MISS DELAWARE IS LOCAL JAYCEE ENTRY

A willowy blonde, the entry of the Harrington Junior Chamber of Commerce, with a flair for pantomime reigns today as Miss Delaware.

Alice R. Watts, 19, won the title Saturday night before a crowd of 400 in the Dover High School Auditorium.

She was the last one in the auditorium to realize she had won.

Master of Ceremonies Ed Miller first announced the second runner-up, Nancy L. Danner, 17, a University of Delaware student from Salem, N. J. Then he announced the first runner-up, Barbara Cummings, 18, of Seaford.

Since Miss Watts was the only other finalist, she automatically won, but she appeared not to realize it.

Miller called her to the microphone. She looked stunned. "Am I Miss Delaware?" she asked.

"Yes, you are," Miller answered, and she clutched his arm with delight.

Then followed the transfer of crown from 1961's Miss Delaware, Robin Jane Whempner, and awarding of a $1,000 Pepsi-Cola scholarship, a Philco television set and $500 wardrobe fund, keys to a 1962 Buick for a year, and other prizes, including a gold trinket presented by Gov. Elbert N. Carvel.

Miss Watts' talent presentation, which counted for 50 per cent in the scoring, was a song pantomime plus dance. She organized the routine herself.

Although her home is now in Lewes with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Watts, she formerly lived in the Wilmington area and was graduated from Conrad High School in 1960.

After a year at the University of Delaware she transferred to Wesley College in Dover, where she is an "A" student majoring in geology.

Now Miss Watts will be getting ready for the September Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City. The 1962 Miss Delaware is 5 ft. 6 inches and weighs 120 pounds. Her figure is 34 1/2-24-35 1/2.

Other contestants Saturday were: Toni Coverdale, Georgetown; Jeannie E. Orr, Dover; Jane Gentry, Dover; Sandra C. Kruchen, Smyrna, and Carol Rogers, Dover.

Miss Orr was picked "Miss Congeniality" by the five judges. The Dover Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary selected Miss Cummings for a "Miss Sunshine" award.

Miss Watts is the daughter of the former Alice Richards, native of Harrington. Her grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Richards.

D.T.B. Approves Grant For Research

The Delaware Tuberculosis and Health Society has approved a grant for research on anony-mous acid-fast bacilli at Philadelphia's Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital.

Dr. Gerald A. Beatty, president of the Society, announced recently that the funds will be provided for work being performed by Dr. Hobart A. Reiman, professor of medicine and preventive medicine at the hospital, and Dr. Pearl Ma, research assistant.

The research project stems from the sudden emergence in the past decade of an anony-mous acid-fast bacilli which causes a disease similar to the classical tuberculosis. Normally acid-fast bacilli are identified as those causing tuberculosis.

With anonymous bacilli, however, the origin, source, mode of transmission and pathogenicity are still in question.

Under Dr. Reiman's direction, research will be performed to determine the origin and source of a typical acid-fast form of bacilli, the possibility of their emergence as various forms of the classical tuberculosis strain, and methods of detection of the typical strains.

In addition, Dr. Reiman and Dr. Ma have another study in progress to determine if starlings are a source of ornithosis, a disease affecting the respiratory tract of humans.

This is the second research project to be sponsored within the past 12 months by the Delaware Tuberculosis and Health Society, with funds received from Christmas Seal contributions. Earlier, a grant was approved for Dr. Harold L. Israel, chief of pulmonary disease division, Graduate Hospital, and associate professor of medicine, University of Pennsylvania, who has made extensive studies of sarcoidosis, a disease similar to tuberculosis.

Statements of School Board Candidates

Keith S. Burgess

I am a candidate for re-election Saturday and would like to continue as a member of the Harrington Special School District Board of Education for the following reasons:

1. I am interested in doing what I can to help Harrington High School remain in the ranks of accredited schools. This enables our children to enter college more easily and to do better once they get there.

2. I have been closely associated with the two building programs now in progress and I would like to see them completed.

3. I now have four-years' experience as a board member. The National School Board Journal states that new board members are usually of little value for the first year or two, and recommends that trained personnel, who have been judged as having done an adequate job, should be retained to make use of this experience.

I hope to be able to help improve our school with the use of some of the many new ideas and techniques which were demonstrated at the National School Board Convention in April. As a representative of Harrington High School, I was appointed chairman of a special-interest clinic at the convention.

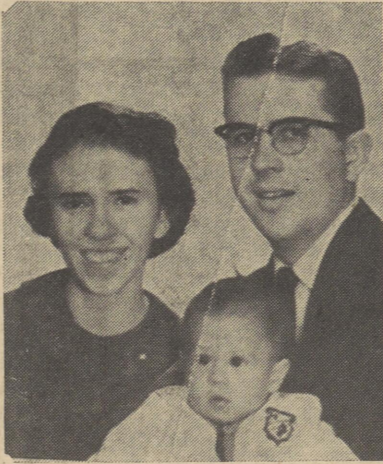

William J. Walls

There seems to be some confusing views relative to my reason for seeking to become a member of the Harrington School Board. First, I would like to say that I believe that it is the duty of every citizen to assume responsibility of this nature when asked to do so by the people of the community.

Second, I am the father of four children of school age, and I am well aware of the need to be interested in our children's education.

Our school cannot be taken lightly, or can it be taken for granted. I believe in a well-planned future for our school, for the best of all interests concerned.

If I am successful in becoming a member of the School Board, I am willing to denote my time towards the accomplishment of this goal.

It's Picnic Time For Dog Ticks

Your dog is likely to wind up on the luncheon menu of hungry hordes of ticks unless you take steps to protect old Fido. And even you can turn up as the main course at a tick picnic, according to Professor Donald MacCreary, entomologist with the University of Delaware.

There are several species of ticks, commonly known as wood ticks. Their appearance and habits are so similar that few people can tell one from another. The common species of wood tick in this area is the American dog tick.

MacCreary says wood ticks feed on the blood of animals and may bite people. Their bites are painful and some of them carry disease.

They are serious pests of dog and certain wild animals including foxes. The American dog tick transmits Rocky Mountain spotted fever and rabbit fever to which man is susceptible.

Ticks are most abundant in woody or brushy areas and grassy fields. They are often found in recreation areas and lawns and are sometimes found in homes. MacCreary points out that it is not unusual for a person walking through heavy vegetation to find up to 50 ticks on his clothing.

Since the dog is the most important domestic host upon which adult ticks feed, try to keep your dog away from infested areas. Examine the dog daily and remove ticks with tweezers or forceps. Treat dogs with either five per cent DDT dust or five per cent Sevin dust. Use 3 to 4 tablespoons full and work into the hair. Repeat at weekly intervals.

Control wood ticks in infested outdoor areas with DDT, toxaphene, chlorodane or dieldrin. DDT is most widely used for this purpose and can be purchased as a spray or dust.

Picknickers can protect themselves by treating their clothing with mosquito repellents. Nylon and rayon fabrics should not be treated however since nylon is a nonabsorbent and rayon may be damaged by the repellents. Since repellents do not provide full protection, MacCreary suggests that you examine yourself carefully when you return home. If you find a tick, remove it immediately with tweezers or forceps and treat the point of attachment with iodine.

For more information on controlling ticks and other insects, write to the department of entomology at the University of Delaware, Newark.

Fish Is Good Source of Protein

Fish may not be a brain food but it is a good source of protein and contains small amounts of iron and the B-vitamins, thiamine and riboflavin.

An average serving or about 3 ounces of fish supplies about the same amount of protein as a serving of meat according to Katie Thomas, Kent County Home demonstration agent. And since it is often lower in price than meat, fish is definitely an economical protein source.

Seafood provides iodine for a healthy functioning thyroid gland. Some fatty fish such as swordfish also supply an abundant quantity of vitamins A and D.

Mort fish are low in fat and therefore are low in calories. And the fats have a high proportion of unsaturated fatty acids. Fresh fish is low in sodium, too, and is often included in special diets prescribed by dietitians and doctors.

Since fish has less iron than meat, Mrs. Thomas recommends serving a green, leafy vegetable with a fish dinner. Oysters however, are an excellent source of calcium and iron.

There are 250 different kinds of fish—frozen, canned or fresh, in the local markets. Make it a habit to try a new kind of fish each month, or serve familiar fish a new way. For a start try the following "trout special" which serves six:

6 fresh trout or bass, cleaned, 1/2 cup mild vinegar, 1/2 cup chicken broth, 1 small bay leaf.

Trim fish and split down the back. Combine in skillet vinegar and broth (make broth by dissolving 1 chicken bouillon cube in 1/2 cup hot water.) Add bay leaf. Simmer 10 minutes. Add fish to the broth; simmer 15 minutes or until tender. Remove to platter and serve with lemon butter.

Chemical Removes Chlorine Stain

Have you ever bleached a white blouse only to have it turn a terrible yellow? If this has happened to you, you probably wonder what can be done about it.

Many wash-and-wear materials have a resin finish which makes them turn yellow or tan when a chlorine bleach is used, says Katie Thomas, Kent County home demonstration agent. Unless the label definitely states that the fabric is non-chlorine retentive, use no bleaches or only those listed as mild bleaches.

But if the damage has already been done, the chlorine discoloration may be removed if the garment has not been ironed or placed in a hot dryer.

To remove this discoloration, add one tablespoon of sodium thiosulfate (a commercial dye remover or photographer's hypo) to one gallon of water and one-fourth cup of white vinegar. Stir the solution until it is completely mixed. Dip the fabric into the solution making sure that it is saturated. Stir the fabric in the solution for a minute or so. The action is very prompt. A longer submerging time is required for heavier fabrics.

Producers Invited to Maryland Lamb Show

Delaware sheep producers are invited to participate in the Maryland Spring Lamb Show, June 2, 1962. It will be a combination "on hoof" and "carcass" show, according to John H. Shropshire, University of Delaware livestock extension specialist.

Six hundred dollars premium money is offered for the eight classes, which include junior and senior singles, pens of three and pens of ten. Entry forms may be obtained from Professor Shropshire, Agricultural Hall, Newark. Entries must be filed before May 19.

Ben Morgan, extension livestock specialist with the Pennsylvania State University, will judge the on-foot classes. The carcass classes offer a real opportunity for producers to see the pay-off effect of their breeding and management programs, Shropshire emphasized.

Receipts From Motor Fuel Taxes For March

Receipts from Motor Fuel taxes for the month of March, which were received during April, totaled $997,957.52 according to a report prepared by Roy B. Kemp, Jr., Director of the Motor Fuel Tax Division of the State Highway Department.

The receipts for March were an increase of $230,323.23 over the amount of these taxes received during the same month of last year, and an increase of $199,362.33 over the amount received during February of this year, which reported a sizable decrease from the previous month.

Motor Fuel tax receipts received during March, represented the sale of 16,847,735 gallons of motor fuel, an increase of 1,366,668 gallons over the amount sold during the same month of the previous year.

The report indicated that of the 75 concerns bonded for the sale of motor fuel during the month, 22 reported no sales for the month. Five concerns reported sales that produced $618,143.36, or 61 percent of the taxes.

These concerns with the amount of taxes paid by each were: Humble Oil & Refining Co., $227,031.64; Gulf Oil Co., $119,803.72; Atlantic Refining Co., $111,426.59; Sun Oil Co., $86,793.86; and Tidewater Oil Co., $73,087.55.

Chest X-ray Program Continues

The chest x-ray program, sponsored by the State Board of Health and the Delaware Tuberculosis and Health Society, will continue the Kent County 1962 season from May 10 thru May 18. Community, industrial and school locations will be scheduled in this area. Public locations are scheduled as follows:

Milford, Fountain's, Church Ave., Frank Fountain, is chairman, Wed., May 16, 1:30-5 p.m. The Bridge, Mrs. J. S. Willis is chairman, Thurs., May 17, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Fri., May 18, 1-8 p.m.

This service is for anyone 15 years of age and over, particularly for those who have not been x-rayed two years.

Garden Mart at Camden Church

The 3rd annual spring garden mart, sponsored by St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Camden, will be held Sat., May 12, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the parish house. Special features will be annuals, green house-grown perennials, bulbs, house plants, and garden tools.

An additional attraction this year will be a flower-arranging contest. Entries must be in by 11 a.m. The flowers may be arranged at home or in the parish house. First, second and third prizes will be awarded. Judges will be Mrs. Edgar Buchanan, Mrs. Walter Holt and Mrs. George Meuse.

General chairman of the garden mart are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Redden.

Start Your Rose Spray Schedule Now

Everyone wants to produce blue ribbon roses, whether he enters a show or not. To obtain prize winning blooms, County agent George Vapaa recommends starting your rose spray schedule now.

Insect and diseases attack foliage soon after growth starts. Japanese beetles are not a problem yet, but aphids, mites and cankerworms develop in early spring and begin to feed on the plants. The two major diseases of roses—black spot and powdery mildew—develop quickly during the warm damp days of spring.

To control the insects that attack roses, use malathion for aphid and mites now and sevin when Japanese beetles appear.

To control the diseases, spray with karathane and zineb or maneb. These chemical may be mixed and applied at the same time.

By starting now and spraying every 10 to 14 days until frost, diseases and insects will be controlled before they can cause damage to the flowers or foliage. If you wait until the insects or diseases start their damage, they will be difficult to control.

A healthy-insect and disease free-rose bush is the only bush that will produce blue ribbon flowers.

Hay Goes With Early Pasture

Don't depend on spring pasture alone to supply all the nutrients your producing dairy cows need, advises county agent, George Vapaa.

Although spring pasture is highly palatable to cows, it is high in moisture and doesn't supply all the protein and energy your cows need for top production.

Placing cows on early pasture often results in loss of body weight. It is good dairy management at this critical time to provide the milking herd with sufficient nutrients.

Since even excellent pasture can't supply all of the herd's needs, the dairyman should supplement with hay or silage plus concentrates. Dry hay not only is an economical supplementary feed, but it also is some indication that hay helps the herd hold its test on young pasture.

Supplementary feeding should start the day the cows are placed on pasture. And as the weather become warmer, be sure the cattle have access to salt and water, since the demands for these increase with warm weather, Mr. Vapaa advises.

Open House at Air Base, Sat., May 19

Sat., May 19, is Armed Forces Day, Dover Air Force Base will have open house from the general public from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Armed Forces Day was established in 1950 by the Secretary of Defense, with presidential approval. It was designated to replace the separate observances previously held by the different services.

There will be many exhibits on display in the "Black Hangar." They include planes such as: C-118, C-124, C-133 and VOODOO F-100 Jet Fighter aircraft. The Strategic Air Command will have tanker planes on display, the KC 97.

The U. S. Navy Recruiter for Kent County will be on hand to answer questions of prospective applicants and/or their parents.

Road Bids Awarded

Bids received by the State Highway Department on four projects, providing for the improvement of dirt roads, demolition of buildings, furnishing sign blanks and repairing some equipment.

Edgell Construction Co., of Dover, with a price of $173,778.00 were the lowest of seven bidders for the improvement of a series of four existing dirt roads in lower New Castle County, totaling 5.99 miles.

The present roads will be reshaped, have drainage installed and have surface treated roadway, 20 feet wide, on soil cement base. The project is to be completed in 140 working days.

The demolition of St. Paul's M. E. Church, and two dwellings, along the Freeway Route in Wilmington, attracted five bids, with Wright Construction Co., Wilmington, submitting the low bid of $6,440 plus salvaged materials. Aluminum Co., of America, Pittsburgh, Pa., submitted the low bid of $14,547.00 for furnishing 5,910 highway traffic sign blanks in various sizes and designs.

Only one bid was received for making repairs to a trenching machine, used by the Mosquito Control Division. It came from McClung-Logan Equipment Co., Baltimore, whose prices for the repairs was $2,734.34.

Control Caterpillars While They Are Young

Tents are appearing in many yards these days but they aren't all the kind kids play in. Kent County agent George Vapaa says the Eastern tent caterpillar is forming tent-like webs in the branches of certain trees and shrubs.

The tent caterpillar prefers wild cherry, apple and peach but often feeds on other trees and shrubs.

The caterpillars are easy to control when they are young. The agent recommends a spray or dust of DDT or lead arsenate to the branches near the nests for good control of the young caterpillars.

Many people attempt to burn the nests. This is harmful to the tree and may start a dangerous brush fire. Try using a bottle brush or broom to mechanically remove the unsightly tents. This is much safer than burning, Mr. Vapaa says.

For best control, spray or remove the web during the height of the day when the insects are in the tent.

OH! YEAH!

Sen. Margaret R. Manning, R-Marshallton, Monday sponsored a resolution in the State Senate to "economize" on the printing of the Senate calendar, a publication telling of the introduction and progress of legislation.

Sen. Manning would have the attaches type and duplicate the calendar. The resolution passed but would not be binding on the next session of the Senate nor would it be in effect this session since the calendar is printed under contract.

Sen. Manning, a member of the Senate Printing Committee, is quoted in The Morning News of Tuesday as saying the Senate had "already spent more than $6000 this year on printing of calendars and still only gets them every ten days or so."

The Senate could get the calendars every week if the Printing Committee, of which, as previously mentioned, Sen. Manning is a member, would agree to it. Furthermore, the Senate has not spent any where near $6000 this year.

As of Tuesday, the Senate has paid for two calendars, a total of $1290, for this year. A third calendar is still to be paid for. And we know what we are talking about: We print the Senate calendar!

And we print the calendar because we were the low bidder.

Marshal To Crack Down on Burning

The practice of burning of brush, rubbish and grass, is becoming more prevalent and is certainly creating a condition which is causing great hardship on the services of the Volunteer Firemen throughout the State, says State Fire Marshal Favinger.

For the benefit of those not familiar with the State Fire Regulations pertaining to burning which were passed December 7, 1960, by the State Fire Prevention Commission and which further makes violation subject to penalties as provided, it is reproduced below:

Regulation No. 23, Section 28.1 applies. Bonfires and outdoor rubbish fires.

a. Permit required. No person shall kindle or maintain any bonfire or rubbish fire or authorize any such fire to be kindled or maintained on or in any public street, alley, road or other public ground without a permit or other proper authorization.

b. Location restricted. No person shall kindle or maintain any bonfire or rubbish fire or authorize any such fire to be kindled or maintained on any private land unless (1) the location is not less than 20 feet from any structure and adequate provision is made to prevent fire from spreading to within 50 feet of any structure, or (2) the fire is contained in an approved waste burner located safely not less than 15 feet from any structure.

c. May prohibit. The office of State Fire Marshal, assistant State Fire Marshals, their deputies or inspectors may prohibit any or all bonfires and outdoor rubbish fires when atmospheric conditions or local circumstances make such fires hazardous.

Section 28.2. Kindling of fire on land of others restricted. No person shall kindle a fire upon the land of another without permission of the owner thereof or his agent.

Section 28.5. Accumulation of waste materials. Accumulations of waste paper, hay, grass, straw, weeds, litter or combustible or inflammable waste or rubbish of any kind shall not be permitted to remain upon any roof or in any court, yard, vacant lot or open space.

Section 66.11, Title 16, Chapter 66. Maintenance of fire hazard, violation of regulations: or chapter: enforcement: remedies and penalties.

b. Whoever knowingly violates such regulations, provisions or change or any provision of this chapter, shall be fined not more than $100 or imprisoned not more than 10 days, or both.

c. Each and every day during which such illegal erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, maintenance, or use continues after knowledge or official notice that same is illegal, shall be deemed a separate offense.

To assist those persons who feel burning is necessary and desire to do so lawfully, a few tips are hereby listed which will at least assure them the maximum in safety, during the burning process.

1. Remember to burn in open, in small piles in location not less than 50 feet of any structure or in approved burner located safely not less than 15 feet from any structure.

4. Before you start the fire, get out your garden hose and attach it to the outdoor faucet nearest the fire. Keep it handy until the fire is completely out.

5. When burning leaves or trash, it is a good idea to burn them in a wire mesh basket or metal container. Set the container well away from buildings, fences, dry grass, or anything else that will burn.

6. Keep the children away from the fire.

7. Do not leave the fire unattended. Stay with it until it is out and the ashes are cool enough to touch.

8. In open and rural areas, where farm land is being cleared, generally the same precautions should be followed and in no instance should fires be allowed to burn unattended during hours of darkness.

Social Security News

There are more than 600 social security officers throughout the United States, according to the Dover Security Office servicing Kent and Sussex Counties.

People work in these offices, people who know and understand the social security law. Other people ask them questions about the law and the social security people answer the questions.

When the social security law changes, the answer to people's questions change. For instance: For many years, when people past retirement age, but still under 72 earned $4,080 or more a year, they could not receive their social security benefits. This answer was given to many questions.

But now the law has been changed. This causes the social security people to worry. They worry because they would like people they talked to before to know the new answer to their question.

They would like for all people over 65 who are still working, and who have never applied for social security benefits to ask: "How much can I earn and still receive some social security benefits?"

Then, the social security people could say, "It depends on how much in benefits is payable on your account. The only sure way to find out is to apply for benefits."

"Sometimes," the social security people could say to a worker, "you can earn as much as $4,000 in a year and still receive some social security benefits."

Be kind to the people in your local social security office. If you are over 65, still working, and have never applied for benefits, stop them from worrying, and apply for benefits. It may mean more money in your pocketbook. It can cost you nothing.

U. of D. Prof. Gets Poultry Post

Dr. Morris S. Cover, associate dean of the school of agriculture, University of Delaware, has been appointed American Veterinary Medical Association representative to a national advisory committee on poultry disease research and control.

He was appointed by the AVMA to the committee on transmissible disease of poultry of the United States Livestock Sanitary Association. The committee will advise the U. S. Department of Agriculture on poultry disease eradication programs, disease detection and reporting programs and the regulation of interstate movement of poultry to control the spread of disease.

Dr. Cover, who also is associate director of the University's agricultural experiment station, is a recognized authority on diseases of poultry. In 1959, he led a research team in the study of red spot, a disease of unknown cause which alarmed the broiler industry. He identified red spot as the more familiar disease, coccidiosis, and recommended successful corrective treatments.

Dr. Cover has been at the University of Delaware since 1952 when he was appointed poultry pathologist and associate professor of animal and poultry science. He was named chairman of the department of animal and poultry science in 1959 and associate dean of the school of agriculture and associate director of the agricultural experiment station in 1961.

He holds degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, Kansas State College and the University of Illinois.

Prune Flowering Shrubs After They Bloom

The golden yellow blossoms of forsythia have passed for another year, although many other spring flowering shrubs are still in full bloom.

In order to insure an abundant supply of welcome color next spring, forsythia and other early flowering shrubs such as spirea, mock orange and deutzia, should be pruned immediately after they bloom, says Robert F. Stevens, extension horticulturist with the University of Delaware.

Removing the old wood, three years and older, down to the base of shrub, will stimulate the growth of larger, more attractive flowers next year, Stevens says.

Shrubs that bloom in late June, July or August, such as abelia, snowberry and rose of Sharon, should not be pruned until late winter or early spring—February or March of next year. The only exception is to remove any dead, diseased or broken branches. These should be removed immediately, as they are found.

Pruning should preserve the natural shape of the shrub. This is accomplished by cutting back some of the branches; removing dead, diseased, weak and broken branches; thinning out overcrowded areas; and by removal of older branches at the ground level.

For more information on pruning, contact your county agricultural agent or write to the University of Delaware School of Agriculture, Newark. Ask for horticultural fact sheets "Pruning Woody Plants" and "Pruning Deciduous Shrubs."

DSTC to Hold Open House At Dover

All residents of Kent County are invited to attend open house at Diamond State Telephone Company's central office at 124 South State Street, Dover, next Thursday and Friday (May 17 and 18) from 6:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., it was announced by J. Henry McDonnell, local community Relations Chairman.

Visitors will be able to see the new direct distance dial equipment that went into operation for Kent County customers last month. This equipment handles direct dialed customer calls going all over the country.

McDonnell said visitors will be able to see where subscribers' wires are connected to the central office switching equipment. The tour will start in the business office and then will go into the switchboard room, then to the Test Center.

The Test Center, he said, is where all the cables in this area are tested. Cable repairmen are also dispatched from this location.

McDonnell pointed out that new cable trucks will be on display in the parking lot and also a new cable plow.

The four, he said, will be conducted by telephone men and women who work in this area.

In extending an invitation to area residents, McDonnell suggested they make it an outing for the entire family. Free souvenirs will be given to visitors.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—Will the VA pay for ambulance transportation to and from the hospital?

A—Only if prior authorization is obtained from the hospital by mail or phone for this physician may apply to the hospital. A veteran or a private authorization if (a) the veteran has a service-connected condition or (b) if a nonservice-connected veteran can't pay the cost of the travel.

Q—A discharge or dismissal from service sentence of a General Court-Martial bars veterans from benefits administered by the VA. Recently after a Navy veteran had been discharged by a sentence of a General Court-Martial, the Navy Board for Correction of Naval Records held that his records should be corrected to show his separation was under honorable conditions. What about cases like this?

A—A recent decision of the VA General Counsel held that the action of the Board for Correction of Naval Records has the status of a special act of Congress for the veteran's relief, making the status of a special act of Congress for the veteran's relief, making the veteran eligible for VA benefits to which he is otherwise entitled.

Q—Because I pay my National Service Life Insurance premiums by allotment, I have not applied for the total disability income provision which might pay me $100 a month if I am disabled before age 60. Can I get the TDIP rider, and if so, how?

A—Yes, you can, and without a physical examination if you are under age 40. Application forms and assistance are available at any VA office or from your Service Personnel Officer.

merce and soon they will test another service for the consumer. Beginning the first of July, the livestock and meat industry will be offered an opportunity to evaluate a new approach to beef grading—dual grading. This system of grading will give the consumer the opportunity to buy beef of more consistent quality, with less waste fat. Saving in marketing system could also help hold down prices. This is just another example of the technological advances in agriculture which continue to free most of use from the labor of earning our daily bread by tilling the soil and at the same time giving us the type of foods we desire. What about the supply of meats today? Prices for live cattle and hogs in Midwest market terminals have tumbled. Receipts of cattle and hogs at Chicago were the largest this year, as a result, wholesale beef and pork prices have already weakened. This may lead to moderate reductions at retail levels for beef and pork. In addition to beef and pork, markets continue to feature broilers and frozen turkey. There's plenty of meat to be had at reasonable prices. Our Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m., with classes for all age groups. William Pritchitt, superintendent. Delaware Food Market Report "Civilization reaches upward from the shoulders of agriculture." This is indeed an interesting statement and when you develop it further you see how true it is, for when one man consistently could grow more food and fiber than he needed for himself he helped to free another man who could become a craftsman, an inventor, etc. Today, one American farm worker feeds 26 people and civilization is reaching for the planets. In no other country, and at no other time in our history, has agriculture provided so well for so many people as it does in the United States today. Ours is a very high level of living, thanks to the aid of agriculture. We can buy food confidence in our country, knowing that it is the safest, cleanest and most wholesome food in the world and it is the kind of food we desire. Harold McDonald's Harrington junior high baseball team is undefeated in three starts. Using only seventh and eighth graders the Lions shut out Magnolia behind the hurling of Marshall Hatfield and Chuck McNally.

Walter Perdue held Milton to one hit and also beat John M. Clayton with a three-hitter by a score of 5-1. Donnie Sam Knox and Glenn Smith led Harrington at the plate with two hits each.

The writer is race chairman for a three mile footrace to be held at the Delaware State Fairgrounds here during the Delmarva Chickin Festival in June and another test at the same site and over the same distance during the Delaware State Fair about a month later. Trophies will be given to the first five or six runners to finish. An effort will be made to secure a trophy for the first local competitor to finish each grind. Only amateur runners in the area who are interested should start to get themselves in condition now. Watch this column for further details.

Frank Cain, freshman pole vaulter at H.H.S., got in a little extra practice last Saturday and to his surprise cleared 9 ft. 8 inches which is just 1 inch shy of the school record. Randy Knox, at the same time jumped 5 ft. 6 inches which is his best leap ever and is higher than the winning jump at the recent 10 team Seaford Invitational meet. Stu Greenberg and Bob Smith are a couple of other Lion thrillers who work overtime on their events. This quartet should help H.H.S. back near the top in downstate track circles in a year or two.

John B. Kelley, two time Olympic Games sculler, is a brother to Princess Grace Kelley Grimaldi of Monaco and is a success at virtually every task he tackles. Here are some of his observations: "Kids should work hard at what they want to do—whether it's art or music or sports or business or a profession. They should learn it well and practice it. Kids nowadays expect things to come too easy. Any success requires hard work. Sports are good for kids. I wish every kid could have the chance my dad gave me—to learn a sport and have the chance to have some success with it. I love to see kids win when I have had something to do with their training. That gives me more pleasure than winning myself." (Editor: We know exactly what he means). "Sports are good. They not only keep kids off street corners and away from the television set, they teach kids a sense of challenge. They teach them how to handle both great happiness and great disappointment."

John M. Clayton Bests H.H.S. 14-4

Jim Hawpe's Harrington High baseball team tried to make it three in a row when they played John M. Clayton High at Dagsboro Tuesday. Jeff Adams on the mound for Harrington was trying for his third straight win. The contest was close for five innings. In the sixth the tiring local hurler lost his control. The Bears took advantage of this fact and with the help of an error or two by the Lions went on to win by a score of 14-4. Adams whiffed eight batters but walked eleven and hit one batsman. However, the game would have been much closer but for the six errors committed by the locals.

Don Long on the mound for the winners held Harrington to four hits while his mates had five safeties.

Harrington's record is now two wins and three defeats.

Felton Wins Two To Lead League

Felton High School remained in a tie for first place in the Henlopen Conference by defeating Millsboro, 10-8 and Rehoboth 13-5. Bill Green started in both games and was relieved each time by Mike Harrington. Millsboro's Blue Devils out-hit the Green Devils 14-12, clouted four home runs, scored in every inning but one, and still they dropped the contest. The Sussex Countians must be wondering what hit them.

A four-run fourth inning gave Felton the verdict as Green and Sam Ludlow had three blows apiece. Wood, Young and Draper had two safeties each.

Monday afternoon at Rehoboth the fourth frame again was the decisive one as Felton broke a 1-1 tie by scoring seven big runs. Bill Green fattened his batting average with three hits while Bill Young added two more.

Rehoboth had almost as many hits as the winners but had to settle for second-best as they were held in check except for the fifth inning.

H.H.S. Track Team Third In 4-Team Race

The Harrington High School track team placed third among the four teams competing in Section 3 of the Peninsula Relay Carnival held at Baynard Stadium, Wilmington on Friday night. Last year the locals were team champions in Section 3 and received a handsome trophy. The 1961 crew of Buddy Bonniwell, Buck Bradley, Dwight and Clarence Hackett, George Pfeiffer, Walt Lekites, Bob Winkler, Leonard Masten, and Delaware school Harry Knotts won four races and were second in the other two. They set new record in the medley and two mile relay races, that withstood the assault of this year's Section 3 runners.

All of these boys are gone and while it was apparent that the team would be weaker this term, it was hoped by those of us close to the track sport that improvement on the part of last year's reserves would take up much of the slack. Unfortunately, many of these did not even show up this time. Several of this group were certain to be heavy point producers.

The 1962 Lions could only manage four third-place finishes in five races. Wm. Henry of Dover dethroned H.H.S. by scoring 28 points. Tower Hill was second with 26. Harrington tallied 14 and Dover AFB High trailed with 7.

Bob Smith, Dennis Rogers, Charles Taylor and Tim Strohl turned in the best Lion performances. The first three named are freshmen so there is hope that in a couple of years another Peninsula Relays team trophy may keep the first one company.

In the two mile relay Ron Broce led off with a 2:30 half mile.

Leroy Parker, a veteran Wm. Henry senior from Harrington, ran a 2:10 leadoff half to put his team well ahead. Bill Sollars

Greenwood Nine Drops Two Games

Carl Baker's Greenwood High Foresters are having bad luck in the baseball season after having a good winter in basketball. Last Thursday they were bombed by Rehoboth 15-3. Monday night Greenwood was nipped 7-6 at Milton after rallying to tie the score at 6 all.

Against Rehoboth the Foresters were still in the game until the Seahawks tallied 10 runs in the fifth and sixth innings.

Dick Finkbinder, Ellsworth Coleman and Julian Woodall hit safely for Greenwood. Woodall is doing practically all of the pitching. Julian had a good year in basketball and two years ago was an outstanding distance running prospect when his school had a cross-country team. However, we are sure he would dearly love to win a ball game just to see what it feels like.

Every Harrington runner mentioned this far plus Stuart Greenberg and George Bonniwell were recipients of the Peninsula Relays engraved plaques. These awards are truly worth striving for.

Clarence Hackett rested a month and is now back in harness for Wm. Penn High. His gimpy ankles makes his future as a runner uncertain. His appearance in the red and black instead of the familiar blue and gold of H.H.S. gave this writer and other Harringtonians a twinge of regret.

Other Harrington boys who contributed to Wm. Henry's first place finish in addition to Capt. Leroy Parker were Ken Tharp, who ran on the winning 440 yard quartet and the second place 880 foursome and Ralph Tildon, who ran on the winning hurdles four.

Local Softball League Organizes

Softball fans of the area will be glad to know that there will be action under the lights at the Moose Home this summer. It had appeared that for the first time in several years there would be no organized play at the fine field north of town.

A recently formed league will consist of: Stone's Hotel, managed by Ken Schaper; Bill's Barber Shop, piloted by Jackie Sapp; Harrington Jaycees, under the aegis of Donald Jarrell and the Moose who at present are still looking for a leader.

Play will start with a double header featuring all four teams on May 24. After the first two nights of competition, the softball games will take place after the Little League's twilight contests are finished.

Paul Stubbs is league president and invites prospective players to contact one of the teams.

H.H.S. Nine Wins At Bridgeville

Last Friday at Bridgeville Jim Hawpe's Lions surprised the Mustangs with a five-run third inning and an 8-3 victory.

Dick Collins had two hits one of which was a two-run triple. Rusty Jack and George Collins checked in with a two-run double each.

Dick Collins also pitched two hitless innings mopping up for the winning moundsman Jeff Adams.

Harrington had eight hits off three Bridgeville pitchers including two blows off the Mustang ace Foster Flint in two innings. Flint seldom gives up more than three blows for seven innings.

Paul Newman's "Sweet Bird of Youth," At Reese May 13-14

It's "All Harrington" week. Everyone is urged to buy as much as possible in Harrington this week. Test your Harrington merchants, then compare the prices and quality.

The management of the Reese Theatre has gone all out to present the top and unusual screen fare all during this week and the coming week. A glance at the Reese Theatre program to be found in this newspaper lists three of the great attractions now playing only in the larger cities. Newspaper, television, and radio, all have been raving about the new James Stewart and John Wayne hit, "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance." Selected as one of the finest by the New Guild, this great show plays the Reese Theatre this Friday and Saturday, May 11-12. Jeff Richards in "Secrets of the Purple Reef" is the co-feature.

Who hasn't heard about "Sweet Bird of Youth"? First as a stage hit and played by Paul Newman and Geraldine Page in the great movie hit of the same name, "Sweet Bird of Youth" plays the Reese Theatre, Sunday and Monday, May 13 and 14. "He used love like most men use money," such is the provocative theme in what is considered the most unusual Adult entertainment now gracing the silver sheet.

Smith Scores Lone H.H.S. Point At Milford

Freshman Bob Smith was the only Harrington High scorer in the Milford Invitational Track and Field Meet Wednesday. 315 lads from ten schools competed. Bob was timed in 4:58 for the mile run and 55.5 seconds for the 440 yard dash. His effort in the longer race gave him fifth place and is the fastest clocking for one so young in six years of track here. We believe his 440 time is second only to Jim Schiff's school record of 53.6. Bob also ran in the mile relay to make him the meet's busiest performer.

Dennis Rogers, in the mile and Ron Broce in the half mile set new personal records.

Riley Davis ran 2:39 in the junior high half mile in his first try at this distance. He'll do even better as soon as he learns to pace himself. Davis later gave Harrington a good lead in a heat of the junior high 440 relay. This lead was lengthened by Larry Garey, Willie Bonniwell and Artie Taylor for an easy win.

Bill Adams ran a 63 second quartet mile for H.H.S. in the mile relay. Bill is another new face who should help in any one of several events.

Bill Porter, a senior, who is not out for track, threw the shot 46 feet after the best weight men on the field had failed to exceed 42 feet. The five points for first place in this event would have looked mighty good in the Harrington scoring column. However, Bill was not a competitor since he can't make practice very often due to his work schedule after school.

Little League Players Chosen

The Harrington Little League players draft was held at the American Legion home on Tuesday night. President James O'Neal and player agent Keith S. Burgess conducted the meeting as 60 players were chosen by the managers of the teams.

Harold Brown is the manager of the Moose nine. Dick Yost is his assistant. Bob Haley will lead the Rotary Club assisted by Gary Harrington. Bill Minner will head the Legion entry aided by Bob Jester. Jack Redden will pilot the Lions with help from Earl Yoder and Tom Mulcahy.

All games will be played at the Moose Home. It is planned to commence operations with a double header on May 26 featuring all four teams. Ted Layton is working on the schedule.
