Two Seek Lake Forest School Board Seat in Tues. Election

the motivation claimed by both candidates for the Lake Forest Board of Education on in next Tuesday's election. The two - William Garey, of Harrington, and Chester Carroll, of Felton will vie for the post to be left vacant by Donald Garey who will June 30.

Election hours are from two until nine p.m. May 12 at three separate polling places: Lake Forest East Elementary in Frederica, Lake Forest North Elementary in Felton, and Lake Forest South Elementary (in the W. T. Chipman Cafeteria) in Harrington.

Over the past week, the Journal spoke with both candidates about their reasons for running for the school board and about their perceptions of the current fiscal crisis faced by the schools as federal and state budget cutting affects education.

-Chester Carroll-

"I'm a concerned parent; I want the schools to offer the best academic training and education available," says Chester Carroll, who insists that the specific issue, prompted him to file for the Board seat.

Carroll told the Journal that if he is elected, he plans to take each issue as it school enrollment has decreased from arises, do the proper research and come up with the proper answer. Once he has made a decision, he says he will stick to his opinion unless there is good reason for a change. He further says he the programs offered.

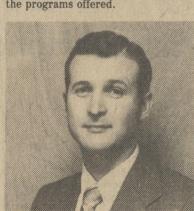

Concern for the quality of education is estate firm of Auen Associates and is the owner of Carroll's Corner Shopping Center in Dover. In addition, he has Carroll Realty Company, commercial leasors dealing mainly in farm and agricultural rentals. Carroll and his wife Marti (formerly of Havertown, Pennsylvania) have two complete his second five-year term on daughters, Kimberly and Jennifer, one enrolled at Holy Cross, and the other student in the Lake Forest School

-William "Bill" Garey-

"I have no ax to grind," says William Garey whose reason for seeking the school board seat is a desire to see the Lake Forest schools provide quality education and the feeling, as a citizen, that he should be involved in the community. An administrator with the Kent County Vocational Schools, Garey feels that he has the most to offer in the field of education.

Although the effect of federal budget cutting could be heavily felt in some areas (the Title I reading program, for example) Garey thinks the continuing problem of decreasing enrollment will have a more devastating impact at the opportunity to serve, rather than any local level. A 25 percent budget cut in Washington probably does not mean 25 percent of the local district's overall budget. But in Delaware, at least, 135,000 to 104,000 in just three years. With state funding based on enrollment figures, this affects the number of teachers that can be hired as well as

will approach the issues with an open

Asked about the effect budget cutting might have on education at the local level, Carroll replied that he supports President Reagan's overall program. However, he said he does not yet feel qualified to say how this will affect Lake Forest. With figures still uncertain, he's not sure anyone, at this point, does have the information necessary to assess the situation. A native of Kent County, Carroll has resided in the Felton area for the past seven years. After graduating from Dover High School he went on to major except Maine) and served a year in in business at Wesley College. Later he completed the Delaware real estate course at Goldey Beacom in Wilmington and attended the Reisch School of Auctioneering in Mason City, Iowa. Since then he has participated in a number of seminars and business planning sessions.

Chester Carroll, who has been with Carroll's Sales Company for the past 17 years, is also associated with the real

William R. Garey

Garey says, "As we face money problems...the frills are-nicebut basic education is the first priority."

Born in the Harrington-Masten's Corner area, Gary is an alumnus of Harrington High School, Class of 1968. He followed high school with a year of work experience with such varied firms as DuPont, General Foods and United Parcel Service before enlisting in the United States Air Force.

During his seven years with the air force, he visited 49 of 50 states (all Korea. He was also in and out of Southeast Asia.

While on active duty he earned an associate degree in electronics at Western Oklahoma State College and a B. S. in occupational educational education from Southern Illinois University. After his discharge, he went on to get a Masters in education from the

Jerry Miller to Participate in Swarthmore Honors Program

Mrs. William H. Miller of Harrington, was recently notified of his selection to participate in the prestigious Honors Program at Swarthmore College, Swarthmore Pennsylvania.

Those who qualify for the honors program are selected partially on the basis of their previous academic record and to a larger degree on their capacity to handle the independent responsibility of honors work. Those who are chosen make up only about 30 percent of upperclassmen at Swarthmore.

The program consists of independent study and small classes or seminars in two (or sometimes three) fields of study. It is designed to give the student the freedom and the responsibility of gaining competence in a field of knowledge. Those selected to participate prepare papers for weekly seminars and take rigorous trial examinations at the end of their junior year. Once selected, they must earn the privilege of remaining in the program. At the close of their senior year they face written and oral examinations given by visiting examiners from other institutions. On the basis of those examinations, the visitors determine whether the honors shall be awarded and whether the rank shall be Honors,

High Honors or Highest Honors. A 1979 graduate of Lake Forest High School, Jerry Miller is attending Swarthmore as a McCabe Scholar. The McCabe Scholarship is awarded to entering students from the Delmarva Peninsula and Montgomery and Chester Counties who show promise of leadership. Currently a sophomore at Swarthmore, Miller plans to enter law school after graduation. Next year, before entering the honors program, he will represent Swarthmore by attending Pomona College (near Los Angeles Jerry Miller, son of the Reverend and California) as a part of an exchange program.

In the honors program he will take six seminars concentrating in the major area of economics and the two minor fields of political science and philoso-

He also has plans to do research on "white-collar crime" as a "Research Fellow" with the Justice Department in Washington, D. C. this summer.

Police /Library to Sponsor Drug Info Program

As a special service to the community, and especially for the benefit of parents and other concerned persons, the Harrington Police Department and the Harrington Public Library will cosponsor a "Drug Information Night" to be held next Wednesday, May 13, upstairs at the Harrington Volunteer Fire Hall. The program, which will begin at 7:30 p.m., is open to the public free of charge. A three-part program is planned to include the film Drugs Ups and Downs, a speaker - Mr. M. A. McDonald and an informative display of various drugs and drug paraphenalia. There will also be a discussion period to give those with particular concerns or questions an opportunity

Council Meets

The Harrington City Council met last Tuesday evening in a reportedly brief but heated session. Watch next week's Harrington Journal for details.

Harrington Alumni Award Five $600 Scholarships

The Harrington Alumni Association highlighted the festivities at the 25th Annual Banquet Saturday evening with the presentation of five scholarships, each in the amount of $600. Other highlights of the Silver Anniversary Banquet included the special recognition of the 25th and 50th anniversary classes (1956 and 1931, respectively). Although no members of the Class of '31 were present, the silver anniversary class crowned the silver anniversary festivities by having 24 members present.

The following scholarships were awarded:

The Zeta Z. Hatfield Memorial Scholarship - Elaine Eleanor Homewood, Lake Forest High School. Elaine is the daughter of Gary (Class of '54) and Eleanor Wagner Homewood (Class of

The Richard Floyd Dennis Memorial Scholarship - John Franklin Callaway. Lake Forest High School. John is the son of Nyle and Lillian Short Callaway (Class of '46); Richard Dennis was a member of the Class of 1956.

A scholarship in honor of Grace Bazemore Howard - Faith McIlvaine, Woodbridge High School. Faith is the daughter of Kenneth and Doris Starkey McIlvaine (Class of '46); Scholarship in honor of the Reverend

William H. Miller - David Lekites, Lake Forest High School. David is the son of Walter and Kathy Lekites (Class of '61), and Scholarship in honor of Herman Cubbage Brown - Doug Poore, Lake Forest High School. Doug is the son of Ralph (Class of '58) and Viva Reed Poore (Class of '61).

A special presentation was made to Mette Lund, Lake Forest AFS student from Copenhagen, Denmark. Mette's American parents for the year are Bill and Peggy Garey of Harrington. From the alumni she received a license tag with her first name and a desk flag set bearing both the U.S. and the Delaware state flags.

In addition to the two honored classes, particular note was made of the Class of 1911 (70th anniversary), the Class of 1921 (60th anniversary), and the class of 1941 (40th anniversary). Of these, the only one to be represented during the evening was the class of 1921 with Pearl Cain

Cooper present. Other awards went to Helen McCloskey Mendoza (Class of '39) for the longest distance traveled (She came from Pleasant Hill, California); the Class of 1968 largest attendance (25 members present); the-class with the largest percentage of members present 1910 (Mary M. Greenley, one of the two living members, represented 50 percent of the class), and the gentleman representing the oldest class present, Elwood B. Gruwell, Class of Recognition also went to the family of Percy and Erma Garey. The Gareys and their nine children are all Harrington Alumni, and all were present."

-Election of Officers-During the evening, the following officers for the 1981-82 school year were elected: President-Grover C. Brown, First Vice President Norma Jean Brown Bradley, Second Vice President-William Garey, Treasurer-Donald Derrickson-; Corresponding Secretary - Jeanne Lander Brown; Recording Secretary-Vivian Webb Dill and Historian-Albert C. Price.

About 480 members and guests were present to enjoy the banquet fare prepared by Dorothy Collins and her staff at the W. T. Chipman cafeteria and to dance to the music of the Astrotones in the field house later in

Felton Houses to Get Numbers

Margaret Kates, a retired Felton Postmaster, told the Felton Council on Monday night that she will head the project of assigning numbers to houses in the town of Felton. It will be a project of the Felton Avon Club, a civic organization in that community. The town's streets are all named, and for some time, it was felt that the police and fire departments would be better at locating people and properties in the community if they were numbered. It may be the forerunner to a plan to have mail delivered to the residents of the town, but nothing was discussed in this. Currently all residents have post office boxes. The central sewer plan for the town was put into effect on Monday. The construction firm that has been hired to hook up the sewer system began laying pipe east of the town on Route 12 going toward Frederica. According to Mayor Myers "...they are bringing in more men and hope to have a force of about 60 at peak." The mayor suggested that all worthy complaints should be forwarded to the County Engineer's office to the attention of Henry

Library Friends Elect Officers

As the group marked the beginning of its second year of operation the Friends of the Harrington Public Library elected a new slate of officers for the coming year. At a combined covered-dish dinner and annual meeting last Tuesday, April 28, the following Friends were chosen to serve:

President - Jo Anne Clough, Vice President - Gene Price, Treasurer - Jennie Chasnov, Secretary - Chris Hayward and Membership Chairman Bernadine Butler.

During the evening, the Library Friends made a special presentation of $300 to the Harrington Public Library. The money is earmarked for the purchase of children's books.

An active group approximately 150 members, the Friends organization had a busy first year, sponsoring activities in connection with Heritage Day, sponsoring a second Wine and Cheese party, conducting used book sales and putting on a pre-Christmas book bazaar. The Friends also helped conduct an opinion survey on the question of the library's future. Funds raised by the various activities have gone or will go to support the community library.

New President Jo Anne Clough announced there will be a special meeting next Monday night at 7:00 p.m. at the library to consider participation in Heritage Day III, planned by the Greater Harrington Historical Society for September 12.

Get Together and Talk With Our Neighbors

Senior Center

By Dorothy Graham 398-3780

Smile my dear, no matter, what the problem it could be worse!

Reverend Markley of Trinity Methodist Church Harrington was leader of Bible Study Monday Morning at the Center. Singing opened the devotional hour. Sylvia Meredith was at the piano and all voices raised in unison to the lovely hymns.

His topic, Matthew Chapter 26, Verse 1-thru 5., Matthew 26, Verse 8-14-57. John Chapter, 18, Verse 14. Clare Judy read an article of "Prophecy" of great interest by Edgar C. James. Sylvia and Marion read passages from the Bible. Present at the hour was Essie Redden, Mamie Adams, Anna Mae Short, Clare, Judy, Florence Minner, Elwood Morris, Mildred Vincent, Annabel Morrow, Marion Brown, Etzel McCready, John McCready, Cleora Gertrude Morgan, Vincent, Elizabeth Anthony, Francis WRight and Mable Perry. Cermaics were at a lull for a few days but have some new things now. Crocheting and knitting with Gertrude Morgan. Pool Table in full swing!

Tuesday, Ina kept the Jolly

Timers going for an hour. John McCready was recording the session. It was certainly a good one! One member was heard to say, "I believe we sound better on the recording than in life. Julia sang a couple of solos. Present at the band practice was Andy Anderson, Sylvia & Cecil Meredith, Florence Miner, Betha Dean, Ella Golt, Mamie Adams, Mildred Vincent, Ola Tilden. Essie Redden, Jo Burke, Annabel Morrow, Elwood Morris, Marion Brown and John McCready.

Tuesday afternoon Mamie Adams was having a hymn sing in the parlor. What I mean dear is, Mamie was at the piano and several were singing lots of their favorite hymns. While in the craft room, John McCready was playing a tape of hymns of Tennessee Ernie Ford. Everyone was bury and happy!! Wednesday was card day, and we played at Virginia Willey's. A soft breeze drifted across the dining room table. Everything was delightful. The refreshments tasty. Frozen fruit salad on lettuce, homemade cheese wheels, hot tid bits with bacon, coffee, ice tea and luscious Present, chocolate candy. Virginia Willey, Hazel Langrell, Mildred Wagner, Ruth Powell, Nellie Stokes, Ethel Holden, Kathryn Smith and Dorothy Graham.

Back at the Center, things were recovery. busy too. Their dessert was delicious too and also a favorite of mine, Corn bread.

Bowling at Milford Lanes. Marion Brown was high scorer for and sons, Steve and Ricky and his Harrington.

Etzel are helping make another and friend, Susan Welch and Mr. platted rug.

Bingo Friday with Elizabeth Anthony calling. Refreshments were on the counter. It is so nice Birthday to the Anthony's. being at the Center. Try it. You will like the Center. I am sure!

Thank ALL volunteers for everything. Best wishes to everyone. Be kind to each other.

I ask for a saying to end this letter to you and some one said "She'll be comin round the mountain!" So be it, honey, stop by! Faith. Have you inquired of the trips from the Center?

Another cookie recipe I have been making for years is this one for Oatmeal Cookies. They can easily replace a meal, they are so rich. My family loves them right from the oven when they are hot and soft. They do crisp up after cooling, but in either case, they never stay around very long. It is best to cool them on a rack so they do not stick together. I will admit they are a bit expensive to make but the supreme quality justifies

OATMEAL COOKIES

3/4 cup butter, soft 1 cup brown sugar 1/2 cup granulated sugar 1 egg

1/4 cup water 1 teaspoon vanilla 1 cup sifted all purpose flour 1 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon soda

3 cups uncooked oatmeal (not instant)

16 oz. package chocolate chips 1 cup chopped walnuts

1 cup raisins 1. Place butter, sugar, egg, water, and vanilla in a mixing bowl and mix well. 2. Sift flour, salt, and soda and add to butter mixture and mix all together well. 3. Blend in oats, chocolate chips, nuts, and raisin. 4. Shape dough into balls about one inch in diameter, place on lightly greased cookie sheet about two inches apart and press down with a fork.

5. Bake in preheated oven at 350 degrees F, 12-15 minutes. Yields about five dozen delicious nutritious cookies. ENJOY!

Mrs. Helen Wilson and Mrs. Helen Workman recently took flowers to Barrett's Chapel and had dinner in Dover.

On this last Sunday Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Workman motored to Salisbury together. Mr. Arthur Laughery is a patient in Wilmington Medical Center and is reported slightly improved at this writing.

"Pat" Hatfield had returned from the hospital and is recuperating at the home of her daughter, Ellen Bollinger. She can be reached at 337-8303.

On Saturday evening, members of the Lions Club and the Lioness Club motored to the Candlelight Dinner Theatre at Arden to see "Carousel". Miss Hilary Keith was the guest of her grandfather, Lion "Jake" Hatfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hashman were Easter weekend guests of her brother and family in Wilmington.

Greenwood United The Methodist Charge had as their guests the past weekend, the Rev. Kemp Edwards and son, Bryan. Lori Ellingsworth.

They presented a program at the covered dish supper on Saturday evening held in the Greenwood church. In Sunday School on Sunday morning they again presented slides and the Rev. Edwards brought the message at the Sunday worship service.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lofland and Derek and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Root recently spent the weekend in Lancaster, Pa. They visited the Bird-In-Hand farmers market, Hershey Farm, Carters outlet, and the Kitchen Kettle, and dined at Good 'n Plenty and Willow Valley Farms.

On Saturday, April 4, Derek Lofland celebrated his third birthday with a party at McDonalds in Seaford. Attending the party were Breck, Danna, and Christy Vanderwende, Brian and Brent Henry, and Pete Ratzlaff and Mikey Breeding. They all enjoyed the cake and the ice cream and games. Also visiting Derek on Friday, April 3, were Allison Tatman and

For Mother's Day

Make It Crepes

Mother's Day dates back to the ancient Greeks and Romans, but the same idea sprang up in many lands. The English set aside the fourth Sunday in Lent to celebrate Mothering Sunday, and in Yugoslavia a similar event was held shortly before Christmas. On this day, mothers were remembered with visits from children and small gifts.

It was not until the Civil War that an effort to set aside a day to honor mothers was begun in this country. Julia Ward Howe, a social reformer, campaigned to have July 4th renamed as Mother's Day to promote peace. At the same time, Anna Reeves Jarvis of Grafton, West Virginia organized "Mother's Friendship Day" to reunite families that had been divided during the War between the States.

On May 10, 1908, the second Sunday in May, church services honoring mothers were held in Philadelphia and Grafton, West Virginia. The daughter of Anna Reeves Jarvis wrote letters to churches, businesses and members of Congress to promote the idea of a Mother's Day observance. By 1911, Mother's Day services were held in every state. Three years later, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the second Sunday in May "as a public expression of our love and reverence for the mothers of our country.' Carnations, Jarvis' favorite flower, are customarily worn to honor mothers. President William McKinley began the tradition of wearing a white carnation, his mother's favorite, in remembrance of mothers. Pink or red carnations are worn by those whose mothers are living Traditionally, mothers receive gifts as an expression of love. These can be as simple as breakfast in bed, spending time together as a family, or help with a chore. Gifts of time and energy may be worth more to her than the most expensive present.

For those of you wanting to make breakfast for mother, try this recipe for crepes from Delaware extension home economist Deborah Amsden. Crepes are thin pancakes that can be filled with mom's favorite fruit for this

> CREPES (Makes 14-16 crepes)

3/4 c. flour 1/2 t. salt

1 tsp. baking powder 2 Tbsp. powdered sugar 2 eggs, beaten

2/3 c. milk 1/3 c. water

1/2 tsp. vanilla Preheat skillet. Grease it with a little oil. Sift together the flour, salt, baking powder and sugar. Beat the eggs and combine with the milk, water and vanilla. Combine the liquid with the dry ingredients. Don't worry about the Place 2 Tbsp. filling in the center of the crepe and fold two opposite sides over the filling to form a rectangle. Start at a short end of the rectangle and roll the crepe.

Filling Suggestions: Fresh fruit, sliced; Canned fruit, cut; Scrambled eggs

Biden Report By Sen. Joseph Biden Jr.

The Coast Guard has not made a recommendation on where to relocate its research facility. The choice between Lewes, Delaware and Groton, Connecticut, will be made by U.S. Secretary of Transportation economy and make him economically independent of the Soviet Union. Drew Lewis.

objective criteria. I don't know of any other reason for delaying the site selection, but I do know, as with all construction projects, delays

Lewes, by any reasonable standard, is the best place available for the research facility and any delay in naming it ias the new site will simply waste tax dollars.

In a recent letter to Secretary Lewis, I pointed out the advantages of the Delaware location, its proximity to the University of Delaware's Delaware's College of Marine Studies and the clear benefit to both organizations of cooperating on research and development. The University of Delaware has one of the finest programs in the nation for marine studies research and education. Since the Coast Guard concentrates on applied marine sciences, the advantages of co-locating with the University are almost incalculable.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has approved funding to several Kent and Sussex County towns, primarily for improving water systems and rehabilitating housing.

The objective of the Community Development Block Grant Program which recently awarded over $1.5 million to local governments in southern Delaware is to develop viable communities by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and by expanding economic opportunities.

Dover will receive $250,000 for housing rehabilitation, as will Sussex County. An additional $163,000 will go to Delmar for rehabilitating housing. Laurel will use $400,000 for rehabilitating housing, improving streets, installing storm sewers and code enforcement. Water system improvements will be made by Frankford with a $135,000 award and by Milton with a $236,000 award.

It was an honor to participate in the dedication of the new Bowers Beach fire hall-an event that was truly a celebrtion of the strong sense of community responsibility of the residents of Bowers Beach.

When fire destroyed the fire hall just over two years ago, it destroyed not only the volunteer fire station but also a center of the community's social life. But, with the assistance of neighboring companies, the community continued to have fire protection. And, after investigating possible federal assistance to provide a new fire station, the townspeople with some aid from the state pitched in and rebuilt it themselves. It's a practical, efficient and effective fire hall, but more than that, it's a product of Bower Beach's own labors-a symbol of pride and accomplishment.

I am confident that the Congress will ultimately pass the broad thrust of President Reagan's comprehensive economic package. For too long, the bloated federal bureaucracy has been allowed to recklessly spend the taxpayers' dollars and regulate every aspect of our daily lives. I believe the American people share the dedication of the Reagan Administration to a radical departure from the excesses of the past.

As I travelled around the Stte during the last several weeks, the overwhelming sentiment of Delawareans is that the policies of the past have not worked and that it is time for a change. The majority of the people I have spoken to in Delaware have told me that Congress has the responsibility to act quickly and decisively. During my meeting with the President at the White House last Tuesday, he re-emphasized that the comprehensive nature of his program for economic recovery is the key to its success.

President Reagan's comprehensive plan is designed to revitalize the American economy. The success of the program depends upon the adoption of the broad thrust of all four of its major components: slowing the growth of federal spending, reducing the tax burden, providing regulatory relief, and formulating a consistent monetary policy. Although a number of difficult and unpopular decisions are going to have to be made, President Reagan's overall economic plan has absolutely no chance of success without all four of its basic components. The economic recovery program is designed to release the strength of the private sector and limit the growth of the federal government. Its passage is also critically important to the credibility of our nation's foreign policy and our ability to pay for the desperately needed improvements in our national defense

The President has said that he does not want this plan to be just the plan of his Administration. He has asked the Members of Congress to make it their plan. And its success requires that all of us adopt it as ours. We will continue to fulfill obligations to those, who, through no fault of their own, must depend upon the rest of us. I intend to support legislative efforts which will meet our country's obligations to the elderly, the veterans, and the truly disadvantaged. Our economic problems are complex, and only if we act together can we take a major step forward in attaining President Reagan's vision for "A New

Jack Anderson Washington Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON-State Department analysts are frantically trying to verify startling reports that Cuba might become an oil-producing nation. Mexican technicians drilling off the coast of the island nation reportedly have discovered valuable new deposits of underwater

The U.S. embassy in Mexico City has informed the State Department: "There is speculation that Cuban oil strata are part of a major oil-bearing geological structure stretching from the Gulf of Mexico through the Caribbean to Venezuela."

The ramifications of such a discovery, of course, are enormous. If Fidel Castro hs his own petroleum, it could salvage his battered

That's why the American embassy in Mexico City is trying Apparently, the decision will be based more on politics than on desperately to confirm the reports of an oil strike off Cuba. The U.S. diplomats cabled Washington that the Mexicans claim to have "succeeded in finding commercial deposits of crude oil in offshore waters 20 kilometers north of (Havana's) beaches.'

The embassy also relayed unconfirmed reports that Mexican technicians capped the oil deposit after drilling down 3,000 meters. These same accounts say that efforts to determine how much oil is there have so far been unsuccessful.

So far, State Department experts remain skeptical. One source in Foggy Bottom said they "have no evidence that there have been drilling rigs 20 kilometers north of Havana. They have not undertaken any new seismic studies that we are aware of. It's just based on an optimistic new reading of old studies."

If the reports of Cuban oil prove to be correct, however, the find could have important effects on the balance of power in Latin America. Castro is currently accepting almost $10 million a day from the Kremlin, but he still resents being called a Soviet stooge.

Most of Castro's oil also comes from the Soviet Union. Last year, we are told, the Russians sent Cuba less oil than Castro had asked for. As a result, Cub's industrial growth was seriously affected. That is one of the reasons Castro entered into an oil exploration deal with the

The actual discovery of oil in Cuban waters-if true-would not give Fidel Castro immediate economic benefits. But in the long run, it would enable him to achieve a degree of independence from the Kremlin that he hasn't had since the early days of his 1959 revolution.

SALT OR NO SALT?-Should the United States sit down with the Russians for another round of arms control talks? This is the subject of a heated, behind-the-scenes debate in intelligence circles.

A top-secret Central Intelligence Agency analysis spells out what is at stake in the decision. The report offers these possibilities:

The most optimistic of the CIA's predictions is that the Soviets will stick to the SALT II restraints on nuclear missiles. If they do, perhaps only 4,116 warheads would be added to the Soviet missile arsenal.

The second possibility also assumes that the Russians will stick to the SALT II restrictions. But the Soviets could replace two of their existing missile systems with a new one that would put 10 nuclear warheads on a single missile. This would mean a maximum of 6,456

The trouble is, of course, that SALT II has never been ratified by Congress. The treaty, therefore, is dead. And that leads to the CIA's third possibility: It may soon be a "SALT-free world."

This would be a bleak prospect. The Soviets might decide to ignore all limitations. By 1989, estimates the CIA, they could produce an additional 23,106 warheads.

Suffice it to say there would be no place to hide. WATCH ON WASTE-Every day, diners at the posh House of Representatives dining room can order from a freshly printed menu which features the daily specials. Few of Washington's most expensive restaurants go to the expense of printing daily menus. But the Capitol dining room-which features taxpayer-subsidized meals-spent more than $100,000 for menus last year.

-In the final days of President Carter's rule, 132 top executives at the Department of Education quietly gave themselves more than $126,000 in bonuses for superior job performance. The cash is actually supposed to go to devoted bureaucrats.

HEADLINES AND FOOTNOTES-Top White House aides say that Secretary of State Alexander Haig has not been forgiven for his "I'min-control" outburst the day the president was shot. Our sources say President Reagan plans to call Haig in for a heart-to-heart talk as soon as he's feeling up to it... The president has chosen a lumberjack to guard the public forests. The new assistant secretary of agriculture who will watch over the national forests is John Crowell, former top official of Louisiana Pacific-the nation's largest purchaser of public timber..White House budget experts estimate that federal bureaucrats took 16 million trips on official business in 1979. These travels cost the Treasury nearly $3 billion.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

The Harrington Ministerial Association of which I am secretary has adopted several resolutions on May 4 concerning the Harrington Day Care Center. This action was taken after visiting the facility on April 27.

1. Be it resolved that the Harrington Day Care Center has become an integral part of the social processes of the area and has served the interests of parents & children from the economic spectrum. As such, we should make an effort to continue it as a viable social agency of our

In 1980, Jim Blades' Lake Forest Spartans defeated Woodbridge's Blue Raiders for the track championship of the Southern Division of the Henlopen Conference.

21 of those Spartans graduated, others chose not to run track in 1981. Meanwhile, Woodbridge had most everyone back and are undefeated, fielding one of the most powerful track teams in Delaware scholastic history

In this years confrontation, also for the championship, Lake Forest performed well, but were beaten 96-45. The Spartans won six events and have nothing to be ashamed of.

Jay Howevin and James Lofland performed admirably in the long distance runs, finishing 1-2. in the 1500 and 3000 meter runs. Howerin's 4.18 and Lofland's 4.19, qualify both Spartans for the state meet.

Cycle Race Ticket Sale

HARRINGTON, De .-- Tickets are now on sale for the June 6, Pabst AMA Classic national motorcycle race at Harrington, Delaware. More than five thousand fans attended last year's half-mile dirt track race at Harrington, which was won by Steve Morehead of Findlay, Ohio.

Harrington's event will carry a purse of $22,000 and is part of the rich 26-race Winston Pro Series. The series is unique in that it offers five different types of racing. Competitors run on both long and short oval dirt tracks, twisting concrete and dirt road courses and even tracks which feature steeplechase-style jumps.

Naturally, the most versatile riders are the most successful ones. Last year's Pro Series points champion was Randy Goss, who has already submitted his entry for the Harrington event. Three-time national champion Jay Springsteen and defending winner Morehead are also expected to be there for the June 6 event.

Tickets for the Harrington race, which is being sponsored by Winston, the Wilson Beverage Company of Delaware and Pabst Brewing Company, are expected to sell quickly. Ticket prices and ordering information can be obtained by sending a stamped, selfaddressed envelope to: Motorcycle, the Delaware State Fair, Box 28, Harrington, Delaware 19952. Credit card customers may call (302) 398-3269.
