Communities Set Trick or Treat Night

HARRINGTON-Communities in the area have set trick or treat night for Saturday, October 30. In some instances, specific age limits have been set for the children who want to participate in the annual activity.

Here in Harrington, children 12 years old and younger may trick or treat between the hours of 7 p.m. and 9 p.m.

In nearby communities, the following will be observed:

Bowers Beach did not specify particular hours, but there is a 10 p.m. curfew for children under 16 which will be enforced.

Farrington will allow youngsters to trick or treat between the hours of 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Felton and Frederica have designated the hours of 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Greenwood has established hours from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. for children 12 years old and younger.

Houston will hold its annual parade beginning at 3:30 on October 30 and has determined children 12 years old and younger may trick or treat between the hours of 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Milford has scheduled its annual Halloween parade for 10:30 a.m. Saturday, October 30. Trick or treaters under 12 will be making their rounds until 9 p.m. that evening.

Firemen To Hold Open House Saturday

HARRINGTON-Two weeks ago when the Harrington Volunteer Fire Department planned their open house, about the only taker was the weather. When the rains finally left, the new pumper the company has been waiting for with baited breath had not yet arrived.

This week was an entirely different one, however, and it started for the company, when the long-awaited for pumper arrived. The local firefighters have been sprucing it up as well as the other pieces of equipment in the local fire station to prepare for a second try for open house this Saturday.

Aubrey Brown, coordinator for fire prevention publicity, reports the plans for the open house have changed somewhat from two weeks ago, but basically the format will be the same as previously reported.

The Reverend William Miller of Calvary Wesleyan Church will be on hand to officiate at the dedication services of the new fire pumper, which will begin the afternoon's open house. The ceremony is scheduled to get underway at 1 p.m.

Invited guests will include local city councilmen and Mayor William Minner and chiefs of neighboring fire departments.

The community will view displays from Kent County Call Board and state forestry department. A special first aid demonstration is also planned by the Harrington Ambulance Squad, as well as a complete ambulance display.

Smokey the Bear will put off hibernation a little longer to be on hand for the young and young at heart.

A tentative commitment from the W.T. Chipman Band is an anticipated highlight of the afternoon.

The Ladies Auxiliary will serve refreshments and the local firefighters will pit their skills again against the Carlisle Fire Department in Milford during the fire hose contest. Milford emerged the soggy, but victorious winners last year, and a spokesman for the local company reports the men are 'burning' for a rematch and a chance to regain the trophy held by Milford during the past year.

The afternoon promises to be informative and entertaining. Parents are requested to accompany their children.

LF Board Considers Court

FELTON-The Lake Forest School District may be going to court. According to the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission the state of Delaware is guilty of discriminating hiring practices. The local school district has five persons, who according to EEOC, have been discriminated against regarding hiring practices.

The board heard Monday night from its attorney in the matter, and has decided to go to court if necessary, depending on the district's liability insurance regarding such situations.

An executive session was called for a portion of the discussion regarding the EEOC allegations.

Mrs. Lorraine Moyer of Bowers Beach, reported being "disappointed with the Lake Forest School District" in what she considers is a slighting to Bowers and its students by being left out of district activities. It was discussed, and suggested a breakdown of communications may be the problem in the feeling some Bowers residents have.

Hiring took up most of the board's remaining time. Mrs. Kathy LeKites was hired to replace Mrs. Robinson, first grade, effective November 1. Also hired was Barbara A. Simmons to work at Lake Forest High School cafeteria.

Steve Wolick has been named junior high school wrestling coach; Doris Moffett was named football cheerleader advisor and Lelia Smith will direct the senior play.

Harvest Scene

This scene of fall and harvest time was once a familiar one. Nowadays, it's a rare sight to see corn shocks, since modern farming methods have done away with the slower, if more nostalgic scenic results. This field was found on the Whitleysburg road west of Harrington.

Voters to Decide Issue

Airport Fact Sheet Released

by Barbara Brown

Citing two studies, one done by Kent County in 1974 and one done by the state in 1975, Kent County Levy Court released an airport information sheet last Wednesday to provide voters with some facts to consider in their response to the airport referendum on the November ballot.

The information is designed to back up Levy Court's stance in favor of the development of county air facilities.

Available along with the information sheet is an additional fact sheet detailing the cost analysis of various alternatives for providing air facilities.

The information sheet was prepared by the office of Barbara Remus, Chief Deputy, Kent County Levy Court. According to the sheet, "Detailed specific information regarding the airport issue is available to the public in the office of the Kent County Levy Court."

With regard to the results of the November ballot, the information sheet states that the vote is "for the exclusive purpose of determining if the voters of Kent County desire to construct or establish a county airport." It further says "A 'yes' vote will mean that Kent County Levy Court will: hold public hearings, explore new alternatives, (and) investigate existing alternatives."

A "no" vote, in the view of the fact sheet, would mean that "Kent County Levy Court can no longer address this issue," and that "a public (air) facility in Kent County may not be a reality in the foreseeable future."

Figures presented in the fact sheet place the present county demand or need for air service at 52,600 passengers, 138 county based private aircraft, and 1,500,000 pounds air cargo and freight. In figures forecast for 1995 it projects an increase to 220,000 passengers, 263 county based private aircraft and 3,000,000 pounds air cargo and freight. The numbers are based on the demand over the course of a year.

Cited by the sheet in support of the construction and establishment of county air facilities is the convenience of having air passenger, cargo and freight service within a few miles of residences and local industry. Also mentioned are possible economic advantages with stress on the expansion and addition of industry with the related alleviation of the unemployment situation.

Several alternatives in the proviion of county air facilities are presented in the accompanying cost analysis sheet. They include (1) the development of one new central airport facility to accommodate all kinds of civil aviation, (2) joint use with Dover Air Force Base for multi-engine and commuter aircraft operations with the possibility of developing a new facility for single-engine aircraft or acquiring and developing Delaware Airpark for single engine use, and (3) acquiring and developing Delaware Airpark for all kinds of civil aviation.

The two studies cited in the information sheet are "Master Plan, Civilian Airport Facilities, Dover Air Force Base" (done by Levy Court) and the "State of Delaware Aviation and Airport Systems Plan."

Bowers To Have Flood Insurance Study

BOWERS-The town of Bowers will undergo a flood insurance rate study under a contract with the Federal Insurance Administration of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. This announcement was made during the town's monthly meeting last Wednesday.

As a result of the study, "actuarial rates will be computed to allow twice as much flood insurance coverage in most locations as is presently available," according to the report sheet. "The current $35,000 maximum coverage on a single family residence will be raised to $70,000 after the study. Non-residential structural coverage will be increased from the present $100,000 limit to $200,000.

Bowers will also use the information contained in the study as a basis for the town's land use control ordinances.

Basically existing buildings will be eligible at a rate of 25c for each $100 of value; commercial buildings will be eligible at 40c per $100 of value.

Fire Companies To Share Levy Court Appropriation

In an annual ceremony Kent County Levy Court presented Tuesday some $62,000 in appropriations to the county's eighteen volunteer fire companies plus two ambulance services in Dover and in Smyrna. William Paskey, Levy Court President, presented a giant-sized check in simulation of the total appropriation to Roger Caulk, new President of the Kent County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Miss Parker Wins Scholarship

Lynne Parker, 18, of Harrington, has been named as one of six recipients of a Harness Tracks of America-Harry M. Stevens scholarship grant for 1976-77.

Ms. Parker, a sophomore majoring in biology/pre-med at Western Maryland College in Westminster, Maryland, will receive $750.

She is a repeat winner of the HTA-Stevens scholarship, having been awarded a $750 grant last year as a freshman.

Harness Tracks of America, the association of 50 major standardbred racing plants in the U.S. and Canada, and the Stevens company, the national sports catering firm, sponsor the scholarship program annually.

Ms. Parker's parents, Jack and Elizabeth, operate a public stable of standardbred horses in Harrington.

It Was A Long Afternoon

HARRINGTON-For four hours Tuesday afternoon, Harrington must have seemed like the universe, and a very large one at that for young Gregory Parsons of Commerce Street.

It seems the toddler negotiated Commerce Street safely, by himself, and wound up near the Harrington Lumber Yard. He was taken from there to City Hall, where acting City Manager Joan Wilson and city employe Norma Short tried to find out who young Gregory was and where he lived.

He was reluctant to say much (it's hard to find a man who holds his tongue this close to election) and combined efforts of the police and city employees, plus employees of local businesses continued to supply leads as to whom the boy might be. But Gregory held his silence until his mother came into city hall searching for him.

A loud 'Mama' came forth and son and mother were united.

Although the traditional ice cream for a lost youngster wasn't supplied, Gregory was the center of attention in an otherwise normal day for the city and he didn't leave empty handed. He was given several sticks of gum to try to get him to speak up. Could he be heard about the name, rank and serial number but wasn't telling anything, even for Juicyfruit.

Miss Sharon Blackman [above] was named Miss Lake Forest last Saturday night at a pageant held at Lake Forest High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett of Canterbury. The runner up is Gina Gerardi, [below] daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gerardi of Harrington. Miss Gerardi was also named Miss Congeniality.

The Harrington Volunteer Fire Department received its new pumper this week from the Hahn Motor Company of Hamburg, Pa. The pumper, which has a Ford chassis, cost in the neighborhood of $72,000. Most of the body work is made by hand. The truck on the right, which seems to be the new pumper's twin, is actually a 1969 model.

The new pumper will add to the company's capabilities to protect the community, and is paid for largely through the response of the annual fund drive, now underway.

Monday was a busy day at the center. Band rehearsal in the morning and after lunch several ladies crocheted granny squares for the afghan with Mrs. Crawley.

Lucy Irwin was taken to the hospital this week. Tuesday was a business meeting of the center members. There were quite a few things discussed, such as the bazaar, trips, and things in general. We still could use some help with our bazaar.

We didn't have bingo Wednesday afternoon as it was spent crocheting squares.

We have had visitors again this week from Dover.

After lunch some of the members went to Milford to bowl, shop, and doctors appointments. High bowler for the ladies was Marian Russum. For the men, Andy Anderson.

Lucy Irwin returned home from Milford Hospital Saturday.

Miss Cheryl Ann Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Porter, celebrated her 18th birthday Saturday at her home outside Harrington. Over 70 well wishers were in attendance as she opened the shower of gifts.

Cheryl, an avid Loretta Lynn fan, is wearing a dress identical to the one Miss Lynn wore during a recent concert Cheryl attended and gained Miss Lynn's attention, including a brief interview with the country music star.

Is Harrington
'Going to the Dogs?'

It seems that a reversal of the saying "Too many chiefs and not enough Indians" is happening in the area. There aren't enough chiefs, at least at the Felton Junior Girl Scout troop 403.

The troop of 20 girls had a leader, but through unavoidable circumstances, the leader now has to step down, and there doesn't seem to be anyone waiting in the wings to take her place.

The present leader is willing to train a new leader, and there seems to be enough assistants, but so far, no leader. This means, as with several other organizations we have heard about over the past few months, unless there is leadership to replace the leader they are losing, there will be no troop number 403.

Hopefully this will reach the right person and the troop will continue; at the moment there seems to be little chance for these junior girl scouts to continue as a troop.

Leader Needed

Some residents of the city have been complaining about the numbers of canines roaming through their wards, upsetting and strewing contents of trash cans, and generally making nuisances of themselves.

According to city ordinance, dogs are not permitted to be at large between the first day of March and the first day of October. According to state law, however, dogs are not permitted to be at large at any time unaccompanied by a person.

Acting city manager Joan Wilson stated the city has never enforced the $25 fine collectible according to the city's charter. The city normally handles complaints in these areas by contacting the SPCA located in Dover. Ms. Wilson said the SPCA takes charge from that point.

If notification of the animal's owner does not bring results, a resident may call the city or the SPCA, at 398-3530 or 678-4580, respectively to handle offending canines.

It was National Lunch Week last week, and the cafeteria at Lake Forest North had many visitors Thursday. Shown in the photo are Frank Young, principal at the school (left) and Mayor William Myers (right). Seated next to Mr. Young is the cafeteria supervisor, Mrs. Louise Fisher. The identity of the woman next to Mrs. Fisher is not known. This cafeteria is scheduled to undergo expansion in the near future, as part of the result of the district's building plans.

Thoughts... by Senator William Roth

After years of well-intentioned government housing programs and the expenditure of billions of tax dollars, the American dream of owning your own home is still beyond the reach of too many families. High interest rates and a shortage of home mortgage funds have pushed the average price of a home in this country above $40,000. These high prices, and the large down-payment requirements, make it impossible for many families, especially young families, to buy a home of their own. And this has resulted in an unemployment rate of more than 17 percent in the construction industry.

I believe we need a fresh start, a new approach to housing. We need to get away from subsidy programs that get bogged down in red tape, use tax dollars inefficiently and cause dislocations in our economy. We need to allow taxpayers to keep more of their earnings, and allow them, not the Government, to decide how their money is to be spent.

I believe Congress should enact legislation to allow a special tax deduction for money saved to buy a home. It should provide tax incentives to help families save for a home through special savings plans, similar to Individual Retirement Accounts.

Under such a plan, they could contribute as much as $1000 a year into a Home Ownership Savings Plan, up to a maximum of $10,000. These savings would be exempt from taxes if the money were used as a down-payment on a home.

I believe this type of savings plan would help millions of families save enough to buy a home of their own. It would encourage and reward thrift, it would avoid a lot of Government red tape, and it would allow individuals to decide for themselves how their dollars are spent.

Open Letter To Chipman Parents

Dear Parents,

If you did not attend the Open House last week, you missed a pleasant occasion. In fact, it is one of the things which I always look forward to with a great amount of anticipation.

As I am meeting my classes this week, I am finding that very few students are making any effort to use the suggestions for better study habits, which we had discussed in class.

Perhaps seventh grade students require more encouragement than the teacher alone can give. Therefore, I am asking that you try to understand the method and the conditions under which it really works and encourage those aspects which seem applicable in your family setting.

This week we are actually studying an article so that we can practice each step of the S Q 3-R Method, which I promised to describe to you in this letter. The description follows:

Step 1: S stands for survey. In this step the student glances through the material to be studied looking at titles, headings, and any pictures. In other words, he scans the material to get a general idea of what the lesson is about.

Step 2: Q stands for question. In this step the student writes down questions suggested by the titles, pictures, italicized words etc. which he noted in step 1. Or he may use questions at the end of the chapter if there are any.

Step 3: 3-R stands for read, recite and review. Now, after the preparation of S and Q, it is time to use the first R. At this point the student reads the assignment carefully to find the answer to his prepared questions.

Then comes the second R. In this instance R stands for recite, to say out loud. Here the student answers the questions aloud. Some parents may have the time and be willing to give out the questions. In any case, the experience of putting the answers into words, to encode, is an important part of the preparation.

The third R, and the final step in the process, is the review. At this point the student writes down the main points of the lesson. This may be either in outline or in paragraph form. The review should then be placed in the appropriate section of the student's notebook so that it is easily accessible. The student may then read the review as soon as he gets to class. In this way his memory is refreshed and he is well prepared to participate in class discussion.

I hope that this explanation will enable you to be supportive of any attempt your child makes to implement this very efficient and effective method of study.

Until next week...
Sincerely,
Sarah S. Webb

Career Corner

Farm Equipment Dealers

by Buck Thompson

Basically, a farm equipment dealership consists of four departments: book-keeping department, service department, parts department, and a sales department, selling both new and used equipment. Dealers with newer, smaller organizations usually have employees who work in more than one department. When dealerships are established, owners must appoint employees to perform mechanical work on new and used tractors and equipment in the service department, to stock and sell parts in the parts department, to do most of the selling in the sales department, and to keep accounting records. Dealers can then devote more of their time to overall management, including advertising, sales promotion, and public relations.

Persons in junior and senior high school who plan to have a farm equipment dealership, should take a variety of subjects as preparation. Book-keeping, accounting, analyzing profit and loss statements, and selling courses will help in business transactions. Courses in speech and public speaking, as well as extracurricular activities in clubs, such as 4-H and farm management clubs, will prepare them for public relations work. Shop courses and agricultural courses are pertinent to farm equipment business. Persons also need knowledge about farm practices; they cannot sell machinery to farmers without knowing farmer's needs.

Persons who want to become farm equipment dealers must have above-average ambition, must be willing to work long hours, must like working with people, and must have a sound understanding of business management concepts. They must have patience to listen, ability to speak clearly and persuasively, and persistence to convince prospective buyers that the dealership's machinery will meet the client's farm or industrial needs. They must feel at ease in business or social meetings. Persons who are willing to work hard, and who are down-to-earth in working with the farm community and in demonstrating equipment, have the best chances of succeeding as farm equipment dealers.

Postsecondary vocational-technical school or community college courses in diesel and gasoline engine mechanics, welding, and basic electronics will be valuable. Courses in business management are essential for those seeking management positions. A Bachelor of Science degree in business administration with some courses in psychology will give individuals well-rounded preparation for this career.

Good salaries and high profits are among the more important rewards for persons willing and able to hold positions in the farm equipment industry. Income returns will vary year-by-year according to the economy.

The annual surveys of power equipment dealers conducted by the National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association revealed that this group of dealers achieves an average gross profit of 17 to 18 percent and average net profits, after owners' salaries, of approximately 3 percent. In 1974 return on total assets averaged almost 16 percent and return on net worth averaged approximately 40 percent. This is excellent income for persons with the capital and ability to operate a business enterprise. A dealership achieving an annual sales volume of $1,000,000 requires operating capital of approximately $200,000.

North America, at the end of 1974, had over 13,000 power equipment dealers.

TRUTH

A half-truth can sound pretty convincing. That's probably why Tom Maloney has relied on half-truths in his campaign against U. S. Senator Bill Roth. Tom Maloney has gone from one dirty trick to another in this campaign. First he leaked the devastating story about Joe McInerney to the press. Twenty-two days of silence followed, while Bill Roth was blamed for Maloney's leak. Next, Maloney implied that Bill Roth was unwilling to debate with him, when the truth was that two debates had already been held, and three more were already scheduled. The people of Delaware are now being bombarded with misleading ads filled with half-truths about Bill Roth's voting record. In one, Maloney said Bill Roth is against a minimum income tax on the rich, when the truth is that, on May 11, 1976, it was Bill Roth who cast the crucial, deciding vote for a billion dollar increase in taxes on millionaires. Mr. Maloney's "new politics" are neither new nor honorable. Frankly, they don't reflect the integrity that the people of Delaware deserve, and have come to expect, of their United States Senator. On November 2, vote to re-elect U. S. Senator Bill Roth.

At present, the county is still in the land fill business, a responsibility that is to be gradually taken over by the Delaware Solid Waste Authority.

Countdown to leadership

25. Delaware has an outdated budget procedure which only questions "How much more?" Pete duPont and Andy Foltz have called for "zero based budgeting" which reviews every program every year from top to bottom.
24. The financial problems of our state have resulted in Delaware's bond rating dropping two notches, costing Delaware taxpayers additional millions in interest. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz know that only through financial stability will investors regain confidence in Delaware.
23. Today, Delaware's financial planning is hopelessly confused, spread among at least five different agencies. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz have called for a consolidation of Delaware's financial planning mechanism into one efficient, streamlined agency.
22. Delaware leads the nation in food stamp fraud. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe the food stamp program should work for those in need but be economical for the taxpayer too.
21. Delaware's welfare error rate was 39% last year. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe Delaware can do better, and save the taxpayers millions of dollars.
20. Pete duPont's investigation of the Unemployment Office showed that 2,000 families waited more than six weeks for their checks. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz think that's too long. When people need help they should get it promptly.
19. Delaware's Public Service Commission, which controls your electric rates, is controlled by the politicians rather than the consumers. Three of the five members are former candidates for office. Pete duPont will appoint members to the PSC who represent the public, not the politicians.
18. Conditions at Emily Bissell Hospital are deplorable because of red tape and bureaucratic delays in personnel placement. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz don't accept administrative excuses when lives are involved.
17. The Director of Delaware's Division of Revenue held his job while continuing his practice as a tax accountant. The Tribbitt administration admits knowing of this, yet permitted him to keep his job. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz think it's time to end conflicts of interest in state government.
16. Today, the Department of Health and Social Services employs nearly 200 people and spends $2.4 million per year, just on planning and administration. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe much of that money could be spent on services instead of overhead.
15. Delaware cannot have an effective economic development program when the top job in that Department remains vacant for months, as it has during the current administration.
14. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe that one of the prime reasons for the reluctance of job-producing businesses to locate in Delaware is our past history of financial instability and rising taxes. The first step in bringing jobs to Delaware is to get our financial house in order.
13. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe that Delaware can attract clean, job-producing industry by using the natural advantages we already have: an excellent Port of Wilmington, a prime location in the Boston-Wilmington corridor, our rich heritage and tradition, and our quality of life second to none.
12. Delaware taxpayers paid out over $100,000 for a special target industries program which was a total failure. It turned out to be nothing more than form letters and cocktail parties for state officials in New York City and Chicago. It's no wonder that not one company has located in Delaware as a result of this program.
11. There has been no leadership from the current administration in job recruitment. Pete duPont will take a personal role in bringing jobs to Delaware by meeting with the leaders of American business face to face.
10. Andy Foltz believes that Delaware should have a cabinet level department of Economic Development to emphasize the priority placed upon bringing jobs to Delaware.
9. Today, industry seeking to locate in Delaware faces a multitude of permits, zoning procedures, and other red tape from the state, from the counties, and even from local government. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe that the state should take the lead in streamlining and simplifying industrial permit procedures.
8. Both Pete duPont and Andy Foltz have financed their entire campaigns without taking one dime from special interests, and without taking more than $100 from any person. They aren't beholden to anyone.
7. Pete duPont was the first elected official in Delaware to make a full financial disclosure, long before it became the thing to do. Pete believes that the public has a right to know who's paying its elected officials, and that Delaware should have a financial disclosure law.
6. Governor Tribbitt admits knowing for several months that Bank Commissioner Green was receiving financial assistance from the Farmers Bank while he was supposed to be overseeing its operation. Yet he still hasn't answered the question of why Green wasn't fired. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz think he should have been fired immediately.
5. At least 15 top jobs in the Tribbitt administration are being held, or have been held, by politicians. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz think Delaware's government has been run by the politicians for too long.
4. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz believe it's time for some honesty about the state's financial condition, instead of continued tax juggling and cover-ups.
3. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz think it's time our legislature stopped playing political games. A conflict-of-interest law for legislators would help.
2. Pete duPont and Andy Foltz think that the first principle of state government should be integrity. We haven't had that for the past four years. We will the next four.

Farmers To Nominate Committeemen

Kent farmers are asked to nominate candidates of their choice to be on the ASC committee ballot, says James S. Metz.

The ASC Community Committee election will be conducted from Nov. 26 to Dec. 6., by mail ballot.

ASC Committees are responsible for managing government farm programs on the local level. To meet the needs of individual producers, ASC committee members must be concerned and responsible individuals, Metz said. Kent county farmers have the opportunity to nominate persons they feel would best serve the farm community. Farmers have received petition forms by mail and may submit them to the county ASCS office until Nov. 1.

A few basic considerations should be kept in mind when circulating petitions, Metz said. In order to be valid, petitions must be limited to one nominee each, must include written certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected and must be signed by at least three eligible farm voters in the ASC community, and must be received in the county ASCS office no later than Nov. 1.

A farmer may circulate or sign nominating petitions for as many candidates as he chooses. Anyone wishing to nominate a farmer for the ASC committee election may contact the county ASCS office for full details, including eligibility requirements for officeholders.

Metz believes that farmer nominations of candidates for the upcoming ASC committee election are very important. He said, "Farmers should petition for and elect those individuals they feel would do a good job as ASC committeemen."

"It is easier to stay out than get out."

Mark Twain

"Failure is instructive. The person who really thinks learns quite as much from his failures as from his successes."

John Dewey

Sunny Side Up

Sometimes when I answer the phone, people ask if my mother is home. I guess that's nice, in a way, but I wish they'd do it when I answer the door, too. My voice stays young, but the rest of me goes steadily downhill.

I heard on the radio this morning that the federal tax returns won't be mailed at Christmastime this year, as they usually are. Pity. But they will be coming in January, so you may as well face it. Coral Morris, extension home management specialist at the University of Delaware, has some suggestions for you, though, about beating the system (legally, of course). The other kind of advice you'll have to go elsewhere for.

Coral calls it "spending to save" and it's all dependent on planning for large expenditures before or after the first of the year to take advantage of the best deductions. For instance, if you plan to file the "long form" this year, you'll need all the deductions you can get. Why not plan on paying for certain deductible items before December 31? This will only work, of course, if you actually receive the item or service before that date. Seems the Internal Revenue Service frowns on deducting for medical services this year, for instance, that will actually be performed next year. But certain items that you would have deferred until January can be paid now and deducted. That way, if you decide to file a "short form" and take the standard deduction next year, you won't have "wasted" a perfectly legal deduction by not paying it this year.

If all this goes by you, it means you've conned someone else into doing your income tax. Good for you.

Maybe we no longer worry about Monday washdays, but the laundry has to get done sometime during the week. If you work outside the home, that may be Thursdays at midnight or in between scrambling the eggs and scraping the burned toast any weekday morning. Coral has some "bright" news about why our wash looks the way it does. She doesn't go around stopping people on the street telling them they have ring around the collar, but then I know hardly anyone who does, except for one friend whom I suspect.

I've stopped believing all those ads on television ever since I tried buying a washer just like one I saw on a detergent ad. Did you know they don't make washers that not only wash your clothes, but also button them and iron them, just as you pull them out to show that the stain's gone?

But I believe Coral, and she told me why the wash can look dingy. One reason is that you may be using a soap product instead of a detergent. The oil in the soap reacts with the minerals in the water and forms a curd, which deposits itself on your clothes. You can get rid of the curd by running the clothes through once in a non-precipitating water softener (such as washing soda, borax, or vinegar) without using detergent or soap. You can repeat this every four weeks or so as you notice dinginess returning.

Another interesting item from Coral is that most modern detergents contain brighteners, which are actually fluorescent dyes. They make white fabrics appear whiter and some colors brighter.

In either case, remember that there are some things you can't escape from: taxes, death, and laundry, somewhat in that order. Keep your sunny side up.

Fisherman's Hotline Extended

The fisherman's hotline provided by the Sea Grant Marine Advisory Service at the University of Delaware College of Marine Studies has been extended through the month of October because of the popularity of the daily fishing report.

The hotline will end Nov. 1. Until then, fishing conditions will be updated every Thursday, Friday and Saturday, rather than daily, as was done during the summer.

Howard Seymour, a marine advisory specialist on the college's Lewes campus, records the messages. When dialed, the hotline provides a 90-second taped message telling where the fish are biting, what bait is best to use and the weather and tide conditions for the area.

The hotline number in Lewes for Delaware callers is 645-4241 and for out-of-state callers is 302-645-4246. Persons who telephone the hotline from outside the local calling area of Lewes will be charged for the call.

Dear friends, The funeral with the body present impresses the reality and finality of death upon the minds and emotions of the bereaved. The Hiding Place, a true story filmed in Holland and other European locations, is based on the experiences of Corrie ten Boom, who, with her father, sister, and brother, provided refuge for countless Jewish families. A secret room was constructed in their home as a hiding place for use during Gestapo raids. The ten Boom's activities were discovered, and they were sent to prisons and concentration camps.

Kenneth Bliss, the Director of Distribution for World Wide Pictures reports the film "offers a great lesson in the perseverance of a personal faith in a very dark and trying period of world history. Corrie ten Boom, now in her eighties, has a tremendous vitality, a deep spiritual commitment, and a profound love for her fellow man."

Bliss noted that the film includes "interesting side-looks on the experiences of the cast and crew during the filming of The Hiding Place."

The Reverend K. Wayne Grier, pastor of the West Harrington Charge, stresses the showing of "Corrie" is open to the public free of charge. "We encourage families to plan to attend together, for what we believe will be a memorable experience," he concluded. A free-will offering will be received following the showing of the film which will be remitted to World Wide Pictures to assist in their ministry of making this film available to others.

KEITH S. BURGESS, Sports Editor

Dan Parker [center] displays the speed that placed him 12th out of a field of 125 runners recently in Wilmington.

Spartans Run 8th In New York Meet

Lake Forest's state champion cross-country team is unable to fatten its perfect dual meet record with easy victories over the likes of Milford, Sussex Central, Woodbridge, Indian River and Delmar, which don't have fall sports suitable for the small and light male athletes, except for the first two named who may have a few little guys playing soccer.

With three open dates on the local schedule, Jim Blades took his charges to "The Big Apple."

Competing in the St. John's University High School Cross-Country Invitational, a giant meet featuring 103 teams from several states, the Spartans did very well. The locals had to be tired after rising very early and driving 200 miles to Van Cortlandt Park in the Bronx. The opposition teams, for the most part, came from the New York City area and were probably much larger schools than Lake Forest.

The Spartans finished eighth of twenty-five teams, a great showing under the circumstances.

Dan Parker was 12th of 125 runners and received an award plus a lettered St. John's University Cross-Country Invitational T-shirt. Parker ran 2.5 miles in 13.32. Chris Palmisano did 13.53 for 32nd position. Louis Thomas, David Richter and Wilson Fry were other Spartans to figure in the scoring.

Walt Whitman High of New York City was first. Christian Brothers Academy of Lyncroft, N.J. was second. Mephan, Cardinal Spellman, Holy Trinity, Newtown, Pasack Valley and Lake Forest were the top eight teams of the 25 squads in the race.

Little Spartans Bow To Caesar Rodney 10-6

Linebacker Duane Shulties recovered a Caesar Rodney fumble late in the second half and went 60 yards for the only Chipman score as the Little Spartans lost 10-6 to the Little Riders in last Thursday's game at Caesar Rodney.

In this second game for the Little Spartans Jeffrey DeShields, offensive end, and Dwayne Harrell, linebacker, were named, respectively, offensive and defensive players of the game for the Chipman squad. Also worthy of mention were cornerback Nate Floyd with four tackles and a good game on defense and seventh grader Ken Ryder on the offensive line. Eighth grader Steve Dill was cited by coach Gary Andres as making himself "Known as the most improved player on the squad."

Of the CR match Andres said, "We never got our running game out of low gear, but quarterback Marvin Scott, who was shifted from halfback the previous week, showed that he could throw the ball. He had a 30-yard completion in the first half. CR was a hard test for the Little Spartans. The Little Riders hit hard and demonstrated the importance of controlling the scrimmage line. Although our own inexperience cost us a TD on the pass play against CR, the game proved that the Chipman boys didn't go for a bus ride; they went to play football."

According to Andres an objective in the program has been to develop both an offensive and a defensive unit. In the first game (with Seaford) seven boys went both ways. By the CR game, this number had been whittled to three. In this week's contest only one or two players should be going both ways. The goal is none. Says Andres, "I don't want to have anyone going both ways. The depth will make us a stronger second half team, and it will prevent one injury from weakening the team at more than one position."

The Little Spartans take on Indian River this afternoon at Selbyville in the third game of the season.

Spartan Runners Are No. 1 In Henlopen Conference

Cross-country victories over Cape Henlopen 22-35 and Dover Air 15-43, gave Jim Blades' Lake Forest Spartans a 5-0 dual meet mark and the top spot in the Henlopen Conference.

Second-place Caesar Rodney is 3-0. These two unbeaten meet at Killen's Pond State Park Monday afternoon. This 2.7 mile test should decide the Henlopen Conference dual-meet title.

On Dover Air's 2.8 miles course, the Spartans had the first five finishers. Dan Parker (15:02) and Chris Palmisano were only two seconds apart. It was a full minute before Louis Thomas and Dave Richter came in, also two seconds apart, with the final Spartan scorer, Wilson Fry, only 6 seconds back.

Former Lake Forest athlete, Ed Hatfield, was sixth, followed closely by Paul McLellan and John Moffett.

Another ex-Spartan harrier, George Gibbs, was one of Dover Air's best performers. Maurice Coverdale of W. T. Chipman won the junior high race in 16:58, a time which was better than 16 of Lake Forest's 23 varsity runners. Only two varsity Falcons ran that fast.

Another seventh grader, Frank Jenkins, was second, followed by Hank Edwards. Dave Bullock, a transfer from Texas, was next. Bullock recently joined the team some 45 days after the start of practice. To overcome that very late start and finish fourth showed that Bullock had great ability. Unfortunately his career has already ended, at least for the time being, since he has dropped off the team to take care of an after-school job.

Albert Burns, Mike Emory, Gary Ott, Dennis Voshell, Mike Bishop and Tom Silkworth made the top ten list of Chipman finishers.

Cape Henlopen's Lance White was individual winner in the Spartan-Viking test. The undefeated Sussex Countian covered 2.7 windy miles in 14:28. He's the only Delaware runner to beat Lake Forest's Danny Parker (14:38) this fall. Chris Palmisano, Louis Thomas, Glenn Smith of Cape, Dave Richter, Wilson Fry were next. Paul McLellan, Tom Ott, John Moffett, Herb Jarrell, Bill Mitchell were in the sixteen minute segment as Lake Forest won easier than expected.

Maurice "ReeseCup" Coverdale was top Chipman finisher in 17:04. Albert Burns' best effort yet was good for the runnerup spot. Hank Edwards and John Veith were close behind with tiny Mike Bishop running a smart race enroute to a new PR (personal record). Bruce Humphrey, Mike Emory, Gary Ott, Bob Aycoth, Tom Silkworth and Dave Weber were other Chipman finishers.

This Spartan is surrounded by the opposition, but the team pulled a victory out of the bag in its defeat of Smyrna.

Lake Forest Defeats Smyrna

by David Shultz

Last week at this time I predicted that the Lake Forest Varsity Hockey team's record would get better. After dropping three of their first four games they fought back to last week's record of 4 and 4. Since then they have played one game and their record has improved by one game.

The game was against Smyrna in which Lake Forest won by a score of 4 to 1.

Scoring three of Lake Forest's goals was Gail Coston. The other goal was scored by Laura Newnom. The win was the Spartans fifth versus four losses.

Lake Forest meets Cape Henlopen at Cape on Oct. 21 and the last game is at home against Delmar on Oct. 25.

Starting times of all games is 4 p.m.

Behind the helm for the Varsity team is Pat Dyal and for the J.V. team is Barbara Dougherty.

Here's another prediction to take Cape Henlopen by a score of 4 to 3.

Team Lose Close Games

by Millard Ellingsworth III
Just past the midway point in the season, the Lake Forest High School Varsity soccer team's record is 2-6, overall.

In the past two weeks they have lost close games to Caesar Rodney 3-1, Cape Henlopen 3-0 in the bad wind and rains of two Saturdays ago, Seaford 2-1, and a close game on a questionable play against Milford 3-2.

Tuesday, October 12, they traveled to Seaford to play. Ten minutes into the first half, Kenny Johnson scored to put Lake Forest out in front 1-0. Before the half ended, though, Seaford added two of their own, putting them out in front at half time. Despite the Spartans' desperate attempts to score, the second half was a stalemate with Seaford winning 2-1.

Leading the offense were Joe Robbins with six shots on goal, Kenny Johnson with five, Gary Kashner with five, James Overstreet with two, and Jerry Miller with one. Kenny Quillen had five saves on goal.

Last Saturday the Spartans played Milford for the second time this year, this time at home. From the start it seemed to be Lake Forest's game. In the first minute and a half, Kenny Johnson scored unassisted on Milford, a feat that very few players in the conference can boast. The Spartans were controlling the ball, keeping it on Milford's end of the field, but nonetheless, Milford managed to tie it up about twelve minutes later.

Within ten minutes after the Milford score, Lake Forest put themselves in the lead again with Lane Lapinsky passing the ball in from right wing to Kenny Johnson who kicked it past Milford's goalie for the second time. With five minutes left in the half, the Bucs were awarded a free kick which Kenny Quillen stopped to keep the Spartans in the lead at half time.

Lake Forest continued to control play in the second half, showing themselves superior to the Milford team. Milford managed to tie the score with ten minutes remaining in the game, however.

A questionable play gave Milford the victory. Milford was making a bid for the lead with only 30 seconds remaining in the game. In front of the Lake Forest goal, a Milford player kicked the ball up and knocked it down with his hand. One of the referees was yelling "Hands...hands..." but only the Spartans heard him. They stopped playing and stood around waiting for the referee to give them their free kick, but he did not blow his whistle and the Milford player kicked the ball in and the Bucs walked away with an undeserved victory.

Paul Miller was back in the Milford game after half a season of sitting on the bench with a shoulder injury. Leading the offense were Kenny Johnson, four shots on goal, Paul Miller three, Joe Robbins two, and Larry Risser two. At goalie, Kenny Quillen had 12 saves.

Some swift foot work is shown by this Spartan, but it failed to do the trick, as the Spartans were defeated in the game against Milford.

Lime... the fertilizer stretcher

Lime stretches nitrogen supplies. Acid pH's slow down the reaction of micro-organisms in the soil. This results in the slower conversion of urea and ammonia forms of nitrogen to more readily available nitrate forms. It reduces the microbial breakdown of organic materials which release nitrogen to your crops. Proper liming makes more nitrogen available for healthy growth.

Lime stretches phosphate supplies. Low pH causes phosphate to be tied up in unavailable compounds of iron and aluminum. At pH levels of 6.0 or higher, iron and aluminum precipitate out making them non-reactive with phosphate. So more phosphate is available for crops production.

Lime stretches potash supplies. Calcium, magnesium and potash can partially substitute for each other in the crop and on the soil colloid. If calcium and magnesium are low, more potash enters the exchangeable form on the soil colloid and less remains in solution form for crop uptake. With proper liming, less total potash is needed.

Lime... for the good of it!

Liming always has been, and today is even more so, the most profitable fertility practice you can undertake. And right now is the time to do it!

SPARTAN

SCOREBOARD

Dover Defeats Lake Forest 40-0

by Millard Ellingsworth III

At first, it looked like Lake Forest was off to one of their best starts of the season against Dover High last Friday night at the W.T. Chipman field.

The Spartans received the opening kickoff and started to move the ball. On third down, Mike Benson attempted to complete a pass to Ron Loper but Loper couldn't reach it. Fortunately, however, there was a 15 yard penalty against the Senators which gave Lake Forest a first down near the 50 yard line. No more gain was made and Bill Moore had to punt it away.

Lake Forest's defense held the Senators behind the line of scrimmage for the first two plays and then, anticipating the pass, had all the receivers covered so well that the Dover quarterback had to run the ball out. Unfortunately, he gained 20 yards and a first down. On the next play, one of the most talked about runners in the Henlopen conference, Mike Meade, broke the Spartan defense for a fifty yard touchdown run. The extra point was blocked.

Dover got off an extra deep kick which put the Spartans on their own ten yard line. They weren't able to get moving and Bill Moore had to punt it from his goal line. Dover recovered the ball on the Lake Forest 36 yard line. After two five yard penalties on Dover, Mike Meade again came charging up the middle. This time he gained little or no yardage as he was met at the line of scrimmage by Ken Crouse. Next Dover completed a pass to the 30 yard line, not enough for the first down. On their final attempt for the first down, the Dover rusher lost the ball and Spartan Jon O'Toole recovered.

Greg Shortell threw the ball to Jerry Custis on the Lake Forest 47 yard line for the first down. After two unsuccessful plays, Shortell again looked to Custis, this time making it an eighteen yarder to the Dover 36. In the next four plays the Spartans were only able to muster six yards and Dover took over on their own 29 yard line. On the first play, Meade went up the middle for 71 yards for a Dover touchdown. The conversion was no good.

Mike Benson returned the kickoff to his own 36 yard line but there was a fifteen yard penalty against the Spartans, returning it to the 21 yard line. In the next several plays Shortell ran four keepers, gaining a first down on each one. With about six minutes remaining in the game, he found himself inside the Dover 25 yard line. A holding penalty was charged to Lake Forest and on the following play, Shortell attempted a 40 yard pass to Mike Benson who was standing on the three yard line. Benson was covered by three men and one was able to knock it away.

Again, on the second play after they took the ball Dover gave it to Mike Meade who broke open for the third time on the night, this time for a 65 yard touchdown run. The conversion was good.

Lake Forest started with the ball on their 35 and was awarded 15 yards for a penalty against Dover. On the next play, Dover intercepted Shortell's pass and turned it into another touchdown. Again the conversion was good to leave the halftime score at 28-0, Dover.

Dover scored again in the third quarter with no conversion.

Late in the third quarter, after the Dover kickoff, the Spartans found themselves on their own 45 yard line. A penalty against Dover put them on the 50 and two more plays put them on Dover's 45. Ronald Loper got the first down for the Spartans with a twelve yard carry. Greg Shortell pitched out to Kevin Hutchins who moved them into the two yard line with an eleven yard rush over the right side. After the first play, the third quarter ended and the two teams changed ends of the field.

The next three plays were all attempted passes. On the first, Shortell was sacked, and the next two were incomplete. Dover took over and was soon forced to punt out. After they got the ball, the Spartans couldn't hold onto it and the Senators recovered the fumble. Dover got a first down and then there was a fifteen yard penalty against the Spartans which put Dover on the Lake Forest 20 yard line. The Senator quarterback rolled out to pass but couldn't find a receiver so he ran the ball in to a touchdown to finish off the game. The extra point was blocked and the game ended 40-0 Dover.

Tomorrow night Lake Forest hosts Seaford for their Homecoming game at 8 p.m. on the Chipman field.

Blades Rates LF Students No. 1

by Millard Ellingsworth III

"Cross Country has a tremendous tradition at Lake Forest. I hope that I have helped further this tradition through my coaching. I feel fortunate to coach at Lake Forest for we have been blessed with many dedicated, sacrificing, athletically gifted young men," commented Cross Country Coach Jim Blades.

Mr. Blades has taught physical education and health at Lake Forest district for the past eight years. Behind his coaching experience are three years as a junior high cross country coach, two as a junior high basketball coach, three years as head coach for varsity basketball, four years coaching track and field, and five years coaching cross country. Although born in Milford twenty-nine years ago, Mr. Blades attended Felton High School. After graduation, he attended West Chester State College and then came to Lake Forest as a teacher.

Of the student body at Lake Forest, Mr. Blades said, "The student body at Lake Forest is number one. It has always been a pleasure for me to teach here. I can't say enough about the young men I have coached recently in cross country."

He feels his team has the capabilities to make it to the top for the fourth year in a row, but that they must prove they have the desire and determination to do it.

Spank Neal, #89, and Jim Johnson, #63, in action against Laurel.

RAIDERS LOCKER ROOM REPORT

IT'S TOUCHDOWN TIME

LET'S GO TEAM!

Woodbridge Falls To Laurel 13-0

What does a football coach do when the opposition refuses to play on the side of the field where he has his biggest and one of his best players? Coach Jim Foster's solution was to put Spank Neal in the middle of his defensive line. Neal, normally an end, was put into the pit Friday night against Laurel. Woodbridge's new look on defense seemed to be working almost to perfection -- for one half. After being bottled up for two quarters, Laurel broke through in the second half for two touchdowns to defeat Woodbridge 13-0.

The Woodbridge offense did almost everything to win the game except put points on the scoreboard. Gary Pettyjohn, a converted defensive tackle, rushed for 111 yards in 9 carries to earn the coach's nod as the offensive player of the week. Pettyjohn twice broke through for runs of 67 and 44 yards only to be tackled from behind. Pettyjohn was playing with an injured leg that severely reduced his speed. Woodbridge rolled up a total of 238 yards rushing and 11 yards passing as quarterback Louis Dexter was 2 for 7.

Laurel scored on a run of 23 yards in the 3rd quarter and again on a 2 yard plunge in the 4th quarter to account for the 13-0 score.

With Spank Neal and G. L. Jefferson plugging up the middle of the field, Laurel elected to run outside. However, the Woodbridge defense had another surprise. Neal said, "I expected them to go for my legs to cut me down so they could get outside, but Correll and Dexter were there to do the job."

Landy Correll, a sophomore playing his first complete game, worked his way to become the coach's choice for defensive player of the week. Correll, at 120 lbs., made several solo open field tackles to help shut out the Laurel offense in the first half.

Coach Foster stated that he was generally pleased with the new defensive alignment. Foster said, "Putting Spank in the middle gave him a chance to go either way and also gave a little more freedom to middle linebacker G. L. Jefferson."

Landy, Correll, #26, Defensive Player of the Week, making a tackle against Laurel.

Gary Pettyjohn, #44, runs for a 67 yard gain to help earn the honor of Offensive Player of the Week.

Even Cheerleaders get hurt. Laurel cheerleader Brenda Jarman was urging her team to victory even though her right leg was completely encased in a cast.
