One hundred and ninety runners, walkers and bike riders participated in the third annual A.F.S. Walkathon, again conducted to raise funds for the foreign exchange student program. A few of the participants were not a part of the walkathon. These included Cub Scouts and den mothers.

One hundred and sixty-six official entrants finished the 15 mile grind.

Mayor William A. Minner and Spanish foreign exchange student Mariate Bernardo-Gomez took part in the ribbon cutting ceremony signaling the start of the arduous trek.

The parade started north on West Street Extended and wound past Blades Crossroads, four miles out, past the first refreshment stop, to Hopkins Crossroads.

A right turn was made onto Sugar Stick Road. A mile later another water, orange drink and cookie stop was made at the farm of Steve Kliment, a former chief custodian at Chipman School. Mr. Kliment was a generous host. This was near the halfway point.

The walkers proceeded to the Masten's Corner - Hollandsville Road, turned right past the old Minner basket factory to another water stop near Masten's Corner. All along the route, the marchers read colorful, tantalizing signs tacked onto telephone poles. One about 10 miles out read, "Tired of walking? Why not run awhile?"

A turn to the right led south toward Harrington. At a crossroads two miles north of Harrington some of the strollers spotted the Chipman School in the distance and were drawn, as if with a magnet, into an incorrect right turn. Mrs. Anne Minner came along and steered all or most of these back on the right path, east toward Weiner Avenue Extended.

Coming in on Weiner Avenue, it was permissible to turn right at North Street or at Cener Street to finish at the school flagpole at Center and Dorman Streets. Dave Buck, a veteran distance runner and coach, finished a non-stop run in a swift 1 hour and 32 minutes. Ron Mosley, a Lake Forest High School senior, who led his school to a state cross-country championship, hit the water holes and still managed an excellent 1 hour, 40 minutes. The next five finishers were track and cross-country athletes Joe Voshell 1.41, Harry Benson 1.44, Cliff "Sugar Bear" Ayres 1.50, Paul McClellan, a Spartan freshman, 2.02, and Rick Woodward 2.12.

Richard Mitchell 2.25, Grayson Barthlow 2.30 and Craig Kashner 2.30 were followed by Ann Scovil and Jackie Williams, both 2.35, as the first distaff finishers. Ann Scovil's great finish was no surprise, as she is a mileer on the Lake Forest girls track team and had won her specialty, one day earlier, in a meet at J.M. Bennett High in Salisbury.

However, Jackie Williams is an unknown junior high student, who "can really run, man" according to Miss Scovil.

Al Drummond, a 24-year-old stripling, who is one of the Lake Forest track coaches, made his running debut in 2 hours, 40 minutes.

Glenn Witt, Spartan freshman, your sports editor, as 51 probably the oldest participant, and Allan Walth, a 7th grader, ran, strolled and chatted together for ten miles before crossing in a span of nine minutes, in 2.55, 3 hours and 3.04 respectively.

Kelly Woodward and Tom Ott, Chipman Junior School, should come out for cross-country next year. These slim, budding distance runners were only 60 seconds behind Walth.

Maybe Cindy Martin and Karen York should, too. These Chipman lasses did a great job in 3 hours and 22 minutes.

Jim Chatham, one of 1973's top finishers, left about 10:10 a.m., an estimated hour late, but

Health Services conduct survey

The Delaware Health Services Authority is conducting a survey on what health services people receive in rural areas of Kent and New Castle Counties.

Personal interviews are being conducted in households in the Smyrna area this week and will move to the Middletown-Odessa and Harrington areas within the next few weeks. More than 2,000 households will be contacted.

The main objective of the project is to identify factors that may be preventing people from getting adequate medical care, said Robert Bozzo, the DSHA staffer who is handling the project.

Each interviewer will carry identification and authorization from the DSHA, and results of the survey will be made public. The DSHA is a non-profit organization and one of 19 Experimental Health Services Delivery sites doing research in health care delivery under contract with the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Cooperative effort to combat high blood pressure

E. Wayne Martz, M.D., President, Delaware Heart Association, has announced a cooperative effort during the month of May to increase public awareness of the dangers of high blood pressure.

The Delaware Heart Association, Delaware Medical Society, and the Division of Public Health will join in a cooperative effort that will extend to many areas of the public attention. Hypertension, or high blood pressure, is a major cause of stroke, heart failure, and kidney disease and the leading cause of death in the black population. However, it is easily detected and can usually be controlled. May will be designated High Blood Pressure Month in Delaware by the Governor.

City patrolman attends school

On April 4, Patrolman Royce A. Purcell completed his training in the City of Dover Training Academy. The school consisted of some 435 hrs. of police training including laws of arrest, court room procedure, defensive tactics, firearms and first aid. The school is designed to make the officer a better policeman and to assist him in performing his duties.

Dr. Parker to retire in June

Dr. Robert H. Parker's request to retire as president of Wesley College as of June 30, 1975 has been accepted by the Board of Trustees at Wesley.

As of his retirement date, Dr. Parker will have completed 40 years of service with the United Methodist Church.

He began his career with the Baltimore Conference in 1935. In 1944 he was appointed to the Northwood - Appold Methodist Church in Baltimore with a membership of 150. When he left 14 years later it was the largest Methodist Church in Baltimore City at that time.

In June of 1958 Dr. Parker was appointed the District Superintendent of the Baltimore South District, a position he held until June, 1960.

He succeeded Dr. J. Paul Slaybaugh as president of Wesley College, becoming the 11th president or principle of the 101-year-old institution.

During his tenure at Wesley, the college underwent an unprecedented expansion program. Total Wesley enrollment increased from 378 in Sept., 1960 to 1,078 students in Sept., 1973, with an all time high record of 1,169 students in the fall of 1970. A total of nine buildings worth an estimated 15 million dollars were completed under Dr. Parker's leadership.

Dr. Parker received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1953 from Western Maryland College. He earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Drew Theological Seminary in 1937 after receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree from the American University in 1934.

Harold Welch Wins Again

CWO-4 Harold Welch has just returned from another successful rifle and target shooting assignment at Ft. Benning, Ga., now the location of the 1st Army. Mr. Welch spent the week of April 16 thru 27 on assignment from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily. He won a gold medal first place award for the shooting of the M-16 service rifle semi-automatic contest, as well as a silver medal second place award for the M-16 slow fire division, and a bronze medal third place for rapid fire with the M-16.

He has been selected for the All Army team which will compete at Ft. Benning beginning May 18.

Among his most recent achievements are the Listing Shooters Award, Instructing Counter Sniper training and Instructing Marksmanship to O.C.S. candidates. Mr. Welch resides with his wife, Romyne, at 207 Center St., Harrington.

Clean Up Week May 6-8

Don't forget that on the days of May 6, 7, 8 the City will be collecting trash daily. Branches, grass clippings, items from garages, etc. . . . all will be hauled away. Exceptionally heavy items (old refrigerators, stoves) requiring several men to lift may have to be paid for to be moved.

Regular Thursday and Friday collections will continue as usual.

Biden has telephone number for Delaware

"Anyone who wishes to call my Delaware office can now do so - free of charge from anywhere in our state," Senator Joe Biden announced Monday.

"We have set up a toll free number 1-800-292-9539. By dialing it, an individual in Delaware will be connected directly with a staff member in my Delaware office during the working day.

"Hopefully, this will make it easier for someone to bring to our attention his or her problem with the Federal government."

"With this toll-free number, I suspect the Federal government will be brought a bit closer to the people and not seen so impersonal or insensitive to their particular needs."

Summer Camp At Killen's Pond

Up to 60 Kent and Sussex county youngsters and young adults with orthopedic handicaps will have a chance to get out into the sunshine this summer, thanks to the new Southern Delaware Service Committee of United Cerebral Palsy of Delaware. The service committee is sponsoring Camp Lenape, a day camp at Killens Pond State Park, from July 22 to Aug. 16.

Modeled after Camp Manito, a day camp at the Alfred I. Dupont Institute celebrating its 20th anniversary this year, Camp Lenape is the first such program in southern Delaware. Door-to-door transportation will be provided each weekday, when camp hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Activities will include swimming, arts and crafts, entertainment and other outdoor recreation. "The key goal is to help kids get into the fresh air and enjoy themselves," says Lynn Coupe, co-chairman of the Southern Delaware Service Committee.

Planners hope to have a camp staff of eight senior counselors, eight junior counselors and 30 to 40 volunteers to deal with campers ranging in age from 4 to 25. A $10 registration fee will be charged, along with a $26 fee for each of the two 2-week sessions.

Other financial arrangements may be made on a sliding scale. Camp organizers are still looking for financial support and gifts in the form of camping, sporting, and recreational equipment. For further information on Southern Delaware Service Committee - call Mrs. Evelyn Petrucchi, 734-7612, or the United Cerebral Palsy office, 764-4732. The UCP office also has information on Camp Manito.

New police officer

On April 15, Stephen B. Dellinger joined the Harrington Police Force. He and his wife live on Delaware Ave. in Harrington. Prior to joining the force Dellinger was in the U.S. Air Force and served four years in the Air Police.

School Board Meets; Signs Contract With Teachers

By H.G. Farrow

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Lake Forest School District was held Monday night in the high school library. Mr. Pizzadili called the meeting to order and the minutes were approved.

The first major order of business was the signing of the contract between the Teachers Association and the School Board, a result of peaceful negotiations.

Mr. Howard Perry, the supervisor for Programs of Exceptional Children, reported on a proposed modification for the 1975 Special Education program. A change would take children from the self contained type program to a departmental one where the students would be instructed by several teachers.

He also voiced a proposal to institute a program of vocational and occupational type jobs. Students would work in the community and surrounding area to learn services and trades. Supt. Adams endorsed the program as a mutually beneficial one. Since Federal grants would fund such a program, Mr. Warrington quizzed Mr. Perry at length, while Mr. Garey was concerned with the execution of the program. Mr. Pizzadili concluded the discussion with the point that the benefits related to career guidance would be great.

Mrs. Mildred Lemons of the Athletic Booster Club came before the Board with Mr. James Hogsten, Athletic Director, to give a report regarding the implementation of a junior high football program. A split of opinion seemed to develop involving benefits derived by the "young people" vs. the expense involved. Some felt other sport programs would be more beneficial at less cost. Mr. Pizzadili suggested the matter be referred to the next Board meeting when Mrs. Lemons could submit more statistical findings.

Miss Karen Cohee of the Student Advisory Council reported that in lieu of a class trip to New York that seniors be permitted to have a SENIOR WEEK with different activities daily. Known as Special Project Days... they proposed a dress-up day, an odd day, special assembly day, dance nite, and special project day. The Board approved the suggestion.

Mr. Melvin Luff reported that the construction contract relating to the addition to the ag. building and the new building had one bidder, Masterkey, Inc. of Smyrna, Del. The $22,950 bid was approved by the Board.

A cafeteria report was submitted by Mrs. Cyndy Seik in which salary increases under the new minimum wage bill were discussed. The cafeteria workers, as opposed to the cafeteria administrators and supervisors, are paid from the sale of food items in the cafeteria. The administrators and supervisors in the cafeteria are paid out of State funds. Mrs. Seik felt that the demands could be met and the pay hikes granted even though the State appears to be in the red. Her report was accepted.

The Board recommended that the tax rate remain unchanged for the forthcoming year. Mr. Pizzadili remarked assessments were up in the district by some $2,000,000 with capitation up 200 persons.

The following resignations were accepted: Rosemary Simpson, Kindg., Albert Lewis, Indust. Art, Cheryl Walls and William A. Day, Chipman.

Retirements by Helen Hopkins, Cafeteria, East; Ruth Billings, Cafeteria, Chipman; William Anderson, Cafeteria, Chipman; Amanda Quillen, 1st Grade, South; Margaret Storey, Music.

"Thank goodness for little things" might well be going through Mr. James Pizzadili's mind Monday at the signing of the contract between the Teachers Association and the School Board members of Lake Forest School District. To his left is Mr. James Testerman. Also shown are Mr. Albert W. Adams, Superintendent, and Mrs. Robert Dill, secretary. This transaction highlighted the meeting.

More Revenue Refunds To Be Mailed Soon

Another 15,000 Delaware taxpayers will be receiving revenue refunds soon," Governor Sherman W. Tribbitt says, "as more checks are put in the mail today."

"In the continuing effort by the Division of Revenue to print 15,000 checks a week until all revenue refunds are sent out, another batch has been printed this week," the Governor said.

The 15,278 checks in this most recent run total $1,338,978.00 with the average refund received by the Division of Revenue by March 14.

Some returns, though received on or before the March 14th date, may be delayed because they are incomplete - they lack a W-2 form, have not been signed by the taxpayer, do not include the Social Security number, or lack other such information. The processing of those refunds will be delayed until that information can be provided.

To date, 59,000 personal income tax refund checks have been processed, or about 37 per cent of the total of 155,000 refunds which eventually will be mailed out.

City Receives $49,700 From Sewer Project

The City of Harrington has received a check from the federal government, a refund on the costs of improvement of the City's sanitary-sewer system.

A check for $49,700 was received recently. City Manager John S. Harrington said the funds could be used for any purpose since they were a reimbursement of funds spent by the City on the project.

Disposal of the funds from the federal Environmental Protection Agency has to be determined.

The sanitary-sewer project comprised extension of sewers and a sewage disposal plant and lagoons.

Last year, the federal government allocated funds for new disposal plants and Harrington was the only one to qualify in the State.

Nation's Health Dollar

Americans spent $94.1 billion on health care in fiscal 1973, according to a recent report by the Social Security Administration.

The total is 11 per cent more than the preceding year but is the smallest percentage increase in several years.

The $94.1 billion averaged $441 per person. Direct out-of-pocket payments averaged $132, or $9 more than the preceding year. An estimated 65 per cent of personal health bills was paid by third parties.

Hospital care rose 10.7 per cent in 1973, continuing as the largest item in the health care bill. The second largest category of expenditure - physicians' services - increased 8.5 per cent.

Health spending by government rose 12.5 per cent - much slower than in the previous year. Private spending rose 10.1 per cent, slightly faster than in fiscal 1972. Three-fifths of health spending was private; two-fifths public.

Coming Events

There will be a public meeting Wed., May 8, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 107 W.T. Chipman Junior School on the Brown's Branch Tax Ditch.

Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club will hold a bake May 10 in front of The Peoples Bank from 3:30 to 6 p.m.

Sun., May 5 - 1 to 4 p.m. Open House at Delaware Technical and Community College Southern Campus - 1 mile west of Georgetown on Route 18. Displays, exhibits and tours of the campus, sponsored by the Alumni Association. Refreshments will be served. All invited.

E.Y.C. Car Wash - Sat., May 4, St. Stephen's parking lot - 10:30 - 2:30.

Kathy E. Nelson receives honors at Wesley

Kathy E. Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Nelson, of 44 Clark St., Harrington, was honored at the Awards Assembly at Wesley College, Dover, April 24. She received the United Methodist Scholarship award and the Wesley Student Christian Association certificate.

Miss Nelson, a 1972 graduate of Lake Forest High School, is a sophomore at Wesley where she is majoring in elementary education.

Thief with discriminating taste . . .

The Harrington News Stand was broken into some time during the early hours last Thursday. The thief apparently entered by breaking a window in the front door, proceeded to take money from the juke box and helped himself to some Winchester cigars before leaving. Police are investigating the incident.

Classes of '86 and '87 Sign Up

Last week was busy one for the various nurses' offices in the Lake Forest School District, as the newest crop of kindergarten and first graders registered for the 1974-75 school year. Although differing somewhat on a district wide basis, the procedure followed at W.T. Chipman Junior High School represents what each school nurse and speech therapist Mrs. Gloria Dill accomplish.

At W.T. Chipman, school nurse Angie Hobbs and Mrs. Dill have worked successfully using a team approach to discover speech, hearing or eye problems before the child enters school. Early detection helps curb many behavioral and performance problems that often may lead to social and emotional ones later on, if undetected.

These able ladies are assisted by technology with two machines, a Titmus Vision tester (the only one in the district and a donation from the Lions Club here) and an audiometer. Mrs. Hobbs uses the vision tester to check for eye problems in a test that takes approximately ten minutes. This is much more refined a process than the eye chart, although it too is in evidence. Problems detected here may require corrective lenses.

The audiometer looks like fun, especially to a small person, because he puts on ear phones. Mrs. Dill makes a game out of the procedure and at the same time is able to determine if further testing is necessary. The child listens for pure tones. Any failure in two or more frequencies in one ear requires a complete audiogram. After this stage is reached, necessary further testing is made at the State Board of Health Hearing Conservation Clinic in Dover. Surprisingly quite a few children need to take the full route. It is a comfort to know that help is available.

The two women use the team approach for other aspects of the registration. It is now necessary to present a birth certificate and an immunization record before completing registration. While these statistics are being recorded, each child is checked as to the formation of mouth, tonsils, and pallet—all of which are important in detecting early speech patterns for any defects in articulation. Omission, distortion or adding sounds that do not belong are also identified. Maturing will take care of some speech irregularities before a child enters school, and each is tested again early in the school year. If problems still exist, children may attend Mrs. Dill's speech correction classes. These are conducted at all grade levels on a group or individual basis.

Mrs. Ann Ware's procedure at North Elementary differs somewhat. Working alone she checks immunization history, as well as where the student lives. Her testing is scheduled in September, when she and Mrs. Dill carry out the procedure described. Parents and students here are invited to visit the classroom, since it is convenient.

At East Elementary Mrs. Beverly Gemmill checks the birth certificate, immunization history, and helps parents and prospective students complete a questionnaire. This is used by the teachers who can determine how much help each child needs in tying shoes, buttoning, etc. She too waits for Mrs. Dill to complete the testing in the fall.

Registration numbers were as follows on Friday: South Elementary-50, North Elementary-59 and 26 at East Elementary. The classes of '86 and '87 have already learend their first lesson.

Mrs. Francis Dill and son Derek of Harrington assist Mrs. Angie Hobbs at registration at W. T. Chipman.

Mrs. Dill, the audiometer and Walter Lekites IV team up for testing.

Mark Wagner, of near Harrington, pauses before eye test to give a confident smile. Mother Dianne Wagner and Mrs. Hobbs are also shown.

Mrs. Anne Ware at North Elementary checks students here first, then gives a preview of what it's all about, as Dawn Marie Mellroy visits with Mrs. Babcock's kindergarten class. Parents of Dawn Marie are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mellroy of Felton.

Harrington Fire Co. answers Sunday call

The Harrington Fire Company was called to Ward Street in the City on Sunday to a double house owned by Mrs. Horace Quillen. The fire was in the south side of the double dwelling, and was contained to one room. A cigarette in a chair apparently caused the fire which was detected by the tenants of the other half of the property. The fire was soon under control after removing several items of furniture, including the one which caused the fire. There were no injuries and the loss of personal items was not disclosed. Damage to the dwelling appeared to be slight and confined mainly to water damage.

"Black Gold"

"BLACK GOLD" is oil to most people, but for 72-year-old Gregorio Riojas, of St. Paul, Minn., "black gold" is the inky substance he distills from coal which he uses as a substitute for gasoline in the family car. Riojas heats two-thirds of a bushel of coal, mixes it with nine gallons of inexpensive chemicals and 15 gallons of water, then distills the mixture to make about 25 gallons of fuel. A research firm in the Twin Cities concluded that 30 per cent of Rojas' concoction is equal in quality to premium gas, 65 per cent compares to regular gasoline and the remaining 5 per cent compares to kerosene.

Publisher's Choice ...

HARRY G. FARROW, JR., Publisher

Amid the many problems that beset the nation's government as well as the corruption cases being investigated and tried in the courts of the various states . . . as in Oklahoma, our neighbor Maryland, and others, we are now faced with a mortgage money crisis involving high interest rates (9%) and in cases of governmental insured mortgage high costs in "points" to the sellers regarding residential properties. With most people, the best way to purchase a home is through the V.A. program; however, it appears that there too is an area turning up more and more controversy. This being an election year, there does not appear to be any let up. There is a great deal of confusion with those in the various money markets . . . to say the least. The swirling waters seem to take one ever closer to the bottom of the tank.

The over-riding problem seems too related to a great extent with inflation, and how to cope with this monster. As wages increase to keep up with the costs of consumer products, the cost of consumer products seems to go higher. When will it peak-out? The nation experimented for the past 12 months with wage and price controls, and it comes to a close this week. So ends a chapter in the history of this nation that has caused a great deal of controversy. For one to advocate a renewal of this program would seem almost ludicrous. There is hardly a voice in support of this program . . . isn't this correct, especially in a year in which we have seen record high price spurts, aggravating shortages of necessary items that has brought about wide-spread dispute with this program. A few brave congressmen have stood up for this control program . . . but only a few . . . especially in light of a staggering 10.8% inflation rate. This statistic to me is one that brings real fear. This has crushed the little man, for I have seen this come about in my real estate business. The unbelievable high cost of fuel oils, electricity, gasoline, and food products has many times left the little man without enough funds to pay his rent. Yet to many economists the prospect of using controls again . . . at least, after a suitable "cooling-off" period may not be that far removed. The political pressures surrounding the White House now cause policymaking in many areas overly sensitive. The President as unpopular as he appears to be with John Public would take him further away from a trust by the public.

With the announcement last week at the State level that our Treasury was perhaps headed into the "red", we are surely faced with some sort of a tax addition or increase as perhaps a method to control the situation. Like it or not since 1971 when President Nixon took the dramatic and somewhat courageous step to install controls, it is now a part of our economic way of life. There were times in the past when it appeared that the controls were working, and I speculate had the nation been running under different clouds instead of the present political pressures the controls would have stabilized the economy. In spite of the present outcome of tapes, subpoenas, and November elections, I think we will see controls again as a necessary evil.

These are my thoughts, decisions, and MY CHOICE . . . what's yours?

Governmental bodies abet inflation

Over the years we have continually maintained governmental bodies have contributed materially to inflation. They have been able to do this because they apparently have not worried about income: when they need more funds they merely raise taxes.

The outstanding offenders have been the state and federal governments. Last week the General Assembly approved a pay raise of some $7.4 million. Meanwhile, the state treasurer is hard pressed.

Dean C. Steele (R-Windsor Hill), chairman of the budget-writing Joint Finance Committee, said the state "just doesn't have the money" and voted against the bill.

Gov. Sherman W. Tribbitt, who has been predicting a major deficit for this fiscal year, signed the bill. Recently introduced was S.B. 554 which would jump the governor's salary to $50,000 from the present $35,000, in January 1977. Legislators would be given a two-step increase from $6,000 to $12,000 by Jan. 1, 1977 under Senate Bill 553.

S.B. 555, sent to the Judiciary and Elections Committee, raises the salaries of all judges, including magistrates.

Meanwhile, Sen. Herman M. Holloway, Sr. (D-Wilmington), said a bill to repeal a 10 percent income tax that took place Jan. 1 "is dead for the time being."

Thus, continues the rat race. The higher the salaries, the higher the prices. The higher the prices, the higher the salary.

The public elects these officials but cannot control them.

From the Frying Pan...??

With Mayor Minner's announcement of Clean Up Week May 6 and the Rotarian project underway in Harrington to beautify a vacant lot on Commerce Street, it seems a natural time to mention a synonym of humankind . . . trash.

The distinction must be made early that only humans waste and litter . . . the most intelligent creatures on earth are responsible for the open dumps, garbage (some of which could be salvaged) and litter, which is an expense to everyone.

It isn't the intent here to discuss the open dumps in existence, but rather to consider what can be done immediately. First of all the Lake Forest Band and Boosters collect paper. This is done on Saturdays, at the moment; in Felton and Frederica the first and third Saturdays, in Harrington the second and fourth Saturdays. The only request made is to separate newspapers, glossy magazines, and cardboard. Junk mail and old bills or letters are considered newspaper. Old telephone directories are especially good . . . they're heavy. All these items can be salvaged, so why throw them out? Everything is picked up, deposited at the fire houses in Harrington and Felton, where the Reclamation Center in Dover sends a truck to collect it. In turn the Band is paid by the ton for what is brought in and the money is used to finance their projects.

If one is industrious and just doesn't like waste, consider what else personally can be taken to the recycling plant, located off U.S. #13 past Dover Air Force Base. Acceptable are glass bottles, cans and paper (but save it for LFB). It is requested that these be rinsed and separated. One is paid for the aluminum cans, usually beverage, which are often found on road sides and sometimes in the front yard. Throwing money away?

The slogan "Every litter bit hurts" is true . . . aesthetically and financially. The highway crews seen cleaning up could no doubt be doing more urgent things. If one is a compulsive litterer, why not take up throwing flower seeds or bread crumbs for the birds?

Town employees also have to clean the streets periodically. They are already busy and could do without additional tasks. Civic groups have sponsored the placement of trash cans in the busier parts of town, but how often has everyone seen people walk by and then drop their trash? Even pigs in controlled research have been found to confine their wastes to the same area, so don't automatically compare such behavior to them.

We are unique creatures . . . the question remains . . . when are we going to stop wasting and start conserving? After all, the earth's resources and humankind share a common denominator . . . we're both finite. Science has been unable to conquer immortality, but everyone can help conserve our resources. Start now.

New Century Club Notes

The Harrington New Century Club held its regular meeting Tues., April 23 with Mrs. Joseph L. Brinster presiding. The "Collect" was said in unison by the Club members.

Mrs. Charles L. Peck, Jr. installed the new officers. They are: Mrs. Joseph L. Brinster, president; Mrs. Terry Johnson, first vice president; Mrs. James Moore, second vice president; Mrs. Francis J. Winkler, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Rapp, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William "T" Sneath, treasurer; Miss Leona Dickrager, assistant recording secretary, and Mrs. Theodore H. Harrington, assistant treasurer.

Mrs. Jehu Camper, chairman of the day, was assisted by her committee: Miss Leona Dickrager, Mrs. Allen B. Parsons, Mrs. Floyd Nasser, and Mrs. William R. Sollars, who served coffee and cake.

The State Convention will be held at Delmar Convention Hall May 15 and 16.

The next meeting will be Oct. 8 with a covered dish. Hope to see each and every one in the fall. Have a happy summer.

was back in town by 1.20 p.m. ahead of many others straggling in at 3 p.m. and later.

The writer was slowed by blisters in 1973 and by good listeners in 1974. We can do better than these back-to-back 3-hour performances. Catch our act next year.

Mariate Gomez - Bernardo made a good effort and finished ahead of many walkers.

Aults who got the show on the road were: Mrs. Wm. A. Smith, Jack Grimm and his brother-in-law, Sara Emily and Bob Masten, Frances and Albert "Boots" Mason, Shirley Reickett, Eileen Redden, Ruth Peck, Mayor William Minner and wife, Ann, Tillie Kukulka, David Wetlack, Doug Testerman and Gloria Dill. Also on hand were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rawding of Felton, who will host the next foreign exchange student and Mrs. Con Blackman, mother of Lake Forest students, Barbara, who attended school in Turkey and Valerie, currently studying in South Africa.

See you at the starting line for this worthwhile project next year.

It's not too early to get into shape for the 1975 walkathon!

Webelos - Glenn Govatos, 1st; Doug Poore, 2nd; Larry Kibler, 3rd.

This year, for the first time, there was a race for Cub leaders. The winning cars in this class were made by Albert Silbereisen, 1st; Albert Govatos, 2nd, and Mrs. Pat Lord, 3rd.

The cars for the derby competition were made by Cubs and dads from kits provided by the pack. All those who made cars received participation ribbons.

The trophies and ribbons were presented at the meeting following the racing competition. Additional awards were presented at this time. In Den 2 Bill Bailey received one gold and two silver arrows and Darin Dell was awarded two silver arrows. Both were in the Wolf program. Glenn Govatos of Webelos received his Denner's braid.

Sat., April 26 a number of the Cubs and their leaders participated in the A.F.S. Walkathon. Those who walked were Ralph Smith, Rodney Smith, David Jones, Jeff Gustafson, Rodney Jarrell, Walter McIntyre, Tommy Lord, Randy Brown, Rebecca Brown, Jeff Porter (Den Chief for Den 2), Mrs. Pat Lord, Mrs. Lois McIntyre and Mrs. Barbara Brown. Of those, six boys and three leaders completed the entire course of fifteen miles. Mrs. Sylvia Smith and Mrs. Nancy Breeding provided transportation for those who tired.

In other recent activities the Cubs have held a swimming party at the Dover YMCA and have visited the Milford radio station.

Pack 76 also received a ribbon and a letter of appreciation for its contribution to Goodwill Industries.

The annual candy sale conducted by the Cubs is drawing to a close with some candy still available.

Chamber hears representative of Delaware Retail Merchants

Mr. Ned Artman representing the Delaware Retail Merchants, a division of the State Chamber of Commerce, addressed the Harrington Chamber of Commerce Monday. He explained new Senate Bill (707) soon to be before the U.S. Senate. The bill is under the category of Consumer Protection Agency (CPA). It was expressed that the proposed bill is somewhat misleading because it tends to overlap existing legislation related to consumer protection. The net result of this type of legislation is to create a larger bureaucracy in Washington.

New Housing Declines in Delaware

New housing in Delaware during the first quarter of 1974 totaled only 1,007 units (including 281 mobile homes), which is a 50 per cent decline below the precipitous drop that occurred in the previous quarter, according to the Spring issue of the Quarterly Review published by the State Division of Housing.

The current gloomy housing picture in Delaware follows the national trend downward, according to State Housing Director Robert S. Moyer, who said "economists are divided during this seemingly paradoxical recessionary-inflationary period as to the timing and degree of upturn that is predicted for the second half of 1974."

The homes authorized by building permit in January, February and March slumped 53 per cent to 726 units compared to the 1,553 authorized during the last three months of 1973, according to the Quarterly Review which is prepared by Housing Specialist John J. Gorlich. The 1974 first quarter figures are 61 per cent below the 1973 first quarter figures of 1,879 units authorized throughout Delaware.

Permits were issued for 392 single-family homes and 334 multi-family homes to rate in 1974. Almost a third of the latter was for the Carvel Gardens project in Laurel being financed by the State Division of Housing on which construction began in February.

February was the worst month on record with a total of 112 single-family homes being authorized in the state. No multi-family permits were issued in February. Other than 40 units in Wilmington in March, none were issued elsewhere in New Castle County last month. No multi-family permits were issued in Kent County in any month during the quarter. The March figures for Sussex County multi-family permits were 70.

On-site construction volume for the quarter declined least in Sussex County for a year ago (13 per cent). The drop in New Castle County, however, was 71 per cent. Kent County figures were 78 per cent below those a year earlier.

The heavy drop in homebuilding in Delaware has economic repercussions that are reflected in a 50 per cent decline in the value of on-site residential construction compared with the first quarter figures last year. The Quarterly Review reported first quarter value of only $13,921,000 (i.e. construction only which excludes land, architectural, engineering, and sales costs). That compares with $27,765,000 a year earlier. It is also 47 per cent below the $26,303,000 value of on-site construction for the last quarter of 1973.

While volume and value plummeted the construction cost of single-family homes continued to rise, the report notes. The 1974 first quarter average was $24,260, up considerably from the $20,526 the previous quarter and 19 per cent higher than the $20,400 figure in the first quarter of 1973.

First quarter statistics on mobile homes showed a 21 per cent decrease compared to a year earlier, down from 355 units to 281. Sales also dropped 40 per cent from the 471 recorded in the fourth quarter of 1973. Mobile home sales accounted for 11 per cent, 54 per cent, and 25 per cent respectively of the 1974 first quarter total production figures for New Castle, Kent and Sussex Counties.

Senior Center News

Several of our members, accompanied by Mrs. Charlotte Welch, attended the R.S.V.P. banquet Friday evening, April 26. The Hon. Pete duPont was one of the guest speakers and gave a very interesting talk on how much volunteer work means to all. A turkey dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. by the Lions Club. After dinner there was entertainment by a barbershop quartet, "The Tiderunners" from Seaford.

A trip to Williamsburg, Va., is planned for the first and second of June. If you would like to go please call the Center by May 3.

The Open House and covered dish dinner in April was so successful we are planning another one for May 17 at 5:30 p.m. Bring a covered dish. Entertainment will be provided.

A trip to Winterthur will be May 16. The cost is approximately $2.50. Call by May 6 if you plan to go.

Remember "Annual Citizens Day" this year is May 23. It is being held at Delaware State College. Transportation from the Center will be provided. Call if you would like to go. Please bring own lunch.

The program and facilities of the Harrington Senior Center are available to everyone 60 years and over, without regard to race, color, creed, or national origin.

New Graham Film Features TV Stars

The latest Billy Graham film, LOST GENERATION, features special appearances by Art Linkletter and "DRAGNET" star Jack Webb.

Linkletter, whose daughter Diane died as the result of the use of drugs, discusses drug usage in America and points to what is being done voluntarily by many teen-agers to combat the problem. Webb states his views on the role of the police officer and his relationship to the laws of our society.

LOST GENERATION is a probing documentary which takes a close look at the attitudes and morals of the nation. Location filming was done in Alaska, the Southern states, on the farms and in the small towns of mid-America, and in the dying Haight-Asbury hippie district of San Francisco.

This film will be shown Sun., May 5, 7 p.m. at Asbury United Methodist Church, 200 Weiner Ave. The Rev. John Edward Jones, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to the public. No admission charge.

Extension Horticulturist Retires at U of D

The University of Delaware has announced the retirement of Robert F. Stevens, extension horticulturist, after 33 years of extension work.

A graduate of the University of Connecticut and the University of Massachusetts, Stevens joined the Delaware staff in 1948 after several years as county agricultural agent in Connecticut and several years as a florist in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

As Delaware extension horticulturist, Stevens was noted for his work in developing educational programs for both urban and rural groups.

Stevens helped organize and promote several organizations which resulted in greater farm efficiency. These included the Delaware Apple Growers Association, the 10-Ton Tomato Club, Delaware Lima Bean Improvement Program, the Mid-Atlantic Food Processors and the Peninsula Horticultural Society. He also worked with the Delaware State Fair Association, Delaware Nurseryman's Association, Delaware Federation of Garden Clubs and 4-H and FFA groups throughout the state.

Last December, Stevens received a Distinguished Service Award from the Peninsula Horticultural Society; he served as secretary of the organization for more than 25 years.

Women: Are you between the ages of 35 and 75, with no known symptoms of breast cancer? If you are, you can become a member of the "Delaware 10,000," a group of women who will volunteer for $75 worth of free tests as part of the Breast Cancer Screening Project at the Wilmington Medical Center.

Sponsored by the Delaware Division of the American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute, the goal of the project is to help determine whether mass screening of women can save lives by detecting breast cancer in its earliest and most curable stage, before any symptoms are manifest. It is one of 27 such programs across the country.

Here's what the 1 1/2 hour, five-step screening process involves. The first step is for a detailed medical history. A specially trained volunteer will spend up to 30 minutes asking 255 questions. Next comes the dressing room, where you will be asked to disrobe to the waist and don a paper gown. The room will be chilled below normal room temperature to insure the sub-surface hot spots (or growths) will show up in later examinations.

While you are waiting, though, you can watch a short film on self-examination for breast cancer. The first test, known as thermography, is designed to photograph skin temperature in your breasts. A second exam, called a mamorex, uses x-radiography (like an X-ray) to make breast "blue prints." The final step in the process involves mammography, a seven to ten-minute manual examination by a nurse or physician.

Leslie Whitney, M.D., head of the project, emphasizes the tests are for women who "think they are normal." The exams will be held annually for five years. Sent to patients and their physicians, exam records will be confidential. Women who move away may be able to continue in the screening in other sites.

Are you interested? The project need women from Kent and Sussex counties as well as New Castle. Call: New Castle County - 654-6267, Kent County - 734-7431, Sussex County - 856-2855.

Mushrooms, fairy rings, and slime molds often appear in home lawns during wet weather in the spring and fall.

If mushrooms occur in circles, they cause a condition called fairy rings. They seldom occur in lawns that are properly fertilized or in which fungicides are used for control of other diseases.

Symptoms - Individual or clumps of mushrooms usually develop from buried organic matter such as logs or tree stumps. They are often found in new housing developments where scraps of construction lumber have been buried in the lawn. Although harmless to the grass, they are unsightly. Mushrooms disappear when conditions become drier or the grass is mowed.

Fairy rings occur as circles or arcs of dark-green grass surrounding areas of light colored or dead grass. During wet periods of spring and fall, toadstools or mushrooms may outline the ring. Grass inside the ring dies due to dense layers of fungus threads which prevent water penetration to the roots. The rings may continue to grow outward several inches a year if the fungus growth is not checked.

It Seems To Me

Janet Reed

What type of fabric do you prefer when you sew? Your preferences probably agree with those of other homemakers who replied to a nationwide survey conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture. The purpose of the survey was to determine consumer reaction to agricultural products. From it, natural fiber producers learned the type of product-improvement research needed for consumer acceptance of natural fibers.

Fabrics with permanent-press finish, knit construction and polyester fibers were the most popular. This confirms what most of us would have guessed. These are all factors that contribute to easy care.

Where do consumers buy their fabric? Sixty-one per cent buy at fabric stores. Department stores are next with 25 per cent. Chain stores claimed only 18 per cent of the fabric buyers.

And, to the delight of all educators, 80 per cent of the homemakers said they checked before buying to determine fiber content.

Most of the fabric went into clothing for females for general everyday wear. More dresses were made than any other item. Only four in ten consumers reported buying fabric for non-clothing items. Fabric for spring and summer clothing was purchased more frequently, than for fall or winter use.

Regardless of the season, women looked for wrinkle resistance, good value for their money, and colors, patterns and designs they liked. Washability was a major consideration for spring and summer wear.

Most of the buyers who shopped with a particular fabric in mind said they bought it. Seventy percent said they bought the pattern before the fabric.

What do these women think of cotton? Most associated cotton with such qualities as absorbing moisture, wrinkling easily and requiring ironing. So-it appears the cotton fiber producers need to do an even better job of giving the customer easy care fabrics if they expect to keep her as a customer.

Control - with mushrooms, mow them off or pick by hand and remove the buried debris from which the mushrooms grow. Or, punch holes six to eight inches deep and six to eight inches apart in the affected area and drench with a solution of captan.

For fairy rings, nothing has given consistent control to date. Removal of soil in the affected area is hard work and seldom effective. Treatment with captan (as for mushrooms) may be helpful. Deep aeration and drenching with ammonia type soluble nitrogen may prevent death of the grass within the ring. Water in well and include a wetting agent to aid penetration. For best control, fumigate the affected area with methyl bromide. (Should be done only by a trained person since methyl bromide is extremely toxic.)

Slime molds occur in Delaware lawns during prolonged wet weather, usually in the spring. They rapidly disappear when the weather becomes dry. They do little damage to the grass, but are unsightly.

Symptoms - slime molds are fungi which grow over the grass blades and usually gives them a dusty grayish or black appearance. They may appear in general over a lawn or in patches of low lying poorly drained grass.

Control - since slime molds disappear with dry weather, no control measures may be necessary. However, they can be removed from the grass blades with a strong stream of water or by cutting the grass. Any good lawn fungicide will control them. (In using any fungicide, follow all label directions and precautions.)

Don't Confuse Tent Caterpillar With Gypsy Moth

Delaware residents will be looking out for gypsy moths in their yards this year. Control of this newly-arrived pest in the Delaware area will be easier if homemakers don't confuse gypsy moths with another familiar insect—the tent caterpillar.

The habits of these two leaf-eaters actually are quite different, says Frank Boys, extension entomologist at the University of Delaware. So is their appearance.

For one thing, learn how to distinguish between their egg masses.

The gypsy moth egg mass is buff-colored and velvety in texture—rather like a small piece of chamois. Look for it attached to trees, lawn furniture, fence posts and other stationary objects. Also check recreational vehicles, since this pest is a "hitchhiker."

The egg mass of the eastern tent caterpillar is totally different. It looks like a dark brown varnished belt or collar encircling a twig or tree branch. Egg masses of either pest can be destroyed by painting them with a fifty-fifty mixture of creosote and kerosene.

Tent caterpillar eggs hatch out several weeks earlier than those of the gypsy moth. The larvae began to appear here in Delaware around the first week in April—about the time tree buds started to show green. Gypsy moth larvae will begin to appear toward the end of the month.

Larval stages of the two pests are also easy to distinguish if you know what to look for, says Boys. Those of the tent caterpillar spin silky threads which they make into grey, weblike nests in the crotches of tree limbs and branches. The caterpillars live in these nests, moving away several times a day to

by Anne W. Holberton

Have you looked at a package of frankfurters lately? Notice anything new about the name? Since Jan. 1 you've been able to pick up a package of "hot dogs," "franks," or "furters," and still get the same "frankfurters" or "weiners" you've been buying all along. All five names now identify the same product.

New federal labeling regulations for hot dogs and other cooked sausages now make it easier for you to decide what to buy—without trying to determine if there is a difference between a "hot dog," "frank" or a "weiner." To further reduce confusion, the USDA has banned the use of wording like "all meat" and "pure beef" on labels. All cooked sausages, like hot dogs, are made with other ingredients including seasoning, water and curing substances, which makes the term "all meat" very misleading.

This new regulation also requires processors to label hot dogs (and other cooked sausage like bologna and knockwurst) in one of these ways.

First, those formerly labeled as "all meat" will simply be called "frankfurters" or "weiners" or one of several nicknames, including "hot dogs." As before, products in this category must be made only from skeletal muscle meat—that is, meat derived from a primal part of the carcass.

Second, if the "hot dog" is made only from one species, the label will say something like "beef frankfurters" or "pork franks." The ingredients will be listed for you to read on the label.

The best time to control either pest is in the egg or early larval stages. Information on recommended controls for both the gypsy moth and the eastern tent caterpillar is available by contacting your county extension agent.

The third category will allow the use of hearts, tripe, and other edible byproducts along with the skeletal meat. These nutritious byproducts are sometimes called "variety meats."

If binder materials, such as nonfat dry milk and soy flour are added, the product would fall into a fourth category. Their label must prominently show these ingredients, using names like "beef franks, soy flour added" or hot dogs with byproducts, nonfat dry milk added. Then, of course, a list of the other ingredients must be given also on the label.

Remember that all ingredients are listed and will continue to be listed in decreasing order. That is the item making up most of the product is listed first and so on down the list.

No matter which name is used on the product you buy—hot dogs, weiners, franks, frankfurters—you can depend on its being wholesome. Like all meat and poultry products, frankfurters are carefully monitored through all stages of processing, labeling and packaging by federal or state inspectors. This is done explicitly for your protection.

Care and cleaning of new carpet

Your new carpet deserves and needs good care. Follow a regular home cleaning program, deal with special problems promptly, and obtain professional services when you need them.

A light daily cleaning with a carpet sweeper or vacuum cleaner prevents grit and dust from working down between the pile yarns where it can cut fibers or, in a shag carpet, reach the backing. Carpet under heavy traffic or near doorways needs special attention.

A more thorough cleaning is needed every week. Five to seven strokes of a vacuum cleaner over each area are recommended; dense pile may need more.

Occasionally, you may wish to use chemical cleaners. Depending on the care and time given and the carpet type, home cleaning may or may not be substituted for professional cleaning. Chemical cleaners do help remove greasy soil that dulls carpet colors, and vacuuming and sweeping during the process help remove grit.

Use only preparations made especially for carpet and rugs. Do not use soap, ammonia, bleach, or any of the strong household cleaners intended for hard surfaces. They may make carpet colors run or fade or damage yarn.

The three types of cleaners for home use are shampoo, foam spray and powder.

Shampoo can be applied with a hard applicator or with purchased or rented power equipment. Do not use too much shampoo, and do not repeat the treatment so often that the carpet never thoroughly dries; some backing may mildew. Dry the carpet as quickly as possible after shampooing. A fan or a vacuum cleaner blowing attachment will help; in mild weather open the windows.

Alice B. Vincent

Mrs. Alice B. Vincent, 75, of Felton, was dead on arrival Sunday at Milford Memorial Hospital. A spokesman for the hospital said she died of natural causes.

Her husband, Albert J. Vincent, died in 1962. She is survived by a son, Donald, of Felton.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at 1 at the Berry Funeral Home, Felton. Interment was in Barratt's Chapel Cemetery, Frederica.

Lake Forest Spartans lose to Smyrna, Milford, in track

Lake Forest's 1974 track team is under-staffed, with only 13 Spartans able to score against Smyrna and 12 against Milford, as the locals went down to defeat, 89-50 and 96-44, respectively.

Only five of these point scorers are from the old Harrington school district that started track in 1956, and is still the site of all track practice and of all home track meets. The other eight scorers are from the area of the former Felton and Frederica school districts, which never had track teams.

Many Harrington lads within easy walking distance of the local oval, who aren't playing baseball, are missing a good bet, it says here.

At the Milford meet Buc shot-putter, Stan Hicks, 1974 state wrestling champ, asked this writer, "Where's all your Harrington soul brothers?" Non-plussed, all we could mutter was "apparently they don't care for track, since we don't have a one from the City of Harrington."

Jim Miner, who resides near McColey's Pond, made his first three shot puts since 1972 and missed Mickey Chaffinch's school mark of 47 feet, 4 1/2 inches, by only 11 inches against Smyrna. The huge, football lineman will make up for a lot of the defectors.

Ron Mosley and Harry Benson went 1-2 in both the mile and half mile runs. Mosley is perfect in both, thus far.

Joe Voshell, unbeaten in the two mile and Terry Pettijohn, outran all competition in that event.

Ron Dunlap and Kit Tilghman finished in a near dead-heat in the 440 yard run. Bob Kashner made it a Spartan sweep in the half.

At Milford Milner improved to 47 feet, 2 1/2 inches, in only two throws. He lost his final throw on a foul call, by his Milford rival. Anything better than 47 - 4 1/2 gets him a school record.

Mosley and Benson again were 1-2 in the mile run and 880, with Bob Kashner making it a Spartan sweep in the former.

Joe Voshell's best two mile saw the sophomore run 10.51 into a stiff wind. Terry Pettijohn did 11.02, just missing second place.

Versatile Ron Dunlap scored in three events, preventing Milford from sweeping the horizontal jumps.

Steve Saulsbury rejoined the squad, took second in the pole vault, third in the low hurdles.

Kevin Wooters hit a new high of 5 feet, 3 inches in the high jump and 5 - 4 the next day in practice.

Newcomer Grant Saulsbury cleared 5 feet, 5 inches. The Spartans now have three men at 5 - 1 or better. John Starke is the other leaper. It's no longer a weak event here. What the locals need, but aren't likely to get this campaign, are enough sprinters to give Charlie Scott some help and to beef up the relay events. The Spartans are edging toward respectability in everything else, with the pos-

Lake Forest Nine Edges Laurel 4-3

Bill Falasco's Lake Forest baseball Spartans are undefeated at this writing, after winning another close contest from Laurel, by a score of 4-3.

The Spartans tallied three runs in the fourth inning. The Bulldogs broke Russell Dill's shutout spell with two runs in the sixth inning, then evened accounts with a single tally in the top of the seventh frame.

Wayne Voshell lined a double to left field in the bottom of the seventh. Gregg Hobbs fouled off a bunt attempt, then hit a grounder to the second baseman, who allowed it to slip through into the right field. Voshell scored on the miscue, sending the host team fans home happy.

Dill had two hits for Lake Forest and held Laurel to six safeties. Bob Jacobs, Wayne Erne, Gregg Hobbs and Bill Atkinson also hit safely as the winners had seven base hits.

The Spartans are definitely the team to beat in the Southern Division and are almost cer-

Jacobs Named To All-Star Team

Lake Forest basketball star Bobby Jacobs has been named to compete in the first Delaware High School All-Star Basketball game June 21 in St. Mark's High near Wilmington.

Jacobs at 5 - 10, 155, averaged 11.5 points a game. He will represent the East squad coached by Jay Thomas of Howard High.

Other area stars named were: Ron Hitchens of Laurel, Jim Murphy of Seaford, Steve Skabia of Holy Cross, and John Whiting of Dover.

The teams were selected by high school coaches. Only open to seniors, the game will benefit the Delaware Easter Seal Society and the Delaware Interscholastic Basketball Coaches Association.

Harrington Bowling League News

Leah Wheeler

Wednesday night, April 24 saw People's Restaurant take three points from the Spoilers as Frank Collins rolled a 590 series which included a 212 game, and Cloyd Bushey rolled well for People's. The Spoilers who made the final roll-offs by winning the first third, could not muster enough power to offset the second and third winner's output, although Leonard Outten did counter with a 203 game and Carl Wright hit above average.

On Thursday night Fry's American pitted against People's Restaurant, and it seemed to be all over, as People's jumped out to a first game win, but Fry's American gathered enough strength to capture three points. Jim Fitzhugh bowled well as did Cloyd Bushey with a 545 series, Jerry Hayman with a 540 set, Donald Jester with a 226 game, and Leroy Wheeler with a 576 series to give Fry's the power needed for victory.

Fry's American and the Spoilers met in a head-on clash, with the Spoilers trailing the field, having won only one game. However, Friday night saw the Spoilers jump to two wins at the onset of action, while Fry's squeezed past in the third game, with the Spoilers collecting three points. All teams ended the championship roll-offs with identical scores. Leroy Wheeler paced Fry's with a 236 game and 600 series with Jerry Hayman collecting a 212 game and 540 set, and John Forbes adding a 202 game and 523 set. Bruce Herrington rolled a 203 game and 578 series, and George Sapp added a 213 game and 556 series, and Carl Wright added a 547 series.

Since all three teams wound up with the same record in the championship roll-off, total pins determined the winner, with Fry's American coming out on top by a mere 47 pins, with the Spoilers placing second and People's Restaurant taking the third place spot.

Congratulations to Fry's

Questions and Answers

Q - I was honorably discharged after a full two year tour in military service. The Veterans Administration paid me GI Bill benefits while I went to high school nine months to get my diploma. How much entitlement do I have left?

A - Your full entitlement of 36 months. A veteran earns that after 18 months or more of service, provided he completed his obligated tour of service. High school training is not charged against basic entitlement.

Q - As a veteran's widow, I was drawing Veterans Administration pension until my remarriage. My second husband died recently, and I wonder if I'm again entitled to pension?

A - Yes. Current law allows a formerly eligible widow to regain her pension eligibility if the subsequent remarriage ends in death or divorce - provided she is not above income and net worth limitations.

Georgetown Opener to Tull and Bunting

Georgetown, Del..... Under the direction of the Delmarva Auto Racing Association a crowd of Eastern Shore race fans were treated to an evening of explosive competition on the newly resurfaced Georgetown Speedway. Modified eight cylinder feature racing saw Haines Tull of Woodland, chauffeur the Davis Trucking - James Jeweller's Vega to lightning fast victory over Harold Bunting of Milford, who drove the White-lock Paint Contractors' Vega out of Salisbury. Third in the hotly contested event went to Harrington's Bill Towers piloting the Kathryn's Restaurant Pinto. John McCardell from Rising Sun, Md., took fourth. Larry Tucker, also from Milford was fifth in the Hitchin's Bros. Construction Company Comarro, with Snooky Vent from Milton rounding out the top six.

Delmarva's winningest driver, Harold Bunting continued his perfection driving in his six cylinder feature win of the new season. From the drop of the green it was clear that Bunting was the man to catch in the Paul Whitelock Prepared Vega. Georgetown's Bodie Bodenweiser managed a strong second chauffering the Lewes Dairy Market Maverick. Clem Horvath from Dover plagued with traffic problems rallied for third in the Frank Elliott Engineered Navy Pinto. Woodside's Sonny Grier was closing in on the pacesetters, as starter Charlie Brown unfolded the victory colors, scoring fourth over Harold Warrington of Frederica, who was fifth in a Chevelle.

Delmarva Auto Racing Association preliminary heat winners were: Snookie Vent; Walt Breeding, Federalsburg, Md.; Vega; Harold Bunting and Bud Coverdale, Frederica, Corvair. Eugene Mills flew to his first Hobby win over Meivin Joseph, Jr. who was second.

Making Baseballs

Making a baseball continues to need the deft hands of a human being, despite the "age of automation." Assembling a ball has changed little in 70 years. A machine winds a thread a certain number of times around a cushion-cork center and machinery cuts a cover of a uniform size and punches a given number of holes.

Then the "human element" enters the picture and completes the job. A horsehide cover is stitched to the ball by a craftsman. Then the ball is placed in a roller and shaped to a uniform size and smoothness.
