Five candidates will go to the post tomorrow afternoon for a single vacancy on the Board of Education in Harrington Special School District.

In Harrington, voting will take place from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m., daylight saving time, at Harrington High School and at West Side Elementary School.

The candidates are as follows: Mrs. Musetta Cox, president of the Board of Education, up for re-election; James W. Rash, William J. Irwin, Melville C. Taylor, and William J. Walls.

The race promises to be a tight one, more because of the number of candidates than anything else.

Mrs. Musetta Cox, William Irwin, James Rash, Melville Taylor and William Walls recently attended a meeting with the Jaycees and each gave their views on why they were running for the office of the School Board and what changes, if any, they would recommend if elected.

Speed Big Factor in Safe Driving

Crashing an automobile at 60 miles per hour is equivalent to driving off a nine-story building a safety official declared recently.

J. James Ashton, manager of the Delaware Safety Council, said that drivers who are inclined to drive too fast for prevailing conditions would do well to think about the hazards involved. Crashing into a tree, pole, culvert, another car, or any solid object while driving at 60 miles an hour involves about the same forces that would be encountered in hitting the ground after driving off a nine-story building, he said.

At 40 miles per hour, the impact force is about the same as that involved in driving off a four-story building. And at 20 miles per hour, it's to be compared with driving off a one-story building.

Fast drivers would also do well to realize the effect of high speed on the driver. Just as high speed burns up fuel and tires, so it burns up driver energy and incurs fatigue, he said. Fatigue increases the ever-present danger that something will go wrong too suddenly for the driver to cope with it.

"Complete control of your car at all times depends on three factors — alertness, consideration for others, and wise choice of speed," Ashton said.

"With spring weather here, the number of cars on the highways will increase. With that increase comes an increase in the hazards of driving. Motorists can save themselves and others from injury by increasing their attention to the known safe-driving practices."

One such practice, he continued, is to drive at no greater speed than is reasonable and prudent under the existing conditions. The posted speed limit is the maximum; the prudent speed may be lower.

A second safe practice is to avoid following too closely behind another car. A good rule, he said, is to stay one car-length behind the preceding car for every 10 miles per hour of speed.

Trinity W.S.C.S. Notes

Chicken Festival Parade June 15

Prizes in excess of $1,000 are being offered this year to participants in the Delmarva Chicken Festival parade to be held at Salisbury in the downtown business section on Saturday, June 15.

This parade is considered the leading event of its type to be held on the Delmarva Peninsula each year and this year it is expected the various participating units will cover the best part of two miles in length.

Sponsored by the Salisbury Junior Chamber of Commerce, with James Tromley and Warren Boyce as co-chairmen, the parade will be broken into twelve classifications for the selection of the winners of the prizes.

The twelve divisions include commercial industry floats, organization floats, 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, drum and bugle corps, bands, fire departments, veteran organizations, boy and girl scouts, show horses and ponies, horse-drawn vehicles, fancy dress, and baton twirlers and majorettes.

Invitations have been extended to possible participants in these categories, but any organization wishing an entry blank may receive one by writing Howard Wilson, general festival chairman, P. O. Box 103, Salisbury, Md.

Col. Richardson Nips Lions In 5-Way Meet

Colonel Richardson High, a consolidation of Preston and Federalsburg, Md. High Schools was a close winner over Harrington and three other Delaware teams as Dame Fortune elected to deal the favored Lions a fatal blow. The victors tallied 57 1/2 points with Harrington 50 1/2. Trailing were Bridgeville 33 1/2, Dover Air 30 1/2 and Milton 9.

Tom Lord, top Lion dashman and javelin tasser, was injured in an auto accident and could not compete. Tom has run 100 yards in 10.9 and has thrown the javelin in the neighborhood of 143 feet. C. R. won both these events with like performances. In fact, C. R. won only three events outright to five for H.H.S.

Half miler Ron Broce also was injured in the Lord accident. Bob Smith, a sure winner in the half mile, suffered an upset stomach after winning the 440 and could not compete in the longer run. This cost Coach McDonald's lads five points as Smith has beaten Bridgeville's Pinson, the race winner, twice in two starts earlier this season.

Another top miler, Dennis Rogers has been out all season with a broken foot and Bill Adams, No. 2 dashman behind Lord, was unavailable for the Wednesday afternoon meet.

Now that we have established all these legitimate alibis let's get on with the meet.

Randy Knox jumped 5 ft. 7 in. in the high jump for the day's best individual Lion effort. Knox also led the locals in scoring with 8 points as he picked up a fourth in the javelin and a fifth in the broad jump.

George Bonniwell finished first in the mile run as improving sophomore Harry Bitler closed fast to nab third place.

Frank Cain, of Harrington and Kelly of C. R. tied for first in

Wesley College May Day Tomorrow

Spring reunions of graduating classes from 1903 to 1958 will be a feature of May Day festivities at Wesley College, Dover, on Saturday, May 11.

The traditional May Day program on the college campus at 3 p. m., including the crowning of Miss Vicki Phillips, green-eyed blonde liberal arts sophomore from Chestertown, Md., as 1963 May Queen, will follow an all-alumni luncheon in Dulaney Hall. The classes of 1903, 1908, 1913, 1918, 1923, 1928, 1948, 1953, and 1958 will observe class reunions at the luncheon.

A high point of the reunions will be the installation of the Class of 1913 into the Wesley Old Guard, the annual meeting of the Wesley College Alumni Association, including elections of directors and officers.

May Day activities will begin at 3 p. m. on the State Street Campus beginning with the coronation of Miss Phillips and Thomas W. Richardson, Washington, D. C., as May Queen and King.

Other events of the day will include a spring concert by the Wesley Chorus and Chapel Choir at 7 p. m. in Slaybaugh Hall Little Theatre, and the May Day Dance, in Dulaney Hall from 9 to 12 p. m.

DPI Grower Com. Opposes Wheat Controls

During a recent meeting of the DPI Grower Committee, headed by Paul Phillips a grower and general farmer of Mardela Springs, Md., the group went on record as being opposed to marketing quotas for the 1964 wheat crop for which a national referendum has been set for May 21, 1963. "After all," said Mr. Phillips, "this proposed plan for controlling wheat is another test as to farmers' acceptance of supply-management" and if this plan is approved by two-thirds of the voters, it will be interpreted as a softening in the attitude of farmers toward mandatory allotments of wheat, hogs and even our all important broiler industry."

Here in the Delmarva area, soybeans and broilers provide an excellent team of commodities toward the economic stability of all citizens of the area, since these two items along with corn account for an extremely high percentage of Delmarva's agricultural income. Already, government programs of wheat, corn, cotton and other crops have shifted many millions of acres into soybean production. Therefore, voters, as they go to the polls on May 21, should consider not only the effect of this proposed program upon the wheat crop, but also the probable effect on soybean acreage and prices to Delmarva farmers. Mr. Phillips concluded his observations by stating that past government programs have not brought production in line with utilization and certainly such programs have not reflected a realistic price to either producers or consumers.

HARRINGTON HAS 'MISS', NO CONTEST

Because high school graduation here falls on the same night as the opening of the Delmarva Chicken Festival—June 13—no contest was held this year.

However to give the community representation the Sunshine 4-H Club selected Marilyn Jarrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jarrell of Harrington, to participate.

Marilyn, a junior was crowned "Miss Harrington Saturday night by last year's winner, Miss Barbara Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Harrington.

The Rotary Club usually sponsors the contest but felt it would not be practical this year without participation of the graduating seniors.

A "Little Miss" contest was held at Saturday night's meeting of the Sunshine Club in the school cafeteria and Sherry Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy James Morris of Felton, won over nine other contestants; second was Kathy Ann Ricker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ricker, and third, Cynthia Gail Jarrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jarrell.

In lieu of the beauty contest, the 4-Hers saw a fashion show Saturday night. Members of 4-H clubs from Houston, Oak Grove, and Paradise presented a fashion show with Sharon Walls as narrator and Larry Garey as master of ceremonies.

Sabin Oral Vaccine May 12

This Sunday, May 12, 1963, is the last of the Sabin Oral Sundays to wipe out polio in Delaware, co-sponsored by the Medical Society of Delaware, the State Board of Health and the National Foundation Chapters in Delaware. From 1-6 p. m. the 46 immunization stations will give the third and last dose of the Sabin Oral Vaccine to all persons from age three months through forty years. There will be no charge for the dose; however, a donation of 25c will be accepted to pay part of the costs.

Pupils in private, public and parochial schools may receive the vaccine on Friday, May 10th, free of charge.

This special program will not be repeated, it was announced by Dr. Floyd I. Hudson, Executive Secretary of the Delaware State Board of Health. "We cannot urge too strongly that everyone avail themselves of this opportunity to protect themselves and their families from polio," Dr. Hudson said. "Every person who receives the three doses of the oral vaccine develops an excellent and lasting immunity to polio," he added.

This "crash" immunization program was presented to the people of Delaware in the hope that when the polio season arrives, it will present no threat to Delaware citizens. "How successful our efforts have been can only be judged by the extent of immunization," Dr. Hudson said.

Delaware Food Market Report

Mothers will have their day this Sunday. For 55 years now, the second Sunday in May has been Mother's Day, a day when mother is queen in every household. With this idea in mind, shop for foods that are easily prepared or can be prepared the day ahead.

Beef ribs and steaks are typical specials for this holiday. This weekend watch for such specials, since top beef is so plentiful.

The outdoor eating season is ahead of schedule. Recent warm weather has moved this season ahead by nearly a month. Because of this, many stores are featuring quick-cooking and easy-serving meats, such as chops, steaks, hamburgers, hot dogs and cold cuts.

May and June are the major months for fresh lobsters, and usually prices decline due to increased supplies. Lobsters currently in local markets are of fine quality. Other fresh shell fish choices to consider include hard clams, soft clams, and shrimp.

Frozen shrimp (100 count or more per pound) are abundant now. These tiny shrimp are excellent for salads, creoles, and casseroles.

Now's the time to buy and serve high quality eggs. Prices are low and you can expect to see specials on all sizes, both Grade AA and Grade A. It's potato salad time and eggs go with vegetables in other salads too.

Eggs are versatile, so use them often and in many different ways.

There's no lack of fine, fresh vegetables with new crop from Georgia and Texas joining Florida, California, and the West in supplying our markets. Of course, local gardens are supplying us with asparagus and few cooking greens. Fresh vegetables to be considered this week are celery, sweet corn, green and dry onions, eggplants, sweet potatoes, storage white potatoes, and artichokes.

Iceberg lettuce is coming to market from many areas of the West. Quality varies, but prices are fairly reasonable.

If you associate watermelon with summer time only, you will be surprised to know that enough is available now from Florida and Mexico to lower prices in some stores to their regular seasonal levels. Cantaloupes and cran-shaws are two more melons in fairly good supply and prices are fairly reasonable. Mexican honeydews are of good quality, but expensive. Rhubarb, bananas, and controlled atmosphere apples (particularly McIntosh) are all readily available.

Rev. Mrs. Lorraine Ottinger, pastor.

D. 1963 all State License fees for the year 1963 are due and payable to the State Tax Department, 843 King Street, City of Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware, State Tax Department, State House Building, Dover, Kent County, Delaware and State Tax Department, 10 East Pine Street, Georgetown, Sussex County, Delaware, and if not paid on or before the 30th day of June 1963, a penalty of five per centum will be added. On all licenses not paid in July an additional penalty of ten per centum will be added, and on all licenses not paid during the month of August a further penalty of ten per centum will be added, making a total of twenty-five per centum on all licenses paid after the month of August, in accordance with the Delaware Code of 1953.

Armed Forces Notes

Marine Lance Corporal Homer Smith, son of Mrs. Margaret E. Smith, of Greenwood, is serving with the Special Landing Force of the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The force is made up of the Third Battalion of the Ninth Marine Regiment. It embarked from Okinawa on March 28, to begin the Seventh Fleet duty.

The battalion arrived in the Far East last June and has participated in several exercises, including Operation Lone Eagle and Operation Ridgeline. As part of the Third Marine Division, the unit is a segment of the Seventh Fleet's powerful amphibious striking force.

Army Pvt. Marshall J. Sudler, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Sudler, 717 Lincoln St., Dover, recently was assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

Sudler entered the Army last October, completed basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J., and is a light weapons infantryman in the division.

He is a 1959 graduate of William Henry High School.

Army Pvt. Joseph H. Bedford Jr., whose parents live at 922 Forest St., Dover, was assigned to the Army element of the U. S. Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG) in Vietnam, April 19.

MAAG, Vietnam, is an Army-Navy-Air Force organization which advises the armed forces of the Republic of Vietnam on training, use of equipment and tactical operations.

The 18-year-old soldier, a supply clerk, entered the Army in October 1962 and completed basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J.

He was graduated from William Henry High School in 1962.

A co-operative agreement between the Small Business Administration and the Defense Supply Agency should increase opportunities for small firms to acquire surplus Government property, Edward N. Rosa, Regional Director of SBA's Philadelphia Office, announced this week.

Under the agreement, an SBA property sales representative will screen surplus property to be offered for sale from the newly established Defense Logistics Service Center, Philadelphia. Sales of surplus items suitable for small business purchase will then be called to the attention of firms listed in SBA's "Sales Assistance Register."

According to Mr. Rosa, the Property Sales program has been revitalized to help small businesses locate and purchase specific surplus equipment and real estate, which will be of direct use to them in their businesses.

New registration forms have been mailed to firms now listed on the Sales Assistance Register. The SBA official urged businessmen interested in surplus property sales to fill in and return the forms, listing specific items of equipment, rather than general categories. The Philadelphia property sales representative will co-ordinate requests from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, Maryland, the District of Columbia, and parts of Virginia and West Virginia.

As of December 31, approximately 16,300 small concerns were registered with SBA, and as a result of the notification service, nearly 5,200 small firms purchased 15,000 Government surplus items in calendar year 1962, for a total amount of more than $10 million. Items purchased included machine tools, materials handling equipment, cars and trucks, and electronic equipment. Saving to the end users, small business buyers, has been estimated at more than $2.5 million.

Small businessmen who were not on the original Sales Assistance Register but who are interested in surplus property sales may obtain details on the program and registration forms from SBA's Philadelphia Office, 1015 Chestnut St.

Unusual in thought, and unusual in fact, is the decision of the Reese Theatre to allow Poe's "The Raven" with Vincent Price, Peter Lorre, and Boris Karloff, be presented along with Alfred Hitchcock's "The Birds."

It looks as if a harrowed experience in thrills, chills, and horror awaits Delaware and Maryland theatre patrons.

From all appearances, — Can you take it? We dare you to see it! — has developed into the shocking bywords explanatory of these two masterpieces of terror.

FENCE TALK

With George Vapaa

City folks are looking for vacations in rural areas. Farms, or even homes in our Kent County towns, might provide room and board for a fee.

The family located near a resort, a lake, riding facilities or other recreation would have an advantage. Some vacationers merely want peace and quiet.

What is required. A spare room or rooms that is comfortably furnished. Meals may or may not be offered. If so, then the visitors usually eat with the family, except for perhaps breakfast, which may be later. Some offer only breakfast, or there may be a restaurant conveniently nearby. Charges can be kept reasonably low because there need be little overhead charges to worry about. A week's stay, meals included, for children may range from $25 to $30, for adults, $40 to $45 per person.

This is a business that a family can grow into. There is a ready market here in Delaware. Call our Extension Office if you want more details - telephone 736-1448. As one national magazine said last week: "You can harvest a new cash crop with urban dudes as paying guests."

Support newly-planted trees as a protection from the wind. For all trees with trunks more than three inches in diameter, place three guy-wires at even distances around the tree. Bend each wire into a loop at one end after it has been threaded through a length of rubber hose a little longer than is sufficient to pass around the trunk at the point of attachment. Then fasten the hose covered wires securely around the trunk. Fasten the other end of the wire to two feet long stakes and drive them into the ground until the wires are taut enough to hold the top in place.

For smaller deciduous trees a strong stake long enough to reach the first branches should be driven into the ground to a good depth as close to the tree as possible. Care should be taken when driving stake, that it doesn't sever the main roots. Fasten the tree to the stake. Use a piece of split hose long enough to go around the tree and stake, leaving a space between the two. Between the stake and the tree, place a piece of rubber tubing to protect the tree bark from being rubbed when the wind blows, and that the tree will not be constricted when it increases in size.

With support, your newly-planted trees will be standing tall and straight to add beauty and balance to your landscape.

Sheep men are urged to remove the tags when shearing rather than allowing inspectors at the wool pool to do this. Reason: it saves some wool since the owner will take more time than inspectors often can take.

Agricultural engineers have designed an improved truck endgate which cuts in half the time usually needed to unload grain at the elevator. The endgate opens all the way across the back of the truck body, so that all the grain flows into the unloading pit without the shoveling usually required to empty the corners of the body. Engineers say faster unloading can save time and money for both producers and elevator operators, thus holding down marketing costs. If you want more information about this, call our county extension office at 736-1448.

Identification tags or tattoos for livestock will help the owner identify and keep accurate records on the ability of his livestock. Spring is a good time to do this.

Just off the press is the 1963 edition of Insecticide Recommendations of the USDA Research Division. The handbook stresses the importance of following directions and heeding all precautions on insecticide container labels. For the first time, the revised edition includes recommendations for control of insect pests of citrus, lawns, and flower gardens.

To get top production and the most pleasure out of your garden, University of Delaware specialists recommend that you follow a good soil fertility program. Soil tests are the best way to measure a soil's fertility. Our County Extension Office can help you on testing and planning fertilizer needs.

Veterans News QUESTIONS and ANSWERS Q—As a veteran's widow figuring out my income and estate for purposes of a pension, can I include the unpaid balance due on the family automobile? A—Yes, generally any just debt ruled as such by a probate court is also included and considered a just debt by the VA. Q—Does the VA require a cash down payment to be made by the veteran in connection with a GI loan for purchase of a home? A—No, but the lender may require one. Q—May a lender require from the veteran security in addition to the property being purchased? A—This is between the veteran and the lender. While the veterans Administration does not require additional security, it does not object if the veteran is willing. Q—A friend of mine - no relative - died without funds or family recently. Due to our long association, I arranged a funeral and picked up the tab. The deceased had served in the army from 1931 to 1935. Will the VA pay a burial allowance in this case? A—Not unless the deceased had been in receipt of service-connected compensation at the time of death or had been discharged or retired for disability incurred in the line of duty. Neither service-connected nor disability discharge would be necessary had the deceased been a wartime or Korean Conflict veteran. Q—What is the procedure for getting a veteran into a VA hospital in a medical emergency? A—Patients requiring emergency medical treatment may be taken directly to the nearest VA hospital, but if possible the veteran or someone acting for him should communicate with the VA by telephone or telegraph beforehand. Q—Can a widow of a veteran live with another man as his wife but continue to draw a VA pension as long as she does not actually marry the man? A—No. The law governing widows' pensions was amended in 1962 to declare such a person not eligible for pension. Q—What is the best source of current information on veterans programs and facts about the VA? A—The annual report of the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, available at the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., for $1.25 per copy. Q—I'm going to college under the War Orphans Educational program administered by VA. I want to get married. Can I continue with my schooling? A—Yes. Marriage does not affect eligibility. Q—I am planning to take advantage of GI Bill vocational rehabilitation training. Is there some new regulation about disabled Korean Conflict veterans eligibility? A—Part of a law passed by the last Congress eliminated the general deadline for vocational rehabilitation for disabled Korean Conflict veterans. The veteran who falls under this classification now has nine years after his discharge to complete his training. Prior to this the deadline for completion of such training was January 31, 1964.

Tent Caterpillars Invade Delaware

Last year the tent caterpillars seemed to be rather scarce in Delaware, but I notice they're back in larger numbers this year. Their ugly nests can be seen along any country road or wherever the wild cherry grows. This is one of the best known insects in our part of the country, yet many people confuse it with another "tent-maker"—the fall webworm. One way to tell the difference, even from a car window, is by the tent or nest. The tent caterpillar seldom encloses leaves in its tent. On the other hand, the fall webworm spins its nest around many leaves. Don't let the name of the fall webworm deceive you—it is with us from late spring until fall, so you can't be sure of telling the two apart by the time of the year.

Tent caterpillars feed on the cherry tree leaves for a few weeks, enlarging their tents as they themselves get fatter and longer, and then on a warm day in May they desert their trees and all. They crawl about the countryside, sometimes climbing on the sides of houses or even entering homes. This distresses housewives, and those caterpillars end up in the ash can. Most of the others find some dark protected place where they change from two-and-a-half inch brownish caterpillars with white stripes down the back to resting stages or pupae. Each one of these is covered by a sulfur-yellow cocoon. In June, small reddish-brown moths emerge from these cocoons and fly to cherry trees where the females emerge from the cocoons and fly to cherry trees where the females lay eggs. Each female lays 150 and 300 eggs, one next to the other, around twigs in such a way that they look much like dark brown, varnished collars around the twigs. These eggs won't hatch until next year in late March or early April.

Old-timers thought the best way to control the caterpillars was to burn them with a ball of flaming rags soaked in kerosene. Not only is this apt to set the whole place afire, it harms the tree itself. It's better to spray or dust the tents with a small amount of DDT, lead arsenate, or Sevin when the tents are small. Another way is to tear the nest out by hand at night and toss the whole mess into a small pail of kerosene or gasoline. The reason for doing this at night is because the caterpillars gather in the tent at night, leaving it to feed on leaves only in the daytime. When using the insecticides, remember it isn't necessary to spray the whole tree—just cover the tent and branches closest to it. Store insecticides where children and pets can't reach them. Treat all insecticides with respect and common sense.

Fleas played an important role in the Labor Movement in England. Yes, they really did. It happened this way. Following the great plague or Black Death, which was spread by the rat flea, laborers were so scarce that they could not meet their work quotas. An act was passed forcing the laborers to produce as usual. You know what happened then—there was a strike which eventually led to several acts in Parliament regulating labor and wages for the public welfare. So the Labor Movement was launched by the tiny flea. Insects seem to be at the bottom of many things.

Construction Materials Can Help Prevent Fires

When fire strikes your home, get family members out safely. Before the danger strikes is the time to take preventive measures, says Miss Coral K. Morris, extension home management specialist at the University of Delaware.

If you are planning to remodel, or are still scanning blueprints of your home-to-be, it's not too late to make changes that will reduce or eliminate fire hazards, she points out. Plaster, gypsum and plasterboard or wall boards that have been treated to retard fire are best for wall and ceiling use. Beware of pressed paperboard, untreated fiberboard and plywood panels which have been prefinished with highly flammable lacquers. These are highly combustible and you should avoid them, Miss Morris says.

Available today are new wood and paint products which act to slow down fire and reduce its damage. Both of these are more expensive than similar untreated products, but they are like an extra insurance policy in terms of safety.

The wood has been pressure-impregnated with chemicals which react to heat at a lower temperature than it takes to burn the wood. These chemicals give off water vapor and non-burning gases, causing an insulating char to form on the wood's surface. Be sure to look for the Underwriters' Laboratories seal on these treated woods, says Miss Morris.

Certain of the treated paints also give off protective vapors. Others swell and form an insulating coating. Safe materials for roofs include asphalt shingles or metal, tile or slate that resists shower of sparks.

A large window or door leading to the outside is a must for every room, and especially in bedrooms. Unfortunate tragedies have occurred in modern homes with high, small windows when occupants couldn't get out and firemen couldn't get in. Minimal size is 24 by 30 inches, set low enough to permit escape in case of fire. Larger windows are better.

Without doors to act as barriers, fire races through open areas and can turn a house into a match box in moments. Most of the danger in fires is from being overcome by smoke and hot gases. All bedrooms should have substantial doors. When kept closed at night, they are the greatest protection in a fire.

Barriers of wood or masonry can be used between studs, joists and rafters to prevent smoke and hot gases from rising or spreading. Many homes in open rural areas are targets for lightning. Television antennas and aluminum siding should be grounded.

Safety devices which you can buy for your home are sprinklers; fire ladders which fold against the house and look like drain pipe; and automatic fire detection systems.

Home Food Freezer May Be Defrosted

Spring is a good time to defrost a home freezer, as it will be ready for the season's crop of fruits and vegetables, says Miss Janet Coblentz, extension food and nutrition specialist at the University of Delaware.

Before doing anything else, disconnect the electrical plug from the wall, she says, to avoid getting a shock. Remove all packages of frozen food and wrap them in several layers of newspaper. Place in an insulated picnic cooler, if you have one; otherwise, place the newspaper-wrapped packages in corrugated boxes and cover with blankets.

Put an electric fan in the freezer, directing it toward the frosted area. When moving the fan, be sure to unplug it before touching it, since the moisture in the freezer might cause a shock. An electric hair dryer can also be used, but it should be hand-held. Miss Coblentz stresses the importance of being especially careful when using these appliances because of the danger of getting an electrical shock if they come in contact with the melting ice.

As the ice melts, remove it with a rubber or wooden scraper. A metal scraper may damage the freezer walls.

Wipe up water from the freezer with heavy towels. To clean the interior freezer walls, use a solution of two tablespoons of baking soda to a quart of warm water. Wipe with a cloth dampened with clear water. Gasket and outside of freezer may be wiped off with soap and water, then rinsed thoroughly.

Dry freezer completely with clean towels. Connect the freezer and let it run 20 or 30 minutes before replacing food packages. When returning packages to the freezer, place the oldest ones on top or at the front, so they will be used first. When defrosting your freezer, work as quickly as possible so the packages you have removed will not defrost, IMs: Coblentz reminds.

Dairymen Named June Convention Delegates

Two Delaware dairymen have been named official delegates to the 78th annual convention of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America to be held June 4-7 at Salt Lake City, Utah.

They are B. Irwin Armstrong of Middletown and Purnal D. Friedel of Viola. The two men are among 204 officially-elected delegates from 48 states and Puerto Rico, who will represent over 40,000 members of the organization in voting and shaping organizational policies.

4-H News

"Let's Do It Right" was the clever title of Thelma Thomas' visual demonstration at the Kent County Demonstration Contest. Thelma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas, Maryland, showed her audience the techniques of removing a coat, proper way to sit and similar graceful everyday habits. Sow-Sow was Chuck Link's title for seeding lawns. These two members were among a group of twenty-four 4-Hers demonstrating. Others were: Deborah Duke and Howard Clendaniel, Whiteoaks; Mary and George Grampp, Eddie Bergold, Fred Stites, Debbie Cahall, Linda Moran, and Patty Stites, Oak Grove; Joe Shahan, Marjorie Hudson, and Blake Powell, Paradise; John Comegys, Margaret Thomas, Karen Webb, Nancy Webb, and Susan Comegys, Westville; Lora Mae Marvel, Beatrice and Linda Stayton, Houston Cardinals; Diane Cooper, Harrington Sunshine; Shirley Waski, Chestnut Grove; Linda Metheny, Whiteoaks; and Christina Clinton, Kent County Blue Hens.

Selection is a phase of daily living we all encounter. In our 4-H Judging Contests our 4-Hers learn how to judge items for their best use. Forty-nine 4-Hers judged Clothing and Foods. Eight members in each division will represent the county in the state contest. Assisting in these two events were judges: Mrs. William Hohorst, Magnolia; Mr. and Mrs. William Pinnel, Georgetown, and Bruce Frazier, Magnolia. 4-H leaders assisting were: Mrs. Francis Thomas, Westville; Mrs. Herb Stayton and Mrs. Alvin Brown, Houston. Preparing materials for judging were Mrs. Lester Bergold and Mrs. Grace Tinley, of Dover.

I'll be joining the two state egg cooking contestants, senior division, Jan Volmer, Dover and junior, Lea Tammi, Newark, for their trip to Chicago. The National Contest will be held May 17.

Use Caution When Using Power Mowers

Reasonable precautions in using power mowers prevent painful injuries, the Delaware Safety Council suggested recently.

Mrs. William N. Cann, vice president for home safety, said the Council has prepared 12 recommendations for safe use of mowers.

"Like any mechanical tool, a lawn mower must be used with care to avoid accidents," Mrs. Cann said. "It makes sense to recognize the dangers of what we are doing in everyday activities and to take the simple steps necessary to protect ourselves. In the case of power mowers, these steps are not difficult to remember or to follow, and it is obvious they will help to protect mower users."

Here are the 12 recommendations:

1. Make sure your feet are in a firm and safe place when you start the mower.
2. Keep in step with your mower for perfect control. If you lag behind or let it pull you, you won't be in full command of the machine. Don't run.
3. Be sure you know how to disengage the clutch or stop the motor whenever you leave the mower.
4. Keep the way clear of little tots and pets. Don't let them play around the mower while it is in operation.

5. Always be sure of your footing at balance when mowing on inclines. The steeper the incline the more care required.

6. Inspect the lawn that is to be mowed before the mowing begins. Clear the lawn of all stones, wires and other debris.

7. When grass is wet or when it is raining, it is best not to use an electric power mower unless you are certain the entire mower and the cord are in perfect order.

8. Disconnect the spark plug wire whenever you want to work on the underside of a mower. Tip mower over by means of the handle. Don't reach under the deck, chain guards or belt guards of any mower. Keep hands, feet and clothing away from any moving parts. Never attempt removal of any objects from the mower until motor has been completely stopped.

9. Keep fuel stored in an approved tightly sealed container.

10. Respect your power mower and teach this respect to the younger members of the family who use it. Teach them, too, these simple safety suggestions.

11. Excessive cutting blade speed is dangerous. Do not overspeed the engine by tampering with the governor.

12. Wear leather rather than canvas shoes or sandals when mowing.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield Identification Card . . .

The Best Card You Can Hold in Your Hand

Whether your family calls it identification card, ID card, or membership card—it is all the same. Don't gamble with your health care; carry your identification card always. It identifies you as a Blue Cross and Blue Shield member, gives your name, certificate number, and type of coverage. Only with all this information can your doctor, your hospital, and your Blue Cross and Blue Shield office provide you care and answer your questions.

Win the most possible benefits from your Blue Cross and Blue Shield contract. Carry the best card you can hold—in your wallet—at all times.

Here's how valuable your Blue Cross and Blue Shield identification card is to you. During 1962, 90.1¢ out of every dollar was paid for members' care, 6.5¢ went for operating expenses, and 3.4¢ was put in reserve for emergencies. This high percentage of payments for members' care is not duplicated by any other health coverage plan.

It is wise to make certain that every member of your family has his card. Duplicate copies of your card are available upon request. Your ID card should be your constant companion; it is a never-failing protection.

Incidentally, if you have any questions about your contract and the coverage it provides, see the person who handles Blue Cross and Blue Shield where you work. Or, call any office of Group Hospital Service, Inc., Wilmington, Dover, Milford, Seaford.

Lions Show Well In Peninsula Relays

The Harrington High track team coached by Harold McDonald made a good showing in the Peninsula Relays in Wilmington Friday night. The locals were third in a field of six teams in Group 1, the small school division of the meet held in Baynard Stadium.

The Lions are record holders in the 2 mile and medley relays and hoped to do well in both these races but managed to make the grade only in the former. A quartet of Bob Smith, Barry Fry, Randy Knox and George Bonniwell were clocked in 9.02 for 2 miles in finishing a good second to Wm. Henry of Dover. Smith ran his leg in 2.07 and Fry clocked 2.12 as Bonniwell and Knox also turned in creditable times. Fry and Knox were running the half mile for the first time in two years.

Bonniwell ran the opening half mile in the medley relay, finishing his stint in second place. Fry burnt up the track in the quarter mile leg as he overcame a 15 yard deficit to give H.H.S. a 15 yard lead. Richard Black ran the 220 yard section and tacked another 5 yards on to the advantage. Bob Smith ran the mile leg and was in first or second place for three laps before falling back to fourth place on the final circuit. His valiant but futile effort in the 2 mile relay earlier had taken too much out of him. Bob recorded a 4.48 mile last year but has concentrated on the 440 and 880 in practice this season with the result that he has not yet been able to approach his 1962 mile effort.

A foursome of leadoff man Raleigh Davis, Charley Taylor, Jeff Adams and anchorman Bill Adams surprised Tower Hill by grabbing third place in the 440 relay by a healthy margin. The private school coach, looking faint, approached the blue and gold clad locals and asked "Where are you guys from, Dover?" As the evening wore on it developed that this race cost Tower Hill the team cup as they lost by one point to Wm. Henry instead of winning top laurels by the same margin.

Black, Taylor, W. Adams and Frank Cain were fourth in the 880 relay. Cain, Larry Garey, Bill Sollars and Jeff Adams finished fourth in the mile relay with yeoman work by seniors Sollars and Adams outstanding in the latter part of the race.

Garey, Sollars, Knox and John Masten did a good job in the hurdles with high jumper Knox looking especially well.

Jeff and Bill Adams, Taylor, Davis, Knox, Smith, Bonniwell and Fry received handsome engraved plaques for their fine performances. Of the group that competed for H.H.S. Jeff Adams and Sollars are seniors, Fry and Knox are juniors and the rest are in lower grades. This would indicate that the Lions could very well capture another team trophy in the Peninsula Relays as they did in 1961 with the likes of George Pfeiffer, Bob Winkler, Buddy Bonniwell, Buck Bradley, Leonard Masten, Walter Lekites, David Hitchens, Clarence and Dwight Hackett and state cross-country champion, Harry Knotts.

Section 1 scoring:
Wm. Henry 24, Tower Hill 23, Greenwood 21, Millsboro 20, Rehoboth 19, Harrington 18, Delaware 17, Delaware 16, Delaware 15, Delaware 14, Delaware 13, Delaware 12, Delaware 11, Delaware 10, Delaware 9, Delaware 8, Delaware 7, Delaware 6, Delaware 5, Delaware 4, Delaware 3, Delaware 2, Delaware 1.

Little League Help Needed

A St. Louis Cardinal movie was shown to the Little League workers and players at the H. S. field house Tuesday night. President Jim O'Neal is still looking for more parental help in order to keep the nine teams functioning. Contact him if you want to help with this worthwhile activity this summer.

H.H.S. Nine Wins Two, Nabs 3rd Spot

Coach Jim Hawpe's Harrington High baseball Lions won their third and fourth straight games on Thursday and Monday to take over third place in the eleven-team Henlopen Conference. Felton and John M. Clayton are tied for the league lead as each is sporting a 6-0 record while H.H.S. is 4-1.

Ralph Houk has Whitey Ford starting and Luis Arroyo finishing. Jim Hawpe has Dick Collins starting and Barry Fry finishing. That was the story in both Lion victories as Collins gave them southpaw slow stuff for most of the contests and Fry kept them off balance with fast stuff from the other side of the rubber.

Consistent hitting has kept Harrington in the thick of pennant race as Jeff and Bill Adams and Mike Walsley lead the hitters. Bill Adams is hitting well over .500 and usually gets two hits or more each game.

At Greenwood Thursday the Lions outthit the Foresters 6-3 and outscored them 6-4 with most of the runs on both sides coming as a result of errors. Bill Adams had two hits in four trips to the plate for the winners. Bruce Henry led Greenwood with a perfect 2-for-2. Losing pitcher Julian Woodall had the other Forester safety.

At Rehoboth Monday the host nine was never in contention as the Lions led by 5-1 and 11-1 before the Seahawks managed to get a late, futile effort started.

Harrington outthit the losers 11-8 as Dick Collins hit safely three times while Jeff Adams and Mike Walsley had two bingles apiece. Barry Fry hit a two-run homer to wind up the Lion scoring. Harrington 11 2 1 1 0 0-6 Greenwood 1 1 0 0 1 0-4

Greenwood Loses 7-4 at Millsboro

Julian Woodall, who did all the pitching at Greenwood last year is doing the same this term. The little iron man was leading Millsboro 3-2 in the fourth inning when the roof caved in and the Blue Devils scored four times enroute to a 7-4 victory.

Lloyd Schulze and D. Henry accounted for the Forester base knockouts.

Dave Layfield was the chief forkman in the Blue Devil attack as he accounted for three of their eight hits.

Millsboro and Harrington play Monday with third place at stake. Greenwood 2 1 0 0 1 0-4 Millsboro 2 0 0 4 1 0 x-7

Felton Routs Milton to Stay Unbeaten

Felton and John M. Clayton are still tied for first place in the Henlopen Conference after Clayton came from behind in the last inning to edge Bridgeville while Felton broke a 1-1 third inning tie and went on to blast Milton by a lopsided 17-4 count. Tom Willis had four hits in as many attempts, hit a grand slam homer and drove in six runs. Bill Green and Sam Ludlow had four bingles between them.

Mike Harrington was the winning pitcher. Losing pitcher Dick Brown had two of the four hits doled out to the Warriors.

the pole vault. Harrington's other first places were recorded in the 880 and mile relays.

Barry Fry led off in the 880 event with a swift 220 leg. Jeff Adams, Richard Black, and Charley Taylor insured the win by adding to the early margin.

This pattern held up in the mile relay with Jeff Adams grabbing the early lead. Bill Sollars, Richard Black and Bob Smith, completed the victorious quartet. Wayne Collison got off a heave of 113 feet in the discus, which was good for second place. Only school record-holder John Taylor (124 ft.) and Philip Holson (121 feet) have exceeded that distance in the eight years of track at Harrington High.

In the junior high meet, Harrington was not extended as the score indicates. H.H.S. had 55 1/2 points to Bridgeville's 28 1/2 and Milton's 11.

Raleigh Davis won the 50 and 100 yard dashes and ran on the winning 440 relay team. Albert Ratledge was second in the 100, first in the 220 and ran on the 440 relay unit. Donald Wells and Willie Bonniwell completed the 440 quartet.

Bonniwell also ran on the winning 880 relay team, won the shotput and was third in the 220 to climax a busy afternoon.

John Petrosky, Allan Jerread and Ellis Myer teamed with Bonniwell in the 880 yard relay. Petrosky was second in the 50 yard dash and won the broadjump. Jerread cleared 5 feet in the high jump for the first time as he was runnerup to Tull of Bridgeville.
