"Buddy" & Firemen Are Heros As

Hobbs Farm Fire Takes $15,000 Toll

With the remains of their pole barn and 2,500 bales of hay still smoldering Monday, E. Herman and Nellie Hobbs of the Harrington-Farmington Road considered themselves "lucky". They figured they could have lost much more in the fire which last Thursday night sent their 40' x 60' pole shed with the 2,500 bales of hay and 400-500 bales of straw that were stacked there up in flames. The blaze, which broke out some time after 10:00 p.m., also burned the end of a nearby equipment shed and damaged a truck inside. A horse trailer in another shed close to the fire received one cracked and one bowed window as a result of the intense heat from flames which George Hobbs said leaped 150 to 200 feet in the air. But despite the damages, only partially covered by insurance, the Hobbs family feels fortunate. And they credit their "luck" to an alert friend, their Chesapeake retriever "Buddy" whose barking awakened Herman Hobbs, and the quick action of local volunteer firemen who were on the scene within minutes. Had it not been for their instant and expert response, the fire could have completely destroyed the equipment shed and perhaps have spread to adjacent buildings where nine horses were stabled and more hay and straw are stored. According to Herman Hobbs, "We could have lost everything we had." At 10:00 p.m. last Thursday night, all was quiet as far as the Hobbs family knew. But by 10:20, Buddy's frantic and persistent barking had awakened Herman Hobbs to the scene of a giant bonfire, virtually in his own backyard. Hobbs called his son George whose brick home is just a short distance from the family farm. It was Mrs. George Hobbs phone call that brought the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company to the rescue.

Also called to help were the Houston and Farmington Volunteer Fire Companies. Houston's big tanker supplied water to the pumpers at the scene and was in turn refilled by other trucks which relayed water from the tower at the state fairgrounds. Firemen were kept busy until about 2:30 a.m. Since then, volunteers from the Harrington company have returned on several occasions to hose down the area as winds dried the hay and straw, which continued to smolder.

The Hobbs family is at a loss to explain the reason for the fire. Despite recent dry weather, last Thursday was a damp day, with frequent drizzle. There was no electric wiring in or around the building. There are no smokers in the family, and no one had been near the shed for three days prior to the fire. There was not even an electrical storm to blame. Cause of the fire was still under investigation by the state Fire Marshal's office.

Hobbs valued the hay stored in the shed at around $7,000 and the building itself at $5,000 or $6,000. Another $1,500, he estimated, would have to be counted for the damage to the equipment shed which caught fire from the burning hay mound. And he thought it would take at least $250 to repair the truck whose paint and windshield were damaged.

Although Hobbs carries some insurance, he said it would not cover all the damages. At current values and insurance rates, he said, it is impossible to cover everything completely. The cost is prohibitive. So, according to Nellie Hobbs, "You just pay your insurance and hope nothing happens." This time something did. And Herman and Nellie Hobbs are grateful to "Buddy" and to the volunteer firemen of Harrington, Houston and Farmington that it wasn't worse.

"Buddy" (above) is always ready for a romp with his owner Herman Hobbs. --But his presence was more than appreciated last Thursday night when his barking alerted Hobbs to the fire which left a pole barn filled with hay and straw a smoldering ruin (below). To the rear are an equipment shed which was damaged and two other buildings, one of them sheltering nine horses. The quick response of local firemen saved them from the flames.

From New York to "Old House Furniture"

One day about three years ago, Wilbur Hilliard decided to pack it all up and come to Harrington. That decision made, he was not one to waste time. By the time his wife, Marie, a long time employee of the Empire Brush Company, arrived home that evening, he had a truck just about loaded. And it was not long before the Hilliards had taken up residence here and started a business - Old House Furniture, located on Clark Street.

Now Hilliard was not moving from Magnolia, or Dover, or even Wilmington, but from New York City. He had just given up the job of hassling eighteen-wheelers across country and was finding the city where he had grown up had become a jungle. In his travels, he had been through Harrington on a number of occasions, and he had friends here. Through another friend whom he had helped occasionally came an interest in old furnishings and antiques. Thus, he has a new home and the basis for a new business.

It was not the first change for Wilbur Hilliard whose varied pursuits, both in military and civilian life, have taken him all over the United States and halfway around the world.

Born in Fort Lee, Virginia, he is the son of a military father who wanted him to follow suit. Hilliard grew up in New York and started driving trucks at an early age, an occupation that he

"Justa" Parent?

Anyone who has ever said, "I'm just a parent...or just one person...what can I do?", may find cause for sympathy with a new group of parents in the process of formation in the Felton area. So far the group has decided to call itself "JUSTA", aptly named after the above question which may express the frustration felt by many individuals in

Churches Good Friday Services

The Harrington area churches will mark Good Friday, April 17 with a community service at Metropolitan United Methodist Church at 105 West Street at 7:30 p.m. The Reverend C. Jackson Robinson of Asbury United Methodist Church will be the speaker. Worshipers are asked to bring a donation of non-perishable food to resupply Harrington's food pantry which meets emergency situations.

For other Easter services see the news of individual churches on page 6.

Miller Named Pastor of Year

Houghton College President Dr. Daniel Chamberlain presented the 1981 Claude A. Ries Pastor of the Year Award to the Rev. William H. Miller, pastor of the Harrington (DE) Wesleyan Church, in ceremonies held during the college's 34th annual Ministers' Conference April 6-8. President Chamberlain told the assembly that in his nearly 29 years of ministry at Harrington, Rev. Miller had led his congregation through "significant growth and dramatic change--relocating the church, and erecting a new sanctuary, a parsonage, an educational building, a multi-purpose building, and a gymnasium....the congregation has tripled in size and Sunday school enrollment now exceeds 250. Part of this growth was

Rotary Clubs to Host Visitors

The final leg on a six-week tour of the Delmarva Peninsula for a group of six young Chile business and professional men will be in Sussex County starting Monday, April 20. They will be coming from Denton.

Rotary Clubs in Harrington, Milford, Lewes-Rehoboth and Georgetown-Millsboro are involved in the week's stay of the Chilean visitors, who will stay in homes of club members.

Wayne Tisdale, director of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard Hardware Association, will be the featured speaker as the Greater Harrington Chamber of Commerce holds its annual "Outstanding Citizens' Night" this Monday, April 20. The highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the individual selected as Harrington's Outstanding Citizen of the year for 1981.

The gala event will be held at the Harrington Fairgrounds Restaurant and will feature a cash bar cocktail hour at 6 p.m. with the dinner to follow at 7 p.m. This year's "Outstanding Citizens' Night" has been planned under the direction of Ray Gagne, the Chamber's Vice President. Tickets are still available at $7.50 from Taylor's Hardware, Stone's Hotel or Kenna Adams, the Chamber's Executive Director.

This year's speaker, Wayne Tisdale, served for eight years as manager of the Arkansas Retail Hardware Association. For the last two of those eight

Museum Fund Drive On

The Greater Harrington Historical Society is conducting a fund drive for the restoration of the old St. Stephen's Church Building on Fleming Street, which will be used as a museum. The present museum, which is a part of the Raughley Building, is rapidly outgrowing its space. The Society is asking the help of the community in this project. Any and all contributions will be greatly appreciated. Please send your donations to Mrs. Charlotte Hutson, Treasurer, Building Fund, R. D. 3, Box 8, Harrington, Delaware.

Harrington was plagued by two water leaks last week. The first, discovered early on Friday morning on Reese Avenue, involved a broken water main. According to Harrington Superintendent of Public Works, Bob Hassett, the leak was repaired by seven p.m. that evening and water service to residents was shut off for about an hour and a half. The second leak, on Commerce Street, was caused by a burst valve. Discovered on Friday night, it was repaired by 2:30 p.m. on Saturday. Water was off for about an hour. In the picture above, former City Manager Dave Peterson looks on as Harrington employees tackle the Commerce Street problem.

Delaware Diamonds

By Joyce Jefferson

Dr. Joseph Simpson purchased in 1857 from the other heirs of his father Joseph Simpson (Sr.) that part of the farm which was west of the Delaware Railroad and on the north side of what is now Main Street. One of the most beautiful old houses in the town is located in this area; it is a two story brick dwelling which may have been built by John Simpson another son of Joseph Simpson (Sr.). He purchased the lot from his brother 12 January 1861, it was bounded on the east by a lot then owned by Andrew J. Wright and on the west by a lot sold on the same day to James W. Jester. John Simpson with his wife Emily moved to Philadelphia and he sold the property to John Kensler.

The brick house had been constructed before John Kensler died 1 March 1864 and his widow Asenith Kensler claimed her dower right. He was also survived by four children James Kensler, John Kensler; Rebecca who was the wife of William H. Heller and Mary McCracken who husband was deceased.

Later the property was purchased by Nathaniel P. Luff and in 1908 his heirs sold the house to Mary H. Hammond. Upon her death it became the residence of her son William M. Hammond whose wife Elizabeth was a descendant of the Delaware Patriot James Frazier.

The house is still occupied and it appears warm and inviting to all who pass by.

When I began this research my objectives was to trace the ownership of the land occupied by the Felton Railroad Station back to the year one if possible. But I soon realized that such a history would involve most of the town and a good deal of the adjoining properties. Since the land is only as important as the people who lived on it, I have included some family information that might be helpful to anyone doing genealogical research. I've tried to be as accurate as the records allow [and human error permits], however the boundaries for the various grants of land are so vague and one tract often overlapped another until it is impossible to know the exact location of any. I would like to think that Felton was... 'New Seventh Heaven'. It is certainly a Heavenly Community with the best neighbors in the world. This is by no means the end of the story but the research that has gone into making this column possible was performed over the past two years and is very time consuming. So I am appealing to our readers for contributions of historical information similar to those already received and which have been published under the heading "Little Gems"; and for queries from people seeking help with their genealogical research.

Many of you have told me how much you enjoy the column, but the more people who contribute to it, the better it will be.

LITTLE GEMS

In this column, we want to give you an opportunity to display your gems of local history, The Delaware Diamonds. Reader comments, additions and corrections for material used will be helpful. Queries concerning sources for historical and genealogical research will be published and answered as you request.

Kirk Cannon author of "History of the Concord United Methodist Church published in 1978 is preparing for publication a second volume titled "Concord Story", which will go to press after May 1, 1981. Personal contributions of family information pertinent to the town area will be accepted until 30 April 1981. Anyone interested should address queries to: CONCORD STORY Rt. 2, Box 300A, Concord, Seaford, Delaware 19973.

Children who are enrolled in Woodbridge Public School Kindergarten do not have to register again to enter first grade in September.

Census Survey

A sample of households in this area will be visited by the Bureau of the Census interviewers during the work week of April 20-24, 1981, to conduct the Bureau's monthly survey of employment and unemployment. Porter S. Rickley, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Philadelphia, announced today.

Households in this area are part of a sample of 78,000 across the country scientifically selected to represent a cross section of all U.S. households.

The monthly survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor and provides a continuous record of activity in the labor force. The February survey indicated that of the 105.7 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 97.9 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 7.3 percent, virtually unchanged from the 7.4 percent reported in January.

Silent Song, a new play by Nancy King, director and professor of theatre at the University of Delaware, will tour elementary schools in the Delaware Valley beginning in late April, continuing the university's tradition of bringing theatre into the schools.

The play tells the story of Petchutch, an extraordinary creature who changes the lives of a young girl and her family. "It is a play for families and especially for the young," according to Prof. King.

Silent Song will be performed in Mitchell Hall on the Newark campus at 7 p.m., Friday through Sunday, April 24-26. Matinees also are scheduled at 2 p.m. on April 25 and 26.

For information on the tour, contact Susan West at the University Theatre, telephone 302/738-2202. For ticket information on the campus performances, call the Mitchell Hall box office at 302/738-2204 from noon to 4 p.m., weekdays.

Wesley College will present the rock group Hall & Oates in concert in the Wesley College Gymnasium Friday April 24 at 8 p.m.

Hall & Oates currently have a smash top 10 hit with "Kiss On My List". They also have two other hits off their present album "Voices": "How Does It Feel To Be Back" and "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling."

"Voices" represents Hall & Oates' eleventh album. Previous hits include "She's Gone" and "Sara Smile."

Tickets are $8 and are general admission. In Dover, tickets are available at the Record Museum (Blue Hen Mall), Sound Investment (15 Lookerman St.) and the Wesley College Information Desk. In Wilmington, tickets may be purchased at Bag & Baggage (322 W. 9th St.) and in Milford, at the Record Gallery (40 N. Walnut). For additional information call 736-2498.

Be sure to see An Extra-Ordinary Couple play the parts of the Baron and Baroness von Trapp April 23, 24, 25, 1981 in THE SINGING PLAYERS show, The Sound of Music 8:15 p.m. in the Dover Central Middle School Auditorium. Maria is played by April Jones, wife of Captain Stephen Jones, DAFB. In their 1980 presentation of The King and I she portrayed the role of Tuptim.

The other half of this "couple" is Jack Shield, who plays Capt. von Trapp. He participated in music and theatrical productions, but was absent from amateur theatre. Shield joined the Community Singers for Fiddler on the Roof. He also portrayed Iman in Kismet. For the sake of the sake of this show, he is learning to play the guitar.

In one of the choice scenes of the show, Capt. von Trapp (played by Jack Shield) and a friend from Vienna, Max Detwiler (played by Lee Wiederkehr) are planning The Party in honor of the Baroness Elsa Schraeder (played by Kathy Wetherhold) to whom the Capt. is engaged to marry. Jack Shield is retired from the Air Force and lives in Dover. He participated in several local productions including "Fiddler on the Roof" and "Kismet". Kathy Wetherhold (Elsa), Harrington, appeared in The Singing Players "Annie Get Your Gun" and played Sharon in "Finian's Rainbow" and Irene Malloy in "Hello Dolly" produced by The Community Singers. Kathy has been associated with D.T. & C.C.-Terry Campus- for eight years and in the capacity of Administrative Aide to the Dean of Student Services, is production manager for the College preliminary for the annual Miss Delaware pageant. Lee Wiederkehr (Max), DAFB, is employed by the Army Air Force Exchange as a Food Activity Manager for Dover AFB. Lee was a Cockney in The Singing Players "My Fair Lady" and Lt. Brannigan in "Guys and Dolls" as well as several Christmas shows.

Lois Divel, Farmington, As Frau Schmidt, The Housekeeper and Harvey S. Williams, Milford, as The Butler, are among other important characters selected for this remarkable cast. Stage Director, Bill Peuchen, of Wilmington, and Margaret S. Storey, Music Director, are very pleased to be assisted by three highly skilled piano accompanists: Kathryn Cople, Milford, who has accompanied every group directed by Mrs. Storey, and other major local organizations, for about three decades; and Janet Spengler and Carol Burcham, private piano teachers in Dover, Janet Spengler has been associated with The Singing Players as an accompanist since their founding in 1973.

Six new works by Delaware artists have been added to the Delaware Division of Libraries' collection of original art following a meeting of the Art Selection Committee March 25. There are now 41 items available to the public for loan through any public library in the state. Anyone living or working in Delaware may borrow an art work for a three month period. A catalog with color photographs of the selections can be found in each public library. After a choice has been made, the Division of Libraries' messenger delivers the art work to the patron's local library where it is picked up and returned.

Art works purchased this year are Marilyn Bauman's "Musee du Fort," oil; Wynn Breslin's "Winter Fields, DE," oil; Betty Carr's "Celebration," pastel; Jan Geoghegan's "On the Bay Road," oil; Phyllis Hartzler's "Mirage," oil on canvas; and W.A.S. Hatch's "Liqueur," lithography and offset.

"Silent Song," a new play for children and the young of all ages, will open on Thursday, April 24 at the University of Delaware in Newark.

Written by Nancy King, Professor of Theatre at the University, the play will be presented in Bacchus at the University's Student Center on Academy Street in Newark.

Produced by the University Theatre, the play deals with Petchutch, an extraordinary creature who changes the lives of a young girl and her family. The insights that the family gains from its relationship with the creature touch on deep human needs for understanding and acceptance. Half fable and half myth, the story blends insight with entertainment in a way that will delight audiences and stimulate thought.

The production will begin at 7 p.m., Friday through Sunday, April 24-26, and special afternoon performances are scheduled at 2 p.m., April 25 and 26.

General admission will be $3 for the general public, $2 for area students and children and $1.50 for senior citizens and U. of D. students with I.D. Because of limited seating, tickets should be purchased early.

After its campus run, "Silent Song" will tour Delaware Valley schools.

For ticket information, contact the Mitchell Hall box office at 738-2204.

Dance, music and song of the Philippines, Bali and Japan will be presented in colorful costumes at the gala opening program of "Delaware International Arts Festival II: Asia," scheduled at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 21 in Clayton Hall on the University of Delaware north campus in Newark.

The program will feature two troupes not previously seen in Delaware—the Philippine Folk Arts Theatre Group and Balinese dancers Stuarti and Suarni. Also performing will be karate and Japanese dance master Masaharu Sakimukai. Other Asian dancers will be presented later in the festival.

The Philippine dance group, a national company sponsored by the Philippine first lady Imelda R. Marcos, has performed all over the world. The troupe of 15 dancers and five musicians is being made available to the University by courtesy of the Philippine Embassy in Washington, D.C., and the Philippine Center in Newark, N.J.

The group's April 21 performance will reflect many different areas of the Philippines and will show Chinese, Spanish, Malay and American influences on Philippine culture.

Suarni and Suarni are Balinese sisters who have each won national dance prizes in Indonesia. Together they have performed throughout Europe and Asia, including special appearances for Queen Elizabeth and Queen Juliana. Their appearance, which will reflect Balinese legends and traditions, is being made available through the Asia Society.

Sakimukai is a seventh degree black belt karate master, a member of Japan's prestigious Karate Do Federation and director of 10 karate schools in Japan and of the Chinto Kan School of Wilmington. His Presentation will include Japanese traditional and karate dances, as well as samurai sword movement demonstrations.

Admission to the program is $3 for the general public and $2 for children, students and those 60 and over. Tickets may be obtained in advance from 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., weekdays, in Room 210 of Clayton Hall. For mail orders, send a check payable to the U. of D. and self-addressed stamped envelope to: Asian Festival, 210 Clayton Hall, University of Delaware, Newark, DE 19711.

On April 21, several ticket lines will open at 6:30 p.m. at Clayton Hall, and auditorium doors will open at 6:45 p.m.

Sponsored locally by the University's Division of Continuing Education, partly aided by a grant from the Delaware State Arts Council, the April 21 dance program will be followed by a free public opening reception of an exhibition featuring arts of numerous Asian countries. Refreshments will be available at the opening.

ROBINWOOD FOR FLUTISTS will meet for its 5th season at Camp Arrowhead on Rehoboth Bay in southern Delaware from June 21-27, 1981.

It will be held at the Episcopal Diocese-owned Camp Arrowhead. New to the faculty this year is flutist Lynne Priest Bujak of Wilmington, DE. Ms. Bujak organized and performed with the Berkshire Chamber Players in Massachusetts. Her flute training was with Joseph Marianno at the Eastman School of Music and James Pappoutsakis at the New England Conservatory.

Returning to teach at Robinwood are Katherine Menefee Price, flutist from the metropolitan New York area; Caryn Block, composer-flutist from Philadelphia and Ann Gibbens Davis, accompanist and chamber coach from Washington, D.C.

Limited work-scholarships are available. Early registration earns participants a substantial savings. Brochure and registration information is available from founder-director Virginia Atherton, 4420 Boston Ave., La Crescenta, Ca., 91214 or from faculty person:

Lynne Bujak, 3120 Naamans Rd., Wilmington, DE., 19810.

"The Delaware Choral Society will be presenting its annual Spring Concert on Sat., April 25th at the Milford Presbyterian Church at 8:15 p.m. and on Sunday, April 26th at the Presbyterian Church of Dover on State Street at 4:00 p.m.

Dr. Peter J. McCarthy will be conducting and will be accompanied by Ruth Gardner on the organ and the Delaware Chamber Ensemble. The program will consist of Bach's Cantata #118 (O Jesu Christ, Meins Lebens Licht) and Mozarts "Requiem".

Soloists for the "Requiem" will be Janet Holmes-soprano, Stephanie Betz-alto, Robert Davis-tenor, and Robert Castro-bass. Understudies for the soloists are Sandra Aiken-soprano, Muriel Kline-alto, and David Bralley-tenor.

These concerts are open to the public and there is no admission charge. They are made possible in part by grants from the Delaware State Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts."

Coast Guard Band to Give Concert

The 45-piece United States Coast Guard Band will present a free concert at 7:30 p.m. May 11 in the Caesar Rodney High School auditorium on Old North Road in Camden.

Selections for the Monday evening performances include several tailored for the Central Delaware audience, as well as some original compositions and arrangements, show tunes and the group's specialty, marches.

Tickets are free, and will be sent on receipt of a self-addressed, stamped envelope addressed to "Coast Guard Concert," P. O. Box 656, Dover, DE 19901. Ticket requests will be filled in order of receipt, and there is a limit of four tickets per envelope. Requests should include number of tickets desired, and a phone number for verification purposes. Seating is limited, and early requests are suggested.

The concert is sponsored by the Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce and the Delaware/Maryland State News.

Lieutenant Lewis J. Buckley now directs the band, originally created in 1925 as a ceremonial group with assistance from the "March King," John Phillip Sousa. In 1965 President Lyndon B. Johnson established the band as the official, full-time musical representative of the Coast Guard. It is one of five, premier service bands.

Armed Services

ARMY/AIR FORCE HOMETOWN NEWS--Airman Theresa L. Wills, niece of Mr. & Mrs. Alfred J. Ford of Frederica, Del., has been assigned to Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airman who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field.

ARMY/AIR FORCE HOMETOWN NEWS--Richard W. Brown, son of Patricia Lankford of Harrington, Del., has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman.

Brown is a telecommunications operations specialist at Altus Air Force Base, Okla.

April 7 (FHTNC)--Marine Pvt. Donald Ellis, son of Nelson Ellis of 17 David St., Frederica, Del., and Virginia M. Short of Route 4, Box 365, Dover, Del., has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1980 graduate of Dover High School, he joined the Marine Corps in September 1980. His wife, Roberta, is the daughter of Robert D. and Gail Montgomery of Route 2, Box 120, also of Dover, Del.

ARMY/AIR FORCE HOMETOWN NEWS--Pvt. Richard T. Parks, son of Mr. & Mrs. Wilburn W. Parks of Route 1, Greensboro, Md., recently completed the tank turret mechanic course at Fort Knox, Ky.

The course teaches soldiers to perform preventive maintenance on M-60A1 tank turrets. Upon completion, they are skilled as apprentice mechanics and can perform maintenance on the turret's hydraulic and electrical systems, range finders, and main gun firing computers.

Miss Terry Campus Pageant Set

DOVER--Four Terry Campus students have begun rehearsals for the first "Miss Terry Campus Pageant" to be staged Monday, April 27, at 8 p.m., on the first floor of the Kent Vo-Tech North building adjacent to the Terry Campus on Denney's Road, Dover.

Admission to pageant festivities is free and open to the public.

Students Bridgett LaVerne Dolley, Teri Lynn Hetzell, Sharon Kay Jacobs and Linda Elizabeth Casazza will vie for the "Miss Terry Campus" crown, a $200 cash prize and the chance to enter the Miss Delaware competition in June, all expenses paid.

Miss Dolley will perform an original jazz dance for the talent competition; Miss Hetzell, a comedy skit; Miss Jacobs, a vocal number, and Miss Casazza, a tap dance routine. All four contestants will join in "One," a production number from "Chorus Line," which will be choreographed by Dover's Don Blakey.

Miss Downing Receives Award

Citing her enthusiastic commitment to preserving the heritage of this country from the local to the national level, Governor Pierre S. du Pont honored Miss M. Catherine Downing of Milford yesterday in Dover. Miss Downing was the sister of former Harrington Mayor and resident, Fulton Downing.

At the conclusion of the Fifth Annual State House Symposium, Miss Downing received the Governor's Award for Outstanding Contributions to the History and Culture of Delaware. The ceremony was witnessed by five former Delaware governors who were part of the audience after their participation in the Symposium, "Hats in the Ring: Delaware Governors and Government" sponsored by the Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs and Wesley College.

Miss Downing is the co-founder of the Milford Historical Society and was its president from 1961-1969 during which time the restoration of the Parson Thorne Mansion was undertaken. Originator and member of the Milford Landmarks Commission, she also directed the Milford Building Survey of over 1,000 structures in that community. She is also the author and editor of several historical publications dealing with the history of Milford.

On the national level, she has served as Vice-President and honorary State Regent of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is one of Delaware's two representatives to the Board of Advisors of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and has served as Chairman of the Delaware State Review Board for Historic Preservation since its creation in 1970.

The Governor's Award has been previously presented to Dr. John A. Munroe, H. Rodney Sharp Professor at the University of Delaware; Mr. Charles L. Reese, Jr., former Chairman of the Board of the News-Journal Company; Victorine Homsey, an architect and landscape designer of distinction; and Dr. James E. Marvil, Chief Executive of the Lewes Historical Society for almost twenty years.

Get Together and Talk With Our Neighbors

Senior Center

By Dorothy Graham 398-3780

First of all let's THANK EVERYONE for everything that was done for the Bazaar, April 9, 1981.

Reverend Watson of the Baptist Church of Harrington was leader of the Bible Study. Monday morning at the Center, Mrs. Watson was at the piano. After a prayer and song his topic was Luke, Chapter 19, verses 28 thru 40. Reverend Watson gave a most interesting talk and then asked for questions and answers. The folks seemed to thoroughly enjoy every minute. A prayer and song ended the hour very pleasantly. Present were Sallie Needles Essie Redden, Amy Poynter, Mary Sapp, Ethel Holden, Etzel McCready, Lili McBride, Elna Brown, Henry Mitchell, Ruth Phillippi, Marion Brown, Anna Mae Short, Clare Judy, Bertha Dean, Cecil & Sylvia Meredith, Elizabeth Anthony, Gertrude Morgan, Cleora Vincent, Annabel Morrow, Pearl Hickman, Mildred Vincent, Roxanne Brown, Elwood Morris, Francis Wright, John McCready and Amy Price.

Jolly Timers practiced Tuesday morning with Sylvia at the piano. Sylvia said Ina would be back next week. She has done an excellent job while Ina has been in Florida. Some of the songs they played were "Melody of Love", "My Happiness", "When it's Springtime In The Rockies", "Catch A Falling Star", "Somewhere My Love" and "Our Delaware".

Ruth Nasser was here Tuesday afternoon with some lovely music. The program she had planned, she postponed because everyone was so busy getting ready for the Bazaar. The program she had planned did sound interesting, so try to be present next month.

Wednesday was preparation day all through the Center. Tables were set with fresh flowers from the gardens of many of the folks here. Needlework and ceramics were set up as well as a candy and bake sale. There was a white elephant sale also. All in all everyone was busy, busy, busy.

Bowling at Milford Lanes.

Thursday was Bazaar Day. Everyone was happy with friends greeting friends. Lots of folks came and bought. Lunch was delicious and I even saw three men in the kitchen helping dip bean soup. I must thank all volunteers again for their fine work and work they did but all with kindness.

Best wishes to all homebodies; those who are ill and those in sorrow. Be kind to each other.

Come on over to the Center. Check your calendar for events and trips coming up.

Remember - Worry is like a rocking chair; it gives you something to do but it doesn't get you anywhere. Faith.

Frederica

By Mary "Toby" Johnston 335-5487

Our town and other friends and neighbors wish to extend their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Frances Davidson and her family due to the death of her father, Mr. Leonard H. Maloney, of Magnolia, Wednesday, April 8, 1981.

Another chair will be vacant at the Magnolia Garage where many of Mr. Maloney's cronies met to swap yarns of today and yesterday. Friends and neighbors of all ages will miss this era. Services were held Sunday at 2 p.m. Burial at Barratt's Chapel, Cemetery, Frederica.

The Frederica U.M. Trinity Church wishes to thank everyone that helped in any way with the Spring Supper. We had a beautiful day and a great turnout.

The U.M. M. will provide the Easter morning breakfast, after the Sunrise Service at Trinity Church in Frederica at 6 a.m. Sardis and Saxton Churches are included in this service an invitation to all to participate in our Easter service.

Thursday evening at Trinity, April 16th, 1981, from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30. Maundy Communion.

Sunday morning, April 12th, Edward Harrington, Frederica son of Mr. & Mrs. Shelby Harrington, Jennifer Lynn Vanderwende of Little Creek, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. B. L. Vanderwende and Lisa Marie MacFarland, Frederica daughter of Mr. & Mrs.

James MacFarland were cristen by Reverend Nelson Benjamin.

Mr. & Mrs. William Marvel of Little Creek also attended the Christening of their Granddaughter Jennifer Lynn.

Transportation can be arranged by calling Mrs. Lynn Baynard, Director of the Frederica Adult Center. You can spend an enjoyable day at the Center with Devotions at 10 a.m. and a program of your choice in Arts and Crafts or with games, or library facilities. A delicious lunch. Transportation from Bowers, Magnolia and A'Round and A'Bout Frederica. Come in and enjoy 335-4555. The Birthday Luncheon is great. "Covered Dish" Tuesday, April 28th, monthly visit to Milford Manor, Thursday, April 23rd, our famous Mystery Trip Friday, April 24th, Thursday April 30th, special Volunteer Recognition Luncheon. Share your hobby with us.

Best wishes to Mrs. Dorothy Robbins we missed you at the supper Saturday. To all that are ill wherever they might be, our prayers and best wishes May God Bless.

Well, a few extra prayers were said last Tuesday. The Adult Center Van got stuck at the entrance of Evelyn Bayliss's lane. Many thanks are in order to the South Bowers Fire Co. for getting us out of the mire. Didn't I tell you there is never a dull moment at the Center. As I always say, God Bless Miss Agnes.

Henlopen Teen Wins Scholarship

Teresa Mireles, a student at Cape Henlopen High School in Lewes, won the Delaware Science Scholarship Award, a freshman year tuition scholarship at the University of Delaware, at the 1981 Delaware Junior Science and Humanities Symposium, held March 19-20 on the University campus.

Ms. Mireles won for her research paper "Staphylococcus Aureus: Tampax vs Rely." She was one of five first award winners who made presentations on their research at the symposium. The Delaware Junior Science and Humanities Symposium is designed to promote study and experimentation at the high school level in the sciences and their applications and to demonstrate the part that humanities play in the development of the scientist and engineer.

The program was sponsored by the University's College of Arts and Sciences, the Delaware Department of Public Instruction, the Delaware Academy of Science, the Academy of Applied Science in Raleigh, N.C., and the U.S. Army Research Office in Durham, N.C.

Anne's Kitchen

Here is something extra special for your Easter Dinner. I'll admit it does take a little more time and effort than it would to make the traditional ham, turkey or roast, but believe me when I tell you it is truly worth it. If you have a courtesy counter at your super market meat section you can cut your work somewhat. Ask the butcher to remove the bones from the meat for you without cutting through the meat, but be sure to take them home with you as they are an important part of the recipe. You may have to bone the breast yourself in which case you will need a very sharp knife. It is unimportant that the breast have a pocket since you will not use it. If it comes with a pocket you can just pretend it isn't there and proceed with the instructions.

STUFFED BREAST OF VEAL

- 1 Breast of veal
- 1 bottle white wine (any kind)
- 1 small onion
- 1 carrot
- 1 stalk celery
- 1 box stuffing mix
- 5 slices Proscuitto or Cured ham
- 1 lb. sliced mushrooms
- cheese cloth
- twine

- 1 In a soup pot place bones, any small loose pieces of veal, carrot, pepper, celery, onion and salt. Cover with water to two inches above bones and vegetables. Simmer till you have a stock. Remove the vegetables and discard.
2. Spread veal on a flat surface. Place proscuitto or ham on veal to create a lining.

3. Spread 1/2" layer of stuffing (prepared according to package directions) on ham leaving 1" space around all sides.
4. Starting at narrow end roll up in a jelly-roll fashion and tie with twine in 3 or 4 places as well as end to end. Now you have a stuffed rolled and tied roast. Put roast into cheese cloth.

5. In a dutch oven put 2 cups of stock and two cups wine. Add thinly sliced mushrooms and the roast. Cover and simmer till tender. Turn the roast occasionally and add equal amounts of stock and wine as liquid evaporates. When you run out of stock use the wine.
6. When fork tender remove from liquid and cut off cheese cloth.
7. Slice about 3/4" thick and arrange on platter.
8. Remove mushrooms with slated spoon and place around edge of platter.

I prefer the gravy as it is at this stage, but if you prefer a thicker gravy, you may go ahead and thicken it with flour or cornstarch.

You will need a fresh vegetable and crisp salad to go along with this. Since you use very little of the stuffing mix, you may want to serve the rest instead of a potato.

In an all out effort to please a much loved "non eater", I prepared this recipe. When it was almost done, I uncovered the pot and proudly pointed to my efforts. I asked him to guess what we were having for supper and his reply was "Oh, boy! a boiled shirt!" He later raved.

Believe me, it will make your Easter dinner something to remember. Happy Easter.

Bridgeville Girl Gets Role in "The Sound of Music"

Many people would enjoy being sixteen-going-on-seventeen again and will get a big thrill out of this classic song from "THE SOUND OF MUSIC" to be presented by THE SINGING PLAYERS in Dover Central Middle School Auditorium April 23, 24, 25, 1981 when it is sung by a young couple who fit the song perfectly. Leisl, eldest daughter of Capt. von Trapp, is played by Yvonne Simpson, Bridgeville, who won first place in the Teen Talent Show and placed in the top ten on the National level. She has been soloist for many school and community functions; and played Anne is "The Diary of Anne Frank" presented by the Greenwood

Menonite High School. Rolf Gruber, the telegram delivery messenger in the story, is played by Keller Hopkins also from Bridgeville. Keller represented the Lancaster, Pa. Mennonite High School in a Mid-Eastern Fine Arts Festival competing in Drama and Speech, and is currently employed by Heirs, Associates in Bridgeville.

Tickets may be purchased at the Milford or Harrington Pharmacies. Advance sale tickets are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for students who are studying with a full-time schedule. For tickets or information call 674-0508 or see any member of the cast.

Bishop's Easter Message

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

In the realm of nature winter is over and spring is at hand. In the cycle of redemption the Lord's passion and death culminate in his resurrection. Nature's spring matches the Easter Liturgy of the Church; their common theme is the triumph of life over death. And paradoxically, both in the order of nature and of grace death is the seed of resurrection. 'Unless the grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if put to death for our sins and raised to life for our justification.' (Romans 4:25).

This is the day of our Saviour's great triumph. He did not come down, still living, from the cross as his enemies challenged him to do. He did something far more astounding; he rose glorious and immortal from the tomb of death as he had promised. And what is more, in union with him we are empowered to cast off the deadly shackles of sin and rise now to a new life of grace which will flower into glory hereafter. 'I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.' (John 10:25).

The Church has a long memory. She recalls vividly the ecstasy of the first Easter and her children have never ceased to celebrate the feast of the Resurrection with joy and thanksgiving because as St. Athanasius wrote centuries ago 'The Lord calls his ransomed people to sing songs of victory.'

The Jewish Passover commemorated God's deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage, and the blood of the Paschal lamb on the doorposts of the Chosen People saved them from the avenging angel's death-touch.

The early Christians transformed the yearly Jewish Passover festival into their own major feast of Christ's resurrection because of their conviction that through the new Pasch Christ had suffered, died and risen and they, united with him by faith and baptism, were freed from the bondage of sin and raised to a new life in the spirit.

Today we share that same faith and confidence in the risen Lord. At the same time we are reminded that faith without works is ineffectual. We must purge out the old leaven of lethargy, indifference, bad habits and sin in order to rise with Christ to a new life. The joys and the sorrows of our earthly pilgrimage can be sanctified and lead us safely with those we love and serve to an eternal reward where the Risen Lord waits with outstretched arms to welcome us.

Meanwhile on this day of Resurrection as we stand at Mass to renew our covenant with God by repeating the promises of our baptism, let our prayer be: 'Father of love, source of all blessings, help us to pass from our old life of sin to the new life of grace. Prepare us for the glory of your Kingdom.'

Joyfully yours in Christ, Most Reverend Thomas J. Mardaga, D.D. Bishop of Wilmington

Calvary United Methodist Church

To reflect on Lent, the United Methodist women sponsored a Candlelight Service written and directed by O. Blackwell. It reflected on the pain, the sin, the aloneness of Jesus on the Cross. The message of the Cross was hate and sin, but the message of Him who was sinless was love. The Young Adult Gospel Choir celebrated their first anniversary with the founded, Rev. Gary Meekins at the piano and all the choirs on stage singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" to close the service.

Join us Thursday night 7:30 p.m. to re-act the Lord's Last Supper along with the Washing of the Feet as the Savior did to show he was servant to all as well as master of all. Palm Sunday service is at 11 a.m.

A covered dish family night fellowship will be held this Wednesday evening at 6:30. Each family is requested to bring a large covered dish. Beverage, rolls and meat will be provided. The men and boys will be responsible to serve since the ladies and girls were declared the winners in the March to Sunday School in March campaign.

Community Good Friday service will be held in Metropolitan United Methodist Church with Rev. Jackson Robinson as speaker.

An Egg Hunt is planned for our Sunday School children on Saturday, April 18 at 10:30. Pre-Schoolers through Grade 6 are included.

Easter Sunday services will include Sunday School at 9:30. Carlton Goodhand will teach a combined class of all adults. Young people and children will attend regular classes. In the morning service starting at 10:40 Rev. Harry Bradford, Jr. will direct the choir as they present, "Hallelujah For the Cross," a cantata written by John W. Peterson. Pastor Miller will bring an Easter Message.

Easter Sunday evening at 7:00 a "PRAISE PROGRAM" of special music and song will be conducted. Special songs by Jack and Lois Carpenter, Earl Griffin, Mary Ann Draper, Carlton Goodhand and Rev. Miller and others.

Mr. Earl Griffin, Vice Chairman of the Local Board of Administration, conducted the Pastoral vote on Sunday, April 12. Rev. Miller was recalled with a unanimous vote. Rev. & Mrs. Miller recently returned from Houghton College, Houghton, N.Y., where Rev. Miller was honored as "Pastor of the Year" for the Northeastern area of the Wesleyan Church.

Asbury-Houston Charge

Greet the joyous Easter morning at the Sunrise Services at Blair's Pond. The annual Easter Sunrise Service will be held at Blair's Pond at 7:00 a.m. This service is sponsored by the Houston United Methodist Church for the area. Special music will be provided by vocalists and brass ensemble. It is inspiring to go early in the morning on Easter to worship the risen Lord. We remember that the women went early in the morning to find the empty tomb. This is a good way to begin this celebration of this day.

Easter Services will be held at Houston U.M. Church at 9:30 a.m. and at Asbury U.M. Church at 11:00. Special music will be provided by our choirs. Everyone is welcome to attend these services.

MAUNDY THURSDAY COMMUNION SERVICES Again this year there will be two opportunities to observe Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday, April 16. ## Keeping In Touch

With Tom Evans

In November, Delaware claimed a real victory when the City of Philadelphia ended ocean dumping of harmful sewage sludge off our coast. Because of my legislative effort, the Hughes-Evans Anti-Ocean Dumping Law, all other cities must halt ocean dumping by the end of the year.

I plan to undertake a series of fact-finding meetings with Congressmen Bill Hughes (D-N.J.) and Ed Forsyth (R-N.J.) to determine whether EPA policy changes will result in long-term continuation of ocean dumping of harmful sewage sludge.

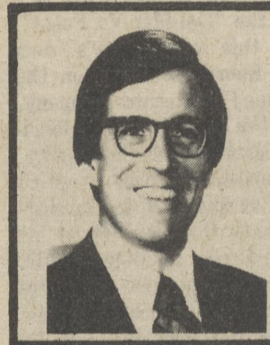

Despite the Congressional mandate to discontinue the dumping of such material in the oceans after December 31, 1981, I am concerned about recent changes in EPA policy which could result in the dumping of sewage sludge at a new site 106 miles off the coasts of Delaware and New Jersey for many years to come.

Although I am not opposed to the disposal of these materials when they can be safely dispersed and assimilated in the ocean, I believe we need clear cut answers that these materials pose no threat to the marine environment before we sanction disposal at any location.

In addition, it is important that we consider the long-term consequences of continuing sludge disposal in the oceans and not just focus on the short-term economic expense of finding suitable land-based alternatives.

Congressmen Hughes and Forsyth and I hope to meet with high level officials in the Environmental Protection Agency and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration to discuss ocean dumping. We will also schedule meetings with representatives of the environmental and scientific communities who have been active in sludge disposal issues to solicit their views.

I have worked long and hard to get the City of Philadelphia to stop dumping the sludge off our beaches, and I am not going to allow a reversal of the progress we have already made.

THOUGHTS FROM DOVER

By Gov. Pierre S. duPont

Because of the continued loss of farmland in Delaware and elsewhere to continued suburban development, I signed an Executive Order last week establishing a State Agricultural Lands Preservation Policy.

Delaware has lost some 200,000 acres of land, or 25 percent of its cropland in the past 25 years to development. That trend is disturbing because agricultural land not only provides open spaces, which is important to our environment, but also is one of the State's most important businesses.

The new policy is an outgrowth of a task force report on farmland preservation which encouraged a variety of State actions to halt the decrease in the use of land for farming. This new policy is the first step towards halting farmland loss.

Under the provisions of the Executive Order, the State Department of Agriculture and the Office of Management, Budget, and Planning will work together to monitor the use of farmland and promote continued use of that land for crops and open spaces.

They will recommend further techniques to maintain agriculture as an important and viable economic activity in Delaware.

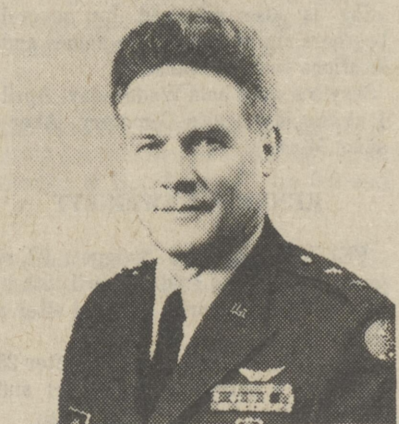

The agencies will also maintain a detailed map of all agricultural land and identify those parcels which are most likely to be lost to development without specific action by the State or local governments. The agencies will make regular reports on farmland losses or gains.

Agriculture is one of the State's largest and most productive industries. It provides employment for over 5,000 people and the value of the products is in excess of $300 million a year, making it one of the largest industries in the State.

Throughout Delaware, the most efficient and scientific techniques are used in the basic field of production and in the related fields of processing, distribution, and marketing. It is a strong Delaware business, which will play a large role in the State's economy in the decades ahead.

Lank is Adjutant General

Major General Lank was commissioned in the Army on 15 June 1952 as a Second Lieutenant after being designated as a Distinguished Military Graduate in the University of Delaware's ROTC Program. He received initial Air Defense Artillery training at Fort Bliss, Texas, and then served in successive assignments to include Battery Commander of Headquarters Battery, 18th AAA Group in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania before being sent overseas to West Germany in Jun 1953. While in Europe, he transitioned to Field Artillery and served successively as a Battery Officer in the 229th FA Battalion, Aide-de-Camp in Headquarters, 28th Infantry Division and Battery Executive Officer, 28th FA Battalion.

MAJOR GENERAL (DE) JOSEPH M. LANK, Adjutant General, Delaware National Guard.

He returned to the United States to the Artillery School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma in July 1955 and served as Aide-de-Camp to the Assistant Commandant, instructor in the Gunnery Department, and student in the Artillery Officers' Advance Course. He was assigned in July 1958 as a Battery Commander in the 2nd Battalion 19th Artillery in the Republic of Korea for 13 months.

He served as an Assistant Professor of Military Science at the University of Delaware from August 1959 to August 1962, attending Command and General Staff College August 1962 to June 1963.

General Lank served in Hawaii and the 25th Infantry Division as Operations Officer, 1st Battalion 9th Artillery and as Assistant Intelligence Officer in the division headquarters from July 1963 to December 1965. He was assigned as Personnel Officer in the Artillery Branch, Office of Personnel Operations, Department of the Army from December 1965 to April 1968.

General Lank commanded the 6th Battalion 77th Artillery in the Republic of Vietnam from April 1968 until February 1969. He completed a combat tour as Long Binh Fire Support Coordinator and Personnel Officer, Headquarters, U.S. Army, Vietnam.

He served as Action Officer and Chief, National Military Command System Operations Branch in the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from May 1969 until December 1973. He then returned to West Germany to serve as Executive Officer, V Corps Artillery, Deputy Community Commander of Darmstadt Military Community, and Deputy Community Commander, Wiesbaden Military Community from January 1974 to July 1978.

General Lank served his final tour of active duty as Assistant Deputy Director for Operations, National Military Command Center, Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from December 1978 until retirement in July 1980. When he retired from the Army as a Colonel, General Lank was appointed the Adjutant General, on 29 January 1981, with the rank of Major General.

Biden Report

By Sen. Joseph Biden Jr.

At the height of this year's debate on the federal budget and economic policy, I made a discouraging observation--despite the infusion of some new rhetoric, the same old people are making the same old arguments they have made in years past.

And, in my judgment, the two sides to the debate are both wrong, today as they were yesterday.

Everybody agrees that the answer to inflation is to reindustrialize America, to increase our productivity, to make our industry more competitive, to hold the line on prices and boost employment. But not everybody agrees on how we should pursue those goals.

The disciples of "supply-side" economics in the Reagan Administration have injected some new buzzwords into the debate, but what they are really talking about is not-so-good, old-fashioned "trickle-down" economics. Cut government spending, they say, cut taxes, and push more money into the pockets of the wealthy--who, according to the supply-side theology, will promptly invest their surplus in the new plants and equipment needed to modernize American industry and make it more productive.

They don't feel the need to be discriminating about how they cut government spending; they're ready to cut away at the fat in the budget, and the muscle, too. They're not worried about the deficit that results from reducing federal revenues at the same time they're pumping more money into defense spending. On faith alone, they're convinced that somehow revenues will increase despite the tax cut.

They cheerfully ignore the evidence of recent years that strongly suggests that much of the surplus money in the pockets of the rich will be spent quickly on consumer goods--and that what they do invest is as likely to be frozen into supposedly inflation-proof investments like gold and gems as it is in the more productive industrial investment the country so badly needs. They don't really believe the federal government should have any role in our economic life; they prefer to put the whole burden on the free-enterprise system, without checking the current status of that system to see if it's really capable of doing all the things that need doing.

There are a lot of obvious problems with that view--but the opposing argument isn't any better.

That, indeed, might well be called the "business-as-usual" argument. If government hasn't been working right, if our programs haven't been clearly focused, if we have been spending too much--so this argument goes--all we have to do is fine-tune this and tinker with that, and ask no sacrifices of anybody. The trouble with that view, of course, is that it was just that kind of thinking that got us into our present mess in the first place.

The fact is that we have been spending too much, and we've been spending a lot of it wrong (which is why I supported even deeper budget cuts than President Reagan proposed). We just can't stand more of that business as usual--but we also can't afford the risk of destroying our economy in order to cure its ills.

Fortunately, I believe, that is a middle ground. We can encourage investment in the free enterprise system and release its productive energies. We can also form a partnership among business, labor and the federal government to support the renewed technological innovation that is the key to a strong economic future. That partnership can also maintain basic services like Conrail--which serves forty percent (40%) of our current manufacturing capacity and will serve more in the future. And, in any event, we must make sure we retain the basic social programs that protect our most vulnerable citizens from being caught in the crunch between a still-rising cost of living and a necessarily contracting range of government services.

That's the partnership I believe the American people voted for last November--and that's the approach I intend to support.

From Dover by Sen. Thurman Adams, Jr.

Last week I co-sponsored legislation (House Joint Resolution 11) to create a State Disability Reform Committee to draft legislation to reform and coordinate the disability benefits for employees of the various arms of the state government.

As I've mentioned before, I have had a long-time interest in pension benefits and I was the sponsor of legislation enacted last year which put the State Police pension system on an actuarially sound basis for the first time.

In talks with officials of the State Employees Pension Board and the State Treasurer's Office, I've become convinced that the lack of coordination in disability pension systems and the possibility of widespread abuses is preventing the state from getting its dollar's worth out of these systems.

The Disability Reform Committee will study the various disability pension systems--which are different for judges, police, teachers, prison guards, and others--and recommend corrective legislation by June 2. That should give us plenty of time to study the recommendations before the General Assembly adjourns June 30.

The Committee will consist of two members of the State Senate, two members of the House of Representatives, and three members appointed by the Governor, two of whom must be the chairman and a member of the Board of Pension Trustees.

In my opinion, the state can save money and the benefits can be improved if reforms are enacted by the legislature.

The Senate last Thursday passed legislation I sponsored (Senate Concurrent Resolution 28) to direct the secretary of the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control to start the process leading to restoring the Broadkill Channel to a safe and enjoyable recreational area.

Because there has been no maintenance in recent years on the Broadkill, the channel in many places is filled with snags, fallen trees, and other obstructions which have turned an important recreational waterway into a safety hazard and has seriously affected recreational boating.

The resolution directs the secretary of Natural Resources to investigate the Broadkill for obstruction removal and prepare the necessary permit applications and plans for restoring the creek's navigation potential.

Burris Introduces New Workers Compensation Reform Act

State Representative John M. Burris (R-Milford) has announced that a new Worker's Compensation Reform Act of 1981 has been introduced and is ready for consideration by the House Revenue & Finance Committee.

The new bill is substantially similar to HB 87, which Burris withdrew to permit additional data on worker's compensation premiums and benefit payments to be collected and presented to the committee.

"I've seen the figures," said Burris, "and what I've seen convinces me that so-called 'insurance company rip-offs' aren't the problem with worker's compensation. The real problem is that premium rate increases seem to be a function of increased benefit levels, increased claims and the costs of a litigation-prone system like the one we have in Delaware."

It's for this reason, Burris said, he's requested that House Revenue & Finance Committee Chairman, Rep. Robert S. Powell (R-Hills of Skyline) schedule a hearing during the General Assembly's Easter recess to provide an opportunity for the data to be presented and the new bill reviewed before the legislature reconvenes.

Although the new bill focuses on the same primary issues as HB 87, there are some changes, Burris said, which were made as the result of input from the Medical Society of Delaware, the insurance industry and the business community.

Perhaps most notable, he said, is the decision to leave 80 percent of spendable weekly earnings as the basic compensation formula, while introducing a return to the two-thirds of the injured workers' average weekly wage compensation formula as an amendment.

"We've decided to treat this matter in an amendment to permit the members of the General Assembly to debate it on its merits and not bog down the entire bill in the discussion," said Burris. "There are good arguments in favor of both positions, and it's up to the legislature to decide."

There also are some changes to correct typographical errors in HB 87, said Burris, as well as technical amendments relating to occupational disease, trial reemployment, physician selection, benefits and rehabilitation.

Jack Anderson
Washington
Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON--For more than eight months, the State Department has been keeping the lid on an outrageous attack made by the Brazilian Navy against an American shrimp boat. The U.S. vessel was rammed repeatedly by a Brazilian warship and sunk. A crewman was killed in the incident.

Yet the State Department accepted the Brazilian government's version of the episode. It was far from the truth. The Brazilians claimed that the American boat was rammed "accidentally." They also insisted that the missing crewman never actually existed.

The trouble is traced back to the Brazilian government's claim that its territorial waters extend 200 miles out to sea. The United States recognizes only three miles of territorial waters.

The Brazilians and the United States used to have an agreement on the disputed territorial claims. It stipulated that American boats could carry out shrimping operations within 200 miles of the Brazilian coast. But this agreement was unilaterally canceled when the Brazilians declared that they owned all the ocean within 200 miles of their coast.

The result was a Brazilian standoff: The United States insists its shrimp fishermen have a right to operate within the 200-mile zone; the Brazilians insist they don't.

Since the agreement lapsed several years ago, American shrimp boats are routinely captured by the Brazilian navy, brought into port and their owners fined. Under the "Fishermen's Protection Act" of 1971, the U.S. government just as routinely bails the fishermen out of jail, pays their fines and covers any other costs of the seizure.

But the incident involving the shrimp boat Caribbean Seas last August was unprecedented. According to our sources, when the Caribbean Seas saw the Brazilian Navy ship bearing down on it, the skipper headed toward shore.

The Brazilians claim their ship issued a warning by megaphone. Two surviving members of the American boat's crew say there was never any such warning. They say the Brazilian corvette circled the shrimp boat and then rammed it in the stern. It circled again, they say, and rammed it again, disabling the shrimp boat's tiller.

The crew of the American boat signaled that it was immobilized. But the Brazilian warship circled once more and rammed the American boat a third time, causing it to capsize almost immediately. One crewman was lost.

When our reporter Robin D'Alessandro asked the State Department about the incident, an official said the Caribbean Seas had been fishing illegally, had been warned, and was then rammed accidentally by the Brazilian ship.

In other words, he mouthed the Brazilians' official line. Only later, when confronted with the evidence offered by the surviving crewmen, did the State Department change its tune.

KREMLIN REPORT: A major subject of discussion in the Kremlin's deliberations on whether to invade Poland has been the superb quality of the Polish Army. According to a top-secret CIA report, the Soviets consider the Poles to be crack fighters and have sought to keep the Polish military under their thumb. The Russians' methods, says the CIA report, "include dismissal of politically unreliable officers, through schooling and indoctrination of key personnel, and the careful integration of Polish and Soviet officers."

--The Defense Intelligence Agency has informed the Joint Chiefs of Staff that the Soviet Union may have developed a "rapid reload" capability. This would mean they could rapid-fire their monster missiles. It would also alter the strategic arms balance heavily in Russia's favor. The DIA used secret satellite photos to demonstrate what they have discovered; they have pictures, for instance, of the rapid reload during Warsaw Pact exercises last September.

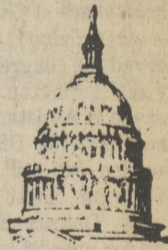

VESCO RETURNING?: Fugitive financier Robert Vesco may soon return to the United States from his hideaway in the Bahamas to testify before a Senate committee. Utah Republican Orrin Hatch, say our sources, will ask the Justice Department to offer Vesco limited immunity in exchange for his testimony. The international swindler would tell Senate investigators about his role in an alleged influence-buying scheme with prominent Democrats and members of the Carter White House.

HEADLINES AND FOOTNOTES: Florists in the nation's capital were doing a "blooming" business delivering flowers to President Reagan's hospital room, following his narrow brush with death from an assassin's bullet. First lady Nancy Reagan also got some flowers--more, in fact, than the police officer and Secret Service agent who were wounded in the same incident...Congressional leaders are considering the establishment of credit limits for purchasers of Japanese cars in an effort to limit imports. Maximum terms would be a 25-month loan with a 15 percent down payment...Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., is planning to introduce a taxpayers' "bill of rights" this week. Among other things, the legislation would grant taxpayers a hearing before IRS agents seize their property for failure to pay taxes.

Thoughts From Washington

By U.S. Senator Bill Roth

It's getting harder and harder to find a good investment these days--one that gives a good return on a small investment both now and in the future. The federal government has one--The National Sea Grant Program.

Dollar for dollar, this program is one of the best around. The Sea Grant Program, of which the University of Delaware's College of Marine Studies is included, is the nation's only across-the-board effort to develop commercial, non-military uses of ocean resources. The ocean is virtually an untapped goldmine of food and mineral resources and we need to develop ways to make use of these resources. The program has 12 strong years of solid accomplishments to its credit. We must keep it strong and healthy.

Unfortunately, the Administration's budget proposal for fiscal year 1982 calls for the complete termination of the National Sea Grant Program. This is one program that should not be completely eliminated, even though it must share its part of the spending cuts like all other federal programs. In a letter to the Chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, which reviews the administration's cuts, I asked that the decision to cut funding completely be reconsidered because of the economic values of the Sea Grant Program. I was relieved to find that the Commerce Committee agreed with me.

The Commerce Committee has recommended that the National Sea Grant Program receive $30 million in 1982 rather than the $39 million it got in 1981. The Committee's recommendation doesn't mean the program won't be eliminated--Congress will have to determine that as a whole. However, it does indicate that there is strong support for continuing the program.

Keeping some of the funding for the Sea Grant Program doesn't mean we can't economize in the ocean sector of the budget. We need only to spread the cuts more evenly. I recommended a reduction in the funding of in-house laboratories of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). These laboratories now get federal support of approximately $100 million annually and seem to be several times less productive for each dollar invested than research programs at the university level. A study by the National Academy of Science and another yet unpublished study by nationally respected researchers seem to agree on that point.

By reallocating funds in NOAA, we will get the greatest returns for each federal dollar invested in oceanic research. In addition, it will reduce the number of federal employees, a major source of the bloated budget of the federal government.

The list of Delaware's Sea Grant Program's extensive success stories include increased oyster and clam productivity, new methods of recirculating seawater, and more efficient control of beach erosion. Many industries from all over the country have called on the Delaware Sea Grant Program for consultation on methods to improve their operations. The Delaware Sea Grant Program is even studying ways to convert waste byproduct from shellfish into feed for the broiler industry. If utilized, this method could save 50 cents to $1.00 on each ton of chicken feed bought, as well as eliminate pollution from shellfish waste.

Along with the letter to the Senate Commerce Committee and key members of the Senate, I've contacted Secretary of Commerce Malcolm Baldrige outlining my recommended alternatives to eliminating the National Sea Grant Program. I'm very hopeful that he will join me in supporting this vital program.

March 15, the sextet spent a week each in Wilmington, Dover, Elton, Salisbury and Easton-Denton before moving to Sussex County for the final leg of their tour.

They are spending six weeks on the peninsula as part of the Rotary International's Group Study Exchange. Under this program RI pays for their round trip air fares from Chile and houses them in the homes of club members in District 763 while they are here. This provides them with an insight into lifestyles that travelers seldom see, according to Richard L. Dick Moore, retired newspaper editor of Salisbury and current governor of Rotary District 763.

District 763 is composed of 29 clubs on Delmarva in Delaware and Maryland. The group's six-week stay was broken into visits in seven different areas on the peninsula with varying amounts of time spent at each stop.

After being picked up in Denton on Monday, the group will be given a tour of Burris Foods and Freezer Distribution Center. This will be followed by lunch and a tour of Walker Messicks Antique Farm Implement Museum. Ladies' Night of the Georgetown and Lewes clubs is set for that evening.

Delaware Tech & Community College, the Agriculture Experiment Station and Nutter Marvel Carriage House in Georgetown will be visited Tuesday. After lunch with the Georgetown Rotary Club, the afternoon will be free.

enhanced by an active outreach evangelism, bus ministry, and Wesleyan Education Leadership Development (WELD) courses."

In response to his life's calling, Rev. Miller attended United Wesleyan College and graduated in 1948. That same year he began his pastoral ministry, spending one year at Quinby, DE, then three years at Gumboro, DE. In 1950 he was ordained, and since 1952 he has served the congregation and community of Harrington. In addition, he has served as Assistant Superintendent for the Delmarva District for 10 years—a position he still holds; as District Wesleyan Youth President for five years; District Secretary for seven; and for over 26 years as a member of the District Board of Administrators.

His record as a vital, active member of the Harrington community includes ten years of successful radio ministry, honorary membership in the fire department, five years as Chairman of the Harrington Emergency Fund, and extensive labors for the Kent Mental Health Unit and other county activities.

The award was an engraved pewter quoddy head lamp—the Millers are antique collectors. In accepting the award Rev. Miller told President Chamberlain: "Thank you for keeping the challenge and importance of the ministry before the students of Houghton College," and accepted the award on behalf of his church and district. Scores of pastors from western New York and neighboring states attended the conference which featured seminars on television and mass media ministries and social problems affecting the church as well as five addresses by Camelback Bible Church (AZ) pastor Dr. Malcolm Cronk on the theme "The Minister and his Relationships."

As a kick-off activity, the group plans to sponsor an essay contest on the general theme, "Why People Should Recycle Cans and Papers" in grades kindergarten through sixth at Lake Forest North. One winner will be named in each grade to receive a cash prize and to have his or her essay published in The Harrington Journal. More information about the contest will be given in the classrooms.

Mrs. Breton said parents in the area who are interested in knowing more about "JUSTA" are welcome to call her at 284-3403.

A farewell party for Lake Forest South Teacher Charlene Nunnery was given last Thursday. Mrs. Nunnery, a teacher in the special education department, is leaving the area to join her husband who has received a job transfer. Last Thursday's surprise party took place in the elementary library. After receiving a farewell gift from the staff and teachers from Lake Forest South, Mrs. Nunnery served the cake and punch.

Old House Furniture

has followed for at least thirteen years of his life. But mindful of his father's wishes, he enlisted in 1952 in time to get involved in the Korean conflict. In Korea he served on "Old Baldy" for about a year and a half.

Later he went to Japan as a member of the cavalry at Camp Fuji on Osaka. However, the cavalry had long since turned to skiing, and skiing was definitely not for him. He learned enough to keep on his feet if necessary, but was soon transferred to another unit.

During his service years he spent time in the paratroopers and was assigned for a period to learn about chemical and germ warfare. He also "drove just about everything the army had", including tanks and weasels.

As a drill sergeant, he found that teaching young men what they needed to know for survival gave him the most satisfaction. He found many a young soldier, shipped over to Korea after a brief period of training, who just didn't have the necessary know-how to stay alive.

Out of the service briefly in 1955, he was recabbed and assigned, as a platoon sergeant, to train a group of Puerto Rican recruits.

This last stint for the army was in California where he made the contact that was to prove valuable in finding a job once he was back in civilian life. That contact, a young man for whom he had been able to do some favors, landed him at the United Artists Warner Brothers studios in New York where he was stage manager for many years.

Later it was off the stage and back onto the road as he took up driving eighteen wheelers again for about six years before making the move to Harrington. Although he drives on occasion and still maintains CB contact with other drivers, his major concentration is on his business here in Harrington. As a sideline, he collects 16 mm movies, particularly old newsreels. His wife's special interest is Japan glass.

Old House Furniture is expected to reopen for the season sometime this month. It normally remains open from April until November. And even when the store's doors are closed, Hilliard stays busy, getting calls and inquiries many hours of the day and night.

When he opened the business, he started out by following the auctions. Now he negotiates for whole house-loads of furniture and other items. Several real estate agents help him out with this, pointing him in the direction of people who may be interested in someone to take on the entire contents of a house. The heir to an older home, for example, might find it more convenient or more profitable to sell the contents as a lot rather than piece by piece or at an auction.

One recent acquisition was a houseful of furniture and other items from near Germantown, Pennsylvania. At the time Mr. Hilliard talked to the Journal, the picture of that home was still on the wall at Old House Furniture, and a collector from near Hagerstown, Maryland, was examining a pile of books. But most of the other things had been sold. Business, says Hilliard, often goes that way. The shop will be so crowded one day that it's difficult to find room to walk. The next, it may seem almost empty. Word travels quickly when a new lot arrives.

One item that was in the shop, and may be still, would be of special interest to Harringtonians. That is a recording of the "Del-Mar-Va Polka", written by this community's own Samuel A. Short. Recorded on the label of the Blue Hen Record Company, the "Del-Mar-Va Polka" was performed by Jerry Castle and his Castle-Airs.

Hilliard is pleased with the reception his business has had here in Harrington, but he says the majority of his customers come from the Maryland-D. C. area. They are dealers, collectors and just private people with an interest in a particular item who may drop by "Old House Furniture" or give Wilbur Hilliard a call.

2nd Annual Keith Burgess Invitational

Spartan Girls Are 3rd in Meet

By Keith S. Burgess

Winding up to launch the discus is one of the participants in the Second Annual Keith Burgess Invitational, honoring Harrington's prime patron of track and field. The invitational was held at Lake Forest on Saturday.

Lake Forest's girls were a strong third in the second annual Keith S. Burgess Invitational Track meet, held at Lake Forest, Saturday. Dover far outclassed the field, with 122 points, but it appears Lake Forest, 80 points, could have moved ahead of Caesar Rodney's 91 points, if a couple of ailing athletes had been available. Other scores were: Laurel 59, Newark 53, Woodbridge 50, Seaford 39, Mt. Pleasant 30.

Carol Payne was top local scorer. She was 3rd in the 100 meter low hurdles in 16.2, first in the 200 hurdles, setting a school record with a sub-32 second performance, then anchored the runnerup 1600 meter relay team, to its best 1981 clocking.

Carolyn Winder, Annette Baynard and Donna Pardee ran with Payne on the relay quartet. Pardee was 5th in the 400, in 62.8.

The Spartans placed in three other relays. Michelle Mango, Susie Johnson Marie Litano and Pandora Scott were 5th in the 400, in 55 seconds. Mango, Scott, Sherry Durant and Nancy Badman were second in the 800 in a good 1.53.3. Annette Baynard, Sheila White, Valerie Moore and Susan Hooven were runnerup in the 3200 in 11.35.6.

Gina Turner was second in the 3000 meters, in 11.33 and 4th in the 1500, in 5.35.8.

Karen Gibbs had a good day with her best efforts of the campaign, in two events. Karen, a Jayne Kennedy look-alike was 5th in the high jump in 4-6 and second in the long jump, at 15-9½, just one inch from first.

Tracy Kramer, a hard-charging, determined freshman hurdler, surprised by getting fourth in 34.5 in the 200 meter low hurdles. This is an excellent outing for one so young and inexperienced, in what is a challenging event, requiring the mastering of a fairly intricate technique.

Carinthia Clarke and Muriel Green were fifth in the triple jump (32 feet, 4 inches) and 100 hurdles, respectively.

Shot putter Michelle Penn hurled the iron ball 27 feet, 10 inches, for sixth. Elaine Grant is rounding into the form she showed, in 1980. Elaine spun the discus 84 feet, to also get a sixth.

Lake Forest showed excellent depth and versatility, scoring in 15 of 16 events. This is a young team but is already a good one. They are capable of beating any Henlopen team, except Dover's powerful veteran combine.

Woodbridge Wins 13-Team Meet

Woodbridge's veteran-loaded track team was an easy-winner, in the 2nd annual Keith S. Burgess Track and Field Invitational, held at Lake Forest, on Saturday. Team scores were: Woodbridge 142, Seaford 71, Dover 58, Sussex Central 56, Caesar Rodney 55, Christiana 54, Newark 47, Cape Henlopen 37, Lake Forest 21, Mt. Pleasant 18, Milford 8, Laurel 1, Indian River 0. Lake Forest Southern Division Champion in 1970 is missing more than 20 athletes, from last year and is definitely in the middle of a rebuilding season.

Gerald "Peanut" Perry won trial heats in both the 100 and 200 meters and proved he is the equal of any sprinter, in the conference. Jay Armwood of Woodbridge and Curtis Trott of Dover, final winners in the sprints, both trailed the Spartan speedster at other times Saturday.

Perry's best effort was a second in the 100 final, in 11.1. Earlier he had won a 200 heat, in a swift 200 trial. Perry led off for the Spartan 400 meter relay quartet which led at one time, before finishing a close 4th. Jeff and Jeffrey DeShields and Dale Benson ran with Perry. Their 45 second clocking is very good for early April.

Sophomore high jumper, James Browne, cleared 5-10, for a good 4th place finish. Another talented and improving sophomore, Tony Scott was fifth in the intermediate hurdles and sixth in the triple jump, with his best effort yet, a good 42 feet 2 inches.

Good, non-scoring efforts were turned in by: Al Leitzel, who cleared 11 feet for the first time; Manny Hernandez' 2.10.9 800 meter clocking; freshman Jerome Scott's 19-4 long jump; Kevin Smith's 40-8 triple jump and 19-3 long jump; and freshman giant Rob Prutzman's best shot put, yet of 41 feet, 2 inches.

This young improving track team will get better and may be only a year away, from being tough, indeed.

The Harrington Jaycees finished first in the State Jaycee Bowling Tournament held at Bowlerama in New Castle on March 21st. Standing left to right are the team's members with their respective scores: Bob Everline (504), Todd Gruwell (544), J. Durand Dennis (654), Don Hopkins (523) and missing was Billy Leonard (507).

Scott Gives LF the Edge

Scoring Doug Collins from third base, Billy Scott liberated a hard line drive single to left field giving Collins the winning run placing Lake Forest in a 3-2 victory over Woodbridge.

Two of the four hits allowed by Woodbridge pitcher, Harry Willey, were given to Scott. Willey pitched no-hit baseball through five innings. Hitting a single in the sixth inning Scott succeeded in his attempt to ruin Willey's no-hit game.

Striking out 10, the Raider southpaw Willey showed excellent control and threw such fiery fastballs that none of the Spartans could touch him.

Meanwhile, the Raiders' R. J. Thomas came out swinging as he hit a double starting off the game. Following closely behind came Willey hitting a single.

In the sixth inning Scott followed Collins' lead off walk with a single to left field; then Sapp bunted Collins to third, who later scored on a suicide bunt by Doug Jarrell.

Women Earn Respect in Rosecroft

OXON HILL, MD.-Cast off the aprons; shelve the dishwashing liquid; burn the ironing board. Women have carved a rock-firm islet in the male-saturated ocean of harness racing at Rosecroft Raceway, in Oxon Hill, Maryland.

In numbers alone, women trainers and drivers are few at Rosecroft. Only ten of Rosecroft's roughly 160 trainers and drivers are of the "fairer sex." But tireless work and steady performance have earned women growing respect. Mary Ann Callahan, for instance, pioneered herself into Rosecroft's record books by training Funnyman's Lashout, which last year set the track pacing record of 1:58-the fastest time in 33 years of racing at Rosecroft.

While trainers and drivers hold the high-profile jobs, women's real impact is felt in the vast world behind the scenes. Many women labor faithfully as grooms, or as silent partners in successful husband-wife teams.

"When you look at all the statistics here, you don't really get a feel for the number of women at Rosecroft," said Billy Perkins, Rosecroft's Racing Secretary. "I'd say roughly half the people in the business are women."

So, women are alive and flourishing at Rosecroft. Callahan, 39, is one of Rosecroft's premier trainers. The Monoton, Maryland, resident has been training for ten years. She desperately feared horses as a child, but overcame her phobia. Typical of many women at Rosecroft, she sees herself as less a woman trainer and more a trainer. Period.

"Once I got into it (training), I loved it very much and decided it was what I wanted to do," she said. "We had very good people working for us. I don't think I was ever conscious of being a woman in horse racing.... "I'm not a woman's liberationist. I just feel that if there's something you want to do, then go ahead and do it."

Which is what Lynn Truit, 22, has done as a driver. She is one of Rosecroft's leading women drivers, with two wins, a second and four thirds in her 23 starts as of April 8.

"I've never had any problems," she said simply. "Everybody's just treated me as an equal, and that's it."

Callahan prefers it that way, too. She wants her record as a trainer to speak for itself, "rather than everyone patting you on the head and saying 'you're a nice little girl and we'll do everything for you that we can...'" she said. "The big thing is, at Rosecroft it seems like everybody's close. Everyone knows each other and is always laughing and joking in the paddock. Let me put it this way: if there's any problem with me being a woman, I haven't seen it yet."

But many Rosecroft women do admit they're often shortchanged in tests of pure strength.

"The only difference between a male and a woman driver is that the woman driver is physically not as strong as a man. There's just no way," said driver

Linda McNatt, 22. "Her only handicap is that she can't handle the really bad pullers." But even here, feisty Darlene Heber, 26, bucks that notion. "I can control them as well as any man," claimed the pint-sized but spirited five-foot 113-pounder from Mt. Airy, Maryland. "They say, 'My Gawd, how does that little girl hold them horses?'"

Indeed, Heber's 25 Rosecroft starts leads women drivers as of April 8. She has socked away four wins, three seconds and four thirds along the way.

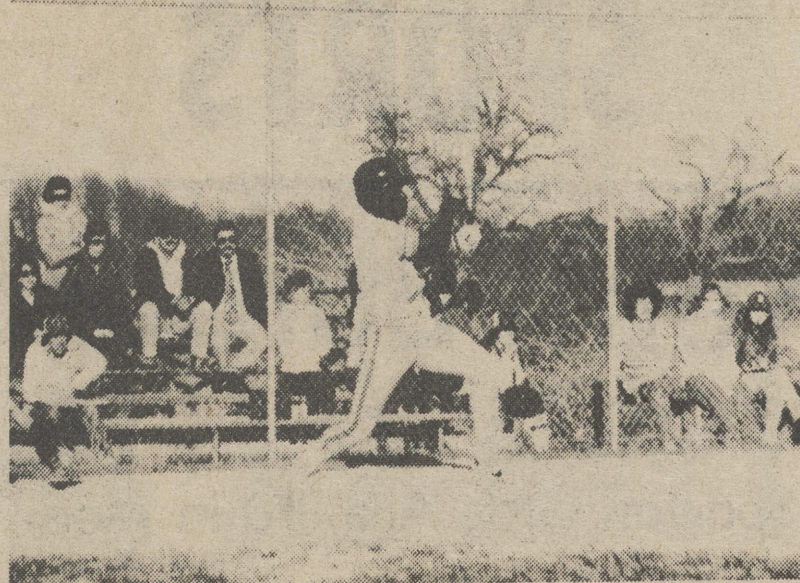

Maybe the endless hours and numbing work of the horse world had erased sexual distinctions before Women's Liberation ever became vogue. A dedicated spirit and willing back were too valuable to ignore. Even so, a little ribbing from the men never hurt.

"I think they tease us a lot," said Callahan. "But that's natural and I think we enjoy it."

The 1981 season will continue nightly, except Sundays, through June 6, rain or clear. Post time is 8:00 p.m.

Admission to the Clubhouse is $4.00. Grandstand admission is $2.00. Parking is $1.00. Valet parking is available.

SPECIAL NOTE: Rosecroft Raceway will observe its first of two "dark" days, during its current 85-night Spring Meet, this Friday (April 17), in observance of Good Friday. The second "dark" date will be Wednesday, May 27.

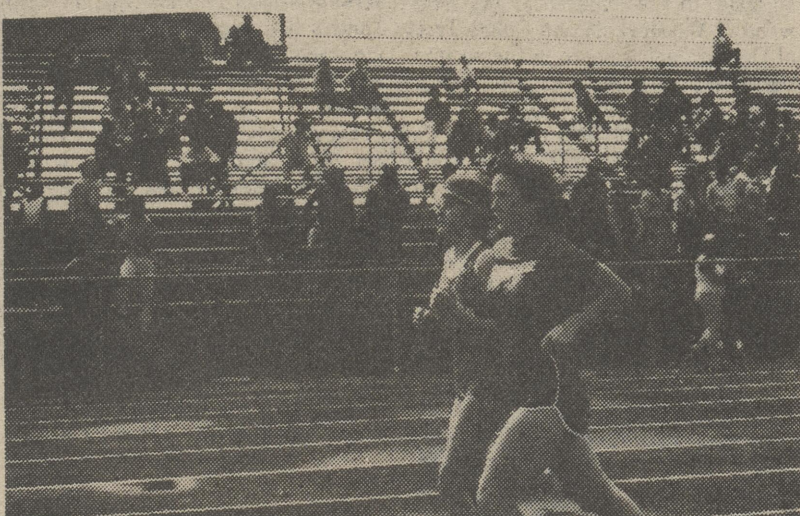

Billy Scott sends a hard grounder up through the middle against Woodbridge driving in Doug Collins with the winning run last Thursday.

Doug Collins of Lake Forest High School delivers a fast ball last Thursday against Woodbridge. Collins survived to be the winner in a 3-2 game.

Kathy Johnson of Lake Forest beats out an infield hit in last Thursday's softball game against Woodbridge. The Spartans won the game 1-0.

For a brief time it's a close race as runners from Lake Forest and Woodbridge vie for an edge in Saturday's Keith Burgess Invitational.

Calhoun, Lyons Lead LF Victory

Hitting a run-scoring single, Sherry Calhoun teamed up with Tina Lyons who pitched a six-hitter to lead Lake Forest in a 1-0 victory over Woodbridge in the Henlopen Softball Conference Wednesday.

Cathy Johnson singled, stole second, and scored on Calhoun's single in the fifth inning breaking the tie for Lake Forest.

Going the distance, Lyons struck out two and walked three to gain the Lake Forest victory.

Lady Spartans Outrun Seaford

By Keith S. Burgess

Gina Turner and Donna Pardee were double winners as Lake Forest's Spartan girls topped over an outclassed Seaford team, 95-37.

Turner was the winner, in the 1500 meter run, (5.47) with Sheila White runnerup, then led Darlene Wyatt and White in the 3000.

Pardee and Annette Baynard were 1-2, in the 400 and 1-3, in the 800.

Cariha Clarke and Nancy Badman were first and second, in the long jump and 2-3 in the triple jump.

Muriel Green and Carol Payne won the 100 meter hurdles and 200 meter hurdles, respectively with freshman timber-topper, Tracey Kramer, continuing to show promise with a third and a second.

Another fleet frosh, Sherry Durant, had seconds in both sprints then led off the winning 800 meter relay team of Durant, Susie Johnson, Pandora, Scott and Nancy Badman. Only Scott is as high as the tenth grade in this group.

Cindy Kemp, Elaine Grant and Linda Mangel, swept the discus. Laurie Ware and Michelle Penn were first and second in the shot put.

Laura Lee Richter, Carolyn Winder, Baynard and Payne were the winners, in the 1600 meter relay.

Karen Gibbs and Tammy Hinson were second and third, as the Spartan girls are unbeaten, at this writing.

Spartan Thinclads Beat Milford

By Keith S. Burgess

Gerald "Peanut" Perry led Jim Blades' Lake Forest High Track Team to a 98 1/2-42 1/2 rout of the Milford High Buccaneers.

Perry blazed 100 meters, on the Spartan Track, in 11.1 seconds, 200 meters in 23.4 seconds to win those events, then led off the winning 400 meter relay quartet (46.4). Jeff and Jeffrey DeShields and James Browne, completed the relay unit.

Senior distance man, Jay Howerin, won the 800 meters (2.14) and 1500 meters (4.35) on a windy day, which made fast clockings difficult.

Freshman future great, Jerome Scott was fourth in the high hurdles in 16.3 and the 300 meter intermediate hurdles in 44.3.

Tom Silkworth, Larry Guessford and Maurice Coverdale swept the 3000 meter run. John McCartney, Page Pulley and future weight star Rob Prutzman captured all the discus spots. Pulley and Prutzman, a giant freshman were 1-2 in the shot put.

Ralph Young, Jeffrey and Jeff DeShields and James Browne annexed the 800 meter relay in 1.38.8.

Fred Goodman leaped 5 feet, 8 inches to win the high jump with Browne third. Al Leitzel cleared 10-6, in the pole vault, with Jim Schuman third.

Sophomore Tony Scott, a rapidly improving triple jumper soared 41 feet, 6 1/2 inches, for first. Tony also was second to Jerome Scott, in the high hurdles, with Don Drew completing the sweep, then had the show position, in the intermediates.

Kevin Greene and Manny Hernandez went 2-3, in the 800, while Mike Howerin and Sheldon Powell did the same in the 400.

Downs Adds 16th

DOVER, DE.-Dover Downs has added Thursday night, April 16 to its Easter weekend schedule of harness racing. Twelve races will be conducted with an 8 p.m. post time.

The Easter weekend schedule will now consist of racing on Thursday, April 16 and Saturday evening, April 18 and no racing on Good Friday, April 17 nor Easter Sunday, April 19.

The balance of the April schedule remains unchanged for the April 24-26 weekend. The 1980-81 harness meet at Dover Downs will end on Sunday afternoon, April 26.

The facility is continuing its preparations for the running of the 13th annual Mason-Dixon "500" NASCAR Winston Cup Grand National auto racing event on Sunday, May 17.

Morris Brothers Begin Running Season

Brad and Nick Morris competed in a field of over 80 runners at the 2nd Annual Peach Blossom 10 miler held in Easton, Md., this past weekend.

Brad finished 6th over-all with a time of 65 min. 58 seconds and was awarded a trophy for capturing 2nd place in the 20-29 age group.

Nick Morris, suffering with a leg ailment, finished respectfully well with a time of 83 min. 24 seconds.

Northeast Farm Market Prices Varied

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Northeast farm market prices varied during the week ending April 10, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Eggs and poultry prices were unchanged. Fruit and vegetable prices were unchanged, while livestock and meat prices remained generally mixed. Milk production was steady to slowly increasing.

FLUID DAIRY PRODUCTS

The M and W price series was up one cent. The eastern milk market administrators announced that some increase for their May class 1 prices in orders 1, 2, and 4 and March class II prices dropped six cents due to monthly adjustments built into the orders. Order 36 class II increased one cent.

Milk production was steady to slowly increasing. Fluid milk supplies remained heavy to excessive in co-op plants, and well balanced in proprietary facilities.

Bottled milk sales were steady in most areas. However, strike by the retail grocery worker's union has closed a number of chain stores in and around New York city and Northern New Jersey. This may have a pronounced effect on retail movement of all dairy products.

Spot sales of Class 1 milk ranged slow to fairly good, generally fair. Cottage cheese production and sales were seasonally high. Sales of condensed skim ranged slow to good, generally steady. Yogurt orders were good to very good.

The fluid cream market was not as weak as slightly more interest was reported. Offerings of excess cream were lighter in most instances and many seasonal churns were not as active.

Ice cream production was slowly increasing in most plants, but retail features still were causing production to be spotty.

Novelties were moving much better now that the warmer weather has arrived. Sour cream and cream cheese production was increasing to meet pasover and Easter needs. Bottled cream operations were seasonally active.

EGGS

New York egg prices were unchanged and the market tone closed steady. Carton movement was improved for the Easter-Pasover holidays. Offerings and supplies were adequate.

Thursday's prices to retailers and sales to volume buyers of consumer grade A white eggs in cartons, delivered store door to New York City were: 76 to 78 cents on large and 67 to 69 cents on medium.

POULTRY

New York broiler-fryer buying interest was light and cautious as movement switched to traditional poultry items for the Easter-Pasover holiday. Seller offerings were fully adequate with early trading for next week at levels unchanged from last week. Retail and distributive movement was no better than fair.

Current broiler-fryer negotiated prices for immediate delivery, including multiple-drop shipments to New York City were: 45 to 48 1/2 cents on U.S. grade A and 46 cents on plant grade; undertone barely steady.

Delmarva broiler-fryer slaughter continued heavy as plants attempted to keep weights within desired weights. Demand was limited for the upcoming holiday period and was further depressed by a clerks strike in several New Jersey chains. Undertone steady to unsettled.

Current less than trucklot asking prices were: 46 to 47 cents on plant grade and 47 to 48 1/2 cents on U.S. grade A.

New York chicken parts prices were higher with legs in the firmest position. Demand for parts was fair to good, but buying interest has tapered as the holiday period drew near. Supplies and offerings ranged from adequate to fully adequate.

Prices paid per pound by first receivers of ice packed, delivered in pool trucklots and trucklot quantities were as follows: 85 to 96 cents on breast, mostly 87 to 88 cents; 42 to 55 cents on legs, mostly 45 to 46 cents.

Turkey trading activity was fair on fresh packed hens, light on frozen; offerings range fully adequate to ample. Moderate retail feature activity is anticipated during the religious holiday period. Trading on bagged toms was full.

Trading activity on carlot and trucklot young turkeys, U. S. grade A, frozen F.O.B. New York were as follows: 62 cents on 8 to 16 pound hens.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Notheastern trading for fruit and vegetables was fairly active. Prices were generally unchanged.

Hudson Valley, N. Y. apples demand was fairly good and the market about steady. Cartons of 12-3 pound bags of U. S. fancy or better, 2 1/4 inch minimum and up, McIntosh in controlled-atmosphere (CA) storage, brought $5.50 to $6. Carton cell-pack McIntosh in controlled-atmosphere (CA) storage, brought $5.50 to $6. Carton cell-pack McIntosh combined with U.S. extra fancy or fancy or better (CA) in 100's went at $8.50 to $9.50; 120's sold at $8.25 to $8.50; 140's $8. Cortland, U.S. fancy in 100 to 113's went at $8 to $8.25. Red Delicious, cartoned, tray-pack, U.S. fancy or better in 80 to 113's moved $9 to $9.25, occasionally higher; 125's cleared $7.75 to $8 and Romes in 80 to 100's $8.25 to $9.

Lake Champlain-Mohawk Valley, N. Y. apples demand was fairly good and the market about steady. Cartons of 12-3 pound bags of U.S. fancy or better, 2 1/4 inch minimum and up, McIntosh (CA) sold at $6.50 to $7, occasionally higher and lower. Carton cell-pack McIntosh combined with U.S. extra fancy or fancy or better, in 80 to 100's moved at $9.50 to $9.75 and occasionally higher; 120's brought at $9 to $9.25; 140's $8 to $8.75. A few Cortland, U.S. fancy in 100 to 120's sold at $8 to $8.25.

Western and central, N.Y. apples demand was fairly good and the market about steady. Cartons of 12-3 pound film bags of U.S. fancy, 2 1/4 inch minimum, (CA) storage, unless otherwise stated, McIntosh sold at $6.75 to $7.25, occasionally lower. Red Delicious brought $7 to $7.50, occasionally higher; Ida Red $7.50, and Romes sold at $7. A few Empire went at $7.50. Regular storage Ida Red and Rome went at $6 to $6.50 and occasionally lower, Red Delicious $6.25 to $6.50. Carton cell-pack McIntosh, combined with U.S. extra fancy or fancy in 100 to 120's went at $10 to $10.50. Cartons tray-pack, combined U.S. extra fancy or fancy, Red Delicious, Ida Red in 88 to 113's brought $9.50 to $10, a few lower; Romes $9. Regular storage, combined with U.S. extra fancy or fancy, Red Delicious, in 88 to 112's sold at $9; 125's at $8.50 to $8.75; Ida Red in 88 to 113's sold at $7.50 to $8 and Romes went at $9.

The cabbage demand was moderate and the market about steady. Danish type in 50 pound bags, 14 to 16's sold at $3.50 to $4; 8 to 10's went at $4.25 to $4.75 and a few higher and lower. Red in 50 pound bags, 10 to 12's brought $4.50 to $5.

Onion demand was moderate and market about steady. U.S. one yellow globe in 50 pound new sacks with 70 percent 2 inches and larger sold at $8.75 to $9 and occasionally higher. Master container (3 pound bags) went at 65 to 70 cents; 2 pound bags brought 50 to 55 cents.

Potato demand was moderate and the market steady. U.S. One size A round whites, washed paper loose 10-pound sacks sold at $1.50, a few at $1.45. Fifty pound sacks cleared at $7 to $7.30.

LIVESTOCK & MEAT PRODUCTS

Northeastern livestock and meat prices were generally mixed this past week. Weekly trends on trading at 16 New York auctions and at Lancaster, Vintage and New Holland, PA auctions were as follows: slaughter steers were 25 to 50 cents higher; utility and commercial cows were mostly steady; choice veal calves $2 lower; Good and choice vealers steady to $5 higher; slaughter barrows and gilts at Pennsylvania sold from $1.15 lower. At Omaha, slaughter steers trended 25 to 50 cents lower and barrows and gilts $1 higher.

Choice 2 to 4 slaughter steers, 975 to 1400 pounds, at Northeastern auctions, ranged from $60.25 to $63.25 per hundredweight. At Omaha, steers brought $61 to $62.75. Utility and commercial 1 to 3 cows in the Northeast sold from $41.50 to $47 with a few sales to $49.50. Choice 150 to 320 pound veal calves brought at $80 to $110. Good and choice 90 to 110 pound vealers sold from $55 to $65. U.S. number 1 and 2 barrows and gilts, 200 to 240 pounds, ranged from $41.10 to $41.85 in Pennsylvania auctions and from $40.50 to $41.25 at Omaha.

Robin Lookerman was the top winner in the Sussex County Reddy Foods Contest, Beginner Breads Division. She is a member of the Dublin Hill 4-H Club in Bridgeville.

Sussex County

Over 60 Sussex County 4-H'ers tested their culinary skills at the recent 4-H Reddy Foods Contest. Colorful table displays decorated the Sussex Central High School cafeteria and delicious aromas filled the air as judges determined the winners.

Members prepared their dishes at home and displayed them along with the correct table setting at the contest site. Each participant was awarded a blue, red, or white ribbon for their efforts. One top winner in each category received a pewter bread tray. Beginner winners were: Mike Sherman, Sandy Fields; Rhonald Jernigan; Robin Lookerman, Dublin Hill; Kathy O'Day, State Line; Kathy Baker, Blue Hen Workers. Junior winners were: Tanja Smith, Dublin Hill; Cathy Baker, Greenwood Hi-Flyers; Amy Messick, Bridgeville Wildcats; Karina Thek, Lucky Clover; Jane Houtman, Bridgeville Wildcats. Senior winners were: Debbie Wilson, Broadkill Kool Kats; Chris Majchrzak, Sandy Fields; Tami Gundry, State Line.

The judges had a difficult time reaching a decision as all entries were extremely good. All participants are to be congratulated for their efforts.

-Harrington Sunshine 4-H-

The Delaware 4-H Foundation has awarded six Community Service Grants to Delaware 4-H clubs. These are the first such grants ever awarded by the 4-H Foundation.

The Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club has received a grant to buy plant materials, which they will use to beautify the grounds of the Harrington Library. The young club members will plant flowers, shrubs and a cherry tree, and will tend them throughout the growing season.

Members of the West End 4-H Club in Wilmington will use their grant to buy painting supplies. They are going to design and paint a mural on an outside wall of their headquarters, the West End Neighborhood Center. Besides giving the youngsters an opportunity to show off their creativity and to beautify the neighborhood, the mural will also point up the services offered at the center. It will depict such scenes as the well-baby clinic, 4-H, senior citizen activities, and some of the other programs the center provides.

A group of blind children will learn how to square dance and have a chance to pet some friendly animals, thanks to the Hill 'n' Dale Club of Hockessin. These 4-H'ers are going to use their grant to hire a square dance caller for the blind youngsters of Sunnybrook Day Camp, and to hire a bus to lead them on an expedition to the Delaware State Fair.

The ABC 4-H Club in Wilmington will use a 4-H Foundation grant to beautify two main thoroughfares of the Southridge section of the city. Club members will be involved in all phases of the planning of this horticultural project, and they'll contact all the necessary city agencies. As a result, South Heald Street and New Castle Avenue will get some needed color, and the young people will learn as much about zoning as about azaleas.

4-H Club will purchase cleaning and yard-care supplies with their community service grant. They'll be using them to do yard work and light maintenance for senior citizens, their local library, community center and fire station.

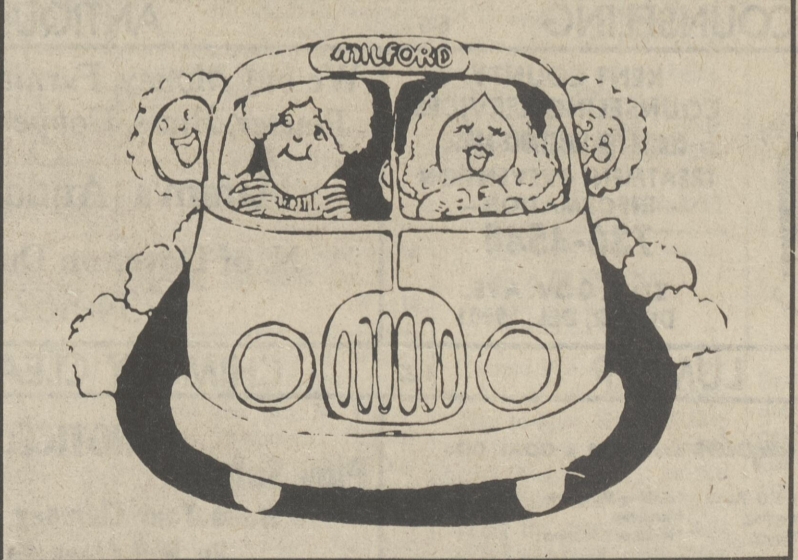

The Y's Owls 4-H Club will use its grant to purchase fencing. These 4-H'ers often hold petting zoos for community groups, and they're also planning a living nativity scene for the Christmas season. The fencing, of course, will keep frisky "members of the cast" from running away.

Dear friends, What is patriotism? The farmer who minimizes the use of pesticides - the manufacturer who refrains from putting a dangerous product on the market - the workman who carefully produces a safe product - the merchant who sells only socially constructive products - the professional person who will perform no anti-social function - these are our true patriots.
