Incumbent Twilley Wins In Houston

HOUSTON -- Mrs. Houston (Virginia) Twilley was swept back into office for another two year term. She received 28 of the 53 votes cast.

There were two vacancies on the Town Board of Commissioners. The other seat was won by Mrs. Jane Smith who received 15 votes. The only write-in candidate was Mrs. Annabelle Boone who received 10 votes. Mrs. Boone has been a frequent visitor to the Town meetings and at one point had been very vocal at one Town meeting on the situation involving the recent Town Chief of Police Tom Francovic. At that meeting Mrs. Boone felt the town needed more protection than what it was receiving.

Mrs. Smith is a life long resident of the Town, and it was her father H.F. Scott who was the first president of the Houston

Fire Co., and played a part with his father in the development of the community. Mrs. Smith told The Journal that she is interested in Town improvement. "I really love this community." Mrs. Smith is employed with Base Procurement at DAFB where she has been for the past 12 years. The Town Charter specifically prohibits a write-in candidate in a Town election. This conflicts with the Federal regulations and laws. It is not known what might have happened had Mrs. Boone, a write-in candidate, won the election.

Another candidate bowed out of the race on the eve of the election. Mrs. Janet Yerkes, wife of Ted Yerkes a current member of the Town Board, had come out as a candidate. No reason was given for her retiring from the race.

Frederica Water Problems No Cause For Alarm

By Molly Murray

Frederica's water system has been blamed for the firemen's difficulty in fighting the March 16 blaze which destroyed the gymnasium at Lake Forest East Elementary School. However, according to Mayor George H. Nashold there is no cause for alarm among Frederica residents. "We don't have a water problem," Nashold said, "but it would be better to update the system." The town's water system was built in 1906. Nashold said that during the past two years the town has spent $4,500 dollars to study and plan improvements for the water system.

Nashold indicated that in 1976 the town applied for a federal grant under the "New Public Works Program." This grant, which would have given Frederica $776,000, was denied. "They just ran out of money before they got to us," Nashold said.

Because the town of Frederica has only 1,000 residents, Nashold indicated that the town, by itself, would be hard pressed to find a way to finance water system improvements. Nashold said that even though there are problems with the system, such as the problem that arose due to the fire at the Lake Forest School, Frederica residents are not limited in the use of maps prepared by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

As of June 1, 1977, the City of Harrington was suspended from the HUD federal flood insurance subsidy program, explained Rick Cunard, a specialist with that department. "Harrington failed to act on certain proposed ordinances by a specified date and that's why they were cut from the federal program," Cunard said.

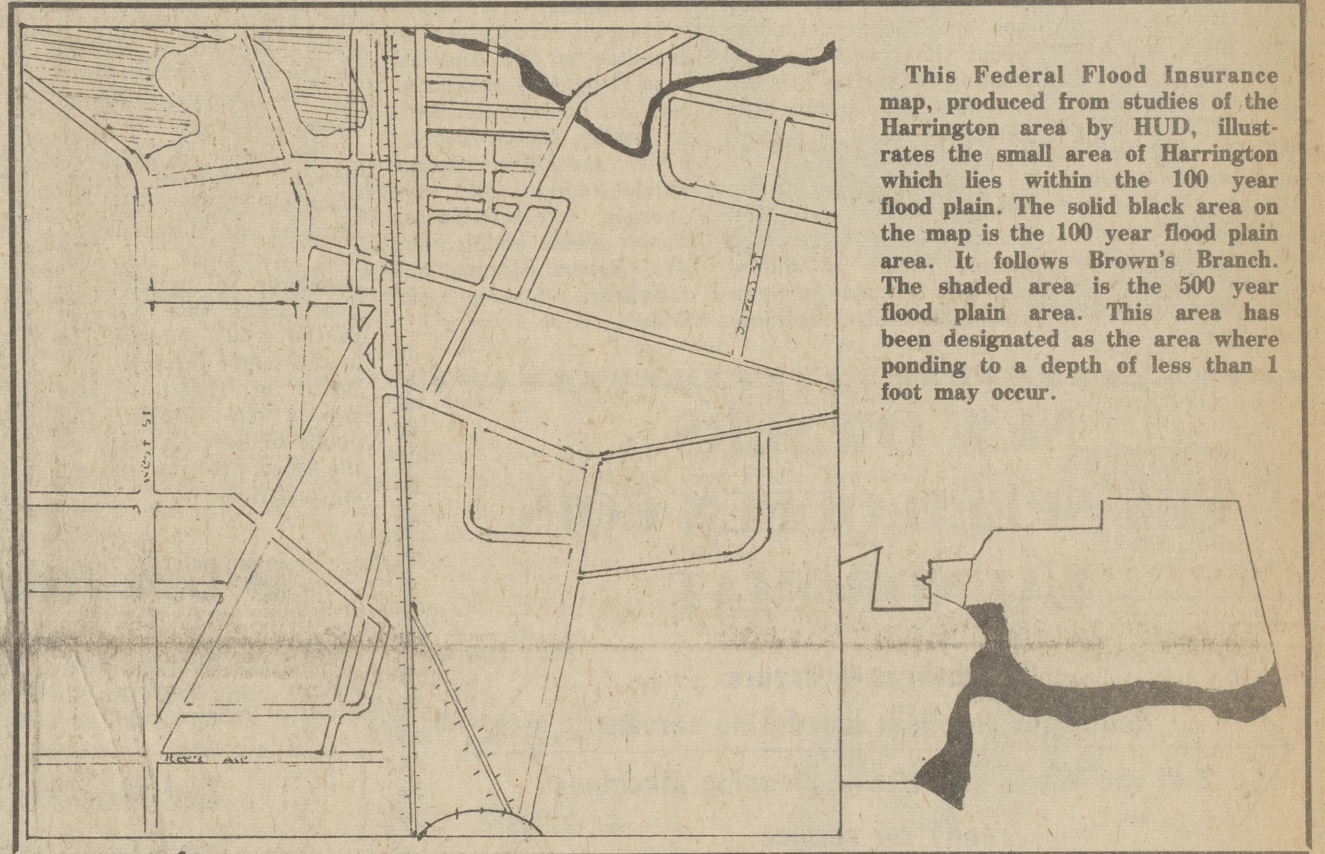

The ordinances which the City of Harrington failed to act on would have made certain building and zoning requirements necessary in the 100 year flood plain. For instance, some buildings in the flood area would have to be elevated and trailers would have to have tie-downs. The maps, however, show that the 100-year flood plain area that is designated within the city limits is small. In fact the major section of the 100-year flood plain area is where the sewage treatment facilities are.

The other areas designated on the map are labeled as the 500 year flood plain. Cunard said that these areas are designated on the map because there is a possibility of shallow flooding of up to one foot. The W.T. Chipman School lies, in part, on the 500 year flood plain area.

Because of Harrington's suspension from the HUD program it would be difficult for anyone to secure FHA, VA, or bank loans for purchase of land or construction of residence in the 100 year flood plain, because without the insurance even private banks are reluctant to loan money. However, if the city of Harrington complies with the federal government flood ordinances and adopts the proposed planning and zoning changes residents of Harrington will again be eligible for federal subsidy on flood insurance.

This Federal Flood Insurance map, produced from studies of the Harrington area by HUD, illustrates the small area of Harrington which lies within the 100 year flood plain. The solid black area on the map is the 100 year flood plain area. It follows Brown's Branch. The shaded area is the 500 year flood plain area. This area has been designated as the area where ponding to a depth of less than 1 foot may occur.

Sussex County Approves Low Bidders

By Molly Murray

Sussex County will soon be getting a new Emergency Operations Center. March 28 the Sussex County Council approved the bid packages and according to County Engineer, Fred McKee, the work will begin sometime in April.

The Emergency Operations Center will be used as a central communications center for all of Sussex County, according to Wayne Ellingsworth, emergency operations director.

However, Ellingsworth explained that the E.O.C. will be more than just a communication dispatch and call board. Ellingsworth said that the facility is being planned to have specifications that would shelter people in the event of bomb blasts and fall-out. Ellingsworth said that the county currently has a dispatch and call board. The equipment, however, is 15 years old. "There are no

Viola Election Has Large Turnout

By Pamela Cosden

The Town of Viola held an election for three seats on the town council on Sat. March 25th. Grace Fraley and George Habicht, the only two people who's name appeared on the ballot, lost to incumbents Mrs. Herbert Moore, Mr. Earl Walters, and newcomer Mr. Joseph Gott. The three were elected by a large amount of write in votes, in what was one of the largest turnouts to vote in recent years.

Mrs. Moore is employed with the Sterck School for the hearing impaired in Newark. Mr. Walters is employed by Simpler Lumber Co. in Felton and

Mr. Joseph Gott is a retired Civil Servant. A reorganization meeting will be held on April 5th to select offices within the council.

Annual AFS Walkathon Is Set For April 8

Spring is here according to the calendar. Time to shake off the winter doldrums and get outside. What better way to do this than to join the annual AFS Walkathon on Saturday April 8th.

This yearly event has become a tradition in the Lake Forest High School and the W.T. Chipman School, as the first opportunity to get back to nature and perhaps acquire that first touch of sun.

The starting time will be at 9 o'clock from the parking lot of the W.T. Chipman School, Harrington. Walkers will be off on the 15 mile jaunt followed at 10 o'clock by the bikers and members of the High School track team. On their return to the Chipman school a light lunch will be served.

All participants will be sponsored by their friends and neighbors at 10c per mile. Proceeds will be used to bring an Exchange student from abroad to live with a family in the Lake Forest District next year and attend the local high school. As in the past, the funds have also provided assistance for those students who have gone to a foreign country in the Americans Abroad exchange.

Recent fund raising projects have also been held by the AFS Chapter and the event of bomb blasts and fall-out. Ellingsworth said that the county currently has a dispatch and call board. The equipment, however, is 15 years old. "There are no

Outstanding Citizens Award Will Be Made

Harringtonians are being asked by the Chamber of Commerce to think of persons in the community who they would like to nominate for the Outstanding Citizens Award.

This award will go to the person who has made a contribution to the community, according to Dick Johnson, who is in charge of organizing the award dinner at which it will be presented.

The Dinner will take place on April 17. At this time the announcement of Harrington's Outstanding Citizens for 1978 will be made. Johnson has also made arrangements for Ronnie Darling, State Representative, Nancy Cook, State Senator, and William Paskey, President of the Levy Court, to speak at the dinner on the topic: "The Future of Kent County."

This is the first year an outstanding citizen's award has been given in Harrington. Johnson has hopes that it will become a yearly event.

Memorial Hospital by private vehicles where they were treated and released for lacerations and bruises of the head. Salmons, the driver of the vehicle, has been charged by the State Police with inattentive driving. (Staff Photo by Ray Blanchette)

Senior Center News

By Dorothy Graham

Mrs. Judy and the members had Bible study and song Monday. Ina and Andy led the Kitchen Band in many foot tapping hand clapping songs.

The Center Directory is being discussed - The committee is Hazel Latch, Ann P. Tucker, and Herb Hussey.

We are most fortunate to be able to present a real movie - "Born Free" April 25. Bus is going to the circus at Dover Downs Thurs. April 27. Seems April 27 is going to be a very busy day for that is the day Mr. Bassols' is making a return visit with instructions on hand made ceramics called Broomstick method. Mr. Arturo Bassols is with "Please Touch". Last week he brought with him Pre-columbian artifacts and weaving. Gorgeous Blouses and weaving by the Otomi Indians were tried out by some of the members. The Maya Chique Blouses were beautiful too. Mr. Bassols displayed and passed around many other very interesting articles. Please try and be present at his next visit. These Indians were from Mexico.

The week was busy with crafts, shopping, Easter party, Birthday party, movies by George Goodge.

Some very nice needle-work objects made by members and friends are at the Center - Crocheted turtles, scarves, book-markers and hats. Mr. Marion Brown got the rabbit.

Once in a while it is nice to thank openly (though in thought is it done every day) Harrington and vicinity and friends everywhere for all of the kindness given to the Senior Center.

Pool room gets brighter every day, it's great to hear them. A couple of ladies played last week.

Crocers are out even above the water - forced some forsthyice? Looked pretty for Easter. Will be a long time before Easter comes as early again.

Best wishes to all members and friends. Make a visit to the Center. Our Director Sabra Cello and Asst. Charlotte Welch will make you most welcome.

The Goodwill Sunday School of the Greenwood United Methodist Church with their teacher, Mrs. Janet Durig, presented on March 18, a nostalgic Wedding Dress Fashion show and luncheon.

The wedding dresses displayed were those of Donna Lofland Henry, Marlyn Bennett Webb, Elizabeth Chaffinch Smith, and Delema Fowler Smith. The brides who modeled their own dresses were Virginia Silpath Speicher, Carol Russell Carlisle, and Ellen Hatfield Bollinger, who had designed and made her own gown.

Miss Connie Eskridge modeled dresses belonging to Janet Wilson Durig and Becky Messick Vandewende; Miss Kim Baker modeled dresses belonging to Janet Smith Banks, Virginia McDowell Dorofee, and Bobette DeVroy Carter; Miss Paulette McCreary modeled dresses belonging to Janice Wright Baker, and Lena Bethard Seely. In fact, right after Paulette modeled Lena Seely's dress, Lori Hamstead modeled Lena's daughter's wedding gown (Faye Seely Farone). Miss Patty Whitmyre modeled dresses belonging to Rita Messick Lofland, and Vickie Woodall Cannon. Miss Margarita Peters modeled the dress worn by her mother, Nancy Porter Peters. Miss Sue Ellen Schrock modeled the gown worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Elnora Fowler Anthony. Ellen Bollinger modeled a gown worn by the late Mrs. Haswell Pierce of Milford, about 1924.

Mrs. Delema Smith was at the piano. Mrs. Jeanette McCreary sang.

JoAnn Davis and Judy Dickerson headed the food committee. Janet Durig, teacher of the class, acted as hostess narrator for the afternoon.

A prayer group, especially for women and their needs is meeting on Wednesday morning, March 29 at 10 o'clock in The Lord's Open House. Everyone is urged to come and share.

Our former resident, Mr. Earle W. Hollis, whom I call the Poet Laureate of Greenwood, has written us another poem...this time about our historic old church, St. Johnstown. I know many Greenwood residents will echo his sentiments.

"Old St. Johnstown"
"One day in the warmth of an autumn sun I sought out friends whose lives are done. My mother rests beside the church; My father sleeps there too.

And all around on every side Are friends and kinfolk, who Comprised my world when I was young, Branding me with their mother tongue. Where e'er I looked were names I knew, The ones unknown to me were few.

A school chum who survived the war To lose his life in a motorcar; A cousin here, a neighbor there,

And aunts and uncles everywhere! This is where the town was born Before the railroads came.

Now all that's left are graves and church With Old St. Johnstown's reverend name."

4-H News

Congratulations are in order to Mrs. Mabel Lambden who was recently selected as Delaware's "Mother of the Year." Mrs. Lambden is like a Mother to all of our Sussex County 4-H'ers. She has been a club leader for many years and is always ready to assist in our 4-H activities. Mrs. Lambden is also an active part of the 4-H Link Program. Again, we say congratulations to the "ideal" Mother.

Congratulations are also in order to several Sussex County 4-H'ers. Janet Cannon and Landy Correll will represent our state at the Annual 4-H Conference, held in Washington, D.C. This conference will be held next week.

Janet Cannon, a nine year member of the Bridgeville Livewires 4-H Club is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cannon, of Bridgeville. Janet has held all offices of her local club and is presently vice-president of the Jr. Council. She attended Club Congress in the area of foods and nutrition in 1977. Janet also takes the clothing, gardening, dairy and leadership projects. Besides being an active member in the 4-H program, Janet takes part in a lot of other activities. She attends Woodbridge High School where she is a member of the Student Government, Chorus, (county and local), National Honor Society, the Softball Team, and business manager of the year book. Janet is also president of the Future Homemakers of America and the Junior Achievement Program. In 1977 she represented her school at Girl's State. Church activities include being a member of the choir, MYF and Nursery.

Landy Correll, and eight year member of the Bridgeville Wildcats club is the son of Mrs. Pat Correll, also of Bridgeville. Landy like Janet has held all offices of his local club and is presently the treasurer of the Sussex County Jr. Council. He attended Club Congress in the area of woodworking in 1976. Landy also takes the leadership and gardening projects. He attends Woodbridge High School and is very active in many clubs and organizations. Landy is President of the Junior Class, vice-president of the Key Club, President of the wrestling club, a member of the Varsity Club and a member of the Chorus (county and local). Other memberships include the National Honor Society, where he holds an office and FFA, where he is vice-president. Landy is very active in sports and has lettered in wrestling, football and baseball. This year he will represent his school at the Annual Boy's State. Like Janet, he is also active in his local church at Bridgeville.

You can see that 4-H'ers not only excel in their club projects but also in their local schools and communities. They make the best leaders and represent our country's future! Why not enroll your child today - 4-H is the best opportunity found anywhere! Just ask Janet or Landy!

We know they both will spend an exciting weekend in Washington and we are looking forward to hearing all about it.

By Harry G. Farrow Jr.

...As We get closer to summer the days will get warmer.

A controversial ordinance banning trucks of a certain poundage on Reese Avenue has caused the Burris Plant-truck traffic on Reese Avenue to surface once more. This matter has been dragged out again and again much to the harm of Mr. Jack Burris as well as to the discomfort of the residents of Reese Avenue.

I frankly believe that now is not the time to be objecting to the location of the plant or the traffic on the street. It should have been done way back when. It is here . . . and here it will remain until the matter is finally resolved... if ever.

Mr. Burris as well as the residents of Reese Ave. are the victims of what appears to have been poor and improper planning. No one can fault or blame Burris. He is a victim of the whole situation. He bought what he believed to be a good business venture, and a piece of ground he believed to properly zoned. He has an investment of $6 million there now far in excess of the value of the residents properties along Reese Avenue . . . or for that matter throughout the community. Nonetheless whether his is more or not does not satisfy the matter. There must be a balancing of the equities. There are also moral obligations running to each that needs to be addressed.

Harrington like so many communities has a debt limit which prevents borrowing beyond that point. Because of inflation many small communities in the two school districts we serve at The Journal are simply out of business when it comes to running the community. They don't have the money and they have a "low ceiling" on what they can borrow.

One way around this raising taxes. Harrington and Bridgeville are at the "fork in the road". To expand and keep up, they must get bigger-so raising taxes or in the alternative raising assessments plus increasing the debt limit. We in Harrington have the highest tax rate in Kent County, but our assessments are low. Our tax rate for instance is higher than Dover but their assessment rate is higher. Ours needs to be raised.

Now Why get into all this discussion about taxes and assessments when we are speaking about truck traffic. There are many crucial priorities facing the Town today. For instance the painting of the stand pipe - inside and out. Cost $15000. A cost of $60,000 to rehabilitate the sewer system as ordered by the federal government. This means in the next 5 years our sewer rate will be 3 to 4 times higher than presently but so will it be for the County residents with central sewer and water. The trash truck is shot and the Town needs a new one at the cost of $30,000 or half that much for a used and worn out one. To be sure, the Town receives aid from the State ($30,000 for municipal aid to repair streets) and revenue sharing of nearly $80,000 a year. Most the revenue sharing goes to pay street lights. Not must left after that.

Finally in the next 5 years Reese Avenue, we are told will have to be "repaired-resurfaced-replaced". This will be necessary for residents to use the street or even trucks, or otherwise no one will be able to get up and down it with this kind of information, the controversial ordinance takes on a new complexion. Personally I do not agree with the ordinance...even if the traffic were on my street, for it is in my ward. The cost of repairing Reese Ave in 5 years will be the cost of starting from scratch, for you will not be able to resurface. Why? The road bed will then be too high and it will flood the residents of Reese Ave out. You go from one problem to another. The road and the road bed will have to be dug up. This will cost over $125,000 if done now. Add 6 percent a year for inflation or at least another 30 percent in 5 years, and you will have the cost of the Road then.

People talk about an alternate route like it was a stab in the dark... which it is. It is almost as bewildering to Burris as to the residents or the council.

In summing this matter up, I think the residents of Reese Ave. Mr. Burris and the Council should form a tight marriage and throw the matter back in the States lap. When Mr. Burris entered into the agreement with the State to build the plant, they should have given him better advice and guidance. What with an investment of over $ 6 million? Can't they throw all of us a line now?

If this analogy is meant to mean that we are building an iron curtain around Harrington, or we don't care about Mr. Burris or we don't care about the residents of Reese Avenue or the Harrington residents who work for Burris then what I have said is all in vain. The State should come down here and talk to these three principals (residents, Burris, and Council) and solve the matter. We may have to raise taxes, but we are anyway if we want to grow.

I betcha I could go out west of Harrington and get a farmer in a pair of bib overalls who could solve this problem in a half a day. That would be first class representation. This other haranguing over the past 4 or 5 years is an example of second class representation on the State level. Another difference is that the latter will cost us money farmer's advice will be free, for you can't put any price tag on common sense. As summer nears, the days get warmer but let's not wait until it gets hotter than the "hinges of Hell" before we do something.

A Look At Historical Frederica - Part 2

Though the town no longer bustles with commercial activity Frederica still retains much of the character of the town it was 100 years ago.

As you keep right off of route 113 you approach the town from route 12. There is a large fire-house and this is a good place to park. The historic district of Frederica, which encompasses most of the town, may be easily covered on foot from here.

Cross the street and walk up to the corner. When you reach the corner of Front and Market streets turn right.

Immediately north stands a 2-story brick house in the early Georgian style. The house is popularly known as the Peter Lowber house, but, actually it was built by an earlier owner around the middle of the eighteenth century. This is the oldest documented building in the town. This house can be easily recognized by its five bay windows and the six paneled doors. The house is only one room deep. This is a typical feature of many domestic structures built in Delaware during this time.

As you head back to Front Street, turn right. Number 3 Front Street has a flat roof and wide eaves which are supported by scroll cut wooded brackets. This house is a 3-story frame Italianate house. The corners of the house are decorated with narrow pilasters that run the entire height of the house. The double front doorway is surmounted by an etched-glass transom. Next door to this house there is a vacant lot. Several houses on this side of Front Street represent architecture typical of the nineteenth century: 7 Front Street, 9 Front Street, 11 Front Street, 13 Front Street, and 15 Front Street.

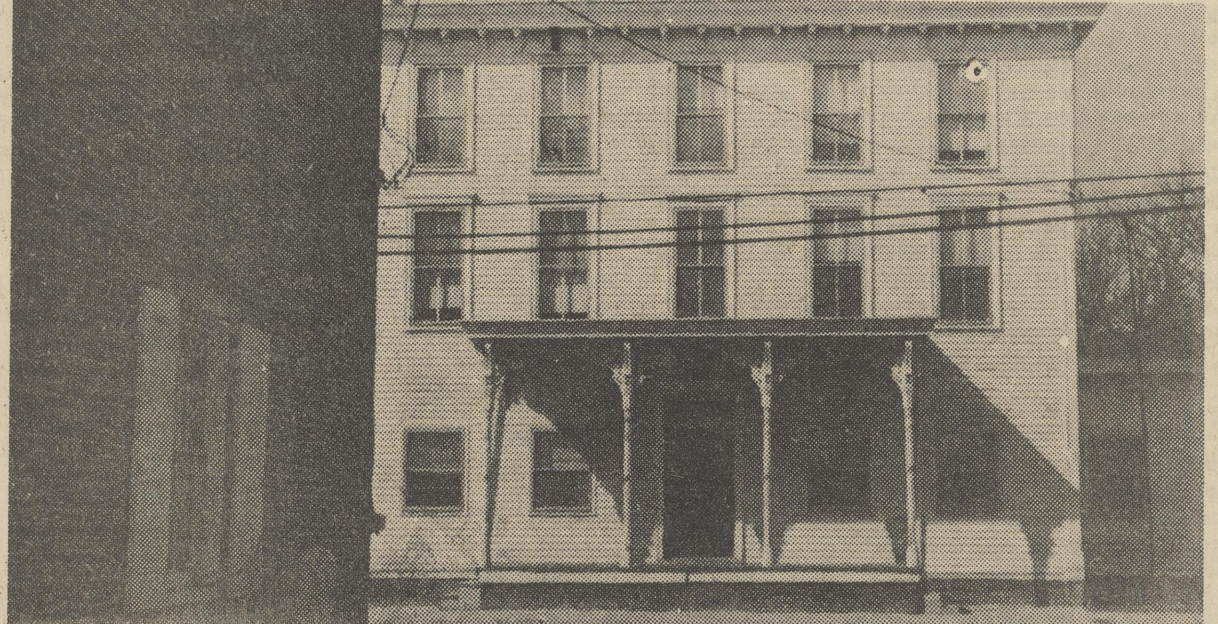

Across the street from 15 Front Street there is a vacant furniture store. The first church in Frederica was built on this site in 1813. The store appears to be the same building despite the fact that it has been altered and covered with asphalt shingles.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, on the East side of Front Street, was built in 1856. This building is easy to recognize because of the stained glass windows on the facade. To the right of this church is the Methodist parsonage. This two story brick house was constructed during the middle years of the nineteenth century at about the same time the church was built.

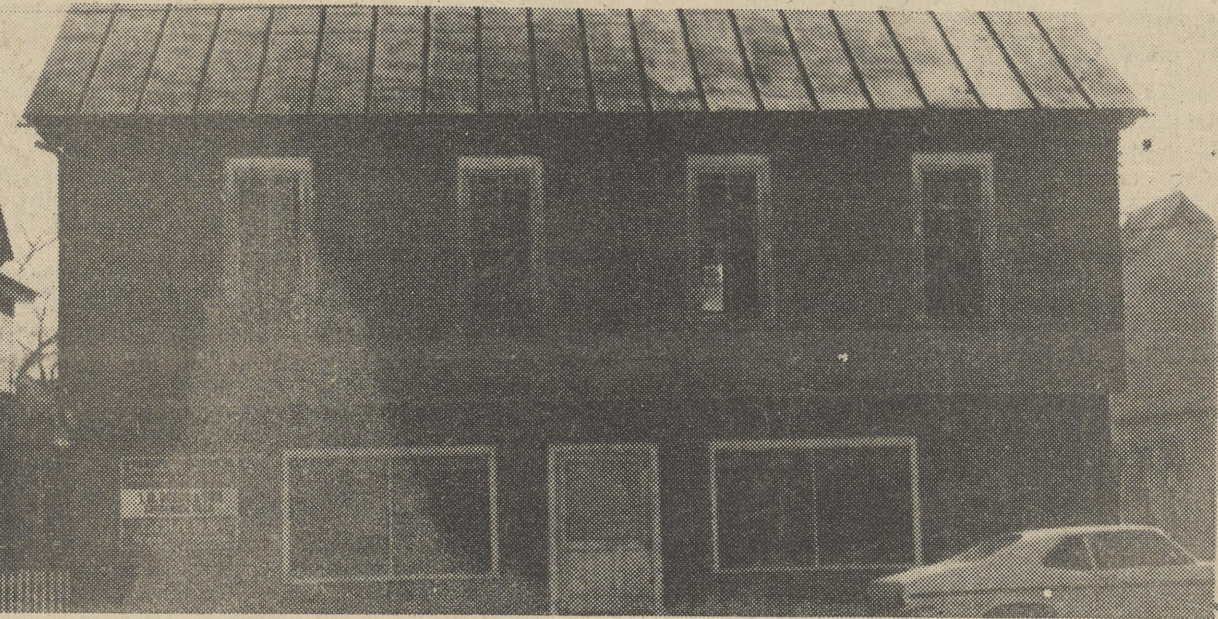

[To Be Continued]

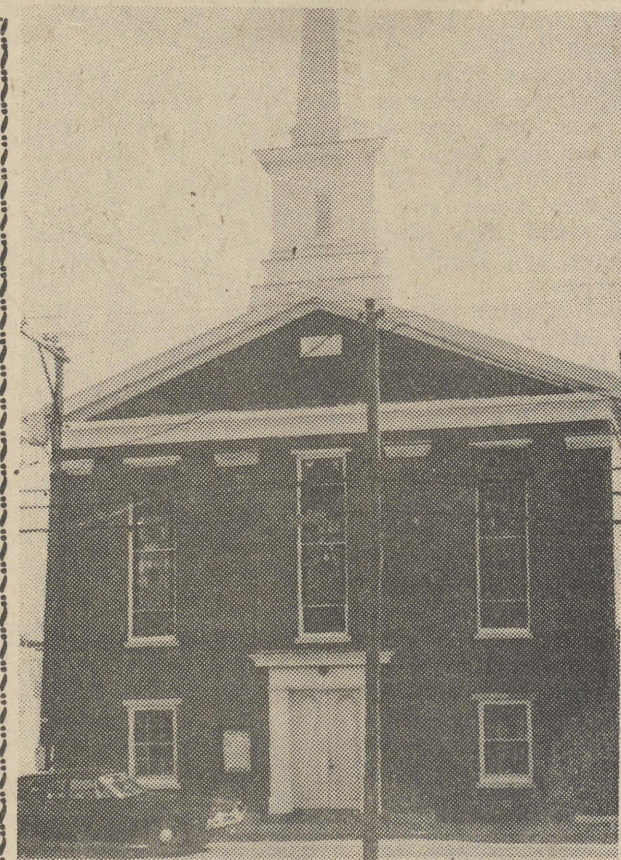

Popularly known as the Peter Lowber House, this building is the oldest documented building in Frederica. It was built before the middle of the 18th century.

The Cahall House is a 19th century frame house. Above the front door is an etched-glass transom.

This abandoned furniture store was once Frederica's first church. The building has been covered by asphalt shingles.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, now called Trinity, was built in 1856. The front of this building is typical of the Methodist churches that were built in Delaware at this time.

The Methodist parsonage was constructed during the middle years of the 19th century, at about the same time as the church was built.

Letters To The Editor

Reese Ave. Truck Traffic

Dear Editor,

I have been reading with great interest the articles concerning the Town Council and their decisions. (mandatory trash collection fees, separating of trash for reclamation, and ordinances against truck traffic on Reese Avenue.)

I thought majority ruled. When was the last time the people were asked what they wanted?

How many people want to pay the city to collect their trash, take the time and effort to separate it, and then have the city make money on their trash through reclamation.

The truck traffic ordinance banning trucks from Reese Avenue is ridiculous!

It seems to me the railroad would create more disturbance than trucks. We live approximately one quarter of a mile from a railroad track, and we hear the noise and feel vibrations when a train goes through. The residents of Reese Avenue should feel vibrations from trains. It might crack their walls. I would think the noise, whistles blowing, etc., would be annoying.

The speed of the trucks going in and out of Burris Foods can't be that fast. The road is not that long. A loaded truck would no sooner get going when it would have to gear down for the stop sign. If trucks will not be allowed to use Reese Avenue, what about Clark and Commerce Streets? They have as much truck traffic, probably at higher speeds. Are the walls of all the homes along these streets cracked and the fumes too much not to mention the noise. If the Reese Avenue Ordinance is enforced, the Council should close off Harrington from the rest of the world.

The residents of Harrington will also be effected by this ordinance.

The residents who are employed by Burris Foods, if Burris decides to move out of Harrington, as well as everyone else by the loss of revenue the City gets from Burris. How would employees pay their trash collection bills and city taxes then? I think the scant reasons for this ordinance are one sided and not at all in the best interest of the survival of Harrington and the citizens there. The lost revenue from Burris leaving could never be made up by the people through taxes.

I am originally from Harrington and my husband and I were considering the possibility of a home in Harrington. After reading about all this "garbage" in town, I think we will reconsider. I wonder how many other out-of-town folks feel the same as we do?

The Council needs some definite changes. It needs men and women with new and fresh ideas. People who are not afraid to let Harrington grow, and make it a more attractive place for home and job seekers. That's a good idea for more revenue -- but separating trash -- yuk!!!

Concerning Firearms

Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention that a proposed city charter change is under consideration. I am concerned about section 11.104 of the proposed city charter. This section proposes powers of enactment of stringent firearms and weapons laws by the city government.

While the content of section 11.104 is presently well intentioned, I believe the section, as proposed, gives broad and sweeping powers to our city lawmakers that may result in firearms and weapons laws that are (a) unnecessary, (b) a burden to law abiding gun owners, and (c) possibly unconstitutional.

Title 18, United States Code, Chapter 44 as amended by Title 1 of P.L. 90-618, The Gun Control Act of 1968, is currently in force and provides more than adequate protection against firearms use by convicted criminals, fugitives, drug addicts, mentally defective persons, etc.

There are also laws of the State of Delaware that further restrict firearms use and ownership by minors. Both National and State firearms laws are sufficiently restrictive to cover illegal firearms acts in the city of Harrington. I strongly object to the broad terms stated in the proposed charter section 11.104, which grants powers of enactment of laws which may make certain "...firearms...

possession illegal in the city of Harrington.

I would think that a majority of Harrington residents are firearms owners. I know many friends and neighbors who are. We own firearms for the legitimate and legal purposes of hunting, target shooting, and personal protection. We neither need nor desire the remotest possibility of restrictions on our possession of firearms. The U.S. Constitutional Second Amendment grants us law-abiding citizens arms ownership rights. Let us enforce the laws currently on the books. There is certainly no need to provide for any new gun laws whatsoever.

Respectfully,
William A. Wise

For Your Information

Dear friends, Like any professional group, we funeral directors must continue to "do our homework" to keep our services up-to-date.

In funeral service, as in other fields or endeavor, there is no standing still. Modern equipment must be purchased - new techniques must be learned. In this way we hope to provide our community a continually improving and more satisfying funeral service.

Kite Flying Can Be Fun For All Ages

CAPE HENLOPEN STATE PARK, Lewes -- Last Friday people from as far away as Pa. and N.J. came to Lewes to try their hand at flying kites at the C.H. State Park. There were roughly 100 people participating in the event. Dr. Floyd Cornelison, M.D., a Wilmington psychiatrist, won the first prize of $25 with his giant sun-flower looking kite made by him from cloth. Cornelison, a native of San Angelo, Texas, said that "kite flying is therapeutic for many of his patients."

The judging was done on the basis of originality, design, beauty, flight performance, and overall craftsmanship. Aside from the thousands of hot dogs which the youngsters at the festival put away, former Lt. Gov. Eugene Bookhammer also put away Mel Govig the champion kite fighter from Maryland. The Govigs (Mel and Valerie) are kite flying enthusiasts. The Govigs recently purchased the popular kite flying magazine "Kite Lines", of which Valerie is the Editor.

Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Cornelison, a Wilmington psychiatrist, displays his winning kite made in the form of a sunflower.

Mrs. Bernadine Butler of Clark St., Harrington, displays her kite. Mrs. Butler teaches art at Chipman School.

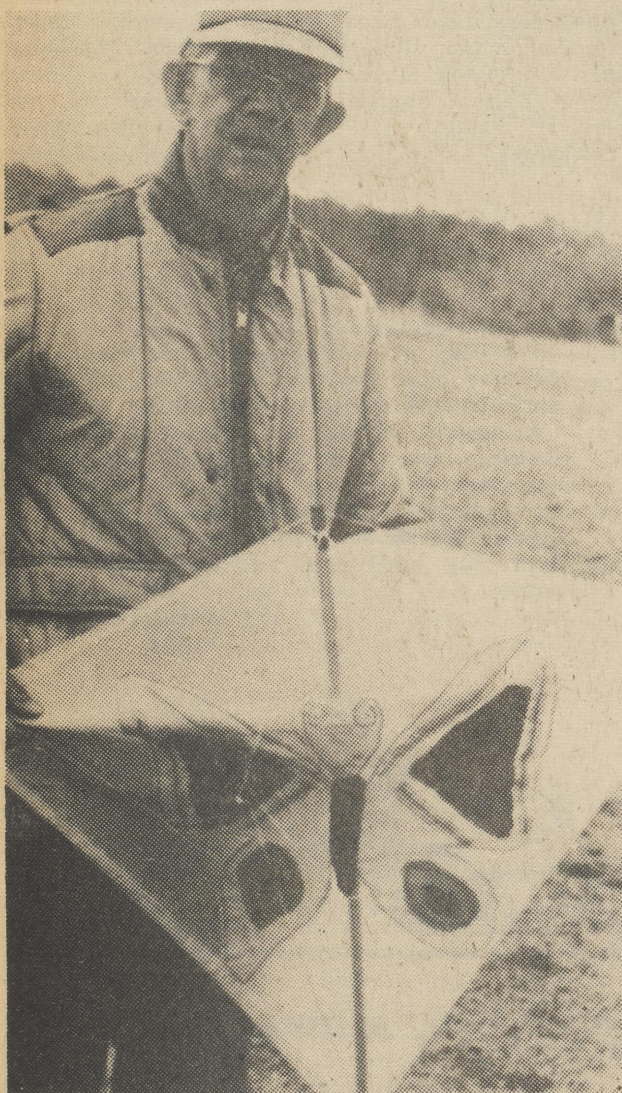

Frances Gardner of Dover displays the two smallest kites at the event. The kite on the left is a "stamp kite" made by sealing two stamps to a piece of cardboard with bow ribbon for a tail. Frances is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack [Nancy] Gardner. Proud mother looks on.

Charlie Wilmire of Canterbury displays his 3rd place ribbon in Class A competition at Cape Henlopen State Park Kite Flying Contest. Charlie is a 2nd grader at L.F. North.

Holly Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Watson Hall, Milford, displays a homemade kite of an Easter theme.

C. Watson Hall of Milford, noted for his duck carvings, here displays his ability in making kites. This is a "bow kite." He said he made many bow kites as a kid. This one was made from parachute cloth.

Beth Rearden, a 3rd grader at Cape Henlopen, Lewes, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William [Meg] Rearden, shows off her becoming freckles as well as kite flying ability.

David Farrow of Harrington amid blustering cold winds and after his fifth hot dog tries to bring his kite under control during the kite flying at Cape Henlopen.

What Do You Think Of Gymnastics?

Gymnastics can be an interesting and healthy sport. Here at our school we have three girls who are into gymnastics. They are: Susan Calvanesa, Laura Vannicola, and Suzy Zoch. The girls take lessons at Marilyn's Dance Studio, from 5:30 until 6:15 on Wednesday. The gymnastics is basically ground gymnastics. The girls wear leotards and tights. The cost of the leotards is about 7 dollars and the tights are somewhere around 2 or 3 dollars. You can get them at Park Lane Hosiery in the Blue Hen Mall.

like to get good enough to compete against other people.

Reporter: How long do you think you will be in gymnastics?

Susan: Well, till I get tired of it.

Reporter: Is there any certain piece of equipment you like working with most?

Susan: Well, I mainly like doing ground gymnastics the most!

Reporter: What do you think of gymnastics?

Laura: I like it a lot.

Reporter: Do you have any goal you are trying to reach?

Laura: No! I just do it for a hobby.

Reporter: Do you like working with any certain piece of equipment?

Laura: I just like plain ground gymnastics.

Reporter: How long do you think you will stay into gymnastics?

Laura: I plan to quit this year and practice at home.

"Students really enjoy art experience and they really get a lot out of it," said Mrs. Carol Hicks, who is soon retiring from teaching art in the Woodbridge School District. Ms. Hicks began teaching in the Woodbridge District before Bridgeville and Greenwood schools were consolidated. When she first started teaching she taught grades 1-6 and high school. Now she teaches only at the high school.

New Band Formed

On the twenty-seventh I talked to R.J. Bennett, one of the members of this new formed band. He said that Chris Willey and he had wanted to start a band for a long time.

keyboards and sings lead vocals, Chris plays drums, vocals and percussion, Todd Slacum on bass guitar and Mike Records on trumpet. They also have two background singers, Suzy Zoch and April Thomas.

The name of the group is "Silver Circuit" thought up by R.J. and Chris.

If you can play an instrument and would like to join a band get in touch with either R.J. Bennett or Chris Willey.

Heatwave Voted No. 1

After surveying many eighth grade students for their favorite rock group or singer, the number one group was Heatwave.

Second place went to Andy Gibb winning by one vote over his brother's group, the Bee Gees.

In fourth place was Boston, a great sensation that has not been in the rock scene for a very long time.

Shaun Cassidy took fifth place. He is in the television series "The Hardy Boys".

School Dances

Is This Your Opinion?

Since there's been a lot of talk about this year's dances, we decided to ask a few students how they felt.

We asked Lori Hamstead, Karen Hawk, Jill Conaway, and Randy Perry. Here's what happened:

Lori: I was gonna say the good-night kiss, but I never get any.

Reporter: Okay! Do you like their decorations?

Lori: Yeah, (she said while wrinkling her nose), they're okay.

Reporter: How do you feel about the refreshments?

Lori: They're okay.

So you've heard the "enthusiastic" feelings about dances from Lori Hamstead.

When I asked Jill Conaway, she pretty much agreed with Lori except:

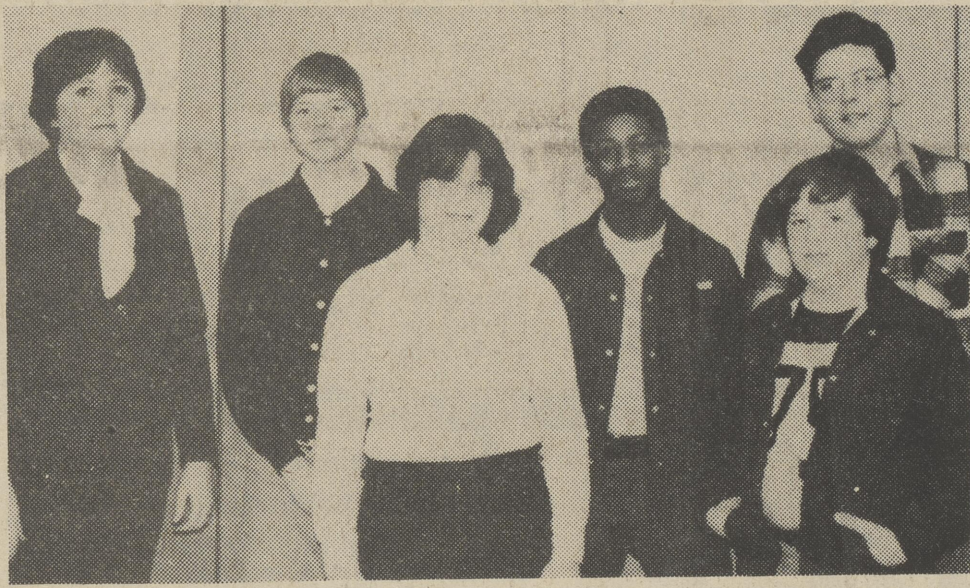

Reporter: What would you change if you had the chance?

Jill: I would make a theme for them, especially the spring dance.

Karen Hawk thought we should have a band instead of a d.j. Even though it might be a little more expensive she says, "There'd be more for your money 'cause you can hardly hear the d.j. plus a band could play more songs."

Randy Perry's interview went the same way except when I asked him if he minded the chaperones and he replied, "No, but they should let us kiss a little more."

I went to a member of the student council to get some answers. One question I asked was, "Why do we have a d.j. instead of a band?" She answered, "Well, a d.j. is cheaper and he's easier to get a hold of. Up until now nobody's had very many complaints."

Girls Prepare For Eleven Meet Schedule

By Keith S. Burgess
Dave Buck has turned out some state champion individuals in track and field, and one of his teams narrowly missed winning the state team title. He has 28 high school girls practicing for the schedule opener on April 13 at Laurel. A practice scrimmage is slated for March 31 at North Carolina High School, Denton, Md. Lake Forest has an eleven-meet schedule. Six of these starts are home meets. However, due to the uncertainty surrounding the completion date of the Lake Forest all-weather track, the possibility exists that the distaff Spartans may have to compete for the most part away from home.

Among the key veterans returning are sprinters Tina Durant, Patsy Watson, Tina Lapinsky; distance runners Maxine Harris and Lois Russum, and weight persons Joyce Ewing, Barbara Williams and Shelly Barthlow. This last-named trio will be handling the shot and discus.
Harris holds the school record in the mile run. Ewing is a strong threat in the discus. Sabrina Pizzuto is returning after missing 1977 because of injury. Sabrina, better known as Beany, might be used as a sprinter, hurdler or in one of the jumps. Jowana Daniels, a tiny runner with lots of heart, can do the hurdles in addition to some of the relays or middle distance events.

Phyllis Caskey, a tall junior with no experience, may be one of the finds of 1978. This writer watched her turn in several excellent 440's and 880's recently. She appears to have speed and stamina. Phyllis needs only experience to perhaps get her name in the Lake Forest record books. It's too bad she waited so long before trying the running game. Two brothers, Howard and Doug Caskey, lettered in cross-country at Lake Forest. Sheila White, another 16-year-old novice, comes from a running family. Fred, Frank and Jim White were all in the record book at Harrington High or Lake Forest. Sheila was the only distance runner who could get anywhere near Phyllis Caskey in Thursday's practice session.

Suzy Budsley's first running experience was in a two-mile cross-country race last fall in which Suzy did well despite the lack of even a single workout.
Hilary and Kathy Haines are a couple of transfer students who should help the Spartans' fortunes. One of them, Hilary we believe, is reputedly a 5-foot plus jumper, something we have never had here.
Other candidates are: Andrea Pierce, Tammy Inson, Rhonda Witt, Carol Payne, Cathy Moulton, Valerie Moore, Melanie Cline, Brenda Thomas, Judy Moelenkamp and Sue Howton.

Snow Finally Melts

Thirty Ready For Girl's Season

The sun may appear, the snow may melt and the temperature may reach the seventies but spring doesn't really come until the spring sports have begun. And they have!

The Lake Forest High School Girls Track team began its long, hard trek to hopeful victories on March 2, 1978.

There are thirty members on the team. They are participating in a wide variety of events this year as they have always in past years. The different events available for the girls to take part in are the 100 meter hurdles, 100 meter dash, 1600 meter run, 800 meter relay, 400 meter dash, 800 meter run, 200 meter dash, 3200 meter run, 400 meter relays, 1600 meter relay, high jump, shot put, and discus.

fantastic job with the girls in getting the prepared and in shape for the season. So far, this season, Mr. Buck has been nothing but an encouragement to the girls as he have been heard to say on several occasions that the girls have not had a losing season yet, and from the looks of things he's pretty optimistic.

With a little hard work they can really clean up this season!

Basketball Invented In 1891

Basketball was invented in 1891 by James A. Naismith, a physical education instructor. His idea was to nail two boxes to a gymnasium balcony. The first basketball baskets were available, according to The World Book Encyclopedia, thus the name basketball.

Tennis Anyone ?

Spring has sprung! And with it, tennis! March 1 marked the first day of practice for the girls on the Lake Forest Tennis Team.

Sixteen girls have gone out this year. Miss Lynch, the advisor, applying a rather ingenious plan to enable everyone who tries out for tennis to get a chance to improve and remain on the team without getting cut. They are using the ladder system. The girls, both doubles and singles, practice and challenge each other. So challenge each other. As they win, they climb the ladder, thus, enabling the highest girls on the ladder to play in the matches. The girls may challenge at any time as long as they only challenge up to two positions above them. In this system, everyone gets the opportunity to improve and compete.

The girls who are on the team this year are: Heather Billings, Lea Sylvester, Vicki Ivins, Susanne Anderson, Sue Cox, Susan Ricker, Abby Betts, Amy Calvert, Charupin Charoentep, Charupoin Charoentep, Lisa Beddle, Beth Horleman, Karen Poore, Wanda Speicher, and Loretta Latocha.
The managers are Debbie Bebeau and Kay Sylvester.

WAFI-WTHD Radio Morning Man Son of Auto Racer

MILFORD -- Charles Edward Magill III, the morning man at the Milford Radio Station (WAFI-WTHD), is the son of the famous Indianapolis Race Car driver Charles Edward (Iron Mike) Magill II. The Magills are natives of Haddonfield, N.J. and son Charlie grew up in somewhat of a racing climate. The young Magill, who does a great job for the local station says that "...being a grown man playing records for a living is not too bad." The young Magill said that he believes his father did things when "...I was younger that makes me believe now that he wanted to discourage me from getting into racing." Charlie took to broadcasting as a career and graduated from the American Academy of Broadcasting in Philadelphia.

Upon graduation from the Philadelphia School, perform their ritual. Charlie Magill remembers his first Indy race, which was in 1960 when he was five years old. He remembers seeing A.J. Foyt. Two years before that Charlie's father had taken that near fatal crash at Indy. The race car in which the elder Magill was driving turned over on its top and skidded down the race track mainly on the elder Magill's head. During those years the Indy cars were not equipped with roll bars or other protective equipment. Charlie's father became famous as a result of this crash because it was the only one in the history of the race where a crash such as that where the driver lived from the injuries. His father carries a steel plate at the rear of his skull. The car the elder Magill drove was car #77 of the Dayton Steel Foundry.

Hot-Running Bobby Allison Hopes To Break Jinx in $111,050 Martinsville Virginia 500

MARTINSVILLE, Va. -- In 44 Grand National events on the demanding .525-mile track, Ford, Plymouth and Chevrolet are tied for the lead with 11 each. But one has to go all the way back to 1969 to find a Ford win here. Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C. swept both the Virginia 500 and Old Dominion 500 that year in a Ford. And one has to go all the way back to 1959 to find a Thunderbird triumph, which was accomplished in the Old Dominion 500 by Tiger Tom Pistone.

Although Allison scored a 100-lap victory here in 1967 in a Modified, he has yet to post a Grand National win although he has come ever so close. In the 1972 Old Dominion 500, he led 430 of the 500 laps but still finished second. In Virginia 500 races, he has two seconds and a pair of third place finishes while in the fall Old Dominion 500, he has three thirds and once ran second in three consecutive races.

But Allison is not alone in his frustration. Only five drivers active on the circuit today can claim a win in the 500-lap, 262.5-mile battle. Petty leads with 14 career wins while defending Virginia 500 champion Cale Yarborough of Timmonsville, S.C. has five. Darrell Waltrip of Franklin, Tenn., David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., and Dave Marcis of Wausau, Wis., have one each. They'll all be back with Petty in the STP Dodge, Yarborough in the First National City Travelers Checks Oldsmobile, Waltrip in the Gatorade Chevrolet, Pearson in the Wood Brothers' Purulator Mercury and Marcis in the Osterlund Chevrolet.

Young Charlie was also exposed to midget racing at Atlantic City and the stocks at Trenton. Charlie told The Journal that one of his great experiences was driving in the Demolition Derby at the Delaware State Fair of Harrington last year. On the side of the car donated by Taylor & Messick was printed the lettering, "Iron Mike Magill, Jr." which made him proud indeed.

Just as Charlie's father is a good engineer, who is currently building a marina at Carolina Beach, N.C. Charlie is good at what he does, and that is either disc jockeying or amateur photography. Although he is not associated with racing, he does own a motorcycle. Again this might be a throw back to his father who after returning from WWII got into racing as a hobby and riding motorcycles in thrill shows. According to Charlie as his father gained more and more parental responsibilities, his mother put pressure on his father to get out of racing. This is what he has done.

Charlie resides in Milford now and loves every bit of it. On a recent rip back to Philadelphia he found the change there to be too much with the traffic congestion, and as Charlie says "...just too many people for me to like it now."

Georgetown Speedway Rescheduled Dates

GEORGETOWN -- The Georgetown Speedway had officially planned to hold their practice trials this past Saturday. The weather was such that it made it impossible to run any trial races. The time trials have been rescheduled for this Saturday at 12:00 noon. The official opening of the Speedway according to its Public Relation Director A. G. "George" Keller will be Sunday, April 9th.

Despite bad weather on Saturday some 200 people including drivers, owners, crews and spectators turned up for the occasion. According to Keller and Mrs. Herbert, track owner,

"the turnout was regarded as a success but the weather bested everyone."

There were cars from Pa. and N.J. ready to run and the owners and officials of the Speedway are looking to a successful season. They want you there this Saturday for fun and excitement.

Pearson to Make Short Track Start at Martinsville and Heads for Smithsonian

MARTINSVILLE, Va. -- David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C. will make his first "short track" start of the season in the $111,050 23rd annual Virginia 500 on Sunday, April 23 at Martinsville Speedway.

And for his efforts, he will wind up in the Smithsonian Institution.

If you mentioned that to the 43-year-old "Silver Fox," you might get a mouth full of knuckles if you didn't go into detail. Pearson, in the famed Wood Brothers' Purulator Mercury, will be making first start on a track under a mile on the .525-mile track but Pearson, along with Richard Petty, Cale Yarborough, Benny Parsons, Dave Marcis, Neil Bonnett, Bobby Allison, and the other Winston Cup NASCAR Grand National stars all will wind up in the Smithsonian -- on film.

Lawrence E. Kline, Jr., the institution's production coordinator of the office of telecommunications, will head a film crew that will shoot the 500-lap, 262.5-mile classic as part of an exhibit on "Speed and the Technology of Transportation," on land, sea and air.

Lawrence said the exhibit will include models, artifacts and displays plus numerous audiovisual exhibits that depict man's attempt to go faster in all manner of vehicles. One section will be devoted to the automobile and auto racing and the Virginia 500 footage will represent stock car racing.

Pearson and the Woods venture off the big tracks only twice a year to compete at Martinsville since the track is located near the home base of the Wood clan in Stuart, Va. Pearson, who already has hit victory circle in the Carolina 500 at Rockingham, will be trying to match his Virginia 500 triumph of 1973.

The Mercury Cougar will be an unknown quality when it first hits Martinsville's demanding track but Leonard and Glen Wood are sure to have the machine ready to challenge for victory in the richest race of its distance in NASCAR history.

Only the fastest 30 cars will start with positions to be determined in time trials on Friday and Saturday, April 21 and 22, with a 150-lap Modified race set for Saturday.
