

Do You Remember....

While Americans worried about the hostages in Iran, Harringtonians have apparently forgotten many others who served their country in World War II.

This memorial in honor of local sons was proudly erected in 1946 and now leans in disrepair against a wall at the American Legion Post 7.

Soybean contest launched

Soybean growers and their wives may earn a five-day market development study mission to Mexico as part of an American Soybean Association membership contest sponsored by the Agricultural Chemical Division of Mobay Chemical Corporation.

"The membership contest runs from January 1 to June 1," says

B.B. Spratling, Jr., a soybean producer from Roba, Alabama, and ASA Vice President-Membership. "Mobay will provide a five-day trip to Mexico to 20 soybean growers and their wives. The market development study mission will leave New Orleans August 5 and return to New Orleans August 9."

The expense-paid trip will be awarded to the top ten recruiters of new members and to 10 randomly selected new ASA members.

"Soybean growers on ASA's Board of Directors have established a goal for a net 20 percent increase in membership in 1980," Spratling says. "We feel Mobay's sponsorship of this incentive program will help increase participation in our new membership program. Last year's top membership recruiter signed 158 new members so we think he has set a pace for this year's program."

Mobay Chemical Corporation produces Sencor and other agricultural chemicals for the soybean industry.

To enter the ASA-Mobay membership contest, soybean growers should write: Membership Contest, American Soybean Association, 777 Craig Road, Box 27300, St. Louis, Missouri 63141.

Conrail cushions tracks

Motorists who speed up and down the highway may not realize it, but their ride is cushioned at the spot where the tracks cross U.S. 13 just North of the Delaware State Fairgrounds. The panels between the tracks and on the outside of each rail are made of a special rubber produced by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. The panels are held in place by lag screws. According to Conrail Supervisor of Track, W.W. Biles, the rubber crossing is an expensive alternative to more conventional materials, but it can be counted on to last three times as long. Other materials which have been used are wood panels and asphalt. The rubber crossings have been in use since the late 1950's, but this is the first for the Harrington area.

Work on the crossing began on October 29 and kept traffic in the area in a tangle for over a month. Both North and South bound lanes were completely re-opened by December 8. Still in progress is the installation of traffic signals which will be complete with metal gates or bars to stop the flow of vehicles on 13 when a train is approaching. Similar signals are in operation on U.S. 113 just South of its intersection with Delaware 14 near Milford.

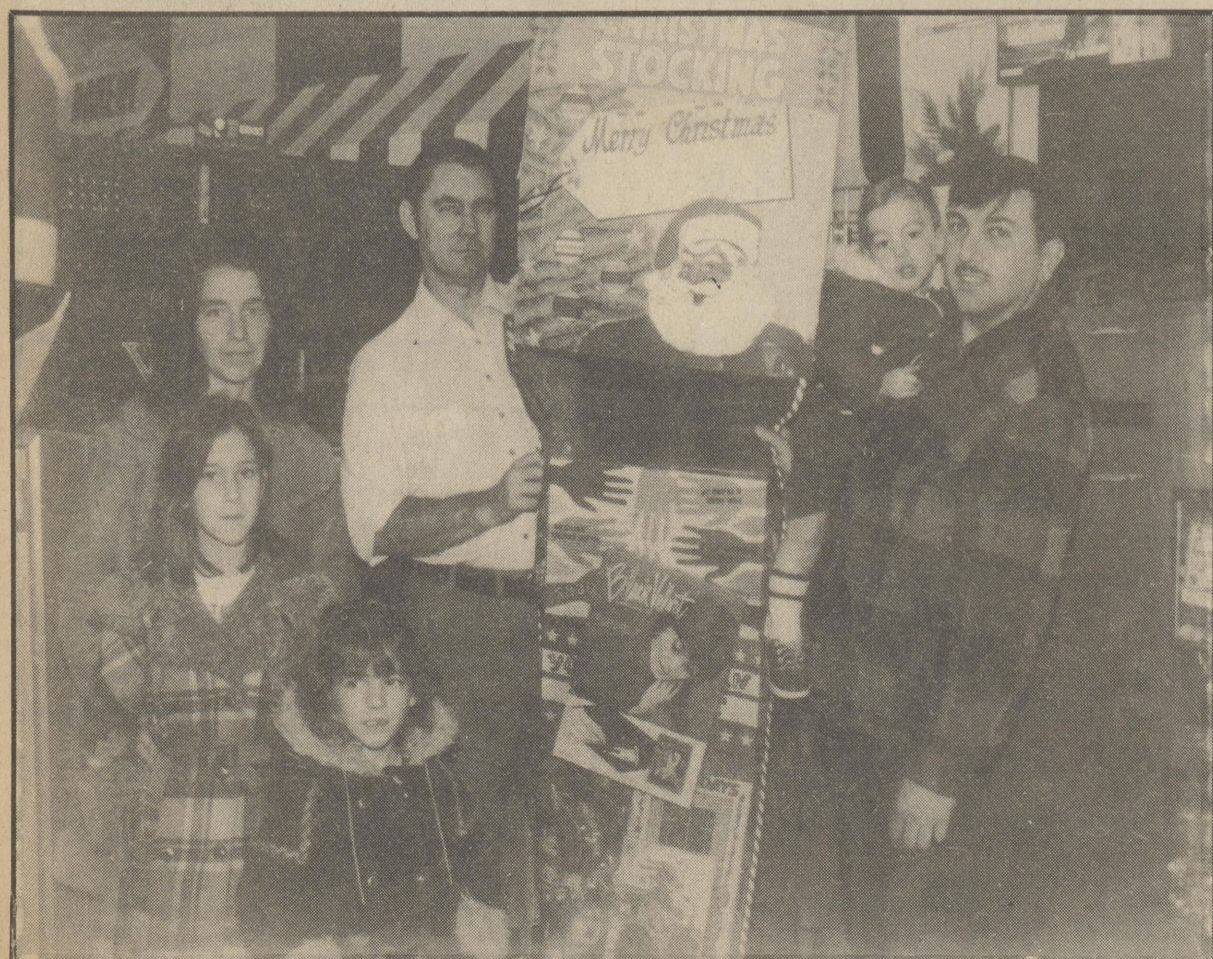

W.W. Biles said Conrail's tab for the Harrington crossing would come to around $300,000. Conrail has a number of other projects on the peninsula in the works. Included is an anticipated 3 million or more to be spent on crossings in the Salisbury area.

Resurfacing work at this crossing was done by Tilcon Warren.

The annual Harrington Town Meeting will be held on Friday January 4, 1980 at the Fire Hall. See next week's Journal for more information

Newman denies Journal report

In last week's Journal, it was reported that Councilman Rev. Ray Newman "might resign his post" due to a heavy schedule at the Independent Bible Fellowship Church where Newman is pastor.

Newman was disturbed by the report, labeling it "completely untrue" in a call to the Journal's office on Thursday.

"The story is without basis," Newman said. "People have been calling me to ask if the story was correct and their remarks have taken me totally by surprise."

"I want to make it clear to the Harrington Journal and to the people of Harrington, and particularly to the members of my ward, that I have another year to serve on Council, and I fully intend to complete it. I have no intention whatsoever of resigning my office on the City Council," Newman said.

Have A Happy New Year!!!

Local firm acquires subsidiary

Callis-Thompson, Inc. of Harrington, announced the acquisition of Petroleum Contractors, Inc., of Allentown, PA. Petroleum Contractors will be operated as a wholly owned subsidiary with no foreseeable changes in operations or operating personnel.

William Graham announced his retirement as President of Petroleum Contractors. After a suitable period of transition, Mr. Graham intends to retire to St. Joseph, Missouri.

William G. Thompson, the newly elected President, expressed the appreciation of the employees of Petroleum Contractors and the petroleum equipment industry for the many years of dedicated service by Mr. Graham and best wishes for his retirement. Additional officers of Petroleum Contractors Inc. are Jack Fenstermaker, Executive Vice President, Stephen Tarafas, Operations Vice President, and Lewis Stretch, Secretary-Treasurer.

Petroleum Contractors, Inc., has been actively engaged in the sale, service, and installation of petroleum handling equipment for the past 12 years, concentrating on service stations and bulk plants. During this period, the company has grown and established a reputation for expertise in their field. The combination of Callis-Thompson Inc., and Petroleum Contractors, Inc., is complimentary and will provide a strong base for continued growth and service to industry.

Harrington Lions honor Jehu Camper

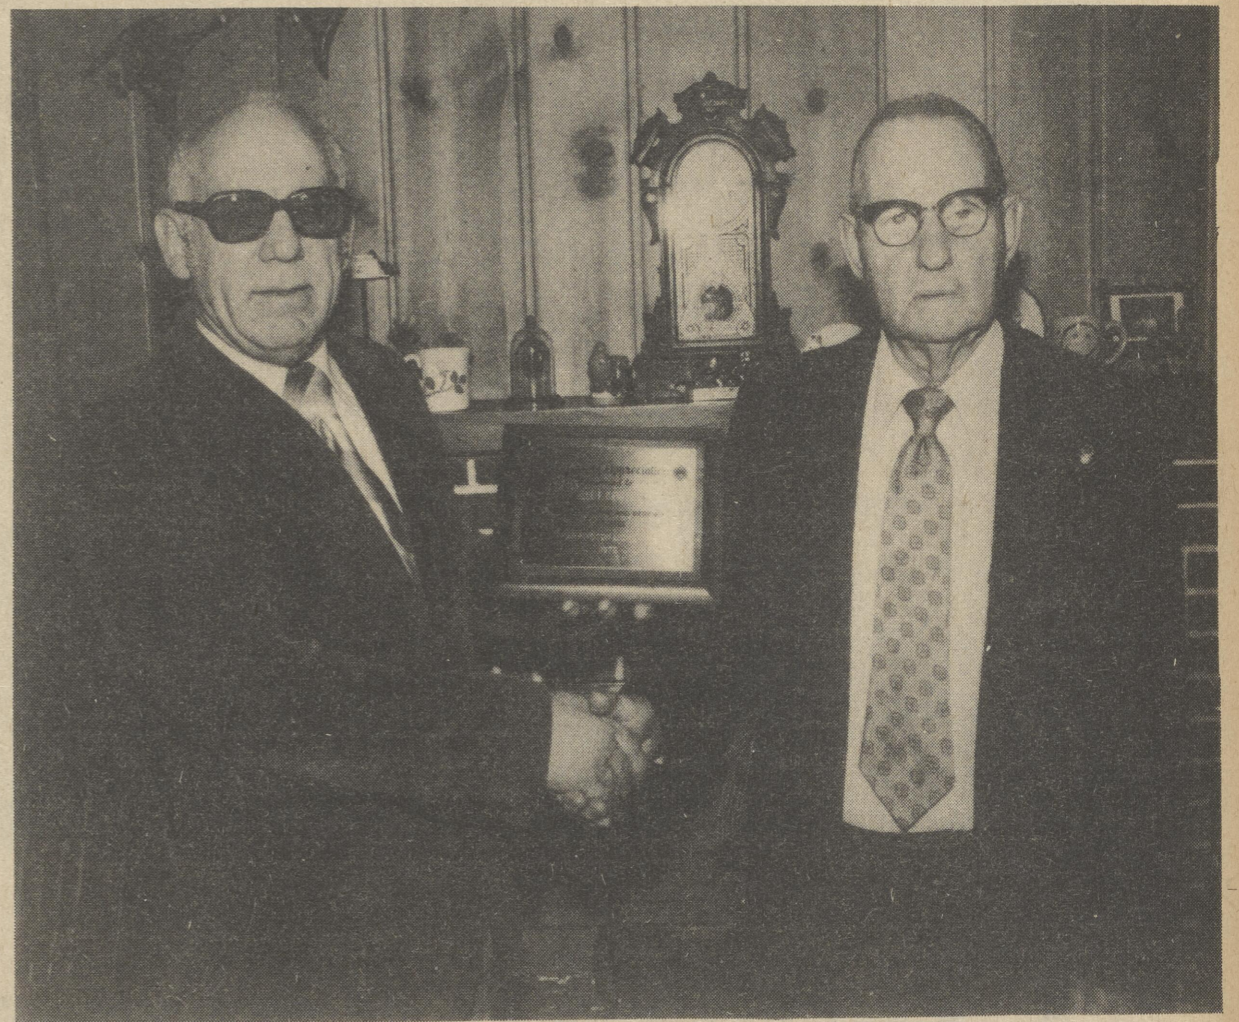

The Harrington Lions Club marked this Christmas season by paying special tribute to one of its charter members, Jehu F. Camper. A certificate of appreciation for outstanding and dedicated service was presented to Mr. Camper by Lions President Tom Peck.

A past president of the Lions Club, who served two terms in the office, Jehu Camper has been a charter member of that organization since 1939. At present he is listed as an honorary member.

But his membership and service with the Lions are by no means the limit of his involvement in community and state affairs. He currently serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Peoples Bank in Harrington and as a Vice President and Director of the Delaware State Fair. He is also a past president of the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company. Beyond the community, Camper is well acquainted with the political processes of the state. He served as a member of the House of Representatives in the Delaware State Legislature from 1948 to 1958. From 1950 to 1954 he was a State Senator.

Born on October 10, 1897, Jehu Camper graduated from high school in 1916. Over the years since then, he has been involved in a number of different occupations. He spent some years as a farmer, served as a rural mail carrier, and worked for the Pennsylvania Junction Railroad. Then for twenty-two years he was the owner and operator of Camper's Garage, a service station (now the location of Meridith's). He left the garage in 1945.

In 1918, Jehu Camper married the former Lillian Short. The couple celebrated their 61st anniversary in July. After their marriage, Lillian Camper joined her husband in business, serving as bookkeeper for the service station. She has also been active with him on their post-retirement life.

Mrs. Camper is adept at chair caning, and Mr. Camper is well-known for his whimsical woodcarvings, which re-create rural life at the turn of the century. The Campers' display is an annual institution in the crafts area at the Delaware State Fair and is a familiar attraction at many other special events sponsored by communities in this area. No small part of the attraction are the stories of Mr. Camper as he explains his farm world in miniature.

Their interest in crafts has brought the Campers state-wide recognition. They are both participating artists in the Sussex County Folklore Program, a project of the Artists-in-Schools program of the Delaware State Arts Council. This has taken them into Delaware schools and brought Delaware children to their home where Mr. Camper has moved his woodcarving collection into its own building. Their residence near the intersection of U.S. 13 and Delaware 14 in Harrington catches the eye, and perhaps, provides a smile for many a passing motorist with its display of another Camper collection - an array of mail boxes for air mail, trash mail, and the like.

Looking Your Best

Happy New Year! Astrologically, 1980 promises to be a step in the right direction! Everyone should be proud of themselves for making it through a very frustrating 1979!

The best days for buying or exchanging clothes are the 28th and the 29th. Now the stores have their big bargain sales! For hair that is tough to manage, try the 29th and 30th for new hair styles.

These dates are also good for trims that will stimulate the growth of hair. The 31st is a good day for finding the shoes that really fit!

There Is A Purpose

This week focuses on how the Moon reacts when it is placed in the practical, earthy sign, Virgo.

Also covered will be the influence of the Moon when it is placed at birth in the 6th House of the Birth-Chart.

Moon in Virgo

People with this position are very practical and analytical. They are exacting and concerned with cleanliness and neatness.

There is a great need to serve others, but these natives must watch a tendency to be overly critical! There is an inherent shyness and a desire to work behind the scenes. These people should strive to cultivate more understanding of other peoples' feelings.

Moon in the Sixth House

It is important that these people maintain a healthful diet as they are very susceptible to stomach and digestive troubles! They should not eat when emotionally upset. Work and employment are important to their well-being and there is a strong need to nurture others. This position of the Moon is very favorable for work involving the preparation and sale of food.

For those of you wishing to have your Birth-Chart calculated so that you can find out the positions of the Moon and planets at the time of your birth, please see my ad.

Cheer Center News - Dec. Week 17-21

The consensus of opinion among the people that attended the Cheer Center banquet on Friday, Dec. 14, considered that it was a complete success. The food was delicious, decorations were attractive, and the gifts exchanged were appreciated. Everyone had a very enjoyable time. Some members were sick and did not get to attend.

We are glad to welcome back Birdie Forbes after her vacation with her family in Texas.

It was not pleasant news to learn that one of our members was in a car accident over the weekend. She was not badly hurt, but appears very sore from impact.

Julia Davis has not been attending Cheer lately, but we have learned that her pace-maker makes her feel much better, and we are glad.

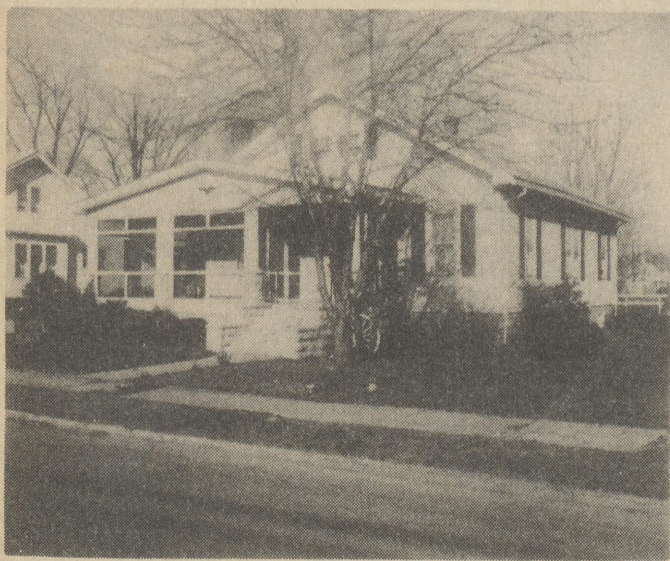

Rita Seely and Lola Williamson have been sick this week with the virus.

The Center will be closed on Dec. 31, and also on January 1st. The Center wants to extend a Happy New Year to everybody.

On Jan. 2 - Gladys Yeako will be with us to demonstrate some new ideas in Arts and Crafts.

On Jan. 3 - Lunch will be at 11:30 a.m. as it is our shopping day at Seaford.

On Jan. 4 - Henrietta Watson will be presenting a Nutrition program.

Local clubs have been just as active participating in numerous Christmas parades, caroling and preparing family nights.

It has been a busy fall but winter will be just as active.

In mid January, the Public Speaking Contest is held along with the County Livestock Club beginning judging training.

February is devoted to training for leaders who participate in the State Leaders Workshop and members who will attend the Reddy Foods and Fashion Revue Workshop.

That's just an idea of what has happened and what will be happening in the Sussex County 4-H program.

Spartan girls trounce Woodbridge, Smyrna

If head Lake Forest basketball coach Pat Dyal had any remaining doubts about her teams' ability, last week's performance dispelled it all. The Spartans beat Woodbridge last Tuesday by a 55-41 margin, then went on to win a last minute thriller on Thursday against visiting Smyrna. Dyal now sits on a perfect 5-0 unbeaten record.

"We are really coming of age," said the coach. "At this point I have to believe that we are a better team than last year. We don't have a big girl going for us, or a player the likes of Laura Newnom, but we have good talent at each position. There is a wealth of skill on this team, and, on balance, I'd say we will have a fine season."

Lake Forest simply overwhelmed the hapless Woodbridge Raiders on Tuesday in a game that saw every team member get to play. The first team ran the score to 15-3 at the end of the first period and provided what coach Dyal called, "a good indication of the course of the game."

Substitutions kept the score from becoming too lopsided, but the Spartans continued to coast through most of the four quarters. Gwen Scott led all scorers with 16 points while Tina Durant hit for a total of 15 points and grabbed 12 rebounds. Lolitta Seth continued to earn her keep with some sparkling play and 9 total points, and Tammy Warren pulled down 8 rebounds.

On Thursday, Lake Forest played another heartstopper that wasn't nailed down until the final moments. Brenda Thomas worked the play that saved the game as the Spartans won 42-39 and kept the win streak alive.

Said Dyal, "I coached a lot of the Smyrna girls this summer in basketball camp, and I know them pretty well. I knew they were good, and I expected a tight contest."

"They have a tall girl at center," Dyal continued, "who I knew would give us some problem. Yvette Sudler is 6'2", but she's not overly aggressive, and our girls handled her pretty well."

The game stayed fairly even all the way. It was 8-8 at the end of the first period as the teams traded baskets evenly on the strength of Gwen Scott's floor shooting.

Team quickness began paying off for Lake Forest in the second period as Smyrna started to turn the ball over frequently and the Spartans capitalized. It was 20-15 Lake Forest at the half time buzzer.

Smyrna came out in a man-to-man press at the start of the third period and Lake Forest started to struggle with turnovers themselves. After some fierce battling, the Spartans managed to stay ahead 31-27 by the end of the period.

At the 7 minute mark in the fourth, Brenda Thomas was taken out of action with four fouls. Smyrna took advantage of it and quickly ran the score to a 36-32 advantage. Dyal put Thomas back in the game, and the Spartans tied them at 36 all, then hit again for some breathing room. But, it was short lived, as Smyrna scored a field goal and a few fouls to go ahead by a single point with 58 seconds remaining.

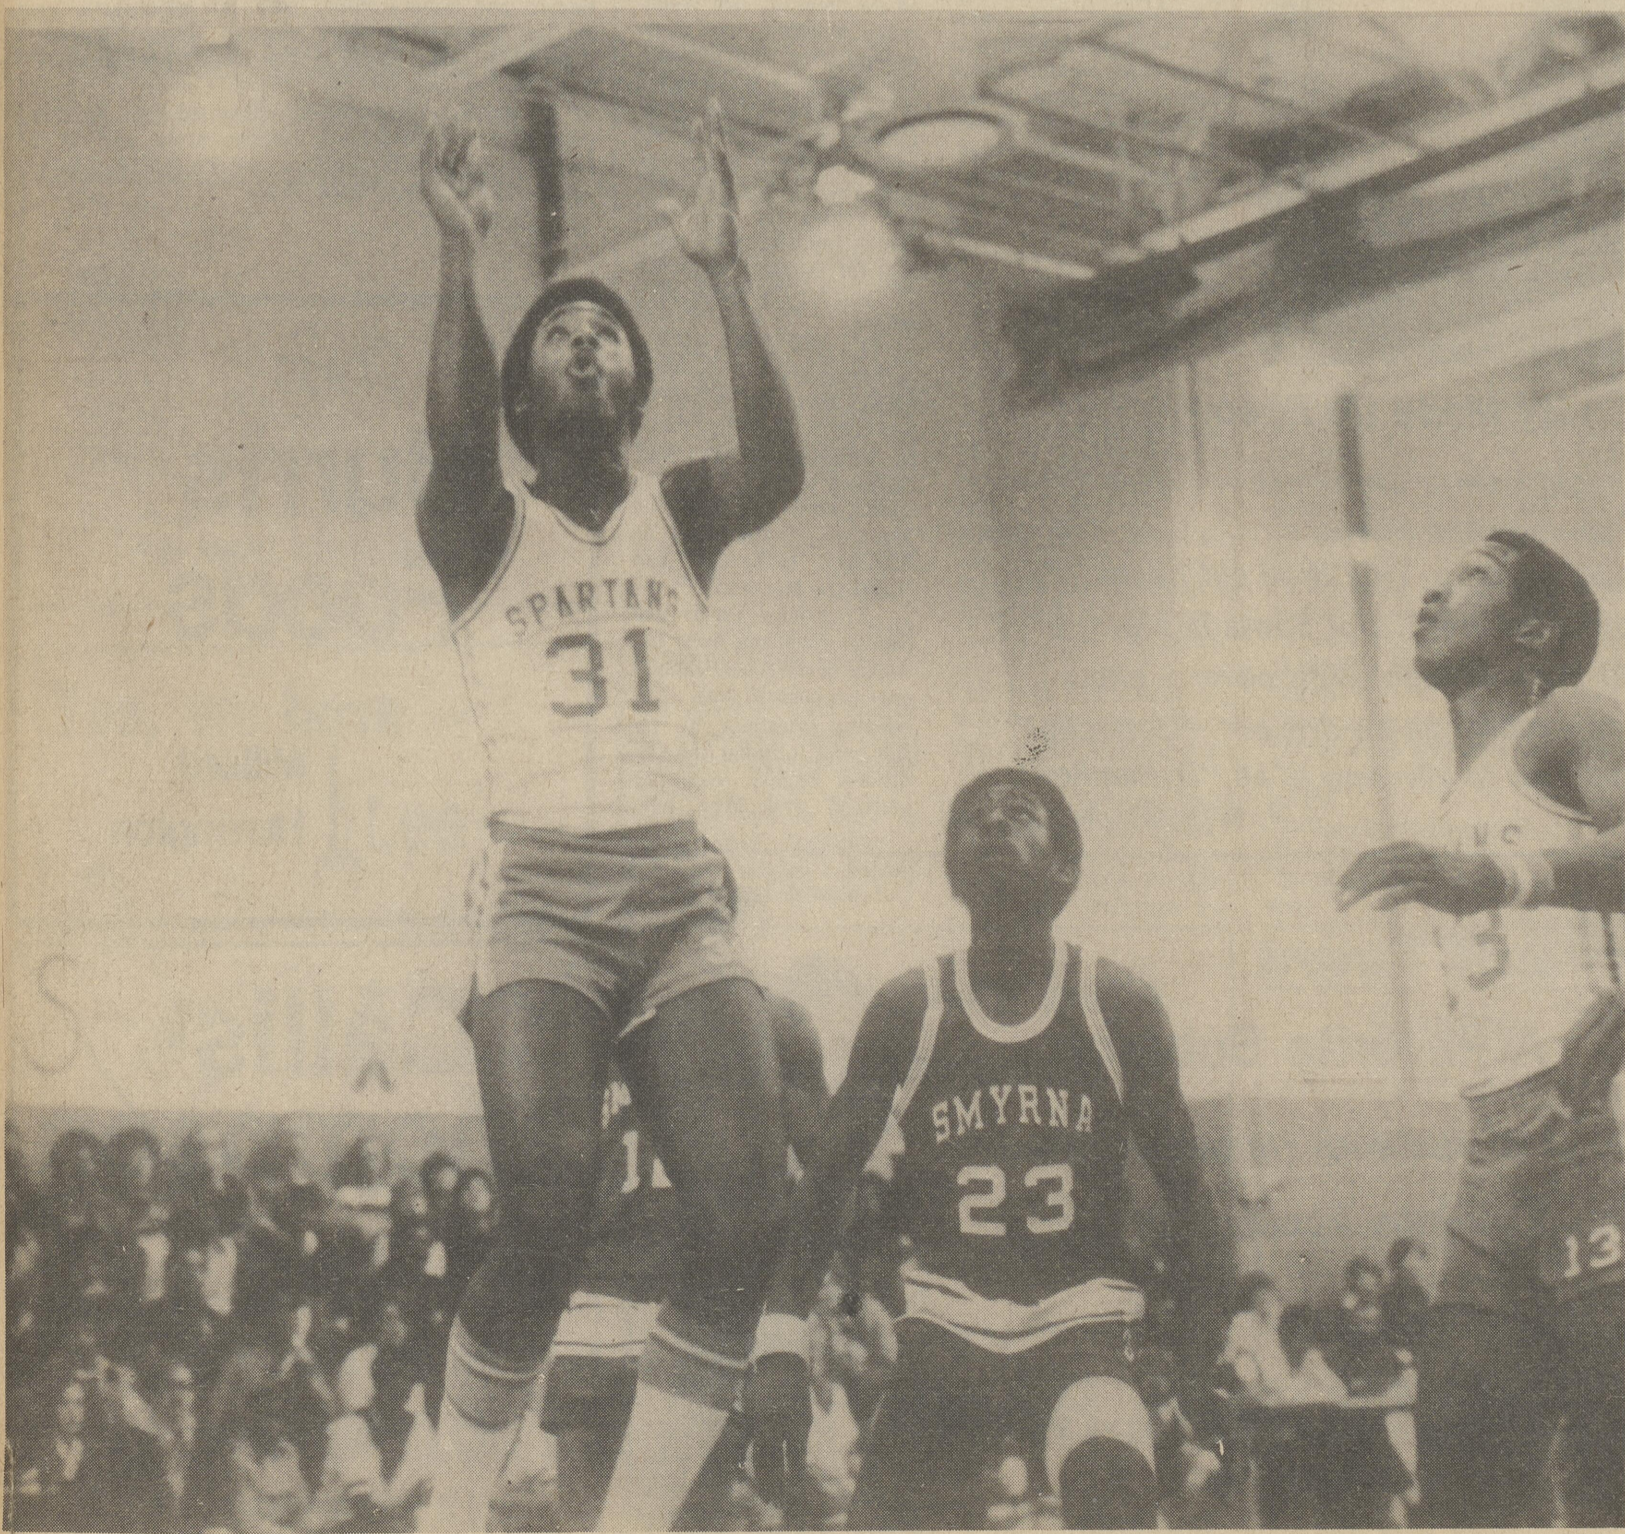

Tammy Warren filled the gap with a picture perfect set shot that pulled Lake Forest to the lead by one. Then Brenda Thomas made a key steal and basket to put the game out of reach for good.

"Brenda's coolness was the difference," said Pat Dyal. "She played an outstanding game."

Now the Spartans ready for their biggest game, Laurel on January 4th.

Its five in a row for Lake Forest

Bill Falasco's varsity Spartans rolled over two more challengers last week as the impressive unbeaten streak continued on unabated.

First it was Delmar, then Indian River, and Holy Cross that wilted before the smoothly coordinated attack of the Spartans. Last week Woodbridge and Smyrna wilted in similar fashion as Lake Forest seems the team to beat this year in the Henlopen Conference.

On Tuesday, Falasco took the team to Woodbridge and embarrassed his hosts by completely dominating the weak team. It wasn't much of a struggle, Woodbridge lost a boatload of talent to graduation last year, and Falasco was able to substitute freely from the opening play.

On Friday it wasn't supposed to be that easy, but it was. The Spartan's played a relatively poor game and still managed to walk away with a 65-42 win. Poor shooting, particularly at the start of the game, and a rash of turnovers plagued Lake Forest's efforts all through the contest. But the timely shot and very deep bench allowed the Spartans to coast through the game.

Both teams began questionably as nothing fell for about three minutes. Lake Forest led by 10-6 after the first period, basically because Smyrna couldn't find the hoop at all.

Things got worse for the Eagles in the second period as their play became sloppier, and Lake Forest's got better. Dale Benson and Darryl Curry came off the bench and took the game in hand. The trio of Benson, Curry, and Kenny Sudler exploded for 14 points and, as the half time buzzer sounded, it was 28-16 Lake Forest.

The second half saw the Spartans in their man-to-man defense most of the time, forcing constant turnovers and mistakes. Offensively, Lake Forest began to zero in on the basket consistently.

Being a particular terror was Kenny Sudler, who hit for a game high of 23 points. Sudler has emerged from last season's hard lessons to become the team's driving force. His aggressiveness and leadership contribute heavily to this year's standout team.

If Falasco can now continue to coax brilliant play like that shown in the first five games, it seems certain that Lake Forest will become a household name in Delaware basketball circles this year. One thing for sure, Falasco is looking forward to the 80's.

The Blue Banana

East program features music of Christmas

A tradition was kept alive and strong on the evening of December 13 as parents and students crowded the gym at Lake Forest East in Frederica for the annual Christmas musical.

This year's version was directed by Miss Mary K. Mann, who is spending her first year as a music teacher in the Lake Forest district.

As in previous years, the Christmas musical involved everyone from first through sixth grades and featured some instrumental as well as vocal music.

In first through fourth grades, individuals or small groups were selected to illustrate the songs presented by a chorus of all the students in the grades.

First graders sang "Angel Band" and "Jingle Bells." Angels included Lori Pennington, David Rager, Erin Larkin, Clayton Havens, Kristy Scott, Zachary Adams, Lisa Scott, Tamara Shorts, John Moyer, and Lennon Hamilton. The bell players were Georgeann Sturgis and Greta Browning.

The two selections from the second grade were "Suzy Snowflake" and "Up on the Housetop." Toya Williams was Suzy; Robbie Perkins, the Snowman; and Andrea Stillwell, a sleigh rider.

Third grade choices were "El Rorro" and "That's What I Want For Christmas." Chuck Coleman played Santa Claus.

The fourth grade followed with "Santa Claus is Coming To Town" and "Nuttin' for Christmas," with Frankie Walls and Stacy Slocum as the "Bad Kids." These two were supported by John Wagenhoffer, Tammy Roth, Tammy Foracker, and Anita Spencer, who played other roles helping to illustrate the second song.

Members of the Advanced Band played two traditional carols, "Good King Wenceslaus" and "What Child is This?" (featuring Diana Wilkins) as well as the more light-hearted "Jingle Bell Bounce" (with Billy Betts, Shawn Short, and Tommy Thompson). The instrumental students in the Advanced Band are Dianna Smith, Fonda Beetschen, Diana Wilkins, Dani Hoogerhyde, Tommy Thompson, Michael Mosley, Billy Betts, Shawn Short, and Shawn Harrington.

After the fourth grade presentation, the fifth and sixth grade chorus sang four Christmas favorites: "A Holly Jolly Christmas," "Little Drummer Boy," "The First Noel," and "O Come All Ye Faithful." Lee Currey was the Drummer Boy.

Adults serving on the Decoration and Costume Committee for the Christmas program were Mrs. Marion Gussett, Mrs. Bernadine Butler, Mrs. Valerie Crawford, Mrs. June Ward, Mrs. Beverly Gemmill, Miss Judy Greenplate, Mrs. Susan Adams, and Miss Leah Biddle.

Others who assisted with various responsibilities were Mrs. Janet Brown (Program), Karla Mahon and Vicki Sanchez (Usherettes), Danila Webster (Student Assistant), Lenore Prince and Dawn Ford (Narrators), and Mrs. Timmons and Mrs. Tewelow (special help during rehearsals). Many other teachers and aides were on hand to assist with the program.

Shopping

Choosing the right Christmas gift can be difficult, but fun as these students at Lake Forest North discovered when they went shopping in Santa's Secret Shop which was sponsored by the North Elementary PTA

The winning class

This Christmas tree had some decorations that did not belong, and this third grade class from Mrs. Linda Conner's room at Lake Forest South was the most successful in singling out the things that should not have been there. Actually this was a project sponsored by cafeteria manager Mrs. Dorothy Collins. The tree was decorated with pictures of all kinds of edible things. But some of them wine, beer, coffee, popcorn, potato chips would not be served on a good Type A lunch at school. Mrs. Collins invited fifteen classes in the school to pick out the wrong foods. Four participated and got free ice cream for their efforts. Students in the winning class pictured here are Brenda Bartsch, Andy Wright, Darren Lawson, Keith Harpster, Greg Reed, Margie Cahall, Tracey Hughes, Valerie Apt, Scott Melvin, Denise Yannucci, Linda Green, Darrell Allen, Billy McCullough, Brian Bassett, Galen Byerly, Lara Stayton, Troy Hurd, Cindy Teidgen, Joyce Downs, Melissa Larrimore, Tammy Benson, Kim Ewell, Tarra Gladden, Russell Conaway, Quintella Coleman, Shannon Dawson and Greg Collins. (They are not listed in order.)

Mrs. Carroll got a swing at one of the pinatas made by her Spanish students at W.T. Chipman. The pinatas in a variety of Christmas shapes were brought in as a part of last week's festivities. This pinata did not break at this particular whack, but when it did, there was a mad scramble for the goodies. Next week it will be back to work as usual--learning Spanish verbs and other things. Ho, ho, ho and Oh, ho hum!

At Lake Forest North students get a shopping experience

"Do you think Mom would like this ring? Or would this key chain that says 'MOM' be better? [She's always losing her keys anyway.]"

Some crucial shopping decisions were made last week at Santa's Secret Shop at Lake Forest North in Felton. This PTA project was actually a gift shop in miniature set up in a classroom. The shop enabled youngsters from pre-Kindergarten through sixth grade to select affordable gifts for Mom or Dad or other family members and friends. It also served as a fund raiser - netting $339 for PTA projects.

According to PTA President Mary Ann Stayton, the shop provided a learning experience in the guise of pre-holiday fun. Each student who participated (and a majority did) had to contend with the shopping hustle and bustle and solve that all-important problem - how to select just the right gift and stay within your budget. The price range in the shop was scaled to youngsters' pockets with items marked from 25 cents to $3.50.

Animal rings were big sellers at 25 cents. The "MOM" key rings and an emergency candle shaped like a giant crayon (each selling at $1.25) also went fast. Other popular items were a variety of screw driver sets for Dad, and mugs for Mom or Dad, Grandma or Grandpa. Also available were Old World lamps, jewelry (including some cocktail rings that really impressed the children), charms for sisters, grooming sets, and a selection of Christmas decorations and chimes.

Santa's Secret Shop was in operation for two and a half days. During that time, each class had an opportunity to come in for a period of shopping, and youngsters were able to reserve items and make a second or third visit if they wished.

Prior to the opening of the shop, a letter was sent home to parents explaining the project and giving each child an opportunity to bring in a Christmas shopping list with names of those for whom he wished to buy presents, and how much he had to spend.

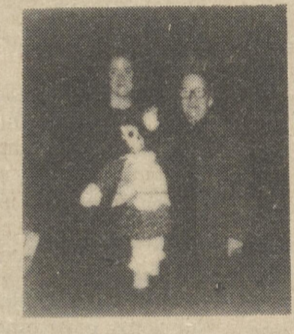

These lists helped PTA volunteers assist the children with their shopping. Mrs. Stayton pointed out that the fact that Felton is a relatively small community was a help. In many cases, the PTA volunteer knew the parents for whom the child was shopping, and was able to give well informed advice. Teachers who came with their classes were also able to assist.

PTA volunteers who served in and survived the pre-Christmas rush in the shop were Trudy Cabbage, Karen Wilmore, Sue Killen, Gloria Rawding, Betty Ann VanVessen, Sue Chambers, Loey Voshell, Joyce Bennett, Rita Saulsbury, Phyllis Schmitt, and Mary Ann Stayton.

Items for the gift shop were received on consignment from Santa's Secret Shop, a fun service program out of Woodlyn, Pennsylvania. Items not sold could be returned, and on those that were sold, the PTA received a 33 percent profit.

Raggedy Ann gets new home

A thirty-six inch Raggedy Ann doll made by Mrs. Marion Breton and donated to the PTA at Lake Forest North got a new home with Mrs. Thelma Minner, who won the doll in a PTA sponsored drawing. The drawing was held during the Christmas program at North on December 12. Mrs. Minner, who is from Maryland, has grandchildren in school in Felton.

The PTA has several purposes in mind for money raised in this and other projects. It will be contributing to the school fund to purchase a back drop curtain for the stage and hoping to buy several such needed items as card files for the library. Another regular PTA project, lightly called "Operation Nose Blow," puts boxes of tissue in every classroom for the season when Rudolph departs and the winter cold arrives to be responsible for all those red noses.

Band and chorus give concert

The W.T. Chipman Band and Chorus, both under the direction of Alex Becton, last week gave a series of community and school concerts.

The week began with a performance by the band for the Felton Fire Company Christmas party. On Tuesday there was a full evening concert in the W.T. Chipman field house. This was open to the community. Both band and chorus were on the program. On Wednesday morning, band members hiked over to South Elementary on West Street in Harrington to play their Christmas music for the first graders and kindergartners there. On Thursday and Friday the band and chorus repeated their concerts for students at South "A" and for the junior high school.

Featured in the concert performances by the Chipman Chorus was a solo by Ken Smith. Kensang "Away In A Manager". The four numbers presented by the chorus were "The Holly and The Ivy", "O Come All Ye Faithful", "God's Gift" and "Light the Menorah". Traditional carols and popular favorites were the staples of the concert band's seasonal concert fare. The opening selections by the full band included the traditional English round "Rondelay" and "The Echo Carol" as well as the children's favorite Rudolph, three "Songs of Chanukah" and two English Christmas songs.

Following the opening numbers there were feature performances by two ensembles and two quartets - made up from various sections of the band. These included "Alleluia" by the Brass Ensemble (David Reiden, Stephanie Kish, Pam Pierce, Jeff Moore, Susan Hooven and Sondra Warren), the "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy" and "March" from "The Nutcracker Suite" by the Flute Ensemble (Pam Kreer), Julie Voshell, and Teresa Wagner), "Quar-

-Tete-A-Tete" by the saxophone Quartette (Troy Dennis, Ivan Coleman, Mike Lamphier and David Jarrell), and "Clarinets on Parade" and "Silent Night" by the Clarinet Quartette (Oye S-KAGGS, Pam Ware, Darlene Bell and Regina Abrams).

The band opened the closing section with a rousing performance of its Christmas marching music, "Do You Hear What I Hear", with its enthusiastic percussion. There followed "The Little Drummer Boy", "Sweet Sounds of Christmas" (a selection of three familiar carols), and "O Come All Ye Faithful" as a finale.

Student Essays Mark Delaware Day

Fourth graders in this State study Delaware History, and December 7 is Delaware Day. These two factors combined to make a busy time in late November and early December for some fourth graders around the State. They were invited by Governor Pierre S. DuPont to submit essays on the subject "The Most Important Event in Delaware History" to the State's very first Delaware Day Essay Contest. Their entries were to be sent to the Governor for judging. A winner was chosen from each county.

A letter of recognition was sent to the teacher of each child who participated. South elected to take part in the contest and were subsequently recognized by Governor DuPont for their efforts. Since fourth graders at South do not actually get into the study of Delaware history until spring, this project took a lot of extra-curricular effort by the four young people.

Following are a copy of the letter sent by the Governor to one of the teachers and the four essays written by students in Mrs. Ellingsworth and Mrs. Gibson's classes. December 11, 1979

Dear Mrs. Gibson:

I would like to thank you for encouraging your students to participate in our state's first Delaware Day Essay Contest. The enthusiasm shown by fourth grade students in the preparation of their essays and the direction provided by teachers has added vitality and new impetus to the annual celebration of Delaware's ratification of the United States Constitution.

The numerous topics discussed in the essays have provided us with a special insight into the historical development of our state. Their explanation of events, both past and present, have proven that children are indeed excellent historians.

Thank you for inspiring your students to write about Delaware history and please extend my congratulations to the following students for preparing such fine essays.

Sincerely yours,
Pierre S. duPont, IV

Mrs. Gibson's Class: The Most Important Event in Delaware History

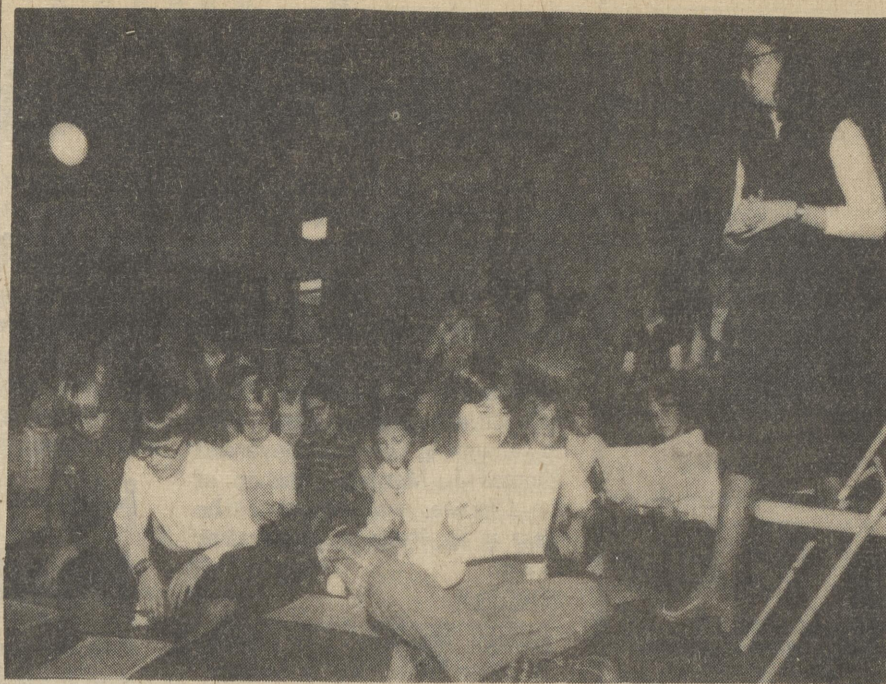

by Carol Moss

I think the most important event in Delaware history is Caesar Rodney's ride. Caesar Rodney rode for freedom so he could cast his vote to free the American people. We all heard that when Caesar Rodney heard of a new event he jumped in his carriage and was on his way. He traveled from Dover to Philadelphia. Off he was on his way, and his horses galloping. Ninety miles he went with out stopping once except to get more horses. But right after that he was on his way again just to cast a vote for the American people. Caesar Rodney was a good man. He always was nice to people. But finally one day it was time to cast his vote. He just barely made it. He and other people voted. Thomas McKean thought if Caesar Rodney didn't cast his vote then there would be no vote because the other people would win it. But he still hoped he would make it. And he did. The American people are not owned by anyone. Everyone knows that Caesar Rodney died many years ago, but I think everyone knows about Caesar Rodney's ride. I think the reason this is such a good event is because Caesar Rodney was such a nice person and helped give freedom to American people. Caesar Rodney was a great man.

The Most Important Event in Delaware History

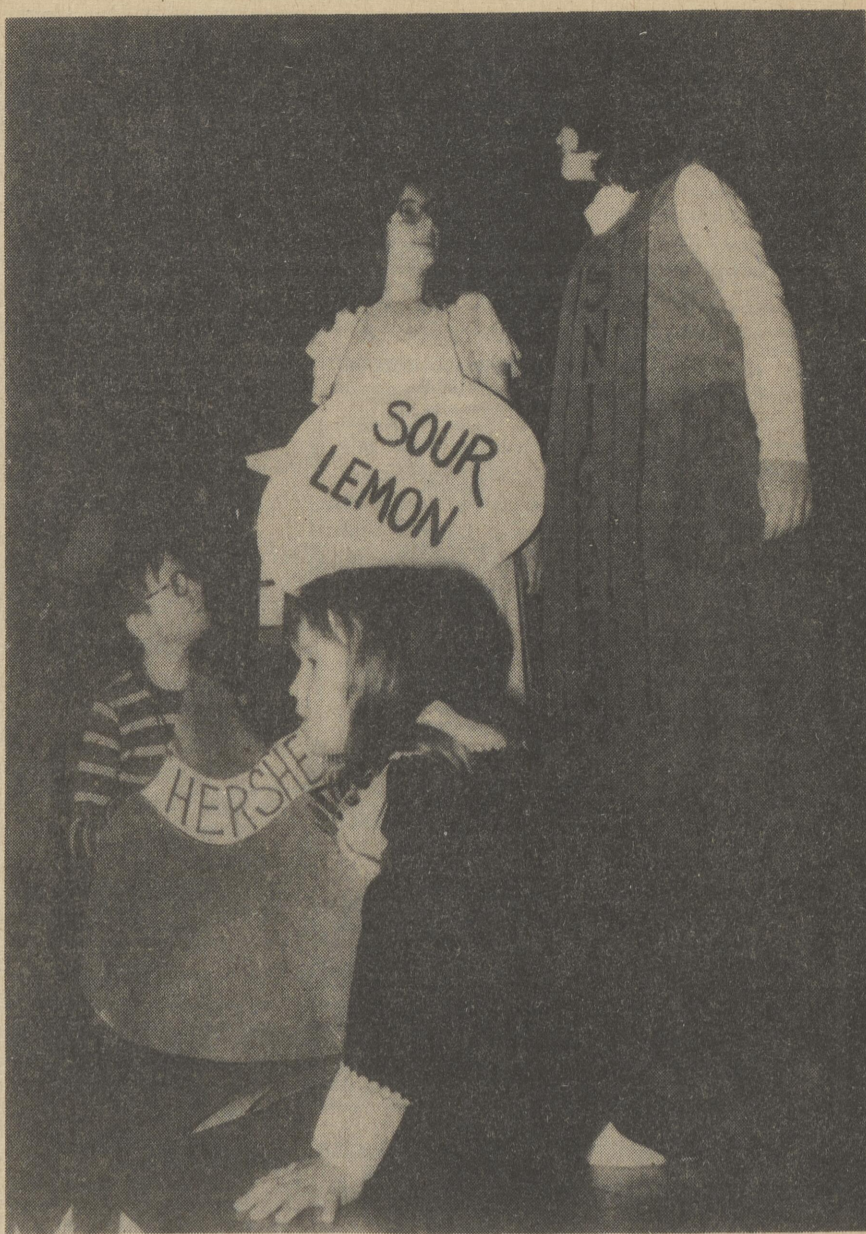

by Christine Swafford

I think the most important event is Caesar Rodney's ride. I don't think the English should have given that kind of taxes. The English were giving us war taxes, and even when the war is over. But they still made us pay those taxes. The English wouldn't let us have freedom. I think they should have had freedom when they wanted it. George Reed said it was not yet time to have independence. The Congress was deciding whether to have freedom or not. I heard of a man who wanted freedom and his name was Caesar Rodney. If Rodney's vote was not for freedom, we wouldn't have independence. But Rodney's vote was for independence. The Tories kept the letters away from him. The tories had no right to keep them letter. But somehow a negro got the news to Rodney and told him. Rodney raced to his carriage without a second to spare. His horses galloped along and when the horses he had got tired he changed for fresh new ones. He went through mud, rivers, lakes, streams. He raced to get his vote in for independence. I know he was going to get his vote in, because we have freedom today. If I live there in the old days I don't think I would have paid those taxes. They were very silly taxes. Caesar Rodney rode almost ninety miles. He was so tired. Just think about the horse. He got his vote in and there was freedom, and Caesar Rodney was put down in Delaware History. I think that's a record breaking ride.

A Christmas Fantasy

Wondering what to do with all that pre-Christmas unrest, a teacher consults her class. The resulting decision takes the class and the audience into a Christmas fantasy world in which all kinds of things including finding out what it would be like to bew a Christmas candy-happen. This all took place in the Christmas musical and dramatic extravaganza presented at Lake Forest North on Wednesday, December 12. The production called "Fantasyland" starred a cast of hundreds of students.

Mrs. Ellingsworth's Class:

The Most Important Event in Delaware History

by Tawnya R. Minner

Delaware had three delegates to the Second continental Congress. Only two of them were there and they voted one for and one against the Declaration of Independence. Caesar Rodney was the third delegate and he rode 80 miles through a bad thunder storm just to get there to break the tie. The Declaration was passed and the colonies became states.

"Christmas in Mother Gooseland"

Do you know the inside story of Miss Muffet and the spider? If you had been one of the parents to attend the presentation of "Christmas in Mother Goose Land" by Mr. John Davidson's fourth Grade at Lake Forest East, you would byt now. After donating her "tuffet" to the children of the old woman in the shoe. Miss Muffet made it all clear--the spider was plastic...the work of a teasing brother...and Miss Muffet ran after her brother,

18th Century by Ronnie Armer

In 1776 the colony of Delaware became a state with a President as its chief executive. Regiments from the state gave valiant service to the patriot cause, especially the Delaware 1st-Regiment, which was nicknamed the Blue Hen Chickens originally because they carried with them gamecocks bred by a famous hen of Kent and later because they themselves showed the fighting quality of gamecocks. Delaware was a leader in the movement for changing of the form of government under the Articles of Confederation and in 1787 became the first state to ratify the new Constitution of the United States. The late 18th century also marked the beginning of industry in Delaware with the establishment of gristmills on the Brandywine and Christiana rivers. Wilmington became a center for the manufacture of cloth, paper and flour products. The state constitution of 1776 was followed by a new constitution in 1792 which provided that the chief executive be a governor rather than a president.

"In 1980, I will....."

If you had it all to do over, what would you change? With a new year approaching, each of us has a chance to begin again, hopefully to change some of the things we don't like about ourselves. With this in mind, some sixth graders at Lake Forest East in Frederica spent a few moments before Christmas making some New Year's resolutions - some to be kept, some to be broken, perhaps a few to be "merely cracked."

Do any of these sound familiar around your house?

MY NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION

Mrs. Legar's Sixth Grade, L.F. East Elem.

"I'm gonna be good and do my homework every night and stop reading such stupid books."

"I won't talk so much in other people's work time."

"I've got to gain 5 pounds before I go to Chipman."

"To not squeak on my saxophone."

"I will not complain a lot."

"To save all my money and put it in my bank."

"To stop fighting with my brothers."

"I will work harder."

"Try to run around the block around the house."

"I'm going to do my very best in school. I'm going to do my best at school work. If I don't do it right away, I will keep trying anyways."

"Not to fight with my two sisters and my brother-Play and be a lot nicer to my brother-Not to be so lazy and make my brother do things for me-Try harder on schoolwork and on comprehension-Work on vocabulary."

"My New Year's resolution is to be able to go to Texas this summer and stay for a while with my family."

"My New Year's resolution is to stop getting in trouble."

"Starting January, I'm going to find information about how much Delaware has changed, and if people think it's getting better or worse. Then tell my thoughts to Governor duPont and see what he can do."

"In 1980, I will practice my saxophone 140 minutes a week."

"I am going to win grand champion with my horse for the second year in a row at the Delaware State Fair."

"I am going to get a job on my Dad's new boat. And I am going to put my money in the bank."

"I will not break any windows or dent the car. I will not back talk my mother."

"I am going to go roller skating every Sat. evening, even if I am sick."

"I promise to work harder and better."

"To get the Most Valuable Player of the Year Award."

"To try to get along with people."

"To keep my room clean."

"Try not to fight."

"To improve in all my school work."

"To have good work habits."

"To try to behave and to get good grades."

"I'll be nice to other people."

"To practice my flute every night for 1 1/2 hours."

"To try to get good grades so I can go to Chipman."

"To stop biting my nails and grow long ones."

"I am going to gain 2 pounds."

"I will keep my room neat and clean. I will never bite my nails again. I will never be bad again."

"I don't need a new year's revolution."

"To save enough money to buy myself a ten speed bicycle for my birthday."

"To try to stop all my fighting and try not to lose my temper by people calling me names. And, try to be on time when I go play baseball."

"I'm going to play with my toys and help my mother

Happy New Year!

Members of the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington will join with other Catholics throughout the United States in observing 1980 as the "Year of the Family." A special Mass with representation from the various parishes in Delaware and the Eastern Shore will officially open the observance on January 6. The Most Reverend Thomas J. Mardaga, Bishop of the Diocese, will celebrate the Mass at St. Peter's Cathedral at 11 a.m.

Bishop Mardaga has joined with other U.S. Catholic bishops in calling for a compassionate and pastorally centered approach to the needs of families. This includes ministry to youth and the unmarried, the engaged, the newly married, first time parents, parents with growing families, hurting families, etc.

Special representatives from all parishes throughout the diocese will work with the Family Life Bureau in following the plan which emphasizes vision and strtegy for a renewal of marriage and family life in our own time.

When the 1980 International Synod of Bishops convenes in Rome, the church body will focus its deliberations on the Christian family in the modern world.

Fifteen years have passed since the Second Vatican Council gave expression to its pastoral and dogmatic reflections on the condition and mission of the Christian family. Since that time, there has been a profound change in the church and the world. The Synod is a consultative body which advises the Pope on various questions.

For Your Information

Every day in the U.S. more than 5200 people die. The majority are elderly and it often marks the involuntary end of a marriage. Survivors then face what psychologists feel is the greatest adjustment that life calls on us to make - adjusting to the loss of a loved one. Grief counseling is often needed to help the bereaved readjust to a new, wholesome pattern of life.

Respectfully,

William C. Berry Jr.

Note of Thanks

Grace and Carroll Welch want to take this space to thank those of their friends and customers who took the time to remember their daughter, ANNETTE WELCH, during her recent stay in Mercy Hospital. A card, a note, or a phone call can do wonders to dispel loneliness, as anyone knows who has ever been a patient in a hospital.

At this time, Annette is now a patient in Milford Memorial Hospital, room 240-2, or she would be thanking all of you for her own self.

Continued prayers for her recovery will be appreciated. Thanks so much, Grace and Carroll.
