Planning and Zoning Appointment Invalid

The appointment of Ellen Perry to the Harrington Planning and Zoning Commission was not done as the City ordinance prescribes, and the appointment is therefore invalid. When it acted summarily in ignoring the Mayor's appointment of Charlotte Gagne to the Planning and Zoning Commission and proposing Mrs. Perry's name, the Council was also ignoring or forgetting, the proper procedure detailed by law.

The error was pointed out at last Thursday's Harrington Council meeting by Mayor Arthur Cahall, who referred to Chapter 13, Section 1:02 of the City Ordinance which says the Mayor makes the appointments, and the Council confirms or denies. The Council neither confirmed nor denied the appointment of Mrs. Gagne. It proposed Mrs. Perry instead. Its action was improper and left the Planning and Zoning seat open.

On a motion by Harold Brode, consideration of the Planning and Zoning appointment was tabled until February's regular meeting of the Council. Brode asked for the delay on the question, so that the Council could have up-to-date information on the current membership of the commission and the number of positions vacant.

Mayor Cahall said at that time he would appoint Mrs. Gagne. If her appointment is not confirmed by the Council, he would have the option of appointing Mrs. Perry or someone else.

The invalid appointment came at the January 9 reorganization meeting of the Harrington Council. At that meeting, the Council chose William Dill, over the Mayor's suggestion of the Reverend Ray Newman for the office of Vice Mayor. Since the Council by Charter does have the power to

It has not been established just how many years this tree has shaded the residents of Harrington but a good guess would be that it predates the community. However, one thing is certain - its day's are numbered. According to a recent Council decision the tree will get the ax when nearby buildings are razed to create a parking lot for the Harrington Senior Center. In making the decision, Council ignored a citizen suggestion to have the tree tested for disease first. It may be ailing, or it may be well. Apparently Harrington will only find out after the fact.

LF Board meets....

The Lake Forest School Board met Monday night and decided to "gamble" in getting over $9,000 in funds for a "Reading is Fundamental" program at Lake Forest High School. The board also heard LFEA suggestions as it conducted a first hearing on a revised promotion policy for grades 1 - 8 and set Monday, January 28 at 7:30 p.m. for a special meeting on the policy.

For details of these and other Board business see next week's Journal.

Willis Rezoning Hearing Is Tonight

A second public hearing on rezoning a parcel of land owned by Dudley Willis, scheduled after months of haggling, is set for the fire hall in Harrington this evening from 8 to 9:30 p.m. At last Thursday's regular meeting of the Harrington Council, Mayor Arthur Cahall moved the location of the hearing from City Hall to the fire company's more spacious quarters. Cahall also called a special meeting of the Council for the same time. This will enable the Council, if a quorum is present, to take any appropriate action on the rezoning as well as to discuss several properties on which the City may seek condemnation. In discussing tonight's hearing, two Councilmen - Jack Wyatt and Dr. Vincent Lobo - questioned whether or not Willis did indeed have a current rezoning request before the Council. At the time Willis made his second proposal to the Planning and Zoning Commission he suggested that, if the rezoning were approved, he would offer a 200 foot strip of land consisting of about an acre bordering on Peck Avenue to the City for any appropriate use. Seeing this as merely an attempt to circumvent a zoning ordinance which requires a three quarters vote of Council to make any zoning changes opposed by 20% of the property owners within 200 feet of the property in question, Council unanimously voted in the fall to refuse any such offer. The confusion came when Wyatt and Lobo apparently assumed that the Council's vote on the offer of land to the City constituted action on the zoning question itself. If this were true, it would have scuttled tonight's hearing and made it necessary for Willis to go through the whole process, including submitting an application to the planning and zoning commission, again.

Mayor Cahall was quick to point out that the Willis offer was only a suggestion and was not tied to the zoning question itself. The Council has never taken any action on the second proposal submitted by Willis and approved by the Planning and Zoning Commission early in the fall.

As a matter of fact, the Council has avoided taking any action and avoided setting a new public hearing on the Willis rezoning since hearing City Solicitor Harry Terry's opinion that it was legal, if not ethical, to dodge the issue altogether. Tonight's hearing was only scheduled after a tie vote on a motion to hold it was broken by Mayor Cahall at the December meeting. The tie was caused by the chance absence of Councilmen William Dill and Harold Brode who had previously voted with Lobo and Wyatt against holding a second hearing.

The Mayor has pledged to keep the opening portion of tonight's hearing open for the presentation of factual material and the posing of factual questions by Councilmen and citizens. Following this presentation of information, the hearing will be open to the expression of opinion.

Willis' proposal is for the rezoning of 10.3 acres in parcel A of his property from industrial to residential. If the rezoning is approved, Willis would sell the property to the firm of Case-Edwards which proposed to build a complex of 48 units of rental housing for the elderly. Whether the fact that Willis' new proposal moves the boundary of the property in question 200 feet back from Peck Avenue will get it out from under the three quarters vote requirement will be for Council and/or their legal Counsel to decide. It has been stated, however, that the opposing property owners, as well as any others concerned, would have to submit new petitions at this hearing.

Ex-Frederica policeman found innocent

After an unprecedented six month investigation by the Attorney General's office, and a week long jury trial in Superior Court in Dover, ex Frederica policeman Larry Washburn was found innocent of animal cruelty on Friday.

The animal cruelty charge was brought by the state after an incident in Frederica that took place on May 31, 1979. On that date, Washburn shot a German Shepard to death while the dog was on its owner's property. The three year old animal was owned by Lou Ann and Jeff Horan, now of Dover.

The criminal charges were brought by the Horan's, in conjunction with the Kent County SPCA. After the incident, in November, Washburn was relieved of duty as Frederica's sole policeman. The removal, however, had nothing to do with the shooting incident. Washburn had simply failed to take mandatory training at the State Police Academy and was technically ineligible to function as a town cop. According to various witnesses, Washburn arrived at the Horan residence and found the large dog running loose in the yard. Washburn said that he was responding to a complaint and that a young boy had been snapped at by the animal. Washburn shot the dog once with his service revolver, a .357 magnum, then four additional times with a rifle.

One of the issues in the case was whether or not the dog was "running at large", a previously vague legal concept. Under Delaware law, an officer would be within legal bounds to fire on an animal that was "running at large". The trial's judge, Merrill C. Trader, ruled that the dog was not running at large as it was in the yard of its master at the time. This was the first interpretation of the "Running at Large" statute and should set a legal precedent in Delaware.

The trial was marked by controversy and strong emotions on both sides. Once, the judge ordered the Horans out of the courtroom after outbursts that he claimed could have affected the jury. Trader was also forced to caution members of the Delaware Animal League after hearing some noises and disapproving comments.

When the state presented its case, Washburn was accused of overreacting and using excessive force to control the situation.

When it was Washburn's turn to give his side, he told the jury that it was "him or me", that the dog directly threatened his life and he shot it out of self protection. He claimed that the four shots fired from his rifle were to put the dog out of its misery.

After three hours of deliberation, the jury acquitted Washburn of all charges.

Washburn had received strong support from most Frederica residents and was aided in his defense by the town council. He has no plans to return to police work.

Locals Nominated By DuPont

Governor DuPont announced his nominations for various state posts last Friday. Among the nominees were some local people.

Renominated to the State Board of Elections were Alta Harrington of Harrington and Robert Zook of Milford. Both Harrington and Zook are renominations, they have served previously.

Robert B. Hopkins of Bridgeville was nominated by DuPont to serve the elections from Sussex County. All Election Board nominations are subject to Senate confirmation and entail four year terms.

Dennie McGlynn, newly named president of Dover Downs, was nominated by the governor to serve a six year term on the Board of Trustees of the Standardbred Development Fund.

Bill would double deductions

A bill to double the amount of personal state income tax deductions for Delawareans to $1,200 has been introduced into the House by Rep. Charles P. West, D-Millsboro.

West said today that such legislation is needed because the present $600 personal exemption "is totally inadequate and something must be done to relieve the people of the overbearing bureaucracy on both the state and local level." The Sussex County representative said further that the bill is designed to "save the taxpayers money which they can use to stimulate our economy and help relieve the pinch of rising prices.

"It is time that our leadership begins doing something to help solve the peoples' problems, before the liberals in government completely burden them under with taxes," West said.

Reorganization meeting

The phrasing of a story on the reorganization meeting of the Harrington City Council in last week's Journal may have been misleading. Of the various city offices, committee chairmanships and commission memberships which were filled for 1980, some were to be appointed by the Mayor subject to the approval of the Council. Others were simply to be filled by resolution of the Council and a majority vote. Not all of those mentioned in last week's article were originally suggested by Mayor Cahall. The Council, in several instances, chose to substitute other names instead of those proposed by the Mayor. In one case, a person suggested by the Mayor, declined the office.

Maxwell to run for House seat

State Representative Edward J. Bennett, D-Dover, has volunteered to be Kent County Coordinator for the Congressional campaign of his colleague, Representative Robert L. Maxwell.

Maxwell, of Lancaster Village, in New Castle County, has announced that he will run as the Democratic candidate for Delaware's lone U.S. House seat this November.

To Williamsburg

Chipman 7th graders will travel

Forty-two young people in the seventh grade at W.T. Chipman will get a chance to extend their classroom - to Williamsburg, Virginia. A trip planned by Social Studies teacher Tim Young will take a bus load of his students to the colonial capital from May 30 to June 1.

The trip is the first of its kind at Chipman, but Mr. Young hopes it will become an annual event. It is planned around an educational package offered by Williamsburg which will make the experience possible for $71.50 per student. This cost will cover all fees (bus, motel, meals, admission) except spending money.

Selection of the students to go will be on a first-come, first serve basis to all students without a disciplinary record or low social studies grades. The forty-two who make the trip will leave Harrington at 6 a.m. on Friday, May 30. By afternoon they will be in Jamestown for a tour. By evening they will be in Williamsburg and settled into their quarters in time for a lantern (lantern) tour and a movie.

Saturday will be the day to "do Williamsburg", said Mr. Young. This will include a "behind the scenes" look at many of the craftsman and an actual chance to work in a simulated archeological dig. (They will also get the opportunity to see the real thing).

On Saturday evening there are to be more films and "simulations" to bring the textbook and the classroom into reality.

Sunday is strictly for fun as the seventh graders leave Williamsburg to spend the day at Busch Gardens. Last stop on the trip will be Harrington, Delaware where a sleepy group is expected to arrive at midnight - just in time to catch a few hours' sleep before school at 8:20 a.m.

Informational letters went out this week to parents of all seventh grade students. Those who may be interested were asked to return the letter beginning February 4 in order to receive a trip application. Selection will be on the basis of eligible students who return their applications first.

Commissioner Elliott will not be a candidate

Delaware Insurance Commissioner David H. Elliott has responded to numerous references perpetuated in the press regarding his interest in seeking the office of Lt. Governor this election year.

Commissioner Elliott said he could no longer ignore the erroneous reporting following the annual rash of year-end political speculation. "It has been almost two years since I expressed any opinion concerning the office of Lt. Governor, and I haven't led anyone to believe my intentions were to run for the position."

Bible Study Monday morning was led by Rev. William Markley of Trinity United Methodist Church. Chapters 6 and 7 of St. Matthews. One of the most important parts was the Lords Prayer in Chapter 6. After the reading, questions and answers. A song or two brought to a most pleasant end. Lunch was delicious - baked pork chops, whipped white potatoes, sauerkraut, applesauce and rice pudding.

Manna thank you! Volunteers thank you!!

Members meeting Monday afternoon was called to order by Merle Roth - Treasurer in the absence of President M. Brown and Vice President E. Thorpe. Pledge of Allegiance, Lords Prayer, minutes by William Anderson, Secretary. Merle Roth gave financial report - both reports approved as read. Members agreed to buy two round table - three pair sheers for craft room - tools for workshop.

Letters read and discussed. One very nice letter from President of the Board - Gene Price was enjoyed. We sincerely thank you Gene for all your kindness toward the Center and there are many. Meeting adjourned at 2:10.

Tuesday the Jolly Timers were small in number but not their spirit and sound. Sylvia was at the piano, Tony - trumpet, William Anderson - clarinet - others gave out with the Kazoo - Elsie, Florence, Bertha, Ella, Gladys, Pearl and Mildred. Bells - Elsie, Tamborine - Annabel. They're the greatest!

Audrey Morrison made some scarfs for the snowmen the ladies made Tuesday. Movie with George Goodge projecting; Interesting "Half Way Around" and then lots of conversation, spice balls and nutrition with Claudia and Marian in the afternoon, pudding and vegetables - (Apricot Moose). Exercise with Charlotte. Fun and limbers the spirit as well as the body.

The pool table and room is busy lively, laughable as ever. Don't get to see or hear so much. That is over now as the craft room is completed and we will be in earshot and enjoy them again.

Got carried away with cleaning up craft room - completely forgot physical fitness both days.

Local shopping, bowling at Milford Lanes, Fred Littman and Alice Houston.

Fourteen left the Center in a bus and with Gene Price, for the Three Little Bakers, about 3:45. Those that came in Friday, said they had a lovely time.

The chairs - tables were pushed back along the wall after dinner in anticipation of the Square Set Dancers Levis & Lace. They turned up - gave us a beautiful set and then another, after that it was anyone who wanted to dance or to learn. They call and dance so well, makes it easy to go along and in fact look good. Everyone had a marvelous time, it is fun to watch caller and dancers. They will be back next month. Make plans to be present, you'll be pleased if you do, we will too!

New faces appear most everyday and it's nice to see them. Health Nurse will be here January 29. Going to Blue Hen Mall January 30. We are in the process of cleaning and arranging the craft room and that famous closet again.

To our friends who are ill, who are on vacation, who live in another state and to all homebounds, lets make it to everyone a very special greeting and have written and prayer and smile in every word.

The men of Lodge 534 served a lovely cake, they gave the women.

The officers of Chapter 1229 wore white gowns and red corsets. The ballroom was decorated in purple and gold, colors for all women of the Moose.

Among invited guests was Recorder of Middletown, Recorder Senior Regent and Collegian of Easton and Deputy Regent, Gladys Wells. Mrs. Wells is Deputy Regent for Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia.

Ted Ebert, Governor of Lodge 534 gave a few words of thanks to the Women for their help and support.

Eleanor Seamans, Charter Member, was the speaker for the evening. There have been a lot of changes since the beginning 1951. The main problems with this and other chapters is, How to keep co-workers interested so they will stay in the chapter. Eleanor, said if the co-workers had been paid for their time and work they would have earned $10,355 since June 1979. There are 284 co-workers in the Chapter, plus one lifetime member, Liz Emory.

After the men sang "Happy Anniversary", and wishing continued success, the evening was continued with fellowship and dancing to the music of Sounds Unlimited.

Get Together and

Gabfest

by Pat Hatfield

People do such lovely things for me all the time. Gary's mother, Faye, who is also my very dear friend, sent me for my birthday a collection of poems by Helen Steiner Rice. She knows I love poetry and Mrs. Rice is a favorite of mine.

Another friend gave me a little book entitled, "Thinklets", published in 1927 in Wilmington, Delaware. The booklet had belonged to her grandmother and I know she must have cherished it and then cared enough to pass it on to me. It is filled with little gems of quotations. From time to time I will share them with you. Here is one: "How few think justly of the thinking few! How many never think, who think they do!" (Think about that one for a while). Here's another. "It is well for those who isolate themselves on mental heights to ramble now and then on the plains below." And another. "Moral cowardice is far worse than physical timidity." One more will do for this time. "Don't boast that you 'tell the truth always'...let your friends discover it."

I'm so limited yet in my activities, but it has its compensations. I have more time for reading, and Praise the Lord, my eyes are healing, too. I can enjoy reading for a whole evening once again. Truly, our Lord never shuts one door but that he opens another.

I came across another paragraph of "Life Savors" by Gladys Swarthout. "Being asked to join...goose down comforters...a child's prayer at bedtime...late Sunday breakfasts...flower window boxes...a dish to pass...to forgive...a red canoe...handful of raisins...a first night performance...thoughts while ironing...bite size...looking forward."

The deadline for entries in the Delaware Duck Stamp Contest is rapidly approaching. According to William C. Wagner III, Director of the Division of Fish and Wildlife, interested artists have only till midnight February 1st to submit their entries.

The Delaware Duck stamp will be required for all licensed sportsmen hunting waterfowl within the state. The stamp will sell for $5 and the revenue generated will be used for habitat improvement in Delaware and on the Summer nesting sites in Canada.

My sister tells me she is working on another list of her own. I look forward to it eagerly. She was born with the soul of a poet. She does not write poetry but she thinks and expresses beautiful thoughts which are, in themselves, poetry.

Remember, I have invited you all to send in to me any lists of your own that you may make. It is good to share. I'm always making lists. For instance: A walk in the fog...cardinals on a snow-covered bush...winter sunsets...the contented purr of a cat...the first robin song of spring...the honk of the wild geese...fluffy whipped cream clouds in a blue, blue sky...the smell of lilacs after an April rain...the love of friends. Well, there's no end to it, for it is life and life is beautiful.

Those of you who love dogs ask me about "Nikki". Well, I think his name should have been Peter Pan. He seems to be the little boy dog who's never going to grow up. He was a year old September 21. He still chews everything and romps around like a small puppy. And his training does not progress well. He can learn all kinds of cute tricks in less than ten minutes, but I don't care what the books say, I would never recommend paper training to start with. Of course Dad and I did not have much choice in his case. He was such a baby last winter he could not take being out too long in the cold and, at our age, we could not stand being out there with him for long. So, thinking to please us, he tries to wait until he can get back to his papers. He knows the words "Go Out" and this morning for the first time he seemed to understand that the play yard was for other things besides play.

The entries should be mailed or hand delivered to the Office of Information and Education, Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control, Edward Tatnall Bldg., Dover, DE 19901.

For a complete list of contest rules phone (302) 678-4506.

We had a Kent County 4-H family dinner at Caesar Rodney Jr. School. It was held October 20, 1979. Harrington Sunshine won the Silver Cup three years in a row, and this year we get to keep it. Other members in our club received trophies, ribbons, and medals.

We had a family buffet dinner for our parents at the Trinity Church. It was held November 14, 1979. All had a good time. We gave away door prizes and we chanced off a radio which was donated by L & D. It was won by Terry Freer II.

We ended the year of "1979" with a Christmas Party and exchanging gifts. We also went caroling around the town of Harrington. It was held December 21, 1979.

Harrington Sunshine Club is going to have a Talent Show for Kent County 4-H'ers.

Search for family to host AFS student

A ten-month "experience" in international relations without leaving town - that's what AFS International/Intercultural Programs is offering Lake Forest School District families.

The Lake Forest AFS Chapter is searching for a family that will host an overseas student for the coming school year. The youngster will live with the family and attend classes at Lake Forest High School.

Aside from food costs and possibly some small incidental expenses, the host family incurs no debt in hosting a student. The local Chapter raises an annual fee which - when supplemented by whatever contributions the student can afford - covers AFS program expenses.

AFS also extends a monthly allowance directly to the student to cover incidental personal expenses. The organization makes sure host families will not have to pay medical bills for students. As a matter of policy, AFS extends medical coverage to its students.

Host families may take a monthly tax deduction in accordance with provisions made by the United States Internal Revenue Service.

So there is very little expense to a host family. What is really needed is something that cannot be bought - love and attention that every young person wants in a home situation.

While many families participating in the AFS program include children who are high school students, any family is eligible to serve as a host.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaffer are host families this year, sharing their home with "B.J." Maeland, a young lady from Stavanger, Norway.

Many fine items, like the old poster shown above, are now on display at the Historical Society exhibit located in the Roughly Insurance Building in Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland [Tovolia] Taylor of Milby Street in Harrington celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary on January 15th.

Local Catholics to be asked to assist with Priestly education

Local Catholics in the Diocese of Wilmington will be asked on the weekend of January 26 and 27 to assist with the costs of educating future priests for local service within Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Known as the "Seminary Collection," it is also a time set aside for prayer and expressing gratitude for those already serving in area churches. Currently 18 men are in formation through various studies for future work.

In a letter addressed to the people of his Diocese, Bishop

Thomas J. Mardaga noted the observance of 1980 as the "Year of the Family" within the Catholic church. He said, "the family is a basic strength of the church." The Bishop expressed gratitude to those units who have fostered their son's call to the Church.

A small portion of the funds obtained from the collection will also be used for the purposes of ongoing education of priests currently serving in the Diocese. This includes study days and enrollment in special courses of theology.

Guest Speaker
Mr. Larry Shick will be our guest speaker this Sunday, January 27, in the morning worship service. The Shicks have served as missionaries on the field of Brazil for the past 10 years. After becoming fluent in the Portuguese language the Shicks worked with the Uaica Indians in their first term on the field. Later they taught at the Mission school. There at the school, Larry did technical jobs such as supply work, construction of buildings and an airstrip, as well as river survey work. Barbara Shick has done practical nursing throughout these 10 years.

In the final six years the Shicks worked to reach the Kaxinawa Indians. They did language analysis and literary work with these people and helped to establish a national church in the area. When the Shicks return to Brazil, they will minister in Acre which is 250 miles from their previous work. They will engage in rural evangelism along the Trans-Acre road and along the rivers that adjoin the road. They plan to establish strong indigenous churches and a teaching extension program using tape recorders. Please pray for this ministry.

Sunday Evening
In our Sunday evening Praise and Bible Study service we are currently studying the Doctrine of Satan. This week, the study will be entitled, "Satan's Defeat." Also this week in the evening service we will observe communion.

Christmas Offering Update
Some gifts were given this past week for our Christmas Offering. These gifts raised the total received to $1,470.00, which is $50.00 above our goal of $1,420. We praise God for His goodness, and we thank those who gave for their faithfulness.

The Christmas Offering and other gifts given in December pushed us past the half-way mark in our land purchase. We have received a total of $13,473 toward this project, leaving $12,527 to pay. Some people are buying parcels of the land for the Church. Parcels cost $1,420 per acre, $710.00 per 1/2 acre, $355.00 per 1/4 acre. Others are giving a certain amount each week to this project. We praise the Lord for all those who are helping us as we continue, "Staking a Claim for Christ" here in Harrington.

In My Opinion

By Bruce Levy

Save That Tree!

When we were children, my three sisters and I spent a great deal of our time with our grandmother at her house in Unionville, PA. We learned many lessons there, lessons that haunt me to this day, and I suppose they always will.

One of them concerned trees, and that's my topic this week. There were many majestic, centuries old trees on her land, trees that seemed to rise out of the ground and tower above us like beings from another world. At night, if you listened carefully, my grandmother told us that you could hear them speaking, that you could learn ancient secrets of the universe from their voices. But you had to still yourself and listen.

As I grew, I left the country and adjusted to the life of the city. I never forgot those childhood lessons though, and to this day I regard an old tree as a trusted friend, a friend to be valued and cared for.

This week, I went to the site of that beautiful old tree next to Stone's Hotel to get the picture that appears on the front page. I had never really noticed it before.

Looking through the camera at it, I was struck by its majestic bearing. What a tree that is!

I was also struck by the thought of its being "removed" for a parking lot. Struck by the decision not to have it checked for disease before having it ripped from the ground. Can it be saved? Don't you think we should find out?

Parking lots come and go, a tree like that can never be replaced. Who has the right to pass judgment on such an asset to the town as that old tree?

My grandmother was right, trees are smarter than we are.

Senator Murphy writes....

Again in the second session of the 130th General Assembly which got under way last week, I will be the chairman of the Senate Committee on Banking, Insurance, and Elections.

While one of these three areas touches every one of you reading this column in one way or another, I often hesitate to discuss technical details of banking and insurance bills because, let's face it, the subject matter is sometimes pretty dull.

Nevertheless, I will from time to time discuss in this column the broad implication of such bills which I consider important to us all. Especially when I feel the public is getting it socked to them by the insurance companies.

One such bill I introduced in the Senate last week would prohibit the Motor Vehicle Division from giving any insurance company writing auto insurance any information which is more than three years old.

Presently, state law prohibits an auto insurer from using information on a driving record which is more than three years old, but the Motor Vehicle Division keeps such records for at least five years. Information that has reached me indicates that many auto insurance companies—if not all of them—are acquiring information about driving offenses four or five years old and jacking up insurance rates on the basis of offenses which technically can't be considered for such purposes.

One way to put a stop to these questionable rate hikes is to prohibit the MV agency from giving the information out in the first place.

The Senate passed two bills I sponsored to make more life insurance available at the group rate to state employees and their families. The limits in the present Delaware Code haven't been changed in many years and bear no relationship to today's inflation-ridden times.

SB 262 would increase the limits a state employee may insure his wife and children for from the present $2,000 and $1,000 respectively to $5,000 and $2,000.

The other bill, SB 263, would increase the limit on an employees own life insurance from the present $20,000 to $30,000. The law allows an employee to purchase life insurance in the amount of his annual salary with an upper limit of $20,000. That means an employee making $20,000 and an employee making $35,000 can only get the same amount of insurance. My bill would up that limit to $30,000.

The Senate also passed my bill (SB 292) to put in the Delaware Code the proposed Motor Vehicle Division ruling reducing and revising the way offense points are counted in determining whether or not a driver's license is suspended.

Under the legislation, no points which occurred more than two years before the suspension hearing could be considered, and only half the points accumulated between 1 and 2 years prior to the suspension hearing could be considered.

The new rule and legislation take into account that many bad drivers "see the light" and should probably not be suspended if they have not had a violation in 18 months preceding the suspension hearing.

THOUGHTS FROM DOVER

By Gov. Pierre S. DuPont

On Thursday, I will be addressing a Joint Session of the General Assembly with my annual State of the State speech. A few days later, Tuesday, January 29, I will present my State budget proposal to the Legislature.

Both speeches will set forth my hopes for the coming year and encourage the General Assembly to take action on several important matters. The speeches will focus on energy, education and the State's economy because I think we can take long strides in those areas. We will also propose, of course, a balanced budget.

Already my administration has announced proposals on heating oil aid and weatherization grants for lower income people, revamping and electing the New Castle County school board, and providing modest assistance to Chrysler Corporation. All three deserve General Assembly action this month.

When the Congress enacted legislation providing financial assistance to the Chrysler Corporation, it required that all affect parties, including the several states with large Chrysler plants, participate in the recovery program. Already, many states have agreed to participate. Delaware, I believe, should participate as well.

Chrysler employs 6.5 percent of the manufacturing labor force in Delaware at the Newark plant. The contributions of the manufacturing plant and its employees to the overall Delaware economy are substantial. Chrysler is and has been a good citizen of our State. For these reasons, it deserves support. Further, there can be no question that a closing of the plant, unemployment for 4,500 Chrysler workers and their families, and its effect on Chrysler customers and suppliers would be devastating to the State's economy.

The proposal my administration has suggested would loan the corporation $5 million to be repaid over several years with either money or cars as the interest payment. Chrysler officials support this legislation and believe it will help keep the plant operating.

Thoughts From Washington

By U.S. Senator Bill Roth

A NEW DIRECTION FOR THE 80s

This week, President Carter delivers his State of the Union message. It is not just another message; it is the first State of the Union of the new decade.

Obviously, the 80s will be a time of adjustment, with inflation, recession and shortages already promised. In the State of the Union, we will surely be asked to further tighten our belts and accept the Administration's austerity program for at least another year—a program of fewer jobs, higher taxes, rising prices, less energy and a lower standard of living.

I believe it is time for a new economic policy. It's time to embark in a new direction, one based on increased productivity and long term economic growth.

We have two paths to choose from: One, we can try to fight inflation by putting people out of work through an austerity program of high taxes or, two, we can reduce inflation by increasing productivity and real economic growth through lower tax rates and less government spending.

I'm not proposing a conventional type of tax cut to pump up demand in the economy. I'm suggesting an across-the-board tax cut for all Americans that will expand the supply side of the economy by promoting savings and investment and by increasing productivity, jobs and real economic growth.

At the same time the President addresses our domestic economy, he should do more than just give lip service to our economic opportunities abroad. Internationally, the United States has fallen behind its competitors, which is illustrated dramatically in the $30 billion-plus deficit we've run up in the past two years.

There are ways to correct our trade problems. We need an effective energy policy, increased rates of productivity, research and development and U.S. government export incentives.

Above all else, at this point in time, we need an effective, coordinated, well organized Department of International Trade and Investment to spearhead national export objectives.

These should be some of the goals of our President in his first State of the Union message of the decade.

The questions ahead will not be easily or simply answered, but they never have been for this nation. With proper guidance and leadership, we—all Americans—can stand unified to face the tests of the 80s.

Packed house sees Spartans lose

The backbone of the Spartan varsity, Quinten Hendricks, played brilliantly in Friday's big game with Cape Henlopen. Hendricks was guarded closely on this play, but eventually drove in for the basket.

There was a lot on the line. The Spartans had just come off of a heartbreaking loss to North Dorchester on Tuesday night and now they were faced with their biggest test of the year - mighty Cape Henlopen.

It was a battle of division unbeaten, both Lake Forest and Cape had not lost to anyone in their respective divisions. The gym reflected the stakes, it was thoroughly and completely packed to the rafters with a howling mob of partisan fans. Some people even reported seeing a flicker of a smile on athletic director Dave Adams' face as he viewed the overflow crowd in the Lake Forest facility.

The game disappointed no one, it was a classic thriller. Both teams played 100% to capacity, for four full quarters. Nobody quit, nobody got discouraged. If you missed it, you missed the best basketball game of the year.

But someone had to lose and that chore fell to Lake Forest. But it had to be - Cape was simply better than Lake Forest. In fact, Cape is probably better than any high school, or college team in the state; they were awesome. The final score was 73-60 but the outcome was not sealed until the final moments of the game. For the Spartans to have stood up to the challenge, and played them like they did, was a tribute to the players, the coaches and the school. It was a magnificent contest.

From the opening whistle, the teams hustled and scratched. Basket answered basket, rebound answered rebound as the momentum stayed with both teams and no one was able to break it open. After the first period, it was 19-12, Cape.

Into the second period, a factor was becoming apparent - Cape Henlopen had a very strong bench, a bench capable of coming in and only adding to the effort. That, in combination with a few costly turnovers by Lake Forest, allowed Cape to begin to take control by the end of the half.

The Spartans came back strong after the half, but then so did Cape. In the final quarter, Lake Forest put on a scoring burst and pulled to within one point, 55-56, but it was short lived as the invaders rose to the occasion with a two minute barrage of offense that sealed the Spartan fate.

So, Lake Forest lost the game. But they didn't lose their pride.

Girls also outplayed

"We knew they were going to be a challenge, they are real tough, a talented team. We had our hands full, but our kids never gave up and I'm proud of the way we played."

So spoke losing coach Pat Dyal after Lake Forest fell to Cape Henlopen on Friday night, 51-30. With the loss, the Spartans stand at 6-2 in the Southern Division of the Henlopen Conference.

Dyal was without her star player, Gwen Scott, which certainly didn't help the cause. "Gwen twisted her ankle in practice the day before the game," Dyal said. "It will put her out of action for 10 days, right in the roughest part of our schedule."

Lake Forest played extremely well in the first half of the game, igniting the large crowd that had come to see the showdown. Said Dyal, "We really played well in the first half. The girls were moving around and clogging up the middle on defense. Lolitta Seth played brilliantly for us and I thought we could battle them like that all the way."

Lake Forest was ahead at the half 16-13 and things were looking pretty good, particularly in light of the fact that Gwen Scott was watching from the sidelines. "We certainly missed her," said the coach, "we didn't have anyone to take her place on the inside and we could have used the 10 or 15 points she could have contributed, but we were holding our own."

But, in the second half, Cape began to come alive behind the scoring of forward Ellen Mendenhall, who scored all 18 of her total points in the final two periods. Said Dyal, "I told the girls in the locker room that the third period would tell the story, we could not let them get too far ahead of us. But that's just what happened."

Cape did it with tenacious defense and deadly shooting. Steal after steal, in conjunction with shot after shot, wiped out the Spartans lead which they would never recover.

"We were playing loose and well as far as I'm concerned," said Dyal. "I was very pleased with our play and our attitude. Now, if we can get through the next three games..."

Wrestlers drop two in a row

It was a tough week for Tom Schaffer and the Lake Forest varsity wrestling team, they tied a very tough Laurel team 25-25 and lost their next match with Seaford 35-15. Coach Schaffer said that he thought the Spartans were capable of winning both matches, but that he was well pleased with the efforts of the young team.

The Laurel meet took place on Wednesday night at home.

Greg Ecenrode started things as usual in the very competitive 98 pound class. Although he eventually lost the contest by a 7-1 score, Ecenrode looked well prepared. "Greg is constantly improving," said Schaffer.

At 105 pounds was Bobby Fleming. Fleming showed a ton of heart just staying alive against one of the state's top matmen as he lost 19-11. "One of the best things about Bobby," said his coach, "is his ability to keep moving when things get tough. He more than held his own in this one."

Charles Jones followed Fleming, wrestling at 112 pounds. Jones totally dominated his man and won by a controversial 6-0 margin. It was controversial due to a questionable call by the official. Jones was driving for a pin and used the often effective double arm bar hold, but the referee called it illegal.

Next was Jeff Grove, who is rapidly becoming known as one of the state's real powers in the 119 pound weight class. He worked his man to the mat but couldn't seem to get the pin and settled for a 6-0 finish.

At that point it was 6-7, Laurel.

Kenny Williams, at 126 pounds, got involved in one of the night's best matches. It was an all out, fight to the finish match against a very highly rated opponent. When it was over, Williams was on the losing end of a 15-11 score but according to Schaffer, "Williams looked as good as he ever has, he wrestled till the end."

132 pounder Doug Stevens reversed the losing streak with a solid 4-0 decision, showing improvement with every match.

Next was Dave Brown. He went after his man right from the start, never let up and finally scored a pin after 24 seconds in the second period.

At 145, Mike Kosiorowski drew a forfeit win. There was a man there to wrestle but the Laurel coach tried to get a little fancy.

Instead of wrestling his 145 pounder against the aggressive and talented Kosiorowski, the Laurel coach tried to score what he thought would have been an easy pin against Hershel Harman at 155 pounds. Whaley, one of the state's best, and the top man for Laurel, took on the heavier Harman expecting a quick and easy pin but Harman proved to be better than expected as he held off Whaley and lost by a decision, 7-2. It was a loss, but not a 6 point pin.

Jimmy Fleming came to the mat next at his usual 167 pounds. Fleming, up to this point, had won all of his matches by pin. He was close to a pin for all three periods but just couldn't pin his man's shoulders on the mat and settled for a 11-1 victory.

The following two matches, Ware at 185 and Powell at heavyweight, lost by pins which left the score tied at the finish.

Said Schaffer after the disappointing 35-15 loss, "we really thought we would win this. I guess it was a team letdown after the tremendous effort we put out against Laurel. It surprised me, I didn't think it would happen to us. We should be better than that."

It was ominous right from the start, Greg Ecenrode went down in a 9-0 decision to start things off at 98 pounds. He looked pretty good and moved quickly, but his opponent was one of the best at the weight.

A bright spot followed. Bobby Fleming finally got a varsity win at 105 pounds. Fleming, for a change, wrestled someone with his experience and showed what he could do when evenly matched. The final was 8-2.

The ever improving and powerful Charlie Jones made it two in a row for the Spartans with a strong pin seconds into the second period. "It was the best I have ever seen him go," was Schaffer's comment.

The celebration didn't last too long however, Jeff Grove lost his first match of the season in his following 119 class contest, 7-3. "He just didn't wrestle up to his

Errors in printed sports schedules

There are two errors on the winter sports schedules for the Lake Forest School District schools.

The schedule shows the varsity and JV wrestlers to be at home for a meet on the 26th of January. This is incorrect. On January 26th, the Lake Forest wrestling team will meet C.R. at C.R., starting time is 6:30 as usual.

Also in error on the schedule is a Chipman basketball game on the 28th of January. The schedule says the game will take place on January 24th. This is incorrect. The Chipman-Woodbridge game is set for January 28th, starting time 4:00 at home.

As the Harrington Journal prints the schedules, we regret any inconvenience we may have caused.

North Dorchester beats Lake Forest with one woman show

North Dorchester's Kim Waller singlehandedly beat the girls varsity last Tuesday afternoon with a 26 point shooting clinic that could qualify her for a spot on the Harlem Globetrotters. Pat Dyal's forces tried triple teaming her, but to no avail as the final score stood 28-39.

"It was unbelievable," said coach Dyal, "she just couldn't miss, especially from 20 feet out. There was no defending her, although we certainly made an effort."

Continued Dyal, "We didn't play badly. As usual, though, we had a poor shooting percentage total, 22% from the floor."

Waller was the only bright spot on a fairly mediocre North Dorchester team, but she was bright enough to thwart any attempts by the Spartans to stay even.

Lake Forest led 8-6 at the end of the first period, but never held a lead after that. They trailed 21-14 at the half and began to look better in the third. At the end of the third quarter, the Spartans had made a comeback to pull to within 10 points, 25-35. But the girls could only manage 4 points in the final period to close out the contest on the losing end of a 28-39 score.

Brenda Thomas led Lake Forest with a great playing effort and a total of 12 points. Gwen Scott, who was hot in the first half and cold in the second, put in 9 while defensive standout Lolitta Seth grabbed 6 steals and shot for 2 points.

Hornets win streak stopped at five

The Delaware State College Men's Basketball team had its five-game winning streak halted on Friday (January 18) as the Hornets fell 78-74 to the Trojans of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

With 2:00 minutes remaining in the game, the Hornets rallied to within one point 70-71, but were unable to take the lead. The Hornets were assessed with 24 fouls compared to 16 for the winners and Del. State had at least seven baskets taken away on questionable offensive foul calls.

"I think the officiating was terrible," said Del. State's head coach Ajac Triplett, who was hit with two technical fouls in the first five minutes of play. "I think our guy played very well considering the odds they were up against."

Despite the loss, the 9-6 Hornets were led by the outstanding performances of 6' 5 forward William Hill with 24 points and senior forward Robert Hunter with 15 points and 16 rebounds.

The Hornets will resume their Division I schedule when they host conference foe Howard University on Tuesday, January 22, at 8 p.m., in Memorial Hall Gymnasium. The last time these two teams met, the Hornets squeezed out a 92-90 last second victory on a buzzer-winning jump shot by senior guard Anthony Baylor.

The Hornets will close out their brief home stand on Saturday, January 22, against the Delta Devils of Mississippi Valley. The game is scheduled to begin at 8:00 p.m.

level," said Schaffer. "He was out of school sick on Thursday and maybe that had something to do with it, but I really don't know. Something was wrong, whatever it was."

Kenny Williams made it two losses in a row in the 126 contest. He moved well but lost to a seasoned veteran, 3-1.

At 132, Doug Stevens beat himself. He was working flawlessly when he made a wrong turn in at the wrong time and got himself into a jam he couldn't get out of. He was pinned in 3:59, right at the buzzer.

Dave Brown avenged his teammate in the following match with a 6-2 decision. The score now stood at 12-16, Seaford.

The Animal, Mike Kosiorowski, "looked better than I have ever seen him", according to coach Schaffer. Mike beat his man by a 6-2 score as he pulled his team to within a point in the overall scoring. Now it was 15-16 and Lake Forest seemed to be coming on.

But the momentum swung the other way in the next match. Hershel Harman got himself out of position, and out of the match. He went the wrong way on a takedown in the 155 pound contest and wound up on the wrong end of a pin.

Now it was 15-22 and we had to make a comeback.

Jimmy Fleming carried the team on his shoulders in the next match, 167 pounds, in an awaited showdown. Fleming was certainly capable of winning it all, but he scored all the points against himself.

He slipped twice on a take down and had a penalty assessed to lose 5-1. Every point his opponent got, Fleming gave him on a platter.

Ware and Powell both lost at 185 and heavyweight respectively.

After the Seaford match, Lake Forest's record stands at 1-2-1.

Tar Keel [2:00:3], a three year old, owned by Tom Clarke, left, and Betty Clarke of Felton won all three legs of the Delaware Development Fund in 1979. The horse is being held by Tom Clarke Jr., who is also its driver.

Leroy Calhoun replaces a Plexiglass panel removed by thieves who helped themselves to a stereo at L & D Electronics

Harrington Police are looking for the person or persons who removed a plexiglass panel from the front door of L & D Electronics on Commerce Street in Harrington and made off with $442 worth of stereo equipment. The break-in, which probably occurred some time in the early hours of January 21, was discovered by Leroy Calhoun as he opened for business on Monday.

A Zenith stereo receiver component set, a turntable and a set of speakers were the only items taken. Police have no suspects in the case so far.

Three Arrested In Theft and Criminal Mischief

Three area youths - Michael Delano (19) of Camden, William Dean, Jr. (19) of Felton and a 17 year old from Sandtown were arrested by local police for stealing two vehicles and some cable TV wire as well as another theft from Quillen's Market. They were also charged with criminal mischief at Satterfield and Ryan.

The total in stolen and damaged property came to $7,500 - all the work of one evening. Police recovered both vehicles - a 6 wheel truck used to carry off the cable TV wire and a Ford Mustang. The wire, from which the insulation was burnt off so that it could be sold for scrap, was unrecoverable.

Accident Injures One

Charged with reckless driving is Phillip G. Porter of Greenwood who rammed his 1972 Ford LTD into the back end of a block building owned by L & M Fashions on East Street in Harrington. Porter, who suffered two broken ribs and assorted scrapes and bruises, apparently lost control of the car. The accident occurred late Saturday or early Sunday.

David Elliott...

Since he has no aspirations for the office, the Commissioner said it is unfair to include his name in the group of people thought to be possible choices for Lt. Governor. "In view of the fact that I'm not interested, the references to my candidacy being unacceptable to Governor DuPont are particularly unfair. It might lead some people to believe that the comment came from the Governor's Office, and not speculation from elsewhere."

At this point, Elliott said he's not yet ready to announce whether he'll run for re-election as Delaware's Insurance Commissioner.

appoint the Vice Mayor, the choice of Dill stands.

In other business the Harrington City Council received from Councilman Jack Wyatt a petition signed by a long list of voters in his ward interested in seeing some sort of traffic signal installed at the intersection of U.S. 13 and Delaware Avenue. Other Councilmen are planning to canvass their wards on the same topic.

-decided to write the state in an effort to hurry the paperwork in connection with an EPA project for sewer plant construction. The state and federal government are still haggling over clean water standards, and their disagreement is costing the city money. -received for the minutes a copy of a letter to State Senator Nancy Cook on behalf of residents concerned over long time drainage problems on West Street.

-rewarded a bid for sewer grouting to Tri-State Grouting the second low bidder for $6,830. The original low bidder - Quality Control Sanitary Service - said they couldn't do the job for $2,500 after all. They forfeited $250.

-heard the manhole on Dixon Street has not been repaired as was thought. The contractor in charge found the water table too high, and removed his equipment. The job will probably be attached to an EPA project to be handled by Tilcon Warren beginning sometime in February.

-heard the Harrington Public Library was visited by 3,979 people and circulated 11,507 items in 1979.

-decided to discuss condemnation proceedings against properties owned by Violet Beene and Joseph Richardson at tonight's special meeting and set Thursday, February 7 at 7:30 p.m. as a special meeting on the budget.
