Second A-s't Fire Chief, Robert Taylor, coordinates the efforts of the Harrington Vol. Fire Co. and three others from Felton

Houston and Farmington in efforts to control a barn blaze which cost Delbert Cain an estimated $20,000 on Monday.

Four companies respond as

Blaze destroys two buildings

by D.A. Patten

Monday afternoon at 12:08 p.m. the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company responded to a call at the Delbert Cain property on Rt. 111 just off Rt. 59, west of Harrington. The fire, which was a barn fire, was first spotted by the Flemings, who live next to it.

By the time the Harrington Company arrived, the wind direction had changed and two barns were involved. In a short time Houston, Farmington, and Felton were assisting Harrington.

Two barns were totally destroyed. One was a pole barn which stored approximately 1,000 bales of hay and 1,000 bales of straw, which was still smoldering early Tuesday morning. The other, a double corn crib, was being used for the storage of some small equipment as well as about 500 bushels of corn which was lost.

The fire spread to two other sheds, which the fire companies were able to save. The first of these was a dairy shed converted to a horse stable. No animals were involved. The second was a machinery shed from which most of the expensive equipment was removed.

Fireman used two bulldozers and one front end loader to push down the rubble from the two barns, so they could concentrate on the sheds.

The four companies that responded were backed up by the following companies: Carlisle at Houston, Frederica at Harrington, Camden-Wyoming at Felton, and Greenwood at Farmington. It was six hours after the first call before the fire companies could leave.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation by Fire Marshal Dick Ward. He estimated damages at about $20,000.

Firemen were somewhat hampered by onlookers whose vehicles were parked on or near the road, making it difficult at times for their trucks to pass.

National Register listing sought for Felton RR station

The Town of Felton hopes to have the railroad station it bought from Conrail last summer placed on the National Register of Historic Buildings. Meeting Monday night, the Town Council gave its blessing to Councilman Don Jacobs to submit the necessary paperwork to have the building considered. If all goes well, the matter could be up for a hearing in September.

If the railroad station is selected for the National Register, it could mean funds for the town to continue with the restoration of the exterior of the building to its original design. The Council also expects to renovate the interior so that it can be used as Town offices.

In the meantime, some work has been in progress on the outside of the building. Several window frames, including one for a large bay window facing the railroad tracks, that have been reconstructed by Simpson Lumber Company are being primed for painting. They will be installed once the necessary brickwork around the windows has been restored. The needed bricks have been purchased from Chestertown Brick Company, and the work will be done in the near future. Mayor Bill Myers told the Council William Conner will probably get to the railroad station after he finishes another job currently in progress.

The money the town is now spending on the exterior of the railroad station is not recoverable should the building be placed on the National Register. But funds could be available for further exterior restoration that will be needed.

The Town has also been in contact with Delaware Power and Light Company to explore the best way of restoring electric power to the station.

Council member and treasurer, Mary Ann Stumpf, told the Council the town was still getting billed by the Kent County Receiver of Taxes for taxes that should have been paid by Conrail before the purchase of the railroad station. The bill is in the amount of $27.71 to which a $1.00 penalty has already been added. The town will question its lawyers before taking any action.

Melvin Smith Wants Out of Sewer District

The Council received a request from Melvin Smith that 28 acres of his property in the town limits be excluded from the new sewer district. The land is open territory which the Smith family has no plans to develop. It does not include Smith's residence which he wants kept in the sewer district. What he is objecting to is having to pay $15 per hookup for facilities he has no intention of using. There would be one hookup for each of the 28 acres. He has already succeeded in getting Kent County to exclude 3.8 acres which do not fall within the town limits.

Mayor Myers was to check further into Smith's request for exclusion. The town had previously received a similar request from Perdue which wants to continue using its own facilities rather than hook in to the new sewer district.

To Donate Flag To High School

It was voted Monday to present a large U.S. flag given to the Felton Town Council by the V.F.W. to Lake Forest High School to be used in the gymnasium. The flag is too large to be flown from the pole in the town's Bicentennial Park, and it would be a welcome replacement for the battered one now in use at the high school.

In other business the Felton Town Council:

-heard a complaint from Virgie Carlisle about stray dogs running loose in the town. The dog catcher has been contacted, and at least two strays have already been picked up.

-agreed to spend $187.76 for tires for the town police car. Firestone was the low bidder.

-was informed that Cable TV has been through the town. Cables are being strung, and service is planned to begin sometime in the near future.

Show set for Harrington

The Delmarva Poultry Fanciers Club will hold its fifth annual poultry show at the Delaware State Fairgrounds in Harrington April 20.

More than 400 unusual chickens and waterfowl will be exhibited by some 70 owners.

Winners will be picked by three poultry judges: Burnell "Bruno" Bortner of Railroad, PA, William Gladhill of Knoxville, MD, and Rick Porr of New Cumberland, PA.

The show is open to visitors, and refreshments will be available.

Local author sells 5th & 6th books

Local author, Elizabeth Elaine Watson, has received word on the sale of her 5th and 6th children's books. Standard Publishing in Cincinnati, Ohio, will be publishing her latest books entitled "All About Hands," and "All About Feet". Both books will be released in July of 1981.

Miss Watson is the author of two Broadman Press releases, "Where Are You, God?" and "God Made the Sea, the Sand and Me". Her third book, "Tell Me About Jesus," published by Concordia in St. Louis, Missouri, was just released this month. Still to be released is her 4th book by Nazarene Publishing House in Kansas City, Missouri, entitled "Why Does God Love Kevin?"

Miss Watson is the daughter of Pastor and Mrs. W.P. Watson of the Harrington Baptist Church. She is employed by Constant Printing and Graphics of Harrington, and Central Data Processing of Woodside.

Her books are available locally at the Mustard Seed Book Store in Milford.

Final HUD hearing set

A final hearing to get public input on options available in a HUD project to upgrade Frederica's water system has been set for tomorrow night, Thursday, April 10, at 7 p.m. in the Town Hall. At that time representatives of Edward H. Richardson Associates will be present to answer questions and furnish any additional information as the town seeks to make final decisions before construction begins. The Town Council, which scheduled the hearing at its regular meeting last Wednesday night, is urging citizens to attend and make their feelings known.

State Fair books 1980 acts

An all star list of performers have been booked for the 1980 Delaware State Fair in Harrington this summer. Included among the list of headliners will be country songwriter and performers, Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers Band; pop and disco hitmakers, Kool & The Gang; and Grammy winners, The Oak Ridge Boys.

Noting the success of last year's event which drew a record setting 163,000 attendance, Fair officials feel the popularity and diversity of their "Star" package will help push that figure much higher in 1980.

This year's Fair, the 61st, will run from July 18 through July 26. Traditional events of an old fashioned country fair such as livestock, educational and art exhibits will also be featured for the length of the 9 day run.

Other grandstand attractions include Tom Netherton, a popular singer from the Lawrence Welk TV show, a magician, and a country music talent contest. Traditional events such as stock car racing, a demolition derby, tractor pulling, harness racing, a rodeo, and the Joie Chitwood Thrill Show will also be featured.

Houston Council holds reorganization meeting

The Town Council of Houston held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday night for the purpose of reorganizing following the Town election the previous Saturday. Connie Morgan was elected Mayor, and at the Thursday night meeting James Emory was elected Vice-Mayor, Eleanor Yerkes was named treasurer, and the jobs of secretary-tax collector will be filled at the next meeting of Council.

One of the items on the agenda following the reorganization "was a matter that had been hanging for quite some time", said Miss Morgan and that was warning flashing lights at two rail crossings in the Town at the Broad St. and Pine St. crossings. The Mayor announced that between the Federal government and the State of Delaware funds in the amount of $55,000 will be appropriated. "It was obviously necessary for Broad St. because of the traffic, but it is now equally necessary for the crossing at Pine St. to have them due to the traffic brought about by renovations to the Trappe Packing Co. plant", said Miss Morgan. The State purchased the plant when Dunkin Donut went out of business and leased it back to the Trappe concern.

Brownie News

On March 29th Troop 332 traveled to Felton and met Felton Brownie Troop 330, who had invited us to attend with them to see the Marionette Show held in Dover Middle School. We boarded a bus and motored to Dover. The show was put on by The American Association of University Women called the Nicolo Marionettes Sleeping Beauty.

After the show we again boarded the bus to have refreshments and tell a little about each scout and leader that we had met before returning home. A good time was had by all.

Our crafts for the month of March were: dolls made of yarn. Easter gifts for our mothers made from bars of soaps and decorated with flowers.

April 1, we had our Easter Party. Our pinata that was made for our banquet was the highlight of our party. We had a great time beating it with a stick to get the candy that was inside.

We had our flag ceremony and wished everyone a Happy Easter.

Because of Easter Week there will be no meeting this week.

Our next meeting will be on April 15th. Parents: Have scouts bring their materials for our scrap books that we will begin working on that day.

Have a nice vacation and remember why we have a Happy Easter.

Wesley gets lab equipment

Wesley College has been the recipient of three pieces of scientific laboratory equipment from E.I. DuPont de Nemours and Company, Inc.

A mini-computer, a gift from the Seaford, Delaware plant, will provide laboratory simulations.

One of the instruments, a UV scanning spectrophotometer, donated by the Towanda, Pennsylvania plant, will be used in an introductory analytical chemistry course. An Infra-Red Spectrophotometer, donated by the Carney's Point, New Jersey plant, will be a valuable aid to students enrolled in science courses at the sophomore and junior levels and will be of particular benefit to students enrolled in Medical Technology.

Dr. William Passwaters, Professor of Chemistry at Wesley, stated that these pieces would definitely "upgrade instruction and make more sophisticated experiments possible at a faster pace."

Renovation set at Troop 4

If all goes well, Sussex Counties will not have to drive to Delaware State Police Troop 3 in Woodside to take a lie detector test.

The State Department of Public Safety is now accepting bids on the renovation of the Troop 4 garage and storage building behind the main office on U.S. 113.

Police plan to turn the building into a polygraph room, an evidence storage room and an office area, a police spokesman said.

But because police have limited funds, Lt. James Neal said they are not sure if they can start the renovation work immediately.

And police, who would not reveal how much money they are willing to spend on the project, say they are hoping bids will be low enough.

Adding polygraph testing at Troop 4 is not part of the planned reorganization that had residents in an uproar when reorganization was revealed several months ago.

Under that plan, police now patrolling out of the Georgetown area would be transferred to Dewey Beach and Bridgeville. While the Troop 4 complex would be converted to detective use only.

Neal said he did not know when the reorganization would take place.

Members of Girl Scout Junior Troop 686 who participated in the 1980 Mother Daughter Banquet were, l to r: Christine Minner, Julie Paskey, Christine Swafford, Dee Dee McCormick, and Lisa Trice. The troop is led by Holly Perdue and Mary Trice. Lena Paskey and Viva Poore respectively have served as Troop Treasurer and Cookie Chairman this year.

V.I.C.A. winners honored

With eager participants, gold, silver and bronze medallions, large glittering V-I-C-A letters and bright gold spotlights, the Ninth Annual Awards Banquet of the Sussex Vocational-Technical Center Chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America was called to order by President Tim Parker.

Given the opportunity, these young people excelled in vocational and leadership skills and walked off with top honors before an audience of V.I.C.A. members, board members, administrators, Department of Public Instruction personnel, teacher-advisors, proud parents and friends. A delicious buffet dinner was well prepared by the students of the Culinary Occupations Department.

Keynote speaker at the affair was the Rev. Arnold Hampton of the World-Wide Church of God.

Winners from Woodbridge High School were: Air Conditioning - 1st Robert Downes, Basic Electricity - 2nd Steven West, Baking - 1st Phillip Griffin, Commercial Foods - 3rd Phillip Griffin, Data Processing - Key Punch - 1st Paula Prettyman, Exploratory Health - 2nd Judy Adams and 3rd Joan Adams, Extemporaneous Speech - 1st Tracy Hicks, Industrial Electronics - 2nd Ralph Gleason, Job Interview - 1st Pam Higgins, Machine Shop - 3rd George Slater, and Nurse's Aide and Orderly - 3rd Janice Maddox.

Library Week is

April 13-19

"FREE - America's Greatest Bargain, the Library" is the theme of National Library Week - 1980, to be observed April 13 through 19. The Delaware Division of Libraries and all of the state's public libraries are planning events and publicity to attract attention to their "bargains".

Free of any cost, and available through every public library in Delaware, are these bargains, according to Sylvia Short, Director of the Division of Libraries: book loans, art loans, 16 mm films, projectors, interlibrary loan services through DRILL, special materials for blind and physically handicapped readers, reference information from any library, or by calling 1-800-292-9519, the toll-free PDQ Library Line, operating from 2-10 p.m. daily and for Kent and Sussex County residents, a Books By Mail program. In addition, record albums and cassettes are also available for loan at any public library.

A-Round and A-Bout Frederica

by Mary "Toby" Johnston

We know spring is not far away when we see Dr. Roland Miller home and having his yard spruced up. His daughter Mary Emily Miller P.H.D. from Marble Head, Mass. was home visiting for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ropka, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purnell were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Mary Purnell.

Please keep in mind the Yard Sale at Charles and Dot Stubbs farm, Route 113, DuPont Hwy. northbound. There will be all kinds of nice things to buy. Charles and Dot Stubbs or Kitty Shumar are chairman. Call them if you have any items needed to be picked up. Sponsored by Frederica U.M. Trinity Church. April 19, 1980 - 10 a.m.

The dinner at Trinity Church Sunday was another big feast. Dotte Malone and crew - out done themselves with fried chicken and roast beef. Then everyone bringing a covered dish and Mena Bennett with a huge pot of her delicious dumplings. After dinner we went up to the Sanctuary for our Local Hymn Sing. Sherm presided - opening with congregational singing, prayer by Rev. Nelson Benjamin.

Kay Robotka and Helga Eubanks of Bowers sang "I Should Have Been Crucified," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jenny Kraft.

Poem - Love by Helga Eubanks. Kay Robotka also sang Where You There and Ten Thousand Angels.

A poem by Sherman Stevenson in appreciation to Mary Hitch for all her art work and poems plus the very well done Devotions trying to keep our prayer group together and the senior citizens - Mary recited her beautiful poem to our church - "Stained Glass Window".

Congregation singing - He Lives, and Beulah Land.

Miss Frog Town - "K. Dill" and Sherm sang Beautiful Garden of Prayer.

How Great Thou Art beautifully done by Bob Mullane, Ben Matlack, Sherm Stevenson, Ginny Wilkins and Alfreda Edge and Nancy Benjamin accompanied on the piano but no other than our great organist Elmata Harrington.

We really appreciate Elmata for all time she spends with our choir. God Bless, to all of you.

Melissa Dill sang "On A Hill Far Away". She is a doll.

Those singing with the choir Sunday evening were Rev. and Mrs. Nelson Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stevenson, Mr. Robert Mullane, Mr. Benjamin Matlack, Mrs. Helen Powers, Mrs. Helen Wootten, Mrs. Virginia Wilkins, Mrs. Kathryn Dill, Miss Ada Wood and Mrs. Elfreda Edge. Well I don't know why I got so formal with the Mr. and Mrs. stuff. Guess didn't want everyone to know I call the preacher and wife Nelson and Nancy.

The choir sang "Peace In The Valley."

Benediction and closing hymn by Sherm and congregation. Our next covered dish and hymn sing will be April 27. The Ragers are in charge of the program.

April 6 - Happy Easter everyone. Our charge "Trinity, Saxton and Sardis," Easter Sunrise Service will be held at Trinity at 6:00 a.m. Breakfast will be served after the service by U.M. Men.

We were very happy to see Mrs. Ada Shumar, Mrs. Lulu Wilkins out with us and Mrs. Helen Wootten.

The Frederica Adult Center "Salutes our two new volunteers Mrs. Jeane Morris and Mrs. Cathy Rifenberg of Felton". Arts and crafts are a delight, thank you and welcome. Special thanks also go to June Brown and Virginia Simpler for their support in the lunch program. The Redmen Assn. for the donation of books. To Ben Matlack, Ivan Powers and Larry Mannering for materials and building of our book case. Come in and browse and enjoy a good book.

Margaret Wilcutts for her donation of "Hotheads" and little yarn dolls which have sold like hotcakes. Mrs. Mildred Song for her time and great piano playing. Mr. John Song for building and donating a large coat rack. Mr. Song and Bob Mullane - the piano fixers, Mrs. Song thank you too. Rev. Nelson Benjamin for conducting prayer meeting and Bible Study, Phil Tutill for the donation of potatoes. Mary Caesar for cooking the venison roast, delicious. To all those who helped make our covered dish luncheon and dinner a success. To the Cheer program for printing of our newsletters. Toby for breaking our news and continued interest. To Helen Powers for kindness above and beyond the call of duty. Thank you one and all whatever your participation. Come again and God Bless.

Spring
by Mary Hitch

I hear the voice of Spring
Call me from every place
And feel her pleasant breath
Blow softly on my face.
The birds provide the music
For her light dancing feet,
The perfumed air billows
From her flowers so sweet.
The skies are bright above
Or gentle if it rains.
Hope springs new, eternal
When she breaks winter's chains.

To all the shut-in's wherever you may be, out prayers and best wishes for a Happy Easter - God Bless.

Bible Study with Mrs. Clair Judy as leader Monday morning.

Leo Wilson was here with vexor and humor Monday morning: twenty-four ladies made adorable little Easter baskets filled with jelly beans and a fluffy hen.

Coming in by bus gives you a chance to see the fields coming to life. Daffodils proudly sway in the breeze around so many homes; fills your heart with joy!

See few cows anymore but just outside of Harrington is a herd. Before the cows some frisky horses play, romp and graze. Beautiful sight!!

Jolly Timers were in full swing Tuesday morning.

Ruth Nasser brought an array of antique cars on slide as part of nostalgia program. Ruth always has an interesting hour.

Ladies got the calendars out. Want to thank ALL volunteers for ALL the work they do. Easter articles were sold down to the last egg. Good!

John Still was here to talk on insurance Wednesday morning. As we were coming in to the Center Wednesday morning, we had to stop because a pack of fox hounds were on the run, goodness, it was an impressive sight - the men were busy talking to the dogs.

Wednesday afternoon Elizabeth Anthony called Bingo. Candy Bingo.

Pool table has been busy - cards and dominoes. Ceramics galore.

Bowling at Milford Lanes with Leroy Hager and Marion Littmann as high scorers. Local shopping.

Thursday morning several ladies went to Dover to a luncheon at "Trongate". Lunch at the Center was fine and dandy. We had a very lovely party Thursday afternoon. Center closed Friday in observance of Good Friday.

Want to remind you of the Rummage Sale to be held May 14-15. Will be happy to pick up anything you would like to donate. Appreciate very much those of you who have responded, thank you!

Gabfest

by Pat Hatfield

We waited for April through some mighty dreary days of old March, and it was worth waiting for. April came in all smiles and sunshine and bird song, but she is an elfin child and I'm sure she will scatter a few showers here and there. A warm spring rain only deepens the fragrance of the flowers. So, I'm rejoicing in the spring this morning. I'm like the woman in the Christian Scientist Monitor who said: "Spring is really. The sun is shining, the Forsythia beds are about to pop, and this morning there was a ghost of a smile on my husband's face!"

It is fun to read what other folk say about the awakening spring: Elinor Rose in New York says: "I dress each morning, weather wise. Then spring will spring a sharp surprise; from cool to warm or warm to cool, and blandly snicker, "April Fool!"

I found still other gems in my reading. Under the general title of "April Awake", Bogner says: "Jack in the Pulpit is preaching glories of Spring". Moore says: "Crocus and hincinths pedalling their wares. Crub says: "Cattails lifting brown thrushes to test the wind."

All of this jolly spring conversation has lifted my spirits somewhat. And believe me they need lifting. I am now in the business of recovering from a severe flu attack which hit me over the weekend. By the time I got to the good doctor the first of the week I had a temperature of 106 and was scared enough to stay in bed for a few days.

I noticed and welcomed another sign of spring on my way to the doctor. The gulls have come in from the ocean and are gleaming from the fields. How graceful they are as they dive and sweep down and voice their thanks for the sustenance found there. This seems to be a development of late years. When I was a child, you had to go to the sea to see the gulls.

I just remembered that it will soon be strawberry time again, so I planned strawberries from the freezer for tonight's dessert. I regret the passing of the wild strawberries from our hillsides. What a thrill it was to find those little red berries along the country roadsides. I am so sorry that things like these that were so much a part of my childhood the grandchildren will never know.

And then to go chestnutting in the fall. We did not roast them in our family. We just ate them as is. They went to school in our pockets.

1980 Cherry Blossom Queen Named

Nineteen year old Beth Peden, formerly of New Castle, was named "1980 Cherry Blossom Queen", Saturday, March 29, in the Ballroom of the Washington Sheraton Park Hotel. The title was bestowed on her at 11:45 p.m. All states and territories nominate princesses who are then sent to Washington, D.C. to await the choosing of a queen.

In addition to the multi-pearled crown, the petite, blue-eyed, blonde queen received a string of matched, cultured pearls, a desk set with her title and date engraved on a plaque, and a ten day trip to Japan which she will take near mid-April at the expense of the Japanese Government.

Beth, who currently lives in Rehoboth, is an accounting major at the Georgetown Campus of the Delaware Technical and Community College. Her interests are sewing, reading poetry, and tennis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Peden, Jr., of 513 Delaware Street, New Castle. Her sister, Debbie, works in Congressman Evans' Washington Office.

She was nominated princess by the Delaware State Society, a one month old organization of former Delawareans who work in Washington. She was their first nomination as princess who became a queen.

Scale Model of Shoo-Shoo Baby

A scaled down mechanical model of a famous B-17 Flying Fortress of World War II years has been completed by engineer Ron Castelmuro who spent some 700 hours working on the model. The real "Shoo-Shoo Baby" is being restored at Dover Air Force Base under the guidance of Felton resident Wesley Bell. The mechanical aspects of the plane allows for a recorded version of a combat scene giving the effect of the real thing.

The plane was unveiled on March 23 which was the 36th anniversary of Shoo-Shoo Baby's first bombing mission over Germany in 1944. The model will remain in the lobby of the Farmers Bank on Lookerman Street in Dover until April 25. It then will go to DAFB on loan and it is planned that other branches of the Farmers Bank will get it for display.

Mocap® Plus stops bean beetles. But it doesn't stop there.

You know what Mexican bean beetles can do to your soybean crop. But in this part of the country, nematodes can be just as big a threat, attacking roots and robbing you of up to 14 bushels per acre.

Mocap® Plus nematocide-insecticide controls both. That's right, Mocap Plus 10-5G with Di-Syston® effectively controls* both nematodes and Mexican bean beetles. It even controls thrips (except flower thrips). And it's economical to use.

If you only need nematode control, Mocap 10-G nematocide is even more economical.

So see your dealer for all the Mocap you need. And get the kind of yields you should be getting.

15th annual CFO summer camp to be July 13 - 19

Delaware Valley CFO, one of 125 camps in existence today will be holding their 15th annual summer camp at Washington College in Chestertown, Maryland, July 13 through 19, 1980.

Through prayer, talks, music, creativity in several fields, and the rich companionship with one another, the CFOer learns to place his or her life under the leadership and control of God. CFO stands for Camps Farthest Out which in an international, interdenominational and interracial Christian fellowship which grew out of a dream more than 50 years ago. Since that time it has led and nourished thousands of Christians to a deeper, more meaningful relationship with Jesus Christ.

The camp program is designed to develop the total personality of the camper. There are periods of active participation and periods of creative rest. The campers have time to meditate and digest the great truths and make them a part of their daily living.

During the week, the camper can expect to receive new insights, courage and wisdom to face problems, a deeper faith in God, a closer relationship with Jesus, Christ, a soul scrubbed clean, forgiven and renewed and the realization that God loves you.

Speaking leaders for this summer's camp are the Reverend Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Goff, graduates of Asbury College and associated with the Rocky Mountain Conference of the United Methodist Church. Their emphasis has been on the importance, effectiveness and power of prayer. Since 1964 they have had a traveling ministry responding to calls from all over the U.S. to conduct prayer seminars, prayer schools, healing missions and evangelistic services. They have recently completed an around the world trip for FFO, the foreign branch of CFO and have many inspiring experiences to share.

114,000 register for rally

More than 114,000 Christians from various parts of the United States have already registered to attend the "WASHINGTON FOR JESUS" rally on April 29, leaders of the event announced here today.

Dr. M.G. (Pat) Robertson and Dr. William R. Bright, program co-chairmen for the event, said that state-by-state totals so far showed that the number of registrations stood at slightly more than 114,100. They consider the figure conservative, they said.

Leaders of the effort hope to bring together a million or more Christians from throughout the nation April 29 for a day of humility before God, repentance, fasting and prayer on behalf of the country.

Robertson is president and founder of the Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN) and host of "The 700 Club," popular CBN talk show seen throughout the U.S. and in a number of other countries.

Bright is president and founder of Campus Crusade for Christ International, an interdenominational Christian organization with headquarters in San Bernardino, California.

Pastor John Gimenez, of Virginia Beach, VA, is chairman of the National Steering Committee for "WASHINGTON FOR JESUS" and the person who first voiced the idea of an event that would draw a mass outpouring of Christians to Washington for repentance and prayer.

The event also have the support of a National Sponsoring Committee of some 50 leading U.S. pastors and heads of Christian organizations.

Track girls lose to Henlopen powers

by Keith S. Burgess

Caesar Rodney girls, state champions the past two years, and a Dover squad that may upset the Riders in 1980 are easily the top two Henlopen girls teams. Lake Forest opened the campaign by taking on these powerhouses on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Spartans lost to both but were closer to each than in 1979 and now are in a position to possibly sweep the rest of the schedule which is considerably weaker than the Riders and Senators.

Lake Forest lost 83-49 to C.R. and 90-41 to Dover.

Carol Payne annexed the 100 low hurdles in 17.3 and the 200 hurdles in 33.9 against C.R. Muriel Greene was second in the 100 lows and tied for second in the 200 lows.

Sophomore Sherri Coburn, last year's top scorer, was also a double winner taking the 1500 meters in 5.34 and the 800 in 2.41.8.

Sharon Huttie cleared 4 feet, 8 inches to win the high jump. Freshman coming-star, Donna Pardee was second in the 400 meters (66 seconds) and in the 800 (2.43).

Gina Turner was Bayside Conference Champion in the mile and two mile as a freshman at North Carolina High, Denton, MD in 1979. Gina ran into C.R.'s powerful senior Shelly Smith and lost the 3000 meters but still set a Spartan record of 11.40.

Cheryl Manaraze scored six Spartan points with a pair of seconds in the long and triple jumps.

Juana Moorman, 100 meters; Annette Baynard, 400 meters; Sharon Huttie, discus; Karen Gibbs, long jump; captured third places.

Against Dover, Gina Turner broke her own record, set 24 hours earlier, by breezing to an easy 11.31.8 victory in the 300 meters. Her sister freshman Linda Turner was second.

Cheryl Manaraze set two school records leaping 16 feet, 3 inches to erase Tina Durant's 16-1 effort from the books. Manaraze was second in the triple jump with 31 feet, 6 inches, beating her own mark here.

Sharon Huttie (4-10) and Kim Moehlenkamp, went 1-2 in the high jump.

Tina Durant and Pandora Scott were second and third in the 100 meters.

Carol Payne, second in the 200 meter hurdles, set a school mark of 32.6, erasing a mark set by Karen Singleton. Elaine Grant's 80 feet plus discus throw was second and is only nine feet off the Spartan mark. She's only a sophomore and should eventually own that record.

Juana Moorman, third in the 100, was only one-tenth of a second behind the winner. Annette Baynard, 400 meters; Carol Payne, 100 hurdles; Sherri Coburn, 800 meters; got thirds. In two meets, Gina Turner has had 65 seconds off the 3000 meter standard.

Girls show promise in track

by Keith Burgess

Jim Blades will be coaching both boys and girls track teams at Lake Forest with assistance from Jim Fleming.

Last year's top scorer, Sherry Coburn, is back as a sophomore. Sherry piled up a lot of points in the 800 and 1500 meters and in the 1600 meter relay. Two new factors have brightened the distance running picture at Lake Forest. First, new regulations will allow a talented distance runner like Coburn to be used as many as three times in a meet. Second, Gina Turner, a sensational freshman at North Carolina

High, Denton, MD, is now at Lake Forest. The Spartans should have the best 1-2 punch in the Henlopen Conference in the 800, 1500 and 3000 meter runs, whenever both girls run in the same race.

Other distance runners are Susie Asbury, Linda Turner, Gina's sister, Darlene Wyatt, Terry Smith, Amy Bates, Valerie Moore, Sheila White, Susan Back and freshman Donna Pardee. The last named is a natural runner who ran a 66.3, 400 meters and a 2.54 800 meters in her first time

Track men beat C.R., lose to Dover

by Keith S. Burgess

Caesar Rodney High fell to Jim Blades' Lake Forest trackmen 78-63 in the season's opener for both teams. The following day Dover won every event and beat the Spartans 117-24. Both meets took place on Lake Forest's all-weather track.

The Dover team, coached by Bob Neyland, may be one of the best track teams in Delaware history and is fresh from dominating Diamond State Competition on the winter track circuit.

Against Caesar Rodney the Spartans won only 7 of 17 events, but piled up many points by annexing a lot of seconds and thirds. Key events were: the triple jump which saw John Prince (38 feet, 7 inches), Brett Asbury and Derwin Smith achieve a 1-2-3 sweep and the 400 and 800 meter relays won by Lake Forest. In the 400, Jeffrey DeShields, Gerald "Peanut" Perry, Nate Floyd and Ken Thorpe did the honors. In the 800, Harry Brown replaced Thorpe.

Derwin Smith was first in the long jump, with sophomore Mike Howton getting third. Howton was edged by C.R.'s veteran senior, Reynolds Hahn in the high

March 31st, at Caesar Rodney and April 2nd, Dover at home, will inaugurate the 1980 track season for the Lake Forest Spartans boys and girls teams.

Jim Blades has a host of fine young prospects, including many freshmen who are recording good performances even though its windy, cold and very early in the season.

For instance, sophomore Mike

Howton and freshman Tony Scott are at 16.2 and 17.8 in the 110 meter high hurdles already.

Behind senior Ken Thorpe in the sprints are Gerald "Peanut" Perry, James Brown, Marvin Parker and Marvin DeShields, all freshmen with speed. Perry already has done the equivalent of a 10.8 100. Other sprinters are Harry Brown and Nate Floyd. 300

Mark for 2 yr. olds set at Dover Downs

Dover Downs Raceway recorded the fastest mark in the nation for two-year old pacers in qualifying held Thursday, April 3rd. Steering Wheel, a 23-month old colt owned and reined by Charles Pitts of Felton, won the qualifying pacing mile in 2:06.1. The son of Cicero out of Speed Limit paced the last quarter in 31 seconds flat. The clocking was confirmed by the United States Trotting Association (U.S.T.A.) to be the fastest mark set by a two-year old pacer so far in 1980.

When asking owner's wife, Mrs. Frances Pitts how she felt about owning the fastest two-year old pacer, she replied, "I didn't realize that Steering Wheel had set any records after the qualifier. It's a really nice feeling and I'm very excited because we have had Steering Wheel since the day he hit ground and knowing that we have raised the colt and that he raced so well is a nice feeling. Steering Wheel is one of 20 horses that we've owned and we do own his dame, Speed Limit," she continued, "and since we live so close to Dover, I'm really glad that he set the record at Dover Downs. It's good for both of us," said Mrs. Pitts. Three other local horses out of Speed Limit are: Proceed With Speed, No J. Walking, and Aunt Lydia.

"Read all about it!"

In the East library It's story time!

Pedro and his sombrero were the focus of all the attention. It was late on a Friday afternoon, and already the big yellow buses were lining up outside the building, impatient to load up and leave. But inside the library a group of children was quietly anxious to hear Mrs. O'Toole read Pedro's story. Most anxious of all was Pedro himself - not the one with the sombrero, but the one in Mrs. Timmons' second grade class. Nothing can make a story more exciting than having your own name in it. Pedro wanted to hear what was happening to his namesake. And he is still looking forward to taking the book Pedro and His Sombrero home to read for himself.

The story session took place in the library at Lake Forest East Elementary School in Frederica. There are many such sessions as Librarian Barbara O'Toole welcomes each class in the school to the library for their weekly "special" there. Although there is much more to the time spent there students from Kindergarten through first grade look forward to the minutes set aside for the stories Mrs. O'Toole reads to them. Currently she is sharing Peggy Mann's There Are Two Kinds of Terrible with some of the older students. She shared the book with one class, and it caught fire with several others.

Most of the thirty minute class session is devoted to time for the students to locate and check out books they want to read. About ten minutes is reserved for story time.

In addition to their regular weekly special session in the library, fifth and sixth grade students spend extra time there working on a library skills unit with Mrs. O'Toole. This gives them the opportunity to learn about such things as the card catalogue and the Dewey Decimal System. A series of books and filmstrips are used to augment other classroom activities which teach library skills.

Set in a relatively open area in the school at Frederica, the library is a busy place accessible to both students and teachers who rely on it for many things. Teachers call on the library for extra resource materials for particular units they may teach. Students come for information to do reports and as individuals and small groups to do special research projects. They may also look to the library for some special recognition. Mrs. O'Toole keeps a bulletin board for clippings and photos of local students whose doings get their names and faces in the newspaper.

This year the library at East is also the home for the gifted and talented class, a group of fifth and sixth graders who meet there for daily sessions with their teacher, Mrs. Pam Reisinger.

A student gets help from Mrs. O'Toole as others gather around the table after having selected their books in the library at Lake Forest East.

Entries sought for talent show

The talent search is on at W.T. Chipman as entries open up for the 5th Annual Talent Show to be held at the junior school field house on April 25. Sponsored by the W.T. Chipman Junior Band, the talent show will be hosted by Director Alex B. Becton who will serve as emcee.

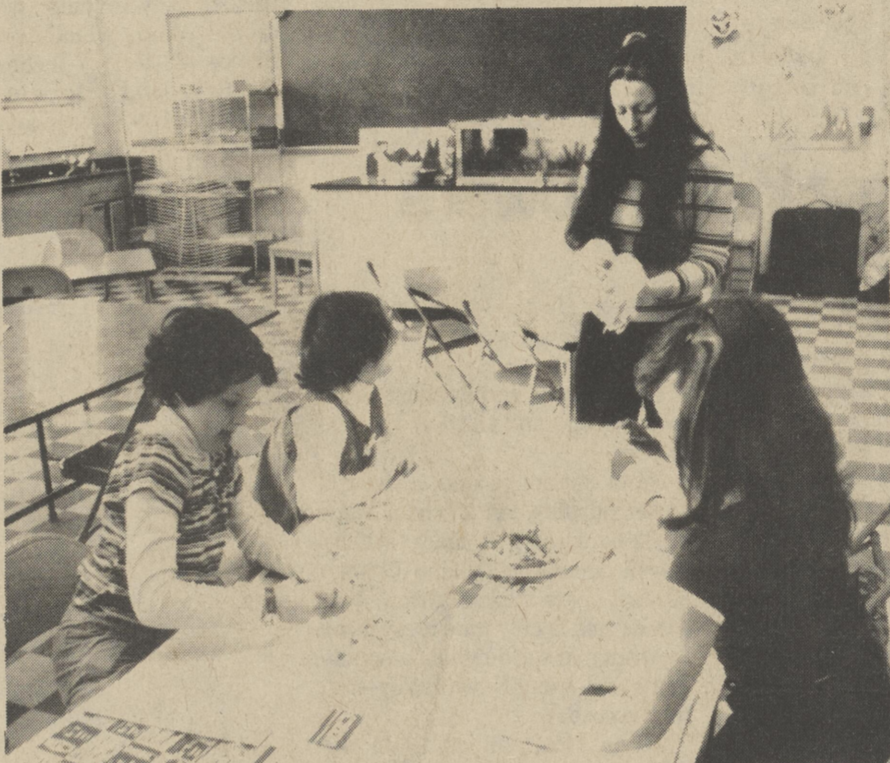

Contestants to be selected on a first come, first serve basis - will be notified by April 21 if they are to be among the 20 to perform the night of the contest. Entries must be turned in to Mr. Becton at Chipman by April 16. The forms are available from his office.

Instrumental music, vocals, dancing, baton twirling, pantomime, groups, individuals - Mr. Becton is encouraging all students with talent to enter. He says, "Get 'Your Act' together, and I'll see you on or before the 25th."

Three prizes will be awarded. $25 for first place, $15 for second and $10 for third. Two microphones, a piano and a record player will be available for contestants to use.

Students get involved in art at North

Mrs. Dean passes out materials as students get started on their own creations from yarn, glue, crayons and paper. These are just a few of the materials used in classes in the spacious art room at Lake Forest North.

faces - not everyone made a purple unicorn with pop eyes, elephant ears and a human nose. Each child was turned loose to come up with his own unique combination of human and animal features to make a monster to his liking. She hopes by this to get youngsters to see that the objects they create can be exciting and much more fun than the plastic, streamlined, dull perfection they may be offered on TV or at the store.

With the older classes (fourth through sixth grades) she touches on some of the principles of design, basically getting students to ask themselves, "How could I make this project look better?...or more exciting?" She may also casually drop in a little art history, pointing to artists and examples of a particular type of project.

The student who is able to work more independently and who shows a special interest and aptitude may elect to sacrifice some of his recess time to be a member of Mrs. Dean's fifth or sixth grade art clubs. The fifth and sixth graders meet at recess on alternate days. This year they have selected and carried out a number of projects including contour line drawings, embossed metal designs, weaving, dough ornaments for Christmas, and the balloon and string creations and the mural previously mentioned.

Students work is frequently on display in the art room. But throughout the building there are mini-shows on bulletin boards of work by student artists.

In addition to her classroom work, Mrs. Dean designs and directs students in making many of the sets and props used by the school in the variety of musical and dramatic productions staged each year. Currently they are engaged in doing three large murals - shop scenes - and making several six foot lamp posts for an upcoming musical.

Mystery Sleuths sign up at north

Some 289 Mystery Sleuths have signed up since the 1980 MS Read-A-Thon kicked off at Lake Forest North on March 11. MS means Mystery Sleuth, but more important, it stands for Multiple Sclerosis, a disease that Mystery Sleuths and many others would like to see wiped out. This year's Mystery Sleuths at Lake Forest North are helping to track down the causes of thiscrippler of young people by enlisting in a vital aspect of the campaign - fund raising. The money they earn by reading books will go to continuing research on the disease and to aid its victims.

After the assembly program which launched the 1980 campaign, students registered to be Mystery Sleuths at Lake Forest North and began their reading. They also started signing up sponsors, who agreed to contribute a voluntary amount for each book read by a Mystery Sleuth during the program which will end in early April.

After the reports have been filed and the funds turned in, there is to be a state-wide random drawing in which a number of prized will be awarded to participants. These include 10 speed bikes, U.S. Savings Bonds, cameras, watches and passes to roller skating rinks, Great Adventure and the Philadelphia Zoo. In addition, 25 Delaware students will be selected to have dinner with Eagles quarterback Ron Jaworski who is heading this year's Read-A-Thon in the state.

The MS Read-A-Thon raises important funds to combat Multiple Sclerosis. But it has also been known to further good reading. Nationally, around 7,000,000 young people have read 22,000,000 books in Read-A-Thon programs.

-Haiku-

The clouds were floating
They floated across the sky
Going out of sight.

Here is a backboard
It takes a real hard beating
A slam dunk broke it.

My hair is wavy
But it has a dull color
I wear a big hat.

by Valerie Parker

The sudden wind struck
Sweeping the land without thought
Destruction was near.

Because it does have mushrooms
It has mustard too.

I'm sitting in the cupboard
Waiting to be used.

Apples are bright red
While the sun shines down on them
And dark during the night.

-Collage Poems-

Lips

by Leslie Harpster

Some lips are colored rosy red,
Some lips are colored pink,
When lips are covered with cheap lip gloss,
It sometimes makes them stink.
Whatever color your lips may be,
Be sure to get this straight,
Do not wear sticky lip gloss,
For that's what most boys hate!
(Especially the good looking ones!)

Food

by Valerie Parker

I just love to eat food
It fills up my stomach
It quickly changes my mood
I don't eat too much though
It tastes good both raw and cooked
On food I think I'm hooked.

People

by Carol Robinson

People may be happy,
People may be sad.
People may be feeling good,
Or perhaps be feeling bad.
No matter how you may feel
Whether sad or blue,
Be thoughtful for other folks,
And they'll be good to you.

Shoes

by Paula Zeitler

There are many different kinds of shoes
Some come in different shades of blues
Wear boots in the winter
And sandals in the summer
But don't go barefoot.
Or you might get a splinter.

The sixth graders in Mrs. William Shaw's English classes at Lake Forest South are currently involved in a study of poetry. They are reading a variety of poems and writing some of their own, trying their hand at various forms. One of the more popular because of its brevity and because it lends itself equally well to the serious and the fanciful - is haiku. Coming from the Japanese, haiku refers to poems of three lines of which the first and third must have five syllables. The second line contains seven. Some sort of inventive twist in thought or imagery is usually involved.

Cigarettes

by Robbie Burgholzer

Cigarettes can be very choking
For people who aren't smoking
It might turn your lungs black
And make you cough and hack
It will turn your fingertips yellow
And your voice real mellow
Then you'll want to turn your back.

Shoes

by Barry Chaffinch

It would be bad news
If there were no shoes
Luckily they're sold
So our feet won't get cold
But even when it's sunny
To buy shoes we need money.

Smoking

by Shawn Bond

You might smoke,
And you might choke,
You may even fall flat dead,
Don't ever smoke,
You may not croak
And you'll never get sick in the bed.

Faces

by Heidi Wilson

On every face should be a smile,
And hoping it will stay awhile,
It doesn't matter at work or play,
A smile should always start your day,
Some eyes are brown some eyes are blue,
And nobody looks just like you.

Eyes

by John Smith

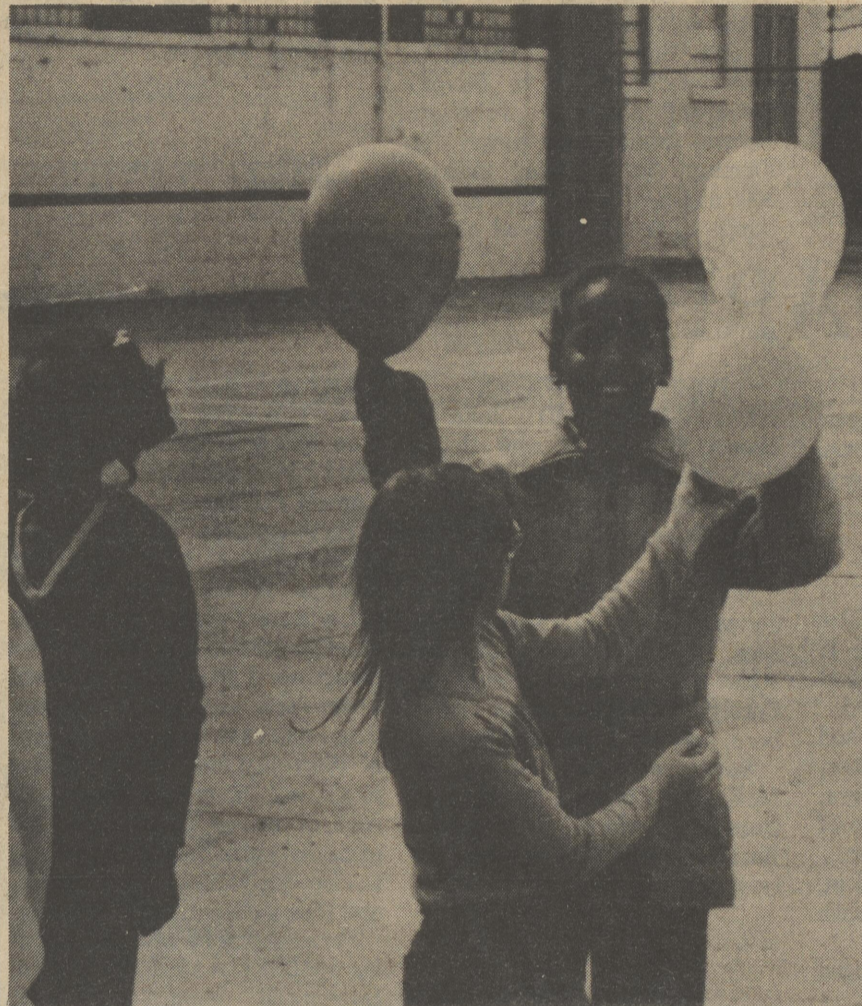

Eyes come in all different colors
They help us see each other
They even help us see our mother
Our eyes belong to our sisters and brothers
Eyes belong to one another.

Games

by Ann Marvel

There are a lot of games
Basketball, football are some names
I want to play basketball
Mrs. Shaw won't let me play in the hall
But I play kickball out for recess
Basketball players are mostly tall.

Balloons go up & a letter arrives

Dear Antony,

My name is Paul Wroblewski. I am nine years old and I live at 112 12th Ave., Seaside Park, NJ. I'm in fourth grade at the Seaside Park Elementary School. I have a brother named John who is seven and my parents names are Paul and Carol.

I found your balloon at about 6:30 Friday, March 21st, on the beach at fifth lane in South Seaside Park. It had been raining all day and my father decided to look for things.

My father owns a Exxon Station and my mother owns a laundry-mat. We have a bicycle built for three. I like baseball and basketball.

P.S. I am enclosing a picture of myself. My zip code is 08752.

Yours truly,

Paul Wroblewski

All set to launch - These third graders at Lake Forest South were waiting for the count down in the great balloon race which started here on March 21, one day earlier than originally scheduled. The launch was moved up because of a bad weather forecast for the following day. The third grade launch took place a few minutes after this picture was taken; fourth graders sent their helium filled balloons up a little later. Tied to each balloon was a message explaining the project and asking the finder to return it to the school. It was all a part of the school's participation in the Weekly Reader writing pals program.

Note: This letter was received by Anthony Smith, a student in Mrs. Ellingsworth's fourth grade class at South. His balloon had made a landing on a beach in New Jersey just one day after the launch.

Winter Olympics finalists announced

Levitation? No, this is just a broad jump arrested in mid air. On film, this young man will be forever flying. But in reality, he's back on solid ground after completing this jump in the Winter Olympics held at Lake Forest North in Felton.

After a long seige of wet weather that extended the Winter Olympics at Lake Forest North Elementary into spring, the events have finally been completed and the winners announced.

Three boys and three girls in each sixth grade class were named as top competitors in the battle for points based on participation in seven events: the 50 meter dash, the 100 meter dash, the 1200 meter run, the standing broad jump, a running broad jump, a frisbee throw and a softball throw.

The 1980 winners are as follows: 6D: Girls - Kim Powell (1st), Dawn Jacobs (and), Severa Harris (3rd); Boys - Reggie Seth (1st), Jeff Melvin (2nd), Bruce Mosley (3rd). 6B: Girls - Angie Fraley (1st), Heather Rennie (2nd), Kathy Krouse (3rd); Boys - Mike Layton (1st), Doug Davis (2nd), Tom Pardee (3rd). 6C: Girls - Theresa Diebel (1st), Diane Jacobs and Valerie Durant (tied for 2nd), Gidgetta Smith (3rd); Boys - Wayne Young (1st), Doug Davis (2nd), Tom Milligan (3rd).

Wayne Young's broad jump, over 3 1/2 meters, was the longest in the competition. He was the overall winner of the standing broad jump.

meter intermediate hurdlers are Brian Moehlenkamp and Ken Clark. 800, 1500 and 3000 meter runs will be ably handled by the same group of distance aces who had a perfect dual meet season in cross country last fall. Billy Mitchell is not 100 percent because of an injury, but Doug Caskey is already in mid-season form. Jay Howerin and freshman sensation James Lofland are going to be very tough in the 800 and 1500. Veterans Sam Lampmier and Dale Jarrell are running strongly. Stars of the future sophomores Tom Silkworth and Terry Caskey would rank much higher at several other Henlopen schools. Other experienced distance men are John Green, Albert

Burns, Larry Guessford, Mike Grogan, Jerry Mosley, Maurice Coverdale, Mike and Manny Hernandez. Distance running has been a strong suit hereabouts for a quarter of a century now. Coach Blades has a plethora of quarter milers headed by Leroy Parker who's at 53 flat in March. Parker would like to remove Fred White's ten-year record (52 flat) from the record book. Randy Ramirez and Mike Howton are doing well. Ten others almost all of them freshmen and all but one under 60 seconds already are Charlie Benson, Paul Harris, Ken Kline and Tom Lord, Sheldon Powell, Nelson Mosley, John Layton, Jim Simmons, Columbus Hardy and Wayne Kelly. Howton is also a fine intermediate hurd-

John Prince, John Layton, Jack Back, Marv Burton and Walt Gygyrynok are the other horizontal leapers. Sophomore giant, Kevin Moehlenkamp, is at 5 feet, 10 inches in the high jump in March. He's only 2½ inches off the school record. By graduation time, three full seasons hence, he may put hurdles, but ran 43 seconds flat to beat Hahn in the 300 meter intermediates in an upset. Junior Jay Howerin and freshman James Lofland were 1-2 in the 1500 meters in 4:31 and 4:33, respectively, then went 2-3 in the 800 meters. Sophomore giant Kevin Moehlenkamp won the high jump, clearing 5 feet, 8 inches. James Brown did 5-6 for second. Thorpe and Perry were second and third in the 100 meters. Thorpe and Jeff DeShields did likewise in the 200. Doug Caskey ran 3000 meters in 10 minutes and 3 seconds. He was second with Bill Mitchell coming off an injury in third. Stacy Benson hurled the 12 pound shot 39 feet, 3 inches to finish second. Greg Bell was third. Jim Fleming span the discus 121 feet, 6 inches with Bill Di Andrea only one inch back in a 2-3 finish. Ken Williams and Al Leitzell occupied the same spots in the pole vault. Mike Howton was second in both hurdle events to Dover's powerful Anthony Johnson. Derwin Smith, long jump; Jim Fleming, discus; Doug Caskey, 3000 meters; Marvin Burton, high jump; all notched second places.

Third place scorers were: Jay Howerin, 1500 meters; Randy Ramirez, 400 meters; Page Pulley discus; Kevin Moehlenkamp, high jump and Brett Asbury, triple jump. Jay Howerin and James Lofland did not place though running excellent early-season clockings of 2.09 for 800 meters. Many Spartans improved their efforts over their C.R. performances, but could not slow down the Dover express.

Chris Moore allowed only one hit and - the Lake Forest defense was excellent in the 0-0 seven inning contest. John McCloskey in left field and Chester Scott in center looked good going back after long fly balls. Bob Wyatt, the shortstop, made a long throw from deep "in the hole" to flag a hitter.
