

Tax Down By One Cent

Lake Forest School Board Lowers Tax Rate

The Lake Forest School Board voted on Monday night to lower the tax rate from 1.07 to $1.06. The basis for the decision was mainly due to the decrease in tuition student enrollment outside district.

The tax break down is as follows: 75c per $100 assessed valuation and $10 per capitation for current expenses; 25c per $100 of assessed valuation and $5 per capitation for debt service; 5c per $100 of assessed valuation for minor capital improvements and 1c per $100 for tuition for a total district tax of $1.06 per $100 assessed and $15 per capitation.

In other matters before the Board, the Felton

Alumni Association presented a protest against the use of two custodians during their functions which are solely designed to raise money for scholarships for worthy students graduating from Lake Forest High School. Mrs. Jeannie Wood read from a prepared statement that this year alone her group has raised $2960. Accompanying Mrs. Wood to the meeting were Barbara Myers, President of the Felton Alumni Association and Ronnie Draper. The threesome based their argument on the fact that their group does all of the work in preparing the school buildings as well as cleaning afterward. The custodians merely unlock and lock the building as well as being responsible for the building during these functions. Mrs. Myers pointed out that the monies spent for the custodians could be used for another scholarship for a worthy student. Mrs. Wood presented a figure of $276.59 as being the cost of the custodian services for two events. Superintendent Albert Adams told the group from the Association that a study is being (continued on page 8)

Bowers Prepares For Sewer Plan

At last Wednesday night's monthly meeting of the Town Council Mayor Phillip Tuthill announced that the application to obtain funds from HUD to install the central sewer for the Town had been filed with the Philadelphia Office. The sum the Town seeks is $33,000. HUD has already approved their pre-application as well as being approved by the State. According to Tuthill, the HUD representatives in Philadelphia say that it will be a 3 year program.

From what Tuthill was able to learn from the State Environmentalists the test being made around the Bowers area would indicate that a central sewer system was necessary. Apparently the tests include testing in the Murderkill River. Many houses and cottages still have out-door privies and many of the properties are sub-standard. On the other hand many of the properties are not year around homes. They are summer retreats for many out of state residents.

Earlier in the year during the public hearings, many of the out of town residents were unwilling to go along with the sewer system because of the costs involved. The annual maintenance and use rate will be $150. This does not include the initial tap in fee and related plumbing charges to get to the sewer lines. The matter has stirred a great controversy around Bowers, Bayview Heights and South Bowers. The latter two areas are unwilling to join in the sewer program.

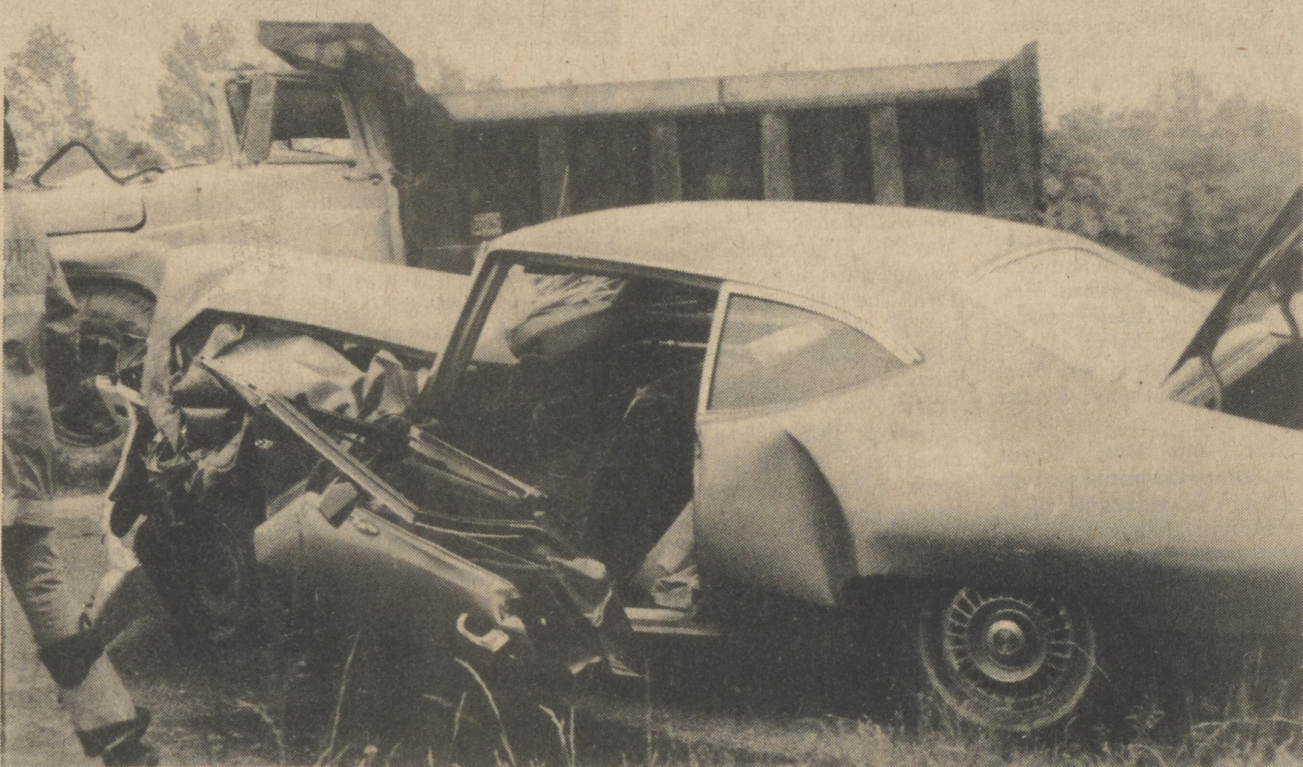

In other matters, Tuthill accepted a report approving the request by Ronald Williams the proprietor of the Pilot House Restaurant for liquor license. The Planning and Zoning Committee was required to render this opinion. The Restaurant "is located on the wharf at the foot of Hubbard Avenue", said Tuthill.

Wern Named Coach

The Lake Forest School Board approved Dean Wern a special education teacher from the W.T. Chipman School, as the new head varsity wrestling coach at the high school. Wern replaces Tom Muehleisen who coached the high school team this past year.

Wern was the wrestling coach at Chipman for the past three years. He had a very enthusiastic following having a usual number of 50 students out each year for the sport. There were 20 out (Continued on Page 9)

Late Saturday afternoon a car driven by Dwight Carter of Houston collided with a dump truck driven by Albert Ratledge of Harrington. Carter was taken to the hospital by the Harrington Fire Co. Ambulance after members of the Harrington fire Co. used a hurst tool to pry him from his car.

Wants To Start PTA

Mr. and Mrs. James Larimore came to the Lake Forest School Board meeting on Monday protesting some of "...the things" going on in the school. Larimore charged card playing and "hanging onto each other in the halls should be stopped". He thought that a PTA group should be formed to prohibit such happenings.

Superintendent Albert Adams told Mr. Larimore that such a group should originate with the parents.

The Rev. Leah E. Coleman

Is Mother of The Year

St. Paul's AME Church, in Harrington, honored its first 'Mother of the Year' during Mother's Day activities at the church, Sunday, May 9. Rev. Leah E. Coleman, 73, of Mispillion Street, was showered with personal gifts, flowers and a money tree from members of her family and church. A communion table was also presented for the church in memory of Rev. Coleman's late husband, Hallie Coleman.

Church has been a great part of Rev. Coleman's life, having been a member for 63 years, 56 of these as a member of St. Paul's. During this time, she has served on every board in the church, including being president of the church's missionary society and serving as a steward and stewardess.

She was ordained as a local deacon in 1958 and as an elder in 1962.

The friends and family that filled the church to capacity were all served dinner in the church hall following services.

Happenings

by Carole Glasspool

It seems as if Al and Ruth Cole always have something "cooking" at their Orchard Acres home.

On Saturday evening, May 15, their granddaughter, Miss Sherrie Hinson, was hostess at a party and dance for about sixteen friends in the basement of the Cole home. Meanwhile upstairs there was another party going on.

Yours truly was hoodwinked into believing I was going to the Cole home to meet their guest Mrs. Sheila Smith from Washington D.C. Actually I did meet Mrs. Smith but also discovered I was the guest of honor at a surprise birthday party. Yes friends, thirtynine again!

One of my gifts came from Tuffy Cole, my most faithful reader, and consisted of a pencil sharpener, two large writing pads and a half a dozen pencils. Tuffy is the handsome fellow in the Canterbury area.

If Tuffy is the handsomest, C. E. Hinson has to be the nuttiest. He presented me with an air horn and mounted it on my wheel chair. It is his vain attempt to make me less dangerous to pedestrian traffic. C.E. says a C.B. set is the next thing I need and suggested the "handle" "Spinnin' Wheels"! I really have to think about that one! If it seems vain of me to include my own "happening" in this column, I apologize to my readers. It's just that I'm fortunate to know such really fun people!

Tom McFry and Gary Rogers of Woodbury Acres saw Benny Parsons take the checkered flag at the Dover Downs Mason-Dixon 500 NASCAR race on Sunday, May 16th. The Hinsons and Coles and Mrs. Sheila Smith were there, too.

After two days of solid activity, Ruth Cole still had the energy and stamina to have all the race fans back at her house to eat up all the left over chicken, baked beans, cole slaw etc. that went to the race with them.

Cliff Chambers informs me that the All Sports Banquet will be held this year on June 2, Wednesday at 6:30 at Lake Forest High School. Mrs. Mary Moore is donating her catering services to the affair. Trophies will be awarded to our terrific Cross Country Team and girls basketball team. All athletes receiving varsity letters will be admitted free. Cost to all others is $2.50 per person or a maximum of $10 per family.

The OrchardAcresCivic Association is holding a yard sale at O.A. 7 this Saturday, May 22.

Tom and Karen Wilmore and family of Woodberry Acres were in Gettysburg, Pa. last weekend to attend the graduation of Karen's brother, Charles Urban, from Lutheran Theological Seminary. While there, they visited all the major historical attractions including the battlefields. Karen reports that despite the heavy rains they encountered they still had a grand time.

Don't forget the Woodbury Acres Civic Assoc. rummage sale at the Hertzburgs', #53 Canterbury-Milford Rd. this Saturday, May 22.

Now that Airman Bruce Wright has settled his 6'5" frame in one place, I have his address so friends may write him. His address is: A/B Bruce Wright SSN222400264 8 th S.C.B.D.E. Redstone Arsenal Alabama. 35809

Weekly Report

By Senator Joseph Biden

Recently, the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee decided to postpone consideration of legislation which would strengthen the right of consumers to privacy in dealing with credit investigators.

The Committee made the decision to postpone its consideration of the bill after defeating another motion to table the legislation -- and thus kill it completely.

As one of the principal sponsors of the bill, I was disappointed that the bill was not considered. But given the fact that several Committee members have changes they want to propose, it was clear we had no choice but to postpone the bill as a practical consideration. I still hope, however, that it will be possible to redraft the bill to resolve as many differences as possible and then bring it back to the Committee for new consideration in this session of Congress.

Even though the measure was postponed, however, the case for new legislation is still strong, and the bill before the Committee would meet a real need.

The sole purpose of the bill is to protect consumers when dealing with investigative reports prepared by credit agencies, insurance companies, loan agents and others.

These are subjective reports. The deal with attitudes and speculation, rather than specific rates about an individual's credit standing.

I don't think the vast majority of Americans realize the kinds of questions that are often asked in preparing these detailed investigative reports. For example, the Committee has obtained report forms which include questions like these: did "you learn of anything reflecting on morals or reputation of either party which may have caused divorce or separation?"; "Has applicant any personal difficulties, domestic troubles...?"; "Tell how applicant drinks, if social or solitary..."; give "criticism of home environment"; "is here "criticism of parents or other members of family?"

I think that a person should have an absolute right to know what's being investigated in these things, and consequently, the bill was drafted to include these major provisions:

-Consumers must be told in advance about investigative reports and affirmatively give their consent.

-Before any medical information could be obtained as part of such a report, the consumer would have to be told whether such information will be relayed to central data banks run by credit reporting firms, where it would be available to others;

-Credit reporting agencies would be required to adopt reasonable procedures to assure the relevance and accuracy of information collected, and consumers would be entitled to physically inspect the files of investigative reports, or to get disclosure of file contents by mail, phone or personal visit.

The basic question involved here is the right of privacy. In every area of our lives, there are more and more encroachments on that right, and the purpose of this bill is to protect Americans against unwarranted and unsubstantiated invasions of their personal lives.

It Seams To Me

How helpful is a dress form for fitting your clothes? This depends on how nearly it corresponds to all your body contours, and the amount of skill you develop in its use.

Choose a dress form that duplicates your figure as closely as possible, rather than one sized to a few basic measurements. A personally-fitted form is expensive. If you prefer to make your own, it's expensive in time and patience.

A good dress form can pay for itself after a few years if you sew a great deal--and if your figure doesn't change.

One dress form of polyurethane foam compresses somewhat like flesh as it is covered with a firm fabric that has been fitted to you. The usefulness of this form depends on the skill of the fitter.

You can buy a commercial type dress form somewhat smaller than your body, have someone fit a heavy muslin cover closely to your figure, then add layers of cotton batting to the form until it fills the muslin cover exactly as your figure would. This also requires an expert fitter and time and patience on your part.

A dress form made of layers of gummed tape applied to a close-fitting cotton jersey on the body sounds good, but many women who have made these found them inaccurate and difficult to use.

The first dress you fit on a dress form should be a trial one. It may take several dresses before you learn the knack of fitting.

Dental Assistants work for trained workers.

A dental laboratory technician assists the dentist by constructing prosthetics devices, such as crowns and dentures. The work may be done in either the dental office or in a separate laboratory.

The minimum requirement to enter this occupation usually is a high school diploma, although two-year programs at community and junior colleges now exist. Most lab technicians are still trained on the job. After five years' experience, workers may take an examination and obtain certification from the National Board of Certification which also approves training programs.

The starting salary is $4,500 to $8,000 per year. Very good employment prospects for these workers are expected, especially for graduates of accredited programs. About 33,000 men and women now work in this occupation.

Thoughts.....

By Senator William Roth

Once established, these programs are impossible to dislodge, regardless of their merit, because the vested interests fight tooth and nail to keep them. Our national budget has become a vast spoils system for a growing class of bureaucrats and special interest groups.

The legislation I am proposing would provide a mechanism for transforming public support for reforms into concrete action. If Congress will put this legislation into place, reorganization of the government could be the first order of business for the next Administration.

My legislation calls for the creation of a bipartisan, 18-member commission -- six members appointed by the next President, eight by Congressional leaders, and four by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The commission would be known as the Citizens Bicentennial Commission for the Organization and Operation of Government.

The Senate Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations has agreed to make this proposal part of the pending reform legislation that Senator Edmund Muskie (D-Maine) and I introduced in February. That legislation would require that every Federal program be subjected to a top-to-bottom review at least once every five years before additional funds are provided. Those programs that are not worthwhile or cost effective would be eliminated.

Garlic Can Be Injurious

Every once in a while during the bicentennial year we find that things really haven't changed all that much in 200 years. This account from James Tilton, colonial Delaware farmer and physician, was written in 1779:

"...the most noxious and injurious plant is wild garlic or Allium. When this gets possession of ground, no effectual method has hitherto been discovered for rooting it out; it seeds about the same time with the wheat, and it is with great difficulty separated from the clean grain; manufactured with the wheat, it gives the flour a disagreeable taste of garlick, and injures the sale of such wheat and other grain as abound with it.

"This plant is most injurious in poor land, and the best guard to be taken against it is to force the land with manure, by which means the grain rises thick and high above it, and stifling the garlick prevents it from seeding."

Thirty-Three Selected

Thirty-three Delaware High School football players have been named to the Gold Squad for the 1976 All-Star football game scheduled for August 21 at the University of Delaware stadium in Newark.

Bruce Justice, a tackle for Woodbridge, will be playing on the Gold Squad this year.

In this year's game, which is played for the benefit of the state's mentally retarded, the Gold Squad will be striving to reverse last year's loss to the Blue Squad.

Jim Foster, director of recreation for the town of Bridgeville, head football coach and past head track coach at Woodbridge High School will be an assistant Coach for the Gold Squad under the head coaching of Joe Purzycki.

This is about the way it will look when the motorcycle racers dive at 100 miles an hour into the first corner at the June 12 FULL HOUSE CYCLE CLASSIC, Delaware State Fairgrounds, Harrington. Some of the top contenders pictured here include No. 3, Gene Romero, and No. 7, Mert Lawwill. The two Californians are both ex-National Champions and both are entered on Harley Davidsons.

Cyclists Will Be Here June 12

After a very successful debut in 1975, National Championship motorcycle racing returns to the Delaware State Fairgrounds 110 MPH half mile oval at 8 p.m., Saturday evening, June 12.

Called the FULL HOUSE CYCLE CLASSIC after the name of the sponsor, a Cornwells Heights, Pa., distributor of motorcycle parts and accessories, the second year event is one of 28 "Nationals" held all over the United States during the year to determine the best motorcycle racer on the Camel Pro Series circuit.

Motorcycle racers from all over the United States will gather at the Delaware State Fairgrounds to contest the eight race, $23,000 event. About 100 entries are expected, many from California, to be pared down to the fastest 48 through time trials.

Leading the racers onto the Fairgrounds half mile oval will be Gary Scott, 1975 Grand National Champion hailing from Springfield, Ohio. The 24 year old champion had three times previously been runner-up for the Championship, finally clinching it with the help of a third place at Harrington last year.

Scott's main competition in 1976 will come from past champion (1973 and 1974) Kenny Roberts, hailing from Modesto, California and riding a Team Yamaha, and current point leader from Fremont, California, Rick Hocking. He is scheduled to ride a Harley-Davidson at Harrington.

Tickets to the FULL HOUSE CYCLE CLASSIC range in price from $12 down to $6. They are available at all Ticketron outlets, Diamond Motor Sports in Camden, and at the gate June 12.

Chipman Holds Band Concert

by Carole Glasspool
On Thursday evening, May 13, the W.T. Chipman Jr. High Band expertly directed by Alex B. Beeton performed in concert. For over an hour, the fairly good sized audience was treated to a varied and ear-pleasing program.

Selections ranged from rock to pop to patriotic and included highlights from the Broadway hit "Fiddler on the Roof" and the intricate Malaguena. Four of the top band students performed what seemed to these layman ears to be perfectly executed solos. Billy Ivins on cornet played "Connersation for Cornet." "Concerto for Clarinet" was performed by John Way. Adam Hobbs an eighth-grade student who made All State Band this year, offering was "Egotistical Elephant" played on the tuba. All of the above were accompanied by the band. Lois Jandak was piano accompanist for daughter Jennifer playing "Rhondo" on flute. During a brief intermission Mr. Beckon presented the eighth grade students with pins in the shape of the instrument each student respectively plays.

Awards were also presented to the three Chipman students who were tapped for All State Band this year.

They were the previously mentioned Adam Hobbs; Drew Taylor, trombonist; and Jeff Grone, percussionist.

In addition to the concert of the entire band, three rock selections were performed by the stage band which is comprised of students selected from the larger band on the basis of musical ability.

From the beginning "Star Spangled Banner" to the closing "Spartans of Tomorrow" it was a most pleasant and enjoyable evening. The band was rewarded for all of their obvious hard work and diligence with a well-deserved standing ovation!

making money at other jobs. It is also an inconvenience to come into the school for these functions. The matter is being studied as Adams pointed out "...as well as the need for more than one custodian". Adams admitted he did not know the answer to the problem, but promised the Felton group a speedy decision on the matter would be forth coming.

You'll be surprised when you find how little the cost for what you want.

We've got a Mountain Range...

And we'd like you to take a good look at it. It's a pattern of valleys and peaks.

Your use of electricity follows a pattern similar to this, just like a mountain range.

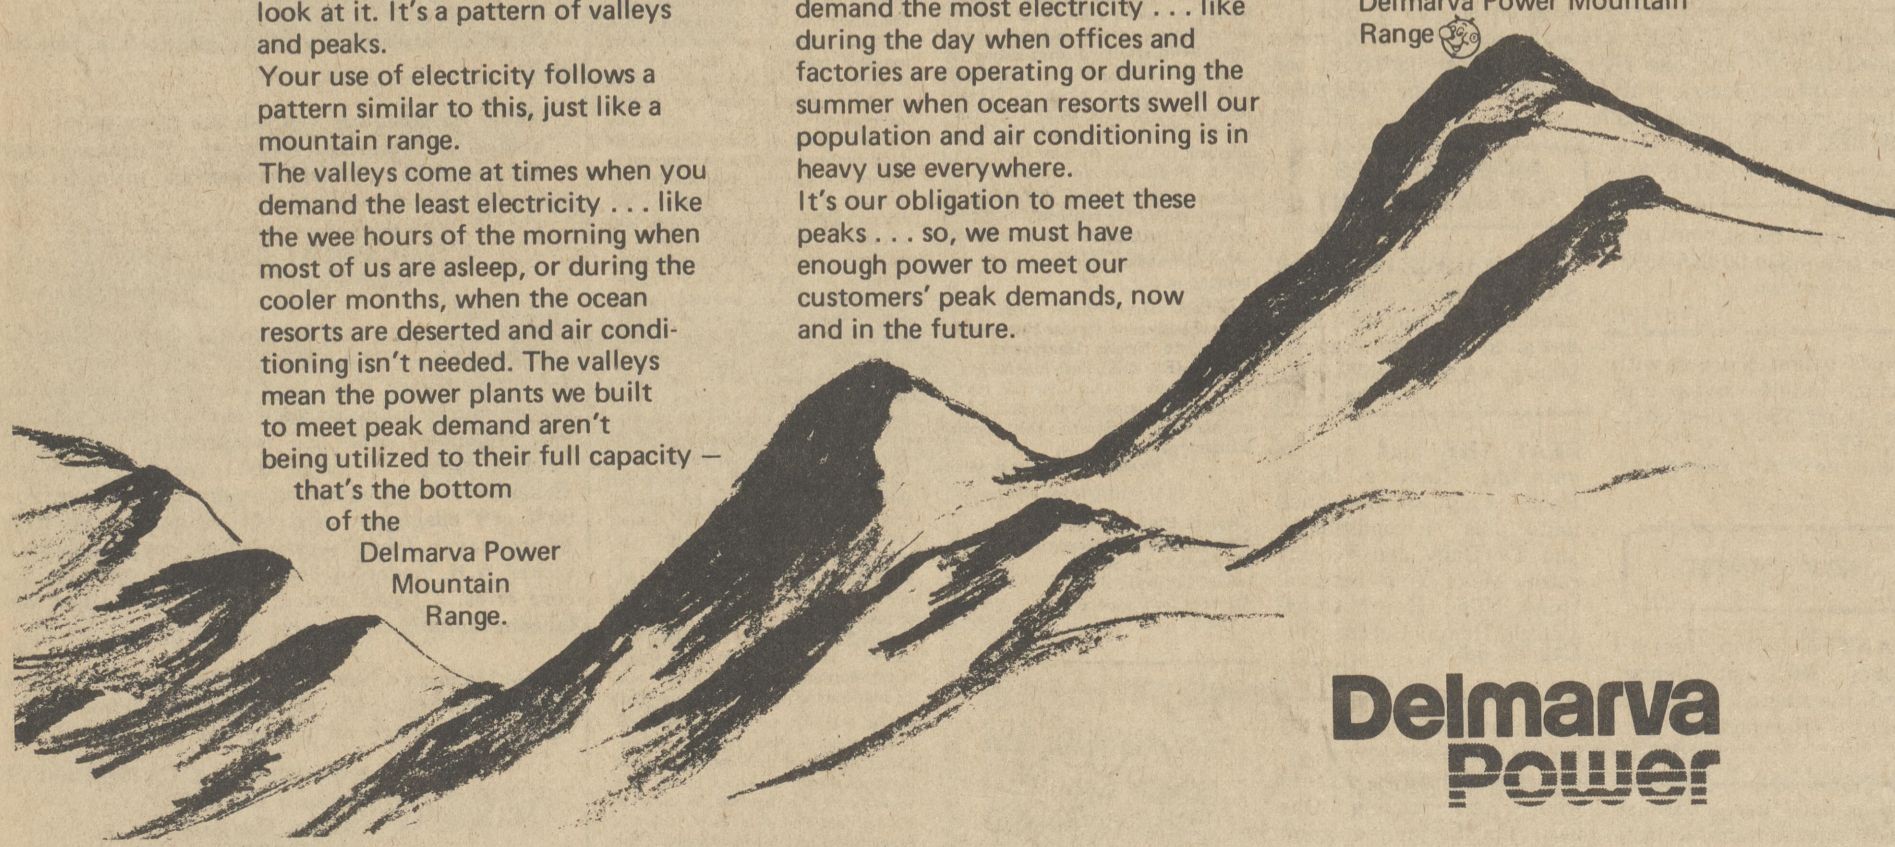

The valleys come at times when you demand the least electricity . . . like the wee hours of the morning when most of us are asleep, or during the cooler months, when the ocean resorts are deserted and air conditioning isn't needed. The valleys mean the power plants we built to meet peak demand aren't being utilized to their full capacity — that's the bottom of the Delmarva Power Mountain Range.

The peaks come at times when you demand the most electricity . . . like during the day when offices and factories are operating or during the summer when ocean resorts swell our population and air conditioning is in heavy use everywhere.

It's our obligation to meet these peaks . . . so, we must have enough power to meet our customers' peak demands, now and in the future.

And that's the top of the Delmarva Power Mountain Range

Trackmen Score In Seven Henlopen Conference Events

by Keith S. Burgess

Lake Forest's track Spartans had a key man missing and two others did not feel well, but the locals managed to score in seven events, in the Henlopen Conference Championship meet, held at Dover High on Saturday.

Lake Forest's 42 point total was good for a seventh place finish. At full strength, fifth place would have been a possible Spartan attainment.

Chuck Carter, the sensational Lake Forest senior, is in his first year of track. Carter was second in the half mile run in 2:01.6, as Tony Smith again equalled his schools' fastest 100 yard dash time. He was second in the century in 10 seconds flat.

Harry Benson ran a mile in 4:40 to finish third. Dan Parker was fifth in 4:43.

Steve Saulsbury again cleared 12 feet in the pole vault, to prove his recent school record, 12 1/4 was no fluke. He was fourth.

Terry Pettyjohn was fourth in the two mile run. Chris Palmisano was ill and finished behind several recent victims. Wilson Fry, a great freshman prospect, ran an excellent 11:05, in what is a new event for him.

Charley Scott, normally a 220 man, ran 440 yards in 53 seconds flat, in the mile relay probably the best one-lap effort, for the locals this season.

Mike Benson came into the meet with a best long jump of 19-9, but sprang 20-4 and finally 20 feet, 8 inches, to capture fifth place points. Benson has a chance to get the Spartan school mark, in 1977.

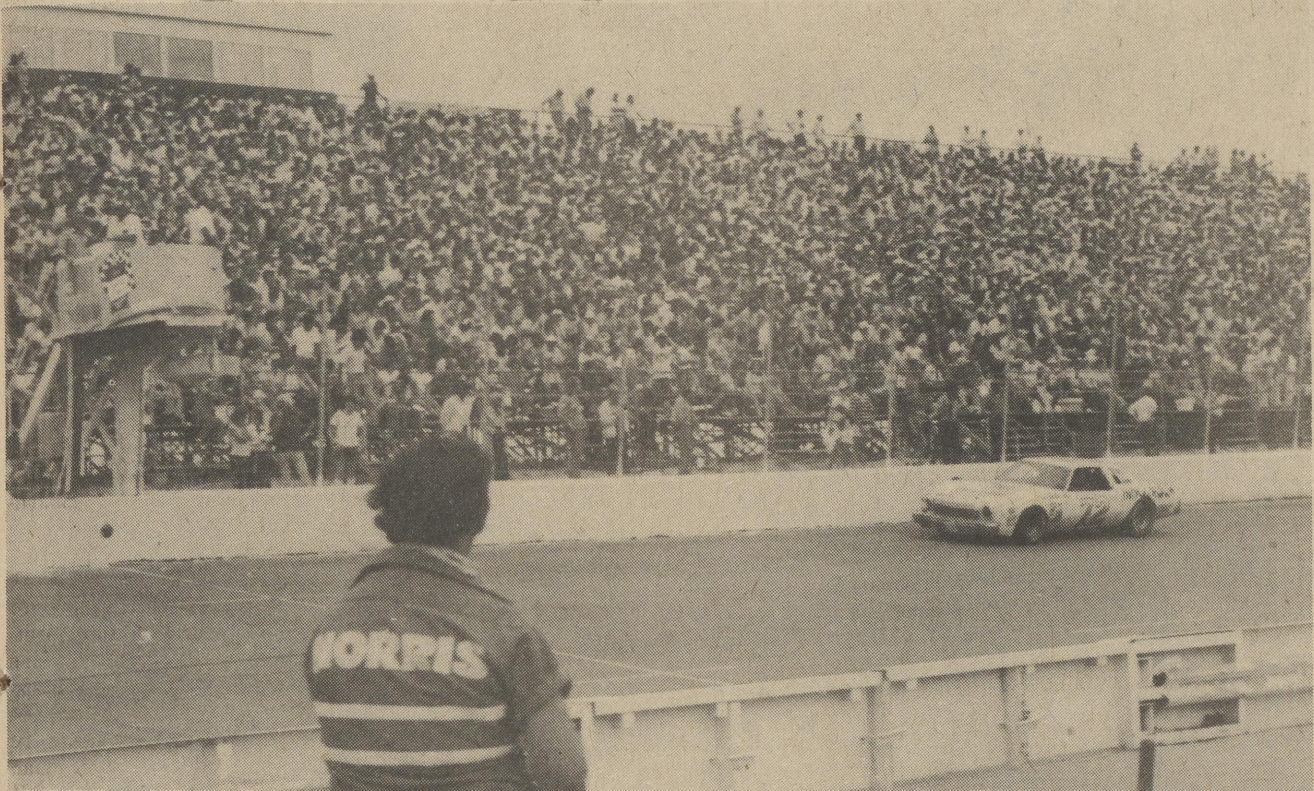

At the school board meeting Monday night Dean Wern was appointed as the next head wrestling coach at Lake Forest High School. Wern replaces Tom Meulheisen who resigned earlier in the year.

for the varsity team. Wern's record for the past three seasons was 17-10. He told The Journal this was fairly accurate. He further stated that he "...will build interest and start a program for wrestling from the elementary grades up through high school."

Wern is a 1971 graduate of West Liberty State College. He taught one year after college at Ocala, Fla. He will continue as a special education teacher at the high school.

Parsons Captures Mason-Dixon

Benny Parsons, driving the King's Row-Milford Stitching Chevrolet won the 8th Annual Mason-Dixon "500" NASCAR Winston Cup Grand National race at Dover Downs International Speedway last Sunday. It was the first win since the famous Daytona "500" victory in 1975 for Parsons.

The race was almost another in a string of recent misfortunes for Parsons who started off the 1976 season with 7 top five finishes in 8 races. He then failed to finish at Martinsville and Talladega and on lap 265 of Sunday's Mason-Dixon "500" he became involved in a four-car tangle that could have put him out of contention.

Buddy Baker, Ricky Rudd, Bobby Allison and Parsons were coming through turn 4 when Baker tapped Rudd while passing. Rudd spun into the wall and Allison braked to avoid him. Parsons hit Allison in the rear with his right front fender and sent Allison spinning down onto pit road where he came to a stop facing the wrong way. Allison backed the whole way down pit road before turning around and re-entered the speedway for another lap before coming in for a check. Parsons' crew made chassis adjustments to allow for the damage and Parsons later said that the car actually handled better after the mishap had occurred. Rudd went out of the race following the collision and Baker continued on.

Parsons had started 7th in the 39-car field with a qualifying speed of 133.377 mph. Dave Marcis, who finished third in the race with his K&K Dodge, won the pole with a speed of 136.013 mph. David Pearson in the Puroator Mercury finished second in the race after claiming the outside pole with a speed of 134.927 mph.

worth $14,015 at Dover Downs and his victory moved him back into the lead in Winston Cup point standings. His 1836 points moves him ahead of Cale Yarborough who finished 27th in the Mason-Dixon "500" and now has 1812 points.

Average speed for the 500-mile Mason-Dixon race was 115.436 mph. There were 6 cautions for 38 laps and 17 lead changes among 5 drivers. A crowd of 32,800 was on hand.

The next race scheduled at Dover Downs is the Delaware "500" which will be held on September 19th.

Beverly Mack

Mack Honored

Freshman Beverly Mack, former All-Henlopen Conference athlete at Lake Forest, added further to the many honors she has received in the basketball ranks at Wesley College this year when she received two awards at the Wolverines Sports Award dinner.

She was acclaimed as the Wolverines Offensive Basketball Player of the Year and then to add further to her accomplishments received the top award - Wesley College's Female Athlete of the Year.

Mack, who lettered in tennis, was one of the few two-letter athletes on the Wesley campus during the past year.

Basketball awards were many during the 1975-76 season for the former Lake Forest athlete. She was honored on the All-First State Conference team, All-Region 19 Tournament team and All-Region 19 - three top honors throughout the three-State area. She also won the top scoring honors in the State Conference.

Wesley College coach Joyce Starkey feels that Mack has the potential to even exceed this year's accomplishments.

"Beverly has lots of natural ability and works hard to excel," said Starkey, "and she has the potential to be outstanding. With the one year's experience behind her I look for her to do even better in the coming season."

Mack is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mack, RD #3, Felton. Physical Education is her field of study at Wesley College.

Little League News

The first Harrington minor league game of the 1976 season saw Higrade defeat Martin Jarrell Oil Co. by a score of 11 to 0 last Wednesday evening at the Minor League ball park.

Martin Jarrell Oil Co. went hitless through the combined pitching efforts of Gary Price and Mike Wingo.

Hi-Grade's 11 runs came as follows: Mike Collin - home run; Mike Wingo - 2 runs; Mike McColley - 2 runs; Romona Wingo - 1 run; April Hurd - 2 runs; Allyson Coppack - 1 run; Gary Price - 2 runs.

Lake Forest

by Barry Breeding

In losing to Lake Forest last Monday the Woodbridge Raiders all but eliminated themselves in the running for a playoff berth. This was the Raiders' fifth loss (fourth in a row), and, "with a minor miracle we could still land a playoff spot," said Raider coach Jym Vansciver. "All we need is to win our last three and have some help from Lake Forest or Seaford."

Right now Smyrna is in first one full game ahead of the Raiders and they must play both Seaford and Lake Forest to finish the season.

While the Raiders were on their four game skid, the only other team winning was Smyrna. "We were pretty lucky, when we lost so did Indian River," said Vansciver. "If they (Indian River) had kept winning there wouldn't even be a race."

The Raiders try to keep alive today when they take on the Dover Senators. Vansciver sees a definite need to win "If we lose this one then there is no way we can see a playoff spot, not even mathematically, what we'll try to do is just win and rely on Smyrna losing" interjected Vansciver.

After today's game, the Raiders have Seaford on the 24th and Indian River on the 27th to wrap up the season. The Raiders have a chance to match last year's record, (7-5), the best ever by a baseball team from Woodbridge.

Daily Fisherman's Hot Line Now In Service

A daily fisherman's hotline will be in operation now through October to keep area fishermen informed of fishing conditions along the Atlantic Coast and in the Delaware Bay.

The Sea Grant Marine Advisory Service at the University of Delaware College of Marine Studies has provided the service at no charge to fisherman since 1972. However, this year because of rising costs, the advisory service is unable to provide a toll-free number, and persons who telephone the hotline from outside the local calling area of Lewes will be charged for the call.

To help insure that calls get through quickly, two hot line numbers have been installed, one for Delaware callers, telephone in Lewes, 645-4241, and another for out-of-state fishermen, telephone 302-645-4246. The Delaware calls will be distributed over five lines.

More than 99,000 calls were made during last year's operation.

When dialed, the hotline will provide a 90-second recorded message telling where the fish are biting, what bait is best to use and the weather and tide conditions for the area.

Messages for the hotline are recorded daily by Howard Seymour, marine advisory specialist on the college's Lewes campus. He obtains information from area charter boat captains and bait and tackle shops from Bowers Beach to Fenwick Island.

New messages are usually taped just before 6 p.m. each day, but may be changed more frequently depending on weather conditions.

The Sea Grant Marine Advisory Service is part of the Sea Grant College Program at the university and is funded through the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration in the U.S. Department of Commerce.

AGWAY
284-4736

Agway certifies its spreader trucks to satisfy your spreading requirements.

Why? Evenly spread fertilizer is a crops management need. There is no law requiring inspection of spreader trucks to assure an even spread. But Agway has high standards for its own trucks... aims always to give you a uniform spread pattern. It's just good business.

How? All Agway fertilizer and lime trucks are checked, inspected and certified for uniformity. Agway tests and evaluates the spread pattern and makes necessary corrections and repairs before giving the truck the certification seal.

When? Regional Agway certification clinics are held during the summer months to ready the equipment for your application needs now, in the fall and next spring. And now is the perfect time to lime and fertilize, because the ground is firm and there will be no compaction of the soil. Call your Agway store or representative today for spreader application service.

Look for the "Certified" seal on the spreader body.

Town & Country

Producers in Kent County, Delaware will be contacted in late May or early June as part of a nationwide effort to properly estimate 1976 spring planted acreages and current livestock numbers.

Farmers in this area will be visited between May 21 and June 3 by an enumerator representing the Maryland-Delaware Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The enumerator will ask about acreages planted and for harvest and also about cattle, hogs, and sheep on the farming unit.

Across the country thousands of similar interviews will be conducted and many other farmers will be contacted by mail. All information will be held confidential and only state and national estimates will be released. The objective, John Witzig, State Statistician said, is to produce reliable and unbiased information for producers as a guide for their marketing operations.

He noted that these estimates help stabilize market conditions by providing both growers and buyers with official estimates of production. Consequently, rumors and trade projections can not be a factor in setting supply and price levels.

The state and national acreage information will be published in late June followed in early July by field and production estimates. Estimates concerning hogs and pigs will be available in late June and for cattle in late July.

Pick-It-Yourself

The pick-it-yourself season for fruits and vegetables is almost here again. The first crop-strawberries will be ready for picking by the end of May, according to University of Delaware extension crops marketing specialist, Carl German.

The pick-your-own idea continues to grow in popularity as a way for consumers to get fresh produce picked just the way they like it. Some of the most popular crops for this kind of harvesting are strawberries, apples, snap beans, tomatoes and sweet corn. Peaches are also popular, but these may be in short supply for pick-it-yourselfers this summer because of the late frost.

Some growers are expanding their selection of pick-your-own crops this year, says German. With a little scouting around, you should be able to find cucumbers, peas, peppers, squash, egg plants, cantaloupes, watermelons, assorted greens, turnips, blueberries and chrysanthemums.

A pick-your-own outing is an excellent opportunity for the whole family to enjoy a bit of country life. At the same time, you can pick all the fresh produce you want for freezing or canning and usually save on its cost.

Your costs should be lower because the farmer's expenses are lower. With a pick-your-own operation the grower saves on labor, packing and shipping. "Before you expect give-away prices, though, remember that he has other expenses to bear," says the marketing specialist. "Besides the usual production costs, he also has to pay for field supervision, advertising and the other special requirements of a pick-your-own operation." The farmer's biggest advantage in pick-your-own is the elimination of hand labor costs at harvesttime.

On the other hand, he runs the risk of having plants and trees injured by careless or inexperienced customers.

To protect his crops and at the same time give you a chance to pick quality produce, the grower will have some ground rules and guidelines for you to follow. He'll probably assign you to a specific part of a field for picking. He probably won't want young or undisciplined children in his fields where they may damage crops or plants. He may also give you some pointers on picking, so that green produce is left to ripen for someone else and plants aren't uprooted or broken in the process of harvesting.

Before going to pick, it may pay to contact the grower to be sure the produce you want is ready to harvest and to find out how to get there. If you're thinking about bringing young children, ask whether or not they will be permitted in the fields. Some operators set an age limit in order to protect their crops. You might also ask about the kind of containers to bring.

To find out what crops are available and where you can pick them, watch classified ads in the newspaper and listen to your local radio station. Your county extension agent in Newark, Dover or Georgetown can also give you information on pick-your-own sources.
