Fulton presented him with renewal of his honorary membership in the Harrington Rotary Club. He was first an honorary member in March, 1962. It was deemed Glenn would make an excellent Rotarian since he was the first man to rotate, or fly, around the earth. The local club was the first in the nation to enroll Glenn as an honorary member.

Rotarian Downing Visits Col. John Glenn In New York

Fulton J. Downing, president of the Harrington Rotary Club, has presented Col. John H. Glenn, Jr. with the current 1969-70 Rotary Card and pin. Col. Glenn, the first man to orbit the earth in space, was elected an honorary member of the Harrington Rotary Club the week following the world-famous orbit of the earth. Two days after this election to membership in the Harrington Club, Fulton Downing was in New York at the same time Col. Glenn was received by ticker tape parade and luncheon at the Waldorf Astoria. At this occasion, Downing informed Col. Glenn he was elected to membership of the Harrington Club. Col. Glenn stated this was the first Rotary Club to enroll him.

On Aug. 19, Downing, with his wife, Anna, and daughter, Joyce Lopez, visited Col. Glenn by appointment in his office on Madison Avenue, New York City, spending the better part of an hour at which time Downing presented Col. Glenn with the above mentioned Rotary card and pin and pictures were taken. In the course of conversation, Col. Glenn said that he would like to visit Delaware and the Harrington club and thought sometime in the near future, he would be able to do just that. He also stated that being president of the Royal Crown Cola Company, International Division, required most of his time spent out of the country.

Free Bus Service Offered To Local Raceway

Harrington Raceway which opens Friday night, Sept. 5, will provide free bus transportation to and from the track for New Jersey harness fans who take the Cape May-Lewes Ferry. In addition, free transportation will be provided in the following areas: The bus will leave the Little Kitchen in Rehoboth at 6 p.m.; S and S Market, 6:05; Cape May Ferry at Lewes, 6:20; Second St. and Savannah Rd., 6:25; fourth and Savannah Rd., 6:26; Edgell Drug Store, 6:27; Betty's Tavern, Rt. 14, Milton, 6:35; Milford Bus Station, 6:45 p.m.

Quillen's Market Burglarized

Quillen's Dairy Market was burglarized early Tuesday morning with between $50 and $60 taken from change holders. The same morning a window was broken in a vacant building at 8 Commerce St.

D.P.&L., Union Fail To Come To Terms

At a day long meeting Friday which lasted far into the night, Delmarva Power & Light Company negotiators and the striking electrical worker's committee failed to come to terms so that a contract could be negotiated.

The union membership has constantly stressed that safety is one of its big issues and have demanded that safety rules be incorporated in the contract. At the Friday meeting the company offered to negotiate proposed changes in safety rules as well as changes in existing rules, including new work methods for jobs on higher voltages. With this as part of the contract, new rules or changes could be submitted thru grievance and arbitration procedures for decision on the reasonableness thereof, in the event a dispute arose over the change.

For the first time over the bargaining table, the union demanded the company agree to "no gloving on jobs where the voltage is over 12,000 volts, during the life of the contract, or, pay a 5 per cent bonus for gloving anything above 12,000 volts."

The company maintains that it has no intention of gloving work over 12,000 volts in the near future. It also said if they ever did contemplate such a procedure, they would negotiate the matter with the union at that time.

As regards job security and any recommendations made by the industrial research firm, popularly known as the "efficiency experts" — the company has maintained right along that there would be no lay-offs and no wage decreases resulting from efficiency studies. Yesterday, they further conceded that there would be no geographic transfers resulting from system changes recommended by the research firm.

Felton Man Falls Under Mower

A 59-year-old Felton man was in satisfactory condition Thursday night Aug. 28, at Milford Memorial Hospital after he fell from a tractor and under a mowing machine. Hospital officials identified the man as Leland Bohannon of Felton-Sandtown Road. According to state police, the accident happened about 7 p.m. while Bohannon was operating the machinery at a house near his home. The moving attachment to the tractor passed over Bohannon's legs, police said.

Kent Reports In The Black

County indebtedness dropped to $450,000 this week when Kent County Levy Court approved payment of a short-term note of $150,000 to the Farmers Bank of the State of Delaware.

The money had been borrowed at 3.25 per cent annual interest late last year for operational funds. However, a large portion of the funds was used to purchase the Sills property, presently being used as a landfill, and the Allee Building for expanding county offices.

Payment of the loan left the county with a $30,000-plus cash-balance.

In other action, John T. McKenna moved to increase the salary of the yet-to-be hired parks and recreation director from $10,000 to $11,019. The salary will be paid this year through a state grant.

But the county will be responsible for at least half the salary next year, and the total salary the following year. The motion passed 5-2, with Commissioners William A. Paskey and James B. McIlvaine calling the salary too high.

Planners in Kent Want Road Voice

The Kent County Regional Planning Commission voted Tuesday to inform the highway department that the planning commission would like to be consulted in future decisions on highways in Kent County.

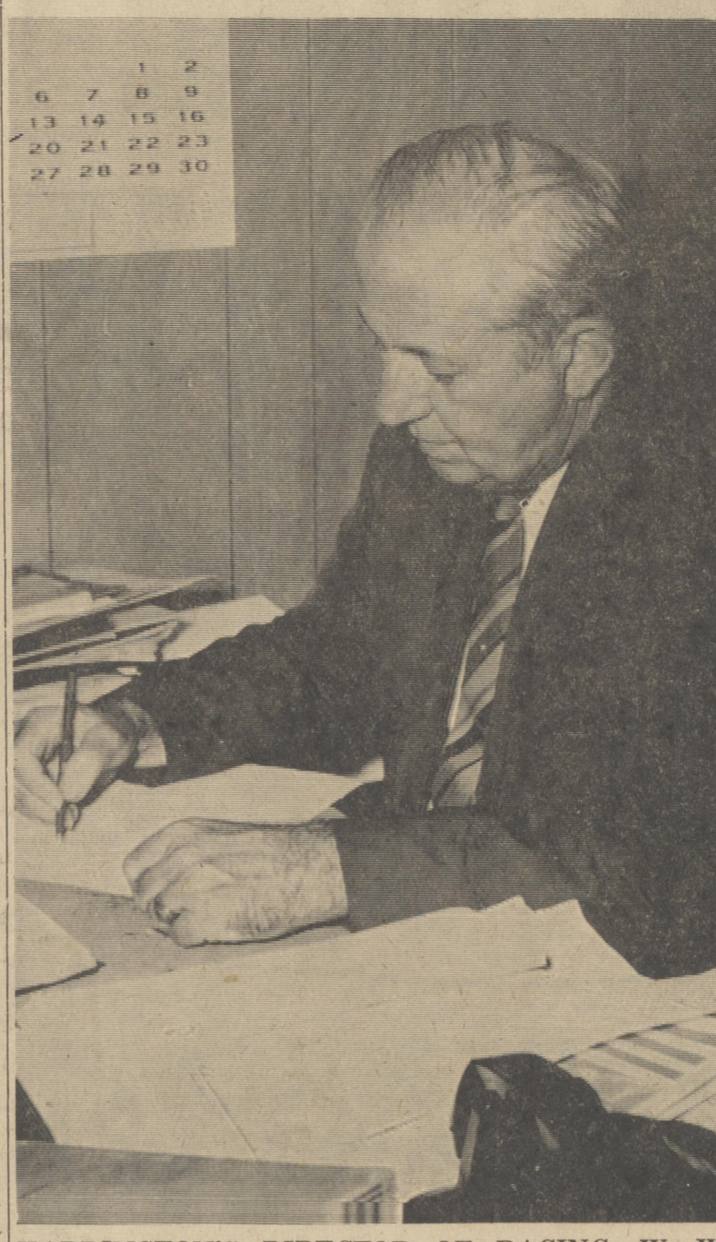

The commission came up with a proposal for a beltway type highway around Dover for highway department consideration. Emphasizing that their proposal was from a development pattern point of view and not from an engineering one, they feel the proposal merits serious consideration since it utilizes much of the previous proposals of the highway department.

The parkway would cross US 13 near Cheswold, would proceed south around Dover encircling the General Foods plant and recross US 13 near the State Department of Agriculture building. It would utilize a portion of the Camden-Lebanon Road crossing US 113 north of the Dover Air Force Base.

The route would proceed east of Dover, northward behind the Dover Downs complex and re-enter US 13 again near Cheswold.

The commission pointed out that this would allow for new highway frontage both east and west of the city and would be compatible with development of the county sewer lines.

Raceway Opens Tonight For 62 Racing Sessions

HARRINGTON'S DIRECTOR OF RACING, W. W. "PETE" SHAW prepares for the raceways' 24th year of harness competition which kicks off the 1969 meeting on Friday, September 5th. (Navar photo)

Track Will Pay More Than $80,000 On Stake Races

During the meet this fall 20 Delaware Standardbred Stake races will pay more than $80,000 in purse money.

The first Development Stake race will be Sept. 10 when two-year-old colt pacers and two-year-old trotters go to the gate.

More than 30 colts are eligible for these stakes under the new program which is aimed at improvement and betterment of horses and horsemen in Delaware.

Briefly here's how it works: for the past three years 1/2 of one per cent of the total parimutuel wagering at Delaware harness tracks has been set aside for this project.

According to Paul A. Quirk, executive secretary of the Development Fund, approximately $300,000 has been made available for purses in races at the three Delaware harness tracks which feature 1) Delaware bred and foaled and/or Delaware foaled or owned standardbreds.

Gunman Robs Felton Station

A gunman made off with $200 from the Felton Service Station early Thursday, Aug. 28.

An attendant, William Lane, 56, of Felton, told state police a man entered the gas station on U.S. 13 and Delaware 20 about 2 a.m., pointed a gun at him, and took $170 from the cash register.

The robber also took $30 from Lane's wallet, police said. He fled south on U.S. 13.

Wilson Reunion

The Wilson family reunion was held Sunday afternoon at Wheeler's Park. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John Conner and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Willin, all of Wilmington; Mrs. Olive Walters, Viola; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walters and Jackie, of Rising Sun; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Gloria and Donna Fay and friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Wilson, of Seaford, and Mrs. Samuel Matthews and Jo Anne.

The lights go on and the trotters and pacers head for the gate at Harrington Raceway tonight. Post time is 7:30 o'clock.

There will be ten races Friday and Saturday nights at Harrington, the oldest, but in many ways the most modern racing plant in all Delmarva. The half mile oval is located on U.S. Route 13.

Nine races will be on tap Monday thru Thursday nights and ten every weekend throughout the meet which carries into November.

For the first time, here, the harness fan will have his chance to test his luck on The Big E; a feature in which the first two horses, in sequence, across the wire in two consecutive races must be picked correctly. Mutual payoffs for the correct picks have been known to be staggering. Racing Secretary, Fred Greenly, will have hundreds of fine standardbreds "in the box" in the weeks to come and his condition book for the first ten days promises some thrilling contests for Delmarva harness fans.

Top drivers from all over the East will be headed post-ward tonight. Among the stars on the sulkies will be Austin Thomas, Paul Myer, Vernon Mitchell, Frank Abbott, George Fortna, Wayne Marsh, John Childress, and Jim Wilson to mention just a few.

Bill Perkins, of Honesdale, Pa., returns to the Kent County oval once again to "call 'em like he sees 'em" as they say.

The Board of Directors at Harrington this year has dropped the price of admission to 50 cents for both clubhouse and grandstand. (Back in 1946 the price was $1.30!).

The H. M. Stevens Company will cater the new clubhouse dining room. Special emphasis this year will be placed on hosting civic, community and social and business organizations on special party plans.

James H. Groves Adult School Location Change

For the school year beginning September 1969, the Kent County Branch of the James H. Groves Adult High School program will be conducted at the Kent County Vocational-Technical Center, Woodside. In the past this program was held at the Dover High School. This move is being made in order to provide the adult high school student with a wider choice of elective courses. Vocational technical courses are now approved for high school credit and will be offered in addition to the required academic subjects. Also the use of Kent Center will provide a more central geographic location in order to serve a greater area of Kent County.

Registration for the fall semester will be held from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. on September 8, 9, and 10 in the cafeteria of the Kent County Vocational-Technical Center. Guidance counselors will be present at this registration to provide the adult students with assistance in preparing a program which will help them complete their high school education.

For further information concerning this change of location or registration, prospective students may call the principal of the James H. Groves Adult program at 697-3255.

Milton Golfer Makes Hole In One

John Havill, of Milton, made a hole-in-one Thursday afternoon, Aug. 28, on the 150-yd. par-three hole on the Shawnee Country Club links. This is the only hole-in-one for Havill, institutional sales-manager for canned vegetables for King Cole at Milton, has made in 14 years.

In the foursome were also the golfer's son, John Havill II, Fred Sposato and Dicky Johnson, all of Milton.

1970 Wheat Program Details Announced

All 1970-crop wheat allotment notices for farms in Kent County are in the mail and most producers should now have received them, Chairman J. Heyman Roosa, Kent County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced this week. The County's allotment of 9823 acres was allocated among 641 wheat farms, he said. A 15 acre reserve has been kept for possible corrections and adjustments.

In addition to receiving allotment notices, wheat producers have been provided basic information on the 1970 wheat program, the ASC chairman said. This includes notice that:

- 1. The national average price-support loan level will be $1.25 per bu., unchanged from recent years. (County and terminal price-support rates, reflecting the national average loan rate usually are announced the following April. They may vary from the preceding year because of changes in freight rates and price relationships among terminals as well as other adjustments. The price-support rate in Kent County for 1969 wheat is $1.40.)
- 2. An acreage diversion program (Continued on Page 5)

Dill Elected Veep Of Postal Group

Postmaster Howard M. Dill was elected vice president of the Delaware Chapter of the National Association of Postmasters at a convention in Wilmington Aug. 28-29. He was formerly secretary of the state group.

Council Continues Study on Using Hot Mix in Downtown Area

The City Council Tuesday night continued to show interest in improving a couple streets in the downtown area with hot mix.

The group believes the mixture may be better than the usual tar and chip it has been using. It is considering hot mix on Commerce Street from Mechanic Street to Fleming Street, all of the latter street, and Mechanic Street from Fleming Street to Fleming Street.

The Council revealed an offer Tuesday night from Warren Brothers, of Mt. Pleasant, to furnish 300 tons of hot mix at $10.50 per ton. It did not give the go-ahead for the improvement, however; instructing City Manager Kathryn Derrickson to ascertain the depth of the mix and the question of raising manhole covers.

Still on the matter of improvements, a delegation from the Jaycees listened to and approved a community clean-up program.

Robert Taylor, program chairman, said a three-point project called for provision to trash receptacles, the sale of trash bags, and cleaning of the main streets. The receptacles, to be approved by the City, would be placed at strategic areas and be emptied by the city. Civic groups would be asked to pay the cost of the receptacles, explained Taylor.

Continuing, Taylor said the Jaycees planned to sell trash bags to be placed in trash cans. Instead of dumping the can, the trash collectors would merely throw the bag into the trash truck. The bags are used by some near-by communities.

The Jaycees would provide a three or four-wheeled cart which one man could operate in cleaning the main streets. The Jaycees felt the vehicles could get in and around parked cars with minimum impediment to traffic.

In other business, the Council voted to install mercury vapor lights on Reese Avenue. The lights cost $52.25 per year on the main streets and $37.50 per year on side streets, explained the city manager. She said the usual street lights cost $13.20 per year. Mayor Burton E. Satterfield said the City hoped to improve the lighting of a street each year.

Agreed to send Sheldon Starr, president of the New Era Shirt Company, a letter telling him the Council thought a charge for tapping into an 8-inch water main was fair. The City had billed the company $400. It bills property owners $100 for a 2-inch main. Starr, in a letter he had asked to be read before the Council, had objected to the cost. The mayor mentioned the 8-inch main, which when under the two lanes and a mall of U.S. 13, cost $10,000. At present, it will serve two other businesses besides New Era.

Agreed to put drain pipe on Harrington Avenue running north to city limits.

Motioned to send letter to tenant at Delaware Avenue and Liberty Street, giving him three days to remove relics of a demolition derby from the property. Copy of letter was to be sent to property owner.

Received communication from Kent County Civil Defense office about erecting a siren. City to pay $245, half the cost.

When Robert Taylor, president of the Harrington Fire Company, pointed out the fire company had not been approached on the project, Council agreed to turn the matter over to the firemen.

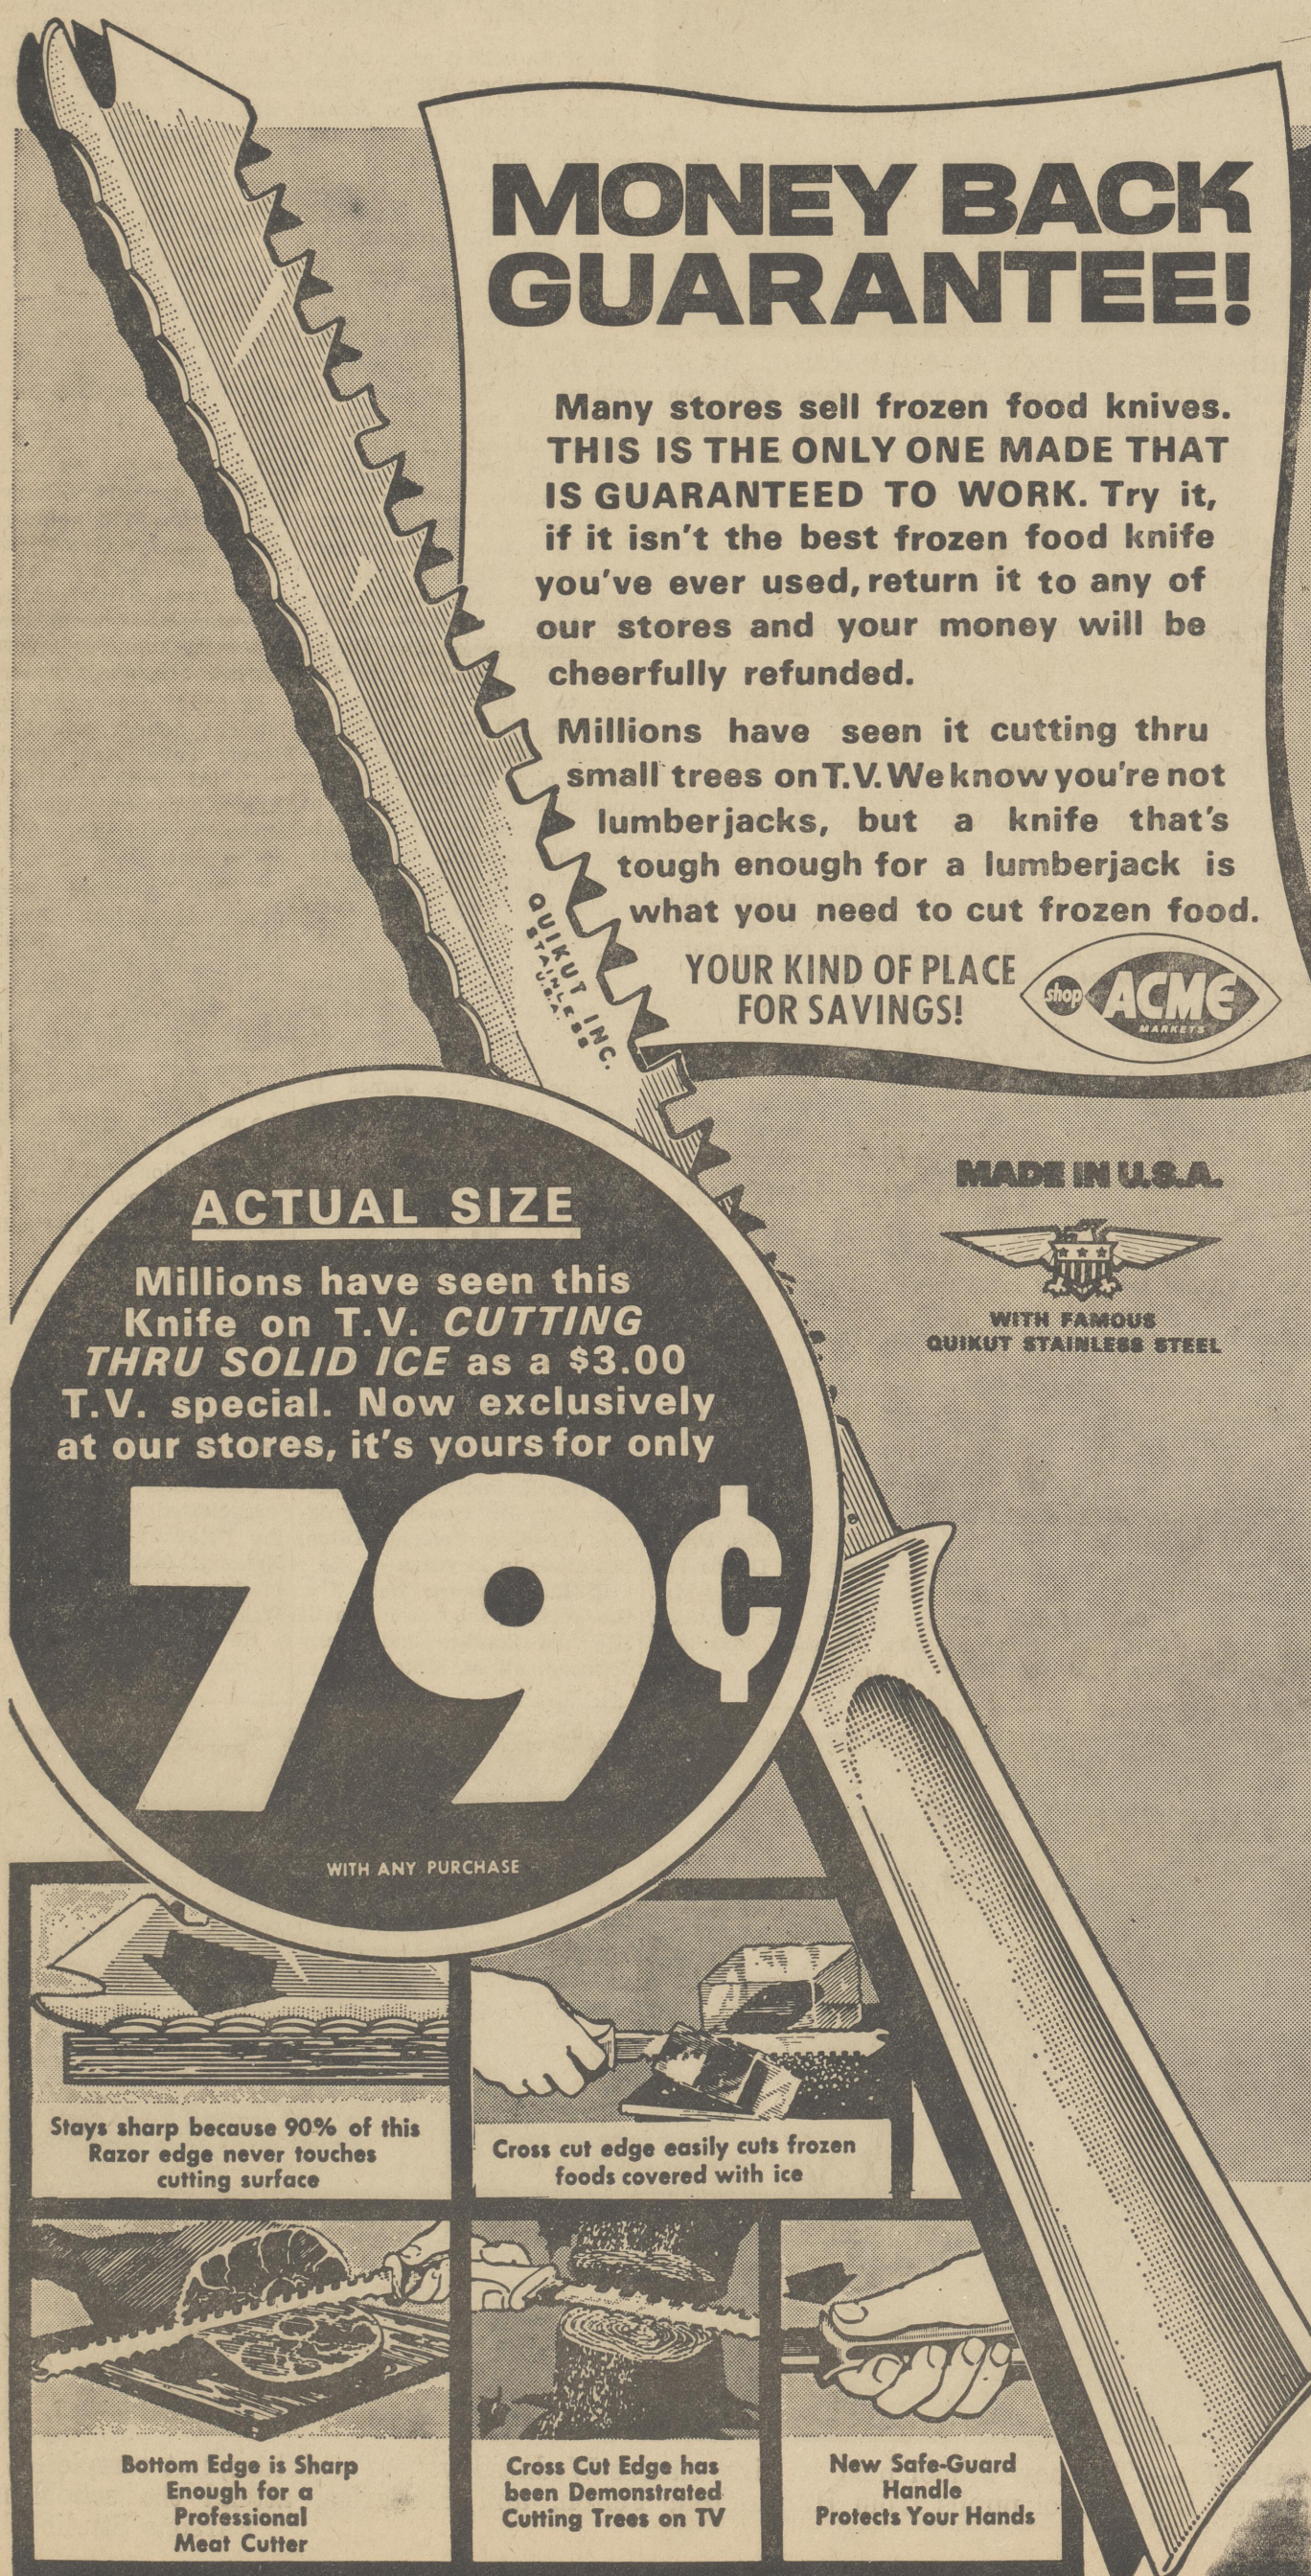

Approved opening of an alley, north of and running parallel to Clark Street, from Dixon Street to Thomas Alley.

Received request from Arthur Marsan for rezoning of land at Farmington Road and Vernon Road from residential to commercial. Council will study it.

One Family's Vacation

By Mrs. Jacob Hatfield

Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Seibert, accompanied by Mrs. Leon Kubec, have recently returned from a wonderful vacation trip.

This summer we were privileged to visit "Terre Des Hommes" (Man and His World) 1969, in Montreal, Canada. To get to the Expo, as it is called, we parked our car outside of a metro-subway and got off at a station where we boarded a Mini Rail (a series of little cars that balance perfectly on this one rail which runs lengthwise the center underneath the cars. The mini rail goes over a bridge high up in the sky and takes you over top of all of the fantastic buildings. If you wish to go by the exotic boats, there are gondolas which travel the canals and lakes. Lac De Regates, and LeMoine Channel, you can see this fantasia from the water, the Fleuve - St. Lauren (the Lawrence River). The boats go under and around all the buildings, even through them.

But we decided on the rail trip, so we first skimmed along the sky. Suddenly, we shot inside and through the center of a gigantic bell (biosphere). This was scientist philosopher R. Buckminster Fuller's 20-story geodesic bubble. The bubble contains a park, immense buildings, classical gardens in the Renaissance style with sculptured figures among the trees, flowers, grass and fern form mosaic patterns. A stunning array of exotic multi-colored birds are scattered throughout.

You go through the building in the mini-rail out into the blue, a panorama of fantastic buildings below you—gilded temples, box-like buildings, jungle tents, pyramids, cubes, balls, jungle tents, structures with great skins stretched in to peaks on gigantic poles, accordion-like pavilions, a 200-ft. tower music belfry, and a great round building which is the magic circle. India, Iran, Japan, China, Europe, and Russia were represented, each resplendent in its own glory. From above you can choose which of the two parts you wish to visit first.

Our first choice was Africa—the magic, bewitching land, home of the beautiful giraffe and zebra, the land of colorful birds. Here we saw the lion, tiger and jaguar, pitifully stilled by the art of the taxidermist. Also we saw here the products of their hides. The skins were made into beautiful patchwork quilts. The monkey's black and white fur was worked into 8 inch squares. There were quilts, throws, and wall hangings of deer and antelope, edged with brown leather. There was an immense black and white wall hanging of zebra skin, done with stripes sewn in a V-formation. Also boa constrictor and python skins, 20 feet long without the head. There were bags, shoes, and other articles made from these skins, also fishing and hunting equipment spears, shields, jewelry and arts, beautiful but hideous masks, carved sculpture and fabrics of magnificent hues.

The Expo is on the Ile Notre-Dame. This is one of a number of islands. The Ile Sainte Helene has a vast park (Parc Helen de Champlain) which houses a theatre and military museum—Place de Nations. The open-air amphitheater has a capacity of 8,000 persons.

The main sculpture, entitled MAN, is 67 feet tall, 94 feet wide and 46 tons of nickel and stainless steel went into its making in Sache' France. Fountains surrounded with flowers are truly magnificent. At Swan Lake, one of many lakes, a hydraulic lighting system transformed the fountain pattern regularly like Fairyland.

Pere Notre Dame covers 100 acres alone with meadows, lagoons, canals, plazas and gigantic sculpture.

Our second stop was at the pavilion of India, a fantastic building on several levels. A sixteen-foot tapestry depicted a great event of the times. A magnificent wedding cloth (ganesh) was embroidered with threads of silver and gold. Semi-precious stones set in a design were in brilliant hues. Beads and mirrors were sewn in by a female member of the family on the occasion of a wedding. The intricate dazzling color of symbols, designs, and gods depicted on the cloth are intended to bring good luck and success to the bride and groom.

A lower level is devoted to paintings of Tantra Art. Tantra is the Buddhist and Hindu concept which says there is no difference between spiritual and physical love. The paintings are composed of signs and symbols. Tantra has influenced certain Hippy and Flower children movements.

Folk art, ranging from simple village bronzes of types, dishes, household ornaments and religious objects to big bronzes that represent deities. In the gift shop of the India pavilion there are head-high folding screens, completely carved in lace-like work in teakwood. Inlays of ivory and mother of pearl are of elephant, camel and cat families. Other screens were inlaid with flower and leaf motifs. There were other teakwood screens inlaid with ivory set into the wood. There were also beautifully engraved brass trays, large enough to hold food for four or five persons. These tables, large or small, have folding legs and the people sit around them on cushions. One opens the legs, sets the tray upon it; then, having eaten, folds the legs, stores the tray and legs away until the next meal. One of such small tables of teakwood had the flora and fauna of India—the elephant, camel and several fish, flowers, birds and fowl. These tables were in various sizes, inlaid with mother of pearl and ivory and sold for $65.00, a mere pittance for such a work of art executed with such delicacy and skill. In the case of the inlaid fish, was not only inlaid separately, but was painted on the inlay.

A 700-year-old picture was shown in a frame of Ramayana (earliest Hindu epic) as a transparency. Ramayana is the story of Prince Raya's overpowering the demon, Rana, the incarnation of God, 10 centuries before the Christian era. There were gigantic picture frames with lights set behind them, showing through the painting. Ancient and modern art were shown in this ingenious fashion. You actually saw through the paintings.

There were great walls of mosaic tiles (a surface decoration made by inlaying small pieces of colored glass, stones, or tiles in a design, delicate in color and design). Magnificent parquet floors throughout the pavilion were of woods and designs unknown to us. The wood was inlaid in odd patterns, using many colored woods.

There was music, native to the country, in every background and hostesses in costumes native to that area. In a niche is a Buddha and under it is a plaque. Buddha said: "Desire was the root of all suffering."

As you leave there is a plaque giving some of the wisdom of Mahatma Gandhi, "God is truth and truth is God."

We did not come upon Austria, which is my father's country, until later and regretted very much that we had little time there. Austria had built a mountain to the top of the tall building, a mountain, snow-covered, representing the evolution of skiing from the stone ages until today. There were tapestries, embroideries, national costumes, and gigantic pictures on the wall of different parts of Austria.

The Belgium Pavilion is constructed of glass, steel, granite and bricks from Belgium. Cultures of art of all kinds are presented here—paintings, art books, and other prestige paintings.

The Soviet U.S.S.R. presents itself as children see it. 1,200 water colors and crayon drawings and 600 other pieces created by children, aged 3 to 15. The paintings are from plays to village history and weddings. There were films dealing with the land. Other items on display were wood sculpture, carvings on bone, as well as other works in textiles and mosaic. There were jewelry exhibits and Persian turquoise in 14 karat gold settings, 30 pieces valued at $25,000; 10 antique silk carpets valued at $500,000.

Iran showed ancient exotic jewelry, exquisite antique Persian rugs, two made of gold, silver and silk thread.

Then we visited the Korea Pavilion. Here we saw high, narrow screens used as room dividers, allowing air to pass through, modern as 1969, but used for a thousand years. These were embroidered with such delicacy and skill that from a distance one would think they were water paintings. There were peonies in light pink and hot pink, birds in divers colors from our turquoise blue to the Holland delft blue. The peacocks were the most magnificent and definitely not bad luck to the Koreans, as our own superstition goes.

Other products were plastics, leather bags, exquisite inlays of mother of pearl set on carved wooden vases, in flower and leaf designs. There were inlaid copper and silver in delicate patterns, birds, flowers and leaves. Much interesting pottery was shown, also carved wood—the famous double chain carved from one piece of wood with not a break in one length. There were also cast-iron, brasses from an age-old technique.

Spain makes its debut at Man and His World with the fiery dances of Audalasia. Twelve of its top Flamingo dancers, artists from the Ballet Pao Ruiz-Carmen Rojas bring Spain's gaiety to the Expo for all to enjoy.

One exhibition in the upper level of the Spanish Pavilion are many gaily-dressed manikins with a different costume for each of Spain's provinces, each one more elaborate than the next, braided in gold and silver, with tassels of gold and silver, magnificent black laces, jet beaded, and multi-colored aprons, resplendent with hot pink roses on white cotton with beads and fringes. There were completely beaded blouses in flower designs, each breath-takingly beautiful.

In every building there was a beautiful and comfortable lounge with background music and motion pictures depicting the many lands. At about this point my husband, Bill, and my mother had to rest from weariness. I parked them and I kept on. I would have crawled if necessary!

I know we are all grateful to Mrs. Seibert for her very entertaining account of her visit to the Expo. I, too, would have crawled with her for the privilege of seeing it all.

Herman D. Hammond

Herman D. Hammond, 90, died Saturday at Milford Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Mr. Hammond was a retired farmer and had lived in the Canterbury area all his adult life.

His wife, the former Annie R. Moore, died in 1913.

He is survived by two sons, Nelson M. and William D., both of near here; three daughters, Mrs. Frances Poore of Hartly, Mrs. Sara Swain, of Macon, Ga., and Mrs. Anne Campbell, of Wilmington; six grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Berry Funeral Home. Interment was in Barratt's Chapel Cemetery, Frederica.

Board of Health News

State health officials are reminding prospective restaurant owners that a recently adopted state law requires plans for any eating establishment to be submitted to the State Board of Health for approval prior to construction.

A number of eating establishments—from push restaurants to roadside chicken stands—open each year without obtaining the necessary approval and license from the Board of Health.

Donald E. Harneson, director of the health department's Division of Sanitary Engineering, says there are indications that restaurants in Delaware outnumber restaurant licenses.

Licensing and inspection of restaurants are essential to prevent a variety of food-borne diseases and to upgrade the general public health.

The restaurant law became effective in July of 1968. It stipulates that:

1. No person shall operate a public eating place which has not been inspected and licensed by the Board of Health, and

2. Any person proposing to construct, alter or convert a building for a public eating place must submit plans to the Board of Health for approval. Board of Health licenses are issued to protect public health—there is no cost. However, in some municipalities, such as Wilmington, restaurant owners may also be required to purchase an operator's license from the city.

A companion law to that dealing with licenses requires that all food handlers (anyone working with food in a public establishment) receive an annual examination, which includes a chest x-ray and blood test.

These laws apply to all public eating places, including itinerant restaurants or seasonal roadside stands.

Kent County Family Court

Judge Kelsey presiding

August 25 through 29

Seven juveniles appeared before the court charged with nine motor vehicle violations. Each was ordered to pay fines and costs with the exception of one whose charge was dismissed because the evidence presented was not sufficient as presented by the arresting officer.

Two charges were before the court charging two juveniles with shoplifting. After hearing the evidence presented by the arresting officers, the said juveniles having previously posted cash bonds and having failed to appear before the court as scheduled, the court ordered that their bonds be forfeited for fines and costs.

Three juveniles appeared before the court charged with inhaling a toxic substance such as a paint thinner. After hearing all the evidence presented, and after reviewing each of their prior records and noting that each record revealed nothing of a serious nature, the court ordered that each pay fines and costs and be placed on probation to the court for a period of three months.

Five petitions were presented to the court requesting custody of five minor children. After hearing the testimony presented in each of the cases, and it appearing to be in the best interest of said minor children, the court awarded custody of four of the said minor children unto the State Department of Public Welfare for foster home placement, and reserved the decision on the other petition pending further study of the testimony presented.

Two juveniles appeared before the court charged with trespassing. Upon application of the arresting officer, the court ordered that each charge be dismissed.

One juvenile was before the court charged with carrying a concealed deadly weapon and violation of probation. After hearing the testimony presented and reviewing the defendant's prior record, the court ordered that he pay fines and costs on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapon and regarding the charge of violation of probation, that he be committed to Ferris School for Boys, suspended the sentence of detention, continued said juvenile on probation to the court, and awarded his custody unto his sister to reside in the City of Wilmington under strict terms and conditions of probation.

One juvenile appeared before the court charged with assault and battery, having broken the jaw of the victim. After hearing the evidence, the court found said juvenile guilty as charged and ordered that he pay fines and costs and be placed on probation to the court with strict terms and conditions imposed.

Four juveniles appeared in court charged with trespassing and malicious mischief having destroyed a garden in the town of Wyoming. After hearing testimony from all the parties before the court, the court ordered that each pay fines and costs and be placed on probation to the court with strict terms and conditions imposed.

Two juveniles from Milford were in court charged with disorderly conduct. However, the charges were dismissed for failure of the arresting officer to appear and prosecute the case.

Three men appeared in court charged with having failed to support their families. In two of the cases, the respective wives requested to withdraw the pending charges, and upon approval by the court, the cases were ordered closed. In the other case, the parties reached an agreement in regards to the amount of support, and an order of support was entered accordingly.

Roman D. Miller appeared before the court charged with contempt of court, having failed to meet his support order previously imposed by this court for a period of two years. After hearing all the testimony presented by Mr. Miller and his wife, including the fact that the parties are reconciled, the court ordered that he be committed to the State Board of Corrections for a period of one year, suspended this sentence of incarceration, upon the express condition that commencing August 30, 1969, he shall report to the Kent Correctional Institution to be detained from 1 p.m. Saturday until 9 p.m. Sunday, and to so lodge himself for the following seven consecutive weekends.

Course In Architecture Offered at Univ.

A course on materials and methods of construction in architecture will be offered from 7 to 9:45 p.m. beginning Sept. 15 in Room 100, Sharp Lab on the University of Delaware campus.

The course is the second in a program presented by the Division of University Extension in cooperation with the Delaware Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

John C. Volk, Jr., project engineer with the Delaware River and Bay Authority, will direct the course. He will be assisted by special guest lecturers.

Volk is a registered professional engineer in Pennsylvania, Delaware Academy of Science and the National Society of Professional Engineers.

Presented as part of a certificate program in architecture, the course is designed to assist in preparing applicants for the registration examination in architecture and to afford others, working in architecture and related fields, the opportunity to broaden and increase their knowledge.

The course will be presented in two parts of fifteen weekly meetings each. Fee for each part is $60.

Additional information is available from the Extension Division.

Mrs. John T. Ware

Poems from Paradise Pastures

By W. Cliff Miller

A LITTLE WALK AROUND YOURSELF

When you're criticizing others
And are finding here and there
A fault or two to speak of,
Or a weakness you can tear;
When you're blaming someones' weakness,
Or accusing some of self-
It's time that you went out
To take a walk around yourself.

There are lots of human failures,
In the average of us all;
And a lots of grave shortcomings
In the short ones and the tall;
But when we think of evils
Men should lay upon the shelves
It's time we all went out
To take a walk around ourselves.

We need so often in this life
This balancing of scales;
This seeing how much in us wins
And how much in us fails;

But before you judge another
Just to lay him on the shelf,
It would be a splendid plan
To take a walk around yourself.

Days Of Our Years

Ten Years Ago

Fri., Sept. 4, 1959

Tues., Sept. 8 will be the first day to count for the attendance of teachers out of a total of 185 required. Pupils will report at 8:30 a.m., Sept. 9 for their first day's work. Charles Edward Taylor, 99, died Tuesday night at his home on Old Farmington Road. One of the oldest residents of the area, he had been confined to his residence several months. He joined the Methodist Protestant Church, now Trinity Methodist Church, in 1887. He was a trustee 40 years; secretary and treasurer for many years; was a member of the building committee of the present church, built in 1904. The name of Carl Springer Supply Company, Inc., which has a warehouse on Vernon Road, has been changed to Building Materials Wholesale, Inc., effective as of Sept. 1. More than 100 horses have already moved into Harrington in anticipation of the 1959 fall meeting which begins on Sept. 15. Dick Case will be racing secretary at the Kent & Sussex Raceway. Mrs. Lyda Knotts and her daughter, Vera Lee, of Townsend; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knotts and daughters, of New Castle, were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Lelia E. Hopkins. Brenda and Karen Sandridge, of Dover, were weekend guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Vincent. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown and daughter, Susan, spent Thursday in Allentown, Pa., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nachod and children. Mrs. Irene Adams has been admitted to Delaware Hospital in Wilmington where she will undergo surgery.

DP&L UNION

agree to abide by an NLRB decision as to the legality of contracting out work to subcontractors whose employees are union members.

The company has offered wage increases of 5.62 per cent the first year, followed by 5.54 per cent the second year. Friday, the union committee asked for 6 1/2 per cent in each of 2 successive years. They also ask three week's vacation for every employee after he completes five years of service. The company maintains this is not standard practice in the electric utility business; they offer two weeks' vacation after one year of service and five weeks' vacation after 25 years.

At the Friday meeting the company offered automatic progression in meter-relay department, conditioned on certain transfer restrictions. The union did not accept this.

Twenty Years Ago

Fri., Sept. 2, 1949

Gov. Carvel Saturday announced his appointment of John C. Hazard, of Roselle, Vernon B. Derrickson of Dover, and Walter C. Phillips of Lewes, as members of the state's new Public Service Commission. He designated Hazard as chairman. Miss Delores June Brown spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Fleming Starkey near town. Tom Brown was on hand at the stock car races at Selbyville Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Layton, of Washington, D.C., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Layton. Mr. and Mrs. Fount Billings, Mrs. Geneva Hurd and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones spent the weekend at Rehoboth.

Pickering Family At Church of The Nazarene

The Pickering Family of Allentown, Pa., will be featured in an evening of gospel concert at the local Church of the Nazarene on Thursday evening, Sept. 11, at 7:45 p.m. The Pickering family is an unusually talented family group. Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Pickering and four children, Max, Sharon, Donn, and Dean, all participate in the musical program. They sing solos, duets, trios, quartets, and family style. They play several instruments, and are especially noted for the trumpet trio. An outstanding new feature of their program is "Sound '69" which is especially geared to the teens. They have just completed a two week tour of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, and are now engaged in their fall concert tour which will feature them in 65 concerts in the next seven weeks. They will be traveling south and concluding their tour in Florida. The local pastor, the Rev. William Griffin, announces that the public is cordially invited to share in this evening of spiritual singing.

Bumper Crop For Delaware

Delaware farmers will harvest a bumper crop and soybean crop if the weather cooperates. However, problems could develop, says W. T. McAllister, extension farm management specialist at the University of Delaware. Weeds could reduce soybean yields and heavy winds or a hurricane could damage field corn. Also, most of the corn harvested will contain higher than usual levels of moisture from rains late in the growing season. For this reason, some farmers may be disappointed in the net price they receive; the margin between the wet and dry corn price may appear excessively large. Of course, the wetter the corn, the greater the weight loss, and the more time and fuel is used in the drying process. A pamphlet, "Shrinkage and Drying Costs of Corn," contains instructions to help calculate these costs accurately; copies are available from the Department of Agricultural and Food Economics, University of Delaware, Newark, Del. 19711. A bumper crop is always good news, but it's even more welcome this year since corn prices may not suffer as much from heavy supplies as in the past few years, states McAllister. The U. S. Department of Agriculture August Crop Report estimates that the expected U.S. corn crop will be no more than one per cent below last year's. Prices will again hit their usual seasonal low at harvest time. And, with a bumper Peninsula crop, local prices may be comparatively lower during harvest than midwest prices. However, in years when the crop is not excessively large, the seasonal low price period is usually fairly short. Short term storage—60 days or less—may be more profitable than long-term storage, Mc-Allister believes. Three factors will influence soybean prices this fall. First of all, an increase of two percent in the national soybean crop is predicted. Last year's large crop resulted in a much larger carryover of storage stocks into the 1969-70 marketing year. Also, the price supports on soybeans has been lowered to $2.25 this year. The combination of these three factors suggests soybean prices will be in the $2.20 to $2.25 range, McAllister predicts. However, he says a large crop will more than compensate for the lower price.

Counseling - Registration Set For Courses

Counseling - registration dates have been announced for residents of Kent and Sussex Counties who plan to take University of Delaware extension courses this fall. Georgetown counseling-registration will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m., Sept. 8 at the Delaware Technical and Community College off Route 113, Georgetown-Bridgeville Road. Kent County registration has been divided into two sections. Dover military personnel are scheduled from 2 to 5 p.m., Sept. 10 at Dover Air Force Base Service Club. Civilian counseling-registration will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m., Sept. 10 in Dover Air Force Base High School, Lebanon Road, one-half mile west of the Air Base main gate. Students failing to register before Sept. 13 must pay a $10 late registration fee.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q—After I file by application for educational allowance under the G.I. Bill, how long does it take to get my Certificate of Eligibility from the Veterans Administration?

A—Normally, it takes about three or four weeks. It is best to file for your Certificate of Eligibility upon being discharged from the Armed Forces regardless of whether or not you intend to use it immediately.

Q—I was issued a Certificate of Eligibility for education in 1967. I was unable to attend school then, but I plan to enroll this fall. It is for the same school and program. Should I get an updated certificate?

A—The original certificate is still good if the program of study and the school are still the same. A new certificate is required only if there is a change in your program of school.

Q—I understand I must make satisfactory progress in school in order to receive educational allowance from the Veterans Administration. What standard of progress does the VA require?

A—A veteran enrolled under laws administered by the VA must maintain satisfactory conduct and progress in accordance with the standards and policies of the educational institution he attends. If the school suspends the student, G.I. Bill benefits will also be suspended.

Q—I have a Certificate of Eligibility for a G.I. loan that states it is valid through June 3, 1969. Can I get this date extended?

A—No. This date was determined by a formula set by law.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church News

Calendar for Sept. 3-9
Sunday - 9 a.m. Holy Communion and sermon.
Tuesday - 6:30 p.m. Boy Scouts.

Wednesday - 7:30 p.m. Healing Service.
Thursday - 7:30 p.m. Vestry meeting.

Beginning next Sunday morning, Sept. 14, St. Stephen's will resume her winter schedule. The first service of each Sunday will be the Service of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. followed by Church School at 9:30, a Service of Divine Worship at 10:45 with coffee hour following. The 10:45 Service of divine worship will be composed of Holy Communion on the first, third, and fifth Sundays while the office of morning prayer will be used on second and fourth Sundays. In the church which is called Christian after the name of Christ, every person is a disciple commissioned with making Christians of all people. As the church school begins therefore, everyone should be looking around to see who is unchurched and should feel a personal responsibility in not only inviting these people but in bringing them to church and church school. This is what is meant by the "Priesthood of the Laity". The priest of a church can do only so much and no more. Every individual must be an ambassador for Christ. Only in this way can His work go forward.

With this Sunday we begin in earnest our publicity on the Teaching and Healing Mission which will be conducted by the Rev. Alfred W. Price, of St. Stephen's Church in Philadelphia. This mission is sponsored by the Order of St. Luke of the Dover district of which the vicar is chaplain. It is the Order of Saint Luke which is responsible for so many Services of Christian Healing all over the world. Dr. Price is the warden of the International Order of Saint Luke the Physician. It is at his church that people from all over the world including Methodists, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Moravians, Baptists, Pentecostals, and many other only MONOGRAM oil heaters can give you all these advantages

3-WAY HEAT CIRCULATION
Distributes an abundant blanket of heat over the floors to provide floor-to-cell-ing comfort throughout the "living level" of your home. Heat you can feel and enjoy—whether you're standing, sitting or lounging on the floor.

TWIN REVERSE FLOW HEAT EXCHANGER
The heated air travels further before it moves into the home. Squeezes maximum warmth from every drop of oil. Specially designed to direct added radiant comfort at the "living level"—with more heat on the floor.

CHOICE OF CONTROLS
The Thermatic Control gives you desired temperatures automatically—regulates fire up and down gradually, adjusts burner draft and controls circulation of air. Tri-matic Control lets you regulate flow of oil to burner, draft to burner and air circulation with a single manual dial.

EXCLUSIVE "MAGIC MIXER" BURNER
Actually turns fuel oil into gas. This patented MONOGRAM air mixing feature produces a clean, smoke-free, soot-free, odorless flame at all fire levels to assure maximum heat from the fuel used.

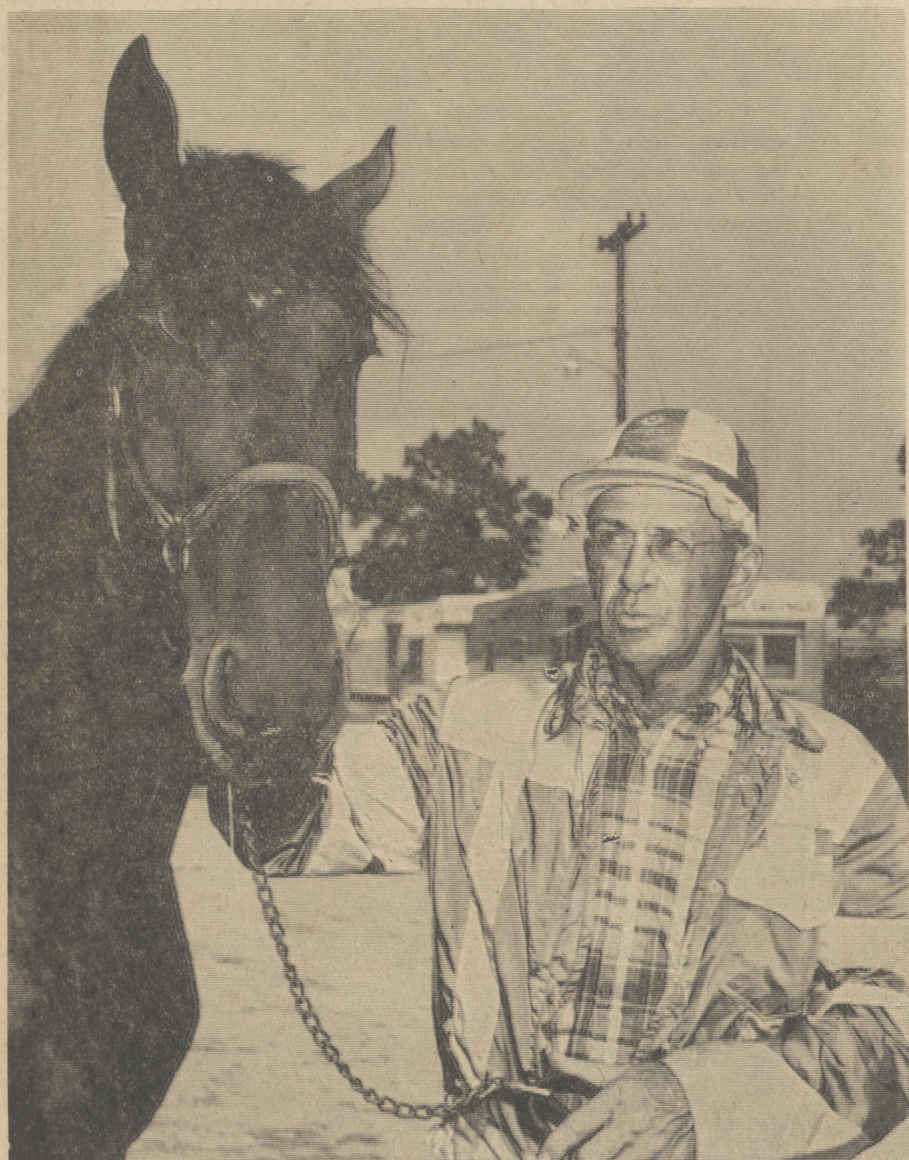

OVERSIZE "CIRCOMATIC" FAN
Keeps warm air in constant circulation through the entire house. Also provides regulated draft to the burner—balancing oil and air to assure perfect combustion at all fire levels for greater fuel economy.

SMART DECORATOR DESIGN CONSOLE CABINETS
Distinctive modern furniture styling is evident in the walnut-grained or rich fruitwood vinyl-clad cabinet, highlighted with gold anodized aluminum. Here is a heater that blends with the finest furnishings, yet fits within the most modest budget.

SPORTS

Sports Editor
KEITH S. BURGESS

KENT COUNTY'S VETERAN HARNESS DRIVER, Jim Wilson, and his outstanding two-year-old colt, Fitchetts' Pride, are ready for action at Harrington Raceway which turns on the lights tonight.

Harriers Switch To Improved Course

Harold McDonald's Lake Forest High Spartan cross-country team will compete this season on a new course at Killen's Pond State Park within sight of the high school.

The new layout will afford spectators an opportunity to keep the runners in view for most of the 2.55 miles. There is room enough to start all competitors on one row. On last year's course, 84 runners lined up seven rows deep in the 12-team Harrington Invitational meet. Only a few lads near the front had a good opportunity to win that grind.

With the one-row start and a wide, grassy expanse, one-half mile long, all runners will have plenty of running room. The finish could feature several boys side-by-side battling for first place over that same half mile area which also serves as the homestretch.

Until the high school restarts on Mon., Sept. 8th, the makeup of the team will be in doubt. The number of Felton and Frederica candidates should increase with the official opening of practice.

The first Spartans to test the new layout were Sam Bostick, Dan Bell, Jerry Scott, Billy Walls and Rick Hamm. Bostick led most of the way but ran off the course at one point and covered 40 or 50 extra yards. Thus, his 15.35 second-place effort is actually several seconds better.

Dan Bell's 15.31 is the course record as of Wednesday night. Jerry Scott, 6 feet 4 inch prospect, did a good 15.55. The big news is the 16.03 turned in by Billy Walls in his first cross-country workout since 1967. He's bigger, stronger, faster and could get in the top seven Spartans.

No. 1, of course, is Chris Wetherhold off his two straight runnerup efforts in the state meet behind a now graduated runner, who was two and a half years older.

No. 2 will be either Danny Hitchens or Brad Morris, No. 2 and 3 respectively in 1968. Leonard Palmer, who was No. 4 on the Spartan varsity, departed suddenly, took with him his two years of harrier experience and deposited his 107 pounds on the junior varsity football team.

Numbers four, five, six and seven are up for grabs. At present, leading candidates are Sam Bostick, Curt Bowers, and Jerry Scott of Felton, and Billy Walls, Gunnar Dale, Roger Jarrell, Billy Stubbs, of Harrington.

Dan Bell and Johnny Jackson would be in contention but are hoping to run on the junior varsity for another year. This team can go all the way in '69 if two dependable harriers can emerge from these nine aspirants or from any later candidates.

Tommy Clarke has three years experience, is a hard worker with a record of steady improvement. He could run on the varsity at other schools but it has always been tougher to make the grade on one of Coach McDonald's units, than on any scholastic harrier team in a six-country, two-state area. But look for Clarke to burn some of the older runners currently listed ahead of him.

Jackie D. Parker, another freshman, is a former junior varsity state champion. He set a record on Wilmington's Rockford Park course that may never be broken. A series of ailments have slowed him since his state title effort. If he ever becomes 100 per cent again, he could rebound into the top four locals, despite his youth.

Jim Blades, of Felton, a 1969 graduate of West Chester State, where he was on the cross-country and track teams will coach a 7th and 8th grade team at W. T. Chipman Junior School in Harrington. Top runners are Don Woods, Glenn Wilson, David Cohee and Chris Adamo. They have experience and intestinal fortitude and should be the nucleus of the first junior school harrier squad.

16-Year-Old Shines In Shawnee Match

Davis Sezna, 16, shot a 1 under par score of 69-70-139 to defeat six-time winner Bob Hoch (72-69-141) by 2 strokes. Davis climaxed his round by making a bird on the 18th hole after Bob Hoch blasted long from the trap and two-putted for bogey.

Sezna is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Sezna, of Wilmington and Dewey Beach.

In the flight competition, Bill Nauman shot 77-76-153 to win the championship flight by 7 strokes over John Williams 80-80-160, Jerry Medd 82-78-160, Sim Hammond III 82-78-160 and Francis Hollinger 79-81-160.

Steve Roberts shot 82-74-156 to win the 1st flight by 11 strokes over Bill McKenzie 86-81-167.

M. M. Rosensweig shot 85-96-181 to tie Sim Hammond Sr. 92-89-181 and defeated Hammond in a playoff to win the 2nd flight.

The Senior Championship was won by Bill Nauman 77-76 - 153 3 strokes over Steve Roberts 82-74-156.

The Junior Championship was won by John Havill, Sr. 92-83 - 175, 1 stroke over Mark Callahan 87-89 - 176.

On Sat., Aug. 30, Roland Collins had a hole in one on the 12th hole using a No. 7 iron.

Spartans Face Indians In Sept. 19 Grid Tilt

Lake Forest High's Spartan gridgers will open the 1969 football season by hosting Graham Dill's Indian River eleven on September 19th. Dover High comes to Harrington the following Friday night to further test the Spartans.

The Senators have an up-and-coming quarterback, who may break a few hearts before he goes back to the capitol city. For he is none other than Chris Neilson, who grew up in Harrington and played junior high sports here. Fred Mertz says Chris may be in town on the 26th to haunt some of his former classmates.

At a recent workout, it became apparent that the annual injury bugaboo is once more hurting the locals.

First string quarterback, senior John Brown, wore a brace on a knee last year and is out of action with his other knee banged up. Halfback Chester Scott is nursing an ankle injury. Another veteran, Roger Klapp, is on the sidelines with neck troubles. Bob Gibson did not suit up for the workout because of physical troubles.

Coach Bill Muehleisen says his first string is adequate except for the lack of a healthy experienced quarterback.

Richard Deputy handled the position the other night with Curt Powell at fullback. Rick Porter and Alphonso Pritchett were the other backs. Pritchett looked shifty against a freshman-studded defense but packs only 144 pounds on a 5-7 frame. Norman Baynard, 139, is another lightweight with good moves and speed.

Louis Kemp and Tony Burton impressed on defense. Both weigh around 168 pounds.

The schedule:
Sept. 19-Indian River H
Sept. 26-Dover H
Oct. 3-Woodbridge A
Oct. 10-Caesar Rodney H
Oct. 17-Smyrna H
Oct. 24-Laurel A

Harrington Bowling League Leah S. Wheeler

The Harrington Business Bowling League opened its season Tuesday night at the Milford Lanes. All teams returned to bowl with the exception of Robbins Hardware, which has been replaced with a team bowling under the title of Gallo & Stevenson. There were also many new faces making their debut this season, with many men who bowled last season, bowling this year on a different team.

Team rosters, including the five men who started Tuesday night only are as follows:
Taylor & Messick, Inc. — Thomas Brown, Frank Anthony, Bob Collins, Kenny Outten, George Collins.

People's Restaurant—Cloyd Bushey, Norman Clough, Robert Keller, Alan Young, Frank Collins.

Wally's Garage — Norman Woodall, David Ryan, Jack Bradley, Wallace Ryan, Larry Breeding.

McKnatt Funeral Home — Harold Brode, Donald McKnatt, Donald Garey, Harry Jack, Robert Garey.

Quillen's Market — Donald Wilson, Edmund Kemp, Donald Butler, Earl Quillen, John Winkler.

Hamilton Funds — Ken McAllister, Jon Chapman, Bob Creadick, Burton Case, Wayne Creadick.

The Spoilers—Alvin Thompson, Richard Wilson, Carl Wright, Leonard Outten, John Shaffer.

Penn Central — Bob Coffman, Raymond Baker, Paul Baker, Kenneth Baker, Marion Brown.

Gerardi Bros. — LeRoy Wheeler, Danny Pearson, Francis Dill, John Forbes, Ken Layton.

Gallo & Stevenson — Bob Stevenson, Ernest Gallo Jr., George Hobbs, Carmine Gallo, Ernest Gallo.

Butler's Fuel — Charles Brown, Robert Wright, Ronald Wright, Ralph Butler, Sammy Lyons.

Jarrell Fuel — Alvin Jarrell, Preston Carnean, Martin Jarrell, Howard Tibbitt, Dallas Hayman.

Tuesday night's contests saw Taylor & Messick battle People's Restaurant to a two-two stalemate. Taylor & Messick's George Collins bowled well, getting a nice 527 series, and we expect to see him roll much higher series as the season progresses. This reasoning is based on his performance of last season. Alan Young, of the restaurant boys did well also, coming up with a nice 520 series. He too can, and has done in the past, improve this showing as the season wears on.

Wallace Ryan had a real good 215 second game to lead the league single game scoring as Wally's Garage met head on with last year's champs, McKnatt Funeral Home. Even with Ryan's fine showing, the garage boys were not able to contain their opponents as they dropped three games, to give McKnatt's the top spot in the league standings. Donald Garey rolled a very fine 536 series for McKnatt's, with Donald McKnatt, right behind him with a very good 534 series, including a fine 202 game.

Quillen's Market and Hamilton Funds clashed head on, with Hamilton Funds coming out on top of a three-to-one verdict. These two teams were pretty evenly matched, with Hamilton Funds just barely eking out in the series total, winning by only nine pins.

The Spoilers wasted no time with Penn Central, taking three games from them in their fray, and almost made a clean sweep of all the games, narrowly missing taking the second game, losing it by 14 pins. John Shaffer started The Spoilers out in fine style, rolling a very fine first game of 205.

Gerardi Bros. was not very hospitable to the only new team in the league, as they took three games from the newcomers. K. Layton led the attack for Gerardi Bros. with a nice 512 series. Layton usually improves as the season progresses, if last year's records are any indication of what he can do. Carmine Gallo gave Gallo & Stevenson a big hand, rolling a nice 520 series, though it was not enough to contain the opponents.

Butler's Fuel and Jarrell Fuel could not gain an advantage over each other, splitting their four games down the middle. Jarrell Fuel's Dallas Hayman led the league in the series rolled for the night with a fine 547 series, including a real nice 213 game. Not bad at all for the first night of the season. Hayman was one of the league's top bowlers last year and has made a good start to being up around the top again this year.

HIGH INDIVIDUAL SERIES
D. Hayman—167-213-167-547
D. Garey — 166-178-192-536
D. McKnatt—151-181-202-534
HIGH INDIVIDUAL GAMES
W. Ryan — 215
D. Hayman — 213
F. Collins — 211
J. Shaffer — 205
D. McKnatt — 202

The standings for the first night of bowling were based on games won and lost and placed in their positions according to total pin fall.

U. of D. Host Broiler Housing Seminar

A panel discussion on cage broilers; new methods of broiler growing in Europe; and electronics in broiler house management will highlight the University of Delaware's eighth Broiler Housing Seminar October 1.

The seminar, an annual event at the University's Georgetown Agricultural Substation, is expected to attract more than 200 poultrymen from throughout the United States.

Featured speakers at the event are Dr. David Sainsbury, Cambridge University, England; George R. O'Day, Hupsi Corp., Atlanta, Ga.; and Dr. Larry Potter, Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Additional guests include Earl Howell, University of Georgia; Dr. J. R. Howes, Texas A & M University; James Nicholson, University of Maryland; Dean Gladfelter, Big Dutchman Co.; and Stewart Kinley, Otis Feed Co. Seminar registrants are also invited to attend the Wednesday morning dedication of the newly completed USDA Poultry Research Laboratory at Georgetown.

The annual Broiler Housing Seminar will follow the third National Poultry Litter and Waste Management Seminar which concludes Sept. 30.

Housing seminar guests are asked to submit reservations and a $5 registration fee to the Georgetown Agricultural Substation, Georgetown, prior to September 22.
