

Sun Shines on Jaycee Parade

Ho! Ho! Ho! -Santa waves a greeting.

...and the Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club, Grand prize winners, carol in Saturday's parade.

"It was a total community effort," said Ray Blanchette, Harrington Jaycees' Christmas parade chairman, in commenting on Saturday's parade and his fourth year as chief organizer. Blanchette was obviously pleased with the day during which about 120 different marching units turned out in nearly perfect weather to help Harrington get its Christmas season underway.

With commendations to the whole community for all the cooperation he got this year, Blanchette said, "It (being parade chairman) is getting to be easier every year." He confesses that he might even look forward to doing the job for a fifth time in 1981. He was especially pleased that four members of the Harrington City Council and the Mayor either rode or participated in the parade in some

City Hires Joseph Cotta (Joe Scott)

The Harrington City Council Monday night voted a family voice to fill the voice left by the resignation of City Manager Dave Peterson in October, Joseph Cotta, must better know to radio listeners in this area as Joe Scott of WAFL (formerly WAFL/WTHD) was selected from a field that had been narrowed from six to three applicants.

However, Mr. Cotta (or Scott) will not be Harrington City Manager, provision of the city charter stipulates that the City Manager be a resident of Harrington (either when hired or by the time the job is assumed). Since none of the six applicants could meet that criterion, the Council decided to circumvent the charter by naming a City Administrator instead.

The new City Administrator will receive an initial salary of $12,500, which is to be raised to $13,000 after the first four months. That figure approximates the salary set aside for a city manager in the 1980-81 budget adopted last month.

Cotta's hiring was not a unanimous decision. The Council's vote was 3-2-1 with members Lobo, Wyatt and Newman in favor, Dill and Harrington opposed, and Brode abstaining. The only objection voiced was the propriety of changing the title of the job without re-advertising the position.

Paradee Offers to Sell Newsstand to City

Charles Paradee, of Paradee Oil Company who recently purchased a parcel of property containing the Phillips 66 service station, on Clark St. and the Harrington Restaurant, and Newstand on Delaware Avenue, says the newsstand is for sale and has offered it to the City of Harrington for $16,500.

Paradee's offer was relayed by former Harrington mayor Burton Satterfield at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday night. Satterfield suggested that the newsstand, with ample parking, might be a good location for City Hall. The city rents its present quarters from the Fire Company.

Council members Gary Harrington remarked that the offer was worth studying. There was no immediate discussion or comment from the

In other business, the Harrington City Council: -received thanks from Jaycee Christmas parade chairman Ray Blanchette for their help. The city contributed $900.

-discussed increased costs of trash collection and its complications for the city budget. Last year Harrington had a $14,497 surplus in trash fees. This year increased costs of dumping at Sandtown (from 2,305.20 at Harrington to an estimated $11,957.16 at the state's new facility) and other expenses will eat up most of that surplus which will then be unavailable for other uses, or to set aside when the trash truck must be replaced. The Council, some years ago, apparently made provisions for this set aside; However, that has not been followed through. The city has used the surplus trash money for other city needs. This year there will be little or no surplus. Debate over the issue was heated. The Council was reluctant to raise fees on a service that is, so far paying for itself. No action was taken.

-decided to spend this year's SALLE (State Aid to Local Law Enforcement) for a new copier rather than a high band police radios as originally planned. The copier will cost the city $2,266.96 beyond the SALLE money. -heard that Patrolman Yonucci and Wyatt spent 16 or more hours of their time helping the city install lights on the new police car, thereby saving the City about $800. The new-car is equipped with white side lights to

Two Local Youths Save Man from Burning Death

Kenneth Beebe

Two local youths became "involved" and possibly saved a man from a horrible death by fire last Friday morning at about 1:00 a.m. Kenneth Beebe and Douglas Beene of Farmington, both 18, were traveling on US 113 in the vicinity of Lynch Heights when they observed an accident which had just happened.

The two, Douglas Beene, driving and Kenneth Beebe his passenger, stopped to render assistance, seeing that the car was on fire Beebe jumped out to help the occupant while Beene drove on to the nearest phone to call for assistance.

Beebe went to the car and heard a feeble call for help, and finding the victim in a semi-conscious state, pulled him from the burning wreck.

The occupant of the car was given first aid at the scene and eventually was transported to the Crozer Burn Center at Chester, Pa. At last reports he was listed in critical condition.

The "Journal" joins the community State Police, and the victims family in congratulating the two young men for their acts of heroism and compassion. Well done Kenneth and Douglas.

New Column Appears

There is a new column Delaware Diamonds appearing in The Harrington Journal this week concerning the history of our area. It will be done by a local person, Mrs. Joyce Jefferson, who has spent many hours researching her materials. If any of our readers have anything to add to this column in any manner, you should direct your remarks to Harry G. Farrow, Jr., Publisher, The Harrington Journal, P.O. Box #239, Harrington, De. 19952. Watch for this column in the succeeding weeks ahead. You will find, as we have that this can be a very interesting reading.

3 Appointed in Frederica

At last Thursday's regular meeting of the Frederica Town Council, Mayor Dan Griffith appointed three members to a newly formed Planning and Zoning Commission. The three are William E. CLine, who will serve for two years, Gerron Hite, serving for four years, and Wallace Wootten, appointed for the first full six year term. [For further details, see next week's Harrington Journal].

The Harrington Journal's Raceweek will be published on December 17. This will be the Christmas issue. If you wish to express your Christmas message to your racing friends, please contact The Harrington Journal 1-302-398-3206 or drop a line to P.O. Box 239 Harrington, Del. 19952.

Referendum Set for City Election Day

Harrington residents who go to the polls on Tuesday, January 13, 1981, to choose a new mayor and two councilmen (from the fifth and sixth wards) will also be asked to register their approval (or their disapproval) of a loan to pay for the city's share of improving the local sewage treatment facility. The loan limit would be $189,000, a figure which include the both $150,000 now estimated as the city's share and a contingency fund. The date for the referendum was set following a public hearing during Monday night's meeting of the Harrington City Council.

Discussion during the hearing centered on the need for the improvement project at the sewage treatment plant, K.C. Goel, of Edward H. Richardson Associates, affirmed the fact that the City really has no choice but go ahead with the project. The current plant does not meet state and federal standards for environmental protection enacted a few years ago.

When it was first constructed the plant was in compliance with existing standards. However, these have been tightened since then. Since 1979 the plant has been in violation of requirement which now permits no more than 15 parts per million of either B.O.D. (Biological Oxygen Demand) or suspended matter in treated effluent that is dislodged into a stream leading into a pond. The most stringent rules also require that virtually all phosphorus be removed from the effluent.

Because the City's treated wastewater goes into a stream that winds up in a pond, the standards are even higher for it than for the Kent County sewage treatment facility.

Since it is not in compliance with these regulations, the city could be fined up to $1,000 a day. "The state has not taken action", said K.C. Goel,

Harrington Will Elect a New Mayor

When Harringtonians go to the polls in January to elect two council members from Wards 5 and 6, they will also be casting ballots for a new mayor. Mayor Arthur B. Cahall, now finishing his second term in office, has announced that he will not run again. The selection of the mayor will be city-wide.

Unlike the Council members, who are seated for three year terms, the mayor's post is for three years only.

At the start of this week, no one had filed for either of the two council positions or the mayor's post. Filing Deadline is January 3, 1981. The election will be on January 13.

Reported Missing

Delaware State Police from Bridgeville are asking for public assistance in obtaining any leads to the whereabouts of a 32 year old man missing from Laurel, was having dinner with his brother when he said he was going for a ride. He has not been seen since. Since his paycheck has not been cashied and his savings has not been touched, state police fear possible foul play.

Robert Foskey was driving a dark green 1972 Oldsmobile with Delaware Registration 333893. He was wearing blue jeans, navy blue and red striped knit shirt, denim jacket, ankle-high brown boots, and was described as 6 feet 2 inches tall, 215 pounds, heavy build, green eyes and dark brown hair, moustache, and full beard.

The family of Robert Foskey is unable to offer any reasons for his sudden disappearance. Foskey is a native of the area and has been employed at the Seaford DuPont plant for 13 years. Anyone with any information as to his whereabouts or possible plans should contact the Delaware State Police at Bridgeville.

Robert Foskey

The gate at the Conrail crossing on Clark Street was a recent casualty, victim of an over-anxious truck. No charges were pressed in the mishap.

State Police Announce Changes

A consolidation program in Sussex County and the reassignment of troop sectors to conform with county lines has been announced by the Delaware State Police and will go into effect December 29, 1980.

A major aspect of the change will be the consolidation of all criminal investigative services in Sussex County into one Criminal Investigative Unit (CIU) to be located at the Troop 4 facility in Georgetown. Road officers now assigned to Troop 5 and 7 will be divided between Troops 5 and 7. Except for the operation of SusCom which will receive all Sussex County complaints and have the responsibility for dispatching for Troops 5 and 7, Troop 4 will be closed during the midnight shift. SusCom will operate around the clock.

Although the present troop boundaries will be retained to include Troop 4 in the confines of Troops 5 and 7, those boundaries will have little or no meaning as far as Sussex County residents who have complaints. All these complaints will be received by SusCom, which will know the location of every police car in the county and be able to send the nearest one available without regard to its troop assignment. According to the state police, this should make for a quicker response time.

Under the present system, the territory of Troop 5 in Bridgeville spans portions of two counties, Kent and Sussex. With the new arrangement to go into effect December 29, this dichotomy will be eliminated. All of Kent County will be served by Troop 3 in Dover. KentCom will have the dispatching responsibilities.

New Emergency Numbers

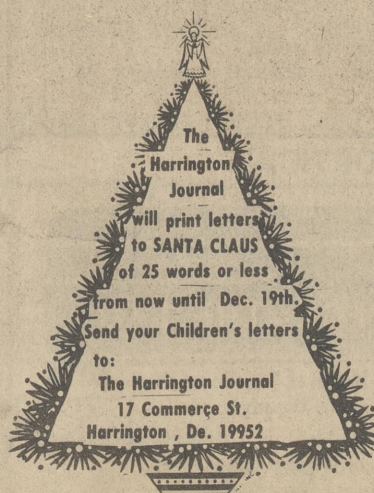

When the changes take effect residents in the following areas will reach their respective Emergency Reporting Centers as indicated:

Residents in 398-(Harrington) will call 674-3111 (KentCom).

Residents in 349-(Greenwood) Living in Kent County will call 422-5791 (KentCom).

Residents in 349-(Greenwood) living in Sussex County will call 856-7011 (SusCom).

All other residents in Kent County call 674-3111; all others in Sussex County, call 856-2011.

Delaware Diamonds

BY JOYCE JEFFERSON

When relating any story the place to begin is usually "In the Beginning" but in history the beginning is also an ending and the researcher or historian must choose those events and persons he feels are the most important and interesting. J. Thomas Scharf's History of Delaware 1609-1888 is so complete and so well written that even today it is the first source for anyone looking into our past. However, he only scratched the surface and so we are very grateful for the flood of local histories that appeared during the celebration of our Bi-Centennial Year. Near Murrefreetsboro, Arkansas is located a tourist attraction called "The Crater of Diamonds". It is the only place in the continental United States where these gem stones may be found. Year after year people pay to go into the fields and sift through the soil hoping to find just one tiny diamond. It is fun to look even if you find nothing; and for those people who are fortunate enough to find a reward it is something to always enjoy. It is also easy to mistake, the twinkle of quartz in the sunshine, for the more precious stone but the thrill of discovery or the beauty of the individual mineral is unchanged. It is much the same for those of us who are amateur Historians and Geologists; although the greatest pleasure may be in the searching we also enjoy displaying the gems we find. In this column we want to give you an opportunity to display your gems of local heritage. The Delaware Diamonds. Reader comments, contributions, additions and corrections will be gratefully received. Queries concerning sources for historical and genealogical research will be published and answered as you request.

On 17 Nov. 1978 John C. Kohl trustee for the Delaware Railroad Co. sold to the town of Felton a parcel of land located in Felton in South Murderkill Hundred Kent County Delaware which is described as follows; Beginning in northwesterly line of High Street...at right angles from the centerline of track of the Delaware Railroad Company...to a point in the Southwesterly line of Sewall Street...

After this transaction the Delaware Railroad which was organized by an act of the Delaware State Legislature 20 June 1836 and incorporated 23 January 1899 was discontinued effective 31 December 1979 and its retained holdings became a part of and known as Penn Central Corporation.

The parcel of land contains a station house which was constructed before 26 September 1871 when a survey and plot of the town was filed at the Office of Recorder of Deeds in Dover showing the Station House and the lot as it presently appears. This parcel of land was sold to the Delaware Railroad Company for One Dollar paid to William H. Herring and Sarah his wife on 8 November 1867. The deed filed at that time stated that the parcel contained thirty-one one hundredths (31/100) of an acre more or less, and was bounded by Sewell Street on the North and High Street on the South. The deed also contained the following provisions; "And the said William H. Herring and Sarah his wife hereby covenant and agree with the said Delaware Railroad Company for themselves, their Heirs, executors, administrators and assigns that they will open a street along the easterly side of the premises have described, thirty (30) feet wide, extending from Sewell Street to High Street."

Prior to 1867 the Railroad House has been located on the south west corner of Main Street and Railroad Avenue which was also the west side of the track as shown on Byles Atlas of 1859 at which time James B. Conner was the Railroad Agent.

Scharf's History of Delaware page 1164 states "The town of Felton...was laid out on the 1st day of August, 1856, when the railroad and Adams' Express authorities opened their offices at this place. Robert W. Reynolds was the first Agent; he was shortly followed by George C. Hering, who after a brief period, was succeeded by James B. Conner.

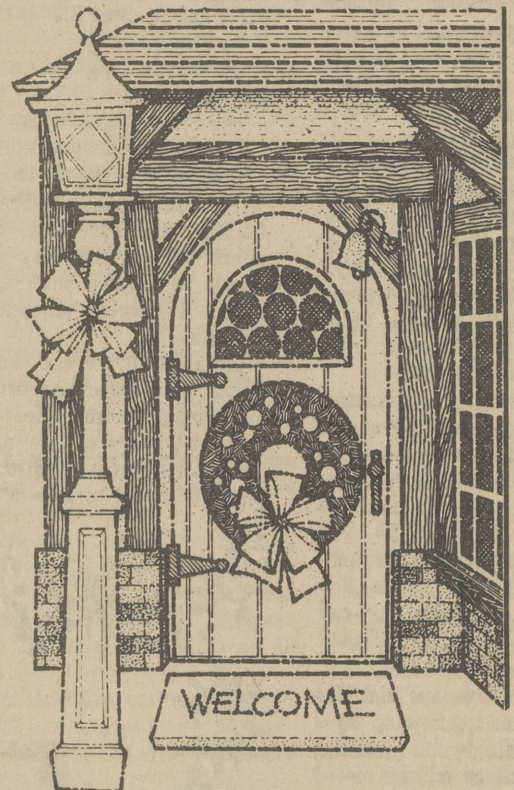

The Byles Atlas Business Directory for Felton shows Reynolds & Brother as Merchants, Dry Goods and Groceries, with a Milliner Shop and Store for them located on the South east corner of Main and Walnut Streets. G.C. Hering is on the Directory as Citizen and Farmer and owner of a building next door to the Fountain Hotel on the South Side of Main Street. James B. Conner was owner of a building on the north side of Main Street; with T.J. Moore as his neighbor on the west and Hering his neighbor on the east.

The last dwelling on the north west end of Main Street on Byles Atlas Map belonged to Wm. Whitacre. By deed dated 20 May 1813 and witnessed by Thomas Pierce and William Satterfield, Mark Greer sold to William Whitacre man of Color a sixteen acre parcel of land in Murderkill Hundred being a part of the land held by Mark Greer and adjoining lands of Thomas Long, Nathaniel Stradley and Avery Needles.

Harrington Christmas Parade.....and Winners.....

Among those who got special mention from Blanchette were Lynn and Bob Outten who were instrumental in nailing things down when he was in Florida just before the parade, and Walter Messick, who said "Yes" to everything the Jaycees needed. A new feature at this year's parade was the mobile judging stand Walt Messick has built for just such purposes. With its accommodations for a sound system and safe stairway, the new judging stand is a real boon to those who have teetered up an down shaky ladders to review the parade in past years.

Lee Dean was in charge of the judges, all of whom were from out of town. These included the Mid-Atlantic States judging organization for the bands and Jaycee officers from around the state for the other categories.

There were a lot of categories and a lot of winners in this year's parade. Topping the list was the Harrington Sunshine 4-H, whose "Winter Wonderland" float took first place in the 4-H competition and went on to capture the grand prize for the day.

1st-Smyrna, 2nd-Ellendale, 3rd-Felton.

Antique autos were judged in the First National Bank parking lot before the parade. The winners were, 1st-Irving Lynch, 1931 Chevy, Dover. 2nd-Jimmy Emberlain, 1915 Buick, Harrington. 3rd-Elmer Walls, 1947 Chevrolet, Georgetown.

All vans entered in the pre-parade van show in the People's Bank parking lot received a dashboard plaque.

Parade Chairman Ray Blanchette still has a number of trophies that have not been picked up by winners. Those who are looking have not received theirs should call him at 398-3225 after 5 p.m.

Special mention from the parade chairman went to the Lake Forest High School Spartan Marching Band (directed by Dale Burkhard) and the W.T. Chipman Junior Band (directed by Alex Becton). Although by courtesy they do not compete in a local parade, both were a part of the Christmas festivities.

Following the parade, Ray and Charlotte Gagne of Stone's Hotel treated the whole Chipman Band to free pizza.

Upcoming Referendum

because Harrington has been in the process of a project which would bring the sewer plant into conformity with the regulations.

With CZ Enterprises already on the job, the project has reached a critical point, and the city finds rather belatedly, that it must get voter permission to borrow its 15 percent share of the cost, hopefully from the Farmers Home Administration.

Without voter permission the city will be in a real bind, with a mandatory project already underway, no way to get the money to pay for its share. The federal government will pick up 75 percent and the state, 15 percent of the cost of the job which will force legal action from the states. This means a possible lawsuit.

The City will also seek action from the state legislature to raise its short-term borrowing limit during the construction phase of the project. This will allow a cash flow to pay the contractor. Most of this money will be replaced by HUD when the project is complete. The city will have only its share to pay off through long term bonds.

On earlier public hearing to discuss city needs for which HUD funds might be sought for the upcoming year drew no public input. A second public hearing on this matter must be scheduled before a pre-application can be submitted.

Public hearings are set next Monday night, December 15, on the rezoning of the former Millard Cooper Funeral Home at 110 Center St. to allow for a home for the elderly and another on the 10 year renewal of the CATV franchise.

Police Beat

Assorted robberies, two shoplifting incidents and a hit and run have occupied the Harrington Police in recent days.

On November 21, following a burglary at Burton's Sport Shop on Commerce Street in which candy and cigaretes were taken, the police arrested four Harrington youths. Their trial is pending in family court.

A shoplifting incident at Quillens Market on November 23 resulted in the arrest of William Johnson (53) and Arthur Johnson (32). The two were found guilty at J.P. Court #6 and fined $50 each. That same day two Harrington youths were also arrested for shoplifting at Quillens. They were turned over to their parents.

Two cases of battery theft, one from Joe Green on Commerce Street and another from the City Yard on November 24 and 25 remain unsolved.

On Saturday, December 6 a hit and run accident sent a three year old to Milford Memorial Hospital where she was treated for lacerations of the right eye and released. The youngster, who was watching the Christmas Parade was returning to her car with an aunt. When she stepped into the street, she was hit with the lower corner of a door suddenly opened on the passenger side of a car proceeding through the heavily congested area. The car did not stop. Arrested later were the driver of the car, Wanda S. Smith for failure to exercise due caution leaving the scene of an accident, and failing to report an accident, and the passenger Betty Benson, who was charged with reckless endangering. Both girls are 16 and from Houston.

Ruritans Hold Convention

Princess Anne-National President C. Edgar Cartner, of Mocksville, North Carolina, was the keynote speaker at the recent annual district convention of the Delaware-New Jersey District of Ruritan National held here in Washington High School. Also in attendance was the national organization's only surviving co-founder, Tom Downing, of Augusta, Georgia.

Some 300 members, delegates, and their wives attended, representing the 1400 members in the 49 clubs from the district's seven zones. Hollis Riggan, district governor, presided. He is from Princess Anne.

The afternoon business session included election of Henry Diaz, of

New Jersey, as the new district governor for 1981. Hurley Roberts, of Virginia, was elected Lt. Governor. The evening banquet followed with awards and presentations to individual clubs recognizing excellence in performance of community service projects during 1980 and the installation of the new officers for 1981.

Founded in 1928 in Holland, Virginia, Ruritan National is America's largest rural civic organization with some 1400 clubs in 32 states, dedicated to fellowship, goodwill, and conducting specific projects aimed at helping make their local communities better places in which to live and work.

4-H News

December, the month of holly and mistletoe finds many 4-Hers preparing for the holiday season. Many local clubs are planning family nights, working on floats and organizing Christmas parties.

Sussex County Jr. Council is preparing to spend part of the holiday season with their friends from Kent and New Castle Counties. They are hosting a Holiday Dance, Dec. 29th, 7:30-11 p.m. at the Capital Grange in Dover. The dance is open to all Delaware 4-H Jr. Council Members. Sussex 4-Hers planning to attend should inform the County 4-H office by December 15th.

Christmas isn't only a time for parties for 4-H members. Many clubs are planning special activities to share the Christmas spirit with their communities. Also, 4-Hers take advantage of state events to share ideas with their friends from other counties. Put a group of 4-H members together and 4-H is sure to be the main topic regardless of the season.

Coming Events

• Wilmington, Delaware, Nov. 19, 1980... From Dec. 4 through Jan. 4, the atmosphere of an old fashioned Christmas will pervade Eleutherian Mills, the Georgian country house built in 1803 for Eleuthere Irene du Pont. Part of the Hagley Museum, site of the 19th century Du Pont powder milling community, this stately mansion was home to five generations of the same family. The evergreens, fruits, flowers and nuts used in the 18th and 19th century yuletide decorations complement home furnishings from the same periods.

Daytime visitors can enjoy the audiovisual presentation "A Holiday Visit to Eleutherian Mills," shown in the Black Powder Exhibit Building. Daytime hours are Tuesday through Sat. 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Sunday 1 to 5 p.m. Daytime admission prices are $2.50 per adult; seniors, $1.25; students $1.00; and children under 14 accompanied by an adult free.

Candlelight visits, by reservation only, will be offered on the evenings of December 16, 23, and 30 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Admission prices are $2.50 per adult; children under 14 accompanied by an adult .50. For reservation information write; Candlelight Tour, Hagley Museum, Box 3630, Greenville, Del. 19807 or call (302) 658-2400 Monday thru Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

•The Bureau of Museums and Historic Sites wishes to remind area residents that state-owned museums and historic buildings will be closed on December 25th and 26th.

• The Singing Players open their annual Christmas tour of Del. with a holiday celebration in song and pantomime entitled "Christmas Party" to be presented in Wil. at the Methodist County House at 7:00 p.m. Dec. 8; in Georgetown, Del. Tech & Community College Theatre at 8:00 p.m. Dec. 10 and in Dover Central Middle School Auditorium at 7:00 p.m. Dec. 14. People of all ages enjoy The Singing Players seasonal presentation as they include an interesting variety of Christmas Classical and Folk Sacred and Secular; Popular and Rock tunes, some of which are new and some familiar. The public is cordially invited to attend these Free performances.

• Certification examinations for wastewater treatment facility operators will be offered at 8 a.m. December 13 in the State Highway Administration Building in Dover, announced Secretary John E. Wilson III of the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control.

To launch its statewide campaign to promote burn prevention and fire safety, Delaware's Project Burn Prevention task force will participate in a training session on December 13 at the Delaware State Fire School in Dover.

The task force's objective is to educate the public about hazard patterns which result in burn injuries and what is involved in the burn treatment.

Liz McLaughlin, nationally recognized authority in the area of burn prevention, will conduct the day-long December 13 workshop. She will familiarize task force members with the set of teaching materials she developed for the Consumer Product Safety Commission as director of Burn Prevention with the Shriners Burn Institute in Boston, Mass.

The Center Activities Program for the handicapped is having a bazaar of handcrafted items on Friday, Dec. 12, 1980 9 a.m. 4:15 p.m. at the Delmarva Easter Seal Rehabilitation Center, 204 E. North St. Georgetown. Also available to the public are sales from the greenhouse and homemade baked goods. Proceeds will benefit the handicapped by providing services in this program.

Earning the Eagle Scout Award carries with it a special significance, and 60 Boy Scouts in the Del-Mar-Va Council, Boy Scouts of America, earned the award during the past year.

Only about 2.5 percent of all Boy Scouts earn the Eagle Award. This represents more than 900,000 Scouts who have earned the award since 1911.

To earn the award, a Scout must fulfill requirements in areas of leadership, service, and outdoor skills. Mastery of these requirements enables the boy to advance through the different award levels-Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, Life, and Eagle. The specific tests for advancement are organized into skill awards and merit badges.

Skill awards cover the wide outdoor, family life, and citizenship responsibilities Merit badges signify mastery of Scoutcraft skills, as well as serving to increase skill in areas of personal interest. Of the 119 merit badges now available, 21 must be earned to qualify for Eagle. Of this group, 11 are required, including First Aid Safety, and Personal Management.

Georgetown, De.-Calendar of coming events:

Dec. 15-Registration deadline for Jr. Council-Links Christmas Dinner Dance.

29-Jr. Council-Links, Dinner Dance, Capital Grange Dover, De. 7:30-11:00 p.m.

Jan. 4-Leaders-Links after Christmas party and meeting 2:00 p.m. Georgetown Substation.

17-Public speaking contest, 1:00 p.m. Substation.

The Christmas Holidays don't stop 4-H members from preparing to enter 4-H educational events and activities. The Sussex County Public Speaking Contest is no exception. This event offers an exciting way for young people to develop their self confidence and sharpen their public speaking skills.

Open to all 4-H'ers the event is divided into three categories, Senior for members 14 and older, Junior for 11 to 13 years of age and Junior Petite for members 8 to 10. Each age group is asked to give a speech of varying lengths from as short as two minutes for Petites to as long as 7 for Seniors.

Jr. Petites are encouraged to speak on a familiar topic, such as their pets, families, or trips they've taken. Seniors prepare more in-depth speeches that usually require research or critical thinking.

Every contestant receives a ribbon presented on the Danish System and one top winner in each age division receives a trophy.

Through participation in the event 4-H'ers learn to speak out, explore ideas, organize their thoughts and share their beliefs with others.

The Public speaking Program is sponsored on a national level by the Union Oil Co. They provide 4 medals of honor to outstanding 4-H'ers in each county, an expense paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago for each state and 6 educational scholarships of $1,000 on the National level.

Georgetown, De.-A tractor Clinic will be held on Dec. 15, 1980 at Tull Brothers International Harvester dealership in Seaford, De. at 7:30 p.m. The clinic is sponsored by Tull Brothers and the Univ. of De. Cooperative Extension Service. The clinic will include trips on main-ance and ways to conserve fuel in your farm machinery. We hope to have a representative from International Harvester Co. discussing steps being taken by the industry to make farm equipment more fuel efficient. Also included as part of the clinic will be the opportunity for participants in the evening meeting to sign up to have their tractor tested on a dynamometer the following day. We will measure horsepower output and torque rise and advise on ways to improve efficiency of the tractors. If you own a farm tractor I am sure you will find this an informative meeting.

Harrington

The Harrington Sunshine 4-H club participated in the Harrington Jaycees Christmas Parade last Sat. Dec. 6. We won Grand Champion Trophy for outstanding unit out of the entire parade. We also won first place trophy for our float entitled "Winter Wonderland". The float was made by our 4-H'ers.

We had our December meeting Monday the 1st. Our club has a yearly event called "Operation Reindeer", which is a collection of toys, soap, wash clothes, coloring books, etc. for a mental hospital. The club decided on a date for our Christmas party and caroling. It will be held Monday Dec. 22 at Asbury Church. We will be Christmas Caroling around the town of Harrington.

Mr. & Mrs. Townsend Yerkes

Miss Rochelle Ann Messick and Mr. Townsend Yerkes were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon October 4, 1980 at 4 o'clock at the Bethany Church of the Brethren in Farmington. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Roy E. Judy, assisted by Rev. William McDaniel. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Barbara Sturn and soloist, Miss Lynne Purse.

Parents of the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Messick of Farmington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Yerkes of Houston. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza with a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace and matching bolero jacket. She carried a bouquet of white roses with wine and rose starflowers and wore a white derby hat.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Douglas Griffin of Greenwood. She wore a wine colored floor length gown of Silesta jersey with empire waist and a long sleeve jacket with peplum effect. The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Newnom of Harrington, Miss Brenda Clark of Farmington and Miss Natalie Neuman, of Smyrna. The three attendants were dressed in full length gowns indistinguishably styled to that of the matron of honor, in daphne rose. They carried baskets of rose and wine silk flowers. Miss Danna Vanderwende, niece of the bride, served as flower girls and Mrs. Rita Lofland, sister of bride, attended the guest book.

Mr. Duane Yerkes of Houston served a best man for his brother. The ushers were Messrs. Morris Tucker of Bridgeville, Martin Willey of Newark, cousin of the groom, and Lloyd Yerkes, brother of the groom. Serving as junior attendant was Breck Vanderwende, nephew of the bride. The ring bearer was Dustin Yerkes, cousin of the groom.

The Mother of the bride chose a floor-length mint green gown with matching jacket trimmed in lace, while the groom's mother wore a floor length gown in French blue with accordion pleats and sheer sleeves. Both mothers wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a buffet dinner was served at the Farmington Fire Hall with music provided by Donnie Lofland and Harold Root.

After the wedding trip to Lancaster, Pa. the couple will reside near Harrington. Mrs. Yerkes a graduate of Woodbridge High School is employed in Legislative Council in Dover. Mr. Yerkes is a graduate of Milford High School and is employed by Kent Conservation District.

Thanksgiving Day has come and gone; and by now, I suppose the left overs are all taken care of. One of our favorite ways to use left-over turkey is my niece's recipe for "Turkey Strata". Here's how:

Butter 2 slices of day-old bread cut into cubes, and set aside. Cut 6 more slices of bread into cubes. Place half of these unbuttered cubes in an oblong pan, 8x8x2.

Into a bowl put 2 cups of dried turkey, 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 3/4 teasp. salt and dash of pepper and the rest of the bread cubes.

Beat 2 eggs slightly, add 1 1/2 cups milk and pour over the turkey vegetables and bread in the pan. Cover and chill one hour or overnight.

When ready to bake, cover with 1 can Cream of Mushroom soup and sprinkle with 1/2 cup of sharp cheese. Bake in 350 oven about 30 or 40 minutes or until set.

This is delicious and is also very good with chicken instead of turkey.

I missed going out with the family to Pennsylvania for Thanksgiving. We usually go, but Dad said he could not handle the five-hour ride. We had several invitation, but this year we decided to go out and take our friend. Tess, as our guest because she would be alone. We had our dinner at old Manship Church near Felton, which was a new experience and we were very pleased. Besides the fried oysters, we had turkey and stuffing, giblet gravy, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, cole slaw, green beans, turnips, chicken salad, relishes and ice cream for dessert. We also had a very special treat. They served the little Delaware and Maryland biscuits which used to be traditional for fire company and church suppers, but I guess through the years there was no one who volunteered the wield the hammer on the dough. Tess and I were girls when we had our last ones, so these were a special treat. We recalled when Tess's mother and dad were members of the Milford Grange and we would help out with the Grange suppers. Mr. "Jake" Roosa and Mr. Medford Jones always beat the biscuit dough.

I still have the hammer that Grandmother Hatfield used to make hers. It was always kept polished and shiny and woe to Grandfather is he cast his sights on it with the intention of using it outdoors. Some day I shall get real brave and see if I can make these.

Even though Thanksgiving holiday is over, I want to share with all of you this treasured reading. It is entitled "Everyday Thanksgiving". There is no author given. I like to read it many times throughout the year. It helps me keep my priorities straight!

"Even though I clutch my blanket and growl when the alarm rings each morning, Thank you, Lord, that I can here. There are those who are deaf. Even though I keep my eyes tightly closed against the morning lights as long as possible, Thank you, Lord, that I can see. There are many who are blind. Even though I huddle in my bed and put off the physical effort of rising. Thank you, Lord, that I have the strength to rise. There are many who are bed fast. Even though the first hour of my day is hectic, when socks get lost, toast is burned, tempers are short, Thank you, Lord, for my family. There are many who are lonely. Even though our breakfast table never looks like the pictures of the ladies' magazines, and the menu is at times unbalanced, Thank you, Lord, for the food we have. There are many who are hungry. Even though the routine of my job is often monotonous, Thank you, Lord, for the opportunity to work. There are many who have no work. Even though I grumble and bemoan my fate from day to day, and wish my modest circumstances were not quite so modest, Thank you, Lord, for the gift of life."

Days of our Years

Days of Our Years Twenty Years Ago December 8, 1950

Investigation of the mysterious death of 28-year-old Mrs. Laura Marie DeBartolemeis of Wilmington more than a month ago took a new turn Tuesday with the arrest of a Claymont man charged by state police with manslaughter...Bart P. Strazella, 42, pleaded not guilty to the charge. He was released on bail. He has appeared before local clubs as a sword swallower. Police said the man has been seen with Mrs. DeBartolemeis in Harrington the night before her body was found Nov. 1 along the roadway near the Royal Oak Hotel at Black Cat.

Mrs. John Gilbert Leach, original Poet Laureate of the state of Delaware, read some of her poems at the regular meeting of the Felton Avon Club held in the community hall, Felton, Md. Mrs. Russell Torbert, President presided.

Brinton Holloway, member of the Kent County Redistricting Committee, was the speaker at the meeting of the Harrington New Century Club Tuesday afternoon.

Twenty Years Ago December 9, 1960

The Band Booster was awarded the first prize for the best decorated vehicle Saturday afternoon in a parade headed by Santa Claus...The parade, sponsored by the Christmas Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, was the largest seen here in years. Clarence Rash is the chairman of the committee. He was assisted by Thomas Clendening, president of the Chamber...The parade was led by the police, Mayor Charles L. Peck, Sr. City Manager George Graham and members of the City Council.

The thirteenth annual CYP radio play contest will be held Sunday afternoon Dec. 11 in St. Peter's Cathedral Auditorium in Wilm. One of the entries in the contest will be the high school group from St. Bernadette's. Their presentation is entitled "The Devil Counts Ten", and is being directed by Miss Loretta Paskey and Mrs. William Smith. Those taking part include Ceci Kirwan, Thomas Lord, Robert Dobraski, Marilee Kirwan, Joanne Murphy, Patricia Smith, Tyson Wroten, Terry Trepaso, Emil Gerardi, and Charles Moore.

An estimated 6000 persons witnessed the longest Christmas parade in the community's history here Saturday afternoon...The Harrington Jaycees' event, with 150 entries took an hour and three quarters to pass the judges reviewing stand. First prize for Non Commercial Floats and Grand Prize of the Parade was won by Don Ebaugh and Family of Dover. The parade was part of the activities of the Jaycees' Christmas Planning Committee, members of which are Leroy Calhoun; parade marshal, Jack Wyatt; chairman of the Christmas lighting, Gary Porter; assistant parade marshal, Dr. Vincent Lobo; chairman of lucky days, Arthur Cahall; and parade announcer David Jones. Bob Taylor and Don Garey also assisted in the parade.

Sp/4 George L. (Buddy) Wyatt recently received the Army Commendation Medal "For performance of exceptionally meritorious achievement in support of the United States objectives in the Republic of Vietnam during the period of 2 April 1970 to 1 October 1970."

Smile-It's good for you. Now hum a little tune. Now isn't that better?

Rev. Watson of Baptist Church, Harrington was leader of Bible Study Monday Morning opening the lovely morning with a song. Mrs. Watson was at the piano.

He gave the way to know if you are born again. Rev. Watson's discussion was most interesting (What I heard) I was late getting in. Those present seemed pleased. Marion-Elsie-Bertha Sallie-Pearl-Elizabeth-Viola-Essie Alma-Tony-Clara-Anna M.-Millie-Gertrude M.-Francis. Singing and a prayer finished the hour. Rev. and Mrs. Watson shook hands and spoke to each person individually. It was nice.

Donna Webb of Manna and Modern Maturity Center-Dave was here Mon. for any counseling you might like. She spoke to different ones about various subjects. She is a most fascinating young lady. Mon. afternoon Candy Bingo-Sweets to the Sweets couldn't be nicer people, believe me. And they do enjoy Bingo, Eliz. called.

The Jolly Timers opened up practice time Tues. Morning with Christmas music. Love it. Silver Bells, my favorite Sat-What is yours? Speak up-Can't hear you way out there. If any of my classmates read this, hope when they hear "Deck the Halls", they think of H.H.S. and Miss Frum. She drummed that song into our heads, Julia sang a solo of "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles". Gosh, I like to hear her sing! Ina was doing the honors at the piano and Tony softly joined in with the trumpet and just as softly, Andy came in with his clarinet. Then all the Band-Perfectly Lovely!!

Present, Ola-Jo-Julia-Roxanne-Essie-Elma-Marion B.-Lili-Mamie Marion-Pearl-Bertha-Ella-Cecil-Sylvia-Florence-Mildred-Andy-Tony and of course, Ina.

Tues. afternoon Ruth Narser was giving us an hour of culture. Absolutely beautiful. Ruth tells something of the slides as she presents them and always has other material to look at. Her subject this month was Leonardo De Vinci, and some of the works of this very renowned painter, displayed in the Louvre-Paris. Ruth's favorite was "Madonna of the Rocks". The last picture he ever painted was "Saint John the Baptist" holding a cross, he painted it with his left hand "The Last Supper" painted in 1495 and the "Monna Lisa" are probably his two most famous paintings. Only a couple went to sleep and they woke up when we sighted out loud over a painting. It was a delightful hour. Thank You Ruth. Present were Florence-Lilli-Sallie-Catherine S.-Mary P.-Edsel-Bessie-Ella-Pearl-Nellie-Mary B.-Bertha-Anna M.-Mildred-Helen and Ola. Wasn't it nice Folks? Wednesday was Bridge day at Ethel Rapps. Had fun. Tho my score was not for publication. Refreshments were tasty and hour festive.

While back at the Center they were having a grand and glorious time too Chicken (my favorite dish) and congo bars on the same day and me gone and not a single one left! Then in the afternoon the folks played Christmas Bingo. Everyone was pleased and Happy.

Thursday-Our stand by Mable Jean was here with six sets of Mr. and Mrs. Santas. Helping put the sweeties together were Eliz Anthony-Florence Minner-Hazel Langrell-Irene Welch-Anna M. Short-Mary Marshall-and Edsel McCready and Me. The ladies including Clara Richardson took 5 sets to the ladies at First National Bank. They entered the bank singing "Here Comes Santa Claus" Mabel Jean took care of the door and money. Have two Mr. Santas for People's Bank (Mrs. Wagner) they are so cute and winsome! For this year that's all folks!

Have an order for five Mrs. Santas to begin the New Year. Hear me, Mabel Jean? Thurs. Bowling at Milford Lanes, was not for Harrington this week as they had their annual get together dinner. This year it was at Leoune's Milford. There were twenty eight present. Honored guests were Pres. of the Board Earl Nelson, and wife Mary, also our directors Charlotte Welch and Gene Price. Marion Brown asked the Blessing. Fred Littman Congratulated Merle Roth on a job well done.

Gifts were won by Fred Littman $10.00, Ann Mereder $10.00, Phil Astfalls and Helen Coyne. Everyone was pleased with the delicious food and enjoyable company.

Would you believe the kilms hardly cool off-we are still doing ceramics at the Center. Everyone is busy doing last minute Christmas gifts. Each day we see a few things. Still have some needlework and very few ceramics.

Pool is rolling right along. Jig-saw puzzle being put together. Going to make small snow men Fri. Dec. 12, with Mabel Jean, Also candy-jars from Brandy sniffers.

Always good conversation sugar Company tasty food-excellent coffee. Stop by, you will be glad you did.

Health Nurse will be here Dec. 30, to take blood pressure and show films on Blood Safety.

Take Care and be kind to each other. Thank each of you for anything you have done for Harrington Senior Center. You folks made it go. Remember its nice to be important, but more important to be nice. Faith Love You! Christmas dinner Dec. 19, please call in plenty of time-regular Manna meal.

Mildred came and got her Mr. Santas now everybody's happy!

The new ambulance of the Harrington Volunteer Fire Co. made a trip from the Milford Memorial Hospital to the Halloran Veterans Hospital on Staten Island in New York City. The ambulance crew consisted of Ben Moore, Thomas Brown and Paul Neeman. They carried Anthony and Natale Certo, of Staten Island, both of whom were seriously injured in a wreck at Bridgeville earlier in the day (Wed. Nov. 29).

The Harrington Legionnaires basketball quintet broke even in two games this past week to wind up in a tie with Chincoteague for second place in the Eastern Shore League... The Legionnaires defeated Lewes last Thursday, 80-48, with Jack Dill and Paul Martin as top scorers.

The regular monthly meeting of the Harrington Volunteer Fire Co. was held Monday night, Dec. 8, at the firehouse. This was election night for the company, and Donald McKnatt was elected president.

Leonard Donovan of Harrington was one of three persons receiving General Foods Fund scholarships recently at Delaware State College.

It may be a long time before Harrington has enable TV, it was learned Monday night at a meeting of the City Council. City Manager Kathryn Derriekson read a letter from Delaware Cable TV, Dover, saying because of economic conditions it could not meet the deadline for construction here.

Congratulations to the W.T. Chipman Jr. High School Band who took first place in the Milton Christmas Parade last Wednesday evening. The Chipman Band is directed by Mr. Alex Becton.

Last Thursday evening, December 4, The Greater Harrington Historical Society held their Christmas dinner meeting at the Chipman cafeteria. After a lovely covered dish dinner, some announcements by President Ken McKnatt, and some friendly conversations, everyone was treated by the Christmas music of The W.T. Chipman Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Alex Becton. Happy Birthday and how old are you? were sung to a very surprised Dave Adams. The evening was enjoyed by all.

Congratulations to the Harrington 4-H Sunshine who took the Grand prize in the Harrington Christmas Parade on Saturday.

All the bands looked good. The Milford Buc's took first place in Sr. band division and Woodbridge Jr. High took first place in Jr. High division. Congratulations to both of them. W.T. Chipman and Lake Forest were not in the competition.

Brownie Troop 332 took home a first place trophy. Each of the girls wore blue silk slacks and white silk tops with gold trim and buttons, and white hats with red pom poms. A special thank you goes to Mrs. Linda Rapp who sewed all but two of the costumes. They looked like little dolls, but in fact they were toy soldiers.

Congratulations to everyone who entered. The parade was a great success.

A Christmas dinner party was held at Leoune's in Milford for employees of Norgas on Saturday evening.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Grusey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mr. Neil Russell and friend, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poore, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Argo, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wyatt, Jr.

Lake Forest swim Program gets Underway

by "Gabby"

The Lake Forest school district aquatic program has gotten started. Aquatic Co-ordinator Dennis Berry and his staff conducted a session Sat. Dec. 6, at the Lake Forest indoor pool. However, the turn-out was small because of the Christmas parade being scheduled at the same time.

Berry is hoping for more swimmers to sign up in the near future. He and his staff are in need of swimmers of all ages and categories. The only requirement is the ability to swim distance or style doesn't matter).

So far meets are in the future for three nearby communities. Plans are hopefully for as many meets as possible with all the neighboring areas. The long range goal is a varsity swimming team when there are enough teams to form a conference or league.

The team competition is similar to cross country, everybody gets a chance to compete. This program is not to be confused with the open swimming for recreational purposes. Complete details may be had by calling Dennis Berry at 284-9291/284-9292, any school day.

Mr. Berry is assisted by Charley Michels as head coach and Cathy Monroe, Sue Cox and Tim Plocinik as coaches.

Ben Webster

Races At Dover Downs

Dover, Del-Ben Webster, currently harness racing's ninth leading money winner in North America, brought his racing talents to Dover Downs Raceway Sunday.

Webster set the pace for his driving appearance winning the first race, the first race, the first half of the daily double, at the reins of Deep Flow in 2:05 for the mile. He followed that performance with the close second place driving Elizabeth's Pomp in the second event. The third race was almost a carbon copy of the second as Webster again placed second behind Paris Mark challenging Kenwood Phil to the wire.

The return of Dover Downs brought back memories of a track record Webster set in 1976. In an exhibition time trial, Webster drove Oil Burner, the winner of the American Pacing Classic, to a 1:57.1 mile, a Dover Downs record that still stands for three-year old colts or gelding pacers.

Webster had many compliments for the Kent County facility. "The racing surface is among the best I have ever raced on. As I'm finding out today, the competition is excellent and those guys driving out there are very aggressive."

Webster never finished less than fourth throughout the day except for an accident in the eighth that took him out of the running. He returned in the ninth driving Kims Jezebelle to second place money and then topped it off with a win handling Abbe's Fancy in the tenth.

A crowd of 2,109 harness wagered $201,384 for the day Dover Downs completed its first week of the 1980-81 meet with an average handle that was below last year's opening week but on project for this year considering its competition with Liberty Bell Raceway. Racing continues through March 29, 1981.

Morris Brothers Conquer 26 mile Feat

This past weekend, Brad and Nick Morris competed with a field of 4000 runners in the 8th Annual Maryland Marathon held in Baltimore. Although it was their first attempt at the 26 mile, 385 yard race, Brad and Nick broke the 4 hour barrier with times of 3:46.17 and 3:47.40 respectively. This hilly course is famous coast to coast for Satyr Hill. It is the hill runners love to hate. This hill rises 380 feet in just a mile of undulating roadway about 16 miles into the race. No mention of the marathon is complete without obligatory respect to Satyr Hill.

Harrington Closes - Manges top Driver

Harrington, Del..For the first time in recent history, one person took the top two driving awards at Harrington Raceway. In a contest that went to the last race on the last night of racing at Harrington's recently completed Fall Season, 22-year-old, Brian Manges edged veterans John Childress and Jim Porter for both the U.D.R.S. Percentage Championship and Dash (most wins) Championship. Childress, who has been a regular on the harness racing circuit for many years, led in the U.D.R.S. race during most of Harrington's 65 day Meet. Coming into the final week of racing though, young Manges mounted a strong challenge. With a hotly contested win in the Feature race on the last card of the year, he took over the lead and ended the season with a .334 percentage-just .007 points most than Childress.

The race for the Dash Championship was a seesaw battle during most of the year. With a week of racing left to go at Harrington, 4 drivers-Manges, Childress, Porter, and Howard Sylvester were locked in a tie with 19 wins each. Undaunted by the pressure, Manges scored 6 more impressive wins, ending the season with 25 wins. Porter was second with 21 wins, while Childress was third with 20 wins.

For the 65 days of the Meet, Harrington ended with an average and mutuel handle of $118,921.00 which was down approximately 7 1/2 percent from 1979 figures. Attendance was off about 5 percent. Harrington General Manager George Simpson cited the downturn to stiff competition from Maryland tracks during the first two months that Harrington was open and to the general economy. "We opened this year racing against Ocean Downs and had to compete against Freestate Raceway for both horses and fans up until the last part of Oct. Both tracks hurt us and when you couple this with a depressed economy there's bound to be problems." He went on to say, "Fortunately, we were able to keep our overhead down and will end the year with a little profit."

Simpson termed the racing at Harrington was "excellent" this Fall. Three track records were broken, one of which had stood for 29 years. Brian Manges drove the 3-year-old colt, Jambalaya to a record breaking 2:01.4 for that age, sex and gait, Jambalaya is owned by the Serendipity Stable of Norristown, Pa. Driving brothers, Sam and Hal Belote broke the 2 year old colt and filly standards. Hal Belote scored with the Edward Wainwright owned filly, Honey Mist, in 2:04.2, while Sam Belote took the colt honors with Oh Harry owned by Evelyn Shahan of Greenwood, Delaware. Oh Harry was timed in 2:03 flat.

Improvements at the track this year included the addition of an 84' x 165' enclosed paddock area and a complete resurfacing and rebuilding of the race track surface. During the earlier part of the Season the USTA lowered the tracks speed rating based on the fast times recorded by winners there during the first month of racing.

At present, the facilities at Harrington are being used to house and train approximately 500 horses for the Winter.

Keeping In Touch

With Tom Evans

The House of Representatives, with my strong support, has given final Congressional approval to a bill which will significantly help in protecting the health of our citizens and the environment. The bill, which has now been sent to the President for his signature, will enable the Federal Government to deal with dangerous toxic waste dumps and chemical spills.

The Hazardous Waste Containment Act is directed at the prompt clean-up of dangerous chemical dumps, many of which are abandoned, around the country. Many of you are no doubt aware of such horror stories at the Love Canal in NY, where people have been exposed to serious long-term health problems such as cancer because their homes were built on an abandoned chemical dump site. This measure will, for the first time, provide the money needed to clean up these dangerous sites.

The damage that hazardous chemicals do to people often does not become apparent for as much as twenty years. Once people exhibit the symptoms of diseases caused by chemicals, it is often too late to do anything about the problem. This bill is an attempt to correct the threats posed by unregulated chemical dumpsites and spills before they endanger any more Americans.

Under the bill, a fund will be established by taxes on chemicals to pay for the prompt clean-up of any spill and existing chemical dump. It allows the Government to hire contractors to remove and contain the chemical wastes and to protect ground water. It would also provide for the temporary relocation of people from the scope of dangerous dump sites and to provide emergency drinking water.

This bill is not the final answer to the problems caused by spills and chemical dumps. For example, it does not address the problem of oil spills, nor does it provide for compensation for damages to health or property. That will have to come through additional legislation. However, it is a good first step in dealing with the most crucial environmental issue of the 1980's—the practice of inappropriate disposal of hazardous chemical waste.

THOUGHTS FROM DOVER

By Gov. Pierre S. DuPont

The Delaware River basin's supply of stored water has fallen to its lowest levels since the drought in the middle 1960's, although the recent rains have replenished the reservoirs somewhat.

Delaware has been less affected by the water problems than neighboring states in the River basin. The pinch is being felt mostly in some areas of New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania, where voluntary or mandatory conservation standards have been imposed.

While we hope that people will not use water needlessly we do not plan on imposing emergency controls. We should all hope for a wet winter to replenish our ground and surface supplies.

In Delaware local water supply sources—the White Clay Creek, Red Clay Creek and Brandywine in the northern part of the State, and wells in all three countries—are at seasonal lows, but State officials say they have not fallen to critical levels.

So, while Delaware's water situation is not nearly as difficult as those of our upriver neighbors, it is important that we try to conserve this important resource. We have all heard for many years of the water problems in the west, in the eastern part of the nation many of the same problems can also occur. The current drought magnifies the region's water situation.

Rainfall throughout the Delaware River Basin (which stretches from upstate New York down through Delaware) amounts to between four and eight inches lower than normal this year. As a result, we are keeping a close eye on stream levels and ground water levels in cooperation with public water supply companies. We are also working with local organizations and individual communities to conserve water.

Biden Report

By Sen. Joseph Biden Jr.

One of this state's and nation's most vast and vital resources, ground water, could be in severe jeopardy.

According to the Environmental Protection Agency testimony at Congressional hearings, Delaware, while apparently having escaped tragedies such as Love Canal where toxic chemicals not only leached into ponds but vapors seeped into basements, does have its problems.

The problem is widespread and has existed for years. According to executives of Hooker Chemical, former owners and chemicals dumpers at the Love Canal site, their company was aware of the health threat more than 20 years ago. The company knew what was buried at Love Canal before homes and elementary schools were built on and adjacent to the site, more than 20 years before the area was finally evacuated.

In Delaware, one of the state's most important water supplies was contaminated by leaching of industrial chemicals and solvents. Over 16,000 tons of industrial chemicals were dumped at the Llangollen landfill near New Castle between 1968 and 1971. Some chemical compounds dumped there are suspected causes of cancer and deformities in unborn children.

The problem in Llangollen has not been resolved but it has been arrested. We got to it in time with the help of EPA before it caused a major catastrophe. But a well field which produced two million gallons of water a day along with private wells is closed. The flow of contaminants into the aquifer was halted at a cost of nearly $3 million. No one knows when the aquifer will purify itself.

But once ground water is contaminated it is extremely expensive and in some cases impossible to clean up. And ground water is what we use to drink, bathe in, grow or cook our food with. At a time when reliance on ground water resource for pure drinking water and other vital activities is increasing, so is contamination and at an alarming rate.

While chemical and industrial waste dumping is one of the largest threats to ground water, it is the only threat that has been reasonably assessed. EPA found that 90 percent of those industrial waste containment sites are not monitored. Twenty seven of those known unmonitored sites are in Delaware. Six are above ground water with no barrier. One contained potentially hazardous contaminants and is within one mile of a potential water supply. None are depicted as posing imminent danger.

But clean ground water nonetheless is seriously threatened nationally by overuse, indiscriminate dumping of hazardous wastes, unlined landfills, application of pesticides and fertilizers, mining and petroleum exploration activities underground storage tanks and septic tank cleaners.

Meanwhile withdrawals of ground water are increasing 25 percent a decade, and agricultural use of ground water for irrigation increased 170 percent between 1950 and 1975. Increased use of ground water will continue particularly in rural areas; we will grow more dependent on it. We must also recognize that destruction and contamination of this source will be one of the most serious environmental problems of the 80's.

We must locate all potential sources of ground water contamination and take action to block the further flow of toxic substances into the ground which in U.S. holds 30 times as much water as all the lakes, streams, rivers and ponds.

A proposal to build a huge ethanol plant to produce alcohol for gasohol on the Eastern Shore certainly has a lot of heads turning.

The poultry industry fears that such a plant, required 8 to 9 million bushels of corn to produce 20 million gallons of ethanol yearly would have a significant adverse impact on local ability to produce chicken feed. The big question is can the local agriculture economy afford to have that much raw material diverted from the existing, proven industry.

Some grain farmers are concerned that if such a plant was started, a lot of farmland would be diverted to corn production and business failure at the plant would cause the corn market to plummet.

The fact is, gasohol has a long way to go before it proves itself economical and feasible. With the possible adverse consequences it is not something to rush into a big way. Commercial production of gasohol is still in the experimental stages. Let's not leap far to fast.

If you remember last week we talked about our problem of inflation. We discussed its root or beginning. We left with the question: Why doesn't Congress again print our currency?

Let's consider some history of our debt as a nation. Remember in 1913 the Federal Reserve Act was passed. In 1901 the national debt of the United States was less than 1 billion dollars until we got into World War I. Then it jumped to 25 billion. Between 1918 and 1941 on the eve of World War II the debt just about doubled, from 25 to 49 billion. Between 1942 and 1952 the debt went from 72 billion to 265 billion. In 1962 it was 303 billion. Eight years later in 1970 it was 383 billion. Between 1971 and 1976 it rose from 409 billion to 631 billion.

At the present rate we can expect this to double every 6 or 8 years, by then the interest on the national debt alone should be in the 400 billion a year range. Eventually, the government will own nothing, the people will own nothing, the banks will own everything. It's time we the people that foot the expenses of this nation keep our Congressmen informed of how we want to be represented. It's not a one man world for them. They need to know what we think. Let's tell them we want to return to Constitutional money. We can only beat inflation by cutting its root. Battling systems and results of it won't cure it. Let's become a collective voice of free people united. For God & Country

Fun And fitness Program

The Woodbridge School District, grades kindergarten through eight, kicked off a collection drive, today, aimed at acquiring new and much needed physical education equipment. This equipment will be provided through the National Post "Fun & Fitness" Program. This program offers school free athletic equipment in exchange for proof-of-purchase seals from Post Cereals, Wonder Bread, Log Cabin Syrup, Log Cabin Pancake and Waffle Mix, and tear strips from Birds Eye Awake and Orange Plus Breakfast beverages.

Bob Gries, all-pro quarterback of the Miami Dolphins and a strong supporter of good athletic programs, is National Program Director. He believes it is vital "to develop a love of exercise and physical fitness among young people."

We hope all of our friends in the community will help us reach our goal by saving and turning in the special proof-of-purchase seals from "Fun and Fitness" brands. They may be turned over to any Woodbridge student. There will also be a display and drop-off box for seals from the products in the Bridgeville IGA and in Greenwood at Scott's IGA and O'Bier's Dairy Market.

The collection program will be under the auspices of the Woodbridge Athletic Boosters Club and the Greenwood Parent/Teacher Association.

We only have until June 30, 1981; so let's pitch in and make this "Fun & Fitness" Program a great success.

Reagan To Inherit Scandal Of GSA Fraud and Coverup

By JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR WASHINGTON -- President-elect Ronald Reagan will inherit a major scandal at the General Services Administration. GSA is the agency that oversees government buildings and purchases office supplies and it's rife with waste and fraud.

President Carter appointed Jay Solomon to head the agency and Solomon ordered a housecleaning. William Clinkscales, the chief investigator, obtained 130 criminal indictments against government officials who had cheated the taxpayers out of millions.

But the reformers stepped on the toes of some powerful officials. One was a friend of House Speaker Tip O'Neill, who raised a howl at the White House.

The investigation was suddenly called off in late 1978; the conscientious Solomon was fired and Clinkscales was banished to a do-nothing job where he could cause no trouble. It became business as usual again at the General Services Administration.

Now Reagan's senior advisers have sought out Clinkscales. They've learned first-hand where the skeletons are hidden and the president-elect has pledged to clean up the mess after he moves into the White House.

But we should warn Reagan that the agency's senior bureaucrats have already begun to ingratiate themselves with the incoming Republicans. They also have close ties to Tip O'Neill. O'Neill will still be House speaker after January 20, with tremendous power over congressional legislation.

SPEAK SOFTLY: It's the nature of diplomats to speak softly, for a quiet remark can signal a change in international relations. A whispered word might reverberate around the world like thunder.

Our allies indicated ever so delicately, for example, that they lacked confidence in Jimmy Carter, but they were much too discreet to criticize openly the president of the United States.

Now that Carter has been defeated, we thought some diplomats might be more willing to speak, so our staff asked them what they really think of Carter.

Their answers were not only startling; they could be historic. Carter failed to develop a special relationship with a single allied leader. West Germany's Helmut Schmidt detested him; France's Giscard d'Estaing viewed him with disdain; Britain's Margaret Thatcher merely tolerated him.

Others thought Carter was a nice fellow who was simply over his head. Most allied leaders agreed that he was unpredictable and ineffectual. In the words of one diplomat, "Not a single tear has been shed in Europe over Jimmy Carter's defeat." Here are a couple of other typical comments:

-- He signaled European leaders that he would support the deployment of the neutron bomb, then suddenly and inexplicably backed off.

-- He announced the boycott of the Moscow Olympics without an advance word to the western allies.

But the envoys won't comment about Ronald Reagan. They may talk about a past president but not a future president. The most one would say was: "Ronald Reagan couldn't possibly be worse than Jimmy Carter."

DEFENSE MINDED: Capitol Hill is defended by a reserve force whose principal weapon is hot air. This distinguished force is composed of congressmen who have demonstrated their valor fighting for bigger defense appropriations.

Any congressman with an approved voting record can get a reserve commission. He usually receives his two-week summer military training at such hardship posts as Paris, London, Tokyo, Hong Kong and Honolulu.

The latest applicant is Sen. Gary Hart, D-Colo., whose aides have made discreet inquiries at the Pentagon about a naval reserve commission. Hart has absolutely no military experience. But he has one qualification that should overcome this: He's a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Navy needs his vote.

Meanwhile, the emphasis in all this talk of more, more, more for defense, more equipment for defense and more nuclear weapons for defense.

But there's a central question in all this talk of more, more, more that hasn't been answered. How can they create more from less without adding massive amounts to a defense budget that's already bloated?

Reagan's defense planners are in the process of studying a report that provides the answer -- use old laws to create new defense policies. The key is an idea that's dear to all conservative economists: Free up the defense industries by using legislation like the Defense Production Act of 30 years ago. Under that law, a company can win fat defense contracts by vowing to make those contracts the A-1 top priority.

It's sort of like putting every defense contractor on a wartime footing. Production rates could be raised with round-the-clock work shifts. It could give a whole new dimension to the meaning of the term "military-industrial complex."

AFTER THE BALL: This is a story about the migration of lame ducks. First, there's the Congressional Cowbird. The duck acts as though it has no permanent nest of its own. It often flies overseas wherever the climate and cuisine beckon it.

There is also the Executive Branch lame duck, known by its scientific name, "No Regret Egret." This duck looks distinguished in the face of extinction. It travels to the far corners of the earth to form policies, although within days of the junkets it will be filling out job applications.

Watch out for the Congressional Cowbird and the No Regret Egret. One will probably be flying in your area come January 20.

DMV Sets Holiday Hours

Dover--Robert J. Voshell, Director of Delaware's Division of Motor Vehicles, today announced a change in office hours for the Division for the last two weeks in Dec. "Due to Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve falling on Wednesday, all offices and inspection lanes will be open from 8 to 4:30 p.m. on Dec. 24 and 31. The regular Wednesday hours, 12 noon to 8:30 p.m. will be resumed the following week on Jan. 7."

Because of these new hours, Voshell encouraged all motorists with vehicle license plates and/or driver licenses expiring this month to have these renewals taken care of as quickly as possible.

The Division will also be closed on Friday, Dec. 26, pursuant to that date being observed as a State Holiday.

"We would like to take this opportunity" Voshell stated, "to wish everyone a happy and safe Holiday Season."

YOUR PEACE OF MIND AND HEART IS OUR FIRST CONSIDERATION

50 Commerce St. HARRINGTON, DEL. 398-3228

Berry Funeral Homes

Dear friends,
The National Institute on Aging is examining how federal agencies deal with the dying. NIA director, Dr. Robert Butler, expects the study to result in programs that permit the dying to end their lives "in peace and dignity, with less pain" and possibly at home-while providing necessary help and services. Respectfully, Stelton C. Berry, Jr.
