Frederica candidates speak out on pre-election issues

When Frederica voters go to the poll Monday evening, they will have a slate of five candidates from which to select two to fill seats on the Town Council. The election will be from 5 to 8 p.m. at the fire house.

Concerns of those who have chosen to run for Council range from upgrading the town's water and streets through the problem of police protection and too much coverage in the press of recent problems. Over the past few days the Journal talked to the following candidates about their reasons for running and their hopes for Frederica.

-Larry W. Mannering-

Larry Mannering would like to see the town's curbs and sidewalks put in good shape. The town, he says, has a lot of elderly people who must negotiate broken curbs or walk in the street where there is no other choice.

The condition of the water system, especially since the 1978 fire, which burned through the roof of the Lake Forest East Elementary School, also worried him. There may be a pressure problem, and he would like to see some federal funds obtained to correct it. Such dark corners of the town as the road running past the water tower also bother Mannering who would like to see some additional street lights put up.

The question of police protection for Frederica he feels could best be served by a local police officer, if a qualified one could be found. A retired state police officer living nearby, he thinks might be an ideal choice. However, he is willing to try coverage by the state police.

Mannering, who says several people have asked him to run and who regrets not having filed in time for the original election set for March, became interested in local government through a college course in American government.

Residents of Frederica for the past three years, Mannering and his wife bought and fixed up an older home at 230 Market Street. He is a graduate of Middletown High School, spent 12 years in the Navy, two with the Delaware State Police and a short period with the U.S. Postal Service. He is presently between jobs. The couple has four children.

Christmas Parade will be December 1st

The 17th annual Christmas Parade in Harrington is set to go on Saturday, December 1st. As in the past, the parade is hosted by the Harrington Jaycees.

According to Jaycee member Ray Blanchette, this year's extravaganza is built around the theme of "Christmas is for Children of All Ages".

The actual parade will begin on Delaware Avenue at exactly 1:30 p.m. It will move down Center Street to Dorman and end up on Clark Street.

Although the parade will not start until the afternoon, there will be festivities before that beginning at 11 a.m. A van show is scheduled at 11 in the parking lot of the Peoples Bank and, at the same time, an antique car show will be on display at the First National Bank.

This year $450 worth of trophies will be awarded by the Jaycees for general prizes and an additional $300 is earmarked for band awards. Last year's winners were the Bi-State Twirlers and this season's competition promises to be even tighter.

To enter the parade, entry blanks must be filled out and returned to Blanchette by November 20th. He can be reached by calling 398-3225.

The rain date in case of inclement weather is December 8th.

Merchants unite for city-wide sale

For the first time in recent Harrington history, the town's merchants will band together for a special city-wide sale.

Officially billed as "Harrington Days Pre-Christmas Sale", the promotion is scheduled for December 6th, 7th and 8th and should involve every merchant in the city.

The celebration is the brain child of Harrington Journal Advertising Director Myra Braune. "We wanted to give Harrington a boost," she said, "and let people know what's available in town. We have so much to offer here and this seemed the perfect way to announce it."

On December 6th, 7th and 8th the participating merchants will mark down many items for the special sale. Additionally, the Salvation Army will offer refreshments to weary shoppers and the Harrington Journal will set up a coffee bar on the sidewalk.

"The town business people are showing lots of enthusiasm for the sale," Mrs. Braune said. "If the people respond, it's something we can do every year."

Watch the December 5th issue of the Journal for detailed information on participating stores.

Martin and Peck attend meeting

Fred Martin of Harrington, elected delegate represented local Southern States Cooperative's 56th members at the association's 56th Annual Stockholders' meeting held in Richmond, VA, November 13 and 14.

Also attending the session was Tom Peck manager representing Peck Brothers Farm Supply Company local Southern States retail outlet.

Felton child abuse victim in critical condition

A severe child abuse case is currently under investigation by Delaware State Police at Camden while the 4-year-old boy is in critical condition with a suspected fractured skull and brain damage, and numerous other injuries.

Earl H. Hawkins, 31, of 39 Dailey Drive, Woodbury, Felton, took his son, Earl Hawkins, Jr., age 4, to Kent General Hospital at 2:35 Thursday. Doctors in the emergency ward immediately suspected child abuse and contacted Delaware State Police. Meanwhile, the child was transported by Felton ambulance to Delaware Division in Wilmington, arriving there at 5:03. The boy was admitted to the pediatrics intensive care unit in critical condition with injuries in various stages of healing, including suspected brain damage and fractured skull, hematoma of the forehead, multiple bruises of the head, arms, legs, and body, an injury of unknown origin behind the left ear, and suspected multiple rib fractures. Further information should be available this afternoon on the severity of the injuries once X-rays are completed.

Earl Hawkins was charged by state police with first-degree assault and arraigned at Court 7. He was committed to Delaware Correctional in Smyrna in default of $50,000 bond pending preliminary hearing.

Delaware Division reports that the child is still in very critical condition. X-Rays indicate no skull fracture, but there is severe brain damage, and a total of 12 fractured ribs on both sides.

Washburn indicted

For ex-Police Chief Larry Washburn, bad news comes in two's. Two weeks ago, Washburn was relieved of his Frederica Constables job because he failed to complete the required state police training course that is mandatory for all Delaware police officers. Last Thursday, Washburn was arrested and charged with a misdemeanor that could possibly lead to a jail sentence.

Washburn was arraigned at Magistrate Court in Dover on Thursday and charged with "intentionally and recklessly killing a dog belonging to another person without legal privilege or consent of the owner." The charge stemmed from an incident that occurred last May 31st.

For the 3rd time, Council says "no"

The Harrington City Council last week refused for the third time to hold a public hearing on Dudley Willis' second attempt to get some of his property adjacent to Peck Avenue changed from an industrial to a residential zoning. Willis wants to sell the property to a developer planning to build an apartment complex there.

City Council also turned down, by a unanimous vote, Willis' offer to the city of a 200-foot strip of land along Peck Avenue. Members felt Willis' motive in offering the land was simply an attempt to circumvent zoning regulations which require a three fourths vote of Council (five out of the six members) in order to make any zoning changes that are opposed by 20% of the property owners within 200 feet of the land under consideration. The proposed gift to the city would have moved the parcel Willis seeks rezoned just 200 feet away from a group of property owners who petitioned against his original proposal.

Dr. Vincent Lobo, one of the Council members who has consistently voted against rezoning and against holding a second public hearing, said he was ready to examine similar apartment complexes built in other towns by the same contractor. However, referring to Willis' second proposal and the suggested gift of the land, he said "I don't like subterfuge". Lobo further claimed "The public

Century Club Holds Tea

by Janice Winkler

The Harrington New Century Club held their "Reciprocity Tea" on November 13, 1979 to celebrate their seventieth anniversary. There were ten past presidents in attendance and one State past president Mrs. John Hill of the near ninety guests and members of the club.

The organization was formed by Mrs. John Sheldrake, known to the community then as "Miss Molly," in 1909. Mrs. George Marshall, the president of Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs, was invited to advise and guide the organization. There were eight other ladies of Harrington present in the Sheldrake home on Wednesday, April 8, 1909. The group then decided to start a women's club in Harrington. Mrs. Charles Brinser was elected as president at this time. On April 15, 1909 the name of the club was voted upon which was Harrington New Century Club. The motto of the club: "Not For Ourselves Alone".

Donald Aliff, Washburn shot and killed a dog belonging to former Frederica residents Jeffrey and Lou Ann Horan. According to the charge, the dog was in his own yard and had not harmed anyone. The incident had been under Justice Department investigation for the last four months.

Washburn is currently free on his own recognizance and waiting for trial in the Court of Common Pleas.

Motel robbed

An armed robbery in Greenwood left the Holiday Motel $650 poorer Monday night, according to the state police.

The owner of the hotel, Dinesit Patec, was approached by two men wearing stockings over their faces at approximately 3:30 a.m. They demanded money, emptied the cash drawer and forced Patec to lie on the floor.

The robbers escaped with the money and no arrests have been made.

Two hit on Route 13

A late night walk ended in tragedy early Monday morning in front of the Moose Lodge on Route 13.

According to police reports, Kenneth A. Baker of Center Street in Harrington was charged with criminally negligent homicide when he allegedly drove his pickup truck off the highway and hit two men. One of the victims died, the other is in serious condition at the Delaware Division.

Struck and killed was 18 year old Richard W. Tribbet of Sussex Street. His brother, Robert Tribbet, is in the Wilmington Hospital.

The Tribbet brothers were walking south on Route 13 minutes after midnight when Baker swerved off the road and ran them down, police sources said.

Baker is currently free on $10,000 bond and awaiting trial.

This pile of rubbish was all that was left before a bulldozer erased Bob and Dottie Carroll's dreams of a gift shop and teen center in Felton. A recent fire was the beginning of the end.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Bier and daughter on the loss of Bobby's mother last week.

Mr. Anthony Gallo is improving and hoping to be home from Milford Memorial Hospital this week after the accident with his tractor which left him with a broken leg and fractured ribs.

Mr. Carl Wright is a patient in Peninsula General Hospital, Salisbury, where he underwent major surgery last week.

Mrs. Harold Calvert has returned to her home after being a surgical patient in Milford Memorial Hospital last week.

Recently Rev. and Mrs. Joseph V. Holliday, Jr. of St. Michaels, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stayton and Dana Hicks were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Lane on Sunday evening.

Celebrating an anniversary are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Booth, and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Butler.

Celebrating birthdays are Michael Calvert, Louise Jester and Randy Larimore.

Mrs. Norma Lee Jester has returned to her home after being a patient in Milford Memorial Hospital last week.

This week we had another reply to the Boiled Apple Dumping question. A dear reader called and told us how her mother-in-law did hers. So this is from the kitchen of Mrs. J.E. West of Georgetown. She is 79 years young and still makes Boiled Apple Dumplings.

Here is the recipe. This is quite different from the first one we received, so you might want to try both. Two cups flour, 1/2 teasp. baking powder, 1/2 teasp. salt. About a scant half cup of shortening. There should be enough shortening to make the flour mix crumbly when it is cut in. Then add enough water to mix and handle well.

Mrs. West says she chops her apples fine, rather than quartering them, then mix with the sugar and spices and wrap the dough around.

Now, here is the bottom line!! And this is the most delightful bit of Sussex folk lore that I have come across in a long time. Mrs. West says that, as you drop each dumpling into the boiling water, you must name it for the person you intend to serve it to. She guarantees that this really helps and makes it work a lot better.

Did you ever take some time off to think of beautiful things? It is so rewarding. Most of this kind of time I allow myself when I have a sleepless night. If I am not sick or especially bothered with problems I conclude that this is a time the Lord has given to me just for joy.

Last night, for no reason at all, I suddenly thought of the hillsides of Virginia. At one time we lived within fifty miles of Roanoke, and, in the springtime, a ride through the hills near that city was a glorious experience. It is then that the mountain sides are covered with the pink and coral of the Redbud in bloom. It is a moment to hold in your hand and remember always.

Then I thought of the apple blossoms of Delaware with their pink and white flowers and unforgettable fragrance.

From the apple orchards of Delaware my mind traveled to the middle of Kansas where we spent a week two years ago. I feasted again on the rich wide plains of the mid-west covered with huge golden sunflowers in full bloom. They are grown there commercially, but the sunflower is also the State Flower of Kansas which made it seem even nicer.

Back again to the Delaware fields of my childhood, and I thrilled to the fields red with scarlet clover. Beside them were the fields of golden wheat ready for harvest. I saw the breezes push the wheat into huge waves, and was reminded again of the state song by Mr. George B. Hynson, "Where the wheat fields break and billow". This reminded me of something my sister said as a young girl. My sister was born with the soul of a poet. One day she came home from school and began describing a new girl in her class that she admired. She said, "Sis, I wish you could see her... she walks like tall grass being blown by the wind". Isn't that lovely?

I pictured, too, the untilled fields of my childhood and remembered that they were always covered with big field daisies, white petals and golden centers. To this day they remain my very favorite flower. We made daisy chains and garlands for around our necks. And we trimmed the petals into little bonnets and painted faces on the golden centers with pen and ink. And when we grew older and romance entered our lives, we pulled many a one apart, chanting, "He loves me, he loves me not!"

When you read this the Centers 1979 Christmas Bazaar will be a memory. If for no other reason than the sharing, working, pulling together the Bazaar is worth while looking thru all the goodies brought in everything from a cat house to a very delicate perfume. If you made us a visit, you had a treat, if not, just feel sorry for you missed something! Christmas trees with snow, plain green or white - some with birds and butterflies. Santas with empty packs ready to fill with candy canes or other goodies, beautiful angels holding gold candle holders cute kitten cookie jars - oak leaf top canisters, bells, birds, knit caps, hats, scarfs, everything you can imagine. Lunch was delicious. Thank everyone so very much for their kindness and volunteer work. Thank you for all donations and a special thank you for your patronage. Thanks Merle, so much.

The pool table was busy as always - happy as can be - with each man getting a new name every day - their names are posted in the pool room.

With all the activity going on there Cam found time to take the folks shopping. Charlotte helped with dinner delivery.

The Iran students holding American hostages is a topic talked over every day.

Bible Study was with Mrs. Clare Judy and Mrs. Sylvia Meredith. The music was so good, just had to leave my job and go listen.

Trinity Church wishes to thank everyone for their participation at the Fall Supper - God Bless you for its success.

The Breakfast Club are happy to announce that Bill Schmick won the Remington Model 1100 Automatic. "Many thanks Bill for your generous gift" to the M.M. It has been reported that Guy Johnston, Jr. bagged a 9 point Buck - Rick Johnston 6 point Buck. Zora Tatman, Perry Hopkins and Lloyd Cearly also got deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes of Houston spent Tuesday with Mrs. Hayes' mother Mrs. Bertha Shockley.

Mrs. Sara Gourley is on vacation this week - trying to keep up with the Thanksgiving Holiday and Christmas Shopping.

The Trinity Prayer group were happy to have Mrs. Mae Hires back with them again.

Monday evening 30 guests from Frederica, Bowers and Magnolia area attended the covered dish supper at the Frederica Adult Center. The food was delicious and plentiful. Mary Hitch led the group in song. Cards and games were enjoyed by the men. The ladies were busy getting acquainted and renewing old friendships.

A book will be compiled with all the recipes of the covered dishes brought for the first supper held at the New Center, plus many more of their favorite dishes. Next time a meal is planned like this, you all better come.

Margaret Wilcutts of Magnolia had everyone glued to the Hot Heads, Wednesday. Now if you get a Hot Head in your Christmas Stocking don't be surprised - keep in mind the Adult Center Christmas Bazaar, December 8th at 10:00 a.m.

Mrs. Alice Cearly served a delicious fresh fish dinner to 16 attending the Center Wednesday, November 14.

Band Practice was spectacular. Elsie Vineyard taped them in full swing. The Jolly Timers had just that, a jolly good time at the Century Club Tuesday afternoon. Every member had a nice time playing their kitchen instruments for the club members. They were treated to fancy sandwiches - luscious cookies, punch or coffee.

Gene Hobbs helped with final gold and other details for readiness in preparing for the Bazaar and the renovation.

Members meeting was held November 12th at 1:30 p.m. Pledge of allegiance, prayer by Mr. Brown, meeting called to order and minutes read, financial report given - all approved. Motion made and seconded to send $25.00 to the Fire Co. Voted to pay for Hot Pot. Kitchen rules reviewed, candy for Christmas - Mrs. Anthony to buy - went with lollypops, candy and fruit as usual. There will not be a catered dinner this year. We are having Manna Christmas Dinner December 21. Mrs. Ruth Layton gave us shades for the dining room. Mr. Brown will put them up.

Mabel Jean Donovan will be here November 28 to make pinsettias from velvet. They are beauties (white and red).

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving, Love You. Be kind to each other. Best Wishes to all home-bounds. Hope those who are ill will soon be better. There will be no letter next week. Renovation preparations, member sale, cards, singing, band, birthday party, Thanksgiving. See you. You still have a chance at the adorable Santa in chairs - December 20.

Of all the rotten luck - Peggy Mulane just recovering from surgery - fell down her stairs - Tuesday early a.m. and is now nursing a very badly sprained right arm. God Bless you dear. Hope you're back to your classes soon at Georgetown Tech. Guess what Peggy is studying? "NURSING." Our prayers and best wishes to all that are ill wherever they may be.

Delaware Department of Natural Resources officials say they are happy with recent improvements at the County's Frederica Sewage Plant and say the plant has already met State Wastewater Treatment standards - but that says very little it's the mere MINIMUM. So at the present time we must accept the situation - WHILE we were having all the rain last week and the temperature variations of the month since the plants improvements we are still getting plenty of foul odors from it. The atmospheric conditions remain. With more sewers being added the STINK will be a constant threat too and the plants disposal method will need constant monitoring and attention. With it all our area citizens realized again last night at the meeting in Milford and others held in Dover that in this area our residents are getting a very definite shuffle. We were heard and will be heard again.

November 16 was a most beautiful day. The Harrington Senior Center had a most satisfying, enjoyable Bazaar Day. There seems there should be something more to say to EVERYONE other than "Thank You" when inside you are so happy and full of Thanksgiving for such kind responses from everyone for everything. Hopefully they got part of what I got out of the Bazaar. All over the place was smiles and greeting of friends, many you don't see only on Bazaar Day. Wish all of you could have been here helping partake of the tasty turkey sandwiches, yummy bean soup and apple pie. Two young

I've always found people lovely and interesting.

You should have seen the gorgeous wool wreaths, pot holders, owls, hats, scarfs, stockings, cute little Santas and wreaths to wear on blouse or coat. In white elephants we had everything from cat, houses to venetian glass. We had two huge angel leaf begonias and lots of other plants. You know a Bazaar is not a Bazaar without a Bake Table. Well this was no exception. The spread had lots of luscious fudge, cakes of all kinds, coconut being my favorite, sure was happy when it was grabbed up. I had almost succumbed to buying it and am not supposed to eat too much sweets, but it was there about twenty minutes and that is about the limit of my will power. Nice woodwork was for sale. What few pieces of ceramics we have left we are going to give as gifts of Bingo. Mr. Santa in chair cookie jar chances are going well.

Felton Bank donated pens and calendars for our Thanksgiving dinner on Wednesday, November 21. We thank them very much. It was a kind and thoughtful thing to do.

We all at Harrington Senior Center Thank EVERYONE FOR EVERYTHING for the successful Bazaar.

Best Wishes to all homebounds. Hope those that are ill will soon be well and able to come in. See you at the Center. Be kind to each other.

men sat opposite Bertha, Ella and two and they said "How often do you have this affair?", we said, "Once a year", they said, that's a shame, we could stand one of them every day or every week anyway, the food is so good and the folks are so friendly. Of course every word they said was true but it was nice to hear some others say so. The ceramics were lovely and we sold out. I wanted to stand up and sing (now don't start laughing) a song that Elvis Presley used to sing - Don't know the whole thing but it went something like this - a wonderful, wonderful, wonderful world we live in and it's everyones oyster so step right up and get your pearl.

In My Opinion

By Bruce Levy

I get ideas for this column from many places. Daily newspapers, TV, magazines, my own experiences and friends to name just a few. One of my most reliable sources is just down the street from the Journal office, Burton's Sport Shop. If any of you don't know Harrington, then you don't know Burton's.

Burton's is an old fashioned, Happy Days like, luncheonette. The star player there, besides Tom Parsons, is the proprietor, Mrs. Smith. The Burton's crowd is what you'd call Middle America in all its glory and Mrs. Burton Smith is queen.

So when I'm searching for a good topic, I wander down the street and talk to Mrs. Smith. This week she had Richard Nixon on her mind.

She was hot about news items she's read regarding Nixon's request for hundreds of thousands of dollars to set up an office in New York. She couldn't understand why the man could be eligible for so much money and didn't think he should get it.

Unfortunately, I have to disagree. Sorry Mrs. Smith, but this time we're on opposite sides. Nixon is simply claiming his due under the laws of the United States, and laws cannot be changed in the middle of a case. Nixon may or may not be a creep but he is an ex-president and these people are entitled by law to a set amount of money after they leave office.

But, I do think the funds are excessive, ridiculous even. I'm in complete favor of cutting the public employee retirement benefits drastically.

Thoughts From Dover

By Gov. Pierre S. Dupont

Residents of Delaware on low or fixed incomes will soon be able to receive assistance in paying their home heating bills this winter when the Federal government makes some $5.1 million in funds available to Delaware.

Just last week the Congress voted to provide an additional $1.6 billion in assistance for low and fixed income families. The Federal programs should provide Delaware with enough funding to meet the needs of people whose incomes are at 125% of the federally set poverty line. This should aid our most needy residents.

Last year Delaware received about $840,000 from the Federal government and was able to help about 3,000 persons. This year, we expect some 10,000 people to be in need of heating price assistance.

Delawareans in need of assistance should contact the State Office of Economic Opportunity for information on the home heating program. Eligibility requirements are dependent upon family income and size.

The recent decision by the President to refuse Iranian oil during the crisis is a correct one and deserves the support of each of us, but that reduction of oil imports could mean higher prices and shortages; consequently, many people in Delaware are concerned about the availability of heating oil this winter.

We have carefully monitored supply availability through the U.S. Department of Energy, industry officials, local heating oil distributors, and others. It is the consensus that sufficient quantities of heating oil are expected to be available.

Price is a far more complex issue and one which will have the most significant impact on Delaware's consumers. Delaware is participating in various energy crisis intervention programs to assist those at varying income levels. These programs are being administered through various agencies, including the Office of Economic Opportunity, Health and Social Services, and the Division of Aging.

The above remain the same to this present day.

On March of 1914 the club became a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, nationwide.

In 1912 the club members purchased the Presbyterian Church which was no longer used for divine worship. It was at the same location of Dorman Street. At this time the club president was Mrs. Garrett Harrington. May of 1921 the club was then incorporated.

On December 19, 1924 the church building was destroyed by fire. On October of 1925 the corner stone for the present clubhouse was laid. In April of 1926 the clubhouse was completed and is still being used today. Mrs. Loren B. Harrington was the club president at that time. October 21, 1941 the mortgage was paid off and Mrs. Samuel M. Williams was the president.

The club in 1945 sent letters to the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

asking for gates to be installed at all railroad crossings. This idea received much favorable recognition.

Currently, the club has contributed many efforts to the community and state in behalf of improvements in safety, beautification, spiritual, conservation and education.

The club and the Avon Club of Felton created an interest in the intersection of Rt. 13 and Rt. 384, which involves the Lake Forest High School, as a result the state Highway Department has installed a flashing signal light there.

To commemorate the club's seventieth anniversary a cookbook was published which is on sale at this time.

GETTING OUT ANY PAPER IS NO PICNIC!

If we print jokes, people say we're silly; if we don't, we're too serious.
If we stick close to the desk all day, we ought to be out getting the news.
If we go out and try to get news, we ought to be on the job at the desk.
If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate genius. If we print them, our paper is filled with junk.
If we make a change in the other fellow's write-up, we're too critical; if we don't we're asleep.
If we clip things from other papers, we're too lazy to write them ourselves. If we don't, we're too stuck on our own stuff.
Like as not now, some other guy will say that we swiped this from some other paper.
Well.....we did!

This definitely was swiped, and to give credit where credit is due, it appeared in the most recent issue of "The Asbury Visitor" put out by Asbury United Methodist Church in Harrington."

Inflation is not a problem for everyone. In fact, some people even find it beneficial, and that includes many small business as well as large ones. Many times even the consumer likes to pay more for a product or service than he has to because it usually means more to him if he has money involved. If this sounds like foolishness, consider this.

The Delaware State Police and many other police departments try to get homeowners to protect their belongings by engraving them with a number which is computerized for immediate recall. When a piece of property is confiscated or found by the police and it bears such a number, they can immediately identify the owner and return his property.

Thus this program is called OPERATION IDENTIFICATION, and the service is provided absolutely free. When someone obtains a number, the state police also provide stickers for doors or windows to show a would-be burglar that all of the property in the home or business is readily identifiable and could immediately tie him with the crime, and even supply the property owner with an electric engraving pen for his use if he doesn't wish to buy such a device just to mark his belongings. All of this is also provided absolutely free. Yet, the police go around begging people to take advantage of this free program and help keep what is rightfully theirs.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Farrow:

On behalf of the students of Chipman Jr. School and the staff I want to thank you for the two beautiful leather bound volumes you donated to our library in memory of your wife.

These books are among the most beautiful I have ever seen. It is unusual for school libraries to have leather bound books but I think volumes such as these help our students enjoy and appreciate real quality. I know both students and staff will enjoy using The Automobile and Americas' Beloved Illustrators because of the beauty of these books and the very appropriate and interesting topics.

We appreciate very much this lovely gift.

Sincerely,

Marjorie C. Davis
Principal

Dear Sir:

DECISION FOR CHRIST:

We welcome all our visitors and sincerely pray God's blessing on each of them, however, you must be receptive to His leading for Him to bless. He'll not encourage rebellion in any form. So, if you have a desire, no matter how small, to become a part of the Harrington Baptist Church, follow that leading. Don't try to think of the numerous excuses for not doing as the Lord leads, take that leap of faith and do as your heart tells you. God speaks in such a way to His people. If you are truly born again but have never been Baptised, don't let anything prevent you from obeying His command. If you are a Baptised believer and feel led to let us send for your Church Letter, we'll be glad to do it - we love you. Perhaps you want to be a Christian and don't know how, just surrender your life to Him as Lord and make your stand publicly this morning.

Special Collection for Cambodia

Persons throughout the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington are responding with overwhelming generosity to a special appeal for Cambodia. Nearly $78,000 was contributed in a six-day period beginning on November 11. It is expected that this figure will reach $80,000 during the week of November 18. More than $5,000 was sent directly to the diocese through the mail. Many of these contributions are being received from persons of all faiths throughout Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Funds are being sent immediately to Catholic Relief Services, the overseas aid agency of the U.S. Catholics. Local director, the Rev. Joseph R. McMahon said, "This splendid display of compassion and giving is in the tradition of the generosity of the people of the Diocese of Wilmington, who always come through in time of great need."

Contributions are still being accepted for Cambodia. They may be made to the local office of CRS at P.O. Box 2030, Wilmington, DE, 19899.

Council Hopefuls Discuss The Issues

would like to see Frederica take greater advantage of state and federal funds available through programs designed to help rural areas and small communities. This could mean continued improvement in the water system, as well as upgrading streets and lighting. Griffith says there are also programs available for youth and adult recreation and for housing assistance.

he contends, is to focus on the needs of the community by listening to its residents and to seek appropriate solutions and the right kinds of tools to implement those solutions. The strength of a town government, he feels, is the full participation of its citizens.

Of the current problem with police protection Griffith says, "Obviously, the town can't go without some kind of on-call officer." He presently leans toward part-time coverage by the state police as offering "the most experience with the least amount of administrative hassle". But, he points out, not all of the information is in.

Griffith says his eight years of experience in state government and with federal programs give him the kind of background that could be helpful to Frederica. Griffith grew up in the Dover area and went through the Dover school system. He is a 1970 graduate of the University of Delaware in anthropology and holds a Masters Degree from American University in anthropology and archaeology. Since 1971 he has worked for the state of Delaware, rising to his present position as Chief of the Bureau of Archeological and Historical Preservation. He and his wife Susan have lived in Frederica since 1972. They have two children.

-K. Ross Wellwood-
"Somewhere, someone should say that Frederica is a nice town," says Ross Wellwood who feels Frederica's problems may have gotten a little too much of the limelight in the press.

Admitting he may have been responsible for a part of that limelight, Wellwood says even if he doesn't win this election (and he doesn't think he will), he feels his "—battle has been won ahead of time." He refers to the overturning of the town charter requirement that Council members be property owners. That requirement was in conflict with the state constitution and was thrown out by the courts after Wellwood challenged it last March. His presence, as a non-property owner on the ballot, he feels, is a victory and one step forward in updating the towns charter to be in compliance with state regulations. Realistically, he points out, "people who make progress in certain areas are not always popular."

Wellwood, a Senior at Delaware State College in history and political science, has an avid interest in politics and particularly in local government. Last year he volunteered his time to help update Frederica's Town Charter by examining it for areas that might be unconstitutional or illegal as far as state law is concerned. He found the Council unreceptive to his proposals and decided to run himself. Wellwood says he is happy to see the town "take some steps to have the charter brought up to date." Whether or not he wins, he has other concerns for Frederica. The problem of police protection is one. Wondering why the town has had so much trouble with its police department (there have been 14 police officers in seven years), he thinks there ought to be an open meeting called to consider whether another local officer or state police coverage is the answer.

Wellwood grew up in Arkansas. But after being stationed at Dover Air Force Base, he married

We're working to meet your needs.

Milford Memorial Hospital has a new Obstetrical Plan. It is a major move to reduce obstetrical costs while maintaining highest medical standards.

If you qualify for this cost-saving plan, YOU WILL BE GUARANTEED A HOSPITAL COST OF $800.

Covered in the "O.B. Plan" are:

- Patient Services*
- Delivery Room Facilities

Should your actual costs be LESS than the guaranteed $800, you will pay LESS; but for a normal* delivery, you will not pay more.

In the event you require extra care, such as a Caesarean Section, the plan would not apply, but you will still enjoy the lowest room rate in the State of Delaware.

The Milford Memorial Hospital "O.B. Plan" has been instituted by the hospital as a way to provide excellent care at a predetermined price so that you will have the advantage of knowing your hospital obstetrical cost in advance.

has been served" in the first hearing held on August 14.

Having rejected the motion to hold a public hearing on the rezoning and voted to turn down the land offer, Council took no further action. That may leave the issue in limbo, or it may be dead. City Solicitor Harry Terry said the Council does not have to take any action if no motion is put on the floor.

-McIlroy Hired-
The Harrington City Council ended an extended probation period for Carl McIlroy by naming him Chief of Police. McIlroy had been acting in that capacity since his hiring last January. He had also acted as police chief for Felton, a position he had to relinquish when local Council members felt it conflicted with his duties here.

-New Parking Regulations Proposed-
Chief McIlroy proposed and the Harrington Council accepted as the first reading some changes in the city ordinance affecting parking. Basically the changes would make it possible for council to set no parking zones or regulate the length of the yellow line at curbs without going through the entire ordinance procedure.

Other matters covered include enforcing no parking in areas set aside for the handicapped or by wholesale or retail stores as loading zones. Proposed fines for parking violations range from a $5 minimum to $100 maximum.

The parking situation on the short section of Mechanic Street between Commerce and Fleming was discussed. Fire Company members have complained that cars parked on both sides of that street would block any major equipment from getting through in an emergency. Ray Gagne, proprietor of Stone's Hotel, was on hand to ask the Council to consider the effect any changes might have on his business. One suggestion had been to eliminate parking on the south side of that section of Mechanic Street.

EPA Bid Awarded
Two bids were received on Contract #1 of the EPA project for sewer rehabilitation. Low bidder, by far, was Tilcon Warren at $17,709. The only other bid was for $54,027 by Joseph P. Richardson Associates. The contract was awarded to Tilcon Warren for work including grouting and replacement or repair of manholes on Peck Avenue and Liberty Street.

In other business the Harrington Council heard there had been approved from the state for use of most of this years SALE monies for purchase of two two-way radios. The rest of the money is to be spent for a camera for use by the police department.

Spartans lose season finale to Milford

With time running out on the Milford Buccaneers Friday night, the only way out for Vernon Walsh's gridders was to start scoring. And scoring they did in the fourth quarter when the Bucs who had been shut out for three quarters scored 18 points in the final quarter to hound the Lake Forest Spartans their seventh defeat of the season. Lake Forest had registered victories against Woodbridge, Dover Air and Delmar.

The Spartans this year fielded some very good players. Tops on the list was senior quarterback Mark Smith, who most people rate as the best at that position in the state. Smith has drawn criticism because he has been throwing the floater pass. The game plan has it that the Spartans send two receivers out who are supposed to run under the ball for the catch. The Milford game was the last game of the season, and apparently Coach Walsh of Milford, knowing the potential of Smith, set his Bucs for the pass. This was fairly obvious because without the interceptions the Bucs were held to very few yards rushing and passing.

In the fourth quarter, the Milford defenders began cutting off the receivers to the ball, and sending one of their own under the flight of the ball for the eventual interception. Even though this happened in the fourth quarter and became the eventual reason for the Spartan loss, the Spartans nearly preserved and almost pulled it out with brilliant runs by another potential all conference back Bill Scott. It would appear that Scott should have been used more particularly in the fourth quarter. Scott scored both of Lake Forests TD's -- one an 80 yarder in the third quarter. It was Scott in the fourth quarter who brought the Spartans deep in Milford territory. He was hot and eating up first down coverage on the last two big series of the game only to see the ball coughed up to the Bucs in interceptions. The last interception was at the Milford 5 yard line when the Spartans were on a Billy Scott drive. The Bucs then ran out the clock for the victory. Scott had nearly 200 yards for the night by far the most outstanding player in the game. It might have been a different story had Scott been used more.

The first half play saw a Milford team making turnovers and generally executing very well. Scott scored in the first quarter on a one yard plunge, but in the second quarter, the Spartans fumbled on the one yard line. For the rest of the quarter, the Spartans could not get anything going, but neither could Milford as their offense seemed flat.

In the third quarter, the Spartans came charging out from the sound of the whistle dominating play. Scott fully rested during half time break took a handoff went off tackle, exploded into the Buc secondary breaking tackles and then outraced Earl Fields to the end zone. The Spartans were flying high at the end of the quarter. Fatigue caught up with them and the Bucs began wearing them down as indicated when the Bucs drove 68 yards for their first score.

The Spartans following the kick off had a Mark Smith pass intercepted at mid field by Harry Jarmon. He then marched his team into the Spartan end zone again. Both conversion tries failed and the Spartans clung to a 14-12 lead. The Spartans then took the kickoff and marched on long gains by mercury footed Billy Scott to the Milford 13 yard line. Jarmon then intercepted another Mark Smith pass at the Milford 5 yard line and ran out the clock.

They never knew a losing season

by Keith S. Burgess

Harrington and Lake Forest cross-country teams for the past twenty-two years have never known a losing season. Many multi-team meets have been won by the locals, seven state championships were captured by the hard-running harriers conference championships and undefeated dual-meet seasons occur again and again.

But it is getting harder to retain this excellence. Coach Jim Blades and his thin lads must work harder than ever to come out on top. Soccer is siphoning off many of the slender types that cross-country used to get. Some of the jaycee football players are just right for distance-running, too light in weight to have much chance to star in the popular sport but attracted by the glamor they ride the bench and fade into anonymity.

A dozen or so Spartans trained together (says Coach Blades) all summer in preparation for what was going to be a tough campaign. Lake Forest was expected to lose a couple of meets and a hoped for third place finish in the Henlopen Conference standings was a possibility. Buoyed by the voluntary summer running the Spartans upset a tough Cape Henlopen club on the Cape's Henlopen State Park sandpile, home course yet. It is harder to win there than at most other loop layouts.

Sussex Central was next. The Golden Knights had everyone back from a unit that had beaten Lake Forest in 1978 then finished ahead of the Spartans in the season opening. Multi-team Lake Forest Invitational.

The inspired Spartans were not to be denied however and took a close one at Killen's Pond. Another strong team, Dover, was waiting with another exceptionally tough away course. Lake Forest's leader Chuck Tozer ran into a tree but the Spartans edged out a 27-29 victory, their closest of the season.

Next Lake Forest journeyed to Smyrnas Blackbird State Forest course, a new one to the locals. Tozer set a course record and his teammates Jay Howerin, Bill Mitchell, Doug Caskey, Maurice Coverdale and freshman James Lofland ran to another close triumph over also unbeaten Smyrna.

Caesar Rodney, Woodbridge and Laurel all had quality people but Lake Forest was rolling now and eventually won the Henlopen crown with a 9-0 log. Coach Blades' dual-meet career mark is now a gaudy 64 wins against only nine losses. But this year was

Chipman battles C.R. to a tie

The mighty Chipman football team brought their season to a close last week with the long awaited battle against arch rival Caesar Rodney. After some marginal officiating and some key injuries, the final whistle blew on a 6-6 tie. The standoff left the Junior Spartans with a 3-1-1 year.

The game was off to an ominous start as only one game official showed up for duty. Coach Kevin Docherty delayed as long as he could in the hopes that the other official would show but, finally, the game was begun with only one. This would prove to be a major factor in the contest.

As usual, Chipman started the first quarter slowly. Making things worse, Chipman lost the services of Eric Dowling who left with a broken hand early in the game and also lost quarterback Stanton Spence to an injury. Spence would later come back, but in the first half Chipman had to make do without him.

The offense was moving the ball, but bogged down near the end zone. Two penalties didn't help matters and C.R. managed a touchdown to move ahead 6-0 by the end of the first quarter.

In the second, seventh grader William Scott was called for pass interference when that was clearly not the case and Chipman's momentum was crushed. "That call really hurt," coach Docherty said. "Scott made an outstanding play." The score remained 6-0 for C.R. at the half.

In the third period, Raymond DeShields scored Chipman's first touchdown on a brilliant 22 yard run to even the numbers. DeShields is the number one rusher for Chipman with 410 yards on 41 carries in 1979.

Things got exciting in the final quarter as the state's two best junior high teams battled for the first score. Chipman had the clear advantage when quarterback Ralph Taylor passed 60 yards to Robert May. May had the end zone in sight but ran out of gas at the 12 yard line where he was brought down.

Four times Chipman tried to get it over the line and four times they were turned back. Time ran out and the season ended for Chipman.

"We needed everything we had for this game," Docherty said, "but we lost key players and certainly got no help from the official. It was a good year though, I think we all enjoyed it."

Docherty is uncertain about the prospects of returning as Chipman's coach next season. He has expressed great interest in moving to the high school level.

5 Locals "Run For Fitness Awards"

When one thinks of Lake Forest athletics the first thing that comes to mind is cross-country. After twenty-two years of excellence, the end is not in sight. At the "Run For Fitness" age-group races no less than five W.T. Chipman and Lake Forest High athletes ran off with first-place awards.

Kent County Parks and Recreation Department sponsored the long distance hill-and-dale festival Saturday at Killen's Pond State Park.

Chuck Tozer, Jay Howerin, Sherri Coburn, Bill Mitchell and Keith Chandler were the local winners.

Tozer, Lake Forest's Henlopen Conference cross-country champion, ran 6.2 miles in a fast 37 minutes 35 seconds to annex the 13-18 age group event. His time was beaten only by the "open" division winner, Rex Wiggins of Dover Air Base, a former 4.03 miler for VMI (Virginia Military Institute). Tozer ran a 9.56 two-mile for Millville, NJ High School last spring is a threat to break Chris Wetherolds long-standing Lake Forest record (9.53.3) and is obviously in line for several college athletic scholarship offers.

Bill Mitchell, No. 2 at Lake forest this fall, won the 9.7 miles event in 40 seconds over one hour. Maurice Coverdale, constantly improving Tom Silkworth, Sam Lamphier and George Barnett, all Spartan harriers placed in the 9.7 miles event as did former Spartan star Harry Benson.

Three Woodbridge High connected runners also ran the longer race. Athletic director, Wayne Munson, Principal and former cross-country and track coach, Bill Degnan along with former football player Bob Cox finished the grind.

The "Open" winner here Doug White won a turkey in a morning race at Newark and a new pair of running shoes at Killen's Pond.

Spartan junior star, Jay Howerin, ran 1.7 miles in 9.48 to capture top honors in the "Open" division. Doug Caskey (2nd), Chris Caskey (5th), Ken Kline (6th), Bob Colomaio (8th) are all Lake Forest runners.

Steve Garrett of Caesar Rodney was the victor in the 12-14 class while W.T. Chipman's Keith Chandler did the same in 9-11 with Lake Forest's Elementary Tom Milligan was second.

Other finishers at 1.7 miles were: Bill Kline, Kathy Klaus, a local teacher; Heidi Silkworth (mother of Tom) and Christi Harvey.

Additional finishers at 6.2 miles were: Manny Hernandez a rising young Spartan runner who was 2nd to Tozer in 13-18, Grover Johnson, Dover High cross-country coach; Russell Chaney of Bridgeville, Gary Silkworth (father of Tom), Larry Sharpe of Milford and WTHD who years ago told this writer that cross-country was "gruesome", Roger Gourley of Felton and Russ Perry, principal of Dover Air High School.

Last, but far from least, Lake Forest's cross-country star Sherri Coburn was first in girl's 13-18 running 6.2 miles in 48.52, a faster clocking than many of the males could manage.

There were categories for everyone and the meet was one of the most successful yet at the much-used cross-country facility at Killen's Pond State Park.

special. Almost every foe was tough. The league may have had its best balance ever.

We'd like to see these kids who ran from June to November get the same reward that has gone to several other Lion and Spartan cross-country teams. We are talking about championship jackets for the top ten runners. The last appeal made by this writer was about five years ago. Only a couple hundred dollars are needed this time because cheaper jackets would be purchased.

These boys worked very hard, ran thousands of miles, kept Lake Forest's name atop the standings again and did it without bands, cheerleaders and hundreds of fans cheering their every move.

Can we help them again? We've done it six times before. If you've got a few bucks that aren't working and want to contribute, call Jim Blades at 335-5831 or Keith S. Burgess at 398-8838. We'll be happy to pick it up and so will our boys, YOUR boys, be happy as they proudly wear their hard-won rewards.

Frederica Council...

a Frederica girl, the daughter of Councilwoman Helen Powers. He has been a resident of Frederica for the past three years. Upon completion of his undergraduate work at Delaware State College, he plans to go to graduate school, possibly in Arkansas.

-Virginia Simpler-
Virginia Simpler is running for the Town Council because, in her words, "I think I will be of benefit to...the whole community." She further states that she doesn't like some of the things that have taken place recently and "would like to see a change."

Edgar Russell says the town of Frederica is "due for a change". He would like to see the community spend less in court and legal fees and more on the town itself. Improvements in the water system and the streets would get his vote.

Of the town's recent troubles with maintaining a police force, he says he doesn't think the town needs a local police officer. The situation, he says could be handled by the state police.

And the press would not get Russell's vote. He says, "I think they've had enough (coverage) in the paper."

A 1957 graduate of William Penn, Russell has been a Frederica resident for the past four years. He resides with his mother, Evelyn Russell and is self-employed, dealing in restaurant equipment.

One concern of Mrs. Simpler's is the condition of some of the rental properties in town which she contends are run down, inside and out. She would like to see improvements made.

On the question of police protection, she feels the town needs a full time local police officer. She points out there are quite a few senior citizens in the community who would feel safer if there were a local officer on call.

The Simplers have been residents of Frederica for the past 12 years. Both grew up in Maryland where Mrs. Simpler attended Chestertown High School. They are the parents of ten children, seven of them still at home. Mrs. Simpler also keeps busy at the Frederica Adult Center. Her husband is a truck driver for a Chicago based firm and is presently leased to Consolidated Themoplastics of Harrington.
