actually, these terms and the practices which they describe are legitimate and necessary factors in the contracting business, assuring protection against indeterminate contingencies for both parties to a contract," Mr. Sills' statement said.

An over-run, as described in his statement, is extra work or cost incurred by the contractor in doing a job, where the exact amount has not been figured closely enough beforehand and more is needed than is specified in the contract.

The contractor is then allowed to charge for this extra work and is paid for it. There is a corresponding term of "under-run," the statement said. This example was given:

A contractor is given an excavation job calling for removal of 2000 cubic yards of earth and 400 cubic yards of rock. The exact amount removed is 1950 cubic yards of earth and 500 cubic yards of rock.

The contractor is paid for the exact amount of excavation at a figure covered in the contract. The payments amount to less for excavating the earth and more for excavating the rock under-run and over-run.

Contract additions, the statement said, simply cover changes or additions to the job being done by a contractor which the original contractor is allowed to do without bidding simply by extending the provisions of the contract to cover the new work.

Extra work is work of a type not called for in a contract, but later found to be necessary, the statement said.

Contract additions sometimes mean reducing the amount of work called for, the statement said.

All three can be undesirable, and even cost a contractor money, Mr. Sills' statement contended.

Plan Offered to Abolish Absentee Voting in State

An effort to abolish or limit absentee voting will be made at this session of the General Assembly, legislators said Monday.

Dissatisfaction with the system based on suspected irregularities, is the main reason for the proposed change.

Senator Walter J. Hoey (D-Milford), chairman of the Joint Finance Committee, and Senator Harvey B. Spicer (R-Georgetown), said they will co-sponsor a bill to make the change. Rep. Russell D. F. Dineen (D-Wilmington), said that if it gets through the Senate he'll bring it up in the House.

The subject came up Monday when the Finance Committee reviewed the budget requests of the three departments of elections.

J. Harry Latchum of Milford, a member of the Kent County Department of Elections, explained one of the causes of complaint. He said that a party worker will apply for an absentee ballot for another person, and then mark it the way he wants it marked, and put it in its envelope. If he didn't make sure it was marked the way he wanted it, the party workers wouldn't bother to go get the ballot, he said.

There were also complaints that the absentee voting system is misused by people who claim they will be away on business on Election Day but actually will be away on vacations. It was also said to be misused by persons who manage to go to the polls to register, and then claim they can't go to the polls to vote.

Edwin W. Hutchinson, secretary of the Department of Elections for New Castle County, told of 23 residents of a home in Wilmington who managed to go out to register in 1956. "On Election Day everyone voted absentee," Senator Spicer said there is "just too much criticism" of absentee voting in both parties to leave the system as it is.

He would either abolish it or change it in one of two ways:

1. Limit it to voting for presidential electors.
2. Have the absentee ballots sent directly to the Board of Canvass rather than to the election officials. This would mean results would not be known until the canvass, which starts two days after the election. Elimination of absentee voting would require a constitutional amendment. The Constitution directs the General Assembly to enact laws to provide for absentee voting by a registered voter unable to appear at the polling place because of being in the public service of the nation or state, because of the nature of his business or occupation, or because of sickness or physical disability.

Mr. Hutchinson said it cost $2.33 per vote in New Castle County to conduct the election. He based his figure on the 142,000 persons who voted and the two-year cost of the work done by the Department of Elections.

Dr. A. Joel Kaplovsky, director of the Water Pollution Commission, said that agency is getting into the field of radiology. He said it is essential to determine whether and to what extent the public's milk supply and plant life are being affected by radiation.

Other difficult areas in the commission's field of investigation, he said, are the effects of insecticides and the effects of detergents, both on the water supply.

Large Herds Not Necessary to Gain Dairy Profit

"Large herds, cow pools and other big-scale operations are not necessary for profitable milk production on the farm," a Sealtest spokesman said at Milford Tuesday night.

Speaking before area dairy farmers and their families in a meeting in Milford High School, Dr. Roy F. Davenport, director of field service for Sealtest said that the much-discussed need for bigness on the farm doesn't exist.

The average size farmer who keeps abreast of changes in dairy methods can run his operation as efficiently as big farmers and earn an income that will provide him with a good standard of living.

"This assumes," the veterinarian declared "that farmers will continue to operate with sound business principles—and also make the most effective use of the time and skills available within the family itself."

"The efficiency that results from family participation has always been a factor in the success of the average dairyman. This also is a happy situation because it preserves a very important way of life in America."

In another part of the program the audience heard of Sealtest's plans to improve processing and distribution facilities. Entertainment and refreshments also were featured.

Last night's meeting was the fourteenth in a series of annual meetings held for producers who ship their milk to Sealtest in Philadelphia.

Services were held from the J. Millard Cooper Funeral Home, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lorraine Ottinger, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene officiated.

Additional services were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the White-marshal Memorial Chapel, Prospectville, Pa. Interment was in Whitmarsh Memorial Park.

Support for research fellows is at an all-time high at the University of Delaware where 103 graduate students from 12 departments are receiving $202,591.52 this year.

A report compiled by Mrs. Ruth E. Seaburg, assistant research administrator, reveals that the departments of chemistry and chemical engineering are leading the way with 47 and 30 fellows, respectively. Another strong research area, the school of agriculture, has 40 graduate fellows, but only one is included in this report. The other agricultural students are receiving their stipends directly from the government under the National Defense Education Act or from the National Science Foundation and are not included in the report's statistics.

Other departments with graduate research fellows are bio-chemistry and food technology, biological sciences, civil engineering, electrical engineering, history, physics, psychology, the Center for Research on Social Behavior, and the dean of student's office.

Government sponsors include the National Science Foundation, the Army, the Office of Naval Research, the Air Force, the Atomic Energy Commission and the Public Health Service.

Industrial sponsors include the duPont Co., Hercules Powder Co., Shell Companies Foundation, Proctor and Gamble, Esso Research and Engineering, Socony Mobile Oil Co., Gulf Research and Development, Monsanto Chemical Co., Smith, Kline and French, Armstrong Cork Co., Eastman Kodak Co., National Lead Co., National Electrical Manufacturers Association and U. S. Steel Foundation

Other research fellows are supported by the University of Delaware Research Foundation, the Eleutherian Mills-Hagley Foundation, the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, the Elizabeth Storch Kraemer Memorial Foundation, the Paint Research Institute and by other organizations and individuals.

According to Mrs. Seaburg, the university's research program is at its peak in numbers of students, dollars and departments involved. Continued expansion is anticipated in the years ahead, she said.

Greenwood

Greenwood Scouts plan to commemorate National Boy Scout Week, February 7-13.

The Cub Scout Pack 242, sponsored by the Greenwood Lions Club under the direction of Cubmaster Mike Yeako, the Boy Scout Troop 242, sponsored by the Greenwood Kiwanis Club, with Earl Obier as Scoutmaster, and Hubert Mock, Assistant Scoutmaster, and our newly organized Explorer Post 242, sponsored by the Greenwood Kiwanis Club, Phil Baker, president and Earl Obier, advisor, will each participate in these activities.

During the entire week you will see boys from each of these organizations in uniform. There will be three windows in town decorated for the occasion. The Cub Pack will decorate the Earl T. Obier Insurance Agency window. The Boy Scout Troop expects to set up a real camping scene in the Fire House window, and the Explorer Post will place a special display in A. S. and M. S. Cahall's window. Be sure to see these!

The activities will start officially on Tuesday, February 7, when three of the Explorers will raise the flag at school. They will be responsible for the raising and lowering of the school flag for the entire week.

On Wednesday morning there will be a special Scout assembly at school, with all three organizations describing their respective activities. This program will be held in a camping atmosphere, the scene showing all participants seated around a campfire. There will be skits and demonstrations describing camp life and other Scout activities. A selection of lively campfire songs will be added to the program.

Sunday, February 12, is designated as National Boy Scout Sunday. All Scouts are urged to attend the church of their choice in uniform. There will be quite a large group of us to attend the Greenwood Methodist Church that morning. We hope to see you there.

Monday night, February 13, the boys of Scout Troop 242 and the Explorer Post will hold a combined Parents and Friends of Scouting night in the Greenwood Fire Hall. The program will include one of Scouting's most impressive ceremonies, "The Investiture." This is the induction of new Scouts that have recently passed their Tenderfoot requirements. The boys to be inducted are Donald Bradley, Larry DePew, Marvin Kates, James Power, Craig Prettyman, and Jake Wroten. This will be followed by a Court of Honor where four boys will receive their Second Class Scout Badges. They are Patrol Leaders Gerald Jones and Billy Post and Assistant Patrol Leaders Daniel Smith and Jeffrey Smith. The Camping Merit Badge will be presented to Explorer Bill Jones. The speaker for this program will be our Sussex District Scout Executive Ronald Dommermouth, who will outline the objectives of Scouting and planned camping activities.

Saturday night, February 18, will be the Cub Pack's Annual Blue and Gold Parent's Banquet, held in the Greenwood Fire Hall. This promises to be a great night for the Cubs and their parents. The Cubs have a special program prepared, which I am sure will be a real treat for their parents and guests. Scoutmaster Earl Obier will speak to them on their future in Scouting.

The Rev. Miss Etta M. Clough pastor of Pilgrim Holiness Church, Greenwood will be speaking on Morning Devotions, over WKSB each morning at 9. She will be giving a series of messages on the Book of Esther.

Our community was indeed saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Lewis Uhler who passed away, February 2. Mrs. Uhler, a resident of Harrington at the time of her passing, was a former resident of Greenwood.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones were Mrs. Anna Isaacs, Wilbur Hynson, Mr. and Mrs. George Pittman and daughter, Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hynson, Mrs. Lester Craft and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Spicer of Laurel, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Rogers of Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. William Lambden and Wendy of Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCready of Harrington, Mrs. Edna Joseph, and the Rev. Miss Etta M. Clough. Mrs. W. T. Jones spent the weekend with the family.

Mrs. George Barwick was delightfully surprised on Sunday when a group of family and friends arrived with many gifts, homemade ice cream and cake to help her celebrate her birthday. Those present were her mother, Mrs. Helen Hulliger of Federalsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hulliger and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glessner and children, also of Federalsburg; her sister, Mrs. Eloise White and daughter of Preston, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hulliger and children of Denton; Mr. and Mrs. William Gaines and children of Denton, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hitchens and Kathy of Greenwood. A very pleasant and jolly time was enjoyed by all.

Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hatfield were Mr. and Mrs. John B. Case of Seaford.

The Greenwood Home Demonstration Club will hold the regular meeting on February 14 at the home of Mrs. Nelson Meredith. This will be a regular evening meeting, not a covered dish.

The folk around this area are welcoming home their new little neighbors, the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mills, Melissa and Melinda. One came home on Tuesday and one on Thursday, and I have it on good authority that they are just like two little dolls! I can scarcely wait to see them.

We were happy to hear, also, of the birth of a son, Stephen, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Turnberger of Newark on January 31. Mrs. Turnberger, of course, is the former Eileen Mills. The Turnberger's other children are girls, Lynn and Beth, and a son, Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mills were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ellis, of Delmar. On Monday they drove to Newark to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edward Turnberger and to attend the Farm and Home Week program on Tuesday at University of Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Short are vacationing in Florida. They couldn't have picked a better time to get away from all this snow and ice.

Delaware Food Market Report

The blizzard of '88 seems to be with us again and as a result, shopping for groceries creates many problems. When snow is forecast, everyone goes to the store, supplies soon become picked over, and many minutes are spent standing in line to check out. If possible, during the remaining days of winter, why not shop ahead, use the good days to build up depleted supplies. Be sure to buy extra canned fruits, vegetables, milk and even some canned meat for an emergency shelf; then you are all set for the next big snow storm, regardless of when it comes.

With the weather as it is, there are many fresh vegetables and fruits which are suffering from the low temperature, so quality needs to be watched. Supplies are a bit low on a few items; however, for the most part, a fairly wide variety of vegetables is available this weekend. The list of vegetables on special sale which will help balance the budget are: all kinds of white potatoes, even the new Red Bliss variety, green peppers, carrots, cabbage, beets, green onions, lettuce and carton tomatoes.

On the up-side, as far as prices are concerned, are loose tomatoes advancing 3 cents a pound, cucumbers up to 15 cents; green beans are also up to 26 cents. The squash that is available is poor in quality, there's not enough corn on local markets to even mention, and supplies of broccoli and cauliflower are limited and prices are high for the quality that is available.

Best buys at the fruit counter continue to be oranges, grapefruit, bagged apples, and bananas. There are a few indications of the promise that spring will come. Spring rhubarb is now being marketed at 45 cents a pound. Fresh red strawberries are available at 69 cents for 1/2 pint, and peaches, plums, and nectarines are beginning to arrive from Latin America.

Eggs are once again edging up a bit. Grade A large size are about two cents a dozen higher than a week ago.

Meats on the best buy list are lamb roast (both the leg and shoulder roast), lamb combinations, rib roast of beef, chuck roast, and chicken, both broiler-fryers and bakers.

4-H Tractor Program Training Session

Four-H members from Kent and New Castle counties participated in a tractor program training session at Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, Jan. 23.

Donald Burton, New Castle County 4-H Club agent, Professor Ernest N. Scarborough, agricultural engineer, University of Delaware, and William Naudain, Hockessin, county tractor program leader, supervised the program.

The members were shown proper procedures to follow in tractor and machinery care. They learned pointers on reducing repair bills, wear and tear on equipment and overall operating costs, and fuel economy.

E 52 Names Touring Company

Dr. C. Robert Kase, chairman of the department of dramatic arts and speech at the University of Delaware, has announced the selection of student members of the E 52 University Theatre overseas touring company which will take "The Boy Friend" on a 7-weeks tour of Europe for the Defense Department this summer.

Selected for the touring company from Wilmington are Jack Erthal, 16 Wordsworth Drive, and Barbara Mateyka, 514 Washington Street. Also Allison Ford, Lutherville, Md.; Sally Hinman, Neffsville, Pa.; Carole Matthes, Newark, Del.; Helen Poore, Frederica; James Marmon, Williams-town, N. J.; Cassandra Williams, Long Island City, N. Y.; Tom Lachman, Newark; Alan Horowitz, Trenton, N. J.; Jerrold Knotts, Newark; Elizabeth Stiff, Landenberg, Pa.; and Kay Salvatore, Trenton, N. J.

This is the second overseas tour for the E 52 Theatre, which took "The Tender Trap" on an 8-week junket in the Far East during the spring of 1958.

Prior to the tour, "The Boy Friend" will be produced on the campus March 9, 10, 11, 17 and 18. A preliminary tour of the State is planned for June.

The performances at military bases in Germany, France and Italy are being made under the auspices of the USO and the American Educational Theatre Association. Delaware is one of nine American colleges selected for Defense Department overseas tours this year.

The selection process has been a rigorous one. Following a series of tryouts in December, a tentative company of 20 rehearsed during the entire month of January, except for the period of the final examinations, and each student was interviewed by the director. Academic status as indicated in the final grade reports just released was the final factor in determining the selection of the company.

Mrs. Charles Bradley

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon in the Fleischauer Funeral Home, Greenwood, for Mrs. Eliza Bradley, 83, who died at her home in Rhodesdale, Md., Friday.

The widow of Charles P. Bradley, she is survived by three sons, Harvey, Milford; Ralph, Dover; Harry, Houston; three daughters, Mrs. Ella Conklin, Wornton, Md., Mrs. Anna Gustafson, Harrington; and Mrs. Florence Gustafson, Sudlersville; two brothers, a sister, 22 grandchildren and 49 great-grandchildren.

Beware of Snow Igloos Warns Safety Council

The Delaware Safety Council has issued a warning to all parents to beware of the death traps in the form of the snow igloos brother and sister have done such a fine job of building as a result of the last big snow storm that brought such a wet easy to pack snow.

The Council warns that should a cave-in occur with little ones inside they can expect the same tragic results that occur in earth cave-ins—suffocation comes fast to little ones.

So mother and dad if a snow igloo is on or near your property destroy it immediately! It's better to be safe than sorry.

Unusually Large Influx of Vacationists Expected In First State This Summer

Judging by the amount of interest being shown by visitors to the State of Delaware booth at the Pennsylvania Recreation and Sportsmen's Show, being held this week at Harrisburg, the "First State" can expect an unusually large influx of vacationists from Pennsylvania this spring and summer, reports the Delaware State Development Department.

The thousands of sportsmen and others who are in daily attendance at this year's Sportsmen's Show in the Farm Show Building are reported as seeking and receiving information concerning Delaware's summer resorts, its fresh water and salt water fishing facilities, its museums and historic sites.

According to the Development Department the most popular items are proving to be the Delaware Highway Map, made available by the State Highway Department; various Development Department publications, such as "Welcome to Delightful Delaware," "Historical Guide to Delaware," "Adventure Out-of-Doors in Delaware," and "Delaware Calendar of Events"; and brochures describing the attractions of Rehoboth Beach and vicinity.

Among other materials being distributed from the Delaware booth are folders describing the Delaware State, Hagley and Winterthur Museums; "Old Dover Days"; "A Day in Old New Castle"; "Wilmington Garden Day"; the John Dickinson Mansion; and historic New Castle, Dover and Odessa.

Changes in Social Security For Farm Families

At least four changes in the Social Security law are of interest to farmers, says Kent county agent George Vapaa. Here's a brief run-down of changes made during the last session of Congress:

- 1. If you become severely disabled, a change in the law permits payments at any age if you have paid Social Security tax for 5 of the past 10 years previous to the disability.
2. A year and a half of working time under Social Security is still required before any benefits can be paid. But under the new law, most people can become insured more quickly than before.
3. Parents working for sons and daughters in their farm business are covered by Social Security after 1960.
4. The new law now says that any non-profit organization can cover an employee who wants Social Security. Before, two-thirds of the employees had to work coverage.
Mr. Vapaa suggest farmers check at least every three years with the local office to see that their Social Security record is correct. He also urges farmers to get in touch with the local office for more information on the recent changes.

H. H. S. Cagers Defeat Greenwood

By Keith S. Burgess

Coach Jim Hawpe's Harrington High Basketball Lions bested Greenwood 42-35 in a tight, defensive battle Tuesday night on the home court. The Lions are now 5-2 in Henlopen Conference play and 5-4 overall. Milton was beaten by Lord Baltimore, which leaves Harrington in undisputed possession of second place in the conference.

H.H.S. had a narrow two-point lead at halftime and sewed up the victory by prevailing 11-5 in the third period.
Walt Lekites paced Harrington in scoring with 13 points, followed by Sam Minner with 9 and George Collins with 7.

Bob Gillette and Jeff Adams also played well for the locals. Hynson and Baker led the Forerunners with 11 and 10 markers respectively.

Brenda Woodall, a former Harringtonian, scored a field goal in the last two seconds of play to give the Greenwood girls a 30-28 win over a Harrington team, which had led most of the way.

The victory revenged a loss to the locals on the Sussex County Court.

Nancy Blades with 10 and Phyllis Vincent with 8 led the H.H.S. attack. Judy Astfalk had 15 to pace Greenwood.

Limit to Hunting Tag Power Noted

Many hunters think the purchase of a hunting license gives them authority to hunt on private land with permission, the Joint Finance Committee was reminded Monday.

The license of course gives no such authority.

While reviewing the budget of the Board of Game and Fish Commission, the committee talked over the difficult problem of relations between hunters and landowners.

Senator Leon E. Donovan of Harrington brought it up by asking Norman G. Wilder, director of the commission, whether the hunting license should not have printed on it a statement that gives no such authority to the hunter. A good suggestion, replied Mr. Wilder.

"I have no obligation to a man hunting on my land, but I don't want him in my front yard," said the Senator.

He told of the hunter who flushed a rabbit out on Donovan's farm and followed it to the chicken yard, where he shot it. The hunter who chased the rabbit was later chased himself.

Another legislator said he gave up raising sheep because hunters' dogs, coming on his property, got the sheep so upset they injured themselves.

Wilder said many dealers in Sussex County have given the commission feed to put out for upland game unable to get normal food because of the snow.

He said the commission has planted quantities of foods that are available to game in the winter. The varieties planted are those the animals do not favor and will eat only in emergencies, such as a long lasting snow.

It was also noted Monday that the penalties for trespassing and for hunting without permission of the owners are relatively low. For the former the fine is $5 plus costs and for the latter $10 plus costs.

Also low, said Mr. Wilder, are the prices on Delaware hunting and fishing licenses.

Membership Up In Blue Cross

Blue Cross membership increased again in 1960 and at the end of the year embraced nearly two-thirds of the population.

H. V. Maybee, managing director of Group Hospital Service, said the total of 286, 614 members on December 31 was 64.26 per cent of the estimated population. At the end of 1959, there were 279,253 members—62.61 per cent of the estimated population. The 1960 increase amounted to 7,361 Blue Cross members.

Membership increases were also recorded in the Blue Shield surgical-medical plan and in the extended benefits plan. Both additional coverages are available to members of the Blue Cross plan which provides, hospital coverage. All but about 12,000 Delaware Blue Cross members have Blue Shield coverage, and about half have extended benefits.

At the end of 1960, there were 274,479 Blue Shield members as compared with 267,344 at the end of 1959. The estimated proportion of the population enrolled at the end of last year was 61.54.

The sharpest advance during the past year occurred in the relatively new extended benefits program which jumped from 90,916 members at the beginning of the year to 134,462 at the end. The proportion of estimated population enrolled increased to 30.15 per cent.

During 1960 a total of 90 new local groups of Blue Cross members were formed, Mr. Maybee reported. Of these, 71 had less than 10 subscribers each, while 13 were medium-sized groups of 11 to 25 subscribers each, and six had over 25 subscribers. The number of members runs about two and a half times the number of subscribers because dependents become members.

A total of 341 member groups added extended benefits during the year. More than 650 groups have that coverage now.

Mr. Maybee said: "The continued growth of membership in the community organization providing hospital coverage with related coverage results from the fact that the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Plans offer the widest possible coverage at the lowest possible cost. This is achieved by the non-profit nature of the organization and its ability to keep operating costs at a minimum."

has been laid down over the past few years, then it will have served its purpose.

My personal honor and integrity is of utmost importance to me, and I feel that I need not apologize for the job which has been done in administering this department within the policies, procedures and 'ground rules' as established by others. I respectfully request that you, at this time, give consideration to the letter which I have transmitted to you."

The commission is expected to accept Haber's resignation but ask him to stay on active duty until March 8 instead of March 1, as he had requested. This would give the commission a chance to screen applicants for Haber's job through a special committee and reach a decision at the next regular meeting March 8. Haber is expected to agree.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I am receiving railroad retirement payments and also veterans' pension. In filling out the income questionnaire received from VA, do I report my railroad retirement payments as "annual income" anticipated for 1961, or is this exempted.

A—If you are receiving pension under the old pension law, do not count your railroad retirement income. If you came on the pension rolls after June 30, 1960, or changed from the old to the new law after that date, you must report as income all railroad retirement payments above the amount you contributed to the railroad retirement fund.

Q—What is the difference between Death Compensation and Dependency and Indemnity Compensation?

A—Death Compensation is paid to eligible survivors of servicemen and veterans whose death, due to service, occurred before January 1, 1957. Dependency and Indemnity Compensation is paid to survivors of servicemen and veterans who die in service or from a service-incurred disability after that date. Death compensation rates are set by law and vary only according to the number of dependents. Dependency and Indemnity Compensation rates are based partially on the serviceman's or veteran's rank in service at time of death.

Q—Where can I apply for VA domiciliary care?

A—Applications for domiciliary care may be made by the veteran or by his guardian or representative at any VA office.

Q—Do VA offices and hospitals exist in the new state, Alaska and Hawaii?

A—There are VA offices in both Hawaii and Alaska. However, the VA has no hospitals in either one of the new states. Veterans are given care through contract beds in private hospitals.

Price - Fixing Suit Studied by D. P. & L.

The Delaware Power & Light Company is studying the electrical equipment price-fixing case to determine if it has grounds for civil actions.

This was disclosed Wednesday night by Austin T. Gardner, president of the utility, who emphasized that what has been done up to now is "very tentative."

In Philadelphia Monday and Tuesday, Federal Judge J. Cullen Ganey fined 29 of the nation's largest electrical manufacturers and 45 of their executives the sum of $1,924,500. Seven executives were jailed. In the wake of this, it was reported Wednesday in Washington that damage actions running into millions of dollars are in the making for the major electrical equipment manufacturers who pleaded guilty or no contest to rigging bids on supplies for government agencies and private concerns.

The Justice Department, which prosecuted the companies under the antitrust laws, said it expects to file a series of suits to recover sums which the federal government estimates it lost as a result of the identical bid practice alleged to have extended over the last six years.

At the same time, the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers, composed of city attorneys, disclosed that it has set in motion a plan for a giant consolidated damage action on behalf of city governments victimized by fixed bids.

Brice Rhyne, the institute's associate general counsel, said a check of the government's com-
