Tax Rate Set, Title I Unsettled

The Lake Forest School Board Monday night set the local tax rate at $1.16 per $100 of the assessed value of real estate, an 11c drop from last year's $1.27. It also heard that the district is uncertain of the monies it will receive in the federally funded Title I program which hires most of the classroom aides. And that uncertainty, said Carol Lamphier, Reading Consultant for Title I, will probably remain until July or August.

-Tax Rate-

The Lake Forest Board set the tax rate for the coming year at $1.16 per $100 and the total capitation tax at $15.00. Broken down, the $1.16 includes four categories: Debt Service - 35c (no change), Current Expense - 75c (no change), Tuition - 2c (a drop of 11c made possible by the state's picking up the cost of special education transportation), and Minor Capital Improvements - 4c (no change). Of the $15 capitation tax, $5 goes into the debt service, and $10, into the Current Expense account.

Assistant Superintendent Melvin Luff had recommended keeping the Tuition Tax at 3c and adding 1c to the Minor Capital Improvements tax. This would have lowered the combined rate 9c to $1.18 instead of $1.16.

-Title I Changes Proposed-

Administrators and personnel involved in the Lake Forest Title I program, a major emphasis of which is the employment of aides to assist with reading in the classroom, breathed a little easier last year when $49,000 in carry-over funds mistakenly redistributed were returned to the district. That made it possible for the 1979-80 program to operate with a minimum of cuts.

But it is expected that rising costs and uncertain funding could result in a loss of 8 aides for the 1980-81 school year.

Carol Lamphier told the board that the district does not know how much money it will receive in Title I funds this year. The possibility of $238,000 has been suggested but is by no means certain. That would mean an increase over last year's allocation of $218,000 to which the $49,000 in carry-over funds was added. This year only about $8,000 is left unspent. Added to the possible $238,000 that would not be enough to sustain the Title I program at its current level which it is anticipated will cost about $278,000 for 1980-81.

A proposal reducing the number of Title I aides from 30 to 28 and suggesting rescheduling for

Seen in the picture is Harold Brode near the ladder. On the ladder surrounded by smoke is Ray Blanchette. Harold Brode, Fred Martin, Ronnie Hughes, and Ray Blanchette braved intense heat, smoke and their lives when they entered the house believing small children were still inside.

Harry Greenberg Local Businessman Dead at 89

Harry Greenberg a long time resident and businessman of this community is dead after a long illness. He died Sunday, May 11 in Milford Memorial Hospital.

He was born December 24, 1891 in the Ukraine now Russia, and in 1911 he began a 50 day trip across Europe to a boat in France which would bring him to Philadelphia and freedom. He was 20 years old when he arrived in Philadelphia, and it was the farthest he had ever been away from his birthplace.

His parents had seen to it that he received a good education. He once told me that he had read about America, and that it was the place of great opportunity. He had been in the cattle business with his father in Russia, and this was to be his first pursuit once he got established in America.

His first job in America was with E.B. Martin Co. in Philadelphia. He spoke very little English. So he communicated with his associates in Yiddish. Some years later he brought his parents to Philadelphia and shortly after that, his father encouraged him to go on a cattle buying mission to Kent County. He came to Felton first and stayed with the Hughes family where he became fast friends with the late Randolph Hughes and his brother Winfred. Later he came to Harrington and it was there he met Charles Murphy, Sr. who opened up a checking account for him at the 1st National Bank of Harrington in the amount of $100. Murphy encouraged Mr. Greenberg to go into business for himself. "When I found out what Mr. Murphy had done for me I went to look for him, because I couldn't understand why anyone would do this for me. Let me tell you I learned a lot from that experience...and also there was no finer man than Mr. Murphy", Mr. Greenberg told me.

LF Supervisor of Instruction retires

After 34 years spent in education, Lake Forest Supervisor of Instruction Sol Markowitz, has decided to call it a day - or a career. Announcing his retirement, Mr. Markowitz spent his last day on the job May 9. To his years as an educator are added four spent in military service.

A 1935 graduate of Felton High School, Sol Markowitz received a B.S. in agriculture at the University of Delaware in 1941. To that degree were later added a Bachelor's and subsequently, a Masters in education, both earned at the University of Delaware. The latter was received in 1950.

Enlisting following Pearl Harbor, Sol Markowitz spent 4½ years in the United States Army in World War II. Beginning as a Private in the Infantry, he rose to the rank of Second Lt. in the Artillery. A part of his military service was spent in the Pacific in Hawaii.

On returning to civilian life he began at Dover High School where he taught agriculture, English and social studies for two years followed by eleven years as a teaching principal in the Lincoln School District. In addition to his administrative duties there, he taught all subjects to the seventh and eighth grades. Since some of his own elementary school years were spent under teachers who handled six grades in one room, he was no stranger to the split classes.

Sol Markowitz

The Lincoln years were followed by four in which he was principal at the Frederica School. Coming to Harrington, he was principal at the elementary school here for the seven years preceding consolidation and the creation of the Lake Forest School District.

For the past ten years he has served the district in a number of supervisory positions, several of them held simultaneously.

Sol Markowitz was Supervisor of Instruction with responsibility for curriculum development and implementation, primarily in the district's elementary schools. But he was also Personnel Director, Supervisor of Special Education, Director of Title I and supervisor of various federally funded programs throughout the district. Basic Skills and Gifted and Talented programs as well as the district's psychologist, psychometrist and two speech and hearing specialists all came under his wing.

Sol Markowitz has served as an officer of the DSEA and was elected, first, secretary and later, president of the (now defunct) Advisory Council for Elementary Education (a state-wide organization). He has held office in a number of other professional groups.

He describes himself as "an expert gardener and an inept golfer" who now expects to devote more time to both. Fishing, reading and some travel are also on his personal agenda.

He and his wife Anne (a former resident of New York) have three daughters, two of whom are continuing the family tradition of service to education.

The oldest, Mrs. Marian Leiberman, is an elementary school teacher in the Wilmington District. She and her husband are the parents of a 2½ year old son. Faye Markowitz is also a teacher in the Wilmington elementary schools.

A third daughter, Phyllis Markowitz, is a counselor at the Terry Psychiatric Center.

Woodbridge Has Awards Assembly

This year's senior class at Woodbridge High School will receive awards and special recognition at a separate awards assembly program to be held on Tuesday, May 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The assembly marks a change from the custom of previous years which has been to present the awards at commencement exercises. But the awards have become more lengthy, and about 80% of the Class of 1980 voted in favor of a separate awards program. The Woodbridge School Board at its May 12 meeting gave approval to the plan.

This year's commencement or graduation exercises are set for Sunday, June 1. The list of awards and recipients will be printed on the commencement program.

Light Poles For Athletic Field
As a result of other action by the Woodbridge School Board, eight new light poles will be installed on the high school athletic field.

Three Board Members Chosen

In school board elections held last week Lake Forest voters chose Frederick "Rick" Feutz of Felton from a slate of three candidates, and incumbents William Vanderwende and Norma Prettyman won out at the Woodbridge polls.

In the Lake Forest District Feutz piled up 477 votes to 313 for Eleanor Homewood of Harrington and 47 for Thomas Wilmore of near Canterbury. All three were seeking the seat now held by E.B. Warrington of Felton, a school board member for the past fifteen years. The term is for five years beginning July 1, 1980.

Woodbridge voters chose William Vanderwende to serve a second five year term and Norma Prettyman to finish the one remaining year of the unexpired term of Charles Davis. The Woodbridge Board last August had appointed Mrs. Prettyman to step into the spot when Davis was hired as high school principal.

Vanderwende has a 35 vote margin of 385 to 350 over his challenger Robert Smith. Mrs. Prettyman received 459 votes to her opponent William G. Dix's 285. Four votes in the election were voided.

The new or renewed terms for both Vanderwende and Prettyman will begin July 1 of this year.

Referendum Yesterday

Harrington voters were offered a referendum opportunity yesterday to express their opinion on the possible rezoning of some seven acres of land in the area of Peck Avenue to accommodate a rental apartment complex designed for senior citizens. The Harrington Journal went to press before the polls closed. Look for details in next week's paper.

He is survived by his wife

Gertrude, a stepson Stuart A. Ober of New York City, a brother Isadore and three sisters Reba Greenberg and Mariam Seidler of Philadelphia, and Esther Jacobson of Chicago. Services were held at the Goldstein Chapel in Philadelphia and burial was at the Montefiore Cemetery in Philadelphia. (Continued from Page One) letic field. The 70' poles of Douglas fir, fully treated with creosote for outdoor installation, will be delivered to the district at a cost of $415 each. This figure is about half the cost district administrators had originally estimated.

In other business at its May meeting the Woodbridge School Board:

-heard that Chris Warner of the state's Energy Office has visited the district and met with school officials. The Woodbridge District has already been awarded a technical assistance grant to come up with ways and means of conserving energy in several school buildings. It is in the process of submitting a new proposal which, it is hoped, will get funds to replace the aging boiler in the heating plant at Greenwood. Deadline for the application is July 1, 1980.

-received High School Principal Charles Davis' report on the status of math competencies for grades 9-11 and plans for Basic Skills English sections for next year. Davis told the board the Class of 1981 at present has the largest percentage of students who haven't passed any of the math competencies. This, he suggested, is because a large number of the juniors haven't taken a math course since ninth grade. He said compulsory Basic Skills math classes would be established for those who were recommended as needing them and that those requiring only a few of the competencies would be offered remedial sections taught during the activity period next year. Basic Skills English sections, limited to no more than 15 or 20 students, are being set up as needed for each grade level.

-heard Woodbridge Superintendent Dr. William Griffin and Assistant Superintendent Dr. Robert Sutton recently visited Lake Forest to see the breakfast program offered there. It was thought that with extensive planning a similar program could be established in the district. The board instructed local administrators to pursue the possibility.

Director of the Week

George C. Simpson

George C. Simpson is a native of this area. He currently resides near Houston on his farm. He has been primarily a farmer all of his life. He has been a member of the Board of Directors since the late '40's, and a customer of the bank since 1935. As a farmer and a Director of the bank, he feels he has an opportunity to serve the farming community. He is also involved in the harness racing industry here on the Peninsula as a owner. He is the General Manager of the Delaware State Fair and Harrington Raceway. Mr. Simpson currently serves on the State Bankers Agricultural Committee.

As a Director of the Bank, he feels the bank is there to sell a service. "People who come to our facility are doing us at the bank a favor. We try to oblige them with our services. We aren't always able to do so because of State and Federal banking regulations. Number one we as Directors and employees offer a courteous service, and everyone who comes to the bank is important to us. We have an obligation to the community to serve it and not just to see how much money we can make," said Mr. Simpson. He also feels a good balance should be struck between the stockholders, borrowers, and depositors.

The biggest thing that has caused a drastic transition to our businesses is inflation. He feels it has effected the farmer in the area of labor where there are more wages for less production. "This has effected the farmer and anyone in business today. I don't feel we should guarantee a life of luxury in this country," he added. He feels without government requirements in this area, the price of food the farmer produces would be one-third less.

Smile! Wasn't Mothers Day a lovely day? As the folks came in the center Monday, corsages were very much in evidence, tales of beautiful flowers and gifts. Annabel won a big basket of a variety of plants at church.

The poppies are blowing and swaying in the breeze - Peonies are hurrying into bloom.

Interest has gone down for the borrower. Yarn is at a good saving and if nothing is changed we will have roast beef and trimming May 30.

Rev. Markely of Trinity Methodist Church was leader in Bible Study Monday morning. Sylvia was at the piano. After a very interesting discussion about Mothers, several hymns were sung and enjoyed!

President Marion Brown called the members meeting to order at 1:15 May 12, 1980. Pledge of Allegiance, prayer by Sylvia, minutes by William Anderson, Treasurers report by Mrs. Merle Roth. Both approved. Motion made and seconded to pay bills. Several reported all at home and hospital. Trips and happening - Heritage Day September 13 - rain date September 20 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Beach Hour pamphlet available at center. Representative from Harrington Center May 21 to Del. Council of Senior Citizens - Merle Roth and Amy Paynter.

Several passes were given out for the circus.

Chair cushions were tabled until next month.

Election of two members to serve on Board. 1. Elizabeth Anthony, 2. Fred Littman election of officers for membership. President Brown, Vice President Reed Hughes, Secretary Anderson, Treasurer Roth.

Bus to Bavaria Festival - July. Four were asked to see about shades and drapes - Eliz. Anthony, Annabel Morrow, Nita McClain, Florence Minner.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:20.

There were just a few at band practice Tuesday morning because 30 left Harrington Center for Christiana Mall. The Jolly Timers present did a fine job with Andy as leader and did they sound good? You bet! At the mall the folks had gone all out in celebration of Senior Citizen Month. Donuts and coffee were delicious and plentiful. Games, music, dancing and door prizes. The folks from Harrington were lucky, several came home with pretty nice useful gifts.

Wednesday was like a grand opening, a super duper sale. Chairlady Anna Mae Short along with all at the Center wants to thank everyone for everything connected with the rummage sale. It was a Huge Success! Went to Milford shopping. Rummage sale continued into Thursday, played Bingo with Eliz. calling. Friday bowling at Milford Lanes. Friday was clean up day. Things stored for future.

Ceramics full and plenty - graduation - they are cute too. Some pretty plates too.

Lee Hughes has been delivering meals. Kind of him, isn't it?

The Center will be closed May 26 - Health Nurse here May 27. Demonstration of needlepoint Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Cole.

We are going greenware shopping May 30 - so if you want to go - be ready.

There is plenty of work at the ceramic table. Are you getting your Christmas things ready? No, it is not too early. I'm going on vacation June 9 til June 27. I will be glad to help you with anything you have to do.

Best Wishes to all homebounds. Those who are ill. Thank you volunteers! Be kind to each other.

Remember - what lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

Gabfest

by Pat Hatfield

What a morning! The mockingbirds and robins were up at first light feeding their hungry kids. It is a made-to-order day...the kind that you can't get enough of. The familiar quotation comes to mind: "The year's at the spring and the day's at the morn; Morning's at seven, the hillside's dew-pearled; The lark's on the wing, the snail's on the thorn. God's in His heaven. All's right with the world."

I inspect the garden. The peas are at the top of their standards and ready to blossom. I think fondly of them simmering in butter and laced with tiny, slippery dumplings. The head lettuce is a delectable shade of green and is already folding its center leaves to form a round ball. I check the salad dressings! The strawberries are white with blossoms and I say with wee Garith... "I can hardly wait." The cabbage looks good, the first sweet corn is up and the potatoes are getting their small thick leaves.

This is all beautiful now and still looks like the pictures in the seed catalogs. We exult in them and we have no thought of bug or beetle. No slugs or cut worms intrude upon our joy. And...just maybe...this year won't have many anyway.

I managed to get out and pick some of the big pansies for the wee Toby jug this morning. Dad always sees that we have some pansies because I love them so. They always look like little kitten faces to me. I am not sure where the resemblance lies, but kitten faces come to my mind as I look at them. We have purple ones and deep wine and brilliant yellow. One year we had velvet brown ones which seemed so special.

I don't know whether or not the swallows came back to Capistrano this year, but the blackbirds never fail to arrive at Trail's End. They are gorgeous with their sleek, black satin plumage, and their graceful, dignified walk across the yard is a joy to watch. It is fluid motion. But there are so many of them! And never enough cardinals and mockingbirds.

"Morris" could do with a few less mockers. They chase him across the yard, scolding loudly and swoop down to nip him on the head ever so often. He is terrified of them and stands mewing frantically at the screen door begging Mama to let him in to safety.

I must stop this gabbing and get out and pick some of the peonies that have just opened. The pink ones are all out. My favorites are the white with the so-called blood spot in the center. The peonies are really the first flowers I remember as a wee toddler. The ones we had were white, and I remember their fragrance. When Mama rented a horse and carriage from the town livery stable and we drove to Grandma's, a couple of miles outside of Frederica we took her a big bunch of the white peonies. And Grandma always had boiled custard pudding and big sugar cookies for dessert.

Tuesday, May 13 - nine members of the Frederica Adult Center and The Harvest Years

Center in Dover left for the Christiana Mall. The mall entertained the group and gave all the Senior Citizens a discount.

Everyone always enjoys the Banjo Dusters and the String Trio and Drums and Bugles - with many door prizes awarded, plus ever loving Bingo and more prizes. Our group left early and happy to be home.

Monday covered dish was well represented and Mrs. Margaret West and daughter Trina of Frederica entertained the happy group with piano playing and singing many well known hymns.

The 14th Dr. William Adams from Del. State visited the Frederica Center, the garden had been cultivated and was ready for planting. The tomatoes, green beans - string beans to us, cauliflower, cabbage, beets, collards and fall peas are in. Now for the growing and weeding. Best wishes folks.

YOUR PEACE OF MIND and HEART OUR FIRST CONSIDERATION

Berry Funeral Homes

Dear friends,
The book WIDOW by Lynne Caine Morrow - one woman's story of facing the death of her husband. Her major message, "If I had known the facts of grief before I experienced them, it would not have made my grief less intense...But I would have known that once my grief was worked thru, I would be joyful again. Not my old self. I am another woman now, and I like this woman better."
Respectfully,

The Cards used a big seven run 4th inning to break open a tight game with the Dodgers and hung on to win 9-7. Cris Garton had a bases loaded triple and Scott Talley a double. The game was called after five innings because of darkness. Craig Simpson was the losing pitcher.

Track Girls Drub Smyrna 100-32

by Keith S. Burgess

This writer has been a Sheri Coburn fan for four years. In September of 1977, a slender, competitive seventh grader came out for the boys' cross country team. Sheri has improved steadily ever since, while many slender boys at Lake Forest simply don't have the courage to try the near-three miles grind.

At Smyrna, Sheri needed a good clocking in the 1500 meters in order to qualify for the state meet. She needed someone good enough in the race to push her all the way. Coach Blades put her good friend Gina Turner, transfer student from North Caroline, Denton, MD into the 1500 lineup.

Gina usually runs the 3000 meters is the Lake Forest record holder and has already qualified for the state meet in the 3000.

The two tall, slender guppy lasses matched stride for stride completely annihilated all competition shattered Coburn's Lake Forest record of 5.21. Coburn has a new school mark of 5.14.5. Turner had 5.14.7. Sheri and Gina both qualified for the state meet at 1500 meters and Keith S. Burgess is now a Gina Turner fan also.

Smyrna could only offer Jim Blades' improving distaffers taken opposition as Lake Forest won 100-32. Coburn and Turner later finished 1-2 in the 800, also Susie Asbury was third in each middle distance race.

Carol Payne was again a double winner taking both the 100 and 200 meter hurdles, with Muriel Greene third in each.

Juana Moorman's great stretch drive gave her a tie for first in the 200 meters. Juana was second in the 100 then ran with Pandora Scott and Tina Durant on the winning 800 meter relays. Linda Smack and Cheryl Manaraze were on the 400 and 800 quartets, respectively. Manaraze had seconds in the long and triple jumps also. Karen Gibbs, third in Mocap® Plus stops bean beetles. But it doesn't stop there.

You know what Mexican bean beetles can do to your soybean crop. But in this part of the country, nematodes can be just as big a threat, attacking roots and robbing you of up to 14 bushels per acre.

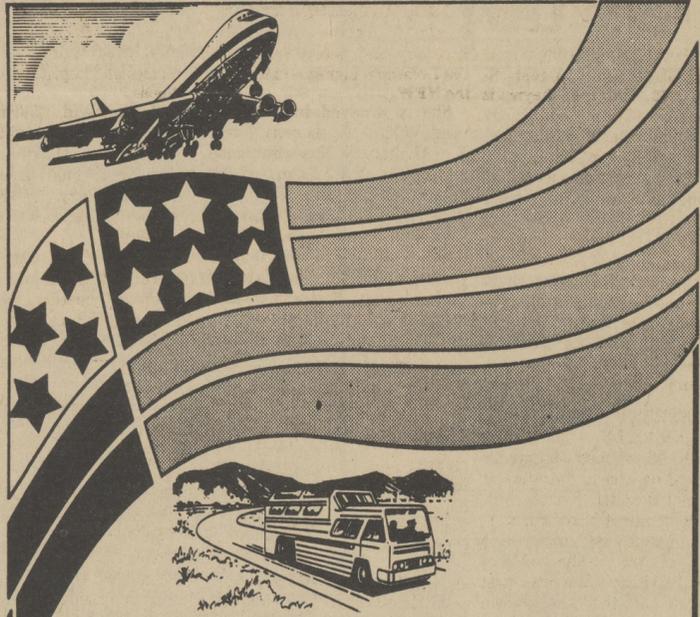

Mocap® Plus nematicide-insecticide controls both. That's right, Mocap Plus 10-5G with Di-Syston® effectively controls* both nematodes and Mexican bean beetles. It even controls thrips (except flower thrips). And it's economical to use.

If you only need nematode control, Mocap 10-G nematicide is even more economical.

So see your dealer for all the Mocap you need. And get the kind of yields you should be getting.

Brownies visit Police Dept.

On Tuesday, April 26, the Brownie Troop of 332 and their leaders had a fine day when they toured the Harrington Police Department.

When we arrived, we were met by Chief McIlroy and Mrs. Alice Ault (secretary) who gave the tour. The scouts learned many interesting things that go on day to day in the department. After the tour we met officer Yannucci, who delighted the scouts with a ride in the police car and showed how the radar worked.

When we returned to the station after the ride, each scout then received a card with their picture and fingerprints on them. As leaders of the troop, we would like to thank Chief McIlroy, Officer Yannucci and Mrs. Ault for the fine tour that our troop was shown.

We think it would be worth while, for all Girl and Boy Scouts and other clubs to take the time to visit the department. The leaders were Louise Aptt and Linda Rapp.

Days of Our Years

Thirty Years Ago - May 19, 1950

Record balloting saw Hayward Quillen and Herman Cabbage Brown win out in a hotly contested battle with three other candidates, including two incumbents, for the schoolboard posts here Saturday afternoon.

Bill and Mable Watkins of Houston are pretty much agreed-it's cheaper by the dozen! In their 22 years of married life, Mr. & Mrs. Watkins have raised 12 children - six boys and six girls - ranging on ages from one to 20 years. They have done it all on the theory that "it's just as easy to care for a dozen children as it is for a few."

Two animals bred by Winterthur Farms topped the first annual Harrington Heifer Classic, a sale of 38 registered Holstein females and bulls at the Kent and Sussex Fairgrounds here Tuesday afternoon.

The property of the late Ratie E. Peck, on Delaware Avenue, sold at auction Saturday afternoon to Harry Greenberg for $7100. It included 18 acres with several improvements: a two-story concrete block dwelling house, stable, barn, chicken house, brooder house and garage.

Senator W.O. Cabbage of Willow Grove will write the Willow Grove letter. We wonder how many newspapers have a real, live senator writing their correspondence?

The little things count. Here we were wondering when the drinking fountain in front of the shirt factory on Commerce Street would be going. Now we see that a new one has been installed. The dogs will appreciate it, too, since it has a spout where the water runs into the gutter.

A fire of unknown origin damaged Fairview Inn on U.S.13 just north of town early Sunday morning. Fire Chief Doug Mills estimated the damage at $1,000 to the building and $300 to $400 to the contents.

Twenty Years Ago - May 20, 1960

Joan Noreen Blunt, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Charles Blunt of Felton, was judged Miss Harrington, May 12, at the Rotary Club's 11th annual beauty contest. Little Miss Harrington is Lynn Ann Leonard, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Gene Leonard.

Jeanne Martin, 16, a junior at Harrington High School was selected Kent County Dress Revue Princess and girls' public speaking winner Thursday night, May 12, at the Capital Grange. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Fred Martin of Harrington.

In one of two contested Kent County School Board elections Saturday, an unprecedented vote for a similar election was chalked up here, with William W. Shaw defeating Luther P. Hatfield, Board president...The total of 900 votes was, in the opinion of observers, the highest ever seen here in a school board election.

Fom Harrington School Notes: Mrs. Howard's First Grade - (In a May Day play) Karen Minner was the queen; Alton Reid Jr. was the king; Little Red Riding Hood was Norma Jean Wyatt, and the wolf was Robert Messick...David Newnam opened the exercises, and Kathy Miller was the announcer.

Miss Sandra Tatman, a junior next term at Harrington High School, has been chosen to attend the Summer Science Day Camp at P.S. duPont School, Wilmington.

MSgt. Earl E. Greenhaugh, son of Mr. & Mrs. John L. Greenhaugh of Harrington, was selected from several thousand soldiers at the Quartermaster Training Command, United States Army, fort Lee, Virginia, as "Soldier of the Month" for April 1960.

Coach Dick Jeffers' Lions repeated as champions in the second annual Henlopen Conference Track and Field Championships held here Friday afternoon...For Harrington High School, Walt Lekites leaped 19 feet 3 inches in the broad jump, Dwight Hackett ran the 880 in 2:14.4, and Harry Knotts took the mile in 4:46.8 for new records.

Ten Years Ago - May 21, 1970

"W. Cliff Miller's gone to pasture," states an article in the May issue of Penn Central Post. But that's not as bad as it sounds. The 81-year old Miller is just as busy as ever...He's running a hotel for horses. He and his wife Molly.. have a full-fledged boarding farm for nearby race tracks.

U.S. Air Force Staff Sgt. Morris C. Berger, son of Mr. & Mrs. Robert R. Berger of Felton has been decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross for heroism in Vietnam.

Little League baseball got underway in a big way Saturday on both diamonds at the rebuilt Moose Recreation Center where Louis Kemp, the new president, has made elaborate arrangements for seeing that our boys are taken care of.

From first grader David Lekites on the subject of baseball: In baseball you have to hit the ball. Fans cheer and cheer they cheer like anything. They like to see baseball. They hit and hit and hit. They like to play baseball so they can hit the ball.

Dave Newnam cooled off a hot Milford team on a several-game win streak by scattering five hits over ten innings and nipping the Buc 2-1. Bob Young's Lake Forest team thus clinched at least a tie in the Henlopen Conference Southern Division baseball title.

Looking For A Way To Reduce Heat Loss, While Qualifying For An Energy Credit On Your Taxes?

HERE'S ONE WAY TO DO BOTH!

The Lake Forest School District also was looking for a more energy efficient window.....one that would minimize maintenance as well.

Shown below, workmen from CONVENTIONAL BUILDERS, INC., of Houston, Delaware, are installing PECO SERIES "2000" THERMALIZED SINGLE-HUNG WINDOW UNITS, at various Lake Forest Schools

CONVENTIONAL BUILDERS, INC., low bidder for this project, would be happy to discuss your window plans with you.....for commercial application or residential application.

PECO SERIES "2000" THERMALIZED UNITS are aluminum, and are virtually maintenance free since they are electro-statically treated with a baked enamel finish. Independent testing sponsored by AAMA (Architectural Aluminum Manufacturing Association) showed that thermalized aluminum windows will save 35% to 42% of the energy lost through windows due to heat conduction compared to energy lost through standard wood or aluminum windows glazed with insulating glass. Air leakage and heat conduction together can account for as much heat loss through (12) 3-foot by 5-foot windows as a 1½-foot by 3-foot hole in the wall directly to the outside.

Another feature of these windows is an easily removable bottom sash (for cleaning), half screens, and insulated panels with air conditioner cut-outs where window airconditioners are located.

Each window unit is factory field-measured and built to size wanted.

For additional information, or an estimate on replacement of some or all of your windows, call.....

He likes the mean cats because they are easy to train.

Thoughts From Washington

By U.S. Senator Bill Roth

THE FEDERAL COURTS: DELAWARE'S UNELECTED LEGISLATURE

"A county-wide remedy more Draconian than ever approved by this court..."

"A disservice to local government and the people of Delaware..."

"Pupil assignment far more comprehensive and disruptive than that which the established violations warranted..."

Despite these comments from three justices, the Supreme Court refused to hear a full-scale review of the U.S. District Court's desegregation order for New Castle County. I am severely disappointed with this action - an action which reflects, once again, the court's inability to deal with one of the most crucial social questions of today.

Rightly or wrongly, busing is implemented in New Castle County. The problem is far-reaching; courts simply see no limits to their powers.

Courts interpret law, not make it.

Our government was designed to have three co-equal branches, each with separate powers and responsibilities. Each branch, at one time or another, has assumed or been forced into a position of dominance over the other two. And, each time one stepped out of line, its deviation was checked and corrected by the other two.

Where the legislature or President assumes too much power, the people of the country can respond with their votes. But, when the judiciary becomes too powerful, only the judges themselves regain the proper constitutional balance.

The court's action in refusing to hear the New Castle County busing case impacts Delawareans directly but, more importantly, it reflects a much deeper problem within the federal court system.

If federal judges find a law is violated, they don't limit themselves to traditional legal remedies. Rather, they sit as an unelected legislature, changing and enacting social policies - such as busing - that fit the sentiments of the judge.

Without clear direction from the supreme judicial body, this trend will snowball, crushing the electoral voice of the people in the process.

The judiciary has its place in our constitutional scheme. There must be a way to settle disputes about questionable government actions. Still, I believe judges should re-examine the unwritten rule of unlimited judicial power. We need to preserve the integrity of separation of powers, not only for the people of today but for the generations to come.

Lake Forest Board

(Continued from Page One) the upcoming year was presented to the Lake Forest Board. But the Board was unready to act and tabled the matter. Board members asked for a meeting with principals, teachers and aides to go over the proposal and the possibilities. It is expected that the meeting will be held within the next two weeks.

In other business the Lake Forest School Board:

-received from Lake Forest High School Principal Dr. Margaret Phelps copies of a Middle States Evaluation Progress Report detailing ways in which the high school has responded to recommendations made as a result of the evaluation for accreditation which was carried out in November of 1977.

-heard the State Board has now set a hearing on the Lake Forest - Woodbridge Boundary dispute for its June 19 meeting. It had been earlier reported in the Journal that the matter would come up on May 15 when the surveyor hired by the state to define a 1953 boundary between the old Harrington and Greenwood school districts was to submit a report. However, the survey was not complete, and the issue was not included on the May agenda. It is expected that residents of the area under dispute will have an opportunity to be represented at the June 19 meeting.

-decided to inquire further into insurance liability in the question of students' jackets that were apparently ruined by acid. The jackets belonged to several members of a Kindergarten class at Lake Forest North and were hanging in their proper places in the classroom when it was discovered that a number had suddenly developed holes caused by some substance which "ate through" the fabric. Lake Forest North Principal Frank Young said the incident had been investigated, but still remains a mystery. It is not known what the substance was or who applied it. Only the jackets were affected, but about $200 in damage was done.

-granted tax exempt status to a trailer in Lake Forest Mobile Estates used as an office for HELP, an organization taking phone calls from and offering assistance to persons in distress.

2 brm. mobile home on 2 1/4 ac. fronts on 2 roads near Whiteleysburg. Priced to sell.

Spring Gardeners Warned of Poison Ivy

Poison ivy season is here again.

You may have handled poison ivy last year and escaped without an itch, but don't push your luck. No one is permanently immune to poison ivy, oak or sumac.

The American Medical Association points out that the next meeting with this pesky plant could take place in your own yard, as well as in the woods and fields. Poison ivy has appeared in city gardens. Sometimes that lovely vine climbing the side of your house is laced with the offending poison ivy.

Know how to detect poison plants and avoid them. Poison ivy and its close kin, poison oak, are three-leaved plants which may grow as low bushes or climbing vines. They may be mixed with honeysuckle and other climbers. Poison sumac, an eastern swamp plant with seven to thirteen leaflets and small white berries, usually grows as a shrub.

If you have been exposed, carefully remove your clothes and thoroughly wash all affected areas with warm water and soap. Then sponge with an alcohol solution. Using rubber gloves, clean your clothes in an oil solvent and soapy water. Dry them in the sun.

Ivy, oak and sumac poisoning start with itching and redness within a few hours to several days after exposure. Then watery pimples appear. There is no cure for the big itch. Wet dressings of boric acid or Epsom salts solution bring some relief. Calamine lotion also reduces itching. Call your physician if inflammation is excessive.

If you know that you will be near poison plants or working with them, have your druggist make a 10 per cent sodium perborate ointment and apply on exposed skin. After contact with the plant, wash off ointment and scrub all clothing, even shoelaces.
