

FIRE DESTROYS
MILFORD ACME

Acme store officials examined the leveled remains of a concrete block supermarket at Milford Tuesday and began adding up the loss of its contents.

Fire completely destroyed the market Monday and caused minor damage to an adjacent laundry.

Loss of the Southeast front street building itself was set at about $125,000 by John W. Burris, of Rehoboth, head of Burris Food Distributors, Inc., of Milford, owner of the structure.

It was still too early to estimate loss to the market's contents in dollar figures, according to Robert E. Wink, store manager, but Milford firemen said the loss was total.

About 20 customers were in the store when the blaze broke out in a storage shed at the rear about 5 p. m. It spread quickly across the roof of the building.

The flames threatened a laundry next to the market but that structure suffered only smoke and water damage, firemen said.

The Milford fire company, first on the scene, arrived just as intense heat exploded a large window facing Front Street.

More than 200 firemen from six companies brought the blaze under control in about two hours and continued to pour water on the building until about 9 p. m.

Burris said he carries fire insurance on the building.

Also responding to the two-alarm fire were the companies from Ellendale, Houston, Harrington, Slaughter Beach, Frederica and Felton.

One fireman, Ralph Wilson, 38, of Houston, was treated for a cut hand at Milford Memorial Hospital, and a woman customer who fainted was treated at the scene.

Cause of the blaze, which firemen said broke out in the storage shed used for disposal of trash, had not been determined.

Route 13 Crash
Injures Five

Five persons were injured Monday morning in a two-car crash at the intersection of U. S. 13 and County Route 31 at Canterbury.

John Steele, 22, of near Felton, one of the drivers, was being held for observation at Kent General Hospital with lacerations, abrasions and back injuries.

The four others, treated for minor injuries at the same hospital and released, were: John Forbes, 32, of near Felton, a passenger in Steele's car; Helen White, 36, Philadelphia, driver of the other car, and Wilma Horton, 19, and Alice Wiggins, 18, both of Philadelphia and passengers in the White car.

State police said Steele was driving east on the county road and failed to stop for a stop sign at the highway intersection. His car was struck by the White car, headed north on U.S. 13, police said.

Asbury Church
Art Show Is Big Success

The twenty-fifth annual flower and art show sponsored by the Ever Ready Class of Asbury Church School was acclaimed by many to be the best yet. The number and beauty of the flowers, plants and vegetables exhibited surprised many considering the excessively dry summer. The paintings by artists from various parts of the state were interesting and showed a great deal of talent in that field. And the violins exhibited by Ernest W. Dean attracted many interested spectators.

Mrs. Reginald McKnatt, the president of the class, announced the winners of the awards in the different departments. In the floral and vegetable division the winners were the ones whose exhibits were awarded the most blue stickers and were as follows:

Women—a tie in which Miss Rosanna Messick of Houston and Mrs. William B. Hill, a member of the Ever Ready Class, were the winners.

Men—Melvin L. Brobst Girl—Virginia Jo Richardson Boy—Scott Hill

The award for the best painting was decided by popular written vote, and was awarded to Mrs. George Skinner, of Dover.

So much interest in all these divisions is conducive to cultivation of the fine arts in this community.

Boy, 15, Indicted in Attack
On Greenwood Woman, 91

The Sussex County grand jury Monday indicted a 15-year-old boy on a charge of assault with intent to commit rape and two men on second degree murder charges.

The boy, Lawrence W. Coverdale, is accused of violently assaulting a 91-year-old woman in her rural Greenwood home last May 9.

Police picked up the youth only five hours after a "peeping tom" charge against him had been dismissed in Family Court. Because of the seriousness of the assault charge, that case will be heard in Superior Court.

Indicted for second degree murder were Gilbert Pearson, 35, of 314 First St., Bridgeville, and Louis J. Jones, 26, of Du Pont Stret, Lewes.

Pearson is charged with the shotgun slaying of Simon Burgess, 41, at a Bridgeville apartment June 3, and Jones with the rifle shooting of Ernest Leon Quailes, 38, of Lewes, at a club in that town June 9.

The grand jury also returned true bills in cases charging assault with intent to murder and embezzlement.

Cristobal O. Fernandez, 25, of near Seaford, was indicted for assault with intent to commit murder for allegedly shooting Priscilla E. Blackwell, 21, at the home of Virginia Waters, on Route 525, three miles northeast of Seaford May 2.

Ray Daniel Hitchens, 48, a used car dealer now in Arizona, is charged with embezzling $650 given him by the Nanticoke Finance Co. on behalf of Lewell B. Taylor, for a 1960 car.

Hitchens had operated several used car lots previously, including one in Georgetown, before setting up business in Seaford as Ray's Used Cars.

The alleged crime was committed Sept. 30, 1960. Hitchens was charged with appropriating the $650 to his own use.

Center Street to Be Used for School
Playground

With approval of the City Council and the State Highway Department, Center Street, between Dorman and West Streets, will be closed to traffic between the hours of 10:15 and 10:40, and 1:15 and 1:45 Monday through Friday until such time as the construction at Harrington High School is completed. This area of the street will be used by the 5th and 6th grades as a playground.

In the past years, the playground for these grades was located in the plot of ground in which the new construction has been placed.

Various courts and game areas will be established by the 5th and 6th grade teachers to accommodate the boys and girls along this section of the street.

Carvel Receives
Certificate of Appreciation

Gov. Elbert N. Carvel, previously cited by the U. S. Department of Labor for his continued support of apprenticeship programs and for his appointment of a statewide committee on training has been presented with a Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of same.

In ceremonies at his office in Dover this week, the chief executive was presented with an appropriately inscribed certificate by postmaster Clement Bowdle of Dover, representing Postmaster General J. Edward Day, and John J. Petras, State Supervisor of Apprenticeship and Training, U. S. Department of Labor.

Affixed to the certificate was a First Issue 25th Anniversary Stamp commemorating the enactment into law of the Nation Apprenticeship Act under which the U. S. Department of Labor joined with organized labor and management in sponsoring Apprenticeship and Training.

Others participating in the ceremonies were Joseph A. Bredshaw, executive director, Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, State of Delaware, and Clement J. Lemon, president, Delaware State Labor Council, AFL-CIO, of Wilmington.

Back to College

Many young people from Harrington have or will go to various colleges and universities soon. Terry Johnson, Connie Biddle, Robert Eastman, and William Parker, are freshmen; Robert Winkler, Walter Lekites, and Sandra Tatman are sophomores; Jane Hughes is a junior, and Emily Ann Brown, Joan Collins and Joyce Downing are seniors. All these students attend the University of Delaware.

Leonard Masten will be a sophomore and Becky Moore a freshman at Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Va. Diane Smith will be a freshman, and Nancy Taylor, a sophomore, and Christine Taylor a junior at Madison College, Harrisonburg, Va. David Hitchens and Kathy Holloway will be sophomores at the Salisbury State Teachers College in Salisbury. Kenna Jo McKnatt will be a freshman at Wesley College in Dover; James McDonald and Kenneth Konesey will be juniors at the University of North Carolina; William George Thompson will be a junior at the University of Pennsylvania, and Anne Perry will be a senior at the Jefferson School of Nursing, and Jeanne Martin will be a sophomore at the Delaware School of Nursing.

175th Anniversary
Celebration Begins
Tomorrow

The celebration of Milford's 175th Anniversary will begin Saturday, Sept. 15, with the first of "Old Milford Days." Saturday and Sunday, the 15th and 16th, have been designated "Old Milford Days," and eighteen historic homes and buildings will be opened for this occasion to focus attention on the interesting history of the city. The Milford Historical Society has arranged for the anniversary and to raise funds for the restoration of the Parson Thorne Mansion. In addition to this event, many store windows will display collections of historic artifacts, the Girl Scouts will dance the minuet at three performances in front of City Hall, and "A History of Milford" will go on sale throughout the city.

The schedule of "Old Milford Days" events is as follows: Public buildings listed below will be open from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturday and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. on Sunday.

The private homes listed below will be opened from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

Tea will be served in the Lounge of City Hall from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

The Girl Scouts will dance the minuet in front of City Hall at 11 a. m., at 2:30 p. m., and at 7 p. m. Saturday only.

The homes and buildings to open, numbered as they will be listed on the "Old Milford Days" program, are as follows:

No. 1, Vale-Williams Memorial City Hall; No. 2, Abbott's Gristmill; 3, Milford New Century Club; 4, Parson Thorne Mansion; 5, Christ Church Episcopal; 6, Browning House 7, The Towers; 8, Home & Store of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Steward; 9, Home of Dr. and Mrs. John B. Baker; 10, Home of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Snyder; 11, Home of Senator and Mrs. Harry E. Mayhew; 12, Sunnyside, home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Elfreth; 13, Home of Mrs. Hoey Farrow; 14, Mordington; home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie I. March; 15, Home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Collins; 16, Eglington Hall; Home of Dr. and Mrs. William Marshall, Jr.; 17, Milford Free Public Library; 18, Old Methodist Graveyard.

Free bus service to all locations will be available at regular intervals at City Hall. Boy Scouts will be at City Hall to act as guides, and they will also sell refreshments there. The Milford Police Department has reserved parking space for anyone making the tour of the homes and buildings near each location.

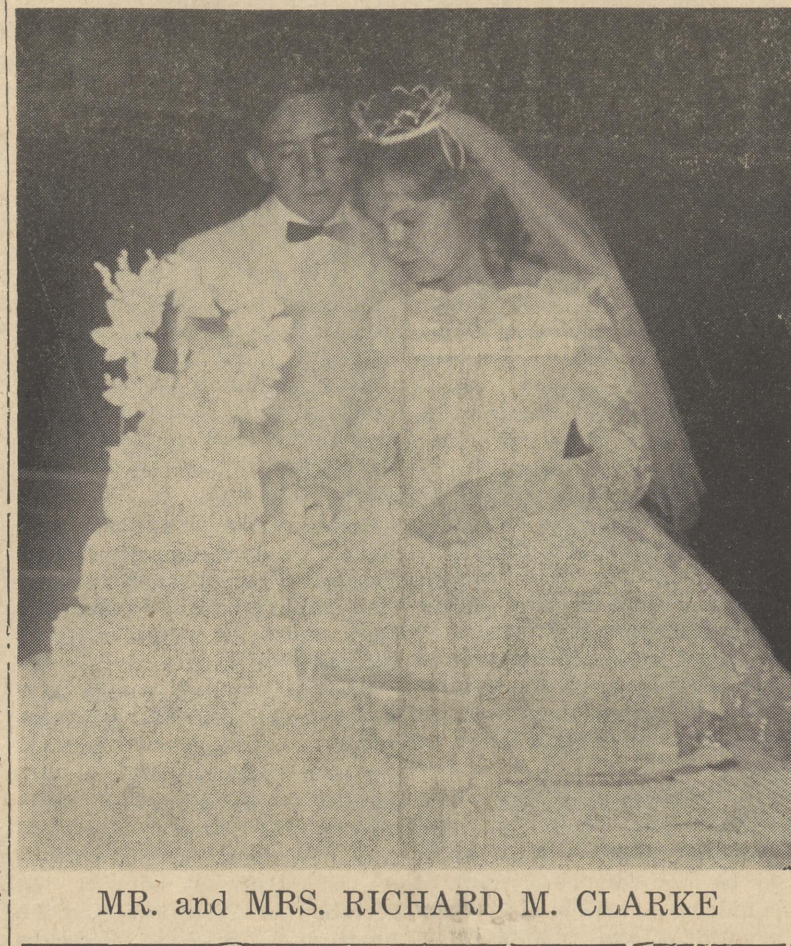

Agreement on the part-time attendance plan was reached at a two-hour session in the State Board of Health Building. Paul M. Hodgson, assistant state superintendent in charge of vocational education, conducted the meeting.

The resolution endorsing the entire idea will be distributed to school boards for individual action.

There hasn't been any question that more vocational education is needed in the county, Hodgson said. Matters to be decided, he added, are when, where, an how.

Problems of scheduling and transportation can be solved, the superintendent said. He pointed to the fact that they were not even brought up after the first year of operation of the Sussex Vocational Center.

Phyllis A. Vincent
Weds R. M. Clarke

The wedding of Miss Phyllis Ann Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Vincent, Harrington, to Richard M. Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Clarke, of Glendale, O., took place recently at St. Bernadette's, in Harrington.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Father John Corrigan.

Wedding music was played by Tyson Wroten, of Greenwood.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, George Vincent, wore a floor length gown of white chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. The sculptured lace bodice had a sabrina neckline with lace applique embroidered in irridescent and baby seed pearls with long tapered sleeves, points ending over the hand. The bouffant skirt featured a scalloped hemline with the back panels of the gown forming alternate tiers of scalloped lace and tulle. Her finger-tip veil of nylon tulle fell from a pearl tiara. She carried a cascade of white fugi mums and Stephanotis with baby's breath and fern.

Miss Penny Caserta was maid of honor. She wore a apricot chiffon dress with matching shoes. She carried a nosegay of apricot carnations with white streamers.

Stephen Clarke, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Dr. Thomas Clarke and Nestor Derkach.

The mother of the bride wore a nylon turquoise dress with a corsage of white carnations with white accessories.

Educators in Kent County Okay
County Technical Center

A plan for a Kent County vocational - technical training center was approved at Dover Monday by representatives of the county's seven high schools.

The plan involves sending students to the center for instruction in trade subjects but retaining them in their own schools for academic courses and all other activities.

The argument against full-time attendance at a county vocational school, an idea favored at a recent meeting of Kent County chief school officers, is that high schools and students don't want to give up associations stemming from their own localities.

Agreement on the part-time attendance plan was reached at a two-hour session in the State Board of Health Building. Paul M. Hodgson, assistant state superintendent in charge of vocational education, conducted the meeting.

The resolution endorsing the entire idea will be distributed to school boards for individual action.

There hasn't been any question that more vocational education is needed in the county, Hodgson said. Matters to be decided, he added, are when, where, an how.

C. of C. Interested
In Mailing Lists of Industry Prospects

In a bid for industry, Harrington H. Burgess, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was authorized to secure mailing lists of prospects for industry Tuesday at the group's September meeting at The Wonder R.

Burgess will secure the titles of the mailing lists, and their cost, and report back to the chamber for its approval. If and when this is secured, the chamber will pay for the list and mail a newly published brochure citing the advantages of Harrington as a site for industry.

In other business, Thomas Peck was named chairman of the annual Christmas program.

It was decided to dispense with annual Christmas-season drawings for merchandise and to concentrate on the decorations. It was the consensus the drawings did little to help business.

Democrats Gain
In Registration

Registration Saturday saw a gain in Kent County for the Democrats over the Republicans. Locally, the Democrats picked up a slight lead.

In the Ninth District, Democrats tallied 15, Republicans, 12, and declines, 4.

In the County Democrats tallied 181, Republicans, 133, and declines, 61.

In Sussex County, the record was as follows: Democrats, 1948; Republicans, 1604, and declines, 761.

SHD Starts
Resurfacing
Program

The State Highway Department maintenance forces are now starting the largest single year's resurfacing program in the history of the department, according to William J. Miller, Jr., director of operations for the department.

The projects which are now getting underway will involve the expenditure of approximately $830,000, in resurfacing existing roads with asphalt and stone chips, in all three counties and in addition some $25,000 will be expended on hot mix bituminous resurfacing.

The expanded program is the result of a substantial increase in the appropriation to the Department for maintenance work by the General Assembly, according to Mr. Miller, who said the department staff, during budget hearings, pointed out that some 4 years had elapsed since any appreciable resurfacing had taken place resulting in the need for maintenance patching and resurfacing being urgent.

Miller said that under the maintenance resurfacing program, two projects were about to get started in Sussex County. One for $167,000 will provide for resurfacing roads on the eastern side of the county by Paul Scott Contracting Co., of Dover, and another for $247,000 will provide resurfacing roads to the western side of the county by A. H. Smith, Inc., of Branchville, Md.

In Kent County the resurfacing work, now underway, is being done by Delmarva Asphalt Co., of Seaford, and the Scott concern at a low bid price of $217,000.

The surface treatment work in New Castle County is being done by Cities Service Bituminous Co., of Wilmington, at a cost of $175,000 and in addition there is also a hot mix contract amounting to $498,000 with E. Earle Downing, of Wilmington as the contractor. This work will involve the surfacing of a number of a number of streets in suburban developments in New Castle County. A similar program for these streets in Kent County will amount to $25,000.

School Pictures to Be Taken Monday

School pictures will be taken at Harrington School on Monday and Tuesday.

Monday, high school students and faculty will have pictures made, and at 2:30 pre-school children will be photographed. Grade school pictures will be taken Tuesday.

Pictures will be in color.

Eastern Star Sees
Square Dancers

Four couples of square dancers, of the Diamond State Twirlers Square Dance Club, performed Wednesday night, Sept. 5, before the Eastern Star at the New Century Club.

Kent Indicts
2 in Murders

Kent County's grand jury Tuesday indicted a wife for shooting her husband and a son for beating his father to death.

In both cases the charge is first degree murder.

Mrs. Sara Rose Lane, 47, of Houston, is accused of shooting her husband, Ashton, last Aug. 2, while Philip Homer White, 21, of Harrington, is charged with beating his father to death with a monkey wrench, on Aug. 25. The father, Homer, was 41.

A total of 30 indictments for breaking and entering were also returned against three young Middletown men.

James L. Lloyd, 19, and Philip L. Weidlein, 23, were each indicted on 11 counts, while Willard V. Green, 20, was charged with 8 crimes. The alleged burglaries occurred in the Smyrna and Dover area between last April 30 and June 5.

In its second day of work the grand jury also returned nine indictments for forgery against Mrs. Edna Mae Phillips, 21, of Hartly.

She is accused of passing nine bad checks last April.

Dates for trial in Kent County Superior Court will be set later.

Carvel Foresees
State Boom

Gov. Elbert N. Carvel forecast a rosy business future for Delaware at a press conference Tuesday morning.

"The economic health of the state looks brighter every day, especially the downstate economic health," he said.

Carvel mentioned the decision by General Foods Corp. to build a processing plant at Dover and Leeds Travelwear, Inc., building a plant and warehouse at Clayton, as indications of the stepped-up economic pace.

Besides, the governor added, the development department is working on several "red hot" prospects for other new industries.

The chief executive referred to the August issue of Delaware Business Conditions, published by the Diamond State Telephone Co., as reflecting the rising economic trend in Delaware.

He pointed out the telephone company's index of Delaware business reached a record high in July.

The governor gave some political reasons for the improved condition. President Kennedy, he said, started to get the country moving. In Delaware, he added, the State Highway Department's construction program has stimulated business.

Carvel conceded that Delaware may be lagging in federal funds participation for highway work, but will soon be moving ahead of other states.

He observed that, when he was inaugurated in January, 1961, Delaware had 14,000 unemployed. The figure dropped to 2,800 unemployed on July 15.

"This is good progress," he said, "but we won't be satisfied until it's down to the absolute minimum 2,000 to 3,000.

"There always will be some unemployed," he added.

The governor made a pitch for increased expenditures for travel promotion in Delaware.

The state Development Department's budget should be doubled to $100,000, he said.

The governor quoted Edwin Golin, director of the Development Department, as saying that, for every additional dollar spent to encourage travel, the state would realize $100 worth of additional business.

He said, "It's encouraging that business is recognizing Delaware's business advantages." He mentioned the lack of state real estate taxes and sales taxes as inducements to new industry.

Nat. Conference
Slated for Sept. 16

Dr. George R. Miller Jr., state superintendent of schools, has been designated by Gov. Elbert N. Carvel as Delaware's representative at the seventeenth annual National Conference on Citizenship which will be held in the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Washington, D. C., September 16-19.

This will be the eleventh year in which Dr. Miller has represented Delaware at this conference.

Dr. Miller, as Governor Carvel's personal representative, will take part in an impressive wreath laying ceremony at the Washington Monument the afternoon of Sept. 17. This ceremony, participated in by representatives of each of the thirteen original states, highlights the nationwide observance of "Citizenship Day," which annually commemorates the anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States in Philadelphia, Sept. 17, 1787. (Delaware received its title of "First State" by becoming the first to ratify this Constitution on December 7, 1787).

In a recently issued statement Governor Carvel endorsed plans for Delaware's observance of Monday, Sept. 17, as "Citizenship Day" and the period, Sept. 17 through 23, as "Constitution Week," and urged all Delawareans to participate in events connected with such observance.

Board of Health
Appoints Director

The appointment of Miss Elizabeth M. Ogden, R.N., as director of the division of Public Health Nursing, Delaware State Board of Health, has been announced by Dr. Floyd I. Hudson, executive director. She succeeds Miss Mary M. Klaes, who was with the Board of Health 32 years, serving as director of Public Health Nursing for 17 years.

Miss Ogden comes to Delaware with excellent qualifications for her new position. She is a graduate of Cornell University New York Hospital School of Nursing and the Pierce School of Business Administration in Philadelphia. She has advanced credits from the University of Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia Normal School, Teachers College of Columbia University and a M.S. degree in education from the University of Pennsylvania.

Miss Ogden's experience in her field has been wide and varied. She has served as clinical nurse and consultant nurse for the U.S. Public Health Service assigned to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration in

Plenty To Do Downstate This Week

There will be plenty to do in lower Delaware this week advises the Delaware State Development Department.

According to the state information and promotion agency, the following events are to be held at downstate sites this week: "Seahorse Week" at Rehoboth Beach; "Old Milford Days" at Milford; nocturnal harness racing at the Delaware State Fair Grounds, Harrington; and a yachting regatta on the Indian River Bay.

"Seahorse Week," featuring more than a dozen competitive events, including Deep Sea fishing competition for the ladies, is now underway at Rehoboth Beach.

The Deep Sea Fishing Tournament, which has been dubbed the "Powder Puff Deep Sea Derby," is limited to members of the fair sex and continues through Sunday. Trophies and prizes are to be awarded for the largest trolling and bottom catches. Members of the Indian River Captains Association are serving as judges.

Running concurrently with the ladies deep sea fishing event is a Surf and Bay Fishing Tournament open to everyone. Prizes and trophies are to be awarded in each of five classes. Mac's Bait House at Dewey Beach has been designated as the official judging station for this week-long competition.

The Delaware State Senior Men's Golfing Championships will be staged at the Rehoboth Beach Country Club this Saturday and Sunday. This competition is limited to those golfers who have reached their 50th birthday by September 15 and Delaware State Golf Association rules will apply. Engraved Silver trophies will be awarded winners and runners-up in each of four classes.

Bowling tournaments — men and women, singles and doubles, will be staged at the Rehoboth Bowling Lanes, this Friday and Saturday with prizes awarded for the best scores in each category. Special exhibits, now on display in the studios of the Rehoboth Art League in Henlopen Acres, will continue through the remainder of September according to the Development Department.

Seventeen Milford area homes and buildings will be open this weekend to the several hundred visitors expected to participate in the first annual "Old Milford Days." Also on display, in public buildings and downtown store windows, will be many interesting collections of relics from Milford's history-packed past.

Of particular interest to "Old Milford Days" visitors will be the Parson Thorne Mansion located on "Silver Hill" in the northwestern section of the city. This "newest" of Delaware's many historical shrines and tourist attractions is believed to be the oldest dwelling in the area and was the home of the Rev. Sydenham Thorne, co-founder with Joseph Oliver of Milford.

An English colonial type structure, assumed to have been built about the time of the American Revolution, it still retains many of its original features including paneling and stairways.

A small family burial plot adjacent to the building contains the graves of the parents of John M. Clayton, a Delawarean who attained international stature as secretary of state in President Zachary Taylor's cabinet.

Another Milford area showplace that will be open on "Old Milford Days" is "Mordington," the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie March.

Situated on a tree-shaded knoll overlooking McCauley's Pond and surrounded by lawns and flower gardens, this outstanding example of Georgian architecture was built around 1777 and was at one time a "station" on the "underground railroad" used by runaway slaves enroute to the North and freedom. While a tunnel used by these slaves has long since been sealed off, evidence of slave quarters may still be seen in cellar and on the surrounding grounds. According to local legend, a slave girl, who reputedly jumped out of an upstairs window a century or more ago, "revisited" Mordington as late as the mid-1930's.

The Marches have restored much of the interior and have furnished the house with antiques contemporary to Colonial and post-Revolutionary War periods. Tour hours for "Old Milford Days" are from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday. Proceeds from the tours and from sale of a newly compiled "History of Milford" will be used by the Milford Historical Society for the restoration of the Parson Thorne Mansion.

The annual fall meet of the Kent & Sussex Racing Association gets underway this Saturday evening at the Delaware State Fairgrounds at Harrington. Thirty nights (excluding Sundays) of harness racing will be featured. Pari-mutuel betting facilities will be available and post time will be 8 o'clock each evening.

The annual Indian River Invitational Regatta will be held on Indian River and Indian River Bay waters near Oak Orchard this weekend. Entries from seven states will compete in C.B.Y.R. A-sanctioned competition featuring both "lightnings" and "penquins." The first race is scheduled for 10 o'clock Saturday morning with additional races at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and 11 a.m. Sunday.

Sheep Referendum Set for Sept.

Delaware sheep growers and lamb feeders are getting a real bargain for their investment in advertising and promotion through the American Sheep Producers Council, reports Calvin Hollis Jr. of Houston.

Hollis, Jr., local sheepman, urged all sheep growers to vote "yes" in the September referendum which will decide whether or not the promotion program of the Council will continue. Sheepmen pay for the ASPC work through deductions from National Wool Act payments.

"During the first five years of the Wool Act," said Hollis, Jr., "Delaware sheep operators were paid $20,520. In 1960 they received $4,121. Of this amount, $224 or 5.46% was deducted for ASPC and spent for advertising and promoting lamb and wool in major consumer markets across the nation."

Hollis, Jr. said the average Delaware sheep owner was paid $7,631 in 1960 and that $4.20 went for promotion. "Every year," he continued, "our industry faces tougher competition for the consumer dollar. We would be foolish not to expect the competition to intensify as new products and cheap imports increase. We can help ourselves to meet this competition if we advertise and promote our products."

"It is interesting to consider what we, as sheep owners, spend to sell our product," continued Hollis, Jr., "when compared with other industries. In 1960, we spent about 0.6% of our gross income for advertising. We are told that the national average is about 2.4% and that some go as high as 15 to 20%."

Every major sheep grower and feeder organization in the U. S. has expressed a favorable opinion of the work of ASPC, according to Hollis, Jr. He said that leaders in the industry are asking all sheep owners to vote in the September referendum to establish firmly the views of industry members.

Farm Labor Report

State Summary

Some badly needed rain fell in the state in the wake of tropical storm "Alma". However, in most areas the rainfall was light and came too late except for late plantings of soybeans and field limas still in the blossom stage. Most of the corn crop was already made and the rain was of little benefit. Harvesting is generally nearing its end and labor should not be much of a problem from now on to the end of the season. The potato harvest is down to the last 15-20% with many growers having completed their digging. The lima bean crop is past the halfway mark with a reduction in yield and too large a percentage of white beans due to hot, dry weather. Melons and cantaloupes are about over. Peach picking is near the end and fall apples are starting to come in. Lack of rain is evident in fruit not sizing up. Late varieties may still benefit from fall rains. Potato crews are filling in on other crops as they complete the potato harvest.

Wilmington Area

Some potatoes still in the ground but growers making an effort to get the harvest completed. Sweet corn will end this week. Tomatoes over with in most locations. Adequate labor for remaining harvest.

Dover Area

The important Kent County potato harvest is nearly completed most growers have the crop all dug and others are trying to get finished as soon as possible. Sweet corn for processing at an end with some late local market varieties still being picked. The tomato harvest is over except for a few scattered plantings. Late snap beans, cabbage and cauliflower not ready yet for harvesting. Labor looking around for fill in jobs until late crops are ready. No shortage of harvest labor appears likely.

Georgetown Area

Lima bean harvest past the 50 per cent mark with yield and quality severely cut by the extended dry weather. Tomatoes, melons and cantaloupes all near the end of the harvest. Heavy picking of peppers still on. Late apples coming on with some poor sizing noted due to drought. Labor appears sufficient for remaining season.

Migrant Crews

We have three or four crews available for work in other areas. They should complete work here this week. All are mixed, male and female, and will take work in any nearby state. If interested call Farm Placement Representative Ronald A. Grier, Area Code 302, Phone 734-7438.

Gear Lining Fabric to Use

If you're a home sewer, you've probably wondered what kind of lining fabric to use.

Katie Thomas, Kent County Home Demonstration agent, says the choice depends on what fabric you use for your garment and what you plan to accomplish with the lining.

Lining that is sewed separately from the garment, such as in coats and jackets and sometimes in skirts, should make the garment easier to slip on, she says. It also protects the inside of the garment fabric and hides the inner construction. Lining may also be used to hold the shape of a skirt.

So, look for fabrics that have a smooth surface, will feel comfortable on the body and will not stretch or yarn-slip in wear. Some fabrics that have these features are twills, tissue faille and taffeta. Such fabrics as crepes, satins and some of the sheath fabrics that yarn-slip or stretch are not a good choice where keeping the garment shape is important, although they may be satisfactory for lining a jacket or coat.

Mrs. Thomas says lining that is sewn along with garment, sometimes called underlining, may be used for one or more of the following reasons: (1) to keep the garment from clinging, (2) to give the garment body and (3) to help hold shape of garment.

If you plan to line to give the garment body, choose a material a little firmer, but not heavier, than the garment fabric. If you plan to wash the garment, be sure the underlining fabric is also washable.

Materials that help give body to the garment as well as keep it from clinging, depending on the outer fabric, include organdy, silk organza, batiste, voile, lawn, taffeta, tissue faille, China silk, or sheath lining and the non-woven fabrics. The non-woven fabrics add a definite stiffness but will not prevent a garment from stretching.

Fabrics that help hold the shape of the garment include taffeta, tissue faille and sheath lining.

Sept. 21 Deadline For Wool Vote

If you are eligible to vote in the referendum on the wool market-promotion program, get your ballot in no later than Friday, Sept. 21. This last-minute reminder was issued by R. Harry Wilson, chairman, Kent Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee at Dover. To be "eligible," the producer must have owned sheep or lambs, 6 months of age or older, for any one period of at least 30 days since Jan. 1 of this year.

Balloting may take place at the ASCS county office serving the county where the producer's farm or ranch headquarters is located—anytime during the 2-week period Sept. 10 through 21. The ballots may be cast either in person or by mail.

The chairman emphasized that the referendum will not affect the wool payment program itself. This was extended for four more years under legislation enacted last summer.

The voting will determine whether growers want to continue financing wool and lamb market-promotion activities through deductions from the wool payments they receive. The market-promotion activities are carried out under an agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and the American Sheep Producers Council, as authorized by law. If growers vote approval, the agreement will be extended for four more years. To be approved, the agreement must be favored by producers having at least 2/3 of the volume of production represented by the total vote. Under similar agreements, in effect since the 1955 marketing year, deductions have amounted to .01 per lb. from shorn wool payments and .15 per cwt. from unshorn lambs payments. Deductions under the new agreement would not exceed these amounts. Mr. Wilson said that all growers should have received their ballots through the mail by Sept. 10. Any producer who believes that he is eligible to vote and who has not received his ballot should get in touch with the ASCS County office right away.

Plenty To Do At Resort Areas

Although the Delaware coastal resort area is now quiet compared to the hustle and bustle found there during the recent Labor Day holiday period, visitors will still find plenty to do at the Delaware beaches advises the Delaware State Development Department.

According to the state promotion agency, September and early October are still "vacationtime" along the Delaware shore. In fact, the claim is made that this is one of the most enjoyable periods of the year due to the warm waters, bright sunshine, and cool, pleasant evenings that characterize early fall along Delaware's "Riviera Coast."

Swimming, whether it be in the ocean or an inland bay, is particularly enjoyable during September, and fishing, one of the main diversions of Delawareans and Delaware visitors throughout the year, generally gets better as the days become shorter and the evening become cooler. Throughout the fall, devotees of boating, water-skiing, crabbing and clamming continue to enjoy their favorite sport at nearby inland bays.

The lower "off-season" rates, that go into effect in mid-September at many of the area's tourist facilities, also undoubtedly has considerable appeal for those who can take their vacations in the early fall, notes the Development Department.

Harrington Motor Co. to Have Open House

Gayle B. Smith and the sales staff of Harrington Motor Company returned from Hershey, Pa., Tuesday, loaded with chocolate and full of enthusiasm for the 1963 line of Chevrolet. The new models were introduced to approximately 1600 Chevrolet dealers and salesmen in a spectacular musical production at the mammoth Hershey auditorium and arena on Sept. 11.

According to Mr. Smith "The thirteen models in the elegant Chevrolet line have been dramatically restyled while maintaining the same basic dimensions. The interiors and dash treatment is completely new and beautifully detailed. Outstanding in the show," he said, "was the new Impala Super Sport Coupe with vinyl top and a new arrangement of drive controls in the redesigned console."

Harrington Motor Company is planning a gala local showing and "Open House" to present the entire line of 1963 Chevrolets to everyone in this area.

Freshmen Arrive For Orientation

Over 1200 new students, capped with blue and yellow dinks and clasping handbooks, were welcomed to the University of Delaware for the start of orientation week activities.
The new students and their parents were greeted by President John A. Perkins, representatives of the office of the dean of students, residence hall directors and over 100 junior counselors at various times of the day. While the students were engaged in registering and getting acquainted with campus facilities, parents attended their own orientation period—a lecture by Dr. G. Gorham Lane, professor of psychology, who spoke on "The Parent's Freshman Year."

"The freshman year, for many a youth, will be a first opportunity to try out independent living. As parents you will have to help him to have this opportunity," advised Dr. Lane. "Yet the parents cannot go too far, for youth still needs guidance and love."

Pointing out that while the student will receive guidance at the university, he will be thrown more on his own than ever before, Dr. Lane said that the university and the parents probably "will have to suffer through many a set-back before the process is completed. No really mature person ever grows up without a struggle."
Dr. Lane urged parents to neither leave their students on their own too much nor to guide them too strictly, but to allow them to find their own places and determine their own ambitions. "You are indeed on a tight-rope, but if you successfully manage to tread across from one side to the other, both you and your son or daughter will be ready to become full-fledged sophomores."

SHD to Erect New Bridge

Plans have been announced by the State Highway Department for a new alignment, and the erection of a new bridge, along the southbound lane of Route 13, at Drawer's Creek, North of Odessa.
Bids on this project will be received Sept. 18 and the specifications provide for its completion in 185 working days. The project covers 0.69 miles.
The new alignment will start devoted to advisement, testing and arranging schedules for the fall semester. New students will have a chance to become acquainted with each other and with campus activities through social events that include a president's reception and a picnic supper.

They also will have to become familiar with university traditions and regulations contained in the student handbook. It will be the job of the sophomore class to see that the freshmen properly adapt to college life and catch the spirit of the campus. A sophomore court will discipline those who fail to abide by freshmen rules.
Upperclassmen will arrive on campus Thursday to meet with their advisers and set up class schedules. All students will register Friday, with the start of classes scheduled for Monday.

William J. Miller, Jr., director of operations for the Highway Department, informed the members of the Department, at their meeting, concerning the project and displayed a drawing of the project which displayed the improvement in the alignment.
Joseph M. Fox, Bridge Engineer for the Highway Department, under whose direction the plans for the project were prepared, said the new alignment operations did not include the removal of the present bridge and that it was possible it may be permitted to remain for use by fishermen.

Lions Club News

The first fall meeting of the Harrington Lions Club was held at the Wonder R Restaurant on Monday evening with president Lester Smith, presiding. The president outlined plans for the coming year and named the projects that the club will be undertaking. It was stated that the local club again will sponsor a home and garden show March 1, 2 and 3. This proved to be quite popular with the surrounding communities last year. Also President Smith appointed chairmen for the various Lion affairs for the coming year.

Zone chairman, Curtis Melvin, inducted Nyle Calloway, Jr. into the club as the first new member of the year. He briefly outlined to the new member the duties expected of him and stated the rewards that will be his in deciding to become a member of the Harrington Lions Club and Lions International.

The local club decided to present a trophy at the local harness race meet and to sponsor a Lions night at the races.

The Lions Club is sponsoring all the Boy Scout activities in the community for the coming year.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Notes

The flowers are given to the glory of God by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Nelson. 13th Sunday after Trinity. 8 a.m. Holy Communion. 9:30 a.m. Church School. 11 a.m. Holy Communion and sermon. 12:15 p.m. coffee hour. 2:30 Softball game at High School between All Saints' and St. Stephen's. Tues., 7 p.m. Discussion group and Holy Communion and LOH. Thurs., 10 a.m. Leader's conference; 7 p.m. Youth Choir rehearsal; 7:45 p.m. adult and youth choir rehearsal. It will be our pleasure Sunday to administer the sacrament of Baptism to Karen Sue Poore and Richard Sean Seely, the infant children of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poore, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seely, respectively. The congregation welcomes its newest members with a special prayer for their spiritual growth throughout their lives. The coffee hour will in a way be a celebration of their admission into Christ's Church. It is our pleasure, also, to announce the arrival of the newest member of our church family, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller, little Hewitt Daniel, born at Milford Hospital Sept. 5, at 10:47 p.m. and weighing 9 pounds 1 1/2 ounces. Congratulations Don and Alwilda and our special prayers are for a long and glorious life for Hewitt Daniel. Sunday, we begin again our coffee hours for the fall and winter. Mrs. Augustus Raughley is in charge of these fellowship hours which are put on by the Women of St. Stephen's. Let us show our appreciation and also our joy over the initiation of our new members and the arrival of our newest church member by remaining for this coffee hour. August 26, when our softball team tied up St. Martin's to end with a 12-12 score, the grandstands were literally filled with St. Stephen's supporters. Our youth appreciated this and we crave your support again this Sunday at 2:30 when All Saints' of Delmar will come to the High School to engage our team. The vicar will attend a diocesan Christian Social Relations dinner meeting in Dover Monday evening. After talking with those who have formerly attended the Tuesday Holy Communion and healing service, it has been decided that more of St. Stephen's own people can and will attend at a different time. Therefore, the service will hereafter be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, beginning with a discussion in the Parish House and followed by Holy Communion and the Laying on of Hands at 7:45 p.m. Please notice the new arrangement of time for the choir practices on Thursdays. Both choirs will be singing at our 11 o'clock service of divine worship and by having an overlapping time from approximately 7:45 to 8:15, their contributions to the service can be co-ordinated. The Feast of St. Matthew which falls on this Thursday will be celebrated at the 8 o'clock Holy Communion service Sunday morning, Sept. 23. All ladies of the church are urged to attend the Leaders' Conference to be held at Christ Church, Dover, Sept. 20, at 10 a.m. Do plan to attend, transportation can be arranged by calling the parish office.

Delaware Food Market Report The price of steer beef has gone up to its highest level in 4 years, and so consumers can expect to find high prices on all beef cuts in the coming weeks. Although a few beef items will be featured on special sales, expect these special prices to be higher than they had been. Broilers and turkeys continue to be economical meat choices. Prices have gone up a few pennies on both of these meats in the past two or three weeks but even so they are still reasonable. Other meats to check for specials are pork loins and butts, boneless veal roasts and some lamb cuts. Fishing operations have been good although reports are that high winds could curtail production. The best buys at this department are porgies, whittings, flounder, pollock, bluefish, spots and mullet. A new season for oysters has started. Other shellfish to choose from include hard clams, hard crabs, crabmeat, fresh and frozen shrimp and scallops. A changing season is quite evident at most fresh fruit and vegetable counters since many autumn products are beginning to come in. Most of the summer vegetables are still on hand in sufficient supply to keep prices down at a reasonable level. Among the plentiful this week are: cabbage, dry onions, snap and lima beans, corn, eggplant, white potatoes and sweet potatoes. Good salad choices include endive, escarole, green onions, radishes, green peppers, tomatoes and some lettuce. All types of squash are in good supply—acorn, butternut, yellow straight necks and green Italian types. "Greens" are in much better supply now. There's more kale so far, than anything else, but mustard greens and some turnip greens came in this week. Parsnips, brussels sprouts, broccoli and cauliflower are all available and prices are reasonable. Top fruit choices are: Bartlett pears, Thompson seedless grapes, bananas and melons. More apples are reaching local markets now as harvesting has begun. There are many more Red and Golden Delicious apples available this week. These are ideal for lunch boxes and for in-between-meal eating. Egg prices continue to show no change this week. Careful shopping is a must this weekend if you are to save a penny or two.

Zwaanendael Museum Notes

The annual meeting of the Lewes Memorial Commission was held in Lewes on Wed., Aug. 29, at the call of the chairman, Honorable Harold W. T. Purnell of Georgetown. After an inspection of the exhibits and the building, the members convened for their business meeting in the Lewes Commissioner's Council Room in the new town hall in Lewes. The agenda of the business meeting included consideration of building up-keep, the budget for the next fiscal year, the election of officers, and the extension of the displays to the second floor of the building which was recently vacated by the Lewes Library Commission. All of the previous officers were re-elected as follows: Honorable Harold W. T. Purnell as chairman, Mrs. D. Anthony Potter, of Lewes, vice chairman, and Leon deValinger, Jr., state archivist of Dover, as secretary. Other members of the commission present at the meeting were Hon. Howard H. Dickerson, of Laurel; Mrs. Harry C. Boden, of Newark; Mrs. Vadne Kemper, and Lawrence B. Knapp, of Lewes, and William Smith, of Dover. The curator, Mrs. Dorothy L. Collins, of Lewes, reported that approximately 15,000 visitors were in the Zwaanendael Museum during the fiscal year ending July 1962. From the register, it was found that these visitors had come from 48 states, all except Rhode Island and Idaho, and from 22 foreign countries. They included school groups from all three counties of Delaware, Home Demonstration Clubs, 4-H Clubs, Scout Troops, children from the Children's Beach House on Lewes Beach, and many others. The staff has endeavored to greet every visitor, tell them something of the Zwaanendael settlement, the building and the history. They have often directed the tourists to other historic places in Delaware, and answered their many questions with the hope of contributing to the pleasure of their vacations in Delaware. The Zwaanendael Museum is open the year round, every day except Monday. The visiting hours are Tuesday through Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Sundays from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. Farm Facts More farmers should grow winter barley for use on farms where barley is well suited. Winter barley is a valuable feed grain. On favorable soils, barley yields more pounds per acre than any other small grain. Because barley matures from one to two weeks ahead of winter wheat or winter oats, it favors double cropping with lima beans and soybeans. Legume stands have often been observed to be better in winter barley than in other winter grains. Wong and Early Wong are varieties currently recommended. Hay Stretchers The shortage of hay this fall points to some things dairymen can do to solve the problem. 1. Cull low producers, beef prices are high, get a good price for beef and save the hay for the good producers. 2. Sell your bull—save the hay for the herd. Artificial breeding is cheaper, better, and safer. 3. Don't buy hay—buy corn, barley, citrus or beet pulp as a substitute. They are worth twice as much as good hay but don't cost twice as much. 4. Feed more grain to high producing cows. Good cows properly milked will make more money this way than by limited grain feeding. Fall Pastures Lack Quality Don't be fooled by the looks of fall pastures. They don't have the high nutritive value they did earlier in the season. High-producing cows will need plenty of extra stored feed if they're to maintain top production. Feed them all the good quality hay or silage they will eat—and it's important to start feeding stored roughage before their production drops. Feed grain, too. Add enough high-protein supplement feed to your farm grains to make about a 15 per cent protein ration. Safety Tips You can make sure farm workers on-the-job are much safer around machinery by following three safety practices: 1. Allow only those workers whose duties require it to be on or near machinery. Keep all others away. 2. For workers on or near machines, show them exactly how to do the job, point out the dangers of the machine, and have them check with you or their supervisor when the machine needs adjustment. 3. Watch the worker perform his new job until you are satisfied he is doing it safely, and check back occasionally to see if he is still doing it the safe way. A few moments in advance to give workers some safety pointers about machines will go a long way to produce a harvest of safety for the workers and you.

Century Club Notes

Mrs. Francis Winkler, president of the Harrington New Century Club will head a group of women from the local club who will attend the D.S.F.W.C. Kent County Institute Sept. 18. The meeting will be held in the Whatcoat Methodist Church, Camden, beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing until 2:30 p.m. Attending with Mrs. Winkler will be Mrs. William Shaw, State Health chairman, and Mrs. Charles L. Peck, Jr. state scholarship chairman; Mrs. Leonard Masten, club treasurer, and Mrs. William Sharp, who has been asked to give the invocation at the luncheon to be held at 12:30. Because this is such an important meeting, dealing with the work of each of the state topics, all local chairmen are urged to attend. All members are cordially invited also, in order to learn more of the goals of the administration for the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs. Reservations for the luncheon must be made by Sat., Sept. 12. Mrs. Vincent Lobo, Jr. has extended the local deadline until Friday, Sept. 11 in order to give all members of the Harrington Club an opportunity to make plans to go. Call her today.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS Q—What happened to the old Veterans Bureau? A—The Veterans Bureau was established August 9, 1921, and took over the functions of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance as well as those vocational training duties which had been handled by the Federal Board for Vocational Education, and those duties of the Public Health Service that had to do with physical examinations, care and treatment of veterans. Nine years later, in July, 1930, the functions of the Pension Bureau of the Interior Department and the functions of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers were added to the work of the Veterans Bureau and the entire organization was re-named the Veterans Administration. Q—How much was paid out as a "bonus" to World War I veterans? A—Under the Veterans Readjusted Compensation Act of 1936, the VA has paid out just over $3.8 billion. Q—Has the so-called "Peace-time Veterans Education Act" been passed by this session of Congress? A—No act nor law providing Federal education for "peacetime" servicemen had been passed by Congress as of August 15, 1962. SHOP AND SWAP IN THE WANT ADS

"Sports Odds And Ends"

Bill Moldoch, a member of the Denton Bobcats of the old Mar-Del Basketball League, was at Wheeler's Park last week. Moldoch, Diffie, Prosen, Nuttle, Hughes, Lane and Co. had some hotly-contested games with the Harrington entry in the league. Bill is now principal of the new Colonel Richardson High School at American Corners. This school came about with the consolidation of Federalsburg and Preston. We asked how the new football team there was coming along. It seems that every team in the area wants to scrimmage the new school and right now, Moldoch says any sessions of this type must wait another month until his boys forget soccer and learn football.

Harry Anthony, erstwhile Harrington High baseball player, now living in Bear, played on the Fairwinds softball team which won their second straight flag in the Mid-County League. The victory margin was six games.

Ken Thorpe, of Harrington, is a starting halfback on the Wm. Henry High team in Dover. Ken is a former junior high state champion in the 220 yard dash. The quarterback and fullback at the Dover school are Newsome and Morris, both of Houston.

Bob Edgerton, of Milton High, has all of his basketball candidates come out for cross-country in the fall so that when the cage season starts in December they are all strong of leg and sound of wind. Last year his well-conditioned hoopsters won the championship in the 11-team Henlopen Conference. Felton and Greenwood basketball fans please take note.

Wes Stack, of Seaford, was feted there Saturday night. He couldn't make the football team at Seaford High so he came out for track and with determination and hard work became one of the outstanding distance men in Eastern Collegiate circles. Wes was named the outstanding athlete at the University of Delaware for the year of 1960-61. Wes won the three-mile run at the fair here, for three straight years. Yet, as a high school senior, he was unable to defeat Harrington High's Dwight Hackett, then a freshman in the mile run. Stack's best high school mile was 5:05. Contrast this with Bob Smith's 4:48 mile recorded this summer after Smith's freshman year.

X-Country Interest At Peak

The Cross-Country team at Harrington High School has a record list of 26 applicants as the Lions make ready to enter their fifth year of competition. Five years ago the first squad at H.H.S. had 11 harriers. Almost every year since has seen more aspirants try their courage and endurance on the rugged 2.4 miles Killen's Pond course.

One reason for the increasing popularity of the sport is the fact, that it is the only sport in which tiny Harrington can field a team which is capable of beating the biggest and best schools in the state. For example in four trips upstate to compete in the Delaware State Championships at Rockford Park, Wilmington, the locals have finished ahead of P. S. duPont and Wm. Penn each time. Wilmington High has trailed the Lions three times as has Newark. Salesianum with 1200 boys, the largest male enrollment in the state, has split even with H.H.S. in four meetings. Harry Knotts, 1960 state champion, was the only state meet winner south of Wilmington. Clarence Hackett, fifth last year while living here is at present ranked No 1 in this state. Both these lads and one or two other have been and are being wooed by colleges with promises of partial or full athletic scholarships.

Another reason for the large turnout here is that boys who do not fit any other sport may excel. Allen Wix was a competent performer, who was the difference between winning and losing several times, yet he scaled under 90 pounds and was under five feet in height.

Two mighty mites on the 1962 model are Danny Hicks and Dennis Spicer. Together they weigh 148 pounds. Neither is higher than 4 ft. 10 inches. Yet each lad is improving steadily and after only two workouts both are under 18 minutes for 2.4 miles. Several other harriers would not be given a second look by any football coach.

Freshman Roger Redden tried the course, blacktop road and all, in his bare feet and was clocked in amazing time for one so young, inexperienced and ill shod.

George Bonniwell's 13:50 is still the fastest workout of 1962. Ken Garey and Bob Smith, who are expected to team with Bonniwell, Randy Knox, and Dennis Rogers to form a strong quintet, have not been timed this season as both have been working out mightily with the football team. At H.H.S. football gets first call on those lads, who play both sports. These dual performers miss very few pigskin sessions due to Coach Harold McDonald's method of scheduling, which states all cross-country meets the day before a football game. This day is usually an off day for most football teams. However, there are those zealots, who would deny these busy farm lads, extremely small boys and other misfits from a football standpoint, a chance to compete at all. This is a regrettable point of view similar to the small boy who owns the ball and who says "Play my game, my way or I will take my ball and go home." In short, it is being about as narrow-minded as you can get to say that only one sport has any merit at all.

Smyrna Eagles Scrimmage Lions

The Smyrna High Eagles football team had a practice scrimmage with Coach Bill Santo's Harrington High Lions Saturday morning on the local field. Practice was held at Harrington High during the latter part of August but only a small group of candidates reported. Thus, against Smyrna two-thirds of the Lions were playing with only two or three workouts under their belts. In such a situation injuries often occur. Dame Fortune smiled on Harrington this time so "All is well that ends well".

Smyrna was held to short gains the first time the visitors handled the pigskin. The Lions moved as well as the Eagles during the next series.

When the foe from the Diamond State Conference started to mix up their plays they began to cross the goal line at will. At one stage three straight passes clicked for scores. Apparently the August sessions at Smyrna were well attended.

The locals defended much better against ground plays. Edward Harcum is turning into a bearcat on defense. In our opinion this year's line should be better than the 1961 edition.

Harrington will be stronger when Barry Fry and Louis Starkey return to the lineup.

No score was kept in the Smyrna tilt as is customary in scrimmages. Larry Garey and Jeff Adams scored for the Lions.

Junior Football League Hosts Buddy Dean Hop

President Jack Swain, of the Harrington Junior Football League has announced that his group will sponsor a Buddy Dean Hop at the Harrington Armory Friday evening, Sept. 14. Tickets are $1 each for everyone and can be purchased at the door. Football fans in the community are urged to come out and support this dance.

Plans are underway to give the boys in the league increased insurance protection this season. Ken Schaper will head the Colts for the second straight year. Bill Morris, of near Masten's Corner, has replaced Cliff Chambers as leader of the Bears.

Tom Mulcahy has resigned as coach of the champion Eagles, due to the fact that his job schedule conflicts with practice hours set up by the league. Assistant coach Ted Layton, is a possibility to take over the helm.

Jim Hawpe to Coach Jr. Hi Lions

Jim Hawpe is drilling 25 bidders for starting jobs on the Harrington Junior High football team. We will try to get the schedule for this team in next week's issue.

Ruritans Win Final Playoffs

The Ruritan Club, pennant winner of the Harrington Softball

League, is also playoff champion after winning four straight in the finals.

The post season competition ran true to form as the second place Bill's Barber Shop nine won twice from the fourth place Jaycees by scores of 16-7 and 14-7.

The Ruritans survived a first game scare when they took a 6-5 squeaker from third place Stone's Hotel. The champs then romped with a 14-3 triumph over Stone's and 19-5, 17-6 victories over Bill's Barber Shop.

Tonight (Thursday) a team from the local league will tackle a team from Gumboro. Starting time is 8 p.m.

Sports Goods Pro Gives Golf Clinic

Jimmy Thomson, long-ball hitter and former competitive golf professional, now a representative of the Dunlop firm, conducted an hour-and-a-half clinic Wednesday afternoon at Shawnee Country Club, Milford.

In the early afternoon, Thomson teamed up with Bill Entwistle, Shawnee pro, to defeat Bill McBride, Dover Air aBase pro, and Denny aWiters, Maple Dale pro, Dover, three up.

Barbecued chicken was served after the clinic.

At the clinic, Thomson reviewed the basic swings of golf to a crowd. In the preceding match, the most noticeable difference in the play of the pro and the non-pros was their long-ball hitting.

Trinity W.S.C.S. Notes

Miss Susie Gilstad and Miss Sandra Whistler spoke to the Woman's Society of Christian Service on Tuesday evening, Sept. 11. They had been sponsored at Camp Pe-Co-Meth for the second year by the Society, and they gave a fine report on their beneficial experiences.

Devotions were led by the new spiritual life secretary, Mrs. Randall Knox, Jr.

Mrs. Sam Williams, president, announced the Dover District Officers' Training Session to be held at Avenue Methodist Church in Milford at 10 a.m. Sept. 20.

Mrs. Wilbur Jacobs, secretary of supply, told of the askings—our second mile giving. The Society will send $11 to George A. Robinson School, $10 to Riddle Memorial Deaconess Home and $5.50 to Japan.

Members will be privileged to participate in two study courses this year. "Today's Children for Tomorrow's World" will be taught by Rev. Olin Shockley, and will be held four consecutive Tuesday nights beginning Oct. 9. The Rev. Charles Poukisk will conduct the class on "Prayer" in March 1963.

Mrs. Arnold Gildstad reported on the highlights of a Dover District Executive Committee meeting she attended early in September.

The second step in the crusade for more adequate facilities for the Peninsula Conference projects is another $1 per member. The Society treasurer will accept these contributions until January 1963.

Mrs. Baynard Smith gave a sunshine report for the summer months.

The annual bazaar will be held Sat., September 29 in conjunction with the fall supper prepared by the O.U.R. Sunday School Class. Mrs. Earl Sylvester, bazaar chairman, told of the progress being made.
