Senior runner Chris Palmisano, a first year Spartan runner following his transfer from Dover Air, finished first for the locals in their State Championship victory last Wednesday.

Sophomore runner Dan Parker was second on the team in both the Conference and State Meets.

Senior Chuck Carter, also a first year runner, was the big surprise of the season as he finished first for the team in the Conference Meet and third on the team in the State Meet.

Palmisano Leads Spartans To Third State Title

by Keith S. Burgess

One of Chris Palmisano's first remarks to Lake Forest cross-country supporters, after he found that his parents were moving into this district was: "I'd like to run on the state championship team."

The tiny, freckled, former Dover Air distance ace has worked hard toward that goal, along with his new teammates. When Lake Forest won its third straight State High School Cross-Country Championship at Brandywine Creek State Park's hilly, 2.9 miles course, it was Palmisano who led the Spartan surge to victory.

Jay Reed and Lance White of Cape Henlopen led archery's John Yasik across the finish line with Palmisano "cooking, smoking and booking" along in fourth place, followed by Spartans Dan Parker, Chuck Carter and Terry Pettyjohn in fifth, sixth and eighth places. Cape Henlopen had four men in the top ten and led the Spartans by a single point, with the outcome hinging on the next finisher, for each school.

However, Lake Forest under Jim Blades always has plenty of boys involved in cross-country and therefore usually has plenty of depth, with capable runners back as far as the No. 10 spot. It was no surprise then when Howard Parker finished 13th giving the Spartans that third state crown in a row. Since Coach Harold McDonald had another Delaware title team in 1969, the Spartans have won four state meets in seven years of existence of Lake Forest High school.

Harry Benson, lame most of the campaign, was 19th. Bob Mullane was another ten places back in the 84-man field.

Lake Forest's winning point total was 36, with Cape Henlopen a distant second at 75. Archmere 77, Dover Air 126, Conrad 171 filling the first five spots.

Dan Parker and Palmisano were rock-steady for Lake Forest all season. Seniors and first-year runners, Chuck Carter and Howard Parker never let up once they learned what the sport was all-about and broke into Senior Harry Benson, a four year cross-country star, helped lead the Spartans to their third successive State Championship last Wednesday.

Senior Howard Parker was also a first year cross-country runner, helped lead the Spartans to several victories this season.

Senior Bob Mulane, a four year runner, consistently finished in the top seven this year for the Spartans.

the top echelon of Henlopen Conference harriers. Terry Pettyjohn and Harry Benson ran on all three title winning teams and finished near the top each year.

This writer wonders if there are any Chuck Carters and Howard Parkers in next autumn's senior class. If so, they could have a much easier time cracking the lineup because Coach Blades is losing a record-number of top-flight people like, Carter, H. Parker, Benson, Pettyjohn, Mullane, Craig Kashner, Steve Salisbury, Charley Scott, Cliff Ayers.

The writer left the rain gear home and like many other spectators got soaking wet while watching the well-conditioned Spartans conquer almost three miles of hills and dales in a driving rain. Fortunately, we didn't get a sniffle out of it, but we did get a big charge out of watching the blue Spartan wave submerge and drown all opposition.

It has become a tradition here to reward state champion cross-country teams championship jackets, since the thincad sport consistently holds the Spartan banner high. After 17 years of cross-country without a losing season and six state championship teams, it becomes obvious that we've got a dynasty.

The 1973 jacket drive was so successful, that it was not necessary to make a public appeal for funds last autumn. So this solicitation is the first since then.

Coach Blades suggests that we get away from the colorful but high-priced vinyl-sleeved jackets this time and attempt to take care of more boys than in the past by aiming for 15 wind-breakers, rather than 10 of the more expensive type. Last year's jackets cost $35 each. It is hoped that the windbreakers can be obtained for approximately $17.50, thereby taking care of 15 boys for less than the previous cost of ten.

This year's team comes from Viola, Canterbury, Felton, Frederica, High Point, Little Heaven and Harrington. Can we continue the tradition of rewarding an outstanding local scholastic team, which has an excellent reputation throughout Delmarva.

Anyone willing to help may contact Keith S. Burgess, 398-8838 or Coach Jim Blades 335-5831.

School Board Hears Financial Requests

Finances in many different aspects were the main topics at the Lake Forest School Board meeting held Monday night at the high school library.

The first request was from Donna Taylor and Kathy Fornier of the Senior Class at LFHS who wanted to obtain permission to sell Bicentennial belt buckles to the public in order to make money to meet expenses for the year. The Board approved this idea.

Robert Draper, representative of the National Honor Society of LFHS requested permission to sell pom-poms at pep assemblies and home basketball games to help them out of financial difficulties. This, too, was approved.

One $32,500 bid was received by Joseph Richardson, Inc. for the proposed sewage system for the high school.

This bid was turned down because only $15,000 had been budgeted for the project.

The Board approved a $4948 bid from Harrington Lumber and Supply for putting in a heating system for the paint shop. This was if the Agricultural Department of the high school would construct the building to house this system. The funds for the project are to come from federal funds. The Board approved this proposal.

Transportation bids were solicited for the winter sports. Blades was the lowest bidder at $1256 and was granted the contract.

Lake Forest Band Director Dale Burkhard came before the Board with several requests. First, he asked that the people who worked with the Band Front be given $150 instead of $100 because of the amount of time spent working with this group. This request was denied.

He was however, authorized to purchase spats and garment bags for the uniforms.

The policy regarding the renting and leasing of district facilities was approved as submitted at the October meeting.

Employment changes were as follows: Mrs. Irene Layton was accepted at Mrs. Hinzman's recommendation for the position of cafeteria secretary; Joanne Curry, Mrs. Page Brothers, and Chris Moore were accepted as aides;

Mike Shortell, a high school student who has been serving as an aide at the North Elementary School, was given approval to continue until the end of the year; Miss Carol Finkelstein was approved to teach special education at the high school; Mr. James O'Neill resignation was accepted; Mrs. Dawn Willis was granted maternity leave;

Registration For Del Tech Winter Courses

Registration for winter-quarter courses at Del Tech's Southern Campus is set for Tuesday, December 2. Over 60,000 continuing education brochures have been mailed to inform every person in the region of the offerings.

The brochures carry a Bicentennial motif, hailing the "Spirit of '76" on the cover, printed in Delaware blue and buff.

Among the offerings are the curriculum credit courses in engineering, business administration, data processing, laboratory and secretarial technologies, criminal justice, human services, food service and related studies. Many students enrolled in these programs are able to accelerate their completion with credits from evening classes.

Special interest courses range from painting techniques, sculpture, genealogical research, wood carving, commercial art, chair caning, ceramics, guitar, needlepoint, creative printmaking, sewing, tailoring, ball-room dancing and belly dancing among the more artistic pursuits.

Career help and personal development of various kinds will be found in such courses as introduction to appraising real estate and real estate sales, instrument pilot aviation ground school, home gardening and maintenance of ornamental plants, home repair and maintenance, horse care and horsemanship, federal income tax, money management in the Seventies, boating and supervisory development training.

Food, facts and fads is a new course dealing with the impact of modern technology on nutrition. A "Stop-smoking" seminar and a one-night shoplifting seminar are also listed.

Basic instrumentation will be of interest to electricians, and welding is another technical course.

Physical activities will be accentuated in courses in gymnastics, hikado karate, basic self-defense for men and women, sport fishing and surf casting, and yoga. A sport parachuting course will offer eight hours of ground training, and one jump.

The brochure includes a tear-out pre-registration form, and registration may be made by mail or in person with the form, before the December 2 date.

On Tuesday night the Town Council of Bowers held a special meeting to discuss the prospects of raising additional revenue through taxes on all businesses. One of the chief industries for this sea port town is fishing.

At last Wednesday's regular monthly meeting, the license tax on businesses was first discussed. A special meeting was scheduled in order for the business men of the Town to air their feelings.

After a great deal of discussion, it was finally decided by the Council that the tax might be worthwhile, but it would be virtually impossible to enforce.

The councilmen decided that the means of collecting the tax would be difficult if not impossible to accomplish.

As was pointed out by the members of the Council as well as by many sea captains and owners of the fishing boats who live in the sea port Town and turn to the sea for living that the ones who would suffer from such a tax would be those who live there the year round. The others who come in periodically with a catch of fish could easily escape paying the tax. For this reason the new tax ordinance was defeated for the time being.

At last Wednesday's meeting, the sewer project for the Town was discussed again. Gilbert Associates are planning to conduct a feasibility study for the proposed public sewer and water project which is to be tied into the county system.

Once the feasibility study is accomplished, the second phase is for the Federal Government to approve it, draw up the plans where the sewer will be placed and put in the sewer. At the present time, the community of Bowers does not have central or public sewer and water. The planned project is to take in Bowers, South Bowers, and Bay View Heights.

There was also the topic of discussion which seems to hit most small communities on the Eastern Shore and that is "what do the kids have to do around the community. The Town has a playground which is located on Church Street. It contains about an acre and a half. During the warm months of the year, the children of the community swim off the dock.

Referendum Passes, 929 To 593

Voting was heavy in the Lake Forest School District last Wednesday as 1527 voters passed through the three polling places in the school district to pass the controversial referendum for additional teaching facilities in two schools in the district.

Voters approved the request for a 36,000 square foot addition to the high school, which will include eight classrooms, an industrial arts shop, additional storage space in the gymnasium and a 1200 person capacity auditorium. The auditorium is to have additional teaching facilities in it in order to utilize it on a daily basis if necessary.

The total cost for the project is estimated at $1,591,000, of which the Lake Forest School District would be responsible for $637,000. This will mean a seven to ten cents increase in property tax on each $100 of property. According to officials in the school district, if the bonds are sold at the current interest rates, this property tax increase would not be the maximum amount of ten cents.

Under state law, the next step for the school district is to advertise for an architect, which began Tuesday. The bids will be opened at 2 p.m. Tuesday, December 2.

The final decision of whether the district will get the additional building facilities, which also includes additional cafeteria space at Lake Forest North, will be in the hands of the state legislature. They will consider the bond bill that will be drafted by the State Board of Education and the State Planning Commission. If the legislature approves the bond bill, the state would then be authorized to sell the bonds. At that point, depending on the interest rate the state can sell the bonds for, will determine what the additional tax will be. It cannot be more than ten cents per $100 of assessed value. The current rate is $1.07, which means the maximum increase would be $1.17.

If the bond bill passes, the state could then be in a position to offer the school district an anticipation note, which would allow the architect's plans to be put out for contract bid. Then, barring unforeseen circumstances, hopefully the structure will be ready for occupancy by the fall of 1977. (continued to page 10)

No Change At Fair Meeting

It was expected that some changes would be instituted along the lines of promotion of current officers as a result of the death of J. Gordon Smith on November 6th. At Tuesday's meeting, there were no changes. The situation remains status quo, according to General Manager George Simpson. The by-laws read to the effect that in the absence of the President as a result of sickness or inability to preside at meetings, the first Vice President will act in his stead. The first Vice President of the Delaware State Fair is Robert F. Rider of Bridgeville. He is President of O.A. Newton & Son of Bridgeville.

Simpson announced the figures for the most recent race meet which broke all previous records. The total handle was $138,000.

A great deal of discussion at Tuesday's meeting was centered around the cost of entertainment at the Fair. According to Simpson, the cost of entertainment goes up each year, and "...it doesn't go up just $500 at a crack, it is more like $2,500 to $5,000". There was some discussion about putting the price up on the seats in front of the grandstand.

'They Ride Alone' Needs Help

Three years ago when the Buildings and Grounds Maintenance class at the Kent County Vocational Center was asked by personnel at the Stockley Hospital for the Mentally Retarded near Georgetown to repair a few bicycles for some patients, little did they all realize at the time that by 1975 there would be a project called "They Ride Alone". Yet, that is what the simple request has grown into being, a nearly full time project, and as instructor Jim Kelly stated, he would now like to see the project go into the community.

Initially, some bicycles needed repairing at Stockley for some of the patients there, who used them during therapy periods. The buildings and grounds class at Kent Vo-Tech proceeded to canvas over 100 homes in the Kent County area for old and used bicycles in order to find enough workable parts to repair the few bicycles. In January of 1974, the first training session was held at Stockley with the members of the class helping some of the patients learn to ride the bikes. Fourteen bicycles were then in use. By April of that year, eight more rebuilt bicycles were added, making a total of 32 bicycles that had been rebuilt.

Since there was no place to store the bicycles at Stockley, the students learned by November of 1974 that 28 of the bicycles they had delivered in workable condition were no longer functioning due to weather, improper storage and age of the bicycles. Six bikes were picked up at that time for repairs.

By January of this year, the project had become a permanent part of the therapy at the hospital. By this time, the students were not only rebuilding bicycles, but were also actively involved in helping patients at Stockley learn to ride the bicycles by themselves. Thus came the project title "They Ride Alone."

This was a period of learning for both the students and the patients. As Harry Goldsboro, president of the VICA chapter at the vocational center, said about the experience of helping the patients "The only thing I can say is I didn't know what I was really getting into...if I didn't change my attitude toward them (the patients at Stockley) the job wasn't going to get done...it's the idea when you help somebody else, you help yourself...to me it was like helping my brother and sister ride bicycles...the reason why people are supporting us is because we're helping."

Jim Kelly, the instructor of the buildings and grounds class remarked that the program was helpful to the students as well as the patients. "As I help and instruct we watch these people grow." Some of the students in Kelly's class have been considered under-achievers, but as the pictures show, and as the list of achievements grows (48 bicycles now in service at Georgetown under a partially covered shed to protect the 55 bicycle gift, with some tricycles by the new year, $1,250; 6 orthopedic bicycles for handicapped needs of 6 Delaware patients, $3,250; 6 three-wheeled adult bicycles, $1,020.

To date, the bicycles have been just that. Two wheelers. The buildings and grounds class hopes to find the means to reach their immediate goal, which includes: Five overhead doors to assist in completing new bike building at hospital, $750; 25 new single-speed bikes needed to complete the 55 bicycle gift, with some tricycles by the new year, $1,250; 6 orthopedic bicycles for handicapped needs of 6 Delaware patients, $3,250; 6 three-wheeled adult bicycles, $1,020.

This means help, and help now. Any assistance that could be given should be directed to E. James Kelly, Instructor, Buildings and Grounds Maintenance, Kent County Vo-Tech Center, Woodside, Delaware 19980. The telephone number is 302-697-3255. The class hopes to be able to provide 50 bicycles of assorted sizes and five tricycles to guarantee the hospital will have a bicycle club supported by the civic organizations of the community. So far, the class has done most of the work, now it is up to the community...

Members of the Buildings and Grounds class at Kent County Vocational Technical Center at Woodside are totally involved in "They Ride Alone."

Monday was Kitchen Band rehearsal with Christmas carols. In the afternoon was Membership with Her Hussey opening the meeting at 2 p.m.

On Tuesday several of the members went shopping to Rodney Village in the afternoon. The morning was spent making ceramics for the Bazaar, which will be held Nov. 21-22. We have some very nice things suitable for Christmas gifts. Come in and see for yourselves.

On Wednesday Carolyn Fisher paid us a friendly visit and explained the Outreach program in getting new members for the center. In the afternoon the Rev. Alvin Willink and his wife from Asbury Church visited us and put on a musical program with three piano duets by himself and his wife. Then he presented the life of a young man from this locality through his childhood to his school days and up to his old age (this was fiction of course.) This was something new and we enjoyed it very much and will await another visit from them some time again.

On Thursday J. Phillips from one of the banks of Dover visited the center to show the members how to write checks and balance their accounts. In the afternoon George Goodge showed a film entitled "Trail for all Seasons" with scenes of New Mexico and Arizona, scenes of the Alamo in Texas, Phoenix, Arizona, Corpus Christi, water skiing, swimming and the Grand Canyon.

This week the spotlight falls on another of our male members, Elbert Stevens who is handy around the Center with tools and has some very good ideas. He is now living in Harrington with his wife Catherine and Mrs. Winder Massey, Mrs. Massey's husband was Elbert's wife's brother.

Elbert built the steps and the ramp of the south side of the center and installed the roof drains on the buildings. He is a good pool player and bowler, usually coming out as top man.

His father was known as Smok Stevens. When he was living and was responsible for building most of the sidewalks here. Elbert was known by his early Harrington friends as Biddie, and is still called that name by many of them.

He and his wife have had 53 years of happy married life together. Both look as if they will have many more.

4-H International Foods Day was a success again for its second year. 4-Hers prepared a dish from a foreign country, brought it to the Substation, dressed in an appropriate costume for that country, and shared the dishes for a pleasant meal.

Participating 4-Hers were Cristina Bassols, Janet Cannon, Nora Kay Cannon, Carol Collins, Estella Higgins, Jacqueline McMillion, JoAnne McMillion, Marcia Melson, Cindy Moore, Vicki Morrone, Edwin Smith, and Karen Taylor.

Following the meal, the special American-Foreign Exchange Student guests presented an interesting program on dances of their countries. I understand all especially enjoyed this part of the day's activities.

A special recognition goes to the Planning Committee. Its members were Janet Cannon, Nora Kay Cannon, Mrs. Sarah Fletcher, Marcia Melson, Cindy Moore, Vicki Morrone, and Mrs. Barbara Taylor.

The Sussex Bicentennial Youth Salute will be held on November 21 and 22 at the Delaware Technical and Community College in Georgetown. Highlights of the program are:

November 21 - 9 p.m.-1 a.m. Rock Dance featuring "Society's Child" - sponsored by the Sussex County 4-H Jr. Council

All the activities will be held in the new wing of the college except the dance, which will be held in the Student Center.

Don't miss this celebration of our nation's 200th birthday. It will be one you will long remember!

Club meetings for next week are: Broadkill Kool Kats on Monday.

Brownie News
Time has passed so quickly since the Troop started in September. Each week they work on a project.

During October they were involved in the UNICEF Drive for the community. There was a good turn out and all enjoyed helping with this project.

Later in October, Mrs. Russum, Troop leader, had a Halloween Party in her home. This was a party that all will remember for a long time.

November has started out being a busy month. This is when the Brownies are busy getting ready for the Christmas parade on December 6th.

The Troop is now selling Girl Scout calendars.

4-H'ers Paint Fire Hydrants

Last Saturday, many members of the Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club were painting the fire hydrants red, white and blue in commemoration of the bicentennial celebration. The club was granted permission to do the project from the local fire company.

The club would like to paint all the fire hydrants in the City, but because most are students, they plan to complete those seen on the Christmas parade Route. Work such as this won the Harrington Sunshine 4-Her's the community service award in 1974.

Included in the project Saturday were: Mike Everline, Doug Crouse, Lisa Bostick, Sandy Crouse, Connie Harrington, Sheila O'Day, Bobby Vincent and Abbey Betts.

Let your car warm-up a few minutes on cold mornings suggests the Delaware Safety Council. It could prevent a dangerous stall later.

Upland Game Season Open

With the closing of deer season, Saturday, Nov. 15, the majority of "First State" hunters are looking ahead to the opening of Delaware's small game seasons on Monday, Nov. 17.

The cottontail rabbit season, Delaware's most sought after game species, opens Nov. 17-Jan. 1 statewide, and reopens Jan. 5-17 in New Castle and Kent Counties. The daily limit is four rabbits.

The second portion of the season for gray squirrel opens Nov. 17-Jan. 1, with a four squirrel daily limit. Hunters are reminded that shotguns only may be used for squirrel during this season.

For the upland bird hunter, the Bobwhite quail, our number one game bird, may be hunted Nov. 17-Jan. 1 and Jan. 5-Feb. 28. The daily limit is eight birds. The regular season for ring-necked pheasant opens Nov. 17-Jan. 1, with a two cock bird daily limit. (Female pheasants are not legal targets.) Woodcock season opens Nov. 17-Jan. 1, with a five bird limit per day.

Hound fanciers may follow their hounds for raccoon Nov. 15-Jan. 1 and Jan. 3-Feb. 28; and for red fox Nov. 16-Jan. 1 and Jan. 4-April 30.

Besides these season openings for upland game, waterfowlers may still try to put meat on the table. The duck, coot and merganser seasons continue to Nov. 29 and reopen Dec. 17-Jan. 10.

The daily limit is five ducks which shall not include more than one black duck or two wood ducks. In the part of Delaware Bay and coastal waters east of U.S. Highway 13 from the Pennsylvania State Line to Dover east of U.S. Highway 113 from Dover south to State Highway 26, waterfowl hunters may take two scup daily in addition to limits on all other ducks. Hunters are reminded that the season on Canvasback and Redheads remains closed.

The limit on mergansers is five daily, of which only one may be a hooded merganser. These is a 15 bird daily limit

The Canada goose season continues to Dec. 13 and reopens Dec. 17-Jan. 16. The daily limit is three. The new season on Brant and Snow geese opened Friday Nov. 14-Dec. 13, with a four brant and two snow goose daily limit. Hunters are cautioned against shooting ducks during those periods when goose only seasons are in. Hunters are also reminded that they are responsible for the proper identification of their targets.

The Division of Fish and Wildlife urges hunters to obey the game laws. They are designed to protect the wildlife resources, and at the same time provide as high quality recreation as possible.

First Victory of Season

Spartans Defeat Woodbridge

Sports Feature

Jeff Chambers, senior tackle, provided the key tackle Friday night in the game against Woodbridge. Chambers stopped Dave Waddler, the leading ground gainer for the Raiders, at the line of scrimmage. Waddler needed inches for the first down.

The first win of the season for the Lake Forest Spartans came much later in the season than what was thought or predicted. It was a well deserved win for a team which executed perfectly and played together as a team.

taken in stride as were the previous loses. At Dickinson, winning was a way of life for that student body, and it was that composure which Jim Fleming has brought to Lake Forest.

season. The game Friday night against a strong Milford team will loom as a test for Lake Forest as to whether or not they are competent enough to stand up under stiff competition.

half, senior quarterback, Neal Smith, connected on one. It was to Voshell good for 43 yards, and the winning TD. Smith held a hot hand on the night connecting on the first five passes that he tossed.

Kenny Crouse, junior guard, set up the climatic play in Friday's game when he sacked Louis Dexter for a three yard loss. This was third down. On the next play Dave Waddler was stopped by Jeff Chambers to halt the drive by Woodbridge other hand, Tull kept Woodbridge out of trouble time and time again with his punting. Normally he will punt for an average of about 35 yards per punt whereas Smith's average for Lake Forest is about 45 yards per kick.

Assistant Coach Buck Starkey, center photo, motions to the Spartans to get back as excitement ran out of control as Zack Taylor had just ran back an intercepted pass 41 yards for the TD.

Wayne Voshell [84] back to the camera and in the center of the picture latches onto one of Neal Smith's many aeriels Friday night for a long gain. Voshell was open over the middle all night.

Rickie Tull [17] between players uncorks one of the few aeriels in the game against Lake Forest on Friday night. The pass was intended for Dave Waddler, who ticked the ball high in the air and into the waiting arms of Roland [Zack] Taylor who romped 41 yards for a TD.

Each and every game for Lake Forest this year has been well played, and except for the CR and Sussex Central games, the scores have been very close. So close in fact that victory was only a breath away.

Statistically the two teams of Friday night were evenly matched. For Woodbridge, the statistics between three statisticians appeared to have roughly 189 net yards rushing in 41 carries to at least 104 yards on 40 carries for Lake Forest.

In the first half of play, the defense for L.F. continued to contain the Raiders, and in doing so kept giving the ball to the offense. Mistakes by Woodbridge, like fumbles (four and lost two), together with too many intercepted passes (two by senior Rickie Tull and one by Louis Dexter), were also costly.

The record could have easily been at this stage of the season five and four or six and three. With one game remaining in the 1975 season, the Spartans have given their fans something to cheer about during the

Spartans who seem to get better with every game. Crouse had caused a fumble earlier which teammate Dean McCombs pounced upon to stop a drive by the Raiders. It was this kind of heads up play all night which enabled the Spartans to play together as a team, and with the momentum rolled to victory.

The man who has waited all season to break it loose got his chance in the Woodbridge game. On the opening kick-off Roland (Zack) Taylor motored 93 yards for the TD. He picked up his blockers in the center of the field behind a wedge, cut to the outside about the 35 yard line, and turned it on for the last 65 yards. He outdistanced everyone... even his own blockers.

Referendum

Voting in the school district was as follows: 929 for the referendum, 593 against, five void votes. In Harrington 381 cast votes for the referendum, 294 cast votes against it. At Lake Forest East, 193 cast votes for the referendum, while 95 cast votes against it. At Lake Forest North, 355 voted for the referendum and 204 voted against it. There were five void votes at the North Elementary School.

Albert Price, president of the Lake Forest School District remarked, "The passage of the referendum was a culmination of the combined efforts of many people...I feel the success of the referendum was that the people met the challenge and responded to the educational needs of the youths of the district." Now the needs of the youth will be put into the hands of the legislature. It will be their move next when they meet again in January.

School Board

Mrs. Black's bus route was transferred to Stanley Dean, and Harrison Melvin's route was transferred to Mrs. Harrison Melvin.

A three month report was given by William Griffin, principal of LFHS, regarding the smoking area. Griffin said he was generally pleased with the success of this program as the bathrooms were much cleaner now and there have been very few problems to date. The Board granted permission to extend this policy through the end of the school year.

The Advisory Board of the Student Council representatives Donna Taylor and Kathy Fournier brought a proposal on the dress code. They wanted approval for the elementary students to wear shorts since there is no air conditioning in the elementary schools. They also requested that the high school students be allowed to wear shorts on special occasions as approved by the principal or vice-principal. This proposal was tabled until recommendations could be received from the principals of the schools.

Greenwood

By Pat Hatfield

The Bicentennial Heritage Committee who are making a history of Greenwood, need all the old pictures of days of long ago in Greenwood. If you have any, would you loan them so that they may be copied for this purpose. Please contact either Alfred McIlvaine or Grace Porter.

Miss Mary Morris who is a patient in the Country Rest Home, after an accident suffered in her home in the old hotel, is doing very nicely.

Friday, Nov. 14, was her 88th birthday and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McIlvaine took her for a ride and birthday ice cream and they called on Mrs. Jacob Hatfield at Trail's End. We wish this dear lady many more comfortable and happy days.

The 22nd Annual Thanksgiving Morning Service will be held at Greenwood Wesleyan Church, Nov. 27, from 10 to 11 a.m. The Rev. Robert Stephens of Bath, Pa., will be guest speaker and will continue through the rest of the week in Evangelistic services (Thursday through Sunday, Nov. 27-30) with services held nightly at 7:30.

The Sunday schedule will be S.S. at 10 a.m.; Evangelistic services at 7 p.m. Everyone welcome. The Rev. Etta Clough, pastor.

News from Hickory Ridge Congregational Methodist Church: Our church charter was lost last year at the time of the fire, but we have received a new one to replace it. At the business meeting last month it was decided to leave the charter open until the end of 1975. If you have not signed the new charter, but desire to be a member of our church contact the pastor. Our Discipline states that anyone may apply for membership who has made a profession of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, or who has moved his membership from another orthodox church in good standing.

The WMS luncheon holder on Tuesday was a delightful occasion for all who attended.

tended. The committee in charge had worked very hard and had made the tables most attractive with a bicentennial theme, which was appropriate for Veteran's Day. There was an abundance of delicious food and another table was filled with gifts for the church kitchen. Many gave gifts who could not be with us, and we are thankful. There were gifts of money in the amount of $125 which will be used toward a coffee urn and the kitchen sink.

We have received a letter from the State Home and Hospital in Smyrna asking us to supply help for patient's gifts at Christmas. They have about 645 patients, ranging in age from 16 to 102, and they try to give each one a Xmas stocking with the help of friends. Gifts suggested are lap robes, booties, and shawls, also writing paper, toiletries, (especially deodorant) checkers, games, etc. If wrapped, please mark male or female. Please do not send drug items, such as aspirin or Ben Gay. We will deliver them when we visit the home on December 10.

Mrs. Theresa Ottey has had as her guest her young granddaughters, Mary Ann, Cathy, and Dawn Clarke of Mt. Holly, N.J. The girls arrived on Wednesday evening and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert George Clarke, proceeded on to Cape Hatteras to do a bit of fishing. However, they found weather so cold and miserable and the fishing poor, they came back to Greenwood and enjoyed a family visit with grandmother, leaving for their home on Sunday afternoon. While here they called on Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hatfield and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bolinger.

The Homecoming Service, celebrating the 196th Anniversary of old St. Johnstown Church will be held on Nov. 30 at 2 p.m. The Rev. Roy L. Tawes, pastor of Cannon Charge will be the speaker. There will be special music by Mrs. Mary Uhler, the Epworth Fellowship Trio from Laurel, the Ladies Trio and Lincoln Tabernacle, and the Salvation Singers, a group of boys from the Milton area. There will be a coffee hour after the service.

News from Greenwood United Methodist Church: On Thursday evening there will be a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p.m. for the Greenwood Charge, followed by the Charge Conference at 7:30. The Rev. and Mrs. William Revelle will be in attendance and he will preside at the Conference.

On Nov. 23, the Wheatley Family Program at Greenwood at 7:30 p.m.

On Nov. 30, The Rev. Don Clendaniel and the S.P.T.L.'s will be at Epworth Church at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 5-7 there will be a Weekend Revival with Bob Wheatley.

Dec. 8 will be the United Methodist Women's Christmas Party.

BICENTENNIAL NEWS:

On Dec. 2 there will be a Bicentennial meeting at 7:30 at the Fire House Vestibule.

On Dec. 7 the Committee will sponsor a program entitled "A Salute to Delaware" at the Woodbridge Junior High School cafeteria in Greenwood. $1 admission at 3 p.m. The speaker, James T. McKinstry.

On January 4 they are sponsoring a bus trip to Valley Forge for the Delaware Day Program. For more information call Mary Cahall, 349-4227.

Cheer Center News: We have had a very interesting week, (10-14). On Monday, Nov. 10, Mrs. Pearce, the Public Health Nurse came to take our blood pressure and to take applications for the flu vaccine.

Mr. George Gooch of Milford visited us on Nov. 11 to show a film "Four Season Trail". This was certainly enjoyed by all members. His films are always so interesting.

We had a very informative talk on Thursday, Nov. 13 by Mrs. Judith Phillips from the Farmers Bank of Wilmington. She talked to us about "Direct depositing of our social security checks."

The Friday, Nov. 14 program was centered on Crafts, but the highlight was the judging of the Baby photographs Contest. The winners were: Mrs. Florence Seeley, Mrs. Rita Seeley, and Mr. William E. Horner. They received prizes for having the best pictures.

Slides of our Lancaster, Pa., trip taken of the Cheer Center participants in October were shown by the Rev. James Doughten.

Our Center is looking forward to Nov. 24 when the Harrington Center will visit with us.

Legion Auxilliary Makes Bicen Donation

Callaway-Kemp-Raughley-Tee American Legion Auxilliary voted to donate $25 to the BICEN (Bicentennial Interdisciplinary Cultural Experience Network). The project for which the Appoquinimink School District has received a grant, is for the purpose of research activities to acquire authentic information from the American Revolutionary War period.

An exchange program of 13 British and 13 Delaware students will conduct the research during the early part of 1976. Miss Susan Eliason, a Senior at Lake Forest High School and a member of the American Legion Auxilliary Girl's State for 1975 has been selected as one of the 13 Delaware students.

C.K.R.T. Auxilliary will include the donation as part of their Spirit of '76 observance.

Mrs. Jarvis Hurd, president of the Unit reminded all members that donations of canned goods are being received now to fill the Thanksgiving baskets. Cans may be taken to Mrs. Henry Bullock.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party which the Junior Activities members give to one of the classes at the Elementary School. Mrs. Donald Dell will coordinate the party.

The Veteran's Hospital at Brack-Ex will again be the site of the annual Christmas Gift shop on December 13th. C.K.R.T. Auxilliary will send 100 gifts to the shop which gives patients in the hospital items to send to their families at Christmas. Several members of the Unit will be on hand to help with the shop and the wrapping and mailing of the gifts.

the latter of which will be donated by exhibiting craftsmen.

Packing For The Move

When you're ready to start packing for your move, a good rule of thumb is to wash, scrub, polish, or otherwise clean before packing. There is enough to do in a new home without bringing along some of the dust and dirt from a previous address, says Coral Morris, extension home management specialist at the University of Delaware.

When it comes to the joyless job of packing, consider getting rid of surplus possessions, suggests Ms. Morris. Sell, give away, or throw away all those things you've stored away and haven't used. Discard mostly empty cans of paints, pesticides, and other flammables in a safe manner. Flammables are not permitted on the moving van.

Once you know just what you have to move, you can contact moving companies and get estimates of cost, find out what cannot be moved on the van, and consider what services are provided by the mover. There are three ways to approach the packing problem: (1) Do it all yourself; (2) Have the mover do it all; or (3) Work a combination.

Doing the packing yourself is probably the most economical. It may be worthwhile for a short move as you can transport fragile items yourself without the "maximum security" care necessary in packing breakables for van moving. The great disadvantages of do-it-yourself packing are the time and effort required to pack breakables in such a way that they will arrive safely. In addition, things you pack yourself are often not insured by moving companies. Unless the carton shows outside damage, it is hard to prove that broken or chipped glass is not due to your own improper packing. Though more costly, mover packing by a reputable firm is quick, efficient and insured against damage.

Remove items that might spill or break from drawers and pack drawers with clean lightweights. Furniture is often turned on end and too much weight may cause the glue joints of drawers to loosen. Group things that you want packed together. Drain oil and fuel from a power mower and clean any machinery. Tape-seal the tops of all bottles and jars containing liquids, and place separately in individual leakproof packages. Wash and dry soiled clothing.

Taking down curtains, draperies, venetian blinds, traverse rods and window cornices are jobs movers do not usually perform, unless arrangements have been made in advance. If these furnishings are to be moved, they should be washed or cleaned before loading. And it is well worth the effort to clean rugs before moving. Finally, be sure to defrost and wash the refrigerator and freezer. These appliances should be allowed to dry thoroughly with the door open for at least 24 hours before they are put on the van. Disconnecting a washer and dryer should be done by an appliance serviceman. Incidentally, don't forget to include an "essential items" box of things that you will need immediately at your new home. Such items as cleaning cloths, sponges, soap or detergent, pail, light bulbs, washcloths and towels, bed linens, food and beverages for the first meal, flashlight, utensils and dishes are some things to include. Ask to have this important carton loaded on the van last so it will be unloaded first on the other end of the trip.

The combination plan may prove the best choice for saving money while also providing professional packing for delicate belongings.

Your moving company may provide cartons for you to pack yourself. Be sure to ask about charges. Otherwise haunt the supermarket on delivery day and request cartons with the fold-over flaps intact.

Start with the least-used articles and those easiest to pack. Use small cartons for heavy-weights such as books. Adequate labeling is very important. Besides identifying the contents, labels can designate in which room the carton should be placed in your new home.

There will be work to be done upon arrival, but with planning and efficiency beforehand, moving may not be so bad after all.

The Green Thumb

S. Derby Walker, Jr. Assistant County Agent

November and early December-after we've had a few killing frosts but before the ground freezes-is the time to apply winter mulches. These mulches insulate the soil and prevent the ground from freezing deeply. They also conserve and encourage the penetration of moisture, according to Dr. Charles Dunham, extension horticulturist at the University of Delaware. This helps many evergreen plants survive the winter.

Materials for winter mulches are the same as those

Harrington Jaycees Hear Speaker

At the regular Meeting Thursday night, the Harrington Jaycees welcomed guest speaker, Mrs. Ruth Ann Callaway from the State Vocational Rehabilitation Office in Milford. Mrs. Callaway, who lives in Milford, spoke of the functions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Office and how it works in training the disabled and severely handicapped and their families in the Kent and Sussex County area.

The unique problems with which this agency deals has caused the staff, who are headed by Clifford T. Crouch, to voluntarily start a "Food Pantry" which is to be used on an emergency basis to help the needy until state assistance can start. This Pantry is stored and distributed by the Avenue Methodist Church of Milford, under the direction of Rev. Lucia.

The Harrington Jaycees urge others to join them in contributing to the "Food Pantry." For information on how to contribute canned goods contact the Vocational Rehabilitation office in Milford, the Avenue Methodist Church, or any local Jaycee.
