

FELTON VOTES SATURDAY ON SCHOOL EXPANSION

Voters of Felton School District will go to the polls Sat., May 6, to approve or reject two proposals for expansion and improvement of the school program. The Board of School Trustees urges support from all who wish to see the school continue to grow with the expanding enrollment and to provide modern instructional equipment and services.

Polls will be open at the school building from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m. Daylight Saving Time (1 p. m. to 8 p. m. Standard Time).

The first proposal would provide additions and alterations to the existing plant in high school, industrial arts, science, business education, home economics, English, and social studies, along with two new elementary classrooms. A local bond issue of $156,000 would finance the district's share of a $390,000 building program. The remaining $234,000 would be provided by a state appropriation.

The second proposal would authorize a small tax levy for current expense purposes. The total tax increase if both proposals are approved would be ten cents per $100 assessed valuation of real estate and $4 in capitation tax.

Besides facing a serious overcrowding condition, Felton High School needs additional machines, tools, and storage facilities for industrial arts classes. Larger enrollments have made it impossible for every boy to have the working space in shop which he needs or a place to store his project without danger of damage.

The same situation makes it impossible to give the experimental work in the small science laboratory which is so necessary to pupils who are preparing for college, for schools of nursing, and for understanding of our modern scientific world.

Enlarged quarters for business education are desperately needed. At present many pupils cannot take typewriting because of lack of space for more typewriters. No room is available for adequate instruction in the use of various business machines and realistic office practice.

As many as 36 pupils in English, mathematics, and social studies classes are crowded into half-room designed for a maximum of 20 pupils. Proper discipline and supervision of work are difficult to maintain under such conditions.

A group of volunteers will provide transportation for any voters who will call either of the school phones, AV 4-4564 or AV 4-4521, during voting hours.

Bill by Watson Proposes Whipping

State Senator Jesse F. Watson (D-Townsend) Wednesday night introduced legislation to make the whipping post mandatory for armed robbery and rape.

He was joined in sponsorship of the measure (SB 151) by Senators Walter J. Hoey (D-Milford), Allen J. Cook (D-Kenton), and Leon Donovan (D-Harrington).

The legislation was referred by Senate President Eugene Lamont to the Committee on Public Health to the amusement of members.

However, the chairman of the committee, Senate Majority Leader Curtis W. Steen (D-Dagsboro), promptly announced that the bill "will be reported."

Watson and his co-sponsors introduced the bill despite an implied threat by Gov. Elbert N. Carvel that he would veto it as "uncivilized punishment."

Under the legislation, armed robbery would be punishable by 10 to 20 lashes at the whipping post as well as imprisonment for up to 25 years. Twenty lashes would be mandatory for other than a first offense.

Rape or carnal knowledge or abuse of a "female child under the age of seven years" would also be punishable by from 10 to 20 lashes but the jury, on recommendation of mercy, could impose any prison term of from three years to life.

The whipping post has not been ordered in use by a judge of the state since 1952. Watson's measure would make it mandatory that judges impose such punishment.

Watson has been flooded with mail since he announced last month he would reintroduce the legislation if he felt the public was behind him.

A similar bill passed both houses of the Legislature last session but was vetoed by former Gov. J. Caleb Boggs.

The group from Trinity had a 100% attendance record, and application has been made for jurisdiction recognition. A motion to contribute $10 to the Council of Churches was adopted. This council is endeavoring to raise $10,000 in Delaware for chaplains, child care centers and summer schools for the 5,000 migrants who are invited to this state each year to harvest the crops which give rural Delaware its prosperity. As their labor has become a necessity to our farmers, their welfare and happiness has become the responsibility of all of the people of the state.

All civic organizations and schools have been contacted by the Centennial Commissions or the Reese Theatre concerning the special 100th Anniversary of the Civil War presentation of "Gone With the Wind" at Movie Center, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 5-6-7-8.

It looks as if it will be a double celebration with an influx of Maryland patrons combined with the Delaware patrons.

Attention is called to the fact that "Gone With the Wind" is three hours and forty-five minutes in length with the following schedule set to accommodate everyone.

On Friday, Sunday and Monday, there will be one show at 8 P. M. with a continuous show Saturday starting at 12:30 (noon). Showtime Saturday is 12:30, 4:21 p. m., and 8:04 p. m.

Bill Asks For State Lottery

The state would raise an estimated $5,000,000 a year by holding state lotteries under a constitutional amendment proposed Wednesday.

Rep. Paul E. Shockley (D-Wilmington) offered the proposal in HB 239, introduced in the House of Representatives. The constitutional amendment would make the selling of lottery tickets lawful when sponsored and conducted by the state, provided the net proceeds are used solely for reduction of the state's bonded indebtedness.

The bill is similar to the amendment legalizing bingo in that it provides for a referendum after passage of the constitutional amendment proposal at two sessions of the General Assembly. The voters would decide, at the next general election after the amendment becomes effective, the question of whether lottery tickets should be sold by the state. Whenever the voters approve such a proposal, the General Assembly would enact legislation to govern the sale of lottery tickets by the state.

Mr. Shockley said he pictures the lotteries being run by a commission of citizens of high calibre, strictly to raise money for debt reduction. A side effect, he predicted, would be a reduction in illegal gambling—particularly on numbers.

Mr. Shockley said he saw the operation of the government lottery in Puerto Rico and was favorably impressed.

He also cited the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes as another well-known and successful money-raising lottery offering an example to Delaware. He said the proposed Delaware lotteries might be tied in with races at Delaware Park, Brandywine and the Kent-Sussex Fair tracks, or with any of a number of other events or devices. All of the details on how many lotteries and how they would be run would be up to the state agency that would be set up.

Senate OK's Oyster Aid Fund

The State Senate Wednesday night voted to gamble $50,000 on a long-shot chance to speed the recovery of Delaware's dormant oyster industry.

The Senate passed 14-0 a bill to appropriate $50,000 to purchase seed oyster from New Jersey for planting in state-owned oyster beds.

Dr. Carl N. Shuster, head of the University of Delaware's Marine Biology Laboratory, acknowledged that the seeding program would be a "gamble."

"We can't promise success, but the industry is at rock bottom now and we must try something to speed its recovery," he told the Senate.

The estimated 20,000 bushels of seed oysters from the Jersey shore of the Delaware River would be transported to the Delaware shores in an attempt to bolster breeding stock in state beds.

The Delaware oyster industry was virtually wiped out by a strange disease which hit the oyster beds in 1957.

Now the University of Delaware, working with the Shell Fisheries Commission, wants the chance to observe what happens after the proposed seeding—whether it succeeds or fails.

Dr. Shuster said the program is a "bold practical experiment" which will "mean a lot of work scientifically."

"The gamble is high, but if it helps us to get back into the market it will be well worth it," he said.

Senators Walter J. Hoey (D-Milford) and Harry E. Hayhoe (D-Milford), sponsor of the bill, said $50,000 is not too much of a gamble if it revives a $4,000,000 industry in the state.

Senator Curtis W. Steen (D-Dagsboro) observed that "maybe we could start on a little more modest scale say $10,000."

The Senate passed over the protests of Senator Margaret H. Manning (R-Marshallton) a bill (HB 122 with HAI) to appropriate $5,000 to finance this month's volunteer firemen's school at Camden under direction of the State Fire Prevention Commission.

Mrs. Manning opposed the bill on grounds it appropriated funds to a state agency which does not give equal treatment to all citizens.

"It's wrong to bar any race," she said, pointing out that the all-Negro Belvedere Volunteer Fire Company had been denied admission to the school.

The vote on the measure was (Continued on Page 8)

Allen B. Hopkins Reenlists in Navy

Recently a local bank held a survey for suggestions to improve local business. Chief J. T. Filip, Dover Navy Recruiter submitted the idea for ex-Navy veterans to take advantage of the 90 day grace period and re-up before the time expires. Bonus and travel pay financial gains would be worth the effort. This item plus many others were printed on the front page.

On April 29 Allen Burton Hopkins, age 20, of 101 Wolcott St., Harrington, took this advice and re-enlisted for a term of six years. He was reassigned to his proper rating, Yeoman Third Class, U. S. He promised to act as a Navy volunteer recruiter and assist Chief Filip with the many high school applicants now being processed for summertime enlistments.

Faulkner Quits Kent County Election Post

Earle N. Faulkner has resigned as a member of the Kent County Department of Elections after having served since 1942 when the department, first as a board of elections, was created.

He resigned in view of another post, secretary of the Kent County Board of Assessment, he now holds. He made his resignation effective as of the time Gov. Elbert N. Carvel appoints his successor.

Mr. Faulkner, a Democrat, lives at Rising Sun. He has been secretary of the assessment board since January. The first Kent elections board in 1942 was composed of himself, Howard M. Buckson and Howard T. Thistlewood, the latter two representing the Republican Party.

In the intervening years, a number of changes were made in the elections setup and system, including the change from a board to a department and expansion of its membership. Mr. Faulkner not only has been a member consecutively since 1942, but was the group's president for six years.

Mr. Faulkner's appointments as an elections official have come from both Republican and Democratic governors—former Gov. Walter W. Bacon who gave him his first appointment, Governor Carvel during his first term in office, and former Gov. J. Caleb Boggs.

A native of Sudlersville, Md., he has lived at Rising Sun more than 40 years. He and his wife, Mrs. Josephine K. Faulkner, have two daughters, Mrs. Doris Mack, Boston, and Miss Ruth Ann Faulkner, Rising Sun.

Mr. Faulkner is a registered breeder of bird dogs, is a large realty holder in this area, and is a member of Union Lodge, No. 7, AF&AM; Delaware Consistory, Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, and Nur Temple, Mystic Shrine.

He has served on the elections department and its predecessor elections board in both the roles of a minority member and, in recent years, as representative of the majority party.

Humphreys claimed both academic and military honors. He was named to the panel of distinguished seniors for top scholars in each school of the university. Selection requires a minimum index of 3.5 for seven semesters of work and also is based upon outstanding personal qualities. He received the William M. Francis Prize of $100 as the graduating senior with an outstanding record of scholarship, leadership and service. He was elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi, a national honor society recognizing superior scholarship; to Sigma Xi, an honorary society for those showing potential or engaging in research in the physical or biological sciences; and to Tau Beta Pi, an honor society recognizing superior scholarship, leadership, self-reliance and achievement in engineering.

A "Seeds for Uganda" project devised by the Rev. J. Seymour Flynn of the Diocese of Delaware and the Upper Nile has been presented to St. Stephen's Church School and other interested groups.

The money given next Sunday in the Rogation envelopes will be used to purchase seeds for the students in Uganda, who know little about farming and exist on a most inadequate diet.

The local seeds obtainable in Uganda are inferior, and, although many kinds of vegetables could be grown, they are simply unknown. The climate there during the rainy season is not unlike Delaware in the summer. The church people in this diocese have decided that they will lend a hand to help their fellow Anglican Christians in Uganda "that in Mbale they may eat Delaware cabbage." By co-operation with an American seed company, each nickle will buy one twenty-five cent package of seeds for shipment to the Rev. Mr. Flynn.

Lay readers conducted the service of evening prayer last Sunday in the absence of the vicar who attended a meeting of the Governor's Committee on Veterans' Day. Mr. Symonds is the treasurer of this committee and presented his final report at a session held in Wilmington.

How we've waited for Spring these last few months—tapping feet and cross glances at the calendar—wondering why on earth she made the appointment for March 20th if she had no intention of keeping it—or of staying! Well, that's the way it seems to go every year . . . with March a see-saw time and April mostly tentative. But no matter how long it takes, the bouyant freshness of a new Spring season finally does come to stay. Then everything perks up—spirits, faces, and wardrobes. As this charming little cover-up goes to prove.

IT'S A JUBILANT JACKET . . .

the perfect over-sweater for day or evening. It takes to woollens, tweeds and cottons with equal grace. And the knotted fringe on lower edge and sleeves gives it that care-free air that's so important to this season's fashions. But the very best thing about this design is its simplicity. Note there aren't any shoulder seams—and you just crochet the collar to sweater base.

As if that weren't enough, the stitches are easy ones: stockinette for the base and garter for the collar. The only other skills you need are increasing and decreasing—and the single crochet stitch for finishing the edges. Honestly, how can you miss?!

START NOW!

Get your free instructions right away, and begin work on this jacket for yourself. It will go so fast you'll be able to make another one—as a gift—perhaps to round out the closet of the young miss in your family. The model is done in Nile green—a color our designer thinks is Spring itself. But select your own co-ordinating colors for this short fringed jacket No. PK-1301. You'll have a ball!

Under the new Delaware State Park Commission parking-admission system for the 1961 season, all purchasers of green and gold stickers like this reproduction will be able to visit Brandywine State Park and Trap Pond State Park at any time during the season. Stickers will be on sale for $2.50 and funds derived will be used for further improvements at both locations, according to C. Edward Duffy, chairman.

State Park Stickers New Kind of Service Charge

The Delaware State Park Commission Wednesday announced its 1961 schedule of service charges for facilities at Trap Pond, Brandywine Springs and Fort Delaware State Parks.

According to C. Edward Duffy, Commission Chairman, the schedule has been worked out so that the greatest possible number of Delawareans and visitors from adjoining states may enjoy the facilities.

The popularity of Trap Pond and Brandywine Springs facilities, which served more than 200,000 people last season, made it necessary to review the service charges, Duffy declared.

"We have come up with a plan which we believe everyone will approve and enjoy," Duffy said. "For citizens who regularly use Trap Pond and Brandywine Springs picnic facilities, we have designed an attractive green and gold parking-admission sticker which will sell for $2.50, and will be honored at both parks for the entire season."

"We believe the public will be glad to pay this nominal sum for picnic privileges, and it will provide us with additional funds for further improvements."

It was made clear that parking-admission fees will apply only on Friday, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. Admission will be free during the early part of the week. The schedule will be effective from May 26 through September 4.

The complete schedule of service charges follow: Single parking-admission fee for Trap Pond and Brandywine Springs Parks, 50 cents for passenger cars; $1 for buses.

Picnic pavilion reservations at Brandywine Springs Park, Monday through Thursday, $7.50; Friday through Sunday, $12.50. There will be no reservations on holidays.

Tenting permits at Trap Pond State Park: $2 a day; $12 a week with a maximum reservation of two weeks.

Boat transportation to Ft. Delaware State Park, weekends and holidays from May 27 through October 1: $1 for adults, 50 cents for children under 14 years. This same schedule was in effect last year.

For further information, Mr. Duffy urged that parties contact Peter Geldof, State Parks superintendent, WYman 4-0379.

Some farmers have received cards from their county agent about this program. In any case, if you are interested and wish to participate in this program, aimed at increasing yields per acre, please contact your county agent, or Dr. Mitchell as soon as possible so soil samples can be taken.

Baptist Church News

In our Sunday School which begins at 9:45 a.m., our lesson this week will be "Out of the Heart". We have classes for all ages, also a nursery for small children during worship services. This Lord's Day, our pastor will speak on, "The Third Miracle". This service begins at 11 o'clock.

Training Union begins at 6:30 p.m., each Sunday evening, followed by evening services at 7:30 p.m.

Bible study and prayer each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. At this time we will continue our study on "Soul Winning Doctrines."

Junior Choir practice Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Senior Choir practice at 8 o'clock Friday evening.

A study course class for those who are to help in our Vacation Bible School will be held each Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. If there are others who would like to help in our school, please let the pastor know.

Baptists believe that regeneration is something new in a man's life. The word suggests this: it is a birth; and this birth is not the first birth, but the second. It is not a development of the life which came by the first birth, but a birth separate and distinct and different from the first. The first birth reveals the likeness of man to lower animals; the second birth links him to the most high God. The natural man is not shaped and polished according to a better pattern by this divine touch, but changed at the center of his being.

Railroad News

A lot of water has just gone over the spill-way since the last railroad column and the writer has had many requests to revive it. We know we cannot revive the railroad from the beating it has taken from the other means of transportation but we can blow our horn long and loud for what it has done and still stands ready to do when the others fail. This was best illustrated during the past winter when highways were snowed up and airways bogged down.

Since we here on the Peninsula do not get to see much of the high speed movement of freight and "piggyback" (Truck-Train) operation common to main lines, we are obliged to take stock of railroad assets as they apply locally. Harrington is a railroad town and we like it. There is also another track here and we like it too.

Dover has its Latex and Air Base and Seaford has nylon and feed plants—all of which contribute materially to local payrolls, but Harrington has the railroad and Fairgrounds and a lot of nice churches made up of good "Down Home Folks" . . . "and I still love it every minute, 'cause my blood has railroad in it."

In addition to the railroad's being one of the largest tax-paying industries in the town, we show below some 75 to 80 well-groomed homes of active, retired, deceased, and former railroad employees about whom we intend to bring out some interesting stories from time to time in this column.

H.H.S. Defeats Millsboro in Track

By Keith S. Burgess

Last month the Millsboro Blue Devils caught the Harrington Lions short-handed and dealt the locals their first defeat ever by a Henlopen Conference foe, Wednesday the Lions made a trip to Millsboro without valuable performers, Bob Bonniwell, Leonard Masten and Frank Cain.

Despite this with a tremendous team effort Harrington just edged the host team. Roger Wix was the hero of the day. H.H.S. trailed by a narrow margin going into the final event, the pole vault. Wix finally bested the Millsboro vaulters to bring home the bacon. In several other events the Lions scored points they never expected to get as hitherto unsung athletes turned in great efforts to keep the eventual victors in the running.

David Hitchens was a surprise second in the 440 yard run. Jeff Adams was fourth in the mile and Dennis Bradley took the same spot in the shot put. Roger Wix also tied for fourth in the high jump.

Harry Knotts set a new school record in the mile run as he negotiated the four laps in 4 minutes and 40 seconds. He also won the half mile.

George Pfeiffer set a new school record in the board jump as he legged 20 ft. 7 inches to eclipse the old record of 19 ft. 6 inches held by Walt Lekites. Pfeiffer probably qualified for the state title meet with this effort. George also won the high jump.

Bob Gillette was a double winner, taking first places in the javelin and discus. Gillette did not compete when Millsboro won at Harrington in April.

Dwight Hackett was second to Knotts in both the half and mile runs.

John M. Clayton High was a distant third with 19 1/6 points. Barry Fry was high local performer in the junior high meet as he won the 220 yard run, the high jump and anchored the winning 880 relay team. Richard Schriber, Charles Taylor and Lamar Beene completed the quartet for this race. Schriber also was first in the broad jump.

Bob Smith captured the 880 yard run to remain undefeated in this event. Joe Taylor continued to show much larger boys how to throw the eight pound shot as he annexed the top spot with a very fine throw of 41 feet 3 inches. Louis Starkey also scored in the shot for H.H.S. Randy Knox was second to teammates in both the high and broad jumps.

Charles Taylor and Lamar Beene were second and third respectively in both the 50 and 100 yard dashes.

Nelson Reed and Wayne Carson were second and third in the half mile.

Tonight (Friday) at 7:30 in Baynard Stadium, Wilmington, the Lions will attempt to win the Section Three championship trophy in the annual Peninsula Relays. The Lions hold Peninsula Relays records in both the two mile and distance medley events.

Asbury W.S.C.S. Notes
 The annual pledge service of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Asbury Church was the highlight of the meeting on Tuesday evening, May 2. Mrs. Marvin Richardson was leader for the evening, and conducted the service. Mrs. James Neeman, Mrs. Charles Peck, Jr., and Mrs. William A. Minner also took part. The six circle leaders representing the entire society placed the pledge cards on the altar, signifying the support of the members in the program of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Fred Greenly Sr., opened the program with devotions for the evening, and the Rev. Olin Shockley Jr. gave a short talk on stewardship and tithing.

The business meeting was conducted by the president Mrs. Fulton Downing. She proudly announced that through the efforts of some of the members particularly that of Mrs. William W. Sharp, promotion secretary, 24 new members have been added to the rolls of the Society. Each new member was presented with a corsage. Those so honored were Mrs. Ruth Ryan, Mrs. Hattie Plummer, Mrs. Joseph Richardson, Miss Della Ryan, Miss Hilda Peterson, Mrs. Kessler Farrow, Mrs. Frank Quillen, Mrs. Charles Price, Mrs. Carl Hill, Mrs. Leonard Masten, Mrs. Enos Langrell,

Delaware Corn Support Price $1.31

Feed grain producers who cooperate in the feed grain program will realize one immediate benefit from the 1961 Feed Grain Bill recently enacted into legislation.

Jacob Zimmerman, chairman of the Delaware Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, points out that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has already announced that the support price for corn in most counties will be 14 cents more a bushel than it was in those counties in 1960.

The national average corn price will be $1.20.

Zimmerman says that since the corn support price in Delaware is $1.31 per bushel, local farmers who take part in the feed grain program can count on at least $1.31 a bushel for their 1961 crop, which would be eligible for price support, based on their normal average yield.

National average support prices for other feed grains are: barley, 93 cents per bushel for grade No. 2 or better; grain sorghum, $1.93 per hundredweight for grade No. 2 or better; oats, 62 cents per bushel for grade No. 3; and rye, $1.02 per bushel for grade No. 2 or better or grading No. 3 on test weight only.

In announcing the new rates for feed grains, Secretary Freeman said that the new feed grain program signed into law by the President "gives an opportunity to move toward a better relationship between feed grain supplies and utilization. This also permits an increase in support prices from past years to help boost farm income in the important feed grain sector of our agricultural economy."

"Farmers, however, in return for increased support levels, are being asked to reduce their 1961 acreages of corn and grain sorghum from last year in an effort to bring production more nearly in line with needs. Early indications of corn plantings for 1961 show acreage down only slightly from 1960. This underlies the need for an immediate attack on the problem this year through an emergency program while developing more permanent legislation for the years ahead."

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 6. Mrs. William A. Taylor will be the leader for the topic "Home for the Homeless."

The Senior MYF will sponsor a car wash Saturday, May 6. Anyone wishing to have their car washed may phone the church office that morning and a member of the MYF will call for and return the car. The cost will be $1.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 6. Mrs. William A. Taylor will be the leader for the topic "Home for the Homeless."

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—I have been getting an extra compensation because of my son who is under 18 years of age. He has now gone into service, though still not 18. Will the extra compensation payments continue?

A—Yes, payments will continue until your son is 18.

Q—What is the minimum amount of my GI term insurance that I can convert to a permanent plan?

A—The minimum amount is $1000. After that additional amounts may be converted in multiples of $500.

Q—Can I make a GI loan to build a summer cottage at a beach?

A—In general, no. GI loans are made for dwellings that will be used as regular homes. Consult the nearest VA office to see if, in your particular case, this beach home will be considered as a regular dwelling.

Q—Who gets top priority for VA hospitalization?

A—First priority goes to veterans requiring hospitalization because of service-connected disability. But over and beyond this, a medical emergency in which immediate hospitalization is required to save a life takes precedence.

You know, when I was a child, I think there was nothing I was more fond of than my knitted or crocheted toys. When I was about five, I remember, I had a little crocheted puppy that went everywhere with me. I'd grab him by the ear—wade with him through puddles—take him to bed with me. We belonged to each other. And it was some time until I was in love with someone again the way I was with him.

ducklings just as I did with that long-ago crocheted puppy.

MAYBE THAT LONG-AGO ROMANCE happened to a lot of other people. In fact, I'll bet a relationship like this was tucked away in our designer's mind when she created this week's toys—Mama Duck and Child. For these are the kind of toys a child can love. Round and cuddly. Soft and warm. With faces that have unique personality. And just enough costume to make them real things in a real world. I think I could fall in love with these little

EASY TO MAKE—FUN TO GIVE!

Yes, these are colorful toys, certainly—all white with black wings and orange feet and bills. And their caps and scarves are in blues and greens. Altogether they are so bright, so fresh, so friendly—you want to squeeze them. And they ARE squeezable—because they're stuffed with cotton batting. (Cardboard in their feet make them stand up tall.) To make these toys you have to be able to increase and decrease—and know the single, double and chain stitches. But if you don't have these techniques already, they're easy to pick up. Then Mama Duck and her child go quickly. And it will be such fun to see the joy spread out on the little face that first sees this couple as his very own—to drag through puddles and later on, to bed. . . . Get your directions now. ## Harrington Veteran Installed As Blue Hen Post Commander

A "new year" for Blue Hen Post No. 6483 and its Ladies Auxiliary was officially launched with the installation of new officers at the V.F.W. Post Home Tuesday evening, April 25.

In joint public ceremonies marking the completion of the 1960-61 term and the beginning of a new term, newly elected and appointed post officers, headed by the new commander, John M. Short, of Harrington, were installed by State V.F.W. Commander Edward W. Clarke, and new auxiliary officers, headed by the new president of the ladies unit, Mrs. Hilda Cannon, were installed by Mrs. Priscilla Lank, a past state president of the V.F.W. ladies organization.

Prior to installing the new officers, State Commander Clarke praised retiring Commander James C. Holland and Blue Hen Post for the many accomplishments of the past year. Particularly cited by Commander Clarke were the outstanding all-year-around youth activities, and patriotic and welfare programs, and a highly successful membership drive that has carried Blue Hen Post to an all-time high in membership strength. Citations and awards were presented in recognition of these achievements.

Installed along with Commander Short were the following: James S. Christopher, senior vice commander; Charles R. Baxendale, junior vice commander; David S. Hugg, adjutant; James L. Pase, quartermaster; George F. Collins, judge advocate; Courtland Clarke, chaplain; John Deeney, surgeon; Eurie M. Savage, Jr., trustee; William R. Vernotico, officer-of-the-day; William A. Stevens, service officer; Clement J. Nevin, legislative officer; William Zencak, historian, and Walter Olsen and Robert Veal, color bearers.

Installed along with Mrs. Cannon were the following: Mrs. Carolyn Collins, senior vice president; Mrs. Mildred Baxendale, junior vice president; Mrs. Josephine Wdowiak, secretary; Mrs. Mildred Hall, treasurer and immediate past president; Mrs. Ver-na Deeney, chaplain; Mrs. Betsy Short, conductress; Mrs. Audrey Savage, color bearer and trustee; Mrs. Ruby Currie and Mrs. Jennie Clarke, color bearers; Mrs. Margaret Hugg, trustee and community service chairman; and Mrs. Florence Vernotico, patriotic instructor.

"Guess" Fertilization Is Expensive

"Adding mineral fertilizers to any soil without first determining its acidity and fertility level by soil testing is unsound and frequently wasteful," says County Agent George Vapaa.

A soil test will assist you in locating acid (low pH) soils. A soil with a pH value of 5.0 to 5.5 is too acid for most crops, which do better when the pH value is between 6.0 and 6.5.

"Unless soil acidity is lowered through proper applications of lime, most plants will not grow as they should, no matter how much fertilizer you apply," Mr. Vapaa emphasized.

By testing the soil you will also find out if you soil is "low," "medium," or "high" in phosphate or potash.

If your soil is low in potash but high in phosphate, you should use a 5-10-15 or similar ratio fertilizer. In other words, you need more potash than phosphate to balance your soil.

Delaware Food Market Report

Seasons come and seasons go, but certain foods know no seasons—we enjoy them the year 'round. Potatoes are just such a food. Almost invariably found in the American larder, summer or winter or in the times between, this old favorite adapts easily to every kind of eating situation.

Bot "new" and "old" potatoes are bargains at the grocery store these days, since many stores are "running specials." According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the early spring crop, which is furnishing the new potatoes now coming to market, is likely to come to 420 million pounds more than last year's crop. In addition, there's still lots of old crop potatoes on hand.

Expect New Jersey asparagus to arrive at local markets in volume during the next two weeks. Prices will decline as supplies increase. Quality is expected to be excellent. With this combination those of you who have home freezers will want to take advantage of this situation. Economical vegetable choices this week include: broccoli, green cabbage, green peas, green beans, and onions. Good salad items are iceberg lettuce, radishes, escarole, carrot tomatoes and, how about adding some fresh spinach to the salad mix.

The variety of fresh fruit is still somewhat limited. The best buy remains to be—bananas, pineapples, grapefruit, and some oranges. Apples of good quality have jumped way up in price, so they are off the good buy list this week. The strawberry season is picking up momentum. Shipments of high quality berries continue to come from California and Louisiana and now North Carolina has started shipping.

Recent price cuts by major Florida orange concentrate processors make the citrate drink less expensive per ounce than popular carbonated beverages, according to the American Institute of Food Distribution. The price cut will average 2 cents per 6 ounce can on frozen orange juice in food stores throughout the nation.

Beef supplies continue heavy. Check the following for good buys—rib roast, steaks, and chuck roast. Also check for fresh pork loin roast and chops. Heavy supplies of broilers enable this small, meaty bird to have low price tags.

Several of Europe's famous restaurants are now importing United States chickens because they can count on these birds being consistently tender and of good flavor.

Sussex Center For Handicapped Being Planned

The Delaware Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., Thursday announced plans for a Sussex County Treatment Center for physically handicapped persons in Lower Delaware.

Richard Leclair, executive director of the Society, said that Wilmer F. Loomis Jr., has been hired to offer physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy on a full-time basis for multiple disabilities. His services will be supplemented by social, psychiatric and psychological personnel engaged on a part-time basis.

The treatment center is located at Georgetown and will be open by June 15.

The possibility of such a treatment center has been under consideration for the past two years after the need for such services in Kent and Sussex Counties was pointed out.

The center will serve as a focal point for services to the physically handicapped and will provide the site for the Society's dental program for handicapped children, an equipment locating service for crippled persons, the Delacraft home craft program and other activities as well as therapy work.

The proposal grew out of discussion among representatives of the Society, the Crippled Children's Division of the State Board of Health, the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the State Board of Education, Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, the Welfare Council, the Delaware Curative workshop, the medical profession and others.

A professional advisory committee will be appointed to assist the Delaware Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., in the direction of the treatment center. This advisory committee will include representatives from various areas of the medical profession and other professions pertinent to the services offered by the facility. This committee will be responsible for review and approval of program policy with regard to admission, treatment and disposition of patients; personnel qualifications, employment practices, parent participation, inter-agency relationships and other professional matters; initiation and guidance in new areas of program expansion, and consultation and advice on the application of program policies.

The center will also have a lay advisory committee composed of 15 persons from Kent and Sussex Counties as well as some sections of Maryland which will assist the administrator of the center in preparing his budget, aid in fund raising efforts for center operations, relating the purpose and the program of the center to the community, recruiting and training volunteers for the center, and improvement in equipment and the physical plant.

A fee schedule will be established with sliding scale based on the patient's ability to pay. In no instance will the patient be refused treatment because of inability to pay the cost. The scale of fees will be comparable to those adopted by similar agencies, such as the Delaware Curative workshop in Wilmington.

Mr. Loomis, the new therapist for the center, is a graduate of Ursinus College and the University of Pennsylvania. A native of Drexel Hill, Pa., he has served as a physical therapist at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Wilmington for the past five years.

Mr. Loomis, a veteran of the U. S. Navy, will reside on Robinson St. in Georgetown. He is married and the father of two children.

Andrewville

Delores Mae Larimore, the single entrant from the Andrewville Speedies 4-H Club won first place in the 4-H talent contest at Dover Saturday, April 29. Delores played a saxophone solo, "Basin Street Blues", accompanied by Pat Zych on the piano.

Open house at the Mentally Retarded Hospital at Stockley on April 30 was observed by the senior members of the Andrewville Speedie 4-H Club. Those present were Sylvia Vincent, Delores Larimore and the leader, Mrs. Larimore, accompanied by a Greenwood Hi Flyer, Patsy Zych. We were very much inspired by the expressed cheerfulness of the patients. The club hopes to be of service to the hospital in some way in the future.

Due to a misfortune in the mechanism of our car we stopped for help at the Bridgeville Police Station where we were graced with a tour of the completed new station given by Sgt. Homer Bramble. Sgt. Bramble was kind enough to take all our finger prints. We certainly had a very successful and enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Clifton and son and Miss Ann Clifton of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Simpson and son and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Prettyman and daughters were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Prettyman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paskey, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Prettyman and Cheryl visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of Baltimore on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Prettyman brought their young daughter, Lorrie Ann, home from John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore where she was a patient for a week.

Anthony Gallo had the misfortune last week of cutting his hand and was a patient in the Milford Memorial Hospital. He has returned home and we wish him a speedy recovery.

C.R. Reappoints Head Coach

Dr. Harry G. Neese Jr., vice president of the Caesar Rodney Board of Education, recently reported back to the Board on a thorny problem assigned by the Board to a special committee including Dr. Neese and Everett L. Farr Jr., administrative representative on the Athletic Council.

The Board approved the recommendation that Carmen Cella be reappointed as head coach with veteran coach Thomas Shaffer being named as his first assistant.

Dr. Neese stated that it was felt that these two coaches would give strong balanced varsity coaching leadership. It was also announced that in the interest of a co-ordinated program all other football coaches would be directly responsible to the head coach.

The Board of Education has asked Coach Cella and Coach Shaffer to make nominations for the other football coaching assignments, including those for a new junior varsity team in addition to the present junior high school team. The making of these assignments is likely to wait until the faculty is complete for the fall term in order that new members of the staff may be included.

Cooperation Needed In Feed Grain Program

What happens to the corn and grain sorghum producer who doesn't sign-up for the 1961 Feed Grain Program?

"The non-cooperator will miss out on quite a few benefits," says County Agricultural Agent, George Vapaa.

He points out that the non-cooperator will not be eligible for price support on corn, grain, sorghums, oats, barley, or rye of the 1961 crop. "And this could be a pretty important factor considering the present huge surplus of feed grains," Mr. Vapaa says.

He warns that it will be risky for the farmer to count on any increase in market prices of feed grains. On the contrary, as co-operating growers receive payments which represent grain from Commodity Credit corporation stocks, this grain becomes available for market and farm use and will compete with other feed grains on the market.

Here's how it works, according to the agent:

Co-operators who want to receive the cash equivalent of grain at the support price may ask CCC to act as their agent in marketing their grain. As agent for the producer, CCC will advance the payment to the producer in cash through the county ASC office and subsequently market the grain.

Of course, the non-cooperator gets nothing but the market price, whatever it may be. And, as Mr. Vapaa points out, the non-cooperator farmer is not only ineligible for feed grain price supports and payments; he forgoes the usual price benefits of a production adjustment program as Government stocks of grain are marketed.

How about the possibility of a non-cooperator building an acreage base for future programs? This is also risky, the agent cautions. The Department of Agriculture will strongly recommend to the Congress that any future legislation involving establishment of base acreages for production adjustment should give no advantage to producers who don't cooperate in the 1961 feed grain program.

Forage Tests A Good Farm Tool

Sixty-five local dairymen learned about forage analysis last year, and in general, liked what they saw. A report from W. Mitchell, extension agronomist at the University of Delaware, has just been issued through the county agents offices. The conclusion is that roughage is a key part of farm costs, and the more we know about its quality, the better.

The Kent County agricultural agent, George Vapaa, says that alfalfa is being emphasized in the analysis program. He will again try to get every alfalfa grower to submit hay samples for testing in 1961. The purpose is to decide whether analysis for crude protein, fiber, and digestibility are better than "eye ball" tests. Or perhaps a knowledge of cutting dates and the amount of rain damage is all that one needs.

Mr. Mitchell says in his report that "forage analysis focuses attention on the major difference of quality in forage crops. It makes us all quality conscious and it will help the established dairyman to improve his feeding program."

The only sure test thus far is made by the cow—either she likes her hay and silage, or she doesn't. Animals seem to relish early cut hay, and this usually goes along with high protein and high digestibility. The study last year showed that the first alfalfa harvest should be made by May 10 at the fall bud stage of growth. Remaining harvests should be made at one-half bloom.

Copies of the report may be obtained from the extension Service at the Dover postoffice. All that is needed is a call to RE-dfield 6-1448 and a copy will be mailed concludes Mr. Vapaa.

Delaware's first "Farm Interphone" was installed on James H. Baxter's farm in Georgetown. The new interphone system, installed by the Diamond State Telephone Company, links his house with his barn and barnyard.

Farm Interphone Installed At Georgetown

A Delaware first was scored recently when the Diamond State Telephone Company connected a "Farm Interphone" at the farm of James H. Baxter Jr., Georgetown.

This is the first farm interphone installed in Delaware, Harold S. White, the Georgetown telephone manager said.

Baxter's interphone system links the telephone in his house with a microphone-speaker arrangement in his barn and barnyard, White said.

In the past, White said, farmers have devised various signal devices on their farms to get someone's attention.

"One such device," the manager added, "is the large dinner bell, mounted on a post near the back door of the farm house. In some cases, this is the farm's main communication system. It signals the farmer when meals are ready, or calls him to the house for visitors, or for telephone calls.

The modern counterpart, tailored to today's farms, is the telephone company's new "Farm Interphone," White explained. The basic interphone system consists of a master phone in the house, an extension phone in the barn or other outbuilding and a two-way loudspeaker located in the barnyard. Each telephone is equipped with a special loudspeaker-microphone and a button which enables the phone to be used for intercom calls or regular phone calls. Additional phones and loudspeakers are available to meet individual requirements, he stated.

Externally, the interphone arrangement enables the farmer to be personally in touch with outside contacts from his barn or other outbuildings where telephones are located. These outside calls can be handled either directly or indirectly. An incoming call, for example, can be answered by the farm wife from her kitchen. She can hold the outside call on the line while talking over the intercom system to her husband, White stated.

The voice is carried throughout the farm wherever a Farm Interphone "station" is located—in the barn, dairy, poultry house, shop or other location, at the same time, her voice is carried outside into the main work area, barnyard, orchard, or field—wherever an outside loudspeaker is located.

The farmer can hear and answer back without stopping work or touching part of the communications system. His wife then relays the message to the outside caller. All of this has taken place quickly without loss of motion or interruption of work on anyone's part, the manager added.

Farm Interphone's ability to provide a 24-hour-a-day monitoring service on farm activity gives a constant check on conditions in various locations. The sound of a sick animal, an injured farm hand, children at play, the malfunctioning of running machinery and many other important sounds are all transmitted throughout the system for the benefit of the farmer and his family, White said.

Farm Interphone is president of the Delaware State Farm Bureau and a National Director of the American Farm Bureau. In 1957, he was selected as Delaware's Outstanding Young Farmer by the Delaware Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This Week is HDC Week

In celebration of National Home Demonstration Week, May 1 to 6th, the Country Lane Home Demonstration Club has put a window display in Butler's Feed Mill window at Andrewville.

The theme of the display is awards. She had a comprehensive "What's New and How To Do" through the Home Demonstration Clubs and is an invitation to all those in the rural area from Harrington to Burrsville, on Route 14, to join our club. If anyone is interested please contact Mrs. Frank Tharp, our president at EX 8-3527.

Our club members are planning to attend a group meeting at the social hall, Presbyterian Church, in Dover on May 17, with the 59'ers as the hostess club.

Saratoga Installs Infra-Red Heat

The Greenwood Home Demonstration Club will meet on May 9 at the home of Mrs. James Smith. Look for our window display in Cahall's store in honor of National Home Demonstration Week which is April 30 to May 6. Wednesday the tenth graders enjoyed a trip to Longwood Gardens. The chaperones were Mrs. Esther Lyons, Mrs. Emmett Whitmore, Mrs. Larrimore, Mrs. Adams and Mr. Noah Cain.

Saratoga Raceway today announced details of a new infra-red heating system being installed for the comfort of patrons on chilly evenings.

Listed as a $35,000 project by the Spa harness racing track, the system calls for 99 gas fired infra-red heaters.

Seventy of the heaters already have been hung. These have been suspended from the roof of the grandstand and from the ceiling under the grandstand. The remaining 29 are to be placed along the entire front of the grandstand and clubhouse under what will be an awning canopy.

The track will have the whole system in readiness for the June 8 opening of its 75-night summer meeting which continues through Sept. 2. However, the system is expected to be most appreciated by patrons during the Spa fall trots, Sept. 4-Oct. 14.

The new heaters, purchased from the Empire Infra-Red Company of Williamsville, N. Y., generate infra-red rays that become heat only when they strike solid objects. They warm people, seats and fixtures, but not the air around them.

Being installed according to plans designed by Frank F. Sanford, supervising engineer for the Empire Company, the heaters are completely automatic and are operated from a central control panel with 16 switches. This makes it possible to turn on or off alternate heaters or rows of heaters as the temperature dictates. The heaters are 100 percent primary air burners which operate without blowers.

In addition to the installation of the infra-red heaters, the Raceway also is having a new heating system of a different type installed in the clubhouse.

12-3 with two absent, Senators James H. Snowden (R-Wilmington) and Reynolds du Pont (R-Greenville) joining Mrs. Manning in opposition to the bill. The House previously had trimmed the appropriation from $10,000 to $5,000.

In other action the Senate passed three fund transfer bills to clean up some of the smudges in the State Treasurer's books. Passed 15-9 with two absent was SB 133, to transfer to the general fund $9,919.41 in special accounts from which authority to draw checks had expired.

A bill (SB 134) to appropriate $1,933 to the Unemployment Compensation fund was passed 15-0 with two absent. The funds had been erroneously credited to the general fund instead of the UCC fund, according to the Treasurer's office by a "previous administration."

State Senator Allen J. Cook (D-Kenton) introduced a bill to provide supplementary appropriations of $170,000 to the State Highway Department for the remaining two months of this fiscal year.

The bill (SB 146) would appropriate $40,000 for salaries and wages, $50,000 for repairs and replacements in the Maintenance Divisions; $28,000 for salaries and wages in the Construction Division, and $2,000 for the same purpose in the Mosquito Control Division.

The appropriations are to replace funds previously transferred from these accounts for emergency snow removal operations. The bill was referred to the Finance Committee.

Senator Calvin R. McCullough (D-Holloway Terrace) introduced a bill (SB 150) to allow laymen to serve on the New Castle County Family Court. The bill would remove the present requirement that Family Court judges be members of the Delaware bar.

TEACHERS CITED

$1,000 to each recipient. The extension Teaching Award is a handsomely inscribed certificate and $500.

Dr. George M. Worrlow, dean of the school of agriculture, said, "In many ways, Professor Crossan personifies agriculture's emerging scientific leadership. He is youthful, alert, eager to explore the unknown. He is a dedicated scientist whose goal is to benefit mankind through research. He is a splendid teacher who is able to transmit his enthusiasm to his students and advises and inspire them to reach far beyond the ordinary in achievement."

Dr. Bruce Dearing, dean of the school of arts and science, called Professor Clift one of the university's best known and most versatile teachers. He described her as "the kind of scholar whose wide-ranging mind stimulates her students." "Dr. Clift is serving as a members of the arts and science self-study committee and on the committee to further professional purpose of women," Dean Dearing said. "She was one of the organizers and first president of the Delaware Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa and she has served on the university's visiting scholar committee. Wherever I travel, Dr. Clift is known and admired by her professional colleagues and former students."

Dean Dearing also cited Dr. Remage and especially commended his ability to deal with abstract issues.

"Professor Remage has the ability to grasp abstract problems and come up with the right answer in almost any situation," Dean Dearing said. "He is equally at home in a seminar or large lecture classroom and has conducted significant experiments in new methods of mathematics and instruction at various instructional levels. I am sure his selection as recipient of the Extension Teaching Award is largely due to his ability to command the respect of mature adults of considerable experience as well as to work effectively with students at the undergraduate level."

Dr. Crossan, a member of the faculty since 1954, served as a research assistant at North Carolina State for four years prior to coming to Delaware. A native of Wilmington, he is a graduate of P. S. DuPont High School and the University of Delaware and received his master's and doctor's degrees at North Carolina State. He was graduated from Delaware with distinction in plant pathology in 1950.

A former sergeant in the U. S. Air Force, Dr. Crossan served for two years in the Pacific Theatre. He is a member of Sigma Xi, the American Phytopathological Society, Alpha Zeta, and several important university committees. He is a specialist in diseases of vegetable crops and is author or co-author of more than 35 scientific papers on various topics.

Dr. Clift, an honor graduate of Vassar College who holds her Ph. D. from Johns Hopkins, has taught history, ancient languages and philosophy. She has published several books, articles and translations and presently is writing a book on Julian the Apostate. She has been editorial secretary for the American Journal of Philosophy since 1937 and served as an honor examiner at Swarthmore College in 1948, 1950 and 1951.

She is a member of the American Historical Association, the Classical Association of the Middle Atlantic States, the AAUP, the Historical Society of Delaware, the Medieval Academy of America, Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi.

Dr. Remage holds A. B. and M. S. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. He joined the Delaware faculty in 1946 following five years' service in the U. S. Navy. He was on leave for a year to teach at the University of Pennsylvania and, in 1959-60, he was awarded a National Science Foundation Fellowship for research and writing in mathematics at Cambridge University, England.

He has published articles in professional journals and is a member of the American Mathematical Society, the Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Mu Epsilon, Sigma Pi Sigma and Kappa Delta Pi.

The Lindback Award for superior teaching and the Extension Teaching Award for unusual excellence in extension teaching were awarded for the first time this year.

Previous recipients of the Alumni Association's Excellence in Teaching Award are Dr. G. Gorham Lane, Dr. A. Janney DeArmond, Dr. Russell G. Stauffer and Professor Frank Zozzora.

Let Home Decorating Problems Be a Challenge

Let your home decorating problems be a challenge, then home decorating can be a profitable and enjoyable experience, even on a small budget.

For practical help in meeting your decorating challenge, Fred C. Snyder, chairman, Correspondence Courses at the Pennsylvania State University, suggests a home study course on house furnishings.

The course cover color and how to combine and use the right amounts of each one, how to select floor coverings and accessories, and how to treat odd-shaped windows in a house. Basic principles of furniture arrangement and picture placement are discussed in detail.

To obtain Correspondence Course 93, "House Furnishing," sent $2 to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Make your check or money order payable to The Pennsylvania State University.

Cost of the course includes careful grading of question papers if they are answered and returned to the Correspondence Courses office.

Wipe Out Wicked Weeds

Five years of testing by agronomists at the University of Delaware have shown Dinitro, a pre-emergence weed control chemical, increases soybean yields, according to county agricultural agent George Vapaa.

Plots cultivated twice, in the normal way, produced 7.4 less bushels per acre than plots treated with Dinitro.

Mr. Vapaa says three pounds per acre seems to be the best rate of application although farmers might want to use up to five pounds in real problem areas.

Dinitro is primarily effective against broadleaf weeds. It is sold under two trade names, Premerge and Sinox PE.

Band application in 14 to 16 inch bands over the row proved just as effective and much more economical.

Mr. Vapaa pointed out however, that Dinitro is not effective and should not be used when the soil is very dry or when the temperature is above 75 degrees.
