Record Crowds Enjoy 57th Delaware State Fair

The Delaware State Fair got underway last Friday, and fair officials report as of Wednesday morning the attendance figures are up around 9,000 from last year. At this time last year, 85,399 people had come to the fair. This year, with Children's Day behind them, but Governor's Day, Armed Forces and Senior Citizens Day (all on Thursday) still ahead of them, 94,677 fair viewers have passed through the gates.

This 57th fair has had several things in its favor, in spite of the usual rain that turned up briefly but heavily Saturday afternoon.

K. C. and the Sunshine Band drew record crowds at two shows Saturday night. Some fair goers report waiting as long as an hour and a half to get into the grounds on Saturday night. Most of the time, however, the entrance to the grounds has been swift.

With the elections in November this year, the expected politics will be out in full force Thursday to do some politicking and to attend activities during Governor's Day. It will also be Bicentennial Day and some colonial costumes are expected to be seen.

Thursday night grandstand entertainment will feature the Edwardians and Ava Barber. Miss Barber is with the Lawrence Welk Show. An extra special fireworks display is also scheduled for Thursday night.

Freddie Fender will be featured Friday night in two shows. On Saturday night Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass will conclude the grandstand shows.

Felton Merchants Take State Softball Title

by Jim Cresson

FELTON--After a whirlwind sweep of six tournament games last weekend, the Felton Merchants wrapped up the title for 1976 Delaware Class A slow pitch softball and are now preparing for the national tournament, Sept. 3.

Led by hard hitting Mike Atkinson and Ronnie Walters, the Felton ten slugged their way to the state crown by tallying 71 runs against their opponents' 22 during the six-game playoff.

Play began Thursday with Felton taking their first win. On Saturday the team went through a grueling schedule of four games over a ten-hour period, but walked away with a perfect slate.

They topped it all off with a final win, Sunday, over tough Jay Dee Contractors of the Newark Recreation League. And now the big trophy is Felton's. However, work is not done for coach Bob Nored and his team. From now until September they will be honing their skills for the toughest competition they have seen so far.

On September 3, at Olney, Maryland, west of Laurel, the Felton Merchants take on other state champions in a bid for the coveted national title. Playoffs will last through Labor Day weekend.

To help cover travelling expenses, the team is offering chances for a $100 cash first prize and a $50 cash second prize for drawing winners.

Chance tickets are currently available through Felton town merchants and the championship team members.

Paskey Declares For State Senate

William J. Paskey, Jr. declared his candidacy, Tuesday, for the Democratic nomination for State Senator, 16th Senatorial District.

He will challenge fellow Democrat Sen. Nancy W. Cook for the seat she was appointed to fill upon the death of her husband, Senator Allen J. Cook Jr.

A well-known native of Felton, Paskey entered the race at the urging of friends and local Democratic party leaders.

Long interested in politics and community service, he announced, "The time has come for me to ask the members of my party to give me the chance to seek this office."

"I'm in the race to stay and I'll do my best to get my party's nomination and to win in November," Paskey vowed.

Currently in his second year of a four year term on Kent County

Levy Court, where he serves as president, Paskey said if nominated to the Democratic ticket he would immediately resign his Levy Court post and work with whoever the Court picked to succeed him.

As a public servant, Paskey's credentials are impressive. He has been an active member of the Felton Volunteer Fire Company since 1948, and its president since 1959.

He was elected president of the Delaware Volunteer Firemen's Association for 1973-74 and still serves as chairman of the law and legislative committee for that association.

No stranger to Delaware politics, Paskey was elected to the House of Representatives in 1958 and re-elected in 1960.

He served as Sheriff of Kent County from 1966 until 1970 when he won his first four-year term on Levy Court. He was re-elected to the court in 1974.

Paskey also is a member of the Felton Odd Fellows Lodge, the Harrington Moose Lodge, the Kent Soil and Water Conservation Board and the Board of Directors, Peoples Bank of Harrington.

He is married to the former Doris Alexander; they have four children.

Friends Of 30 Years, Meet For First Time

A friendship that had its beginnings thirty years ago through an interest in stamps found itself face to face for the first time this week here.

Carl Hill, a Harrington resident and Woodbridge teacher, and his wife Mary entertained the Fred Markwells of Birmingham, England, this week. It was the first time the couple had met each other, although Mr. and Mrs. Markwell have been corresponding with each other for nearly thirty years.

If a mutual interest in stamps thirty years ago began the whole thing, it wasn't long before the two men found they had parallel interests along other lines. Eventually the correspondence had grown to the point where, when the Markwells' two children, Roger and Joan, had reached college age, and wanted to come to America on a summer work-see-the-country program, they found a ready sponsor in Hill. First came the son for a brief visit while he worked and toured America. He had such an enjoyable trip that several summers later, the couple's daughter repeated the experience. Both found time to come to Harrington while in this country to search out their father's friend by mail.

The two friends by now still had not met. When the Markwells arrived in Harrington last Wednesday night, a day ahead of schedule, Markwell's unfamiliar voice answered Mary Hill's "Hello" when he called to report they were less than a mile away at a local bus stop.

The Markwells have now continued on their way to their destination in Provo, Utah, where he will be a guest lecturer of genealogy at a seminar sponsored by the Mormon church, while is the prime reason for the Markwells' visit to America.

As Markwell commented, not coming to Harrington to see his friend when he was this close would be ridiculous.

Had the Markwells not gone on vacation to Northumberland seven years ago and had they not found the name Markwell in a church there, and had not Mr. Markwell become interested in locating more people bearing the name Markwell, last week's visit may have never taken place.

Since finding his name, which he thought previously was rather unique, he has become interested in genealogy, and has corresponded with, met, and entertained in his Birmingham home, some 77 Markwells. He has also become the secretary of a mushrooming Birmingham Society of Genealogy and Heraldry (the study of ancestry and family crests, respectively).

"We (Britain) have such excellent records, you know," remarked Markwell as he commented on several of the various sources used to trace ancestors, which includes a church census required by Henry VIII, in the early 1500's.

Free Fair Show Thursday

People of the Eastern Shore are in store for another free grandstand show at the Delaware State Fair, come Thursday afternoon, July 29th.

In a last minute decision, the Fair has contracted with one of the most lively and talented musical groups in Delaware this summer to perform in front of their grandstand starting at 2 p.m.

The group is under the direction of veteran University of Delaware music professor Mr. J. Robert King and is assisted by Barbara Sauer and Richard Tull. It consists of 76 youngsters who make up the New Castle County Summer Youth Concert Band.

The entire group will appear in Bicentennial costume, which will fit in perfectly with the theme for this year's Governor's Day program at the Fair.

In releasing the details of the event, Fair officials stated that they have been searching for a youth band for sometime and when they learned that the Youth Concert Band was available they made immediate overtures to its sponsors for a Fair appearance.

The band features a repertoire of music that spans most all phases of the industry. The New Castle County Personnel Department reports the band has rehearsed an average of 3 hours per day, 5 days a week, for the better part of the summer.

The Prettiest Cow You Ever Saw

CATHY BIGGS AND HER COW, FAIRY, stole the show and won top honors at the Delaware State Fair 'pretty cow' contest this year. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biggs of Felton, Cathy dressed herself and Fairy in a circus motif that pleased both the judges and the crowd.

Lake Forest Included In Bond Bill

It was learned this week that the bond bill passed by the Delaware Legislature in a special one-day session did include the monies requested for improvements in the Lake Forest School District. Full details will be available in next week's issue of The Harrington Journal.

Fair goers may not get the birdseye view of the Midway the photographer had here, but the thrills are all there, at ground level and on some of the rides such as the Super Loop shown in the right. Fair oficials have been very pleased with the numbers of people who have passed through the gates this year.

State Police Exhibit Steals Show At Fair

by Jim Cresson

HARRINGTON -- It is 'shoot-em-up' time at the fair this week with a firearms and shooting exhibition the likes of which many folks have never seen.

The superbly professional exhibition is being given three times every afternoon by two top-ranking members of the Delaware State Police firearms department.

With a flavor right out of the old west, Lt. Valvert Fox and Sgt. William Clark are demonstrating a capability that has drawn scores of fairgoers to the new state police exhibit near the poultry building.

It is truly an amazing exhibition. Firing such diverse weapons as the standard .38-caliber police service revolver, a unique 12-gauge shotgun and a .45-caliber Thompson sub-machine gun, the two officers have been thrilling crowds all week.

Spectators marvel as Lt. Fox and Sgt. Clark take turns showing some of the more unique features of the weapons and their abilities.

They fire at silhouette targets and fixed blue rock targets, sometimes with one pistol, sometimes with two.

But the real action begins when the team demonstrates the multi-purpose police issue shotgun. Firing from the hip or from the shoulder, Sgt. Clark devastates targets with 12-gauge double-ought buck loads.

Not to be outdone, Lt. Fox amazes crowds and drives hands over ears when he fires the mighty sub-machine gun and actually sets the paper target on fire.

Although not frequently seen, the .45-caliber Thompson is a regular member of the Delaware State Police firearms team. "It's use in law enforcement," says Lt. Fox, "dates back some 50 years."

Trick shooting also highlights the exhibition. Working with the .38-caliber service revolver, Sgt.

Clark performs such stunts as rapid fire shooting, firing between his legs, snubbing the ash off a burning cigaret and, finally, with only one shot, slicing a regular playing card in half.

Such excellent shooting is nothing new to the lieutenant and the sergeant. The firearms department of which they are both members is responsible for training academy cadets in the serious business of handling and maintaining their revolvers and shotguns.

LT. VAL FOX wears a head set to muffle the loud report as he hip-fires a police issue sawed-off shotgun.

The department also conducts regular qualification shooting for all state police officers, and even provides instruction to local and municipal law enforcement agencies.

Recently the department offered four week-long programs in the classroom and on the range for municipal officers from as far away as Chester County, Pa. Their program is respected throughout the peninsula, and if the fine shooting ability of Lt. Fox and Sgt. Clark is typical, it is easy to see the reason why.

LOADING WEAPONS AND HANGING TARGETS was just the preparation for the show presented by Delaware State Police firearms experts, Lt. Valvert Fox and Sgt. William Clark.

A TRICK SHOT between the legs posed no real problem for Lt. Fox as he hit his mark, regardless of his upside down and backwards stance.

Donna Hinzman, Harrington, was top winner in the Senior Snack Tray division at the Reddy's Food Contest. Her recipe was "Chicken Salad Snacks."

Reddy Foods Contest Has Area Winners

The cream of Delaware's young cooks (75 4-H'ers between the ages of 9 and 19) squared off for top honors in the annual Reddy's Food Contest at the State Fairgrounds in Harrington last week. The contest, which takes place early in July each year, is sponsored jointly by Delmarva Power and Light Company, Delaware Electric Cooperative and the Delaware Cooperative Extension Service.

Five food areas were represented in the contest: small appliances, snack trays, main dishes, desserts and breads. Each area was divided into three age-groups: senior (4-H'ers 14 to 19); junior (ages 11 to 13) and petite (ages 8 to 10). Contestants had three hours in which to cook entries and prepare table settings. Work had to be done without any outside help.

Petite winner in the main dish category was Amanda Leaming of Dover, with her "Chicken Chestnut Casserole." Other winners in the petite class were Stacey Pavlik, Rehoboth, with "Buttermilk Bran Muffins"; Susan Schimmel, Dover with "Miss Perfect Poppyseed Cake"; Sherrie Cope, Hockessin, with "Carrot Cookies"; and Kim Farren, Wilmington, with "Chicken Kiev"—a main dish which, like Kim, has a Ukrainian background.

Other main dish winner was Leslie Pruder, Lewes, with a Chinese dish called "Chin-Chien-Niu Pai". Other senior winners were Tina Bravata, Dover, with a "Caramel Orange Coffee Cake"; Betsy Cook, Newark, with her elegant "Schwarzwalder Torte (Black Forest Cherry

Chain-Reaction Wreck Leaves Seven Injured

A massive back-up of cars entering the Delaware State Fair grounds, Saturday night, resulted in a major traffic snarl on U.S. 13 as one car rammed another, setting off a chain reaction.

According to state police, the accident occurred in the northbound passing lane at 8:55 p.m. when a car driven by Robert Minner Jr., 18, of Houston plowed into the back of a car driven by James McCoy, 54, of Bridgeville. McCoy's car then rammed a car driven by Mark Delano, 45, also of Bridgeville, which in turn rammed a fourth car driven by Thomas Bedsworth III, 18, of Princess Anne, Md.

Seven persons were injured as a result and treated at Milford Memorial Hospital, but none were hurt seriously.

Minner, among the seven injured, was charged by state police with careless driving.

Bell Ringers Featured At Asbury

The God and Country Bell Ringers from Orange County in Southern California will present a performance of their Bicentennial tribute, "Let Freedom Ring," in the air-conditioned sanctuary of Asbury United Methodist Church on Monday, August 2, at 7:30 p.m.

The group is composed of Explorers, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts from the United Methodist Church of the Good Shepherd in Westminster, California. They have performed over 300 times prior to this tour and to over 1,000 audiences.

This Bicentennial tour, their third in two years, will take them to 41 states in six weeks' time.

Under the direction of their founder and advisor Duane A. Force, a 41-year veteran in Boy Scouting, they present a widely varied program of familiar patriotic, contemporary, classical, and sacred music uniquely adapted to the 49 American handbells they ring.

They will be hosted overnight by several Asbury Church families in Harrington.

No admission will be charged, but an offering will be received to help the ringers defray the costs of touring. In addition, their live recording of "Let Freedom Ring" in stereo albums, as well as cassette tapes, will be available at the concert.

Laws Here For Races

HARRINGTON--Merrit T. Laws, formerly of Harrington and now living in Hawaii, has returned to his birthplace this week to prepare for the harness racing season.

A race enthusiast, Laws grew up on Walker Street in the 1920's but left the town for a life in the U.S. Army. He was stationed in Hawaii in 1932 and was there to witness the destruction of Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941.

After the war Laws mustered out of the Army but stayed in Hawaii to join his uncle in the roofing construction business.

Now retired, Laws devotes most of his time to active participation in the Hawaii District of the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks to which he was recently appointed as Designated District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler.

Old friends may contact Laws at Stone's Hotel where he will be residing during his visit.

According to folklore, a ring worn on the forefinger is supposed to indicate a naughty person, on the long finger a dignified one, on the marriage finger an affectionate one, and on the little finger a masterful one.

Cross-Country Runners Wanted At Lake Forest

by Keith S. Burgess
On Wednesday, August 25, Lake Forest High School's cross-country team will hold its first practice session.

Coach Jim Blades will start the drills at 7 p.m. at Killen's Pond. Candidates should get their physicals beforehand. It is hoped that many of the harriers will be doing some running prior to the official start of practice.

This will be the eighteenth year of cross-country in this district which pioneered the sport in lower Delaware in 1958.

Every season has been a winning one, with state champion teams occurring twice, at Harrington High and four times, at Lake Forest High, including the last three campaigns.

After a lopsided victory in a driving rain over a rugged, hilly, 2.9 miles course at Brandywine Creek State Park in the 1975 state meet, Coach Blades lost five of his top seven runners to graduation.

However, the two starters returning are Dan Parker, No. 1 and Chris Palmisano, No. 2.

At least three more solid, consistent performers must be developed if Lake Forest is to win a fourth consecutive state championship.

David Richter's performances averaged out to a No. 7 final squad rank in 1975. But on six occasions, he was either third or fourth Spartan to finish obviously, all he needs to get No. 3, this time, is a little more consistency.

Paul McClellan and Herb Jarrell are the most experienced returnees after the top trio. Marcus Bray, a sophomore rookie, last fall spent part of the season on the sidelines due to leg problems. However, his last three starts resulted in fast clockings. Bray appears to be a natural talent, who might displace some of the veterans currently listed ahead of him.

Wilson Fry and Louis Thomas should be in contention for a coveted top seven position. Thomas had some good outings as a freshman in 1975. Fry, a classmate, started his career as a track two miler and surprised with a near 11 minute clocking. That's a fine start, indeed.

Kelly Woodward and Tom Ott are the sixth and seventh best harriers from last season still among the top contenders, along with Eugene Butler.

Two of the graduated harriers, No. 3 Chuch Carter and No. 5, Howard Parker, ran cross-country, only as seniors. Their improvement was spectacular and season-long.

Unless runners of their caliber emerge from the Lake Forest student body, the eleven runners mentioned earlier will have to do the job.

Glen Wilson of Houston found the fast groove early Saturday which enabled him to win his first modified feature.

Wilson Takes First Place Saturday

by Charlie Brown

Hard work and consistency proved to be a winning combination for Glen Wilson of Houston as he recorded his first modified victory Saturday afternoon at the Delaware State Fair.

"I didn't get much sleep," said Wilson. "After we finished the car, Al Rogers (a sportsman driver from New Jersey) and I came straight to the fair and decided to catch sleep before the race. Al had me awake at 7 a.m. to look at the pigs. He's from the city and was so amazed that he wanted me to show him how to milk one!"

Wilson didn't look at all tired as he took a commanding lead over second place Jimmy Lambden. The first caution came on the 21st lap as Gary Trice came to a stop along the outside wall.

Walt Breeding in the Taylor and Messick Gremlin charged into second on the restart but Wilson won going away. Second went to Breeding followed by Haines Tull, Wayne Cusick, Jimmy Lambden, Stan Busby, and Snookie Vent.

Richard Malnor of Salisbury piloted the Hitch Insurance Vega to an impressive sportsman win.

Malnor took the lead from the start and was able to keep his new small block Chevy out front for the endurance. Clem Horvath captured second place honors followed by Lloyd Sawyer, Speedy Thompson and Larry Grier.

Ouch was right as John Harrington of Harrington prepares to be clobbered by George Kelly of Dover in Friday's Demolition Derby.
