Poems from Paradise Pastures

By W. Cliff Miller

WHO PROFITS MOST?

Who profits most? 'Tis not the man

And friendless, knows his gold is dust.

He loses what he sought to gain,

Who profits most? it is not he

To live apart from human flaws.

Who shirks responsibility.

To scoff at mortal frailties

Of life's great opportunities

Who profits most? It is the man

Who gives a bosost where e'er he can,

Who's on the square in all that's done

And trusts and helps the others on.

Who puts his talk above mere self

Who profits most? Is that your quest?

It's always the man who serves the best.

Coming Events

Sunlay, Oct. 31 — A Hymn sing and fellowship hour. The Lynch Heights Baptist Church will be guests in our church on this date. The hymn sing will begin at 7 p.m. So if you enjoy singing, come to the church and join with us. Our churches will alternate whenever there are 5 Sundays in a month; which will be in Jan-

Thursday, Nov. 4 — The Davis family from Salisbury, Md., will present a gospel concert at 7:30 p.m. Bring your friends and enjoy an evening of good gospel singing.

Nov. 7 thru 14 — These are the dates set aside for a meaningment and a management and a managemen revival starting at 7:30 p.m. each evening. Rev. John Tollison will be the evangelist. We are truly grateful for the privilege of having him speak at this revival. There will be special music each night and other events that will be posted next week. So tell your friends to come to the Harrington Baptist Church and receive God's blessings. Thank you senior citizens for your attendance at the "Hymn Sing" held at Harrington Baptist Church. Our hearts were pleased because of your desire to attend. We know this was a joyful time for you also; through the many expressions of gratitude. The Woman's Missionary Society will be planning future programs similar to the hymn sing. The date and time will be published at a later date.

THOUGHTS ON FIVE ...

Five PM. It's a different time, a warm time. For breadwinners, 5 PM probably is the time you turn your thoughts and your feet homeward. For homemakers, it might be a few minutes of peace and contemplation before doing something about dinner. Often, 5 PM is the hour your thoughts go out to family or friends who are far from home. If you are considering calling them, 5 PM is happy on another score. For that's the time most Long Distance rates drop dramatically. Each day from Monday to Friday, from 5 in the evening till 8 the following morning, you save money when you dial direct, station-to-station, without operator assistance.

So...this evening...call someone you love, someone you miss, someone away from home. Long Distance is the next best thing to being there, and it's a TELEBARGAIN.

AND SIXTY

This year is the sixtieth anniversary of Telephone Pioneers of America. Pioneers are a nationwide group of telephone men and women with twenty-one years or more experience in the industry. Founded on a spirit of fellowship, the Pioneers are active in community service. They give freely of their time, their talents, their hearts. They work with the sick and the lonely and just about anyone who needs help. Here's an anniversary salute to 350,000 good neighbors. Telephone people who care enough to take time off, to pitch in, to help out.

and fabrics were appliqued on other pages along with words of recognition. I'm sure, once you started a project of this kind, you'd have many additional ideas. Just plan far enough ahead to finish it, though. Mrs. Womeldorph must have spent many hours making it, for the worrkmanship was beautiful and every detail complete. It would be a fortunate child indeed who received such a gift - a gift to be treasured long after the child out grew it.

If you're planning on a "handmade" Christmas, start soon and plan to make something for everyone in the family. Consider making items which don't need exact fit, such as accessory items, ponchos, capes, robes. Of course, if you know exact sizes your choice is unlimited.

This year, pattern books are full of ideas for men and boys - vests, ties, sport shirts, jump suits.

If you prefer to knit or crochet handwork of this type is extremely fashionable in wearing apparel and accesory items, such as hats, scarves and bags.

The biggest problem is deciding what to make, where to start, and finding time to finish everything before Christmas.
