LF Board Approves $6,000,000 Budget

The Lake Forest School Board Monday night approved a $6,038,950 budget for fiscal year 1979-1980. But little more than one and a quarter million of this represents funds over which the district has any real control. Large portions go for such mandated items as salaries set by the state, other personnel costs, and bus contracts.

In spending the funds over which it does exercise some decisive control, this district, along with many others throughout the state, finds increasing frustration in attempts to budget the cost of energy. The Lake Forest District has set aside $205,000 for oil this year. But, already it appears that will not be enough. This estimate was based on oil at 69 cents per gallon (revised from a summer forecast of 58 cents). However, the district is now paying 79 cents per gallon for #4 fuel oil and 74.8 cents for #2. The end is probably not in sight. Last year the district spent $159,709.28.

Funds to be spent on energy already include a state fuel supplement to the district of $30,753. The rest of the money has to come from the $275,943 the district gets from the state in Division II funds. Educational programs have been pared to allow for the extra cost of oil, and it is the feeling of many Board members that they should be trimmed no further. In the opinion of Board Member E.B. Warrington, education is a state responsibility and "If the money is not available to pay the electricity and oil (bills), ...it's the state's problem." His sentiments were echoed by other Board members.

The Lake Forest Board and others are hopeful the state legislature will approve additional supplemental monies to ease the fuel crunch and will, in years to

Lobo, Wyatt speak out on issues

Dr. Vincent Lobo has been a member of the community since 1960 where he practices medicine and optometry. He presently serves as Vice-Mayor and Health Commissioner for the Town of Harrington. He also has previously served as Police Commissioner and on the Charter, Ordinance, and Budget Committees of the Town. He states he has seen a considerable change in the Town's government by stressing representation for the citizens and open government with more complete detailed information as to minutes and finances as well as open Town meetings. He started the program to control the mites, which are small insect like mosquitos at the sewer plant.

Dr. Lobo favors complete information concerning the Hearing on, Cahall breaks tie

With the tie-breaking vote of Mayor Arthur Cahall, the Harrington City Council opted last week to give Dudley Willis another public hearing in his efforts to have a portion of his Peck Avenue property re-zoned. Willis wants to sell the property to Case-Edwards, a developer interested in building a rental apartment complex for the elderly.

Since it was first aired in June, Willis' proposal has raised local hackles on both sides of the issue. The original request was rejected in August, and Council has since consistently voted down all motions to hold another public hearing on a second proposal in which Willis altered the boundaries of the parcel he seeks to have re-zoned.

Last week's reversal of that voting trend came with a bare quorum of the Council members present. It followed criticism of Council's handling of the re-zoning question by Council hopeful Burton Satterfield and the death (for lack of a second) of Gary Harrington's motion to hold a public opinion referendum on the question. Harrington said the total community should have a little input on the matter.

Councilman Vincent Lobo, who said he was now leaning toward holding a second hearing, opposed putting the motion on the floor because all Council members were not present. Councilmen Harold Brode and William Dill, who have voted with Lobo and Jack Wyatt against the re-zoning and against a second hearing, were absent.

The new hearing is set for January 23, two weeks after the reorganization meeting which will follow city elections. Both Wyatt and Lobo are up for re-election.

Several citizens or groups of citizens who attended last Tuesday's City Council meeting got varying responses:

The Council told Tony Perrone and a group from the St. Bernadette's Parish Council it would give local contractor Joe Richard-

Satterfield out of Council race

A former Mayor and City Councilman, who served the City for 15 years, had planned to run for the Council seat to be vacated this January by the incumbent Dr. Vincent Lobo. Burton Satterfield, Burt to all of the Townspeople, suffered another heart attack over the weekend and is presently a patient in the Milford Memorial Hospital in the coronary unit. Satterfield, who had filed last week for the Council seat in the 3rd Ward, will not be a candidate now. So far there are no filed candidates for the seat. Dr. Lobo has not as yet filed his petition... although he has the required signatures. Mrs. Satterfield said on Monday that she was not in favor of her husband running for the office, "because the stress brought on by the excitement was going to be too much for him." Her words proved to be correct. Mrs. Satterfield's father was also hospitalized earlier last week, and this might have contributed to the latest attack.

Satterfield had served fifteen years on the Council, first as a Councilman from the 3rd Ward and then as its Mayor. He left the Mayor's position in the early 70's and was succeeded by William Minner of Weiner Avenue.

Rumors were flying last week also that Councilman Rev. Ray Newman might resign his post soon due to the heavy schedule at

Chipman has Read-A-Thon winners

In October, W.T. Chipman Junior School students participated in a Read-A-Thon for the Multiple Sclerosis Society. The program was introduced by Ms. Deborah L. Messick at an assembly held for all students early in the month. Through this program students were encouraged to read as many books as possible in a given period of time. Participants were asked to find adult sponsors who would agree to "pay" them for each book read. Parents were to certify by signature whether the total number of books read was correct. The money collected by each individual student was then sent to the Multiple Sclerosis Society. Thus, Chipman students benefited by reading books and by performing a public service at the same time.

The Multiple Sclerosis Society has just announced the names of the student winners of the Read-A-Thon. We are very pleased that Miss Pam Pierce was the top winner for Chipman, having collected $131.40 to fight MS. Pam, an eighth grader, won a stuffed dog, watch, MS T-shirt, and a frisbee for her efforts. Other Chipman School winners were: Tara Gladden - collected $59.21, Shirley Spayd - $54.00, Lori Ann Bright - $40.80, John Endres - $37.50, Terry Caulk - $28.80. Congratulations to these students for a job well done.

Spartans in concert tonight

The Spartan Band and Choir will present their first Christmas concert in the new auditorium at Lake Forest High School this evening at 7:30. Under the direction of Dale Burkhart, both groups have prepared a program of contemporary as well as Christmas music. In addition, the band will bring back a couple of favorites from its fall season.

The choir has selected several traditional songs to be done a cappella or with piano accompaniment. A second set of selections is contemporary and will feature a drum and guitar back-up.

Band selections will include a "Christmas Suite" (a series of short, familiar songs of Christmas), a "Christmas Fugue", and a band arrangement of Mancini's "Carol for Another Christmas".

The ballad "Don't Cry Out Loud" and, by popular request, "Birth of the Blues" from the football halftime shows are also on the program. The latter will feature the trumpet section.

The evening's finale will be "Sounds of the Angels" from the Christmas marching season with the Spartan flag and majorette corp performing.

The high school band has had a busy fall season. In addition to all the football games, the marching Spartans have appeared at the Harrington Street Fair, at Band Day at the University of Delaware and the Harrington Christmas parade. Earlier this year the band brought home first place trophies in the Delaware State Volunteer Firemen's parade held in Christiana and the Milford Halloween Parade.

The public is invited to tonight's concert; there is no admission fee.

A relaxation as to length of service in the Armed Forces has increased the number of veterans eligible for membership in Callaway-Kemp-Raughley-Tee Post No. 7, it was announced this week by the organization's Membership Committee.

Vice Commander Dennis Spicer, the group chairman, explained: "You are eligible for membership if you have an honorable discharge or separation showing active military service during any of the following periods: Apr. 6, 1917, to Nov. 11, 1918; or Dec. 7, 1941, to Dec. 31, 1946; or June 25, 1950, to Jan. 31, 1955; or Aug. 5, 1964, to May 5, 1975."

Applicants should see any member of the post including the following: Commander James Ralph Jr.; Vice Commander Spicer, Adjutant Carrington H. Burgess; Service Officer Walter G. Lekites Jr.; Historian George Robert Quillen, or Finance Officer Raymond Gagne.

The post, with more than 50 years' service, includes the following activities:

Thursday at 10:30 a.m., a bus with 40 aboard left the center for County Wide - Dover. Charlotte accompanied them. Two car loads went also, which brought the total to 48 to attend County Wide. The Modern Maturity Center did a bang up job of seeing to all the details of decorating. Santa gave everyone a pin on snowman, cute as could be. The dinner was the same as at the Center, roast beef, mashed potatoes, peas, onions, and ice cream. Mrs. Redden was a recipient of a prize - a record album. She was the only one of our members who won a door prize or other. All reported a gala affair at the Square Club and more than happy they went. Several folks went to a bowling dinner, seems all good things happen at once. Sabra attended the Bowling dinner. Gladys, Eliz, Anthony, Irene LeGates served our dinner at the Center and Mrs. Nita McClain helped with clean up. They were all busy all day washing dishes, getting ready for Christmas. Such Royal ladies - just no better the world over.

Levi and Lace - My they were fun - fun whether you join in the dancing or just watch. It's great. When they dance the BINGO dance, it is hilarious and when the hug gets ready, some get lifted right off their feet. We thank you so very much ladies and gents, you are wonderful folks.

This is their second appearance for the church. Santa came in and gave everyone a candy cane. Men were distributing gifts to the members. A most enjoyable afternoon for all.

Several are still making Christmas gifts. Elma is making a beautiful afghan as has Mary Benson. Nellie is making original pillow tops with a pretty rose in the middle.

Christmas is in the air everywhere - cards - whispering - Cain received a nice card and sixty dollar present. He is a pleasant Dart driver and so thoughtful.

There Is A Purpose

This weeks article focuses on the Moons influence in the fiery sign Leo and how the Moon reacts when it is placed in the fun-loving Fifth House. This is an apt position for the Holidays as the Fifth house represents the dramatic arts, children, pleasures and amusements, parties and gambling!

Moon in Leo
This position indicates a proud and generous individual. These people are quite dramatic and have a great talent for the stage. There is a fondness for children, art, parties and entertainment! These people can be self-centered and have a great need for romance and affection. There is a nobility about these people, but they must watch a tendency to dominate! Money and authority are important although this probably won't show on the surface. Moon In The Fifth House

There is a great deal of emotional instability with this position and these people must strive to cultivate will-power. There is a great deal of charm and a need for romance and pleasure. This is a very fertile position and one that is bound to attract a lot of children! When under good direction, gambling and speculation can be very fortunate.

We are well into December, the Christmas month. "To America's original inhabitants, December was the Moon of the Cold Nights and, garden-wise, it marks the low point of the year. Even indoors, the short days cause most plants to go into rest," so says the Old Farmer's Almanac for 1980. It also advises to "mulch your strawberries" and "Be sure to encircle your fruit trees with chicken wire to keep them from the mice and rabbits."

Here is another interesting thing they have printed under the December page. It says "Some plants do not do well under or near black walnut trees. This is because the roots give off the chemical Juglone, which interferes with the growth of many plants. Those most affected are asparagus, sugar beets, and potatoes."

Isn't that interesting? It seems that the black walnut trees did not do well themselves this year. Have you had difficulty, as I did, in finding black walnut meats for your baking? I was able to purchase a pound of the minced kind, like meal, of black walnuts for just under $4.00 a pound at St. James' Bazaar. Later, we found some broken meats.

Another saying from the Almanac is that "Legend has it that snow on Christmas Eve means plentiful crops during the following year. Also (Green Christmas, White Easter.) My little Scotch prepare the kettle of golden delicious apples for apple sauce, I shall glance out the window and admire the weather developments.

Nikki and Morris are campused today because of the weather. They are rather bored, but as long as Mama is tramping around the kitchen, they feel that all is well with their world.

grandmother had a saying, "Green Christmas, Fat Graveyard." The Almanac also tells us that "The long hard winter begins at 6 a.m. on the 22nd", but goes on to say that "we can be encouraged to note starting with the 27th, the days commence to get longer again."

kitchen at Trail's End? Amid all the clutter of tissue and ribbon and boxes and gifts wrapped and gifts waiting to be wrapped, and a telephone that never stops ringing...there are good smells from the new kitchen range, the smell of mince pies bubbling away.

Soon there will be pumpkin pies and Minnehaha Cake and fat hamburger mashed potato rolls. And the cookie dough is piling up in the freezer waiting to be sliced and baked, and packed into boxes for the friends who have cookies written after their names.

It is raining here today and since Noon, the milky fog has been creeping in on little cat feet, enveloping everything in its mystery. As I stand at the sink and

There is some debate about when the decade of the 80's actually begins. Is it in 1980 or 1981?

Is 1980 the last year of the 1970's, or is it the first year of the 1980's? For the sake of simplicity, I will opt for the latter so it's "Happy New Year!" and "Happy New Decade!"

The 60's were a period of unpleasure and resurgence in our society. Human rights were more firmly established in our society. Our nation was torn by the strife in Viet Nam. Many citizens in our society for the first time found a voice. The decade was often perplexing and painful, but never loving.

Issues of the 60's carried over into the 70's. The Viet Nam strife was over. Civil Rights were more fully established. It has been a decade of consolidated gains and, I believe, growth.

In all these...the churches have played an active role. During the 60's and 70's, religion came alive again although religious institutions have been under constant assault. Nevertheless, they have been renewed in astonishing ways. Moreover, a new array of global issues have come to the fore.

As we look ahead we need not be devoid of hope. The issues which confront us are indeed demanding but not overwhelming. Therefore, let us as Christians confront the new decade with hope and determination. The claims upon us from a shrunken world are vast. A world the size of a neighborhood demands that we live in it as neighbors. A smaller world may, of course, provoke continued friction and international strife. But the neighborly will strive for peace. A more competitive world will mean shortages for many. The neighborly will share the bounty of the Earth with others. A selfish world will still mean that multitudes will be deprived of their rightful share of the things of this world.

The neighborly will be found alert to every injustice and prompt to right every wrong. Such comments will surely be evident during the decade.

Also evident, will be an increasingly awakening world on the part of the young, the old, the poor, the dispossessed. This must be met by an increase in caring.

This is where we come in. The church is God's Caring Community. We are to care for all. Could it be that the 1980's could become a decade of caring? May the blessing and power of the Devine God make it so!

the Independent Bible Fellowship Church. According to Councilman Jack Wyatt, who is a candidate in the 1st Ward and is also the incumbent from that Ward, the Minister might step down. Wyatt said Rev. Newman told him he was getting too busy to attend all of the meetings. Wyatt said he would be in favor of the Council appointing former Councilman Earl McColley, who did a great job as Councilman when he served before in that capacity.

In the 1st Ward, the race is shaping up to be a real contest between Councilman Jack Wyatt, who has served in that position for many terms, and challenger, Charles "Jerry" Anderson.

Both men have filed for that position.

At Christmas...
We pray that the miracle of His birth in a humble manger will once more spread its wonders, its promise across the land, bringing peace on earth, good will to men. In the joyous spirit of the holiday we offer our thanks to our customers for your many kindnesses. We greatly value and enjoy the privilege of serving you. Merry Christmas.

Asbury United Methodist Church

Worshippers filled the main sanctuary and the balcony at Asbury United Methodist Church on Sunday morning to hear the cantata "Noel, Jesus Is Born" which was presented by the Cathedral Choir under the direction of James Olson with the accompaniment of Gail Dill.

The cantata, a new release this year, featured the songs of Lanny Wolfe as arranged by Don Marsh. The musical provided a retelling of the familiar Christmas story with new meaning and insight related to a living, vibrant, on-going Christmas.

James Olson on the organ and Gail Dill on the piano presented the opening overture. The part of Herod was played by Matt Burgess; Joseph, by Ron Hughes; Mary, by Jane Moore; the angel Gabriel appearing to Mary, by Dale Jarrell; and, the angel appearing to the shepherds, by Elaine Homewood.

The cast was rounded out by the Wise Men - Leroy Betts, Bruce Betts, and Doug Jarrell; Scribe - Earle Nelson; Roman Guard - Allen Butler; Shepherds - Kenny P. Outten, Ken Outten and Jimmy Olson. Other soloists were Mary Jean Mason, Darin Dell, Cheryl Harrington, Beth Jarrell and Gary Harrington. The narrator was Gary Harrington.

Following the service, the congregation was invited to a fellowship hour in Collins Hall with refreshments served by the Asbury United Methodist Women.

On Sunday evening Asbury was the scene of the annual Children's Program sponsored by the U.M.Y.F. The program concluded with a visit from Santa.

Candlelight services this week

The annual Candlelight Service will be held this Sunday, December 23rd at 7:00 p.m. The Choir Mothers Auxiliary is in charge of the service which will be presented by the Cherub, Crusader and Cathedral Choirs. The public is cordially invited to attend.

This year's Christmas Candlelight service at Asbury United Methodist Church will feature the music of three choirs: Cherub (directed by Eleanor Homewood), Crusader (directed by Matt Burgess), and Cathedral (directed by James Olson).

The candlelight service is a longstanding tradition at Asbury, and this year's version, in accordance with another tradition, will conclude with the combined voices of the three choirs in the Cantique de Noel (Holy Night). In years past, the solos in this finale have been given to a senior or seniors in the choir. This year is no different, and three young people have been selected to share the honors. They are Susan Ricker, Beth Horleman, and Dale Jarrell.

On December 24th at 11:00 p.m., Houston United Methodist Church will have their Christmas Eve Service. Everyone is cordially invited.

We appreciate the excellent attendance in all the services this past Sunday. The church was nearly filled in the evening for the Christmas Cantata, despite the adverse weather.

The Williamsburg type wreaths and the beautiful poinsettias that helped to decorate the church were presented by many interested people. Our sincere thanks to all who helped in any way to make the church look so nice.

The Sunday School Department will present their Christmas Program, Sunday, Dec. 23, at 9:30 a.m. The Girl's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Miller, will present several Christmas songs.

The morning worship service begins at 10:40 a.m. Traditional Christmas songs and music will be included and a Christmas message by Rev. Miller.

Sunday evening the annual Christmas candlelight service will be held at 7:00 p.m. Special songs and music will again be presented. A Christmas message and the lighting of the candles by the congregation will follow.

The Bishop's Christmas message

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

At this time of year, the whole Christian world celebrates the joyful season of Christmas. In little towns and large cities, in the modest dwellings of the poor and in the comfortable homes of the middle class and the affluent a special spirit prevails. The churches of Christendom decorated with flowers and greenery are ablaze with candlelight. Music, song and prayer fill the air. Thus, we observe the birthday of Jesus Christ - the loveliest feast of the calendar.

In pre-Christian times, people could only look forward with longing for the promised Saviour. For us the Lord's coming is an accomplished fact. But, it is not simply an event of the past. It is a mystery that is ever present, because Christ continues to live and never ceases to intercede for us at the right hand of the Father. He is always present in order to accomplish in us the work of our redemption. Throughout the liturgical year, as Pius XII once said, Our Lord "continues that journey of immense mercy which he lovingly began in his mortal life, going about doing good." Annually that journey begins anew with Advent and Christmas.

To receive and serve Christ now during life's pilgrimage and to be instrumental in extending his love and concern to others is the best guarantee that we shall meet him worthily at the Second Coming when he appears to judge the living and the dead.

Living as we do in the time of Redemption, we are inextricably involved in God's plan of salvation. Personally we are called to discipleship, to repentance and holiness of life. Individually and corporately we are also summoned to be witnesses to the Gospel and to help bring the saving power of Christ to bear on the problems and disorders of our world.

To the earthbound, life can be a blind rugged striving without enough joy and hope. At Christmastime, Bethlehem leaps the centuries and affects people of every age and condition in a unique way. There occurs an almost universal response to the divine love that moved God to send his own Son to live our life, share our lot and redeem us from evil. We are moved to rise above our all too human distrust, disinterest and selfishness, and to be more joyful, hopeful and loving.

We know from sad experience, however, that the spirit of Christmas seldom outlasts the celebration of the feast. But it does not have to do so. The Lord who inspires and uplifts us by his coming has the power to sustain us if we are willing to respond reflectively, prayerfully and generously to the graces he gives us day by day and if we have the courage to repent and begin again when we fail.

That the joy and freshness of spirit that Christmas brings may be yours throughout the new year is the fond wish and steadfast prayer of

Your Shepherd in Christ,

Most Reverend
Thomas J. Mardaga, D.D.
Bishop of Wilmington

NEXT SUNDAY:

Next Sunday evening we shall have our Christmas Cantata and Sunday School Christmas party. All are encouraged to be here and bring your friends for this time of fellowship and joy in Christ.

WHAT IS YOUR TESTIMONY?

Every person has one of two testimonies concerning their church. This testimony is the direct result of one's faithfulness or unfaithfulness in church attendance. Let's look at the witness of the on-again-off-again church members.

By their indifference they say to their friends and to their fellow members something as follows. I don't think worship and Bible study is important for me at all. Indeed, I don't think it's important for anyone, or I'd be faithful in my church attendance. I don't think that fellowship with the saints is important, indeed, I'd much rather stay away from them and keep my worldly friends. I've got more important things to do than go to church. All that prayer meeting stuff and Sunday night worship interferes with my TV. Actually, I'm just a member of the church because I thought it would make my mother happy.

Is this your testimony?

ing of Christians in any sense of the word. This fact was proven when a sentence in the final report of the events contained a sentence that said there was not one Bible in the whole camp.

A PARABLE:

There is an old story of a man who had two calves, and promised that one should be the Lord's. All went well for a time, and his gift promised to be a good one. However, one day he found one of the calves dead. At first he was distressed, but soon he called to his wife, "Sarah, the Lord's calf is dead."

The youth of the Harrington Baptist Church went out caroling in Milford Manor on Sunday. I'm sure they brought much joy to the people there.

The Young People's Fellowship delivered fruit baskets and sang carols Sunday. It was a joy to be part of this group, as through us, the Lord touched the hearts of these people.

Town's affairs in order that the public may be well informed as they are the taxpayers he represents. Poor drainage and flooding has been an ever constant problem in Ward 3. He was instrumental in getting the flooding controlled on Mispillion near Trinity Methodist Church, and proper ditching is being studied in order to drain West Streets supporting Mrs. Grace Welch's efforts in that area. He authored the ordinance that makes the Chief of Police directly responsible to the Council rather than to the City Manager or the Mayor and the Police Commissioner stressing the responsibilities of that office.

Dr. Lobo is the only councilman who has an office within the Town limits and thereby making his availability easier to the citizens of the 3rd Ward.

Jack Wyatt is seeking re-election, for a second term, to the Harrington City Council from the first ward. He has been a life-long resident of Harrington.

Wyatt feels his primary asset to his ward is his experience with the Department of Highways as a highway engineering technician. Said the candidate, "Due to my experience with highways and maintenance, I am knowledgeable in matters of expenditures and types of materials needed to keep our streets and sidewalks in good repair at the best possible price to the taxpayers."

He proposed to Council the necessity of updating the water pumps in the city so the citizens would be protected from failures from the old pumps. Wyatt says that one of his main interests is in keeping Harrington clean, particularly in his own ward. Care of water and sewage facilities are also high on his list, he reports.

"I am a proponent of open government," Wyatt said. "I don't want to see this city slip back to the condition of several years ago when I felt we had poor representation of the people on Council. Concerning the development of the property on Peck Avenue, Wyatt said, "My primary responsibility is to represent my ward's feelings on the matter. I will vote the wishes of the majority in my ward."

Wyatt has served as Street Commissioner, Police Commissioner, Charter and Ordinance Committee, Budget Committee, and was instrumental in getting Earnest Gallo to rid the city of unsightly housing. He has presented the city's problems to Senator Joe Biden, Senator Cook, Rep. Ronnie Darling for assistance in renovating the problems on E Street.

For Your Information

Dear friends,

Many families cannot tolerate open expressions of grief. They will say, "For your own good, don't cry so much." Translated, it means, "When you cry you upset me and I can't tolerate your grief." A grief counsellor will encourage the mourner to cry openly and to discuss any aspect of the deceased's life. This has a healing effect.

Girls go 3-0, Beat I.R. and Glasgow

Surprise, surprise. Three games have been played and three games have been won by Pat Dyle and her Lake Forest varsity basketball team as the Spartans continue to make believers in the conference.

Last Tuesday, Lake Forest travelled to Indian River where Dyle had yet to win a basketball game in her coaching career. Setting the stage for the spectacular boy's win, the girls battled for three close periods and finally rallied in the final quarter to run away with the contest 50 - 37.

The final period explosion was sparked by the sensational sophomore, Lolita Seth, who came off the bench and hit 9 straight points. Seth's scoring was aided by a swarm of teammates who pored in 17 points in the closing minutes. Adding insult to injury, the Spartan's scores came as a result of steals in every case during the wild finish.

"Tamy Warren finally got it all together for us," Coach Dyle said, "and really had a good game. She hit for 75% of her shots and was a terror on the boards, which is of course, the name of the game."

Warren, who had a slow start in the season opener, put in 12 points and grabbed 12 rebounds. Brenda Thomas had 4 points, Tina Durant 7, Dee Dee White 2 as well as Anita Sherwood and Pam Harris all with 2.

"It was a great game for us", Dyle said. "I knew they had lost a lot of players and were a little weaker than they have been in the past, but I did expect a close one. The girls played well and deserved the win."

On Friday, Glasgow High School paid a visit to Lake Forest to play a non conference game. It was never even close, as the Spartans blew them out with a strong 56 - 43 victory.

"It was again a matter of dominating the backboards at both ends", Dyle said. "If we can keep on doing that, we'll have a good year."

Lake Forest held a lead at all times. In the first, it was 12-8. It was 28-19 at the half, 43-27 at the end of three. Dyle substituted freely throughout the game and allowed everyone to get in at least a few periods of play.

As Tamy Warren led the team in the I.R. game, Gwen Scott paced the Spartan attack in this one. She put in 18 points and brought down 10 rebounds.

"We just had all the key plays", said the coach. "We adapted to their defenses quite well and were able to control the action off the boards. When the team is hitting, running, and rebounding, we will win the game."

Second team center Kevin Moehlemkamp reaches for a rebound against Holy Cross last Friday night

Underdog Spartans whip Indian River

"It was just like an NBA game, run and hit, run and hit."

Bill Falasco had had a good night, obviously. Lake Forest went to heavily favored Indian River last Tuesday and stole one of the most exciting contests in the history of Lake Forest sports as they whipped Indian River by a score of 73-66.

"It was an all time coaching high for me," said the coach. "You have to remember that I have coached most of these boys since they were in junior high. Watching them play the way they did was a thrill, they have really come a long way together and that is what it's all about."

The contest was tight from the beginning as both teams came out firing. Indian River held a slim three point lead after the first period, but the Spartans took command at the half by a 36-32 margin.

The score was tied with five minutes left to play in the game when Lake Forest hit five in a row to pull away for keeps.

Making up for a slow beginning in the season opener was game standout Quinten Hendricks. Hendricks shot for 19 points and brought down 12 rebounds, playing what Falasco called "a hell of a game."

"Quinten was hot," Falasco said, "he was really hot. I had thought he might struggle under the boards against them, but he didn't. But then, nobody let up at all during the entire game. Quinten's performance was a part of the total picture."

How's this for statistics: the

Spartans hit a whopping 61% of their shots from the floor, they hit a phenomenal 75% from the foul line.

Hendricks led the team with 19 points, Kenny Sudler had 17, Mark Smith avenged his dismal performance in the opener with 14 points. Smith hit everything he threw up on Tuesday, he didn't miss a basket. Darryl Curry added 13 points, Dale Benson, who came off the bench as the replacement for Sudler who got into foul trouble near the end of the last period and Leroy Garey hit for 2 as well as 6 assists.

"I only played 6 men," said Falasco. "We didn't want to interrupt the flow of the game, it was just going too well for us at the time."

Rebounding was one of the keys to the win. Falasco sent all 5 to the boards at both ends because, "we had to," he said. Sudler and Curry provided strong back up to Hendricks in the battle of the boards.

The Spartans stayed in a 2-3 zone for most of the night and it worked to perfection. It forced an outside attempt and limited Indian River to just one shot most every time.

"I enjoyed every minute of it," said the coach, "let's do it again!"

It wasn't quite so rosy for Lake Forest in Friday's match at Holy Cross. In what appeared to be a general let down against the much weaker opponent, Lake Forest slept to a resounding win, but certainly lacked their usual sharpness. Who's complaining?

Wrestlers start well at Milford

The Lake Forest varsity wrestling team made its debut last weekend at the Milford Invitational, and new head coach Tom Schaffer saw "just what I expected. Our wrestlers made a good overall showing," he said, "they were beaten by top quality people when they lost, and we showed good team depth."

Schaffer has the benefit of numerous wrestlers who have come out for the team. There is, thanks to coach Ed Wheatly, a bounty of solid freshman talent waiting for a shot at the varsity and some good looking sophomores and juniors as well as proven seniors. The squad lacks the sure wins that Louis Hendricks brought to the matches, but makes up for that with better overall skills at each weight class. Entering the tourney at 98 pounds was supposed to have been Dale Jarrell, but he failed his final attempt at making weight. Schaffer will go with either Greg Ecenrode or Pryoot Size, both freshman, to fill the void in the future. 98 pounds was a forfeit on Friday.

At 105 was Bobby Fleming making his varsity premiere. Fleming lost his first round 9-7 after giving up a slew of points at the start. "He has a future," said the coach. "Bobby will come along."

Charles Jones was next wrestling at his new weight of 112 pounds. He lost to standout Steve Wicks, a rude welcome to the world of 112. "Charles learned a hard lesson," said Schaffer, "and I think he'll be working harder from now on. He has the potential to go all the way this year, it all depends on his attitude."

Jeff Gove wrestled at 119 pounds and won his first two matches to reach the semi finals. He lost his third match 15-2 and then lost the consi 10-6. "He's in the toughest weight class in the state," said Schaffer. "Schwab, Pender and Bastianelli are all in that one and Jeff has his work cut out for him."

Kenny Williams was at 126 pounds and won his first contest in overtime. He was then beaten by Perry of C.R. 22-0 but the coach has nothing but praise for him. "It's a tough class, Kenny will have a fine year though."

At 132 was Doug Stevens, a sophomore making his first varsity start. Stevens battled hard, but eventually lost in the first round by pin. What impressed his coach was the fact that Stevens didn't panic against one of the state's top grapplers, Harvey Baker, and held his own.

David Brown is back this year and wrestling at 138. He lost the first match by a 9-8 margin, but an injury to his knee was the actual cause of his defeat. He was dominating the match until the knee problem. He will be out of action for about a week.

Mike Kosiorowski, in shape this year, looked strong as he won the first round 5-1 but lost the second round to a tough opponent, Henry of Smyrna.

At 155, sophomore Herschel Harmon made his first varsity start on Friday only to beat himself in the first round. Harmon was leading 5-1 when he got himself into trouble and on his back. He was pinned in the second period.

Jimmy Fleming was next at 167. He passed by the first round due to a forfeit then lost to Thomas of Smyrna by a 10-0 margin.

David Powell appeared in his first wrestling match ever. He was pinned as he showed his inexperience. Schaffer expects him to improve with age.

Dauer Awards Trophies In Harrington

Harry G. Farrow, Jr.
Publisher

CHIPMAN FIELD HOUSE - Rich Dauer was the featured speaker on Saturday night at the Harrington Little League's annual banquet. Before the awards and trophies were passed out Dauer entertained the folks with "minutia" about what goes on behind the scenes with the Orioles. "No there isn't any real running feud between Palmer and Earl", said the young, boyish Dauer. Weaver is a perfectionist, and he worries and frets about everything under the sun, according to Dauer. He did not have much to say about the upcoming spring training where there will be a good possibility of a "walk out or a strike," but the owners are to blame, really, because they came with the money and gave it to everyone, so what do you expect?" said Dauer.

The Journal asked Dauer the following: Q:Farrow - What influence or what part did the new radio station WFBR play in your winning ways? A:Dauer - Well, the main thing about playing baseball is that you have to have the fans and you have to have a good team. This year, our broadcaster and the TV people cover the team much better than ever in the past. Of course, it is much easier to cover a team like ours...when we were winning, which we did quite often. Tom Marr, Bill O'Donald and Chuck Thompson made it seem more exciting than it actually was. Q:Farrow - Is Crowley an underrated player? A:Dauer - Oh, yeah. He is the best pinch hitter in baseball, but as far as playing every day, first base is his position and he can't get Eddie Murray out of there. Q:Farrow - Do you think there was any legitimate second guessing of Weaver such as not going with Bellanger in the late innings of the World Series and leaving Stanhouse in there too long...maybe there were more. Can you comment on that? A:Dauer - Oh yeah...but those were minor ones. The real biggy was second game of the series with the men on first and second, and didn't bunt. We hit into a double play and it eventually cost us the game. They were the biggest. Earl is a statician, and so he goes by the books, and well...that is what he did. I'll say one thing for him though, he took all the blame. Q:Farrow - Is Earl really a great guy to play for? A:Dauer - Well...oh yeah...if you are the type who gets upset over a little yelling then No. But if you can take that criticism and go with it then, yeah, he is the best. Q:Farrow - You talked tonight about the time when you broke into the lineup and went 0 for 24. Earl stuck with you. Do you think this was a real turning point for you, that is, Weaver maybe, indirectly, gave you a lot of confidence. Can you comment on that? A:Dauer - Yeah, most people don't go through that until late in their career, but Earl sticking with me... like that was a real big help. Earl told me in this period... come on Rich... I just can't keep putting you in there and you not hitting. If you don't hit, I'll have to send you back. I kept telling him that I was pressing, and that it is just not that easy. But, I sure like to try. Q:Farrow - Why can't Bellanger hit? A:Dauer - Good question. Q:Farrow - He has the size, good hands, and powerful arms and forearms. I can't understand it. What about it? A:Dauer - I think that his is just so powerful with the glove that the bat must be mental.

Rich Dauer has answered many of your questions. There were still others that I personally wanted to ask him for possible answers. Like, why did Baylon get selected over Singleton, and with two sportswriters not voting in the selection of the National League MVP so that two players won... Staggell might have won had the two sportswriters voted... and in light of this, should the selection of the MVP be revised. I had more questions, but if our readers have any questions that we might ask of Dauer that you did not get answered before, if you would write them down and send to the paper, we will try to get answers for you.

son five working days to get moving on a Dixon Street manhole repair or get another contractor. Richardson has had the contract on the manhole since March 1978. Area residents who say the site has been inadequately barricaded, claim it is a continuing traffic hazard as well as a nuisance. Perrone pointed out that a similar group attended Council on November 14, 1978, and were promised action within two weeks. Thirteen months have intervened.

The Council heard from several individual citizens, most of whom were opposed to the closing of several alleys or portions of alleys which the town has proposed abandoning. Part of last week's Council meeting was set aside as a public hearing on the proposals. One of the alleys is a horseshoe located on the North side of Clark Street, between Thomas Street and Delaware Avenue. The second runs from Second Street to Delaware Avenue. It is intersected by a drainage ditch. Objections ranged from the problem of access to private property to the question of who would own the alleys if they were abandoned by the city. Law says the property would revert to the original owners who dedicated the land for the alleys to the city, or to their heirs. This could present a legal hassle for the current owners of adjoining properties. The Council heard comments and protests, but took no action.

City Council also voted to pay for carpet replacement and cleaning bills for Mr. and Mrs. Harris, whose property was damaged on Thanksgiving day when a blockage caused a city sewer to back up into their trailer. The Harris made immediate efforts to contact the appropriate city officials, but the damage was done before anyone could be reached. The Council also vowed to find out why the city's insurance carrier refused to cover the cost of the damage. Meanwhile, the Harris will get $363.92 from the city to pay for their loss.

Harrington City Council contd....

In other business, the Harrington City Council:

- noted with interest recent reports that the DuPont Company may be looking for a Kent County site for another plant. Mayor Cahall told the Council that federal monies in the complex UDAG grant program might be available to offset any cost Harrington might encounter in efforts to attract such an industry. Cahall said Aubrey Brown and other citizens might be interested in serving on a committee to look for ways to attract new industry.
- heard Hardees has applied for

- a building permit for the area between the North and South bound lanes of U.S. 13, South of Delaware 14.
- approved a second reading of ordinance changes affecting parking regulations. These must now be published.
- selected judges in the upcoming city elections on January 7. These include Gary Harrington, Harold Brode, the Reverend Ray Newman, William Dill, Laurence Price, and Anna Hampton.
- postponed any further budget deliberations until after the election.

come, create a special Division IV to cover energy costs. Currently, most state funds are allocated in three divisions: I-Salaries, II-Other educational costs (including fuel), and III-Equalization funds (ostensibly to make up for the difference between poorer and richer districts).

The Lake Forest Board took note of the fact that there may be light at the end of the tunnel in its longstanding lawsuit against several firms it holds responsible for a leaky roof in the new high school building completed in 1969. Delaware Supreme Court recently reversed a Superior Court dismissal of the district's 1972 suit against the firms that designed, built and provided roofing materials for the new building.

The building, constructed to house the newly consolidated Lake Forest High School, leaked almost from the outset. Whenever it rained, halls were dotted with containers to catch the drips. At one point, these included a boat with a pump set up to drain it. Had it not been for a special appropriation of the state legislature to repair the roof, the district would probably have lost most of the building by this time. Repairs were made in the fall of 1973.

With the Supreme Court decision, the suit in which the Lake Forest district is seeking some $200,000 in damages may soon be ready for trial.

In other business, the Lake Forest School Board:

- gave its blessing to the local chapter of the American Field Service to hold a joint radio-thon with the Milford chapter on March 8, 1980. Last year's effort, broadcast over WAFL/WTHD, netted the two chapters $1,800 which they split. The Board also gave its approval for the use of the pool on Saturday night, March 8, to entertain visiting AFS students who will be helping in the fund raising efforts.
- commended faculty members and others responsible for recent Christmas musicals at Lake Forest North (Felton) and Lake Forest East (Frederica).
- hired Vickie Vernier to teach kindergarten at Lake Forest East.

The American School Food Service sponsored a "Fly In" to Washington, D.C., on October 30, the purpose of which was to meet with our legislators to inform them of the importance of keeping Federal reimbursements for school lunch programs. Pictured here with Senator Roth and Representative Evans along with other area food service personnel are Fay Stayton, Food Service Secretary and Legislative Chairman, Dorothy Collins, Cafeteria Manager, Louise Fisher, Cafeteria Manager, Sharon DeLong, Cafeteria Manager, representing Lake Forest Food Service Association.
