Woodbridge Views Girls' Basketball

The Woodbridge School Board at last Wednesday night's meeting voted to uphold their decision in March meeting to play the girls' varsity games preceding the boys' varsity games on the same nights.

The decision became an instant unpopular one with Athletic Director, George Durig, and head basketball coach, Jym VanSciver.

VanSciver argued "...the coaches or the A.D. were not called upon for an opinion. We had no input into the discussion." VanSciver argued further that it would destroy the boys varsity program. He reasoned that under the current conference rules a boy may play four quarters of ball on the same night. He may play two of JV and 2 of varsity or any other combination. VanSciver explained that if he wished under certain circumstances to use a boy in a JV game and bring him in the varsity game he could not do it now. He interpreted the rule to mean that the JV game would be played elsewhere, and that boy would not be available for the varsity game.

VanSciver also explained that it would make for an uneasy situation in the locker room situation and could lead to vandalism, other destruction and general disorder with the visiting teams sharing the same locker rooms. None of the reasons won the night. The Board summoned Kay Smith the girls coach, who lives near Dover to return to Bridgeville and the meeting to discuss the matter. Miss Smith approved the new proposal as stated, and would approve the playing of the girls' games on the night of the varsity games before the varsity games.

The Board stated publicly "...Miss Smith was not aware of the change to be made until after the Board announced its decision of the March meeting." The basic thing which the Board hopes to accomplish is to increase the gate receipts and to help the girls' program.

2 Nabbed In Booze Bust

On Sunday, May 2, at approximately 10:30 a.m., Harrington City Police, with cooperation of the state police, conducted raids on two residences on Mispillion Street. The raids were conducted for liquor violations.

Subjects arrested were Tommy Dixon of 125 Mispillion Street and Francis Benson of 127 Mispillion Street. Both subjects taken to Court 7, Dover, and charged with selling alcoholic beverages without a license and keeping alcoholic beverages with intent to sell.

Both were released on bond for appearance in Court 6.

According to police, large quantities of beer and liquor were at the sites of the raid.

Male Voices Needed For State Chorus

The state-wide choral group of 200 voices, organized to form a Delaware Bicentennial Chorus, has a need for male voices. The women sections are now closed until a vocal balance is achieved.

The group will perform in Philadelphia July 1 and 2 during the reenactment of the ride of Caesar Rodney from the Dickinson Mansion near Dover to Philadelphia.

Rehearsals are Monday evenings, 7:30 at the Peoples Church, South Bradford and Reed Streets in Dover.

The Honorable Governor Sherman W. Tribbitt

Governor To Be Hosted By Southern 35th Dems

The Honorable Governor Sherman Tribbitt will be guest of honor when the Southern 35th Democrat Club holds its Governor's Night Monday, May 10.

William Paskey, president of Kent County Levy Court will serve as host for the evening.

Among the list of dignitaries expected to honor the governor are Senator Nancy Cook, 16th Senatorial district; Representative Ronald Darling, of the 35th district; Democrat County Chairman, Hudson Gruwell and Ben Hughes, Jr., committee chairman for the 35th district.

Mrs. Bertha Wyatt is president of the Southern 35th Democrat Club. She is married to Harrington Councilman and police commissioner Jack Wyatt.

Mrs. Hudson Gruwell will sing the "Star Spangled Banner" and Sarah Nechay and friends with the "Bicentennial Celebration" will be providing musical entertainment during the evening.

The covered dish event will be held at the Harrington New Century Club at 7 p.m. on the 10th. The cost is $10 for families, $5 singles. Guest are asked to bring a large covered dish.

Come On, Good Buddy

'Smokies' Will Have CB's

Harrington City Police will soon be able to be contacted by citizen band radios, since the City Council voted to purchase equipment Monday night. Police will be getting three mobile sets, and an antenna. A twenty-three channel set up is being purchased. The total package, installed will be $448, of which $327 will be taken from funds available through Delaware Agency to Reduce Crime.

Police were also being getting new hats to go along with the new shirts and trousers. The cost will be $86.

The question of the finances for the hats not being in the budget had raised some questions. According to Councilman Jack Wyatt, a police budget would be desirable. After discussion on the subject, it was decided the Council would request a running financial statement in order to facilitate future budget plans.

It was suggested by building inspector James Moore the City have a building inspector on hand during the construction of the new People's Bank construction. The City manager was authorized to investigate the possibilities of the suggestion.

Representatives from Perry's Steak House in Dover were present to seek the Council's aid regarding the water and sewer needs for the group's proposed steak house which is being planned on U.S. Route 13 across from the American Legion Home. The water plans have met with approval, the sewer plans still have to be approved. The City engineer was to view the situation Wednesday.

From a previous council meeting, two questions were raised that needed the opinion of the City's solicitor, Max Terry, Jr. One regarded a new ordinance about the keeping of horses within the City limits, which Terry has rewritten. It is posted on the legal section of the classifieds in this paper.

A question about the feasibility of having an alderman's court in the City, instead of using the magistrate's court was rejected by Council when Terry pointed out the negative aspects of the City having such a court.

Benjamin Hughes, Jr. was named to the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Arthur Buck Cahall, of the Planning and Zoning Commission, reported on status of the request for a factory proposed on the old Watkins Auto store ground.

William Tull, left, led the opposition to the job descriptions by department heads at the Woodbridge School Board meeting last Wednesday. Robert Messick of Farmington, right and Raymond Baker, back to camera, listen to the discussion. The subject was tabled again. According to Tull it has been going on for two years.

Stage '76' Encampment

Scouts of the Del-Mar-Va Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, will stage their big Bicentennial "Encampment '76" at Killens Pond State Park, Felton, on May 7, 8, & 9. Veteran Scouter and Jamboree coordinator J. J. Pizzadili will be the chairman of this unusual bicentennial celebration.

The Encampment is intended to reinforce Scouting's objectives of character building, citizenship training, and mental fitness. Scouts from the entire Delmarva Peninsula will be participating in this three day experience.

Special Dover Days Activities Planned

Dover will again host its annual Old Dover Days celebration May 8 and 9. The Friends of Old Dover have sponsored the historic house and garden tour for over forty years.

This year's festivities will commence Friday evening, May 7 with special opening ceremonies on The Green at 7:30. The theme of the ceremonies is "Recollections of Old Dover" and guests will be entertained by the Bicentennial Singers from the Pentecostal Church. A candlelight reception at City Hall will follow with Karen Bewick at the harpsichord. The public is cordially invited to attend these events.

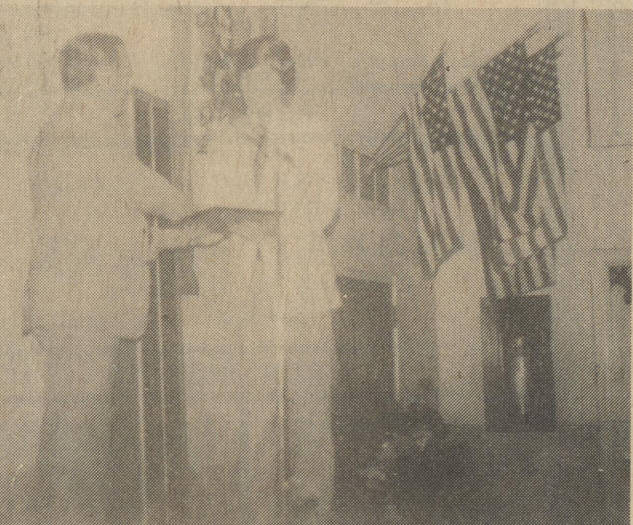

The celebration will go into full swing on Saturday, May 8 with the opening of over 35 historic homes and buildings in Dover and the surrounding area. Many of the homes on the tour this year have not been open in recent years.

A multitude of festivities are planned which will appeal to the whole family. Visitors may enjoy the traditional maypole dancing on The Green Saturday morning. Also on The Green Saturday will be over twenty crafts exhibits including woodcarving, quilts, pottery and needlework. Sheep shearing will also be demonstrated (at 10:30, 12:00 and 1:30). And hundreds of Girl Scouts will demonstrate colonial crafts. Colonial games for children and older youths such as hoop rolling and tug o' wars are scheduled during the morning and afternoon. Special to this year's bicentennial observance of Old Dover Days is the international food tasting where visitors may sample food from nine countries for a nominal fee. Many other festivities are scheduled during the day including a puppet show, a historical playlet, and children in costume dancing in various gardens.

Following a reception at the Governor's House on Saturday afternoon, the horse and carriage promenade will begin. Included this year in the promenade is Delaware's official Bicentennial wagon, the Ridgely carriage, and costumed ri-

Link, Class of 1957, Recording Historian, of Frederica.

Matt Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Burgess of Harrington sang several selections.

Mr. Kohel, then turned the meeting over to the first Vice-President, Eugene H. Porter, who gave the Historian's Report.

Mr. Porter made the following recognition of Class Attendance Awards. The Class of 1910, won the award for having the largest percentage of their class present. The percentage being 100%. Members of this class were Mrs. Ray P. McFaul of Millford and Mrs. Mary M. Greenly of Harrington. The class with the largest number present went to the class of 1968 with 28 members. The class with the oldest gentlemen present went to 1915, with Ellwood B. Gruwell, of Felton and James V. Harrington, of Harrington. The lady representing the oldest class with a lady present went to the class of 1903, with Mrs. Ada Jones Wilson, of Harrington.

The longest distance award went for the second year in a row to Captain Larry Garey of the US Air Force, stationed in Indian Bend, Nevada. Captain Garey, had been reappointed and will soon leave for a tour of duty in Germany.

Mr. Porter then introduced the honor classes. The class of 1916 celebrating their 60th Anniversary; those present being Mr. and Mrs. Jehu Camper, and Mrs. Minnie Slaughter, all of Harrington. The class of 1926 with eight members present; Mrs. Anna Masten Said of Wilmington; Mrs. Hazell Ross Zapp, of Westmount, New Jersey; G. Franklin Taylor, of Baltimore; Maurice E. Hall, coming from St. Petersburg, Florida; Mrs. Marie F. Lindale, of Millford; Mrs. Clara Moore Lindale, of Greenwood; Edwin J. Simpson of Harrington; and John B. Holloway, of Georgetown, Delaware. The Class of 1951 was celebrating their 25th Anniversary with 13 members present.

Other honored class were 1936, 1946, 1956 and 1966.

Mr. Porter turned the meeting over to the Second Vice-President C. Leslie Wix. Mr. Wix then introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Ross V. Hersey of Waynesboro, Virginia.

Mr. Wix then made the

Janecees To Honor Mothers-To-Be

"Mother's Day, Sunday May 9, marks the beginning of Healthy Baby Week," declares Mrs. Cheryl Harrington of Harrington Janecees. "Our goal this week is to make every expectant mother in Harrington and outlying areas, aware of the importance of prenatal care."

"We are delighted to once again participate with the National Foundation-March of Dimes in this annual drive through promoting this project in our small way, we hope to impress upon mother's the relationship of care of the unborn baby to the healthiness of him after it's born."

"Our endeavors this year," states the local chapter chairman, "will consist of making pamphlets available to the public and demonstrating our concern by presenting a layette of baby needs to a mother that delivers during this week."

Mrs. Ernest Keith is ready for Old Dover Days, May 8th and 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Keith's home at The Plaza in Dover is one of the 35 historic homes and buildings open for the tour. Felton Alumni Banquet Held

The Felton Alumni Association held its annual dinner Saturday, April 24, at the cafeteria of the Lake Forest North Elementary School. The roast beef dinner with all the trimmings was catered by the Lake Forest Band Boosters. According to Mrs. Jean Wood, President of Felton Alumni, the boosters were selected to do the catering not only because the association could be assured of excellent cuisine, but because the association wanted the money spent to go back into the school district.

This year's honored classes were the classes of 1926, 1951, and 1966. Dr. Howard Henry, former principal of the Felton School, was an honored guest as was Richard C. Randall, Jr. Mr. Randall was the recipient of the annual special presentation to a former Felton school teacher and received a green and white bronzed plaque. Mr. Randall is still teaching U.S. History at the Lake Forest High School.

A special Bicentennial tribute was given by historian Betty Louise Myers. This tribute included much of the history of the Felton School. One of the major highlights of the evening was the awarding of $2,000 in scholarships. The committee to select the recipients of the scholarships was chaired by Mrs. Barbara Myers. Serving on the committee were Dr. Morris Turner, dentist; Dale Hammond, WSFS banker; Mrs. Lenora Stephens, an RN at Kent General Hospital; Mrs. Louise Fisher, manager of the cafeteria at Lake Forest North Elementary School; and James Blades, Lake Forest High School teacher.

Their task was to select six students to be awarded scholarships from a total of 23 applicants. The following seniors were selected: Anna Jackson, $200, business major, Goldey Beacom College; Donna Hermann, $200, business major, Goldey Beacom College; Robert Draper, $300, agricultural major, Delaware State; Debbie Krouse, $300, education major, Delaware State; Steven Saulsbury, $500, art major, University of Delaware; Susan Eliason, $500, international law at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

Topping off the evening the alumni and guests enjoyed dancing to the music of "Sixpence."

Game day again with pool and bowling. Eleven Bowlers, seven of them got over the 200 mark. Jim Koeneci had 302; George Goodge 271; Art Banderbug 252; Dan Noel 237; Andy Anderson 226; Fred Littmann 216 and Marian Russum 206. This is a good average. This week the spotlight falls on the Mother of our secretary, Mrs. Cleota Willey, she is also the grandmother of three beautiful girls.

Cleota is a good dress maker and other things made at the center; she is always at work doing something. She even helps in the kitchen.

Her home is on Dorman St. with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Johnson. Cleota has many friends and gets along with them on the best terms.

She is the daughter of a family that used to live here. Her maiden name was Donovan.

Academy Day Set In Newark

A special "Academy Day" program will be held in Middletown on Saturday, May 8, to provide information on educational opportunities at the five United States service academies, Senator Bill Roth announced today.

He encouraged high school sophomores and juniors, their parents, and high school counselors to attend the program, the first of its kind in Delaware. It will be held at the Silver Lake School, beginning at 9 a.m. and ending by noon.

Roth has invited representatives of the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, the Naval Academy at Annapolis, the Military Academy at West Point, the Coast Guard Academy at New London, and the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N.Y. All five institutions will be represented.

This year women will join the men at the three major academies, Roth said, and the Academy Day program will be a good opportunity for high school girls who have not previously considered the academy programs to talk directly with counselors from the academies.

No prior registration is necessary to attend Academy Day.

For further information, contact the Senator's Dover office at 674-3308. The Silver Lake School is a block from the Middletown High School and most easily accessible from Route 299, the Middletown-Odessa Road.

The Lake Forest High School newspaper, the LANCER, was judged the second best high school newspaper in the State of Delaware at the Delaware Scholastic Press Association Convention.

This convention was held at Dover High School on April 29 and included newspaper judging and on-the-spot contests. Nineteen high and junior high schools were represented. Eighteen of these entered the newspaper competition mentioned above. This competition was judged in Pennsylvania by Eric Zanat, a college professor interested in high school journalism. Judging was based on the following criteria: Page make-up, news writing, editorial content, photography, art work, sports writing, and feature and column writing. In these categories, the Lancer received third place in photography and editorial content.

On-the-spot competitions consisted of listening to or reading something and writing some kind of article on it. Competitions were conducted in all the previously mentioned areas excluding page make-up and including speech reporting and play review. For Lake Forest, Karen Singleton received third place in sports writing and Cindy Hurd took third place in play review.

LANCER'S adviser is John Dobbins, a first year English teacher and retired Air Force Major. Mr. Dobbins was pleased with the showing the "Lancer" made.

The "Lancer" is totally self-supported.

A Personal Reflection

Delaware's Mother Of The Year

by Carole Glasspool

Delaware's Mother of the Year began life as Hattie Mae Betts born on Mechanic Street in Harrington, Delaware, in 1915. Her youth was spent in Harrington and in 1933 she became Mrs. Millard Biddle.

Today she and her husband reside on Wyoming Avenue in Dover, and she is the mother of three children and six grandchildren, five boys and one girl.

Her sons are Grover Biddle, Assistant Secretary of State of Delaware, and Larry Biddle, Director of Advance Gifts for United Way, Chicago, Ill. Her daughter, Nancy Jo Lambertson, is a music teacher at the Little School in Dover.

Mrs. Biddle was sponsored for the Mother of the Year award by the Peoples Church of Dover, the Round Table Club and the Kent County Women's Democratic Club, of which she is president. She is a member of the Junior Board of Kent General Hospital, a member of the Board of the Golden Opportunities Center, Dover; Personal Gifts Chairman of United Way in Kent County; a former member of the Soroptimists and aids the fight against Cystic Fibrosis in Kent County each year. She owned and operated the Little School in Dover from 1956 until 1975 when she retired.

Hattie Mae Biddle has a doll-like quality and is diminutive in physical stature but her spirit of love, sharing and strength casts a giant shadow the length of this state.

I first met Hattie Mae in 1964 when we were preparing to send our oldest child off into the world for his first formal learning experience. Mrs. Biddle was, at that time, owner and headmistress of the Little School in Dover, a nursery and kindergarten.

The motto of the Little School was "learning is fun" and the school song "I Think I Can." Hattie Mae did not just pay lip service to these philosophies. Her spirit and attitudes so fully reflected these philosophies that they permeated the atmosphere of the entire school and were a living, working part of each day.

She always made each child feel special and her loving attitude toward each child was readily apparent to those three, four and five year olds. Children attending the Little School would often tell their parents "Mrs. Biddle loves us." Love she did and their self-esteem grew by leaps and bounds throughout the years that Hattie Mae ran the Little School she was probably responsible for more children getting an excellent start on the road to learning and living than any other single person in this state.

She has contributed her talents and her marvelous spirit to many other worthwhile endeavors and charitable causes but the area I know her best for is early education. She had long deserved to the Delawares "Mother of the Year." She is a super lady worthy of every ounce of admiration and acclaim she receives.

All Delawareans can be extremely proud that she has represented this state at the National Convention in Washington, D. C. She's a "winner" in every way!

There are two main types of service station dealers: The branded independent - also called the lease dealer. This kind of station operates under an agreement with a major petroleum company to sell its brand of gasoline and automotive products. This agreement, called a franchise, usually requires the owner to share some of the profits with the parent company.

Usually, it is the oil company that owns the land, station, and facilities that it leases to the dealer. The Company may also set standards of operation such as hours, services, and so forth. Most service stations operate under the system.

The advantages of the lease dealership are many. The oil company usually provides advertising, both locally and nationally; credit card facilities; brand name products and accessories; regular gasoline delivery; retirement and insurance policies for dealers, and, most important, the parent company usually buys expensive mechanical equipment and lets the owner buy them through installments.

The unbranded independent - this station is not affiliated with any major oil company. Usually the owner/operator buys gas and automotive products from the supplier with the lowest price. Gasoline at these stations is frequently cheaper, but credit card services, brand name products, and advertising support, and automotive repair services are often not available.

The advantage to this arrangement is price - the dealer can obtain gasoline at lower prices. Freedom of operation, and more flexibility for the owner are often pluses. In reality, few stations are unbranded.

For many, there are substantial personal rewards to be found in operating a small retail firm. These include independence, pride of ownership, close relations with customers, building up a business, and earning a good well-deserved living.

Such advantages, however, are often the ideal rather than the reality. Many dealers work 60 to 80 hours a week to make their stations successful. Gassing up cars in a snowstorm is no fun either. And despite hard work, there is always the chance of financial failure. In short, owning any small business is a risk.

Realistically, the condition of the gasoline industry is not particularly bright for the prospective service station dealer. During the energy crisis, many stations kicked the bucket. In fact over 30,000 of the nation's 220,000 service stations have closed in the past three years. Most of the these failures were small, poorly located businesses.

New trends to look for include more self-service facilities and stations linked with convenience food stores. Currently, there are more people wanting to operate service stations than there are spaces to fill. This means that only workers who have demonstrated, through experience or training, that they can run a good business will be likely to be considered for station leases by the major oil companies.

So your best bet is to start filling your tank of experience right now - by working part-time at a service station, taking mechanical and automotive repair courses, and improving your business skills through math, book-keeping, and accounting courses.

How much can the service station dealer expect to make? Probably more than you'd imagine. Experienced dealers, with a good location, who offer a variety of automotive services can expect an income as high as $15,000 to $30,000 a year. Large stations with excel-

Thoughts.....

By Senator William Roth

I think that Philadelphia officials had better start listening to what people are saying at public hearings on ocean dumping.

The hearings have been going on for more than three years now, and Philadelphia officials are still saying the same things. At the hearing in Georgetown, they kept insisting that their ocean dumping is not harmful.

That question has been settled. The question now is not whether Philadelphia will stop ocean dumping, but when. The Environmental Protection Agency has set January 1, 1981 as the target date for Philadelphia to stop.

City officials in Philadelphia keep saying that money is a problem, that it is difficult getting a tax increase approved. Frankly, that is their problem, not ours. At this point, Philadelphia's taxes can be held down only because the citizens of Delaware, Maryland, and New Jersey are paying the costs of its ocean dumping. It's time for Philadelphians to start paying.

In the four years since it became obvious that ocean dumping must be halted, the City of Philadelphia has started only one new program to dispose of sewage sludge. That is one in which sewage sludge is given away to the public for use as a fertilizer. Other than ocean dumping, that is the only program which Philadelphia has to dispose of the nearly 200 dry tons of sludge generated each day by its treatment plants.

Its officials continue to discuss alternatives to ocean dumping, including landfilling, land application, incineration, use as a dry fertilizer and so on. But the simple truth is that in the three years since the first permit was issued, the City has not landfilled, incinerated, or converted into fertilizer even one pound of sewage sludge.

It is time for Philadelphia and Pennsylvania to realize that those of us who live in the downstream of Delaware, New Jersey, and Maryland are no longer willing to accept excuses. We have seen delay after delay, listened to excuse after excuse, and have no intention of doing so any longer. If Philadelphia is unwilling to voluntarily assume its duties, I want to see the law enforced against the City promptly and effectively.

The ocean dumping law permits fines of $50,000 for each violation. Other laws allow criminal penalties. In addition, the City of Philadelphia can be brought into Federal court and forced to act.

Old Dover Days

The promenade will form at Central Middle School. Beginning at Pennsylvania Avenue, the promenade will cross Division Street and go on to Kings Highway where the Governor and Mrs. Tribbitt will join the parade, proceed to Reed Street, turn right, and then on to State Street where they will turn left and go to Lockerman Street. From Lockerman, the promenade will turn right and go on to Governors Avenue, turn left and proceed to Bank Lane. At Bank Lane they will turn left and disperse on the west side of The Green. A special presentation ceremony will be held on The Green following the horse and carriage promenade.

The Dover Baroque Ensemble will present a concert Saturday night and will play again during a tea at the John Dickinson Mansion on Sunday afternoon. Also scheduled for Sunday is a historical presentation at Camden Friends Meeting House, and an open house and demonstration of the spear thrower at Island Field Site. A complete listing of events is found in the Old Dover Days program.

Tickets will be on sale at the Information Booth at State and Lockerman Streets in Dover beginning Monday, May 3. The booth will be open Monday through Thursday from 11:30-1:30, on Friday from 11:30-5:30, on Saturday from 9:30-4:30, and on Sunday from 12-4. Tickets will also be sold Saturday and Sunday (May 8-9) at Aspendale, Boxwood, and Great Geneva. Ticket prices are: Adult - $5, Senior Citizen - $3.50, Student - $2, and Group Rate - $3.50 (for advance orders of 25 or more).

given number of years. If they are to be extended, they would have to be reauthorized all over again. Another name for the idea is that of "zero-based budget" - a reference to the fact that programs would have to be re-authorized periodically from scratch, or from a "zero base."

The chances are that it may take months, or perhaps years, before this kind of idea becomes law. Like all new ideas, it takes time to build support. But as a firm supporter of the need for a "sunset" law, I am encouraged by the fact that more and more interest is being expressed in the idea.

Perhaps, in the near future, such a plan can be put into effect. It's an idea whose time is coming.

Weekly Report

By Senator Joseph Biden

Slowly, bit by bit, interest is growing in a new idea about how to come to grips with an old problem - the problem of curbing excessive bureaucratic growth.

Like many other things in this era of shorthand communication, the substance of this new idea has been capsuled in a single word: "sunset."

Reduced to its essentials, the idea is that Congress pass a "sunset" law, under which all Federal spending programs would automatically come to an end after a

Felton Ladies Auxiliary Saluted

by Barbara Jacobs

The annual Ladies Night was held Saturday, May 1. The dinner was served by the Ladies Ruritan of the Ruritan Club of Viola. Each lady received a ticket for door prize drawings and a carnation.

President William Chandler welcomed the group and turned the program over to the Chairman of Ladies Night Roland Neeman.

Special guests were Rev. and Mrs. David Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sipple, Fire Chief and wife, Auxiliary president, Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler, Pres. Co., Mayor of the town of Felton William Myers Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jester, Kent County Firemen President, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher. The latter is the Kent County Auxiliary president.

Gifts were presented to the officers of the Ladies Auxiliary who are: President - Joyce Sipple, Vice-President - Joyce W. Sipple; Secretary - Bonnie Wertanen; Treasurer - M. Alexander; Financial Secretary - Fern Harrington; Assistant Treasurer - Diane Smith; Assistant Secretary - Cheryl Wertanen, and Assistant Financial Secretary - Marsha Jester.

Ladies of the Auxiliary were especially honored for 25 years of service, including Mrs. Cora Cahall, Mrs. Bessie McCrackin, Mrs. Agnes Woikoski, Mrs. Marion Moore, Mrs. Clara Jarrell, Mrs. Janet Dill, Mrs. Bonnie Poynter, Mrs. Martha Taylor, Mrs. Catherine Lockwood, Mrs. Louise Biddle, Mrs. Emma Kates, Mrs. Agnes Cohee, Mrs. Georgia Palmer and Mrs. Ruth Sipple.

Mrs. Agnes Torbert Carter donated a beautiful afghan to be chanced off that night in memory of her late husband, Dorsey Torbert.

Mr. Louis Amibellen, the guest speaker, won the afghan.

A highlight of the evening was when the Felton Ladies Auxiliary presented President of the Company, William Chandler, with a check for $5,000 to be used to reduce the loan on their latest fire equipment and building fund. This check is the second of this amount presented in this fiscal year to the men.

Mr. Roland displayed the new banner the men will carry in future parades. It was made by his wife, Kitty, and sister-in-law.

The guest speaker of the evening was Louis Amibellen of Hockessin Fire Department. He is the director of the State Fire School in Dover. He gave quite a gratifying speech about how the women are the backbone of all fire companies, and how they really take a load off his mind by feeding the men at the fire school over 8-10 thousand meals a year at fire school.

Mayor Myers complimented the men for their dedication and gave a beautiful Bicentennial plaque he made with Eagle decal and Bicentennial scroll, and a set of 1976 currency.

Back row Katherine Lockwood, Miss Louise Biddle, Clara Jarrell, Mrs. Bessie McCrackin.

Twenty-five years of service pins were awarded to William Meyers Sr. and James Pizzadili.

Special acknowledgment was given to Benjamin Rash for keeping the Felton Fire Company in gas for more than twenty years free of charge.

Donald Jester recently designed a fire company patch to be worn on the sleeve of their new uniforms.

Wooden plaques were given to the fireman who answered the most fire calls last year. Again this year it was J. Layton who made 115 calls out of 154. Ambulance calls answered were 129 out of 335. This was won by Fred Greenly.

Floral centerpieces were given to the oldest members attending: for the men it was Paul Woikoski, for the ladies, Mrs. Green.

Happenings

by Carole Glasspool

Cadette Troop 365 of Felton led by Mrs. Robert (Ann) Morrow will be entertaining Cadettes from Marcus Hook, Pa., this weekend. Guest homes for the visiting cadettes and their adult leaders will be provided by Kim York, Tammy Hinson, Kim Jones and Karen Wothers of Canterbury; Rhona Whit of Felton, and Rhonda Hammond and Mia Butler of Harrington.

Included on the weekend itinerary will be an overnight campout at Petersburg C & R Center, attendance at Dover Days activities, a visit to the Indian digs at Bowers Beach, a trip to Bombay Hook Wildlife Refuge, and a swim party at Delaware State College.

The Marcus Hook Cadettes will reciprocate and have our Felton Cadette Troop as their guests the weekend of June 25th.

A couple of families in the area took advantage of Easter vacation to take brief vacations.

C. E. Hinson, better known to friends as the "Happy Hooker" due to his affinity for hooking rugs, and his wife Alice and their three children took off in their van, the Dragon Wagon, for Greenwood, S.C., to visit Alice's father, Carl Walters. Mr. and Mrs. Earl York and children of Canterbury drove their artistically decorated ten-ten truck to Coventry, Rhode Island, where they will be residing permanently after Earl's retirement from the USAF this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jefferson and children of Felton took a sentimental journey to Kentucky to visit the area where Mrs. Jefferson was raised.

Miss Robin Kashner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kashner of Barratt's Chapel Road near Canterbury, entertained some of her friends at her home on Saturday, April 24th in honor of her thirteenth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McFry of Woodbury Acres entertained Mrs. McFry's mother, Mrs. Flora Blunt of Elkton, Md., this past weekend.

Following the Felton Alumni dinner on Saturday, April 24th, the party continued on for members of the Class of 1951 at the Canterbury home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Chambers.

Miss Laurie Glasspool was guest of honor at a party on the occasion of her thirteenth birthday at the Orchard Acres home of Al and Ruth Cole. Two dozen or so of Laurie's friends did the hustle, bump, etc. (these are dances) in the basement. Co-hosting with the Coles were Mrs. Alice Hinson and Miss Sherrie Hinson.

Outgoing Athletic Booster President (after two years) Cliff Chambers held the regular booster meeting at his Canterbury home on April 28th. After the meeting, about twenty-five guests enjoyed refreshments served by Ann and Cliff.

We're really breaking out with new teenagers in the area. Miss Lisa Stubbs of Felton and Canterbury celebrated her thirteenth birthday Friday, April 30.

For all of you retired or active duty enlisted military folk out there, I was at the NCO Club at Dover AFB Friday evening for dinner, and if you haven't been there in a while, you're in for a treat. The whole place has been beautifully renovated and the food was excellent. They had an extremely gifted piano stylist named Larry Sheehan playing through the dinner hour. Larry studied piano fifteen years before being drafted into the Air Force. He is really one bundle of talent. I was disappointed to learn that due to lack of support at the club they are going to have to discontinue this sort of entertainment. However, if you see that Larry Sheehan is going to be playing at any restaurant or night spot in the area, I urge you to go and have a listen. I promise you you won't regret it.

If you have any "happenings" to be reported please call Carole at 284-9632.

Mrs. Purnell, also present, was awarded a duplicate certificate. Mr. Wix gave a brief resume of Mrs. Purnell's teaching accomplishment after which Mrs. Purnell received a standing ovation from the over four hundred persons present. Ronald F. Hughes, Class of 1965 led in the singing of the Harrington High School Alma Mater. The Rev. William H. Miller, pastor of the Calvary Wesleyan Church, gave the benediction. The group then moved to the Chipman School Fieldhouse for dancing until 1 a.m.

Spong Will Speak In Dover

The Reverend John S. Spong, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Richmond, Virginia, will be in Dover for three days in May.

The Kent County Cluster Convocation of five Episcopal Parishes in Kent County is sponsoring Mr. Spong's visit as its Spring 1976 Adult Education program. Mr. Spong will conduct a three-evening teaching-lecturing-discussion series on the evenings of May 17, 18 and 19 to be held at the Wesley College DuPont Hall Student Center in Dover and will begin nightly at 7:45 p.m.

Mr. Spong has indicated that his favorite format includes a 45 minutes to one hour lecture, followed by a short coffee break, then a question-discussion period of an approximately equal time.

Mr. Spong will use, as the basis for his lecture series, excerpts from one of his recent books: THIS HEREWORLD (Seabury

The Rev. John S. Spong (Press 1974).

Jack Spong was ordained in 1955 and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and Virginia Theological Seminary. He has served as rector of parishes in Durham and Tarboro, N.C., in Lynchburg, Va., and has been rector of St. Paul's Richmond since 1969. Other books by Mr. Spong include HONEST PRAYER (1973) and CHRISTPOWER (1975). He has been commissioned as biographer of Bishop John E. Hines, retired Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church.

Mr. Spong is also Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Episcopal Diocese of Newark, New Jersey.

LF French Club Returns

Very fortunately, all twenty students who sojourned in France during Easter break returned April 25.

Their stay included five days in Paris, which entailed tours of all the historic sights; two days at Angers, which included visits to the Chateaux Country and castle tours; one day at Mont St. Michel, and a day at Chartres.

All students were impressed with France, but not always favorably. At their first hotel they were appalled by the dirty rooms. This was a small disappointment and was soon pushed into the background by the beautiful sights.

Everyone thought the trip was both enjoyable and educational. It would be possible, but not very informative, to tell how they felt, but instead, why don't they. Bonnie Chambers: "The trip was very enjoyable and educational. It gave me a chance to meet many interesting people and see many interesting things and places of great importance and beauty. We were always busy as our schedule was filled with many tours in Paris and in the chateaux country."

Robin Chandler: "The best thing about my trip to France was being able to see how another country lives. Their culture is basically the same as ours, except everything is very, very expensive. The cathedrals, monuments and buildings that we saw were beautiful. It was a very enjoyable experience."

Rod Donovan: "The sights were good...the guides were good. Should have spent whole time in Paris."

Report from Hickory Ridge Congregational Methodist Church: On Sunday evening, May 2, our guest speaker was the Rev. Dewey Friedel. He is a native of Seaford and has been pastoring a church in New Jersey.

We are starting a new project to help our building fund. Mrs. Mary Uhler has covered soft drink cans which we will fill with our "Penny a Meal" project. Simply drop a penny in the can at each meal and when it is full, turn it over to us.

On May 8, there will be a Bake Sale in front of Reynolds. Plan to get your mother's day cake or pie then. Anyone wishing to contribute, call Mrs. Betty Jory 349-4882 or Mrs. Betty Cannon 422-7396.

Report from Greenwood United Methodist Church: The Maranatha Fellowship meets every Tuesday morning at 9:30 at the home of Ellen Bollinger. Everyone is invited.

Mrs. Ellen Bollinger, Mrs. Jo Ann Davis, Mrs. Joanne Patterson, Miss Barbara Tull, Mr. Dale Patterson and Mr. Ralph Milbourn spent the weekend in Vincentown, New Jersey at the Methodist Church pastored by the Rev. Robt. Reardon, where they participated in the Lay Witness Mission held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Meredith had, as their weekend house guest, Mr. Richard Lyfch of Topeka, Kansas. On Sunday the Merediths entertained to dinner Miss Donna Twilley and children of Dover and her mother, from Carbonale, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lynch and family of Selbyville, Mrs. Violet Bringhurst of Viola and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meredith.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cannon were Miss Anne Cannon of Wilmington and Paul Lopez of New Jersey, Patrick Cannon of Newark and Miss Kathleen McCarron of Laurel.

Miss Anne Marie Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cannon, of Wilmington and the University of Delaware, has become a member of the Alpha Kappa Delta, the National Honor Society for senior sociology majors. The new initiates were honored at a banquet on Thursday, April 29, at the John M. Clayton Hall on the University of Delaware campus.

The Woodbridge Junior High Greenwood Element-

Lake Forest South B Elementary School in Harrington had a Bicentennial program Friday in which members of the first grade took part. Skits, dancing and singing were included in the hour-long program. The students and teachers were dressed in colonial costumes. Refreshments for parents and participants followed. A large turnout was on hand for the afternoon.

tary P.T.A. were represented with a full slate of delegates at the 65th Annual Convention of the Delaware Congress of Parents and Teachers. Those attending were Mrs. Mary Parsons, Mrs. Judy Rash, Mrs. Marie Batson, Miss Margaret Alexander, Mrs. Eliza Foreman, Mrs. Shirley Hayes and Mrs. Veronica Cannon.

Viola Bicen Plate and Plans Ready

The Viola Bicentennial Plate has been completed. According to Grace Kersey, one of the designers of the plate, people may order their plate by calling her at 284-4188.

A history of Viola has been completed by Margaret V. Chambers. The title of the history is 'Golden Ticket'. Viola was so named this before being named Viola. The history was taken from many sources. Some of the material has been published - but most comes from original documents. Among other things, it tells of the Methodist influence in this area. The book contains many pictures which should be of interest, not only to people still living in the area, but to others who have family connections with the Viola-Canterbury area. Anyone wishing to order a book may do so by calling Mrs. Margaret Chambers at 284-4641.

The Viola W.S.C.S. is sponsoring both the plate and the history book. Viola combined with Felton is celebrating their Bicentennial day on June 26th.

Cheer Center News: Week April 26-30

On Monday, April 26, the Public Health Nurse, Mrs. Pierce could not be with us; Mrs. Doughten, our site manager, acted in her place and checked our blood pressure very efficiently.

Twenty-four members of our Center attended our monthly birthday party on Thursday and enjoyed the festivities. Some of our ladies have been quite busy this week learning how to construct a candle lamp while other have been crocheting red, white and blue slippers for our Bicentennial booth on May 22.

We are looking forward to our trip to Dover on Friday, May 7, to attend our Annual R.S.V.P. banquet and also to our Valley Forge trip coming up on May 11.

Shown above is the Viola Bicentennial Plate. This first edition plate was designed by Grace I. Kersey and Benjamin Roland, who did the sketches. The buildings on the plate are still in existence. Mr. Roland's initials are under each sketch on the plate. A short history appears on the back.

On June 13th, the Conestoga Wagon will be in the Felton and Viola and Woodside area.

It will start at Woodside at 1 p.m. from the Earl Fogwell farm thin proceed from their to Viola and on to Felton each town will have a scroll to present to the wagon-master signed by people of these towns and out lying areas. The wagon master is Don Ehaugh of Dover.

Lads and Lassies Finish 1975-76 Bowling Season

by Terry Clegg

The last games of the Lads and Lassies 1975-76 bowling season were rolled Monday night with the Goldiggers taking the top slot.

The Pinbusters, winners of the first third, maintained the top position even though they were not eligible to take the final third. Edna Mae Layton captured high game and series for women with a 188, 215 and 192 for a 595 set. Nice rolling, Edna Mae! Teammate Mike Fry chipped in a 196 game and the Pinbusters went home with three games in their pockets.

Their opponents, Moose I, just couldn't get it all together and had to settle for one game. This team really turned on the final third and put their bid in for the top slot. Their three game loss put them in fourth place but rest assured, they'll be back in there giving their all next year.

The Goldiggers came to the bowling alley with winning the top position on their minds and that's just what they did. Doris Buck rolled a 203, 191, and 178 for a 572 set, (second high series for women) and Mary Bergold capped it with a 163. Their teammates added their games and ended the night with a three game win and the assurance of being in the roll-offs. Their opponents, Moose II, gave their best effort with sub Mike Hastings leading the way with a 211 and teammates Leah Wheeler with a 162 and 180 and Leanna Hawkins with a 167. These scores gave Moose II one game.

The 4-Aces' dreams of being in the roll-offs were shattered Monday night with three losses to the Spares. The 4-Aces had to settle for only a one game win. This team bowled their hearts out this third and kept the top position for quite a few weeks. They all had good games with Joanie Edwards starting them off with a 167 but the Spares had it all together and just overpowered their opponents. Jay Lewis captured high series for men and earned himself a patch as he rolled a 211, 204 and 206 for a 621 series. Way to roll, Jay!! Earl Vogan added a 197 and helped his team take the three games.

The M & P's put it to the Dy-no-mite team and ended up with three games in their win column. Al Melvin took high game for men with a nice 223 game. Way to go, big Al!! Fellow teammates added their scores and went home with three games. The Dy-no-mite team had their share of troubles the last night of bowling as all members couldn't get it together. Watch out, next year!! I'm sure they will be fighting their way to the top.

Next we have the Strikers. Their three game loss to the Campers put them down in sixth position on the standing sheet. Even with Jeff Fry's 212 and 198 and sub Nancy Daniels with a 204 and 172, they could not succeed in stopping the Campers' winning streak. Reds Friedline rolled a 202 and 210 and with teammates Mary Friedline rolling a 171 and Betty Lyons a 169, the Campers ended their season with a three game win.

The Misfits showed Friends Four how games are won as they took three from them. Gary Singleton had gotten back into the groove of things as he fired in a 202. Gail Lutz, having her troubles all season trail with a 170 and 163. Patti Friedline put the finishing touches on their three game win with a 160. Friends Four managed to take one game from their worthy opponents with Terry Clegg's 197 and Jr. Gallo's 193. They ended the season in last place with only 13 wins. Look at it this way team, you have but only one way to go next year. UP!!!

The No-Mads pulled themselves up by their boot straps and took three from the Mickey Moose team. Mickey Moose was another team that just couldn't seem to get going but did manage to go home with a one game win.

As I said in the beginning of my column, the Lads and Lassies bowling season for 1975-76 has come to a close. All that remains now is to see who will capture the top slot in bowling as the winners of the three thirds will now compete in the roll-offs. Will it be the Pinbusters, Misfits or the Goldiggers? One thing is for sure, each of these teams will end up with a trophy and the honor of being in one of the top three slots.

I know that they all worked hard for this chance and I wish all three teams the very best of luck. Their bowling schedule is as follows: Mon., May 10th, 7:30 P.M. - Misfits vs. Pinbusters; Tues., May 11th, 7:30 P.M. - Pinbusters vs. Goldiggers; Fri., May 14th, 7:30 P.M. - Misfits vs. Goldiggers.

As for the rest of the Monday night teams, better luck next year. I know each team gave it their best effort but due to some bad breaks and bad nights of bowling they just couldn't seem to get to the top.

I have only one more bowling column to write and that is on our banquet to be held on June 11th.

I hope that my columns have been accurate and that I gave each team equal recognition. I thank all the Monday night bowlers for their help and support in writing my columns. I have really enjoyed writing this column and bowling with everyone on the Monday night mixed league. Until next September, have a happy and safe summer and see you all in the 1976-77 bowling season.

Saturday is Appreciation Night

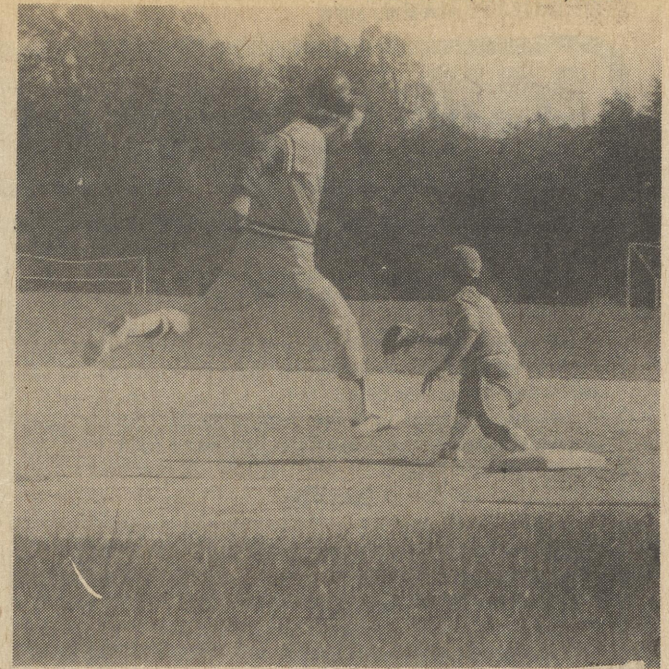

In appreciation to the fans who have supported the successful Spring Meet at Harrington Raceway the officers and management have declared Saturday nite appreciation night. There will be free admission to the grandstand and old time prices will prevail at the concession stands. The 25c hot dog and 25c beverage will be featured.

Although encountering some rather adverse weather conditions this spring, the overall racing has been the best ever, according to track officials. On Saturday, April 17th, six horses got new lifetime records on the Harrington track. Topping the list was Mr. Elwyn who paced the mile in 2:02 4/5 for driver Jim Schlotzhauer.

Harold Frazier of Harrington and Jim Schlotzhauer of Cordova, Md., are in a close contention for the leading dash winner. Awards will be made to the leading drivers at the raceway Saturday night.

Sammy Belote has returned to the raceway following his survival from a very serious truck accident. Sammy was the leading dash winner prior to this accident. The 28 night Spring Meet will close Saturday night.

There will be one night of harness racing during the Delaware State Fair. This will be Thursday, July 22 at 8 p.m. when the Delaware Standardbred Development Stakes for 2 year old pacers and trotters will be presented. This is in conjunction with a preview of the State Fair which will continue thru the following week. Admission will be free to this event!

Spartan first-baseman Bill Jackson stretches for throw from second-baseman Glenn Witt to complete a third inning double play.

Spartans Drop to 1-4

by Millard Ellingsworth
The Lake Forest Spartans dropped another game Monday, to Dover High, to make their overall record 1 - 4.

In the first inning, Dover scored a run to take a one-zip lead. Dover again scored in the top of the second and Jeff Chambers scored for the Spartans in the bottom of the inning. With the score at 2 - 1, Dover, the game moved into the third inning. Here, Dover High took advantage of losing pitcher, Greg Regan's pitching, to score five runs.

After one out was made in the third, and several runs, Mike McGinnis relieved Regan and spent only one pitch, which Dover knocked into a double play by Glenn Whitt and Bill Jackson. The Senators pushed another run across in the fourth before Bill Jackson scored from third on a sacrifice by Wayne Voshell in the fifth. Dover upped its total by one more, to nine, in the sixth.

Thanks to errors and walks, the Spartans loaded the bases for a seeming comeback in the final inning. Bill Moore scored Lake Forest's run in the seventh when he was walked in by Dover High's pitcher. Next, Ken Crouse singled and drove in Wayne Voshell, who scored the Spartan's fourth and final run before George Luff struck out leaving the bases loaded.

Hits for Lake Forest were claimed by Ken Crouse - two, George Luff - two, and Jeff Chambers - one, all singles.

The Spartans will try for their second victory today in Seaford at 4 p.m.

Raiders Still Unbeaten

by Barry Breeding
Woodbridge Softball prevails over Dover Air Woodbridge girls extended their unbeaten streak to five games in a row, with wins last week over Milford (13-2) and Dover Air (20-9).

leftfielder led the girls with three RBI's and going two for four at the plate. Only Senior Joni Zerolles had more RBI's (four).

The girls try to preserve their unbeaten record against Sussex Central Thursday. (today)

Spartans Girls Track Team is Defeated

Dave Buck's Lake Forest girls' team was one of the top Delaware teams last spring, but several girls didn't come out for track this time, including some school record holders.

bury, Md., beat the short-handed Spartans 66-34 here.

Lake Forest winners were: Anna Jackson, discus (76-10); Brenda Teat 220 (28.5); Maxine Harris mile run (6:09) and Paula Mosley 880 (2:46.7).

Lime... the fertilizer stretcher

○ Lime stretches nitrogen supplies. Acid pH's slow down the reaction of microorganisms in the soil. This results in the slower conversion of urea and ammonia forms of nitrogen to more readily available nitrate forms. It reduces the microbial breakdown of organic materials which release nitrogen to your crops. Proper liming makes more nitrogen available for healthy growth.

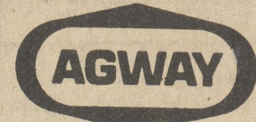

○ Lime stretches phosphate supplies. Low pH causes phosphate to be tied up in unavailable compounds of iron and aluminum. At pH levels of 6.0 or higher, iron and aluminum precipitate out, making them non-reactive with phosphate. So more phosphate is available for crops production.

○ Lime stretches potash supplies. Calcium, magnesium and potash can partially substitute for each other in the crop and on the soil colloid. If calcium and magnesium are low, more potash enters the exchangeable form on the soil colloid and less remains in solution form for crop uptake. With proper liming, less total potash is needed.

Lime... for the good of it!

Liming always has been, and today is even more so, the most profitable fertility practice you can undertake. And right now is the time to do it!

Spartan Harry Benson leads the way in the mile run against Dover Air last Monday.

Track Team Wins

by Keith S. Burgess

Dover Air High's Falcons visited Lake Forest on Monday and gave the host Spartans some stiff competition before losing 81-60.

Mike Benson long jumped 19-7 and did 39-5 in the triple jump for two wins and teamed with Grayson Barthlow, Kevin Pritchett and Charley Scott to take the 440 relay (48.3).

Mike Quail and Perry Thomas scored in the jumps. Chris Palmisano (10.47) and Terry Pettyjohn (10.49) were 1-2 in the two-mile on a windy day that made good clockings difficult. Dover Air's Jeff Thornburg, an eighth grader, was 12th in the state cross-country meet last fall, was third.

Bob Mullane led the 330 hurdlers in 44.8, then had third-place efforts in the pole vault (11 feet) and high jump (5-10).

Steve Salisbury was runner up in the pole vault, then cleared 5-8 in the high jump. Gusto Voshell went over 10-6 in the pole vault.

John Moffett was the high hurdles winner.

Harry Benson and Dan Parker were both around 4.49 in the mile run. Parker and Louis Thomas got second and third in the 880. Dave Richter's 5.04 mile completed a 1-2-3 mile sweep. Freshman prospect Wilson Fry's first mile ever (5.17) was a very fine debut.

Tony Smith annexed the century against the wind, then ran with Pritchett Scott and Barthlow on the winning 880 relay four.

Scott, Barthlow and freshman Henry Lasalle were 2-3-4 in the 220 yard dash.

Jon O'Toole and Manny Christopher finished second and third in both the shot and discus to practically nullify the winning throws of the Falcon's Sylvester "Sly"

Raiders Smash Dover Air

by Barry Breeding

Woodbridge scored first by adding a lone run in the top of the second and then erupting for seven in the third.

Dover Air scored its first run in the top of the fourth when a pick off attempt by pitcher Rick Tull and center-fielder Mike Richards went astray. The runner reached third safely and scored on a bad throw from the outfield.

Senior Kevin Dewey came on to pitch in the bottom of the fifth and went the rest of the way for starter Tull. "I felt as though I should give Rick a little rest, after-all he has pitched all but one game," explained coach Jym Vansiever.

"Dewey gave up a couple of hits but nothing that could hurt us" commented Vansiever. Dewey walked four and also struck out four. He gave up an earned run in the bottom of the seventh, but pitched his way out of what could have been a sticky situation for the Raiders.

Dewey also led the Raiders with the bat-going two for three with two RBIs.

In action last week, the Raiders edged Northern Division for Milford 1-0.

The Raiders scored their only run in the third inning when catcher Cliff Hardesty squeezed over Mike Richards.

"I was anticipating a close game and told the boys that if the situation arose, then we would use the the suicide" Vansiever said.

As it turned out it was the only run the winners needed as starting pitcher Rick Tull blanked the Bucs giving up only four hits and striking out fourteen.

The Raiders take on Sussex Central today (Thursday). This could be the biggest showdown of the year-Central's Joe Shockley and Woodbridge's Rick Tull, both pitchers are undefeated in conference games.

"We really need to win this one to stay strong" said Vansiever. "But I'm certain they want to win this one also, it's a matter of who gets up higher emotionally.

None the less this will probably be the game to watch in the conference today.

Mason-Dixon '500' Is Next Sunday

Buddy Baker was asked prior to last September's Delaware "500" Winston Cup race at Dover Downs whether or not he was on of the many superstitious drivers on the NASCAR Grand National circuit. Smiling and joking at the thought, Baker casually tossed the subject aside by saying, "I'm not superstitious, except that I worry when I don't have a pocket full of money."

"Our engines have been holding together quite a bit better lately," Baker continued, "and the car I'll be bringing up there is the car I won with at the end of last season. I think we've got our stuff going pretty good and I think we're going to be very competitive."

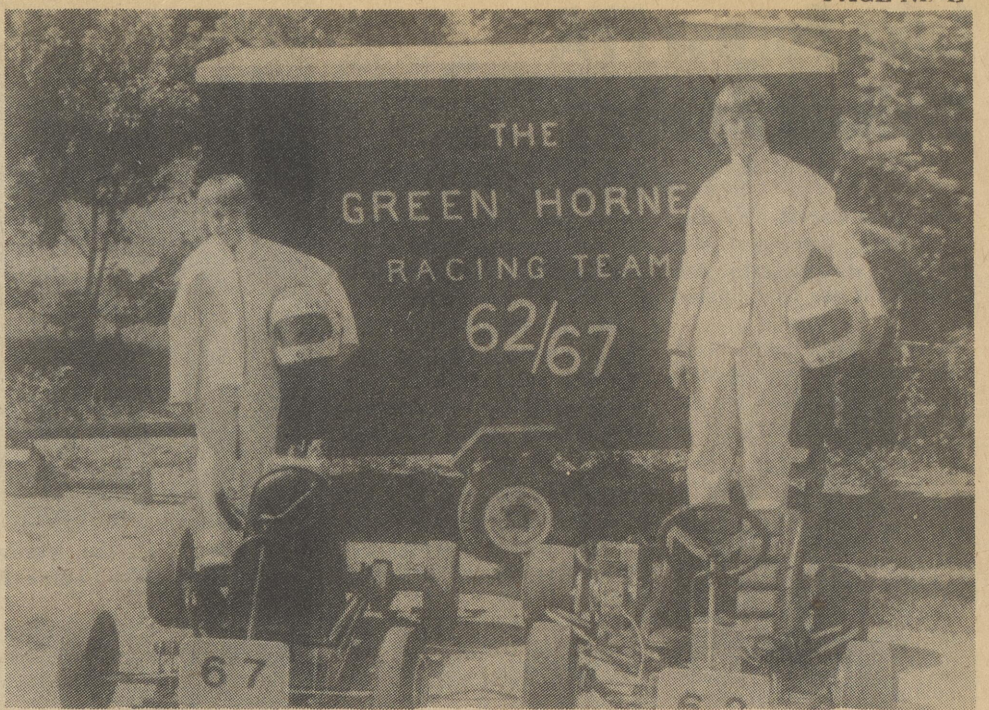

At 6 ft. 5 in. and 215 lbs., Baker is the largest of all drivers on the Grand National circuit. When asked for his opinion about the well known physical nature of the superspeedway at Dover Downs Baker said, "Well, it's a good racetrack...a very competitive racetrack. It is very tiring and it takes a long time to complete 500 miles, but I think it's nearly as tough as Darlington where you run 155 MPH on a racetrack that was designed for you to run 110 MPH on. It's a good facility and handles the speed very well. It's a good racetrack to run on."

The Mason Dixon "500" weekend schedule calls for practice starting at 11 a.m on Friday, May 14th. More practice and qualifying for all 40 starting positions will take place on Saturday, May 15th.

Hammond Brothers Finish First

Watch out Richard Petty, David Pearson and you Allison brothers, too! The Hammond brothers of Canterbury are headed your way.

Eight year old Wayne and thirteen year old Wyatt, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hammond, each took first place in their division in the Milford Go-Cart races Sunday, May 2.

The boys belong to the Milford Go-Cart Club and race nearly every Sunday. One Sunday they race for trophies and the next Sunday for points. This particular race was a race for points. In November the racer with the most accumulated points wins a large trophy.

For Wayne, who attends third grade at Lake Forest

North Elementary and races four-cycle carts, it was his first win.

Wyatt was in the winner's circle for the second time, driving two-cycle carts. He is an eighth grader at W. T. Chipman Junior High School in Harrington.

Softball Also Loses

Monday, April 3, the Girls' Softball Team of Lake Forest High School saw another of many defeats at the hands of Dover High School.

The game was played at Lake Forest. Spartan hits were made by Chris Morrow (two), and Cindy Stephens, Laura Newnom, Cheryl Short and Kathy Wheatley, one each. The Spartans' six runs were scored by Cindy Stephens (two), Paul Clendaniel (two), and Cheryl Lissy and Chris Morrow, one each. Dover scored a total of 28 runs.

When he was asked what seemed to be the problem, Coach Al Wood responded, "We just made so many silly mistakes...we just weren't playing heads up ball." He also commented that Dover was both strong on the mound and at the plate.

Lake Forest plays Seaford today, at Seaford, started at 4 p.m.

Spartan Cindy Stevens scores one of the Spartans few runs in the girls lost on Monday.

Lake Forest FFA Strikes Again

The Lake Forest FFA has been very successful this year in all contests and activities it has participated in.

On April 14 ten Lake Forest FFA members invaded Middletown High School for the State Parliamentary Procedure contest and State Public Speaking Contest. The Parliamentary Procedure team walked away with first place in the state. Team members were the chapter officers: President - Ernest Vogl; Vice-President - Mike Layton; Secretary - Rhonda Fibelkorn; Treasurer - Ronnie Blessing; Reporter - Kyle Webb; Chaplain - Darrell Lofland; Sentinel - Jim Anthony, and Donald Hopkins as student advisor. Team coach was Mike Coverdale.

Willis Townsend participated in the Senior Public Speaking Contest and Bruce VonGoerres participated in the Junior Public Speaking Contest. Both of these members were placed first by the judges, but had to be docked for running overtime. As a result, Willis placed fourth and Bruce was second.

On February 26, Lake Forest FFA members participated in the State Tractor Troubleshooting Contest held at Taylor and Messick's and the State Agribusiness Contest held at W. T. Chipman School. Both of these teams placed first in the state. Members of the tractor Troubleshooting Team were Alan Huffman and Donald Welch. Team coach was William H. Abbott. Members of the Agribusiness Team were Doug Warrington, Darrell Lofland, Beth Evers, Wade Brown, and JoAnn Paskey. Team advisor was Mike Coverdale. Both of these teams participated against 13 other teams from over the state.

Coming events for the Chapter are the State Flower Arranging Contest on May 6 and the Ornamental Horticulture and Tractor Driving Contest at the University of Delaware on May 13. Also the greenhouse at the high school is supplying various types of bedding plants for sale.

Legates Addresses Realtors Board

Mayor Charles Legates of Dover addressed the Kent County Board of Realtors last Thursday night at the Maple Dale Country Club. Legates told the crowded club room "...please don't sell your own home...call a realtor".

Legates recently sold his home on South State Street in Dover, and moved to another house downtown. The problem of selling one and buying another posed a problem until his realtor worked it out for him. The Mayor said "...I might have been out in the street if it had not been for my realtor".

Reciting some facts and figures, the Mayor pointed out that in 1956 there were $30,000,000 of assessed properties in Dover with $12,000,000 of tax exempt properties. In 1972, there were $308,000,000 of tax assessed properties and $162,900,000 of tax exempt properties. 54 % of the tax base is tax exempt property. State buildings and churches are not taxed. The population figure of Dover is now 27,000. "Again it is due to people like yourself", said Legates.

Legates said the City is in better financial shape today because it has its own power plant.

A revenue sharing study is being researched by William (Bill) James a native of Harrington and current City Manager at Dover, who has become an expert in the field of revenue sharing to see if funds can be obtained for the reconstruction of the downtown sector.

In other matters before the Board, the current legislation regulating Landlord-

Tenant law was discussed rather widely. It was felt by the members in attendance that there were many points in the new legislation, which has not become law yet, totally inequitable and slanted too far in favor of the tenant. Walter Ellis of Lore-Ellis Realty Co., moderated the meeting and was conducting the program when the heated discussion regarding "...the printing of City maps" was being discussed. Fran Lore, Chairman of the Committee, voiced opinions of how the maps would be printed to the objection of some members. City maps have become a point of contention with the realtor group since the Delaware Trust Co. has indicated that they would not print the maps in the future as they had initiated and had done in the past.

Jim Foster, left, head football coach at Woodbridge, George Durig, Center, Woodbridge's Athletic Director, and Jym VanSciver right join in on the debate last Wednesday night at the School Board meeting relating to the playing of the girls basketball games before the boys varsity games. The Board voted to sustain their March ruling and play the girls games before the boys games. Durig explained that he had not been consulted on the pros and cons of such a move, and would have liked some "input" into the discussion at the March meeting.

When Will Girls Play Their Games?

A very long list of items appeared on the agenda of the Woodbridge School Board last Wednesday night. Topics taking the most discussion and concentration were the 1976-1977 School Calendar, job descriptions for department heads and extra duty assignments to the red hot issue of whether or not the girls' basketball team should play their games preceding the boys' varsity games.

At the March board meeting, the Board had unanimously voted to play the games before the boys' games. There had been no discussion with the coaches or the Athletic Director, George Durig. For further details of this discussion see the article on the sports section in this issue.

The matter of extra duty assignments for teachers and in particular department heads was another area of discussion. The union representative for the teachers, Lewis Huffman, informed the School Board "the arrangement as stated was a unilateral arrangement and totally unacceptable".

From this point a discussion ensued by what was meant by extra duty assignments. Beckert called for the department heads to write their own job descriptions. School Board member William Tull and Lewis Huffman both agreed this was the wrong way to do it.

Tull said "...I disagree with this entirely". Tull got some what upset and apologized later to the board indirectly by saying "...that there have been some things said here tonight which might have been discussed in a private meeting". The matter was "tabled again for further discussion".

Huffman's biggest criticism was that, according to him, the building principals could hold dictate to the department heads about the extra work assignments. The matter of paying the teachers also was brought up and discussed. The teachers wanted separate checks "...to avoid higher withholdings", but Dr. Foster Flint informed them the same would be taken out of one check as two.

In other action a field trip by the high school to Kings Dominion on June 2 was approved.

The meeting went into executive session at approximately 10 p.m. until sometime after 11 p.m. when coaches Kay Smith and Jym VanSciver were called in to discuss the basketball situation.

New Century News

The Harrington New Century Club met Tuesday afternoon, April 27th at 1 p.m. This concludes our meetings by having many activities in the past month.

Recently we served a Prayer Breakfast with the Rev. Wayne Grier giving a few highlights of his childhood. He recalled what a treat it was when his parents brought him to town and to the Reese Theatre and little did he anticipate ever coming to Harrington to serve as Trinity Church minister.

Rev. and Mrs. Alvin J. Willink gave two beautiful piano duets.

A delicious Easter Luncheon was served to members and their guests on April 20th. Mrs. John Harry Dill, Jr. chairman of the program, introduced the accompanist. Mrs. Carol Butler and her husband, Mr. William Butler, who is the director of the Glee Club from Lake Forest High School. They sang several songs, also Howard Perry of Lake Forest High School sang several numbers.

Two in the cast of "Annie Get Your Gun", Brenda Colison and Matt Burgess both from Harrington did some of their acting and sang, "They Say It's Wonderful", "OLD Fashioned Wedding" and "Anything You Can Do."

On Tuesday, April 27th, Mrs. Joseph L. Brinster conducted her last meeting as President. Mrs. Francis J. Winkler read the minutes of the previous meetings.

Local Girl Competes For Miss Sussex County

Four local girls will be vying for the title of Miss Sussex County Saturday evening, May 8, at 8 p.m., at the Delaware Technical and Community College auditorium. This contest is a preliminary to the Miss Delaware contest, and the winner of that will go on to represent Delaware at the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Miss Deborah Renee Dorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dorman of Milford, is 18 years old, 5'10, 100 pounds, blonde hair and blue eyes. She is presently attending DT&CC and working on her doctorate in Criminal Justice. Her talent presentation will be singing.

Miss Barbara Blackman is from Felton and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Blackman. Barbara is 20 years old, 5'3", weighs 115 pounds, and has blonde hair and green eyes. Her talent presentation will be belly dancing. Barbara is attending the University of Delaware and hopes to obtain a B.S. in elementary education.

Miss Dawn Pusey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Pusey, is from Millsboro. Dawn is a senior at Sussex Central High School and will be attending DT&CC in the fall to study Medical Lab Technology. She is 5'7", 120 pounds, and has blonde hair and blue eyes. Dawn is the former Miss Millsboro 1975. Her talent presentation will be singing.

Miss Kay Brandner of Seaford and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Brandner, is 19 years old, 5'5", weighs 115 pounds, has hazel eyes and brown hair. She is presently employed as a receptionist/secretary at the Delaware Trust Company in Seaford, and hopes to attend the University of Delaware to study business and banking. Kay will play the organ for her talent presentation.

These girls will be competing in the categories of talent, evening gowns, swim suits and personal interviews. Entertainment for the evening will include Miss Jackie LaGuardia, former Miss Delaware 1973; the "Sweet Adelines"; girls from Miss Flossie's School of Dancing in Lewes; a two-piece combo; and others.

This pageant is being sponsored by the Georgetown Lions Club. Admission will be $2, and tickets can be obtained from any Lions Club member, or at the office of the chairman of the Program, Jim Pepper, at 11 West Pine Street, Georgetown. The Lions urge everyone to come for a delightful evening of entertainment.

It Seams To Me

making a fashion comeback and often comes with a vest as well as jacket and skirt.

The vest look is newest teamed with soft, feminine, tinyprint blouses, or combine with blazer and pleated pants in fabrics that either match or contrast.

Vests are easy to make and don't take much yardage. They are a good beginning project because there are no sleeves and usually no collars to worry about. You can even make them double with a contrasting fabric so the vest can be reversed. This eliminates those facings which are sometimes difficult to keep in place. Top stitch all edges are sometimes difficult to keep in place. Top stitch all edges for a smooth appearance. If you want to sew with some of the man-made suedees but have balked at the cost of fabric, try a vest. It won't take much fabric and is an ideal material for a vest.

You may even have pieces left from sewing big enough to make a vest. Or, if you have been saving out-of-style wool dresses or suits to reuse the fabric, you'll find plenty of material to recycle into a vest.

Vests for evening wear will be seen, too. Team a velveteen vest with a long skirt and long-sleeved blouse, or wear the vest without a blouse for a more formal effect.

35th Anniversary Celebrated

by Barbara Jacobs

This Sunday, May 1 surprise open house was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Starkey for Mrs. Starkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Fry, Jr. to celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary. 75 friends and relatives were in attendance. A luncheon was served.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bostick who are the proud grandparents of twins (boy, Mike, girl, Jennifer). The proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bostick. Many thanks to the V.F.W.

for their donations for shrubbery for the town park. A $50 check was presented to the town council Monday night.

Other donations large or small will all be very much appreciated. Take notice the Memorial Park is really shaping up.

Let's all send a shower of cards to Mrs. Benjamin Cohee. He just arrived home from Milford Hospital last Saturday. He could use some cheering up as he will be shut in taking it easy for a while. His address is Felton, Del.

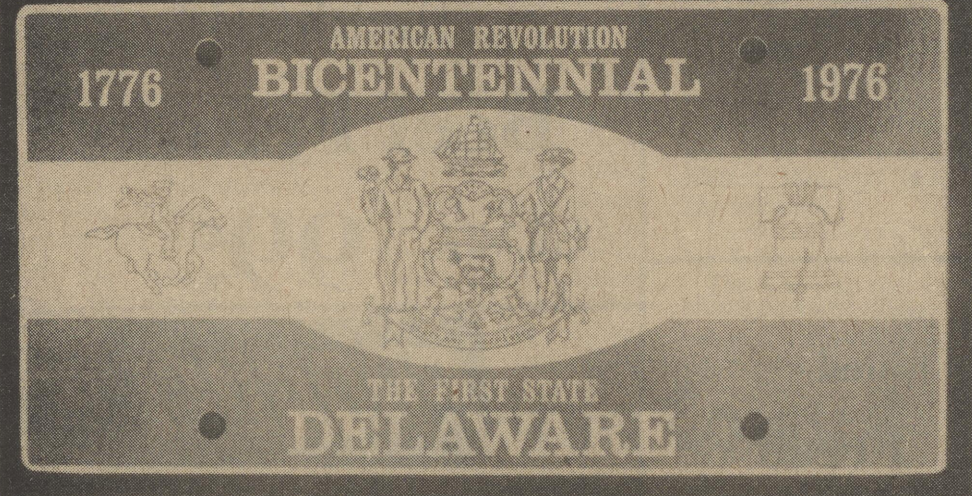

Vest interest. That is the fashion message for fall and the newest promotion for wardrobe separates.

Vests are versatile and can be teamed with other items in the wardrobe in the mix-match idea. You can add vests to your present separates to give a new look without spending much money. They also provide an extra layer of warmth if you are conserving heat.

A vest and skirt in the same fabric will give the same effect as a jumper but with much more versatility.

Many vests are man-tailored with a pointed waistline. Others are belted with a peplum effect.

K.C. & Sunshine Band

K.C. & Sunshine Band At State Fair July 24

The Delaware State Fair has negotiated a successful contract with K.C. & The Sunshine Band, who will appear the first Saturday night of the Fair, July 24th.

In releasing the details, General Manager of the Fair, George C. Simpson said that, "After much discussion and many long distance phone calls between the Fair in Harrington, the Fair's booking agent in New York City, and the group's personal agent in Miami, an agreement was finally reached which would bring the popular singing group to Delaware."

Fair officials are optimistic about the appeal of the young group feel to line them up. "I had eight dates signed for K.C. and yours was the only one they accepted", related the Fair's agent from New York.

Leader of the group, H. W. Casey (K.C.) when asked why they weren't accepting many contracts stated; "We've had to limit our live appearances due to heavy studio (recording) commitments", and that can be appreciated with the success they have had with songs such as "Get Down Tonight" and "That's The Way I like

It", which Variety reports has sold better than 1.8 million records thus far.

The nine man group was recently nominated for various "American Music Awards" and two "Grammy Awards" for their soulful and kicking type style of singing. When asked what their songs were all about, K.C. answered; "We're here to get the folks out of their seats. If we're cookin', everybody's got to dance."

Ticket sale information can be obtained by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Delaware State Fair, Box 28, Harrington, De. 19952.

Paul Newman as Butch and Robert Redford as The Kid shoot their way out of a tight spot in "BUTCH CASSIDY AND THE SUNDANCE KID" opening a special return engagement on May 5 at the Milford Theatre. Co-starring Katharine Ross, the 20th Century-Fox release was directed by George Roy Hill and written by William Goldman.

"Butch Cassidy and The Sundance Kid" Opening Return Engagement

One of the most popular films of recent times, 20th Century-Fox's "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid," starring Paul Newman, Robert Redford and Katharine Ross, returns on May 5 to the Milford Theatre. The George Roy Hill-Paul Monash production was filmed in Panavision and De Luxe Color on location in Utah, Colorado and Mexico.

Produced by John Foreman and Directed by George Roy Hill, "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" deals with the leaders of one of the last of the great bands of riders to take to the outlaw trail. Butch and the Kid did their thing at the turn of the century, much later than Jesse James and his brother Frank whose exploits have had far greater attention from movie-makers.

William Goldman based his original screenplay on the true story of fast draws and wild rides, battles with posse, train and bank robberies, a torrid love affair and a new lease on outlaw life in far away Bolivia.

It is also a character study of a remarkable friendship between Butch - possibly the most likeable outlaw in frontier history - and his closest associate, the fabled, ever dangerous, Sundance Kid, a story told with warmth and great humor.
