30,000 visit Chicken Festival

SALISBURY, MD., June 3 --- The 32nd Annual Delmarva Chicken Festival wound down here on much the same note as it had begun Friday: the rain Gods had been kindly disposed, people were still having fun and the five tons of chicken on hand was still bringing satisfaction to all.

Some 30,000 people plus attended the affair to take part in the crowning of two princesses, urge on 30 top chicken cookers from the states of Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, parade, toss eggs, stage egg races, cheer and jeer broiler industry leaders in a chicken plucking contest and in general, just have fun.

But, at all times, center stage was chicken that was prepared in the original world's biggest fry pan (which itself is now a veteran of 30 festivals), cooked on a yard-long raised barbecue, and even available in the form of chicken dogs.

The first order of business was the judging and crowning of a pair of poultry princesses who will reign over the dynamic poultry industry on the Delmarva Peninsula during the next 12 months. The new "Little Miss Delmarva Poultry Princess" title went to four year old Heather Nicole Pusey of nearby Fruitland, MD., who won out over 21 other girls. Runner-up in the contest was Megan Dawes of Salisbury.

Regina Chamberlain, a 16 year old from Pocomoke City, MD.,

proved she's a girl of many talents in convincing judges that she should be "Delmarva Poultry Princess." The $1,000 scholarship she won as part of her treasure trove of prizes will go toward helping her in chemistry studies when she goes on to college. In addition, to being a good student, she showed talent on the verve side with here spirited baton act in the contest. Runner-up was Margaret Thompson of Dover, Delaware.

On the second day of the festival the main order of business was attended to as the 30 chicken cooking finalists contested their talents and recipes to we who will represent their states in the upcoming National Chicken Cooking contest in Charleston, SC., in July.

This year's contest saw women beat back all challenges from the men who increasingly have come to try their skills in recent years. The 1979 edition also saw considerable variation in ways to use and cook chicken as the gourmet panel of judges was presented an array of whole chicken, parts, giblets, and livers and even a new version of chicken soup.

The winning Delaware recipe, "Flipover Chicken," was prepared by New Castle school teacher, Janielle Sherkey. It was created just for the contest and featured bite-sized pieces of seasoned chicken baked in a crust which is then flipped over.

Commencement; rain delayed but a success

Lake Forest Seniors waited in sullen uncertainty as the weather put a damper on commencement exercises set for the high school stadium Sunday, and then pulled an instant replay with a vengeance as Monday's skies drenched the area again.

Many planned celebrations went forward on schedule as the graduates, their families and friends awaited the main event. Yesterday, the weather finally relented, and 204 Seniors marched onto the field, the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" echoing the years completed and heralding the ones to come.

Taking the high school initials L.F.H.S. - to stand also for the words love, faith, hope, and success, the Reverend William Miller of Calvary Wesleyan Church in Harrington enlarged upon the theme of love. Love, he told the graduates, embodies at least three things - kindness, encouragement and challenge. "Kindness says, 'I see you!'. Encouragement supports with 'You can do it!'. And challenge calls 'Put forth an effort'. The concluding words of I Corinthians 13 "And now abideth faith, hope, love - these three, but the greatest of these is love" formed the basis for his emphasis.

Preceding his Baccalaureate Address, four Seniors whose academic achievements put them at the top of their class, spoke to their classmates and the guests assembled. Laura Newnom and Larry McCombs delivered the fourth and third honor addresses respectively. Keith Underwood gave the Salutatory Address, and Jerry Miller, the Valedictory Address.

Following the Baccalaureate Address, recognition from the Lake Forest Board of Education for Excellence in Scholarship went to Jerry Miller, Keith Underwood, Larry McCombs, Laura Newnom, Karen Howton, Eric Wise, Hilary Haines, Linda Hutson, Doug Crouse, Kelly Huffman, and Lisa Beddle.

Lake Forest High School Department Awards went to the following students in these areas:

Agriculture - Darin Sumpter, Teresa Carter; Art - Norman Kristie, Joy Oakley; Business - Starla Mertz, Clifton D. Crouse;

English - Keith Underwood; Foreign Language: French - Steven Kish, Spanish - Brenda Courtney, Hilary Haines; Mathematics - Jerry Miller, Larry McCombs; Music - Mark Homewood, Todd Grimm; Science - Larry McCombs; Social Studies - Jerry Miller, Larry McCombs.

A solo "Free Bird" by Todd Grimm and a selection, "Landmark Overture" by the Lake Forest High School Band under the direction of Dale Burkhard preceeded the presentation of the Class of 1979 by Superintendent William E. Cline. Donald Garey, President of the Board of Education, awarded the diplomas.

The invocation and the benediction were given by the Reverend James Justice of St. Paul's AME Church and the Reverend Wayne Grier, Trinity United Methodist Church, Harrington.

Carroll's seek opening of teen center in Felton

FELTON - Carrolls Gift and Variety Store owner, Dottie Carroll, told the Felton Council on Monday night of her plans to open a teen center behind their new store on Walnut Street in Felton. The town fathers are becoming concerned with youths "...on the streets...at late hours of the evening", and for some time the town has been trying to find a suitable place for the youths to attend. In the past street dances in front of the fire hall have provided a place to be, but this was only offered once in awhile. The teen center proposed by the Carrolls would house pin ball machines and other machines to occupy idle time for many youths in that area who will soon be out of school. The age limitations suggested would be from 12 to 19 years, and through the week the hours would be from 3:30 to 9:00 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays until 11:00 p.m. The plan met with sweeping acceptance by the Council, but as one Council member pointed out "...it would be on a trial basis...and unless the Youths regarded this plan as a good opportunity and kept the noise at a minimum, the opportunity or privilege would be taken away".

In other matters, Gary Gay, who had previously been denied a liquor license by the Council had requested a clarification of the zoning of his property. He was told that he was in a residential zoned area, but despite this was issued a light commercial license.

Dick Jenner brought a complaint about dogs running loose in the town. His complaint was primarily directed at the fact that the dogs were overturning trash. There is a Town Ordinance against dogs running loose in the community from March through October. They are required to be on a leash during that period. For some time Mayor William Myers has tried to control the problem of dogs running loose in the community.

HARRINGTON. Irvin O. Drummer, SR., a representative of the building concern of Case 1 EDWARDS of suburban Washington, and Dudley Willis property owner sought a zoning change on two parcels of land fronting on Peck Avenue in Harrington. Each parcel was zoned IMP, a highly defined and classified zoning for an industrial park. The larger parcel on which apartments are to be constructed if approved by Council at next

The dog which bit Councilwoman Mary Ann Stumpf's son was caught by the dog catcher with the aid of Mrs. Stumpf's husband. Jenner also claimed that there were many cats in the neighborhood which were causing problems.

Mrs. Stumpf reported that she had informed N.L. Wilkins that the trash cans in the town were filling up quickly and that she felt that they (Wilking) should empty the Tuesday's Town meeting and provided the request passes the public hearing stage contains approximately 8 acres. The smaller parcel contains approximately 3 acres, and the zoning change there was to C-2.

The original plan was to construct 48 single bedroom units, but Drummer said "...we would prefer to remain flexible on that. We have two bedroom apartments as well, but that is the largest we construct." The total cost of the housing project was estimated and reported to be approximately one million dollars. From the time they receive approval of the site for construction, it will be approximately 6 months before any one unit is occupied. The firm of Case/Edwards has constructed successful sites in Georgetown, Easton, Denton, and Federalsburg. The apartments they have constructed have been also designed for the elderly, as well as younger people.

This parcel of land which remains is all that remains of the original tract known as the Traine lands. It was 40 acres and the largest parcel of land within a Town or City here on the Peninsula. The Traine Corp had originally planned to set their firm's base here in Harrington. Traine manufactures air conditioners. At one point following the Traine ownership, it was believed that the corporation of Gore was to locate here in Harrington. They make medical supplies.

JIM STAYTON

BUSINESS PERSON OF THE WEEK

Jim Stayton, President of the Twin Roads Restaurant on Rt. 13, states that the Twin Roads offers a wide selection from their menu. It also features home baked breads, and an excellent Salad Bar.

Conversion of the former lounge into Banquet facilities for wedding, parties, and meetings is now complete. Serving of cocktails have been eliminated. The reason for this action is that many trucking firms prohibit their drivers to stop where liquor is being served. Also it has not been an asset to their business. This decision has been made by the Board of Directors Jim Stayton, Ed Taylor, and Harold Stayton. Now the restaurant will be known as the "TWIN ROADS AUTO & TRUCK RESTAURANT".

Meanwhile, Jim's right hand man was hard at work getting the new Coffee Shop ready for the scheduled June 11th opening. The Coffee Shop will be opened from 6 a.m. until 9 p.m., seven days a week for the convenience of the truck drivers, horse people, and travelers. Jim aims to accommodate all at the Twin Roads Auto & Truck Restaurant.

Jim is a local man who attended Harrington & Felton schools. He resides in Felton with his wife Helga, and two children, a son Harold age 18, and a daughter Patricia age 17. Good Luck To The Twin Roads Auto & Truck Restaurant!

"...let's face it...the Pope and the Communists are poles apart". With arms outstretched as though he is attempting to lift the Spirit, the Pope moved into another...a new...dimension this past week. He defied the Communist control of Poland. He went right into their teeth. What's to be accomplished? I don't know...but it is inspirational. It almost pulled me back into the fold. He is a great man...no question about it. He is spending a lot of hours proving a point...but the compensation won't be in overtime pay.

Aside from being the self proclaimed sole pilgrim in the world today, his actions demonstrate the raising of the classic point - separation of church and state. In this case is it good or bad for the head of one of the largest churches in the world to head such a crusade? If we are to have a crusade it is probably most fitting that a man of this stature should lead it.

As he returned to his native Poland this past week, one thing stood out in my mind was: are they "poles" apart or are the "poles" bringing church and state together? The bottom line is that it was a royal affair for those who have been oppressed and herded around for such a long time. The appearance...the incident has a far reaching effect.

As this year's vacation season gets under way, many Delawareans are concerned about gasoline supplies as they plan trips to beach resorts, family reunions and other summertime destinations. In order to deal with this fuel crunch, Congress and the American public need to know the hard facts about energy supplies.

That's why I've cosponsored legislation that calls on the Carter Administration to furnish in a single package all the information it has on hand concerning crude oil supplies, usage and demand.

Last week the House of Representatives rejected the Administration's gas rationing plan. President Carter, using language as harsh as he has ever used in public, criticized the House for rejecting the proposal. I voted against this legislation because it was unfair to the poor, to rural residents, and to people who need their cars for their jobs. In addition to this, members voted against the plan because the Administration failed to make its own case. This failure was caused at least partly because the Carter Administration seemed to flip-flop so often on the cause and expected duration of the gasoline shortage.

All members of Congress must have a firm base of information to act on the pressing problem of gas shortages. Simply put, we are seeking facts about the status of our crude oil stocks, demand, extent of shortages, methods of allocation and information on any action by the oil industry to withhold or reduce supplies to the public. We believe the recent long lines and sky-rocketing prices at gas stations point out the need for Congress, as well as the general public, to know the extent of our oil supplies and reasons for spot shortages.

The Congress has been called upon to come up with a comprehensive national energy policy. At the same time we are deluged with statements, assertions, charges and countercharges which leave everyone confused, but move us no closer to developing a sound policy that will enjoy a broad consensus of support.

We aren't seeking to nit-pick or lay blame. We seek only the facts; for only with the facts can we make a responsible decision on this matter so vital to all Americans.

Sen. Nancy Cook writes....

By now you probably know that I was one of five senators who voted against what I call the rich man's tax cut when it came to the Senate floor last week. The bill (HB 334) grants a tax reduction of $21.5 million, the biggest part of which goes to those making $100,000 or more a year.

I didn't oppose a personal income tax cut for everyone, but I did oppose a bill which gave a 30 percent reduction to the top bracket and a 6.5 percent cut to the low and middle income taxpayers who need it most.

Many amendments were offered in the Senate in an effort to make the bill more equitable, and I supported all of them. One would have granted a 10 percent cut across-the-board in all brackets, another would have trimmed every taxpayer's bill by 9 percent, and two others would have reduced the tax break given to the wealthy and redistributed in the lower brackets.

All of the amendments failed except one which would have cancelled the tax cut if a sales tax is ever imposed in Delaware. I particularly wanted to see that provision on the bill because the same people who were lobbying so hard for HB 334 have been associated in the past with efforts to get a sales tax enacted.

Under a compromise worked out without my approval, the amendment was removed and a separate bill doing the same thing was passed. Hopefully, the sales tax provision will put the supporters of HB 334 on notice that the wealthy will lose their big tax cut if a sales tax push is successful.

Some of the arguments on the Senate floor in favor of HB 334 seemed phony to me. We were told that the wealthy families would move out of Delaware if the bill wasn't enacted. We were told that the wealthy industries would move out of Delaware if the bill wasn't enacted. We were told that it was only "fair" to give the wealthy a bigger tax cut since they had paid higher taxes for many years.

Of course some of the rich might move out of Delaware to Florida, but they'll do it whether or not HB 334 was passed. They have the mobility to live wherever they want to and can go wherever their tax accountants advise them to.

The people in my district, the 16th Senatorial District, don't have the mobility to pack up and go because of the tax bite. They have jobs and family ties and responsibilities, and believe it or not they also love Delaware and wouldn't leave it just because of the personal income tax structure.

And I'm confident they'll agree with my vote when they look at their pay envelopes in a few weeks and see that their taxes were cut less than $1 a week, while the average tax cut in the upper brackets was almost $300 a week!

Thoughts From Dover

By Governor Pete du Pont

On May 31, a historic act occurred in the General Assembly. On that day, the first-ever reduction of the personal income tax was enacted by the State Senate, following by one week the passage by the House of Representatives of the bill.

The $21 million tax cut is an important milestone on Delaware's road towards a sound financial condition and an essential part of our ongoing effort to bring jobs to the state.

Every Delaware taxpayer will receive a tax cut of some degree beginning immediately. In January of this year, I proposed a tax cut of some degree beginning immediately.

In January of this year, I proposed a tax cut and named a bi-partisan legislative and administration committee to review all the proposals for reducing Delaware's personal income tax. That committee subsequently proposed last month a $21 million cut in personal income taxes.

The tax committee followed my recommendations that the proposal include tax relief for every Delaware taxpayer, that it help spur economic growth in the state, and that it would not include a sales tax. This week, I will sign the bill to cut the personal income tax. I'll also sign another bill that makes it more difficult for a sales tax to be enacted.

The enactment of the $21 million tax cut is a testimony to the cooperation shown by the people on the tax committee and to the legislators who put aside their own proposals to help enact this important legislation. Without the cooperation of such legislators as Senator Cordrey, Representative Burris, Representative Cain, Representative George, and dozens of other legislators, this bill would not have been enacted.

More importantly, this tax cut sends a clear signal to the rest of the nation that Delaware is indeed on sound financial ground and that we are eager for businesses to locate in our state.

I hope that this tax cut will bring more jobs for our residents. Along with other economic development proposals, such as a public corporation to develop industrial lands, and increased tourism promotion, I am confident that we can help expand the economy of our state.

letter to the editor

I would like to take this opportunity to address you concerning the proposed purchase of the "Chipman Building" as the Harrington City Hall. There are many good reasons for the City of Harrington to purchase the property, and I will outline those later. First, however, I would like to set the record straight on rumors I have heard concerning the property and its purchase. I feel, that to make the correct decision in this matter, fact must be separated from fiction. Fiction: Purchasing the Chipman property will raise taxes. Fact: The increased amount of outlay per year will be $2,000. This small amount can be absorbed by our present tax structure. The only reason the outlay for our city hall would increase is that we now pay $50.00 per month rent. Should the City have to locate elsewhere, our rent would go up very substantially. Fiction: The Chipman property is in a bad location. Fact: The building is in a good location for a City Hall. It is centered between the Quillen Shopping Center and the Commerce Street business area. It is easily accessible by vehicle or by walking. Fiction: $35,000 is too much money. Fact: The property is a bargain. It has been offered to the City at approximately half its market value. This is due to the community-minded kindness of Ken and Suzanne Jones, the owners. Anyone who has researched current construction costs would have to agree that the purchase price is extremely reasonable. Fiction: There are many alterations needed and they will cost a lot of money. Fact: Alterations are minimal. Four doors are needed to separate areas or provide security. Some locks must be changed. A ramp must be built to serve the handicapped, but this expense may be federally funded. Several window air conditioners or a more efficient central A/C system is desirable, but not of vital concern at this time. The total estimated cost, with air conditioning is $3,500. Fiction: The City won't use the upstairs of the property. Fact: All available space in the building will be used. In fact, the upstairs will be used for the Police Department and Alderman's office. Fiction: The City plans to purchase the two adjoining properties for parking lots. Fact: Purchasing these two properties would be impossible financially. Further, parking is not a problem, and therefore it would be foolish to purchase these properties. Fiction: There is no parking. Fact: This assertion has been the chief concern that citizens have voiced concerning the purchase of the property. There are five spaces in front on the property and four on Ward Street. This is more than enough for normal daytime service. It is rare that more than two citizens are present to conduct business at any one time. Parking is not a problem. There are numerous reasons why the City of Harrington should purchase the "Chipman Building." I will outline the major reasons below: 1. WE NEED MORE USABLE

SPACE. Our present location is too small. Our City manager is under a stairway, with no privacy. Our police station is severely cramped. Convenient records placement is non-existent. We need more space. 2. THE CHIPMAN BUILDING IS ENERGY EFFICIENT. It has hot water heat zoned to three areas of the building. This means that heat can be turned down considerably when sections of the building are not being used. This coupled with the fact that it is completely insulated will keep energy costs to a minimum. 3. IT IS GOOD BUSINESS. I say this for several reasons. FIRST we can obtain 5% mortgage monies from the Farmers Home Administration. This interest rate substantially reduces our yearly mortgage payment. We would be able to pay the mortgage off in advance without penalty. SECOND The mortgage payments break down to about $200 per month. This in effect, sets the City's cost for its building for the next 25 years. In this day of inflation, it is wise and good business practice to set or "lock-in" expenditures. Added to this is the economy to be enjoyed by the City and its taxpayers when the building is paid for. It is an investment. THIRD, should the Harrington Fire Department need the space where the present City Hall is located for expansion, the City would have to look for new quarters. Where could we find a building which meets our needs for $200 per month NOW LET ALONE FIVE YEARS DOWN THE ROAD. 4. WE HAVE TO START SOMETIME. Had the City invested in a City Hall 50 years ago, 25 years ago, even 5 years ago, we would not be considering this question now. Somewhere along the line someone MUST take the responsibility of looking forward and planning for the future. While it is always easy to look back and say, "why didn't the Council do that twenty years ago when it would have been cheaper," can we afford another twenty years of price increases, steeper rents, and indecision. I feel it is time to make the step to plan ahead for Harrington's future. I strongly feel that the future will confirm that this purchase was forward looking and a prudent decision and that the Chipman Building is a source of community pride.

In conclusion, I would first like to publicly thank Ken and Suzanne Jones for their community spirit and sincere interest in the City of Harrington. Whether or not the City Council votes to purchase the "Chipman Building", Ken and Suzanne should be commended for their generous offer to the people of Harrington. Next, I hope that the separation of fiction from fact and the positive reasons for this purchase will better inform the citizens of Harrington in this matter. I encourage you to contact your councilman or myself and LET us know how you stand. Please get involved and let's work together to give Harrington future directions. Sincerely, ARTHUR B. CAHALL III MAYOR CITY OF HARRINGTON

Thoughts From Washington

By U.S. Senator Bill Roth

"Hello, Jail? Send Me a Plumber!"

You just helped pay a plumber $9,838, but he won't get out of jail until 2003.

Through your generosity, the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) paid 27 inmates of the District of Columbia jail over $200,000. Three of the workers who helped out in the warehouse got $11,066. Others got your tax dollars through CETA as mappmakers, laborers, clerks and even a "dairy janitor." Who says crime doesn't pay?

The District of Columbia charges a prisoner $2 a day for "room and board" and hasn't raised the rate to accommodate inflation. But the CETA-funded prisoners got a 5 1/2 percent cost-of-living wage increase and even earned paid vacation time! (They aren't likely to get the latter, but you never know.)

CETA is a program where $3 billion is authorized to train disadvantaged people to enter the job market. It appears to me that paying prisoners to do work when they won't be eligible for parole until 1987, 1988, 1991 and 2003 misses the mark.

This summer, over 40 percent of minority youths will go without jobs while those "on the inside" put their money away in savings accounts for when they get released. (Studies show little, if any, goes to family support.)

One inmate serving 54 years for armed assault is receiving $9,391 as a "library technician." The earliest that prisoner could be paroled is 1991. How many library technicians in Delaware are so compensated? How many other jobs pay that well without having to stick up someone? How about the warehousemen? They are getting about the same starting salary as teachers while doing time.

Taxpayers, in the meantime, are being hit twice. First, when they pay the 10-grand it cost to house, feed and clothe the criminal and, secondly, when we pay them "salaries" out of funds clearly not designed for that purpose.

Last year, employment agencies were collecting fees from the government for placing people in CETA jobs and I offered an amendment to stop that practice, which was passed. This coming week, I am introducing an amendment to stop prisoners from collecting CETA funds. Paying prisoners to do tasks distorts the goal when so many young, disadvantaged, idle on the streets are out of a job.

I think it is a good idea to train a prisoner for a job when he is released to society. But I do think it is outrageous to do so through a program clearly not designed for such a use of tax dollars and in jobs paying more than people receive on the outside - or for jobs like "dairy janitors." How many openings for "dairy janitors" will these people find when their sentences are over? We pay a healthy sum each year for our prisons and that, to my way of thinking, should include the training, re-training or whatever to qualify the offender to lead a productive life when released.

CETA abuse is not confined to D.C., but your nation's capital has one of the worst run programs in the country. The former chairman of the city council had a CETA employee who was the wife of a prominent dentist - and his campaign treasurer for mayor - on the payroll because she had not had a job for one month.

A starting salary for a civilian employee in city government is $6,561 and it's obvious the jailed CETA employees are doing much better.

As I did last year, I will offer another amendment to tighten the CETA program to weed out the greedy so we can help the needy. As long as idiocy like this current CETA rip-off is taking your tax dollars, I'll keep fighting.

Sen. William Murphy writes....

Last week I voted for the tax reduction bill (HB 334) because I'm convinced it was the best which realistically could pass at this time and it will go a long way toward helping Delaware attract new industry and keep what industry we already have.

The bill gives every taxpayer a reduction of at least 6.5 percent on his personal income tax retroactive to January 1. But it also gives a larger reduction in the top brackets to encourage industry executives to look beyond the tax rates - the highest in the nation before passage of HB 334 - before deciding whether or not to locate in our state.

I did support two amendments to the bill. One would have trimmed down the cut given to the tax brackets and redistributed it so that everyone would get a 10 percent cut. That amendment failed.

I also supported the amendment which provided that the tax cut would be repealed if a sales tax is ever enacted in Delaware. I realize that such an amendment could easily be removed if there ever was enough votes for a sales tax by the same legislators who might vote for such a tax. But it was an expression of how the legislature felt at this time.

We usually don't hear too much about Rep. Bill Brady of Townsend, but last Tuesday he had everyone around Legislative Hall chuckling about a joint resolution he introduced. Brady's resolution urged Delawareans to deposit their cans and bottles on Pennsylvania and Maryland roads and highways.

As you know, when the General Assembly enacted a so-called Bottle Bill last year, requiring a deposit on all cans and bottles, it tacked on a provision that the bill wouldn't go into effect until similar legislation has been adopted by the contiguous states of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Well, Representative Brady figured that if enough Delawareans took their disposal bottles and cans to the two states and strewed them along the roads, the legislatures of the two states might be encouraged to adopt similar laws.

I voted in support of a measure (SJR 16) which would allow doctors who register with the State Department of Health and Social Services to prescribe marijuana to their patients.

There is a large body of evidence that marijuana helps patients in the final stages of cancer or glaucoma to gain some relief from pain and the side effects of treatment such as chemo-therapy. I figured that we should make available to these sufferers any remedy which might ease their torment. As long as it's prescribed by a doctor and supervised by a doctor, I don't see how anyone can complain about helping these unfortunate people. The bill passed the Senate and went to the House.

My bill (SB 20) to require Blue Cross and Medicaid to reimburse subscribers for services of a chiropractor fell two votes short of passage in the Senate last week, but I'm confident I can pick up the two extra votes I need to get the legislation through the Senate.

At present, Blue Cross and Medicaid clearly discriminates against persons who prefer to be treated by chiropractors, even though they pay the same premiums as anyone else.

Senior Center News

The Center was not open Monday. Tuesday was jolly good time with the Kitchen Band furnishing the music and singing in the morning. Larry at the organ in the afternoon with any song you could think of. My id does sound good!! Movie with George Goadge. Wednesday was coffee klatch time, a time to exchange plants, recipes, show pictures or relate a story. A wonderful part of any day with a friend! Even doing the calendars didn't seem to be so hard to do. Bingo in the afternoon makes it a perfect day, of course there is also the ever popular pool and dominoes.

Thursday we finished up all the graduates - my they were striking looking. Now on to Christmas, won't that be fun! Already we are doing Bells and more Bells, and do they sound good. Local shopping was squeezed in, wonder how so much could be worked in.

The whole week has been busy as you wanted to be, or if being quiet was your cup of tea, well there was that too and for those that love organ music, Larry entertains so beautifully. Weaving place mats in lovely colors, one stands out this week - Velma painted a detailed Halloween piece and it is absolutely a honey. Jo and Florence worked like troopers on the graduates and Ella the Bells. Sabra chimed in with the gold work. Appreciate it all so and lovely carnations from paper napkins. Bowling at Milford Lanes with high scorers Alice Houston and Ray Heeger. A lot of cheering goes on, on the side lines I hear and fun is had by all, even the on-lookers.

Friday was exercise class with Charlotte, our Site Manager. A good number participated. (I forgot to get the exact number).

Pool, dominoes and cards along with ceramics and a pool game that lasted 3 hours between Miles Draper and Webb Porter (the winners) and Dick Henry and George Goadge. To tell you the truth, it was great to listen to them as the balls shot across the table to the calls they made or didn't make. Oh yes, the score was 25 to 1. Yes, they are still speaking! Members meeting June 11.

The ladies in the kitchen are just super and we do appreciate your volunteer work so much!

Best Wishes and kind thoughts to those who are ill and to all homebound.

Do you remember George Swain (Dutch)? There was another George Swain also. Ethel Roberts - she took me on a nature study hike because I was looking out of the window in English class.

Day-Care Holds Dinner-----

On Thursday, May 31, 1979, a dinner was held at the Harrington Day Care Center, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church at 6:30 p.m. in honor of Mr. & Mrs. Robert H. Crawford. Mr. Crawford is the retiring Board President of the Board of Directors of the Day Care Center. The dinner planned by Carrie P. Brown, Director of the Center, was in appreciation for the guidance and encouragement Mr. Crawford had given the center throughout his term as Board President. All Board members and their spouses were invited to the gala affair. Mr. & Mrs. Charles Peck, friends of the Crawfords, were also present at the dinner. A full-course dinner, prepared by three members of the staff, was served to the twenty-two (22) guests who ate at tables draped with green tablecloths and adorned with red and pink roses. It turned into quite a festive night when Mr. Crawford was presented with a plaque given by the Staff of the Harrington Day Care Center for his nine (9) years of unselfish service. Other gifts were presented to the Crawfords from the children, foster grandparents, and the Board of Directors of the Center. A special gift was given by Mrs. Carrie P. Brown whom Mr. Crawford had worked closely with these nine years.

Mr. Crawford will be resigning from the Board of Directors and moving to Florida later on in the summer.

Mrs. Brown says it all when she said, "Surely, we will miss you and your friendliness. However, we will always think of you as a friend of our Day Care Center." Thank you for enriching our lives Mr. Robert H. Crawford.

Gab Fest

"Baby", the macaw, is visiting again because Ellen and Gary are painting their house and they fear the paint odor will prove fatal to the birds. Up in my guest bedroom are also two cockatiels and a budgie, but they make little disturbance. A few cheerful chirps in the early morning and that's it. But Baby is a different character. He has talked incessantly all morning and I cannot get my thoughts together for answering him. He could see me in the kitchen making up yeast roll dough for the Lioness Club bake. He gives me the wolf whistle and then says, "I love you, I love you." Then he says in a very demanding tone, "Come on. Come on." He wishes me to come on with some peanut butter and cracker or a strawberry...or anything edible. He likes everything and his appetite reminds me of my own. He will eat anything that doesn't eat him first. He enjoys doing all kinds of crazy stunts to see how we will react to his attempts at entertainment. I took him in a piece of bread with peanut butter, and he went over and dunked the bread in his water cup and ate it dripping wet, yelling at the top of his lungs, "Stop it, stop it, rotten bird!"

Several weeks ago I mentioned that we were expecting kittens. They have arrived! It will be about three weeks yet before they could leave their mother cat and go to new homes. Meanwhile, we are enjoying them. "B.K.", the black mama is a lovely cat, gentle and sweet with beautiful green eyes and would make a nice pet, but unless something is done, I'm sure she will keep supplying us with kittens. There are three. One male is all black with a cute little face. Garith calls him "Scooby-Do". Another male is tiger gray and a female is pure white with a small black button on the top of her head. I call her "Button". They are as fat as little butter balls and very healthy and playful.

One of our rose bushes is doing an odd thing. Each stem looks like it has produced an enormous rose, but when we look closer, there are two roses side by side, not joined except at the calyx.

The first day of June! How exciting! Lowell knew what he was talking about when he wrote, "And what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days; Then Heaven tries earth if it be in tune, And over it softly her warm ear lays. Every clod feels a stir of might. An instinct within it that reaches and towers and groping blindly above it for light, climbs to a soul of grass and flowers."

Old-fashioned fried pork tenderloin is on the dinner menu for tonight. Why are the fried things so much tastier than baked or boiled? Since Dad and I both have apparently perfect digestion, it doesn't bother us that we know of (except calorie wise), so we indulge sometimes. We like the brown gravy, too, which is another calorie no-no. And, of course, the dessert for a time will be strawberries. Next week I will have to replenish my strawberry jam. Everybody but Dad likes the frozen kind best. He likes the cooked kind. So, I make plenty of both and everybody's happy. Gary's favorite is grape, so I'm hoping the grapes will do well this year.

Are there more leaves on the trees this year, or do I just imagine it? It seems that the foliage is so thick.

For Your Information

A new book, Life After Life, is written by doctor-psychiatrist Raymond A. Moody, Jr., who has interviewed 50 or more people who were pronounced clinically dead for several minutes before being revived. They tell of their 'consciousness' separating from their physical body and floating nearby, while they observed the desperate attempts to revive the earthly body. Sometimes deceased relatives or friends appear to greet them. It is an interesting book, well worth reading, whatever one's interpretation of the evidence.

Lake Forest: State Champions

Sussex Central's coach Steen should have known better. The Lake Forest softball team was already motivated to win the state championship, but he made them ore so with a few pre-game remarks. He should have known better. The Spartans made him eat his words and went in to win the state softball title.

The Spartans came into the championship game, held at Woodbridge on Saturday morning, undefeated, composed and confident. Lead by Coach of the Year Al Wood, Lake Forest did what they had to do when they had to do it as they pulled out a thrilling 3-2 victory, a victory that wasn't decided until the hair raising last out.

It was a game of defense for both teams. The main difference was Lake Forest's was better. The girls committed no errors, made a play of everything that came their way, and put out the fires when ever they had to. When they needed it most, somebody was there—Sissy Kosiorowski in the outfield, Chris Morrow at short, Calhoun and Dopirik at third and second, Scott behind the plate, if it came to them it was handled to perfection.

There were a few scary moments in the final inning when it appeared that Central was on the verge of staging a big rally. But the defence was there and Newnom's pitching kept Central from hitting the long ball and causing extensive damage.

The game capped a spectacular year for Wood's girls. Many feel the '79 Lake Forest team was the best ever assembled in the district and the record doesn't contradict the viewpoint. Practically half the team was voted to the all-conference list and not a single game was lost all season. The closest game of the year was with Sussex Central during the latter stages of the regular season. It too was a one run margin of victory game and it too was won by Lake Forest.

The Spartans were named the visiting team and came to the plate first as the game got underway at 11:00 a.m. From the noise in the packed stands and the electricity in the air, it was obvious that this would be a game to remember.

It began as a first inning to remember for the Central squad as they permitted the Spartans two runs on no hits. Two walks by their Sara Marvel and the first of a few errors by their third base person allowed the scores. A series of passed balls and some inconsistent pitching spelled trouble for the Central hopefuls as Lake Forest capitalized on every error to take a lead they would never relinquish.

The Spartan's first time in the field saw Laura Newnom handle the first Central batter's bunt with a perfect throw to Tina at first for the first out. A hit and a walk followed, but Newnom regrouped to strike out the next tow batters to get out of the inning unscathed.

The Spartan's first time in the field saw Laura Newnom handle the first Central batter's bunt with a perfect throw to Tina at first for the first out. A hit and a walk followed, but Newnom regrouped to strike out the next tow batters to get out of the inning unscathed.

The momentum cooled for Lake Forest in the top of the second as the Central pitcher, Sara Marvel, began to find her pitch and the strike zone. All three Spartan batters went down on strikes to end the short inning.

Al Wood immediately held a team meeting prior to the teams taking the field to insure that there wouldn't be a let down. Sissy Kosiorowski must have listened closely.

The bottom of the second saw Newnom fan the first hopeful, but the second batter hit it a mile to the right. Kosiorowski, The Spartan's steady right fielder, played it perfectly and held it to a single. A walk followed to put runners at first and second. The next batter sent another long fly to right, but this time Kosiorowski had a chance at it and she made a spectacular grab for the second out. Newnom fanned the third out and the Spartans were out of trouble again.

Newnom started the next inning with a bunt single followed by Kosiorowski who snaked a hot one to third. It was too hot to handle and runners stood at first and second, no outs. Gwen Scott made the first one with a pop to the infield which almost doubled Sissy at first as she scrambled to get back in time. Chris Morrow was next up. She hit into a very close double play.

Sussex Central hit two to the infield for a quick two outs when they came to bat for the bottom of the third inning. But then Marvel got a walk from Newnom and advanced to second on a passed ball. Upset, Laura walked the batter to put two on and a rally was definitely in the making. Sissy Kosiorowski put an end to that idea when the next batter sent one high and deep to the right. On a great grab, the Spartans made it out of the threatening inning still two runs ahead.

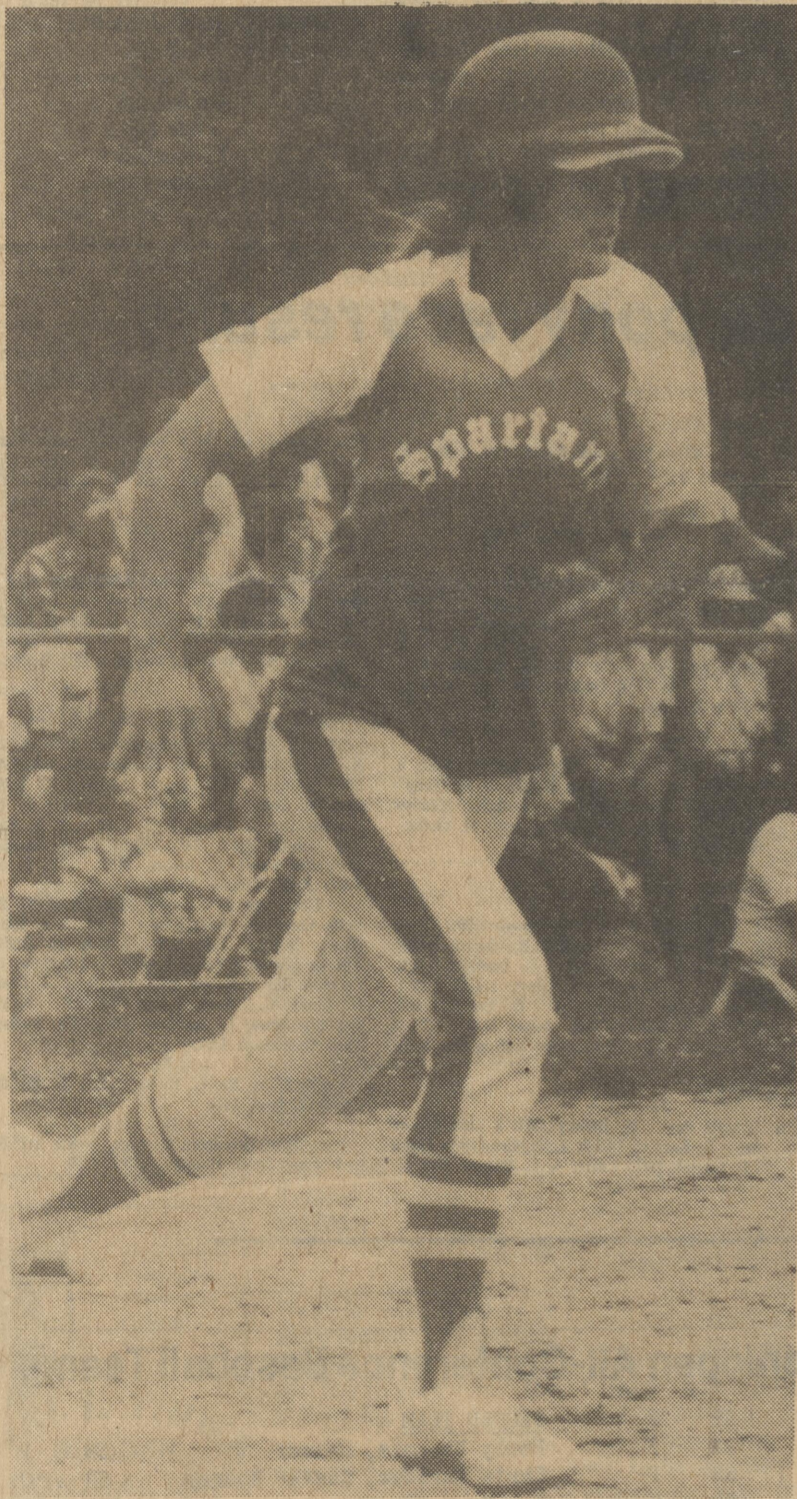

In the fourth, both teams failed to mount a charge and it was three up three down as the game went to the fifth inning.

Lake Forest continued their scoreless, hitless ways in the top of the fifth, but Central came alive when their turn came. The first Central batter appeared to have a sure base hit on a dribbler that got past Newnom. But Morrow charged from short and made a spectacular play on the ball to get the runner easily for the first out. A walk followed, then a fly to center put runners at first and third as a hush came over the Spartan cheering section. None other than Sara Marvel came to the plate and the count ran to 3-2. Newnom got her to pop the full count pitch for the second out as everyone breathed a little easier. Then the next Central batter lofted a sure hit to right center and it looked like at least one run would score. But Kosiorowski made a long run and brought it down for the third out. The Spartans just kept squeaking through!

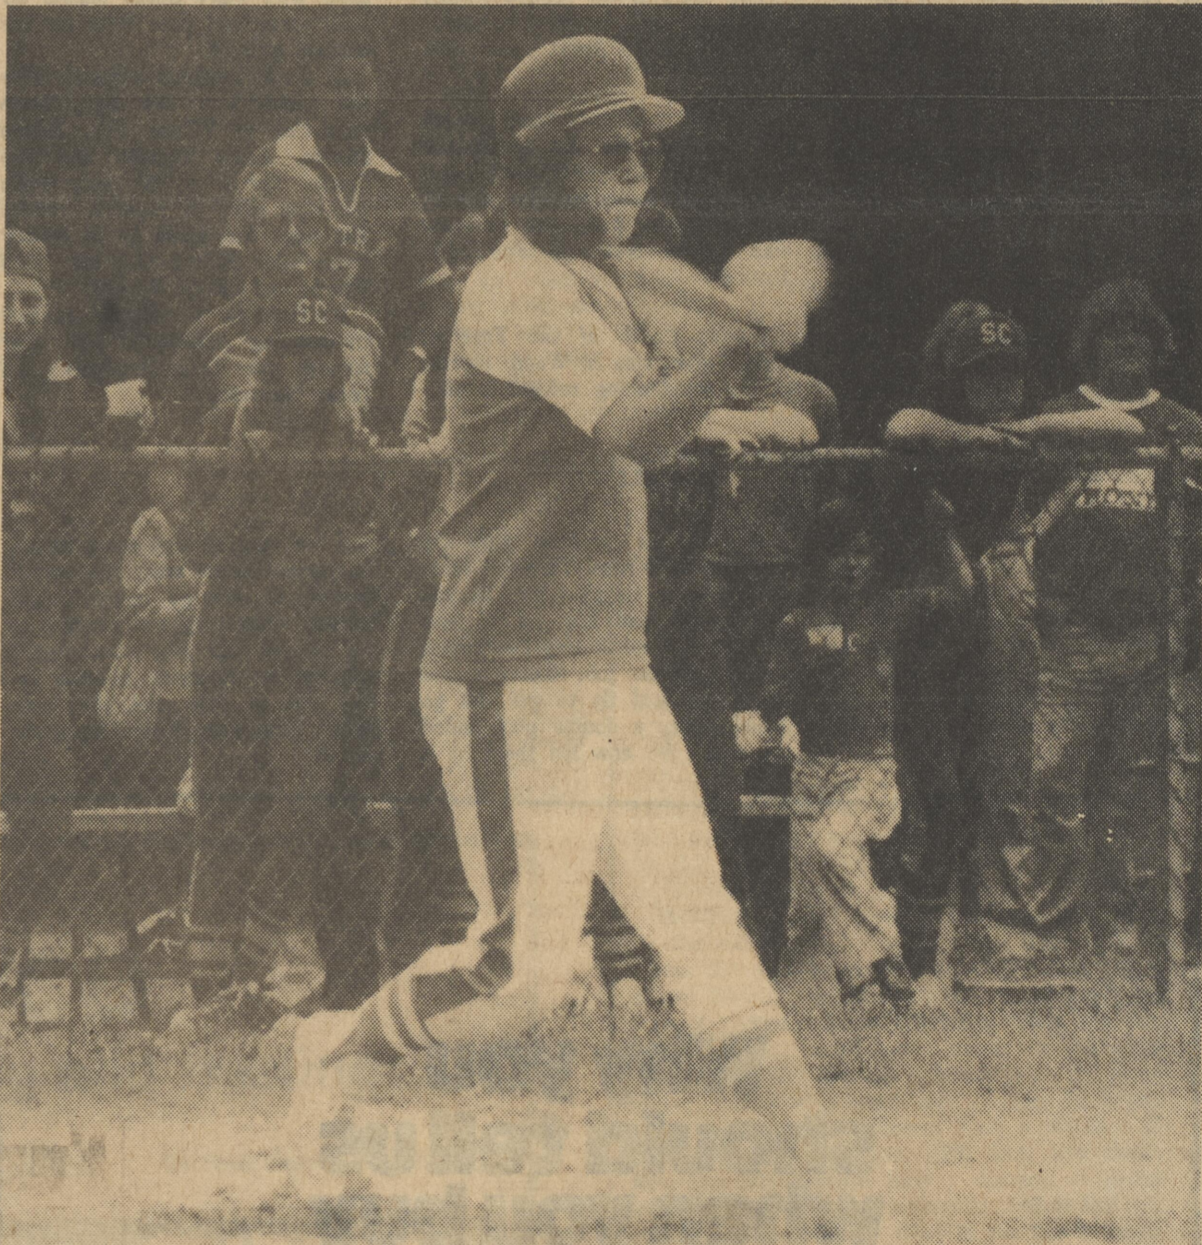

The top of the sixth saw the Lake Forest team go three up three down and Central get on the scoreboard. It appeared as Central would also go down in order after Elected Coach of the Year in the Henlopen Conference, Al Wood finally showed some emotion as he held the State Championship Trophy high for all the world to see.

Sissy Kosiorowski making tracks to first after a solid base hit to the outfield. Sissy played an outstanding game, grabbing everything that came her way in right.

Sophomore Sherry Calhoun leans into a high one for a timely base hit. Sherry was named Honorable Mention in the All-Conference voting at third.

Coach Al Wood didn't make too many points with the ump when he rightly questioned the ball-strike count. It didn't matter, Laura Newnom struck the batter out.

The Lake Forest cheering section was in rare form on Saturday as they cheered loud enough to be heard in Felton. Fans come and fans go, but no fans have quite the lung power as the fired up Spartan Rooters. Just ask Sussex Central.

Editor's View by Bruce Levy

Whew!!! It was a lot of fun, but I'm sure glad its over! I worried myself to death over that speech to the awards presentation audience and I'm very happy to be looking back on it. You really can't imagine how nervous I was before I began talking. I got no sleep for two nights and hardly ate a bite just thinking about what I had committed myself to do.

I think there is a lesson to be learned from this experience. It's an old one, but none the less true: you just never know what you are capable of until you try it. It holds true for all aspects of life and it did me much good to learn it again.

Please indulge me a little bit here, I'm about to get sloppy. As I looked out over the audience on Thursday night, it gave me a very warm glow to recognize all the kind people that I have come into contact with over the six months I have been associated with the paper. I could see clearly that the audience was hoping I did well and that meant the world to me. Thank you everyone, you are a pleasure to work for. My job is that much easier when my audience is supportive. Again, thank you very much.

Still on the same subject, it's only fitting to mention the efforts of the good people who make up the Athletic Boosters. Kay Buck and company are boosters in every sense of the word and I hope that the people of the district understand just how important this group is to the total athletic program. They collect money and give greatly of their time to insure that our athletes have what they need. They stage awards nights, dances, special shows, sell sodas and generally slave to help our kids have the best. The school budget leaves a lot uncovered, the Boosters do the rest. They have been kind and helpful to my efforts, not to mention the moral support and pat on the back that keeps me going when things get tough. Thanks to all the Boosters, you are something else.

Some more sentiment while I'm at it. I poked some fun at the coaches on Thursday and never mentioned what was in my heart. Let's do it now while I'm hot. Most of my meager articles are the results of long hours on the phone with the various coaches after the games. More often than not I'm very late and call them at weird hours, which I know puts them in a tight spot sometimes. My job would be impossible without their help and I hope they all know how much I appreciate their helpfulness. Have you ever tried calling Falasco when The White Shadow is on?

Congratulations to coach of the year Al Wood, and to the entire 1979 Lake Forest softball team. A team like ours comes along very infrequently - you were a pleasure to watch!

Sports awards, Newnom wins 5

The High School staged their annual sports awards night on Thursday, playing to a full gym of parents and students. According to Athletic Director Dave Adams, "the night was a complete success."

After Bruce Levy struggled through his "guest speaker" speech, the coaches got down to the business of warding the letters, naming the outstanding players, and giving highlights of their particular seasons.

Named the Most Valuable Player on the football team was Milton Justice.

Laura Newnom won the MVP for field hockey with Alan Walth named MVP for soccer, Bill Mitchell for cross country, Jack Spencer for Boys Basketball, Laura Newnom for Girls basketball, Larry McCombs for wrestling.

Mark Smith took home the MVP award for his efforts on the boys baseball squad. Laura Newnom swept the honors in softball, Heather Billings for her play on the girls tennis team and Milton Justice along with Ken Thorp for boys track, Phyllis Caskey was named MVP in girls track.

Most outstanding Cheerleader awards were also given. Winning MVP for the football cheerleaders was Dorcia Parker. In soccer, it was Pam Smith. Dorcia Parker won the award again for her cheerleading on the basketball squad and Pam Smith was named again for the wrestling squad.

The Karla Langford Memorial award for Most Outstanding Cheerleader of the year was given to Pam Smith.

The Harrington Moose Lodge #534 for most improved player went to Gwen Scott and Alan Walth.

The Mike Adams award, given to that senior who the coaches felt tried hardest, never quit, and contributed most to the overall efforts of the particular program was Laura Newnom and Milt Justice.

Named Coach of the Year at Lake Forest was Al Wood, mentor of the outstanding softball team winner of just about everything this year.

The girls softball team swept many conference titles also. Named by unanimous choice to the all conference team was Laura Newnom. Gwen Scott and Chris Morrow were also chosen for the All Conference Team.

Named to the second team were Sissy Kosiorowski and Stephanie Dopirik. Getting honorable mention at third base (which she didn't play all season) was Sherry Calhoun.

The boys baseball team didn't go unnoticed in the All Conference picks with Mark Smith named for utility play and Eric Wise for the outfield position.

In track, regional winners were the entire 4 x 800 relay team consisting of Wilson Fry, Milton Justice, Louis Thomas and Joe Custis. The 4 x 100 relay team was also cited in regional voting. The team was made up of Jeffrey Desheids, Milton Justice, Ken Thorpe and Darryl Voshell.

Winning the Harrington Journal Outstanding Athlete of the Year Awards were Louis Hendricks and Laura Newnom.

the first two batters were retired with no problem. But a bunt single and a stolen base put a runner in position to score on a hit to the outfield. A passed ball allowed the next run to score before a grounder to Morrow ended the fireworks. The game was now tied 2-2.

Top of the seventh and the Spartans need runs. They got them when Sherry Calhoun hit, Tammy Warren hit, and Lori hit to load the bases. Dopirik was the batter and she did the job. Sherry scored on the outfield fly to get the go ahead before a double play ended the rally. We now led them by a slim one run. Central came to bat determined to get some runs and it looked as though they might succeed when they put runners at the corners with two outs. But a dribbler to Newnom allowed an easy out at first and the Lake Forest girls were State Champions at last.

Cards take over first place in Felton

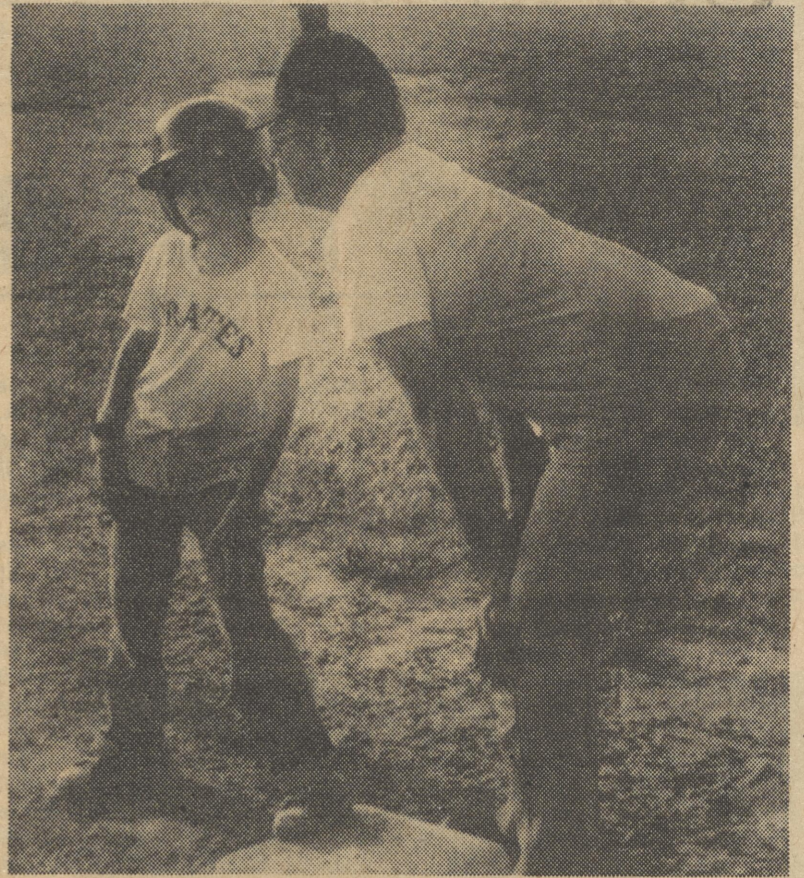

The Cards beat the Phils 14-9 on Thursday evening at the Felton Little League. The winners scored 9 runs by the second inning and coasted on to victory behind Charlie Carlson. Kevin Carter had a triple for the Cards and Jeff Davis played an outstanding game at third base. Bobby Reed pitched for the Phils.

On Friday, the Pirates downed the Yanks by a 5-3 margin behind the pitching of winner Dave Mannering. The Pirates snapped a 3 all tie with a single run in the top of the 4th inning on a single by Jay Knolls. Also driving in runs for the victors was Terry Freer with 2. Jeff Ford was the losing hurler.

Saturday action at Felton witnessed another Phils loss this time at the hands of the Orioles, 11-8. The Orioles scored at least one on each of the last four innings as they broke open the contest to an 11-3 score. The Phils battled back and scored 5 in the fifth but the rally fell short. Billy England went all the way for the win. Heather Hughes had a double for the Orioles and Jimmy Richardson and Billy Dernberger did likewise for the Phils. Richardson was named the losing pitcher.

There was baseball on Memorial Day as the Phils came back to beat the Yanks 10-7. Jeremy Moffett hit a bases loaded single just out of reach of the second baseperson to drive in three runs in the bottom of the 5th. That broke a 7 all tie as the Phils went on to win. On the mound all the way for the winners was Billy Dernberger.

The Dodgers were in action against the Pirates on Tuesday and wound up the winners by a 4-1 score. Eric Payne pitched the Dodgers to the win over the Pirates in a well played overall contest.

A serious conference at first

On Wednesday, May 30th, the Orioles outslugged the Yankees 12-11. The game started with a 4 run lead for the Yanks as Darrell Harris put one over the center field fence. Harris pitched hitless ball for the first three innings but walked in six runs in the second inning. Joe Bentz was the losing pitcher as he relived Harris after three. Jason Bell went the distance for the winners. Yank pitchers walked 25 batters while striking out 13.

On Saturday, June 2nd, the Cards narrowly got by the Dodgers by a one run margin, 1-0. The only run scored when Mike Kersey was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded in the first inning. Karen Sipple was the loser, Jeff Lambert the winner. Lambert pitched out of a bases loaded, no out situation in the sixth as the Cards took over sole possession of first place.

Standings as of June 3rd:
Cards 7-1
Dodgers 7-2
Orioles 4-4
Phils 2-5
Pirates 2-5
Yanks 1-6

Why you should tell us when you buy a new air conditioner

We want to make sure that the transformer serving your home is large enough to handle the extra load. If it isn't, we'll replace it with a larger one. There is no charge for this service.

Just call your local Delmarva Power District Office. Tell them the BTU rating of the new unit, the address, and we'll do the rest.

We think it is better to act before a problem occurs rather than after.

Safe Boating Week

The objective of National Safe Boating Week is to emphasize efforts urging boaters to help keep the waters of America safe; to teach the fundamentals of safe boating to newcomers and to remind experienced operators (as well as novices) to "Think Safety" when on the water. This week also pays tribute to the many persons and organizations who have contributed toward maintaining boating's fine record.

On Thursday afternoon, May 24, 1979, the Honorable Arthur B. Cahall, III, Mayor of Harrington, in the presence of Mrs. Charlotte Hunt, Flotilla Commander, 12-8, U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, and Billy Coulwell, Division XII, Special Projects Officer-National Safe Boating Week, signed the following proclamation:

Each year more and more Americans go boating in their leisure hours. If we are to prevent the needless loss of life and property, this increasing traffic on our waterways must be accompanied by a greater awareness of Safe Boating Practices.

The principal agent of boating accidents is a careless operator. The most common errors are overloading or improper loading of small boats, mistakes easily avoided by the boatowner who understands his boat, its machinery and its operation.

An aggressive and comprehensive program of safety education, is offered by the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 12-8 and supported where necessary, by law enforcement, can reduce the rate of boating accidents and make boating what it should be: a purely pleasant recreation.

Recognizing the need for emphasis on boating safety, the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 12-8 has requested the City of Harrington, Del. to proclaim a "SAFE BOATING WEEK".

Now, therefore, I, Arthur B. Cahall, III, Mayor of the City of Harrington do hereby designate the week beginning June 1, 1979 to June 7, 1979 as Safe Boating Week.

The South American country of Brazil derives its name from the reddish tree the Spanish and Portuguese call brasil, and which we call Brazilwood.
