Heritage Day - WOW!

The weather was perfect. The crowds came - and enjoyed. The food and drinks were selling like the proverbial hotcakes, even though there were no hot cakes for sale. Planns from Friday night's barn dance through Saturday's FULL schedule to Sunday's colonial service at Asbury went off almost without a hitch.

If all of the above statements sound like editorial comment, they can also be taken as fact. By all accounts, Harrington's Heritage Street. Dr. James Valle, historian up and down the state each day. A vocal group of citizens large enough to necessitate moving the Council meeting from City Hall to the adjacent fire hall turned out last Tuesday night to fire complaints and questions at CATV representative George Sevast.

Most complaints centered around recent changes made in the channel selection CATV offers. Irate customers felt they should have been consulted before the changes were made. They were particularly unhappy about the loss of Channel 6 (which has now been restored, but is on Channel 4) and the use of Channel 7 as a public information channel. There have been some positive comments about the channel which shows printed announcements of various local events to a background of music. But they were not made at last Tuesday's Council meeting.

Among those present were Louise Aptt, who brought a petition bearing some sixty signatures of those unhappy with the channel changes and Paul Neeman, who told Sevast "You sold us a bill of goods, and now you are trying to shove (these changes) down our throats. Why don't we as payers of bills get to choose what we want?" Sevast attempted to field all the questions and to explain the changes. Some, he said, were in response to FCC requirements; others, to avoid duplicate programming (the same baseball game on three different channels, etc.)

Sevast promised to do an opinion survey, of CATV's subscribers and said the company would not be likely to make such changes again without consulting its customers.

Mayor Arthur Cahall told the assembled group it was not the city's place to tell CATV what to program. That should be between the customer and the company. However, he pointed out the lease agreement with the company comes up for renewal in 1989. Serious customer dissatisfaction could play a part then.

In other business, the Harrington City Council:

-received a copy of a proposed 1981 budget from Mayor Cahall. independent than their Japanese counterparts says Yasuharu Utsumi of Himeji City in Japan. Mr. Utsumi, who teaches English at the junior high school level in his home country, has spent the last eight days visiting in classes at the W.T. Chipman Junior High School in Harrington. The visit is a part of two months of study in the United States sponsored by the Japanese Ministry of Education.

The two-fold purpose of his trip includes sharpening his own skills in speaking and listening to English and learning what is more appropriate for his students. English, which is spoken world-wide, is important in Japan where many businessmen speak it. Students there take six years of English. But as is often the case with a foreign language studied in a classroom anywhere, skills in reading and writing come more readily than American students are more instruction of the teacher. This might be viewed from a negative angle as a suggestion that classrooms here are harder to control. But in saying that, "every student here looks independent...", Mr. Utsumi has a positive emphasis. He thinks their confidence and selfmotivation have merit.

His visit to an elementary classroom here might be taken as a case in point. He spoke briefly last Wednesday to the combined fifth grades at Lake Forest South Elementary, and the session concluded with a question-and-answer period. The fifth graders were not shy about raising their hands and voicing their quesitons. They asked everything from the name of his home city to his age and how to write or say their names in Japanese (which they found out, somewhat to their disappointment would be no different than in English. There are no Japanese equivalents for Richard or Jane). In his contacts with students The questioners, widespread self-confident, more ready to take going strong when Mr. Utsimi's time was up. #### Looking Back: Sixty-Two Years

[Part III of IV]

by Bessie Austin Burdziak

NOW - here comes something else - that makes one wonder just how events are turned and shaped in this wonderful life of ours -BECAUSE, many years later, -the BIG, NEW, MODERN - LAKE FOREST HIGH SCHOOL has been built very near the very location of our old little one-roomed Rice's School!!!! In other words if I could start back to school now - I could almost be back where I started First Grade in 1919. Is that telephone on stormy mornings.

Route. We were all ready, First Day of School - and waiting. Mr. Spurry came right on time. The black curtains on both sides. There were sides to the back - about the height of our present day pick-up sides. And there was a lot of nice clean shiny bright straw in the ironic??? (Those of us who could - bottom of the Jitney. We all went first and second grades in one climbed in, with lunch boxes and year in those days.) Going to the sat around - thoroughly enjoying Town School - was - we were told - this new experience, but certainly going to simplify things and be a bit in awe of going to the big much easier for everyone con-strange school. This was Septemcerned. For one thing, we were ber, 1922, and I was going into going to be given transportation so Fifth Grade and Miss Arta Baker our parents no longer had to ring was the teacher. I had a bunch of three long rings on the party line daisies pinned on the front of my pink and white checked gingham Mr. Al Spurry ran a Livery dress-with bloomers to match. My Stable in Harrington and he volun- hair was long and black and pulled teered to run the Jitney Bus on our down as straight as possible and I had just started to wear bornrimmed glasses. All these attributes did not help any in creating Jitney Bus was actually called a an impression of popularity toward "Hack". It was a Ford, black, a making new friends "in the city". little step on the back and roll-up Town girls had their hair bobbed and wore bangs!!! Everything improved - the weather got colder we learned our way around and everyone became our friends and we were "in".

However, by this time, Mr. Spurry had arranged to have two little benches built and covered with the same black material as the curtains on the sides of the Van. With the cold weather, the curtains had to be rolled down and made fast - it was dark inside then except for the light which came in through the windshield. Then another complication arose. The boys kept pitching all the straw out - and we got colder and colder and our feet became numb. Since Mr. Spurry ran the Livery Stable, he had horses, and also lots of horse blankets. So he replaced the straw with blankets - and there was always enough to go around. By this time, we had a regular driver too - Mr. Clarence Porter - and he drove us several years - even up until the time we had regulation buses to ride in. The new buses were nice - they had windows all around - which would go up and down at the half-way mark - but playing rough and tumble and throwing lunch boxes and books, soon created the problem of broken window panes. This was resolved by making the child responsible for breaking the window, pay for replacing it. However, sometimes it was a long time until that boy had enough money to pay for the window - so we suffered along in the draft for a spell.

Mr. Utsumi Visits W.T. Chipman

Mr. Utsumi also said that stulabs or gym or music. Japanese students remain in the same classroom. It is the teachers who travel. He thinks the system here is probably easier on the teacher. But he says, for Japanese students, their classroom becomes a "home" They care for it, keep it clean and take a great deal of pride in it.

The Japanese school day, he told the fifth graders, begins at 8:15 a.m. and continues through 3:30 p.m. The school year goes from April to March. Junior and senior high school students are required to wear uniforms, while elementary students are not. The pace of life and particularly of conversation here he finds much faster than at home. Two Americans in conversation he would describe as saying quickly whatever they have to say and then parting company with a brief "See you later..." In a Japanese conversation, the pace might be slower and there might be more room for the comfortable silence. This, he says, is just a difference in cultures. But he does admit the busy-ness here can be tiring.

His trip to this country has been a very busy one. The first month was spent at the University of Minneapolis where he and a group of Japanese teachers studied with Dr. Mark Lander, a professor in the department concerned with English as a foreign language. There followed trips to Winnipeg, Buffalo, Boston, and Washington, D.C. Then the group of 28 teachers arrived in Delaware where they

This is the third year that a contest has been held at the University of Delaware open to Senior Citizens only.

One of our very own Senior Citizens from Harrington, Mr. Carroll Welch, Sr. entered a story titled "I remember When". The theme was between the wars.

Mr. Welch's story has been accepted and is being published in a booklet under the title of "Farm Life In Southern Delaware". On Sunday, September 14, Mr.

Welch traveled to Clayton Hall at the University to have his picture taken in a group with the other authors, and for an autographing session. These booklets will be made available to the general public at $3.95 each. They may be purchased at Clayton Hall.

Mr. Welch received a certificate of recognition for his efforts. Congratulations Mr. Welch!

On Saturday, September 6, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Rapp celebrated their fourth anniversary. They went out to dinner for the occasion.

Congratulations Ronnie and Linda! On Sunday, September 7, Mr. Ron Russ and Mr. John Hartford of Glen Burnie, MD visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Rapp and family. They all enjoyed a cookout.

There will be a town registration for all girl scouts at Asbury Methodist Church on Tuesday, September 16. It will start with Brownies (1st thru 3rd grades) from 7 to 7:30 p.m. Junior Girl Scouts (4th thru 6th grades) from 7:30 to 8:00 p.m. Cadettes and Seniors (7th thru 12th grades) from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. This is for girls who have not already registered.

Heritage Day was a big success this year. The weather even cooperated with blue skies and no rain. People came from New York state, Maryland, Virginia, and many other places according to the register placed at the Century Club. We all need to give a special thanks to Mrs. Eddie Mae Cooper not only for helping get the signature quilt together, but also for coordinating all the needlework department. She did a remarkable job even to costuming her aides in colonial costume. I heard some comments that the Belly Dancer didn't show her belly - but we must remember she was dancing for children as well as adults. I heard also she did a good job.

Everyone was tired when the day was over, but they all wanted to come back next year.

Many people went to the mill too late to see the soap making or the dulcimer being played. For those people, there is still next year.

Each year there seems to be more to see than we can get to. Did everyone get a taste of maple syrup? Or see the basket makers; or watch the broom maker?

There was a flag flying on Delaware Avenue with a large yellow ribbon on it for the hostages remembrance.

And please remember to pray for Jo Ann Wyatt as she recovers in Milford Hospital. Cards would be nice too. It always helps to know you're remembered.

Mrs. William Marshall of 112 N W. Front St., Milford is the guest of Mrs. Ethel Rapp of 1 W. Liberty Street. We welcome her in our community.

Mrs. Marshall will celebrate her 94th birthday on Thursday, September 18th. Happy Birthday "Aunt Bowdie" and many more Happy Birthdays!

Mrs. Marshall is the widow of Dr. William Marshall.

Mr. Samuel Short is a patient in Milford Memorial Hospital. If anyone wishes to send him a card, his Room Number is 344. Wishing him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Louise Greer was released from the hospital last Wednesday. Glad you're home Louise!

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donophan of Felton were Louise's dinner guests on Thursday evening. Her great granddaughters Nathi Timmons eight years old was dinner guest Friday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Timmons and their new daughter, Raclyn three months old were visitors Friday

Gary Greer has a weekend guest, Chris Seward. They attended Heritae Day Saturday.

Diane Chason and friend Bill Harms visited in York, PA for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Levers and daughters Paula and Annie attended a horse show in Smithville, Maryland on Saturday, the 13th. Annie was the only one of the family to ride and she won two ribbons, a first and a second place. Congratulations Annie!

I spent five days as a patient in Milford Memorial Hospital this past week. I'd like to thank everyone for their help, prayers, visits, cards, phone calls, and flowers. Special thanks to Rev. Joseph E. James of Christ Church, Milford, Rev. Jackson Robinson, the Rev. and Mrs. William Miller and Rev. Bruce Shortell. Thanks Janice Rinde for babysitting, Jan Winkler for just being you, Gail for helping with the kids. God Bless each and every one of you, and a special thanks to Mom, Sonny and the kids. I love you!

Don't forget those yellow ribbons. Fly your flag. Let's keep the hostages in Iran in our prayers. Take care, share a smile, God

Yes, we did get recipes for using okra. Please take note, my Readers from Lincoln who requested these. We heard from Mrs. Margaret Argo at Milford and Mrs. Chester Dickerson at Milford. These do sound good. Wish I had some okra!

Mrs. Argo gives us these Cook 11/2 cups of fresh okra cut in ½ inch pieces, covered, in small amount of boiling water salted, ten Cook 1/2 cup chopped onion, and ½ cup chopped green pepper in 2 tablespoons salad oil till tender but not brown. Blend in 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon flour, 3/4 teasp. salt, and 1/2 tsp. pepper.

Add 4 tomatoes, peeled and quartered and the okra. Cook 10-15 min. until tomatoes are done. Serves 4.

Batter Fried Okra

Wash 2 cups okra well, drain, cut off stems, but do not slice. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Combine: 3/4 cup flour, 1/2 teas. baking powder, ½ teas. salt. Add ½ cup milk, 1 egg well beaten. Dip okra into batter and fry in salad oil until favorites: Tomatoes and Okra: golden brown in deep oil heated to 400 degrees. Turn if necessary to brown okra evenly. Drain on paper towels. Serves 4-6.

> Oven Fried Okra 1/4 cup corn meal, 1 teas. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper. 6 cups (1/2 inc. thick) sliced okra. 1 tablespoon salad oil or bacon fat.

Combine dry mix. Dredge okra in cornmeal mix. Spread oil in 15 x 10 x 1 in. pan (cookie sheet).

Spread okra evenly in pan. Bake at 400 degrees for 30 to 40 min., stirring often. Yields 10-12 ser-

Mrs. Argo says she also freezes small packages of diced okra for winter soups.

Barne's rep. for 38th. District

B. Bradford Barnes of Bridgeville has filed as a Republican candidate for the 38th Representative District. This District consists of the greater Greenwood area north to the Kent County line across to Georgetown east to Route #30 and back to Bridgeville west to the Maryland line.

Barnes, 48, is a native of West Virginia. He is a graduate of the University of Delaware in civil engineering. He is married to the former Margaret "Peggy" Brenner of Bridgeville. They have three daughters, Mary Margaret "Mitzie", Laurie and Joanna.

He is a V.P. and General Sales Manager of the Agri-Business at O.A. Newton & Son in Bridgeville. He is a member of the United Methodist Church in Bridgeville where he has served in various functions of that church. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, a member of the Bridgeville Lions Club and a former President. Barnes said, "I will carry out an aggressive person-to-person campaign as an active, outgoing representative for creative legislation on behalf of the 38th District". This is his first bid for public elective office.

Dr. Hoch Presents Ruritan Program

On Thursday night, Dr. Harry Hoch and his son Larry gave a slide presentation to the members of the Burrsville Ruritans. The slides were on an African safari which the two had taken in 1973. They hunted and killed 23 different species of game and animals from that area. Their trip took them by air to Kenya and then they trucked back in the bush for several hundreds of miles together with their white hunter guide and helpers. The slide program took about an hour which consisted of two trips of slides both on Africa and narration by both parties.

President Preston Beauchamp announced that the 1st place trophy which the club won at the Delmarva Chicken Festival was now on display at the Club Hall.
