

Spartans Seize Championship

By Keith S. Burgess

Jim Blades' cross country Spartans may have all the trophy cases at Lake Forest High filled to capacity. Conference representatives brought two huge trophies to Thursday's Henlopen Conference cross country championship run which was held at Killen's Pond State Park.

The Spartans had already clinched one of these awards, for the best dual meet record, by besting eight other schools earlier in the year.

The championship meet trophy wasn't won easily however, as the Lake Forest team finally prevailed over fired-up combines from Dover Air, Dover and Caesar Rodney, as well as five other schools not in contention.

Forty-nine points were amassed by Lake Forest with Dover Air close at 56, Dover with 60, Caesar Rodney at 65, followed by Laurel's 154, Smyrna's 181, Seaford's 187, Indian River's 194 and Cape Henlopen trailing.

The hotly contested 2.4

miles grind saw six runners breaking the course record of 12.45 which was held by Steve Dunham of Caesar Rodney.

Rob McKim and Tom Kozel of Dover finished in 12.36 and 12.37 miles, Heath of Laurel ran his best to take third. Dunham was fourth and Jamie Reed of Cape Henlopen was next. Kevin Rodgers of Caesar Rodney and Lake Forest's 14-year-old freshman Dan Parker were sixth and seventh. All first seven finishers achieve All-Henlopen Conference status.

Parker improved 13 seconds to miss the course record by two seconds. Harry Benson (9th), Terry Pettyjohn (10th), Joe Voshell (13th) and Kit Tilghman (16th) were other Spartan scorers. Pettyjohn was 11 seconds under his prior best run and Tilghman was 14 seconds better.

The Henlopen Conference also presented Coach Blades with 15 championship medals, to be awarded to his best 15 runners. Freshman Dave Richter led Lake Forest to a jayvee victory over Caesar Rodney and Dover Air. His 13.26 effort was his best at the course.

Craig Kashner was second with George Gibbs fourth. Paul McClellan at seventh and Herb Jarrell at 11th completed the Spartan scoring.

Jeff Kashner was the first Chipman finisher in his best at 14.46.

Return Day In Georgetown-- A Legend From The Past

No one knows how long Return Day has been going on in Sussex County, but it is believed that it began in the election year of 1792. That was the first election held in the new town called Georgetown.

The town was named for George Mitchell, one of the commissioners selected to choose a central site for a new county seat in 1791. The reason for the new location was the need for a more central site in Sussex County. Lewes had been the county seat, but it was too far removed from towns like Delmar.

From that date to present times, Return Day was always the first Thursday after the election. The custom developed due to the change in the law. At first, the voters would drive to Georgetown to cast their ballots. To learn the results two days later, as was the case, meant that the voters would either stay overnight at the hotel or make the trip back home only to return two days later. So, many of them stayed at the hotels. By 1828 the General Assembly decided upon new laws regarding an election. It was decided that the Presidential electors should be chosen by the people rather than the legislature and the polling places should be in the Hundreds rather than at the county seats. The election officers would then bring the results into Georgetown turned over to the Sheriff, and the results announced from the Courthouse at noon on Thursday. So the custom was set. The Day became a holiday and people came from all over the County to learn the results. Thus as the custom follows, it meant that the candidates would meet again (supposedly on friendly terms) to give speeches, view a parade, and then eat a roasted ox. The custom continues to date.

Return Day has in the past lost its appreciation through communication networks where the results were announced shortly after the polls would close. In 1942 due to the Second World War, the Day was canceled altogether. Concerned citizens of Sussex got together to preserve this day and by 1965, the Delaware Legislature proclaimed Thursday after a general election a legal holiday. Since that law, more and more candidates from the other two counties have participated in the parade.

Dignitaries and candidates from all parts of the State showed up this past Thursday. The following are some of the comments by the politicians from around the State:

Ernest Killen: (State Democrat Chairman) "I am very happy indeed with the mandate from the people of this State. I had hoped especially for a State wide sweep of the State Offices."

Donald Vaughn: (Winner of Kent County Receiver of Taxes Office) "I was very happy with the result of the election (Receiver of Taxes Office) and the way the election went. I tried to approach it from a businesslike standpoint."

Robert Donaway: (Winner of Kent County Recorder of Deeds Office) "I was well pleased with the returns, and I am glad it is over. I feel the mandate from the people was due to the overall situation. When things are bad the Democrats seem to go back in office in a big way." (Donaway won by a margin of over 5 to 1.)

Burning Banned

Weather conditions and careless open burning requiring fire company response has made it necessary to place in effect a ban on open burning by STATE FIRE MARSHAL Roy. No opening burning will be legal until further notice.

The fields, woods, and marshes are extremely dry and vulnerable to fire. State Fire Marshal Roy is requesting all hunters to use extreme caution with smoking materials while hunting in these areas.

PROSECUTION OF VIOLATORS WILL RESULT!

U.S. Congressman Pierre S. (Pete) DuPont: (Re-elected to Congress) "The people have once again spoken. They have indicated their response to the general overall situation, but the burden is on the Democrats to respond to this mandate. In two years, we shall see what happens."

Mervine Gets Zoning OK

At last Thursday night's meeting of the Sussex Planning and Zoning Commission, a unanimous recommendation was given John M. Mervine's bid to develop his Greenwood modular home factory.

Thursday night's decision was nearly anticlimactic to the previous wrangling between Mervine and the Commission. Conflicts have centered on Mervine's frequent appearances before the commission to obtain new conditional use permits as the needs of his Nanticoke Homes factory have changed. Each appearance has brought protests from neighbors. The condition-use permit will give Mervine wide latitude in building on the property, allowing him to develop the property as need be in the course of assembling modular housing, but requires any construction to be approved by a site plan committee and a public hearing if sufficiently significant. There were also a number of stipulations attached to the permit, including fencing, prohibiting a third assembly line and restricting outside storage.

Mervine said he is currently negotiating with another community in Delaware that has industrially zoned property he is interested in.

He declined to name the site, other than to confirm it is outside Sussex County.

School Bus In Crash

Charges are pending against a school bus driver and another man who were involved in an accident last Thursday about half a mile north of Felton on U.S. 13.

Police said bus driver William S. Griffin of Dover had just discharged a child on the side of the road around 4 p.m. and was pulling into the main line of traffic when the bus was hit by a car.

The car was driven by Johnny L. Harris of Felton, police said.

A student, Mark Messner, 14, of Wyoming, was treated for bruises and released from the Air Base Hospital at Dover. Griffin was treated for bruises.

New Plant Planned East Of Harrington

A Maryland Company, Baltimore Aircoil Co., is planning groundbreaking this month for its new plant 7 miles east of Harrington. The Company plans to hire several hundred employees in the early part of 1975. It will hire locally. The company will make cooling towers, which are used to recycle water in cooling systems of large buildings.

The exact plant site is to be on a 50 acre parcel on the South side of Rte. 14 and Rte. 443 (Williamsville Rd.) and the Penn Central RR tracks. The Baltimore Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of The Merck Co., a nationally known drug company.

Hiring is slated to begin in February or March for workers to be trained as metal shearers, punch press operators, welders, and assembly line jobs.

Building Inspector Named

James D. Moore, of near Harrington, was named the City's first building inspector last week. Moore, who holds a degree in civil engineering from Drexel University, is a registered professional engineer and presently is employed in the Bridge Section of the State Highway Department.

The Moores moved to the area in the 1950's and Moore worked in the maintenance department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for twenty-two years. Before moving from the City, Moore chaired the Planning and Zoning Commission when it first began. As present building inspector, he will be available when needed to inspect new construction primarily, although derelict buildings will also be of concern.

Moore and his wife Marion live on the Milford-Harrington Road with Billy, the youngest of their five children.

O'Neals' Home Smoke Damaged

The Frank O'Neals returned to their Harrington Manor home Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. to find a smoke filled house. The firemen used very little water to extinguish the fire. Much of the damage to the house was due to the smoke. The cause of the fire was believed to have been due to faulty wiring in the kitchen ceiling.

The Harrington Fire Co. has responded to seven alarms since Sunday. The Banks store at Delaware Ave., and U.S. No. 13 reported trash dumpster on fire Sunday, and on Monday the Company was called out five times. The rains on Tuesday have reduced the threat of further fires in the area.

In An Emergency-Call 678-9111

The Kent County Dispatch Center

The Kent County Emergency Dispatch Center serves all residents of Kent County for ambulance and fire fighting service. The one exception is the Robbins Hose Co. of Dover. The new center is located in the basement of the Kent County Court House in Dover, and it is on call 24 hours a day 7 days a week. There has been some 5100 emergency calls serviced in the year it has been in existence.

The Center was developed to minimize the time between a call and the actual sounding of an alarm. Since fire companies in Kent County are on a volunteer basis, and therefore the fire houses are not manned at all times, in some situations, a delay occurs between making of the call and the actual sounding of the alarm.

Although the Center was set for fire and ambulance emergency use, there is a problem with non-emergency situations. For example, there are many calls for the transportation of people in non-emergency situations to and from hospitals who do not have any means of transportation themselves. This is an every day problem which seems to be growing.

The Legislature recently enacted into law DIMS (Delaware Interagency Motor Transportation) Service, a program to take the pressure off local fire and ambulance companies. For example, if a person is transported to the burn unit in Chester, or for special treatment at St. Francis in Wilmington or to Johns Hopkins, then that ambulance is out of circulation for local calls. DIMS would relieve the locals of this type of call.

More planning is going into DIMS to eliminate much of the confusion in the transportation of these non-emergency calls. Persons from lower Sussex who must be transported to Philadelphia could be brought to a central point in Dover. DIMS, through the use of buses, could then collectively transport them elsewhere. The idea is to save on cost of transportation, and allow local ambulances to return for possible emergency calls.

The Center is equipped with sophisticated radio equipment, which is the key to the whole operation, micro-film, the call board, and two tape consoles. The equipment is estimated to be worth approximately $130,000. All calls are monitored at the Center, and this they believe is the single factor for the reduction of false alarms. The instant playback aspect of the monitoring system causes some would-be callers to refrain from calling in a false alarm.

The micro-film set up is such that when a call comes in the dispatcher can scan the screen of any town or city in the county. The county roads are also laid off on micro-film, which enables the dispatcher to direct fire fighting equipment to the scene of the emergency.

The board enables the dispatcher to know where the equipment is at all times. For instance, the board has three lights...yellow, red, and green. The yellow light, in reference to the fire fighting equipment, means the fire equipment is on call. The red light means the fire is out, and the green light means the fire engines are returning to the fire house. A dispatcher can, if called upon, direct the equipment to other emergencies.

Taken as a whole, the service rendered by the Center is a valuable one to the residents of the County.

The call board at the Emergency Dispatch Center. The screen in the center is used to locate streets, roads, etc. throughout the County. The flat table-like affair center foreground is the mechanism used to keep location on the fire fighting equipment.

It Seems To Me

By Janet Reed

"Mix or Match" seems to be fashion's favorite theme. Mixing and matching separates is a fashion art to help extend the wardrobe.

Mixing and matching different fabrics in one dress design is also a popular fashion trend. It's a good way to use fabric leftovers, too, provided the fabrics combine well.

How can you be sure two different fabrics will look as though they belong together? A knowledge of fabric and an eye for appropriateness will help you. Here are some suggestions for a successful combination.

Keep the fabrics about the same weight. There are times when you will use a deliberate contrast, such as sheer fabric in a long sleeve, but generally the weights should be similar.

The general structure of the fabric should be the same. Use knits with knits and wovens with wovens. It's a help, too, if they have about the same amount of stretch or "give."

Both fabrics should require the same kind of care. Washables with washables, and dry cleanables together. You may want to pre-shrink any washable fabrics you use together.

When using several fabrics in one garment, such as patchwork, find ways to develop relatedness in the fabrics. This may be accomplished by color, whereby a color theme is used in each fabric. Also, it can be accomplished by similarity in pattern, such as using a variety of floral patterns or a variety of polka dots.

When using contrasts of color or value remember that the eye is attracted to the contrast. This can create an optical illusion which works for you or against you.

Contrasts can be used to your advantage, too, when you use a more flattering color near the face. With the return of the black dress, many women find another color at the neckline more becoming.

Use of contrasting fabrics can be fun, but the successful result takes more care and planning than may be realized.

Delaware Food Market Report

"Side of beef -- 79 cents a pound."

Sounds like a real beef bargain doesn't it -- but is it?

Let's check this out to see how it turns out. Buying beef in carcass form -- whole carcasses, sides, fore and hind quarters, split sides and quarters -- calls for more buymanship and awareness than buying your favorite cut from the butcher you've known a long time. When buying such a quantity of beef, more factors have to be considered.

When considering a carcass beef ad, don't just consider the advertised price per pound. Instead be sure to ask these questions: (1) What's the USDA quality grade of this meat?; (2) what's its USDA yield grade?; and (3) what's the actual "real" cost of the beef you will be putting in your home freezer? These are three very important questions and when they are answered you will be in a much better position to make the decision whether the beef is a real bargain or not.

What is USDA quality grade? Low quality beef may not be a bargain at any price. Make sure of the USDA quality grade before you buy. If the grade is not mentioned in the ad then call and ask about it. If it's low grade or not graded do be careful, because a reliable guide to eating quality is the quality grade. If it's not there, you are on your own.

Since grading is a voluntary USDA service, not all beef is graded. If it is, then do know the grades and what they stand for. USDA Prime is top grade, provides the ultimate in tenderness, juiciness and flavor, it's the highest priced also. USDA Choice is not quite as juicy or flavorful as Prime, but still very high in quality; this grade is most commonly found in stores. USDA Good is only slightly less tender than Choice but less juicy and flavorful than the two top grades. USDA Standard is fairly tender, quite lean, but less juicy and flavorful than the other three. There are four other grades USDA Commercial, Utility, Cutter and Canner. These grades usually apply to older animals and are generally used in processed meat items.

What is the USDA Yield Grade? Some carcasses have more waste than others. This is very important in determining their values. When you make a bulk purchase, you pay for the "hanging weight" but you receive only the usable part. To determine about how much waste or fat trim you would be paying for refer to the USDA Yield Grade:

Yield Grade 1 -- yields approximately 82 percent usable beef.

Yield Grade 2 -- yields approximately 77.4 percent usable beef.

Yield Grade 3 -- yields approximately 72.8 percent usable beef.

Yield Grade 4 -- yields approximately 68.2 percent usable beef.

Yield Grade 5 -- yields approximately 63.6 percent usable beef.

Remember, a carcass with higher yield grade will give you more usable beef to take home once the carcass is cut up. Yield grade is also voluntary, so you will find not all carcasses have been yield graded.

What is the "real cost" of the beef you take home? How much fat and bone will be trimmed away? Here is an average example: If you bought a 350 pound side of beef you'd probably receive from 240 to 270 pounds of usable beef (bone-in cuts) depending on yield grade; but you pay for the whole 350 pounds including the 80 to 110 pounds of bone and fat that would be removed. This would make the actual cost per pound of all the meat you take home considerably higher than the price quoted in the ad. This means the "ground meat, brisket and shank will cost the same as the tender cuts. If you want a chart to help you compare these prices and further information, then write for "How to Buy Meat for Your Freezer" (G-166), Office of Communications, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. Be sure to mention booklet by name and number and do include your zip code.

Town And Country

By Dave Woodward

As the days grow shorter in October, some insects begin to enter houses to spend the winter. Some gather in large numbers on the outside of the house before entering to hibernate. The boxelder bug is one of these, and each year Delaware homeowners seem to encounter more of these pests than in former years.

The boxelder bug is about 1/2 inch long. It is dark brown or black with three red lines back of the head. The hard parts of the wings are margined with red and when the wings are spread the bright red abdomen can be seen. Bugs which are not full grown are bright red.

Boxelder bugs are annoying household pests. They seldom cause damage to anything, plant or animal. It is their habit of wandering about the house through the late fall, winter and early spring that earns them a special dislike by housewives.

During spring and summer this pest breeds and feeds on boxelder trees. Sometimes the bug will feed on certain fruits such as strawberries, but this occurs only when they are extremely numerous. For all practical purposes the boxelder bug feeds only on the boxelder tree. There are at least two generations each year in Delaware. In early April they leave their hibernating quarters and fly to the boxelder trees where they feed by sucking sap from the leaves. Soon after reaching the trees they lay eggs to begin a new generation of bugs.

Control by removing boxelder trees near your home, especially those that bear seed as these are favored by the bugs. If the trees are valued for shade, use sprays instead of destroying the trees.

Spraying the insects on the trees before they migrate to the house in fall probably is the best method of control. If this is not done, you may spray them as they congregate on the outside of your home. Several materials are recommended for this pest, but we have found that some are less effective than others. Any one of the following materials should give good control if used at the rates recommended: 1) 3 Tablespoons of malathion 56 again. percent emulsion concentrate plus 1 Tablespoon (liquid) of detergent. Add the detergent after the tank is full of water and after the malathion is added. Otherwise you may get so much foam that you won't be able to tell when your spray tank is full. 2) 8 Tablespoons of malathion 25 percent wettable powder plus 1 Tablespoon detergent (add same rule for detergent as in 1). 3) 3 Tablespoons of carbaryl (Sevin) 50 percent wettable powder. 4) 2 Tablespoons lindane 20 percent emulsion concentrate (liquid). Add above rates to one gallon of water.

Indoor control of the boxelder bug is very difficult and must be repeated as often as new bugs are seen. Use pyrethrin (pyrethrum) household sprays. Fill the entire room with spray mist and if possible spray the bugs directly. Close the room for several hours. Use a vacuum sweeper or a broom and dust pan to pick up the bugs. Destroy the bugs you sweep up as they may become active again.

UMW Meet

Rev. Olin J. Shockley, Dover District Superintendent, was the guest speaker at the United Methodist Women's meeting on November 5 at Asbury Church. Mrs. Charles Peck, Jr. was in charge of the meeting.

Mr. Shockley used as his topic "Cinderella", relating it to the Women's Liberation movement within the church of today. He stated that greater numbers of women are in Methodist Seminaries today than ever before. However, he added that at the present time they are not generally being accepted in the pulpits of the Methodist Church.

In any position in the Methodist Church, the percentage of women is equal to ministers and men, one-third each on all boards and committees. It is his opinion that Jesus was one of the first to recognize the individuality of women and to give them the recognition due them.

Preceding his talk, Mrs. Earle Nelson gave the prayer, Mrs. Mark Willey the evening devotions and Mrs. Keith Burgess sang "I'm Not Alone" accompanied by Mrs. Donald Jarrell.

Mrs. Edward Taylor conducted the business meeting. She announced the Bazaar to be held on Thursday at the Methodist Manor House in Seaford to which all women are invited. Mrs. John Harrington will be arranging transportation for anyone wishing to attend.

The UNICEF collection for this year was held last week. One hundred children from 12 churches assisted collecting $160.90.

The Fall Conference of Dover District was held at Asbury on October 17. Mrs. Taylor reported that the meeting and luncheon were well received by those attending. She expressed her thanks to all who helped in any way.

Mrs. John Schaffer and Mrs. Taylor attended the Peninsula Conference meeting in Centerville last Saturday. The annual pledge service was held at this meeting.

December 3 will be the date of the Christmas meeting. Mrs. Gary Homewood will be chairman, with the Local Church Activities committee assisting. A money tree for the Neighborhood House in Wilmington will be trimmed at this meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

Mrs. Lee Dunn of Lewes, State President of the American Legion Auxiliary, will be the honored guest at the regular monthly meeting of C.K.R.T. American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 7 on Tuesday evening, Nov. 19th. The meeting will be held in the Post Home. Mrs. Jarvis Hurd will preside.

Also making their annual visitation will be the 1st and 2nd Vice-Presidents of the Department, Mrs. William Hickman of Milton and Mrs. Philip Petrucci of Dover.

Mrs. William Minner will introduce the four Girl's State representatives and the recipient of the C.K.R.T. school award last summer.

Members of the Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary are especially invited to attend. Canned goods for the Thanksgiving baskets will be collected at this meeting also.

4-H'sers Tour Nursery

By Jerrie Draper

Twenty Harrington Sunshine 4-H'sers, a guest, and leaders toured the State Nursery at Ellendale on Tuesday, Nov. 5. The group met with Mr. Walt Gabel, a state forester from the Delaware State Department of Agriculture. He explained the "cooking" of pine cones to extract the seeds and showed us some of the machinery used at the nursery.

Forming "three man crews" consisting of a digger, a planter, a stomper and the 4-H'sers planted several seedlings. We toured the nursery and viewed the varieties of trees. The biggest grown was the loblolly pine. It was interesting to note it takes 1 bushel of pine cones to get 1 pound of seeds. Most customers are woodland owners who replant what they cut out.

Delaware has nearly 400,000 acres of forest land. We should all do our part to protect, conserve, and properly use this valuable commodity.

Youths Run At Killen's

By Keith S. Burgess

Kent County Parks and Recreation Department sponsored a cross country run for youths aged from 10 to 14 years Saturday afternoon at Killen's Pond State Park. Elementary and junior high students from a dozen Kent County schools competed in the two races over a course of more than two miles. Chipman School and Lake Forest won 10 of the 20 medallions awarded.

In the 10-11 age bracket, Mark Miller and Quinton Hendricks were third and fourth, with Bill Mitchell and Doug Caskey finishing eighth and ninth. Pandora Scott was the first girl to finish.

Jim Overstreet and John Nickle turned in excellent performances and grabbed the first two places in the older race. Overstreet's 13.17 time indicates a future in distance running. Jeff Kashner was fifth, Bill Moore sixth and Tom Ott seventh.

It looks as if Lake Forest will be continuing to do well in distance running, if Saturday is any indication.

Indians Over Raiders 12-7

By Ray Blanchette

With the aid of an outstanding performance by sophomore running back Darryl Jarmon the greatly improved Indian River Indians defeated Woodbridge 12-7 last Friday night.

Woodbridge, following a scoreless first quarter, took the lead over the home-standing Indians 7-0. These points came on a 75 yard electrifying punt return by 9.3 sprinter Jim Weal. This is where Jarmon stole the show as he closed the gap to 7-6 with a dazzling 40 yard run of his own.

The Raiders held their one point lead until the third quarter when Jarmon again scored, this time on a 2 yard run. Woodbridge also lost their major offensive weapon as Weal was ejected from the game in the third quarter after being called for a personal foul.

Jarmon gained 201 yards on the night on 28 carries and scored both Indian touchdowns. Indian River now has a 7-2 record and Woodbridge 3-5-1. Next week the Indians take on Lake Forest at Frankford in what could be a tough game if the Spartans can stop Indian River's running game and establish a passing game of their own.

Lake Forest will be led by their leading scorer John Pickett and Zack Taylor's running. In order to be successful, the Spartans must pass more than they have been in previous games. They must also pass before they have a third down and long situation because this cuts down on the element of surprise and increases the chance of interceptions.

Terry Noble (86), tight end for Woodbridge High watches Friday night at Indian River as his team went down to defeat 12-7.

Terry Curry (12) all conference tackle for Indian River loosens up on the sidelines.

Milford Downs Dover 40-14

Led by quarterback Keith Betts running and passing Milford turned what was supposed to be a tough game into a 40-14 rout of Dover Friday night.

Betts, who now has scored an even 60 points on the season, got the Buccaneers' offense rolling very late in the second quarter. On a second and 25' situation from the Dover 43, with only ten seconds left in the first half, Betts hit end Dave Helsdon, who was stopped on the eight yard line. Betts ran it in from there for a 14-7 lead at half-time.

Milford scored first in the game as following a 59 yard interception return by Bill Summers to the one, fullback Marvin Smith (46 points) hammered over for the touchdown. With 9:45 left in the second quarter Dover scored their lone points of the half as Wayne Meade scored on a four yard run and Dough McPhee kicked the extra-point.

The second half was all Milford as they scored 13 points in each of the final two periods. Despite an offense that rushed for only 10 yards on 22 carries in the first half the Bucs' touchdowns in the second half all came via the run.

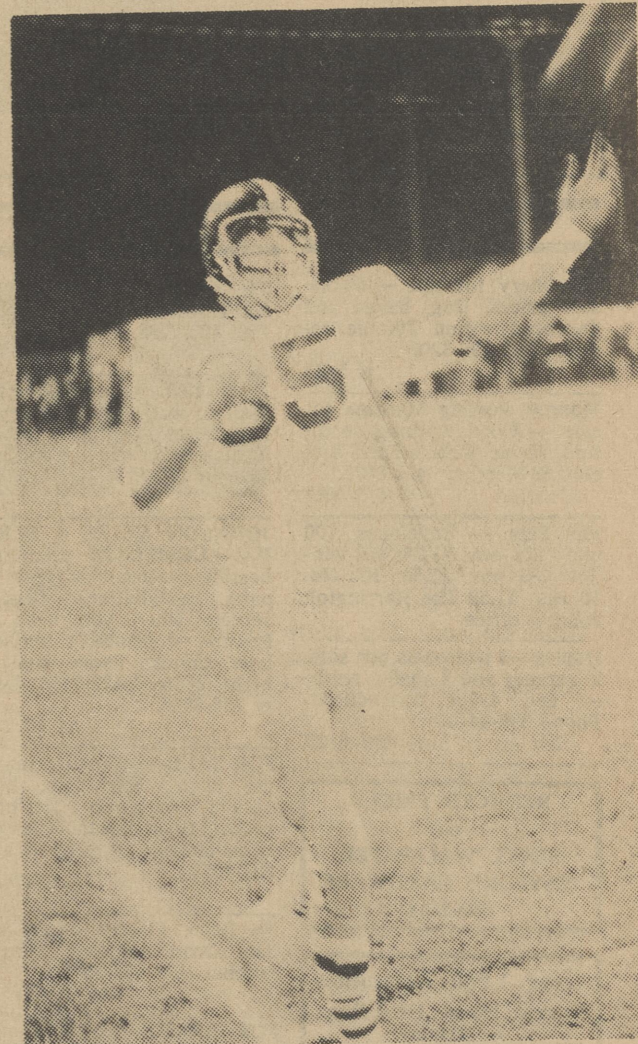

On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, Betts skirted right end for a 52 yard score. Later in the third quarter, Beulah ran 14 yards and Brian Adams converted the kick for a 27-7 Milford lead. In the fourth quarter Betts again opened the scoring, this time on a 23 yard run; Beulah ran 18 yards with a fumble for their final score. Dover scored last as Bob Taylor passed 27 yards to Ed Scotten.

Betts is at this point of the season the leading scorer at Milford, but not by much. Beulah has scored 58 points, Smith 46, and Don Johnson 30. Betts has also thrown for seven touchdowns, five of them to Charles Saunders. The Henlopen Conference's two top placekickers were in this game and each made two conversions. Adams now has 18 for the season and McPhee has 17.

Milford has now moved into a tie for 10th in the Saylor ratings. They are tied with Smyrna, who with the Buccaneers, are the only undefeated Henlopen Conference team.

Big Mike Sherman, Sussex Central's nominee for All Conference end is making ready to haul in an aerial from QB Joe Shockley in game against CR's Riders.

Sussex Central Defeats CR

By Ray Blanchette

Two members of the victorious Spartans, Henlopen Conference running champions, display trophies won by their team during this season. Dan Parker (l) holds the trophy for winning the Henlopen Conference Championship Run and Harry Benson (r) holds the trophy for winning the Dual Meet Championship where Lake Forest had an 8-0 record.

Interceptions by Sussex Central played a big role in both Sussex Central touchdowns as they defeated Caesar Rodney 14-0 last Friday, making their homecoming a success.

Both interceptions by the Golden Knights came off the Henlopen Conference leading touchdown passer Kevin Howard. In the first period Joe Kaehler intercepted a pass and returned it 32 yards to the Riders 18 yard line. After two running plays were stopped for no gain Joe Shockley teamed up with Mike Serman for the score. When the kick failed Sussex Central held a slim 6-0 lead.

Despite numerous penalties the Golden Knights had another excellent chance to score late in the half following a blocked punt. But time ran out before they could score.

The only other score of the game came late in the third quarter as, with the Riders backed up deep in their own territory, Howard attempted a screen pass. This time Joe Booth picked it off and rumbled eight yards for the touchdown. Serman ran for the two points accounting for the 14 point final margin of victory.

Neither of these Northern Division teams has a shot at the Henlopen Conference title as the Golden Knights have a 6-2 record and the Riders a 4-1 record. This week the Riders take on the Dover Senators and if the game is as near exciting as last year's one point Senator victory, the fans will witness a tough battle.

Teen Talk

By Alice

Too young to vote, but right in there getting election returns first hand were over thirty high school students. Thanks to radio station WKEN, many boys and girls enjoyed calling in the results as it happened from different polls. Some who participated were Kate Tyler, Richard Lomax, Doug Hall, Jeff Sheppard, Mark Pruett and Thomas Schiller. A fringe benefit also was a certificate for pizza.

Congratulations to Sue Maloney, Judy Hummel and Liz Jones. They won medals in the dairy product and meat judging at the Future Farmers of America Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. These students are from Caesar Rodney High School. A Lake Forest winner was Ernie Vogl who received a bronze medal in livestock judging.

Don't forget to pick out a cake on November 23rd in front of Pantry Pride, Rodney Village. The bake sale will be sponsored by the Young Adults Class of Magnolia. It starts at 9 a.m. with some extra-special baked goods.

There's nothing like a gospel music concert for youth. On the 16th, Saturday night at Dover Middle School there will be some top singers in this category.

Along these lines, there are four days of evangelistic meetings at Little Creek this week - November 13, 14, 15 and 16 at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Alexander Boda will bring some good messages and traveling with him from Tilghman Island, Md. are some youth singing groups, namely - Christian Crusaders and The New Creations.

Forty more days till Christmas? Yes, that's all! Think of "Operation Reindeer" This supplies gifts for patients at hospitals and homes for the mentally ill in Delaware. Contributions of toys, games, jewelry and cosmetics are really needed. For more information, and collection center information, call 678-2898.

Magnolia U.M.Y.Fers had a car wash on Saturday. The group is looking forward to a swim party on November 30th at Wesley College.

Bowling

By Leah S. Wheeler

Ron Keily amassed a grand total of 506 to lead Brothers Five to a three point victory over Harrington Moose Tuesday night. Also contributing heavily for Brothers Five was Ray Jester's game. Ray Jarrell Dennis, Dick Clegg and Richard Porter bowled well for the Moose, giving the latter one point thereby keeping Brothers from taking sole possession of first place.

Jack Sapp set the pace for the Spoilers with a 200, 200 and 212 for a 612 series, with Leonard Outten hitting a 222 game and a 530 series. With John Shaffer's help, the team took four points to share first place. Norman Porter of Jarrell Fuel bowled well for his team.

Butler's Fuel was a man short in their bid against T&M Rejects but handily defeated them by taking all four points and moving into third. Ralph Butler set the pace for Butler's, with Larry Larrimore aiding well. Bill Shockley bowled well for the Rejects.

Dur-a-clean downed Taylor and Messick with three points, giving the latter a mild setback. Dave Baker paced the Dur-a-cleaners and was aided by Mark Murray's 206 game and Donnie Murray's able assistance. Kenny Outten did well for T & M.

Fry's American managed to take apoint from Robbin's Hardware, even with Ron Jester's game. Ray Jarrell and Frank Robbins helped the Hardware take their three points.

Big John's Son lost four points to Wally's Garage, even with Jim Carroll's 239 single and above average series. Norman Woodall's 205 and 528 series, Larry Breeding's 535 series and Wally Ryan's 212 made Wally's win easier.

People's moved up with their three points from McKnatt's. Norman Clough's 201 single and 539 series with Frank Collins' 551 set and Cloyd Burkey's effort helped People's. Donald Carey bowled well for McKnatt's.

Quillen's Market and Penn Central both had four man squads, but the railroad swept four points. Bernard Coffman's 515 series, aided by

Damage to the Nickle car was estimated at $300 resulting from a collision with a deer Saturday.

Deer Meat Is Dear

Mrs. Shirley H. Nickle of Harrington found out that deer meat is very costly if you don't use a shotgun to bag it. Saturday evening she was driving on the Milford-Harrington Road, returning from a shopping trip to Milford, minding her own business, when three deer bounded into her path. She was able to avoid the first one but not the second one. Damage to her car was about $300.00. The deer dressed out at about 50 pounds. Any kind of meat at $6.00 a pound would be considered very expensive. Wait, you haven't heard the best part yet... she gave the deer to another motorist who stopped to assist her! Her husband had no comment...
